FROM: Human Services - Youth Services and Special Projects

#13 FUNDING DESCRIPTION: The funding is formula based to Native American Tribes, Alaskan Villages, and Tribal organizations for family violence prevention and services, including shelter operations. The minimum amount is approximately $350,000. Cherokee Nation has received this grant for approximately 23 years. A factor in the funding amount is also based on how many Tribes receive funding. The FY 13 amount was approximately 1.6 million. A Resolution is mandatory, however, the previous year's resolution is acceptable pending passage.

#17 SUBRECIPIENTS: Due to the absence of a tribally operated women's shelter, Memorandum of Agreements are coordinated with 6 domestic violence agencies in the Cherokee Nation area to further address the objectives of safety and protection. Those agencies are: Tahlequah Help In Crisis; Muskogee Women in Safe Home; Claremore Safenet Services; Miami Community Crisis Center; Bartlesville Family Crisis and Counseling Center; and Tulsa Domestic Violence Intervention Services.

#23 and #24 PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: The grant/project will serve as a continuation to maintain and expand program services in the 14 counties to prevent family violence, domestic violence and dating violence. The services shall include access for emergency shelter care and related assistance such as crisis intervention, court advocacy, anti-violence awareness, transportation, parenting education and counseling services to children, youth and their families as victims of family violence.

- In FY 13, a total of 157 youth were admitted for Shelter care, 28% of prime reasons were related to Home/Family conflicts including domestic violence and correlated with 38% for Runaway behavior; and 50% related to Homelessness factors. 46% of the shelter census was Native American with 75% as Cherokee citizens. Outcome: 95% of all follow-ups indicated a positive return to a home or safe placement. In addition to the above 157, seventy-nine (79) youth were served for outreach or non-residential services, with the majority as Cherokee citizens. Furthermore, 354 hours of Community Service were delivered by youth.
- In FY 13, The Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare reported 325 women, men and children served (unduplicated cases). The services entailed investigations, case monitoring, placement and information and referral services. Furthermore, several court appearances attest to the advocacy efforts in addressing the prevailing issues of family violence, which included 1,311 contacts with children and 1,555 with adults.
- A minimum of 1,440 women & children (unduplicated cases) were served in FY 13 through the 6 domestic violence agencies shelters, & 11,601 for non-shelter direct services throughout the CN 14 county area. Approximately 2,589 Native Americans were provided with shelter and non-shelter. The Cherokee citizens represented 71% of the Native Americans served.
