the finder of fact in the proceeding. Only those persons permitted to be present at the taking of testimony under subsection (B) of this section may be present during the taking of the child's testimony, and the persons operating the equipment shall be confined from the child's sight and hearing as provided in subsection (B) of this section. Only the attorneys may question the child. The Court shall permit the defendant to observe and hear the testimony of the child in person, but shall ensure that the child cannot hear or see the defendant. The Court shall also ensure that:

1. The recording is both visual and aural and is recorded on film or videotape or by other electronic means;
2. The recording equipment is capable of making an accurate recording, the operator of the equipment is competent and the recording is accurate and has not been altered;
3. Every voice on the recording is identified; and
4. Each party to the proceeding is afforded an opportunity to view the recording before it is shown in the courtroom, and a copy of a written transcript transcribed by a Licensed or Certified Court Reporter is provided to the parties.

D. If the Court orders the testimony of a child to be taken under subsections (B) or (C) of this section, the child shall not be required to testify in Court at the proceeding for which the testimony was taken.

DEPOSITIONS

§ 761. Examination of witnesses conditionally for defendant

When a defendant has been held to answer a charge for a public offense, he may either before or after information, have witnesses examined conditionally on his behalf as prescribed in this chapter, and not otherwise.

§ 762. Conditional examinations in certain cases

When a material witness in any criminal case is about to leave the state, or is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable grounds for apprehending that he will be unable to attend the trial, the defendant or Cherokee Nation may apply for an order that the witness be examined conditionally.

§ 763. Affidavit on application for conditional examination

The application must be made upon affidavit stating:

First. The nature of the offense charged;

Second. The state of the proceedings in the action;

Third. The name and residence of the witness, and that his testimony is material to the defense of the action;

Fourth. That the witness is about to leave the state, or is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable grounds for apprehending that he will not be able to attend the trial.

§ 764. Application made to Court or Judge—Notice

The application may be made to the Court or to a Judge thereof, and must be made upon five (5) days' notice to the Prosecuting Attorney.

§ 765. Order for examination

If the Court or Judge is satisfied that the examination of the witness is necessary an order must be made that the witness be examined conditionally at a specified time and place, and that a copy of the order be served on the Prosecuting Attorney within a specified time before that fixed for the examination.

§ 766. Examination before Magistrate

The order must direct that the examination be taken before a Magistrate named therein; and on proof being furnished to such Magistrate, of service upon the prosecuting attorney of a copy of the order, if no counsel appear on the part of the people, examination must proceed.

§ 767. When examination shall not proceed

If the Prosecuting Attorney or other counsel appear on behalf of the people, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate by affidavit or other proof, or on examination of the witness, that he is not about to leave the state, or is not sick or infirm, or that the application was made to avoid the examination of the witness on trial, the examination cannot take place; otherwise, it must proceed.

§ 768. Attendance of witness enforced, how

The attendance of the witness may be enforced by subpoena issued by the Magistrate before whom the examination is to be taken, or from the Court where the trial is to be had.

§ 769. Taking and authentication of testimony

The testimony given by the witness must be reduced to writing. The Magistrate before whom the examination is had may, in his discretion, order the testimony and proceedings to be taken down in shorthand, and for that purpose he may appoint a shorthand reporter. The deposition or testimony of the witness must be authenticated in the following form:

1. It must state the name of the witness, his place of residence and his business or profession.

2. It must contain the questions put to the witness and his answers thereto, each answer being distinctly read to him as it is taken down, and being corrected or added to until it conforms to what he declares is the truth; except in cases where the testimony is taken down in shorthand, the answer or answers of the witness need not be read to him.
3. If the witness declines answering a question, that fact with the ground on which the answer was declined must be stated.
4. The deposition must be signed by the witness, or if he refuse to sign it, his reason for refusing must be stated in writing as he gives it; except in cases where the deposition is taken down in shorthand, it must not be signed by the witness.
5. It must be signed and certified by the Magistrate when reduced to writing by him or under his direction; and when taken down in shorthand, the manuscript of the reporter, appointed as aforesaid, when written out in longhand writing, and certified as being a correct statement of such testimony and proceedings in the case, shall be prima facie a correct statement of such testimony and proceedings. The reporter shall within five (5) days after the close of such examination transcribe into longhand writing his said shorthand notes, and certify and deliver the same to the Magistrate, who shall also certify the same and transmit such testimony and proceedings, carefully sealed up, to the Clerk of the Court in which the action is pending or may come for trial.

§ 770. Deposition read in evidence, when—Objections to questions therein

The deposition or certified copy thereof may be read in evidence by either party on the trial upon its appearing that the witness is unable to attend by reason of his death, insanity, sickness, or infirmity, or of his continued absence from the Nation. Upon reading the depositions in evidence, the same objections may be taken to a question or answer contained therein as if the witness had been examined orally in Court.

§ 771. Prisoner, deposition of—Oath

When a material witness for a defendant under a criminal charge is a prisoner in a state prison or in a county jail of a county other than that in which the defendant is to be tried, his deposition may be taken on behalf of the defendant in the manner provided for in the case of a witness who is sick; and the foregoing provisions of this chapter, so far as they are applicable, govern in the application for, and in the taking and use of such depositions, such deposition may be taken before any Magistrate or notary public of the Nation; or in case the witness is confined in a penal institution, and the defendant is unable to pay for taking the deposition, before the warden or clerk of the board of control of the penal institution, whose duty it shall be to act without compensation. Every officer before whom testimony shall be taken by virtue hereof, shall have authority to administer, and shall administer an oath to the witness, that his testimony shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

CHAPTER 11

DISMISSAL OF PROSECUTION

§ 811. Discharge when no indictment found

When a person has been held to answer for a public offense, if an information is not filed against him at the next term of court at which he is held to answer, the Court must order the prosecution to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

§ 812. Next term, dismissal when not brought to trial at

If a defendant, prosecuted for a public offense, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, is not brought to trial at the next term of court in which the information is triable after it is filed, the Court must order the prosecution to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

§ 813. Continuance when—Release of defendant

If the defendant is not prosecuted or tried, as provided in the last two sections, and sufficient reason therefor is shown, the Court may order the action to be continued from term to term, and in the meantime may discharge the defendant from custody, on his own undertaking or on the undertaking of bail for his appearance to answer the charge at the time to which the action is continued.

If the Court direct the action to be dismissed, the defendant must, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or if admitted to bail, his bail is exonerated, or money deposited instead of bail must be refunded to him.

§ 815. Dismissal by Court or on Prosecuting Attorney's application

The Court may either of its own motion or upon the application of the Prosecuting Attorney, and the furtherance of justice, order an action or to be dismissed; but in that case the reasons of the dismissal must be set forth in the order, which must be entered upon the minutes.

§ 816. Nolle prosequi abolished

The entry of a nolle prosequi is abolished, and the Prosecuting Attorney cannot discontinue or abandon a prosecution for a public offense, except as provided in the last section.

§ 817. Dismissal not to bar to another prosecution

An order for the dismissal of the action, as provided in this chapter, is not a bar to any other prosecution for the same offense.

TRIAL

§ 831. Order of trial proceedings

The jury having been impaneled and sworn, the trial must proceed in the following order:

1. If the information is for a crime, the Clerk or Prosecuting Attorney must read it, and state the plea of the defendant to the jury.
2. The Prosecuting Attorney, or other Counsel for the Nation, must open the case and offer the evidence in support of the information.
3. The defendant or his counsel may then open his defense, and offer his evidence in support thereof.
4. The parties may then, respectively, offer rebutting testimony only, unless the Court for good reason, in furtherance of justice, or to correct an evident oversight, permit them to offer evidence upon their original case.
5. When the evidence is concluded, the attorneys for the prosecution may submit to the Court written instructions. If the questions of law involved in the instructions are to be argued, the Court shall direct the jury to withdraw during the argument, and after the argument, must settle the instructions, and may give or refuse any instructions asked, or may modify the same as he deems the law to be. Instructions refused shall be marked in writing by the Judge, if modified, modification shall be shown in the instruction. When the instructions are thus settled, the jury, if sent out, shall be recalled and the Court shall thereupon read the instructions to the jury.
6. Thereupon, unless the case is submitted to the jury without argument, the Counsel for the Nation shall commence, and the defendant or his counsel shall follow, then the Counsel for the Nation shall conclude the argument to the jury. During the argument the attorneys shall be permitted to read and comment upon the instructions as applied to the evidence given, but shall not argue to the jury the correctness or incorrectness of the propositions of law therein contained. The Court may permit one or more counsel to address the jury on the same side, and may arrange the order in which they shall speak, but shall not without the consent of the attorneys limit the time of their arguments. When the arguments are concluded, if the Court be of the opinion that the jury might be misled by the arguments of counsel, he may to prevent the same further instruct the jury. All instructions given shall be in writing unless waived by both parties, and shall be filed and become a part of the record in the case.

§ 832. Court to decide the law

The Court must decide all questions of law which arise in the course of the trial.

§ 834. Jury limited to questions of fact

On the trial of an information, questions of law are to be decided by the Court, and the questions of fact are to be decided by the jury; and, although the jury has the power to find a general verdict, which includes questions of law as well as of fact, they are bound, nevertheless, to receive the law which is laid down as such by the Court.

A defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until the contrary is proved, and in case of a reasonable doubt as to whether his guilt is satisfactorily shown, he is entitled to be acquitted.

§ 837. Doubt as to degree of guilt

When it appears that a defendant has committed a public offense and there is reasonable ground of doubt in which of two or more degrees he is guilty, he can be convicted of the lowest of such degree only.

§ 839. Discharge of defendant that he may testify for Nation

When two or more persons are included in the same information, the Court may, at any time before the defendants have gone into their defense, on the application of the Prosecuting Attorney, direct any defendant to be discharged from the information, that he may be compelled to be a witness for the Nation.

§ 840. Discharge of defendant that he may testify for codefendant

When two or more persons are included in the same information, and the Court is of the opinion that in regard to a particular defendant there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, it must, before the evidence is closed, in order that he may be compelled to be a witness for his codefendant, submit its opinion to the jury, who, if they so find, may acquit the particular defendant for the purpose aforesaid.

§ 841. Higher offense than charged, existence of—Jury discharged

If it appear by the testimony that the facts proved constitute an offense of a higher nature than that charged in the information, the Court may direct the jury to be discharged, and all proceedings on the information to be suspended, and may order the defendant to be committed or continued on, or admitted to bail, to answer any new information which may be filed against him for the higher offense.

§ 842. Discharge of jury not a former acquittal

If an information for the higher offense is filed within a year next thereafter, he must be tried thereon, and a plea of former acquittal to such last prosecution is not sustained by the fact of the discharge of the jury on the first information.

§ 843. Trial on original indictment, when

If a new information is not filed for a higher offense within a year, as aforesaid, the Court shall again proceed to try the defendant on the original information.

§ 844. Jury may be discharged, when

The Court may direct the jury to be discharged where it appears that it has not jurisdiction of the offense, or that the facts as charged in the information do not constitute an offense punishable by law.

§ 845. Disposition of prisoner on discharge of jury

If the jury is discharged because the Court has not jurisdiction of the offense charged in the information, and it appears that it was committed out of the jurisdiction of this Nation, the Court may order the defendant to be discharged, or to be detained for a reasonable time specified in the order, until a communication can be sent by the Prosecuting Attorney to the chief executive officer of the state, territory or district where the offense was committed.

§ 849. Duty of Court where no offense charged

If the jury be discharged because the facts as charged do not constitute an offense punishable by law, the Court must order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or, if admitted to bail, that the bail be exonerated, or if he have deposited money instead of bail, that the money deposited be refunded to him, unless in its opinion a new information can be framed, upon which the defendant can be legally convicted, in which case a new information filed.

§ 850. Court may advise jury to acquit

If, at any time after the evidence on either side is closed, the Court deem it insufficient to warrant a conviction, it may advise the jury to acquit the defendant. But the jury is not bound by the advice, nor can the Court, for any cause, prevent the jury from giving a verdict.

§ 851. Jury may view place—Custody of sworn officer

When, in the opinion of the Court, it is proper that the jury should view the place in which the offense was charged to have been committed, or in which any other material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of proper officers, to the place, which must be shown to them by a person appointed by the Court for that purpose, and the officers must be sworn to suffer no person to speak to or communicate with the jury, nor to do so themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, and to return them into court without unnecessary delay, or at a specified time.

§ 852. Juror must declare knowledge of case

If a juror have any personal knowledge respecting a fact in controversy in a cause he must declare it in open court during the trial. If, during the retirement of a jury, a juror declare a fact, which could be evidence in the cause, as of his own knowledge, the jury must return into court. In either of these cases, the juror making the statement must be sworn as a witness and examined in the presence of the parties.

§ 853. Custody and conduct of jury before submission—Separation—Sworn officer

The jurors sworn to try an information, may, at any time before the submission of the cause to the jury, in the discretion of the Court, be permitted to separate, or to be kept in charge of proper officers. The officers must be sworn to keep the jurors together until the next meeting of the court, to suffer no person to speak to or communicate with them, nor to do so themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, and to return them into court at the next meeting thereof. Such officer or officers having once been duly sworn, it is not necessary that they be resworn at each recess or adjournment. An admonition to the officer and the jury shall be sufficient.

§ 854. Court must admonish jury as to conduct

The jury must also, at each adjournment of the court, whether permitted to separate or kept in charge of officers, be admonished by the Court that it is their duty not to converse among themselves or with any one else on any subject connected with the trial, or to form or express any opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them.

§ 855. Sickness or death of juror—New juror sworn

If, before the conclusion of a trial, a juror becomes sick, so as to be unable to perform his duty, the Court may order him to be discharged. In that case or in the event of the death of a juror a new juror may be sworn, and the trial begin anew, or the jury may be discharged, and a new jury then or afterwards impaneled.

§ 856. Requisites of charge of Court—Presentation of written charge—Request to charge—Endorsement of disposition on charge presented—Partial refusal

In charging the jury, the Court must state to them all matters of law which it thinks necessary for their information in giving their verdict, and if it state the testimony of the case, it must in addition inform the jury that they are the exclusive judges of all questions of fact. Either party may present to the Court any written charge and request that it be given. If the Court thinks it correct and pertinent, it must be given; if not, it must be refused. Upon each charge presented and given or refused the Court must endorse or sign its decision. If part of any written charge be given and part refused the Court must distinguish, showing by the endorsement or answer what part of each charge was given and what part refused.

§ 857. Jury after the charge—Decision in court—Retirement for deliberation—Custody of officer—Conduct of jury—Return into court

After hearing the charge, the jury may either decide in court, or may retire for deliberation. If they do not agree without retiring, one or more officers must be sworn to keep them together in some private and convenient place, and not to permit any person to speak to or communicate with them, nor do so themselves, unless it be by order of the Court, or to ask them whether they have agreed upon a verdict, and to return them into court when they have so agreed, or when ordered by the Court.

When a defendant who has given bail appears for trial, the Court may, in its discretion, at any time after his appearance for trial order him to be committed to the custody of the proper officer of the county to abide the judgment or further order of the Court, and he must be committed and held in custody accordingly.

§ 859. Substitute for Prosecuting Attorney failing or unable to attend trial or disqualified

If the Prosecuting Attorney fails, or is unable to attend at the trial or is disqualified, the Court must appoint some attorney-at-law to perform the duties of the Prosecuting Attorney on such trial.

§ 861. Formal exceptions to rulings or orders unnecessary

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the Court in criminal proceedings shall not be necessary but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been necessary at the trial of a cause it shall be sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the Court has been made or sought, makes known to the Court the action which he desires the Court to take or his objection to the action of the Court with his general grounds therefor.

JURY—DELIBERATIONS AND CONDUCT

§ 891. Jury room—Expenses of providing

A room must be provided for the use of the jury, upon their retirement for deliberation, with suitable furniture, fuel, lights and stationery.

§ 893. Jury may have written instructions, forms of verdict and documents in jury room—Copies of public or private documents

On retiring for deliberation the jury may take with them the written instructions given by the Court, the forms of verdict approved by the Court, and all papers which have been received as evidence in the cause, except that they shall take copies of such parts of public records or private documents as ought not, in the opinion of the Court, to be taken from the person having them in possession.

§ 894. Jury brought into court for information—Presence of, or notice to, parties

After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony or if they desire to be informed on a point of law arising in the cause, they must require the officer to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court, the information required must be given in the presence of, or after notice to the Prosecuting Attorney and the defendant or his counsel, or after they have been called.

§ 895. Illness of juror after retirement—Accident or cause preventing keeping together—Discharge

If, after the retirement of the jury, one of them become so sick as to prevent the continuance of his duty, or any other accident or cause occur to prevent their being kept together for deliberation, the jury may be discharged.

§ 896. Discharge after agreement on verdict or showing of inability to agree

Except as provided in the last section, the jury cannot be discharged after the cause is submitted to them until they have agreed upon their verdict, and rendered it in open court, unless by the consent of both parties entered upon the minutes, or unless at the expiration of such time as the Court deems proper, it satisfactorily appear that there is no reasonable probability that the jury can agree.

§ 897. Retrial after discharge at same or other term

In all cases where a jury is discharged or prevented from giving a verdict, by reason of an accident or other cause, except where the defendant is discharged from the information during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term, as the Court may direct.

While the jury are absent the Court may adjourn from time to time as to other business, but it is nevertheless deemed open for any purpose connected with the cause submitted to them until verdict is rendered or the jury discharged. If the jury agree on a verdict during a temporary adjournment or recess of the court, they may, upon the direction of the Court, sign the verdict by their foreman, securely seal the same in an envelope, and deliver the same to the foreman, when they may separate until the next convening of the court, at which time they shall reassemble in the jury room and return their verdict in open court, when the same proceedings shall be had as in case of other verdicts. A final adjournment of the court for the term discharges the jury.

VERDICT

§ 911. Return of jury into court upon agreement—Discharge on failure of some jurors to appear

When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they may be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names must then be called, and if all do not appear, the rest must be discharged without giving a verdict. In that case the cause must be again tried, at the same or another term.

§ 912. Presence of defendant required in criminal cases when verdict received

If the information is for a crime, the defendant must, before the verdict is received, appear in person.

§ 913. Proceedings when jury appear

When the jury appear, they must be asked, by the Court or the Clerk, whether they have agreed upon their verdict, and if the foreman answers in the affirmative, they must, on being required, declare the same.

§ 914. Form of verdict

A general verdict upon a plea of not guilty, is either "guilty," or "not guilty," which imports a conviction or acquittal of the offense charged. Upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, it is either "for the Nation," or "for the defendant." When the defendant is acquitted on the ground that he was insane at the time of the commission of the act charged, the verdict must be "not guilty by reason of insanity." When the defendant is acquitted on the ground of variance between the charge and the proof, the verdict must be "not guilty by reason of variance between charge and proof."

§ 915. Degree of crime must be found

Whenever a crime is distinguished into degrees, the jury, if they convict the defendant, must find the degree of the crime of which he is guilty.

§ 916. Included offense or attempt may be found

The jury may find the defendant guilty of any offense, the commission of which is necessarily included in that with which he is charged, or of an attempt to commit the offense.

§ 917. Several defendants—Verdict as to part—Retrial as to defendants not agreed on

On an information against several, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment must be entered accordingly, and the case as to the rest may be tried by another jury.

§ 918. Jury may reconsider verdict of conviction for mistake of law—Return of same verdict

When there is a verdict of conviction in which it appears to the Court that the jury have mistaken the law, the Court may explain the reason for that opinion, and direct the jury to reconsider their verdict, and if, after their consideration, they return the same verdict, it must be entered. But when there is a verdict of acquittal, the Court cannot require the jury to reconsider it.

§ 919. Informal verdict to be reconsidered

If the jury render a verdict not in form, the Court may, with proper instructions as to the law, direct them to reconsider it, and it cannot be recorded until it be rendered in some form from which it can be clearly understood what is the intent of the jury.

§ 920. Judgment when jury persist in informal verdict

If the jury persist in finding an informal verdict, from which, however, it can be clearly understood that their intention is to find in favor of the defendant upon the issue, it must be entered in the terms in which it is found, and the Court must give judgment of acquittal. But no judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury expressly find against the defendant, upon the issue, or judgment be given against him on a special verdict.

§ 921. Polling jury

When a verdict is rendered, and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled on the requirement of either party, in which case they must be severally asked whether it is their verdict, and if any one answer in the negative, the jury must be sent out for further deliberation.

§ 922. Recording and reading verdict—Disagreement of jurors entered upon minutes—Discharge if no disagreement

When the verdict is given, and is such as the Court may receive, the Clerk must immediately record it in full upon the minutes, and the Judge or the Clerk must read it to the jury and inquire of them whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagree, the fact must be entered upon the minutes, and the jury again sent out; but if no disagreement is expressed, the verdict is complete, and the jury must be discharged from the case.

§ 923. Defendant discharged on acquittal—Variance resulting in acquittal may authorize new charges

If a judgment of acquittal is given on a general verdict, and the defendant is not detained for any other legal cause, he must be discharged as soon as judgment is given, except that when the acquittal is for a variance between the proof and the information which may be obviated by a new information the Court may order his detention to the end that a new information may be preferred in the same manner and with like effect as provided in cases where the jury is discharged.

§ 924. Commitment upon conviction

If a general verdict is rendered against the defendant he must be remanded if in custody, or if on bail he may be committed to the proper officer of the county to await the judgment of the Court upon the verdict. When committed his bail is exonerated, or if money is deposited instead of bail it must be refunded to the defendant.

§ 925. Claim of insanity—Duty of Court and jury—Commitment to institution

When it is contended on behalf of the defendant in any criminal prosecution that he is at the time of the trial a lunatic, an insane person, or a person of unsound mind, the Court shall submit to the jury a proper form of verdict, and if the jury finds the defendant not guilty on account of such lunacy, insanity or unsoundness of mind, they shall so state in their verdict, and the Court shall thereupon order the defendant committed to the hospital for the insane, or other institution provided for the care and treatment of cases such as the one before the Court, until the sanity and soundness of mind of the defendant be judicially determined, and he be discharged from said institution according to law.

§ 926. Punishment, jury may assess, when

In all cases of a verdict of conviction for any offense against any of the laws of Cherokee Nation, the jury may, and shall upon the request of the defendant assess and declare the punishment in their verdict within the limitations fixed by law, and the Court shall render a judgment according to such verdict, except as hereinafter provided.

§ 927. Punishment, Court to assess, when

Where the jury find a verdict of guilty, and fail to agree on the punishment to be inflicted, or do not declare such punishment by their verdict, the Court shall assess and declare the punishment and render the judgment accordingly.

§ 928. Excess punishment to be disregarded

If the jury assess a punishment, whether of imprisonment or fine, greater than the highest limit declared by law for the offense of which they convict the defendant, the Court shall disregard the excess and pronounce sentence and render judgment according to the highest limit prescribed by law in the particular case.

A. Upon any appeal of a conviction by the defendant, the appellate Court, if it finds prejudicial error in the sentencing proceeding only, may set aside the sentence rendered and remand the case to the trial Court in the jurisdiction in which the defendant was originally sentenced for resentencing. No error in the sentencing proceeding shall result in the reversal of the conviction in a criminal case unless the error directly affected the determination of guilt.

B. When a criminal case is remanded for vacation of a sentence, the Court may:

1. Set the case for a nonjury sentencing proceeding; or
2. If the defendant or the Prosecuting Attorney so requests in writing, impanel a new sentencing jury.

C. If a written request for a jury trial is filed within twenty (20) days of the date of the appellate court order, the trial Court shall impanel a new jury for the purpose of conducting a new sentencing proceeding.

1. All exhibits and a transcript of all testimony and other evidence properly admitted in the prior trial and sentencing shall be admissible in the new sentencing proceeding. Additional relevant evidence may be admitted including testimony of witnesses who testified at the previous trial.
2. The provisions of this section are procedural and shall apply retroactively to any defendant sentenced in this Nation.

D. This section shall not be construed to amend or be in conflict with the provisions of 22 CNCA § 926 and 22 CNCA § 927 relating to assessment of punishment in the original trial proceedings.

NEW TRIAL—ARREST OF JUDGMENT

§ 951. New trial defined—Proceedings on new trial—Former verdict no bar

A new trial is a reexamination of the issue in the same court, before another jury, after a verdict has been given. The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if no trial had been had. All the testimony must be produced anew except of witnesses who are absent from the nation or dead, in which event the evidence of such witnesses on the former trial may be presented; and the former verdict cannot be used or referred to either in evidence or in argument, or be pleaded in bar of any conviction which might have been had under the indictment or information.

§ 952. Grounds for new trial—Affidavits and testimony

A court in which a trial has been had upon an issue of fact has power to grant a new trial when a verdict has been rendered against a defendant by which his substantial rights have been prejudiced, upon his application in the following cases only:

First. When the trial has been in his absence, if the charge is for a crime;

Second. When the jury have received any evidence out of court, other than that resulting from a view of the premises;

Third. When the jury have separated without leave of the Court, after retiring to deliberate on their verdict, and before delivering or sealing the same, if it be sealed, or have been guilty of any misconduct by which a fair and due consideration of the case has been prevented;

Fourth. When the verdict has been decided by lot, or by any means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of the jury;

Fifth. When the Court has misdirected the jury in a matter of law, or has erred in the decision of any question of law arising during the course of the trial;

Sixth. When the verdict is contrary to law or evidence;

Seventh. When new evidence is discovered, material to the defendant, and which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered before the trial, and that the facts in relation thereto were unknown to the defendant or his attorney until after the trial jury in the case was sworn and were not of record. When a motion for a new trial is made on the ground of newly discovered evidence, the defendant must produce at the hearing in support thereof affidavits of witnesses, or he may take testimony in support thereof and if time is required by the defendant to procure such affidavits or testimony, the Court may postpone the hearing of the motion for such length of time as under all the circumstances of the case may seem reasonable.

§ 953. Time for applying for new trial—Limitations

The application for a new trial must be made before judgment is entered; but the Court or Judge thereof may for good cause shown allow such application to be made at any time within thirty (30) days after the rendition of the judgment. A motion for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made within three (3) months after such evidence is discovered but no such motion may be filed more than one (1) year after judgment is rendered.

§ 954. Motion in arrest of judgment—Definition—Grounds—Time for

A motion in arrest of judgment is an application on the part of the defendant that no judgment be rendered on plea or verdict of guilty, or on a verdict against the defendant on a plea of former conviction or acquittal. It may be founded on any of the defects in the information mentioned as grounds of demurrer unless such objection has been waived by a failure to demur, and must be before or at the time the defendant is called for judgment.

§ 955. Court may arrest on its own motion—Effect of allowing motion

The Court may also on its own view of any of these defects, arrest the judgment without motion. The effect of allowing a motion in arrest of judgment is to place the defendant in the same situation in which he was before the information was filed, and in no case of arrest of judgment is the verdict a bar to another prosecution.

§ 956. Proceedings after motion for arrest of judgment sustained

If, from the evidence on the trial, there is reasonable ground to believe the defendant guilty, and a new information can be framed upon which he may be convicted, the Court may order him to be recommitted to the proper officer, or admitted to bail anew to answer the new information. If the evidence shows him guilty of another offense, he must be committed or held thereon; but if no evidence appears sufficient to charge him with any offense, he must, if in custody, be discharged, or, if admitted to bail, his bail is exonerated, or if money has been deposited instead of bail, it must be refunded to the defendant, and the arrest of judgment operates as an acquittal of the charge upon which the information was founded.

JUDGMENT AND EXECUTION

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SUSPENSION OF JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

ELDERLY AND INCAPACITATED VICTIM'S PROTECTION PROGRAM

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 961. Court appoints time for pronouncing judgment

After a plea or verdict of guilty, or after a verdict against the defendant on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal, if the judgment is not arrested or a new trial granted, the Court must appoint a time for pronouncing judgment.

§ 962. Time for pronouncing verdict specified

The time appointed must be at least two (2) days after the verdict, if the Court intend to remain in session so long; or, if not, at as remote a time as can reasonably be allowed.

§ 964. Officer may be directed to produce prisoner

When the defendant is in custody, the Court may direct the officer in whose custody he is to bring him before it for judgment, and the officer must do so accordingly.

§ 965. Warrant for defendant not appearing—Forfeiture of bond or bail money

If the defendant has been discharged on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear for judgment when his personal attendance is necessary, the Court, in addition to the forfeiture of the undertaking of bail or of money deposited, may direct the Clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

§ 966. Clerk to issue bench warrant—Several counties

The Clerk, on the application of the prosecuting attorney, may, accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the Court be sitting or not, issue a bench warrant.

§ 967. Form of bench warrant

The bench warrant must be substantially in the following form:

Cherokee Nation

To any Marshal, Sheriff, Constable or policeman in this Nation:

A B having been, on the day of A. D., 20, duly convicted in the District Court of the crime of (designating it generally), you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named A B and bring him before that Court for judgment, or if the Court has adjourned for the term, you are to deliver him into the custody of the Marshal or Sheriff of Cherokee Nation.

Given under my hand, with the seal of said Court affixed, this day of A. D., 20

By order of the Court.

(Seal.) E. F., Clerk.

§ 968. Service of bench warrant, mode of

The bench warrant may be served in the same manner as a warrant of arrest.

§ 969. Defendant to be arrested

The officer must arrest the defendant and bring him before the Court, or commit him to the officer mentioned in the warrant, according to the command thereof.

§ 970. Defendant informed of proceedings

When the defendant appears for judgment, he must be informed by the Court, or by the Clerk under its direction, of the nature of the indictment or information, and his plea and the verdict, if any thereon, and must be asked whether he has any legal cause to show why judgment should not be pronounced against him.

He may show for cause against the judgment:

1. That he is insane; and if, in the opinion of the Court, there is reasonable ground for believing him to be insane, the question of his insanity must be tried as hereinafter in this chapter, provided for. If upon the trial of that question the jury find that he is sane, judgment must be pronounced, but if they find him insane he may be committed to one of the Nation lunatic asylums, until he becomes sane, or be otherwise committed according to law, and when notice is given of that fact, as hereinafter provided, he must be brought before the Court for judgment;
2. That he has good cause to offer, either in arrest of judgment, or for a new trial, in which case the Court may, in its discretion, order the judgment to be deferred, and proceed to decide upon the motion in arrest of judgment, or for a new trial.

If no sufficient cause be alleged or appear to the Court why judgment should not be pronounced it must thereupon be rendered.

§ 973. Court may hear further evidence, when

After a plea or verdict of guilty in a case where the extent of the punishment is left with the Court, the Court, upon the suggestion of either party that there are circumstances which may be properly taken into view, either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment, may in its discretion hear the same summarily at a specified time and upon such notice to the adverse party as it may direct.

The circumstances must be presented by the testimony of witnesses examined in open court, except that when a witness is so sick or infirm as to be unable to attend, his deposition may be taken by a Magistrate of the county out of court, at a specified time and place, upon such notice to the adverse party as the Court may direct.

§ 975. Other evidence in aggravation or mitigation of punishment prohibited

No affidavit or testimony, or representation of any kind, verbal or written, can be offered to or received by the Court or member thereof in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment, except as provided in the last two sections.

§ 976. Sentencing for multiple offenses—Concurrent sentences

If the defendant has been convicted of two or more offenses, before judgment on either, the judgment may be that the imprisonment upon any one may commence at the expiration of the imprisonment upon any other of the offenses. Provided, that the sentencing Judge shall, at all times, have the discretion to enter a sentence concurrent with any other sentence.

§ 977. Entry of judgment—Papers filed by the Clerk—Record

When judgment upon a conviction is rendered, the Clerk must enter the same upon the minutes, stating briefly the offense for which the conviction has been had, and must immediately annex together and file the following papers, which constitute a record of the action:

- 1st. The information and a copy of the minutes of the plea or demurrer;
- 2nd. A copy of the minutes of the trial;
- 3rd. The charges given or refused, and the endorsements, if any, thereon; and
- 4th. A copy of the judgment.

When a judgment has been pronounced, a certified copy of the entry thereof, upon the minutes, must be forthwith furnished to the officer whose duty it is to execute the judgment, and no other warrant or authority is necessary to justify or require its execution.

§ 979. Execution of judgment by Marshal or Sheriff in certain cases—Delivery to proper officer in other cases

When the judgment is imprisonment in a penal institution, or a fine, and that the defendant be imprisoned until it be paid, the judgment must be executed by the Marshal or Sheriff of the Nation. In all other cases when the sentence is imprisonment, the Marshal or Sheriff must deliver the defendant to the proper officer, in execution of the judgment.

§ 979A. Payment of penal institution costs by inmate

The sentencing Court may require a person sentenced to confinement in penal institution, for any offense, to pay the penal institution the costs of food and maintenance for each day of incarceration, both before and after conviction, medical care, dental care, and psychiatric services. The costs for food and maintenance for each day of incarceration shall be an amount equal to the actual cost of the services, said costs to be determined by the administrator of the penal institution. The cost of the services shall be paid to all penal institutions where the inmate may have been held before and after conviction. The costs shall not be assessed if, in the judgment of the Court, such costs would impose a manifest hardship on the inmate, or if in the opinion of the Court the property of the inmate is needed for the maintenance and support of family of the inmate.

§ 981. Authority of officer while conveying prisoner—Assistance of citizens—Penalty for refusing assistance

The Marshal or Sheriff or his Deputy while conveying the defendant to the proper prison in execution of a judgment of imprisonment has the same authority to require the assistance of any citizen of this Nation in securing the defendant and in retaking him if he escape, as if the Marshal or Sheriff, and every person who refuses or neglects to assist the Sheriff, when so required, is punishable.

Whenever a person is convicted of a crime, the Court may, before imposing sentence to commit any criminal to incarceration, order a presentence investigation to be made by the Nation and defendant. The Nation and the defendant shall thereupon inquire into the circumstances of the offense, and the criminal record, social history and present condition of the convicted person; and shall make a report of such investigation to the Court, including a recommendation as to appropriate sentence, and specifically a recommendation for or against probation. Such reports must be presented to the Judge so requesting, within a reasonable time, and upon the failure to so present the same, the Judge may proceed with sentencing. Whenever, in the opinion of the Court, it is desirable, the investigation shall include a physical and mental examination of the convicted person. The reports so received shall not be referred to, or be considered, in any appeal proceedings. Before imposing sentence, the Court may advise the defendant or his counsel and the Prosecuting Attorney of the factual contents and the conclusions of any presentence investigation or psychiatric examination and afford fair opportunity, if the defendant so requests, to controvert them. If either the defendant or the Prosecuting Attorney desires, such hearing shall be ordered by the Court providing either party an opportunity to offer evidence proving or disproving any finding contained in such report, which shall be a hearing in mitigation or aggravation of punishment.

If the Prosecuting Attorney and the defendant desire to waive such presentence investigation and report, both shall execute a suitable waiver subject to approval of the Court, whereupon the Judge shall proceed with the sentencing.

§ 983. Imprisonment or recommendation of suspension of driving privileges for failure to pay fines or costs—Persons unable to pay—Hearing—Installments

A. Any defendant found guilty of an offense in any court of this Nation may be imprisoned for nonpayment of the fine and/or costs when the trial Court finds that the defendant is financially able but refuses or neglects to pay the fine and/or costs. In no case may a sentence to pay a fine be converted into a penal institution sentence automatically, i.e., without a hearing and a judicial determination, memorialized of record, that the defendant is able to satisfy the fine and costs by payment but refuses or neglects so to do.

B. After a judicial determination that the defendant may be able to pay the fine and costs in installments, the Court may order the fine and costs to be paid in installments and shall set the amount and due date of each installment.

C. The Court also may send notice of any nonpayment of fine and costs for a moving traffic violation to the Department of Public Safety with a recommendation of suspension of driving privileges of the defendant until the total amount of fine and costs has been paid. Upon receipt of payment of the total amount of fine and costs for the moving traffic violation, the Court shall send notice thereof to the Department, if a nonpayment notice was sent as provided for in this subsection. Such notices sent to the Department shall be on forms or by a method approved by the Department.

D. The Supreme Court shall implement procedures and rules for methods of payment of fines and/or costs by indigents, which procedures and rules shall be distributed to all District Courts by the Court Administrator.

SUSPENSION OF JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

§ 991A. Sentence—Powers of Court—County community service sentencing programs

A. Except as otherwise provided in the Elderly and Incapacitated Victims Protection Program, when a defendant is convicted of a crime, the Court shall:

1. Suspend the execution of sentence in whole or in part, with or without probation. The Court, in addition, may order the convicted defendant at the time of sentencing or at any time during the suspended sentence to do one or more of the following:

a. To provide restitution to the victim according to a schedule of payments established by the sentencing Court, together with interest upon any pecuniary sum at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum, if the defendant agrees to pay such restitution or, in the opinion of the Court, if he is able to pay such restitution without imposing manifest hardship on the defendant or his immediate family and if the extent of the damage to the victim is determinable with reasonable certainty; or

b. To reimburse any state or Cherokee Nation agency for amounts paid by the state or Cherokee Nation agency for hospital and medical expenses incurred by the victim or victims, as a result of the criminal act for which such person was convicted, which reimbursement shall be made directly to the Nation agency, with interest accruing thereon at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum; or

c. To engage in a term of community service without compensation, according to a schedule consistent with the employment and family responsibilities of the person convicted; or

d. To pay a reasonable sum into any trust fund, established pursuant to the provisions of 60 O.S. § 176 et seq., and which provides restitution payments by convicted defendants to victims of crimes committed within Cherokee Nation wherein such victim has incurred a financial loss; or

e. To confinement in the penal institution for a period not to exceed the maximum length of incarceration pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 1823(7), or

f. To reimburse the court fund for amounts paid to court-appointed attorneys for representing the defendant in the case in which he is being sentenced.

However, any such order for restitution, community service or confinement in the penal institution, or a combination thereof, shall be made in conjunction with probation and shall be made a condition of the suspended sentence; or

2. May impose a fine prescribed by law for the offense, with or without probation or commitment and with or without restitution or service as provided for in this section; and

3. May commit such person for confinement provided for by law with or without restitution as provided for in this section; and

4. In the case of nonviolent offenses, sentence such person to the community service sentencing program created pursuant to 22 CNCA § 991a-4; and

5. In addition to the other sentencing powers of the Court, in the case of a person convicted of operating or being in control of a motor vehicle while the person was under the influence of alcohol, other intoxicating substance, or a combination of alcohol or another intoxicating substance, or convicted of operating a motor vehicle while the ability of the person to operate such vehicle was impaired due to the consumption of alcohol, require such person:

a. To participate in an alcohol and drug substance abuse course, pursuant to 47 CNCA § 11-902.2 and 47 CNCA § 11-902.3;

b. To attend a victims impact panel program sponsored by Cherokee Nation, if such a program is offered, and to pay a fee, not to exceed Five Dollars ($5.00), to the program to offset the cost of participation by the defendant, if in the opinion of the Court the defendant has the ability to pay such fee;

c. To both participate in the alcohol and drug substance abuse course, pursuant to subparagraph a of this paragraph and attend a victims impact panel program, pursuant to subparagraph b of this paragraph.

B. When sentencing a person convicted of a crime, the Court shall first consider a program of restitution for the victim, as well as imposition of a fine or incarceration of the offender.

C. Probation, for purposes of subsection (A) of this section, is a procedure by which a defendant found guilty of a crime is released by the Court subject to conditions imposed by the Court and subject to the supervision of the Court or Cherokee Nation. Such supervision shall be initiated upon an order of probation from the Court, and shall not exceed two (2) years.

D. Cherokee Nation, or such other agency as the Court may designate, shall be responsible for the monitoring and administration of the restitution and service programs provided for by subparagraphs a, c, and d of paragraph 1 of subsection (A) of this section, and shall ensure that restitution payments are forwarded to the victim and that service assignments are properly performed.

E. 1. Cherokee Nation is hereby authorized, subject to funds available through appropriation by the Council, to contract with counties for the administration of county community service sentencing programs.

2. Any offender eligible to participate in the Program pursuant to this act shall be eligible to participate in a county Program; provided, participation in county-funded Programs shall not be limited to offenders who would otherwise be sentenced to confinement by the Cherokee Nation.

3. Cherokee Nation shall establish criteria and specifications for contracts with counties for such programs.

F. In cases where the person is required by law to register pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, 57 CNCA § 1 et seq., where the individual is sentenced after the effective date of this act in addition to the other sentencing powers of the Court, the Court may require the person to comply with sex offender-specific rules and conditions of probation established by the Marshal Service.

G. In cases where the person is required by law to register pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, where the individual is sentenced after the effective date of this act in addition to the other sentencing powers of the Court the Court may prohibit the person from accessing or using any Internet social networking web site that has the potential or likelihood of allowing the sex offender to have contact with any child who is under the age of eighteen (18) years.

H. A person convicted of an offense or receiving any form of probation for an offense for which registration is required pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, shall submit to deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) testing for law enforcement identification purposes. Except as required by the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act a deferred judgment does not require submission to deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) testing.

I. When sentencing a person who has been convicted of a crime that would subject that person to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act neither the Court nor the Prosecuting Attorney shall be allowed to waive or exempt such person from the registration requirements of the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.

J. In addition to other sentencing powers of the Court in the case of a sex offender sentenced after the effective date of this act and required by law to register pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, the Court may require the person to participate in a treatment program designed for the treatment of sex offenders during the period of time while the offender is subject to supervision. The treatment program may include polygraph examinations specifically designed for use with sex offenders for purposes of supervision and treatment compliance, and may be administered every six (6) months or more frequently during the period of supervision. The examination shall be administered by a certified licensed polygraph examiner. The treatment program must be approved by the Court. Such treatment shall be at the expense of the defendant based on the defendant's ability to pay.

§ 991A-2. Nonviolent criminals—Night or weekend incarceration

Any person who has been convicted of a nonviolent crime in the Nation may be sentenced, at the discretion of the Judge, to incarceration in the penal institution for a period of one or more nights or weekends with the remaining portion of each week being spent under probation, in lieu of any other kind of imprisonment prescribed by law for the particular crime. Any person incarcerated in the penal institution may be assigned work duties as may be approved by the Judge. The sentencing Court may require a person incarcerated pursuant to this act to pay the Nation for food and maintenance for each day of incarceration, an amount equal to the maximum amount prescribed by law to be paid by the Nation, to the Administrator for such expenses. For the purposes of this section, weekend incarceration shall commence at 6 p.m. on Friday and continue until 8 a.m. on the following Monday, and incarceration overnight shall commence at 6 p.m. on one day and continue until 8 a.m. of the next day. Provided, that the sentencing Judge may modify said times if the circumstances of the particular case require such action.

§ 991A-3. Restitution to buyer of property unlawfully obtained

A. Upon a verdict or plea of guilty or upon a plea of nolo contendere for an offense in which any property is unlawfully obtained and the property is sold, traded, bartered, pledged or pawned, the Court may order the defendant to provide restitution to the buyer, recipient or pledgee of the property for the value of any consideration paid, loaned or given for the property unless the buyer, recipient or pledgee has violated the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1092, 21 CNCA § 1093 or 21 CNCA § 1713. Such restitution shall be in addition to any restitution to the victim and shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law. Restitution to the buyer, recipient or pledgee shall be ordered pursuant to the provisions of 22 CNCA § 991A(A)(1)(a).

B. The buyer of any property which has been unlawfully obtained and which is lawfully returned to its rightful owner shall have the right to bring a civil action against the person who sold, traded, bartered, pledged or pawned the property for the value of any consideration paid, loaned or given for the property unless the buyer has violated the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1092, 21 CNCA § 1093 or 21 CNCA § 1713.

§ 991A-4. Community service sentencing program—Eligible offenders—Presentence investigation—Recommendation and imposition of sentence—Earned credits—Notice of completion—Immunity from tort liability

A. There is hereby created the "Community Service Sentencing Program". The purpose of the program shall be to provide an alternative to incarceration for nonviolent crime offenders who would normally be sentenced to incarceration in a penal institution.

B. Any eligible offender may be sentenced, at the discretion of the Judge, to a community service sentencing program pursuant to the provisions of this section. For purposes of this section,

"eligible offender" shall mean any person who:

1. Has not previously been convicted of two or more felonies;
2. Has been convicted of a nonviolent crime offense which shall be defined as any crime offense except assault and battery with a dangerous weapon, aggravated assault and battery on a law officer, poisoning with intent to kill, shooting with intent to kill, assault with intent to kill, assault with intent to commit a crime, murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, kidnapping, burglary in the first degree, kidnapping for extortion, maiming, robbery, child beating, wiring any equipment, vehicle, or structure with explosives, forcible sodomy, rape in the first degree or rape by instrumentation, lewd or indecent proposition or lewd or indecent act with a child under sixteen (16) years of age, use of a firearm or offensive weapon to commit or attempt to commit a crime, pointing firearms, rioting or arson in the first degree;
3. Has properly completed and executed all necessary documents; and
4. Is not otherwise ineligible by law or court rule.

C. Cherokee Nation shall administer the program. Cherokee Nation shall recommend an assignment of the offender to any one or combination of the following areas:

1. Community service, with or without compensation;
2. Education, vocational-technical education or literacy programs;
3. Substance abuse treatment programs;
4. Periodic testing for the presence of controlled substances;
5. Psychological counseling or psychiatric treatment;
6. Medical treatment;
7. Restitution;
8. Confinement in a penal institution for a period not to exceed the maximum incarceration found in 25 U.S.C. § 1823(7) ¹, night or weekend incarceration pursuant to the provisions of 22 CNCA § 991A-2;
9. Probation or conditional probation.

D. The Judge shall consider the criminal history of the offender, the nature of the offender's criminal conduct, the employment and family history of the offender and any other factors he deems relevant when sentencing persons to the program.

E. Cherokee Nation, all counties and municipalities of the State of Oklahoma and all nonprofit or educational organizations or institutions participating in the Program are hereby immune from liability for torts committed by or against any offender participating in the Program to the extent specified in 57 O.S. §§ 227 and 228.

F. Any offender participating in the program shall be advised of the provisions of this section and shall, in writing, acknowledge that he has been advised of and understands the provisions of the program.

ELDERLY AND INCAPACITATED VICTIM'S PROTECTION PROGRAM

§ 991A–5. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Elderly and Incapacitated Victim's Protection Program".

§ 991A–6. Purpose

The purpose and intent of this act is to provide enhanced sentencing for persons committing certain offenses against elderly or incapacitated persons.

§ 991A–7. Definitions

As used in this act:

1. "Elderly person" means any person sixty-two (62) years of age or older; and
2. "Incapacitated person" means any person who is disabled by reason of mental or physical illness or disability to such extent he lacks the ability to effectively protect himself or his property.

§ 991A–8. Offenses to which act applies

The provisions of this act shall apply to any person convicted of one or more of the following offenses where the victim is an elderly or incapacitated person:

1. Assault, battery, or assault and battery with a dangerous weapon;
2. Aggravated assault and battery;
3. Burglary in the second degree;
4. Use of a firearm or offensive weapon to commit or attempt to commit a crime, or pointing a firearm;

5. Grand larceny;

6. Extortion, or obtaining a signature by extortion;

7. Fraud, or obtaining or attempting to obtain property by trick or deception; or

8. Embezzlement.

§ 991A–9. Enhancement of sentence

Whenever a person is convicted of an offense enumerated in 22 CNCA § 991A–8 in which the victim is elderly or incapacitated, the Court shall upon conviction:

1. Commit the defendant for confinement as provided by law; provided, the first thirty (30) days of the sentence shall not be subject to probation, suspension or deferral; provided further, this mandatory minimum period of confinement shall be served in the penal institution as a condition of a suspended or deferred sentence, pursuant to 22 CNCA § 991A and may be served by night or weekend incarceration pursuant to 22 CNCA § 991A–2; and

2. a. Require restitution be paid to the victim for out-of-pocket expenses, loss or damage to property and medical expenses for injury proximately caused by the conduct of the defendant pursuant to 22 CNCA § 991A–10; or

b. Assign the offender to perform a required term of community service, according to a schedule consistent with the employment and family responsibility of the person convicted; or

c. Require restitution as provided in subparagraph a of this paragraph and community service as provided in subparagraph b of this paragraph; and

3. The Court may further impose a fine or any other penalty otherwise provided by law.

§ 991A–10. Restitution to victim—Determinations by Court

A. The Court shall at the time of sentencing:

1. Determine whether the property may be restored in kind to the owner or the person entitled to possession thereof;

2. Determine whether defendant is possessed of sufficient skill to repair and restore property damaged;

3. Provide restitution to the victim according to a schedule of payments established by the sentencing Court, together with interest upon any pecuniary sum at the rate of twelve percent

(12%) per annum, if the defendant agrees to pay such restitution or, in the opinion of the Court, he is able to pay such restitution without imposing manifest hardship on the defendant or his immediate family; and

4. Determine the extent of the out-of-pocket expenses, loss or damage to property and injury to the victim proximately caused by the conduct of the defendant.

B. The Court shall allow credit for property returned in kind, for property damages ordered to be repaired by the defendant, and for property ordered to be restored by the defendant and after granting such credit, the court shall assess the actual out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages and injuries suffered by the victim.

C. In no event shall a victim be entitled to recover restitution in excess of the actual out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages and injuries, proximately caused by the conduct of the defendant and restitution shall not be ordered to be paid on account of pain or suffering; provided however, that nothing in this section shall abridge or preclude any victim from the civil right to recover damages by separate civil cause of action brought against the defendant.

D. If the defendant fails to pay restitution in the manner or within the time period specified by the Court, the Court may enter an order directing the sheriff to seize any real or personal property of the defendant to the extent necessary to satisfy the order of restitution and dispose of such property by public sale. All property seized for the purposes of satisfying restitution shall be seized under the procedures established in 22 CNCA § 991A–11.

E. A sentence including provisions of restitution may be modified or revoked by the Court if the offender commits another offense, or the offender fails to make restitution as ordered by the Court, but no sentencing provision to make restitution shall be modified if the Court finds that the offender has had the financial ability to make restitution, and he has willfully refused to do so. If the Court shall find that the defendant has failed to make restitution and that the failure is not willful, the Court may impose an additional period of time within which to make restitution. The length of said additional period shall not be more than two (2) years. The court shall retain all of the incidents of the original sentence, including the authority to revoke or further modify the sentence if the conditions of payment are violated during such additional period.

§ 991A–11. Seizure of property—Forfeiture for sale—Notice of proceedings—Answer and claim to property—Hearing—Proof of claim—Sale under judgment—Distribution of proceeds

A. Any peace officer of this Nation shall seize any property, except property exempt under 31 O.S. § 1, to be held until a forfeiture for sale has been declared or release ordered.

B. Notice of seizure and intended forfeiture proceeding shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court for the county in which the property is seized and shall be given all owners and parties in interest.

C. Notice shall be given by the party seeking forfeiture and sale according to one of the following methods:

1. Upon each owner or party in interest whose right, title or interest is of record at the Oklahoma Tax Commission, by mailing a copy of the notice by certified mail to the address shown upon the records of the Oklahoma Tax Commission;

2. Upon each owner or party in interest whose name and address is known to the attorney or the party seeking the action to recover unpaid restitution, by mailing a copy of the notice by registered mail to the last-known address; or

3. Upon all other owners or interested parties, whose addresses are unknown, but who are believed to have an interest in the property, by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the seizure was made.

D. Within sixty (60) days after the mailing or publication of the notice, the owner of the property and any other party in interest or claimant may file a verified answer and claim to the property described in the notice.

E. If at the end of sixty (60) days after the notice has been mailed or published there is no verified answer on file, the Court shall hear evidence upon the fact of exemption under 31 O.S. § 1, and shall order the property forfeited and sold to pay restitution, if such property is not proved exempt.

F. If a verified answer is filed, the forfeiture for sale proceeding shall be set for hearing.

G. At a hearing on the forfeiture the evidence of ownership and exemption under 31 O.S. § 1 shall be satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence.

H. The claimant of any right, title or interest in the property may prove his lien, mortgage or conditional sales contract to be a bona fide ownership interest.

I. In the event of such proof, the Court shall order the property released to the bona fide owner, lienholder, mortgagee or vendor if the amount due him is equal to, or in excess of, the value of the property as of the date of the seizure, it being the intention of this section to forfeit only the right, title or interest of the offender.

J. If the amount due to such person is less than the value of the property, or if no bona fide claim is established, the property shall be forfeited and sold under judgment of the Court, as on sale upon execution.

K. Property taken or detained under this section shall not be repleviable, but shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney, subject only to the orders and decrees of the Court having jurisdiction thereof.

L. The proceeds of the sale of any property shall be distributed as follows, in the order indicated:

1. To the bona fide purchaser, conditional sales vendor or mortgagee of the property, if any, up to the amount of his interest in the property, when the Court declaring the forfeiture orders a distribution to such person;
2. To the payment of the actual expenses of storing the property;
3. To the payment of court costs and costs of the Marshal or Sheriff in conducting the sale;
4. To the payment of restitution to the victim; and
5. The balance of the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the defendant.

M. If the Court finds that the party seeking the forfeiture failed to satisfy the requirements provided for in subsection (G) of this section, the Court shall order the property released to the owner or owners.

§ 991B. Revocation in whole or in part of suspended sentence—Hearing—Review

Whenever a sentence has been suspended by the Court after conviction of a person for any crime, the suspended sentence of said person may not be revoked, in whole or in part, for any cause unless a petition setting forth the grounds for such revocation is filed by the Prosecuting Attorney with the Clerk of the sentencing Court and competent evidence justifying the revocation of said suspended sentence is presented to the Court at a hearing to be held for that purpose within twenty (20) days after the date of arrest.

Where one of the grounds for revocation is the failure of the defendant to make restitution as ordered, Cherokee Nation or the Court Clerk shall forward to the Prosecuting Attorney all information pertaining to the defendant's failure to make timely restitution as ordered by the Court, and said Prosecuting Attorney shall file a petition setting forth the grounds for revocation.

The defendant ordered to make restitution can petition the Court at any time for remission or a change in the terms of the order of restitution if he undergoes a change of condition which materially affects his ability to comply with the Court's order.

At the hearing, if one of the grounds for the petition for revocation is the defendant's failure to make timely restitution as ordered by the Court, the Court will hear evidence and if it appears to the satisfaction of the Court from such evidence that the terms of the order of restitution create a manifest hardship on the defendant or his immediate family, cancel all or any part of the amount still due, or modify the terms or method of payment.

The Court may revoke a portion of the sentence and leave the remaining part not revoked, but suspended for the remainder of the term of the sentence, and under the provisions applying to it. The person whose suspended sentence is being considered for revocation at said hearing shall have the right to be represented by counsel, to present evidence in his own behalf and to be confronted by the witnesses against him. Any order of the Court revoking such suspended sentence, in whole or in part, shall be subject to review on appeal, as in other appeals of criminal cases. Provided, however, that if the crime for which the suspended sentence is given was a crime, he may be allowed bail pending appeal. If the reason for revocation be that the defendant committed a crime, he shall not be allowed bail pending appeal.

§ 991C. Deferred judgment procedure

A. Upon a verdict or plea of guilty or upon a plea of nolo contendere, but before a judgment of guilt, the Court may, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the defendant, defer further proceedings and place the defendant on probation under the supervision of the Court or Cherokee Nation under such conditions of probation as may be prescribed by the Court. The Court shall first consider restitution, administered in accordance with the provisions pertaining thereto, among the various conditions of probation it may prescribe. The Court may also consider ordering the defendant to engage in a term of community service without compensation, according to a schedule consistent with the employment and family responsibilities of the defendant. Further, the Court may order the defendant confined to the penal institution for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days to be served in conjunction with probation. Further, the Court may order the defendant to pay a sum into the Court Fund not to exceed the amount of fine authorized for the offense alleged against the defendant or authorized under the Cherokee Nation Bond Schedule and/or 18 U.S.C. § 1803(7) and an amount for reasonable attorney fee, to be paid into the Court Fund, if a court-appointed attorney has been provided to defendant. Further, the Court may, in the case of a person before the Court for the offense of operating or being in control of motor vehicle while the person was under the influence of alcohol, other intoxicating substance, or a combination of alcohol and another intoxicating substance, before the Court for the offense of operating a motor vehicle while the ability of the person to operate such vehicle was impaired due to the consumption of alcohol, require such person to participate in one or both of the following:

1. an alcohol and drug substance abuse course, pursuant to 47 CNCA § 11–902.2 and 47 CNCA § 11–902.3;
2. a victims' impact panel program sponsored by the Cherokee Nation of the State of Oklahoma, if such a program is offered, and to pay a fee, not to exceed Five Dollars ($5.00), to the victims' impact panel program to offset the cost of participation by the defendant, if in the opinion of the Court the defendant has the ability to pay such fee.

Upon completion of the probation term, which probation term under this procedure shall not exceed five (5) years, the defendant shall be discharged without a court judgment of guilt, and the verdict or plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere shall be expunged from the record and said charge shall be dismissed with prejudice to any further action. Upon violation of the conditions of probation, the Court may enter a judgment of guilt and proceed as provided in 22 CNCA § 991A. Further, if the probation is for a crime offense, and the defendant violates the conditions of probation by committing another crime offense, the defendant shall not be allowed bail pending appeal. The deferred judgment procedure described in this section shall only apply to defendants not having been previously convicted of a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony.

B. The deferred judgment procedure described in this section shall not apply to defendants found guilty or who plead guilty or nolo contendere to a sex offense requiring the defendant to register pursuant to the Sex Offenders Registration and Notification Act, 57 CNCA § 1 et seq.

§ 991D. Probation fee—Restitution administration fee—Drug and alcohol testing fees

A. A Court granting probation shall fix a fee of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month to be paid by the probationer to Cherokee Nation during the probationary period, provided, however, that this mandatory fee will not pertain if, in the judgment of the Court, such a fee would impose an unnecessary hardship on the probationer. In such hardship cases, the Court shall expressly waive the fee. The Court shall make payment of the fee a condition of granting or continuing the probation, and such condition shall be imposed whether the probation is incident to the suspending of execution of a sentence or incident to the suspending of imposition of a sentence or the deferring of proceedings after a verdict or plea of guilty, but such condition shall not be imposed unless probationary services are made available to the defendant. If restitution is ordered by the Court, the probation fee will be paid in addition to the restitution so ordered. In addition to the restitution payment and probation fee, a fee of One Dollar ($1.00) per payment is to be paid to Cherokee Nation to cover the expenses of administration of such restitution. If, in the judgment of the Court, such a fee would impose an unnecessary hardship on the offender, the fee shall be waived.

B. The defendant is also responsible for the cost of alcohol and drug testing.

§ 991F. Definitions

For the purposes of this act:

1. "Economic loss" means actual economic detriment suffered by the victim consisting of medical expenses actually incurred, damage to real and personal property and any other out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred as the direct result of the criminal act of the defendant. No other elements of damage shall be included.
2. "Monetary restitution" shall mean the sum to be paid by the defendant to the victim of his criminal act to compensate that victim for the economic loss suffered as a direct result of the criminal act of the defender.
3. "Victim" means any person, partnership or corporation that suffers an economic loss as a direct result of the criminal act of another person.

§ 994. Suspension of judgment and sentence after appeal

After appeal, when any criminal conviction is affirmed, either in whole or in part, the Court in which the defendant was originally convicted may suspend the judgment and sentence as otherwise provided by law. Jurisdiction for such suspension shall be vested in said trial Court by a request by the defendant within ten (10) days of the final order of the District Court. Any order granting or denying suspension made under the provisions of this section is a nonappealable order.

§ 995. Administration of probation—Parole services

The Court Administrator shall supervise the probation officer in all Cherokee Nation Courts and for such purposes and his or her staff shall have access to all probation records of said Courts.

Subject to the approval of the Chief Justice of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court the Court Administrator shall establish reports and forms to be maintained by probation officers, procedures to be followed by the probation officers, standards and rules of probation work, including methods and procedures of investigation, mediation supervision, case work, record keeping, accounting, caseload, and case management.

The Court Administrator shall annually submit a written budget for the probation services to the Cherokee Nation Council for administration, supplies and salaries.

§ 996. The Powers of the Court

A. Probation is provided at the discretion of the Court.

B. No defendant shall be put on probation without a presentence investigation.

C. The Court may first consider a program of restitution for the victim as well as imposition of a fine and incarceration of the offender.

D. Probation, for the purposes of this section, is a procedure by which a defendant found guilty of a crime, or before a judgment of guilty pursuant to 22 CNCA § 991C, whether upon a verdict of plea of guilty or upon a plea of nolo contendere, is released by the Court subject to conditions imposed by the Court and subject to the supervision of Cherokee Nation District Court. Such supervision shall be initiated upon an order of probation from the Court, and shall not exceed two (2) years. In the case of a person convicted of a sex offense, supervision shall not be limited to two (2) years.

E. If the Court has imposed and entered exception of a fine and placed the defendant on probation, payment of the fine or adherence to the court-established installment schedule shall be a condition of the probation.

F. If the offender is charged with a criminal offense and the Court has reason to believe that drug or alcohol usage by the offender was a factor leading to the offender's criminal behavior or if the crime is committed by a first time offender, the Court upon the recommendation of the Attorney General and the Cherokee Nation Probation Office and after a presentence investigation may offer the defendant a deferred sentence. The deferred sentence shall be on the condition that the defendant spends the court-ordered amount of time on probation. The Court shall order the probation be supervised or unsupervised.

G. The person on probation is responsible for payment of any fees and cost to the probation officer. The rules and conditions of probation shall be in writing and signed before a Judge of a Cherokee Nation Court.

H. The Court may modify, reduce, or enlarge the conditions of a sentence of probation in any time prior to the expiration or termination of the term of probation.

I. The Court shall direct the probation officer provide the defendant with a copy of the rules and conditions of probation that sets forth all the conditions to which the sentence is subject, and that is sufficiently clear and specific to serve as a guide for the defendant's conduct and for such supervision as is required.

J. Once the Judge has ordered probation the defendant has forty-eight (48) hours to report to the probation officer.

K. If the defendant violates a condition of probation at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the term of probation, the Court shall have a revocation hearing pursuant to 22 CNCA §§ 991A to 991C and upon recommendation of the probation officer. And after such hearing the Court may continue the defendant on probation, with or without extending the term or modifying or enlarging the conditions, or revoke the sentence of probation and re-sentence the defendant.

L. Mandatory revocation for possession of controlled substance or firearm or refusal to comply with drug testing. If the defendant possesses a controlled substance, possesses a firearm and/or refuses to comply with drug testing, thereby violating the conditions of his probation a mandatory revocation hearing pursuant to 22 CNCA § 991C and upon recommendation of the probation officer shall be conducted. The Court may modify or enlarge the conditions of probation or revoke the sentence of probation and resentence the defendant.

§ 997. Community service unit

A. Community service is a condition of probation that requires probationers to perform services without compensation for the benefit of the community. The sanction not only provides service to the community but also enhances accountability and helps instill responsibility. Community service can be ordered by a Judge or by the supervising probation officer through the Adult Probation Department. Community service shall be ordered pursuant to the rules and conditions set forth in 22 CNCA § 991A-4.

B. The Adult Probation Department may place a probationer at a variety of work sites throughout Cherokee Nation jurisdictional boundaries. The sites shall be for the benefit of not-for-profit organizations, government agencies, and/or community service groups.

C. Officers assigned to the Adult Probation Department are responsible for placing, monitoring and evaluating all community service mandates. The needs and safety of the community as well as the skills of the probationer shall be considered when making placements. The Cherokee Nation

Marshal Service may be called upon to assist with security for community service mandates.

D. Once a site has been deemed appropriate, a letter of agreement between the Adult Probation Department and the agency is signed. If a probationer fails to comply with a community service mandate a revocation hearing shall be held.

CHAPTER 18

APPEALS

§ 1051. Right of appeal—Review—Corrective jurisdiction—Procedure—Scope of review on certiorari

A. An appeal to the Supreme Court may be taken by the defendant as a matter of right from any judgment against him, which shall be taken as herein provided; and, upon the appeal, any decision of the Court or intermediate order made in the progress of the case may be reviewed; provided, all appeals taken from any conviction on a plea of guilty shall be taken by petition for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court, as provided in subsection (B) of this section; provided further, such petition must be filed within ninety (90) days from the date of said conviction. The Supreme Court may take jurisdiction of any case for the purpose of correcting the appeal records when the same do not disclose judgment and sentence; such jurisdiction shall be for the sole purpose of correcting such defect or defects.

B. The procedure for the filing of an appeal in the Supreme Court shall be as provided in the Rules of Appellate Procedure; and the Supreme Court shall provide by court rules, which will have the force of statute, and be in furtherance of this method of appeal: (1) The procedure to be followed by the trial courts in the preparation and authentication of transcripts and records in cases appealed under this act; (2) the procedure to be followed for the completion and submission of the appeal taken hereunder; and (3) the procedure to be followed for filing a petition for and the issuance of a writ of certiorari.

C. The scope of review to be afforded on certiorari shall be prescribed by the Supreme Court.

An appeal from a judgment in a criminal action may be taken in the manner and in the cases prescribed in this chapter.

§ 1053. Cherokee Nation may appeal in what cases

Appeals to the Supreme Court may be taken by Cherokee Nation in the following cases and no other:

1. Upon judgment for the defendant on quashing or setting aside an indictment or information;

2. Upon an order of the court arresting the judgment;
3. Upon a question reserved by Cherokee Nation; and
4. Upon judgment for the defendant on a motion to quash for insufficient evidence in a criminal matter.

§ 1053.1. Automatic appeal of judgments holding statutes unconstitutional in criminal actions

Any final judgment entered by a District Court in a criminal action rendering an act of the Council to be unconstitutional shall be automatically appealed to the Supreme Court, unless said act has been previously declared unconstitutional by said Supreme Court. Such appeals shall be by the Prosecuting Attorney upon a reserved question of law.

§ 1054. Time for taking appeal—Transcript—Notification of nonfiling of case made or transcript

In criminal cases the appeal must be taken within one hundred twenty (120) days after the judgment is rendered. A transcript in criminal cases must be filed as hereinafter directed.

It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Court from which notice of appeal has been given, and in which case made or transcript has been filed and withdrawn, to notify the Clerk of the Supreme Court if a certificate from such Clerk acknowledging receipt of such case made or transcript is delayed three (3) days beyond the one hundred twenty (120) days maximum time from date of judgment provided for appeal in a criminal case, and on notification by the Clerk of nonfiling of case made or transcript in the Supreme Court, the judgment of the trial court will be immediately carried out as provided by law.

§ 1054.1. Perfecting appeal without filing motion for new trial

The right of a party to perfect an appeal from a judgment, order or decree of the trial court to the Supreme Court shall not be conditioned upon his having filed in the trial court a motion for a new trial, but in the event a motion for a new trial is filed in the trial court by a party adversely affected by the judgment, order or decree, no appeal to the Supreme Court may be taken until subsequent to the ruling by the trial court on the motion for a new trial.

§ 1056. Appeal by Nation not to suspend judgment

An appeal taken by the Nation in no case stays or affects the operation of the judgment in favor of the defendant, until the judgment is reversed.

§ 1058. Conditions of bond—Surrender by sureties—Stay of execution—Confinement of defendant when crime not bailable

If an appeal is taken and the appeal bond given as provided in the preceding section, said bond shall be conditioned that the defendant will appear, submit to and perform any judgment rendered by the Supreme Court or the court in which the original judgment was rendered in the further progress of the cause, and will not depart without leave of the Court. After the determination of the appeal in the Supreme Court, or if the appeal is not perfected as provided by law, the defendant may be surrendered by the sureties to the proper authorities for the execution of the sentence. If the defendant be adjudged to be incarcerated in any penal institution and/or to pay a fine, said sureties shall be relieved of liability for such fine and costs upon surrender of the defendant to the proper authorities for incarceration pursuant to the judgment and prior to forfeiture of the bond. If no bond be given the appeal shall not stay execution of the judgment, except where otherwise specifically provided by law. If pending the appeal the bond be given, a further execution of the judgment shall be stayed and the defendant released pending the determination of the appeal. In all cases where the sentence is for a crime not bailable the defendant shall be confined in the penal institution pending the appeal.

§ 1062. Exceptions

The exceptions stated in the case shall have the same effect as if they had been reduced to writing, allowed and signed by the Judge at the time they were taken.

§ 1065. Defendants may appeal jointly or severally

When several defendants are tried jointly, any one or more of them may take an appeal, but those who do not join in the appeal shall not be affected thereby.

The appellate court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment or sentence appealed from, and may, if necessary or proper, order a new trial or resentencing. In either case, the cause must be remanded to the Court below, with proper instructions, and the opinion of the Court, within the time, and in the manner, to be prescribed by rule of the Court.

If the case is reversed for a new trial, the Clerk of the court from which such cause was appealed is required to make return showing that said case was specifically called to the attention of the trial court at the time of the setting of the docket following receipt of mandate, and showing the court's action in placing said cause on the docket for trial, said return to be made immediately after the trial and entry of judgment, or earlier disposal. Should the case not be retried and should it be dismissed by the Court, return shall be made, giving the reasons stated by the Court in his minutes justifying such dismissal.

When a judgment against the defendant is reversed, and it appears that no offense whatever has been committed, the Supreme Court must direct that the defendant be discharged; but if it appears that the defendant is guilty of an offense although defectively charged in the indictment, the Supreme Court must direct the prisoner to be returned and delivered over to the jailer of the proper county, there to abide the order of the Court in which he was convicted.

§ 1069. Appeal not dismissed for informality

An appeal shall not be dismissed for any informality or defect in the taking thereof. If the same be corrected in a reasonable time after an appeal has been dismissed, another appeal may be taken.

§ 1070. Judgment to be executed on affirmance

On a judgment of affirmance against the defendant, the original judgment must be carried into execution, as the appellate court may direct.

All opinions of the Supreme Court must be given in writing and recorded in the journal.

§ 1072. Record and enforcement of mandate or order in lower court—Return by Clerk of lower court to Clerk of Supreme Court

It is hereby made the duty of the Court Clerk in all counties, upon receipt from the Clerk of the Supreme Court of any mandate or order of the Supreme Court, to immediately and without any order from the Court, or Judge thereof, to spread said mandate or order of record in the proper court, and to issue and place in the hands of the proper officer appropriate process for carrying out such mandate or order.

That it shall be the duty of any such Court Clerk immediately upon return being made by the officer to whom process is delivered, to thereafter make return to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, showing the date that mandate was received, date filed and recorded, the date process was issued to the officer, and the date the process was served and whether the convicted person was incarcerated. If incarceration of the prisoner is delayed by reason of flight, or for any other cause for a period of more than fifteen (15) days after receipt of mandate, the return, under any such circumstance causing delay, must be immediately made to the Clerk of the Supreme Court; and upon later apprehension of prisoner and incarceration, a further return must be made to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, reporting the facts, within ten (10) days after such incarceration.

The Court shall at the time of entering judgment and sentence notify the defendant of his right to appeal. An appeal from a judgment of conviction stays the execution of the judgment in all cases where sentence of death is imposed, but does not stay the execution of the judgment in any other case unless the trial or appellate Court shall so order.

§ 1077. Bail allowable

Bail on appeal shall be allowed on appeal from a judgment of conviction of a crime, or in crime cases where the punishment is a fine only, and when made and approved shall stay the execution of such judgment. Bail on appeal after the effective date of this act shall not be allowed after conviction of any of the following offenses:

1. Murder in any degree;
2. Kidnapping for purpose of extortion;
3. Robbery with a dangerous weapon;
4. Rape in any degree;
5. Arson in the first degree;
6. Shooting with intent to kill;
7. Manslaughter in the first degree;
8. Forcible sodomy;
9. Any crime conviction for which the evidence shows that the defendant used or was in possession of a firearm or other dangerous or deadly weapon during the commission of the offense;
10. Trafficking in illegal drugs; or
11. Any other crime after former conviction of a crime.

The granting or refusal of bail after judgment of conviction in all other crime cases shall rest in the discretion of the Court, however, if bail is allowed, the trial Court shall state the reason therefor.

§ 1078. Amount of bond—Time to make appeal bond—Stay pending appeal—Additional bond

When bail is allowed, the Court shall fix the amount of the appeal bond and the time in which the bond shall be given in order to stay the execution of the judgment pending the filing of the appeal in the appellate Court, and until such bond is made shall hold the defendant in custody. If the bond be given in the time fixed by the Court, the execution of the judgment shall be stayed during the time fixed by law for the filing of the appeal in the appellate Court. If the appeal is filed within the time provided by law, then the bond shall stay the execution of the sentence during the pendency of the appeal, subject to the power of the Court to require a new or additional bond when the same is by the Court deemed necessary. If the bond is not given within the time fixed, or if given and the appeal not be filed in the appellate Court within the time provided by law, the judgment of the Court shall immediately be carried into execution.

§ 1079. Denial of bail—Review by habeas corpus

If bail on appeal be denied, or the amount fixed be excessive, the defendant shall be entitled to a review of the action of the trial Court and its reasons for refusing bail, by habeas corpus proceedings before the appellate Court, or if the Court be not in session, then by some Judge of said Court.

CHAPTER 19

BAIL

BAIL BOND PROCEDURE ACT

§ 1101. Offenses bailable—Who may take bail

Bail, by sufficient sureties, shall be admitted upon all arrests in criminal cases and in such cases it may be taken by any of the persons or Courts authorized by law to arrest or imprison offenders, or by the Clerk of the District Court or his Deputy, or by the Judge of such Courts.

§ 1104. Qualifications of bail—Justification

The qualifications of bail are the same as those in civil cases, and the sureties must in all cases justify by affidavits taken before the Magistrate, Court or Judge, or before the Clerk of the District or Superior Court or his Deputy, that they each possess those qualifications.

§ 1105. Defendant discharged on giving bail

Upon the allowance of bail and the execution of the requisite recognizance, bond or undertaking, to the Nation, the Magistrate, Judge or Court, must, if the defendant is in custody, make and sign an order for his discharge, upon the delivery of which to the proper officer the defendant must be discharged.

§ 1106. Deposit for bail

A deposit of the sum of money mentioned in the order admitting to bail is equivalent to bail and upon such deposit the defendant must be discharged from custody.

§ 1107. Arrest of defendant by bail—Commitment of defendant and exoneration of bail

Any party charged with a criminal offense and admitted to bail may be arrested by his bail at any time before they are finally discharged, and at any place within the Nation; or by a written authority endorsed on a certified copy of the recognizance, bond or undertaking, may empower any officer or person of suitable age and discretion, to do so, and he may be surrendered and delivered to the proper Marshal, Sheriff or other officer, before any Court, Judge or Magistrate having the proper jurisdiction in the case; and at the request of such bail the Court, Judge or Magistrate shall recommit the party so arrested to the custody of the Marshal, Sheriff or other officer, and endorse on the cognizance, bond or undertaking, or certified copy thereof, after notice to the Prosecuting Attorney, and if no cause to the contrary appear, the discharge and exoneration of such bail; and the party so committed shall therefrom be held in custody until discharged by due course of law.

If the defendant neglects to appear according to the terms or conditions of the recognizance, bond or undertaking, either for hearing, arraignment, trial or judgment, or upon any other occasion when his presence in court or before the Magistrate may be lawfully required, or to surrender himself in execution of the judgment, the Court must direct the fact to be entered upon its minutes, and the recognizance, bond or undertaking of bail, or the money deposited instead of bail, as the case may be, is and shall be thereupon declared forfeited and forfeiture proceedings shall then proceed as prescribed in 59 O.S. § 1332. If money deposited instead of bail be so forfeited, the Clerk of the Court or other officer with whom it is deposited, must, immediately after the final adjournment of the court, pay over the money deposited to Cherokee Nation.

§ 1109. Additional security may be required

When proof is made to any Court, Judge or other Magistrate having authority to commit on criminal charges, that a person previously admitted to bail on any such charge is about to abscond, or that his bail is insufficient, or has removed from the Nation, the Judge or Magistrate shall require such person to give better security, or for default thereof cause him to be committed to prison; and an order for his arrest may be endorsed on the former commitment, or a new warrant therefore may be issued by such Judge or Magistrate, setting forth the cause thereof.

Whoever, having been admitted to bail or released on recognizance, bond, or undertaking for appearance before any Magistrate or Court of the State of Oklahoma, incurs a forfeiture of the bail or violates such undertaking or recognizance and willfully fails to surrender himself within five (5) days following the date of such forfeiture shall, if the bail was given or undertaking or recognizance extended in connection with a charge of a crime or pending appeal or certiorari after conviction of any such offense, be guilty of a crime. Nothing in this section shall be construed to interfere with or prevent the exercise by any Court of its power to punish for contempt.

BAIL BOND PROCEDURE ACT

§ 1115. Short title—Application

Sections 1115 through 1115.5 of this title shall be known and may be cited as the Bail Bond Procedure Act. The provisions of the Bail Bond Procedure Act shall not apply to parking or standing traffic violations.

§ 1115.1. Release on personal recognizance—Arraignment—Plea—Failure to plead or

A. In addition to other provisions of law for posting bail, any person, whether a citizen of this Nation or a noncitizen, who is arrested by a law enforcement officer solely for a crime or offense, which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would constitute a misdemeanor violation, may be released by the arresting officer upon personal recognizance if:

1. The arrested person has been issued a valid license to operate a motor vehicle by Oklahoma, another state jurisdiction within the United States, which is a participant in the Nonresident Violator Compact or any party jurisdiction of the Nonresident Violator Compact;
2. The arresting officer is satisfied as to the identity of the arrested person;
3. The arrested person signs a written promise to appear as provided for on the citation; and
4. The violation does not constitute:
 - a. a crime which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would constitute a felony; or
 - b. negligent homicide; or
 - c. driving or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while impaired or under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substances; or
 - d. eluding or attempting to elude a law enforcement officer; or
 - e. operating a motor vehicle without having been issued a valid driver's license, or while the license is under suspension, revocation, denial or cancellation; or
 - f. an arrest based upon an outstanding warrant; or
 - g. a traffic violation coupled with any offense stated in subparagraphs a through f of this paragraph; or
 - h. a violation relating to the transportation of hazardous materials.

B. If the arrested person is eligible for release on personal recognizance as provided for in subsection (A) of this section, then the arresting officer shall:

1. designate the charge, crime or offense;
2. record information from the arrested person's driver's license on the citation form, including the name, address, date of birth, personal description, type of driver's license, driver's license number, issuing state, and expiration date;

3. record the motor vehicle make, model and tag information;
4. record the arraignment date and time on the citation; and
5. permit the arrested person to sign a written promise to appear as provided for in the citation.

The arresting officer shall then release the person upon personal recognizance based upon the signed promise to appear. The citation shall contain a written notice to the arrested person that release upon personal recognizance based upon a signed written promise to appear for arraignment is conditional and that failure to timely appear for arraignment shall result in the suspension of the arrested person's driver's license in Oklahoma, or in the nonresident's home state pursuant to the Nonresident Violator Compact.

C. The Court, or the Court Clerk as directed by the Court, may continue or reschedule the date and time of arraignment upon request of the arrested person or his attorney. If the arraignment is continued or rescheduled, the arrested person shall remain on personal recognizance and written promise to appear until such arraignment, in the same manner and with the same consequences as if the continued or rescheduled arraignment was entered on the citation by the arresting officer and signed by the defendant. An arraignment may be continued or rescheduled more than one time; provided however, the Court shall require an arraignment to be had within a reasonable time. It shall remain the duty of the defendant to appear for arraignment unless the citation is satisfied as provided for in subsection (D) of this section.

D. A defendant released upon personal recognizance may elect to enter a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to the violation charged at any time before he is required to appear for arraignment by indicating such plea on the copy of the citation furnished to him or on a legible copy thereof, together with the date of the plea and his signature. The defendant shall be responsible for assuring full payment of the fine and costs to the appropriate Court Clerk. Payment of the fine and costs may be made by personal, cashier's, traveler's, certified or guaranteed bank check, postal or commercial money order, or other form of payment approved by the Court in an amount prescribed as bail for the offense. Provided, however, the defendant shall not use currency for payment by mail. If the defendant has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere as provided for in this subsection, such plea shall be accepted by the Court and the amount of the fine and costs shall be prescribed by the Court.

E. 1. If, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (D) of this section, the defendant does not timely elect to enter a plea of guilty or nolo contendere and fails to timely appear for arraignment, the Court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

2. The Court Clerk shall not process the notification and request provided for in paragraph 1 of this subsection if, with respect to such charges:

- a. the defendant was arraigned, posted bail, paid a fine, was jailed, or otherwise settled the case; or

b. the defendant was not released upon personal recognizance upon a signed written promise to appear as provided for in this section or if released, was not permitted to remain on such personal recognizance for arraignment.

§ 1115.2. Posting bail after release on personal recognizance for traffic violation—Failure to appear—Person ineligible for release on personal recognizance—Juveniles

A. If a person arrested for a crime or offense is released upon personal recognizance as provided for in 22 CNCA § 1115.1, but subsequently posts bail and thereafter fails to timely appear as provided for by law, the Court may issue a warrant for the person's arrest and the case shall be processed as provided for in 22 CNCA § 1108.

B. If the defendant is not eligible for release upon personal recognizance as provided for in 22 CNCA § 1115.1, or if eligible but refuses to sign a written promise to appear, the officer shall deliver the person to an appropriate Magistrate for arraignment and the Magistrate shall proceed as otherwise provided for by law. If no Magistrate is available, the defendant shall be placed in the custody of the appropriate municipal or county jailor or custodian, to be held until a Magistrate is available or bail is posted as provided for in 22 CNCA § 1115.3 act or as otherwise provided for by law or ordinance.

C. 1. In the event the defendant is additionally arrested for any violation for which personal recognizance is authorized pursuant to 22 CNCA § 1115.1, the arresting officer, for such additional violation, may either release the defendant upon such recognizance or require bail as provided for in this subsection;

2. If the defendant is unable to post bail with the arresting officer, then the officer shall proceed as otherwise provided for in this section.

D. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a juvenile may be held in custody pursuant to the provisions of this section, but shall be incarcerated separately from any adult offender. Provided however, the arresting officer shall not be required to:

a. place a juvenile into custody as provided for in this section; or

b. place any other offender into custody:

i. who is injured, disabled, or otherwise incapacitated; or

ii. if custodial arrest may require impoundment of a vehicle containing livestock, perishable cargo, or items requiring special maintenance or care; or

iii. if extraordinary circumstances exist, which, in the judgment of the arresting officer, custodial arrest should not be made.

In such cases, the arresting officer may designate the date and time for arraignment on the citation and release the person. If the person fails to appear without good cause shown, the Court may issue a warrant for the person's arrest.

2. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to:

a. create any duty on the part of the officer to release a person from custody; or

b. create any duty on the part of the officer to make any inquiry or investigation relating to any condition which may justify release under this subsection; or

c. create any liability upon any officer, or the Nation or any political subdivision thereof, arising from the decision to release or not to release such person from custody pursuant to the provisions of this subsection.

§ 1115.3. Pre-set bail

A. The Court may prescribe prior to initial appearance the amount of bail for the following Nation offenses except for the major crimes found in 18 U.S.C. § 1152, and for the crimes listed in 22 CNCA § 1115.5.

B. The amount of bail for other offenses shall be the amount of fine and costs including any penalty assessments provided for in the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated.

C. The amount of bail for a Nation wildlife-related or water safety-related offense shall be the amount of fine and costs including any penalty assessment provided for in the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated.

D. The District Court Clerk, unless otherwise directed by the Court, shall accept bail or the payment of a fine and costs in the form of currency or personal, cashier's, traveler's, certified or guaranteed bank check, or postal or commercial money order for the amount prescribed in this section for bail.

E. The District Court Clerk shall accept as bail a guaranteed arrest bond certificate issued by a surety company, an automobile club or trucking association, if:

1. the issuer is authorized to do business in the State of Oklahoma by the State Insurance Commissioner;

2. the certificate is issued to and signed by the arrested person;

3. the certificate contains a printed statement that appearance of such person is guaranteed and the issuer, in the event of failure of such person to appear in Court at the time of trial, will pay any fine or forfeiture imposed; and

4. the limit provided on the certificate equals or exceeds the amount of bail provided for in this section.

§ 1115.4. Dishonored check—Bench warrant and arrest of issuer

A personal check or other instrument tendered to a District Court Clerk for bail or for the payment of fine and costs, if dishonored and returned to said Clerk for any reason other than the lack of proper endorsement, shall constitute nonpayment of bail or fine, as the case may be, and the Court, in addition to any civil or criminal remedy otherwise provided for by law, may issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the person named on the citation to require his appearance on the charge specified.

Any person accused of or detained for any of the following offenses or conditions shall not be eligible for bail until the offender has been brought before a magistrate of the Cherokee Nation Court. The magistrate may prescribe conditions for release of the offender at such time:

1. A person arrested for an offense involving domestic violence such as strikes, shoves, kicks, or strangulation, or who otherwise touches a person or subjects him or her to physical contact, or is charged with a violation of a protection order, may not be admitted to bail until after an appearance before a Magistrate within thirty-six (36) hours of the arrest. Prior to the release of the person, the Magistrate shall review the facts of the arrest to determine whether the person is a threat to the alleged victim, is a threat to public safety, and is reasonably likely to appear in court.
2. Aggravated driving under the influence of an intoxicating substance, 47 CNCA § 11–902;
3. Any offense prohibited by the Oklahoma, federal and tribal Trafficking in Illegal Drug Acts, 21 CNCA § 2414 et seq.;
4. Any person having a violent felony conviction within the last ten (10) years;
5. Appeal bond;
6. Arson in the first degree, including attempts to commit arson in the first degree, 21 CNCA § 1401;
7. Assault and battery on a police officer, 21 CNCA § 649;
8. Bail jumping in any jurisdiction of the United States;
9. Bribery of a public official, 21 CNCA § 380;
10. Burglary in the first or second degree, 21 CNCA § 1431;
11. Distribution of a controlled dangerous substance, including the sale or possession of a controlled dangerous substance with intent to distribute or conspiracy to distribute, 21 CNCA § 2101;

12. Driving under the influence of intoxicating substance where property damage or personal injury occurs, 47 CNCA § 11-904;

13. Any person who engages in reckless conduct while possessing any firearm, 21 CNCA § 1289.11;

14. Sex offenses, 21 CNCA § 881 through 21 CNCA § 1111;

15. Kidnapping, 21 CNCA § 741;

16. Manufacture of a controlled dangerous substance, 21 CNCA § 2401;

17. Persons currently on pretrial release or probation or parole by any agency with proper jurisdiction who are arrested on a new offense;

18. Any person who unlawfully possesses, manufactures, sells, uses or delivers any explosive device, foul, poisonous, offensive, or injurious substance according to 21 CNCA § 1767.1;

19. Possession of a controlled dangerous substance on Schedule I or II of the Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2401;

20. Possession of a firearm or other offensive weapon during the commission of a crime, 21 CNCA § 1287;

21. Possession of a stolen vehicle;

22. Rape in the first degree, including attempts to commit rape in the first degree, 21 CNCA § 1111;

25. Rape in the second degree, including attempts to commit rape in the second degree, 21 CNCA § 1111;

26. Robbery by force or fear, 21 CNCA § 792;

27. Robbery with a firearm or dangerous weapon, including attempts to commit robbery with a firearm or dangerous weapon, 21 CNCA § 801;

28. Sexual assault or violent offenses against children, 21 CNCA § 852.1;

29. Shooting with intent to kill, 21 CNCA § 652;

30. Stalking or violation of a protective order from any court with proper jurisdiction;

31. Any person having two or more prior felony convictions.

§ 1115.6. Consideration of certain victims' safety prior to release of defendant on bond—
Emergency protective, restraining orders and condition of release

A. The Court shall make findings on the record while considering the safety of any and all alleged victims of domestic violence and considers, acts including but not limited to, stalking, harassment, sexual assault, or forcible sodomy where the defendant is alleged to have violated a protective order, committed domestic assault and battery, stalked, sexually assaulted, or forcibly sodomized the alleged victim or victims prior to the release of the alleged defendant from custody on bond. The Court after consideration and to ensure the safety of the alleged victim or victims, may issue an emergency protective order. The Court may also issue to the alleged victim or victims, an order restraining the alleged defendant from any activity or action from which they may be restrained. The protective order shall remain in effect until either a plea has been accepted, sentencing has occurred in the case, the case has been dismissed, or until further order of the Court dismissing the protective order.

