Legislative Act 12-18

AN ACT AMENDING TITLE 21 AND TITLE 22 OF THE CHEROKEE CODE ANNOTATED RELATING TO THE SAFETY FOR NATIVE AMERICAN WOMEN AND CREATING SPECIAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CRIMINAL JURISDICTION OVER NON-INDIAN DEFENDANTS

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CHEROKEE NATION:

Section 1. Title and Codification

This act shall be known as the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) of 2018 and codified as _____ (Title) _____ (Section) _____ of the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated.

Section 2. Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to recognize domestic violence as serious crime against society and the Cherokee Nation and to provide victims of domestic violence the maximum protection from further violence. It is the intent of the Council of the Cherokee Nation that the official response to domestic violence shall be that the Nation will not tolerate or excuse violent behavior under any circumstances. All people, whether they are elders, male, female, or children of our Nation and communities are to be cherished and treated with respect. Domestic violence is not acceptable and is contrary to traditional Cherokee culture and values honoring the family and is contrary to the interest of our Nation and sense of well-being. Domestic violence will not be tolerated.

The Tribal Council recognizes that according to a recent United States Department of Justice study, that more than half (55%) of Native women have experienced physical violence by an intimate partner in their lifetimes and 90% of these victims report being victimized by a non-Indian perpetrator. Overall, Native women are five times as likely as non-Hispanic white women to have experienced physical violence by an inter-racial intimate partner. In Oklahoma, according to statistics from the U.S. Census Bureau, the average percentage of non-Indians living within the jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation is approximately 82%.

A community response to domestic violence is necessary because domestic violence crimes impact the community as a whole. These crimes redirect tribal resources – whether personnel, financial, public safety or other resources – elsewhere and require an immediate response. As a result of this impact on the Nation’s resources, the Tribal Council deems it necessary to address domestic violence and family violence to the fullest extent permitted by existing law or as may be adopted or amended in the future.

This Act the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated to conform to the requirements of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) of 2013 as authorized by Congress and codified at 25 U.S.C. 1304. This act authorizes special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction over non-Indians who commit domestic violence, dating violence, or a violation of a protection order. This act shall amend portions of Titles 21 and 22 of the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated.

Section 3. Legislative History

Title 21 Chapter 46 Domestic Abuse
Title 22 Criminal Procedure §40.1-§40.5
Title 22 Criminal Procedure §60.1 -§60.7

Section 4. Definitions

For purposes of this Title:

Section 5.

Title 21 §1130, shall be amended as follows:

§ 1130. Domestic ~~abuse~~ violence assault and battery—Definition

Any person who commits any assault and battery against a current or former spouse, a present spouse of a former spouse, parents, a foster parent, a child, a person otherwise related by blood or marriage, a person with whom the defendant is or who has been in a dating relationship, an individual with whom the defendant has had a child, a person who formerly lived in the same household as the defendant, or a person living in the same household as the defendant shall be guilty of the crime of domestic ~~abuse~~ violence assault and battery.

Title 21 § 1131, shall be amended as follows:

§ 1131. Domestic ~~abuse~~ violence assault and battery—Punishment

A. Domestic ~~abuse~~ violence assault and battery shall be punishable by imprisonment in a penal institution not exceeding one (1) year, or by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or both, at the discretion of the Court.

B. Any person convicted of domestic ~~abuse~~ violence as defined in this provision, that was committed in the presence of a child shall be punished by imprisonment in a penal institution not less than six (6) months nor more than one (1) year, or by a fine not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

C. Any person who is convicted of a second or subsequent domestic violence assault and battery offense shall be punished by imprisonment in a penal institution not exceeding three (3) years, or by fine of not more than ~~Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00)~~ Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), or both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court.

D. For every conviction of domestic ~~abuse~~violence, the Court shall:

1. specifically order as a condition of a deferred or suspended sentence or probation that a defendant participate in batterer's treatment; or

2. require the defendant to participate in counseling or undergo treatment for domestic abuse by an individual licensed practitioner or a domestic abuse-counseling program approved by the Court. If the defendant is ordered to participate in a domestic abuse counseling or treatment program, the order shall require the defendant to attend and complete the program and be evaluated before and after attendance of the program by a program counselor or a private counselor.

E. A program for anger management, couples counseling, or family and marital counseling shall not solely qualify for the counseling or treatment requirement for domestic abuse pursuant to this section. The counseling may be ordered in addition to counseling specifically for the treatment of domestic abuse or per evaluation as set forth below. If, after sufficient evaluation and attendance at required counseling sessions, the domestic violence treatment program or licensed professional determines that the defendant (whether or not defendant evaluates as a perpetrator of domestic violence) should complete other programs of treatment simultaneously or prior to domestic violence treatment, including but not limited to programs related to the mental health, apparent substance or alcohol abuse or inability or refusal to manage anger, the defendant shall be ordered to complete the counseling as per the recommendations of the domestic violence treatment program or licensed professional.

F. The victim may attend but is not required to do so.

The Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the defendant during the course of ordered counseling through the final review hearing.

H. The Court may set interim review, follow-up post-completion review, or other review hearings as the Court determines necessary to assure the defendant attends and fully complies with the provisions of this section and the domestic abuse counseling or treatment requirements. After the initial review hearing referenced in subsection (F), the Court may waive Defendant's appearance at reviews or compel Defendant's attendance at reviews. The Court may review progress reports on the defendant from individual counseling, domestic abuse counseling, or the treatment program without appearances.

I. At any review hearing, if the defendant is not satisfactorily attending individual counseling or a domestic abuse counseling or treatment program or is not in compliance with any domestic abuse counseling or treatment requirements, or is not making progress in treatment, the Court may:

1. order the defendant to further or continue counseling, treatment, or other necessary services; and
2. revoke all or any part of a suspended sentence, deferred sentence, or probation; and
3. subject the defendant to any or all remaining portions of the original sentence.

J. Nothing in this provision shall prohibit the Presiding Judge of the District Court from appointing and compensating a Special Master to hear all or designated cases set for review under this section.

K. The defendant may be required to pay all or part of the cost of the counseling or treatment, in the discretion of the Court.

L. Penalty enhancement—For the purposes of this section, any former conviction in any jurisdiction for assault and battery against any current or former spouse, any present spouse of a former spouse, parents, any foster parent, any child, any person otherwise related by blood or marriage, any person with whom the defendant is in a dating relationship, any individual with whom the defendant has had a child, any person who formerly lived in the same household as the defendant, or any person living in the same household as the defendant, shall constitute a sufficient basis for an enhanced penalty under subsection (C) of this section as a second or subsequent offense.