B. The conditions of release may include, but need not be limited to, enjoining the person from threatening to commit or committing acts of domestic violence against the alleged victim, prohibiting the person from telephoning, contacting, or otherwise communicating with the alleged victim with the intent to harass, either directly or indirectly; ordering the person to stay away from the home of the alleged victim, when the person and alleged victim are not residents of the same home, and ordering the person to stay away from any other location where the alleged victim is likely to be; prohibiting the person from possessing a firearm or other weapon specified by the court, except when such weapon is necessary for employment as a peace officer or military personnel; and issuing any other or modification of orders above required to protect the safety of the alleged victim or to ensure the appearance of the person in court.

C. If conditions of release are imposed, the Magistrate shall issue a written order for conditional release, immediately distribute a copy of the order to the law enforcement agency having custody and the arrested or charged person, place information pertaining to the order in the domestic violence protection order registry, and provided the law enforcement agency with any available information concerning the location of the alleged victim in a manner that protects the safety of the victim.

FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE

§ 1141. Extradition

Cherokee Nation hereby affirmatively surrenders any person charged with a crime or offense in another jurisdiction, regardless of their status as Indian, who may be found in Indian Country subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation. Cherokee Nation consents to duly appointed law enforcement officers of the State of Oklahoma or its political subdivisions to enter in Indian Country to execute criminal warrants of the State of Oklahoma or its political subdivisions or Governor Warrants from other states or jurisdictions who have adopted the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act, 22 O.S. § 1141.1 et seq.

CHAPTER 21

HABEAS CORPUS

§ 1151. Habeas corpus for person to testify or be surrendered on bail

The Supreme Court and District Courts within this Nation, or the Judges thereof in vacation, shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, for the purpose of bringing the body of any person confined in any penal institution before them, to testify or be surrendered in discharge of bail. When a writ of habeas corpus shall be issued for the purpose of bringing into court any person to testify, or the principal, to be surrendered in discharge of bail, and such principal or witness, shall be confined in any prison in this Nation, in which such principal or witness is required to be surrendered, in this Nation, and there be executed and returned by any officer to whom it shall be directed, and the principal, after being surrendered, or his bail discharged, or a person testifying as aforesaid, shall by the officer executing such writ, be returned by virtue of an order of the Court, for the purpose aforesaid, an attested copy of which, lodged with the custodian, shall exonerate such prison keeper from being liable for an escape. The party praying out such writ of habeas corpus shall pay to the officer executing the same, such reasonable sum for his services as shall be adjudged by the Courts respectively.

INSANITY OF ACCUSED

An act committed by a person in a state of insanity cannot be punished as a public offense, nor can said person be tried, sentenced to punishment, or punished for a public offense while he is insane. When in any criminal action by indictment or information the defense of insanity is interposed either singly or in conjunction with some other defense, the jury shall state in the verdict, if it is one of acquittal, whether or not the defendant is acquitted on the ground of insanity. When the defendant is acquitted on the ground that he was insane at the time of the commission of the crime charged, said person shall not be discharged from custody until the Court has made a determination that said person is not presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety.

To assist the Court in its determination, the Court shall immediately issue an examination order and specify the hospital for the mentally ill in which the said person is to be hospitalized. Upon the issuance of the order, the Marshal or Sheriff shall deliver the said person to the designated hospital for the mentally ill where the said person shall remain hospitalized for a period of not less than thirty (30) days. Within forty-five (45) days of said hospitalization, a hearing shall be conducted by the Court to ascertain whether the said person is presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety. During the required period of hospitalization the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health or the hospital shall have the said person examined by two qualified psychiatrists or one such psychiatrist and one qualified clinical psychologist. Each examiner shall individually prepare and submit to the Court, the Prosecuting Attorney and Trial Counsel a report of his findings and an evaluation concerning whether the said person is presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace and safety. If the Court is unsatisfied with the psychiatric reports or if a disagreement on the issue of present mental illness and dangerousness exists between the two examiners, the Court may designate one or more additional psychiatrists and have them submit their findings and evaluations as specified above.

Within ten (10) days after the psychiatric reports are filed, the Court must conduct a hearing to determine the said person's present condition as to the issue of whether he is presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety. The Prosecuting Attorney must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety. At this hearing the said person shall have the assistance of counsel and may present independent evidence as to the issue of whether he is presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety. If the Court finds that the said person is not presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety, it shall immediately discharge the said person from hospitalization. If the Court finds that the said person is presently mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety, it shall commit the said person to the custody of Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health. The said person shall then be subject to discharge pursuant to the procedure set forth in the Oklahoma Mental Health Law, 43A O.S. § 1–101 et seq.

During the period of hospitalization Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health may administer or cause to be administered to the said person such psychiatric, medical or other therapeutic treatment as in its judgment should be administered.

During the period of hospitalization the Superintendent shall submit an annual report on the status of the said person to the Court, the Prosecuting Attorney and the patient's advocate of the hospital in which the said person is hospitalized. Not less than twenty (20) days prior to the scheduled release of the said person the Superintendent of the hospital for the mentally ill must deliver a written notice of the proposed discharge to the Court, the Prosecuting Attorney and the patient's advocate of the said hospital. Upon motion by the Prosecuting Attorney a second hearing shall be conducted by the Court to ascertain if the said person is mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety. This hearing shall be conducted under the same procedure as the first hearing and must occur not less than ten (10) days before the scheduled release. If the Court determines that the said person continues to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public peace or safety, it shall return the said person to the hospital for additional treatment. Additional hearings may be conducted upon motion by the Prosecuting Attorney under the same provisions as described in this section.

When an information is called for trial, or upon conviction the defendant is brought up for judgment, if a doubt arise as to the sanity of the defendant, the Court must order a jury to be impaneled from the jurors summoned and returned for the term, or who may be summoned by direction of the Court, to inquire into the fact.

§ 1163. Sanity hearing—Criminal trial to be suspended

The trial of the cause or the pronouncing the judgment, as the case may be, must be suspended until the question of insanity is determined by the verdict of the jury.

§ 1164. Order of trial of sanity

The trial of the question of insanity must proceed in the following order:

1. The Counsel for the defendant must open the case and offer evidence in support of the allegation of insanity;
2. The Counsel for the Nation may then open their case and offer evidence in support thereof;
3. The parties may then respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the Court, for good reason, in furtherance of justice permit them to offer evidence upon their original case;
4. When the evidence is concluded, unless the case be submitted to the jury on either side or on both sides, without argument, the Counsel for the Nation must commence, and the defendant or his Counsel may conclude the argument to the jury;
5. The Court must then charge the jury before argument as in other cases.

§ 1165. Rules governing sanity trial

The provisions of the chapter on trials, in respect to the duty of the Court upon questions of law, and of the jury upon questions of fact, and the provisions in respect to the charge of the Court to the jury, upon the trial of an information, apply to the questions of insanity.

§ 1166. Sanity hearing—Trial or judgment to proceed if defendant sane

If the jury find the defendant sane, the trial of the information must proceed, or judgment may be pronounced as the case may be.

§ 1167. Finding of insanity—Suspension of trial or judgment—Commitment to Nation hospital

If the jury finds the defendant presently insane, the trial or judgment must be suspended until he becomes sane, and if the jury deem his discharge dangerous to the public peace or safety, the Court shall order that the defendant be committed to one of the hospitals for the mentally ill, and to be held therein and kept as a patient and inmate until he be discharged and released as presently sane by the authority of the Superintendent of said hospital. A release by the Superintendent of said hospital shall be to the custody of the Marshal or Sheriff of the jurisdiction which the criminal case theretofore suspended is or was pending and from which he was committed. The Court having jurisdiction thereof shall set the cause for trial.

§ 1168. Commitment in sanity hearing exonerates bail

The commitment of the defendant as mentioned in the last section, exonerates his bail, or entitles the person authorized to receive the property of the defendant to the return of money he may have deposited instead of bail.

§ 1169. Restoration to sanity

When the defendant becomes sane the Marshal or Sheriff must thereupon, without delay, place him in the proper custody until he be brought to trial or judgment, as the case may be, or be legally discharged.

DETERMINATION OF COMPETENCY—PROCEDURE

As used in this act:

1. "Competent" or "competency" means the present ability of a person arrested for or charged with a crime to understand the nature of the charges and proceedings brought against him, and is able to effectively and rationally assist in his defense. A person may be incompetent due to physical disability;
2. "Criminal proceeding" means every stage of a criminal prosecution after arrest and before judgment, including, but not limited to, interrogation, line up, preliminary hearing, motion dockets, discovery, pretrial hearings and trial;
3. "Doctor" means any physician, psychiatrist, psychologist or equivalent expert;
4. "Incompetent" or "incompetency" means any person who is not presently competent;
5. "Physical disability" means deafness, muteness, blindness or some combination thereof.

§ 1175.2. Application for determination of competency—Service—Notice—Suspension of criminal proceedings

A. No person shall be subject to any criminal procedures after he is determined to be incompetent except as provided in 22 CNCA §§ 1175.1 through 1175.8. The question of the incompetency of a person may be raised by the person, the Defense Attorney, or the Prosecuting Attorney, by an application for determination of competency. The application for determination of competency shall allege that the person is incompetent to undergo further proceedings, and shall state facts sufficient to raise a doubt as to the competency of the person. The Court, at any time, may initiate a competency determination on its own motion, without an application, if the Court has a doubt as to the competency of the person.

If the Court so initiates such an application, it may appoint the Prosecuting Attorney for the purpose of proceeding with the application. If the Prosecuting Attorney opposes the application of the Court, and by reason of a conflict of interest could not represent the Court as applicant, then the Court shall appoint private Counsel. Said private Counsel shall be reasonably compensated by the Court Fund.

B. A copy of the application for determination of competency and a notice, as hereinafter described, shall be served personally at least one (1) day before the first hearing on the application for a competency determination. The notice shall contain the following information:

1. The definition provided by 22 CNCA § 1175.1 of competency and incompetency;
2. That, upon request, the hearing on the application may be conducted as a jury trial as provided in 22 CNCA § 1175.4;
3. That the petitioner and any witnesses identified in the application may offer testimony under oath at the hearings on the petition and that the defendant may not be called to testify against his will, unless the application is initiated by the defendant;
4. That if the person whose competency is in question does not have an attorney, the Court will appoint an attorney for the person who shall represent him until final disposition of the case;
5. That if the person whose competency is in question is indigent or poor, the Court will pay the attorney fees; and
6. That the person whose competency is in question shall be afforded such other rights as are guaranteed by Nation and federal law and that such rights include a trial by jury, if demanded. The notice shall be served upon the person whose competency is in question, upon his father, mother, husband, or wife or, in their absence, someone of the next of kin, of full age, if any said persons are known to be residing within the county, and upon any of said relatives residing outside of the county, and within the state, as may be ordered by the Court, and also upon the person with whom the person whose competency is in question may reside, or at whose house he may be. The person making such service shall make affidavit of the same and file such notice, with proof of service, with the District Court. This notice may be served in any part of this Nation.

C. Any criminal proceedings against a person whose competency is in question shall be suspended pending the determination of the competency of the person.

§ 1175.3. Hearing—Date—Evidence—Orders—Examination of accused—Instructions to physician

A. Upon filing of an application for determination of competency, the Court shall set a hearing date, which shall be as soon as practicable, but at least one (1) day after service of notice as provided by 22 CNCA § 1175.2.

B. The Court shall hold a hearing on the date provided. At the hearing, the Court shall examine the application for determination of competency to determine if it alleges facts sufficient to raise a doubt as to the competency of the person. Any additional evidence tending to create a doubt as to the competency of the person may be presented at this hearing.

C. If the Court finds there is no doubt as to the competency of the person, it shall order the criminal proceedings to resume.

D. If the Court finds there is a doubt as to the competency of the person, it shall order the person to be examined by doctors or appropriate technicians. The doctors or technicians shall be practitioners in the appropriate branch of medicine relevant to the alleged incompetency of the person. The person may be examined on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as ordered by the Court. The Court may commit the person to the custody of Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services or any other state agency or private facility for the examination provided by this act. The person shall be required to undergo examination for a period of time sufficient for the doctor or doctors or technicians to reach a conclusion as to competency, and the Court shall impose a reasonable time limitation for such period of examination. If the Court determines that the person whose competency is in question may be a threat to the safety of himself or others, it shall order the person retained in a secure facility until the completion of the competency hearing provided in 22 CNCA § 1175.4.

E. The doctor or doctors shall receive instructions that they shall examine the patient to determine:

1. Is this person able to appreciate the nature of the charges against him?
2. Is this person able to consult with his lawyer and rationally assist in the preparation of his defense?
3. If the answer to question 1 or 2 is no, can the person attain competency within a reasonable time if provided with a course of treatment, therapy or training?
4. Is the person a mentally ill person or a person requiring treatment as defined by 43A O.S. § 1–103?
5. If the person were released without treatment, therapy or training, would he probably pose a significant threat to the life or safety of himself or others?

§ 1175.4. Post-examination competency hearing—Evidence—Presumptions—Jury trial—

Presence of accused—Witnesses—Instructions

A. After the doctor, doctors or technicians have made the determination required in 22 CNCA § 1175.3, a hearing on the competency of the person shall be held.

B. The Court, at the hearing on the application, shall determine, by clear and convincing evidence, if the person is incompetent. The person shall be presumed to be competent for the purposes of the allocation of the burden of proof and burden of going forward with the evidence. If the Court deems it necessary, or if the person alleged to be a person requiring treatment, or any relative, friend, or any person with whom he may reside, or at whose house he may be, shall so demand, the court shall schedule the hearing on the application as a jury trial to be held within seventy-two (72) hours of the request, excluding weekends and legal holidays, or within as much additional time as is requested by the attorney of the person whose competency is in question, upon good cause shown. The jury shall be composed of six (6) persons having the qualifications required of jurors in courts of record, summoned to determine the questions of the person's competency and need for treatment. Whenever a jury is required, the Court shall proceed to the selection of such jury in the manner as provided by law and such jury shall determine the questions of the competency and need for treatment of the person whose competency is in question. The jurors shall receive fees for attendance and mileage as are allowed by law.

C. The person whose competency is in question shall have the right to be present at the hearing on the petition unless it is made to appear to the Court that the presence of the person makes it impossible to conduct the hearing in a reasonable manner. The Court may not decide in advance of the hearing, solely on the basis of the certificate of the examining doctor or doctors, that the person whose competency is in question should not be allowed to appear. It shall be made to appear to the Court based on clear and convincing evidence that alternatives to exclusion were attempted before the Court renders his removal for that purpose or his appearance at such hearing improper and unsafe.

D. All witnesses shall be subject to cross-examination in the same manner as is provided by law. No statement, admission or confession made by the person whose competency is in question obtained during his examination for competency may be used for any purpose except for proceedings under this act. No such statement, admission or confession may be used against such person in any criminal action whether pending at the time the hearing is held or filed against such person at any later time, directly, indirectly or in any manner or form, except that if such person is found to be competent at the time of his examination hearing, any such statement made by him may be used for purposes of impeachment.

E. If the question of competency is submitted to a jury, the Court shall instruct the jury as to the law regarding competency, and the findings they are to make. If the trial of the question is to the Court, the Court shall make the required findings.

§ 1175.5. Questions to be answered in determining competency

The jury or the Court, as the case may be, shall answer the following questions in determining the disposition of the person whose competency is in question:

1. Is the person incompetent to undergo further criminal proceedings at this time? If the answer is no, criminal proceedings shall be resumed. If the answer is yes, the following question shall be answered.
2. Can the incompetency of the person be corrected within a reasonable period of time, as defined by the Court, by treatment, therapy or training? If the answer is yes, the Court shall make the appropriate order. If the answer is no, the following questions shall be answered.
3. Is the person mentally ill, mentally retarded or a person requiring treatment as defined by 43A O.S. § 1-103?
4. Is the person a threat to the safety of himself or others if released?

§ 1175.6. Disposition orders

A. Upon the finding by the jury or the Court as provided by 22 CNCA § 1175.5, the court shall issue the appropriate order regarding the person:

1. If the person is found to be competent, the criminal proceedings shall be resumed;
2. If the person is found to be incompetent, but capable of achieving competence with treatment, therapy, or training, the Court shall remand the person to Cherokee Nation, the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, the Oklahoma Department of Human Services, other appropriate state agencies or a private care provider for appropriate treatment, therapy, or training;
3. If the person is found to be incompetent and not capable of achieving competency within a reasonable period of time, and a person requiring treatment as defined by 43A O.S., then the Court shall order treatment as if there had been a finding pursuant to 43A O.S. that the defendant was a mentally ill person requiring treatment, without any further proceedings, and shall suspend the criminal proceeding. Cherokee Nation, the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services or other agency providing treatment to the person or the institution wherein the person is confined or treated shall make periodic reports to the Court as to the competency of the defendant. If the agency or institution reports that the person appears to have achieved competency, the Court shall hold another competency hearing to determine if the person has achieved competency. If competency has been achieved, the criminal proceeding shall be resumed; and
4. If the person is found to be incompetent, and not capable of achieving competency within a reasonable period of time, but is not a person requiring treatment as defined by 43A O.S. and is not a threat to himself or society, the Court shall remand the person to Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Human Services for assistance, subject to assistance from any other appropriate state agencies and shall suspend the criminal proceedings. Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Human Services shall make periodic reports to the Court as to the status and activities of the person. If Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Human Services reports that the person appears to have achieved competency, the Court shall hold another competency hearing to determine if the person has achieved competency. If competency has been achieved, the criminal proceeding shall be resumed.

B. Any person arrested and charged with a violent criminal offense, who is found to be incompetent by the Court and ordered into the custody of Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services pursuant to paragraphs 2 or 3 of subsection (A) of this section, shall be placed in a maximum security ward of the mental health facility designated by Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services until such time as said person is adjudicated to be competent or is adjudicated no longer determined to be a threat to any other person.

§ 1175.7. Persons incompetent but capable of achieving competency within reasonable time—Treatment order—Medical supervisor—Commitment—Private treatment

A. If the person is found incompetent, but capable of achieving competency within a reasonable period of time, as defined by the Court, the Court shall order such person to undergo such treatment, therapy or training which is calculated to allow the person to achieve competence.

B. The Court shall appoint a medical supervisor for a course of treatment. The medical supervisor of treatment may be any person or agency that agrees to supervise the course of treatment. The proposed treatment may be either inpatient or outpatient care depending on the facilities and resources available to the Court and the type of disability sought to be corrected by the Court's order. The Court may require the supervisor to provide periodic progress reports to the Court and may pay for the services of the medical supervisor from Court funds.

C. The Court may commit the incompetent person to the custody of the Department of Mental Health or other appropriate nation agency, if the Court, after the hearing provided in 22 CNCA § 1175.4, determines that such commitment is necessary for the effective administration of the treatment ordered, or if the Court determines that the defendant is dangerous to himself or society.

D. The Court may allow the person to receive treatment from private facilities if such facilities are willing, and neither the Nation nor the Court Fund is required to directly pay for such care.

§ 1175.8. Resumption of competency

If the medical supervisor reports that the person appears to have achieved competency after a finding of incompetency, the Court shall hold another competency hearing to determine if the person has achieved competency. If competency has been achieved, the criminal proceedings shall be resumed.

§ 1176. Raising issue of mental illness or insanity at time of offense

A. If the defendant intends to raise the question of mental illness or insanity at the time of the offense, the defendant shall file an application with the Court at least twenty (20) days before trial. The procedure to be followed for review of such an application will be the same as provided in 22 CNCA § 1175.3.

B. If the Court finds that the defendant's sanity at the time of the offense is to be a significant factor in his defense at trial and that the defendant is financially unable to obtain the services of a psychiatrist, the Court shall provide the defendant with access to a psychiatrist by authorizing Counsel to obtain the services of a psychiatrist to conduct an appropriate examination and assist in evaluation, preparation and presentation of the defense. Compensation for such services shall be paid from the Nation Judicial Fund as provided in 22 CNCA § 464(B).

SEARCHES AND SEIZURES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

LIQUORS AND GAMBLING PARAPHERNALIA

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1221. Search warrant defined

A search warrant is an order in writing, in the name of the Nation, signed by a Magistrate, directed to a peace officer, commanding him to search for personal property and bring it before the Magistrate.

§ 1222. Grounds for issuance of search warrant—Seizure of property

A search warrant may be issued and property seized upon any of the following grounds:

First: When the property was stolen or embezzled, in which case it may be taken on the warrant, from any house or other place in which it is concealed, or from the possession of the person by whom it was stolen or embezzled, or of any other person in whose possession it may be.

Second: When it was used as the means of committing a crime, in which case it may be taken on the warrant from any house or other place in which it is concealed, or from the possession of the person by whom it was used in the commission of the offense, or of any other person in whose possession it may be.

Third: When it is in the possession of any person, with the intent to use it as the means of committing a public offense, or in the possession of another to whom he may have delivered it for the purpose of concealing it or preventing its being discovered, in which case it may be taken on the warrant from such person, or from a house or other place occupied by him, or under his control, or from the possession of the person to whom he may have so delivered it.

Fourth: When the property constitutes evidence that an offense was committed or that a particular person participated in the commission of an offense.

§ 1223. Probable cause must be shown

A search warrant shall not be issued except upon probable cause, supported by affidavit, naming or describing the person, and particularly describing the property and the place to be searched.

§ 1223.1. Electronically recorded oral statement—Transcription

A Magistrate may take an oral statement under oath which shall at that time be recorded electronically and thereafter transcribed by an official Court Reporter. The original recording and transcription thereof shall become a part of and kept with the official records of the case. The transcribed statement shall be deemed to be an affidavit for the purposes of this section and 22 CNCA § 1223.

In such cases, the Magistrate and the official Court Reporter shall sign the transcription of the recording of the sworn statement. Thereafter, the transcript shall be filed with the Clerk of the District Court along with the original recording.

§ 1224.1. Oral testimony supplemental to affidavit

Before issuing a search warrant the Judge may take oral testimony, sworn to under oath, supplemental to any affidavits. Provided, however, that such oral testimony shall be recorded, such record transcribed forthwith, and filed with the affidavits to support the search warrant.

§ 1224.2. Filing and indexing of documents

In the event the search warrant is executed, then the search warrant, affidavit for search warrant, and transcript of oral testimony, if any, shall be filed with the Clerk of the District Court, and shall be indexed by the Clerk in alphabetical order. Upon a criminal prosecution being filed, said document shall be filed in said case.

§ 1225. Requisites of search warrant—Issuing Magistrate

A. If a Magistrate be thereupon satisfied of the existence of grounds of the application, or that there is probable cause to believe their existence, he must issue a search warrant, signed by him, with his name of office, to a peace officer of this Nation or cross-deputized state law enforcement officer, commanding him forthwith to search the person or place named, for the property specified, and to bring it before the Magistrate, and also to arrest the person in whose possession the same may be found, to be dealt with according to law.

B. The Magistrate may orally authorize a peace officer to sign the name of the Magistrate on a copy made to conform with the original warrant if the peace officer applying for the warrant is not in the actual physical presence of the Magistrate. Such copy shall be deemed to be a search warrant for the purposes of this act and it shall be returned to the Magistrate as provided for in 22 CNCA § 1233. In such cases, the Magistrate shall enter on the face of the original warrant the exact time of the issuance of the warrant and shall sign and file the original warrant and the copy made to conform with the original warrant with the Clerk of the District Court as provided for in 22 CNCA § 1224.2.

C. A search warrant authorized by this section may be issued by any Magistrate for a search of a person or property within the judicial district in which the Magistrate presides or outside the judicial district if there was probable cause to believe the property was within the judicial district when the warrant was sought, but moved outside the judicial district before the warrant was executed.

The warrant must be in substantially the following form:

In the District Court of Cherokee Nation

In the name of Cherokee Nation. To any peace officer of this Nation or duly cross-deputized state law enforcement officer.

Probable cause having been shown on this date before me, by (name every officer and person who has made affidavit or given oral testimony supplementing an affidavit) for believing the following property (describe the property) is located at (specify the location where the property is shown to be).

You are therefore commanded, in the daytime (or "at any time of the day or night,") as the case may be, according to 22 CNCA § 1230, as amended, to make immediate search on the person of C.D. (or "in the house situated," describing it, or any other place to be searched, with reasonable particularity, as the case may be), for the following property (describing it with reasonable particularity), and if you find the same, or any part thereof to bring it forthwith before me, at (stating the place) or before a Magistrate who presides in the judicial district in which the property was found and seized.

(Signature of Judge)

(Judge's Official Designation)

§ 1227. Service of search warrant

A search warrant may in all cases be served by any of the officers mentioned in its direction, but by no other person except in aid of the officer, on his requiring it, he being present, and acting in its execution.

§ 1228. Execution of search warrant

A peace officer may break open an outer or inner door or window of a house, or any part of the house, or anything therein, to execute the warrant when:

1. The officer has been refused admittance after having first given notice of his authority and purpose; or
2. Pursuant to an instruction inserted in the search warrant by the Magistrate that no warning or other notice of entry is necessary because there is probable cause to believe that such warning or other notice would pose a significant danger to human life.

§ 1229. Execution of search warrant—Liberating person detained

He may break open any outer or inner door or window of a house for the purpose of liberating a person who, having entered to aid him in the execution of the warrant, is detained therein, or when necessary for his own liberation.

§ 1230. Search warrant may be served, when

Search warrants shall be served during the hours of six o'clock a.m. to ten o'clock p.m., inclusive, unless the affidavits be positive that the property is on the person, or in the place to be searched and the Judge finds that there is likelihood that the property named in the search warrant will be destroyed, moved or concealed. In which case the Judge may insert a direction that it be served at any time of the day or night.

A search warrant must be executed and returned to the Magistrate by whom it is issued within ten (10) days. After the expiration of these times respectively, the warrant, unless executed, is void.

§ 1232. Disposition of property recovered

When the property is delivered to the Magistrate, he must, if it was stolen or embezzled, deliver it to the owner on satisfactory proof of his title, and on his paying the necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, to be certified by the Magistrate. If it were taken on a warrant issued on the grounds stated in the second and third subdivisions of 22 CNCA § 1222, he must retain it in his possession, subject to the order of the Court to which he is required to return the proceedings before him, or of any other court in which the offense, in respect to which the property was taken,

§ 1233. Return of search warrant

Any peace officer who executes a search warrant must forthwith return the warrant to the Magistrate who authorized the warrant or to a Magistrate who presides in the judicial district in which the property was found and seized together with a written inventory of the property taken, which shall be made publicly, or in the presence of the person from whose possession it was taken and of the applicant for the warrant, if they be present, verified by the affidavit of the officer, and taken before the Magistrate, to the following effect:

I, A.B., the officer by whom this warrant was executed, do swear that the above inventory contains a true and detailed account of all the property taken by me on the warrant.

§ 1234. Inventory to be furnished, when

The Magistrate must thereupon, if required, deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whose possession the property was taken, and to the applicant for the warrant.

§ 1235. Hearing on issuance of warrant

If the grounds on which the warrant was issued be controverted, the Magistrate must proceed to take testimony in relation thereto.

§ 1236. Testimony on hearing for warrant

The testimony given by each witness must be reduced to writing and authenticated.

§ 1237. Restoration of property to person searched

If it appears that the property taken is not the same as that described in the warrant, or that there is no probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued, the Magistrate must cause it to be restored to the person from whom it was taken.

§ 1238. Papers returned to District Court

The Magistrate must annex together the depositions, the search warrant and return, and the inventory, and then return them to the District Court.

§ 1239. Procuring search warrant without cause

A person who maliciously and without probable cause procures a search warrant to be issued and executed is guilty of a crime.

§ 1240. Officer exceeding his authority

A peace officer in executing a search warrant, who willfully exceeds his authority, or exercises it with unnecessary severity, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1241. Search of defendant for weapons or evidence

When a person charged with a crime is supposed by the Magistrate before whom he is brought to have upon his person a dangerous weapon or anything which may be used as evidence of the commission of the offense, the Magistrate may direct him to be searched in his presence, and the weapon or other thing to be retained, subject to his order or the order of the Court in which the defendant may be tried.

LIQUORS AND GAMBLING PARAPHERNALIA

§ 1261. Seized property—Report and disposition

In all cases where contraband mentioned in laws of this Nation or any personal property used for the purpose of violating any of the prohibitory liquor laws or gambling laws of this Nation, shall be seized by any officer or person with or without a search warrant, such officer or person is hereby required within five (5) days to make a written report under oath and file the same with the Court Clerk, which report shall in detail state the name of the officer or person making the seizure, the place where seized and an inventory of the property, articles or intoxicating liquors so taken into possession, and within said five (5) days said person is hereby required to deliver the same to the Sheriff of the county and take the Sheriff's receipt therefore, in duplicate and such sheriff shall retain the same and all thereof, until the same shall be destroyed pursuant to the orders of the Court. In computing the time, five (5) days, Sundays and holidays shall be excluded and not counted. A duplicate copy of said receipt shall immediately be filed with said Court Clerk, who shall keep a record of same, provided the Marshal or Sheriff and his Deputies shall be required to make the affidavit and issue the receipt and otherwise comply with the provisions of this act. Provided, that all liquors so seized shall be preserved for use as evidence in the trial of any action growing out of such seizure and all officers seizing any such liquors are hereby required to mark the bottles or containers for identification by writing thereon the date of the seizure and the name of the person from whom seized. The Marshal or Sheriff shall be liable on his bond for the safekeeping of all such property so turned over to him under the provisions of this act.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST CORPORATIONS

STOLEN PROPERTY AND PROPERTY TAKEN FROM DEFENDANT

SHOPLIFTING

§ 1271. Compensation of Counsel assigned defendant

In all criminal cases triable in Cherokee Nation, where it is satisfactorily shown to the Court that the defendant has no means and is unable to employ Counsel, the Court shall, in all such cases, where Counsel is appointed and assigned for defense, allow and direct to be paid by the Nation in which such trial is had, out of the Court Fund of said Nation, a reasonable and just compensation to the attorney or attorneys so assigned for such services as they may render, such compensation being allowable in any court of record. The attorney shall not be paid a sum to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) in any one case, the specific amount to be left to the discretion of the Presiding Judge. In any Court in which a Public Defender is regularly employed, the Court shall appoint such Public Defender to act as counsel for the defendant. If two or more indigent defendants are charged conjointly, and the Public Defender cannot justly defend both, the Court may appoint and compensate Counsel as provided above.

§ 1272. Affidavits or depositions need not be entitled

It is not necessary to entitle an affidavit, or deposition in the action, whether taken before or after indictment; but if made without a title, or with an erroneous title, it is as valid and effectual for every purpose as if it were duly entitled, if it intelligibly refer to the proceedings, in which it is made.

§ 1273. Informalities or errors not fatal if not prejudicial

Neither a departure from the form or mode prescribed in this chapter in respect to any pleadings or proceeding, nor an error or mistake therein, renders it invalid, unless it has actually prejudiced the defendant or tended to his prejudice, in respect to a substantial right.

§ 1275. Clerk to keep record of indictments, informations and bonds

The Clerk of the District Court shall keep a record in which all informations and bonds shall be entered and certified as true and correct copies of all original informations and bonds filed in his office, and whenever any such original indictment, information or bond filed with the clerk becomes either lost, destroyed or stolen, or for any other reason cannot be produced at the trial, a certified copy of the aforesaid record of such original information or bond shall be competent evidence and shall have the same validity and effect as the original thereof.

§ 1276. Record of informations and bonds not public

The record provided for in the preceding section shall be kept by the Clerk as a private record and to be made public only in case the original information or bond becomes lost, stolen or cannot be found.

§ 1278. Interpreters for deaf mutes—Appointment—Oath—Compensation

A. In all criminal prosecutions, where the accused is a deaf mute, he shall have all of the proceedings of the trial interpreted to him in a language that he can understand by a qualified interpreter appointed by the Court from a list of names submitted by the Oklahoma Association of the Deaf.

B. In all cases where the mental condition of a person is being considered and where such person may be committed to a mental institution, and where such person is a deaf mute, all of the court proceedings, pertaining to him, shall be interpreted to him in a language that he understands by a qualified interpreter appointed by the Court.

C. Interpreters who shall be appointed under the terms of this act shall be required to take an oath that they will make a true interpretation to the person accused or being examined, which person is a deaf mute, of all the proceedings of his case in a language that he understands; and that he will repeat said deaf mute's answers to questions to Council, Court, or jury, in the English language, in his best skill and judgment.

D. Interpreters appointed under the terms of this act shall be paid for their services a sum to be determined by the Court.

§ 1301. Information against corporation—Summons

Upon an information against a corporation, the Magistrate may issue a summons signed by him, with his name of office, requiring the corporation to appear before him at a specified time and place to answer the charge; the time to be not less than ten (10) days after the issuing of the summons.

§ 1302. Form of summons

The summons must be in substantially the following form:

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF CHEROKEE NATION

To the (naming the corporation):

You are hereby summoned to appear before me at (naming the place), on (specifying the day and hour), to answer to the charge made against you, upon the information of A. B., for (designating the offense generally.)

Dated at the city, or town, of, the day of 20

G H

Judge of District Court (as the case may be.)

§ 1303. Service of summons

The summons must be served at least five (5) days before the day of appearance fixed therein, by delivering a copy thereof and showing the original to the president, or other head of the corporation, or to the secretary, cashier or managing agent thereof.

§ 1307. Appearance and plea by corporation

If an information be filed, the corporation may appear by counsel to answer the same. If they do not thus appear, a plea of not guilty must be entered, and the same proceedings had thereon as in other cases.

§ 1308. Conviction of corporation—Fine collected, how

When a fine is imposed upon a corporation, on conviction it may be collected, by virtue of the order imposing it, by the Marshal, out of their real and personal property, in the same manner as upon an execution.

STOLEN PROPERTY AND PROPERTY TAKEN FROM DEFENDANT

§ 1321. Custody and return of stolen or embezzled property

A. It is the intent of the Council that any stolen or embezzled money or property held in custody of the Nation, state or subdivision in any criminal action or proceeding be returned to its lawful owner without unnecessary delay.

B. If the property coming into the custody of a Nation, state, municipal, county or state peace officer is not alleged to have been stolen or embezzled, the peace officer may return such property to the owner upon satisfactory proof of ownership. The notice and hearing provisions of this section shall not be required for return of the property specified in this section if there is no dispute concerning the ownership of such property, except that within fifteen (15) days of the time the owner of such property is known, the peace officer shall notify the owner of such property that the property is in the custody of the peace officer. The property shall be returned to the owner upon request.

C. When property alleged to have been stolen or embezzled, comes into the custody of a peace officer, he shall hold it subject to the order of the Magistrate authorized by 22 CNCA § 1322 to direct the disposal thereof. Within fifteen (15) days of the time the owner of such property is known, the peace officer shall notify the owner of such property that the property is in the custody of the peace officer. Such officer may provide a copy of a nonownership affidavit to the defendant to sign if such defendant is not claiming ownership of the money or property taken from the defendant and if such defendant has relinquished his right to remain silent. Such affidavit is not admissible in any proceeding to ascertain the guilt or innocence of the defendant. A copy of this affidavit shall be provided to the defendant and a copy shall be filed by the officer with the Court Clerk. Upon request, a copy of this affidavit shall be provided to any person claiming ownership of such money or property. The owner of the property or designated representative of the owner may make application to the Magistrate for the return of the property. The application shall be on a form provided by the Administrative Director of the Courts and made available through the Court Clerk. The Court may charge the applicant a reasonable fee to defray the cost of filing and docketing the application. Once application has been made and notice provided, the magistrate shall docket said application for a hearing as provided in this section. Where notice by publication is appropriate, the publication notice form shall be provided free of charge to the applicant by the Administrative Director of the Courts through the Court Clerk with instructions on how to obtain effective publication notice. The applicant shall notify the last person in possession of such property prior to such property being seized by the Nation of the hearing by mailing a copy of the notice by certified mail return receipt requested at the last-known address of such person, unless such person has signed a nonownership affidavit pursuant to this section disclaiming any ownership rights to such property. If the last person in possession of the property is unable to be served notice by said certified mail, notice shall be provided by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is held in custody. The applicant shall notify the Prosecuting Attorney and the Court when notice has been served to the last person in possession of such property or published pursuant to this section. The hearing shall be held not less than ten (10) days or more than twenty (20) days after the Court has been notified that the notice has been served or published.

D. If the Magistrate determines that the property is needed as evidence the Magistrate shall determine ownership and determine the procedure and time frame for future release. The Magistrate may order the release of property needed as evidence pursuant to 22 CNCA § 1327, provided however, the order may require the owner to present such property at trial. The property shall be made available to the owner within ten (10) days of the court order for release. The Magistrate may authorize ten (10) days additional time for the return of such exhibit if the Prosecuting Attorney shows cause that additional time is needed to photograph or mark such exhibit.

E. If the property is not needed as evidence, it may be released by the Magistrate to the owner or designated representative of the owner upon satisfactory proof of ownership. The owner of the property or designated representative of the owner may make application to the magistrate for the return of the property. The applicant shall notify the last person in possession of such property prior to such property being seized by the Nation of the hearing by mailing a copy of the notice by certified mail return receipt requested at the last-known address of such person, unless such person has signed a nonownership affidavit pursuant to this section disclaiming any ownership rights to such property. If the last person in possession of the property is unable to be served notice by said certified mail, notice shall be provided by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is held in custody. The applicant shall notify the Prosecuting

Attorney and the Court when notice has been served to the last person in possession of such property or published pursuant to this section. The hearing shall be held not less than ten (10) days or more than twenty (20) days after the Court has been notified that the notice has been served or published.

F. When property alleged to have been stolen comes into the custody of a peace officer and such property is deemed to be perishable said peace officer shall take such action as he deems appropriate to temporarily preserve the property. Provided, however, within seventy-two (72) hours of the time the property was recovered, the receiving agency shall make application for a disposition hearing before a Magistrate and the receiving agency shall notify all persons known to have an interest in the property of the date, time and place of such hearing.

G. In any case, the Magistrate may, for good cause shown, order any evidence or exhibit to be retained pending the outcome of any appeal.

§ 1322. Stolen property—Magistrate to order delivery, when

On satisfactory proof of title to the property, the Magistrate before whom the information is laid, or who examines the charge against the person accused of stealing or embezzling the property, may order it to be delivered to the owner on his paying the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, to be certified by the Magistrate. The order entitles the owner to demand and receive the property. Such property shall be made available to the owner within ten (10) days of the issuance of the order. The Court, however, may keep the property as evidence or on the issuance of an order, require the owner to present such property at trial.

§ 1323. Magistrate to deliver stolen property, when

If the property stolen or embezzled comes into the custody of a Magistrate, it must be delivered to the owner on satisfactory proof of his title, and on his paying the necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, to be certified by the Magistrate.

§ 1324. Trial Court may deliver stolen property

If property stolen or embezzled has not been delivered to the owner, the Court before which a trial is had for stealing or embezzling it, may, on proof of his title, order it to be restored to the owner.

§ 1325. Unclaimed property or money in Sheriff's possession—Disposition—Procedure

A. The Marshal is authorized to sell personal property which has come into his possession, or deposit with Cherokee Nation, as hereafter provided, all money or legal tender of the United States which has come into his possession, whether said property or money be stolen, embezzled, lost, abandoned or otherwise, the owner of said property or money being unknown or not having claimed the same, and which the Marshal or Sheriff has held for at least six (6) months, and such property or money, or any part thereof, being no longer needed to be held as evidence or otherwise used in connection with any litigation.

B. The Marshal or Sheriff shall file an application in the District Court requesting the authority of said Court to conduct a sale of such personal property, and shall attach to his application a list describing such property, including all identifying numbers and marks, if any, the date said property came into his possession and the name of the owner and his address, if known. The Court shall set said application for hearing not less than ten (10) days nor more than twenty (20) days after filing.

C. Notice shall be given of said hearing to each and every owner known and asset forth in said application by certified mail directed to his last-known address at least ten (10) days prior to the date of said hearing. Said notice shall contain a brief description of the property of said owner and the place and date of the hearing. In addition thereto notice of said hearing shall be posted in three public places in the county, one being the District Courthouse at the regular place assigned for the posting of legal notices.

D. At the hearing, if no owner appears and establishes ownership to said property, the Court shall enter an order authorizing the Sheriff to sell said personal property to the highest bidder for cash, after at least five (5) days' notice has been given by publication in one issue of a legal newspaper of the county. The Sheriff shall make a return of said sale and, when confirmed by said Court, the order confirming said sale shall vest in the purchaser title to said property so purchased.

E. The Marshal, having in his possession money or legal tender under the circumstances provided in subsection (A) above, prior to appropriating the same for deposit with Cherokee Nation, shall file an application in the District Court requesting the Court to enter an order authorizing him to so appropriate said money for deposit with Cherokee Nation. Said application shall describe the money or legal tender, together with serial numbers, if any, the date the same came into his possession, and the name of the owner and his address, if known. Upon filing, said application, which may be joined with an application as described in subsection (B) above, shall be set for hearing not less than ten (10) days nor more than twenty (20) days from the filing thereof, and notice of said hearing shall be given as provided in subsection (C) above. Such notice shall state that, upon no one appearing to prove ownership to said money or legal tender, the same will be ordered by the Court to be deposited with Cherokee Nation by the Marshal or Sheriff. Said notice may be combined with a notice to sell personal property as set forth in subsection (C) above. At the hearing, if no one appears to claim and prove ownership to said money or legal tender, the Court shall order the same to be deposited by the Marshal or Sheriff with Cherokee Nation, as provided hereafter in subsection (F).

F. The money received from the sale of personal property as above provided, after payment of the court costs and other expenses, if any, together with all money in possession of said Marshal or Sheriff, which has been ordered by the Court to be deposited with Cherokee Nation, shall be deposited in the General Fund.

When money or other property is taken from a defendant arrested upon a charge of public offense, the officer taking it must at the time give duplicate receipts therefore, specifying particularly the amount of money or the kind of property taken. One of which receipts he must deliver to the defendant, and the other of which he must file with the Clerk of the Court to which the depositions and statement must be sent, as provided in 22 O.S. § 276.

§ 1327. Disposition of exhibits

A. All exhibits which have been introduced, filed, or held in custody of the Nation in any criminal action or proceeding may be disposed of as provided for in this section.

B. The Court may, on application of the party entitled thereto, or an agent designated in writing by the owner, order all such exhibits, other than documentary exhibits, as may be released from the custody of the Court or the Nation, without prejudice to the Nation, delivered to such party at any time after the final determination of the action or proceedings; provided, however, where the action or proceeding has resulted in an order granting probation, such delivery may be made any time after the final determination of an appeal of such order, or after the time for such appeal has elapsed. Provided, further, if the owner of such exhibit is the victim of the offense for which such exhibit is held, said owner may make application to the Court at any time prior to the final disposition of the action or proceeding for the return of the exhibit. The applicant shall notify the last person in possession of such exhibit prior to such exhibit being seized by the Nation of the hearing by mailing a copy of the notice by certified mail return receipt requested at the last-known address of such person, unless such person has signed an on ownership affidavit pursuant to 22 CNCA § 1321 disclaiming any ownership rights to such exhibit. If the last person in possession of the property is unable to be served notice by said certified mail, notice shall be provided by one (1) publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is held in custody. The applicant shall notify the Prosecuting Attorney and the Court when notice has been served to the last person in possession of such property or published pursuant to this section. The hearing shall be held not less than ten (10) days or more than twenty (20) days after the Court has been notified that the notice has been served or published. In the event the Court orders the release of said exhibit to the owner, the Prosecuting Attorney shall photograph or mark said exhibit with an identification number and return the exhibit to the owner within ten (10) days of the court order. The Court may authorize ten (10) days additional time for the return of such exhibit if the Prosecuting Attorney shows cause that additional time is needed to photograph or mark such exhibit. Such photograph or marked exhibit may be presented as the exhibit in any further action or proceeding. If the party entitled to such exhibits is unknown, or fails to apply for the return of such exhibits, the procedure for their disposition shall be as follows:

1. After the expiration of six (6) months from the time the conviction becomes final, or if the action or proceeding has not resulted in a conviction, at any time after the judgment has become final, the Court in which the case was tried shall make an order specifying what exhibits may be released from the custody of the Court without prejudice to the Nation. Upon receipt of such an order, the property shall be transferred to the Marshal, Sheriff or other proper governmental agency for sale to the public. At least ten (10) days prior to such sale, notice of the sale shall be sent by certified mail return receipt requested to the last person in possession of such exhibit prior to such exhibit being seized by the Nation at the last-known address of such person;

2. At any time prior to the time fixed for the transfer, the owner or any person entitled to the possession of any of such exhibits may obtain from the Court an order returning them to him;

3. Articles not returned to their owners or to persons entitled to their possession at or prior to the time set for the transfer shall be sold by the proper receiving agency for cash. The articles shall be sold singly or in combinations. The money received from such sales shall be placed in the appropriate fund of the governmental agency responsible for the sale;

4. Where the exhibit consists of money or currency and is unclaimed at the time of the transfer, it shall not be transferred but shall be immediately deposited in the appropriate fund of the governmental agency in possession of such property; and

5. If any property is transferred to the Marshal or other governmental agency pursuant to this section it may be sold in the manner provided by law for the sale of surplus personal property. If the Marshal or other proper governmental agency determines that any such property transferred to it for sale is needed for a public use, such property may be retained by the agency and need not be sold.

C. The Court may, on application of the party entitled thereto, or an agent designated in writing by the owner, order such documentary exhibits as may be released from the custody of the Court without prejudice to the Nation delivered to such party any time after the final determination of the action or proceeding; provided, however, where the action or proceeding has resulted in an order granting probation, such delivery may be made any time after the final determination of an appeal of such order, or after the time for such appeal has elapsed. Provided, further, if the owner of such exhibit is the victim of the offense for which such exhibit is held, said owner may make application to the Court at any time prior to the final disposition of the action or proceeding for the return of the exhibit. The applicant shall notify the last person in possession of such exhibit prior to such exhibit being seized by the Nation of the hearing by mailing a copy of the notice by certified mail return receipt requested at the last-known address of such person, unless such person has signed a nonownership affidavit pursuant to 22 CNCA § 1321 disclaiming any ownership rights to such exhibit. If the last person in possession of the property is unable to be served notice by said certified mail, notice shall be provided by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is held in custody. The applicant shall notify the Prosecuting Attorney and the Court when notice has been served to the last person in possession of such property or published pursuant to this section. The hearing shall be held not less than ten (10) days or more than twenty (20) days after the Court has been notified that the notice has been served or published.

In the event the Court orders the release of said exhibit to the owner, the Prosecuting Attorney shall photograph or mark said exhibit with an identification number and return the exhibit to the owner within ten (10) days of the court order. The Court may authorize ten (10) days additional time for the return of such exhibit if the Prosecuting Attorney shows cause that additional time is needed to photograph or mark such exhibit. Such photograph or marked exhibit may be presented as the exhibit in any further action or proceeding. If the party entitled to such documentary exhibits is unknown, or fails to apply for the return of said exhibits, the procedure for their disposition shall be as follows:

1. After the expiration of six (6) months from the time the conviction becomes final, or if the action or proceeding has not resulted in a conviction, at anytime after the judgment has become final, the Court in which the case was tried shall make an order requiring such exhibits to be destroyed; provided, that no such order shall be made authorizing the destruction of any documentary exhibit if the destruction of such exhibit would prejudice the Nation; and

2. No exhibit shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of until sixty (60) days after the Clerk of the Court has posted a notice conspicuously in three public places in the county, referring to the order for the disposition, describing briefly the exhibit, and indicating the date after which the exhibit will be destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

D. The provisions of subsection (B) of this section shall not apply to any dangerous or deadly weapons, narcotic or poisonous drugs, explosives, or any property of any kind or character whatsoever the possession of which is prohibited by law. Any such property filed as an exhibit or held by the Nation shall be, by order of the Trial Court, destroyed or sold or otherwise disposed of under the conditions prescribed in such order. This act shall not be interpreted to authorize the return of any property, the possession of which is prohibited by law.

The Clerk furnishing such transcript shall be allowed the same fees for same as he is allowed by law for similar services, which shall be paid by the person entitled thereto.

REWARDS

§ 1334. Dumping, etc. of trash on public or private property—Evidence—Rewards

A. Cherokee Nation may offer and pay a reward, from funds set aside for that purpose, in an amount not less than fifty percent (50%) of the fine imposed, for the arrest and conviction or for evidence leading to the arrest and conviction of any person who violates the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1761.1.

B. Cherokee Nation may create and maintain a reward fund which shall be a revolving fund not subject to fiscal year limitations, from which to pay the rewards provided for in subsection (A) of this section. Any monies for which no claim is filed within the period provided in subsection (C) of this section, shall revert to the General Fund. Any monies remaining in the reward fund after all claims have been paid or denied shall revert to the General Fund.

C. Claims for rewards shall be on forms provided by Cherokee Nation and shall be submitted to the Prosecuting Attorney no later than thirty (30) days after sentencing of the defendant. The Prosecuting Attorney shall investigate the validity of the claim and make a nonbinding written recommendation to the Council.

D. All claims relating to a conviction shall be considered together at the next regular meeting of the Council following receipt of the Prosecuting Attorney's report.

E. In determining the amount of the reward, the Council shall have sole discretion to honor or deny the claim, but shall consider:

1. The severity of the offense;
2. The size of the fine imposed;
3. The number of persons claiming a reward and the degree to which each claimant was responsible for the arrest or conviction;
4. The burden, if any, incurred by the claimant including cost to appear at trial; and
5. Other factors which the board or governing body deems appropriate.

F. No reward shall be authorized and no debt shall accrue to Cherokee Nation upon the depletion of the reward fund authorized by this section.

G. The reward authorized by this section shall be in lieu of any other county or municipal reward.

H. Full-time peace officers of this Nation or of any state, county or municipality within this nation shall not be eligible for the reward provided by this section.

SHOPLIFTING

As used in this section:

1. "Mercantile establishment" means any mercantile place of business in, at, or from which goods, wares and merchandise are sold, offered for sale or delivered from and sold at retail or wholesale;
2. "Merchandise" means all goods, wares and merchandise offered for sale or displayed by a merchant;
3. "Merchant" means any corporation, partnership, association or person who is engaged in the business of selling goods, wares and merchandise in a mercantile establishment;
4. "Wrongful taking" includes stealing of merchandise or money and any other wrongful appropriation of merchandise or money.

§ 1342. Peace officers—Arrest without warrant

Any peace officer may arrest without warrant any person he has probable cause for believing has committed larceny of merchandise held for sale in retail or wholesale establishments, when such arrest is made in a reasonable manner.

§ 1343. Detention of suspect—Purposes

Any merchant, his agent or employee, who has reasonable grounds or probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a wrongful taking of merchandise or money from a mercantile establishment, may detain such person in a reasonable manner for a reasonable length of time for all or any of the following purposes:

1. Conducting an investigation, including reasonable interrogation of the detained person, as to whether there has been a wrongful taking of such merchandise or money;
2. Informing the police or other law enforcement officials of the facts relevant to such detention;
3. Performing a reasonable search of the detained person and his belongings when it appears that the merchandise or money may otherwise be lost; and
4. Recovering the merchandise or money believed to have been taken wrongfully. Any such reasonable detention shall not constitute an unlawful arrest or detention, nor shall it render the merchant, his agent or employee criminally or civilly liable to the person so detained.

§ 1344. Concealing unpurchased merchandise—Presumption

Any person concealing unpurchased merchandise of any mercantile establishment, either on the premises or outside the premises of such establishment, shall be presumed to have so concealed such merchandise with the intention of committing a wrongful taking of such merchandise within the meaning of 22 CNCA § 1341, and such concealment or the finding of such unpurchased merchandise concealed upon the person or among the belongings of such person shall be conclusive evidence of reasonable grounds and probable cause for the detention in a reasonable manner and for a reasonable length of time, of such person by a merchant, his agent or employee, and any such reasonable detention shall not be deemed to be unlawful, nor render such merchant, his agent or employee criminally or civilly liable.

DAMAGES

Reserved for Future Use

TITLE 24

DEBTOR AND CREDITOR

CHAPTER 1

USE OF PROPERTY TO SECURE DEBTS OF SPOUSE

§ 1. Use of property to secure debts of spouse

No property belonging exclusively to the wife shall be taken to secure the payment of the debts of the husband, without her consent, nor shall any property separately belonging to the husband, be taken to pay the debts of his wife, without the consent of the husband, and property, belonging separately to either, attached or levied upon to secure the payment of the debts of the other, may be released as in other cases; provided, that where man and wife are living together and holding property jointly, such property shall be subject to the payment of debts contracted by either while so living together.

DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Citation of Code

This Code shall be known and cited as the "Cherokee Nation Code Annotated".

§ 2. Construction of statutes generally

A. In all interpretations of statutes, the Courts shall look diligently for intention of the Council.

B. In all interpretations of statutes, the ordinary signification shall be applied to all words, except words of art or words connected with a particular trade or subject matter, which shall have the signification attached to them by experts in such trade or with reference to such subject matter.

C. In addition to the rules for construction prescribed in subsections (A) and (B) of this section, the rules provided in this subsection shall govern the construction of all statutes with respect to subjects enumerated:

1. The masculine gender includes the feminine and the neuter;
2. The singular or plural number each includes the other, unless the other is expressly excluded;
3. The present or past tense includes the future;

4. A joint authority given to any number of persons or officers may be executed by a majority of them, unless otherwise expressly provided for in the statute conferring the authority;

5. The word "person" includes corporations as well as natural persons, unless otherwise expressly provided.

D. A substantial compliance with any statutory requirement, especially on the part of public officers, shall be deemed and held sufficient and no proceeding shall be declared void for want of such compliance, unless expressly so provided by statute.

E. Unless otherwise expressly provided, the passage or repeal of a statute shall not affect any action then pending.

§ 3. Construction of definitions

Defined words shall have the meanings specified, unless the context in which the word or term is used clearly requires that a different meaning be used.

§ 4. Computation of time

Except as otherwise specifically provided, in computing any period of time prescribed by statute, the day of the event, act or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday or Sunday, in which event the period runs until the following Monday, or unless it is a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the following day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

§ 5. Severability

A. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Code, in the event any title, chapter, Code section or subdivision thereof, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this Code is declared or adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional, such declaration or adjudication shall not affect the remaining portions of this Code.

B. Except as otherwise specifically provided in a law or resolution of the Council, in the event any section, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of a law or resolution of the Council is declared or adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional, such declaration or adjudication shall not affect the remaining portions of such law or resolution, which shall remain in full force and effect as if such portion so declared or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional were not originally a part of such law or resolution. The Council declares that it would have enacted the remaining parts of the law or resolution if it had known that such portion thereof would be declared or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional.

§ 6. General repeal of laws not included—Affirmation of laws included in this Code

- A. All laws and parts of law of Cherokee Nation not included in this Code are repealed.
- B. This repeal shall not revive any law previously repealed, nor shall it affect any right already existing or accrued or any action or proceeding already taken, unless otherwise provided in this Code.
- C. All laws included in this Code are hereby affirmed as the positive law of Cherokee Nation.

§ 7. Codification of laws

A. In codifying laws enacted by the Council, the publisher may, where it will not alter the sense, meaning or effect of the law:

1. Renumber and rearrange sections or parts of sections.
2. Combine sections or divide sections so as to give to distinct subject matter a separate section.
3. Furnish or change the wording of section catchlines.
4. Substitute the proper section or chapter number for the terms "this act," "this law," "the preceding section" and the like.
5. Strike out figures where they are merely a repetition of written words and vice versa.
6. Change capitalization for the purpose of uniformity.
7. Correct manifest typographical, spelling and grammatical errors.
8. Make any other purely formal or clerical changes.
9. Change references to titles, chapters, subchapters, sections and subdivisions thereof where necessitated by renumbering or rearrangement of sections during codification or by subsequent substantive changes in the law.
10. Change references to governmental bodies and officers where necessitated by discrepancies in laws being prepared for codification or by subsequent substantive changes in the law.

B. The publisher may omit all titles of acts, all enacting, resolving, and repealing clauses, all severability clauses, all appropriation measures, all temporary or local statutes, all declarations of emergency, and all validity, declaration of policy, and construction clauses, except where the retention thereof is necessary to preserve the full meaning and intent of the law.

C. Any change made under subdivision 9 or 10 of subsection (A) of this section shall be approved by the Code Commission or its designee and shall be accompanied by an explanatory editorial note.

§ 8. Code Subcommittee—Establishment—Composition—Compensation of members—Meetings

A Code Subcommittee is hereby established within the Rules Committee of the Council of Cherokee Nation to be composed of such members of the Rules Committee as the Chairman of that Committee shall appoint. The Code Subcommittee shall serve without additional compensation. The Subcommittee shall meet upon the call of the Chairman.

§ 9. Code Subcommittee—Powers and duties generally

The Code Subcommittee shall supervise the revision of the general laws. The revision shall consist of those activities necessary to allow for the codification of the general laws. The revision activities shall include:

1. Repeal of laws or sections thereof already repealed by general repealing acts, but the repeal of which is not sufficiently specific and certain to justify their omission from the compilation of laws;
2. Repeal of laws or sections thereof superseded by subsequent statutes, but not described or indicated with sufficient definiteness to justify elimination;
3. Consolidation of sections where two or more sections cover the same subject matter;
4. Redrafting of laws or sections thereof where two or more subjects are covered in the same law or section;
5. Redrafting of laws or sections thereof which have been partially repealed, superseded or held unconstitutional;
6. Repeal of laws or sections thereof which have obviously become obsolete and entirely inapplicable because of subsequent legislation;
7. Amendment of laws or sections thereof already amended by general acts, but the amendment of which is not sufficiently specific and certain to justify their amendment in the compilation of laws;
8. Correction of terminology in the general laws to conform with the terms and names of officers made necessary by subsequent enactments;
9. Drafting of new bills from resolutions which have the purpose or intention of law.

§ 10. Code Subcommittee—Review of bills and resolutions

All bills and resolutions shall be submitted to the Code Subcommittee contemporaneously to submitting them to the Rules Committee. The Code Subcommittee shall review the bills or resolutions for conformity, format, and assignment of title and section.

CHAPTER 2

LAWS AND RESOLUTIONS

§ 21. Definition and style of laws

When a permanent rule of conduct of government in the form of a continuing regulation is the intent of the Council of Cherokee Nation, the same shall be effected by an enactment of law of Cherokee Nation, the following form shall be used:

A copy of all original resolutions shall be made available for public inspection in the Office of the Legislative Branch in the Cherokee Nation seat of government.

TITLE 26

ELECTIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Purpose

This title is adopted for the purpose of conducting all Cherokee Nation elections, for Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, Council, Constitutional amendments, initiatives and referenda of Cherokee Nation.

§ 2. Authority

This Title is enacted pursuant to Article IX, Section 1 of the Constitution of Cherokee Nation ruled effective by the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court on July 26, 2003.

§ 3. Definitions

For purposes of this Title, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

1. "At-large registered voter" means a person who is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, under the age of twenty-five (25) residing outside of the jurisdictional boundaries of the Cherokee Nation, who has not previously registered to vote, and fails to choose a single district upon the time of their first registration; and citizens age twenty-five (25) and older residing outside of the boundaries not registered to vote at the time of the first election to fill at-large Council seats pursuant to Article VI, § 3 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.
2. "Ballot box" means the locked box or electronic counting device in which ballots are inserted when votes are cast or any transfer case used for ballots inserted in an electronic counting device.
3. "Candidate" means a person who has filed and is qualified to run in an election to hold elective office in the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with 26 CNCA §§ 31 to 34 and in accordance with the Cherokee Nation Constitution.
4. "Citizen of Cherokee Nation" means a person enrolled as a citizen of Cherokee Nation pursuant to 11 CNCA § 11 et seq.
5. "Computer technology" shall include electronic hardware and software.
6. "Constitutional amendment" means constitutional amendment(s) proposed by Cherokee Nation Council that are submitted to the registered voters of Cherokee Nation for the purposes of voting on said amendment(s) at a special or general election pursuant to Article XV, Section 2 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution and Article XV, Section 3 which gives the right of the people to propose constitutional amendments.

7. "Council" means the Council of Cherokee Nation.

8. "Council Member" means a Member of the Council of Cherokee Nation.

9. "Counting device" means an electronic device used for the purpose of accepting and counting ballots and for all other legitimate purposes related to the conduct of an election.

10. "Election Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Election Commission created pursuant to Article IX, Section 1 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

11. "Election outcome" means the determination of the candidate winning an election for office; and the determination of the passage or failure of an initiative or referendum question.

12. "Election results" means the number of votes in favor of each candidate for office; and the number of votes in favor of and opposed to each constitutional amendment or initiative or referendum question.

13. "Election Services Office" means the Cherokee Nation Election Services Office established under 26 CNCA § 14.

14. "Elective office" means the office of Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and Tribal Council.

15. "Election period" shall include the primary election and the runoff election.

16. "General election" means a regular election for offices of the Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief and for seats on the Cherokee Nation Council as provided by law on a date certain; provided that elections for the following purposes may also occur during a general election: consideration of referendum and initiative petitions pursuant to Article XV, Sections 3 and 4 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, and consideration of constitutional amendments pursuant to Article XV, Sections 1 and 2 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

17. "Initiative petition" means a petition submitted by the registered voters of the Cherokee Nation for purposes of proposing any legislative measure and constitutional amendment pursuant to Article XV, Sections 1, 3, 5 and 6 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

18. "Jurisdictional boundaries" means the boundaries described by the patents of 1838 and 1846 diminished only by the Treaty of July 19, 1866, and the Act of March 3, 1893, which encompasses all or portions of the northeastern fourteen (14) counties of Oklahoma.

19. "Officer" means the Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief.

20. "Original enrollee" is as defined by 11 CNCA § 4.1, derived only through proof of Cherokee blood based on the Final Rolls.

21. "Political purposes" means actions or activities designed to influence the success or defeat of a candidate for elective office or any ballot measure.

22. "Precinct" shall mean an official voting place within a district, as designated by the Election Commission.

23. "Precinct Board" means a Cherokee Nation Election Precinct Board for each precinct, appointed by the Election Commission and exercising the duties set forth in 26 CNCA § 12(C).

24. "Primary election" means the initial submission of candidates or measures to a vote of the people during a general election or a special election, prior to a runoff election.

25. "Referendum petition" means a petition submitted by registered voters of Cherokee Nation for purposes of submitting to a vote of the people all or a portion of a Council enactment pursuant to Article XV, Sections 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

26. "Registration" means the act of registering to vote in a resident voter's home district, or in the case of a non-resident voter, the act of registering in the district of choice, in accordance with Article VI, Section 3 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

27. "Re-register" means the act of changing a voter registration as a result of a change in residency for purposes of changing voting districts or for other legitimate purposes.

28. "Residence" means the home, a place or dwelling in which one lives; "residence" is synonymous with "domicile" which is the principal place of the residence of an individual. This definition is for the purposes of defining voter residency for the Cherokee Nation Election Code.

29. "Resident registered voter" means a person whose residence is inside of the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation at the time he or she registers to vote or when any portion of their residence is inside the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation. The Cherokee Nation Election Commission and their mapping providers shall make the determination of location by providing maps of the voter's residence. Once the determination has been made, the registered voter has the one-time, initial option, to choose the district in which to vote, regardless of whether their residence lies within two (2) districts or at-large, which will then be how the voter votes in the future.

30. "Runoff election" means the election of one of the two candidates for an executive office or Council seat who had the highest number of votes at the primary election; a runoff election may occur during a general or special election.

31. "Special election" means an election specially set on a date other than the date certain established for general elections, for one or more of the following purposes: consideration of referendum and initiative petitions when special election is required by the Council or Principal

Chief pursuant to Article XV, Section 4 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, consideration of constitutional amendments when special election is required by the Council pursuant to Article XV, Sections 2 and 4 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, election by the Council to fill Council vacancies pursuant to Article VI, Section 13 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, election of the Principal Chief pursuant to Article VII, Section 5 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

§ 4. Tenure of elected officials

Tenure of the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and Council Members shall be a term of four (4) years pursuant to Article VI, Section 3 and Article VII, Section 1 of the Constitution, except for vacancies that are filled in accordance with Article VI, Section 13 and Article VII, Section 5 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

§§ 5 to 10. Reserved

CHAPTER 2

SUPERVISORY BODIES AND ELECTION SERVICES OFFICE

§ 11. Cherokee Nation Election Commission

Election Commission; Establishment and Appointment. There shall be a Cherokee Nation Election Commission. The Election Commission shall be composed of five (5) members, two (2) appointed by the Council, two (2) appointed by the Principal Chief and one (1) selected by those four (4) appointees who shall be confirmed by the Principal Chief and the Council. The Election Commission shall have the sole responsibility and explicit authority for the conduct of all Cherokee Nation elections, including activities described in subsection (D) of this section. It shall be an independent commission in the performance of its statutory authority and in the performance of such authority shall not be subject to direction or supervision or of any other type of influence by the Executive Office or the Cherokee Nation Council.

A. Term. The Election Commission shall be appointed as soon as practical, preferably within six (6) months following the expiration of the term of the Election Commission which served the prior general election. Each Election Commission member shall serve a term commencing with the day of appointment and ending on October 1 of the general election year for which he or she served as an Election Commissioner. A person appointed or selected to fill a vacancy on the Election Commission shall serve only the remaining term of the vacant position.

1. Staggered terms. Beginning with the appointment of an Election Commissioner in October 2011, the Tribal Council shall appoint one (1) member to a four- (4) year term and one (1) member to a six- (6) year term. The Principal Chief shall appoint one (1) member for a four- (4) year term and one (1) member for a six- (6) year term. The members shall then select a person to be the fifth member of the Election Commission for a four- (4) year term to be confirmed by the Principal Chief and Tribal Council. Thereafter all appointments shall be for a four- (4) year term.

2. Holdover clause. Members of the Election Commission shall remain in office until their successors are duly appointed and confirmed.

3. Vacancies. In the case of death, removal or resignation of a Commissioner the Branch of Government which made the appointment shall select the replacement, who will serve the remainder of the term.

B. Qualifications. No elected official of Cherokee Nation, no person who is related within the third degree by either consanguinity or affinity to an elected official, no employee of Cherokee Nation, including any corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned by Cherokee Nation, no person who has been convicted of a felony, no person who has ever plead no contest or guilty to a felony without said matter being expunged from court records, or convicted of a crime in any tribal court of any federally recognized Indian tribe that would be considered a felony in state or federal court shall serve on the Election Commission. No candidate or regular employee of a candidate for office or person who is related within the third degree by either consanguinity or affinity to a candidate for office shall serve on the Election Commission.

C. Duties. The Election Commission shall have the responsibility of conducting all general and special elections. The Election Commission shall also engage in the following activities in the performance of its responsibilities:

1. Elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson/parliamentarian, and a secretary/treasurer from its own membership;

2. Publish a schedule for its regular meetings, establish an agenda for each meeting in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, approve and maintain correct and accurate minutes of its deliberations, and rules and regulations of the Commission which shall be regularly posted on the Cherokee Nation website;

3. Hire independent legal counsel as needed, who shall not be employed in any other manner by Cherokee Nation or any agency or enterprise of Cherokee Nation;

4. Use available technology, including without limitation facsimile machines and computer technology; provided that computer technology may include any necessary accompanying consultant services related thereto, in the conduct of elections; and provided further that selection of computer hardware, computer software and computer consultant services and related costs shall be approved by the Principal Chief and the Council;

5. Oversee the registration of voters, provided that nothing herein shall affect the validity of registration of voters during any period between expiration of the term of one Election Commission and the seating of the next Election Commission;

6. Maintain current voter lists and use all efforts to diligently update said lists with correct addresses and phone numbers;

7. Develop rules and regulations necessary to conduct Cherokee Nation elections, provided that such rules and regulations shall be published and transmitted to the Council no later than ninety (90) days before the first day of filing for the election for which said rules and regulations are intended to apply, unless a shorter time is prescribed by the Council for purposes of a special election. Said rules are to be published in the Cherokee Phoenix and on the official website of Cherokee Nation as soon as practicable after transmittal to the Council;

8. Approve the number and location of precincts and notify the Council of the identity of such sites no later than ninety (90) days before the first day of filing before the election. Said locations are to be published in the Cherokee Phoenix and on the official website of Cherokee Nation as soon as practicable after transmittal to the Council;

9. Provide the various Precinct Board officials with the proper instruction and training for performing their duties;

10. Determine the eligibility of all candidates for office pursuant to 26 CNCA § 36(C) and have the first authority to consider challenges to candidate eligibility;

11. Conduct all election recounts pursuant to 26 CNCA § 94;

12. Conduct all general and special elections by secret ballot, provided that elections by the Council to fill vacant Council seats shall be by public roll call vote:

a. prepare and order the official ballot or ballots;

b. issue ballots and all support materials to hold an election;

c. be responsible for the storage and safekeeping of all election ballots and related documents after the close of the election pursuant to procedures established by the Election Commission;

d. engage in any other activities for the performance of its responsibilities as required by the provisions of this title.

e. provide written reports and recommendations on a not less than monthly basis to the Council and Principal Chief through the Rules Committee on activities of the Commission related to the conduct of elections. The Chairman or his or her designee shall give said report no less than on a monthly basis.

f. investigate and audit all financial reports and disclosures required by this act, and to report any violations to the Cherokee Nation Attorney General and/or Cherokee Nation law enforcement. Further, the Election Commission has the authority to assess any fines, penalties or other sanctions authorized by this act.

D. Meetings. The Election Commission shall conduct business in open meetings at the Election Services Office or other public location designated by the Commission, provided that the Commission complies with the provisions of LA 25–01 and its subsequent amendments, known as the Cherokee Nation Freedom of Information and Rights of Privacy Act, 67 CNCA § 101 et seq.

E. Compensation. The Election Commission members shall receive stipends or compensation for their services in accordance with their itemized budget approved by the Council.

F. Removal of Election Commission members. An Election Commission member may be removed from office for committing the following acts:

1. willful neglect of the duties prescribed in this act;
2. corruption in office;
3. habitual drunkenness;
4. incompetency, misfeasance, or malfeasance of office;
5. any conviction involving moral turpitude committed while in office;
6. campaigning for any candidate or measure or who otherwise improperly interferes with or attempts to improperly interfere with the conduct of any election;
7. violation of any law of Cherokee Nation that would be a felony in the State of Oklahoma;

A petition for removal of an Election Commissioner may be brought by a majority vote of the Tribal Council or the Principal Chief. An Election Commissioner accused of violating the provisions of this act shall be given notice of the hearing and charges and an opportunity to respond to the charges. The hearing shall be before the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court in accordance with its Rules and Procedures. If the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court finds that a commissioner has committed an act that would warrant removal that member shall be removed as a Commissioner.

§ 12. Precinct Boards

A. Establishment of Precinct Boards. There shall be a Precinct Board consisting of not more than twelve (12) people but, adequate in number to carry out the provision of this act for each precinct defined in 26 CNCA § 3(19), and for any other places specified by the Election Commission. Each Precinct Board shall be appointed by the Election Commission. The responsibilities of each Precinct Board official shall be established by the Election Commission, and may include titles such as inspector, judge, clerk and any other position titles deemed necessary by the Election Commission.

B. Qualifications. No elected official of Cherokee Nation, no person who is related within the first degree by either consanguinity or affinity to an elected official, and no employee of Cherokee Nation, including any corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned by Cherokee Nation, shall serve on a Precinct Board. No candidate or regular employee of a candidate for office or person who is related within the first degree by either consanguinity or affinity to a candidate for office shall serve on a Precinct Board.

C. Duties. Each Precinct Board shall oversee the conduct of elections at its assigned precinct within a district, including the following specific duties:

1. ensure that the identity of each person attempting to vote is established either through personal knowledge or photo ID;
2. ensure that the name of each person attempting to vote is on the voter registration list at the particular precinct where each person is attempting to vote;
3. ensure that the voter countersigns his name or makes his mark on the register of persons voting, provided that the mark of a voter who makes his or her mark on the register shall be witnessed by the Precinct Inspector and one other precinct official who shall write his or her initials beside the mark;
4. ensure that only (1) ballot is cast by the voter at the precinct;
5. make a final decision for the Election Commission regarding questions of eligibility of a person to vote pursuant to the procedure for challenged ballots set forth in 26 CNCA § 64;
6. ensure that the ballot boxes are locked at all times except when the ballots are being counted; or if counting devices are used, to ensure that said devices are not subject to tampering and that transfer cases are secured;
7. count the ballots cast and make a tally thereof, provided that counting and tallying may be made manually or by an electronic counting device;
8. make precinct certified election returns to include the number of votes cast in that precinct and a vote tally, and post a copy thereof on the exterior of the precinct;
9. preserve mutilated ballots;
10. return all of the ballot boxes after counting and lock, seal, and mark the boxes with the name of the precinct and date of election;
11. return the unused ballots, spoiled and mutilated ballots, and locked and sealed ballot boxes to the Election Services Office immediately following the election; and
12. report conduct which, based on actual observation or information from another person, appears to the precinct board member to violate 26 CNCA § 52 to the appropriate Cherokee Nation authorities.

D. Presence during voting hours. No member of a Precinct Board shall leave the precinct during voting hours. If it becomes necessary for any Precinct Board member to leave the precinct or premises, said member cannot return to the precinct.

E. Compensation. A Precinct Board member shall receive such stipend or compensation for his or her services as prescribed by the Election Commission.

Each Election Commission member, each member of the Election Services Office staff and each Precinct Board member, before entering upon the duties of his or her respective positions, shall take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will faithfully execute the duties of the Election Commission [or Election Services Office or Precinct Board] of Cherokee Nation in a responsible, impartial and unbiased manner, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitutions of Cherokee Nation and the United States of America. I swear or affirm further, that I will do everything within my power to promote the culture, heritage and traditions of Cherokee Nation."

§ 14. Election Services Office

A. Permanent office. The Election Services Office shall be maintained on a full-time basis with a permanent staff and/or temporary staff as necessary to conduct every election. The site of the Election Services Office shall be at a location apart from the Cherokee Nation W. W. Keeler Complex Building and shall maintain strong security measures.

B. Staff. All election staff, excluding members of the Election Commission, shall be deemed employees of Cherokee Nation, shall receive all benefits of Cherokee Nation employees and shall be subject to all applicable Cherokee Nation human resources policies and procedures.

C. Administrator. The Administrator of the Election Commission shall be a Cherokee citizen who is independently hired by the Election Commission using objective standards developed by the Election Commission and in accordance with Cherokee Nation human resources policies and procedures, provided that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the removal or replacement of the Administrator at the time of enactment of this law or serving in said position at any time when new Commissioners take office. The Administrator shall be under the direct supervision of the Election Commission. At all times the Administrator shall maintain independence and report to the Council and the Principal Chief. The Administrator shall have exclusive authority over the day-to-day operations of the Election Commission staff, including without limitation: direct supervisory authority over the Election Commission staff; authority over procurements, including the ordering of routine supplies, responsibility for budget preparation and preparation of financial reports for the Election Commission.

§§ 15 to 20. Reserved

CHAPTER 3

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGISTRATION OF VOTERS

§ 21. Eligibility to vote

A. Basic requirements. Subject to the limitations contained herein, any person who meets the following requirements shall be entitled to vote in any election held by Cherokee Nation:

1. The person shall be a citizen of Cherokee Nation eighteen (18) years of age or older as of the date of any election; and
2. A person shall be registered to vote no later than the last business day in March of the election year. Provided that Cherokee citizens that are seventeen (17) years old and can show that their birth date is prior to the date of the primary election shall be allowed to register to vote (except for Original Enrollees as provided in this chapter);
 - a. If said person is a resident voter as defined herein he or she shall affiliate with the district in which he or she resides;
 - b. If said person is an at-large voter as defined herein he or she shall be affiliated with a district pursuant to Article VI, Section 3 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

Any person who voted in the last primary, general or special election shall be deemed eligible to vote unless the Commission has notice that they have relinquished their citizenship. The Election Commission shall maintain the list of eligible voters.

B. Original Enrollees. An Original Enrollee who is not on the voter list at a precinct but who appears at the precinct with proof that he or she is an Original Enrollee and that his or her place of residence was within that district prior to the date of the election may complete a voter registration form and may be allowed to cast a ballot immediately thereafter.

C. Voting by districts.

1. Resident registered voters. Every resident registered voter shall be registered to vote in the district of his or her residence. A resident registered voter shall have the right to vote only for the candidate for a Council seat for the district in which the voter resides, and cannot vote for a candidate for a Council seat for any other district except as provided for in paragraph 4 of this subsection.
2. At-large registered voters. Every at-large registered voter shall be registered to vote in the at-large district, unless said voter has elected to remain a voter in a district pursuant to Article VI, Section 3 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution. Provided, when redistricting occurs, at-large registered voters who elected to remain a voter within a district pursuant to Article VI, Section 3 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, shall be notified by regular mail notifying the voter of his or her right to choose a new district that was part of their original district. The at-large registered voter shall have ninety (90) days from the date of the notice to notify the Election Commission of their choice of a new district. After the expiration of the ninety (90) day period, the voter shall be automatically assigned to the appropriate district based on the precinct chosen at the time of registration.

3. Re-registration for purposes of changing district and/or precinct. A resident registered voter who has moved to a new district and who wishes to change precincts within their district, shall re-register for a new district and/or precinct on or before, but not after, the last business day in March of the election year, in order to effect a change of voting district and/or precinct for said election year; provided that the new registration form shall be delivered to the Election Services Office by 5:00 p.m. on or before said day in order to be valid for said election year.

4. Effect of failure to re-register. Any registered voter who fails to change his or her voting district and/or precinct by re-registering with a new district and/or a new precinct on or before the last business day in March of the election year must vote during the current election year for the candidate for Council within the district in which the person was registered to vote as of said date.

5. At-large voters who have previously chosen districts. At-large registered voters who have previously selected a district within the jurisdictional boundaries in accordance with Article VI, Section 3 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution may select, at the time of the 2013 election, a district that was subsequently part of their original district.

§ 22. Registration process

A. Ongoing process. The Election Services Office shall conduct registration of voters on an ongoing basis. This process shall include periodic publicity and community outreach efforts by the Election Services Office. The Election Service Office shall publish information promoting voter registration at least four (4) times annually, in the Cherokee Phoenix and Cherokee Nation websites.

B. Cards. The Election Services Office shall issue voter identification cards to registered voters. Whenever possible, the card should be in a picture-ID format. The card may be used as a convenient means of identification of persons whose names appear on the voter list.

§ 23. Voter database—Coordination with Registrar—Preparation of list of voters

A. Database. The Cherokee Nation Election Services Office shall establish and maintain an independent database which shall be accessible by the Cherokee Nation Registration Department for voter registration purposes. The Election Services Office shall have access to information maintained by the Cherokee Nation Registrar by computer modem, including without limitation the following information: citizenship verification, deaths, new citizens, and address changes.

B. Lists. The Election Services Office database shall include the voter list, that includes the names and the district and precinct of each registered voter who is eligible to vote in an upcoming election. Said list may be separated into a listing of such persons who have applied for absentee ballots and those who have not applied for absentee ballots. The Election Commission shall designate those addresses on the lists that do not appear to be the current addresses for designated voters.

C. List information. Each list specified in subsection (B) of this section shall contain the following information for each voter listed: name, last known address, date of birth, last known phone number, social security number or other identifying number, date of citizenship enrollment, dates of voter registration and re-registration, voting district and precinct, the voter's participation in past elections and any other information deemed relevant by the Election Services Office; provided that any list released pursuant to 26 CNCA § 25 shall exclude the voter's date of birth, social security number or any other identifying number.

D. Maintenance. Each list as it existed as of a specific election date shall be maintained by the Election Services Office for at least five (5) years following December 31 of the year that the specific election occurred.

§ 24. Removal of names from the voter lists

Deceased relinquished and disenrolled persons. The Election Services Office shall remove the names of any deceased citizens and persons who have been disenrolled from the voter list, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the death or disenrollment as specified by the Cherokee Nation Registration Department.

§ 25. Obtaining list—Duplication of list

The most recent voter list shall be made available to all citizens of Cherokee Nation, subject to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Freedom of Information Act, 67 CNCA § 101 et seq. The voter list shall be made available on paper, computer diskette, gummed labels, electronically, or any other method available. The Election Commission may charge a nominal fee to cover the costs of duplication of the voter list, provided that the voter list shall be subject to inspection free of charge during the business hours of the Election Commission.

§§ 26 to 30. Reserved

CHAPTER 4

QUALIFICATIONS OF AND FILING BY CANDIDATES

§ 31. General qualifications of candidates for elective office—Certifications and acknowledgments

A. General qualifications. Each candidate who desires to run for the elective Cherokee Nation office of Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief or Council Member shall meet the following general eligibility requirements consistent with the Constitution of Cherokee Nation, Article VI,

Section 3, Article VII, Sections 2 and 3, and Article IX, Section 2:

1. The candidate shall be a citizen of Cherokee Nation, in accordance with Article IV of the Constitution of Cherokee Nation and shall be a citizen by blood of Cherokee Nation;
2. The candidate shall not have been convicted of or have pled guilty or no defense to a felony charge under the laws of the United States of America, or of any state, territory or possession thereof, or convicted of a crime in any Tribal Court of any federally-recognized Indian tribe that would be considered a felony in state or federal court, unless such person has received a pardon from an authorized official of the jurisdiction in which the candidate was convicted or pled guilty or no defense to said felony charge; provided that for purposes of this section, a deferred sentence and/or an expungement of a felony record shall not constitute a pardon or affect or erase the felony conviction, a guilty plea to a felony charge, or a plea of no defense to a felony charge;
3. The candidate shall not hold any office of honor, profit or trust in any other tribe of Indians, either elective or appointive, if elected to the Cherokee Nation office which he or she is seeking;
4. Any outstanding fines imposed by the Election Commission during a previous Cherokee Nation election must be paid before a person can be eligible to run as a candidate for an elective office in a subsequent election.

B. Prerequisites for filing. In addition to the general eligibility qualifications set forth in subsection (A) herein, a candidate must not be in violation of any of the following at the time of filing:

1. The candidate shall not be an employee of Cherokee Nation, including any corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned by Cherokee Nation, as of the date of filing or at any time thereafter if elected; provided, that an incumbent serving in an elective office shall not be deemed to be an employee for purposes of this section;
2. The candidate may not file to run for an office if he or she has already filed to run for another office in the same election, unless the prior filing is withdrawn.

C. Other qualifications. In addition to the requirements set forth in this section, each candidate shall meet any other applicable requirements as set forth in the Constitution of Cherokee Nation and this chapter.

§ 32. Special qualifications for Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief

In addition to the general qualifications set forth in Section 31 of this Title, the qualifications for Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief as set forth in Article VII of the Constitution shall be as follows:

1. Age. The candidate shall have obtained the age of thirty (30) years at the time of the election;
2. Residence. The candidate shall have established a bona fide permanent residence within the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation for no less than two hundred seventy (270) days immediately preceding the day of the general election in which he or she is seeking election. Proof of a bona fide permanent residence shall be regulated by the Election Commission. If elected to office, the candidate shall continuously maintain a bona fide permanent residence within the jurisdictional boundaries. Failure to meet this requirement shall subject the person to disqualification and removal from office.

In addition to the general qualifications set forth in 26 CNCA § 31, the qualifications for Council Member shall be as follows:

1. Age. The candidate shall have obtained the age of twenty-five (25) years of age at the time of the election.
2. Residence. The candidate shall have established a bona fide permanent residence in the district for which he or she is a candidate for no less than two hundred seventy (270) days immediately preceding the day of the general election in which he or she is seeking election. Proof of a bona fide permanent residence shall be regulated by the Election Commission. If elected to office, the candidate shall maintain a bona fide permanent residence in the district which he or she represents. Failure to meet this requirement shall subject the person to disqualification and removal from office. This section shall not apply to at-large district candidates, and thereby shall require that they establish a bona fide permanent residence located outside the jurisdictional boundaries of the Cherokee Nation no less than two hundred seventy (270) days immediately preceding the day of the general election to which he or she is seeking election.

Proof of a bona fide permanent residence, necessary to qualify as a candidate for Council, Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief shall be regulated by the Election Commission, subject to the following definitions and requirements:

1. Definition. "Residence" is synonymous with the term "domicile" or "abode" and means a place where the candidate has a true, fixed and permanent home, and to which, whenever absent, the candidate has the intention to return;
2. Verification. Verification of residence may be shown by at least three (3) of the following documents, provided always that such documents show one or more addresses within the required geographic area for a continuous period of two hundred seventy (270) days for the time-period outlined in the requirements for each elective office:
 - a. current driver's license(s);
 - b. utility bill or bills;

- c. income tax return from the preceding year;
- d. state or county voter's registration;
- e. homestead exemption;
- f. a bona fide document evidencing such verification.

§ 35. Filing fees generally

A. Amount; payment. A filing fee shall be charged each candidate filing for an elected office of Cherokee Nation. Such fees are to be filed and paid to the Election Commission by cash, cashier's check, money order, or valid check at the Cherokee Nation Election Services Office, Tahlequah, Oklahoma. The fees shall be as follows:

Office of the Principal Chief $750.00

Office of the Council $250.00

B. No refund. No refund of filing fee shall be permitted for any reason, even if the candidate withdraws voluntarily or is disqualified under the provisions of this law.

§ 36. Filing of candidacy—Withdrawal of candidacy

1. Filing period. The filing date shall be for a four- (4) day period commencing at 8:00 a.m. on the first Monday of March of the election year and ending at 5:00 p.m. on the first Thursday following the first Monday of March. The deadline for filing for an elective office of Cherokee Nation shall be publicized by the Election Commission.

2. Certifications and acknowledgments. To be eligible to run for elective office, each prospective candidate shall submit an application established by the Election Commission, which at a minimum shall contain the following:

a. Proof of citizenship by Indian blood consisting of his or her Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood card and a Cherokee Nation citizenship card issued in his or her name in accordance with Articles IV, VI, VII of the Constitution of Cherokee Nation, and 11 CNCA § 1 et seq.;

b. Proof of residency;

c. Proof of age;

d. Certification that at time of filing that he or she is not an employee, voting board member or a Election Commission member of Cherokee Nation, including any corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned by Cherokee Nation, and acknowledgment that he or she understands that should he or she become an employee during the election process, he or she shall be automatically disqualified as a candidate;

e. Certification that if elected to office, said candidate shall resolve all conflicts of interest as defined by 28 CNCA § 1 et seq.;

f. Acknowledgment that said candidate shall be automatically disqualified in the event that any false or misleading information or statements are made in filing for office; and

g. Such other documents, certifications and acknowledgments required by regulation of the Election Commission.

3. Background checks and eligibility certification. The Election Commission shall conduct background checks and review all information necessary for a determination of eligibility pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Commission. The Election Commission shall issue an official letter certifying the eligibility of each candidate or denying said eligibility, within twelve (12) working days after the close of the filing period.

4. Withdrawal of candidacy. Any candidate who wishes to withdraw from the election shall have the opportunity to do so by providing a formal written notice to the Election Commission ten (10) working days after the deadline for filing.

§ 37. Challenges

A. Third-party challenge of eligibility. Any citizen of Cherokee Nation registered to vote shall have the right to contest the eligibility of any candidate to run for office. The protest shall be received by the Election Commission in writing within five (5) working days after the close of the filing period. The hearing shall be conducted in conformance with rules and regulations adopted by the Election Commission for said proceedings. Said rules and regulations shall provide the candidate reasonable notice of the challenge and the opportunity to respond at a hearing before the Election Commission.

B. Candidate eligibility determination appeals to the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court. An appeal of any decision of the Election Commission concerning a candidate's eligibility shall be filed with the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court in writing no later than five (5) days after receipt of the Election Commission's notice of denial or approval of eligibility for candidacy. Only the person denied eligibility or the person who originally filed a protest challenging the person's eligibility shall be permitted to file an appeal. The Election Commission Chairperson shall deliver copies of each notice of appeal and all related documents to the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court in a timely manner as directed by the Court.

C. Notice and scheduling of hearing. The Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall issue notice of a hearing date within three (3) working days of the Court's receipt of an appeal of an Election Commission finding of a candidate's eligibility or ineligibility. The hearing shall be held no later than ten (10) working days from date of issuance of said notice. The hearing may be continued to a later designated date for good cause, provided that said date shall not be more than ten (10) working days from date of the originally scheduled hearing.

D. Conduct of hearing; decision. At the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court hearing, the candidate who is the subject of the challenge, the third party challenging the finding of eligibility and the Election Commission may each present testimony of witnesses, evidence and legal arguments. The Election Commission may be represented by the Election Commission's independent counsel. No other attorney shall appear on behalf of Cherokee Nation or the Executive or Legislative Branches at the Government's expense. The other parties to the proceedings may be represented by counsel at their own expense. The decision of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall be served on the parties no later than five (5) days following the date of the hearing. The decision of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court regarding a candidate's eligibility shall be final.

After a hearing held in conformance with the regulations adopted by the Election Commission, any candidate found to be directly or indirectly interfering or attempting to interfere with the Election Commission's performance of its duties, or improperly influencing or attempting to influence the Election Commission while it is performing its duties, shall be disqualified by the Election Commission from running for elected office of Cherokee Nation for the duration of the upcoming election period. Said regulations shall provide the candidate with reasonable notice of the charges and the opportunity to respond at a hearing before the Election Commission, and shall specify the manner in which the charges shall be presented and by whom. Any candidate disqualified from holding office pursuant to this section may appeal the Election Commission's disqualification decision by filing a written appeal with the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court in conformance with the requirements of 26 CNCA § 37(B).

§§ 39, 40. Reserved

CHAPTER 5

DISCLOSURE OF CAMPAIGN FINANCES

For purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

1. "Campaign contribution" means a contribution in money or services to a candidate or political committee that is offered or given with the intent that it be used in connection with a campaign for elective office or on behalf of a ballot measure. Whether a contribution is made before, during, or after an election does not affect its status as a campaign contribution.
2. "Campaign expenditure" means an expenditure of money or services incurred by any person in connection with a campaign for an elective office or on behalf of a ballot measure. Whether an expenditure is incurred before, during or after an election does not affect its status as a campaign expenditure.

3. "Financial agent" means the person or persons designated and authorized by a candidate to accept contributions and pay obligations related to the candidate's campaign pursuant to 26 CNCA § 42.

4. "In-kind contribution" means any campaign contribution of a good or service rather than a money donation. In-kind contributions shall be reported as such, and the report shall include the name of the donor, his or her address, employer and occupation, and the fair market value of the good or service contributed.

5. "Legal entity" means any associations or groups comprised of any combination of individuals or corporations that expresses interest by political activities, financial contributions or other methods of either support for or opposition to any candidate for any office in any Cherokee Nation Election.

6. "Loan" means any payment made from the candidate's own funds for campaign purposes, or any funds obtained by loan to the candidate from a bank, savings and loan association or credit union on his or her own behalf, and shall be considered as contributions.

7. "Report" means a financial disclosure report required by this chapter.

§ 42. Designation of financial agent filing—Penalty

No later than the filing date for an election, each candidate shall file with the Election Commission a statement of designation, containing the names and addresses of every person authorized as the candidate's financial agent by or through whom said candidate has expended or proposes to expend money in defraying the expenses of his or her campaign, or a statement that the candidate has not authorized and will not authorize any person to act for him or her, but that the candidate will account for all money or other things of value expended in the interest of his or her candidacy. The candidate will be allowed to amend the designation any time prior to the opening of the polls on the day set for the election. Should the candidate fail to file said statement, the Election Commission shall find the candidate in violation of this section and shall assess the candidate a fine in an amount no less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and no more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

Any person, persons or entity who files a ballot measure which shall include but not be limited to initiative questions, referendum questions or constitutional amendments shall register a financial agent with the Election Commission and shall follow the financial disclosure requirements set forth in this Title.

§ 43. Restrictions related to contributions

A. Contributors limited to individual natural persons. Contributions may only be made by individual natural persons. No corporation, partnership, and/or any other legal entity shall contribute to any Cherokee Nation campaign or candidate.

B. Contribution amount limits. No person shall contribute more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash or in kind to any one (1) candidate during an election period.

C. Contributions on behalf of another; contributions in name of minor; reimbursements. No person shall knowingly make or authorize a campaign contribution or political expenditure in the name of or on behalf of another person, unless the other person's name is provided in order for the proper disclosure to be made. No contributions shall be made in the name of a minor. No person shall directly or indirectly reimburse another for a contribution to a candidate.

D. Prohibition against intimidation. No person, corporation or other legal entity shall use or threaten to use physical force, job discrimination, employment reprisal, employment reward, or financial reprisal to obtain money or any other thing of value for the purpose of influencing the result of an election or to assist an office holder.

E. Every person shall provide their name, address, telephone number, type of employment and employer's name with every contribution made to a candidate or on behalf of a ballot measure. The candidate or his or her financial agent shall forward this information to the Election Commission.

§ 44. Candidate requirements related to acceptance of campaign contributions and expenditures

A. Period for acceptance of campaign contributions. No officeholder, no candidate, no potential candidate for elective office and no financial agent shall receive campaign contributions prior to the beginning of the six- (6) month period immediately preceding the primary or special election date for the office sought by said candidate or potential candidate, or past the date which is six months immediately following said primary or special election date. Unless otherwise provided all campaign contributions shall include the name, address, occupation and the amount given by the individual.

B. No personal use of contributions. No candidate or financial agent who receives a campaign contribution may convert the contribution to personal use, including any use that primarily furthers individual or family purposes not connected with the performance of duties or activities as a candidate for elective office. Left-over contributions will be placed in an escrow account to be reserved for the cost of subsequent Cherokee Nation elections.

C. Prohibition against intimidation. No candidate or financial agent shall knowingly solicit or accept a contribution or make any expenditure by using anything of value secured by actual or threat of physical force, job discrimination, employment reprisal, employment reward, or financial reprisals.

D. Prohibition related to Cherokee Nation employees. No candidate or financial agent shall solicit a contribution from an employee of Cherokee Nation, including an employee of any corporation, agency or other entity that is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned by Cherokee Nation, in exchange for any advantage or promise of an advantage conditioned on making a contribution, or based on reprisal or threat of reprisal related to the failure to make a contribution.

E. Anonymous contributions. No candidate or financial agent shall accept anonymous contributions exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in aggregate per election period. The recipient of total anonymous contributions of more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) shall not keep the amount which is in excess of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) but shall, within two (2) business days of receipt of the contribution that causes the total anonymous contributions to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), turn it over to the Election Commission for immediate deposit to an escrow account to be reserved for the cost of subsequent Cherokee Nation elections.

F. Expenditure records and receipts. An expenditure of more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for campaign purposes shall be made by written instrument drawn upon the campaign account containing the name of the candidate and the name of the recipient.

G. General prohibition. No candidate or financial agent shall knowingly accept a campaign contribution or knowingly make or authorize political expenditures that the candidate or his or her financial agent knows to have been made in violation of this section or 26 CNCA § 43.

§ 45. Sanctions for violations of contribution and expenditure requirements and prohibitions

A. Criminal sanctions. Any candidate or other person who is a citizen of Cherokee Nation or a member of any other federally-recognized Indian tribe who has violated any requirement or prohibition in 26 CNCA § 43 and 26 CNCA § 44 shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Civil damages. Any candidate, other person, corporation or other legal entity who or which has knowingly made or accepted a campaign contribution or made a campaign expenditure on behalf of a candidate in violation of 26 CNCA § 43 and 26 CNCA § 44 shall be liable to the Election Commission and to any party whose name appeared on the ballot in opposition to said candidate in the amount of double the value of the unlawful contribution or expenditure. Said damages shall be payable to each plaintiff filing suit in Cherokee Nation District Court within six (6) months of the final election date, upon a finding of a violation(s) by said Court, plus reasonable attorney fees incurred in the suit. Reasonable attorney fees incurred in a suit brought under this subsection may be awarded to the defendant if judgment is rendered in defendant's favor.

§ 46. Financial disclosure report—Forms—Time of filing—corrections—Late filing—Failure to file

A. Report forms; certification. Each candidate filing for elective office of Cherokee Nation shall file with the Election Commission a certified monthly and final financial disclosure report on forms provided by the Election Commission. The report shall include information for each of the financial agents named by the candidate pursuant to 26 CNCA § 42.

B. Time of filing monthly report; late filing; failure to file. Each candidate shall deliver a complete monthly financial disclosure report to the Election Commission at the Election Services Office beginning with a report for the month that the candidate filed for office. The report shall comprise the entire previous month, beginning on the first day of the month and ending on the last. The report shall be due on the 15th day of the following month. In the event that the Election Commission has not received a monthly report by the 15th day of the month in which it was due, the Commission shall impose a fine in the amount of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) on the candidate and shall send a notice of the failure to meet the deadline and notice of the fine to the candidate by certified mail return receipt requested. Unless the candidate can show extenuating circumstances for his or her failure to file a report or the filing of an incomplete report by the 15th day of the month following the month in which it was due, or failure to meet the deadline for any two (2) monthly reports, or failure to pay a fine by the date of election, the candidate shall be disqualified from the election by the Election Commission after notice and hearing. Said disqualification may be appealed to the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court. The Election Commission shall expedite all such proceedings.

C. Time of filing final report. The candidate or his financial agent shall file a final financial disclosure report no later than five (5) days prior to the date for swearing in of the successful candidates. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes in any Cherokee Nation Election shall not be eligible to take office until his or her final report is filed.

D. Corrections; revisions; retention of reports. The Election Commission shall give the candidate an opportunity to correct any deficiency or error in his or her reports. Any contributions received during the six- (6) month period following said election date shall be recorded on a revised final report to be filed no later than the first of the month following the expiration date of said six- (6) month period. The reports shall be maintained by the Election Services Office, which shall preserve the reports in a secure location for at least five (5) years, during which time they shall be a public record available for inspection and copying.

§ 47. Financial disclosure report—Contents

A. Contributions. With respect to contributions, the report shall include the name, occupation and mailing address of the source of each contribution.

B. Expenditures. The report shall detail expenditures in categories set forth on the report form, excluding filing fees, any interest earned on contributions, candidate's costs for necessary personal travel within the boundaries of Cherokee Nation, and candidate's subsistence expenses. Payment made by a candidate or his or her financial agent from the candidate's own funds shall be included as expenditures for purposes of this subsection, and may be shown as a loan from the candidate or may include any funds loaned to the candidate by a bank, savings and loan association or credit union and on his or her own behalf, and shall not be considered as contributions. All expenditure from loans shall specify the name of the lending institution, the date and amount of the loans. The candidate may reimburse his or her personal funds from campaign contributions in the amount of the reported loan(s).

C. Radio and television time. Where radio and television time is donated or offered on an equal basis to all qualified candidates for any particular office, said donation shall be reported by or on behalf of each candidate receiving the same, without assigning any cash value thereto.

D. No financial activities. If there has been no financial activity subject to the reporting requirements of this section for the reporting period, the candidate and/or his or her financial agents shall so certify on the report.

E. Certification; criminal sanctions for misrepresentation. Each financial disclosure report shall be certified by the candidate or his or her financial agents. A candidate or a candidate's financial agent who certifies a report and therein knowingly fails to fully disclose the information required in this section as to any gift, promise, treat, reward, favor, or anything of value given or expended, is guilty of a crime. If a person is convicted of a criminal violation under this subsection, then he or she shall not hold the office and shall be barred for a period of five (5) years from holding any elective office of Cherokee Nation. Where any person who has received the highest number of votes for any office is disqualified from holding said office, a special election shall be held to elect another person to hold such office. If the candidate has been elected and sworn into office, such conviction may be grounds for removal under Article XI of the Cherokee Constitution.

ARTICLE V. CHALLENGES TO ELECTION RESULTS

ARTICLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 51. Official election dates—Notice

A. General election. The general primary election for elective offices shall be the fourth Saturday in June of the election year.

B. Runoff election. The runoff election for a general election shall be the fourth Saturday in July of the election year.

C. Special election; special dates and procedures. A special election shall be called in accordance with the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation for a specifically stated purpose or purposes. The Council shall determine the date for the primary election, and if necessary the date for a runoff election. Special elections shall be conducted in compliance with this Title, provided that the deadlines established in this Title for the following purposes may be changed and specially set by the Election Commission and confirmed by the Council to meet the particular needs related to a special election: the cut-off date for eligibility to vote in an election established in 26 CNCA § 21, the deadline for providing voter lists to candidates established in 26 CNCA § 25, the candidacy filing date established in 26 CNCA § 36, the swearing-in date established in 26 CNCA § 51, the absentee ballot request deadline and absentee ballot issuance dates established in 26 CNCA § 73, and any other date which requires special setting. Special elections for Constitutional provisions may be conducted, if authorized by the Council, by mail-in vote.

D. Notice. Notice of each election date shall be given by the Election Commission.

E. Swearing-in of elected officials. The swearing-in of the successful candidates for elective office shall be August 14 of the election year.

§ 52. Electioneering

A. Electioneering near polling area. No person shall be allowed to electioneer inside any precinct or within three hundred feet (300') outside of the entrance to any precinct while an election is in progress, nor shall any person or persons, except precinct officials and other persons authorized by law, be allowed to approach the ballot box while an election is in progress. Prohibited activities within the prescribed area by a candidate or other persons on election day which might reasonably be construed as electioneering shall include the following: wearing any article of clothing with any candidate's name or office on it or holding any article with any candidate's name or office on it; or distribution or display of any written materials, campaign literature or campaign items of any kind or nature within the prescribed area, other than that provided by the Election Commission.

B. Obstructing or impeding voter access to polling place. No person shall be allowed to impede or obstruct voters attempting to access polling places while an election is in progress, including, but not limited to, by obstructing or impeding any entrances or exits utilized by vehicles occupied by voters traveling to or traveling from the polling place.

C. Enforcement, notice to law enforcement and regulations. Persons engaged in the conduct proscribed in subsections (A) and (B) above shall be subject to removal by local law enforcement and/or the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service at the request of the appropriate official, including but not limited to any precinct official. The Election Commission shall notify appropriate law enforcement departments of the provisions set forth in subsections (A) and (B) of this section.

D. Employee solicitation. Use of the official website of Cherokee Nation, the Cherokee Nation intranet, employee e-mail lists, office phone extensions for political purposes is prohibited. Any candidate, other person, corporation or legal entity that violates this section shall be fined One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per occurrence.

A. Primary election. Each candidate in a primary election for the office of the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and for the Council may submit up to four (4) names as their designated watchers at each precinct within a time to be prescribed by the Election Commission.

B. Runoff election. In the event of a runoff election, candidates in the runoff election may submit up to four (4) names as their designated watchers at each precinct within five (5) working days from date of certification of results of the primary election.

C. Selection of watchers. No candidate for any elective office in Cherokee Nation shall be a watcher. The selection of the watchers and their designated precincts shall be by random drawing of names submitted by candidates for each respective district to be assigned within those districts. The Election Commission may invite watchers to the precincts during any election. The Election Commission shall have the sole authority to determine the number of watchers in any given precinct. The selection of five (5) absentee watchers and two (2) alternate watchers shall be made for each day that absentee declarations are examined prior to and on the day of the election. No person shall serve as an absentee watcher for more than one (1) day. The selection of absentee watchers and alternates shall be by random drawing of five (5) names from the balance of names submitted by the candidates pursuant to subsections (A) and (B) of this section until the names of five (5) watchers and two (2) alternate watchers have been drawn.

D. Duties of watchers. Watchers shall be entitled to observe the ballot box, including a counting device and all printouts from the counting device, before the precincts are opened, during voting and after the precincts are closed. Watchers may be commissioned to observe counting device testing and to accompany personnel assigned to repair or maintain machines during the period of the election. In such case, the watchers shall be limited to observing the repair or maintenance work being performed and making a written record of such work. Watchers will have the ability to contact members of the Election Commission upon witnessing improper or questionable activities.

§§ 54 to 60. Reserved

ARTICLE II

VOTING GENERALLY

§ 61. Precinct and hours—Notice

The Election Commission shall establish the location of each precinct subject to approval by Council Resolution. The Election Commission shall promulgate regulations listing the approved locations for precincts, provided that said regulatory provisions listing approved locations may be amended, if needed. Each precinct shall be open during the hours from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on the day of the election. The Election Commission shall publicize the location of each precinct. In considering the location of precincts the Election Commission shall, whenever practicable, locate precincts on Indian Country as defined under federal law, thereby allowing Cherokee Nation legal jurisdiction over said areas.

§ 62. Manner of voting generally

A. Secret ballot. Voting shall be by secret ballot.

B. Procedure for voting in person. Except as provided in 26 CNCA § 78 or as otherwise provided, any registered voter may vote by appearing at his or her designated precinct, announcing to precinct officials his or her name and address, signing the registry, marking a ballot and placing in the ballot box or counting device.

C. Absentee ballot. Any registered voter may at his or her request vote by absentee ballot as prescribed in Article III of this chapter.

D. In person absentee voting. Any voter may vote by utilizing an in-person absentee ballot at the Election Commission Office located at Tahlequah, Oklahoma during hours to be set by the Commission, which shall be at least from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on a minimum number of days immediately preceding any election provided for by this act and at any other locations or times that the Election Commission deems necessary and appropriate. As part of the application for an in-person absentee ballot, such voter shall swear or affirm that he or she has not voted a regular mail absentee ballot and that he or she will not vote at the regular polling place in the election for which the in-person absentee ballot is requested. Any voter who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

The Election Commission shall develop rules and procedures to carry out the requirements of this section.

§ 63. Voting by persons with physical disabilities or language barriers

A. Inability to mark ballot. If a voter appears at his or her precinct and states that he or she, because of a physical disability or infirmity or language barrier, is unable to mark a ballot, the inspector shall recite the following oath:

"Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you are unable to mark your ballot for voting because of a (name of appropriate disability)?"

After taking the oath, the voter shall be permitted to be assisted by any person of his or her choice, at least eighteen (18) years of age, in voting his or her ballot.

B. Inability to enter building. If a voter is unable to enter the building due to physical disability or infirmity, he or she must send someone inside the precinct to inform a precinct official. Upon notification, the Inspector shall go to the voter in the parking area of the precinct, and recite the following oath:

"Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you are unable to enter the precinct because of a (name of appropriate disability)"?

A precinct official shall accompany the inspector with appropriate materials and a ballot, shall present the ballot to the voter after the voter has taken the oath. The voter may then mark his or her ballot, and return it to the precinct official, who shall deposit it in the ballot box or counting device inside without viewing the ballot.

C. Witness. All special assistance described herein shall be witnessed by the Precinct Inspector.

§ 64. Challenged ballots

A. Voting procedure. If the precinct voter list does not contain a voter's name, or if a precinct official should challenge the voter's right to vote for other reasons, said voter shall be allowed to vote only if the voter completes a voter registration application for a residence address within the district or as an at-large voter and signs a statement swearing or affirming that the voter is currently eligible to vote in said precinct and has not already cast a regular or absentee ballot for said election.

B. Preservation and counting. Each challenged ballot shall be placed in a secrecy envelope attached to the voter registration application and statement executed by the voter. Challenged ballots shall not be counted at the time the ballots are cast, but shall be maintained in a separate box marked "challenged ballot box." Following the close of the election, precinct officials designated by Election Commission regulation shall determine whether the person who cast a challenged ballot was entitled to vote in the precinct where the ballot was cast. If the person was so entitled, the ballot will be opened, counted, returned to the challenged ballot box and totaled with other votes before certification of the election. If the person was not entitled to vote, the ballot will not be counted, but will be returned to the challenged ballot box.

§ 65. Spoiled ballots

Should a voter spoil any ballot in his or her effort to mark the same, he or she shall fold the ballot and return it to the clerk. The clerk shall destroy said ballot or ballots in the presence of the voter and shall issue said voter another ballot in the same manner that the first one was provided. The voter shall execute a statement prescribed by the Election Commission in which the voter swears or affirms that he or she spoiled his or her original ballot or ballots, returned said ballot or ballots to the clerk, that the clerk destroyed the ballot or ballots in his or her presence and that he or she was issued a new ballot or ballots.

§ 66. Mutilated ballots

In the event a ballot is mutilated by the counting device and thus not counted during the counting process, then two (2) precinct officials shall be authorized to mark a substitute ballot in identical fashion, insofar as is possible. In the event a ballot is mutilated to such an extent that the two (2) members cannot agree upon how it was marked, it shall be invalidated. Once so marked, the substitute ballot shall be entered for counting into the counting device. A written record of such action shall be made by the two (2) precinct officials.

§§ 67 to 70. Reserved

ARTICLE III

ABSENTEE VOTING

§ 71. Allowance of absentee voting

Absentee voting shall be allowed upon timely written request by a registered voter of Cherokee Nation in compliance with the requirements of this article.

§ 72. Requests for absentee ballots generally

A registered voter of Cherokee Nation who is unable to vote in person at his or her precinct may request an absentee ballot from the Election Commission. The request shall be in writing, preferably on a form prescribed by the Election Commission, and shall contain the following information:

1. Name;
2. Date of birth;
3. Address;
4. Cherokee Nation citizenship registration number; and
5. Signature.

§ 73. Time for filing of requests for absentee ballots—Furnishing of ballots generally

A. Timelines. Registered voters may request absentee ballots by mail or in person at the Election Services Office from the first Monday in February until the second Friday in May of the election year. Absentee ballots shall be mailed to persons requesting the ballot in a two-day period starting on the last Monday in May of the election year and ending on the Tuesday immediately following said Monday.

B. Runoff. In the event of a runoff, the Election Services Office shall automatically send an absentee ballot to all registered voters who were sent an absentee ballot for the primary election, except for registered voters whose absentee ballots in the primary were returned unopened due to bad addresses. Absentee ballot requests for a runoff election by persons who did not vote by absentee ballot in the general election must be received by the Election Services Office by the first Monday of July of the election year. Absentee ballots for a runoff shall be mailed to persons requesting the ballot during a two-day period starting on the last Monday in June of the election year and ending on the Tuesday immediately following said Monday.

C. Limitation. No more than one (1) absentee ballot request per individual signature for each election date shall be accepted.

§ 74. Procedure upon rejection of application for absentee ballot

In the event an application for an absentee ballot is rejected for any reason, the Election Commission shall immediately notify said voter in writing of the rejection and the reason therefore.

§ 75. Transmittal of ballots to voters generally—Preparation of record of ballots issued

When the Election Commission receives an absentee ballot request, the Election Commission shall, after verification of the requesting voter's registration, transmit the ballot to said voter. A record shall be made of all absentee ballots issued, with the name, date of birth, voter's Cherokee Nation citizenship registration number, date of issuance and address of the voter to whom it was issued.

Absentee ballots shall be identical to the ballots used in precinct voting but shall be stamped "absentee ballot."

§ 77. Material to accompany absentee ballot generally

A. Affidavit. Each absentee ballot or set of ballots shall be accompanied by an affidavit containing statements that the voter is qualified to vote, that the voter has personally marked the ballot(s), or in the case of a disability or illiteracy, has caused the ballot(s) to be marked in accordance with his or her wishes, that he or she has not exhibited the marked ballot(s) to any other person, and contain any other statements required by Election Commission regulations that are designed to ensure the integrity of the absentee voting process.

B. Secrecy envelopes. Each absentee ballot or set of ballots shall be accompanied by envelopes designed to ensure the secrecy of the ballot, including an inner secrecy envelope for the ballot, designed to be devoid of any identifying information at the time of opening, and a return envelope addressed to the Election Commission.

C. Instructions. Each absentee ballot or set of ballots shall be accompanied by instructions for voting by absentee ballot, as prescribed by the Election Commission.

A voter shall mark his ballot in permanent ink; seal the ballot in the secrecy envelope; fill it out completely and sign the affidavit or statement in the presence of a notary public; and return the documents in the return envelope via the United States mail to the Election Commission. Only those absentee ballots which are mailed to the Election Commission and which reach the Election Commission post office box in Tahlequah, Oklahoma no later than 7:00 p.m. on election day shall be counted; provided that personal delivery of an absentee ballot shall be accepted from the Wednesday prior to election day until election day only if the voter or a person designated by the voter delivers the ballot to the Election Services Office between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. during those four (4) days. Voting in person at a precinct by a voter who has requested an absentee ballot shall be permitted, however, that voter must cast a challenged ballot to allow the Commission to determine whether an absentee ballot was cast. In the event that a valid absentee ballot was returned by the voter, the challenged ballot will not be counted. In the event that a valid absentee ballot was not returned by a voter, the challenged ballot will be counted.

The Election Commission is authorized and directed to reach agreements with the appropriate jurisdictions to ensure free notarization of the ballots to the greatest extent possible.

§ 79. Handling of returned absentee ballot generally

Upon receipt, an absentee ballot shall be placed in a secured absentee ballot box located at the United States post office. The absentee ballots shall be removed from the post office and taken to the Election Services Office by members of the Election Commission or their designees at the appropriate time to be verified and counted for the election.

Should a voter spoil an absentee ballot in his or her effort to mark the same, he or she may obtain a substitute ballot by calling the Election Services Office, properly identifying himself or herself and requesting a new ballot.

Each absentee ballot card shall be considered as a separate ballot for each of the races for each elected official and any question presented. Any spoiled absentee ballot cast that is returned spoiled as to one race shall be examined to determine if it was correctly voted as to the other races. If so, it shall be valid as to those races.

§ 81. Furnishing list of voters requesting absentee ballots to precincts

The Election Commission shall compile and provide a list of all voters who requested an absentee ballot to each precinct within their chosen district, together with other election materials and equipment.

§ 82. Crediting of absentee voters

The Election Service Office shall maintain a registry crediting each voter who has cast an absentee ballot with voting in said election.

§§ 83 to 90. Reserved

ARTICLE IV

COUNT AND RETURN OF VOTES—RECOUNTS AND RUNOFFS

§ 91. Processing of absentee ballot affidavits

A. Procedure. No earlier than 8:00 a.m. on the Monday immediately preceding the day of the election, the Election Commissioners or the Commission's designees shall commence examination of the affidavits accompanying the absentee ballots. The ballot box containing the envelopes containing the affidavits and absentee ballots shall be opened and the said envelopes shall be removed. For each affidavit verified as meeting the requirements of 26 CNCA § 77, the accompanying secrecy envelopes containing the absentee ballots shall be placed in a secured ballot box. Each ballot rejected due to error(s) in the affidavit shall be attached to the affidavit without being opened. Said rejected affidavits and ballots shall be labeled and placed in a separate locked box. The boxes containing the rejected absentee ballots shall be maintained at a secure location for two (2) years following the election.

B. Watchers. Absentee ballot watchers selected in accordance with 26 CNCA § 53 shall be present at all times during the processing of the aforementioned affidavits.

§ 92. Counting of absentee ballots

A. Procedure. Counting of the absentee ballots shall commence no earlier than 8:00 a.m. on the day of the election and shall continue until all such ballots have been counted. The ballot box shall be shaken to mix the envelopes, after which said box shall be opened, the envelopes removed, the ballots separated according to the office subject to the election if necessary for counting purposes, and the ballots counted according to law.

B. Watchers. Absentee ballot watchers selected in accordance with 26 CNCA § 53 shall be present at all times during the counting of the absentee ballots.

§ 93. Counting—certificate of votes and consolidated return—Preservation of materials—Certification of results

A. Counting. The ballots cast in person shall be counted and tallied by the counting device as the votes are cast on the day of the election. Absentee ballots shall be counted on election day in accordance with 26 CNCA § 92.

B. Precinct certificate of votes; consolidated return. The Election Commission shall establish the number of printouts of results needed for certification purposes, the procedure for counting of the votes, posting of the results for the precincts, consolidated return of election results and posting of such results. These procedures shall be developed and posted by the Commission no less than ninety (90) days prior to election day.

C. Preservation of ballots and other election materials. After certificates of vote have been created, the ballot box shall be unlocked and all ballots and a copy of the signed precinct certificate of vote and a copy of the electronic results shall be placed in a transfer case. Said transfer case shall be sealed, and the Inspector shall return it, along with all other election materials and the originals of the certificate of vote, forthwith to the Election Commission. The Election Commission shall not disturb anything in the transfer case, and the case shall remain sealed at a secure location designated by and under the control of the Election Commission until opened by order of the Election Commission for recount purposes, or by order of the Supreme Court if necessary in an election appeal proceeding filed pursuant to 26 CNCA § 101. All ballots and other election materials shall be retained for a minimum period of two (2) years from the date of the election at which they were cast, under the supervision the Election Services Office; provided that after said two- (2) year period, the ballots may be destroyed by order of the Election Commission.

D. Certification of results. When the election outcome is final for all elective offices, the Election Commission shall certify the results and make such certification available to the public.

§ 94. Recounts

A. Person authorized to request recount. In elections for office, only a defeated candidate shall be permitted to request a recount.

B. Recount for issues or questions. For elections regarding issues or questions where no candidate is involved, recounts shall be authorized only when a registered voter who participated in the election presents a petition signed by a number of registered voters who participated in the election equal to one percent (1%) or more of the total votes cast for and against the issue.

C. Request for recount; notice. A written request for recount of any election results, including appeals of special elections on constitutional amendments must be filed with the Election Commission Chairperson at the Election Services Office no later than 5:00 p.m. on the first Wednesday following the election. The person filing the request shall serve a copy of the request on other candidates for the race in which the person was a candidate. When possible, service shall be made by personal delivery or facsimile transmission on date of filing; but if such service is not possible, service shall be made by mail on the date of filing.

D. Filing fee when recount sought. The request for recount shall be accompanied by a fee in the amount of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00) per district for which a recount is requested, and Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00) for recount of absentee ballots. Fees shall be paid by cash, cashier's check, money order, or check made payable to the Election Commission. Said fees shall be non-refundable if a recount is conducted. If a recount is not conducted due to a finding by the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court that the ballots were not properly preserved, then the fee shall be refunded.

E. Location of recount. The recount shall be conducted in the Cherokee Nation Council chambers or other appropriate facilities as determined by the Election Commission.

F. Time for recount. The recount shall occur no later than the first Friday following the election date.

G. Cherokee Nation Supreme Court determination regarding preservation of ballots prior to recount. It shall be the duty of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court to attend all recounts. Prior to the recount, the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall hear evidence as to whether the ballots have been preserved by the Election Commission in the manner prescribed by law; whether they are the identical ballots cast by the voters; and whether the ballots have been exposed to the reach of unauthorized persons so as to afford a reasonable opportunity for tampering with or changing the ballots. The judgment of said Court regarding such questions shall be final and conclusive.

H. Conduct of recount. If the judgment of the Court is that the ballots have been properly preserved, then the actual, physical recount of the ballots shall be conducted immediately thereafter under the exclusive supervision of the Election Commission. The Election Commission shall conduct the recount, and shall select and supervise the persons performing the recount functions; provided that no employees of Cherokee Nation, except for staff of the Election Commission, no employee of a corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned by Cherokee Nation, and no Cherokee Nation official shall participate in a recount. The candidate seeking the recount and all other candidates for the elective office involved in the recount, persons having filed an initiative or referendum petition, or their designated representatives, shall be permitted to attend the recount. Once the actual physical recount is commenced under the supervision of the Election Commission, the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court will limit its role to answering questions regarding tribal law and insuring that tribal law is followed.

I. Automatic appeal where recount not possible. If the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court cannot determine that the ballots have been properly preserved, then no recount shall be conducted, and the fees paid by the candidate seeking the recount shall be refunded. The candidate may allege the failure of the Election Commission to properly preserve the ballots as partial grounds, but not the sole basis, for an election appeal, provided that the appeal is filed no later than the second Monday following the election date, and provided further that all other requirements of 26 CNCA § 101 shall be met.

J. Recount results. Following the recount, the Election Commission shall verbally announce the number of votes in favor of each candidate, initiative or referendum question, and the number of votes opposed to each candidate, initiative or referendum question. When the Election Commission prepares the final certificate of votes, the figures obtained during the recount shall be controlling over earlier figures if said earlier figures were different, and each member shall certify on the original certificate that a recount was held, the date of the recount, and that the Election Commission and the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court confirmed the accuracy of the results. The certified recount results shall be the final official election results, and no further recounts shall be held.

A. Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief. There shall be a runoff for the offices of Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief for the two (2) top candidates in each of the respective offices unless one (1) candidate for each of the respective positions should obtain a simple majority of votes, comprised of more than fifty percent (50%) of the total votes cast for the respective office.

B. Council districts seats. In Council elections there shall be a runoff for the two (2) top candidates for the particular seat unless one (1) candidate should obtain a simple majority of votes, comprised of more than fifty percent (50%) of the total votes cast for the respective seat.

C. Tied Council runoff elections. In any Council election race where a runoff results in a tie, the final winner shall be selected by lot. The Election Commission Secretary shall, in full view of those present, clearly write or print the name of each candidate involved in the tie on separate pieces of paper that are identical in color and size and fold each paper so that the names are not visible. The Secretary shall place the papers in a container selected by the Election Commission. The Election Commission Chairperson or his or her designee shall draw one (1) paper and the name of the candidate on that paper shall be declared the winner. The Secretary shall then expose the other name or names not drawn to all witnesses present. The drawing shall occur at a public Election Commission meeting in the presence of the candidates involved or their designees.

ARTICLE V

CHALLENGES TO ELECTION RESULTS

§ 101. Procedure for election appeals generally

A. Person authorized to appeal. Only a defeated candidate shall be permitted to file an appeal in appeals of elections for office. For elections on issues or questions when no candidate is involved, recounts shall be authorized only when a registered voter who participated in the election presents a petition signed by a number of registered voters who participated in the election equal to one percent (1%) or more of the total votes cast for and against the issue.

B. Filing fees. An appeal petition shall not be accepted for filing unless accompanied by a non-refundable fee in the form of either a cashier's check or money order in the amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). Fees shall be used to defray actual costs. Fees must be paid from personal or campaign funds, and may not be paid from funds of Cherokee Nation or any of its entities.

C. Bond for petition alleging fraudulent voting. A petition alleging fraudulent precinct voting must be filed with a cash bond of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). If fraudulent absentee voting is also alleged, the petition must be filed with a separate cash bond in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00). Said bonds shall be used to guarantee the payment of any and all liabilities or judgments arising as a result of the petition that was filed.

D. Appeal petition. An appeal petition challenging the validity of an election outcome, including appeals of initiative and special referendum elections, shall be filed with the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court no later than the second Monday following the election date which is the subject of the appeal. The petition must be in writing and must include the petitioner's name, address and Cherokee Nation registration number; the relief requested; and specific statement regarding each alleged violation of this title or of any election procedures adopted by the Election Commission in force at the time of the alleged violation, including the date of the alleged violations, the identity of the person or persons involved in the alleged violations and the precinct where the violation occurred. If fraudulent voting is alleged, the petition shall also state the specific acts constituting the alleged fraud, identify each precinct where the alleged fraud occurred, the estimated number of fraudulent votes cast at each specified precinct location. If fraudulent absentee ballot voting is alleged, the petition shall also state the specific acts constituting the alleged fraud, and estimated number of fraudulent votes cast by absentee ballot. If the appeal petition does not contain the required information, or if the allegations do not allege sufficient violations to affect an election outcome, the petition shall be deemed frivolous by the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court and shall be dismissed.

E. Answer; scheduling of hearing. The Election Commission shall file a complete copy of all documentation from the underlying proceedings, including a transcription with the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court. The Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall set the matter for hearing on a date no later than three (3) working days after the date of the filing of the petition; provided that the hearing may be continued to a later designated date for good cause not more than three (3) days from date of the originally scheduled hearing. The Court shall cause the notice of the hearing to be personally served or sent by facsimile transmission to the petitioner, the Election Commission and any other parties to the proceeding; and a copy shall also be mailed on the date that the notice is filed.

All election appeal hearings held by the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall be governed by the following rules of procedure, which shall supersede all inconsistent general rules of procedure established by the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court:

1. Legal counsel. The petitioner may be represented by counsel at his own expense; no Cherokee Nation funds shall be used for legal fees of a person challenging an election and the Election Commission may be represented by its designated legal counsel.
2. Hearing. The Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall consider the record on appeal provided by the Commission, and may consider any additional evidence which it deems relevant to a determination on the merits. The Court shall hear oral arguments consistent with the conduct of civil appellate proceedings. A stenographic record of the proceedings and testimony shall be required.
3. Burden of proof. The decision shall require the invalidation of election results and a new election only if the petitioner proves by preponderance of the evidence that substantial violations of this title or of any election procedures adopted by the Election Commission in force at the time that the alleged violations occurred and that said violations affected or had a strong likelihood of affecting the election outcome.

D. Decision. The Cherokee Nation Supreme Court may verbally announce its decision. The decision shall also be placed in writing, and each Justice shall indicate his or her agreement or disagreement with the decision by placing his or her signature in the appropriate place thereon. The decision shall be issued no later than two (2) days following the date of the hearing and shall be served on the parties by mail, facsimile transmission or in person. The decision shall include appropriate relief based on the alleged violation. Such relief may include the following; validation or correction of voting results; validation or correction of election outcomes; an order that the petitioner is lawfully entitled to have his or her name appear on the runoff ballot or an order certifying a candidate as the successful candidate; or invalidation of the election for a specific office or offices and the requirement of a new election in the cases where it is impossible to determine the correct election outcome with mathematical certainty. In any case where fraud is proven on the part of a candidate, the candidate shall be declared ineligible for the office for which he or she was a candidate. The decision of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall be final.

E. Civil liability of unsuccessful petitioner who alleged fraud. In all cases where a petition is filed that alleges fraud, if after a hearing the allegations are not found to be reasonably sustained by competent evidence, then, the petitioner shall be civilly liable in damages to the Election Commission and to any candidate affected by said claims if a party to the proceeding and for all damages sustained, including a reasonable attorney fees and all reasonable and proper costs of conducting such contest.

§ 103. New election where determination of contest impossible

In the event that on appeal the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court rules that an election for a particular office or offices is invalid, the Election Commission Chairperson shall notify the Principal Chief of said decision. The Principal Chief shall then order a new election to be held as soon as practical between the same candidates that participated in the election with the invalidated election results; provided that any candidate found guilty of fraud shall not be a candidate in the new election; provided further, that the above shall not apply to elections resulting in tie votes, which elections shall be determined as provided by 26 CNCA § 95(C).

ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION COMMISSION

§ 100. Short title

This Title shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code and supersedes and supplements all conflicting provisions or laws of Cherokee Nation.

§ 101. Establishment of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission

A. Establishment. Cherokee Nation hereby creates the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission (CN EPC).

B. Governing body: appointment; terms; vacancies. The CN EPC shall be governed by a Board of Commissioners (Board), which shall be composed of five (5) Commissioners (except in a meeting called to overrule a veto by the Principal Chief under 27 CNCA § 606B(H), in which case all Commissioners must be present for a quorum) all of whom shall be citizens of Cherokee Nation. The Commissioners shall be appointed by the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation with the advice and consent of the Council of Cherokee Nation. Each Commissioner shall serve for a term of four (4) years, provided that, in order to stagger the term of office, one (1) of the original Commissioners shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years, one (1) for a term of three (3) years, and one (1) for a term of four (4) years. Any vacancy on the Board, howsoever caused, will be filled by appointment by the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation with the consent of the Council of Cherokee Nation, provided that the replacement serves only the amount of time remaining in the term of the original appointee.

C. Chairperson; quorum; meetings. The Commissioners shall elect a Chairperson from among themselves. The business of the Board will be conducted at meetings of the Board duly called and noticed and at which a quorum is present. A quorum shall consist of a majority of those Commissioners duly appointed and confirmed. Any substantive action of the CN EPC must be approved by the affirmative votes of a majority of the duly appointed and confirmed Commissioners and must be recorded in writing.

§ 102. Regulations

A. Adoption of rules and regulations. The CN EPC is hereby authorized and directed to promulgate and publish any and all rules and regulations which it deems necessary to carry out, implement and enforce the goals, purposes and provisions of this Title. Said rules and regulations may include, without limitation, standards, tests, methods and procedures to be followed in permitting, permit renewal, inspection, permit revocation or suspension proceedings, and other enforcement actions pursuant to this Title, the establishment of fines and/or penalties which may be imposed by the CN EPC for violations of this Title, including the revocation and/or suspension of any permit issued under the regulations authorized by this section, orders of the CN EPC, and/or the conditions of any permit issued hereunder, and the rules and procedures to be followed in any hearings conducted before the CN EPC. The rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this section may be amended, modified or replaced from time to time in the discretion of the CN EPC, subject to the provisions of subsection (B) of this section.

B. Consistency with chapter; approval by Principal Chief. The rules and regulations, and any amendments, modifications or replacements thereof, shall be consistent with the goals, purposes and provisions of this Title and the Constitution of Cherokee Nation. Provided, however, that prior to becoming effective, such rules and regulations, and any amendments, modifications or replacements thereof, shall be first submitted to and approved in writing by the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation.

§ 103. Personal jurisdiction

For purposes of enforcing the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Act, Cherokee Nation shall have jurisdiction over all persons who by their actions violate the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Act.

§ 104. Territorial jurisdiction

For purpose of enforcing the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Act, the Cherokee Nation shall have jurisdiction in the territorial boundaries of Cherokee Nation as defined in the Patent of 1838, and other places determined to be Indian Country within Cherokee Nation jurisdiction.

The CN EPC shall have jurisdiction to regulate and enforce the provisions of this title with respect to any activity conducted on trust land or in Indian Country within Cherokee Nation to the fullest extent allowed by law.

§ 106. EPA authorization

Cherokee Nation authorization by EPA. The CN EPC with the approval of the Principal Chief shall establish Tribal Implementation Programs (Tribal Authorization) to the extent allowed by federal law and may, where appropriate, establish programs for which there is no corresponding federal law or program.

§ 107. Severability

The provisions of this title are severable, and if any part or provision hereof shall be held void, the decision of any Court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining parts or provisions of this title.

§ 108. Applicability

This title shall apply to all causes within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

§ 109. Review of Commission actions

Any affected party may seek review in the District Court of Cherokee Nation of any final order or decision of the CN EPC. The CN EPC may establish procedures and requirements for filing motions to reconsider, administrative appeals and other administrative remedies, and may designate some procedures as prerequisites to filing an appeal in District Court.

An affected party may file a written appeal from any final order or decision of the CN EPC in the District Court of Cherokee Nation within fifteen (15) days after the date of notice of such order or decision. The notice shall inform the affected party that he or she has the right:

1. to inspect the documents relative to the order; and
2. to appeal the order or decision pursuant to this section.

§ 110. Removal of Commissioners

Commissioners shall only be removed for cause, and shall be entitled to a hearing by the Supreme Court under such rules and procedures as prescribed by the Council. A petition for removal for cause may be brought by a vote of the majority of Tribal Council Members, or the Principal Chief.

CHAPTER 2

DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

For purposes of this title:

1. "Administrator" means the person designated as administrator of the CN EPC.
2. "Affected party" means Cherokee Nation or any Department thereof. It shall also include any person or entity applying for or holding a permit or subject to regulation under this title and any citizen of Cherokee Nation, if such person, entity or citizen is directly and substantially impacted by an action or decision of the CN EPC and can demonstrate standing. The CN EPC may adopt rules which include other classes of persons or entities within the meaning of "affected party".
3. "CN EPC", "Commission" and "EPC" means the Environmental Protection Commission of Cherokee Nation.
4. "Environment" includes the air, land, wildlife, cultural and archaeological resources, and waters of the Nation.
5. "Environmental Code" means the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code and shall refer to Title 27 CNCA § 100 et seq.
6. "Jurisdiction" means jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation over lands of Cherokee Nation and over such other lands, air and water as may be allowed by law.

7. "Lands of Cherokee Nation" means tribal lands and those lands under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation, including but not limited to the territory legally described in the Treaties of 1828, 1835 and 1838 and the Cherokee Nation Patent issued in 1846, other such lands acquired by Cherokee Nation since 1838. For purposes of this title, the term "lands" shall include the earth, air and waters associated with such lands.

8. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.

9. "Nonpoint source" means the contamination of the environment with a pollutant for which the specific point of origin may not be well defined.

10. "Person" means any individual, trust, joint stock company, corporation, government, partnership, association, organization, agency or any other legal entity, or an agent, employee, representative, assignee or successor thereof.

11. "Pollutant" includes but is not limited to dredged spoil, solid waste, incinerator residue, medical waste, sewage, garbage, sewage sludge, munitions, chemicals, chemical wastes, biological materials, radioactive materials, heat, wrecked or discarded equipment, rock, sand, cellar dirt and industrial, municipal, and agribusiness waste.

12. "Pollution" means the presence in the environment of any substance, contaminant or pollutant, or any other alteration of the physical, chemical or biological properties of the environment or the release of any liquid, gaseous or solid substance into the environment in quantities which are or will likely create a nuisance or which render or will likely render the environment harmful or detrimental or injurious to public health, safety or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish or other aquatic life, or to property;

13. "Waste" means any liquid, gaseous or solid or semi-solid substance, or thermal component, whether domestic, municipal, commercial, agricultural or industrial in origin, which may pollute or contaminate or tend to pollute or contaminate, any air, land or waters of the Nation.

14. "Waters of the Nation" means all streams, lakes, ponds, marshes, wetlands, watercourses, waterways, wells, springs, irrigation systems, drainage systems, storm sewers and all other bodies or accumulations of water, surface and underground, natural or artificial, public or private, which are contained within, flow through, or border upon Cherokee Nation or any portion thereof, and shall include under all circumstances waters which are contained within the boundaries of, flow through or border upon this Nation or any portion thereof.

§ 202. Supplemental definitions

The CN EPC is authorized to supplement these definitions and all other definitions of this Cherokee Nation Environmental Act with Commission definitions established by regulations and adopted by the Principal Chief. Within these definitions there will be one (1) particular department designated as the Lead Department for purposes of permitting and enforcement within any section of the act.

§ 203. Rules and adoption by reference

A. The Commission shall have the authority to promulgate rules, adopt requirements by reference, establish implementation programs, require permits or licenses, and take appropriate enforcement actions as necessary to prevent pollution and ensure that the following minimum requirements are met in Indian Country:

1. federal standards and requirements under Section 112 of the Federal Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7412, for hazardous air pollutants and for the prevention and mitigation of accidental releases of regulated substances under 42 U.S.C. § 7412(r);
2. federally-approved water quality standards of adjacent states and nations;
3. drinking water standards established by federal law;
4. requirements under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. § 6921 et seq., Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. § 2601 et seq., Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. § 1294 et seq., Endangered Species Act, 16 U.S.C. § 1531 et seq., National Environmental Policy Act, 42 U.S.C. § 4321 et seq. and other federal environmental laws.

B. The Commission may promulgate rules that incorporate by reference and/or modify appropriate environmental requirements established by the federal government or neighboring states or nations. The Commission may adopt requirements in addition to, or more stringent than, those under federal law or laws of adjoining states.

C. Requirements adopted by the Commission shall be enforceable through licenses, permit conditions, administrative proceedings or court actions without a showing of actual harm or intent.

§ 204. Authorities

The Commission may establish, implement and enforce programs and requirements that cover any potential or actual source of pollution and any activity, including but not limited to:

1. point source discharges, land application of wastes or chemicals, surface impoundments and other facilities for treatment, storage or disposal of wastewater, animal wastes or sludge;
2. groundwater, wells, underground injection control, underground and aboveground storage tanks and pipelines;
3. drinking water, water use, dams and hydrologic modifications;
4. stormwater, nonpoint source pollution and best management practices;

5. water quality, water quality standards and certifications, wetlands, protection of instream flow and water planning;
6. air quality, source controls and emission standards, and noxious odors or gases;
7. storage, facility siting, treatment, disposal and transportation of hazardous waste, solid waste, pesticides, toxic substances and other pollutants;
8. dredge and fill, mining, oil and gas extraction and forestry practices;
9. environmental assessments, reviews and impact statements;
10. inspections, sampling, compliance, enforcement and administrative hearings;
11. indoor air quality, asbestos, lead-based paint, radon and required disclosures and remediation of habitable structures contaminated or rendered dangerous by manufacturing of illegal drugs, other chemicals or harmful materials;
12. protection or regulation of fish and wildlife; and
13. any program or activity conducted in cooperation with or funded by federal, state, local or tribal governments.

§ 205. Inspections and records

- A. Any duly authorized representative of the Commission shall have the power to enter at reasonable times upon any private or public property for the purpose of sampling, inspecting and investigating conditions relating to pollution, damage to natural resources, compliance with rules, orders and laws of the Nation, or the possible pollution of any air, land, resources or waters of the Nation or the environment or relating to any other environmental or permitting responsibility authorized by law.
- B. The Commission may require the establishment and maintenance of records and production of reports relating to any regulated activity. Copies of such records shall be submitted to the Commission upon request. Any authorized representative of the Commission shall be allowed access at reasonable times to examine such reports or records.
- C. The Commission may apply to and obtain from the District Court, an order authorizing an administrative warrant to enforce access to premises for sampling, investigation, inquiry and inspection related to requirements of this title, pollution complaint, Commission-issued orders or permits, and any rules promulgated by the Commission. Failure to obey an administrative warrant of the District Court may be punished by the District Court as a contempt of court.

§ 206. Pollution unlawful

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to cause pollution of any air, water, land or resources of the Nation, or to place or cause to be placed any wastes or pollutants in a location where they are likely to cause pollution of any air, water, land or resources of the Nation. Any such action is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

B. If the Commission finds that any of the air, land, resources or waters of the Nation have been, or are being, polluted, they may issue an order requiring such pollution to cease within a reasonable time, and/or requiring such manner of treatment or of disposition of the sewage or other polluting material as may in their judgment be necessary to prevent further pollution.

C. It shall be the duty of the person to whom such order is directed to fully comply with such order. Said order may be issued ex-parte in an emergency, or otherwise in compliance with administrative procedures set forth in this title.

§ 207. Administrative proceedings

A. If upon inspection or investigation, or whenever the Commission determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that any person is in violation of this title or any rule promulgated thereunder or of any order, permit or license issued pursuant thereto, the Commission may give written notice to the alleged violator of the specific violation and of the alleged violator's duty to correct such violation immediately or within a set time period or both and that the failure to do so will result in the issuance of a compliance order.

B. In addition to any other remedies provided by law, the Commission may, after service of the notice of violation, issue a proposed compliance order to such person. A proposed compliance order shall become a final order unless, no later than fifteen (15) days after the order is served, any respondent named therein requests an administrative enforcement hearing.

The proposed compliance order may, pursuant to subsection (K) of this section:

1. assess an administrative penalty for past violations of this title, rules promulgated thereunder, or the terms and conditions of permits, or licenses issued pursuant thereto; and
2. propose the assessment of an administrative penalty for each day the respondent fails to comply with the compliance order.

Such proposed order may specify compliance requirements and schedules, mandate corrective action, assess damages for injuries to natural resources of the Nation and/or require mitigation of damage that has occurred.

C. Failure to comply with a final compliance order, in part or in whole, may result in the issuance of an assessment order assessing an administrative penalty as authorized by law, or a supplementary order imposing additional requirements, or both. Any proposed order issued pursuant to this subsection shall become final unless, no later than seven (7) days after its service, any respondent named therein requests an administrative enforcement hearing.

D. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (A) and (B) of this section, the Commission, after notice and opportunity for an administrative hearing, may revoke, modify or suspend the holder's permit or license in part or in whole for cause, including but not limited to the holder's:

1. flagrant or consistent violations of this title and/or rules promulgated thereunder, or of final orders, permits or licenses issued pursuant thereto;
2. reckless disregard for the protection of the public and the environment as demonstrated by noncompliance with environmental laws and rules resulting in endangerment of human health or the environment; or
3. actions causing, continuing, or contributing, to the release or threatened release of pollutants or contaminants to the environment.

E. Whenever the Commission finds that an emergency exists requiring immediate action to protect the public health or welfare or the environment, the Commission or their designee may without notice or hearing issue an order, effective upon issuance, requiring that such action be taken as deemed necessary to meet the emergency. Any person to whom such an order is directed shall comply therewith immediately but may request an administrative enforcement hearing thereon within fifteen (15) days after the order is served. A hearing shall be held as promptly as possible after receipt of a request. A hearing may be held at any time the Commission, in their discretion, may deem appropriate. On the basis of the hearing record, the Commission may sustain, modify or rescind such order.

F. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, any notice of violation, order, or other instrument issued by or pursuant to authority of the Commission may be served on any person affected thereby personally, by publication, or by mailing a copy of the notice, order, or other instrument by certified mail return-receipt requested directed to such person at his last-known post office address as shown by the files or records of the Nation. Proof of service shall be made as in the case of service of a summons or by publication in a civil action.

G. Every certificate or affidavit of service made and filed shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. A certified copy thereof shall have like force and effect.

H. Any order issued by the Commission shall become final upon service.

I. Any party aggrieved by a final order may petition the Commission for rehearing, reopening or reconsideration within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of the final order. Any party aggrieved by a final order may petition for judicial review thereof.

J. 1. Unless specified otherwise in this title, any penalty assessed or proposed in an order shall not exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per day of noncompliance.

2. The determination of the amount of an administrative penalty shall include, but not be limited to, the consideration of factors such as the nature, circumstances and gravity of the violation or violations, the economic benefit, if any, resulting to the respondent from the violation, the history of such violations and respondent's degree of culpability and good faith compliance efforts. For purposes of this section, each day, or part of a day, upon which such violation occurs, shall constitute a separate violation.

K. Any order issued pursuant to this section may require that corrective action be taken. If corrective action must be taken on adjoining property, the owner of such adjoining property shall not give up any right to recover damages from the responsible party by allowing corrective action to occur.

L. The Commission may delegate the authority to issue orders or take other appropriate actions under this chapter to the Administrator.

§ 208. Violations and penalties

A. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, any person who violates any of the provisions of, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by, the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code or who violates any order, permit or license, or rule promulgated by the Commission pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Code:

1. shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof may be punished by a fine of not less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for each violation and not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for each violation or by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day a violation continues may be considered a separate crime;

2. may be punished in civil proceedings in District Court by assessment of a civil penalty of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for each violation, and for each day that the violation continues;

3. may be assessed an administrative penalty not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per day of noncompliance; and

4. may be subject to injunctive relief granted by a District Court. A District Court may grant injunctive relief to prevent a violation of, or to compel compliance with, any of the provisions of this title or any rule promulgated thereunder or order, license or permit issued pursuant to this title.

B. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the Commission from seeking penalties in District Court in the maximum amount allowed by law. The assessment of penalties in an administrative enforcement proceeding shall not prevent the subsequent assessment by a court of the maximum civil or criminal penalties for violations of this title.

C. Any person assessed an administrative or civil penalty shall be required to pay, in addition to such penalty amount and interest thereon, attorney fees and costs associated with the collection of such penalties.

D. For purposes of this section, each day or part of a day upon which such violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.

E. The Commission may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for the prosecution of a violation by any person of a provision of this title, any rule promulgated thereunder, or any order, license or permit issued pursuant thereto. No bond shall be required of the Commission for such suits.

F. 1. The Commission may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for injunctive relief to redress or restrain a violation by any person of this title, any rule promulgated thereunder, or any order, license, or permit issued pursuant thereto, for recovery of any administrative or civil penalty assessed pursuant to this title, and for recovery of natural resource damages, costs of mitigation and corrective action.

2. The District Court shall have jurisdiction to determine said action, and to grant the necessary or appropriate relief, including but not limited to, mandatory or prohibitive injunctive relief, interim equitable relief, punitive damages, assessment of natural resource damages, costs of corrective action and mitigation, and costs of any measures necessary to protect public health, safety and welfare or the environment.

3. In any judicial action in which the Commission seeks injunctive relief and alleges by verified petition that:

a. the defendant's actions or omissions constitute a violation of this title or a rule, order, license or permit; and

b. the actions or omissions present an imminent and substantial endangerment to health or the environment if allowed to continue during the pendency of the action;

the Commission shall be entitled to obtain a temporary order or injunction to prohibit such acts or omissions to the extent they present an imminent and substantial endangerment to health or the environment. Such temporary order or injunction shall remain in effect during the pendency of the judicial action until superseded or until such time as the Court finds that the criteria of subparagraphs a and b of this paragraph no longer exist. If a temporary order or injunction has been issued without prior hearing, the Court shall schedule a hearing within twenty (20) days after issuance of the temporary order to determine whether the temporary order should be lifted and a preliminary injunction should issue.

G. Except as otherwise provided by law, administrative and civil penalties, costs and natural resource damages recovered pursuant to this title shall be paid into the Environmental Quality Revolving Fund established in this chapter. Allowable expenditures from the fund shall include operational and program costs of the Commission and environmental programs, reimbursement of costs and fees related to the enforcement action, emergency response and projects that enhance the environment or benefit the Nation's natural resources.

H. In determining the amount of a civil penalty the Court shall consider such factors as the nature, circumstances and gravity of the violation or violations, the economic benefit, if any, resulting to the defendant from the violation, the history of such violations, any good faith efforts to comply with the applicable requirements, the economic impact of the penalty on the defendant, the defendant's degree of culpability, and such other matters as justice may require.

I. In addition to or in lieu of any administrative enforcement proceedings available to the Commission, the Commission may take or request civil action or request criminal prosecution, or both, as provided by law for any violation of this title, rules promulgated thereunder, or orders issued, or conditions of permits, licenses, certificates or other authorizations prescribed pursuant thereto.

§ 209. Environmental Quality Revolving Fund

There is hereby created a revolving fund to be designated the "Environmental Quality Revolving Fund". The fund shall be a continuing fund, not subject to fiscal year limitations, and shall consist of all monies received by the Commission or environmental programs from appropriations, administrative penalties, fees, charges, gifts and monies from any other source that are not designated for deposit to any other fund authorized by this Title. All monies accruing to the credit of said fund are hereby appropriated and may be budgeted and expended for the sole purpose of implementing and enforcing this Title.

CHEROKEE NATION ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

§ 301. Purpose

The purposes of this chapter are to establish and implement a Cherokee Nation policy which will encourage productive and enjoyable harmony between human beings and their environment; to promote efforts which will prevent or eliminate damage to natural resources and the environment and to enrich the understanding of the ecological systems and natural resources important to Cherokee Nation.

§ 302. Policies and goals

A. The Council of Cherokee Nation, recognizing the profound impact of man's activity on the interrelations of all components of the natural environment, declares that it is the continuing policy of Cherokee Nation, in cooperation with federal, state and local governments, to use all practicable means and measures, including financial and technical assistance, in a manner calculated to foster and promote the general welfare, to create and maintain conditions under which human beings and nature can exist in productive harmony, and fulfill the social, economic and other requirements of present and future generations.

B. In order to carry out the policy set forth in this title, it shall be the continuing responsibility of Cherokee Nation to use all practicable means, consistent with other essential considerations of Cherokee law, policy, and customs, to improve and coordinate plans, functions, programs, and resources to the end that Cherokee Nation may:

1. fulfill the responsibility of each generation of human beings as trustees of the environment for succeeding generations;
2. assure for all human beings safe, healthful, productive and aesthetically and culturally pleasing surroundings;
3. attain the widest range of beneficial uses of the environment without degradation of Cherokee Nation natural resources;
4. preserve important historic, cultural and natural aspects of Cherokee Nation heritage;
5. analyze potential environmental effects of proposed actions and their alternatives and promote public understanding and scrutiny;
6. enhance the quality of renewable resources and achieve their maximum value and yield through recycling and other methods of conservation;
7. provide civil and criminal remedies and sanctions in favor of Cherokee Nation against any persons who violate this chapter or any regulations adopted hereunder and, to the maximum extent possible, enforce these remedies and sanctions against such persons;
8. prohibit the improper storage, transport, generation, burial or disposal of any solid, liquid or gaseous waste, or nuclear, hazardous or toxic refuse, by-product, waste or material, or any other chemical or polluting material or agent, within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation, or that could affect lands, air, water, natural resources or people of Cherokee Nation;
9. provide for regulation and taxation of interests, actions and omissions that adversely affect the environment of Cherokee Nation;
10. utilize whenever possible, means of development, job creation, construction and resource use that are environmentally friendly and reflective of tribal culture and history.

§ 303. Implementing regulations

The CN EPC is authorized and directed to promulgate rules and regulations, which shall be adopted by the Principal Chief or otherwise promulgated in compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq., implementing the policies and goals of this Title.

§ 304. Cooperation of Cherokee Nation Departments

The Council of Cherokee Nation authorizes and directs that, to the fullest extent possible:

1. the policies, regulations and laws of Cherokee Nation shall be interpreted and administered in accordance with the policies, procedures, and regulations adopted pursuant to 27 CNCA § 303; and

2. all Departments of Cherokee Nation undertaking activities regulated by this Title shall:

a. utilize a systematic, interdisciplinary approach and to ensure the integrated use of natural and social sciences in planning and in decision-making which may have an impact on the environment, natural resources and public health;

b. identify and develop methods and procedures which will ensure that presently unquantified environmental and cultural amenities and values will be given appropriate consideration in decision-making along with economic and technical considerations consistent with the regulations adopted under this title; and

c. include in all recommendations, reports and proposals for legislative actions, projects and programs identified in the regulations adopted under this title or identified by resolution or order of the CN EPC, a statement by the responsible official on:

i. environmental impacts of the proposed action and reasonable alternatives;

ii. any adverse effects on lands, resources, culture, water, air or other aspects of the environment of Cherokee Nation which cannot be avoided should the proposal be implemented;

iii. alternatives to the proposed action, and a comparison of the impacts and benefits of the proposal in comparison to the alternatives;

iv. the relationship between local short-term use of the environment and the maintenance and enhancement of long-term productivity, sustainable communities and a cohesive, distinct tribal culture; and

v. any irreversible and irretrievable commitments of resources which would be involved in the proposed action should it be implemented.

The responsible Department shall submit pertinent information to the CN environmental offices and contract with those offices for preparation of such statement, or obtain authorization of the CN EPC or Principal Chief to prepare the statement themselves or utilize outside consulting services. Prior to finalizing any statement, the preparer should consult with and obtain the comments of any Cherokee Nation, federal, or state or local agency which has jurisdiction by law or special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved. Copies of such statement and the comments and views from appropriate Indian tribes or nations, and federal, state, and/or local agencies which are authorized to develop and enforce environmental standards or may be directly impacted by the proposed action, shall be made available to the CN EPC.

4. study, develop, and describe appropriate alternatives to recommended courses of action in any proposal which involves unresolved conflicts concerning alternative uses of available resources;
5. make available to other Indian tribes and nations, states, and federal agencies and offices advice and information useful in restoring, maintaining, and enhancing the quality of their environment;
6. initiate and utilize ecological and cultural information in the planning and development of projects affecting tribal resources or the environment.

§ 305. Conformity of administrative procedures

All Departments of Cherokee Nation shall review their present statutory authority, administrative regulations, and current policies and procedures for the purpose of determining whether there are any deficiencies or inconsistencies therein which prohibit full compliance herein, and report findings to the CN EPC, and take all measures as may be necessary to bring their authority and policies into conformity with the intent, purpose and procedures set forth in this chapter.

§ 306. Statutory obligations

Nothing in 27 CNCA § 303 or 27 CNCA § 304 shall in any way affect the specific statutory obligations of any Department:

1. to comply with criteria or standards of environmental quality;
2. to coordinate or consult with any other department or intergovernmental agency; or
3. to act, or refrain from acting contingent upon the recommendations or certification of any other Department.

§ 307. Policy supplementary

The policies and goals set forth in this chapter are supplementary to those set forth in existing or future authorizations of Departments of Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 4

AIR QUALITY

§ 401. Short title

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act.

§ 402. Purpose

It is the purpose of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act to provide the means to achieve and maintain atmospheric purity necessary for the protection and enjoyment of human, plant or animal life and property in this Nation.

§ 403. Reserved

As used in the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act:

1. "Accidental release" means an unanticipated emission of a regulated substance or other extremely hazardous substance into the ambient air from a stationary source.
2. "Administrator" means the Administrator of Environmental Quality Programs.
3. "Air contaminants" means the presence in the outdoor atmosphere of fumes, aerosol, mist, gas, smoke, vapor, particulate matter or any combination thereof that creates a condition of air pollution.
4. "Air pollution" means the presence in the outdoor atmosphere of one or more air contaminants in sufficient quantities and of such characteristics and duration as tend to be or may be injurious to human, plant or animal life or to property, or which interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life and property, excluding, however, all conditions pertaining to employer-employee relations.
5. "Ambient air" means the surrounding outdoor air.
6. "Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission.
7. "Emission" means the release or discharge of any air contaminant or potential air contaminant into the ambient air.
8. "Federal Clean Air Act" means the federal Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7401 et seq., as amended, including the federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990.
9. "Hazardous air pollutant" means any air pollutant listed and regulated pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 7412(b).
10. "Hearing officer" means a person appointed to preside at public hearings held pursuant to this chapter.
11. "Person" means any individual, partnership, copartnership, firm, company, corporation, association, joint stock company, tribe, state, trust, estate, municipality or any other legal entity, or their representative, agent or assign.
12. "Regulated substance" means any substance, including extremely hazardous substances, listed and regulated pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 7412(r)(3).

13. "Small business stationary source" means a stationary source as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 7661f(c).

14. "Toxic air contaminant" means any substance determined to be highly toxic, moderately toxic, or of low toxicity pursuant to criteria set forth by rule. The term shall not be construed to include pollutants for which a primary and secondary ambient air quality standard has been promulgated under the federal Clean Air Act to the extent of the criteria for which they are listed.

15. "Trade secret" means information, including but not limited to a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique or process, that:

a. derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and

b. is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

The term "trade secret" shall not be construed to include data concerning the amount, emission rate or identification of any air contaminant emitted by any source, nor shall it include the contents of any proposed or final permit.

§ 405. Powers and duties

The Environmental Protection Commission is hereby designated the administrative agency for the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act. The Commission is empowered to:

1. establish programs necessary to implement the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act and protect the Nation's air, resources and people;

2. establish a permitting program that will contain the flexible source operation provisions required by 42 U.S.C. § 7661a(b)(10);

3. prepare and develop a general plan for proper air quality management in the Nation;

4. enforce the laws, rules and orders of the Commission and Nation;

5. advise, consult and cooperate with other agencies, communities, cities, counties, industries, tribes, states, the federal government, citizens and affected groups, in the prevention and control of new and existing air contamination sources within the Nation;

6. encourage and conduct studies, seminars, workshops, investigations and research relating to air pollution and its causes, effects, prevention, control and abatement;

7. collect and disseminate information relating to air pollution, its prevention and control;
8. encourage voluntary cooperation by persons, communities, cities, counties, industries, states, tribes or other affected groups in restoring and protecting air quality within the Nation;
9. represent the Nation in any and all matters pertaining to plans and procedures in relation to the control of air pollution;
10. provide technical, scientific or such other services as may be appropriate and feasible, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act;
11. identify, propose and implement grants or such other funds or gifts provided by or with the with consent of the Commission and Principal Chief, for the purpose of carrying out the functions of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act;
12. bring appropriate court action to enforce the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act and other provisions of Cherokee Nation laws, rules and final orders of the Commission, and to obtain injunctive or other relief as may be determined appropriate;
- 13, 14. Reserved.
15. take such action as may be necessary to abate alleged pollution upon receipt of evidence that a source of pollution or a combination of sources of pollution is presenting an immediate, imminent and substantial endangerment to the health of persons. The Commission may issue emergency orders, subpoena witnesses and documents, require submission of information or take other action in an administrative proceeding, or may proceed directly to Court to obtain relief;
16. periodically enter and inspect at reasonable times, any source, facility or premises permitted or regulated by the Commission, for the purpose of obtaining samples or determining compliance with the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, any rule promulgated thereunder or permit condition, or to examine any records kept or required to be kept pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act or other applicable law. Such inspections shall be conducted with reasonable promptness and shall be confined to those areas, sources, facilities or premises reasonably expected to emit, control, or contribute to the emission of any air contaminant or other source of pollution;
17. require the submission or the production and examination, within a reasonable amount of time, of any information, record, document, test or monitoring results or emission data, including trade secrets necessary to determine compliance with the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, rules promulgated thereunder, any permit condition, or any order of the Commission. The Commission shall hold and keep as confidential any information declared by the provider to be a trade secret and may only release such information upon authorization by the person providing such information, or as directed by court order. Any documents submitted pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act and declared to be trade secrets, to be so considered, must be plainly labeled by the provider, and be in a form whereby the confidential information may be easily removed intact without disturbing the continuity of any remaining documents. The remaining document, or documents, as submitted, shall contain a notation indicating, at the place where the particular information was originally located, that confidential information has been removed. Nothing in this section shall preclude an in-camera examination of confidential information by an Administrative Law Judge during the course of a contested hearing;

18. maintain and update an inventory of air emissions from stationary sources; and

19. carry out all other duties, requirements and responsibilities necessary and proper for the implementation of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act and the federal Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7401 et seq.

§ 406. Controlled open burning

A. For purposes of this section, "open burning" means the burning of non-hazardous combustible materials in such a manner that the products of combustion are emitted directly to the outside atmosphere.

B. Persons who wish to conduct open burning on tribal lands shall provide notification of the planned open burn to the Environmental Programs Group at least ten (10) days prior to the burning. The notification shall be on a form developed by the Commission.

C. The Commission shall have the authority to promulgate rules regarding open burning as necessary.

§ 407. Rules and regulations

A. The Commission is hereby authorized, after public rulemaking hearing and approval, to:

1. Promulgate, amend or repeal rules for the prevention, control and abatement of air pollution and for establishment of health and safety tolerance standards for discharge of air contaminants to the atmosphere; and

2. Promulgate such additional rules including but not limited to permit fees, as it deems necessary to protect the health, safety and welfare of the public and fulfill the intent and purpose of these provisions.

B. The Commission may prescribe additional requirements to protect health, environment, communities, wildlife, welfare and property through rulemaking, through conditions in any permit or authorization or compliance schedule, or through any order.

§ 408. Delegation of authority

The Commission may delegate such authority as it deems appropriate to the EPC Administrator or other appropriate Cherokee Nation staff.

§ 409. Variances

A. Any person seeking a variance from any provision of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, or from any applicable air quality rule, shall do so by filing a petition for variance with the Commission. The Commission may deny, grant or conditionally approve any request.

B. The Commission may, in its discretion, determine whether or not an administrative hearing is necessary in granting a variance. The Commission shall notify the petitioner of the time and place of any administrative hearing. The burden of proof shall be on the petitioner.

C. The Commission may, but is not required to, grant individual variances beyond the limitations prescribed in the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act or Commission rules, whenever it is found, upon presentation of adequate proof, that compliance with any provision of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, or any rule promulgated thereunder, will result in an arbitrary and unreasonable taking of property or in the practical closing and elimination of any lawful business, occupation or activity, in either case without sufficient corresponding benefit or advantage to the people, the environment or to public health. The Commission may also propose rules applicable to such variances.

D. In determining under what conditions and to what extent a variance from the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act or any rule promulgated thereunder may be granted, the Commission may give due recognition to the progress which the person requesting such variance shall have made in eliminating or preventing air pollution. In such a case, the Commission shall consider the reasonableness of granting a variance conditioned upon such person effecting a partial abatement of the particular air pollution over a period of time which it shall consider reasonable under the circumstances.

E. If the Commission deems proper, such an incremental compliance schedule may be imposed and shall contain a date or dates certain by which compliance with otherwise applicable rules or provisions of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act shall be achieved. The Commission may also include provisions whereby a penalty of up to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per day, or the maximum amount otherwise allowed by law, may be assessed for failure to achieve compliance by the date(s) specified in the compliance schedule or other violations.

F. The Commission may prescribe requirements to protect health, environment, communities, wildlife, welfare and property, as conditions of granting any variance. The person who receives such variance shall comply with such conditions or the variance shall become null and void, unless and until otherwise ordered by the Commission.

G. Any variance granted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall constitute a final order, shall be in writing, and shall be granted for a period of time not to exceed three (3) years. Periodic reports that specify the progress which such person shall have made toward compliance shall be submitted to the Commission. A variance may, for good cause shown, be extended on a year-to-year basis by affirmative action of the Commission.

H. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the informal disposition of any matter by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order or default.

§ 410. Violations

A. In addition to any other remedy provided for by law, the Commission may issue a written order to any person whom the Commission has reason to believe has violated, or is presently in violation of, the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act or any rule promulgated by the Commission, any order of the Commission, or any condition of any permit issued by the Commission pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, and to whom the Commission has served, no less than fifteen (15) days previously, a written notice of violation. The Commission shall provide the person a reasonable opportunity to eliminate such violations, but may, however, reduce the fifteen- (15) day notice period as in the opinion of the Commission may be necessary to render the order reasonably effectual.

B. The Commission shall use reasonable efforts to provide any person alleged to be in violation with advance notice of intent to issue an order and of the opportunity to request an evidentiary hearing or to informally appear before the Commission. An order may require compliance immediately or within a specified time period or both. The order, notwithstanding any restriction contained in subsection (A) of this section, may also assess an administrative penalty for past violations occurring no more than five (5) years prior to the date the order is issued by the Commission, and for each day or part of a day that such person fails to comply with the order.

C. Any order issued pursuant to this section shall state with specificity the nature of the violation or violations, and may impose such requirements, procedures or conditions as may be necessary to correct the violations. The Commission may order any environmental contamination or threat to public health or welfare, when caused by the violations, to be corrected by the person or persons responsible. The Commission or the Nation may also take reasonable actions to correct violations and contamination or to eliminate any threat, and may seek reimbursement by the responsible parties through administrative or court proceedings.

D. Any penalty assessed in the order shall not exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per day for each violation or the maximum established in the Environmental Quality Code. In assessing such penalties, the Commission shall consider the seriousness of the violation or violations, any good faith efforts to comply, and other factors determined by rule to be relevant.

E. An order issued after hearing or waiver of hearing shall become a final order upon issuance or on a date specified by the Commission. An order issued without a prior hearing shall become final unless no later than fifteen (15) days after the order is served the person or persons named therein request in writing an enforcement hearing.

F. In the case of an emergency where public health or the environment is in imminent danger, the order may be effective immediately but reasonable efforts to give notice to the person(s) subject to the order must be documented prior to issuance.

G. Upon request for a hearing, the Commission shall promptly schedule the enforcement hearing before an authorized representative for the Commission or the full Commission, and notify the respondent.

§ 412. Comprehensive permitting program—Issuance, denial or renewal

A. Upon the effective date of permitting rules promulgated pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, it shall be unlawful for any person to construct any new source, or to modify or operate any new or existing source of emission of air contaminants except in compliance with a permit issued by the Commission, unless the source has been exempted or deferred or is in compliance with an applicable deadline for submission of an application for such permit.

B. The Commission shall have the authority and the responsibility to implement a comprehensive permitting program for the Nation consistent with the requirements of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act. Such authority shall include but shall not be limited to the authority to:

1. Expediently issue, reissue, modify and reopen for cause, permits for new and existing sources for the emission of air contaminants, and to grant a reasonable measure of priority to the processing of applications for new construction or modifications. The Commission may revoke, suspend, deny, and refuse to issue or to reissue a permit:

a. upon a determination that any permittee or applicant is or would be in violation of any substantive provisions of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, or any rule promulgated thereunder, or any permit issued pursuant thereto, or any local, regional or national air quality plan, or

b. when the Commission determines that the emissions or activity will pose an unreasonable threat to health, safety property or the environment;

2. Refrain from issuing a permit when issuance has been objected to by the Environmental Protection Agency in accordance with Title V of the federal Clean Air Act;

3. Revise any permit for cause or automatically reopen it to incorporate newly applicable rules or requirements if the remaining permit term is greater than three (3) years; or incorporate insignificant changes into a permit without requiring a revision;

4. Establish and enforce reasonable permit conditions which may include, but not be limited to:

a. emission limitations for regulated air contaminants,

b. operating procedures when related to emissions,

c. performance standards,

d. provisions relating to entry and inspections, and

e. compliance plans and schedules;

5. Require, if necessary, at the expense of the permittee or applicant:

a. installation and utilization of continuous monitoring devices,

b. sampling, testing and monitoring of emissions as needed to determine compliance,

c. submission of reports and test results, and

d. ambient air modeling and monitoring;

6. Issue:

a. general permits covering similar sources, and

b. permits to sources in violation, when compliance plans, which shall be enforceable by the Commission, are incorporated into the permit;

7. Require, at a minimum, that emission control devices on stationary sources be reasonably maintained and properly operated;

8. Require that a permittee certify that the facility is in compliance with all applicable requirements of the permit and to promptly report any deviations therefrom to the Commission;

9. Issue permits to sources requiring permits under Title V of the federal Clean Air Act for a term not to exceed five (5) years, except that solid waste incinerators may be allowed a term of up to twelve (12) years provided that the permit shall be reviewed no less frequently than every five (5) years;

10. Specify requirements and conditions applicable to the content and submittal of permit applications; set by rule, a reasonable time in which the Commission must determine the completeness of such applications; and

11. Determine the form and content of emission inventories and require their submittal by any source or potential source of air contaminant emissions.

C. Rules of the Commission may set de minimis limits below which a source of air contaminants may be exempted from the requirement to obtain a permit or to pay any fee, or be subject to public review. Any source so exempted, however, shall remain under jurisdiction of the Commission and shall be subject to any applicable rules or general permit requirements.

D. The Commission shall notify, or require that any applicant notify, all nations or states whose air quality may be affected and that are contiguous to Cherokee Nation, or are within fifty (50) miles of the source of each permit application or proposed permit for those sources requiring permits under Title V of the federal Clean Air Act, and shall provide an opportunity for such nations or states to submit written recommendations respecting the issuance of the permit and its terms and conditions.

E. No person, including but not limited to the applicant, shall raise any reasonably ascertainable issue in any future proceeding, unless the same issues have been raised and documented before the close of the public comment period on the draft permit, unless the Commission or Court finds good cause exists to allow the same.

F. A change in ownership of any facility or source subject to permitting requirements under this section may require such action, including but not limited to permit modification or a new permit, as the Commission in its discretion shall determine appropriate. If transferred, any permit applicable to such source at the time of transfer shall be enforceable in its entirety against the transferee in the same manner as it would have been against the transferor, as shall any requirement contained in any rule, or compliance schedule set forth in any variance or order regarding or applicable to such source. Provided, however, no transferee in good faith shall be held liable for penalties for violations of the transferor unless the transferee assumes all assets and liabilities through contract or other means. For the purposes of this subsection, good faith shall be construed to mean neither having actual knowledge of a previous violation nor constructive knowledge which would lead a reasonable person to know of the violation. It shall be the responsibility of the transferor to notify the Commission in writing within ten (10) days of the change in ownership.

G. Operating permits for new sources. Operating permits may be issued to new sources without public review upon a proper determination by the Commission that:

1. The construction permit was issued pursuant to the public review requirements of the Code and rules promulgated thereunder; and
2. The operating permit, as issued, does not differ from the construction permit in any manner which would otherwise subject the permit to public review.

§ 413. Permit fees—Environmental Programs Revolving Fund

A. Upon the effective date of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act a schedule of permit fees may be adopted requiring the owner or operator of any source required to have a permit to pay to the Commission:

1. A fee sufficient to cover the reasonable cost of reviewing and acting upon any application for a construction or operating permit for any new source or for the modification of any existing source;
2. An annual operating permit fee sufficient to cover the reasonable costs, both direct and indirect, of implementing and enforcing the permit program authorized by the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act and/or the federal Clean Air Act, including, but not to be limited to:

- a. the costs of reviewing and acting upon any permit renewal,
- b. emissions and ambient monitoring, for those costs incurred under the permitting program,
- c. preparing generally applicable rules or guidance,
- d. modeling, monitoring, analyses and demonstrations,
- e. preparing inventories and tracking emissions, and
- f. inspections and enforcement.

B. The fees authorized in this section shall be set forth by rule.

C. Any fee not received by the Commission within the prescribed time period allotted for payment, unless a lesser amount shall be provided for by rule, shall be subject to a one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month penalty.

D. There is hereby created the Environmental Programs Revolving Fund, a subaccount which shall consist of all fees collected by the Commission as authorized by the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act.

§ 414. Implementation and enforcement of federal emission standards—Oil and gas well and equipment emissions

A. The Commission shall have the authority to establish a program for the implementation and enforcement of the federal emission standards and other requirements under 42 U.S.C. § 7412 for hazardous air pollutants and for the prevention and mitigation of accidental releases of regulated substances under 42 U.S.C. § 7412(r). The Commission may promulgate rules which establish emission limitations for hazardous air pollutants which are more stringent than the applicable federal standards, upon a determination that more stringent standards are necessary to protect the public health or the environment.

B. The Commission shall have the authority to establish programs for control of the emission of toxic air contaminants not otherwise regulated by a final emission standard under 42 U.S.C. § 7412(d), and/or for the control of any other air contaminants, emissions or pollution.

C. Emissions from any oil or gas exploration or production well with its associated equipment, and emissions from any pipeline compressor or pump station may be aggregated with emissions from other similar units, whether or not such units are in a contiguous area or under common control, to determine whether such units or stations are major sources.

D. The Commission may list oil and gas production wells with their associated equipment as an area source category or may establish an area source category for oil and gas production wells located in any metropolitan statistical area or consolidated metropolitan statistical area with a population in excess of one million (1,000,000) if the Commission determines that emissions of hazardous air pollutants from such wells present more than a negligible risk of adverse effects to public health.

E. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit authority established elsewhere in the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act or other provisions of the Cherokee Nation Code.

§ 416. Violations—Penalties

Any person who knowingly and willfully:

1. Violates any applicable provision of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act or federal Clean Air Act or any rule or standard or order promulgated thereunder;
2. Violates any order issued or permit condition prescribed pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act or federal Clean Air Act;
3. Violates any emission limitation or any substantive provision or condition of any permit;
4. Makes any false material statement, representation, or certification in, or omits material information from, or knowingly alters, conceals, or fails to file or maintain any notice, application, record, report, plan or other document except for monitoring data, required pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act to be either filed or maintained;
5. Fails to notify or report as required by the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act rules promulgated thereunder or orders or permits issued pursuant thereto;
6. Fails to install any monitoring device or method required to be maintained or followed pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act; or any rule, order or permit issued thereunder,
7. Tampers with or renders inaccurate any monitoring device; or
8. Falsifies any monitoring information required to be maintained or submitted to the Commission pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act; shall be subject to the administrative, civil and criminal penalty provisions of the Environmental Quality Code.

§ 417. Civil actions

A. The Commission shall have the authority to commence a civil action for a permanent or temporary injunction or other appropriate relief, or to require abatement of any emission or correction of any contamination, or to seek and recover a civil penalty in any of the following instances:

1. Whenever any person has violated or is in violation of any applicable provision of the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act, or any rule promulgated thereunder;
2. Whenever any person has commenced construction, modification or operation of any source, or operates any source in violation of the requirement to have a permit, or violates or is in violation of any substantive provision or condition of any permit issued pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act; or
3. Whenever any person has violated any order of the Commission or any requirement to pay any fee, fine or penalty owed to the Nation pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Clean Air Act.

B. In any court proceeding, the Commission shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees, expenses, penalties, fines costs of collection and an appropriate fee of up to fifty percent (50%) for collecting delinquent fees, penalties or fines. Any funds resulting from such actions shall be utilized by the Commission for environmental programs related to air quality, planning, assistance to communities, research related to health effects and environmental education.

SOLID WASTE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

STORAGE TANK ACCOUNTABILITY AND REGULATORY SYSTEM (STARS)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 601. Short title

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Solid Waste Code.

§ 602. Purpose

It is the purpose of the Cherokee Nation Solid Waste Code to regulate the collection, transportation, processing and disposal of solid waste in a manner that will:

1. Protect the public health, safety and welfare;
2. Protect the environment of Cherokee Nation;
3. Conserve valuable land and other natural resources;
4. Enhance the beauty and quality of the environment; and
5. Encourage recycling of solid waste.

§ 603. Definitions

As used in the Cherokee Nation Solid Waste Code:

1. "Affiliated person" means:

- a. any officer, director, partner or sole shareholder of the applicant;
- b. any person employed by the applicant as a general or key manager or who directs operations of the site, transfer station, or facility addressed by the application; or
- c. any person owning or controlling more than five percent (5%) of the applicant's debt or equity.

2. "Disclosure statement" means a written statement by the applicant which contains:

- a. the full name, business address, and social security number of the applicant, and all affiliated persons;
- b. the full name and business address of any legal entity in which the applicant holds a debt or equity interest of at least five percent (5%) or which is a parent company or subsidiary of the applicant, and a description of the ongoing organizational relationships as they may impact operations;
- c. a description of the experience and credentials of the applicant, including any past or present permits, licenses, certifications, or operational authorizations;
- d. a listing and explanation of any administrative, civil or criminal legal actions against the applicant and affiliated persons in the ten (10) years immediately preceding the filing of the application. Such action shall include, without limitations, any permit denial or any sanction imposed by a tribe, a state regulatory agency or the United States Environmental Protection Agency; and
- e. a listing of any other tribe, federal and state environmental agency that has or has had regulatory responsibility over the applicant.

3. "Disposal site" means any place, including, but not limited to, landfills, transfer stations, surface disposal sites and burial areas, at which solid waste is dumped, abandoned, or accepted or disposed of by incineration, land filling, land application, composting, shredding, compaction, baling or any other method, or by processing by pyrolysis, resource recovery or any other method, technique or process designed to change the physical, chemical or biological character or composition of any solid waste so as to render such waste safe or nonhazardous, amenable to transport, recovery or storage or reduced in volume.

4. "Dwelling" means a permanently-constructed, habitable structure designed and constructed for full-time occupancy in all weather conditions, which is not readily mobile. The term shall include, but is not limited to, traditional housing and manufactured homes.

5. "Final closure" means those measures for providing final capping material, proper drainage, perennial vegetative cover, maintenance, monitoring and other closure actions required for the site by statute, rule, permit or order.

6. "Hazardous waste" means any solid waste, or a combination of solid wastes, which meets the criteria to be considered hazardous under 40 C.F.R. 261.3, or which because of its quantity, concentration or physical, chemical or infectious characteristics may:

a. cause, or significantly contribute to an increase in mortality or an increase in serious, irreversible, or incapacitating reversible, illness; or

b. pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health or the environment when improperly treated, stored, transported, or disposed of, or otherwise managed; or

c. any substance listed by the United States government as hazardous.

7. "History of noncompliance" means any past operations by an applicant or affiliated persons which clearly indicate a reckless disregard for environmental regulation, or a demonstrated pattern of prohibited conduct which could reasonably be expected to result in adverse environmental impact if a permit were issued.

8. "Inert waste" means any solid waste that is insoluble in water, chemically inactive, that will not leach contaminants, or is commonly found as a significant percentage of residential solid waste.

9. "Integrated solid waste management plan" means a plan that provides for the integrated management of all solid waste within the planning unit and embodies sound principles of solid waste management, natural resources conservation, energy production, and employment-creating opportunities.

10. "Lithified earth material" means all rock, including all naturally occurring and naturally formed aggregates or masses of minerals or small particles of older rock that formed by crystallization of magma or by induration of loose sediments. The term "lithified earth material" shall not include man-made materials, such as fill, concrete, and asphalt, or unconsolidated earth materials, soil, or regolith lying at or near the earth's surface.

11. "Maximum horizontal acceleration in lithified earth material" means the maximum expected horizontal acceleration depicted on a seismic hazard map, with a ninety percent (90%) or greater probability that the acceleration will not be exceeded in two hundred fifty (250) years, or the maximum expected horizontal acceleration based on a site-specific seismic risk assessment.

12. "Monofill" means a landfill which is used to dispose of a single type of specified nonhazardous industrial solid waste, except for other nonhazardous industrial solid wastes which are not readily separable from the specified waste.

13. "Nonhazardous industrial solid waste" means any of the following wastes deemed by Administrator to require special handling:

a. unusable industrial or chemical products;

b. solid waste generated by the release of an industrial product to the environment; or

c. solid waste generated by a manufacturing or industrial process.

The term "nonhazardous industrial solid waste" shall not include waste that is regulated as hazardous waste or is commonly found as a significant percentage of residential solid waste.

14. "Person" means any individual, corporation, company, firm, partnership, association, trust, state agency, tribe, government instrumentality or agency, institution, county, any incorporated city or town or municipal authority or trust in which any governmental entity is a beneficiary, venture, or other legal entity however organized.

15. "Recycling" means to reuse a material that would otherwise be disposed of as waste, with or without reprocessing.

16. "Seismic impact zone" means an area with a ten percent (10%) or greater probability that the maximum horizontal acceleration in lithified earth material, expressed as a percentage of the earth's gravitational pull (g), will exceed 0.10g in two hundred fifty (250) years.

17. "Solid waste" means all putrescible and nonputrescible refuse in solid, semisolid, or liquid form, or contained gaseous material, including, but not limited to, garbage, rubbish, ashes or incinerator residue, street refuse, dead animals, demolition wastes, construction wastes, solid or semisolid commercial and industrial waste including explosives, biomedical wastes, chemical wastes, mining wastes, herbicide and pesticide wastes.

18. "Solid waste landfill" means, but is not limited to, municipal solid waste landfills as defined in federal regulations.

19. "Solid waste management system" means the system that may be developed for the purpose of collection and disposal of solid waste by any person engaging in such process as a business or by any municipality, authority, trust, county or by any combination thereof at one or more disposal sites.

20. "Solid waste planning unit" means any district, Indian community, county, incorporated city or town, municipal authority or trust in which any governmental entity is a beneficiary, or other legal entity however organized, which the Administrator determines to be capable of planning and implementing an integrated solid waste management program.

21. "Transfer station" means any disposal site, processing facility or other place where solid waste is transferred from a vehicle or container to another vehicle or container for transportation, including but not limited to a barge or railroad unloading facility. It does not include:

a. a facility such as an apartment complex or a manufacturing plant, where solid waste that is transferred has been generated by the occupants, residents, or facility functions;

b. a citizens' collection station; or

c. a solid waste collection system which leaves waste in enclosed containers along the collection route for later transport.

22. "Waste reduction" means to reduce the volume of waste being generated and/or requiring disposal.

§ 604. Policy

Cherokee Nation declares it to be the policy of the Nation that solid waste generated on lands under the Nation's jurisdiction or imported should be treated, stored and disposed of so as to minimize the present and future threat to human health and the environment, and that pollution prevention, waste reduction and recycling should be encouraged.

§ 605. Powers and duties

A. The EPC is empowered to promulgate rules, require and issue permits, and issue orders:

1. applicable to the permitting, posting of security, construction, operation, closure, maintenance and remediation of solid waste disposal sites, borrow pits and dredge and fill areas;

2. establishing requirements for disposal, transfer, transport, treatment and storage of solid waste in ways that ensure public health and safety and protection of the environment to the greatest extent possible;

3. encouraging or requiring methods of pollution prevention, waste reduction, conservation, avoidance, minimization or mitigation of impacts, and recycling;

4. requiring sampling or the submission of laboratory reports or analyses performed by certified laboratories for the purposes of compliance monitoring and testing, and for other purposes required for the regulation of sludge;

5. requiring the submission by any applicant, owner or operator of a solid waste facility of detailed site plans, compliance audits, environmental assessments or other reports prepared by an engineer or qualified consulting firm approved by the EPC, as a condition of granting a permit or allowing continued operations, and as a requirement in any order or consent agreement;

6. requiring disclosure of information and filing of reports by any owner, operator or applicant, and requiring certifications or licenses for operators;

7. addressing the transportation of solid waste. Such rules shall not be less stringent than those of the United States Department of Transportation or the United States Interstate Commerce Commission;

8. regulating borrow and storage areas for soils, and storage of chemicals or other materials;

9. developing comprehensive solid waste management rules and best management practices;

10. overseeing development of a nationwide integrated solid waste management plan with input from the public, other tribes, states, municipal and county governments and regional solid waste planning and management entities;

11. establishing administrative permit and enforcement procedures;

12. establishing standards and requirements for the remediation of groundwater, surface waters, or contaminated soils resulting from releases, spills or any other activity;

13. implementing and enforcing provisions of the Solid Waste Code and applicable regulations pursuant to Chapter 12 of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code; and

14. enforcing the provisions of applicable federal laws and regulations including, but not limited to, those related to landfills in 40 C.F.R. Part 258.

B. The EPC may establish by rule a schedule of fees to be charged for copies, applications for permits, licenses and other authorizations, inspections and other environmental services involved in the regulation of solid waste. Fees charged pursuant to this section shall be paid into the Environmental Quality Revolving Fund. The EPC in setting fees shall consider appropriate factors such as facility size and capability, type of facility and type and amount of waste accepted, stored, treated, transferred or disposed.

C. The EPC may, but is not obligated to, authorize a variance from specific requirements if the applicant demonstrates that compliance will be met by substituted technology which equals or exceeds the protection otherwise accorded and the variance will not result in a hazard to the health, environment and safety of the people of this Nation or their property. Any variance shall be upon express condition that, in the event of the failure of the substituted technology to conform to requirements, the applicant shall be required to incorporate the technology, process or procedure established under the rules.

§ 606. Authority to administer and implement federal laws and programs

The EPC and Administrator are hereby designated and authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to administer, implement and enforce the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act (Public Law 89–272), Clean Water Act Section 404 program, Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act and other mining laws, Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, and Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act, as these laws exist or may be amended.

§ 607. Cherokee Nation Recycling Initiative

A. The Council recognizes and declares that it is necessary for the public interest, health and economic welfare to encourage and promote the recycling and reuse of recoverable materials. The recycling and reuse of recoverable materials can substantially reduce production and disposal costs, save tribal lands, conserve natural resources and protect the environment.

B. The Legislature declares that the goal of the Cherokee Nation Recycling Initiative is that the Cherokee Nation government, Cherokee Nation-related entities and each Cherokee Nation community should develop and operate a recycling program. Due to the importance of the paper industry to Cherokee Nation's economy, each recycling and reuse program should at a minimum include the collection of waste paper.

§ 608. Permit required—Exemptions

A. Except as otherwise specified in this section:

1. No person shall dispose of solid waste at any site or facility other than a site or facility for which a permit for solid waste disposal has been issued by the EPC;
2. No person shall own or operate a site or facility at which solid waste is disposed other than a site or facility for which a permit for solid or hazardous waste disposal has been issued by the EPC; and
3. No person shall knowingly transport solid waste to an unpermitted site or facility.

B. A person is not prohibited from disposing of solid waste from his or her household upon his or her property provided such disposal does not otherwise create a nuisance or a hazard to the public health or environment or does not violate any other applicable laws, rules, orders or ordinances. Provided, however, disposal areas for more than fifty (50) tires, junk cars or similar wastes shall be subject to the permit requirements of this chapter.

C. The EPC shall issue a permit to be effective for the life of a given site or operation, but may require periodic renewal or modify the permit as appropriate. Each person who operates a landfill disposal site shall submit information on an annual basis at such times and in such form as the EPC shall require, sufficient to allow the EPC to know the remaining landfill life and ensure compliance with financial assurance requirements are met.

D. Information and data submitted in support of a permit application or a permit modification application shall be prepared and sealed by a professional engineer licensed to practice in Oklahoma or Arkansas unless a waiver of this requirement is obtained.

E. The EPC shall not issue any permit for the siting or expansion of an asbestos monofill which will be located closer than five hundred (500) yards from any occupied residence. No asbestos monofill shall be constructed within three (3) miles of the corporate boundaries of any city or town or within one (1) mile of a designated scenic river.

F. Disposal sites approved by the EPC to receive only solid waste shall not accept for disposal any biomedical waste or waste classified as hazardous waste.

G. No permit shall be required for a disposal site constructed pursuant to an order issued by the EPC in an effort to remediate an abandoned or inactive waste site. Such disposal site shall only receive waste from the remediation project, and shall be designed, constructed, and operated in accordance with the standards established in applicable rules, statutes, permits or orders. Such standards shall not be less stringent than those which would apply to a federally-funded remediation project pursuant to the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act.

H. The EPC shall not issue any permit for the siting of a new solid waste disposal site in any location that is:

1. within a locally fractured or cavernous limestone or cherty limestone bedrock;
2. within five (5) miles of any water well owned by a rural water district that is used or has the potential to be used to provide water to customers of the district; or
3. within any area judged to present unacceptable risks to any water supply or any other beneficial use of surface water or groundwater, or
4. Within a one-hundred (100) year floodplain.

I. The EPC may reject a permit application for siting of a new solid waste disposal site where it determines that it create an unacceptable risk to public health, safety or welfare, natural resources or the environment The applicant shall be entitled to a hearing and in any event shall have the burden of proof to show that such a risk would not exist.

J. The EPC may include conditions and terms in any permit to require restrictions on site location, types and amounts of wastes authorized, pretreatment and sorting, recycling, stormwater and discharge controls, retention times or other schedules, cover and revegetation, fencing, buffer zones, setbacks, fencing, reporting, recordkeeping, sampling, and any other condition or term deemed appropriate to avoid, minimize or mitigate environmental impacts or other unacceptable risks to public health, welfare and safety.

K. Where appropriate, the EPC may require both owner and operator to be listed as joint permittees or may require separate permits for the owner(s) of the property, owner(s) of the business and/or the operator(s) of the business.

§ 609. Disclosure statement upon application—Revocation, or refusal to issue, amend, modify, renew or transfer permit—Failure to disclose or stating false information—Penalty

A. All applicants for the issuance or transfer of any solid waste permit, license, certification or operational authority shall file a disclosure statement with their applications, including if applicable the most recent annual and quarterly reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission, information regarding legal proceedings in which the applicant has been involved, and such other information relating to the competency, reliability, or responsibility of the applicant and affiliated persons as the EPC may require.

B. The EPC is authorized to revoke or to refuse to issue, amend, modify, renew or transfer a permit for the disposal of solid waste from or to any person or an affiliated person who:

1. is not in substantial compliance with any final EPC order or final order or judgment of a court of record issued pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Solid Waste Code or any other portion of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code; or

2. is not in substantial compliance with any final EPC order or final order or judgment of a court of record secured by any state or federal agency, as determined by that agency, relating to the storage, transfer, transportation, treatment or disposal of any solid waste; or

3. has evidenced a history of a reckless disregard for the protection of the public health and safety or the environment through a history of noncompliance with state or federal environmental laws, including without limitation the rules of the EPC regarding the storage, transfer, transportation, treatment or disposal of any solid or hazardous waste.

C. The application shall be signed under oath by the applicant.

D. The EPC may suspend or revoke a permit issued pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Solid Waste Code to any person who has failed to disclose or states falsely any information required pursuant to the provisions of this section. Any person who willfully fails to disclose or states falsely any such information, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished as set forth in Chapter 12 of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code.

E. The EPC may suspend, revoke, refuse to issue, refuse to renew or refuse to transfer a solid waste or other permit for good cause at any time. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to, a determination that there is insufficient information upon which to base a decision that adequate protection will be provided for the environment or public health if a permit is issued, or available information indicates that the activity would pose an unacceptable risk of adverse impacts.

§ 610. Availability of administrative permit hearing

Any interested person may request an administrative permit hearing on a proposed permit application for a new permit or for the major modification of an existing permit involving a fifty percent (50%) or more increase in permitted capacity for storage, treatment or disposal including but not limited to incineration.

§ 611. Appeal of issuance of permit—Stay of time restraints

The filing of a proceeding appealing the issuance of a permit authorizing the construction and operation of a solid waste disposal facility shall stay any time restraints specified in the permit relating to the term or expiration of the permit.

§ 612. Nonhazardous industrial solid waste landfills—Permit—Restrictions

A. The EPC may issue a permit for a landfill disposal site, which is not a hazardous waste facility, which accepts nonhazardous industrial solid waste, only under the following circumstances:

1. the landfill is located outside of areas of principal groundwater resource or recharge areas as determined and mapped by the Oklahoma Geological Survey or is on a proposed site on property owned or operated by a person who also owns or operates a hazardous waste facility or solid waste facility, on or contiguous to property on which a hazardous waste facility or solid waste facility is operating pursuant to a permit and the site is designed to meet the most environmentally protective solid waste rules promulgated by the EPC and includes a leachate collection system; or
2. the landfill complies with all siting and public participation requirements as though the solid waste landfill were a hazardous waste landfill; or
3. the site is proposed and designed as a nonhazardous industrial solid waste landfill which will be owned, operated, or owned and operated by an industry or manufacturer for its exclusive noncommercial use.

B. 1. New landfills which accept nonhazardous industrial solid waste shall not be constructed nor shall such existing landfills be expanded which are located within a seismic impact zone unless the applicant demonstrates that all containment structures, including liners, leachate collection systems, and surface water control systems, are designed to resist the maximum horizontal acceleration in lithified earth material for the site.

2. No nonhazardous industrial solid waste landfill shall be located within five (5) miles of a known epicenter of an earthquake of more than 4.0 on the Richter Scale or a number V on the modified Mercalli Scale as recorded by the Cherokee Nation Geological Survey.

C. 1. Before sending waste identified as nonhazardous industrial solid waste for disposal in a solid waste landfill, a certification that the waste is not a hazardous waste shall be submitted to the holder of the landfill permit with a copy to the Administrator. Such certification shall be made by:

a. the original generator,

b. a person who identifies and is under contract with a generator and whose activities under the contract cause the waste to be generated,

c. a party to a remediation project under an order of the EPC, state or federal agency, or

d. a person responding to an environmental emergency.

2. The EPC may require the certifier to substantiate the certification by appropriate means, when it is reasonable to believe such waste may be hazardous. Such substantiation may include Material Safety Data Sheets, an explanation of specific technical process knowledge adequate to identify that the waste is not a hazardous waste, or laboratory analysis.

D. Any generator seeking to exclude a specific nonhazardous industrial solid waste, which is also an inert waste, from the provisions of this section may petition the EPC for a regulatory exclusion. The generator shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the EPC that the waste is inert and that it may be properly disposed.

§ 613. Site closure plan—Financial security

A. All disposal site owners shall provide a closure plan to the EPC for approval which defines operational phases and includes cost estimates, and plans and specifications for final closure. A site may be closed in phases according to a closure plan approved by the EPC.

1. Owners of landfills that receive household solid waste, defined as Municipal Solid Waste Landfill Facilities in the federal regulations adopted under Subtitle D of the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act, and owners of nonhazardous industrial waste landfills shall provide for the maintenance and monitoring of such works for thirty (30) years.

2. Generator-owned and -operated private industrial nonhazardous monofills and landfill disposal sites may apply to the EPC for a variance from the thirty (30) year postclosure monitoring or other closure requirements, provided that no variance may allow for requirements that are less stringent than those under applicable federal law.

3. Disposal sites other than land disposal sites shall have a closure plan which would accomplish the removal and proper disposal of any remaining waste and the elimination of potential environmental health hazards.

B. Financial assurance for costs of closure and any postclosure shall be provided in accordance with 40 C.F.R. Part 258 and any applicable EPC rules.

C. The Nation shall be the sole beneficiary of any such assurance and shall have a security interest therein.

D. When financial assurance is required, it shall remain in effect until closure and any postclosure is completed.

§ 614. Vegetation plan

The owner or operator of any solid waste landfill, over fifty feet (50') in height above natural surface contours that accepts more than two hundred (200) tons per day of solid waste, or any disposal site which disturbs more than one (1) acre of land, must submit a vegetation plan to the EPC for approval. The vegetation plan shall address establishment and maintenance of appropriate vegetative cover for the purposes of erosion and dust control and aesthetic enhancement. The vegetation plan shall be implemented in waste disposal areas that have been undisturbed for ninety (90) days. The EPC shall promulgate rules relative to the contents of the vegetation plan.

§ 615. Scales—Fees, exemptions—Expenditure of funds—Recycling project contracts—Annual report

A. 1. Owners or operators of solid waste disposal sites shall install and maintain scales or volumetric measuring equipment. Such scales or equipment shall be installed on or within five (5) miles of the landfill disposal site and shall be tested and certified.

2. The owner or operator shall upon receipt weigh or record the volume of all waste received and record the weight or volume in writing. These records shall be maintained at the site and must be provided to the EPC upon request.

3. The owner or operator of a solid waste disposal site shall collect any additional fees that may be established by the EPC pursuant to this Code as trustee for the Nation and shall prepare and file with the Administrator of the EPC quarterly returns indicating:

a. the total tonnage of solid wastes received for disposal at the gate of the site, and

b. the total amount of the fees collected.

4. Not later than thirty (30) days after the end of the quarter to which such a return applies, the owner or operator shall mail to the Administrator of the EPC the return for that quarter together with the fees collected during that quarter as indicated on the return.

5. If the owner or operator misrepresents, or fails to properly measure or record the amount of waste received or fails to remit fees within sixty (60) days after the last day of the quarter during which they were collected, the disposal site's permit shall be summarily suspended by order and the EPC shall initiate the process of revoking the permit and may require closure of the landfill.

C. 1. The Administrator of the EPC shall expend funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this section solely for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code, the development of solid waste technical assistance programs, environmental education programs and educational curricula, development of a nation-wide solid waste plan, recycling and litter prevention programs, and other environmental improvements.

§ 616. Development of plan

To the extent feasible, the EPC and Environmental Programs should work with Cherokee Nation citizens and the Tribal Council to ensure that each district has a plan that will provide a solid waste management system to adequately handle solid wastes generated or existing within the boundaries of such district.

STORAGE TANK ACCOUNTABILITY AND REGULATORY SYSTEM (STARS)

§ 661. Short title

Sections 661 through 675 of this Title shall be known and may be cited as the Storage Tank Accountability and Regulatory System or STARS.

§ 662. Legislative intent—Public policy

The Council finds that the release of hazardous substances and petroleum from storage tanks into the surface water, groundwater, air and subsurface soils of this Nation poses a potential threat to the natural resources, health, safety and welfare of the residents of this Nation and to the economy of this Nation.

Therefore the Council declares it is the public policy of this Nation to protect the public health, safety, welfare, the economy and the environment from the potential harmful effects of storage tanks used to store hazardous substances and petroleum. In order to implement this policy, it is the intent of the Council to establish a program for the regulation of storage tank systems.

§ 663. Definitions

As used in STARS:

1. "Abandoned system" means a storage tank system which:

a. has been taken permanently out of service as a storage vessel for any reason or is not intended to be returned to service,

- b. has been out of service for one (1) year or more prior to April 21, 1989, or
 - c. has been rendered permanently unfit for use as determined by the Commission.
2. "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission.
 3. "Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission.
 4. "Corrective action" means action taken to monitor, maintain, minimize, eliminate or clean up a release from a storage tank system.
 5. "Corrective action plan" means the plan submitted to the regulatory program of the Commission detailing the method and manner of corrective action to be taken for a release.
 6. "Council" means the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council.
 7. "Environment" means any chemical, physical or biological component of the earth, including but not limited to water, water vapor, air, land (surface or subsurface), fish, birds and other wildlife, vegetation, and all other natural resources.
 8. "Facility" means any location or part thereof containing one (1) or more storage tanks or systems.
 9. "Hazardous substance" shall include:
 - a. any substance defined in Section 101(14) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, 42 U.S.C. § 9601, but not including:
 - i. any substance regulated as a hazardous waste under Subtitle C of the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. § 6903, or
 - ii. any substance regulated as a hazardous waste under the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code;
 - b. a mixture of hazardous substances and petroleum, providing the amount of petroleum is of a de minimis quantity;
 - c. substances identified as such in 40 C.F.R. Parts 117 and 302; and
 - d. any other substances so designated by the Commission.
 10. "Operator" means any person in control of or having responsibility for the daily operation of the storage tank system, whether by lease, contract, or other form of agreement. The term "operator" also includes a past operator at the time of a release or a violation of the STARS or of a rule promulgated hereunder.

11. "Owner" means:

a. in the case of a storage tank system in use on November 8, 1984, or brought into use after that date, any person who holds title to, controls, or possesses an interest in a storage tank system used for the storage, use, or dispensing of regulated substances, or

b. in the case of a storage tank system in use before November 8, 1984, but no longer in service on that date, any person who holds title to, controls, or possesses an interest in a storage tank system immediately before the discontinuation of its use.

The term "owner" does not include a person who holds an interest in a tank system solely for financial security, unless through foreclosure or other related actions the holder of a security interest has taken possession of the tank system.

12. "Permit" means any registration, permit, license or other authorization issued by the Commission to operate a storage tank system.

13. "Person" means any tribe, tribal entity, individual, trust, firm, joint stock company or limited liability company, federal agency, including a government partnership, association, the state or any state agency, municipality, county or other political subdivision of the state, or any interstate body. The term also includes a consortium, a joint venture, a commercial entity, and the United States government or any other legal entity.

14. "Petroleum" means ethylene glycol-based antifreeze, crude oil, crude oil fractions, and refined petroleum fractions, including motor fuel, jet fuel, distillate fuel oils, residual fuel oils, lubricants, petroleum solvents and used oil which are liquid at standard conditions of temperature and pressure (60 degrees Fahrenheit and 14.7 pounds per square inch absolute). "Petroleum" also means a mixture of petroleum and hazardous substances; provided, the amount of the hazardous substances is of a de minimis quantity.

15. "Pipeline facilities" means new and existing pipe rights-of-way and any equipment, facilities or buildings regulated under any applicable federal, tribal or state law, including but not limited to:

a. the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968, 49 U.S.C.App. § 1671 et seq. (repealed; see 49 U.S.C. § 60101 et seq.),

b. the Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Act of 1979, 49 U.S.C. § 2001 et seq. (repealed; see 49 U.S.C. § 60101 et seq.),

c. Oklahoma Hazardous Liquid Transportation System Safety Act, 52 O.S. § 47.1 et seq.,

d. Cherokee Nation Environmental Code, 27 CNCA § 100 et seq., or

e. intrastate pipeline facilities.

16. "Regulated substances" means hazardous substances, petroleum and any substance otherwise designated by the Commission or this act;

17. "Release" means any spilling, overfilling, leaking, emitting, discharging, escaping, leaching or disposing of regulated substances from a storage tank system into the environment of the Nation. The term "release" includes but is not limited to suspected releases identified as a result of positive sampling, testing or monitoring results, or identified in any similarly reliable manner.

18. "Storage tank system" means any one or combination of tanks, including underground or aboveground piping and equipment connected thereto, that is used to contain an accumulation of regulated substances, and shall include such tanks regardless if located aboveground or underground.

19. "Tank" means a stationary vessel designed to contain an accumulation of regulated substances, which is constructed of primarily non-earthen materials that provide structural support.

20. "Transporter" means any person who transports, delivers or distributes any quantity of regulated substance from one point to another for the purpose of wholesale or retail gain.

§ 664. Exemptions and case-by-case determinations

A. The provisions of STARS do not apply to:

1. septic tank systems otherwise approved by the Commission or exempted under regulations promulgated by the Commission;

2. surface impoundments, pits and lagoons that are otherwise covered in a permit issued by the Commission and/or are subject to other provisions of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code;

3. stormwater and wastewater collection systems;

4. row-through process tank systems;

5. liquid trap or associated gathering lines directly related to oil or gas production and gathering operations;

6. hydraulic lift tank systems;

7. storage tank systems with a capacity of less than one hundred ten (110) gallons;

8. storage tank systems with a de minimis concentration of regulated substances including but not limited to swimming pools and coffins;

9. storage tank systems that serve as emergency backup tanks, provided that such backup tanks hold regulated substances for only a short period of time and are expeditiously emptied after each use;

10. storage tank systems with a capacity of one thousand one hundred (1,100) gallons or less used for noncommercial agricultural or residential purposes;

11. Storage tank systems and residential tanks for noncommercial use for storing heating oil for consumptive use on the premises where stored; and

12. storage tank systems storing hazardous wastes regulated under Subtitle C of the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. § 6921 et seq., or substances regulated as hazardous wastes under Cherokee Nation hazardous waste laws.

B. The Commission may require any facility, structure or activity to comply with STARS, rules promulgated hereunder, Commission guidelines, notification requirements, restrictions, appropriate Commission orders, and may require any facility, structure, activity or person to obtain a permit prior to constructing, installing or operating any facility, whenever it determines that it is necessary or appropriate to protect the environment or public health, safety or welfare.

§ 665. Environmental Programs designated to administer certain federal programs

Cherokee Nation Environmental Programs and the Commission are hereby designated and empowered to administer subtitle I of Title VI of the Solid Waste Disposal Act and Section 205 of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. § 6991 et seq. The Commission's jurisdiction shall include, but is not limited to:

1. underground and aboveground storage tanks that contain antifreeze, motor oil, motor fuel, gasoline, kerosene, diesel, or aviation fuel and that are not located at refineries or at upstream or intermediate shipment points of pipeline operations, including, but not limited to, tanks from which these materials are dispensed into vehicles, or tanks used in wholesale or bulk distribution activities, as well as leaks from pumps, hoses, dispensers, and other ancillary equipment associated with the tanks, whether above the ground or below;

2. point source and nonpoint source discharges of pollutants to waters of the Nation from storage tank facilities and related activities;

3. site remediation and the off-site disposal of contaminated soil, media, or debris; and

4. underground and aboveground storage tanks containing hazardous substances and other substances or facilities not otherwise listed.

§ 666. Powers and duties

A. In addition to other powers and duties prescribed by law, the Commission and its duly authorized representatives shall have the power and duty to:

1. issue, renew, deny, modify, suspend, refuse to renew and revoke permits for storage tank systems and related activities pursuant to the provisions of STARS and rules promulgated pursuant thereto;
 2. promulgate and enforce rules to implement the provisions of STARS, including but not limited to rules setting permit fees;
 3. establish minimum standards and schedules for storage tank systems;
 4. by order, permit, rule or other lawful process require any owner or operator of a storage tank system within this Nation to:
 - a. submit such reports and information concerning the storage tank system as may be determined necessary by the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of STARS or rules promulgated thereto,
 - b. perform tests, install release detection devices, and where appropriate, monitor the environment to ensure that pollution is not occurring,
 - c. make timely reports to the Administrator of pollution or releases,
 - d. temporarily or permanently cease operation of a storage tank system, modify and immediately remove or control any regulated substance that is found to be causing pollution when such cessation, removal or control is determined to be necessary by the Commission,
 - e. provide an alternate or temporary drinking water source to any person deprived of drinking water if it is found that such owner or operator is responsible for polluting the drinking water source beyond applicable drinking water standards, or where no such standard exists, such standard as the Department of Environmental Quality shall determine,
 - f. take full corrective action if such owner or operator is found to be responsible for the release, and
 - g. take appropriate action to temporarily relocate residents affected by the release;
 5. establish and enforce administrative penalties for violations pursuant to the provisions of STARS and the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code, including but not limited to the authority to close a facility found to pose an imminent threat to the health, safety or the environment, a facility operating without a proper permit, or a facility with operating tanks for which permit fees have not been paid;
 6. institute and maintain or intervene in any action or proceeding where deemed necessary by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of STARS to protect the health, safety and welfare of any resident of this Nation or the environment.
- B. The Administrator and Environmental Programs shall have the following powers and authority:

1. register storage tank systems, establish a database, accept payment of fees and hire such personnel as are necessary for implementing this act to the extent funding shall allow;
2. enter at any reasonable time upon any public or private property for the purpose of inspecting and investigating a storage tank system and taking such samples as may be necessary to determine compliance with the provisions of STARS, and rules promulgated thereto;
3. issue informal letters requesting compliance, issue notices of violation, refer matters to the Commission when formal enforcement action may be appropriate;
4. exercise any authority of the Commission when such authority has been delegated to them by the Commission;
5. draft and propose rules, schedules, forms, permits and other documents for the Commission;
6. request issuance of an administrative warrant or search warrant as may be necessary from the District Court where such public or private property is located to allow entry, inspection, sampling, or copying;
7. have access to and copy any records required to be maintained pursuant to the provisions of STARS or rules promulgated thereunder,
8. inspect any equipment, practice or method, which is required by the provisions of STARS or rules promulgated thereto;
9. have access to and inspect any monitoring stations or conduct tests to identify any actual or suspected release of a regulated substance;
10. employ or designate personnel to conduct investigations and inspections, to make reports of compliance with the provisions of STARS and rules promulgated thereto;
11. report to the Attorney General of Cherokee Nation, U.S. Department of Justice, or any other appropriate law enforcement entity with jurisdiction, any act committed by an owner, operator or employee of a facility which may constitute a violation of the provisions of STARS or rules promulgated thereto; and
12. operate the Storage Tank Program, in coordination with the Commission, in lieu of the federal government upon approval by the Environmental Protection Agency.

§ 667. Registration, fees and permit applications

A. All persons who already own, operate or use aboveground or underground storage tanks on lands under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation on the effective date of this act shall register such tanks with the Administrator no later than August 1, 2005. If registered before August 1, 2005, and otherwise in compliance with applicable requirements, such existing tanks are not required to have an individual permit issued under STARS until January 1, 2007 unless the Commission otherwise determines a permit is appropriate.

B. All persons wishing to install, construct, operate or use a storage tank after August 1, 2005, shall first submit a permit application and any required permit fees to the Administrator prior to any installation, construction, operation or use.

C. The Commission may establish a schedule of fees for issuance of any permit, registration or authorization required pursuant to the provisions of STARS or rules promulgated thereunder. The fees shall be in an amount to cover the costs of the Commission in administering STARS.

D. The Administrator will notify persons submitting permit applications in a timely manner whether additional information, fees, engineering plans, inspections, sampling and/or laboratory analyses will be required.

E. All permit fees, penalties and other monies collected under this Code shall be deposited into the Environmental Quality Revolving Fund established under 27 CNCA § 209 and may only be used for environmental programs and protection of natural resources.

§ 668. Operation without permit prohibited—Application form—Denial, refusal to issue, suspension or revocation—Financial responsibility coverage

A. Except as otherwise provided by STARS, no storage tank system or facility shall be installed, used or operated without first obtaining a permit from the Commission. All businesses or persons proposing to own, install, use, locate or operate a storage tank on lands owned by the Nation, held in trust by the United States for the Nation, or otherwise in Indian Country subject to the Nation's jurisdiction, shall comply with the permit requirements and other requirements of STARS and the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code.

A storage tank system is not required to be permitted if the tank system:

1. does not contain or has not contained a regulated substance; or
2. has been permanently closed or has not been in operation since January 1, 1974.

B. No person shall deposit a regulated substance into a storage tank system unless the system is operating pursuant to a permit issued by the Commission.

C. Any person who sells a storage tank system shall notify the owner or operator, or both, of the tank of the permit requirements of STARS and the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code.

D. The application form for a permit shall be provided by and filed with the Administrator. In addition to other information requested by the Commission, the application shall include the type of financial responsibility coverage utilized to comply with the requirements of STARS and by rule of the Commission and the type of leak detection method employed.

E. 1. Permits shall be issued by the Commission for a period not to exceed three (3) years, but may be issued for a shorter duration.

2. A permit issued pursuant to the provisions of STARS may only be transferred with the prior approval of the Commission.

3. Any permittee or applicant for permit subject to the provisions of the STARS shall be deemed to have given consent to any duly authorized employee or agent of the Commission to access, enter, inspect or monitor the tank system or facility in accordance with the provisions of STARS. Refusal to allow such access, entry, or inspection may constitute grounds for the denial, nonrenewal, suspension, or revocation of a permit. Upon refusal of access, entry, inspection, sampling or copying pursuant to this section, the Commission or a duly authorized representative may make application for and obtain an administrative warrant or a search warrant from the District Court where the facility is located to allow such entry, inspection, sampling or copying.

4. The owner or operator of a storage tank system shall display the permit in a location or manner in which the permit can easily be visible to any person depositing a regulated substance into a storage tank even after normal business hours.

F. Any permit or other fees collected pursuant to STARS shall be deposited in the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Revolving Fund and may only be used for environmental programs and protection of natural resources.

G. The Commission may deny approval of a permit application, or refuse to reissue, suspend or revoke a permit issued pursuant to STARS if the Commission finds, after notice and a hearing, that the applicant or permittee has:

1. fraudulently or deceptively obtained or attempted to obtain a permit;

2. failed to comply with any provision or requirement of STARS, the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code and rules, or any order of the Commission;

3. not maintained in effect the financial responsibility requirements established by this section and by rules of the Commission; or

4. the Commission otherwise finds such action appropriate in fulfilling its duties to protect the public, natural resources and environment.

H. Any person owning or operating a storage tank system containing a regulated substance who is not otherwise exempted by law or rule of the Commission, shall obtain and have in effect financial responsibility coverage for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for physical injury and property damage caused by releases arising from operating storage tank systems. Financial assurance shall be sufficient to restore property to its previous condition or comparable condition. Proof of financial assurance shall be a prerequisite to obtaining a permit.

§ 669. Rules governing storage tank systems

A. The Commission shall promulgate rules, guidelines and schedules of fees governing storage tank systems. Until such time as superceded, the following minimum requirements and provisions apply:

1. standards and requirements of 40 C.F.R. Part 280;
2. release detection methods or equipment adequate to identify releases from storage tank systems, or both detection methods and equipment shall be installed and maintained;
3. written procedures to follow when release detection methods or equipment or both such methods and equipment records indicate any loss or gain which is not explainable by spillage, temperature variations or other known causes, shall be prepared and maintained;
4. in the event of any release, owners and operators of storage tank systems must report to the Administrator and/or the designated agent(s) of the Administrator within twenty-four (24) hours, or another reasonable time period specified by the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission, as required by STARS or regulations promulgated thereunder;
5. records documenting actions taken in accordance with paragraphs 1 through 3 of this subsection shall be prepared and maintained;
6. notice shall be promptly given to landowners whose property has been or may be affected by a release, and such landowner shall be afforded a meaningful opportunity to have input into any activities impacting such landowners' property;
7. adjacent property owner(s) whose property has been contaminated by a release may remediate his or her own property under the same requirements as the tank owner or operator responsible for remediating the release, if the release is not otherwise promptly remediated, and the owner or operator shall reimburse such adjacent property owner(s) unless otherwise ordered by the Commission or a court with jurisdiction.

B. Minimum schedules and standards may be established and imposed by the Administrator and the Commission in the form of written guidelines for the design, construction, installation, operation, maintenance, repair, monitoring, testing, inspection, release detection, performance, abandonment and closure of storage tank systems, as may be necessary to protect human health, safety and welfare and the environment. Said written schedules and standards shall be enforceable as rules until otherwise modified, superceded or revoked by the Commission or a court of competent jurisdiction. Copies of all written guidelines must be provided or made available to the public upon request.

C. In promulgating rules establishing schedules and standards pursuant to this section, the Commission may distinguish in such standards between requirements appropriate for new tanks, existing tanks and for abandoned tanks. In making such distinctions, the Commission may consider such factors as:

1. location of the tanks;
2. soil and climate conditions;
3. uses of the tanks;
4. history of maintenance;
5. age of the tanks;
6. national industry codes;
7. hydrogeology;
8. water table;
9. size of the tanks;
10. quantity of regulated substances periodically deposited in or dispensed from the tank;
11. the compatibility of the regulated substance and the materials of which the tank is fabricated; and
12. any other factors as deemed appropriate or necessary by the Commission.

D. The Commission may promulgate rules establishing different requirements for different areas or regions of the Nation if the Commission finds that more stringent rules are necessary:

1. to protect specific waters or other resources of the Nation including but not limited to those waters of the Nation designated for additional protection in Cherokee Nation's water quality standards; or
2. because conditions peculiar to that area or region require different standards to protect public health, safety, welfare or the environment.

E. In promulgating rules pursuant to the provisions of STARS, the Commission shall consider all relevant federal standards and regulations on storage tank systems and shall not promulgate any rule less stringent than federal requirements.

§ 670. Releases from storage tank systems—Reporting

A. Until the Environmental Protection Commission may adopt rules that differ, the following minimum requirements apply to releases from storage tank systems:

1. Owners and operators of underground storage tank systems must report to the Administrator and/or the designated agent(s) of the Administrator within twenty-four (24) hours, or such other reasonable time period as is specified by the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission. Underground storage systems must comply with substantive and procedural requirements of 40 C.F.R. Part 280 including, but not limited to, the procedures in 40 C.F.R. § 280.52;

2. Owners and operators of aboveground storage tank systems must report to the Administrator and/or the designated agent(s) of the Administrator within twenty-four (24) hours, or such other reasonable time period as is specified by the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission.

B. In the event of a discharge of a "pollutant" to "waters of the Nation" or in the event that "pollution" may occur, as those terms are defined in 27 CNCA § 201, a release must be immediately reported to the Administrator regardless of its source. The initial report may be by telephone or in person, but shall be followed with a written report within forty-eight (48) hours.

C Nothing in STARS shall be deemed to supercede reporting requirements elsewhere in the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code or rules promulgated thereunder.

§ 671. Release from storage tank system—Corrective action

A. No owner or operator, employee or agent of such owner or operator, or transporter shall knowingly allow a release from a storage tank system to occur or continue to occur without reporting the release to the Administrator within twenty-four (24) hours upon discovering such a release.

B. The owner or operator of a storage tank system shall immediately take all corrective actions necessary to prevent or halt a release or a threatened release of regulated substances from a storage tank system and to abate and remove any such releases subject to applicable federal and Nation requirements. Any corrective action taken by a tank owner or operator or authorized by the Commission shall be in compliance with all applicable tribal, state and federal statutes and rules for the protection of air quality and water quality and for the transportation and disposal of any waste.

C. If there is a release from a storage tank system, the Commission may:

1. after notice and hearing, order the owner or operator to take reasonable and necessary corrective actions;

2. without notice and hearing, issue an administrative order stating the existence of an emergency and requiring that such action be taken as it deems necessary to meet the emergency. Such order shall be effective immediately. Any person to whom such an order is directed shall comply with said order immediately but on application to the Commission shall be afforded a hearing within ten (10) days after receipt of the emergency order. On the basis of such hearing, the Commission shall continue such order in effect, revoke it, or modify it. Any person aggrieved by such order continued after the hearing provided for in this subsection may appeal to the District Court.

D. 1. The Commission or the Nation may take corrective action if:

a. an owner or operator of the storage tank system cannot be identified,

b. an identified owner or operator cannot or will not comply with an order issued by the Commission,

c. an administrative or judicial proceeding is pending and the Commission determines corrective action is necessary to protect the public health, safety and welfare or the environment until the administrative or judicial proceeding is resolved, or

d. the Commission determines that the release constitutes a clear and immediate danger requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize or mitigate damage to the public health and welfare or the environment. Before taking an action under this paragraph, the Commission shall make all reasonable efforts, taking into consideration the urgency of the situation, to order an owner or operator to take corrective action and notify the owners of real property as specified by 27 CNCA § 673.

2. The owner or operator is liable for the cost of corrective action taken by the Commission or Nation, including the cost of investigating the release and administrative and legal expenses, if:

a. the owner or operator has failed to take a corrective action ordered by the Commission or otherwise required, or

b. the Commission has taken corrective action in an emergency.

3. Reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the Commission or Nation in taking a corrective action, including costs of investigating a release and administrative and legal expenses, may be recovered in a civil action. A certification of expenses by the Nation or Commission shall be prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. The Commission or Nation shall be entitled to apply for and receive payment from the Indemnity Fund or any other program on behalf of an eligible person for an eligible release upon any site upon which the Commission or Nation has taken corrective action. Such payments shall be deemed to be reimbursement of the eligible person. Expenses that are recovered under this subsection shall be deposited in the Environmental Quality Revolving Fund.

E. In addition to corrective action, persons liable for the release shall be responsible for any damage caused to natural resources, costs associated with alternative drinking water supplies if needed, emergency response, and restoration of the area to its previous state to the extent possible.

F. Any order issued by the Commission pursuant to this section shall not limit the liability of the owner or operator or both such owner or operator for any injury, damages, or costs incurred by any person as a result of the release. The owner or operator shall not avoid any liability as a result of such release by means of a conveyance of any right, title or interest in real property, or by any indemnification, hold harmless agreement, or similar agreement.

This subsection does not:

1. prohibit a person who may be liable from entering an agreement by which the person is insured, held harmless, or indemnified for part or all of the liability;
2. prohibit the enforcement of an insurance, hold harmless, or indemnification agreement; or
3. bar a cause of action brought by a person who may be liable or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Except as otherwise provided by law, if there is more than one person liable, such persons shall be jointly liable for any injury, damages, or costs.

§ 672. Emergency response plans, coordination and incidental powers

The Commission, Administrator and their authorized representatives shall have the authority to:

1. require the preparation and submission of an emergency response plan to include but not be limited to spills or releases of regulated substances and any other waste or pollutant, require certain plans be implemented, and review/approve/disapprove emergency response plans;
2. create and implement an internal coordinated management system between all Cherokee Nation programs, corporations and business entities; and
3. exercise any and all incidental powers that may be necessary and proper to administer STARS and other programs necessary to protect the Nation's resources, public health and safety, and the environment.

§ 673. Inspections and investigations—Violations—Notice—Failure to take corrective action—Hearings—Orders—Access to real property

A. If upon inspection or investigation, or whenever the Commission determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a storage tank system is in violation of STARS or of any rule promulgated thereunder or of any order of the Commission, the Commission shall give written notice to the alleged violator specifying the cause of complaint. Such notice shall require that corrective action be immediately initiated.

B. 1. If corrective action is not taken in response to the notice issued pursuant to subsection (A) of this section, the Commission shall initiate proceedings and hold a hearing to determine if:

- a. the alleged violator should be found in violation of Commission rules, permit conditions or orders, or any applicable laws or regulations,
- b. any permit issued to the alleged violator should be modified, suspended, revoked or not reissued,
- c. an application for a permit should be denied or subject to special conditions,
- d. what actions should be taken, who should take such actions, and a schedule for such actions, in order to avoid, alleviate or remedy any risk to public health, safety or welfare or any damage to the environment or the Nation's resources, or
- e. whether any other appropriate relief should be granted.

3. After hearing, the Commission shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law, and enter its order reflecting its decision in the matter. The order of the Commission shall become final and binding on all parties unless appealed to the District Court within sixty (60) days.

C. The Commission shall provide notice and an opportunity for hearing to:

1. the surface owner of real property where any corrective action is to be taken if such person is not the owner or operator of the storage tank system; and
2. the owner of real property adjacent to the location of the corrective action if such real property owner will be adversely affected by the corrective action.

The notice shall advise such real property owner or owners that the corrective action is to be taken and that the owner's cooperation will be required for that action to be taken. The Commission shall give the owner or owners of such real property, as the case might be, an opportunity for hearing and to present evidence on the matter.

D. The Commission is vested with the adjudicative authority to enter orders allowing a tank owner or operator or staff of Cherokee Nation access to property not owned by such tank owner or operator when necessary to investigate, remediate or perform corrective action as the result of a release. An order granting access to a third non-governmental party shall only be entered upon a determination that access cannot be obtained by any other means and that the tank owner or operator seeking access has made a good faith effort to obtain access. The Commission shall determine the reasonable compensation, if any, to be paid to the owner of the property which is to be accessed for the use of the property to investigate, remediate or perform corrective action as the result of a release. An order granting access to property shall be upon such terms as to reasonably minimize the impact of the access upon the owners' use of the property and to protect the rights of the property owner.

§ 674. Penalties

A. Facilities, activities and persons alleged to be in violation of any provisions of STARS or any rule promulgated or order issued pursuant to the provisions of STARS shall be subject to the general enforcement provisions of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Code. Provided, however, nothing herein shall be construed as limiting administrative, civil or criminal remedies that may be sought by the Commission, the Nation, or any interested person against persons responsible for violations or damage to natural resources or property.

B. The Commission or any court of competent jurisdiction may order such equitable relief necessary or appropriate to redress or restrain a violation by any person of a provision of STARS or any rule promulgated or order issued pursuant thereto, including but not limited to:

1. enjoining further releases;
2. ordering facilities temporarily or permanently closed or activities halted;
3. ordering the design, construction, installation or operation of alternate facilities;
4. ordering the removal of facilities, contaminated soils and the restoration of the environment;
5. fixing and ordering compensation for any public or private property destroyed, damaged or injured;
6. except as otherwise provided by law, assessing and awarding damages in an amount necessary to restore any property or resources to its previous condition and punitive damages; and
7. ordering reimbursement to the Nation or any other governmental entity from any person whose acts caused governmental expenditures if not already reimbursed.

§ 675. Records, reports and information—Public inspection—Confidentiality—Disclosure to federal or tribal representatives

A. Any records, reports or information obtained pursuant to STARS shall be available to the public except as provided in subsection (B) of this section.

B. Upon a showing satisfactory to the Commission by any person that records, reports or information, or a particular part thereof is made public, would divulge production or sales figures or methods, processes or production unique to such person or would otherwise tend to affect adversely the competitive position of such person by revealing trade secrets, the Commission shall consider such record, report or information or particular portion thereof, confidential.

C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent disclosures of such report, record or information to federal or tribal representatives as necessary for purposes of administration of any federal or tribal laws or when relevant to proceedings pursuant to STARS.

D. Information concerning groundwater quality and the presence or concentration of substances in soils or groundwater, or any other condition potentially posing a risk to public health or safety, shall not be considered confidential by the Commission.

CHAPTER 7

TOXIC AND HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE CONTROL

GENERAL PROVISIONS

INDOOR RADON ABATEMENT

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 701. Findings, policy and intent

A. Findings. Cherokee Nation finds that:

1. Human beings and the environment are being exposed each year to a large number of chemical substances and mixtures;
2. Among the many chemical substances and mixtures which are constantly being developed and produced, there are some whose manufacture, processing, distribution, use, or disposal may present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment.

B. Policy. It is the policy of Cherokee Nation that:

1. Data developed under federal programs with respect to the effect of chemical substances and mixtures on health and the environment should be used to protect human beings within Cherokee Nation;
2. Adequate authority should exist to regulate chemical substances and mixtures which present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, and to take action with respect to chemical substances and mixtures which are imminent hazards; and
3. Authority over chemical substances and mixtures should be exercised in such a manner as not to impede unduly or create unnecessary economic barriers to technological innovation while fulfilling the primary purpose of this section to assure that such innovation and commerce in such chemical substances and mixtures do not present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment within Cherokee Nation.

C. Intent of Cherokee Nation. It is the intent of Cherokee Nation that the CN EPC shall carry out this chapter in a reasonable and prudent manner, and that the CN EPC shall consider the environmental, economic, and social impact on the Nation of any action the CN EPC takes or proposes to take under this chapter.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Chemical substance" means any organic or inorganic substance of a particular molecular identity, including:
 - a. any combination of such substances occurring in whole or in part as a result of a chemical reaction or occurring in nature; and
 - b. any element or uncombined radical.
2. "Commerce" means trade, traffic, transportation, or other commerce:
 - a. between a place within the boundaries of the Cherokee Nation and any place outside of Cherokee Nation or
 - b. which affects trade, traffic; transportation, or commerce within the Cherokee Nation.
3. "Distribute" and "distribution" when used to describe an action taken with respect to a chemical substance or mixture or article containing a substance or mixture mean to sell, or the sale of, the substance, mixture, or article.
4. "Environment" includes water, air, and land and the interrelationship which exists among and between water, air, and land and all living things.
5. "Health and safety study" means any study of any effect of a chemical substance or mixture on health or the environment or on both, including underlying data and epidemiological studies, studies of occupational exposure to a chemical substance or mixture, toxicological, clinical, and ecological studies of a chemical substance or mixture, and any test performed pursuant to this chapter.
6. "Instrumentalities" means any departments or organizations of the Cherokee Nation offering or providing services to citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
7. "Manufacture" means to import into the territory of Cherokee Nation, produce or manufacture.
8. "Mixture" means any combination of two or more chemical substances if the combination does not occur in nature and is not, in whole or in part, the result of a chemical reaction; except that such term does include any combination which occurs, in whole or in part, as a result of a chemical reaction if none of the chemical substances comprising the combination is a new chemical substance and if the combination could have been manufactured for commercial purposes without a chemical reaction at the time the chemical substances comprising the combination were combined.

9. "New chemical substance" means any chemical substance which is not included in the chemical substance list compiled and published in federal guidelines and programs.

10. "Process" means the preparation of a chemical substance or mixture, after its manufacture, for distribution:

a. in the same form or physical state as, or in a different form or physical state from, that in which it was received by the person so preparing such substance or mixture, or

b. as part of an article containing the chemical substance or mixture.

11. "Processor" means any person who processes a chemical substance or mixture.

12. "Standards for the development of test data" means those standards used for testing under federal EPA guidelines and programs.

§ 703. Testing of chemical substances and mixtures

Testing requirements. The CN EPC may utilize the lists and results of the tests required of the federal EPA under 15 U.S.C. § 2603 and 15 U.S.C. § 2604 for purposes of controlling toxic and hazardous substances within Cherokee Nation.

§ 704. Regulation of hazardous chemical substances and mixtures

A. Scope of regulation. If the CN EPC finds that there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the manufacture, processing, distribution, use, or disposal of a chemical substance or mixture, or that any combination of such activities, presents or will present an unreasonable risk of injury to health or the environment, the CN EPC shall by the rules and regulations adopted by 27 CNCA § 702 apply one (1) or more of the following requirements to such substance or mixture to the extent necessary to protect adequately against such risk using the least burdensome requirements:

1. A requirement:

a. prohibiting the manufacturing, processing, or distribution in commerce of such substance or mixture, or

b. limiting the amount of such substance or mixture which may be manufactured, processed, or distributed within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation;

2. A requirement prohibiting or otherwise regulating any manner or method of commercial use of such substance or mixture within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation;

3. A requirement prohibiting or otherwise regulating any manner or method of disposal of such substance or mixture, or of any article containing such substance or mixture, by its manufacturer or processor or by any other person who uses, or disposes of such substance or mixture within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

The CN EPC regulations promulgated under this section are to supplement federal law, and, as such, federal laws and regulations concerning toxic and hazardous substances will serve as a minimum standard for Cherokee Nation.

B. Promulgation of subsection (A) rules.

1. In promulgating any rule or regulations pursuant to 27 CNCA § 702 under subsection (A) of this section with respect to a chemical substance or mixture, the CN EPC shall consider and publish a statement with respect to:

- a. the effects of such substance or mixture on health and the magnitude of the exposure of human beings to such substance or mixture;
- b. the effects of such substance or mixture on the environment and the magnitude of the exposure of the environment to such substance or mixture;
- c. the benefits of such substance or mixture for various uses and the availability of substitutes for such uses.

2. When prescribing a rule under subsection (A) the CN EPC shall in compliance with the Cherokee Nation Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq.:

- a. publish a notice of proposed rulemaking stating with particularity the reason for the proposed rule;
- b. allow interested persons to submit written data, views, and arguments, and make all such submissions publicly available;
- c. provide an opportunity for an informal hearing in accordance with paragraph 3 of this subsection;
- d. promulgate, if appropriate, a final rule based on the matter in the rule-making record; and
- e. make and publish with the rule the finding described in subsection (A) of this section.

3. Informal hearings required by subparagraph c of paragraph 2 may be conducted by the CN EPC in accordance with the following requirements:

- a. Subject to subparagraph b of this paragraph, an interested person is entitled:
 - i. to present such person's position orally or by documentary submissions (or both), and

ii. if the CN EPC determines that there are disputed issues of material fact it is necessary to resolve, to present such rebuttal submissions and to conduct (or have conducted under clause ii of subparagraph b) such cross-examination of persons as the Administrator determines:

(I) to be appropriate, and

(II) to be required for a full and true disclosure with respect to such issues.

b. The CN EPC may prescribe such rules and make such rulings concerning procedures in such hearings to avoid unnecessary costs or delay. Such rules or rulings may include:

i. the imposition of reasonable time limits on each interested person's oral presentations, and

ii. requirements that any cross-examination to which a person may be entitled under subparagraph a of this paragraph be conducted by the CN EPC on behalf of that person in such manner as the CN EPC determines:

(I) to be appropriate, and

(II) to be required for a full and true disclosure with respect to disputed issues of material fact.

c. A tape recording shall be taken of any oral presentation made, and cross-examination conducted in any informal hearing under this subsection. Such transcript shall be available to the public upon payment of cost of such transcription cost.

C. Effective date.

1. The CN EPC shall specify in any rule under subsection (A) of this section the date on which it shall take effect, which date shall be as soon as feasible.

2. The CN EPC may declare a proposed rule under subsection (A) of this section to be effective upon its publication in the Cherokee Phoenix and until the effective date of final action taken, respecting such rule if the CN EPC determines that:

a. the manufacture, processing, distribution, use, or disposal of the chemical substance or mixture subject to such proposed rule or any combination of such activities is likely to result in an unreasonable risk of serious or widespread injury to health or the environment before such effective date; and

b. making such proposed rule so effective is necessary to protect the public interest.

D. Polychlorinated biphenyls (PCB's). Disposal of PCB's within Cherokee Nation shall meet at a minimum the federal requirements in 15 U.S.C. § 2605(e) and such additional requirements as may be established by the CN EPC.

§ 705. Imminent hazards

A. Actions authorized and required. The CN EPC may commence a civil action in Cherokee Nation District Court or the appropriate district court of the United States:

1. for seizure of an imminently hazardous chemical substance or mixture or any article containing such a substance or mixture;
2. for relief (as authorized by subsection (B) of this section) against any person who manufactures, processes, distributes, or uses, or disposes of, an imminently hazardous chemical substance or mixture or any article containing such a substance or mixture; or
3. for both such seizure and relief.

B. Relief authorized.

1. The Cherokee Nation District Court in which an action under subsection (A) of this section is brought shall have jurisdiction to grant such temporary or permanent relief as may be necessary to protect health or the environment from the unreasonable risk associated with the chemical substance, mixture, or article involved in such action.

2. In the case of an action under subsection (A) of this section against a chemical substance, mixture, or article, such substance, mixture, or article may be proceeded against by process for its seizure and condemnation. Proceedings in such an action shall conform as nearly as possible to proceedings for forfeiture of contraband as provided by the federal drug enforcement policies.

C. Venue and consolidation. An action under subsection (A) of this section may be brought in Cherokee Nation District Court or in any United States district court within the jurisdiction of which the substance, mixture, or article is found and federal law allows.

§ 706. Inspections and subpoenas

A. In general. For purposes of administering this chapter, the CN EPC, and any duly designated representative of the CN EPC, may inspect any establishment, facility, or other premises in which chemical substances or mixtures are manufactured, processed, stored, or held before or after their distribution and any conveyance being used to transport chemical substances, mixtures, or such articles in connection with distribution in commerce within Cherokee Nation. Such an inspection may only be made upon the presentation of appropriate credentials and of a written notice to the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the premises or conveyance to be inspected. A separate notice shall be given for each such inspection, but a notice shall not be required for each entry made during the period covered by the inspection. Each such inspection shall be commenced and completed with reasonable promptness and shall be conducted at reasonable times, within reasonable limits, and in a reasonable manner.

B. Scope.

1. Except as provided in paragraph 2, an inspection conducted under subsection (A) of this section shall extend to all things within the premises or conveyance inspected (including records, files, papers, processes, controls, and facilities) bearing on whether the requirements of this chapter applicable to the chemical substances or mixtures within such premises or conveyance have been complied with.

2. No inspection under subsection (A) of this section shall extend to:

a. financial data;

b. sales data (other than shipment data);

c. pricing data;

d. personnel data; or

e. research data (other than data required by this chapter or under a rule promulgated thereunder), unless the nature and extent of such data are described with reasonable specificity in the written notice required by subsection (A) of this section for inspection.

§ 707. Prohibited acts

It shall be unlawful for any person to:

1. fail or refuse to comply with any rule promulgated or order issued under this chapter;

2. use for commercial purposes a chemical substance or mixture which such person knew or had reason to know was manufactured, processed, or distributed in violation of Cherokee Nation or federal laws.

3. fail or refuse to:

a. establish or maintain records,

b. submit reports, notices, or other information, or

c. permit access to or copying of records, as required by this chapter or a rule thereunder; or

4. fail or refuse to permit entry or inspection as required by 27 CNCA § 706.

Civil.

1. Any person who violates any provision of 27 CNCA § 707 shall be liable to Cherokee Nation for a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for each such violation. Each day such a violation continues shall, for purposes of this subsection, constitute a separate violation of 27 CNCA § 707.

2. a. A civil penalty for a violation of 27 CNCA § 714 shall be assessed by the CN EPC by an order made on the record after opportunity (provided in accordance with this subparagraph) for a hearing in accordance with the Cherokee Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq. Before issuing such an order, the CN EPC shall give written notice to the person to be assessed a civil penalty under such order of the CN EPC proposal to issue such order and provide such person an opportunity to request, within fifteen (15) days of the date the notice is received by such person, such a hearing on the order.

b. In determining the amount of a civil penalty, the CN EPC shall take into account the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation or violations and, with respect to the violator, ability to pay, effect on ability to continue to do business, any history of prior such violations, the degree of culpability, and such other matters as justice may require.

3. Any person who requested in accordance with subparagraph a of paragraph 2 a hearing respecting the assessment of a civil penalty and who is aggrieved by an order assessing a civil penalty may file a petition for judicial review of such order with the District Court of Cherokee Nation. Such a petition may only be filed within the thirty- (30) day period beginning on the date the order making such assessment was issued.

§ 709. Specific enforcement and seizure

A. Specific enforcement. The District Court of Cherokee Nation shall have jurisdiction over civil actions to:

1. restrain any violation of 27 CNCA § 707;

2. restrain any person from taking any action prohibited by the toxic and hazardous waste sections of this chapter or rules and regulations set forth under this chapter;

3. compel the taking of any action required by or under this chapter:

a. to give notice of such fact to distributors in commerce of such substance or mixture and, to the extent reasonably ascertainable, to other persons in possession of such substance or mixture or exposed to such substance or mixture,

b. to give public notice of such risk of injury, and

c. to either replace or repurchase such substance or mixture, whichever the person to which the requirement is directed elects.

B. Seizure. Any chemical substance or mixture which was manufactured, processed, or distributed in violation of this chapter or any rule promulgated or order issued under this chapter or any article containing such a substance or mixture shall be deemed contraband and shall be liable to be proceeded against, for the seizure and condemnation of such substance, mixture, or article, in the District Court of Cherokee Nation or in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such substance, mixture, or article is found. Such proceedings of the District Court of Cherokee Nation shall conform as nearly as possible to proceedings in forfeiture of controlled dangerous substances deemed contraband pursuant to 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq.

§ 710. Judicial review

The review process shall be through the courts of Cherokee Nation.

§ 711A. National goal

The long-term goal of Cherokee Nation with respect to radon levels in buildings is that the air within buildings in Cherokee Nation should be as free of radon as the ambient air outside of buildings.

A. Purpose. The purpose of 27 CNCA §§ 711A to 711C is:

1. to require instrumentalities and related departments of the Cherokee Nation including but not limited to citizens such as the Cherokee Nation Housing Authority, Historical Society, Indian Health Services, Headstart, other tribal facilities and Cherokee Nation departments to develop an effective departmental policy for dealing with radon contamination that utilizes any CN EPC guidelines and standards to ensure that occupants of housing covered by 27 CNCA §§ 711A to 711C are not exposed to hazardous levels of radon; and
2. to require Cherokee Nation and its departments to assist the CN EPC in reducing radon contamination.

B. Standards. In developing the policy, Cherokee Nation, its instrumentalities, and its departments may utilize any guidelines, information, or standards established by the US EPA for:

1. testing residential and nonresidential structures for radon;
2. identifying elevated radon levels;
3. identifying when remedial actions should be taken; and
4. identifying geographical areas that are likely to have elevated levels of radon.

§ 711B. Model construction standards and techniques

The CN EPC may promulgate regulations to incorporate the model construction standards and techniques developed by the federal EPA into all Cherokee Nation Housing Authority projects and Cherokee Nation projects by October 1, 1994.

§ 711C. Education

The CN EPC may, using the available information and resources established in 15 U.S.C. § 2661 et seq., develop an educational program concerning the dangers and solutions of radon which might affect all human beings living within the borders of Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 8

PESTICIDE APPLICATION NOTIFICATION SYSTEM

§ 801. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Pesticide Application Notification System Act.

§ 802. Purpose

The application and the control of the use of various pesticides is important and vital to the maintenance of a high level of public health and welfare both immediate and future, and is hereby declared to be affected with the public interest. The Rules of pesticide application notification and recordkeeping are stated in this rule for the purpose of protecting the immediate and future health and welfare of the Cherokee Nation citizens.

§ 803. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Applicator" means any person engaging in the application of pesticides or employment of devices.
2. "Cherokee Nation" means the Cherokee Nation government and all of its entities, including businesses wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation.
3. "Device" means any instrument subject to the United States Environmental Protection Agency regulation intended for trapping, destroying, repelling, or mitigating insects or rodents, or mitigation of fungi, bacteria, or weeds, or other pests designated by the board, but not including equipment used for the application of pesticides when sold separately.
4. "Pest" means any organism harmful to man including, but not limited to insects, mites, nematodes, weeds and pathogenic organisms. Pathogenic organisms include viruses, mycoplasma bacteria, rickettsia, and fungi.

5. "Pesticide" means any substance or mixture of substances intended for preventing, destroying, repelling or mitigating any pest. A pesticide may be a chemical substance, biological agent (such as a virus or bacterium), antimicrobial, disinfectant or device used against any pest.

6. "Pesticide application" means the way in which pesticides are delivered to their target pests.

7. "Use" means transportation, storage, mixing, application, safe handling, waste and container disposal, and other specific instructions contained on the label and labeling.

§ 804. Establishment of policies

By July 1, 2011 policies will be developed and implemented requiring the following:

1. Notice of pesticide application.

a. General notification of pesticide use will be provided to the Cherokee Nation Environmental Programs department no less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to application on any Cherokee Nation-owned or -operated facility. The written notification must be provided to Cherokee Nation Environmental Programs with the following information:

i. name and address of facility to be treated;

ii. location of the application;

iii. date of the application;

iv. name, address and phone number of applicator company;

b. After completion of a pesticide application, the following information is to be provided to the appropriate facility personnel:

i. address of the facility being treated, specific area(s) treated by the product and for whom the pesticide was applied;

ii. name, address and telephone number of company making application (if applicable);

iii. name and license number of person making the application;

iv. complete brand name and EPA registration number of pesticide product used;

v. year, month, day, and time of application;

vi. target pest(s);

vii. quantity of pesticide used;

viii. method of application;

ix. MSDS sheet for pesticide applied.

2. Exemptions from 48-hour notification.

a. emergency pesticide applications required by the public health officials;

b. disinfectants, sanitizers, deodorizers, or microbial agents used for general cleaning purposes;

c. the use of baits and traps used for pest control.

3. Pesticide contractors.

a. It shall be unlawful for any person to act, operate, or do business or advertise as a commercial, noncommercial, certified applicator, temporary certified applicator, service technician, or private applicator unless the person has obtained a valid applicator's license issued by the Oklahoma State Board of Agriculture, or similar license issued under the authority of a different state, for the category of pesticide application in which the person is engaged.

b. When Cherokee Nation uses contractors to apply pesticides on its behalf, all contractors will ensure full compliance with the notification requirements of this Plan. Where a contractor is to apply pesticides on behalf of Cherokee Nation, the contractor must complete a notification in accordance with this plan a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours prior to the proposed date for application. It is the responsibility of the contractor to complete the notification in accordance with this plan.

4. Penalties.

a. Failure to notify the Cherokee Nation's Environmental Programs staff as required by law shall result in the following actions:

i. First offense—a written warning from the Environmental Programs staff designed to educate the applicator;

ii. Second offense—a written warning from the Environmental Programs Department and a fine of Fifty Dollars ($50.00);

iii. All subsequent infractions shall result in a fine of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per violation.

b. Any violations may be reported to the applicator's state licensing authority for investigation.

CHAPTER 9

WATER QUALITY CODE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

DISCHARGE ELIMINATION AND CONTROL

WATER SUPPLY SYSTEMS

WASTE STORAGE, TREATMENT, TRANSPORTATION AND DISPOSAL

§ 900. Short title

The provisions of this chapter shall be known as the Cherokee Nation Water Quality Code.

§ 901. Declaration of policy and authority

This chapter recognizes the authority of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission to take all actions necessary to implement the goals and policies of the Nation to:

1. restore, maintain and improve the chemical, physical and biological integrity of waters of Cherokee Nation;
2. utilize area-wide planning and management to control sewage and other discharges;
3. assert and defend the Nation's legal rights and claims to waters and related natural resources;
4. monitor and ensure that the United States and surrounding states and nations take meaningful action to protect water quality and comply with applicable laws for the protection of resources, whenever their actions or inaction may harm the Nation's waters or resources;
5. hold anyone who has, without authorization, used or damaged the Nation's waters or related natural resources accountable for restoring the same to their original condition and/or compensating the Nation for such damage or unauthorized use;
6. identify and protect waters and resources of the Nation with special cultural or historical significance, and develop and enforce such standards and antidegradation provisions as may be appropriate for such purposes;
7. engage in planning and participate in decision-making to assure that the Nation's waters and related natural resources are developed in a manner consistent with the goal of long-term, sustainable use and protection for future generations;
8. prohibit the discharge of toxic pollutants in toxic amounts and, to the extent practicable eliminate, or effectively control, the discharge of pollutants from any source;

9. require environmental review of proposed activities which may cause individual or cumulative adverse impacts to water quality, natural resources, public health, lands, recreation, cultural or historical values, air, quality of life, or other aspects of the Nation's environment;

10. require projects to be modified to avoid adverse impacts if possible, to minimize unavoidable impacts, and provide full mitigation for unavoidable impacts;

11. prohibit or restrict activities which may cause or contribute substantially to a violation of water quality standards or a violation of federal law.

§ 902. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Administrator" means the person designated as Administrator of the CN EPC.
2. "Affected party" means any person or entity applying for or holding a permit under this chapter, and any citizen of Cherokee Nation, but only if such person, entity, or citizen is directly and substantially impacted by an action or decision of the CN EPC. The CN EPC, in the regulations adopted pursuant to 27 CNCA § 102, may include other classes of persons within the meaning of "Affected party". The Nation and any department thereof may be an affected party.
3. "CN APA" means the Cherokee Nation Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq.
4. "CN EPC" means the Environmental Protection Commission of the Cherokee Nation.
5. "Cherokee Nation District Court" means the trial court of Cherokee Nation.
6. "Citizen of Cherokee Nation" means a citizen of Cherokee Nation as defined by law.
7. "Commission" means the Environmental Protection Commission of Cherokee Nation.
8. "Council of Cherokee Nation" means the legislative body of Cherokee Nation.
9. "Discharge" includes but is not limited to any addition of any pollutant to waters of the Nation from any point source and includes any discharge of a pollutant or pollutants from any source.
10. "Disposal system" means pipelines or conduits, pumping stations and force mains and all other devices, construction, appurtenances and facilities used for collecting, conducting or disposing of wastewater, including treatment systems.
11. "Drainage basin" means all of the water collection area adjacent to the highest water line of a reservoir which may be considered by the Commission to be necessary to protect adequately the waters of the reservoir. The area may extend upstream on any watercourse to any point within six hundred (600) feet of the highest water line of the reservoir.

12. "Effluent limitation" means any established restriction on quantities, rates, and concentrations of chemical, physical, biological, and other constituents which are discharged from point sources into waters of the nation, including schedules of compliance.

13. "Environment" includes but is not limited to the air, land, wildlife, cultural and archaeological resources, and waters of the Nation.

14. "Environmental Code" means the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code and shall refer to 27 CNCA § 100 et seq.

15. "Indirect discharge" means the introduction of pollutants to a treatment works from a nondomestic source.

16. "Indian" means a person who is a citizen or is eligible for citizenship in a federally-recognized Indian tribe or nation.

17. "Indian country" means as defined by federal statutory and case law.

18. "Indian tribe or nation" means a federally-recognized Indian tribe or nation.

19. "Jurisdiction" means jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation over the territory legally described in the treaties of 1828, 1835 and 1838 and the Cherokee Nation patent issued in 1846, and other such lands acquired by Cherokee Nation since 1838.

20. "Lands of Cherokee Nation" means tribal lands and those lands under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

21. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.

22. "Nonpoint source" means the contamination of the environment with a pollutant for which the specific point of origin may not be well defined.

23. "Person" means any individual, trust, joint stock company, corporation (including a government corporation), partnership, association, government or any other legal entity or an agent, employee, representative, assignee or successor thereof.

24. "Point source" means any discernible, confined and discrete conveyance, including but not limited to any pipe, ditch, channel, tunnel, conduit, well, discrete fissure, container, rolling stock, or vessel or other floating craft, from which pollutants or wastes are or may be discharged. The term "point source" does not include stormwater discharges and return flows from normal agricultural practices, but may include those associated with agri-industry practices such as concentrated animal feeding operations.

25. "Pollutant" includes but is not limited to dredged spoil, medical waste, solid waste, incinerator residue, sewage, garbage, sewage sludge, munitions, chemicals, chemical wastes, biological materials, radioactive materials, heat, wrecked or discarded equipment, rock, sand, cellar dirt and industrial, municipal, and agribusiness waste.

26. "Pollution" means the presence in the environment of any substance, contaminant or pollutant, or any other alteration of the physical, chemical or biological properties of the environment or the release of any liquid, gaseous or solid substance into the environment in quantities which are or will likely create a nuisance or which render or will likely render the environment harmful or detrimental or injurious to public health, safety or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish or other aquatic life, or to property.

27. "Pretreatment" means reduction of the amount of pollutants, or alteration of the nature of pollutant properties in wastewater prior to or in lieu of discharging or introducing into a treatment works.

28. "Public water supply" means water supplied to the public for domestic or drinking purposes.

29. "Restricted lands" means lands held which are restricted against alienation as provided by the federal law.

30. "Sludge" means nonhazardous solid, semi-solid, or liquid residue generated by the treatment of domestic sewage or wastewater by a treatment works, or water by a water supply system, or manure, or such residue, treated or untreated, which results from industrial, nonindustrial, commercial, or agribusiness activities or processes.

31. "Schedule of compliance" means a schedule of remedial measures including but not limited to an enforceable sequence of actions or operations leading to compliance with an effluent limitation, other limitation, prohibition, or standard.

32. "Storm water" means rain water runoff, snow melt runoff, and surface runoff and drainage.

33. "Supreme Court" means the appellate court of Cherokee Nation.

34. "Treatment works" means any facility used for the purpose of treating or stabilizing wastes or wastewater.

35. "Tribal lands" means lands held by Cherokee Nation regardless of whether those lands are held in fee simple, restricted or trust status.

36. "Trust lands" means lands held in trust by the United States of America for the benefit of Cherokee Nation or Indians living within the territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

37. "Waste" means any liquid, gaseous or solid or semi-solid substance, or thermal component, whether domestic, municipal, commercial, agricultural or industrial in origin, which may pollute or contaminate or tend to pollute or contaminate, any air, land or waters of the Nation.

38. "Water supply system" means a water treatment plant, water wells, and all related pipelines or conduits, pumping stations and mains and all other appurtenances and devices used for distributing drinking water to the public and, as such, shall be synonymous with waterworks.

39. "Waters of the Nation" means all streams, lakes, ponds, marshes, watercourses, waterways, wells, springs, irrigation systems, drainage systems, storm sewers and all other bodies or accumulations of water, surface and underground, natural or artificial, public or private, navigable or non-navigable, which are contained within, flow through, or border upon Cherokee Nation or any portion thereof.

§ 903. Powers and duties of Commission

A. The Commission shall have the power and duty to:

1. develop comprehensive programs for the prevention, control and abatement of new or existing pollution of the waters of this Nation;
2. require the submission of plans, specifications and other data in connection with the issuance of permits required pursuant to this chapter;
3. require monitoring and testing of waters and discharges, and the submission of reports or laboratory analyses performed by certified laboratories or operators;
4. issue swimming and fishing advisories related to human and animal health hazards;
5. adopt standards of quality of the waters of the Nation and classifications of such waters, and promulgate other rules to protect, maintain and improve the best uses of waters in this Nation and establish such best management practices and conditions as may be necessary or appropriate for the prevention, control and abatement of pollution;
6. issue, continue in effect, revoke, amend, modify, condition, deny, renew, or refuse to renew permits, licenses, water quality certifications and other authorizations;
7. establish a schedule of fees for permits, studies, laboratory services or technical assistance and for recovering copy and other costs in response to open records requests;
8. establish, implement, amend and enforce a Water Quality Management Plan and total maximum daily loads;
9. issue, modify, or revoke orders requiring the construction of new disposal or treatment systems or the modification or extension of existing systems, or the adoption of other remedial measures to prevent, control or abate pollution; and

10. issue, modify, or revoke orders requiring other actions such as the Commission may deem necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter and rules promulgated thereunder.

B. The Commission may, pursuant to resolution or a writing approved in a regular or special meeting of the Commission, delegate any authority to the Administrator except for final rulemaking decisions.

C. Except as specifically provided herein, duties and requirements pursuant to this chapter shall apply to all lands of Cherokee Nation, all waters of Cherokee Nation and all persons and activities subject to the authority and jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

§ 904. Unlawful acts

A. The following shall be unlawful and subject to enforcement provisions of this title, unless the proper entity has first obtained a permit or written authorization from the Commission:

1. point source discharges of pollutants to any waters of the Nation or placement of any wastes in a location where waters of the Nation may be polluted;
2. dredge and fill activities in or adjacent to waters of the Nation;
3. construction or operation of sewage or industrial treatment plants or lagoons;
4. land application or disposal of any waste, wastewater or sludge.

B. The Commission may establish specific exemptions to the requirements of this section by rule.

DISCHARGE ELIMINATION AND CONTROL

§ 905. Short title

This part shall be known and may be cited as the Discharge Elimination and Control Act.

§ 906. Duty of Commission to promulgate rules and set requirements for discharges

The Commission shall promulgate rules implementing or effectuating the Discharge Elimination and Control Act. Such rules may incorporate by reference any applicable rules, regulations and policies of the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Corps of Engineers, or any other appropriate entity, including but not limited to rules which:

1. allow the inclusion of technology-based effluent limitations and require water-quality-related effluent limitations in discharge permits;
2. establish, implement and enforce effluent limitations, prohibitions, pretreatment standards, standards for the removal of toxic materials and pollutants, national standards of performance or more stringent standards, in the control of discharges, through permit terms and conditions or otherwise;

3. prohibit or control the discharge of pollutants into wells within the jurisdiction of the Nation;
4. ensure that the public and any other nation or state, the waters of which may be affected, receive notice of each application for a discharge permit and have the opportunity to submit written recommendations or comments;
5. establish management standards for sludge which are no less stringent than applicable federal regulations;
6. establish requirements for dredge and fill activities, mining and physical alterations of streams and lakes of the Nation; and
7. establish any requirements needed to obtain treatment as state or delegation of federal programs or requirements otherwise deemed necessary for comprehensive environmental programs; provided, that approval to effectuate treatment as a state is granted by the Principal Chief and the Council.

§ 907. Issuance of discharge permits—Availability of records, reports or other information

A. Pollutant discharge permits may include schedules of compliance and such conditions as the Commission may determine appropriate, including but not limited to terms and conditions which:

1. prevent, control or abate pollution, including but not limited to such water quality-related and technology-based effluent limitations as are necessary to protect water quality and existing and designated beneficial uses of the waters of the Nation;
2. set interim compliance dates which are enforceable without otherwise showing a violation of an effluent limitation or harm to water quality;
3. set terms and conditions for sludge, land application of wastewater and impoundments.

B. The Commission shall:

1. have authority to issue individual permits and authorizations under general discharge permits for pollutants and stormwater and sludge, subject to Commission veto or approval;
2. issue permits for fixed terms not to exceed five (5) years, but subject to modification prior to the expiration of term for purposes including but not limited to compliance with new standards or assuring protection of water quality;
3. have the authority to require in permits issued to publicly or privately owned treatment works conditions requiring the permittee to give notice to the Commission of new introductions into such works, a substantial change in volume or character of pollutants, or other appropriate condition, and to require permits for any indirect discharges to such works;

4. have the authority to ensure compliance with all provisions of the Clean Water Act and with other applicable federal law;

5. have the authority to terminate or modify permits for cause, including but not limited to:

a. violation of any condition of the permit, including but not limited to conditions related to monitoring requirements, entry and inspections,

b. obtaining a permit by misrepresentation, or failure to disclose fully all relevant facts, or

c. change in any condition that requires either a temporary or permanent reduction or elimination of the permitted discharge;

6. have all necessary authority to implement and enforce duly promulgated rules, authority to implement and enforce a Nationwide pretreatment program, and to implement and enforce requirements applicable to dischargers into municipal separate storm sewer systems; and

7. have all necessary or incidental authority to investigate and abate violations of permits, administrative orders, rules, and laws of the Nation, to apply sanctions through administrative proceedings for violations, including but not limited to violations of requirements to obtain permits, terms and conditions of permits, effluent standards and limitations and water quality standards, and violations of requirements for recording, reporting, monitoring, entry, inspection and sampling.

C. Authorized employees or representatives of the Commission shall, upon presentation of credentials, have:

1. a right of entry to, upon, or through any private or public premises upon which an effluent or sludge source is or may be located or in which any records are required to be maintained;

2. access to at any reasonable time for the purposes of reviewing and copying any records required to be maintained;

3. authority to inspect any monitoring equipment, methods, disposal systems or other facilities or equipment which may be required; and

4. access for the purpose of inspecting and sampling any effluent streams or any discharge of pollutants to waters of the Nation or to treatment systems discharging into waters of the Nation or for inspection and sampling of any sludge source, storage, beneficial use, reuse or disposal site.

D. Copies of records, plans, reports or other information required by the Commission shall be submitted upon request and shall be subject to and made available for inspection at reasonable times to any authorized representative of the Commission upon showing of proper credentials. Any authorized representative of the Commission may examine any records or memoranda pertaining to discharges, treatment, or other limitations set by statute, permit, order or duly promulgated rules of the Commission.

§ 908. Discharge without permit unlawful

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (B) of this section, any point source discharge into waters of the Nation, or in a place likely to reach waters of the Nation, by or from any facility, activity, source or entity regulated by the Commission, shall be unlawful unless a permit has first been obtained from the Commission.

B. The Commission may promulgate rules applicable to discharges composed entirely of stormwater or other discharges that are known not to contain significant quantities of pollutants, require permits on a case-by-case basis, establish general permit terms, exempt categories of discharges, or provide a schedule for obtaining a permit.

C. Dilution shall not be considered a solution to pollution.

WATER SUPPLY SYSTEMS

§ 910. Short title

This part shall be known and may be cited as the Water Supply Systems Act.

§ 911. Cooperation with federal agendas

The Commission shall have authority to administer a Wellhead Protection Program and Public Water Supply Supervision Program for the Nation pursuant to the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, in cooperation with such other departments of the Nation as the Principal Chief may deem appropriate.

§ 912. Rules and standards

A. The Commission may promulgate rules as necessary to implement the provisions of this part pertaining to water supply systems and the treatment and distribution of water to the public, including but not limited to rules for:

1. the construction and extension of such systems;
2. specifications and directions as to the source, manner of storage, purification, treatment and distribution of water supplied to the public;

3. requirements for control tests, laboratory checks, operating records and reports, including the submission of water samples for testing or sample analyses as prescribed by the federal Safe Drinking Water Act and this chapter; and

4. permitting requirements.

B. The Commission shall recommend standards to the public for individual water supplies.

C. Such rules may provide for the exemption and conditions therefore, of specified categories of water supply systems from any of the requirements thereof, except for wastewater discharges, if the public health will not thereby be endangered.

§ 914. Waterworks—Filing of plans and surveys

Every person supplying, authorized to supply, or proposing to supply water to the public shall file with the Commission a certified copy of the plans and surveys of the waterworks, with a description of the source from which the water supply is derived. No additional source of supply or well shall thereafter be used without written authorization from the Commission.

§ 915. Investigations of sanitary quality of water

A. The Commission may investigate the sanitary quality of water supplied to the public if the Commission has reason to believe that such water supply is prejudicial to the public health or environment.

B. During such investigation, the person in charge of the water supply shall furnish the Commission all information requested relative to the source or sources from which the supply of water is derived, and the manner of storage, distribution and purification or treatment necessary or desirable for the determination of its sanitary quality.

§ 916. Orders

A. The Commission may issue an order requiring compliance with this chapter, rules of the Commission, and orders previously issued. Such orders may require a change in the source or sources of a public water supply, or in the manner of storage, distribution, purification or treatment of the supply before delivery to consumers, as may be necessary to safeguard the public health or environment.

B. The Commission or Administrator may issue an emergency orders as necessary to safeguard the health of the consumers or the environment.

C. Orders of the Commission or Administrator may require public water supply systems to notify consumers of the problem with the supply and the action required by the order.

D. An order shall remain in full effect until it is rescinded by the Commission.

E. Orders and proceedings, unless otherwise specifically provided, shall be in compliance with general enforcement provisions of this chapter and the Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq.

§ 917. Groundwater supplies

A. The Council finds that a safe public groundwater supply is one of the most valuable natural resources in this Nation.

B. The Council recognizes and declares that the management, protection and conservation of groundwater supplies and the beneficial uses thereof are essential to the economic prosperity and future well-being of the Nation. As such, the public interest demands procedures for the development and implementation of management practices to conserve and protect public groundwater supplies.

§ 918. Wellhead and water supply protection program

A. The Commission may develop rules and programs to prevent pollution of public water supply systems, including but not limited to a wellhead protection program to assist communities, states, municipalities, rural water districts, nonprofit water corporations and other public groundwater suppliers in the conservation and protection of their public groundwater supplies. Such a program should provide guidelines for:

1. specifying the duties of local communities and governments in developing and implementing a wellhead protection program;
2. determining all potential and actual pollution sources which may have an adverse effect on public health;
3. taking into consideration potential sources of pollution when siting new wells or intake structures for public water supplies; and
4. developing contingency plans for pollution release containment, cleanup and the provision of alternative drinking water supplies for each public water system in the event of pollution.

B. The Commission may assist communities with long-term planning for meeting water supply needs from groundwater, surface water or other sources.

§ 919. Water supply protection education program

A. The Commission should develop and implement an education program concerning protection of water supplies, including both groundwater and surface waters. In developing such program, the Commission shall consult with community leaders, public health agencies, water utilities, educational and research institutions, nonprofit organizations and any other person or agency the Commission deems necessary.

B. The program should provide public recognition of land uses and owners located within a public groundwater supply wellhead protection area, or within a watershed plan area, who demonstrate successful and committed efforts to protect drinking water supplies by implementing innovative approaches to pollution prevention and groundwater protection.

§§ 920 to 929. Reserved

WASTE STORAGE, TREATMENT, TRANSPORTATION AND DISPOSAL

§ 930. Short title

This part shall be known and may be cited as the Waste Storage, Treatment, Transportation and Disposal Act.

§ 931. Wastewater treatment or sewer systems

A. No person shall construct or let a contract for any construction work of any nature for a municipal treatment works, nonindustrial wastewater treatment system, sanitary sewer system or other sewage treatment works, or for any extension thereof, or make any change in the manner of nonindustrial wastewater treatment or make any change in the treatment, storage, use or disposal of sewage sludge without a permit issued by the Commission.

B. No permit shall be required for the construction or modification of a private individual sewage disposal system provided that such system is constructed or modified in accordance with other applicable requirements of the Nation.

C. An application for such permit shall include, but not be limited to, an engineering report, legal description of the site where the works or system is or is proposed to be located, and a legal description of the site where any discharge point is or is proposed to be located.

D. Upon approval of the engineering report, the applicant shall submit plans and specifications for the proposed system or the proposed extension or change of an existing system for review. Such plans and specifications shall be prepared by a professional engineer licensed to practice in the state of Oklahoma.

§ 932. Construction, operation and extension of treatment systems

A. The Commission may require permits and/or promulgate rules as necessary pertaining to the treatment, transportation, storage, use and disposal of wastewater, sewage sludge and other waste by wastewater treatment systems or treatment works.

B. The Commission may allow the exemption, and set conditions therefore, for specified categories of wastewater treatment systems or treatment works for small public sewage facilities if public health and the environment will not thereby be endangered. Provided, no exemption shall be allowed which is inconsistent with applicable minimum federal requirements for discharges or use, transportation or disposal of sludge.

§ 933. Requirements for public sewage disposal systems—Planning residential development

A. No public sewage system shall be constructed or operated unless such system, when constructed, complies with requirements prescribed by the Commission and has been inspected by an authorized person.

B. Any person, corporation or other legal entity which creates or intends to create an industrial or residential development outside the corporate limits of a city or town and within areas subject to the Nation's jurisdiction shall first file and obtain the Commission's approval of a plat and plans describing the methods of sewage disposal, water supply and stormwater management for such development. Approval shall be obtained prior to recording a plat, offering a lot or lots for sale or beginning construction within such development.

A. Rules of the Commission applicable to sewage sludge shall be at least as stringent as applicable federal regulations. Prior to promulgation of such rules, federal requirements shall apply, in addition to requirements established pursuant to this chapter.

B. Sludge or other wastes shall only be land applied pursuant to a permit or plan approved by the Commission and in a manner consistent with Commission rules, including appropriate limitations on the location, amount, frequency, content, manipulation, setbacks and prohibitions as the Commission may deem appropriate. When allowed, the following minimum requirements apply:

1. Annual land application of sludge or other waste shall only occur during the growing season at a rate not to exceed the target crop's ability to uptake nutrients and shall be consistent with results of recent soil tests;
2. Land application of sludge or waste that contains concentrations of heavy metals, pathogens or pollutants which may pose an environmental or public health risk is prohibited;
3. Sludge or waste applied to land shall be incorporated into the soil before the end of each working day;
4. Sludge or waste shall not be applied within four feet (4') of the highest seasonal water table nor applied to the land within five hundred feet (500') of a stream or body of water;
5. Sludge shall not be applied within the watershed of a designated outstanding resource water or scenic river, or within one (1) mile of a surface public water supply or any water body that is already impaired by pollutants normally found in such sludge. For purposes of this section, until such time as the Commission may promulgate superceding rules, the term designated "outstanding resource water" or "ORW" shall include those streams and their tributaries that are currently designated ORW under state law;

6. Sludge or waste shall not be applied within five hundred feet (500') of any other public or private water supply; and

7. Sludge or waste shall not be land-applied in areas of karst topography.

C. Any use, storage or final disposition of sludge or wastes other than land application or disposal at a permitted facility shall require the approval of the Commission.

§ 935. Activities requiring permit—Construction of impoundments, land application, new outfalls or major changes

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to carry on any of the following activities with regard to wastewater or sludge without first securing a permit from the Commission:

1. The construction, installation, operation and closure of any industrial surface impoundment, industrial septic tank or treatment system, or the use of any existing unpermitted surface impoundment, septic tank or treatment system that is within the jurisdiction of the Nation and which is proposed to be used for the containment or treatment of industrial wastewater or sludge;

2. The construction, installation or operation of any industrial or commercial facility, the operation of which would cause an increase in the discharge of waste into the waters of the Nation or would otherwise alter the physical, chemical or biological properties of any waters of the Nation in any manner not already lawfully authorized;

3. The construction or use of any new outfall for the discharge of any waste or pollutants into the waters of the Nation; or

4. The land application of any nonindustrial or industrial wastewater and the land application of sludge or waste of any type.

B. Any major addition, extension, operational change or other change proposed for a facility permitted pursuant to subsection (A) of this section shall require the approval of the Commission and modification of the facility's permit prior to construction or implementation of such addition, extension or change.

C. The discharge of domestic sewage except to an authorized public or private disposal system or the surfacing of effluent from any domestic septic system shall be deemed pollution.

§ 936. Rules—Application

The Commission shall have authority to make rules for the control of pollution and sanitation on all property located within any watershed, reservoir or drainage basin subject to the Nation's jurisdiction, including but not limited to rules:

1. relating to the collection and disposal of domestic and industrial wastes within any reservoir or drainage basin;
2. prohibiting the dumping of garbage, trash or other wastes or contaminated material within any reservoir or drainage basin; and
3. providing that all wastes originating within any watershed, reservoir or drainage basin shall be disposed of in a manner approved by the Commission, and that the plans and specifications for any disposal system shall be approved by the Commission prior to the construction of any such system.

§ 937. Underground injection of hazardous and nonhazardous liquids

A permit must be obtained from the Commission prior to construction or use of any underground injection wells within the Nation's jurisdiction.

CHAPTER 10

SCENIC RIVERS

§ 1001. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Scenic Rivers Act.

§ 1002. Designation of scenic river areas

A. The Council finds that some of the free-flowing streams and rivers of the Nation possess such unique natural scenic beauty, cultural or historical significance, water conservation, fish, wildlife and outdoor recreational values of present and future benefit to the people of the Nation that it is the policy of the Council to preserve these areas.

For this purpose there are hereby designated certain "scenic river areas" to be preserved as a part of the Nation's diminishing resource of free-flowing, high quality, rivers and streams.

B. The areas of the Nation designated as "scenic river areas" shall include:

1. those portions of the following rivers designated as scenic rivers or outstanding resource waters in the 2003 Oklahoma Water Quality Standards, including Flint Creek, Illinois River, Barren Fork Creek, Lee Creek, and Little Lee's Creek;
2. such portions of other rivers as may be designated by the Council or by standards promulgated by the Commission and approved by the Principal Chief.

C. The term "scenic river area" as used in the Scenic Rivers Act is defined as the stream or river and the public use and access areas located within the area designated.

§ 1003. Legislative intent

A. Once an area is designated as a "scenic river area", it is the intent of the Council that:

1. The stream or river be preserved in its free-flowing condition;
2. The stream or river shall not be impounded by any large dam or structure;
3. The stream or river and its tributaries shall be provided the highest level of water quality protection.

B. No agency or official of any government shall authorize or concur in plans of local, state, nation or federal agencies for the construction, operation, or maintenance of any dam or related project in any "scenic river area," except with the Council's consent and for documented needs of communities in the immediate vicinity of the "scenic river area" for their own domestic water supply.

C. No structures or alterations are allowed which may significantly interfere with the aesthetics and preservation of a designated stream as a scenic free-flowing stream.

§ 1004. Cooperation and support of people and agencies—Purpose of act

A. It is recognized by the Council that an effective program for preserving the scenic beauty of the free-flowing streams and rivers designated as "scenic river areas" necessarily involves the cooperation and support of the people in the areas of designated "scenic river areas", as well as the people using the "scenic river areas", and the agencies and governments administering these areas.

B. The primary purpose of the Scenic Rivers Act is to encourage the preservation of the areas designated as "scenic river areas" in their natural scenic state.

§ 1005. Littering and TMDLs

A. It is recognized by the Council that littering by people using the "scenic river areas" is one of the most immediate threats to the scenic beauty of our free-flowing streams and surrounding areas.

B. Any cross-deputized law enforcement officer, marshal, ranger, staff or members of the Oklahoma Scenic Rivers Commission, police or peace officer, game wardens, landowner in the area, or any other interested party may file a complaint to enforce the provisions of the Scenic Rivers Act or to enforce other applicable requirements to prevent and clean up pollution.

C. Any person who deliberately places, throws, drops, deposits or discards any garbage, trash, waste, rubbish, refuse, debris or other deleterious substance on or near a scenic river area shall be subject to monetary penalties and enforcement provisions of the CN Environmental Code for illegal pollution or discharges and any other applicable law.

D. For those impaired scenic river watersheds where a total maximum daily load (TMDL) for phosphorus or other pollutants is necessary, the Commission shall work with affected states, if possible, to allocate and enforce loadings for discharges of all types.

§ 1006. Notice and hearing as to designation of additional scenic areas

Before any plans for additional proposed "scenic river areas" are brought to the Council for consideration, the Commission shall give reasonable notice in newspapers of general circulation in every district in which land and streams that would be affected by the proposed "scenic river area" are situated. The notice shall include a map or drawing of the proposed area and shall give the time and place of a meeting, at which time and place the Commission shall present their plans for the proposed area.

A. The Council finds that the protection and development of the Nation's scenic river areas and adjacent and contiguous lands and quality of outstanding resource waters included within the Nation and subject to its jurisdiction should be provided for by properly planned and executed rules promulgated by the Commission respecting public services, land use, occupancy, structures, management practices in riparian areas, and other activities as required for the proper protection of the cultural, aesthetic, scenic, historic, archeological and scientific features of the said affected areas, or deemed necessary for the protection of the ecosystem and the environment from pollution, despoliation and destruction or waste of natural resources and all other factors adversely affecting the Nation's heritage or public health, safety and the general welfare.

B. The Commission shall be invested with the power to prepare and establish minimum standards for planning and other ordinances and rules for the implementation of the Scenic Rivers Act, and promulgate such rules and issue such orders as necessary to protect the public interest and to achieve the purposes of the Scenic Rivers Act.

C. The standards shall be developed and executed in such manner as to protect and enhance the values which caused the area to be named a scenic river area without, insofar as is consistent with said protection and enhancement, limiting other uses that do not substantially interfere with the protection, public use, and enjoyment of these values.

D. Primary emphasis in the standards shall be given to protecting the cultural, aesthetic, scenic, historic, archeological, and scientific features of the scenic river area with due consideration being given to the sustainable and orderly development of the lands adjacent and contiguous to the scenic river area.

E. Standards set pursuant to the provisions of the Scenic Rivers Act shall not be less rigid or exacting than those established by any other federal, state or local agency having jurisdiction in respect to the subject covered by the particular standard.

COMPREHENSIVE ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE, COMPENSATION, AND LIABILITY ACT [CN CERCLA]

Reserved for Future Use

CHAPTER 12

LEAD-BASED PAINT

§ 1201. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Lead-Based Paint Act.

§ 1202. Purpose

The purpose of the Cherokee Nation Lead-Based Paint Act is to provide for the authorization and administration of a lead-based paint program in accordance with requirements set forth by the federal Environmental Protection Agency. This program is established for the health, safety and welfare of Cherokee citizens in recognition of the health risks associated with the presence of lead in paint products.

§ 1203. Definitions

As used in the Cherokee Nation Lead-Based Paint Act:

1. "Lead-based paint" means paint with a lead content of 0.5% or greater (5000 ppm). Coatings of residential paint are considered to be lead-based if the lead content exceeds 1 mg/cm² or 0.5% by weight.
2. "Program" means the Cherokee Nation Lead-Based Paint Program as defined in 27 CNCA § 1204.

§ 1204. Lead-Based Paint Program

A. The Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Program shall have the authority to act as the lead office in the development, implementation, and on-going facilitation of a Cherokee Nation Lead Based Paint program. The program shall be established in accordance with the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code, and shall operate in accordance with criteria established by the federal Environmental Protection Agency for tribal nation lead-based paint programs.

B. The Lead Office shall have the authority to promulgate the necessary rules, regulations and operating procedure, in accordance with EPA criteria and Cherokee Nation law, to operate the program.

C. The Lead Office shall have the authority to pursue available sources of federal funding for the continued operation of the program.

§ 1205. Enforcement

The Cherokee Nation Lead-Based Paint Program shall be enforced in accordance with the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code; the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service, the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission and the Lead Office shall be designated as the enforcement authorities for the program.

CHAPTER 13

HAZARDOUS WASTE CODE

§ 1301. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code. Any reference herein to the "Code" shall refer to the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

§ 1302. Purpose and general provisions

The purpose of this code is to:

1. Establish the authority of the Cherokee Nation to enforce, as minimum requirements in Indian Country and on lands or waters of the Nation, all applicable requirements of federal law and regulations. For that purpose, until such time as the Nation may develop additional or more stringent requirements, the requirements of federal law and regulations applicable to hazardous waste, hazardous materials and hazardous substances are hereby adopted by reference;
2. Provide authority to appropriate entities within the Nation to take all actions necessary to develop, implement and enforce a comprehensive regulatory program for hazardous wastes and materials;
3. Provide authority to appropriate entities within the Nation to develop, implement and enforce requirements that are more stringent than or are in addition to federal requirements, to the full extent not prohibited by law.

§ 1303. Definitions

A. Unless otherwise defined in this code, rules promulgated hereunder, or otherwise applicable provisions of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code, definitions contained in applicable federal laws and regulations shall apply.

B. The following definitions shall be used:

1. "Affiliated person" means:

a. any officer, the Administrator, or partner of the applicant;

b. any person employed by the applicant as a general or key manager who directs the operations of the site or facility which is the subject of the application; and

c. any person owning or controlling more than five percent (5%) of the applicant's debt or equity.

2. "Cherokee community" means a group of persons which is predominantly composed of citizens of Cherokee Nation and who reside in the same geographic area and meet or work together on common goals, regardless of whether or not such community is shown on maps published outside Cherokee Nation, listed as a town or city or otherwise recognized by persons outside Cherokee Nation.

3. "Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission.

4. "Council" means the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council.

5. "Demonstrated pattern of prohibited conduct" means a series of conduct of the same or like character in violation of Cherokee Nation or federal environmental laws which, as a result of the applicant's or affiliated person's reckless disregard thereof, actually endangers, or reasonably has the potential to endanger, human health or the environment.

6. "Disclosure statement" means a written statement by the applicant which contains:

a. the full name, business address, and social security number of the applicant, and all affiliated persons;

b. the full name and address of any legal entity in which the applicant holds a debt or equity interest of at least five percent (5%), or which is a parent company or subsidiary of the applicant, and a description of the on-going organizational relationships as they may impact operations within Cherokee Nation;

c. a description of the experience and credentials of the applicant, including any past or present permits, licenses, certifications, or operational authorizations relating to environmental facility regulation;

d. a listing and explanation of any administrative, civil or criminal legal actions against the applicant or any affiliated person which resulted in a final agency order or final judgment by a court of record including, but not limited to, final orders or judgments on appeal in the ten (10) years immediately preceding the filing of the application relating to the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, recycling or disposal of "hazardous waste" as defined by the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code or by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act. Such actions shall include, without limitation, any permit denial or any sanction imposed by a Cherokee Nation regulatory authority or the United States Environmental Protection Agency; and

e. a listing of any federal environmental agency and any Cherokee Nation environmental agency outside this Cherokee Nation that has or has had regulatory responsibility over the applicant.

7. "Disposal" means the final disposition of hazardous waste.

8. "Disposal site" means the location where any final disposition of hazardous waste occurs. Disposal sites include but are not limited to injection wells and surface disposal sites.

9. "Guarantor" means any person other than the owner or operator, who provides evidence of financial responsibility for an owner or operator pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code.

10. "Hazardous waste" means waste materials and byproducts, either solid or liquid or containerized gases, which are:

a. to be discarded by the generator or recycled;

b. toxic to human, animal, aquatic or plant life; and

c. generated in such quantity that they cannot be safely disposed of in properly operated, Cherokee Nation-approved solid waste landfills or waste, sewage or wastewater treatment facilities.

The term "hazardous waste" may include but is not limited to explosives, flammable liquids, spent acids, caustic solutions, poisons, containerized gases, sludges, tank bottoms containing heavy metallic ions, toxic organic chemicals, and materials such as paper, metal, cloth or wood which are contaminated with hazardous waste. The term "hazardous waste" shall not include domestic sewage.

11. "Hazardous waste facility" means and includes treatment, storage, recycling and disposal facilities.

12. "History of noncompliance" means any past operations by an applicant or affiliated persons which clearly indicate a reckless disregard for environmental regulation or demonstrate a pattern of prohibited conduct which could reasonably be expected to result in endangerment to human health or the environment if a permit were issued, as evidenced by findings, conclusions and rulings of any final agency order or final order or judgment of a court of record.

13. "Multi-user on-site treatment facility" means a treatment facility for hazardous waste generated by the co-owners of the facility and which meets the criteria specified by the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code.

14. "Off-site treatment, storage, recycling or disposal" means the treatment, storage, recycling or disposal at a hazardous waste facility of hazardous waste not generated by the owner of the facility.

15. "On-site treatment, storage, recycling or disposal" means the treatment, storage, recycling or disposal at a hazardous waste facility of hazardous waste generated by the owner of the facility.

16. "Person" means any individual, corporation, industry, firm, partnership, association, venture, trust, institution, federal, Cherokee Nation or local governmental instrumentality, agency or body or any other legal entity however organized.

17. "Recycling" means the reuse, processing, treating, or rerefining of hazardous waste into a product which is being or which has been sold for beneficial use. Hazardous waste which is intended for fuel is not deemed to be recycled until it is actually burned.

18. "Regeneration" or "regenerated" means the regeneration of spent activated carbon to render it reusable, and any treatment, storage or disposal associated therewith.

19. "Site" or "proposed site" means the surface area of a disposal site, or other hazardous waste facility, as applied for in the application for a permit for the facility.

20. "Storage facility" means any location where the temporary holding of hazardous waste occurs, including any tank, pit, lagoon, pond, or other specific place or area.

21. "TSRD" means treatment, storage, recycling or disposal.

22. "Treatment" means the detoxification, neutralization, incineration or biodegradation of hazardous waste in order to remove or reduce its harmful properties or characteristics.

23. "Treatment facility" means any location where treating or recycling of hazardous waste occurs.

§ 1304. Powers and duties

A. The Commission shall have the authority and power to:

1. issue permits, promulgate rules and issue orders relating to the construction, operation, closure, post-closure, maintenance and monitoring of hazardous waste facilities;

2. initiate and take appropriate enforcement actions;

3. make final decisions on permit applications;
4. make final decisions in all administrative appeals under this code;
5. Approve or disapprove methods of treatment, storage, transportation or disposal of hazardous waste and other wastes that are not specifically addressed by other parts of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code;
6. Require terms and conditions in permits, including terms limiting the duration of any permit;
7. Restrict or prohibit disposal practices including, but not limited to, any type of land disposal of any form of hazardous waste. Land disposal includes, but is not limited to landfills, surface impoundments, waste piles, deep wells, land treatment facilities, salt dome and bed formations and underground mines or caves;
8. Promulgate such rules as they deem necessary or appropriate to implement this code;
9. Establish a comprehensive regulatory program for hazardous waste and any other wastes not specifically regulated by other parts of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code;
10. Require monitoring, reports, remediation, environmental assessments and other actions they may deem appropriate to ensure the protection of public health, safety and welfare and the protection of the environment; and
11. Determine and enforce penalties for violation of the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code, permits, orders and rules promulgated thereunder;
12. Evaluate the benefit and establish rules or requirements for pollution prevention, waste reduction, recycling and labeling for any containers used for the disposal, storage, treatment, transportation of or disposal of hazardous waste;
13. Until such time as the Commission may promulgate rules, issue orders or otherwise establish requirements that are more stringent, the Commission and their duly authorized representatives shall have the authority to enforce as minimum requirements those contained in any applicable federal laws or regulations.

B. The Administrator or their designee shall have the authority to:

1. Provide the owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility a list of all materials which are acceptable for treatment, recycling, storage, transportation or disposal as a facility or in any part of Indian Country;
2. Conduct compliance inspections of hazardous waste facilities and recycling, transporting, and generating facilities;

3. Require submittal of information, including manifests or other forms, by persons proposing to own or operate a hazardous waste facility or who generate, store, treat, transport, recycle or dispose of hazardous waste within Cherokee Nation;
4. Develop, maintain, and monitor public records of the source and amount of hazardous waste generated in Cherokee Nation and the methods used to dispose of, recycle, or treat said waste or material;
5. Require and approve or disapprove disposal plans from all persons generating hazardous waste or shipping hazardous waste within, from, or into Cherokee Nation indicating the amount of hazardous waste generated, the handling, storage, treatment, and disposal methods, and the hazardous waste facilities used. The disposal plans shall be kept current by the persons generating or shipping hazardous waste and the Commission shall be advised within five (5) working days of any changes in the disposal plans;
6. Require reports from all persons generating hazardous waste, indicating the amount generated the treatment and disposal methods, and the treatment, disposal, and recycling sites used. Such reports are to be made on at least a quarterly basis;
7. Require periodic reports or manifest certifications regarding programs and efforts to reduce the volume or quantity and toxicity of such hazardous waste;
8. Require reports from all operators of hazardous waste facilities who receive hazardous waste for treatment or storage or disposal, listing the amount, transporter, and generator of all hazardous waste received. Such reports are to be made on at least a monthly or quarterly basis, as designated by the Commission;
9. Inform persons generating hazardous waste of available, alternative methods of disposal of such waste and assist the persons in developing satisfactory disposal plans;
10. Coordinate program activities with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency;
11. Require the preparation and implementation of an emergency response plan for spills of hazardous waste, spills of hazardous materials or other spills of waste; and
12. Make information obtained by the Nation regarding hazardous waste facilities and sites available to the public in substantially the same manner, and to the same degree, as would be the case if the hazardous waste program in Cherokee Nation were being carried out by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

§ 1305. The Commission shall develop rules and the Administrator shall have the authority to implement measures and requirements that

1. Establish requirements for any existing surface impoundment, landfill or other site where hazardous waste has been generated, stored, treated, transferred or disposal of, where there exists a risk that hazardous waste may migrate into waters of the Nation or otherwise cause adverse impacts on public health, safety or the environment. Such rules or requirements may require closure, cleanup, restoration, or such protective actions as double liners and leachate detection and collection systems, or any other measures as the Commission may deem necessary to protect public health, safety and the environment;

2. Prohibit or restrict the use of any specific disposal methods or practices for specific hazardous waste material, substances or classes, as may be necessary to protect human health and the environment;

3. Identify areas within the Cherokee Nation which are unsuitable for specific hazardous waste disposal methods, and deny permits for such disposal methods in such areas;

4. Require groundwater or surface water monitoring or other appropriate studies for any landfill, surface impoundment, land treatment site, pile or any site where hazardous waste or other wastes are generated, stored, treated, transferred, transported, recycled or disposed;

5. Waive or modify general permit application and issuance requirements for research and development permits, except for financial responsibility and public participation requirements;

6. Require oil or any other recycling facilities using hazardous waste to have a hazardous waste facility permit;

7. Require and issue permits for any activity associated with generating, storing, treating, transferring, transporting or disposing of hazardous waste, including such conditions as may be accessory to protect public health, safety and the environment; and

8. Require and issue permits for the storage of hazardous waste is aboveground or underground tanks or any other containment system.

§ 1306. Adoption of federal requirements by reference

A. Except as may be specified otherwise in this Code or Commission rules, orders or permits issued under the authority of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code or Hazardous Waste Code, the following are adopted by reference as minimum requirements that shall be applicable in Indian Country and enforceable by the Commission and Administrator:

1. The Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA): 42 U.S.C. § 3251 et seq. (repealed; see 42 U.S.C. § 6901 et seq.);

2. The Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA): 15 U.S.C. § 2601 et seq. (1976); and

3. The following provisions of 40 C.F.R.:

- a. Part 260—Hazardous waste management system: general,
- b. Part 261—Identification and listing of hazardous waste,
- c. Part 262—Standards applicable to generation of hazardous waste,
- d. Part 263—Standards applicable to transporters of hazardous waste,
- e. Part 264—Standards for owners and operators of hazardous waste treatment, storage, and disposal facilities,
- f. Part 265—Interim status standards for owners and operators of hazardous waste treatment, storage, and disposal facilities,
- g. Part 266—Standards for the management of specific hazardous wastes and specific types of hazardous waste management facilities,
- h. Part 268—Lead disposal restrictions,
- i. Part 270—EPA administered permit programs: the hazardous waste permit program,
- j. Part 273—Standards for universal waste management,
- k. Part 279—Standards for the management of used oil.

B. Nothing contained here shall be construed as allowing the Commission to establish standards or requirements that are less stringent than federal requirement.

§ 1307. Rules

A. In addition to other powers and duties specified by law, the Commission shall have the authority to promulgate rules which:

1. Prohibit the placement of any liquid which is not a hazardous waste in a landfill for which a permit is required or which is operating under interim status;
2. Prohibit or restrict the storage of hazardous waste for which land disposal is prohibited, except to the extent that such storage is solely for the purpose of accommodation of such quantities of hazardous waste as are necessary to facilitate proper recovery, treatment, or disposal;
3. Prohibit or restrict the use of waste or used oil or other material used for dust suppression or road treatment, which is contaminated or mixed with dioxin or any other waste identified or listed by rules of the Commission as a hazardous waste except a waste identified solely on the basis of ignitability;

4. Require such monitoring and control of air emissions at hazardous waste treatment, storage and disposal facilities, including but not limited to open tanks, surface impoundments, and landfills, as may be necessary to protect human health and the environment;
5. Regulate the production, burning, distribution, and marketing of fuel containing hazardous waste, and the commercial collection, storage, transportation, marketing, management, burning and disposal of used oil as may be necessary to protect human health and the environment including, but not limited to, labeling and recordkeeping requirements;
6. Control the listed or identified hazardous wastes which discharge through a sewer system to a publicly-owned treatment works for the protection of human health and the environment;
7. Provide in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 6925(c) and (e) for the automatic termination of interim status for hazardous waste units failing to comply with applicable requirements for the submission of part B permit applications and certification of groundwater monitoring and financial responsibility compliance;
8. Require from applicants for permits and from owners and operators of hazardous waste facilities evidence of financial responsibility for corrective action as may be required or ordered under the authority of the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code;
9. Require that generators of hazardous waste establish and implement programs to reduce the volume or quantity and toxicity of such waste to the extent technologically feasible; and
10. Specify levels or methods of treatment which substantially diminish the toxicity of the waste or likelihood of its migration so as to minimize threats to human health and the environment.

B. The hazardous waste component of mixed waste and radioactive waste shall be regulated as hazardous waste. The radioactive waste component shall be regulated as radioactive waste. Both the hazardous waste requirements and the radioactive waste requirements shall apply if physical separation of the two components is not accomplished. If a conflict exists between the two requirements, the requirements most protective of human health and the environment shall take precedence.

C. Rules pertaining to standards for the transportation of hazardous waste and recyclable materials promulgated by the U.S. Department of Transportation shall be the minimum standards and requirements unless the Nation adopts more stringent standards and requirements to the extent allowed by federal law.

§ 1308. Prohibition of new disposal sites—Permits required

A. Any hazardous waste disposal site within Cherokee Nation that exists as of January 1, 2006, shall file an application for permit with the Administrator no later than March 1, 2006. The Commission may, in their sole discretion, deny an application for permit for such an existing disposal site. After January 1, 2006, no permits shall be issued for new hazardous waste disposal sites in Cherokee Nation.

B. The construction or operation of a hazardous waste disposal site, receipt of hazardous wastes at a disposal site in Cherokee Nation or incineration of hazardous waste in Cherokee Nation after January 1, 2006, is hereby prohibited. Violation of the requirements in this section are subject to the general enforcement provisions of Chapter 2 of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code and, in addition, the Commission or any court with jurisdiction shall have the authority to order the closure of any unpermitted hazardous waste disposal site and require that all hazardous wastes be removed.

C. Except as otherwise provided by subsection (D) of this section or any rules of the Environmental Protection Commission, no person shall store, treat or dispose of hazardous waste materials or commence construction of or own or operate any premises or facility engaged in the operation of storing, treating or disposing of hazardous waste or storing recyclable materials, unless they first obtain and maintain a valid and appropriate hazardous waste facility permit. The provisions of this subsection shall not include remediation activities under an order of the Commission which would not require a federal hazardous waste permit from the Environmental Protection Agency if conducted pursuant to a federal order.

D. 1. The Commission may by rule provide for continued operation on an interim basis pending permit determination of a facility in existence on the effective date of any statutory or regulatory amendments that would subject the facility to a permit requirement pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code.

2. The provisions for the allowance of continued operation on an interim basis shall not apply in the case of a facility for which a permit, under the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code, has been previously denied or for which authority to operate has been terminated.

E. Facilities engaged in recycling which are not required to be permitted pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code shall operate in an environmentally acceptable manner and in accordance with the rules regarding the manifest, transportation and treatment, storage and disposal standards, and generators in the event a hazardous waste is generated therefrom.

§ 1309. Permits—Limitation on persons eligible—Disclosure of information

A. The Commission shall not issue, renew, or transfer a permit for a hazardous waste facility for treatment, storage, recycling or disposal to any person who:

1. is not in substantial compliance with a final agency order or any final order or judgment of a court of record secured by Cherokee Nation, any state or any federal agency relating to the generation, storage, transportation, treatment, recycling or disposed of "hazardous waste", as such term is defined by the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code, or by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act;

2. has evidenced a reckless disregard for the protection of the public and the environment as demonstrated by a history of noncompliance with environmental laws and rules resulting in endangerment of human health or the environment; or

3. has as an affiliated person any person who is described by paragraph 1 or 2 of this subsection.

B. 1. Except as provided in paragraph 2 of this subsection, all applicants for the issuance, renewal or transfer of any hazardous waste permit, license, certification or operational authority issued by the Commission shall file a disclosure statement with their applications.

2. If the applicant is a publicly-held company required to file periodic reports under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, or a wholly-owned subsidiary of a publicly-held company, the applicant shall submit the most recent annual and quarterly reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission, which provide information regarding legal proceedings in which the applicant has been involved. The applicant shall submit such other relevant information as the Commission may require that relates to the competency, reliability, or responsibility of the applicant and affiliated persons.

C. The Commission is authorized to revoke, or to refuse to issue, to renew, or to transfer a permit for a hazardous waste facility for treatment, storage, recycling or disposal:

1. to any person who:

a. is not, due to the actions or inactions of the applicant or affiliated person, in substantial compliance with any final agency order or final order or judgment of a court relating to the environment:

b. is not, due to the actions or inactions of the applicant or affiliated person, in substantial compliance with any final agency order or final order or judgment of a court of record relating to the generation, storage, transportation, treatment, recycling or disposal of any "hazardous waste", as such term is defined by the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code, or by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act;

c. has evidenced a history of a reckless disregard for the protection of the public health and safety or the environment through a history of noncompliance with Cherokee Nation or federal environmental laws, including without limitation the rules of the Commission or the United States Environmental Protection Agency regarding the generation, storage, transportation, treatment, recycling or disposal of any "hazardous waste", as such term is defined by the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code, or by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act; or

d. has as an affiliated person any person who is described by paragraphs 1, 2 or 3 of this subsection.

2. in any circumstances in which the Commission believes it prudent or necessary in order to ensure the protection of public health or safety, the Nation's wildlife and other natural resources, or any component of the environment.

D. 1. An application for a permit for a TSRD facility or for renewal of a permit shall be signed under oath by the applicant.

2. The Commission may refuse to renew, or may suspend or revoke, a permit issued for a hazardous waste facility for treatment, storage, recycling or disposal to any person who has failed to disclose or states falsely any information required pursuant to the provisions of this section.

§ 1310. Special restrictions applicable in Indian Country

A. No permit shall be issued for a new TSRD which is proposed to be located:

1. Within eight (8) miles of the corporate limits of an incorporated city or town or of any Cherokee community;

2. Within a one hundred- (100) year floodplain;

3. Within one (1) mile of any stream or lake;

4. Within one (1) mile of a public or private water supply;

5. On any land held in trust or otherwise owned by the Nation unless such land is specifically designated for such purposes in the Cherokee Nation strategic land plan or amendments to such plan;

6. Within five (5) miles of the Cherokee Nation tribal complex, tribal courts or cultural grounds;

7. Within three (3) miles of a school, church, campground, cultural or recreational area, or other public gathering place;

8. Within one (1) mile of any inhabited residence unless the residence is owned by the facility owner;

9. Over any area of karst geology; or

10. In such location or circumstances that, in the judgment of the Commission, the proposed facilities, activities or wastes pose an unacceptable risk to public health, safety, wildlife or any aspect of the environment.

§ 1311. Disposal—Restrictions applicable to impoundments and landfills

A. The Commission shall not issue a permit for the treatment, disposal or temporary storage in a surface impoundment of any liquid hazardous waste which is not generated by the owners of the surface impoundment.

B. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the disposal of any liquid hazardous waste in a landfill or in a surface impoundment is prohibited.

C. The provisions of this section shall not prohibit:

1. the construction and operation of surface impoundments solely for the collection of rainfall runoff; or

2. the construction of impoundments solely for bioremediation or for the emergency retention of spills of substances which are or may become hazardous waste; provided all liquids and associated solids are removed for proper treatment or disposal.

§ 1312. Prohibited disposal—Treatment, storage recycling, or disposal (TSRD) sites

A. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorize TSRD sites or activities that are otherwise prohibited under other provisions of the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code.

B. The practice of plowing hazardous waste into the soil surface or otherwise land-applying hazardous waste for the purpose of disposal is prohibited.

C. A hazardous waste facility for on-site or off-site treatment, recycling or storage shall not be sited in or over a principal groundwater resource or recharge area.

D. The Commission may grant a variance to a hazardous waste treatment, recycling or storage facility to allow the siting over a principal groundwater resource or recharge area only upon the following conditions:

1. the request for variance, accompanied by plans certified by a professional engineer and a detailed rationale, shall be included in the permit application;

2. the Commission shall receive and consider comments on the appropriateness of the proposed variance at any formal public meeting or administrative permit hearing conducted on the draft permit or proposed permit;

3. the applicant shall bear the burden of establishing clearly and convincingly to the Commission that the design, construction and operation of the proposed facility will be such that the risk of a release of hazardous waste or hazardous waste constituents directly or indirectly to waters of the Nation is improbable and minimal; and

4. the permit application shall provide for the establishment and maintenance of a bond or other financial assurance in an amount sufficient to fully remediate and restore the environment and resources should contamination occur.

§ 1313. Hazardous waste facility construction to be supervised

The design, testing and construction of a hazardous waste facility shall be conducted under the supervision of a professional engineer, duly registered in Oklahoma, with training and experience in suitable disciplines.

§ 1314. Issuance of permits—Suitability of facility—Administrative procedures

A. The Commission may issue a permit for a hazardous waste facility or activity requiring a permit upon proper application and determination by the Commission that the proposed site and facility are physically and technically suitable.

B. Upon a finding that a proposed hazardous waste facility is not physically or technically suitable, or upon finding that the proposed facility or operation poses an unacceptable risk to the public health, safety or environment, the Commission shall deny the permit.

C. An administrative permit hearing shall be available on an application for a new permit or for the modification of an existing permit involving a twenty-five percent (25%) or more increase in permitted capacity for storage, treatment or disposal.

D. The Commission may, upon determining that public health or safety requires emergency action, issue a temporary permit for treatment or storage of hazardous waste or recyclable material for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days without the prior notices and opportunity to request a public meeting or the administrative permit hearing required by this section. Any person aggrieved by such permit may seek judicial review.

§ 1315. New permits—Suitability of roads and bridges

A. In connection with any permit application, the Commission shall consider the roads and bridges that are to be used to provide access to the proposed waste facility, the likely effect on property values, development and uses in the area, and road classification plans.

B. If any county commissioner or local government official asserts that substantial detriment to the roads and bridges would occur, the Commission shall work with them to determine any reasonable measures necessary to upgrade the roads and bridges or prevent such detriment. The Commission may require the applicant for a hazardous waste facility to upgrade or pay for the upgrading of such roads and bridges or other appropriate measures as a prerequisite to receiving a permit or as an essential condition in a permit.

A. Except for emergency permits issued in accordance with this title, no permit shall be issued except upon proper application, proof of sufficient liability insurance and financial responsibility, formal public meeting, if requested, and compliance with the requirements of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code including, but not limited to, requirements of the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code.

B. Liability insurance shall be provided by the applicant and shall apply to sudden and nonsudden bodily injury or property damage on, below or above the surface, as required by the rules of the Commission. Additional insurance shall be required as deemed necessary by the Commission to protect the Nation, Cherokee communities, property rights including but not limited to rights of owners or leaseholders of underground resources such as oil, gas, water or other mineral substances, natural resources and public health, safety and welfare. Adequate insurance shall be maintained for the period of operation of the facility through closure and postclosure, and at a minimum shall provide coverage for damages resulting from operation of the facility during operation and after closing, remediation and full restoration of damaged properties and resources. In lieu of liability insurance required by this or any other section of Cherokee Nation statutes or rules, an equivalent amount of cash, securities or alternate financial assurance of a type and in an amount acceptable to the Commission, may be substituted: provided, that such deposit shall be maintained for a minimum period of five (5) years after the date of last operation of the facility.

C. Prior to the issuance of any permit, the applicant shall post a bond or acceptable alternate financial assurance guaranteeing proper closure and guaranteeing the performance of closure and post-closure maintenance and monitoring functions. The applicant shall supplement the bond or financial assurance when requested by the Commission.

D. The Commission shall require additional insurance and security upon an application for expansion of the facility. The increase in insurance and security shall be in a sufficient amount to provide adequate coverage for damages resulting from such expansion during operation of the facility and after closing.

E. Prior to the issuance of any permit and at any time upon request of the Commission, the applicant shall produce evidence of the applicant's financial status or other qualifications indicating that the applicant is financially able and qualified to operate and maintain a hazardous waste facility and to comply with all applicable requirements.

F. The operation of a hazardous waste facility shall be under the supervision of a person meeting qualifications set by the Commission appropriate to the type of facility.

G. The Commission is authorized and shall require the construction of monitoring wells, pond liners, fencing, signs or other equipment deemed necessary by the Commission to ensure the suitable operation of the facility.

H. 1. In any case where the owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility is in bankruptcy, reorganization, or arrangement pursuant to the federal Bankruptcy Code or if jurisdiction in any Cherokee Nation court or any federal court cannot be obtained over an owner or operator likely to be solvent at the time of judgment, any claim arising from conduct for which evidence of financial responsibility is required pursuant to this Code may be asserted directly against the guarantor providing such evidence of financial responsibility. In the case of any action taken pursuant to this section, such guarantor shall be entitled to claim all rights and defences which would have been available to the owner or operator if any action had been brought against the owner or operator by the claimant and which would have been available to the guarantor if any action had been brought against the guarantor by the owner or operator.

2. The total liability of any guarantor shall be limited to the aggregate amount which the guarantor has provided as evidence of financial responsibility for the owner or operator pursuant to this Code. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit any other Cherokee Nation or federal statutory, contractual or common law liability of a guarantor to its owner or operator including, but not limited to, the liability of such guarantor for bad faith either in negotiating or failing to negotiate the settlement of any claim. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to diminish the liability of any person under the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 or other applicable law.

§ 1317. Facilities that recycle hazardous waste—Permit requirements, exemption—Prohibition of burning certain hazardous waste as fuel

A. Facilities that recycle hazardous waste may be granted an exemption from specific requirements by the Commission with regard to those units exclusively used in the recycling process. Off-site hazardous waste recycling facilities are subject to the requirements specified by the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code and rules promulgated thereunder, for a permit, and shall also meet required design standards.

B. No hazardous waste having a heating value less than five thousand (5,000) British Thermal Units per pound shall be burned as fuel in any unit in Cherokee Nation permitted as a hazardous waste recycling unit.

C. No owner or operator of any unit in Cherokee Nation permitted as a hazardous waste recycling unit shall burn as fuel in such unit any substance which the owner or operator knows, or should know, contains hazardous waste which has a heating value of less than five thousand (5,000) British Thermal Units per pound which has been blended with other materials or wastes and produces a hazardous waste fuel with a heating value equal to or exceeding five thousand (5,000) British Thermal Units per pound.

§ 1318. Fees

A. The Commission shall establish a schedule of fees to be charged for applications for permits required under this Code. Such fees shall be deposited in the Environmental Quality Revolving Fund.

B. Any person disposing of liquid waste other than hazardous waste in an underground injection well shall pay a fee of not less than one cent ($.01) per gallon for such disposal, provided that the total fee shall be not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per year. Said fee shall be paid to the Administrator on a quarterly basis within one (1) month following the close of each quarter for the waste disposed in that proceeding quarter. Said fees shall be deposited into the Environmental Quality Revolving Fund.

C. The Commission may direct a facility to waive the fees for hazardous waste received from certain sites undergoing response actions under the authority of the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act. A fee waiver may only be granted for response actions financed through the Superfund Trust Fund that are conducted by the Commission or the federal Environmental Protection Agency, when the amount of the waiver will qualify towards the contributions required of Cherokee Nation for such actions.

D. The Commission may order a facility to waive fees for hazardous waste received from certain sites in Cherokee Nation undergoing remedial action that are being conducted as a result of:

1. a consent order approved by the Commission;
2. fulfilling the requirements of a compliance schedule issued by the Commission as a result of a permit; or
3. a brownfields action that has been approved by the Commission.

Such fee waivers may be granted for remedial actions only when the amount of the fee waiver will qualify toward the contributions required of Cherokee Nation in response actions financed through the Superfund Trust Fund. The Commission shall void all waivers for fees should the requirements of any Consent Order, Compliance Schedule, or Brownfields action not be fulfilled as stipulated.

E. Every hazardous waste treatment facility, storage facility, underground injection facility, disposal facility, or off-site facility that recycles hazardous waste subject to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code shall pay to the Administrator an annual fee on the amount of hazardous waste managed by such facility. The Commission shall establish a schedule of fees.

1. Until such a schedule is developed, the minimum fees shall be:
 - a. Nine Dollars ($9.00) per ton for on-site or off-site storage, treatment or land disposal;
 - b. Four Dollars ($4.00) per ton for off-site recycling, including regeneration; or
 - c. Ten Dollars ($10.00) per gallon for on-site or off-site underground injection.
2. There shall be a minimum fee per facility as follows:
 - a. except as provided in subparagraph d of this paragraph, any person owning or operating an off-site hazardous waste treatment facility or disposal facility shall pay a total fee of not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) each fiscal year,

b. any person owning or operating an on-site hazardous waste treatment facility, storage facility, or disposal facility shall pay a total fee of not less than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) each fiscal year. The annual fee for the on-site disposal of hazardous waste by underground injection shall not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00).

c. any person owning or operating an off-site facility for the storage or recycling of hazardous waste shall pay a total fee of not less than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) each fiscal year; provided, any such off-site recycling facility which consistently recycles fewer than ten (10) tons of hazardous waste per calendar month shall not be subject to this minimum annual fee. For the purpose of this subparagraph, storage includes physical separation or combining of wastes solely to facilitate efficient storage at the facility and/or efficient transportation, and

d. any person owning or operating an off-site facility which accepts hazardous waste exclusively for the purpose of conducting research and design tests shall pay a total fee of not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) each fiscal year.

3. The facility shall become liable for payment of the fee on each ton or gallon of hazardous waste at the time it is received. For purposes of on-site facilities, receipt is deemed to have occurred when the waste is first managed in any unit or manner that requires a hazardous waste permit.

F. Payment of the fees required by this section shall be due and paid quarterly to the Administrator for all hazardous waste received by the facility during the prior calendar quarter. Quarterly payments shall be due on the first day of the month of the following quarter.

G. All fees and other monies received by the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of this Code shall be expended solely for purposes related to protection of the environment, implementing environmental programs and protection of Cherokee Nation natural resources.

§ 1319. Permit issuance notice—Notice of remediation of related action taken—Interference with remediation

A. Upon issuance of any permit issued pursuant to the requirements of the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code, the Commission shall file a recordable notice of the permit in the Cherokee Nation Realty office. The notice shall contain the legal description of the site as well as the terms under which the permit was issued.

B. The Commission shall file a recordable notice of remediation or related action taken pursuant to the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act in the Cherokee Nation Realty office. The notice shall contain a legal description of the affected property and shall identify all engineering controls used to ensure the effectiveness of the remediation.

C. When remediation of contaminated property is performed under an order of or a remediation plan approved by the Commission, the Commission shall file a recordable notice of remediation taken in the Cherokee Nation Realty office. The notice shall contain a legal description of the affected property and shall identify all engineering controls used to ensure the effectiveness of the remediation.

D. The notices required in this section shall also contain a prohibition against engaging in any activities that could cause damage to the remediation or the engineering controls, or could cause contamination or recontamination of the soil or waters of the Nation. The notices shall also contain any appropriate restriction on land use or other activities that are incompatible with the cleanup level, including but not limited to, restriction against using water for drinking or irrigation purposes or redeveloping the land for residential use. Any person who damages or interfere with the remediation, the engineering controls or continuing operation, maintenance or monitoring of the site shall be liable to repair the damage or remedy the interference, or for costs incurred by the Nation in doing so. The Commission may take administrative or civil action to recover costs or to compel compliance with this subsection.

§ 1320. Monitoring of closed facility

After a hazardous waste facility has been closed, its owner or operator shall properly maintain and monitor the hazardous waste facility for the period of time required by the Code, rules promulgated hereunder, permit or order of the Commission and shall make such repairs or improvements as necessary to ensure that no migration of hazardous waste material will occur.

§ 1321. Hazardous waste manifest

A. Persons generating hazardous waste shall provide a manifest to the operator of any mode of any offsite transportation carrying hazardous waste. Such manifest shall be in a form which has been prescribed by the Commission and shall indicate a disposal plan number assigned by the Commission which shows that the Commission has approved the plans of the person generating such waste. The manifest shall also set forth the type, amount, approximate content, origin and destination of the waste. Such operator shall have the manifest in his possession while transporting or handling the hazardous waste. Upon delivery of the hazardous waste to a facility duly authorized to accept such waste, the operator shall submit such manifest to the receiving person for processing pursuant to rules promulgated by the Commission.

B. No off-site TSRD facility shall accept the manifest unless such manifest has a properly assigned disposal plan number indicating that the Commission has approved the plans of the person generating the hazardous waste.

C. No person shall transport, receive, treat or dispose of hazardous waste without having the manifest in his possession.

D. The Commission may recognize manifests that have been duly issued or authorized by a state or federal agency with jurisdiction.

§ 1322. Inspections—Administrative proceedings—Records—Violations—Penalties

The provision of Chapter 2 of the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code including, but not limited to, provisions relating to inspections, records, administrative proceedings, violations and penalties shall apply to persons, activities, waste and facilities regulated under the Cherokee Nation Hazardous Waste Code.

CHAPTER 14

UNDERGROUND INJECTION CONTROL

§ 1401. Short title

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Underground Injection Control Code or the UIC Code.

§ 1402. Purpose

The purpose of the UIC Code is to protect Cherokee communities, underground waters and other resources of the Nation from pollution and so establish a comprehensive regulatory program for protecting the environment and human health.

§ 1403. Definitions

The types of underground injection wells defined in 40 C.F.R. Part 144.6 are adopted by reference.

§ 1404. Prohibitions

The following underground injection wells are prohibited within Cherokee Nation:

1. Class I wells for hazardous waste or radioactive waste;
2. Class III wells except those for mining of salts;
3. Class IV wells for hazardous waste or radioactive waste;
4. Wells prohibited by duly promulgated rules of the Commission;
5. Any well that the Commission finds:
 - a. will create an unreasonable risk of harm to wildlife, human health, natural resources, waters of the Nation and other parts of the environment, or
 - b. is not the most technologically advanced or environmentally sound means of waste disposal or mineral extraction.

§ 1405. Permit required

A permit issued by the Commission is required for construction, operation and use of any UIC well that is not otherwise prohibited by law.

§ 1406. Minimum requirements

For UIC wells and related activities that are not otherwise prohibited under the UIC Code, the following regulations are adopted by reference as minimum requirements, provided, however, nothing herein shall prevent the Commission from promulgating rules that set forth additional or more stringent requirements:

1. 40 C.F.R. Part 144
2. 40 C.F.R. Part 146
3. 40 C.F.R. Part 148.

§ 1407. Power and duties

The Commission shall have all necessary authority and powers to:

1. implement the provisions of the Cherokee Nation UIC Code and applicable federal requirements within the Nation;
2. establish a comprehensive regulatory program;
3. approve or reject applications for permits;
4. issue, modify, renew or revoke permits;
5. promulgate rules and issue orders to implement the provisions of the UIC Code;
6. prosecute violations of the UIC Code, rules of the Commission or Commission orders and permits, using methods and penalties established under the provisions of the Environmental Quality Code.

§ 1408. Additional authorities

The Commission and Administrator shall have the authority to require:

1. maintenance of records by any permit holder;
2. sampling and monitoring of wastes and the environments;
3. reports;

4. provisions and conditions in permits as may be appropriate to prevent harm or risk of harm to the environment or public health;
5. appropriate studies and risk assessments; and
6. Inspections at any reasonable time by the Administrator or other authorized representative of the Commission.

§ 1409. Violations and penalties

Any violation of an order, rule, statutory provision or permit under the UIC code shall be subject to the penalties provided in the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code. The remedies provided herein shall be cumulative and shall not be construed to supercede any other remedy under federal statutes, tribal law, or other applicable law.

CHAPTER 15

REDUCE, REUSE AND RECYCLE

§ 1501. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Reduce, Reuse and Recycle Act of 2009.

§ 1502. Purpose

Cherokee Nation, as a global partner in the recycling effort and to supplement other green initiatives will establish a "Reduce, Reuse and Recycling" program for all branches of Cherokee Nation Government. Such an effort will be the first step in formalizing overall conservation and energy efficiency policies for the Nation.

§ 1503. Definitions

For the purposes of this chapter, "Cherokee Nation" means Cherokee Nation Government and all of its entities, including businesses wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation.

§ 1504. Policies and programs

A. Establishment of policies. By January 1, 2010 policies will be developed and implemented requiring the following:

1. water conserving toilets and fixtures upon new construction or replacement;
2. cell phone reuse program;

3. eyeglass frame reuse program;
4. recycling of televisions, computers and other electronics as appropriate;
5. energy consumption reduction;
6. assessment of energy efficient options for new construction and remodeling.

B. Paper/cardboard recycling system.

1. Cherokee Nation shall establish and implement a paper/cardboard recycling system to recycle wastepaper/cardboard products that are recyclable and for which there is an accessible and available market. The recycling system shall include the recyclable wastepaper//cardboard products generated in the offices and other facilities of the Nation. Cherokee Nation may hire private contractors to establish or implement all or a portion of the recycling system under this chapter. The paper/cardboard recycling system established by the Nation shall provide for the recycling of wastepaper/cardboard in the offices and facilities that participate in that system, in accord with the following schedule:

- a. January 1, 2010 40% or more.
- b. January 1, 2012 50% or more.
- c. January 1, 2014 60% or more.
- d. January 1, 2016 85% or more.

2. The paper/cardboard recycling system established by Cherokee Nation shall provide for the expansion and improvement of any wastepaper/cardboard recycling system that exists on the effective date of this act:

- a. an aggressive program to locate and develop, if necessary, markets for recyclable wastepaper/cardboard products;
- b. an education program to assure that employees who participate in the recycling system are knowledgeable about both of the following:
 - i. the importance of recycling paper/cardboard,
 - ii. the importance of reducing paper by use of electronics,
 - iii. the importance of double-sided printing to conserve the use of paper,
 - iv. the components of the paper/cardboard recycling system and how the system will impact each employee.

- c. the recovery of all wastepaper/cardboard for which a market is available and accessible;
- d. the separation of the recyclable wastepaper/cardboard by the generator in close proximity to the point at which the paper product enters the waste stream;
- e. a central collection system within each building or office of facility that is participating in the recycling system;
- f. the compiling of information and the preparation of an annual written report detailing the implementation and operation of the recycling system; the level of participation in the recycling system of offices, facilities, and agencies within each branch of government.

C. Aluminum, glass and plastic recycling system. Cherokee Nation shall establish and implement an aluminum, glass and plastic recycling system to recycle aluminum, glass and plastic products that are recyclable and for which there is an accessible and available market. The recycling system shall include the recyclable aluminum, glass and plastic products generated in the offices and other facilities of the Nation. Cherokee Nation may hire private contractors to establish or implement all or a portion of the recycling system under this chapter. The system shall be implemented by January 1, 2010.

The aluminum, glass and plastic recycling system established by the Cherokee Nation shall provide for the expansion and improvement of any aluminum, glass and plastic recycling system that exists on the effective date of this act:

- 1. an aggressive program to locate and develop, if necessary, markets for recyclable aluminum, glass and plastic products;
- 2. an education program to assure that employees who participate in the recycling system are knowledgeable about both of the following:
 - a. the importance of recycling aluminum, glass and plastic
 - b. the components of the aluminum, glass and plastic recycling system and how the system will impact each employee.
- 3. the recovery of all aluminum, glass and plastic for which a market is available and accessible.
- 4. the separation of the recyclable aluminum, glass and plastic by the generator in close proximity to the point at which the aluminum, glass and plastic product enters the waste stream.
- 5. a central collection system within each building or office of facility that is participating in the recycling system.
- 6. the compiling of information and the preparation of an annual written report detailing the implementation and operation of the recycling system; the level of participation in the system of offices, facilities, and agencies within each branch of government

D. Cost effectiveness. Implementation of any provisions of this chapter is subject to a cost-benefit analysis. Such analysis will consider short- and long-term costs and benefits, including intangible costs and benefits of each mandate required herein. The fact that a mandate will result in net financial cost to the Nation shall not preclude its implementation, however. Should the Nation find any mandate infeasible due to cost-benefit analysis, such determination and supporting information shall be publicized as soon as practicable thereafter via a public notice in the Cherokee Phoenix and reported to the appropriate committee of the Council of Cherokee Nation. Such public notice shall be published no later than the implementation deadlines set herein.

ETHICS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Ethics Act of 2012.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to codify the issues relating to conflicts of interest pertaining to employees and appointed and elected officials of Cherokee Nation, use of businesses owned wholly or partially by Cherokee Nation employees and appointed and elected officials, contracting with relatives of elected officials, and the parameters under which Cherokee Nation employees and officials must operate with respect to conflicts of interest.

The Cherokee Nation Constitution in Article X, Section 10, provides that, "No official, member or officer of the Council, Cabinet Member, employee of any official, Council, Cabinet, or subdivisions thereof, or any person employed in any capacity by the Cherokee Nation shall receive from any individual, partnership, corporation, or entity doing business with the Cherokee Nation directly or indirectly, any interest, profit, benefits, or gratuity, other than wages, salary, per diem, or expenses specifically provided by law." This act is in part intended to specify those situations "provided by law" under which a transaction which would otherwise be prohibited by this section of the Constitution will be permitted.

A. "Hiring authority" is the branch of government, instrumentality, official, board or commission or CEO or other executive officer ultimately responsible for hiring decisions including but not limited to Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief, Tribal Council, Supreme Court and other entities or instrumentalities including Gaming, Tax, Election and other boards and commissions for their respective branch of government instrumentalities or boards or commissions any entities in which Cherokee Nation is the sole or majority stockholder or owner and all entities that are fifty-one percent (51%) or more owned by Cherokee Nation.

B. "Immediate family" shall include parents, children (including adopted children but not including foster children even when living in the same household), spouses (including common law spouses or those with whom the subject individual shares a conjugal relationship), siblings (one or more persons having one common parent), step-parents and step-children and wards over which the subject individual has guardianship or anyone living in the same household as the individual.

C. "Instrumentalities" means Cherokee Nation Government and any entities in which Cherokee Nation is the sole or majority stock holder or owner and all entities that are fifty-one percent (51%) or more owned by Cherokee Nation.

D. "Interest, profit, benefit or gratuity" as used in Article 10, Section 10 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution shall not include any benefit paid on behalf of and for the betterment of a Cherokee Nation citizen, regardless of the payee of the benefit.

E. "Official" means any elected or appointed person to any governmental entity, instrumentality, commission or board of Cherokee Nation Government or its instrumentalities any entities in which Cherokee Nation is the sole or majority stock holder or owner and all entities that are fifty-one percent (51%) or more owned by Cherokee Nation as defined by this act.

B. "Relative" shall include the following: parents, children (including adopted children but not including foster children even when in current placement with the individual), spouses (including common law spouses or those with whom the subject individual shares a conjugal relationship), siblings (one or more persons having one common parent), step-parents and step-children, step-siblings, parents-in-law, siblings-in-law, grandparents-in-law, grandchildren-in-law, aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, grandparents, and grandchildren, wards over which the subject individual has an existing guardianship, and anyone living in the same household as the individual. These relationships include those created by adoption as well as by marriage or blood. Provided, however, that for the purposes of this act a divorce of husband and wife or permanent termination of the conjugal relationship shall terminate all relationship by affinity that existed by reason of the marriage or conjugal relationship.

SOLICITATION, CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND DEALINGS WITH RELATIVES

§ 11. Solicitation prohibited

A. No employee or official who has an ownership interest in a business, or whose immediate family member has an ownership interest in a business may solicit for that business from Cherokee Nation or its instrumentalities. To so solicit may subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate discharge. Such a prohibited soliciting of business on the part of an official shall constitute "willful neglect of duty" and may subject the official to removal from office pursuant to the laws and Constitution of Cherokee Nation. For purposes of this section, solicitation shall not include applying for TERO certification and placement on a TERO business list, nor shall it include responding to a request for bids.

B. Where an employee or official of Cherokee Nation sells real property to Cherokee Nation there shall be no conflict of interest, provided that the employee or official did not solicit Cherokee Nation for the purchase, where the property has previously been for sale and where the property sale is for a price that is at the prevailing market value.

§ 12. Involvement in business decision—Crime defined

The involvement of an employee or official in a purchasing or business decision, including any attempt to influence the decision-making parties, other than in the case of an elected official in the normal annual budgetary review excluding budget modifications, in any transaction between Cherokee Nation or its instrumentalities and a business owned, in whole or part, by the employee or member of the employee's immediate family shall constitute a crime and is punishable under 21 CNCA § 10. Such involvement may also subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate discharge and may constitute "willful neglect of duty" and may subject an official to removal from office pursuant to the laws and Constitution of Cherokee Nation.

§ 13. Resolution of conflict issues not defined by statute

A. In situations not defined by statute any question of whether or not a conflict exists with regard to an employee shall be made pursuant to the written policies and procedures of each entity. Such determination shall be in writing and shall be made open and available to the public upon request. Should any question arise as to conflict the affected employee must seek a determination as designated in the employer's policies and procedures. Failure to request such a determination or failure to make known to the employer any questionable activity may result in disciplinary action up to and including immediate termination.

B. In situations not defined by statute any question of whether or not a conflict exists with regard to an appointed official shall be resolved by the Principal Chief. Such determination shall be in writing and shall be made open and available to the public.

C. In situations not defined by statute, any question of whether or not a conflict exists with regard to a Member of the Cherokee Nation Council shall be resolved by a majority vote of the membership of the Council. Such determination shall be made in public.

D. In situations not defined by statute, any question of whether a conflict exists with regard to the Principal Chief or Deputy Principal Chief shall be determined under Cherokee law including but not limited to proceedings authorized by Legislative Act 10-02.

E. If it is deemed that a conflict exists, such conflict may be resolved by discontinuing the transaction(s) that resulted in the conflict, and/or by transfer of the employee to another department and/or by any other action deemed appropriate by the applicable reviewing body, including any appropriate disciplinary action. In the case of the Cherokee Nation Council, any disciplinary action shall be determined by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership of the Council.

F. Cherokee Nation and its instrumentalities shall within sixty (60) calendar days of the effective date of this act promulgate policies and procedures for resolving conflicts pursuant to this section.

§§ 14 to 18. Reserved

§ 19. Employment of relatives of elected officials permitted

There shall be no prohibition in employing relatives of elected or appointed officials or employees of Cherokee Nation so long as it is for wages, salary, per diem or expenses. However, in no instance may a relative within the first degree be employed within the direct chain of command of another immediate family member.

§ 20. Contracting with relatives of elected officials

No elected or public official, Member or Officer of the Council, Cabinet Member, or relative within the first degree of such individual shall be authorized to contract with Cherokee Nation or its entities or instrumentalities or any entity where the tribe owns fifty-one percent (51%) or more shall contract with any primary contractor or sub-contractor who is contracting with Cherokee Nation. Individual employment contracts are exempt from this provision.

§ 21. Solicitation of employment and appointment of relatives of appointed and elected officials unlawful

A. It shall be unlawful for any elected official, any District Court Judge, or any Supreme Court Justice to appoint or vote for the appointment or employment of any of his or her relatives to any position within the Nation or the Nation's instrumentalities.

B. It shall be unlawful for any elected official, any District Court Judge, or any Supreme Court Justice to campaign, urge or endorse for appointment or employment any of his or her relatives to any position within the Nation or the Nation's instrumentalities.

C. Where a relative of any elected official, any District Court Judge, or any Supreme Court Justice is employed or appointed to any position within the Nation or its instrumentalities, it shall be unlawful for any official, any District Court Judge, or any Supreme Court Justice to campaign or urge for or against or to otherwise affect or attempt to affect any terms or conditions of that relative's appointment or employment, including but not limited to salary, position, disciplinary action, and termination of employment; provided that this section shall not affect the ability of a District Court Judge or Supreme Court Justice to decide employment cases concerning relatives of other officials, Judges or Justices.

D. Any elected official, District Court Judge, or Supreme Court Justice who shall violate any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a crime involving official misconduct and willful neglect of duty, and may be subject to removal from office as prescribed in the Constitution and laws of Cherokee Nation.

E. Nothing in this act shall prohibit the Nation or its instrumentalities from promulgating policies and procedures intended to prevent conflicts of interest within the chain of command or within a department based on the relationships of employees not otherwise covered by this act.

CHAPTER 3

JUDICIAL REVIEW

§ 31. Right to judicial review not abrogated

Nothing in this title shall serve to abrogate or dilute an employee's or official's right otherwise granted by law to review by the Cherokee Nation Courts of any action affecting his or her position unless otherwise provided by this act.

TITLE 29

GAME AND FISH

CHAPTER 1

HUNTING AND FISHING

§ 101. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Hunting and Fishing Code and is hereinafter referred to as "the Hunting and Fishing Code" or "this Code".

§ 102. Legislative intent and purpose

A. The purpose of this act is to establish a regulatory scheme for hunting and fishing on tribal trust lands and restricted lands, in Indian country and in all other areas, lands and waters subject to the Nation's jurisdiction pursuant to treaty, federal laws, inherent sovereign authority, compact, cross-deputization agreement or other authority.

B. It is the intent of the Council to confirm and assert the Nation's sovereign rights to establish a regulatory scheme under which Cherokee citizens may exercise, within areas subject to the Nation's jurisdiction, those communal rights to hunt and fish which were included as part and parcel of the rights conveyed by treaty and patent, and which rights have not ever been conveyed, relinquished, or extinguished by any subsequent treaty or agreement.

§ 103. Adoption by reference—Laws of adjacent states and nations

A. Whenever necessary or appropriate to the conservation of the Nation's natural resources or the protection of the rights of the Nation's citizens or inherent sovereign authority, the Nation may adopt by reference and enforce the fish and wildlife laws and requirements of adjacent states and nations.

B. Requirements for fish and wildlife under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation that are established pursuant to applicable federal laws such as the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, 16 U.S.C. § 703 et seq. and Endangered Species Act, 16 U.S.C. § 1531 et seq., are hereby adopted by reference as minimum requirements.

C. The provisions of the Oklahoma State Wildlife Conservation Code (29 O.S. § 1-101 et seq.), federal migratory bird seasons, and official requirements for hunting and fishing, established by rules of the Oklahoma Wildlife Conservation Commission, shall apply to lands, waters, fish and wildlife, and persons subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation, except as specified herein.

§ 104. Modification of laws adopted by reference

A. The provisions of laws and rules adopted by reference shall be read in all instances to give full effect to the establishment and implementation of a comprehensive Cherokee Nation wildlife program.

B. For purposes of this chapter, the following modifications shall apply to any provisions of law or regulation that may be adopted by reference:

1. Where the term "Attorney General" or "General Counsel" is used, it shall mean the Attorney General of Cherokee Nation.

2. Where the term "code" is used, it shall refer to the Cherokee Nation Hunting and Fishing Code.

3. Where reference is made to a "county jail" or "state prison", it shall refer to such facilities as are used for imprisonment by Cherokee Nation.

4. Where there is reference to any "Court", it shall mean the Courts of the Cherokee Nation with corresponding jurisdiction.

5. Where the term "Department" is used, it shall mean such division of Cherokee Nation that the Principal Chief may designate.

6. Where the term "Director" is used, it shall mean the person to whom the Principal Chief has appointed such authority in writing.

7. Where the term "Oklahoma" or "state" is used, it shall mean Cherokee Nation.

8. Where the term "Oklahoma Wildlife Conservation Commission" or "Commission" is used, that authority shall vest in the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation.

9. Where the term "warden" or "game warden" is used, it shall mean those persons designated by the Principal Chief as having authority to issue field citations or take other actions regarding violations, subject to such guidelines as may be established by rules of Cherokee Nation approved by the Council and Principal Chief.

C. The following additional definitions shall apply:

1. Where reference is made to "Cherokee citizen", it means any enrolled citizen of Cherokee Nation.

2. The term "tribal lands" shall include lands held in trust by the United States for Cherokee Nation, individual restricted lands and other areas constituting Indian country.

§ 105. Requirements of the state

The provisions of the Oklahoma Wildlife Conservation Code, 29 O.S. § 1–101 et seq., are adopted by reference, with the following exceptions and modifications:

29 O.S. § 2–147. Waters of the Nation.

Whenever the term "waters of the Nation" is used, it shall refer to waters of Cherokee Nation as defined in the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code, 27 CNCA § 100 et seq.

29 O.S. § 3–204. Procedures.

The Department shall operate under the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq.

29 O.S. § 3–301. Dispositions of monies from fines and forfeitures.

Monies shall be collected by the Comptroller and be deposited in a separate account which shall be used for conservation of the Nation's fish and wildlife resources.

29 O.S. § 4–103. Commercial fishing.

Commercial fishing is not allowed in waters of the Nation.

29 O.S. § 4–103A. Commercial harvest.

Commercial harvest of wildlife is not allowed, except nuisance wildlife may be removed by a person for hire who has a duly issued authorization from the Nation.

29 O.S. § 4–103B. Commercial sale and purchase.

The commercial sale and purchase of wildlife resources of the Nation is not allowed.

29 O.S. § 4–103C. Activities not prohibited.

Provisions of this Code prohibiting commercial fishing, commercial harvest and commercial sale/purchase shall not apply to prohibit Cherokee citizens from fishing, or harvesting fish and wildlife, or from gathering materials for crafting culturally related items, if they are doing so for the purpose of providing food, clothing or traditional items for Cherokee citizens in their immediate family. Provided, however, this shall not authorize the purchase or sale of fish or wildlife to noncitizens or persons outside their immediate family.

29 O.S. § 4–107.1. Non-native species.

All activities related to fish, birds, plant and wildlife, native and non-native, shall be subject to regulation by the Nation and the designated Department. Non-native species of fish and wildlife shall not be released on tribal lands or in waters of the Nation unless a permit is first obtained from the Department. Prior to issuance of such a permit, an environmental review shall be prepared and submitted to the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission for its review and recommendation.

29 O.S. § 4–115. Minnow or fish harvest.

Commercial harvest of minnows or fish is not allowed in waters of the Nation.

29 O.S. § 4–129. Mussels.

Commercial harvest and export of mussels, other mollusks or crayfish is not allowed.

29 O.S. § 4–135. Permits to control nuisance or dangerous wildlife.

Only authorized representatives of the Department may take or control nuisance or dangerous wildlife on tribal trust lands or in waters of the Nation. Any person wishing to take or control nuisance or dangerous wildlife on individual restricted lands must first obtain a permit from the Department unless otherwise authorized by Department rules.

29 O.S. § 5–101. Propagated or confined wildlife.

Hunting propagated or confined wildlife or domesticated animals is not allowed on trust lands, except in the case of a special hunt authorized by the Principal Chief and approved by the Council. Prior to such an authorization, an environmental review shall be prepared and submitted to the Cherokee Nation Environmental Protection Commission for its review and recommendation. The Department shall promulgate rules that apply to hunting propagated or confined wildlife or domesticated animals on individual restricted lands.

29 O.S. § 5–102. Commercial hunting.

Commercial taking of wildlife is not allowed on any tribal lands, provided this does not preclude special hunts authorized by and conducted by the Nation.

29 O.S. § 5–103. Liberation of propagated and other birds.

A permit is required for release of any commercially propagated wildlife or domestic animal on tribal lands and waters of the Nation, provided that authorized representatives of the Department shall not be required to obtain a permit.

29 O.S. § 5–301. Limitation on predator control devices—Procedures for use.

The Department shall promulgate rules to establish procedures and requirements that shall apply in all cases to prohibit inhumane measures or methods which may endanger humans, domestic animals or other wildlife. Until such rules are promulgated, only authorized representatives of the Department shall use predator control devices on tribal lands. At no time shall persons other than authorized representatives of the Department be allowed to use predator control devices on trust lands.

29 O.S. § 5–501. Trapping.

A. No person, other than authorized representatives of the Department or persons doing so in conjunction with Department-authorized scientific research, may trap any fish, wildlife or birds on trust lands or waters of the Nation.

B. No person may trap on restricted lands or other lands within the Nation's jurisdiction without first obtaining a permit from the Department. Trapping will only be allowed if the applicant can demonstrate a legitimate need and that humane conditions will be maintained at all times.

C. Commercial trapping is prohibited at all times on all tribal lands and in waters of the Nation.

29 O.S. § 6–502. Closure of lands and waters.

The Department may designate specific lands or waters that shall be closed to hunting, fishing or related activities.

29 O.S. § 7–204. Ownership of wildlife.

Fish and wildlife are the property of the Nation, provided however, the Nation shall not be required to control said fish and wildlife and in no event shall the Nation be held responsible for damages caused by fish and wildlife.

29 O.S. § 7–304. Wildlife refuges or wildlife management areas—Entry with dog or gun prohibited.

Specific areas may be designated as a wildlife refuge or special management area. Special conditions or restrictions on activities may apply to such areas.

29 O.S. § 7–401. Deleterious, noxious or toxic substances.

It is illegal to place any pollutant into waters of the Nation, or to place any wastes in a place where it is likely to enter the waters of the Nation, without first obtaining a permit as required by the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code.

29 O.S. § 7–402. Activities in other states injurious.

The Principal Chief with the advice of the Attorney General may take any legal action appropriate and necessary to address activities in other states or nations which may be injurious to plants, fish, birds or any wildlife species in this Nation.

29 O.S. § 7–502. Prohibition on buying, bartering, trading, offering or exposing for sale protected fish or wildlife.

The provisions of this section shall also apply to any specially designated protected plants.

29 O.S. § 7–503. Importation, sale, possession of aigrettes, plumes, feathers, quills, wings.

Only to the extent allowed by federal law and consistent with good conservation practices and this code, the Department may by rule provide for the lawful possession of parts of fish, wildlife or birds, in connection with traditional uses by individual Cherokee Nation citizens.

§ 106. License requirements

A. The Department designated by the Principal Chief shall have the authority to issue licenses and tags for hunting, fishing and other activities as set forth in this Code.

B. A valid Cherokee Nation Tribal Citizenship Card shall be considered a valid license for hunting or fishing by individuals for noncommercial traditional uses. This privilege may be revoked for persons who violate the provisions of this Code.

C. Persons who do not possess a Cherokee Nation Tribal Citizenship Card may be allowed to obtain a permit to hunt on tribal lands as follows:

1. Members of other Indian Tribes who present their CDIB card, pay any applicable fees and comply with other applicable rules may be granted a permit to hunt or fish on tribal lands. The Nation may limit the number of permits as it deems appropriate.

2. The spouse and children of any Cherokee citizen may hunt on restricted lands owned by that Cherokee citizen.

3. The Department may promulgate rules that limit the numbers of permits, establish appropriate conditions and restrictions, to allow other persons who are not Cherokee citizens to hunt and fish on restricted lands.

4. The Department may promulgate rules that establish permit application requirements, fees, limit the number of permits and set other conditions for persons who wish to fish on navigable waterways of the Nation.

D. Persons who are not Cherokee citizens and are not otherwise allowed to hunt or fish under the provisions of subsection (C) of this section shall not be allowed to hunt or fish on tribal lands or waters of the Nation, except in the event of a special hunt or event authorized and conducted by the Nation.

E. All permits, special hunts and rules shall be consistent with good conservation practices and the goal of preserving the Nation's resources for future generations.

F. No exemptions may be granted from federal requirements.

G. The Nation reserves the right to deny a permit application or to revoke a permit to hunt or fish on tribal lands or waters of the Nation for any person who is otherwise in violation of tribal law or is a habitual offender.

§ 107. Registration—Checkpoints

A. The Department shall establish checkpoints or provide other methods so that all persons who enter tribal lands or waters of the Nation to hunt or fish on tribal lands can fill out a registration form.

B. Such form should include information such as date of entry, purpose, animals taken, and other data pertinent to making informed fish and wildlife management decisions.

§ 108. Rules

A. Until such time as the Department promulgates rules, the hunting and fishing rules of the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation existing on the effective date of this Code shall apply to all tribal lands.

B. The Department shall have the authority to promulgate, update, revise, modify or revoke any provisions or requirements contained in the rules of the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation, or any season, provided:

1. The rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this code;
2. The rules will assist the Nation in conserving fish and wildlife, protecting important habitat and ensuring public safety; and
3. The requirements of the Cherokee Nation Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq., are followed.

C. In developing subsequent revisions of this code and rules, the Department shall work with the Environmental Protection Commission and other departments of the Nation.

D. The Department shall work with the Environmental Protection Commission and other departments of the Nation to identify and protect plant and animal species of special concern to the Nation and important habitats. For purposes of this code, "species of special concern" should include, but is not limited to, any species listed as endangered, threatened or rare by the federal government, states, and other tribal nations, and any "culturally-protected species" identified by Cherokee Nation, pursuant to the following rules:

1. Definitions

a. "Culturally-protected species" includes:

i. bald eagle,

ii. black bear,

iii. mountain lion (aka puma, cougar, etc.) and

iv. any other plant, animal or aquatic species designated as a culturally-protected species as determined by regulations established by the Natural Resources Department and approved by the Environmental Protection Commission.

b. "Indian" means an individual who is a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe or eligible for membership in a federally-recognized Indian tribe.

c. "Indian country" has the meaning given to such term by 18 U.S.C. § 1151.

d. "Take" means to harass, harm, pursue, hunt, shoot, wound, kill, trap, capture, or collect, or to attempt to engage in any such conduct. "Harm" in the definition of "take" in the act means an act which actually kills or injures wildlife. Such act may include significant habitat modification or degradation where it actually kills or injures wildlife by significantly impairing essential behavioral patterns, including breeding, feeding, or sheltering.

2. It shall be a crime for an Indian to take or possess a culturally-protected species from Indian country.

a. Exceptions.

i. those possessing live animals or any part of a dead animal are not subject to sanction if in possession by any legal tribal, federal or state method; specifically including:

(I) eagle feathers obtained through a repository,

(II) rehabilitation efforts of a live animal, or

(III) pursuant to the American Indian Religious Freedom Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1996.

ii. The Natural Resources Department and Environmental Protection Commission shall promulgate rules that would allow an exception to take or possess a culturally-protected species, if that taking or possessing positively impacts the people of Cherokee Nation.

b. Punishment. This crime shall be punishable by a term of imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year or a fine in a sum not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by both such fine or imprisonment.

3. It shall be unlawful for any non-Indian to take or possess a culturally-protected species from Indian country.

4. Remedy. A non-Indian who takes or possesses a culturally-protected species in violation of this act is subject to:

a. a civil fine in a sum not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00); and

b. permanent or temporary expulsion and exclusion from Indian country; and

c. reimbursement of Cherokee Nation for any rehabilitation cost to an injured species.

5. Cause of action.

a. Criminal sanctions may only be initiated by the Office of the Attorney General in Cherokee Nation District Court, Criminal Division;

b. Civil sanctions may be initiated by the Office of the Attorney General or the Environmental Protection Commission in Cherokee Nation District Court, Civil Division.

6. Preemption. This act specifically preempts state law applicable to Indian country.

7. Use of fines. Any criminal or civil fines collected pursuant to this act shall be earmarked for conservation efforts.

8. Guidelines for listing a species as a culturally-protected species:

- a. Proposals to add/delist all species to/from the list of culturally-protected species shall be coordinated through and by the Natural Resources Department;
- b. The final determination of a listed species will be made by the Environmental Protection Commission;
- c. To be considered for listing as a culturally-protected species, an individual must present information as required by the Natural Resources Department and Environmental Protection Commission, including, but not limited to, cultural significance, habitat information, and likely harm to the species;
- d. Burden of proof. An individual seeking to add a species to the culturally-protected species list must establish proof by a preponderance of the evidence that a species is in need of protection because of its cultural significance to Cherokee Nation;
- e. Appeals. The Natural Resources Department and the Environmental Protection Commission will establish policies and procedures for an appeals process pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Administrative Procedure Act, 1 CNCA § 101 et seq.

9. List. A list of culturally-protected species shall periodically, but no less than once per year, be published pursuant to rules established by the Environmental Protection Commission regarding time and place of publication.

§ 109. Management plans

- A. The Department, in cooperation with Environmental Programs and other departments of the Nation, shall prepare management plans for fish and wildlife resources of the Nation and their habitats.
- B. The Management Plans may be adopted or incorporated in the Strategic Land Plan, Integrated Resource Management Plan and other guidance used to make decisions about tribal land development and future land purchases.
- C. The Management Plans shall be consistent with these plans, establish by rule appropriate conditions on allowable activities in sensitive areas and limits on uses of fish and wildlife resources and their habitats.
- D. The Department shall, consistent with these Plans, establish by rule appropriate conditions on allowable activities in sensitive areas and limits on uses of fish and wildlife resources and their habitats.
- E. The Department may enter into agreements with private landowners and may acquire conservation easements as appropriate to the conservation of species, habitats and the preservation of Cherokee culture.

§ 110. Permission to enter lands and general requirements

A. No person shall enter restricted lands or fee lands owned by the Nation to hunt, fish, trap or engage in related activities without first obtaining appropriate permission from the owner of the lands.

B. Any person who may hunt fish or otherwise take, fish, birds, plants or wildlife on lands and waters subject to the Nation's jurisdiction shall comply with the requirements set forth in this code and rules promulgated hereunder, applicable federal laws, the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code and requirements contained in any applicable permit.

§ 111. Violations

A. The requirements and penalties established in this Code and rules promulgated hereunder shall be cumulative and in addition to any penalties set forth in the Cherokee Nation Environmental Quality Code and other provisions of tribal law.

B. In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the Department may modify, revoke, refuse to renew or refuse to issue a permit to persons in violation of this code.

§ 112. Enforcement and field citations

A. The Principal Chief may designate persons authorized to issue field citations, make arrests and confiscate property for violations.

B. Any person authorized by the Principal Chief to engage in enforcement actions shall have appropriate training related to wildlife management and enforcement.

C. The Director of the designated department shall have the authority to issue notices of violation for violations of the terms of any permit or license, and to initiate administrative proceedings to revoke, modify, suspend or cancel a license, permit or other authorization. The Principal Chief shall designate an impartial person or entity to make final decisions.

D. The Principal Chief, Director or Attorney General may also direct that an enforcement referral be made to the District Court for cases involving violations of this code, requirements in rules that are adopted by reference, and any rule promulgated pursuant to this Code.

§ 113. Appeals and authority of District Court

A. Persons wishing to appeal any final decision denying or revoking a license may, if such right is specifically granted by law, appeal to the Cherokee Nation District Court.

B. The District Court shall have authority to issue judgments and orders, assess costs, fines and attorney fees, require remediation, restitution and payment of damages, issue injunctive relief and issue orders relating to confiscation of property, in any civil or criminal enforcement proceeding involving violations of requirements imposed by this Code, permits issued under this code or rules duly promulgated pursuant to this Code.

TITLE 30

GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP

CHAPTER 1

GUARDIANSHIPS

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Guardianship and Conservatorship Act of 2012.

§ 2. Purpose

It is the purpose of this chapter to promote the general welfare of minor Cherokee Nation citizens or minors eligible to be Cherokee Nation citizens by establishing a system of general and limited guardianships for minors which provides for the protection of their rights and the management of their financial resources.

§ 3. Existing guardianships or conservatorships—Compliance with act

A. Any guardianship or conservatorship in existence on or created on or after the effective date of this act shall comply with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Guardianship and Conservatorship Act.

B. Unless otherwise modified or terminated, all guardianships and conservatorships established prior to the effective date of this act shall remain in full force and effect.

C. All guardians or conservators shall retain the powers assigned to them, unless otherwise modified or terminated by the Court.

§ 4. Definitions

A. As used in the Cherokee Nation Guardianship and Conservatorship Act:

1. "Confidential information" means medical records, physical, psychological or other evaluations of a ward or subject of the proceeding, initial and subsequent guardianship plans, reports of guardians, limited guardians and conservators, and financial records and information submitted to the Court in connection with a proceeding pursuant to this chapter.

2. "Court" means the District Court of Cherokee Nation.
3. "Estate" means the property of the person whose affairs are subject to a guardianship proceeding.
4. "Guardian" means a person appointed as general or limited guardian of the person, general or limited guardian of the property, special guardian and temporary guardian, but does not include a person appointed as guardian ad litem.
5. "Guardian ad litem" means, with respect to a guardianship proceeding, a person appointed by the Court to assist the subject of the proceeding in making decisions with regard to the guardianship proceeding, or to make said decisions when the subject of the proceeding is wholly incapable of making said decisions even with assistance.
6. "Guardianship of the person" means legal custody or the duty and authority vested by law to make major decisions affecting a child including, but not limited to:
 - a. the authority to consent to marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, and to extraordinary medical and surgical treatment; and
 - b. the authority to represent a child in legal actions and to make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning a child; and
 - c. the authority to consent to the adoption of a child when the parent-child relationship has been terminated by judicial decree or the death of the parents; and
 - d. the rights and responsibilities of the physical and legal care, custody, and control of a child when legal custody has not been vested in another person, or agency, or institution; and
 - e. the duty to provide food, clothing, shelter, ordinary medical care, education, and discipline for the child. Guardianship of the person of a child, or legal custody of a child, may be taken from its parents only by Court action, notwithstanding the emergency protection of a child.
7. "Guardianship plan" means the plan for the care and treatment of a ward, the plan for the management of the financial resources of a ward, or both.
8. "Guardianship proceeding" means a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian, or for other orders regarding the condition, care or treatment or for the management of the financial resources of a minor.
9. "Guardianship report" means any report required by the provisions of 30 CNCA § 23.
10. "Initial review hearing" means the first hearing held by the Court for review of the guardianship proceeding after entry of the order appointing a guardian for a minor.

11. "Letters" means a document issued by the Court subsequent to the appointment of a guardian which designates the name of the guardian and specifies the authority and powers of said guardian. Such document shall be endorsed thereon with the oath of the guardian that he or she will perform the duties of their office as guardian according to law.

12. "Minor" means a person less than eighteen (18) years of age.

13. "Person" means an individual.

14. "Property" means real property, personal property, and income, any interest in such real or personal property and includes anything that may be the subject of ownership.

15. "Subject of the proceeding" means a minor:

a. who is the subject of a petition requesting the appointment of a guardian, limited guardian, or temporary guardian; or

b. for whom a guardian or limited guardian has been appointed by the Court.

16. "Ward" means the person over whom, or over whose property, a guardian is appointed.

B. Nothing contained in this Act shall prevent the Court from immediately assuming custody of a minor, pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Children's Code, 10 CNCA § 1 et seq., and ordering whatever action may be necessary, including medical treatment, to protect the minor's health or welfare.

§ 5. Types of guardianships

There are four (4) types of guardianships: general, limited, temporary and special.

1. A general guardian is a guardian of the person or of all the property of the ward or both.

2. A limited guardian is a person authorized by the Court to exercise limited powers over the person of the ward, or over the property of the ward or both.

3. A temporary guardian is a person appointed by the Court in accordance with 30 CNCA § 19.

4. A special guardian is all other guardians who may be appointed by the Court for a situation not covered by this chapter and appointed in the same manner as for the appointment of a temporary guardian.

§ 6. Persons and property subject to act—Parental rights

A. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the Cherokee Nation Guardianship and Conservatorship Act applies to:

1. Minor Cherokee Nation citizens or minors eligible to be Cherokee Nation citizens residing within the territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation; and
2. Property located in Cherokee Nation of non-domiciliaries who are minors, or property coming into the control of a guardian who is subject to the laws of Cherokee Nation.

B. No person, whether a parent or otherwise, has any power as a guardian, except by appointment by a court. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation Guardianship and Conservatorship Act shall not be construed to limit the parental rights of parents as the natural guardians of their children.

§ 7. Jurisdiction

A. Territorial jurisdiction and subject matter jurisdiction shall be in accordance with 20 CNCA § 24 et seq.

B. The Court shall have the authority, whenever it appears necessary, to appoint a guardian for the person and/or property of any child who is subject to the jurisdiction of the District Court.

C. After the service of notice in a proceeding seeking the appointment of a guardian or other order, in subsequent proceedings pertaining to the guardianship of a ward and until termination of the proceeding, the Court has exclusive jurisdiction to determine:

1. the need for a guardian or other order; and
2. how the estate of the ward shall be managed, expended, or distributed to or for the use of the ward or the dependents of the ward.

§ 8. Jurisdiction of Court over guardians and guardianship proceedings

A. In all cases the Court making the appointment of a guardian has exclusive jurisdiction to control such guardian in the management and disposition of the person and property of the ward.

B. The Court has jurisdiction over guardianship proceedings and cases, and has the following powers, which must be exercised in the manner prescribed by this chapter, to:

1. appoint and remove guardians for minors;
2. issue and revoke letters of guardianship;
3. control the conduct of guardians with regard to the care and treatment provided to their wards;
4. control the conduct of guardians with regard to the management of the financial resources of their wards;

5. compel guardians to submit plans, reports, inventories and accountings, to the Court;
6. compel payment and delivery by guardians of property belonging to their wards;
7. order the payment of debts, the sale of property, and order and regulate the distribution of property which has been placed under the control or management of a guardian;
8. settle the accounts of guardians;
9. appoint appraisers of the property of wards;
10. compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and property;
11. after a petition has been filed for appointment of a guardian for a minor, make or modify any temporary order of guardianship during the progress of the proceedings that would be in the best interest of the ward. Any such temporary order may be entered ex parte with written notice sent to all parties directing them to appear before the Court at a time and place therein specified, not more than thirty (30) days from the time of making such order, to show cause why the order should not be granted for guardianship; and
12. exercise all powers conferred by this chapter and to make such orders as may be necessary for the exercise of said powers.

§ 9. Guardians ad litem

- A. Nothing contained in this chapter affects or impairs the power of the Court to appoint a guardian ad litem to defend the interests of any minor interested in any suit or matter pending therein.
- B. At any point in a guardianship proceeding, the subject of the proceeding, his attorney, the guardian of the subject of the proceeding or anyone interested in the welfare of the subject of the proceeding may file an application to have a guardian ad litem appointed by the Court, or the Court on its own motion may appoint a guardian ad litem.

§ 10. Duties and powers of guardians—Annual review

- A. Except as otherwise ordered or limited by the Court:
 1. A guardian of a child shall have the right to take or provide for his physical custody and shall be required to care for his health, safety and welfare, and provide for his education and medical care.
 2. In a legal action, the guardian shall have the authority to represent the interests of the child in actual, threatened or contemplated litigation or other proceedings of a legal nature. The guardian may employ counsel and settle or compromise suits or claims subject to the approval of the Court

3. A guardian of the property of the child shall have the authority to invest, manage and dispose of the child's property in a prudent and reasonable manner. The guardian may expend such portions of the property, income and principal as shall be reasonably necessary for the education of the child and care of the child, including medical care, unless the guardianship order states that the child's property may not be used for the child's care and support, but rather that it be managed for the child until he reaches the age of eighteen (18) or an emancipation occurs.

B. A guardian may petition the Court at any time for authority to do any act, if he is uncertain of his authority. The Court may grant such authority, after notice and hearing, if this appears to be consistent with the best interests of the child.

C. A guardian shall report to the Court any change in the residence of a ward within ten (10) days following such change unless a prior order of approval of such change has been entered by the Court.

D. Every guardian, whether of the person and/or property of a child, shall:

1. stand in a fiduciary relationship to the child;
2. exercise a high degree of care in managing the child's property;
3. derive no personal benefit from the management of the child's property; and
4. be liable to the child for any losses attributable to breach of these duties.

E. Any action to enforce liability against the guardian may be brought by the child or a subsequently appointed guardian on behalf of the child within two (2) years after the appointment of a new guardian, or the discovery of the breach of duties, or attainment of the age of eighteen (18) by the child, whichever comes first.

F. The Court shall hold annual review hearings in guardianship cases. Upon request by the Court, a guardian shall file a progress report with the Court at least thirty (30) days prior to the annual review hearing.

§ 11. Confidential information filed with court

A. Confidential information filed with or submitted to the Court in conjunction with any proceeding pursuant to this chapter shall not constitute a public record. Access to confidential information shall be strictly controlled. Except upon Court order, no confidential information shall be disclosed to persons other than:

1. the subject of the proceeding and his attorney,
2. the guardian ad litem;

3. if the subject of the confidential information is a ward, the guardian or conservator of such ward;
 4. if the subject of the confidential information is the guardian or conservator, the ward and his attorney, and the attorney of such guardian or conservator; and
 5. Cherokee Nation and any Cherokee Nation or Bureau of Indian Affairs governmental entities necessary to provide services to the ward.
- B. The fact of the existence of a guardianship or conservatorship of a person or that person's estate shall not be considered confidential information.

§ 12. Letters of guardianship

Letters of guardianship are evidence of the transfer of the management or administration of all assets, or the part thereof specified in the letters, of a ward to the guardian. An order terminating a guardianship is evidence of transfer of the management or administration of all assets subject to the guardianship from the guardian to the ward, or to successors of the ward.

§ 13. Filing of petition and eligibility—Costs

- A. Guardianship proceedings shall be started by the filing of a petition. Any person, not otherwise prohibited, eighteen (18) years of age or older or any representative of the Cherokee Nation Department of Youth and Family Services may file a petition.
- B. Any person, not otherwise prohibited, eighteen (18) years of age or older and subject to the jurisdiction of the District Court may serve as guardian.
- C. Preference shall be given to relatives and to the person preferred by a child of sufficient age to form an intelligent preference; however, in all cases, the Court shall determine the guardian on the basis of the best interests of the child.
- D. The petitioner shall be responsible for bearing the costs of filing any petition for guardianship and the costs associated with any required additional information.

§ 14. Contents of petition—Additional information submitted prior to hearing on petition

- A. The petition shall set forth the following:
1. the basis for the Court's jurisdiction;
 2. the full name, address and tribal affiliation of the petitioner;
 3. the full name and date of birth of any and all adults residing in the home of the petitioner;
 4. the full name, sex, date of birth, residence and tribal affiliation of the child;

5. the petitioner's relationship to the child;
6. the name and address of the person or agency having custody of the child;
7. the names and addresses of all known relatives of the child, insofar as these are known to the petitioner;
8. a concise statement as to whether the petitioner or any adult residing in the home of the petitioner has been convicted of a felony. Such statement shall include the nature of the felony, the date of conviction and the jurisdiction of the conviction;
9. a concise statement of any and all Child Welfare history involving the child, the petitioner or any adult residing in the home of the petitioner;
10. a statement regarding whether the person proposed to serve as guardian is insolvent or has declared bankruptcy during the five (5) years immediately prior to filing the petition proposing such person to serve as guardian;
11. the type of guardianship requested; and
12. a concise statement of the reasons for which the guardianship should be granted.

B. Prior to the hearing on the petition for guardianship, the petitioner shall submit the following additional information to the Court; provided that a temporary emergency guardianship order may be granted by the discretion of the Court prior to full compliance with the requirements of this subsection:

1. complete Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation background checks for the petitioner and any adult residing in the home of the petitioner;
2. sworn affidavits attesting that neither the petitioner nor any adult residing in the home of the petitioner is or has been subject to the registration requirements of a sex offenders act or any similar act in any jurisdiction;
3. an Oklahoma Department of Human Services child welfare history report on petitioner and any adult residing in the home of the petitioner;
4. a complete financial assessment affidavit.

§ 15. Appointment of guardian of minor—Notice—Intervention

A. Before making the appointment, the Court must cause notice of the hearing on the petition for appointment of a guardian for a minor to be given in the form required by the Court to the following persons:

1. the minor himself if the minor has attained the age of fourteen (14) years as of the date the petition is filed;
2. the Cherokee Nation Department of Youth and Family Services;
3. the Cherokee Nation Office of Attorney General;
4. the then-living parents of the minor and any other person having care of the minor;
5. if the minor has no then-living parent, then to one of the then-living grandparents who is not one of the petitioners and who is not married to one of the petitioners; and
6. if there is no such then-living grandparent or if there is no such then-living grandparent whose address is known to the petitioner, then notice shall be given to an adult relative, if any, of the minor, who resides within the territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

B. Such notice shall be mailed to each person entitled to notice at that person's address as last-known to the petitioner, at least ten (10) days prior to the date set by the Court for hearing on the petition. Provided, the Court may direct a shorter notice period if the Court deems such shorter notice period to be appropriate under the circumstances.

C. If there is no person, other than the minor, who is entitled to notice, or if the address of any person entitled to notice is not known to the petitioner, the petition shall so allege. The Court may direct that notice be waived or be given to any person or persons by publication or in any such manner as the Court determines and directs.

D. Cherokee Nation may intervene in any case subject to the requirements of this act.

§ 16. Nomination and appointment by minor—Age of minor

If the minor is under the age of fourteen (14) years, the Court may name and appoint his guardian. If the minor has attained the age of fourteen (14) years, the minor may nominate his own guardian who, if approved by the Court, shall be appointed accordingly.

§ 17. Appointment of guardian when minor has attained fourteen years of age

If a guardian nominated by a minor who has attained the age of fourteen (14) years is not approved by the Court or if, after being notified by the Court, the minor neglects for ten (10) days to nominate a suitable person, the Court may name and appoint a guardian in the same manner as if the minor was under the age of fourteen (14) years.

§ 18. Order of preference

A. In accordance with 10 CNCA § 21.1, a guardianship shall be appointed in the following order of preference according to the best interests of the child to:

1. a parent or to both parents jointly except as otherwise provided in subsection (B) of this section;
2. a grandparent;
3. a person who was indicated by the wishes of a deceased parent;
4. a relative of either parent;
5. the person in whose home the child has been living in a wholesome and stable environment; or
6. any other person deemed by the Court to be suitable and able to provide adequate and proper care and guidance for the child.

B. When a parent having physical custody and providing support to a child becomes deceased, in appointing as guardian of the child the noncustodial parent, the Court may deny the custody or guardianship only if:

1. the noncustodial parent has willfully failed, refused, or neglected to contribute to the support of the child for a period of at least twelve (12) months immediately preceding the determination of custody or guardianship action:

- a. in substantial compliance with a support provision contained in a decree of divorce, or a decree of separate maintenance or an order adjudicating responsibility to support in a reciprocal enforcement of support proceeding, paternity action, juvenile proceeding, guardianship proceeding, or orders of modification to such decree, or other lawful orders of support entered by a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating the duty, amount, and manner of support, or

- b. according to such parent's financial ability to contribute to such child's support if no provision for support is provided in a decree of divorce or an order of modification subsequent thereto;

2. the noncustodial parent has abandoned the child; or

3. the Court finds it would be detrimental to the health or safety of the child for the noncustodial parent to be appointed guardian.

C. The Court may consider the preference of the child in awarding guardianship of said child if the child is of sufficient age to form an intelligent preference.

§ 19. Temporary guardianship

A. The Court may appoint a temporary guardian under such terms and conditions as the Court deems appropriate.

B. Temporary guardianship shall be for a limited duration, and the length of the guardianship shall be set forth in the court order along with such other terms and conditions as the Court finds appropriate.

C. A temporary guardianship may be terminated if the Court determines that it is in the child's best interests to change guardians or to return the child to the parent(s) or custodian(s).

D. The child's parents, grandparents and other family members shall have rights of reasonable visitation unless the Court finds that the visitation would endanger the child or significantly impair his emotional development.

§ 20. Cessation of power of guardian

The power of a guardian appointed for a minor ceases upon:

1. the removal of the guardian;
2. the solemnized marriage of the ward; or
3. the ward's attaining majority.

§ 21. Minor ward at majority—Release of guardian

After a minor ward has reached the age of majority, the ward may settle accounts with his guardian and give the guardian a valid release, subject to approval of the Court, if such release is obtained fairly and without undue influence.

§ 22. Discharge of guardian by Court

A guardian of a minor appointed by the Court is not entitled to discharge until one (1) year after the majority of the ward unless the Court determines that the minor has earlier validly released said guardian after a final accounting.

§ 23. Guardianship report

A. Upon the filing of a guardianship petition, the Court may request that the Indian Child Welfare Department conduct, or arrange to have conducted, a guardianship report. The report shall contain information necessary to determine the best interests of the child, including data pertaining to the child, the biological parent(s), the extended family and the circumstances requiring the appointment of a guardian.

B. The guardianship report shall be submitted to the Court and copies may be furnished to all interested parties.

§ 24. Order of guardianship

The terms and conditions of the guardianship shall be clearly set forth in the order of guardianship, together with any bond requirements. Copies of the order shall be furnished to all parties.

§ 25. Guardianship plan

Upon request of the Court, a plan for the care and treatment of a ward and/or the plan for the management of the financial resources of a ward shall be filed by the guardian.

§ 26. Setting of initial review hearing

A. In the order appointing the guardian of a minor, the Court shall set the date for the initial review hearing, which shall be not more than ninety (90) days following the date of entry of the order appointing such guardian.

B. When any person is appointed guardian of a minor, the Court may include in the order of appointment conditions not otherwise obligatory providing for the care, treatment, education and welfare of the minor.

§ 27. Compensation

No guardian shall receive any compensation for acting as such without prior approval of the Court.

§ 28. Bond

In the event a guardian receives any funds or property of the child at the time of appointment or during the term of his guardianship, he may be required by the Court to post a bond with sufficient surety in such amount as the Court may order to assure the guardian's faithful performance of the duties of his trust. Any surety of such bond must consent to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of an action against the bond.

§ 29. Trust property

The guardian may be appointed to manage trust property of a child. Any sale of an interest in trust property belonging to the child must be for an adequate and fair price and must be authorized by the Court and approved by the Superintendent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. The Court may approve the sale if it is in the best interests of the child.

§ 30. Annual accounting

The guardian of property valued in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) shall submit to the Court for approval an annual accounting which shall be verified under oath. The accounting shall be required for every year in which the value of the estate is over Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), and shall contain information on all additions to and withdrawals from the property. All supporting documentation, including canceled checks, vouchers, receipts and bank statements, shall be attached to the accounting.

§ 31. Inquiry to determine suitability of guardian

A. In conducting an inquiry to determine whether a person is suitable to serve as a guardian, the Court shall determine if:

1. the person proposed to serve as guardian is a minor or incapacitated or partially incapacitated person;
2. the person proposed to serve as guardian is a convicted felon;
3. the person proposed to serve as guardian is insolvent or has declared bankruptcy during the five (5) years immediately prior to filing the petition proposing such person to serve as guardian;
4. the person proposed to serve as guardian is under any financial obligation to the ward; or
5. there exists a conflict of interest which would preclude or be substantially detrimental to the ability of the person to act in the best interest of the subject of the proceeding if such person is appointed.

B. In every case involving guardianship of a minor, the Court shall determine whether any individual seeking guardianship or visitation with the minor:

1. is or has been subject to the registration requirements of a sex offender act or any similar act in any jurisdiction; or
2. is residing with a person who is or has been subject to the registration requirements of a sex offender act or any similar act in any jurisdiction.

C. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that it is not in the best interests of the minor to have guardianship or unsupervised visitation granted to any individual who:

1. is or has been subject to the registration requirements of a sex offender act or any similar act in any jurisdiction; or
2. is residing with a person who is or has been subject to the registration requirements of a sex offender act or any similar act in any jurisdiction.

D. If the person proposed to serve is a convicted felon, the Court shall make further inquiry into the nature of the felony and the circumstances surrounding the conviction. The Court shall appoint such person proposed to serve only upon determining that the facts underlying the conviction do not give rise to a reasonable belief that person proposed to serve will be unfaithful to or neglectful of his fiduciary responsibilities, and that the appointment is in the best interest of the ward.

E. If the person proposed to serve as guardian is insolvent or has declared bankruptcy within five (5) years prior to the filing of the pleading proposing that such person serve, the Court shall appoint such person only after giving due consideration to the nature and extent of the property of the ward and the anticipated actions necessary to manage the estate of the ward, and only upon a determination that such appointment is in the best interest of the ward. Insolvency or bankruptcy shall not automatically preclude a person proposed to serve as guardian.

F. No minor, partially incapacitated person or incapacitated person shall be appointed.

§ 32. Applications to Court for relief—Contents—Notice and hearing—Order—Appointment of counsel—Joinder—Hearing without notice

A. After the appointment of a guardian, the ward, any person interested in the welfare of the ward, or a guardian may make application to the Court for:

1. termination of the guardianship;
2. removal of the guardian;
3. resolution of a dispute pertaining to the guardianship plan; or
4. a review hearing.

B. Such application shall set forth:

1. the names and addresses of the individuals and entities entitled to notice;
2. the relief requested; and
3. the alleged facts and reasons supporting the request.

C. Any person entitled to notice of the hearing on an application filed pursuant to this section may object to the relief requested in the application. Notice shall be as provided as set forth in this chapter.

D. The Court shall set an application filed pursuant to this section for hearing on a date certain and shall cause notice to be given to the persons entitled thereto by regular first-class mail at least ten (10) days prior to such date. However, except for an order terminating a guardianship, the Court may enter an order granting the relief requested in the application without notice if the Court determines that such relief should be granted immediately. In that event, the Court may grant such relief on a temporary basis and proceed to set the application for further hearing following the giving of notice as provided by this subsection. At the hearing, based upon the evidence adduced, the Judge may continue, modify or vacate his temporary order.

E. At the hearing held upon an application filed pursuant to this section for which notice is required, the Court may, based upon the evidence presented, enter an order granting or denying the relief requested. At such hearing, the Court may also make any other order which the Court deems to be in the best interests of the ward or the estate of the ward. The Court may also set for further hearing, with prior notice to be given as provided in this section, any other matter which the Court deems should be considered in the best interest of the ward or the estate of the ward.

F. With respect to any matter set for hearing pursuant to this section, the Court may appoint an attorney to represent a ward at such hearing, in the same manner as provided in this chapter for appointment of an attorney for the subject of the proceeding following the filing of a petition for appointment of a guardian. The appointment of such attorney shall cease:

1. upon the entry by the Court of an order pertaining to the matters considered at such hearing, unless the Court otherwise directs, either in the order appointing such attorney or in the order pertaining to the matters considered at such hearing;
2. unless an appeal is taken from the order of the Court pertaining to the matters considered at such hearing, in which event such attorney shall continue to represent the ward until final disposition or as otherwise ordered by the Court; or
3. upon application of said attorney, the Court may allow the attorney to withdraw from the case and shall appoint another attorney to represent the subject of the proceeding in any appeal proceeding.

G. After notice, the Court may join the issues raised in separate applications or separate objections for determination at a single hearing, unless the Court determines joinder would be prejudicial to the interests of the ward.

H. The Court may hear an application other than with respect to the matters set forth in subsection (A) of this section, with or without notice as the Court determines. If the Court requires notice to be given, the Court shall specify the persons to whom notice shall be given and the manner and time in which such notice shall be given.

§ 33. Two or more guardians

A. If there are two (2) guardians who are citizens of Cherokee Nation, the act of one (1) alone shall be effectual if a co-guardian has given the other co-guardian authority in writing to act for both.

B. If there are more than two guardians, the act of a majority of them is valid.

§ 34. Death of one of two or more joint guardians

On the death of one (1) of two or more joint guardians, the power continues to the survivor until a further appointment is made by the Court.

§ 35. Nonresident ward's guardian—Notice

When a minor, otherwise liable to be put under guardianship according to the provisions of this chapter, resides outside the territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation and has estate therein, any friend of such minor or anyone interested in the minor's estate may apply to the Court for the appointment of a guardian. If, after notice is given to all interested in such manner as the Judge orders and a full hearing and examination is held, the Court deems it proper, a guardian for such absent minor may be appointed.

§ 36. Powers of guardian of nonresident ward

Every guardian appointed under the preceding section has the same powers and performs the same duties, with respect to the estate of the ward found within Cherokee Nation, as are prescribed with respect to any other guardian appointed under this chapter.

§ 37. Jurisdiction of first appointment

The guardianship which is first lawfully granted, of any minor residing outside Cherokee Nation, extends to all the estate of the ward within Cherokee Nation, and excludes all other jurisdictions.

§ 38. Payment of just debts

Every guardian appointed under the provisions of this chapter shall pay all just debts due from the ward out of the personal estate and income from the real estate of the ward, if sufficient. If said estate and income is not sufficient, then payment shall be made out of the real estate of the ward, upon obtaining an order from the Court for the sale thereof.

§ 39. Collection and settlement of accounts—Appearance for ward

A guardian must settle all accounts of the ward and demand, sue for, and receive all debts due to the ward. A guardian may, with approval of the Court, compromise or compound for the same and give discharges to the debtors on receiving a fair and just settlement of such claim. A guardian shall appear for and represent the ward in all legal suits and proceedings, unless another person is appointed for that purpose as guardian or next friend. A guardian, with the approval of the court exercising jurisdiction in the suit or proceeding, may compromise and settle any claim made by, on behalf of or against the ward in such suit or proceeding.

§ 40. Estate management—Income applied to maintenance and support of ward—Sale of realty

Every guardian must manage the estate of his ward frugally and without waste, and apply the income and profits thereof, as may be necessary, for the comfortable and suitable maintenance and support of the ward. If such income and profits be insufficient for that purpose, the guardian may sell the real estate, upon obtaining an order of the Court as provided, and must apply the proceeds of such sale, as may be necessary, for the maintenance and support of the ward.

§ 41. Execution of waivers or consents for wards

The duly appointed and acting guardian, limited guardian, conservator, attorney in fact, or any other person legally authorized to act on behalf of any minor may execute waivers or consents for his ward as authorized by the Court. There shall be attached to each waiver or consent a certified copy of the instrument authorizing him to perform such act.

§ 42. Causes for removal of guardians

A guardian may be removed by the Court for any of the following causes:

1. for abuse of his fiduciary responsibility;
2. for continued failure to perform his duties;
3. for incapacity to perform his duties;
4. for gross immorality;
5. for having an interest adverse to the faithful performance of his duties;
6. if the instrument in which the person was nominated as guardian is judicially determined to be invalid;
7. in the case of guardian of the property, for insolvency; or
8. when it is no longer proper that the ward should be under guardianship.

§ 43. Removal or resignation of guardian

A. The authority and responsibility of a guardian terminates upon the death of the guardian, conservator, or the ward, the determination of incapacity of the guardian or conservator, or upon removal or resignation of guardian or conservator. Termination does not affect the liability of a guardian or conservator for prior acts or the obligation to account for any funds and assets of the ward under the control of the guardian or conservator. The authority and responsibility of a guardian also terminates upon the marriage or majority of the ward.

B. The Court, after notice and hearing, may remove a guardian or conservator for cause if the guardian or conservator has failed for thirty (30) days, after he is required to do so, to render an account or make a report and compel him to surrender the estate of the ward to the person found to be lawfully entitled thereto.

C. Every guardian or conservator may resign when it appears proper to allow the same and upon the resignation or removal of a guardian or conservator the Court may appoint a successor guardian or conservator in the place of the guardian or conservator who has resigned or has been removed or make other appropriate orders pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

§ 44. Discharge of unnecessary guardianship

The guardian of a minor may be discharged by the Court when it appears to the Court, on the application of the ward or other interested person, that the guardianship is no longer necessary.

§ 45. Civil liability of guardians or petitioners—Damages—Willful or malicious filing of false petition or application

A. Any guardian who willfully violates the duties or willfully misuses the powers assigned by the Court and thereby causes injury to the ward or damages to the financial resources of the ward shall, in addition to any criminal penalties, be liable in a civil action for any actual damages suffered by the ward. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the authority of the Court to surcharge a guardian as otherwise provided by law.

B. Any person who willfully or maliciously files a false petition or application pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or a petition or application without a reasonable basis in fact for such a petition pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may be liable in a civil suit for any actual damages suffered by the subject of the petition or application.

§ 46. Concealment or embezzlement citation

Upon complaint made to the Court by any guardian, ward, creditor, or other person interested in the ward's estate, against anyone suspected of having concealed or conveyed away any of the money, goods or effects, or an instrument in writing, belonging to the ward or to his estate, the Court may require such suspected person to appear before the Court and may examine and proceed with such person on such charge in the manner provided by law with respect to persons suspected of, and charged with, concealing or embezzling decedent.

HERITAGE AND CULTURE

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 101. Short title and purpose

The purpose of this act is to provide for promotion and preservation of Cherokee language, history and culture. It will be commonly referred to and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Language and Cultural Preservation Act. This act is in recognition that the survival of a people is dependent upon their capacity to preserve and protect their culture and language. This act further promotes the acculturation of tribal youth through education about their history, language and culture and establishes tribal policy for the promotion and preservation of the Cherokee language and culture.

§ 102. Establishment of official languages

Cherokee Nation does hereby officially establish both Cherokee and English as official languages for the tribe. The encouraged use of these languages is as follows:

1. Tribal government. Any tribal citizen may speak in Cherokee or English in communicating with tribal government with regard to any programs or services provided. Any tribal citizen may use either Cherokee or English languages to communicate with the Tribal Council in any officially called meeting of the Council on any occasion on which said person may be recognized to speak.
2. Translation services. In any situation in which translation into English is deemed necessary or appropriate for persons using Cherokee language as defined in subsection (A) of this section, translation services may be provided.

§ 103. Language maintenance

It shall be the policy of Cherokee Nation to take the leadership to maintain and preserve the Cherokee language as a living language. Such efforts shall include but not be limited to:

1. efforts to involve tribal citizens to the greatest extent possible in instruction in Cherokee language;
2. establishment of a permanent Cherokee Language Program as a support unit for all programs and services within Cherokee Nation subject to such funding limitations as may exist from year to year;
3. encouraging the use of Cherokee language in both written and oral form to the fullest extent possible in public and business settings;
4. encouraging creation and expansion of the number, kind and amount of written materials in the Cherokee language and official encouragement for the development of materials on, by or through Cherokee Nation service programs.

§ 104. Education

Cherokee Nation promotes the use of both the Cherokee and English languages to the fullest extent possible within tribal, local, state and federal educational institutions, agencies and programs. It is therefore the policy of the Cherokee Nation:

1. To work with all schools, state and federal agencies and others to encourage that those schools which serve large percentages of Cherokee students adequately and fairly represent the language, history and culture of the tribe in the instructional, administrative and social processes of the school.

2. To the greatest extent possible within budgetary limitations, provide summer, evening, weekend and other tribal programs, for instruction of children and adults who have an interest in cultural education.
3. To provide instruction in Cherokee language at the preschool level in programs operated by Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.
4. To recognize certain tribal elders and talented tribal citizens as knowledgeable in the culture, language, history and related skills of Cherokee Nation. These people may be recognized as "Eminent Persons" who may be employed in positions related to culture, language and history and may be paid for their educational services.
5. To oppose biased, stereotypic and/or derogatory depiction of Cherokees or American Indians within education institutions or wherever such representations which work to lower the self-esteem of Cherokee youth may be found.

§ 105. Employment

Cherokee Nation acknowledges the need to provide bilingual clerical and other staff in programs and positions which call for extensive public contact with tribal citizens. Given the need to assure that the Cherokee language may be used in the workplace for conduct of business between Cherokee-speaking tribal citizens and staff of Cherokee Nation and to promote good role modeling by Cherokee Nation staff, the following policies are adopted:

1. All Cherokee Nation personnel shall become more knowledgeable in Cherokee history, language and culture.
2. Cherokee Nation will provide an educational program for all Cherokee Nation employees in the history, language, and culture of Cherokee Nation to become more knowledgeable in these subjects. This program will provide information which will promote pride and tribal identity and respect for tribal government and Cherokee people.

CHAPTER 2

ART AND FACILITIES

§ 201. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Art and Facilities Act of 2005.

§ 202. Purpose

The purpose of this act is earmark a percentage of construction or renovation cost on all facilities built by the Cherokee Nation (and its wholly-owned/majority owned businesses) to be used for historically and culturally appropriate artwork done by Cherokee Nation citizens.

§ 203. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Cherokee Nation citizen" means a citizen of Cherokee Nation as determined by the Cherokee Nation Registration office.
2. "Cherokee Nation facility" means any building or property owned or under construction by or for the Cherokee Nation, or subject to or under a long-term lease to the Nation in which the nation is investing its own capital for new construction or improvements to existing facilities, or any property owned or under construction by or for any business in which the Cherokee Nation is a sole or majority shareholder, or subject to or under a long-term lease to such business in which the business is investing its own capital for new construction or improvements to existing facilities.
3. "Construction or renovation". This act applies to any new construction or any renovation to an existing facility, the cost of which exceeds Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00).

§ 204. Historically and culturally appropriate artwork in Cherokee Nation facilities and properties

For any construction or renovation to an existing Cherokee Nation facility or property, or any facility or property in which the Cherokee Nation is the sole or majority shareholder, the budget of such project shall set aside one percent (1%) of the total cost of construction or renovation for artwork that is historically and culturally appropriate for the facility and provided that the artwork is designed and created by Cherokee Nation citizens. The facility being built or renovated must be suitable to housing and displaying art. If said facility is found not suitable to housing or displaying art the one percent (1%) of the construction budget referred to in this act shall be set aside for distribution to me an appropriate Cherokee Nation-owned facility capable of housing and displaying art.

Such artwork may include, but is not limited to: sculpture, painting, carving, beadwork, basketry, traditional crafts, culturally appropriate landscaping and any other media of Cherokee art deemed to be cultural, historic, or traditional. Expenditures under this act may include the cost of the appropriate display and installation of said art work.

The Principal Chief shall designate the appropriate office within the Executive Branch whose responsibility will be to make the determination of which artwork is appropriate under this act.

CHAPTER 3

CHAPTER 1

CHEROKEE NATION MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE ACT

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Mortgage Foreclosure Act.

§ 2. Purpose

This act shall be interpreted and construed to fulfill the following purposes:

1. To preserve the peace, harmony, safety, health and general welfare of the people of the Nation and those permitted to enter or reside in Cherokee Nation;
2. To simplify the law governing the rights, obligations, and remedies of the owners, sellers, buyers, lessors, and lessees of buildings;
3. To avail Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Business Entities, and Cherokee citizens of financing for the construction and/or purchase of family residences on trust land within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation by prescribing procedures for the recording, priority and foreclosure of mortgages given to secure loans made by or through any government agency or lending institution;
4. To establish laws and procedures which are necessary in order to obtain governmental funding for Cherokee Nation housing programs or loan guarantees for private or Nation housing construction, purchase, or renovation.

§ 3. Definitions

For the purpose of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms defined in this section shall have the meaning ascribed to them as follows:

1. "Borrower/mortgagor" shall mean the Nation, the Indian Housing Authority, or any individual Indian(s) or any heir(s), successor(s), executor(s), administrator(s), or assign(s) of the Nation or such Indian(s) or non-Indian(s) who has executed a mortgage as defined in this act or a leasehold mortgage as defined in this act.

2. "Default" shall mean the failure by a borrower to make any payment or to perform any other obligation under the terms of a loan, when such failure continues for a period of more than thirty (30) days.

3. "Department" or "HUD" shall mean the U.S. Department of Housing.

4. "Guarantee fund" shall mean the Indian Housing Loan Guarantee Fund established under 12 U.S.C. § 1715z-13a(i).

5. "Housing Authority" shall mean the Cherokee Nation Housing Authority, established pursuant to Oklahoma law for the purpose of constructing and maintaining dwellings for public use within the territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

6. "Indian" or "Native American" shall mean any person recognized as being Indian or Alaska Native by an Indian tribe, the federal government, or any state.

7. "Indian area" shall mean the area within which an Indian housing authority is authorized to provide housing.

8. "Indian country" shall mean property within the territorial jurisdiction of the Nation, all lands owned by or held in trust for the Nation as well as any such ownership or use by an entity of the Nation; and including any and all areas which constitute the Indian country of the Nation under applicable provisions of its laws or the laws of the United States.

9. "Lease assignments" shall mean a transfer or conveyance of a valid existing lease to a third party, who becomes the new lessee. Generally, an assignment must cover the entire leasehold interest, although some leases do provide for the creation of several leases in place of the original lease (so-called spin-off leases) each of which may then be assigned.

10. "Lease or lease contract" shall mean the complete agreement between the parties as it exists at any given time. It is the original lease as it has been modified to date.

11. "Leasehold encumbrance" shall mean a mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien on the leasehold interest given to secure the repayment of a loan obtained by the lessee.

12. "Leasehold interest" shall mean the interest conveyed by the lessor to the lessee under the lease; in other words, the lessee's interest in the land. It consists of the right to the quiet enjoyment of the leased premises for the term of the lease, subject to the requirements of the contract.

13. "Leasehold mortgage" shall mean the mortgage of a lease of property given to secure a loan, and may be created under the auspices of any federal agency home buyer program, the Mutual Help Home Ownership administered by the Indian Housing Authority, or any other agreement entered between a borrower/mortgagor and a lender/mortgagee.

14. "Lender/mortgagee" shall mean any private lending institution established to primarily loan funds and not to invest in or purchase properties, the Nation, an Indian Housing Authority, or a U.S. government agency which loans money, guarantees or insures loans to a borrower for construction, acquisition, or rehabilitation of a home. It is also any lender-designated assignee(s) or successor(s) of such lender/mortgagee.

15. "Lessee" shall mean a tenant of a dwelling unit, user and/or occupier of real property, or the home buyer under any federal mortgage program including the Mutual Help program. The lessee may, for purposes of federal agency home mortgage programs, be the Indian Housing Authority.

16. "Lessor" shall mean the legal, beneficial, or equitable owner of property under a lease. Lessor may also include the heir(s), successor(s), executor(s), administrator(s), or assign(s) of the lessor.

17. "Mortgage" shall mean a first lien as is commonly given to secure advances on, or the unpaid purchase of, real estate under the laws of the jurisdiction where the property is located, and may refer both to a security instrument creating a lien, whether called a mortgage, deed of trust, or security deed, as well as the credit instrument, or note secured thereby.

18. "Mortgage foreclosure proceeding" means a proceeding:

a. To foreclose the interest of the borrower(s)/mortgagor(s), and each person or entity claiming through the borrower(s)/mortgagor(s), in real property, a building, or in the case of a leasehold mortgage, a lease for which a mortgage has been given under the home purchase program of any federal agency; and

b. To assign where appropriate the borrower(s)/mortgagor(s) interest to a designated assignee.

19. "Mortgagor" shall mean all persons who to the knowledge of the mortgagee owe payment or other performance of the obligation secured by the mortgage, and for the purpose of receipt of notice, includes a surety, guarantor or co-signor.

20. "Nation" shall mean Cherokee Nation.

21. "Owner" shall mean any person or entity jointly or individually having legal title to all or part of land or a dwelling, including the legal right to own, manage, use, or control a dwelling unit under a mortgage, long-term lease, or any other security arrangement.

22. "Principal residence" shall mean the dwelling where the mortgagor maintains (or will maintain) his or her permanent place of abode, and typically spends (or will spend) the majority of the calendar year. A person may have only one (1) principal residence at any one time. This term also includes mobile homes which have been affixed to the land.

23. "Recording Clerk" shall mean the Director of the Cherokee Nation Real Estate Service or such other person designated by the Nation to perform the recording functions required by this document or any deputy or designee of such person.

24. "Secretary" shall mean the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

25. "Shall" for the purposes of this act, shall be defined as mandatory or must.

26. "Standard housing" shall mean a dwelling unit or housing that complies with the requirements established by federal law.

27. "Subordinate lienholder" shall mean the holder of any lien, including a subsequent mortgage, perfected subsequent to the recording of a mortgage under this code, except the Nation shall not be considered a subordinate lienholder with respect to any claim regarding a tribal tax on real property.

28. "Title status report" shall mean a report issued after a title examination that shows the proper legal description of a tract of Indian land; current ownership, including any applicable conditions, exceptions, restrictions, or encumbrances of record; and whether the land is in unrestricted, trust, or other status as indicated by the records in a land titles and records office.

29. "Trust land" shall mean land or any interest therein held in trust by the U.S. Government for an individual Indian or tribe.

§ 4. Priority of liens

All mortgages recorded in accordance with the recording procedures set forth in this chapter, including leasehold mortgages, and including loans guaranteed or held by a governmental agency, shall have priority over any lien not perfected at the time of such recording and any subsequent lien or claim excepting a lien or claim arising from a tribal leasehold tax assessed after the recording of the mortgage.

§ 5. Recording

A. The Recording Clerk shall maintain in the Nation's Real Estate Service Office a system for the recording of mortgages and to such other documents as the Nation may designate by law or resolution.

B. The Recording Clerk shall endorse upon any mortgage or other document to be recorded:

1. The date and time of receipt of the mortgage or other document;

2. The filing number, to be assigned by the Recording Clerk, which shall be a unique number for each mortgage or other document received; and

3. The name of the Recording Clerk or designee receiving the mortgage or document.

Upon completion of the above-cited endorsements, the Recording Clerk shall make a true and correct copy of the mortgage or other document and shall certify the copy as follows:

Cherokee Nation.)
) ss.
)

I certify that this is a true and correct copy of a document received for recording this date.

Given under my hand and seal this ____ day of _____.

(SEAL) _____

(Date)

The Recording Clerk shall maintain the copy in the records of the recording system, and shall return the original of the mortgage or other document to the person or entity that presented the same for recording.

C. The Recording Clerk shall also maintain a log of each mortgage or other document recorded, in which there shall be entered:

1. The name(s) of the borrower/mortgagor of each mortgage, identified as such;
2. The name(s) of the lender/mortgagee of each mortgage, identified as such;
3. The name(s) of the grantor(s), grantee(s), or other designation of each party named in any other documents filed or recorded;
4. The date and time of the receipt;
5. The filing number assigned by the Recording Clerk; and
6. The name of the Recording Clerk or designee receiving the mortgage or document.

D. The certified copies of the mortgages and other documents and the log maintained by the Recording Clerk shall be made available for public inspection and copying. Rules for copying shall be established and disseminated by the Nation's Recording Clerk.

§ 6. Foreclosure procedures

A. A borrower/mortgagor shall be considered to be in default when he is thirty (30) days past due on his mortgage payment(s) to the lender/mortgagee.

B. Before a borrower/mortgagor becomes ninety (90) days delinquent on his mortgage payments and before any foreclosure action or activity is initiated, the lender/mortgagee shall complete the following:

1. Make a reasonable effort to arrange a face-to-face interview with the borrower/mortgagor. This shall include at least one (1) trip to meet with the borrower/mortgagor at the mortgaged property;
2. Lender/mortgagee shall document that it has made at least one (1) phone call to the borrower/mortgagor (or the nearest phone as designated by the borrower/mortgagor, able to receive and relay messages to the borrower/mortgagor) for the purpose of trying to arrange a face-to-face interview.

C. Lender/mortgagee may appoint an agent to perform the services or arrange and conduct the face-to-face interview specified in this action.

D. Before the borrower/mortgagor has been delinquent for ninety (90) days and at least ten (10) days before initiating a foreclosure action in Cherokee Nation Court, the lender/mortgagee shall provide the following advice to the borrower/mortgagor in writing by mail or by posting prominently on the unit, with a copy provided to the Nation:

1. advise the borrower/mortgagor that information regarding the loan and default will be given to credit bureaus;
2. advise the borrower/mortgagor of home ownership counseling opportunities/programs available through the lender or otherwise.
3. advise the borrower/mortgagor of other available assistance regarding the mortgage/default.
4. In addition to the preceding notification requirements, the lender/mortgagee shall complete the following additional notice requirements when a leasehold mortgage is involved:
 - a. notify the borrower/mortgager that if the leasehold mortgage remains in default for more than ninety (90) days, the lender/mortgagee may ask the applicable governmental agency to accept assignment of the leasehold mortgage if this is a requirement of the governmental program;
 - b. notify the borrower/mortgagor of the qualifications for forbearance relief from the lender/mortgagee, if any, and that forbearance relief may be available from the government if the mortgage is assigned; and
 - c. provide the borrower/mortgager with names and address of government officials to whom further communications may be addressed, if any.

E. If a borrower/mortgagor has been in default for ninety (90) days or more and the lender/mortgagee has complied with the procedures set forth in the first part of this section, the lender/mortgagee may commence a foreclosure proceeding in the Cherokee Nation District Court by filing a complaint as set forth in § 1–5–4 of this Code.¹

§ 7. Foreclosure complaint and summons

A. The verified complaint in a mortgage foreclosure proceeding shall contain the following:

1. The name of the borrower/mortgagor and each person or entity claiming through the borrower/mortgagor subsequent to the recording of the mortgage, including each subordinate lienholder (except the Nation with respect to a claim for a tribal leasehold), as a defendant;

2. A description of the property subject to the mortgage;

3. A concise statement of the fact concerning the execution of the mortgage or in the case of a leasehold mortgage the lease, the facts concerning the recording of the mortgage or the leasehold mortgage, the facts concerning the alleged default(s) of the borrower/mortgagor, and such other facts as may be necessary to constitute a cause of action;

4. True and correct copies of each promissory note, and if a leasehold mortgage then a copy of the lease, the mortgage, or assignment thereof relating to the property (appended as exhibits); and

5. Any applicable allegations concerning relevant requirements and conditions prescribed in:

a. federal statutes and regulations,

b. Cherokee Nation laws and regulations, and/or

c. provisions of the lease or leasehold mortgage, or security instrument.

B. The complaint shall be filed by the Cherokee Nation District Court Clerk, who shall issue a summons specifying a date and time of appearance for the defendant(s).

§ 8. Service of process and procedures

Service of process shall be performed according to the procedures set forth as follows:

1. Service by personal delivery.

a. At the election of the plaintiff, process shall be served by a Marshal, a person licensed to make service of process in civil cases, or a person specially appointed for that purpose. The Court shall freely make special appointments to serve all process, other than a subpoena under this subdivision.

b. A summons to be served by the Marshal shall be delivered to the Marshal by the Court Clerk or attorney of record by the plaintiff.

c. Service shall be made as follows:

i. upon an individual, other than an infant who is less than fifteen (15) years of age or an incompetent person, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to him/her personally or by leaving copies thereof at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person then residing therein who is fifteen (15) years of age or older or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process;

ii. upon an infant who is less than fifteen (15) years of age, by serving the summons and complaint upon him/her personally and upon either of his parents or his guardian, or if they cannot be found, then upon the person having the care or control of the infant or with whom he lives; and upon an incompetent person by serving the summons and complaint upon him personally and upon his guardian;

iii. upon the Housing Authority by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by law to receive service of process by also mailing a copy to the defendant.

2. Service by mail.

a. At the election of the plaintiff, a summons and complaint may be served by mail by the plaintiff's attorney, any person authorized to serve process pursuant to this statute as previously stated herein. Service by mail shall be effective on the date of receipt or if refused, on the date of refusal of the summons and complaint by the defendant.

b. Service by mail shall be accomplished by mailing a copy of the summons and petition by certified mail, return receipt requested and delivery restricted to the addressee. When there is more than one defendant, the summons and a copy of the petition or order shall be mailed in a separate envelope to each defendant. If the summons is to be served by mail by the Court Clerk, the Court Clerk shall enclose the summons and a copy of the petition or order of the Court to be served in an envelope, prepared by the plaintiff, addressed to the defendant, or to the resident service agent if one has been appointed. The Court Clerk shall prepay the postage and mail the envelope to the defendant, or service agent, by certified mail, return receipt requested and delivery restricted to the addressee. Such return receipt shall be prepared by the plaintiff.

c. Service by mail shall not be the basis for the entry of a default or a judgment by default unless the record contains a return receipt showing acceptance by the defendant or a returned envelope showing refusal of the process by the defendant. Acceptance or refusal of service by mail by a person who is fifteen (15) years of age or older who resides at the defendant's dwelling house or usual place of abode shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed. In the case of an entity described in division (3) of subparagraph (c) of paragraph (1)¹ of this subsection, acceptance or refusal by any officer or by any employee of the registered office or principal place of business who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed. A return receipt signed at such registered office or principal place of business shall be presumed to have been signed by an employee authorized to receive certified mail. In the case of a state municipal corporation, or other governmental organization thereof subject to suit, acceptance or refusal by an employee of the office of the officials specified in division (5) of subparagraph (c) of paragraph (1)¹ of this subsection who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed. If delivery of the process is refused, upon the receipt of notice of such refusal and at least ten (10) days before applying for entry of default, the person elected by plaintiff pursuant to subparagraph a of this paragraph to serve the process shall mail to the defendant by first-class mail a copy of the summons and petition and a notice prepared by the plaintiff that despite such refusal the case will proceed and that judgment by default will be rendered against him unless he appears to defend the suit. Any such default or judgment by default shall be set aside upon motion of the defendant if the defendant demonstrates to the court that the return receipt was signed or delivery was refused by an unauthorized person. Such motion shall be filed within one (1) year after the defendant has notice of the default or judgment by default but in no event more than two (2) years after the judgment.

3. Service by publication.

a. Service of summons upon a named defendant may be made by publication when it is stated in the petition, verified by the plaintiff or his attorney, or in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or his attorney filed with the Court, that with due diligence service cannot be made upon the defendant by any other method.

b. Service of summons upon the unknown successors of a named defendant, a named decedent, or a dissolved partnership, corporation, or other association may be made by publication when it is stated in a petition, verified by the plaintiff or his attorney, or in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or his attorney filed with the Court, that the person who verified the petition or the affiant does not know and with due diligence cannot ascertain the following:

i. whether a person named as defendant is living or dead, and, if dead, the names or whereabouts of his successors, if any,

ii. the names or whereabouts of the unknown successors, if any, of a named decedent,

iii. whether a partnership, corporation, or other association named as a defendant continues to have legal existence or not, or the names or whereabouts of its officers or successors,

iv. whether any person designated in a record as a trustee continues to be the trustee, or the names or whereabouts of the successors of the trustee, or

v. the names or whereabouts of the owners or holders of special assessment or improvement bonds, or any other bonds, sewer warrants or tax bills.

c. Service pursuant to this subdivision shall be made by publication of a notice, signed by the Court Clerk, one (1) day a week for three (3) consecutive weeks in a newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices which is published in the county where the petition is filed. If no newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices is published in such county, the notice shall be published in some such newspaper of general circulation which is published in an adjoining county. All named parties and their unknown successors who may be served by publication may be included in one (1) notice. The notice shall state the court in which the petition is filed and the names of the plaintiff and the parties served by publication, and shall designate the parties whose unknown successors are being served. The notice shall also state that the named defendants and their unknown successors have been sued and must answer the petition on or before a time to be stated (which shall not be less than forty-one (41) days from the date of the first publication), or judgment, the nature of which shall be stated, will be rendered accordingly. If jurisdiction of the Court is based on property, any real property subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and any property or debts to be attached or garnished must be described in the notice.

§ 9. Cure of default by subordinate lienholder

Prior to the entry of a judgment of foreclosure, any borrower/mortgagor or a subordinate lienholder may cure the default(s) under the mortgage by making a full payment of the delinquency to the lender/mortgagee and all reasonable legal and court costs incurred in foreclosing on the property. Any subordinate lienholder who has cured a default shall thereafter have included in its lien the amount of all payments made by such subordinate lienholder to cure the default(s), plus interest on such amounts at the rate stated in the note for the mortgage. There shall be no right of redemption in any leasehold mortgage foreclosure proceeding.

§ 10. Judgment and remedy

This matter shall be heard and decided by the Cherokee Nation District Court in a prompt and reasonable time period not to exceed sixty (60) days from the date of service of the complaint on the borrower/mortgagor. If the alleged default has not been cured at the time of trial and the District Court finds for the lender/mortgagee, the District Court shall enter judgment, which shall:

1. Foreclose the interest of the borrower/mortgagor and each other defendant, including subordinate lienholder, in the mortgage; and
2. Assign the mortgage to the lender/mortgagee or the lender's designated assignee; in the case of a leasehold mortgage, the lease will be assigned to the lender/mortgagee or the lender's designated assignee, subject to the following provisions:
 - a. The lender shall give the Nation the right of first refusal on any acceptable offer to purchase the lease or leasehold mortgage which is subsequently obtained by the lender or lender's designated assignee;

b. The lender or lender's designated assignee may only transfer, sell or assign the lease and/or leasehold mortgage to a Cherokee citizen, the Nation, or the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation.

3. Any other transfer, sale or assignment of the lease or leasehold mortgage and fee simple property secured by a mortgage that is duly recorded shall only be made to a Cherokee citizen, the Nation, or the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation during the remaining period of the leasehold.

§ 11. Foreclosure evictions

Foreclosure evictions shall be handled according to the general eviction process set forth in Chapter 3 of this Code¹, with the added provision that foreclosure eviction proceedings shall not occur until after the borrower/mortgagor, lessee, occupier has received thirty (30) calendar days' notice, and remains in possession of the property contrary to the terms of the notice. All foreclosure evictions shall occur no later than sixty (60) days from the date of service of notice upon the borrower/mortgagor that foreclosure was completed.

§ 12. No merger of estates

There shall be no merger of estates by reason of the execution of a lease or a leasehold mortgage or the assignment or assumption of the same, including an assignment adjudged by the Cherokee Nation District Court, or by operation of law, except as such merger may arise upon satisfaction of the leasehold mortgage.

§ 13. Certified mailing to Nation and lessor

In any foreclosure proceedings on a lease or leasehold mortgage where the Nation or the lessor(s) is not named as a defendant, a copy of the summons and complaint shall be mailed to the Nation and to the lessor(s) by certified mail, return receipt requested, within five (5) days after the issuance of the summons. If the location of the lessor(s) cannot be ascertained after reasonable inquiry, a copy of the summons and complaint shall be mailed to the lessor(s) in care of the Self-Governance Specialist of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

§ 14. Intervention

The Nation or any lessor may petition the Cherokee Nation District Court to intervene in any lease or leasehold mortgage foreclosure proceeding under this Code. Neither the filing of a petition for intervention by the Nation, nor the granting of such a petition by the Cherokee Nation District Court shall operate as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Nation, except as may be expressly authorized by the Nation.

§ 15. Appeals

Appeals under this chapter shall be to the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court and shall be handled in accordance with the Rules of the Supreme Court.

CHAPTER 2

HOUSING AUTHORITY ADVISORY BOARD

§ 21. Advisory board of directors

A. There shall be an advisory board of directors to the Cherokee Nation Housing Authority. This advisory board shall consist of five (5) members of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council. The Tribal Council shall appoint these members in accordance with their rules and procedures. The advisory board shall have full access to all information and meetings of the Board of Directors and have all privileges of the Board of Directors except voting privileges.

B. A regular agenda item will be included in the monthly Community Services Committee meeting so that the members of the Council who serve on the Cherokee Nation Housing Authority Advisory Board can provide the full Council Committee with a monthly report in addition to the Cherokee Nation Housing Authority Director.

REFERENDUM AND INITIATIVE PROCEDURES

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Referendum and Initiative Procedures Act.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to set standards and procedures for referendum and initiative measures.

§ 3. Form of referendum petition

The referendum petition shall appear in conformance with the following form:

PETITION FOR REFERENDUM

To Cherokee Nation:

We, the undersigned legal voters of Cherokee Nation respectfully order that Cherokee Nation Legislative Act No. _____, entitled _____ (title of Act, and if the petition is against less than the whole Act, then set forth here the part or parts on which the referendum is sought), passed by the Cherokee Tribal Council, at the regular session of said Council on _____ (date), be referred to the people of the Cherokee Nation for their approval or rejection at the regular (or special) election. I have personally signed this petition; I am a legal voter of the Cherokee Nation (and district of _____); my physical residence and voter identification number are correctly written after my name.

The question we herewith submit to our fellow voters is: Shall the following legislation of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council be approved? (Insert here an exact copy of the title and text of the legislation.)

Name and Address of Proponents (not to exceed three)

Name _____ Physical Residence _____ P.O. Box _____ ID # _____.

Referendum petitions shall be filed with the Secretary of State of Cherokee Nation not more than ninety (90) days after the session of the Council which passed the legislation on which the referendum is demanded.

§ 4. Form of initiative petition

The form of initiative petition shall be substantially as follows:

INITIATIVE PETITION

To Cherokee Nation:

We, the undersigned legal voters of Cherokee Nation, respectfully order that the following proposed law be submitted to the legal voters of the Cherokee Nation for their approval or rejection at the regular general election and each for himself says: I have personally signed this petition; I am a legal voter of the Cherokee Nation; my physical residence, post office address, and voter identification number are correctly written after my name. The time for filing this petition expires ninety (90) days after original filing. The question we herewith submit to our fellow voters is: Shall the following legislative act or proposed amendment to the Constitution or resolution be approved?

Name and Address of Proponents (not to exceed three)

Name _____ Physical Residence _____ P.O. Box _____ ID# _____

§ 5. Canvass procedure

Whenever any measure or proposition is submitted to a vote by the initiative or referendum, it shall be the duty of the Cherokee Nation Election Commission to make and transmit the returns thereof to the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council in the same manner that they make their returns in the case of an election of other Cherokee Nation officers, transmitting a certificate of the total number of electors voting in such elections to the Tribal Council.

§ 6. Who may sign petition and vote—Penalties

Every person who is a qualified elector of Cherokee Nation may sign a petition for the referendum or for the initiative for any measure upon which he or she is legally entitled to vote. Any person signing any name other than his or her own to any petition, or knowingly signing his or her name more than once for the same measure at one election, or who is not at the time of signing the same a legal voter, or whoever falsely makes or willfully destroys a petition or any part thereof, or who signs or files any certificate or petition knowing the same or any part thereof to be falsely made, or suppresses any certificate or petition or any part thereof which has been duly filed or who shall violate any provision of this statute, or who shall aid or abet any other person in doing any of said acts; and any person violating any provision of this chapter, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a crime and shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and such other civil penalty in the discretion of the Cherokee Nation Court before which such conviction shall be had.

§ 7. Time for submission of initiated and referred measures

Whenever any measure shall be initiated by the people in the manner provided by law, or whenever the referendum shall be demanded against any measure passed by the Tribal Council, same shall be submitted to the people for their approval or rejection at the next regular or special election as provided at Article XV, Section 4 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

§ 8. Distribution of information regarding process

The Election Commission shall prepare and distribute information to the public on the initiative and referendum process. The information shall include, but not be limited to relevant statutes and constitutional provisions related to the initiative and referendum process. The information should also outline the initiative and referendum process in a chronological order.

§ 9. Petitions and signatures

Each initiative petition and each referendum petition shall be duplicated for the securing of signatures, and each sheet for signatures shall be attached to a copy of the petition. Each copy of the petition and sheets for signatures is hereinafter termed a pamphlet. On the outer page of each pamphlet shall be printed the word "Warning", and underneath this in ten- (10) point type the words in bold letters:

"It is a crime for anyone to sign an initiative or referendum petition with any name other than his own, or knowingly to sign his name more than once for the measure, or to sign such petition when he is not a legal voter or to provide false information".

A clear and concise statement of the proposition shall be printed on the top margin of each signature sheet. Not more than twenty (20) signatures on one (1) sheet, on lines provided for the signatures shall be counted. Any signature sheet not in substantial compliance with this act shall be disqualified.

§ 10. Filing and binding

When any such initiative or referendum petition shall be offered for filing, the Election Commission, in the presence of the person offering the same for filing, shall detach the sheets containing the signatures and affidavits and cause them all to be attached to one or more printed copies of the measure so proposed by initiative or referendum petition. All petitions for the initiative and referendum and sheets for signatures shall be printed on pages eight and one-half inches (8 1/2") in width by fourteen inches (14") in length, with a margin of one and three-fourths inches (1 3/4") at the top for binding; if the aforesaid sheets shall be too bulky for convenient binding in one (1) volume, they may be bound in two or more volumes, those in each volume to be attached to a single printed copy of such measure; the detached copies of such measures shall be delivered to the person offering the same for filing. Each of the volumes and each signature sheet therein shall be numbered consecutively, and a cover sheet shall be attached, showing the purported number of signature sheets, the series of numbers assigned to the signature sheets and the total number of signatures counted per volume. The Commission shall render a signed receipt to the person offering the petition for filing, which receipt shall include a report, volume by volume, showing the number of signature sheets in each volume, the series of numbers assigned to the signature sheets in each volume, and the number of purported signatures in each volume. Duplicate copies of the cover sheets, with necessary corrections, may be used as receipts. The Commission shall not provide any copies of signature sheets to anyone until the sheets have been bound as provided in this section.

§ 11. Approval and preservation

If the people shall at the ensuing election, approve any measure, then the copies so preserved, with the sheets of signatures and affidavits, and a certified copy of the Chief's proclamation declaring the same to have been approved by the people, shall be bound together in such form that they may be conveniently identified. The Secretary of State of Cherokee Nation shall preserve the material required to be bound together for three (3) years after the measure was filed.

§ 12. Verification of signatures

Each sheet of every such petition containing signatures shall be verified on the back thereof, in substantially the following form, by the person who circulated said sheet of said petition, by his or her affidavit thereon and as a part thereof, as follows:

Cherokee Nation)
) ss.
)

I, _____, being first duly sworn, say: That I am a qualified elector of Cherokee Nation and that (Here shall be legibly written or typewritten the names of the signers of the sheet), signed this sheet of the foregoing petition, and each of them signed his name thereto in my presence; I believe that each has stated his name, post office address, physical residence, and identification number correctly, and that each signer is a legal voter of Cherokee Nation and District No. _____ (as the case may be).

(Signature and address of affiant.)

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____ A.D. 20 _____.

(Signature and title of the officer before whom oath is made, and his address.)

§ 13. Physical count of signatures

The Election Commission shall make or cause to be made a physical count of the number of signatures on the petitions. In making such count, the Commission shall not include in such physical count:

1. All signatures on any sheet of any petition, which is not verified by the person who circulated the sheet of the petition as provided hereinabove;
2. All signatures of persons who do not list an address or Cherokee Nation Registry Number;
3. All signatures on a sheet that is not attached to a copy of the petition;
4. All multiple signatures on any printed signature line;
5. All signatures not on a printed signature line;
6. Those signatures by a person who signs with any name other than his own or signs more than once; and

7. All signatures on any sheet on which a notary has failed to sign, the seal of the notary is absent, the commission of the notary has expired or the expiration date is not on the signature sheet.

The Election Commission shall notify the Cherokee Nation Attorney General of any and all violations of this act of which it has knowledge.

§ 14. Numbering petitions

Each order for a direct ballot by the voters that is filed by initiative petition, referendum petition, and by the Tribal Council shall be numbered consecutively, each in a series by itself, beginning with one (1), to be continued year after year, without duplication of numbers.

§ 15. Filing copy of proposed petition

When a citizen or citizens desire to circulate a petition initiating a proposition of any nature, whether to become a law or an amendment to the Constitution, or for the purpose of invoking a referendum upon legislative enactments, such citizen or citizens shall, when such petition is prepared, and before the same is circulated or signed by electors, file a true and exact copy of same in the office of the Election Commission and, within ninety (90) days after such filing of an initiative petition, the signed copies thereof shall be filed with the Election Commission, but the signed copies of a referendum petition shall be filed with the Secretary of State within ninety (90) days after the adjournment of the Tribal Council enacting the measure on which the referendum is invoked. The electors shall sign their legally registered name, their address or post office box, and Cherokee Nation Registry identification number. Any petition not filed in accordance with this provision shall not be considered. The proponents of a referendum or an initiative petition, any time before the final submission of signatures, may withdraw the referendum or initiative petition upon written notification to the Election Commission.

The proponents of a referendum or an initiative petition may terminate the circulation period any time during the ninety- (90) day circulation period by certifying to the Election Commission that:

1. All signed petitions have already been filed;
2. No more petitions are in circulation; and
3. The proponents will not circulate any more petitions.

If the Election Commission receives such a certification from the proponents, the Commission shall begin the counting process.

When the signed copies of a petition are timely filed, the Election Commission shall certify to the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation:

1. The total number of signatures counted pursuant to procedures set forth in this Title; and

2. The total number of votes cast for the office receiving the highest number of votes cast at the last general election.

The Supreme Court shall make the determination of the numerical sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures counted by the Election Commission, all in accordance with Article XV, Section 3 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

§ 16. Effect of filing petition

Filing of a petition for referendum or initiative shall not operate to stay the legislative measure on which the initiative or referendum is invoked.

§ 17. Protest

Upon order of the Supreme Court it shall be the duty of the Election Commission to forthwith cause to be published, in at least one (1) newspaper of general circulation in the state, a notice of such filing and the apparent sufficiency or insufficiency thereof and notice that any citizen or citizens of Cherokee Nation may file a protest to the petition or an objection to the count made by a written notice to the Supreme Court and to the proponent or proponents filing the petition, said protest to be filed within ten (10) days after publication. A copy of the protest or objection to the count shall be filed with the Election Commission. In case of the filing of an objection to the count, notice shall also be given to the Election Commission and the party filing a protest, if one was filed.

The Election Commission shall deliver the bound volumes of signatures to the Supreme Court.

Upon the filing of an objection to the count, the Supreme Court shall resolve the objection with dispatch. The Supreme Court shall adopt rules to govern proceedings to apply to the challenge of a measure on the grounds that the proponents failed to gather sufficient signatures.

Upon the filing of a protest to the petition, the Supreme Court shall then fix a day, not less than ten (10) days thereafter, at which time it will hear testimony and arguments for and against the sufficiency of such petition.

A protest filed by anyone hereunder may, if abandoned by the party filing same, be revived within five (5) days by any other citizen. After such hearing the Supreme Court shall decide whether such petition be in form as required by this act. If the Court be at the time adjourned, the Chief Justice shall immediately convene the same for such hearing. No objection to the sufficiency shall be considered unless the same shall have been made and filed as herein provided.

If in the opinion of the Supreme Court, any objection to the count or protest to the petition is frivolous, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions, including an award of costs and attorney fees to either party as the Court deems equitable.

§ 18. Publication of measures

It shall be the duty of Cherokee Nation at which any proposed law, part of an act, or amendment to the Constitution is to be submitted to the people of Cherokee Nation for their approval or rejection, to cause to be published once in two (2) different newspapers of general statewide circulation and in a newspaper of general circulation in each county of the Cherokee Nation, a copy of all ballots on initiated and referred questions, measures, and constitutional amendments, and an explanation of how to vote for or against propositions. The Secretary shall designate the newspapers in which the publication shall be made. The publication shall be paid for at the legal rate for other publications, out of any funds of Cherokee Nation appropriated therefor.

§ 19. Filing—Official ballots—Review

When a referendum is ordered by petition of the people against any measure passed by the Tribal Council or when any measure is proposed by initiative petition, whether as an amendment to the Constitution or as a statute, it shall be the duty of the parties submitting the measure to prepare and file one (1) copy of the measure with the Election Commission and one (1) copy with the Attorney General's Office.

The parties submitting the measure shall also submit a suggested ballot title, which shall be filed on a separate sheet of paper and shall not be deemed part of the petition. The suggested ballot title:

1. Shall not exceed two hundred (200) words;
2. Shall explain in basic words, which can be easily found in dictionaries of general usage, the effect of the proposition;
3. Shall be written on the eighth-grade reading comprehension level;
4. Shall not contain any words that have a special meaning for a particular profession or trade not commonly known to the citizens of Cherokee Nation;
5. Shall not reflect partiality in its composition or contain any argument for or against the measure;
6. Shall contain language which clearly states that a "yes" vote is a vote in favor of the proposition and a "no" vote is a vote against the proposition; and
7. Shall not contain language whereby a "yes" vote is, in fact, a vote against the proposition and a "no" vote is, in fact, a vote in favor of the proposition.

When a measure is proposed as a constitutional amendment by the Tribal Council or when the Tribal Council proposes a statute conditioned upon approval by the people:

1. After final passage of a measure, the Election Commission shall submit the proposed ballot title to the Cherokee Nation Attorney General for review as to legal correctness. Within five (5) business days, the Attorney General shall, in writing, notify the Election Commission and the Tribal Council Members whether or not the proposed ballot title complies with applicable laws. The Attorney General shall state with specificity any and all defects found and, if necessary, within ten (10) business days of determining that the proposed ballot title is defective, prepare and file a ballot title which complies with the law;

2. After receipt of the measure and the official ballot title, as certified by the Attorney General, the Election Commission shall within five (5) days transmit to the Tribal Council an attested copy of the measure, including the official ballot title.

The following procedure shall apply to ballot titles of referenda ordered by a petition of the people or any measure proposed by an initiative petition:

1. After the filing and binding of the petition pamphlets, the Election Commission shall submit the proposed ballot title to the Attorney General for review as to legal correctness. Within five (5) business days after the filing of the measure and ballot title, the Attorney General shall, in writing, notify the Election Commission whether or not the proposed ballot title complies with applicable laws. The Attorney General shall state with specificity any and all defects found and, if necessary, within ten (10) business days of determining that the proposed ballot title is defective, prepare and file a ballot title which complies with the law; and

2. Within ten (10) business days after completion of the review by the Attorney General, the Election Commission shall, if no appeal is filed, transmit to the Tribal Council an attested copy of the measure, including the official ballot title, and a certification that the requirements of this section have been met. If an appeal is taken from such ballot title within the time specified in this title, then the Election Commission shall certify the ballot title, which is finally approved by the Supreme Court.

TITLE 37

INTOXICATING LIQUORS

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Limited Mixed Beverage Sales Act.

§ 2. Definitions

As used in this act, the following words shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "Alcohol" means the substance known as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, ethanol, or spirits of wine, from whatever source or by whatever process produced.
2. "Alcoholic beverage" is synonymous with the term "liquor" as defined in this chapter.
3. "Board of Directors" means the Board of Directors of Cherokee Nation Enterprises, L.L.C.
4. "CNE" means Cherokee Nation Enterprises, L.L.C.
5. "Liquor" includes mixed beverages and all fermented, spirituous, vinous, or malt liquor or combinations thereof, and mixed liquor, a part of which is fermented, and every liquid or solid or semisolid or other substance, patented or not, containing distilled or rectified spirits, potable alcohol, beer, wine, brandy, whiskey, rum, gin, aromatic bitters, and all drinks or drinkable liquids and all preparations or mixtures capable of human consumption and any liquid, semisolid, solid, or other substance, which contains more than one half of one percent (0.5%) of alcohol.
6. "Sale" or "sell" includes exchange, barter and traffic; and also includes the selling or supplying or distribution, by any means whatsoever, of liquor.
7. "Tax Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.
7. "Trust land" means those lands that are held in trust by the United States for Cherokee Nation and not for any individual Indian.

§ 3. Powers of enforcement

The Tax Commission. In furtherance of this act, the Tax Commission shall have the power to:

1. issue licenses pursuant to 37 CNCA § 4;
2. collect the excise tax specified in 37 CNCA § 5;

3. publish and enforce rules and regulations adopted by the Tax Commission governing the sale, consumption and possession of alcoholic beverages;
4. establish procedures for conducting hearings related to licensing; and
5. take all necessary steps to enforce 37 CNCA §§ 4 and 5, including the collection of fees, taxes and damages related thereto.

§ 4. Sales of liquor

A. License required. Sales of liquor and alcoholic beverages may only be made by CNE, or other persons approved by CNE, under a license issued by the Tax Commission.

B. Identification. When requested by the provider of liquor, any person asking to purchase liquor or being served in a group shall be required to present official documentation bearing the holder's age, signature and photograph before being served. Official documentation includes one (1) of the following:

1. Driver's license or identification card issued by any state department of motor vehicles or foreign nation;
2. United States Military identification;
3. Official passport issued by any nation and accepted by the United States Department of State for entry into the United States.

§ 5. Taxes

Excise Tax. In lieu of any otherwise applicable tribal sales tax on the retail sale of liquor or alcoholic beverages, there shall be an excise tax in the amount of two percent (2%) of the retail sales price, to be collected by the Tax Commission. These revenues shall be used to promote mental health and related issues associated with substance abuse and shall be reserved for expenditure as provided for in the annual budget by the Cherokee Nation Health Service. The Board of Directors shall be entitled to make recommendation as to how these revenues are expended.

§ 6. Rules, regulations, and enforcement

A. Sales without license. Any person who shall sell or offer for sale, distribute or transport, in any manner, liquor in violation of this act, or who shall operate or shall have liquor for sale in his possession without a license, shall be guilty of a violation of this act subjecting him or her to prosecution for a crime.

B. Sale for personal consumption. All sales shall be for the personal consumption of the purchaser or persons in a group. Resale of any alcoholic beverage is prohibited. Any person not licensed pursuant to this act who purchases an alcoholic beverage and sells it, whether in the original container or not, shall be guilty of a crime.

C. Illegal purchases. Any person who buys liquor from any person other than a properly licensed facility shall be guilty of a violation of this act, subjecting him or her to prosecution for a crime.

D. Minors. No person under the age of twenty-one (21) years shall consume, acquire or have in his possession any liquor or alcoholic beverage. No person shall permit any other person under the age of twenty-one (21) to consume liquor on his premises or any premises under his control except in those situations set out in this section. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a violation of this act, subjecting him or her to prosecution for a crime.

E. Sales to minors. Any person who shall sell or provide any liquor to any person under the age of twenty-one (21) years shall be guilty of a crime.

F. Sales to intoxicated persons. Any person who shall sell or provide any alcoholic beverage to an individual who is intoxicated, or appears intoxicated, shall be guilty of a crime.

G. False identification. Any person who transfers in any manner an identification of age to a person under the age of twenty-one (21) years for the purpose of permitting such person to obtain liquor or any alcoholic beverage shall be in violation of this act, subjecting him or her to prosecution for a crime.

H. Using false identification. Any person who attempts to purchase liquor or any alcoholic beverage through the use of false or altered identification which falsely purports to show the individual to be over the age of twenty-one (21) years shall be guilty of violating this act, subjecting him or her to prosecution for a crime.

I. Punishment. Any person found guilty of a crime under this section may be punished by imprisonment for up to one (1) year and/or fined up to Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each violation.

J. Contraband liquor. Any liquor, possessed contrary to the terms of this act, whether for personal consumption, hospitality, sale, or otherwise, is declared to be contraband. Any tribal law enforcement officer who is authorized to enforce this section shall seize all contraband and preserve it in accordance with the provisions established for the preservation of impounded property.

K. Forfeiture. Upon being found in violation of this act, the party shall forfeit all right, title and interest in the items seized which shall become the property of Cherokee Nation.

TITLE 38

JURORS

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Limitations on who may serve on jury

No person who is related to either of the parties to any suit, either by consanguinity or affinity, nor any person who is interested in the termination of a suit, or who has previously served as juror in the trial of that case, shall serve as juror in that suit. No person under the age of eighteen (18) years, nor any person who has been convicted of any felony, nor who may be under punishment for misdemeanor, shall be summoned to serve on a jury in any case. And, no member of the legislative or executive departments, or any commissioned officer of this Nation shall be compelled to serve on any jury.

§ 2. Inability of jury to reach verdict

If the jury shall disagree in any criminal case, the Presiding Judge shall require them to make known to him the cause of such disagreement, and if such disagreement, in whole or in part, shall be as to the meaning or the application of the law to the facts found by them, the Court shall instruct them thereon, in which case, the jury shall return to their deliberations, and continue the same until they agree, or the Judge is satisfied they cannot agree.

X. "Tribal citizen" or "citizen" shall mean any person who is a duly enrolled citizen of Cherokee Nation, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

Y. "TERO" shall mean the Tribal Employment Rights Office.

Z. "TERO staff" shall mean employees assigned to the TERO by the Executive Branch of Cherokee Nation.

§ 104. Time computation

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Title, the day of the act, default, or event from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined by Cherokee Nation or any other day when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m., in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined by Cherokee Nation, or any other day, when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than eleven (11) days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays as defined by Cherokee Nation or any other day when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m., shall be excluded in the computation.

§ 105. Notification of prospective and current employers of obligations and rules, regulations and orders

A. The TERO shall notify all employers of this title and of the employer's obligation to comply herewith. All bid announcements issued by any tribal, federal, state, or other private or public entity shall contain a statement that the successful bidder will be obligated to comply with this title and all rules, regulations and orders of the TERO.

B. All Cherokee Nation agencies responsible for issuing business permits for activities within Cherokee Nation or otherwise engaged in activities involving contact with prospective employers within Cherokee Nation shall be responsible for advising such prospective employers of their obligations under this title and rules, regulations and orders of the TERO.

C. The TERO shall send a copy of this Title to every employer doing business with Cherokee Nation.

§ 106. Filing of reports, etc.—Inspections and investigations—Inspection and copying of records

- A. Employers shall submit reports and other information requested by the TERO.
- B. The TERO and its representatives shall have the right to make on-site inspections during regular working hours in order to monitor any employer's compliance with this Title and the rules, regulations, and orders of the TERO.
- C. The TERO shall have the right to inspect and copy all relevant records of any employer, or any signatory union or subcontractor, and shall have a right to speak to workers and conduct investigations on job sites.

CHAPTER 2

TRIBAL EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS OFFICE (TERO)

§ 201. Tribal Employment Rights Office—Establishment, authority and duties

There is hereby recognized the Tribal Employment Rights Office (hereinafter referred to as the "TERO"). The TERO shall administer the Employment Rights Program of Cherokee Nation in accordance with this title.

The TERO shall have the authority:

1. To operate consistent with the provisions of this title and to develop rules and regulations governing activities of TERO. The TERO may adopt EEOC guidelines or may adopt other requirements to eliminate employment barriers unique to Indians in Indian Country;
2. To obtain funding from federal, state and other sources to supplement Council appropriations as delegated by the Administration;
3. To negotiate cooperative agreements with federal, state, local, and other authorities on matters dealing with employment rights and TERO activities and to operate pursuant to finalized cooperative agreements and/or memoranda of understanding or agreement;
4. To use the information, facilities, personnel, and other resources of federal, state, and local agencies, as well as any and all Cherokee Nation departments;
5. To establish numerical hiring goals and timetables specifying the minimum number of Indians an employer must hire by craft or skill level;
6. To require employers to establish or participate in job training programs as the TERO deems necessary to increase the pool of Indians eligible for employment;

7. To establish and administer a tribal job bank and require employers to use it;
8. To prohibit employers from using job-qualification criteria or personnel requirements that may bar Indians from employment unless such criteria or requirements are required by business necessity;
9. To engage in the process of certifying businesses as "Indian-owned economic enterprises" and to determine whether businesses may be given Indian preference;
10. To direct inspections of regulated sites and determine compliance with rules, regulations, and/or contract requirements;
11. To negotiate agreements with unions to insure union compliance with this title;
12. To require employers to give preference to Indian-owned economic enterprises in the award of contracts and subcontracts;
13. To establish counseling programs to assist Indians in obtaining and retaining employment;
14. To require employers to submit reports and take all actions deemed necessary by the TERO for the fair and vigorous implementation of this act;
15. To enter into cooperative agreements with employment rights agencies such as EEOC, HRC, and OFCCP to eliminate adverse discrimination against Indians;
16. To take such actions as are necessary to achieve the purposes and objectives of the Cherokee Nation Employment Rights Program established in this Title;
17. To publish a listing of certified "Indian-owned economic enterprises;"
18. To review and propose changes to this Title and related regulations as necessary;
19. To hold hearings in accordance with this chapter;
20. To register and keep a file of complaints concerning certified Indian-owned economic enterprises and with individuals and companies doing business with Cherokee Nation;
21. To assess an employment rights fee of one-half of one percent (0.5%) on all covered contracts;
22. To issue and assess fees for work permits which must be obtained for all non-Indian employees of a covered employer:
 - a. Any employer, as defined in this act, shall be required to pay a fee of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per employee per day for non-Indian employees hired for the project;

- b. Each such employer shall be required to submit a core crew list to the TERO;
- c. Once the core crew list is submitted the TERO will confirm the essential employees the vendor has listed;
- d. If the TERO has identified Indians that can be used for non-Indian employees it shall require the employer to place the qualified Indians;
- e. The TERO is also authorized to administer other fees and penalties as provided in this act.

§ 202. Adoption of rules, regulations, policies and guidelines

The TERO and its staff shall, with all reasonable speed, adopt detailed rules, regulations, policies and guidelines to fully implement this title and the purposes and responsibilities of the TERO.

§ 203. Funds

All funds from employer fees and other sources collected by the TERO shall be tribal funds and be allocated to job training programs developed by the TERO staff and approved by the Council.

CHAPTER 3

PREFERENCE IN EMPLOYMENT

§ 301. Indian preference requirements generally

A. All employers are required to give preference to Indians in hiring, promotion, training, and all other aspects of employment, contracting, or sub-contracting, and must comply with this Title and the rules, regulations and orders of the TERO.

1. Cherokee Nation Government is an "employer" for the purposes of this Title and any of its business entities shall be an "employer" for the purpose of this Title.

2. If potential contractors are otherwise equally qualified to complete the relevant contract work and respective bids are otherwise equal, Cherokee Nation, its entities and wholly-owned corporations shall apply a preference for Indian-owned economic enterprises in procurement and contracting. Exceptions to this requirement shall be permitted when no Indian-owned economic enterprise is readily available; when other governmental entity contracts (including, but not limited to, VA or GSA contracts) are available; when more favorable pricing may be obtained; when the order meets the requirements of the Sole Source Request as defined in Acquisition Policy and Procedure; or in an emergency situation as determined by the Principal Chief.

a. Primary preference shall be given to certified "Indian-owned businesses" where the majority owner(s) are Cherokee citizens:

b. Second preference to other certified "Indian-owned businesses" and,

c. A business may be certified as both an "Indian-owned" and "major Cherokee employer" business. In this case, such dually-certified business would receive preference over other Indian-owned businesses within categories a and b above.

d. Preference shall be given in the following order:

i. first preference shall be given to Cherokee-owned business that are major Cherokee employers;

ii. second preference shall go to Cherokee-owned businesses;

iii. third preference shall go to businesses that are certified as Indian-owned and that are major Cherokee employers;

iv. final preference shall go to those businesses that are certified as Indian-owned.

3. Following the preferences in paragraph 2 above, the procurement offices of the Nation shall develop policies to administer to "Locally-owned businesses" as defined herein. In no instance shall this preference degrade or supersede Indian preference.

4. Any contract awarded to a general contractor may be subcontracted, provided that the Indian preference requirements herein apply, regardless of the level of subcontracting activity. Failure to apply Indian preference to subcontracts shall be deemed by TERO a violation of this act.

5. Cherokee Nation Administration may create procurement and contracting policies and procedures for application of said preference. Cherokee Nation procurement and/or contracting offices may maintain a list of entities which have previously provided poor performance or engaged in behavior in non-compliance with contract provisions, rules, regulations, or laws.

6. Nothing shall require Cherokee Nation to contract with or hire any Indian-owned economic enterprises which have previously provided poor performance or engaged in behavior in non-compliance with contract provisions, rules, regulations, or laws. The Cherokee Nation procurement and/or contracting offices may maintain a list of entities which have previously provided poor performance or unsatisfactory work or which have engaged in behavior in non-compliance with contract provisions, rules, regulations, or laws.

B. In accordance with paragraph 5 of subsection (A) of this section the procurement offices of the Nation and its entities shall maintain a "Debarment List" which shall be a list of contractors which have previously provided poor performance or engaged in behavior in non-compliance with contract provisions, rules, regulations, or laws. The procurement offices shall develop policies and procedures to define poor performance of a contractor/employer. Documentation of poor performance must be available and provided to the contractor upon request. The procurement offices shall forward the names of any certified Indian-owned businesses determined to have poor performances to both the TERO and to the One-stop Business Center for Technical Assistance and Improvement.

1. Debarment list, annual certification. In compiling the debarment list required by this section, the TERO shall require, on an annual basis, employers who employ twenty-five (25) employees or more to certify that they are in compliance with applicable state, federal and tribal labor and employment laws. Nothing herein shall impose any new obligation on any employer to comply with said labor and employment laws.

2. The period of debarment by the TERO shall be for a period of no less than two (2) years.

C. In accordance with 40 CNCA § 502, the TERO shall address complaints of violations of the act or TERO rules. Should there be any unresolved violations by Departments of the Nation or its Business Entities, the TERO shall issue reports of non-compliance to the Principal Chief, Tribal Council and applicable Boards of Directors.

§ 302. Indian preference in contracting and subcontracting

In the award of contracts or subcontracts, employers shall give preference to Indian organizations and to Indian-owned economic enterprises as defined in this title. The TERO staff shall maintain and publish a list of Indian organizations and Indian-owned economic enterprises which shall be supplied to the employers for their use.

§ 303. Preference in promotions

Every employer shall, in accordance with TERO regulations, give Indians preferential consideration for all promotion opportunities and shall encourage Indians to seek such opportunities. Preference will apply as follows:

1. Primary preference to Cherokee Nation citizens;
2. Second preference to other Indians.

§ 304. Preference in employment of students

Employers shall give Indian students preferential consideration for summer student employment. The employer shall make every effort to promote after-school, summer and vacation employment for Indian students.

§ 305. Establishment and review of numerical goals for Indian employment generally

A. The TERO may establish the minimum number of Indians each employer must employ on his work force during any year that the employer or any of its employees are located or engaged in work within Cherokee Nation Indian Country. Numerical goals may be set for each craft, skill, job classification, etc., used by the employer and shall include, but not be limited to, administrative, supervisory and professional categories. The goals shall be expressed in terms of man-hours worked by the employer's work force in the job classification involved.

B. For both new and existing employers, the goals shall be reviewed by the TERO staff at least annually and shall be revised as necessary to reflect changes in the number of Indians available or changes in employer hiring plans. Each employer shall submit a monthly report to TERO on a form provided by the TERO staff, indicating the number of Indians in the employer's work force, the progress towards the employer's goals, all persons hired or fired during the month, the job positions involved, and other information required by the TERO.

§ 306. Participation in training programs by employers

Employers may be required by the TERO to participate in training programs to assist Indians to become qualified in the various job classifications used by the employer. The ratio of Indian trainees to fully qualified workers shall be set by the TERO after consultation with the employer.

§ 307. Establishment by TERO staff of counseling and other support programs—Cooperation by employers

The TERO may establish counseling and other support programs to assist Indians in obtaining and retaining employment. Every employer shall be required to cooperate with the TERO regarding such counseling and support programs.

§ 308. Use of job qualification criteria and personnel requirements by employers

Employers are prohibited from using job qualification criteria or personnel requirements which bar Indians from employment unless such criteria or requirements are required by business necessity.

§ 309. Implementation of layoffs and reductions in force by employers

In all layoffs and reductions in force, employers shall maintain the required ratio of Indian employees.

§ 310. Duties of contractors and subcontractors—Liability of employers for violations by contractors and subcontractors

The Indian preference requirements contained in this Title shall be binding on all contractors and subcontractors of employers, regardless of tier, and shall be deemed a part of all contract and subcontract specifications. The employer shall be subject to penalties provided herein for violation of this Title if the contractor or subcontractor fails to comply.

§ 311. Establishment and administration of job bank—Recruitment and hiring of personnel by employers

The TERO may establish and administer a job bank to assist employers in placing Indians in job positions. An employer may recruit and hire workers from whatever sources are available and by whatever process the employer chooses, as long as the employer complies with this Title and Indian job preference regulations and agreements pertaining to the employer.

§ 312. Prohibition on brokering and fronting services

No Indian entity shall represent that it is exercising management control of a project in order to qualify for Indian preference in the award of said contract or sub-contract when in fact such management control is exercised by a non-Indian entity such that the Indian entity is acting as front or brokering out services.

CHAPTER 4

UNION AGREEMENTS

§ 401. Duties of unions generally

Every union with a collective bargaining agreement with an employer must file a written agreement stating that the union will comply with this title and rules, regulations and orders of the TERO. Until such agreement is filed with the TERO, the employer may not commence work within the Cherokee Nation Indian Country.

§ 402. Contents of union agreements

Every union agreement with an employer or filed with the committee must provide:

1. Indian preference. The union will give preference to Indians in job referrals regardless of which union referral list they are on.
2. Cooperation with the TERO staff. The union will cooperate with the TERO in all respects and assist in the compliance with and enforcement of this title and related regulations and agreements.
3. Training programs. The union will establish a journeyman upgrade and advanced apprenticeship program.
4. Temporary work permits. The union will grant temporary work permits to Indians who do not wish to join the union.

§ 403. Model union agreement

The TERO staff will provide a model union agreement for use by all unions who have collective bargaining agreements with any employer.

§ 404. Recognition of unions or endorsement of union activities

A. Nothing herein, or any activity by the TERO authorized hereby, shall constitute official Cherokee Nation recognition of any union or endorsement of any union activities within Cherokee Nation. Nothing herein bars any employer, Cherokee Nation or its entities, from recognizing any union.

B. Neither the TERO, including any employer or agent thereof, nor any Cherokee Nation entity, shall engage in any activity constituting opposition to or endorsement of any union activities among employees of any employer covered by this act. Nothing herein shall restrain any elected official of Cherokee Nation from endorsing or opposing such union activities.

C. Any prohibition against endorsement of any union activities in this section shall not include the provision of any assistance to any Cherokee Nation citizen to utilize any apprentice or job training program operated by any union or union-affiliated entity.

CHAPTER 5

COMPLAINTS AND HEARINGS

§ 501. Filing of complaints by TERO and proceedings thereon generally

If the TERO staff has cause to believe that an employer, contractor, subcontractor, or union has failed to comply with this title or any rules, regulations or orders of the TERO, it may file a complaint with the TERO Director and notify such party of the alleged violations. The TERO Director will attempt to achieve an informal settlement of the matter, but if an informal settlement cannot be achieved, the TERO may impose penalties as provided in 40 CNCA § 601. Should any entity fail to comply with orders of the TERO, the TERO may pursue a civil legal action against the entity in Cherokee Nation District Court.

§ 502. Filing of complaints by Indians and proceedings thereon generally—Penalties for retaliatory actions by employers against employees filing complaints

A. If any Indian believes that an employer has failed to comply with this title or rules, regulations or orders of the TERO, or if the Indian believes he or she has been adversely discriminated against by an employer because he or she is Indian, the Indian may file a complaint with the TERO specifying the alleged violation. Upon receipt of the complaint, the TERO shall investigate and attempt to achieve an informal settlement of the matter. If an informal settlement cannot be achieved, the individual or TERO may take further action as provided for by law.

B. If any employer fires, lays off, or penalizes in any manner any Indian employee for utilizing the individual complaint procedure, or any other right provided herein, the employer shall be subject to the penalties provided in 40 CNCA § 601.

C. Nothing in this title shall prohibit the aggrieved Indian from pursuing from the employer other remedies available by law.

§ 504. Notice of hearings

A. The Administrative Appeals Board, as established pursuant to 51 CNCA § 1001 et seq. shall have the power and duty to hear employer appeals of TERO decisions denying certification of the employer as an Indian-owned economic enterprise. The Administrative Appeals Board shall have the power to either affirm or reverse the TERO certification decision, but will not have the power to award any other form of remedy in the cases brought under this title.

B. The Administrative Appeals Board shall have the power to create rules as may be necessary to perform the duties and functions delegated to the Administrative Appeals Board herein.

C. If a hearing is requested by the Board, an individual, an employer, or union pursuant to this section, a written notice of the hearing shall be given to all concerned parties stating the nature of the hearing and the evidence to be presented.

D. The notice shall advise such parties of their right to be present at the hearing, to present testimony of witnesses and other evidence and to be represented by counsel at their own expense.

§ 505. Conduct of hearings

If any employer or person feels aggrieved by a decision made by the TERO they may appeal that decision to the Administrative Appeals Board. The Administrative Appeals Board shall hold a hearing in accordance with this act and will either confirm or deny the TERO decision. The Chairperson and Co-Chairperson of the Employment Committee of the Tribal Council may attend said hearings as advisory members, but shall not have any vote in the proceedings.

1. Hearings shall be governed by the following rules and procedure:

a. All parties may present testimony of witnesses and other evidence and may be represented by counsel at their expense;

b. The Board may have the advice and assistance at the hearing of counsel provided by the Nation;

c. The Chairman of the Board or the Vice-Chairman shall preside and the Board shall proceed to ascertain the facts in a reasonable and orderly fashion;

d. The hearing may be adjourned, postponed and continued at the discretion of the Board.

2. At the final close of the hearings, the Board may take immediate action or take the matter under advisement.

3. The Board shall notify all parties forty-five (45) days after the last hearing of its decision in the matter.

4. The Board shall conclude this process within ninety (90) days of the request for a hearing.

CHAPTER 6

ENFORCEMENT AND REMEDIES

§ 601. Penalties for violations of Title and rules, regulations or orders of the TERO or Administrative Appeals Board

A. Any employer, contractor, subcontractor or union who violates this Title or rules, regulations or orders of the TERO shall be subject to penalties for the violation, including, but not limited to:

1. denial of the right to commence or continue business within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation;
2. suspension of operations within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation;
3. payment of back pay and damages to compensate any injured party;
4. an order to summarily remove employees hired in violation of this Title or rules, regulations or orders of the TERO;
5. imposition of monetary civil penalties;
6. prohibition from engaging in future operations within Cherokee Nation boundaries;
7. an order requiring employment, promotion and training of Indians injured in the violation;
8. an order requiring changes in procedures and policies necessary to eliminate the violation;
9. an order making any other provision deemed necessary to alleviate, eliminate or compensate for any violation.

B. The maximum monetary penalty which may be imposed is Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for each violation. The penalties will be graduated as follows:

1. The first violation will incur a fine of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00);
2. The second violation will incur a fine of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00);
3. The third violation will incur a fine of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

C. Each day during which a violation exists shall constitute a separate violation.

D. Monetary penalties assessed by TERO may be tripled if it is shown that the violation occurred egregiously or with reckless or wanton behavior.

E. Attorney fees and costs of pursuing or defending an action of the TERO may be awarded to the prevailing party.

CHAPTER 7

APPEALS

§ 701. Appeals from decisions of Administrative Appeals Board

A. Any party to a hearing shall have the right to appeal any decision of the Board to the District Courts of Cherokee Nation.

B. Standard of review. The District Court shall review decisions of the Administrative Appeals Board without a jury and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the Administrative Appeals Board, not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken by the District Court. The District Court, upon request, shall hear oral arguments and receive written briefs.

C. Appeals of the decision of the District Court may be taken in the Supreme Court under the rules and procedures governing civil appeals before that Court.

§ 702. Employee Appeals Board—Change of name

The Employee Appeals Board, as established pursuant to 51 CNCA § 1001 et seq., shall hereinafter be known as the "Administrative Appeals Board".

CHAPTER 8

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE LEAVE

§ 801. Discharges for absence from employment due to domestic violence prohibited

When an employee demonstrates, either through the filing of criminal or civil proceedings in a court of law or by such other method satisfactory to the employer, that she or he has been the victim of domestic violence and that such violence contributed to her or his absence(s) from work or tardiness at work for a period of up to seven (7) days over the course of a year, it shall be a violation of this chapter for any employer to terminate or otherwise discipline any employee who has missed work or is tardy. In lieu of disciplinary action, the employer shall grant the employee leave, with or without pay, dependent upon the policies of the employer.

§ 802. Penalty for violation

Any employer who willfully violates this chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) payable to the Court in addition to any other remedies the wrongfully discharged employee may have against the employer. Nothing in this section shall preclude a private party from commencing a wrongful termination action against an employer for violation of this chapter.

CHAPTER 9

MINIMUM WAGE

§ 901. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Minimum Wage Act of 2006.

§ 902. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish a minimum hourly wage for employees of Cherokee Nation and its corporations and entities.

§ 903. Definitions

A. "Cherokee Nation" means all three (3) branches of the government of Cherokee Nation as established by the 1999 Constitution, the seat of which is located at Tahlequah, Oklahoma, and includes all departments, commissions, agencies, and instrumentalities thereof.

B. "Employ" means to suffer or permit to work.

C. "Employee" means any individual employed by an employer but shall not include:

1. an individual employed on a farm in connection with the cultivation of the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural commodity, including raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and furbearing animals and wildlife, or in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment;

2. any individual working as a volunteer;

3. any employee of any carrier subject to regulation by Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act (see Revised Title 49, U.S.C.);

4. any employee employed in a bona fide executive, administrative or professional capacity, or in the capacity of outside salesman;

5. any person who is less than eighteen (18) years of age and is not a high school graduate or a graduate of a vocational training program, and any person who is less than twenty-two (22) years of age and who is a student regularly enrolled in a high school, college, university or vocational training program;

6. any person who is working with Cherokee Nation as part of a training program, summer youth program, as an temporary intern, or to receive educational credit; or

7. any individual working as a reserve Marshal.

D. "Employer" means Cherokee Nation and any government–owned company.

E. "Government–owned company" means any entity which is wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation regardless of location of the entity, or any corporation or entity in which Cherokee Nation owns a controlling interest and which is located within Cherokee Nation jurisdiction.

F. "Wage" means compensation due to an employee by reason of his employment, payable in legal tender of the United States or checks on banks convertible into cash on demand at full face value, subject to such deductions, charges or allowances as may be permitted by law.

§ 904. Minimum wage

A. Every employer shall pay to each of its employees wages at the following rate: not less than Seven Dollars Fifty Cents ($7.50) per hour beginning with the first full pay period after enactment. Further, there shall be a wage increase beginning at One Dollar ($1.00) for the wage rate of Six Dollars Fifty Cents ($6.50) with the One Dollar ($1.00) wage increase being reduced by One Cent ($.01) for every Two Cents ($.02) above the Six Dollars Fifty Cents ($6.50) wage rate which shall also be effective with the first full pay period after enactment.

B. Every employer shall pay to each of its employees wages at the following rate: not less than Eight Dollars Twenty-five Cents ($8.25) per hour beginning with the first full pay period after October 1, 2007. Further, there shall be a wage increase beginning at Seventy-five Cents ($.75) for the wage rate of Seven Dollars Fifty Cents ($7.50) with the Seventy-five Cents ($.75) wage increase being reduced by One Cent ($.01) for every Two Cents ($.02) above the Seven Dollars Fifty Cents ($7.50) wage rate which shall also be effective with the first full pay period after October 1, 2007.

C. Every employer shall pay to each of its employees wages at the following rate: not less than Nine Dollars ($9.00) per hour beginning with the first full pay period after October 1, 2008. Further, there shall be a wage increase beginning at Seventy-five Cents ($.75) for the wage rate of Eight Dollars Twenty-five Cents ($8.25) with the Seventy-five Cents ($.75) wage increase being reduced by One Cent ($.01) for every Two Cents ($.02) above the Eight Dollars Twenty-five Cents ($8.25) wage rate which shall also be effective with the first full pay period after October 1, 2008.

D. The minimum wage provided for in subsection (A) of this section shall be considered a minimum rate of pay.

E. To compute the minimum wage provided for in subsection (A) of this section, credit toward the minimum wage must be given for any tips or gratuities, meals or lodging received by the employee up to but not exceeding fifty percent (50%) of said wage.

F. Any employer which furnishes uniforms to its employees may take credit against the minimum wage in an amount equal to the reasonable cost of furnishing the uniforms.

G. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the payment of an hourly rate in excess of Seven Dollars Fifty Cents ($7.50) per hour.

§ 905. Exemptions

All employees who are deemed "exempt" from the minimum wage under 29 U.S.C. § 213 and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto shall be deemed exempt from this act.

TITLE 41

LANDLORD AND TENANT

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Short title

This enactment shall be known as the Cherokee Nation Housing Code. This enactment is comprised of three acts: the Cherokee Nation Residential Landlord Tenant Act, the Cherokee Nation Non-Residential Landlord Tenant Act, and the Cherokee Nation Landlord and Tenant Procedures Act.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this Title is to provide substantive and procedural law for determining the rights, obligations, damages and remedies for landlords and tenants.

§ 3. Definitions

Definitions appear in each of the following acts.

CHAPTER 2

RESIDENTIAL LANDLORD AND TENANT ACT

§ 100. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of Cherokee Nation.

§ 101. Definitions

Save for any differences in the context of this act the following definitions shall be used:

1. "Building and housing codes" includes any law, ordinance or Cherokee Nation governmental regulation concerning the fitness for habitation or the construction, maintenance, operation, occupancy, use or appearance of any premises or dwelling unit that is erected on any property over which Cherokee Nation maintains and exerts jurisdiction.
2. "C.F.R." means the Code of Federal Regulations.
3. "Deposit" includes any money or other property required by a landlord from a tenant as and for security and which is to be returned to the tenant upon termination of the rental agreement, less any deductions properly made and allowed by this act or any law, rule, or regulation of the United States of America promulgated to effectuate the Mutual Help Homeownership Program, Low-Income Rental Program or any other low-income housing program administered by the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation and the Housing Authority of the Delaware Tribe of Indians.
4. "Dwelling unit" means a structure, or that part of a structure, which is used as a home, residence or sleeping place by one or more persons.
5. "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct of the transaction concerned.
6. "Home buyer" means the person(s) who has executed an MHO Agreement with the IHA or an MHO Agreement for another home in the project (as indicated by the context of the agreement), and who has not yet achieved homeownership.
7. "Indian Housing Authority" or "IHA" means the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation or the Housing Authority of the Delaware Tribe of Indians.
8. "Landlord" means the owner, lessor or sublessor of the dwelling unit or the building of which it is a part, and it also means a manager of the premises who fails to comply with the disclosure provisions of 41 CNCA § 113 including Cherokee Nation, the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation and the Housing Authority of the Delaware Tribe of Indians.
9. "MHO" means a mutual help and occupancy agreement between the Indian Housing Authority and the home buyer.
10. "Organization" includes a corporation or any governmental subdivision, any agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest and any other legal or commercial entity.

11. "Owner" means one or more persons, jointly or severally, in whom is vested:

a. all or any part of the legal title to the property, or

b. all or part of the beneficial ownership and a right to present use and enjoyment of the property, and such term includes a mortgagee in possession.

12. "Person" includes both individuals and organizations.

13. "Premises" means a dwelling unit and the structure of which it is a part, the facilities and appurtenances therein, and the grounds, areas and facilities held out for the use of the tenant generally or use of which is promised to the tenant.

14. "Rent" means all payments, except deposits and damages, to be made to the landlord under the rental agreement including required monthly payments under a mutual help and occupancy (MHO) agreement.

15. "Rental agreement" means all agreements, including a mutual help and occupancy agreement, and valid rules and regulations adopted under 41 CNCA § 126, which establish, embody or modify the terms and conditions concerning the use and occupancy of a dwelling unit and premises. All mutual help occupancy agreements executed between the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation or Delaware Tribe of Indians and home buyers participating in the Mutual Help Homeownership Opportunity Program shall be considered rental agreements and not mortgages, contracts for deed, or any other instrument purporting to confer homeownership rights either at law or in equity.

16. "Roomer" or "boarder" is a tenant occupying a dwelling unit which lacks at least one major bathroom or kitchen facility, such as a toilet, refrigerator or stove, in a building:

a. where one or more of such major facilities are supplied to be used in common by the occupants of the roomer or boarder's dwelling unit and one or more other dwelling units, and

b. in which the landlord resides.

17. "Single-family residence" means a structure used and maintained as a single dwelling unit. A dwelling unit, including those with common walls, shall be deemed a single-family residence if it has direct access to a street or thoroughfare and shares neither heating facilities, hot water equipment, nor any other essential facility or service with any other dwelling unit.

18. "Tenant" means any person entitled under a rental agreement to occupy a dwelling unit.

§ 102. Rights, obligations and remedies—Enforcement

A. Any right, obligation or remedy declared by this act is enforceable exclusively in Cherokee Nation District Court and may be prosecuted as part of an action for forcible entry or detainer unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect. In any action for breach of a rental agreement or mutual help occupancy agreement or to enforce any right or obligation provided for in the rental agreement or MHO agreement as provided in this act ¹.

B. Actions brought under this act by Cherokee Nation, Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation or Delaware Tribe of Indians may be prosecuted by a staff member or attorney.

¹ So in original; probably should read "as provided in this act, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney fees".

§ 103. Application

A. Except as otherwise provided in this act, this act applies to, regulates and determines rights, obligations and remedies under a rental agreement for a dwelling unit located within any area over which Cherokee Nation exercises jurisdiction.

B. Any agreement, whether written or oral, shall be unenforceable insofar as that agreement, or any provision thereof, conflicts with any provision of this act.

§ 104. Reserved

§ 105. Mitigation of damages

An aggrieved party under the provisions of this act has a duty to mitigate damages.

§ 106. Settlement of claim

A claim or right arising under this act or rental agreement, if disputed in good faith, may be settled by agreement and requires no further consideration.

§ 107. Good faith performance or enforcement

Every duty under this act and every act which must be performed as a condition precedent to the exercise of a right or remedy under this act imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

§ 108. Beneficial owner to maintain premises

Any agreement, assignment, conveyance, trust deed or security instrument which authorizes a person other than the beneficial owner to act as a landlord of a dwelling unit shall not relieve the beneficial owner of the duty to conform with this act and any other law, code, ordinance or regulation concerning the maintenance and operation of the premises.

§ 109. Rent

A. In the absence of agreement, the occupants of a dwelling unit shall pay to the landlord as rent the fair rental value for the use and occupancy of the dwelling unit.

B. Rent shall be payable at the time and place agreed to by the parties. Unless otherwise agreed, the entire rent shall be payable at the dwelling unit at the beginning of any term of one (1) month or less, while one (1) month's rent shall be payable at the beginning of each month of a longer term.

§ 110. Term of tenancy

Unless the rental agreement fixes a definite term in writing, the tenancy is week-to-week in the case of a roomer or boarder who pays weekly rent, and in all other cases month-to-month.

§ 111. Termination of tenancy

A. Except as otherwise provided in the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of Cherokee Nation, when the tenancy is month-to-month or a tenancy at will, the landlord or tenant may terminate the tenancy provided the landlord or tenant gives a written notice to the other at least thirty (30) days before the date upon which the termination is to become effective. The thirty-day period to terminate shall begin to run from the date notice to terminate is served as provided in subsection (E) of this section.

B. Except as otherwise provided in the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of Cherokee Nation, when the tenancy is less than month-to-month, the landlord or tenant may terminate the tenancy provided the landlord or tenant gives to the other a written notice served as provided in subsection (E) of this section at least seven (7) days before the date upon which the termination is to become effective.

C. Unless earlier terminated under the provisions of the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of Cherokee Nation or unless otherwise agreed upon, a tenancy for a definite term expires on the ending date thereof without notice.

D. If the tenant remains in possession without the landlord's consent after the expiration of the term of the rental agreement or its termination under the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of Cherokee Nation, the landlord may immediately bring an action for possession and damages. If the tenant's holdover is willful and not in good faith, the landlord may also recover an amount not more than twice the average monthly rental, computed and prorated on a daily basis, for each month or portion thereof that said tenant remains in possession. If the landlord consents to the tenant's continued occupancy, a month-to-month tenancy is thus created, unless the parties otherwise agree.

E. The written notice, required by the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of Cherokee Nation, to terminate any tenancy shall be served on the tenant or landlord personally unless otherwise specified by law. If the tenant cannot be located, service shall be made by delivering the notice to any family member of such tenant over the age of twelve (12) years residing with the tenant. If service cannot be made on the tenant personally or on such family member, notice shall be posted at a conspicuous place on the dwelling unit of the tenant. If the notice is posted, a copy of such notice shall be mailed to the landlord by certified mail.

§ 112. Duties of parties upon termination of tenancy

Except as otherwise provided in this act, whenever either party to a rental agreement rightfully elects to terminate, the duties of each party under the rental agreement shall cease and be determined upon the effective date of said termination, and the parties shall thereupon discharge any remaining obligations under this act as soon as practicable.

§ 113. Rental agreements

A. A rental agreement may not provide that either party thereto:

1. agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this act;
2. authorizes any person to confess judgment on a claim arising out of the rental agreement;
3. agrees to pay the other party's attorney fees;
4. agrees to the exculpation, limitation or indemnification of any liability arising under law for damages or injuries to persons or property caused by or resulting from the acts or omissions of either party, their agents, servants or employees in the operation or maintenance of the dwelling unit or the premises of which it is a part;
5. agrees to the establishment of a lien except as allowed by this act in and to the property of the other party.

B. A provision prohibited by subsection (A) of this section and included in a rental agreement is unenforceable.

C. Any prohibition provided by subsection (A) shall be superseded by MHO provisions mandated by federal law.

§ 113.1. Denial or termination of tenancy because of guide, signal or service dog

A landlord shall not deny or terminate a tenancy to a blind, deaf, or physically handicapped person because of the guide, signal, or service dog of such person unless such dogs are specifically prohibited in the rental agreement entered into prior to November 1, 1985.

§ 115. Damage or security deposits

A. Any damage or security deposit required by a landlord of a tenant must be kept in an escrow account for the tenant. Misappropriation of the security deposit shall be a crime and punishable by a term in the Cherokee Nation Tribal detention facility not to exceed six (6) months and by a fine in an amount not to exceed twice the amount misappropriated from the escrow account.

B. Upon termination of the tenancy, any security deposit held by the landlord may be applied to the payment of accrued rent and the amount of damages which the landlord has suffered by reason of the tenant's noncompliance with this act and the rental agreement, all as itemized by the landlord in a written statement to be delivered by mail with a return receipt requested and to be signed for by any person of statutory service age at such address or in person to the tenant if he can reasonably be found. If the landlord proposes to retain any portion of the security deposit for rent, damages or other legally allowable charges under the provisions of this act or the rental agreement, the landlord shall return the balance of the security deposit without interest to the tenant within thirty (30) days after the termination of tenancy, delivery of possession and written demand by the tenant. If the tenant does not make such written demand of such deposit within six (6) months after termination of the tenancy, the deposit reverts to the landlord in consideration of the costs and burden of maintaining the escrow account, and the interest of the tenant in that deposit terminates at that time.

C. Upon cessation of a landlord's interest in the dwelling unit including, but not limited to, termination of interest by sale, assignment, death, bankruptcy, appointment of receiver or otherwise, the person in possession of the tenants' damage or security deposits at his option or pursuant to court order shall, within a reasonable time:

1. transfer said deposits to the landlord's successor in interest and notify the tenants in writing of such transfer and of the transferee's name and address; or
2. return the deposits to the tenants.

D. Upon receipt of the transferred deposits under paragraph 1 of subsection (C) of this section, the transferee, in relation to such deposits, shall have all the rights and obligations of a landlord holding such deposits under this act.

E. If a landlord or manager fails to comply with this section or fails to return any prepaid rent required to be paid to a tenant under this act, the tenant may recover the damage and security deposit and prepaid rent, if any.

F. Except as otherwise provided by the rental agreement, a tenant shall not apply or deduct any portion of the security deposit from the last month's rent or use or apply such tenant's security deposit at any time in lieu of payment of rent.

G. This section does not preclude the landlord or tenant from recovering other damages to which he may be entitled under this act.

H. Tenants under an MHO agreement may bring an action for settlement or accounting of the disputed accounts and contributions only after the tenants have exhausted their administrative remedies provided by the Indian Housing Authority.

§ 116. Person to accept service or notice—Identity of owner and manager—Failure to comply

A. As a part of any rental agreement the lessor shall prominently and in writing identify what person at what address is entitled to accept service or notice under this act. The landlord or any person authorized to enter into a rental agreement on his behalf shall disclose to the tenant in writing at or before the commencement of the tenancy the name and address of:

1. the person or persons authorized to manage the premises;
2. the owner or owners of the premises; or
3. the name and address of a person authorized to act for and on behalf of the owner for the purpose of receipt of service of process and receiving and receipting for notices.

The information required to be furnished by this section shall be kept current and this section extends to and is enforceable against any successor owner, landlord or manager.

B. A person who fails to comply with this section becomes a landlord for the purposes of this act and an agent of each person who is otherwise a landlord for:

1. receipt of service of process and receiving and receipting for notices and demands; and
2. performing the obligations of a landlord under this act and under the rental agreement and expending and making available for the purpose all rents collected from the premises.

§ 117. Commencement of tenancy—Delivery of possession—Wrongful possession

At the commencement of the term a landlord shall deliver full possession of the premises to the tenant in compliance with the rental agreement and 41 CNCA § 118. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the landlord may bring an action for possession against any other person wrongfully in possession and may recover his damages.

§ 118. Duties of landlord and tenant

A. A landlord shall at all times during the tenancy:

1. Except in the case of a single-family residence, keep all common areas of his building, grounds facilities and appurtenances in a clean, safe and sanitary condition;
2. Make all repairs and do whatever is necessary to put and keep the tenant's dwelling unit and premises in a fit and habitable condition;

3. Maintain in good and safe working order and condition all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning and other facilities and appliances, including elevators, supplied or required to be supplied by him;

4. Except in the case of one or two-family residences or where provided by a governmental entity, provide and maintain appropriate receptacles and conveniences for the removal of ashes, garbage, rubbish and other waste incidental to the occupancy of the dwelling unit and arrange for the frequent removal of such wastes; and

5. Except in the case of a single-family residence or where the service is supplied by direct and independently-metered utility connections to the dwelling unit, supply running water and reasonable amounts of hot water at all times and reasonable heat.

B. The landlord and tenant of a dwelling unit may agree by a conspicuous writing independent of the rental agreement that the tenant is to perform specified repairs, maintenance tasks, alterations or remodeling.

C. Conflicting terms of MHO agreements approved by the Indian Housing Authority shall supersede provisions of this section.

§ 119. Conveyance of property—Attornment of tenant

A. A conveyance of real estate, or of any interest therein, by a landlord shall be valid without the attornment of the tenant, but the payment of rent by the tenant to the grantor at any time before written notice of the conveyance is given to the tenant shall be good against the grantee.

B. The attornment of a tenant to a stranger shall be void and shall not affect the possession of the landlord unless it is made with the consent of the landlord, or pursuant to a judgment at law, or the order or decree of a court.

C. Unless otherwise agreed and except as otherwise provided in this act, upon termination of the owner's interest in the dwelling unit including, but not limited to, terminations of interest by sale, assignment, death, bankruptcy, appointment of a receiver or otherwise, the owner is relieved of all liability under the rental agreement and of all obligations under this act as to events occurring subsequent to written notice to the resident of the termination of the owner's interest. The successor in interest to the owner shall be liable for all obligations under the rental agreement or under this act. Upon receipt by a resident of written notice of the termination of the owner's interest in the dwelling unit, a resident shall pay all future rental payments, when due, to the successor in interest to the owner.

D. Unless otherwise agreed and except as otherwise provided in this act, a manager of premises that includes a dwelling unit is relieved of liability under a rental agreement and this act as to events occurring after written notice to the tenant of the termination of his management.

§ 120. Failure of landlord to deliver possession of dwelling unit to tenant

A. If the landlord fails to deliver possession of the dwelling unit to the tenant, rent abates until possession is delivered and the tenant may terminate the rental agreement by giving a written notice of such termination to the landlord, whereupon the landlord shall return all prepaid rent and deposit, or the tenant may, at his option, demand performance of the rental agreement by the landlord and maintain an action for possession of the dwelling unit against any person wrongfully in possession and recover the actual damages sustained by him.

B. If a person's failure to deliver possession is willful and not in good faith, an aggrieved person may recover from that person an amount not more than twice the monthly rental as specified in the rental agreement, computed and prorated on a daily basis, for each month, or portion thereof, that said person wrongfully remains in possession.

§ 121. Landlord's breach of rental agreement—Deductions from rent for repairs—Failure to supply heat, water or other essential services—Habitability of dwelling

A. Except as otherwise provided in this act, if there is a material noncompliance by the landlord with the terms of the rental agreement or a noncompliance with any of the provisions of 41 CNCA § 118 which noncompliance materially affects health or safety, the tenant may deliver to the landlord a written notice specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied within fourteen (14) days, and thereafter the rental agreement shall so terminate as provided in the notice unless the landlord adequately remedies the breach within the time specified.

B. Except as otherwise provided in this act, if there is a material noncompliance by the landlord with any of the terms of the rental agreement or any of the provisions of 41 CNCA § 118 which noncompliance materially affects health and the breach is remediable by repairs, the reasonable cost of which is less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), the tenant may notify the landlord in writing of his intention to correct the condition at the landlord's expense after the expiration of fourteen (14) days. If the landlord fails to comply within said fourteen (14) days, or as promptly as conditions require in the case of an emergency, the tenant may thereafter cause the work to be done in a workmanlike manner and, after submitting to the landlord an itemized statement, deduct from his rent the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value of the work, not exceeding the amount specified in this subsection, in which event the rental agreement shall not terminate by reason of that breach.

C. Except as otherwise provided in this act, if, contrary to the rental agreement or 41 CNCA § 118, the landlord willfully or negligently fails to supply heat, running water, hot water, electric, gas or other essential service, the tenant may give written notice to the landlord specifying the breach and thereafter may:

1. Upon written notice, immediately terminate the rental agreement; or

2. Procure reasonable amounts of heat, hot water, running water, electric, gas or other essential service during the period of the landlord's noncompliance and deduct their actual and reasonable cost from the rent; or

3. Recover damages based upon the diminution of the fair rental value of the dwelling unit; or

4. Upon written notice, procure reasonable substitute housing during the period of the landlord's noncompliance, in which case the tenant is excused from paying rent for the period of the landlord's noncompliance.

D. Except as otherwise provided in this act, if there is a noncompliance by the landlord with the terms of the rental agreement or 41 CNCA § 118, which noncompliance renders the dwelling unit uninhabitable or poses an imminent threat to the health and safety of any occupant of the dwelling unit and which noncompliance is not remedied as promptly as conditions require, the tenant may immediately terminate the rental agreement upon written notice to the landlord which notice specifies the noncompliance.

E. All rights of the tenant under this section do not arise until he has given written notice to the landlord or if the condition complained of was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of his family, his animal or pet or other person or animal on the premises with his consent.

F. Conflicting terms of a MHO agreement approved by the Indian Housing Authority shall supersede provisions of this section.

§ 122. Damage to or destruction of dwelling unit—Rights and duties of tenant

A. If the dwelling unit or premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty to an extent that enjoyment of the dwelling unit is substantially impaired, unless the impairment is caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of his family, his animal or pet or other person or animal on the premises with his consent, the tenant may:

1. Immediately vacate the premises and notify the landlord in writing within one (1) week thereafter of his intention to terminate the rental agreement, in which case the rental agreement terminates as of the date of vacating; or

2. If continued occupancy is possible, vacate any part of the dwelling unit rendered unusable by the fire or casualty, in which case the tenant's liability for rent is reduced in proportion to the diminution in the fair value of the dwelling unit.

B. If the rental agreement is terminated under this section the landlord shall return all deposits recoverable under 41 CNCA § 115 and all prepaid and unearned rent. Accounting for rent in the event of termination or apportionment shall be made as of the date of the fire or other casualty.

§ 123. Wrongful removal or exclusion from dwelling unit

If a landlord wrongfully removes or excludes a tenant from possession of a dwelling unit, the tenant may recover possession by a proceeding brought in Cherokee Nation District Court, or terminate the rental agreement after giving notice of such intention to the landlord, and in either case recover an amount not more than twice the average monthly rental, or twice his actual damages, whichever is greater. If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all deposits recoverable under 41 CNCA § 115 and all prepaid and unearned rent.

§ 124. Unlawful entry or lawful entry in unreasonable manner—Harassment of tenant—Damages

If the landlord makes an unlawful entry or a lawful entry in an unreasonable manner or harasses the tenant by making repeated unreasonable demands for entry, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to prevent the recurrence of the conduct or, upon written notice, terminate the rental agreement. In either case the tenant may recover actual damages.

§ 125. Defective condition of premises—Report to landlord

Any defective condition of the premises which comes to the tenant's attention, and which the tenant has reason to believe is unknown to the landlord, shall be reported by the tenant to the landlord as soon as practicable.

§ 126. Tenant's use and occupancy of premises—Rules and regulations

A. A landlord, from time to time, may adopt a rule or regulation, however described, concerning the tenant's use and occupancy of the premises. Such a rule or regulation is enforceable against the tenant only if:

1. Its purpose is to promote the convenience, peace, safety or welfare of the tenants in the premises, preserve the landlord's property from abusive use, or make a fair distribution of services and facilities held out for the tenants generally; and
2. It is reasonably related to the purpose for which it is adopted; and
3. It applies to all tenants in the premises in a fair manner; and
4. It is sufficiently explicit in its prohibition, direction or limitation of the tenant's conduct to fairly inform the tenant what such tenant must or must not do to comply; and
5. It is not for the purpose of evading the obligations of the landlord; and
6. The tenant has notice of it at the time such tenant enters into the rental agreement, or when it is adopted.

B. If the rule or regulation is adopted after the tenant enters into the rental agreement and that rule or regulation works a substantial modification of such tenant's bargain, the rule or regulation so adopted is not valid and enforceable against the tenant unless he consents to it in writing.

§ 127. Duties of tenant

A. The tenant shall at all times during the tenancy comply with the following in such a manner as to protect the property interest of his landlord and any person who resides within three hundred feet (300') of the boundary of the tenant's dwelling unit:

1. Keep that part of the premises which such tenant occupies and uses as safe, clean and sanitary as the condition of the premises permits;
2. Dispose from such tenant's dwelling unit all ashes, garbage, rubbish and other waste in a safe, clean and sanitary manner;
3. Keep all plumbing fixtures in the dwelling unit or used by the tenant as clean and sanitary as their condition permits;
4. Use in a safe and nondestructive manner all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning and other facilities and appliances including elevators in the premises;
5. Not deliberately or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair or remove any part of the premises or permit any person, animal or pet to do so;
6. Not engage in conduct or allow any person or animal or pet, on the premises with the express or implied permission or consent of the tenant, to engage in conduct that will disturb the quiet and peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other tenants.

B. Cherokee Nation or persons who reside within three hundred feet (300') of the offending tenant's dwelling unit and whose peaceful enjoyment or property is damaged by violation of subsection (A) may bring against the tenant or any third party a cause of action for abatement of the violation and/or damages.

§ 128. Consent of tenant for landlord to enter dwelling unit—Emergency entry—Abuse of right of entry—Notice—Abandoned premises—Refusal of consent

A. A tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the landlord, his agents and employees, to enter into the dwelling unit in order to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations or improvements, supply necessary or agreed services or exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workmen or contractors.

B. A landlord, his agents and employees may enter the dwelling unit without consent of the tenant in case of emergency.

C. A landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant. Except in case of emergency or unless it is impracticable to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant at least one (1) day's notice of his intent to enter and may enter only at reasonable times.

D. Unless the tenant has abandoned or surrendered the premises, a landlord has no other right of access during a tenancy except as is provided in this act or pursuant to a court order.

E. If the tenant refuses to allow lawful access, the landlord may obtain injunctive relief to compel access or he may terminate the rental agreement.

§ 129. Tenant's breach of rental agreement—Wrongful abandonment

A. Unless otherwise agreed, use by the tenant of the dwelling unit for any purpose other than as his place of abode shall constitute a breach of the rental agreement and shall be grounds for terminating the rental agreement.

B. If the tenant wrongfully quits and abandons the dwelling unit during the term of the tenancy, the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to make the dwelling unit available for rental. If the landlord rents the dwelling unit for a term beginning before the expiration of the rental agreement, said rental agreement terminates as of the commencement date of the new tenancy. If the landlord fails to use reasonable efforts to make the dwelling unit available for rental or if the landlord accepts the abandonment as a surrender, the rental agreement is deemed to be terminated by the landlord as of the date the landlord has notice of the abandonment. If, after making reasonable effort to make the dwelling unit available for rental after abandonment, the landlord fails to re-rent the premises for a fair rental during the term, the tenant shall be liable for the entire rent or the difference in rental, whichever may be appropriate, for the remainder of the term. If the tenancy is from month-to-month or week-to-week, the term of the rental agreement for this purpose is deemed to be a month or a week, as the case may be.

§ 130. Abandoning, surrendering or eviction from possession of dwelling unit—Disposition of personal property

If the tenant abandons or surrenders possession of the dwelling unit or has been lawfully removed from the premises through eviction proceedings and leaves household goods, furnishings, fixtures, or any other personal property in the dwelling unit, the landlord may take possession of the property, and if, in the judgment of the landlord, the property has no ascertainable or apparent value, the landlord may dispose of the property without any duty of accounting or any liability to any party. Any property left with the landlord for a period of three (3) months or longer shall be conclusively determined to be abandoned and as such the landlord may dispose of said property in any manner which he deems reasonable and proper without liability to the tenant or any other interested party.

§ 131. Delinquent rent

A. If rent is unpaid when due, the landlord may bring an action for recovery of the rent at any time thereafter.

B. A landlord may terminate a rental agreement for failure to pay rent when due, if the tenant fails to pay the rent within five (5) days after written notice of landlord's demand for payment.

C. Demand for past due rent is deemed a demand for possession of the premises and no further notice to quit possession need be given by the landlord to the tenant for any purpose.

§ 133. Lien on tenant's property

A landlord shall have a lien upon that part of the property belonging to the tenant which has a reasonable relationship as nearly as practicable to the amount of the debt owed, which may be in a rental unit used by him at the time notice is given, for the proper charges owed by the tenant, and for the cost of enforcing the lien, with the right to possession of the property until the debt obligation is paid to the landlord. Provided, however, that such lien shall be secondary to the claim of any prior bona fide holder of chattel mortgage or to the rights of a conditional seller of such property, other than the tenant.

For purposes of this section, property shall mean any baggage or other property belonging to the tenant which may be in the rental unit used by the tenant but which shall not include all tools, musical instruments or books used by the tenant in any trade or profession, all family portraits and pictures, all wearing apparel, any type of prosthetic or orthopedic appliance, hearing aid, glasses, false teeth, glass eyes, bedding, contraceptive devices, soap, tissues, washing machines, vaporizers, refrigerators, food, cooking and eating utensils, all other appliances personally used by the tenant for the protection of his health, or any baby bed or any other item used for the personal care of babies.

§ 134. Procedure for enforcement of lien

A. The lien provided for by 41 CNCA § 133 may be foreclosed by a sale of such personal property upon the notice and in the manner following:

The notice shall contain:

1. The names of the owner and any other party or parties who may claim any interest in said property;
2. A description of the property to be sold;
3. The value of the rent provided and unpaid and the dates thereof;
4. The time and place of sale;
5. The name of the party, agent or attorney foreclosing such lien.

B. Such notice shall be posted on the front door of the tenant's dwelling unit at least ten (10) days before the time therein specified for such sale, and a copy of said notice shall be mailed to the owner and any other party or parties claiming any interest in said property if known, at their last known post office address by certified mail on the day of posting. Party or parties who claim any interest in said property shall include owners of chattel mortgages and conditional sales contracts as shown by the records in the office of the county clerk in the county where the lien is foreclosed.

C. The lienor or any other person may in good faith become a purchaser of the property sold.

D. Proceedings for foreclosure under this act shall not be commenced until thirty (30) days after the lien has accrued.

§ 135. Construction of act

This act shall be liberally construed and applied to promote and effectuate its underlying purposes and policies.

§§ 136 to 139. Reserved

§ 140. Federal rules and regulations affecting Indian housing programs shall take precedence

Any rule or regulation that has been promulgated by the United States of America, through the Department of Housing and Urban Development, for the implementation and management of Indian housing programs and which the Indian Housing Authority is required to follow shall supersede the provisions of this act and shall be controlling with respect to this act. Prior to commencement of any action under this act an aggrieved party must first exhaust all available administrative remedies available including those applicable and provided by an MHO.

§ 141. Claims brought under provisions of Landlord and Tenant Procedures Act Actions under the Non-Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of Cherokee Nation and the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act shall be brought in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act.

§ 142. Termination of mutual help occupancy agreement

A. The procedure for the termination of the MHO shall be according to 24 C.F.R. § 905.446.

B. In the event that the home buyer disputes any item in the settlement following a termination of an MHO or the disposition of personal property abandoned by the home buyer, the home buyer shall first exhaust all administrative remedies available through the Indian Housing Authority's grievance procedure before the matter shall be within the jurisdiction of the District Court of Cherokee Nation.

§ 143. Rules of evidence

The Federal Rules of Evidence, Public Law 93–595, 88 Stat. 1926, and its cumulative amendments shall apply to all proceedings of the Court.

CHAPTER 3

NON-RESIDENTIAL LANDLORD AND TENANT ACT

§ 200. Application

The Non-Residential Landlord and Tenant Act shall apply to all non-residential property under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation of which Cherokee Nation has a property interest as defined by 41 CNCA § 251.

§ 201. Who deemed tenant at will

Any person in the possession of real property, with the assent of the owner, is presumed to be a tenant at will, unless the contrary is shown, except as herein otherwise provided.

§ 202. Tenant holding over as tenant at will—Expiration of unwritten contract

When premises are let for one or more years, and the tenant, with the assent of the landlord, continues to occupy the premises after the expiration of the term, such tenant shall be deemed to be a tenant at will; provided, that no lease or rental contract of premises shall be continued, unless the original contract was in writing, and all other lease or contracts shall expire by limitation with the calendar year, without notice.

§ 203. Tenant holds from one period to another, when

When rent is reserved, payable at intervals of three months or less, the tenant shall be deemed to hold from one period to another, equal to the intervals between the days of payment, unless there is an express contract to the contrary.

§ 204. Time of notice to terminate tenancy

Thirty (30) days' notice in writing is necessary to be given by either party before he can terminate a tenancy at will, or from one period to another, of three months or less; but where in any case rent is reserved, payable at intervals of less than thirty days, the length of notice need not be greater than such interval between the days of payment.

§ 205. Termination of tenancy from year to year

All tenancies from year to year, may be terminated by at least three (3) months' notice, in writing, given to the tenant prior to the expiration of the year.

§ 206. Notice to quit where rent not paid

If a tenant, for a period of three months or longer, neglects or refuses to pay rent when due, then (10) days' notice in writing to quit, shall determine the lease, unless such rent be paid before the expiration of said ten (10) days.

§ 207. Notice when rent not paid under tenancy for less than three months

If a tenant for a period of less than three months, shall neglect or refuse to pay rent when due, five (5) days' notice, in writing, to quit, shall determine the lease, unless such rent be paid before the expiration of said five (5) days.

§ 208. Notice to quit not required, when

When the time for the termination of a tenancy is specified in the contract, or where a tenant at will commits waste, or in the case of a tenant by sufferance, and in any case where the relation of landlord and tenant does not exist no notice to quit shall be necessary.

§ 209. Service of notice—Termination of tenancy

The notice to terminate the tenancy required in this act may be served on the tenant, or, if he cannot be found, by delivering the same to some person over the age of twelve (12) years, residing on the premises, having first made known to such person the contents thereof; or, if service cannot be made by the use of reasonable diligence on the tenant or on any person over the age of twelve (12) years residing on the premises, the same may be served by posting said notice at some conspicuous place on the building on said premises and if there be no buildings on said premises then said notice shall be posted at some conspicuous place on said premises and if said notice is posted, a copy of said notice shall be mailed to the tenant at his last-known address by registered mail and such notice shall operate to terminate the tenancy at the end of the period after the date of such posting and mailing that it would have been terminated by personal service of such notice on the date of such posting and mailing; provided, that in no event shall such posting and mailing terminate any tenancy within a period of less than ten days from the date of such posting and mailing.

§ 210. Tenant may not assign, when

No tenant for a term not exceeding two (2) years, or at will, or by sufferance, shall assign or transfer his term or interest, or any part thereof, to another, without the written assent of the landlord or person holding under him.

§ 211. Landlord may reenter after unauthorized assignment

If any tenant shall violate the provisions of the preceding section, the landlord or person holding under him, after giving ten (10) days' notice to quit possession, shall have a right to reenter the premises and take possession thereof, and dispossess the tenant, subtenant or undertenant.

§ 212. Attornment unnecessary to conveyance

A conveyance of real estate, or of any interest therein, by the landlord, shall be valid without the attornment of the tenant; but the payment of rent by the tenant to the grantor, at any time before notice of sale, given to said tenant, shall be good against the grantee.

§ 213. Attornment to stranger void

The attornment of a tenant to a stranger shall be void, and shall not affect the possession of his landlord unless it be made with the consent of the landlord, or pursuant to a judgment at law, or the order or decree of a court.

§ 214. Rights of sublessee

Sublessees shall have the same remedy upon the original covenant against the principal landlord as they might have had against their immediate lessor.

§ 215. Rights of alienees of lessors and lessees

Alienees of lessors and lessees of land shall have the same legal remedies in relation to such lands as their principal.

§ 216. Rents from life grants

Rents from lands granted for life or lives may be recovered as other rents.

§ 217. Recovery of arrears of rent from life grants after death

A person entitled to rents dependent on the life of another, may recover arrears unpaid at the death of that other.

§ 218. Rights and liabilities of executors and administrators

Executors and administrators shall have the same remedies to recover rents, and be subject to the same liabilities to pay them, as their testators and intestates.

§ 219. Occupants without contract liable for rent

The occupant of any lands, without special contract, shall be liable for the rent to any person entitled thereto.

§ 220. Contribution by joint tenants

If a joint tenant, or tenant in common, or tenant in coparcenary, have, by consent, management of the estate, and make repairs and improvements with the knowledge, and without objection, of his cotenant or coparcener, such cotenant or coparcener shall contribute ratably thereto.

§ 221. Joint tenant may recover his share of rents

A joint tenant, or tenant in common, or tenant in coparcenary, may maintain an action against his cotenant or coparcener, or their personal representatives, for receiving more than his just proportion of the rents and profits.

§ 222. Recovery for waste or trespass by remainderman

A person seized of an estate in remainder or reversion may maintain an action for waste or trespass, for injury to the inheritance, notwithstanding an intervening estate for life or years.

§ 223. Farm rent lien on crop

Any rent due for farming land shall be a lien on the crop growing or made on the premises. Such lien may be enforced by action and attachment therein, as hereinafter provided.

§ 224. Crop rent

When any such rent is payable in a share or certain proportion of the crop, the lessor shall be deemed the owner of such share or proportion, and may if the tenant refuse to deliver him such share or proportion, enter upon the land and take possession of the same, or obtain possession thereof by action of replevin.

§ 225. Removal of crops to defraud landlord

Any person who shall remove any crops from leased or rented premises with intent to deprive the owner or landlord interested in said land of any of the rent due from said land, or who shall fraudulently appropriate the rent due the owner or landlord of said land, to himself or any person not entitled thereto, shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement and punished accordingly.

§ 226. Purchaser of crop with notice liable for rent

The person entitled to rent may recover from the purchaser of the crop, or any part thereof, with notice of the lien, the value of the crop purchased, to the extent of the rent due and damages.

§ 227. Landlord may have attachment, when

When any person who shall be liable to pay rent (whether the same be due or not, if it be due within one (1) year thereafter, and whether the same be payable in money or other things), intends to remove or is removing, or has, within thirty (30) days, removed his property, or his crops, or any part thereof, from the leased premises, the person to whom the rent is owed may commence an action; and upon making an affidavit, stating the amount of rent for which such person is liable, and one or more of the above facts, and executing an undertaking as in other cases, an attachment shall issue in the same manner and with the like effect as is provided by law in other actions.

§ 228. Attachment for rent lien on crops

In an action to enforce a lien on crops for rent of farming lands, the affidavit for attachment shall state that there is due from the defendant to the plaintiff a certain sum, naming it, for rent of farming lands, describing the same, and that the plaintiff claims a lien on the crop made on such land. Upon making and filing such affidavit and executing an undertaking as prescribed in the preceding section, an order of attachment shall issue as in other cases, and shall be levied on such crop, or so much thereof as may be necessary; and all other proceedings in such attachment shall be the same as in other actions.

§ 230. Taxation of improvements

All improvements put on leased lands, that do not become a part of the realty, shall be assessed to the owner of such improvements as personal property; and the taxes imposed on such improvements shall be collected by levy and sale of the interest of such owner, the same as in all other cases of the collection of taxes on personal property.

§ 233. Lease presumed to be for one year

A lease of real property, other than lodgings, in a places where there is no usage on the subject, is presumed to be for one (1) year from its commencement, unless otherwise expressed in the lease.

§ 234. Reserved

§ 235. Continued possession renews the lease, when

If a lessee of real property remains in possession thereof, after the expiration of the lease and the lessor accepts rent from him, the parties are presumed to have renewed the lease on the same terms and for the same time, not exceeding one (1) year.

§ 236. Renewal of lease presumed unless notice of termination given

A lease of real property, for a term not specified by the parties, is deemed to be renewed, as stated in the last section, at the. end of the term implied by law, unless one of the parties gives notice to the other of his intention to terminate the same, at least as long before the expiration thereof as the term of the lease itself, not exceeding one (1) month.

§ 237. Rent payable, when

When there is no contract or usage to the contrary, the rent of agricultural and wild land is payable yearly at the end of each year. Rents of lodgings are payable monthly at the end of each month. Other rents are payable quarterly at the end of each quarter from the time the hiring takes effect. The rent for shorter period than the periods herein specified is payable at the termination of such period.

§ 238. Duty of tenant in case of proceedings

Every tenant who received notice of any proceeding to recover the real property occupied by him or the possession thereof must immediately inform his landlord of the same, and also deliver to the landlord the notice, if in writing, and is responsible to the landlord for all damages which said landlord may sustain by reason of any omission to inform him of the notice, or to deliver it to him if in writing.

§§ 239 to 250. Reserved

§ 251. Abandonment or surrender of non-residential rental property—Definitions

As used in the Cherokee Nation Landlord Non-Residential Tenant Act:

1. "Landlord" means the owner, lessor or sublessor of a non-residential rental property;
2. "Non-residential rental property" means any land or building which is rented or leased to a tenant for other than residential purposes and the rental agreement of which is not regulated under the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Residential Landlord and Tenant Act.
3. "Tenant" means any person entitled under a rental agreement to occupy the non-residential rental property.

§ 252. Abandonment or surrender of non-residential rental property—Disposition of personal property of tenant—Notice—Storage costs—Liability of landlord—Application of proceeds of sale

A. If a tenant abandons, surrenders possession of, or is evicted from non-residential rental property and leaves goods, furnishings, fixtures or any other personal property on the premises of the non-residential rental property, the landlord may take possession of the personal property ten (10) days after the tenant receives personal service of notice or fifteen (15) days after notice is mailed, whichever is latest, and if the personal property has no ascertainable or apparent value, the landlord may dispose of the personal property in a reasonable commercial manner. In any such case, the landlord has the option of complying with the provisions of subsection (B) of this section.

B. If the tenant abandons, surrenders possession of, or is evicted from the non-residential rental property and leaves goods, furnishings, fixtures or any other personal property of an ascertainable or apparent value on the premises of the non-residential rental property, the landlord may take possession of the personal property and give notice to the tenant, demanding that the personal property be removed within the dates set out in the notice but not less than (15) days after delivery or mailing of such notice, and that if the personal property is not removed within the time specified in the notice, the landlord may sell the personal property at a public sale. The landlord may dispose of perishable commodities in any manner the landlord considers fit. Payment by the tenant of all outstanding rent, damages, storage fees, court costs and attorney fees shall be a prerequisite to the return of the personal property. For purposes of this section, notice sent by registered or certified mail to the tenant's last-known address with forwarding requested shall be deemed sufficient notice.

C. After notice is given as provided in subsection (B) of this section, the landlord shall store all personal property of the tenant in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable care of the personal property. The landlord shall not be responsible to the tenant for any loss not caused by the landlord's deliberate or negligent act. The landlord may elect to store the personal property on the premises of the non-residential rental property that was abandoned or surrendered by the tenant or from which the tenant was evicted, in which event the storage cost may not exceed the fair rental value of the premises. If the tenant's personal property is removed to a commercial storage company, the storage cost shall include the actual charge for the storage and removal from the premises to the place of storage.

D. If the tenant makes timely response in writing of an intention to remove the personal property from the premises and does not do so within the later of the time specified in the notice provided for in subsection (B) of this section or within fifteen (15) days of the delivery or mailing of the tenant's written response, it shall be conclusively presumed that the tenant abandoned the personal property. If the tenant removes the personal property within the time limitations provided in this subsection, the landlord is entitled to the cost of storage for the period during which the personal property remained in the landlord's safekeeping plus all other costs that accrued under the rental agreement.

E. If the tenant fails to take possession of the personal property as prescribed in subsection (D) of this section and make payments of all amounts due and owing, the personal property shall be deemed abandoned and the landlord may thereupon sell the personal property in any reasonable manner without liability to the tenant.

F. Notice of sale shall be mailed to the owner and any other party claiming any interest in said personal property, if known, at their last-known post office address, by certified or registered mail at least ten (10) days before the time specified therein for such sale. For purposes of this section, parties who claim an interest in the personal property include holders of security interests or other liens or encumbrances as shown by the records in the office of the court clerk of the county where the lien would be foreclosed.

G. The landlord or any other person may in good faith become a purchaser of the personal property sold. The landlord may dispose of any personal property upon which no bid is made at the public sale.

H. The landlord may not be held to respond in damages in an action by a tenant claiming loss by reason of the landlord's electing to destroy, sell or otherwise dispose of the personal property in compliance with the provisions of this section. If, however, the landlord deliberately or negligently violated the provisions of this section, the landlord shall be liable for actual damages.

I. Any proceeds from the sale or other disposition of the personal property, as provided in subsection (B) of this section, shall be applied by the landlord in the following order:

1. to the reasonable expenses of taking, holding, preparing for sale or disposition, giving notice and selling or disposing thereof;
2. to the satisfaction of any properly recorded security interest;
3. to the satisfaction of any amount due from the tenant to the landlord for rent or otherwise;
4. the balance, if any, shall be paid into the court within thirty (30) days of the sale and held for six (6) months and, if not claimed by the owner of the personal property within that period, shall escheat to Cherokee Nation.

§ 253. Claims brought under the Landlord and Tenant Procedures Act

Actions under this act shall be brought in Cherokee Nation District Court and under the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Landlord and Tenant Procedures Act.

§ 254. Application

A. Except as otherwise provided in this act, this act applies to, regulates and determines rights, obligations and remedies under a rental agreement for a non-residential property located within any area over which Cherokee Nation exercises jurisdiction.

B. Any agreement, whether written or oral, shall be unenforceable insofar as that agreement, or any provision thereof, conflicts with any provision of this act.

CHAPTER 4

LANDLORD AND TENANT PROCEDURES ACT

§ 1751. Suits authorized under landlord and tenant procedures

Clerk of the Court (or Judge)

§ 1754. Preparation of affidavit—Copies

The claimant shall prepare such an affidavit as is set forth in 41 CNCA § 1753, or, at his request, the Clerk of said Court shall draft the same for him. Such affidavit may be presented by the claimant in person or sent to the Clerk by mail. Upon receipt of said affidavit, properly sworn to, the Clerk shall file the same and make a true and correct copy thereof, and the Clerk shall fill in the blanks in the order printed on said copy and sign the order.

§ 1755. Service of affidavit and order upon defendant

Unless service by the Marshal or other authorized person is requested by the plaintiff, the defendant shall be served by mail. The Clerk shall enclose a copy of the affidavit and the order in an envelope addressed to the defendant at the address stated in said affidavit, prepay the postage, and mail said envelope to said defendant by certified mail and request a return receipt from addressee only. The Clerk shall attach to the original affidavit the receipt for the certified letter and the return card thereon or other evidence of service of said affidavit and order. If the envelope is returned undelivered and sufficient time remains for making service, the Clerk shall deliver a copy of the affidavit and order to the Sheriff who shall serve the defendant in the time set in 41 CNCA § 1756.

§ 1756. Date for appearance of defendant

The date for the appearance of the defendant as provided in the order endorsed on the affidavit shall not be more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days from the date of said order. The order shall be served upon the defendant at least seven (7) days prior to the date specified in said order for the appearance of the defendant. If it is not served upon the defendant, the plaintiff must apply to the Clerk for a new order setting a new day for the appearance of the defendant, which shall not be more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days from the date of the issuance of the new order. When the Clerk has fixed the date for appearance of the defendant, he shall inform the plaintiff, either in person or by certified mail, of said date and order the plaintiff to appear on said date.

Notary Public (Clerk or Judge)

§ 1759. Reserved

§ 1760. Depositions—Interrogatories

No depositions shall be taken or interrogatories or other discovery proceeding shall be used under the landlord and tenant procedure except in aid of execution.

§ 1761. Trial by Court—Request for Reporter or jury—Evidence—Informality Actions under the landlord and tenant procedure shall be tried to the Court. Provided, however, if either party wishes a Reporter, he must notify the Clerk of the Court in writing at least forty-eight (48) hours before the time set for the defendant's appearance and must deposit with said notice with the clerk Fifty Dollars ($50.00). The party wishing a Reporter is liable for the cost of the Reporter and must make satisfactory arrangements with the Reporter for payment. The parties may have the proceedings recorded solely by electronic media. The plaintiff and the defendant shall have the right to offer evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing, and the Judge may call such witnesses and order the production of such documents as he may deem appropriate. The hearing and disposition of such action shall be informal with the sole object of dispensing speedy justice between the parties.

§ 1762. Payment of judgment

If judgment be rendered against either party for the payment of money, said party shall pay the same immediately or pay the judgment in accordance with a judgment satisfaction plan arranged by the Court. Each side shall pay its own attorney fees and court costs.

§ 1763. Appeals

Appeals may be taken from the judgment rendered under landlord and tenant procedure to the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court in the same manner as appeals are taken in other civil actions.

§ 1764. Fees

A fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) shall be charged and collected for the filing of the affidavit for the commencement of any action. If a pleading is served by the Marshal, the Court Clerk shall collect a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for the Marshal as a service fee. A private process server licensed by the State of Oklahoma may serve pleadings under this act. The party using the services of a private process server must pay the private process server directly. After judgment, the Court Clerk shall issue such process and shall be entitled to collect only such fees and charges as are allowed by law for like services in other actions. All fees collected as authorized by this section and 41 CNCA § 1772 shall be deposited with other fees that are collected by the District Court.

§ 1772. Judgments

Judgments for the payment of money shall be rendered only in determining adjustment of accounts as held by the landlord. The Court may issue writs for securing possession of real property pursuant to Cherokee Nation law.

§ 1773. Dismissal of action—Failure to file pleadings or serve process

A. Any action under the Landlord and Tenant Procedures Act which is not at issue and in which no pleading has been filed or other action taken for one (1) year and in which no motion has been pending during any part of the year shall be dismissed without prejudice by the Court on its own motion after notice to the parties or their attorneys of record; providing, the Court may, upon written application and for good cause shown by order in writing, allow the action to remain on its docket.

B. If service of process under the Landlord and Tenant Procedures Act is not made upon a defendant within one hundred eighty (180) days after the filing of the affidavit, the action shall be deemed to have been dismissed without prejudice as to that defendant. The action shall not be deemed to have been dismissed where a summons was served on the defendant within one hundred eighty (180) days after the filing of the affidavit and a Court later holds that the summons or its service was invalid. After a Court quashes a summons or its service, a new summons may be served on the defendant within a time specified by the Judge. If the new summons is not served within the specified time, the action shall be deemed to have been dismissed without prejudice as to that defendant. This subsection shall not apply with respect to a defendant who has been in a foreign country for one hundred eighty (180) days following the filing of the affidavit.

§ 1774. Forcible entry and detention

The District Court shall have jurisdiction to try all actions for the forcible entry and detention, or detention only, of real property, and claims for the collection of rent and damages to the premises, or claims arising under the Cherokee Nation Landlord and Tenant Act, may be included in the same action, but other claims may not be included in the same action. A judgment in an action brought under this act shall be conclusive as to any issues adjudicated therein, but it shall not be a bar to any other action brought by either party.

§ 1775. Powers of Court

The Court shall have power to inquire, in the manner hereinafter directed, as well against those who make unlawful and forcible entry into lands and tenements, unlawfully and by force hold the same, and if it be found, upon such inquiry, that an unlawful and forcible entry has been made, and that the same lands and tenements are held unlawfully, then the Court shall cause the party complainant to have restitution thereof.

§ 1776. Extent of jurisdiction

Proceedings under this act may be had in all cases against tenants holding over their terms and, incident thereto, to determine whether or not tenants are holding over their terms. This section is not to be construed as limiting the provisions of the preceding section.

§ 1777. Issuance and return of summons

The summons shall be issued and returned as in other cases, except that it shall command the Marshal or other person serving it, to summon the defendant to appear for trial at the time and place specified therein, which time shall be not less than five (5) days nor more than ten (10) days from the date that the summons is issued. The summons shall apprise the defendant of the nature of the claim that is being asserted against him; and there shall be endorsed upon the summons the relief sought and the amount for which the plaintiff will take judgment if the defendant fails to appear. In all cases, pleadings may be amended to conform to the evidence.

§ 1778. Service of summons

The summons may be served as in other cases except that such service shall be at least three (3) days before the day of trial, and the return day shall not be later than the day of trial, and it may also be served by leaving a copy thereof with some person over fifteen (15) years of age, residing on the premises, at least three (3) days before the day of trial; or, if service cannot be made by the exercise of reasonable diligence on the tenant or on any person over the age of fifteen (15) years residing on the premises, the same may be served by certified mail with return receipt postmarked at least three (3) days before the date of trial.

§ 1779. Constructive service of summons

If, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, service cannot be made upon the defendant personally nor upon any person residing upon the premises over fifteen (15) years of age, then in lieu of service by certified mail, service may be obtained for the sole purpose of adjudicating the right to restitution of the premises by the Marshal's posting said summons conspicuously on the building on the premises, then by posting the same at some conspicuous place on the premises sought to be recovered at least five (5) days prior to the date of trial, and by the claimant's mailing a copy of said summons to the defendant at his last-known address by certified mail at least five (5) days prior to said date of trial. Such service shall confer no jurisdiction upon the Court to render any judgment against the defendant for the payment of money nor for any relief other than the restoration of possession of the premises to the claimant, unless the defendant appears at trial. Such service shall not be rendered ineffectual by the failure of the defendant to actually see or receive such posted process nor by his failure to actually receive or sign a return receipt for such mailed process.

§ 1780. Answer or affidavit by defendant

A. In all cases in which the defendant wishes to assert title to the land or that the boundaries of the land are in dispute, he shall, before the time for the trial of the cause, file a verified answer or any affidavit of the facts constituting his defense of title or boundary dispute. If the defendant files such a verified answer or affidavit, the action shall proceed as one in ejectment before the District Court. If the defendant files an affidavit he shall file answer with ten (10) days after the date the affidavit is filed.

B. In all cases in which the cause of action is based on an asserted breach of a lease by the defendant, or the termination or expiration of a lease under which the defendant claims an interest in the property in a verified answer or affidavit, the plaintiff may proceed with the forcible entry and detainer action instead of an ejectment action.

C. No answer by the defendant shall be required before the time for trial of the cause.

§ 1781. Trial by Court

Trial shall be by the Court.

§ 1782. Writ of execution—Form

If judgment be for plaintiff, the Court shall, at the request of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, issue a writ of execution thereon, which shall be in substantially the following form:

Cherokee Nation to Marshal of Cherokee Nation:

Whereas, in a certain action for the forcible entry and detention (or for the forcible detention as the case any be) of the following described premises, to wit ____ lately tried before me, wherein ____ was the plaintiff, and ____ was the defendant, judgment was rendered on the ____ day of ____, 20 ____, that the plaintiff have restitution of said premises; and also that he recover rent in the sum of ____; you, therefore, are hereby commanded to cause the defendant to be forthwith removed from said premises and the said plaintiff to have restitution of the same; also that you levy on the goods and chattels of the said defendant, and make legal service and due return.

Witness my hand this ____ day of ____, 20 ____

A.B., Judge

A motion for a new trial may be filed only within three (3) days of judgment but shall not operate to stay execution.

§ 1783. Stay of execution by posting supersedeas bond

If no supersedeas bond be posted within the time provided herein, the officer shall forthwith restore the plaintiff to possession of the premises by executing the writ prescribed in the preceding section of the statutes and shall make levy to collect the amount of the judgment. The officer's return shall be upon other executions. The defendant shall have three (3) days after the date of judgment to post a supersedeas bond conditioned as provide by law. This time limit may be enlarged by a Trial Judge's order to not more than ten (10) days after the date of judgment. The posting of a supersedeas bond shall not be construed to relieve the defendant of his duty to pay current rent as it becomes due while the appeal is pending. Then rent shall be paid into the Court Clerk's office together with poundage. If there be controversy as to the amount of rent, the Judge shall determine by order how much shall be paid in what time intervals. Withdrawal by the plaintiff of rent deposited in the Court Clerk's office pending appeal shall not operate to estop him from urging on appeal his right to the possession of the premises. Failure to pay current rental while the appeal is pending shall be considered as abandonment of the appeal.

TITLE 43

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Marriage as civil contract—Consent of parties

Marriage, so far as its validity in law is concerned, is a civil contract between one man and one woman, to which the consent of the parties, capable in law of contracting, is essential.

§ 2. Who may be married

Every person who shall have attained the age of eighteen (18) years shall be capable in law of contracting marriage, if otherwise competent. But in all cases where the person is less than eighteen (18) years of age, the consent of the mother, father, or guardian of such minor shall be given; otherwise such marriage shall be null and void unless it shall appear that the parties have no parent or guardian then living, and at the time of marriage are self-dependent.

§ 3. Who may not be married

No marriage shall be contracted whilst either of the parties has a husband or wife living; nor between parties who are nearer of kin than first cousins whether of the half or of the whole blood; nor between parties who are insane or idiotic nor between parties of the same gender.

§ 4. Who may perform marriages

Marriages may be solemnized by any of the Judges of the Courts of this Nation, or by any ordained minister of the Gospel in regular communion with any religious society, or by religious leaders of the Keetoowah Society or the Four Mothers Society. Judges, ministers or religious leaders shall obtain a license from the Court Clerk of the Nation. A thirty- (30) day notice and objection period will follow the application for the license. If there are no objections, the license will be granted at the close of the period. If there are objections, the license will not be granted until the District Court of Cherokee Nation has ruled on the validity of the objections. The Court Clerk may charge a reasonable fee for the license.

§ 5. Form of marriage

No particular form of marriage shall be required in the solemnization of marriages, except that the parties shall solemnly declare in the presence of the Judge, minister, or religious leader officiating, that they take each other as husband and wife.

§ 6. Report

It shall be the duty of all persons who shall, within the Nation, join two (2) citizens thereof in wedlock, or who shall so join a citizen thereof with a citizen of any other government, to report the same to the Court Clerk for registration, giving the full names of the contracting parties, their ages and previous places of residence on a certificate obtained by the contracting parties from the Court Clerk. The Clerk shall at once make record of the same, in a book to be kept for that purpose.

§ 7. Violation of preceding section

Every person who shall, within the Nation, violate the provisions of this act by joining minors in the bonds of matrimony without the consent of the father, mother or guardian, except as hereinbefore expressly provided, shall be liable to a fine or to imprisonment at the discretion of the Court.

§ 8. Prohibited marriages declared void

All marriages which are herein prohibited on account of consanguinity between the parties, or on account of either of them having a former husband or wife then living, shall be absolutely void in this Nation, without any judgment of divorce or other legal proceeding.

§ 9. Common law marriage

The Cherokee Nation shall recognize that a "common law marriage" exists when parties, capable of entering into a marital relation, agree to become husband and wife without a formal ceremony, and thereafter publicly maintain such relation.

§ 10. Adultery defined—Who may institute prosecution

Adultery is the unlawful voluntary sexual intercourse of a married person with one of the opposite sex; and when the crime is between persons, only one of whom is married, both are guilty of adultery. Prosecution for adultery can be commenced and carried on against either of the parties to the crime only by his or her own husband or wife as the case may be, or by the husband or wife of the other party to the crime; Provided, that any person may make complaint when persons are living together in open and notorious adultery.

§ 11. Punishment for adultery

Every person guilty of the crime of adultery shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding one (1) year or by fine not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 12. Bigamy defined

Every person who having been married to another who remains living, marries any other person except in the cases specified in the next section is guilty of bigamy.

§ 13. Exceptions to the rule of bigamy

The last preceding section does not extend:

1. To any person whose husband or wife by a former marriage has been absent for five (5) successive years without being known to such person within that time to be living; nor
2. To any person whose husband or wife by a former marriage has absented himself or herself from his wife or husband and has been continually remaining without the United States for a space of five (5) years together; nor
3. To any person by reason of any former marriage which has been pronounced void, annulled or dissolved by the judgment of a competent court; nor
4. To any person by reason of any former marriage with a husband or wife who has been sentenced to imprisonment for life.

§ 14. Punishment of bigamy

Every person guilty of bigamy is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding one (1) year.

CHAPTER 5

OFFICE OF CHILD SUPPORT SERVICES

§ 500. Office of Child Support Enforcement recognized—Duties

Cherokee Nation hereby recognizes the Office of Child Support Services ("CSS" or "Office") of the Human Services Department. The Legislature further recognizes that CSS may enter into contracts within and without Cherokee Nation for purposes of enforcement of child support orders. In all cases involving unmarried children under the age of eighteen (18) years or through the age of twenty (20) if regularly attending high school, the Court may order that child support be computed and/or collected by CSS.

1. When the Court orders that child support shall be computed and/or collected by CSS, the parties shall be ordered to provide proof of income to CSS within ten (10) business days of the court order. If a party does not comply with such order, then all income alleged by the opposing party shall be accepted as true.
2. When so ordered, CSS shall act as a referee of the Court, compute the amount(s) to be paid as child support, method(s) of payment, and all other necessary determinations within twenty (20) days of the court order. CSS shall provide such determinations to the parties and to the Court for placement in the case file. The Court shall accept the determinations of CSS as a child support order upon receipt.
3. If a party takes issue with a determination of CSS, the party may apply to the Court for a hearing on the matter. If an application for hearing is granted, the matter shall be heard within thirty (30) days.

§ 500A. Definitions

A. "Address of record" means an address for a party or a custodial person in a child support case that is used for service of process in child support actions. An address of record is a public record and may be different from the party's or custodial person's physical address.

B. "Child" means:

1. a person under eighteen (18) years of age; and
2. a person eighteen (18) or more years of age with respect to whom a child support order has been issued pursuant to the laws of a state.

C. "Child support" means a payment of money, continuing support, or arrearages or the provision of a benefit (including payment of health insurance, child care, and educational expenses) for the support of a child.

D. "Child support order":

1. means a judgment, decree, or order of a court requiring the payment of child support in periodic amounts or in a lump sum; and

2. includes:

a. a permanent or temporary order; and

b. an initial order or a modification of an order.

E. "Court" means a court or administrative agency of a state or tribe that is authorized by state or tribal law to establish the amount of child support payable by a contestant or make a modification of a child support order.

F. "Custodial parent" means a parent who has physical custody of a child.

G. "Custodial party" means a court-appointed caretaker who has physical custody of a child.

H. "IV–D case" means a case in which child support services are being provided under Cherokee Nation's child support plan as approved by the Federal Administration for Children and Families.

I. "Modification" means a change in a child support order that affects the amount, scope, or duration of the order and modifies, replaces, supersedes, or otherwise is made subsequent to the child support order.

J. "Non-custodial parent" means a parent who does not have physical custody of a child.

§ 501. Costs in child support services cases

Costs incurred in a child support enforcement case through the Office of Child Support Services shall be recorded by the Court Clerk. Reasonable costs may be assessed by the Court against the noncustodial parent at the conclusion of the proceedings.

§ 502. Agreements to obtain certain necessary information

A. 1. The Office of Child Support Services shall maintain a central case registry on all Title IV–D (42 U.S.C. § 651 et seq.) cases and all child support orders established or modified in Cherokee Nation after the date of the enactment of this subsection.

2. In Title IV–D cases, the case registry shall include, but not be limited to, information required to be transmitted to the federal case registry pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 654A.

B. 1. All orders entered after the date of the enactment of this subsection, which establish paternity or establish, modify or enforce a child support obligation shall state for all parties and custodians subject to the order:

a. an address of record for service of process in support, visitation and custody actions, and

b. the address of record may be different from the party's or custodian's physical address.

2. The address shall be maintained by the central case registry. The order shall direct that any changes in the address of record shall be provided in writing to the Office of Child Support Services within thirty (30) days of the change. The address of record is subject to disclosure to a party or custodian upon request pursuant to the provisions of this section and rules promulgated by the Office of Child Support Services. The Office of Child Support Services may refuse to disclose address and location information if the Office has reasonable evidence of domestic violence or child abuse and the disclosure of such information could be harmful to a party, custodian or child.

C. 1. All parties and custodians ordered to provide an address of record to the Office of child Support Services as specified in this section may, in subsequent child support actions, be served with process by regular mail to the last address of record provided to the Office of Child Support Services.

2. Proof of service shall be made by a certificate of mailing from a United States Post Office.

D. The Office of Child Support Services shall promulgate rules as necessary to implement the provisions of this section.

§ 503. Establishment—Enforcement and modification of orders for support—Confidential records

A. When a party has filed an application with the Child Support Services Office, the Office may petition the District Court for an order:

1. Requiring health insurance for the dependent children whenever it is available through employment at a reasonable cost;

2. Establishing paternity;

3. Requiring child support or other support;

4. Enforcing orders for paternity, child support, or other support;

5. Requiring that the obligor keep the Office informed of the name and address of the current employer of the obligor and of any health insurance information of the obligor within thirty (30) days of any change;

6. Providing for collection and distribution of child support monies; and

7. Assisting in the location of absent parents and their assets, in cooperation with federal agencies, other agencies of the various states, territories, and foreign nations requesting assistance with the enforcement of support orders entered in the United States and elsewhere.

B. The Office of Child Support Services may petition to modify an order of support, on request of the payor or payee, if the income of either party increases or decreases by fifteen percent (15%) or more or if the combined incomes of the parties increase or decrease such that the difference in the combined monthly incomes of the parties is fifteen percent (15%) more or less than the combined monthly income in the most recent support order or if there is a material change of circumstances for any of the parties.

C. Except as otherwise authorized by law, all files and records concerning the assistance and services provided under this section or concerning a putative father of a child born out of wedlock are confidential. Release of information from the files and records shall be restricted to purposes directly connected with the administration of the child support collection/enforcement, paternity determination, or parent location.

§ 504. CSS attorneys represent Cherokee Nation

A. The attorneys for CSS represent Cherokee Nation and not the interests of any other party. Providing services under 43 CNCA § 500 et seq. does not create an attorney-client relationship with any other party.

B. No attorney providing services under 43 CNCA § 500 et seq. shall be authorized to accept service for any party other than the Office of Child Support Services or Cherokee Nation.

§ 505. Office of Child Support Services to follow Cherokee Nation child support guidelines

The amount of child support and other support shall be ordered and reviewed in accordance with the child support guidelines provided in 43 CNCA § 508.

§ 506. Child support

A. In all cases involving minor children, child support shall be determined or redetermined or as the case may be upon hearing an application of either parent for any affirmative relief.

1. A person under the age of twenty (20) and not graduated from a high school shall be considered a minor child provided the child is regularly attending public or private school.

2. A person under the age of eighteen (18) shall be considered a minor child.

B. The Court shall determine child support by referring the parties to the Cherokee Nation Office of Child Support Services (CSS) to act as referee to determine child support pursuant to guidelines established by 43 CNCA § 508 et seq.

C. Should either the payor or payee of child support take issue with the ruling of CSS, said party may appeal the child support order within ten (10) days of CSS's filing of the determination with the Court. Hearing on such appeal shall be a de novo review, however, either party may request the CSS appear before the Court to explain the determination made on the basis that CSS maintains expertise in child support determination.

D. Absent specific direction of the Court, all child support shall be due on the first day of each month.

E. The CSS may institute child support collection cases in the name of the Cherokee Nation on behalf of any payee for whom CSS is collecting support; nothing herein shall prevent any payee of child support from retaining independent counsel and collecting child support directly in the name of the payee.

F. Any attorney retained to collect child support for a payee shall provide notice to CSS of being so retained. Said attorney shall report all child support legal action and collection to CSS within ten (10) days of such action or collection.

CHAPTER 6

CHILD SUPPORT GUIDELINES

§ 507. Purpose

The purpose is to provide child support guidelines for Cherokee Nation. The child support guidelines as provided herein shall be used by the courts of Cherokee Nation in any proceeding which involves the care, custody and control of minor children and/or incompetents and the Court determines a need for child support to be provided by one or more parties.

§ 508. Child Support Guidelines

A. There shall be a rebuttable presumption in any judicial or administrative proceeding for the award of child support, that the amount of the award which would result from the application of the following guidelines is the correct amount of child support to be awarded.

B. The Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations, 43 O.S. § 119, as amended, assumes that all families incur certain child-rearing expenses and includes in the basic child support obligation an average amount to cover these expenses for various levels of the parents' combined income and number of children, comprised of housing, food, transportation, basic educational expenses, clothing, and entertainment.

C. The District Court shall have the authority to deviate from the guidelines, up or down, if the Court finds that doing so is in the best interest of the child or application would be unjust or inappropriate. The standard of proof shall be preponderance of the evidence.

§ 508A. Definitions

A. "Child" means:

1. a person under eighteen (18) years of age: and
2. a person eighteen (18) or more years of age with respect to whom a child support order has been issued pursuant to the laws of a state.

B. "Child support" means a payment of money, continuing support or arrearages or the provision of a benefit (including payment of health insurance, child care, and educational expenses) for the support of a child.

C. "Child support order":

1. means a judgment, decree, or order of a court requiring the payment of child support in periodic amounts or in a lump sum: and
2. includes:
 - a. a permanent or temporary order, and
 - b. an initial order or a modification of an order.

D. "Court" means a court or administrative agency of a state or tribe that is authorized by state or tribal law to establish the amount of child support payable by a contestant or make a modification of a child support order.

E. "Custodial parent" means a parent who has physical custody of a child.

F. "Custodial party" means a court-appointed caretaker who has physical custody of a child.

G. "Non-custodial parent" means a parent who does not have physical custody of a child.

H. "Obligee" means the person or entity to whom a support obligation is owed.

I. "Obligor" means the person who is required to make payments under an order for support.

J. "Overnight" means the child is in the physical custody and control of a parent for an overnight period of at least twelve (12) hours, and that parent has made a reasonable expenditure of resources for the care of the child. The twelve- (12) hour period could be during the day if the child is under school age.

§ 508B. Computation of gross income—Imputed income—Self employment income—Fringe benefits—Social Security Title II benefits

A. As used in this act:

1. "Earned income" is defined as income received from labor or the sale of goods or services and includes, but is not limited to, income from:

- a. salaries;
- b. wages;
- c. tips;
- d. commissions;
- e. bonuses; and
- f. military pay.

2. "Gross income" includes earned and passive income from any source, except as excluded in this section.

3. "Passive income" is defined as all other income and includes, but is not limited to, income from:

- a. dividends;
- b. pensions;
- c. rent;
- d. interest income;
- e. trust income;
- f. support alimony being received from someone other than the other parent in this case;
- g. annuities;
- h. social security benefits;
- i. workers' compensation benefits;
- j. unemployment insurance benefits;
- k. disability insurance benefits;

l. gifts;

m. prizes;

n. gambling winnings;

o. lottery winnings; and

p. royalties.

B. Income specifically excluded is:

1. Actual child support received for children not before the Court;

2. Adoption assistance subsidy paid by the Department of Human Services;

3. Benefits received from means-tested public assistance programs including, but not limited to:

a. Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF),

b. Supplemental Security Income (SSI),

c. food stamps, and

d. General Assistance and State Supplemental Payments for Aged, Blind and the Disabled;

4. The income of the child from any source, including, but not limited to, trust income and social security benefits drawn on the disability of the child;

5. Payments received by the parent for the care of foster children.

C. 1. For purposes of computing gross income of the parents, gross income shall include for each parent whichever is the most equitable of:

a. all actual monthly income described in this section, plus such overtime and supplemental income as the Court deems equitable, or

b. the average of the gross monthly income for the time actually employed during the previous three (3) years, or

c. the minimum wage paid for a forty- (40) hour week, or

d. gross monthly income imputed as set forth in subsection (D) of this section.

2. If a parent is permanently physically or mentally incapacitated, the child support obligation shall be computed on the basis of actual monthly gross income.

D. Imputed income.

1. Instead of using the actual or average income of a parent, the Court may impute gross income to a parent under the provisions of this section if equitable.

2. The following factors may be considered by the court when making a determination of willful and voluntary underemployment or unemployment:

a. whether a parent has been determined by the Court to be willfully or voluntarily underemployed or unemployed, including whether unemployment or underemployment for the purpose of pursuing additional training or education is reasonable in light of the obligation of the parent to support his or her children and, to this end, whether the training or education will ultimately benefit the child in the case immediately under consideration by increasing the parent's level of support for that child in the future,

b. when there is no reliable evidence of income,

c. the past and present employment of the parent,

d. the education, training, and ability to work of the parent,

e. the lifestyle of the parent, including ownership of valuable assets and resources, whether in the name of the parent or the current spouse of the parent, that appears inappropriate or unreasonable for the income claimed by the parent,

f. the role of the parent as caretaker of a handicapped or seriously ill child of that parent, or any other handicapped or seriously ill relative for whom that parent has assumed the role of caretaker which eliminates or substantially reduces the ability of the parent to work outside the home, and the need of that parent to continue in that role in the future, or

g. any other factors deemed relevant to the particular circumstances of the case.

E. Self-employment income.

1. Income from self-employment includes income from, but not limited to. business operations, work as an independent contractor or consultant, sales of goods or services, and rental properties, less ordinary and reasonable expenses necessary to produce such income.

2. A determination of business income for tax purposes shall not control for purposes of determining a child support obligation. Amounts allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for accelerated depreciation or investment tax credits shall not be considered reasonable expenses.

3. The District or Administrative Court shall deduct from self-employment gross income an amount equal to the employer contribution for F.I.C.A. tax which an employer would withhold from an employee's earnings on an equivalent gross income amount.

F. Fringe benefits.

1. Fringe benefits for inclusion as income or in-kind remuneration received by a parent in the course of employment, or operation of a trade or business, may be counted as income if they significantly reduce personal living expenses.

2. Such fringe benefits might include, but are not limited to: company car, housing, or room and board.

3. Basic Allowance for Housing, Basic Allowance for Subsistence, and Variable Housing Allowances for service members are considered income for the purposes of determining child support.

4. Fringe benefits do not include employee benefits that are typically added to the salary, wage, or other compensation that a parent may receive as a standard added benefit such as employer contributions to portions of health insurance premiums or employer contributions to a retirement or pension plan.

G. Social Security Title II benefits.

1. Social Security Title II benefits received by a child shall be included as income to the parent on whose account the benefit of the child is drawn and applied against the support obligation ordered to be paid by that parent. If the benefit of the child is drawn from the disability of the child, the benefit of the child is not added to the income of either parent and not deducted from the obligation of either parent.

2. Child support greater than social security benefit. If the child support award due after calculating the child support guidelines is greater than the social security benefit received on behalf of the child, the obligor shall be required to pay the amount exceeding the social security benefit as part of the child support award in the case.

3. Child support equal to or less than social security benefits.

a. If the child support award due after calculating the child support guidelines is less than or equal to the social security benefit received on behalf of the child, the child support obligation of that parent is met and no additional child support amount must be paid by that parent.

b. Any social security benefit amounts which are greater than the support ordered by the Court shall be retained by the caretaker for the benefit of the child and shall not be used as a reason for decreasing the child support order or reducing arrearages.

c. The child support computation form shall include a notation regarding the use of social security benefits as offset.

4. a. Calculation of child support as provided in subsection (F) of this section shall be effective no earlier than the date on which the motion to modify was filed.

b. The Court may determine if under the circumstances of the case, it is appropriate to credit social security benefits paid to the custodial person prior to a modification of child support against the past-due child support obligation of the noncustodial parent.

c. Any credit granted by the Court pursuant to subparagraph b of this paragraph shall be limited to the time period during which the social security benefit was paid, or the time period covered by a lump sum for past social security benefits.

§ 508C. Deductions from gross income for qualified other children

A. Deductions for other children of either parent who are qualified under this section may be considered by the Court for the purpose of reducing the gross income of the parent. Adjustments are available for a child:

1. Who is the biological, legal, or adopted child of the parent;
2. Who was born prior to the child in the case under consideration;
3. Whom the parent is actually supporting; and
4. Who is not before the Court to set, modify, or enforce support in the case immediately under consideration.

B. Children for whom support is being determined in the case under consideration, stepchildren, and other minors in the home that the parent has no legal obligation to support shall not be considered in the calculation of this deduction.

C. If the Court finds a parent has a parent-child relationship with a child not before the Court, the Court may grant a deduction for that child as set forth in subsection (D) of this section.

D. Calculation of deduction for qualified other children.

1. Out-of-home children.

a. To receive a deduction against gross income for child support provided pursuant to a court order for qualified other children whose primary residence is not in the home of the parent seeking deduction, the parent shall establish the existence of a support order and provide documented proof of support paid for the other child consistently over a reasonable and extended period of time prior to the initiation of the proceeding that is immediately under consideration by the tribunal, but in any event, such time period shall not be less than twelve (12) months.

b. Documented proof of support includes:

i. physical evidence of monetary payments to the caretaker of the child, such as canceled checks or money orders, and ii evidence of payment of child support under another child support order, such as a payment history from a tribunal clerk or child support office.

c. The available deduction against gross income for either parent's qualified children not in the home of the parent is the actual documented court-ordered current monthly child support obligation of the qualified other children, averaged to a monthly amount of support paid over the most recent twelve-month period.

2. In-home children.

a. To receive a deduction against gross income for qualified prior-born other children whose primary residence is with the parent seeking deduction, but who are not part of the case being determined, the parent must establish a legal duty of support and that the child resides with the parent more than fifty percent (50%) of the time. Documents that may be used to establish that the parent and child share the same residence include the school or medical records showing the address of the child and the utility bills of the parents mailed to the same address, court orders reflecting the parent is the primary residential parent or that the parent shares the parenting time of the child fifty percent (50%) of the time.

b. The deduction for other qualified children shall be computed as a hypothetical child support order calculated using the deduction worksheet the gross income of the parents, the total number of qualified other children living in the home of the parent, and the Child Support Guideline Schedule.

c. The available deduction against gross income for the qualified in-home children of either parent is seventy-five percent (75%) of a hypothetical support order calculated according to these Guidelines, using the Deduction Worksheet, the gross income of the parent less any self-employment taxes paid, the total number of qualified other children living in the home of the parents, and the Child Support Guideline Schedule in 43 O.S. § 119, as amended.

§ 508D. Computation of child support as percentage of parents' combined gross income—Prospective adjustment—Transportation expenses—Support order summary form

A. All child support shall be computed as a percentage of the combined gross income of both parents. The Child Support Guideline Schedule as provided in 43 O.S. § 119, as amended, shall be used for such computation. The child support obligation of each parent shall be computed. The share of the obligor shall be paid monthly to the obligee and shall be due on a specific date.

B. In cases in which one parent has sole physical custody, the adjusted monthly gross income of both parents shall be added together and the Child Support Guideline Schedule consulted for the total combined base monthly obligation for child support.

C. After the total combined child support is determined, the percentage share of each parent shall be allocated by computing the percentage contribution of each parent to the combined adjusted gross income and allocating that same percentage to the child support obligation to determine the base child support obligation of each parent.

D. 1. In cases of split physical custody, where each parent is awarded physical custody of at least one (1) of the children for whom the parents are responsible, the child support obligation for each parent shall be calculated by application of the Child Support Guidelines for each custodial arrangement.

2. The parent with the larger child support obligation shall pay the difference between the two amounts to the parent with the smaller child support obligation.

E. Child support shall be computed as set forth in subsections (A) through (D) of this section in every case, regardless of whether the custodial arrangement is designated as sole custody or joint custody.

F. The Court, to the extent reasonably possible, shall make provision in an order for prospective adjustment of support to address any foreseen changes including, but not limited to: changes in medical insurance, child care expenses, medical expenses, extraordinary costs, and the satisfaction of jointly acquired debt of the parents used as a deduction from the gross income of a parent.

§ 508E. Parenting time adjustment—Reduction in child support obligation

A. Parenting time adjustment.

1. The adjustment may be granted based upon a court order or agreement that the noncustodial parent is granted at least one hundred twenty-one (121) overnights of parenting time per twelve-(12) month period with the children in the case under consideration.

2. Average parenting time. If there are multiple children for whom support is being calculated, and the parent seeking the parenting time adjustment is spending a different amount of time with each child, then an annual average of parenting time with all of the children shall be calculated.

B. In cases of split physical custody, either parent may be eligible for a parenting time adjustment.

C. Parenting time adjustments are not mandatory, but presumptive. The presumption may be rebutted in a case where the circumstances indicate the adjustment is not in the best interest of the child or that the increased parenting time by the noncustodial parent does not result in greater expenditures which would justify a reduction in the support obligation.

D. Reduction in child support obligation for additional parenting time.

1. If the parent receiving the parenting time adjustment is granted one hundred twenty-one (121) or more overnights of parenting time per twelve- (12) month period with a child, or an average of one hundred twenty-one (121) overnights with all applicable children, a reduction to the child support obligation of the parent may be made as set forth in this section.

2. A parenting time adjustment shall be made to the base monthly child support obligation by the following formula: The total combined base monthly child support obligation shall be multiplied by a factor determined by the number of overnights granted to the noncustodial parent. The result shall be designated the adjusted combined child support obligation. In a case where the noncustodial parent is granted:

a. one hundred twenty-one (121) overnights to one hundred thirty-one (131) overnights, the factor shall be two (2);

b. one hundred thirty-two (132) overnights to one hundred forty-three (143) overnights, the factor shall be one and three-quarters (1.75); or

c. one hundred forty-four (144) or more overnights, the factor shall be one and one-half (1.5).

3. To determine the adjusted child support obligation of each parent, the adjusted combined child support obligation shall be divided between the parents in proportion to their respective adjusted gross incomes.

4. a. The percentage of time a child spends with each parent shall be calculated by determining the number of overnights for each parent and dividing that number by three hundred sixty-five (365).

b. The share of the adjusted combined child support obligation for each parent shall then be multiplied by the percentage of time the child spends with the other parent to determine the base child support obligation owed to the other parent.

c. The respective adjusted base child support obligations for each parent are then offset, with the parent owing more base child support paying the difference between the two amounts to the other parent. The base child support obligation of the parent owing the lesser amount is then set at zero dollars ($0.00).

5. The parent owing the greater amount of base child support shall pay the difference between the two amounts as a child support order. In no event shall the provisions of this paragraph be construed to authorize or allow the payment of child support by a parent having more than two hundred five (205) overnights.

E. 1. Failure to exercise or exercising more than the number of overnights upon which the parenting time adjustment is based, is a material change of circumstances.

2. If the Court finds that the obligor has failed to exercise a significant number of the overnights provided in the court order necessary to receive the parenting time adjustment in a proceeding to modify the child support order, the Court may establish the amount that the obligor has underpaid due to the application of the parenting time adjustment as a child support judgment that may be enforced in the same manner as any other child support judgment.

3. The Court may rule that the obligor will not receive the parenting time adjustment for the next twelve- (12) month period. After a twelve- (12) month period during which the obligor did not receive the parenting time adjustment the obligor may petition the Court to modify the child support order. The obligor may be granted a prospective parenting time adjustment upon a showing that the obligor has actually exercised the threshold number of overnights in the preceding twelve (12) months. No retroactive modification or credit from the child support guidelines amount shall be granted based on this section.

§ 509. Child support orders to include provision for income assignment—Voluntary income assignment—In-kind payment

A. In all child support cases arising out of an action for divorce, paternity or other proceeding, the Court shall order the wage of the obligor subject to immediate income assignment, regardless of whether support payments by such parent are in arrears, unless:

1. one (1) of the parties demonstrates and the Court finds there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
2. a signed, written agreement is reached between the parties which provides for an alternative arrangement and approved by the Court.

B. The obligated party may execute a voluntary income assignment at any time. The voluntary assignment shall be filed with the Court and shall take effect after service on the payor.

C. With the consent of the custodial parent and under the supervision of the Office, the payor may make payments of in-kind goods or services. In-kind payments cannot be used to pay arrearages.

§ 510. Child support orders to include provision for health insurance and day care expenses

In all cases where child support is ordered, such order may include provisions for providing or sharing the expenses of health insurance and/or other out-of-pocket medical costs of the minor child(ren), and for employment-related day care expenses.

§ 511. Security or bond for payment of child support

The Court may order a person obligated to support a minor child to post a security, bond, or other guarantee in a form and amount satisfactory to the Court to ensure the payment of child support.

§ 512. Past due support payments as judgment—Arrearage payment schedule

A. Any payment or installment of child support ordered pursuant to any order, judgment, or decree of the Court or administrative order of Cherokee Nation, another tribal government, or a state department of human services, or an equivalent state/tribal organization, is, on and after the date it becomes past due, a judgment by operation of law. Judgments for past due support shall:

1. have the full force and effect of any other judgment of Cherokee Nation, including the ability to be enforced by any method available under the laws of Cherokee Nation and the State of Oklahoma to enforce and collect money judgments; and

2. be entitled to full faith and credit as a judgment in Cherokee Nation and any state or tribal government.

3. An order that provides for payment of child support, if willfully disobeyed, may be enforced by indirect civil contempt proceedings, notwithstanding that the support payment is a judgment on and after the date it becomes past due. Any amounts determined to be past due by the Court may subsequently be enforced by indirect civil contempt proceedings.

B. An arrearage payment schedule set by the Court or administrative order of Cherokee Nation shall not exceed three (3) years, unless imposition of a payment schedule would be unjust, inequitable, unreasonable, or inappropriate under the circumstances, or not in the best interests of the child or children involved. When making this determination, reasonable support obligations of either parent for other children in the custody of the parent may be considered. If an arrearage payment schedule that exceeds three (3) years is set, specific findings of fact supporting the action shall be made.

C. The Office of Child Support Services shall have the authority to negotiate a lump sum payment to settle a child support arrearage and interest due thereon. Consent of the payee shall be required.

§ 513. Modification, suspension or termination of income assignment order

A person obligated to pay support or the person entitled to the support may petition the Court to:

1. modify, suspend, or terminate the order for income assignment because of a modification, suspension, or termination of the underlying order for support; or

2. modify the amount of income to be withheld to reflect payment in full of the delinquency by income assignment or otherwise.

§ 514. Interest on delinquent child support and judgments

If the order is established under Cherokee Nation law, delinquent court-ordered child support payments and child support judgments (whether accrual or arrearage) may draw interest at the rate of five percent (5%) per year, and the interest shall be collected in the same manner as the payments upon which the interest accrues. If the order is established under another jurisdiction's laws, interest shall accrue based on the law of the jurisdiction from which the order originated. Private interest may be waived by the custodial parent/party and/or by the Court if the non-custodial parent makes regular, consistent payments and no arrearage exists.

§ 515. Child support computation form

A. A child support computation form shall be signed by the Judge and incorporated as a part of all orders which establish or modify a child support obligation.

B. When services are not being provided by the Office of Child Support Services, a support order summary form shall be prepared by the attorney of record or the pro se litigant and presented to the Judge with all orders which establish paternity or establish, modify or enforce a child support obligation. No paternity or child support order shall be signed by the Judge without presentation of the support order summary form. After the order is signed by the Judge, the summary of support order form may be submitted to the to the Office of Child Support Services for collection and enforcement.

§ 516. Children not otherwise considered

A. Any parent that has child support calculated may submit a child support calculation for any child not otherwise considered in the calculation of child support, provided such parent is, in fact, the legal parent of such child and such parent actually supports the child to the extent identified in the child support calculation form.

B. The Court may consider any and all support provided to such child in determining the child support calculation and in its discretion may deduct the child support attributed to such parent in the same manner as for approved child support deductions.

§ 517. Full faith and credit for child support orders validly issued by foreign jurisdictions

A. General rule. The Office of Child Support Services:

1. shall enforce according to its terms a child support order made consistently with this section by a court of another state; and
2. shall not seek or make a modification of such an order except in accordance with subsections (E), (F), and (I).

B. Definitions. In this section:

1. "Child" means:

- a. a person under eighteen (18) years of age; and
- b. a person eighteen (18) or more years of age with respect to whom a child support order has been issued pursuant to the laws of a state.

2. "Child's home state" means the state in which a child lived with a parent or a person acting as parent for at least 6 consecutive months immediately preceding the time of filing of a petition or comparable pleading for support and, if a child is less than 6 months old, the state in which the child lived from birth with any of them. A period of temporary absence of any of them is counted as part of the 6-month period.

3. "Child's state" means the state in which a child resides.

4. "child support" means a payment of money, continuing support, or arrearages or the provision of a benefit (including payment of health insurance, child care, and educational expenses) for the support of a child.

5. "Child support order":

a. means a judgment, decree, or order of a court requiring the payment of child support in periodic amounts or in a lump sum; and

b. includes:

i. a permanent or temporary order; and

ii. an initial order or a modification of an order.

6. "Contestant" means:

a. a person (including a parent) who:

i. claims a right to receive child support;

ii. is a party to a proceeding that may result in the issuance of a child support order; or

iii. is under a child support order; or

b. a state or political subdivision of a state to which the right to obtain child support has been assigned.

7. "Court" means a court or administrative agency of a state or tribe that is authorized by state or tribal law to establish the amount of child support payable by a contestant or make a modification of a child support order.

8. "Modification" means a change in a child support order that affects the amount, scope, or duration of the order and modifies, replaces, supersedes, or otherwise is made subsequent to the child support order.

9. "State" means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the territories and possessions of the United States, and a federally-recognized Indian tribe.

C. Requirements of child support order. A child support order made by a court of a state is made consistently with this section if a court that makes the order, pursuant to the laws of the state in which the court is located and subsections (E), (F) and (G) and:

1. has subject matter jurisdiction to hear the matter and enter such an order; and
2. has personal jurisdiction over the contestants; and
3. gives reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard to the contestants.

D. Continuing jurisdiction. A court of a state that has made a child support order consistently with this section has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order if the state is the child's state or the residence of any individual contestant unless the court of another state, acting in accordance with subsections (E) and (F), has made a modification of the order.

E. Authority to modify orders. A court of a state may modify a child support order issued by a court of another state if:

1. the court has jurisdiction to make such a child support order pursuant to subsection (I), and
2. a. the court of the other state no longer has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of the child support order because that state no longer is the child's state or the residence of any individual contestant; or
b. each individual contestant has filed written consent with the state of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction for a court of another state to modify the order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order.

F. Recognition of child support orders. If one or more child support orders have been issued with regard to an obligor and a child, a court shall apply the following rules in determining which order to recognize for purposes of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction and enforcement:

1. If only one (1) court has issued a child support order, the order of that court must be recognized.
2. If two or more courts have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and only one (1) of the courts would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this section, the order of that court must be recognized.
3. If two or more courts have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and more than one of the courts would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this section, an order issued by a court in the current home state of the child must be recognized, but if an order has not been issued in the current home state of the child, the order most recently issued must be recognized.

4. If two or more courts have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and none of the courts would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this section, a court having jurisdiction over the parties shall issue a child support order, which must be recognized.

5. The court that has issued an order recognized under this subsection is the court having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under subsection (D).

G. Enforcement of modified orders. A court of a state that no longer has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of a child support order may enforce the order with respect to nonmodifiable obligations and unsatisfied obligations that accrued before the date on which a modification of the order is made under subsections (E) and (F).

H. Choice of law.

1. In general. In a proceeding to establish, modify, or enforce a child support order, the forum state's law shall apply except as provided in paragraphs 2 and 3.

2. Law of state of issuance of order. In interpreting a child support order including the duration of current payments and other obligations of support, a court shall apply the law of the state of the court that issued the order.

3. Period of limitation. In an action to enforce arrears under a child support order, a court shall apply the statute of limitation of the forum state or the state of the court that issued the order, whichever statute provides the longer period of limitation.

I. Registration for modification. If there is no individual contestant or child residing in the issuing state, the party or support enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a child support order issued in another state shall register that order in a state with jurisdiction over the nonmovant for the purpose of modification.

§ 518. Cooperation with other IV–D programs

The Cherokee Nation Office of Child Support Services shall extend the full range of services available under its IV–D program to respond to all requests from, and cooperate with, state, tribe, and other IV–D agencies.

TITLE 44

MEDIA AND PRESS

CHAPTER 1

INDEPENDENT PRESS

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Independent Press Amendment Act of 2009.

§ 2. Purpose

This act affirms the policy regarding the Cherokee Nation's press. It is imperative to have measures in place to ensure the freedom of the press and to ensure the tribal publications have the independence to report objectively.

§ 3. Constitutional rights

The Constitution of Cherokee Nation provides that the principles of free speech and free press, the rights of the people to assemble and petition for redress of grievances shall not be abridged.

§ 4. Policy, an independent Cherokee media

The Cherokee Nation's Publications Department shall be independent from any undue influence and free of any particular political interest. It is the duty of the Publications Department to use any necessary forms of electronic and print media to report without bias the activities of the government and the news of interest to have informed citizens.

§ 5. Providing for independent print and electronic publications

A newspaper and other forms of electronic media shall be published periodically to report news and provide a forum for all views of the Cherokees.

§ 6. Editorial Board

A. An Editorial Board is hereby created and shall consist of five (5) members. At least three (3) Board members must (i) be at least 25 years of age, (ii) have quality experience in the management and operations of publications, (iii) be of good character and have a reputation of integrity, (iv) be physically able to carry out the duties of office, and (v) certify he or she will adhere to the standards of accepted ethics of journalism as defined by the Society of Professional Journalists and endorsed by the Native American Journalists Association. The other Board members must (i) be at least 25 years of age, (ii) have quality experience in business management, (iii) be of good character and have a reputation of integrity, and (iv) be physically able to carry out the duties of office.

B. The Principal Chief shall appoint two (2) members of the Board who must be citizens of Cherokee Nation; the Council shall appoint two (2) members of the Board who must be citizens of Cherokee Nation; and the fifth member shall be appointed by the initial four (4) members and must be a member of a federally-recognized tribe. All members shall be subject to confirmation by the Council and the Principal Chief.

C. One (1) member shall serve as Chairperson, one (1) member shall serve as Vice-Chairperson and one (1) member shall serve as Secretary. Officers shall be designated by the Editorial Board at the first meeting of each fiscal year.

D. The terms of office of the Board members shall be six (6) years. The term for the Seat 4 Board Member shall commence October 1, 2009 and expire on October 1, 2014; the term for the Seat 5 Board Member shall commence January 1, 2010 and expire on January 1, 2015.

E. Board Members shall serve their terms of office free from political influence from any Executive or Legislative Officials of any Branch, Division or Department of the government of the Nation and may be removed only for cause subject to a hearing by the Supreme Court. A petition for removal for cause may be brought by a vote of the majority of Council Members, or the Principal Chief. Except as authorized under the Constitution of Cherokee Nation, no member of the Board shall, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political organization, candidacy or other political purpose. The Board Members shall not participate in any political campaign or be involved in any tribal political activity, except to exercise his or her right as a citizen to express his or her individual opinion and cast his or her right to vote.

F. The Board Members shall be provided a monthly stipend to be paid after the first meeting of each month. The stipend for Board Officers will be Three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($350.00) monthly and the stipend for other Board Members will be Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) monthly. The Board Members shall be provided reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred in the pursuit of their duties in accordance with the policies of Cherokee Nation.

§ 7. Powers and duties

The Editorial Board shall have the following powers and duties:

1. To establish and enforce an editorial policy that will be fair and responsible in reporting of general news, current events and issues of Cherokee concern including activities of the community, language, culture, history and other subjects which will inform the Cherokee citizenry about their government, tribe, and culture.
2. To ensure the operational structure is sound and that the duties and obligations required of the Board are fulfilled.
3. To review departmental policies to ensure fairness and professionalism in all department practices.
4. To hold periodic public meetings in order to conduct official department business and policy review.

5. To publish electronically, at least on a quarterly basis, copies of Council meeting minutes and travel expenses of elected officials on the Cherokee Phoenix website to fulfill the intent of previous legislative acts requiring such publications.

§ 8. Executive Editor

A. The Executive Editor must (i) be at least 25 years of age, (ii) have a bachelor's degree in journalism or a related field from a college or university, or an appropriate combination of education and experience, (iii) be of good character and have a reputation of integrity, (iv) be physically able to carry out the duties of office, (v) certify he or she will adhere to the standards of accepted ethics of journalism as defined by the Society of Professional Journalists and endorsed by the Native American Journalists Association, (vi) have experience necessary for the successful operation of the publication, and (vii) be a citizen of Cherokee Nation.

B. Whenever a vacancy occurs the Editorial Board shall recommend to the Principal Chief an Executive Editor for appointment.

C. The Executive Editor shall serve his or her term of office free from political influence from any department of the government of the Nation and may be removed only for cause. The Executive Editor shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political organization, candidacy or other political purpose. The Executive Editor shall not participate in any political campaign or be involved in any tribal political activity, except to exercise his or her right as a citizen to express his or her individual opinion and cast his or her right to vote.

CHAPTER 2

PRESS PROTECTION

§ 21. Short title

This act shall be referred as the "Free Press Protection and Journalist Shield Act of 2012".

§ 22. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to affirm the independence of a free press in Cherokee Nation by providing protection of journalistic sources and information from disclosure in any Cherokee Nation proceeding.

§ 23. Definitions

For the purposes of this act:

1. "Cherokee Nation proceeding" includes any proceeding or investigation before or by any judicial, legislative, executive or administrative body within Cherokee Nation.

2. "Information" includes any written, oral or pictorial news or any digital or tangible record.

3. "Journalist" means any person who is a reporter, photographer, editor, commentator, journalist, correspondent, announcer, videographer, or other individual regularly engaged in obtaining, writing, reviewing, editing, or otherwise preparing news for any newspaper, periodical, press association, newspaper syndicate, wire service, website, radio or television station, or other news service. Any individual employed by any such news service in the performance of any of the above-mentioned activities shall be deemed to be regularly engaged in such activities.

4. "Medium of communication" includes any newspaper, other periodical, book, pamphlet, website, podcast, news service, wire service, news or feature syndicate, broadcast station or network, cable television system, video, live stream, or other record.

5. "Processing" includes compiling, storing and editing of information.

6. "Published information" means any information disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought.

7. "Unpublished information" includes information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought, whether or not related information has been disseminated, and includes, but is not limited to, all notes, outtakes, photographs, video clips or other data of any type not itself disseminated to the public through a medium of communication, whether or not published information based upon or related to such material has been disseminated.

§ 24. Protection of sources and other information—Exceptions

A. No journalist shall be required to disclose in a Cherokee Nation proceeding either:

1. The source of any published or unpublished information obtained in the gathering, receiving or processing of information for any medium of communication to the public; or

2. Any unpublished information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving or processing of information for any medium of communication to the public, unless the court finds that the party seeking the information or identity has established by clear and convincing evidence that such information or identity is relevant to a significant issue in the action and could not with due diligence be obtained by alternate means.

B. This section does not apply with respect to the content or source of allegedly defamatory information, in a civil action for defamation wherein the defendant asserts a defense based on the content or source of such information.

A carrier of persons or property upon cars, other than streetcars, operated upon stationary rails.

§ 1–150. Railroad sign or signal

Any sign, signal or device erected by authority of a public body or official or by a railroad and intended to give notice of the presence of railroad tracks or the approach of a railroad train.

§ 1–151. Railroad train

A steam engine, diesel, electric or other motor, with or without cars coupled thereto, operated upon rails, except streetcars.

§ 1–152. Reconstructed vehicle

Every vehicle of a type required to be registered hereunder materially altered from its original construction by the removal, addition or substitution of essential parts, new or used.

§ 1–152.1. Recreational vehicle

For the sole purpose of a classified driver's license system, a recreational vehicle shall be defined as a self-propelled or towed vehicle that is equipped to serve as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping or travel purposes and is used solely as a family or personal conveyance.

§ 1–153. Registration

The registration certificate or certificates and registration plates issued under the laws of Oklahoma pertaining to the registration of vehicles.

§ 1–154. Residence district

The territory contiguous to and including a highway not comprising a business district when the property on such highway for a distance of three hundred (300) feet or more is in the main improved with residences or residences and buildings in use for business.

§ 1–155. Revocation of driver's license

The termination by formal action of the Oklahoma Department of Public Safety regarding a person's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the public highways, which termination shall not be subject to renewal or restoration except that an application for a new license may be presented and acted upon by the Department after the expiration of the period of revocation as hereinafter provided.

§ 1–156. Right-of-way

The privilege of the immediate use of the roadway.

§ 1–157. Road tractor

Every motor vehicle designed and used for drawing other vehicles and not so constructed as to carry any load thereon either independently or any part of the weight of a vehicle or load so drawn.

§ 1–158. Roadway and shoulder

A. Roadway. That portion of a highway improved, designed or ordinarily used for vehicular travel, exclusive of the shoulder. In the event a highway includes two or more separate roadways the term "roadway" as used herein shall refer to any such roadway separately but not to all such roadways collectively.

B. Shoulder. The portion of the roadway contiguous with the traveled way for accommodation of stopped vehicles, for emergency use, and for lateral support of base and surface courses.

§ 1–159. Safety zone

The area or space officially set apart within a roadway for the exclusive use of pedestrians and which is protected or is so marked or indicated by adequate signs as to be plainly visible at all times while set apart as a safety zone.

§ 1–160. School bus

Every motor vehicle owned by a public or governmental agency and operated for the transportation of children to or from school or privately owned and operated for compensation for the transportation of children to or from school, provided, however, that this definition of school bus shall not be extended to include buses normally used in city transit which may be used part time for transportation of school children within such cities during some portion of the day.

§ 1–161. Security

Cash, negotiable securities, or corporate security bond deposited with the Commissioner of Public Safety and placed in the custody of the National Treasurer to secure payment of a judgment or judgments arising out of a motor vehicle accident which occurred prior to the demand for posting of security.

§ 1-162. Semitrailer

Every vehicle with or without motive power, other than a pole trailer, designed for carrying persons or property and for being drawn by a motor vehicle and so constructed that some part of its weight and that of its load rests upon or is carried by another vehicle.

§ 1-163. Sidewalk

That portion of a street between the curb lines, or the lateral lines of a roadway, and the adjacent property lines, intended for use of pedestrians.

§ 1-164. Solid tire

Every tire of rubber or other resilient material which does not depend upon compressed air for the support of the load.

§ 1-165. Special mobilized machinery

Special purpose machines, either self-propelled or drawn as trailers or semitrailers, which derive no revenue from the transportation of persons or property, whose use of the highways is only incidental, and whose useful revenue-producing service is performed at destinations in an area away from the traveled surface of an established open highway, and which carry no load other than their own weight, which cannot be divided for all practical purposes. This definition shall include a truck or truck tractor when used while drawing special mobilized machinery but this shall not be construed as exempting from license and registration the pulling unit truck or truck tractor as required by the motor vehicle license and registration.

§ 1-166. Specially-constructed vehicle

Every vehicle of a type required to be registered hereunder not originally constructed under a distinctive name, make, model or type by a generally recognized manufacturer of vehicles and not materially altered from its original construction.

§ 1-167. Stand or standing

Means the halting of a vehicle, whether occupied or not, otherwise than temporarily for the purpose of and while actually engaged in receiving or discharging passengers.

§ 1-168. State

A state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or a province of the Dominion of Canada.

§ 1-169. Stop

When required means complete cessation from movement.

§ 1-170. Stop or stopping

When prohibited means any halting even momentarily of a vehicle, whether occupied or not, except when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic or in compliance with the directions of a police officer or traffic-control sign or signal.

§ 1-171. Street

The entire width between boundary lines of every way publicly maintained when any part thereof is open to the use of the public for purposes of vehicular travel.

§ 1-172. Streetcar

A car other than a railroad train for transporting persons or property and operating upon rails principally within a municipality.

§ 1-173. Suspension of driver's license

The temporary withdrawal by formal action of the Department of a person's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the public highways.

§ 1-173.1. Tank vehicle

Any commercial motor vehicle designed to transport any liquid, powdered or gaseous materials within a tank that is either permanently or temporarily attached to the vehicle or the chassis. Such vehicles include but are not limited to cargo tanks and portable tanks as defined by 49 C.F.R., Part 171. Provided however, the term "tank vehicle" shall not include a portable tank having a rated capacity of under one thousand (1,000) gallons.

§ 1-174. Taxicab

Taxicab shall mean and include any motor vehicle for hire, designed to carry seven (7) persons or less, operated upon any street or highway, or on call or demand, accepting or soliciting passengers indiscriminately for transportation for hire between such points along streets or highways as may be directed by the passenger or passengers so being transported; but this classification shall not include motor vehicles of seven (7) passenger capacity or less operated by the owner where the cost of operation is shared by fellow workmen between their homes and the place of regular daily employment, when not operated for more than two (2) trips per day, nor shall the classification include automobiles operated by the owner where the cost of operation is shared by the passengers on a "share the expense plan," nor shall this classification include motor vehicles transporting students from the public school system when said motor vehicle is so transporting under contract with public, private, or parochial school board or governing body.

§ 1–175. Through highway

Every highway or portion thereof on which vehicular traffic is given preferential right-of-way, and at the entrances to which vehicular traffic from intersecting highways is required by law to yield right-of-way to vehicles on such through highway in obedience to either a stop sign or a yield sign, when such signs are erected as provided in this act.

§ 1–176. Trackless trolley coach

Every motor vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from overhead trolley wires but not operated upon rails.

§ 1–177. Traffic

Pedestrians, ridden or herded animals, vehicles, streetcars, and other conveyances either singly or together, while using any highway for purposes of travel.

§ 1–178. Traffic-control signal

Any device, whether manually, electrically or mechanically operated, by which traffic is alternately directed to stop and to proceed.

§ 1–179. Traffic lane

The portion of the traveled way for the movement of a single line of vehicles.

§ 1–180. Trailer

Every vehicle with or without motive power, other than a pole trailer, designed for carrying persons or property and for being drawn by a motor vehicle and so constructed that no part of its weight rests upon the towing vehicle, provided however, the definition of trailer herein shall not include implements of husbandry as defined in 47 CNCA § 1–125.

§ 1–181. Transporter

Every person engaged in the business of delivering vehicles of a type required to be registered hereunder from a manufacturing, assembling or distributing plant to dealers or sales agents of a manufacturer.

§ 1–181.1. Travel trailer

Any vehicular portable structure built on a chassis which is not propelled by its own power but is towed by another vehicle and is used as a temporary dwelling for travel, recreational or vacation use. A travel trailer shall have a body width not exceeding eight (8) feet in travel mode and an overall length not exceeding forty (40) feet, including the hitch or coupling.

§ 1-182. Truck

Every motor vehicle designed, used or maintained primarily for the transportation of property.

§ 1-183. Truck tractor

A. Every motor vehicle designed and used primarily for drawing other vehicles and not so constructed as to carry a load other than a part of the weight of the vehicle and load so drawn; and

B. For the purposes of 47 O.S. § 14-103(C)(3), the term truck-tractor shall also include oil field rig-up trucks when towing a trailer or semitrailer.

§ 1-184. Turnpike and Turnpike Authority

A. The words "Turnpike Authority" or "Authority" shall mean the Oklahoma Turnpike Authority, created by 69 O.S.1951 § 653 as amended, or, if said Authority shall be abolished, the board, body, or commission succeeding to the principal functions thereof or to whom the powers given by this act to the Authority shall be given by law.

B. A turnpike is a limited access grade separated expressway financed and operated by the Oklahoma Turnpike Authority upon which a toll is charged for the use thereof.

§ 1-185. Urban district

The territory contiguous to and including any street which is built up with structures devoted to business, industry or dwelling houses situated at intervals of less than one hundred (100) feet for a distance of a quarter of a mile or more.

§ 1-186. Vehicle

Every device in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks; provided, however, the definition of "vehicle" as used in this act shall not include implements of husbandry as defined in 47 CNCA § 1-125.

CHAPTER 2

APPLICATION

§ 2–101. Application of code

This title shall apply to all persons subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation as determined by Cherokee Nation or federal law.

§ 2–102. Cherokee Nation

"Cherokee Nation" is the government of Cherokee Nation and geographically is the territory of Cherokee Nation as of 1893.

§ 2–103. Indian

Any person who is a member or who is eligible for membership in a federally-recognized tribe, nation or band of Indians.

§ 2–104. Tribal citizen

Any person who is a citizen or who is eligible for citizenship in Cherokee Nation.

§ 2–105. Offense

An offense is a violation of any provision under this code which is punishable only by assessment of a fine and costs.

§ 2–106. Crime

A crime is any violation of a provision of this code which is not designated as an "offense" and if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would constitute a misdemeanor or felony.

CHAPTER 4

ANTI-THEFT LAWS

§ 4–101. Exceptions from provisions of this chapter

This chapter does not apply to the following unless a title or registration has been issued on such vehicles under this act:

1. a vehicle moved solely by animal power;
2. an implement of husbandry, except as provided in 47 CNCA §§ 4–102 and 4–104;
3. special mobilized machinery;
4. a self-propelled invalid wheelchair or tricycle.

§ 4–102. Unauthorized use of vehicle or implement of husbandry

A person not entitled to possession of a vehicle or implement of husbandry who, without the consent of the owner and with intent to deprive him, temporarily or otherwise, of the vehicle or implement of husbandry or its possession, takes, uses or drives the vehicle or implement of husbandry is guilty of a crime.

§ 4–103. Receiving or disposing of a vehicle

A person not entitled to the possession of a vehicle who receives, possesses, conceals, sells or disposes of it, knowing it to be stolen or converted under circumstances constituting a crime, is guilty of a crime.

§ 4–104. Damaging or tampering with vehicle or implement of husbandry

A. A person, who, with intent and without right to do so, injures or tampers with any vehicle or implement of husbandry or in any other manner damages any part or portion of said vehicle or implement of husbandry or any accessories, appurtenance or attachments thereto is guilty of a crime.

B. A person, who, without right to do so and with intent to commit a crime, climbs into or upon a vehicle or implement of husbandry whether it is in motion or at rest, attempts to manipulate any of the levers, starting mechanism, brakes or other mechanism or device of a vehicle or implement of husbandry while the same is at rest and unattended, or sets in motion any vehicle or implement of husbandry while the same is at rest and unattended is guilty of a crime.

C. This section shall not apply as stated in 47 CNCA § 11–1002.

§ 4–105. Stolen, converted, recovered and unclaimed vehicles

A. It shall be the duty of every sheriff, marshal, chief of police or peace officer to make immediate report to the Department of Public Safety of all vehicles reported to their respective jurisdictions as being stolen or recovered. Such report shall be made as prescribed by the Department.

B. An owner or a lienholder may report the theft of a vehicle, or its conversion if a crime, to the Department, but the Department may disregard the report of a conversion unless a warrant has been issued for the arrest of a person charged with the conversion. A person who has so reported the theft or conversion of a vehicle shall, forthwith after learning of its recovery, report the recovery to the Department.

C. An operator of a place of business for garaging, repairing, parking or storing vehicles for the public, in which a vehicle remains unclaimed for a period of thirty (30) days, shall, within five (5) days after the expiration of that period, report the vehicle as unclaimed to the Department. Such report shall be on a form prescribed by the Department.

A vehicle left by its owner whose name and address are known to the operator or his employee is not considered unclaimed. A person who fails to report a vehicle as unclaimed in accordance with this subsection forfeits all claims and liens for its garaging, parking or storing and is guilty of a crime punishable by a fine of not more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each day his failure to report continues.

D. The Department shall maintain and appropriately index cumulative public records of stolen, converted, recovered and unclaimed vehicles reported to it pursuant to this section. The Department may make and distribute weekly lists of such vehicles so reported to it to peace officers upon request without fee and to others for the fee, if any, the Department prescribes.

E. Any peace officer who has reason to believe or upon receiving information that a motor vehicle has been stolen shall have and is hereby vested with authority to confiscate and hold such vehicle until satisfactory proof of ownership is established.

§ 4-106. False report of theft or conversion

A person who knowingly makes a false report of the theft or conversion of a vehicle to a peace officer or to the Department is guilty of a crime.

§ 4-107. Removed, falsified or unauthorized identification

A. Any person or persons who shall destroy, remove, cover, alter or deface, or cause to be destroyed, removed, covered, altered or defaced, the engine number or other distinguishing number of any vehicle in this Nation, without first giving notice of such act to the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, upon such form as the Commission may prescribe, or any person who shall give a wrong description in any application for the registration of any vehicle in this Nation for the purpose of concealing or hiding the identity of such vehicle, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

B. A person who buys, receives, possesses, sells or disposes of a vehicle or an engine for a vehicle, knowing that the identification number of the vehicle or engine has been removed or falsified, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime.

C. A person who buys, receives, possesses, sells or disposes of a vehicle or an engine for a vehicle, with knowledge that the identification number of the vehicle or engine has been removed or falsified and with intent to conceal or misrepresent the identity of the vehicle or engine, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime.

D. A person who removes a license plate from a vehicle or affixes to a vehicle a license plate not authorized by law for use on said vehicle with intent to conceal or misrepresent the identity of the vehicle or its owner shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime.

E. As used in this section:

1. "Falsify" includes alter and forge.
2. "Identification number" includes an identifying number, serial number, engine number or other distinguishing number or mark, placed on a vehicle or engine by its manufacturer or by authority of the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission or in accordance with the laws of another state, tribe, or country.
3. "Remove" includes deface, cover and destroy.

F. An identification number may be placed on a vehicle or engine by its manufacturer in the regular course of business or placed or restored on a vehicle or engine by authority of the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission without violating this section; an identification number so placed or restored is not falsified.

§ 4-108. False statements of material facts—Punishment

Any person who shall knowingly make any false statement of a material fact, either in his application for the certificate of title herein provided for, or in any assignment thereof, or who, with intent to procure or pass title to a motor vehicle which he knows, or has reason to believe, has been stolen, shall receive or transfer possession of the same from or to another, or who shall have in his possession any motor vehicle which he knows or has reason to believe has been stolen, and who is not an officer of the law engaged at the time in the performance of his duty as such officer, shall be deemed guilty of a crime. This provision shall not be exclusive of any other penalties prescribed by an existing or future law for the larceny or unauthorized taking of a motor vehicle.

§ 4-109. Altering or forging certificate of title

Any person who shall alter or forge, or cause to be altered or forged, any certificate of title issued by the Commission, pursuant to the provisions of this act, or any assignment thereof, or who shall hold or use any such certificate or assignment, knowing the same to have been altered or forged, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 4-110. Offenses in connection with certificates of title

A. Except as otherwise authorized by law, it shall be unlawful for any person to commit any of the following acts:

1. To lend or to sell to, or knowingly permit the use of by, one not entitled thereto any certificate of title or number plate issued to or in the custody of the person so lending or permitting the use thereof;
2. To alter or in any manner change a certificate of title, registration certificate or number plate issued under the laws of this Nation or any state;
3. To purchase identification or number plates on an assigned certificate of title. This paragraph shall be applicable to all persons except bona fide registered dealers in used motor vehicles who are holders of current and valid used motor vehicle dealers' licenses;

4. To sell or dispose of, in any manner, a used vehicle without delivering to the purchaser an Oklahoma certificate of title in such purchaser's name or one properly and completely assigned to him at the time of sale.

Anyone violating any of the provisions of this subsection, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime and shall be fined not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) and not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

B. Except as otherwise authorized by law, no person shall:

1. Lend or sell to, or knowingly permit the use of by, one not entitled thereto any certificate of title issued for a manufactured home, manufactured home registration receipt, manufactured home registration decal or excise tax receipt;

2. Alter or in any manner change a certificate of title issued for a manufactured home under the laws of this Nation or any state;

3. Remove or alter a manufactured home registration receipt, manufactured home registration decal or excise tax receipt attached to a certificate of title or attach such receipts to a certificate of title with the intent to misrepresent the payment of the required excise tax and registration fees;

4. Purchase identification, manufactured home registration receipt, manufactured home registration decal or excise tax receipt on an assigned certificate of title.

Anyone violating the provisions of this subsection, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime.

C. Any violation of any portion of this section where a specific penalty has not been imposed shall constitute a crime and upon conviction thereof the person having violated it shall be fined not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) and not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

CHAPTER 10

ACCIDENTS AND ACCIDENT REPORTS

§ 10–101. Provisions of chapter apply throughout Cherokee Nation

The provisions of this chapter shall apply upon highways and elsewhere throughout Cherokee Nation.

§ 10–102. Accidents involving death or personal injury

A. The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person shall immediately stop such vehicle at the scene of such accident or as close thereto as possible but shall then forthwith return to and in every event shall remain at the scene of the accident until he has fulfilled the requirements of 47 CNCA § 10–104. Every such stop shall be made without obstructing traffic more than is necessary.

B. Any person willfully, maliciously, or feloniously failing to stop, or to comply with said requirements under such circumstances, shall be guilty of a crime.

C. The Commissioner of Public Safety shall revoke the license or permit to drive and any nonresident operating privilege of the person so convicted.

§ 10–103. Accidents involving damage to vehicle

The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting only in damage to a vehicle which is driven or attended by any person shall immediately stop such vehicle at the scene of such accident or as close thereto as possible but shall forthwith return to and in every event shall remain at the scene of such accident until he has fulfilled the requirements of 47 CNCA § 10–104. Every such stop shall be made without obstructing traffic more than is necessary. Any person failing to stop or comply with said requirements under such circumstances shall be guilty of a crime. In addition to the criminal penalties imposed by this section, any person violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to liability for damages in an amount equal to three (3) times the value of the damage caused by the accident. Said damages shall be recoverable in a civil action. Nothing in this section shall prevent a Judge from ordering restitution for any damage caused by a driver involved in an accident provided for in this section.

§ 10–104. Duty to give information and render aid

The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person or damage to any vehicle which is driven or attended by any person shall give his correct name, address and registration number of the vehicle he is driving, and shall upon request and if available exhibit his operator's or chauffeur's license and his security verification form, as defined in 47 O.S. § 7–600, to the person struck or the driver or occupant of or person attending any vehicle collided with, and shall render to any person injured in such accident reasonable assistance, including the carrying, or the making of arrangements for the carrying, of such person to a physician, surgeon or hospital for medical or surgical treatment if it is apparent that such treatment is necessary or if such carrying is requested by the injured person.

§ 10–105. Duty upon striking unattended vehicle

The driver of any vehicle which collides with any vehicle which is unattended shall immediately stop and shall then and there either locate and notify the operator or owner of such vehicle of the correct name and address of the driver and owner of the vehicle striking the unattended vehicle, and provide said operator or owner with information from his security verification form, as defined by 47 O.S. § 7–600, or shall leave in a conspicuous place in the vehicle struck a written notice giving the name and address of the driver and of the owner of the vehicle doing the striking, and providing information from his security verification form, as defined by 47 O.S. § 7-600, and a statement of the circumstances thereof.

§ 10-106. Duty upon striking fixtures upon a highway

The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting only in damage to fixtures or other property legally upon or adjacent to a highway shall take reasonable steps to locate and notify the owner or person in charge of such property of such fact and of his name and address and of the registration number of the vehicle he is driving and shall upon request and if available exhibit his operator's or chauffeur's license and his security verification form, as defined in 47 O.S. § 7-600, and shall make report of such accident when and as required in 47 CNCA § 10-108.

§ 10-107. Immediate notice of accident

The driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person shall immediately, by the quickest means of communication, give notice of such accident to the local law enforcement department, or to the office of the county sheriff or the nearest office of the State Highway Patrol after complying with the requirements of 47 CNCA § 10-104.

§ 10-108. Written report of accident—Notice to other parties—Ancillary proceedings

A. The operator of a motor vehicle which is in any manner involved in a collision upon any road, street, highway or elsewhere within this Nation resulting in bodily injury to or death of any person or in which it is apparent that damage to one vehicle or other property is in excess of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) shall forward a written report of such collision to the Department if settlement of the collision has not been made within six (6) months after the date of the accident and provided that if a settlement has been made a report of such settlement must be made by the parties.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of 47 O.S. § 7-202, if any party involved in a collision files a report under this section, the Department shall notify all other parties involved in the collision, as specified in the report, that a report has been filed and all other parties shall then furnish the Department, within ten (10) days, such information as the Department may request to determine whether the parties were in compliance with the requirements of 47 O.S. § 7-600 et seq. at the time of the collision. Upon a finding that an owner or driver was not in compliance with 47 O.S. § 7-600 et seq., the Department shall then commence proceedings under the provisions of 47 O.S. § 7-201 et seq. and § 7-301 et seq.

§ 10-109. Form of report

A. The form of the report required by this section shall be prescribed by the Commissioner, and the Commissioner may cause to be prepared such blanks and shall make such blanks available to the motoring public by leaving a supply with marshals, sheriffs, chiefs of police, justices of the peace, judges of the district court and other officials as the Commissioner may deem advisable.

B. Such report, in addition to such other information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner, shall contain information to enable the Commissioner to determine whether the requirements for the deposit of security under 47 O.S. § 7-202 are inapplicable by reason of the existence of insurance or other exceptions specified in this act, and shall be accompanied by a copy of an estimate made by some motor vehicle agency or established garage as to the cost of repairing the vehicle of which the person making the report was the operator or owner, which report shall be signed by an authorized representative of such agency or garage.

§ 10-110. Additional information

The Department may require any driver of a vehicle involved in an accident of which report must be made as provided in this section to file supplemental reports whenever the original report is insufficient in the opinion of the Department.

§ 10-111. When driver unable to report

A. An accident report is not required under this chapter from any person who is physically incapable of making report during the period of such incapacity.

B. Whenever the driver of a vehicle is physically incapable of giving an immediate notice of an accident as required in 47 CNCA § 10-107 and there was another occupant in the vehicle at the time of the accident capable of doing so, such occupant shall make or cause to be given the notice not given by the driver.

§ 10-112. False reports

Any person who gives information in reports as required in 47 CNCA § 10-108, 10-110 or 10-111 knowing or having reason to believe that such information is false shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned for not more than one (1) year, or both.

§ 10-113. Accident report forms

A. The Department may prepare and upon request supply to marshals, police departments, coroners, sheriffs, garages and other suitable agencies or individuals forms for accident reports required hereunder, appropriate with respect to the persons required to make such reports and the purposes to be served. The written reports to be made by persons involved in accidents and by investigating officers shall call for sufficiently detailed information to disclose with reference to a traffic accident the cause, conditions then existing and the persons and vehicles involved.

B. Every accident report required to be made in writing shall be made on the appropriate form approved by the Department and shall contain all of the information required therein unless not available.

§ 10-114. Penalty for failure to report

The Commissioner of Public Safety may suspend the license or permit to drive and any nonresident operating privileges of any person failing to report an accident as herein provided until such report has been filed, and the Commissioner may extend such suspension not to exceed thirty (30) days. Any person convicted of failing to make a report as required herein shall be punished as provided in 47 CNCA § 17–101.

§ 10–115. Public inspection of reports relating to accidents

A. All accident reports made by persons involved in accidents shall be without prejudice to the individual so reporting and shall be for the confidential use of the Department or other state or tribal agencies having use for the records for accident prevention purposes, or for the administration of the laws of this Nation relating to the deposit of security and proof of financial responsibility by persons driving or the owners of motor vehicles, except that the Department may disclose the identity of a person involved in an accident when such identity is not otherwise known or when such person denies his presence at such accident.

B. All accident reports and supplemental information filed in connection with the administration of the laws of this Nation relating to the deposit of security or proof of financial responsibility shall be confidential and not open to general public inspection, nor shall copying of lists of such reports be permitted, except, however, that such reports and supplemental information may be examined by any person named therein or by his representative designated in writing.

C. No reports or information mentioned in this section shall be used as evidence in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, except that the Department shall furnish upon demand of any party to such trial, or upon demand of any court, a certificate showing that a specified accident report has or has not been made to the Department in compliance with law.

The provisions of this chapter relating to the operation of vehicles refer exclusively to the operation of vehicles upon the highways except:

1. Where a different place is specifically referred to in a given section.
2. The provisions of Chapter 10 and Article IX of this chapter shall apply upon highways, turnpikes and public parking lots throughout the Nation.

§ 11–102. Required obedience to traffic laws

It is unlawful and, unless otherwise declared in this chapter with respect to particular offenses, it is a crime for any person to do any act forbidden or fail to perform any act required in this chapter.

§ 11–103. Obedience to police officers

No person shall willfully fail or refuse to comply with any lawful order or direction of any police officer invested by law with authority to direct, control or regulate traffic.

§ 11–104. Persons riding animals or driving animal-drawn vehicles

Every person riding an animal or driving any animal-driven vehicle upon a roadway shall be granted all of the rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to the driver of a vehicle by this chapter, except those provisions of this chapter which by their very nature can have no application.

§ 11–105. Persons working on highways—Exceptions

Unless specifically made applicable, the provisions of this chapter except those contained in Article IX hereof shall not apply to persons, teams, motor vehicles and other equipment, while actually engaged in work upon the surface of a highway, or to persons, motor vehicles and other equipment while actually engaged in construction, maintenance or repair of public utilities provided that all highway and public utility operations shall be protected by adequate warning signs, signals, devices or flagmen, but the provisions of this chapter shall apply to such persons and vehicles when traveling to or from such work.

§ 11–106. Authorized emergency vehicles

A. The driver of an authorized emergency vehicle, when responding to an emergency call or when in the pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law or when responding to but not upon returning from a fire alarm, may exercise the privilege set forth in this section, but subject to the conditions herein stated.

B. The driver of an authorized emergency vehicle may:

1. Park, or stand, irrespective of the provisions of this chapter;
2. Proceed past a red or stop signal or stop sign, but only after slowing down as may be necessary for safe operation;
3. Exceed the maximum speed limits so long as he does not endanger life or property;
4. Disregard regulations governing direction of movement or turning in specified directions.

C. The exemptions herein granted to an authorized emergency vehicle shall apply only when such vehicle is making use of audible and visual signals meeting the requirements of 47 CNCA § 12–218, except that an authorized emergency vehicle operated as a police vehicle need not be equipped with or display a red light visible from in front of the vehicle.

D. The foregoing provisions shall not relieve the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons, nor shall such provisions protect the driver from the consequences of his reckless disregard for the safety of others.

§ 11–107. Military convoys exempt from municipal traffic regulation—Right-of-way—Exceptions

The military forces of the United States and organizations of the National Guard, performing any military duty, shall not be restricted by municipal traffic regulations, and shall have the right-of-way on any street or highway through which they may pass against all, except carriers of the United States mail, fire engines, ambulances and police vehicles in the necessary discharge of their respective duties. Said mounted military moving in convoy shall have lights burning, with lead and trail vehicles prominently marked, and shall travel, while inside the corporate limits of a city or town, in compliance with such speeds as are legally posted within the corporate limits of the city or town and shall maintain a closed interval of not more than seventy-five (75) feet.

ARTICLE II. TRAFFIC SIGNS, SIGNALS AND MARKINGS

§ 11–201. Obedience to and required traffic-control devices

A. The driver of any vehicle shall obey the instructions of any official traffic-control device applicable thereto placed in accordance with the provisions of this act, unless otherwise directed by a traffic or police officer, subject to the exceptions granted the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle in this act.

B. No provision of this act for which signs are required shall be enforced against an alleged violator if at the time and place of the alleged violation an official sign is not in proper position and sufficiently legible to be seen by an ordinarily observant person. Whenever a particular section does not state that signs are required, such section shall be effective even though no signs are erected or in place.

§ 11–202. Traffic-control signal legend

Whenever traffic is controlled by traffic-control signals exhibiting different colored lights or colored lighted arrows successively one at a time, or in combination, only the colors green, red and yellow shall be used, except for special pedestrian signals carrying a word legend, and said lights shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles and pedestrians as follows:

1. Green indication:

a. Vehicular traffic facing a circular green signal, except when prohibited under 47 CNCA § 11–1302, may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at such place prohibits either such turn. But vehicular traffic, including vehicles turning right or left, shall yield the right-of-way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent crosswalk at the time such signal is exhibited.

b. Vehicular traffic facing a green arrow signal, shown alone or in combination with another indication, may cautiously enter the intersection only to make the movement indicated by such arrow, or such other movement as is permitted by other indications shown at the same time. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

c. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal, as provided in 47 CNCA § 11–203, pedestrians facing any green signal except when the sole green signal is a turn arrow, may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.

2. Steady yellow indication:

a. Vehicular traffic facing a steady circular yellow or yellow arrow signal is thereby warned that the related green movement is being terminated or that a red indication will be exhibited immediately thereafter.

b. Pedestrians facing a steady circular yellow or yellow arrow signal, unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal as provided in 47 CNCA § 11–203, are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway before a red indication is shown, and no pedestrian shall then start to cross the roadway.

3. Steady red indication:

a. Vehicular traffic facing a steady circular red signal alone shall stop at a clearly-marked stop line, but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if none, then before entering the intersection and shall remain standing until an indication to proceed is shown except as provided in subparagraph b of this paragraph.

b. Except when a sign is in place prohibiting a turn, vehicular traffic facing any steady red signal may cautiously enter the intersection to turn right or to turn left from a one-way street into a one-way street after stopping as required by subparagraph a of this paragraph. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

c. In order to prohibit right turns or left turns as prescribed in subparagraph b of this paragraph on the red signal after the required stop, a municipality must erect clear, concise signs informing drivers that such turns are prohibited. The Highway Department shall specify the design of the sign to be used for this purpose, and it shall be used uniformly throughout the state.

d. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal as provided in 47 CNCA § 11–203, pedestrians facing a steady circular red signal alone shall not enter the roadway.

In the event an official traffic-control signal is erected and maintained at a place other than an intersection, the provisions of this section shall be applicable except as to those provisions which by their nature can have no application. Any stop required shall be made at a sign or marking on the pavement indicating where the stop shall be made, but in the absence of any such sign or marking the stop shall be made at the signal.

§ 11–203. Pedestrian-control signals

Whenever special pedestrian-control signals exhibiting the words "Walk" or "Wait" or "Don't Walk" are in place, such signals shall indicate as follows:

1. Walk. Pedestrians facing such signal may proceed across the roadway in the direction of the signal and shall be given the right-of-way in the direction of the signal by the drivers of all vehicles.

2. Wait or Don't Walk. No pedestrian shall start to cross the roadway in the direction of such signal, but any pedestrian who has partially completed his crossing on the walk signal shall proceed to a sidewalk or safety island while the wait signal is showing.

§ 11–204. Flashing signals

A. Whenever an illuminated red or yellow signal is used in a traffic sign or signal it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

1. Flashing red (stop signal). When a red lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at an intersection or at a limit line when marked, or, if none, then before entering the intersection, and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.

2. Flashing yellow (caution signal). When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past such signal only with caution.

B. This section shall not apply at railroad grade crossings. Conduct of drivers of vehicles approaching railroad grade crossings shall be governed by the rules as set forth in 47 CNCA § 11–701.

§ 11–204.1. Lane use control signals

When lane use control signals are placed over individual lanes, said signals shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles as follows:

1. Green indication—Vehicular traffic may travel in any lane over which a green signal is shown;

2. Steady yellow indication—Vehicular traffic is thereby warned that a lane control change is being made;

3. Steady red indication—Vehicular traffic shall not enter or travel in any lane over which a red signal is shown; and

4. Flashing yellow indication—Vehicular traffic may use the lane only for the purpose of approaching and making a left turn.

§ 11–205. Pedestrian-actuated school crossing signals

Whenever a pedestrian-actuated school crossing signal is provided, it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic and pedestrians in accordance with 47 CNCA §§ 11–202 and 11–203.

§ 11–206. Display of unauthorized signs, signals or markings

A. No person shall place, maintain or display upon or in view of any highway any unauthorized sign, signal, marking or device which purports to be or is an imitation of or resembles an official traffic-control device or railroad sign or signal, or which attempts to direct the movement of traffic, or which projects any flashing or revolving beams of light, or which hides from view or interferes with the effectiveness of any official traffic-control device or any railroad sign or signal, and no person shall place or maintain nor shall any public authority permit upon any street or highway any traffic sign or signal bearing thereon any commercial advertising; provided, however, that the governing board of any city or town may permit, under such conditions as the said board may deem proper, commercial or other advertising upon any traffic sign located on streets or highways within said city or town and not designated as either state or federal highways or extensions thereof.

B. This section shall not be deemed to prohibit the erection upon private property adjacent to highways of signs giving useful directional information and of a type that cannot be mistaken for official signs.

C. Every such prohibited sign, signal or marking is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and the authority having jurisdiction over the highway is hereby empowered to remove the same or cause it to be removed without notice.

§ 11–207. Interference with official traffic-control devices or railroad signs or signals

No person shall, without lawful authority, attempt to or in fact alter, deface, injure, knock down or remove any official traffic-control device or any railroad sign or signal or any inscription, shield or insignia thereon, or any other part thereof.

ARTICLE III. DRIVING ON RIGHT SIDE OF ROADWAY—OVERTAKING AND PASSING, ETC.

§ 11–301. Driving on right side of roadway—Exceptions

A. Upon all roadways of sufficient width a vehicle shall be driven upon the right half of the roadway, except as follows:

1. When overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction under the rules governing such movement;
2. When an obstruction exists making it necessary to drive to the left of the center of the highway; provided, any person so doing shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles traveling in the proper direction upon the unobstructed portion of the highway within such distance as to constitute an immediate hazard;
3. Upon a roadway divided into three marked lanes for traffic under the rules applicable thereon;
4. Upon a roadway restricted to one-way traffic; or

5. Upon a roadway having four or more lanes for moving traffic and providing for two-way movement of traffic.

B. Upon all roadways any vehicle proceeding at less than the normal speed of traffic at the time and place and under the conditions then existing shall be driven in the right-hand lane when available for traffic, or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway, except when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway.

C. Upon any roadway having four (4) or more lanes for moving traffic and providing for two-way movement of traffic, no vehicle shall be driven to the left of the center line of the roadway, except when authorized by official traffic-control devices designating certain lanes to the left side of the center of the roadway for use by traffic not otherwise permitted to use such lanes, or except as permitted under paragraph 2 of subsection (A) of this section. However, this subsection shall not be construed as prohibiting the crossing of the center line in making a left turn into or from an alley, private road or driveway.

§ 11–302. Passing vehicles proceeding in opposite directions

Drivers of vehicles proceeding in opposite directions shall pass each other to the right, and upon roadways having width for not more than one (1) line of traffic in each direction each driver shall give to the other at least one-half (1/2) of the main-traveled portion of the roadway as nearly as possible.

The following rules shall govern the overtaking and passing of vehicles proceeding in the same direction, subject to those limitations, exceptions and special rules hereinafter stated:

1. The driver of a vehicle overtaking another vehicle proceeding in the same direction shall pass to the left thereof at a safe distance and shall not again drive to the right side of the roadway until safely clear of the overtaken vehicle.

2. Except when overtaking and passing on the right is permitted, the driver of an overtaken vehicle shall give way to the right in favor of the overtaking vehicle on audible signal and shall not increase the speed of his vehicle until completely passed by the overtaking vehicle.

3. Every driver who intends to pass another vehicle proceeding in the same direction, which requires moving his vehicle from one lane of traffic to another, shall first see that such movement can be made with safety and shall proceed to pass only after giving a proper signal by hand or mechanical device.

§ 11–304. When overtaking on the right is permitted

A. The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass upon the right of another vehicle only under the following conditions:

1. When the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn;
2. Upon a street or highway with unobstructed pavement not occupied by parked vehicles of sufficient width for two or more lines of moving vehicles in each direction;
3. Upon a one-way street, or upon any roadway on which traffic is restricted to one direction of movement, where the roadway is free from obstructions and of sufficient width for two or more lines of moving vehicles.

B. The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass another vehicle upon the right only under conditions permitting such movement in safety. In no event shall such movement be made by driving off the pavement or main-traveled portion of the roadway.

§ 11–305. Limitations on overtaking on the left

No vehicle shall be driven to the left side of the center of the roadway in overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking and passing to be completely made without interfering with the safe operation of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction or any vehicle overtaken. In every event the overtaking vehicle must return to the right-hand side of the roadway before coming within one hundred (100) feet of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction.

A. No vehicle shall be driven on the left side of the roadway under the following conditions:

1. When approaching or upon the crest of a grade or a curve in the highway where the driver's view is obstructed within such distance as to create a hazard in the event another vehicle might approach from the opposite direction;
2. When approaching within one hundred (100) feet of or traversing any intersection or railroad grade crossing unless otherwise indicated by official traffic-control devices;
3. When the view is obstructed upon approaching within one hundred (100) feet of any bridge, viaduct or tunnel.

B. The foregoing limitations shall not apply upon a one-way roadway; nor under the conditions described in 47 CNCA § 11–301(A)(2), nor to the driver of a vehicle turning left into or from an alley, private road or driveway.

§ 11–307. No-passing zones

A. Cherokee Nation by designated authority is hereby authorized to determine those portions of any highway where overtaking and passing or driving to the left of the roadway would be especially hazardous and may by appropriate signs or markings on the roadway indicate the beginning and end of such zones and when such signs or markings are in place and clearly visible to an ordinarily observant person every driver of a vehicle shall obey the directions thereof.

B. Where signs or markings are in place to define a no-passing zone as set forth in subsection (A) of this section no driver shall at any time drive to the left side of the roadway within such no-passing zone or on the left side of any pavement striping designed to mark such no-passing zone throughout its length.

§ 11–308. One-way roadways and rotary traffic island

A. Cherokee Nation may designate any street or highway or any separate roadway under their respective jurisdictions for one-way traffic and shall erect appropriate signs giving notice thereof.

B. Upon a roadway designated and sign posted for one-way traffic a vehicle shall be driven only in the direction designated.

C. A vehicle passing around a rotary traffic island shall be driven only to the right of such islands.

§ 11–308A. Speed limits—Traffic control regulations—Violations

Cherokee Nation may set speed limits and promulgate regulations governing uniform traffic control to comply with the provisions of this title for the reasonable and safe operation of motor vehicles on property situated within the Nation and owned by or under the control of the public trust.

Speed limits and regulations so established shall be enforceable when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. Any person driving on such property in violation of the speed limit or regulation so established shall, upon conviction, be punished in the same manner as provided for persons convicted of violating other provisions of this chapter.

§ 11–309. Driving on roadways laned for traffic

Whenever any roadway has been divided into two (2) or more clearly marked lanes for traffic, the following rules in addition to all others consistent herewith shall apply.

1. A vehicle shall be driven as nearly as practicable entirely within a single lane and shall not be moved from the lane until the driver has first ascertained that the movement can be made with safety and then given a signal, not less than the last one hundred (100) feet traveled by the vehicle, of his intention to change lanes.

2. Upon a roadway which is divided into three (3) lanes, a vehicle shall not be driven in the center lane except when overtaking and passing another vehicle where the roadway is clearly visible and such center lane is clear of traffic within a safe distance, or in preparation for a left turn or where such center lane is at the time allocated exclusively to traffic moving in the direction the vehicle is proceeding and is sign posted to give notice of such allocation.

3. Upon a roadway which is divided into four (4) or more lanes, a vehicle proceeding at less than the maximum posted speed, except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation, shall not impede the normal flow of traffic by driving in the left lane. Such vehicle shall be driven in the right-hand lane except when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway.

4. Official signs may be erected directing slow-moving traffic to use a designated lane or designating those lanes to be used by traffic moving in a particular direction regardless of the center of the roadway and drivers of vehicles shall obey the directions of every such sign.

§ 11–310. Following too closely

A. The driver of a motor vehicle shall not follow another vehicle more closely than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard for the speed of such vehicles and the traffic upon and the condition of the highway.

B. The driver of any truck or motor vehicle drawing another vehicle when traveling upon a roadway outside of a business or residential district and which is following another truck or motor vehicle drawing another vehicle shall, whenever conditions permit, leave sufficient space so that an overtaking vehicle may enter and occupy such space without danger, except that this shall not prevent a motor truck or motor vehicle drawing another vehicle from overtaking and passing any like vehicle or another vehicle.

C. No vehicle which has more than six (6) tires in contact with the road shall approach from the rear of another vehicle which has more than six (6) tires in contact with the road closer than three hundred (300) feet except when passing such said vehicle.

D. Motor vehicles being driven upon any roadway outside of a business or residential district in a caravan or motorcade, whether or not towing other vehicles, shall be so operated as to allow sufficient space between each such vehicle or combination of vehicles so as to enable any other vehicle to enter and occupy such space without danger. The distance between such vehicles shall be a minimum of two hundred (200) feet under all conditions. This provision shall not apply to funeral processions.

§ 11–311. Driving on divided highways

Whenever any highway has been divided into two (2) or more roadways by leaving an intervening space or by a physical barrier or clearly-indicated dividing section so constructed as to impede vehicular traffic, every vehicle shall be driven only upon the right-hand roadway unless directed or permitted to use another roadway by official traffic control devices or police officers. No vehicle shall be driven over, across or within any such dividing space, barrier or section, except through an opening in such physical barrier or dividing section or space or at a cross-over or intersection as established unless specifically prohibited by public authority.

§ 11–312. Restricted access

No person shall drive a vehicle onto or from any controlled-access roadway except at such entrances and exits as are established by public authority.

§ 11–313. Restrictions on use of controlled-access roadway

Cherokee Nation may prohibit the use of any such roadway by pedestrians, bicycles or other nonmotorized traffic or by any person operating a motor-driven cycle. Cherokee Nation adopting any such prohibitory regulations shall erect and maintain official signs on the controlled-access roadway on which such regulations are applicable and when so erected no person shall disobey the restrictions stated on such signs.

ARTICLE IV. RIGHT-OF-WAY

§ 11–401. Vehicle approaching or entering intersection

A. The driver of a vehicle on a county road approaching an intersection with a tribal or federal highway shall stop and yield the right-of-way to a vehicle which has entered the intersection or which is so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard.

B. When two (2) vehicles enter or approach an intersection from different highways at approximately the same time, except in subsection (A) of this section, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right-of-way to the vehicle on the right.

C. The right-of-way rules declared in subsections (A) and (B) of this section are modified at through highways and otherwise as hereinafter stated in this chapter.

The driver of a vehicle within an intersection intending to turn to the left shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction which is within the intersection or so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard, but said driver, having so yielded and having given a signal when and as required by this chapter, may make such left turn and the drivers of all other vehicles approaching the intersection from said opposite direction shall yield the right-of-way to the vehicle making the left turn.

§ 11–403. Vehicle entering stop or yield intersection

A. Preferential right-of-way at an intersection may be indicated by stop signs or yield signs as authorized in 47 O.S. § 15–108.

B. Except when directed to proceed by a police officer or traffic-control signal, every driver of a vehicle approaching a stop intersection indicated by a stop sign shall stop as required by 47 CNCA § 11–703(D) and after having stopped shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle which has entered the intersection from another highway or which is approaching so closely on said highway as to constitute an immediate hazard, but said driver having so yielded may proceed and the drivers of all other vehicles approaching the intersection shall yield the right-of-way to the vehicle so proceeding.

C. The driver of a vehicle approaching a yield sign shall in obedience to such sign slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions, or shall stop if necessary as provided in 47 CNCA § 11–703(E), and shall yield the right-of-way to any pedestrian legally crossing the roadway on which he is driving, and to any vehicle in the intersection or approaching on another highway so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard. Said driver having so yielded may proceed and the drivers of all other vehicles approaching the intersection shall yield to the vehicle so proceeding, provided, however, that if such driver is involved in a collision with a pedestrian in a crosswalk or vehicle in the intersection after driving past a yield sign without stopping, such collision shall be deemed prima facie evidence of his failure to yield right-of-way.

D. Where two or more vehicles face stop, slow, warning or caution signs or signals on two or more intersecting cross streets, and are approaching so as to enter the intersection at the same time, where each vehicle is required to stop, the vehicle coming from the right shall have the right-of-way. Where each vehicle is required to slow the vehicle coming from the right shall have the right-of-way. Where each vehicle is required to take caution, the vehicle coming from the right shall have the right-of-way. Where one vehicle is required to stop and the other to slow or take caution, the one slowing or taking caution shall have the right-of-way. Where one vehicle is required to slow and the other to take caution, the one required to take caution shall have the right-of-way. In any event, a vehicle which has already entered the intersection shall have the right-of-way over one which has not so entered the intersection.

§ 11–404. Vehicle entering highway from private road or driveway

The driver of a vehicle about to enter or cross a highway from a private road or driveway shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles approaching on said highway.

§ 11–405. Operation of vehicles on approach of authorized emergency vehicles

A. Upon the immediate approach of an authorized emergency vehicle making use of audible and visual signals meeting the requirements of 47 O.S. § 12–218, or of a police vehicle properly and lawfully making use of an audible signal only, the driver of every other vehicle shall yield the right-of-way and shall immediately drive to a position parallel to, and as close as possible to, the right-hand edge or curb of the roadway clear of any intersection and shall stop and remain in such position until the authorized emergency vehicle has passed, except when otherwise directed by a police officer.

B. This section shall not operate to relieve the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons using the highway.

ARTICLE V. PEDESTRIANS' RIGHTS AND DUTIES

§ 11–501. Pedestrians subject to traffic regulations

A. A pedestrian shall obey the instructions of any official traffic-control device specifically applicable to him, unless otherwise directed by a police officer.

B. Pedestrians shall be subject to traffic and pedestrian-control signals as provided in 47 CNCA §§ 11–202 and 11–203.

C. At all other places pedestrians shall be accorded the privileges and shall be subject to the restrictions stated in this chapter.

§ 11–502. Pedestrians' right-of-way in crosswalks

A. When traffic-control signals are not in place or not in operation, the driver of a vehicle shall yield the right-of-way, slowing down or stopping if need be to so yield, to a pedestrian crossing the roadway within a crosswalk when the pedestrian is upon the half of the roadway upon which the vehicle is traveling, or when the pedestrian is approaching so closely from the opposite half of the roadway as to be in danger.

B. No pedestrian shall suddenly leave a curb or other place of safety and walk or run into the path of a vehicle which is so close that it is impossible for the driver to yield.

C. Subsection (A) shall not apply under the conditions stated in 47 CNCA § 11–503(B).

D. Whenever any vehicle is stopped at a marked crosswalk or at any unmarked crosswalk at an intersection to permit a pedestrian to cross the roadway, the driver of any other vehicle approaching from the rear shall not overtake and pass such stopped vehicle.

§ 11–503. Crossing at other than crosswalks

A. Every pedestrian crossing a roadway at any point other than within a marked crosswalk or within an unmarked crosswalk at an intersection shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles upon the roadway.

B. Any pedestrian crossing a roadway at a point where a pedestrian tunnel or overhead pedestrian crossing has been provided shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles upon the roadway.

C. Between adjacent intersections at which traffic-control signals are in operation pedestrians shall not cross at any place except in a marked crosswalk.

§ 11–504. Drivers to exercise due care

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this chapter, every driver of a vehicle shall exercise due care to avoid colliding with any pedestrian upon any roadway and shall give warning by sounding the horn when necessary and shall exercise proper precaution upon observing any child or any confused or incapacitated person upon a roadway.

§ 11–505. Pedestrians to use right half of crosswalks

Pedestrians shall move, whenever practicable, upon the right half of crosswalks.

§ 11–506. Pedestrians on roadways or bridges

A. Where sidewalks are provided, it shall be unlawful for any pedestrian to walk along and upon an adjacent roadway.

B. Where sidewalks are not provided, any pedestrian walking along and upon a highway shall, when practicable, walk only on the left side of the roadway or its shoulder facing traffic which may approach from the opposite direction and shall yield to approaching vehicles.

C. It shall be unlawful for any person to enter upon any portion of a bridge for the purpose of diving or jumping therefrom into a lake, river or stream for recreation, and it shall be unlawful for a pedestrian to use a bridge where sidewalks are not provided for the purpose of standing or sightseeing.

§ 11–507. Pedestrians soliciting rides or business

No person shall stand in a roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride, donation, employment or business from the occupant of any vehicle.

ARTICLE VI. TURNING AND STARTING AND SIGNALS ON STOPPING AND TURNING

§ 11–601. Required position and method of turning at intersections

The driver of a vehicle intending to turn at an intersection shall do so as follows:

1. Right turns. Both the approach for a right turn and a right turn shall be made as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway.

2. Left turns on two-way roadways. At any intersection where traffic is permitted to move in both directions on each roadway entering the intersection, an approach for a left turn shall be made in that portion of the right half of the roadway nearest the center line thereof and by passing to the right of such center line where it enters the intersection and after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection to the right of the center line of the roadway being entered. Whenever practicable the left turn shall be made in that portion of the intersection to the

3. Left turns on other than two-way roadways. At any intersection where traffic is restricted to one direction on one or more of the roadways, the driver of a vehicle intending to turn left at any such intersection shall approach the intersection in the extreme left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in the direction of travel of such vehicle and after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection, as nearly as practicable, in the left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in such direction upon the roadway being entered.

4. Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may cause markers, buttons or signs to be placed within or adjacent to intersections and thereby require and direct that a different course from that specified in this section be traveled by vehicles turning at an intersection, and when markers, buttons or signs are so placed no driver of a vehicle shall turn a vehicle at an intersection other than as directed and required by such markers, buttons or signs.

§ 11–602. Turning on curve or crest of grade prohibited

No vehicle shall be turned so as to proceed in the opposite direction upon any curve, or upon the approach to or near the crest of a grade, where such vehicle cannot be seen by the driver of any other vehicle approaching from either direction within five hundred (500) feet.

§ 11–603. Starting parked vehicle

No person shall start a vehicle which is stopped, standing or parked unless and until such movement can be made with reasonable safety.

§ 11–604. Turning movements and required signals

A. No person shall turn a vehicle at an intersection unless the vehicle is in proper position upon the roadway as required in 47 CNCA § 11–601, or turn a vehicle to enter a private road or driveway, or otherwise turn a vehicle from a direct course or move right or left upon a roadway unless and until such movement can be made with reasonable safety. No person shall so turn any vehicle without giving an appropriate signal in the manner hereinafter provided in the event any other traffic may be affected by such movement.

B. A signal of intention to turn right or left when required shall be given continuously during not less than the last one hundred (100) feet traveled by the vehicle before turning.

C. No person shall stop or suddenly decrease the speed of a vehicle without first giving an appropriate signal in the manner provided herein to the driver of any vehicle immediately to the rear when there is opportunity to give such signal.

§ 11–605. Signals by hand and arm or signal lamps

A. Any stop or turn signal when required herein shall be given either by means of the hand and arm or by signal lamps, except as otherwise provided in subsection (B) of this section.

B. Any motor vehicle in use on a highway shall be equipped with, and required signal shall be given by, signal lamps when the distance from the center of the top of the steering post to the left outside limit of the body, cab or load of such motor vehicle exceeds twenty-four (24) inches, or when the distance from the center of the top of the steering post to the rear limit of the body or load thereof exceeds fourteen (14) feet. The latter measurement shall apply to any single vehicle, also to any combination of vehicles.

§ 11–606. Method of giving hand-and-arm signals

All signals herein required given by hand and arm shall be given from the left side of the vehicle in the following manner and such signals shall indicate as follows:

1. Left turn. Hand and arm extended horizontally.
2. Right turn. Hand and arm extended upward.
3. Stop or decrease speed. Hand and arm extended downward.

ARTICLE VII. SPECIAL STOPS REQUIRED

§ 11–701. Obedience to signal indicating approach of train

A. Whenever any person driving a vehicle approaches a railroad grade crossing under any of the circumstances stated in this section, the driver of such vehicle shall stop within fifty (50) feet but not less than fifteen (15) feet from the nearest rail of such railroad, and shall not proceed until he can do so safely. The foregoing requirements shall apply when:

1. A clearly-visible electric or mechanical signal device gives warning of the immediate approach of a railroad train;
2. A crossing gate is lowered or when a human flagman gives or continues to give a signal of the approach or passage of a railroad train;
3. A railroad train approaching within approximately one thousand five hundred (1,500) feet of the highway crossing emits a signal audible from such distance and such railroad train, by reason of its speed or nearness to such crossing, is an immediate hazard;
4. An approaching railroad train is plainly visible and is in hazardous proximity to such crossing.

B. No person shall drive any vehicle through, around or under any crossing gate or barrier at a railroad crossing while such gate or barrier is closed or is being opened or closed.

§ 11–702. Certain vehicles must stop at all railroad grade crossings

A. The driver of any motor vehicle carrying passengers for hire, or of any school bus carrying any school child, or of any vehicle carrying explosive substances or flammable liquids as a cargo or part of a cargo, before crossing at grade any track or tracks of a railroad, shall stop such vehicle within fifty (50) feet but not less than fifteen (15) feet from the nearest rail of such railroad and while so stopped shall listen and look in both directions along such track for any approaching train, and for signals indicating the approach of a train, except as hereinafter provided, and shall not proceed until he can do so safely. After stopping as required herein and upon proceeding when it is safe to do so, the driver of any said vehicle shall cross only in such gear of the vehicle that there will be no necessity for changing gears while traversing such crossing and the driver shall not shift gears while crossing the track or tracks.

B. No stop need be made at any such crossing where a police officer or a traffic-control signal directs traffic to proceed.

§ 11-703. Stop signs and yield signs

A. Preferential right-of-way at an intersection may be indicated by stop signs or yield signs as authorized in 47 O.S. § 15-108.

B. Every stop sign and every yield sign shall be erected as near as practicable to the nearest line of the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if there is no crosswalk, then as near as practicable to the nearest line of the intersecting roadway, however such yield signs shall not be erected upon the approaches of but one of the intersecting streets.

C. Every stop sign shall bear the word "Stop". Every yield sign hereafter erected or replaced shall bear the word "Yield". Every stop sign and every yield sign shall at nighttime be rendered luminous by internal illumination, or by a floodlight projected on the face of the sign, or by efficient reflecting elements in or on the face of the sign.

D. Except when directed to proceed by a police officer or traffic-control signal, every driver of a vehicle approaching a stop intersection indicated by a stop sign shall stop before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, in the event there is no crosswalk, shall stop at a clearly-marked stop line, but if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the intersection.

E. The driver of a vehicle approaching a yield sign if required for safety to stop shall stop before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, in the event there is no crosswalk, at a clearly-marked stop line, but if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway.

§ 11-704. Emerging from alley, driveway or building

The driver of a vehicle within a business or residence district emerging from an alley, driveway or building shall stop such vehicle immediately prior to driving onto a sidewalk or onto the sidewalk area extending across any alleyway or driveway, and shall yield the right-of-way to any pedestrian as may be necessary to avoid collision, and upon entering the roadway shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles approaching on said roadway.

§ 11–705. Meeting or overtaking stopped school bus—Reporting violations

A. The driver of a vehicle meeting or overtaking a school bus that is stopped to take on or discharge school children, and on which the red loading signals are in operation, is to stop his vehicle before it reaches the school bus and not proceed until the loading signals are deactivated and then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is reasonable and with due caution for the safety of such school children and other occupants.

B. Every school bus used for the transportation of schoolchildren shall bear upon the front and rear thereof plainly visible signs containing the words "SCHOOL BUS" in letters not less than eight (8) inches in height and in addition shall be equipped with visual signals meeting the requirements of 47 O.S. § 12–218, which shall be actuated by the driver of said school bus whenever but only whenever such vehicle is stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging school children.

C. The driver of a vehicle upon a highway with separate roadways need not stop upon meeting or passing a school bus which is on a different roadway or when upon a controlled-access highway and the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is a part of or adjacent to such highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

D. If the driver of a school bus witnesses a violation of the provisions of subsection (A) of this section, within twenty-four (24) hours of the alleged offense, he shall report the violation, the vehicle color, license tag number, and the time and place such violation occurred to the law enforcement authority of the municipality where the violation occurred. The law enforcement authority of Cherokee Nation shall issue a letter of warning on the alleged violation to the person in whose name the vehicle is registered. A warning letter issued pursuant to this subsection shall not be recorded on the driving record of the person to whom such letter was issued. Issuance of a warning letter pursuant to this section shall not preclude the imposition of other penalties as provided by law.

§ 11–705.1. Church buses—Definition—Meeting and overtaking stopped bus—Signs and signals

A. A church bus is a vehicle operated by a nonprofit religious organization which transports persons including school-age children to and from religious services.

B. The driver of a vehicle meeting or overtaking a church bus that is stopped to take on or discharge passengers, and on which the red loading signals are in operation, is to stop his vehicle before it reaches the church bus and not proceed until the loading signals are deactivated and then proceed past such bus at a speed which is reasonable and with due caution for the safety of such occupants.

C. Every church bus used for the transportation of persons to and from religious services shall bear upon the front and rear thereof plainly visible signs containing the words "CHURCH BUS" in letters not less than eight (8) inches in height and in addition may be equipped with visual signals meeting the requirements of 47 O.S. § 12-218, which shall be actuated by the driver of said church bus whenever but only whenever such vehicle is stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging passengers.

D. The driver of a vehicle upon a highway with separate roadways need not stop upon meeting or passing a church bus which is on a different roadway or when upon a controlled-access highway and the church bus is stopped in a loading zone which is a part of or adjacent to such highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

ARTICLE VIII. SPEED RESTRICTIONS

§ 11-801. Basic rule and maximum limits

A. Any person driving a vehicle on a highway shall drive the same at a careful and prudent speed not greater than nor less than is reasonable and proper, having due regard to the traffic, surface and width of the highway and any other conditions then existing, and no person shall drive any vehicle upon a highway at a speed greater than will permit him to bring it to a stop within the assured clear distance ahead.

B. Except when a special hazard exists that requires lower speed for compliance with subsection (A) of this section, the limits specified in this act or established as hereinafter authorized shall be maximum lawful speeds, and no person shall drive a vehicle on a highway at a speed in excess of such maximum limits:

1. Sixty-five (65) miles per hour in other locations during daytime.
2. Fifty-five (55) miles per hour in such other locations during nighttime. Daytime means from a half hour before sunrise to a half hour after sunset. Nighttime means at any other hour.
3. Seventy (70) miles per hour in such other locations which are four-lane divided highways.
4. No person shall drive a truck, truck tractor with semitrailer or pole-trailer attached or any other combination of vehicles at a speed greater than a maximum of sixty (60) miles per hour in the day and fifty-five (55) miles per hour during the nighttime.
5. No person shall drive a pickup truck at a greater speed than is prescribed in subsection (B) of this section; except when such pickup truck is hauling livestock, then and in that event the maximum speed of such pickup truck shall not exceed sixty (60) miles per hour day or fifty-five (55) miles per hour at night. A pickup truck, as used in this act, shall apply to all vehicles having a rated load capacity of three-quarter (3/4) ton or less.

6. No person shall drive a school bus at a speed greater than a maximum of fifty (50) miles per hour except on turnpikes and interstate highways where the maximum shall be sixty-five (65) miles per hour.

7. On any highway outside of a municipality, the speed limit in a properly marked school zone shall be a maximum of twenty-five (25) miles per hour, provided the zone is marked with movable school zone signs, the signs placed at least one hundred (100) yards on each side of the area of the school proper. These signs shall not be placed upon or left standing on any part of the roadway except during the school day and the period immediately after the closing of school when children are, or are expected to be, crossing the highway in said school area; provided that such signs shall be removed from the roadway at all times when school is actually assembled and in no event shall such signs be placed upon the roadway more than one (1) hour prior to the assembly of school in the morning nor left standing on the roadway for more than one (1) hour after the dismissal of school in the evening. The Cherokee Nation shall mark such school zones, or entrances and exits onto highways by buses or students, so that the maximum speed provided by this section shall be established therein. Exits and entrances to controlled-access highways which are within such school zones shall be marked in the same manner as other highways. The county commissioners shall mark such school zones along the county roads so that the maximum speed provided by this section shall be established therein. Said signs may be either permanent or temporary. The Cherokee Nation shall give priority over all other signing projects to the foregoing duty to mark school zones. The Department shall also provide other safety devices for school zones which are needed in the opinion of the Department. The Cherokee Nation shall mark such school zones located within Indian country.

8. No person shall drive any vehicle at a greater maximum speed than twenty-five (25) miles per hour through school zones unless otherwise marked.

9. No person shall drive any vehicle on a highway in any park or wildlife refuge at a rate of speed in excess of thirty-five (35) miles per hour. Provided, however, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any state or federal designated highway within such areas.

10. No person shall drive any vehicle or combination of vehicles with solid rubber or metal tires at a speed greater than the maximum of ten (10) miles per hour.

The maximum speed limits set forth in this act may be altered as authorized in 47 CNCA §§ 11–802 and 11–803.

C. The driver of every vehicle shall, consistent with the requirements of subsection (A), drive at an appropriate reduced speed when approaching and crossing an intersection or railway grade crossing, when approaching and going around a curve, when approaching a hillcrest, when driving upon any narrow or winding roadway, and when special hazard exists with respects to pedestrians or other traffic, or by reason of weather or highway conditions.

§ 11–801A. Maximum speed limits—Suspension of existing conflicting law

No person shall drive a vehicle on a road or highway at a speed in excess of fifty-five (55) miles per hour unless, pursuant to federal law, a greater speed limit is authorized or established; provided, however, that the speed limit on rural interstate highways, as defined by federal law, shall be a maximum of sixty-five (65) miles per hour. This act, Section 11–1101 et seq. of this title, shall cease to be effective when the "Federal–Aid Highway Amendments of 1974." (Public Law 93–643), 23 U.S.C. § 101, or a substantially similar successor law with sanctions, ceases to be in effect; or by proclamation of the Principal Chief that an emergency no longer exists and this maximum speed is no longer warranted; or by resolution of the Council of the Cherokee Nation that an emergency no longer exists and this maximum speed is no longer warranted. This act shall suspend but not repeal all other laws in conflict and such laws shall resume their effectiveness when this act ceases to be in effect.

§ 11–801B. Restriction on cancellation of automobile insurance policies

No insurer shall, directly or indirectly, use traffic tickets or convictions for traffic offenses as a basis for cancellation of automobile insurance policies or increasing insurance premium rates for automobile insurance policies where such ticket or conviction is for exceeding the speed limit specified in this act, but not exceeding the speed limit previously in force where the violation occurred; nor shall any insurer in any way penalize or adversely affect any insured for any such violation or conviction.

§ 11–801C. Restrictions on recording or assessing points for speed violations

The Oklahoma Department of Public Safety shall not record or assess points for traffic violations or convictions for traffic offenses on any licensee's traffic record as maintained by said Department, where such violation or conviction is for exceeding the speed limit specified in this act, but not exceeding the speed limit previously in force where the violation occurred.

§ 11–801D. Restriction on recording or assessing points for out-of-state speed violations

The Department of Public Safety shall not record or assess points against a licensee for out-of-state violations or convictions of exceeding such state's speed limits, provided such licensee did not exceed the speed limit previously in force as of January 1, 1974, in the state where the violation or conviction occurred.

§ 11–802. Establishment of tribal speed zones

Whenever Cherokee Nation shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any maximum speed hereinbefore set forth is greater or less than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of the highway system, said Cherokee Nation may determine and declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereat which, when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected, shall be effective at all times, or during hours of daylight or darkness or at such other times as may be determined at such intersection or other place or part of the highway.

§ 11–803. When local authorities may and shall alter maximum limits

A. Whenever local authorities in their respective jurisdictions determine on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that the maximum speed permitted under this article is greater or less than is reasonable and safe under the conditions found to exist upon a highway or part of a highway, the local authority may determine and declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which:

1. Decreases the limit at intersections; or
2. Increases the limit within an urban district, but not to more than sixty-five (65) miles per hour during daytime or fifty-five (55) miles per hour during nighttime; or
3. Decreases the limit outside an urban district, but not to less than thirty-five (35) miles per hour.

B. Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions shall determine by an engineering and traffic investigation the proper maximum speed for all arterial streets and shall declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which may be greater or less than the maximum speed permitted under this act for an urban district.

C. Any altered limit established as hereinabove authorized shall be effective at all times or during hours of darkness or at other times as may be determined when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected upon such street or highway.

D. As to streets and highways within the corporate limits which have been constructed or reconstructed with state or federal funds, local authorities shall have joint authority with Cherokee Nation to establish or alter speed limits; and provided further, that no local authority shall impose speed limits on any such street or highway substantially lower than those justified by the highway design, capacity, and traffic volume as determined by engineering studies, of less than thirty-five (35) miles per hour.

§ 11–804. Minimum speed regulation

A. No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede the normal and reasonable movement of traffic except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law.

B. Whenever Cherokee Nation or local authorities within their respective jurisdictions determine on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that slow speeds on any part of a highway consistently impede the normal and reasonable movement of traffic, Cherokee Nation or such local authority may determine and declare a minimum speed limit below which no person shall drive a vehicle except when necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law.

§ 11–805. Special speed limitation on motor-driven cycles

No person shall operate any motor-driven cycle or any motor scooter, at any time, at a speed greater than thirty-five (35) miles per hour. However, all motor-driven cycles and motor scooters shall at all times conform to 47 CNCA § 11–801(A).

As used in this article, "motor-driven cycle" shall mean every bicycle with motor attached, and every motor scooter with wheel diameters twelve (12) inches or less, measured from one side of the rim to the other.

§ 11–806. Special speed limitations

A. No person shall drive a vehicle over any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or structure, when such structure is sign posted as provided in this section.

B. Cherokee Nation and local authorities may conduct an investigation of any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway, and if they shall thereupon find that such structure cannot, with safety to itself, withstand vehicles driving at speeds otherwise permissible under this act, they shall determine and declare the maximum speed of vehicles which such structure can safely withstand, and may cause and permit suitable signs stating such maximum speed to be erected and maintained at a distance of one hundred (100) feet before each end of such structure.

C. Where any tribal or federal highway shall be under construction or repair or a detour shall have been designated by reason of construction or repairs in progress and Cherokee Nation shall have determined a maximum safe, careful and prudent speed on such highway or detour during the period of such construction or repairs and shall have plainly posted at each terminus thereof and at not less than each half mile along the route thereof such determined maximum speed, no person shall drive any vehicle upon such portion of such highway or upon such detour at a speed in excess of the speed so determined and posted.

D. Upon the trial of any person charged with a violation of this section, proof of said determination of the maximum speed by said Cherokee Nation and the existence of said signs shall constitute conclusive evidence of the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety as provided in subsections (B) and (C) of this section.

§ 11–807. Charging violations and rule in civil actions

A. In every charge of violation of any speed regulation in this article, the complaint, also the summons or notice to appear, shall specify the speed at which the defendant is alleged to have driven, also the maximum speed applicable within the district or at the location.

B. The provision of this article declaring maximum speed limitations shall not be construed to relieve the plaintiff in any action from the burden of proving negligence on the part of the defendant as the proximate cause of an accident.

C. Every person convicted of violating any provision of this article shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) and not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), or shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than five (5) days nor more than thirty (30) days in jail, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 11–808. Radar interference devices—Advertising, sale, manufacture or distribution prohibited—Exemption—Penalties

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle upon any public road, street, highway or turnpike of this state when such vehicle is equipped with any device designed for the purpose of, or capable of:

1. Jamming or distorting signals emitted by radar; or
2. Transmitting a signal capable of being received by radar.

B. It shall be unlawful to manufacture, advertise for sale, sell or otherwise distribute any such device in this Nation.

C. A license issued by the Federal Communications Commission for the use of such device shall exempt operation of such device from the provisions of this act.

D. Any person convicted of violating subsection (A) or (B) of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

§ 11–809. Exemptions

The provisions of this act shall not apply to:

1. Any receiver of radio waves of any frequency lawfully licensed by any state or federal agency;
2. Any such device owned or operated by the federal or state or Nation government or any political subdivision used by employees thereof in their official duties, or the sale of any such device to law enforcement agencies for use in their official duties; or
3. Any citizens band radio.

ARTICLE IX. RECKLESS DRIVING, DRIVING WHILE INTOXICATED AND NEGLIGENT HOMICIDE

§ 11–901. Reckless driving

A. It shall be deemed reckless driving for any person to drive a motor vehicle in a careless or wanton manner without regard for the safety of persons or property or in violation of the conditions outlined in 47 CNCA § 11–801.

B. Every person convicted of reckless driving shall be punished upon a first conviction by imprisonment for a period of not less than five (5) days nor more than ninety (90) days, or by fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment; on a second or subsequent conviction punishment shall be imprisonment for not less than ten (10) days nor more than six (6) months, or by fine of not less than One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 11–902. Persons under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substance or combination thereof

A. It is unlawful and punishable as provided in subsection (C) of this section for any person to drive, operate, or be in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this nation who:

1. Has a blood or breath alcohol concentration, as defined in 47 CNCA § 756, of eight-hundredths (0.08) or more at the time of a test of such person's blood or breath administered within two (2) hours after the arrest of such person;

2. Is under the influence of alcohol;

3. Is under the influence of any other intoxicating substance to a degree which renders such person incapable of safely driving or operating a motor vehicle; or

4. Is under the combined influence of alcohol and any other intoxicating substance to a degree which renders such person incapable of safely driving or operating a motor vehicle.

B. The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been lawfully entitled to use alcohol or a controlled dangerous substance or any other intoxicating substance shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section.

As used in this title, the term "other intoxicating substance" shall mean any controlled dangerous substance as defined in the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq., and any other substance, other than alcohol, which is capable of being ingested, inhaled, injected, or absorbed into the human body and is capable of adversely affecting the central nervous system, vision, hearing or other sensory or motor functions.

C. 1. Every person who is convicted of a violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a crime for the first offense and shall: a) participate in a substance abuse assessment and evaluation approved by the District Court and shall follow all recommendations made in the assessment and evaluation, b) be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than one (1) year, and c) be fined not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

2. Any person who within ten (10) years following the completion of the execution of any sentence or deferred judgment for a violation of this section or a violation pursuant to the provisions of any law of any state prohibiting the offenses provided in subsection (A) of this section and is convicted of a second or subsequent offense pursuant to the provisions of this section or has a prior conviction in a municipal criminal court of record for the violation of a municipal ordinance prohibiting the offense provided for in subsection (A) of this section shall be deemed guilty of a crime and shall be sentenced to: a) participate in a substance abuse assessment and evaluation approved by the District Court and shall follow all recommendations made in the assessment and evaluation at the defendant's expense, or b) incarceration for not less than one (1) year and not to exceed three (3) years and a fine of not more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00), or c) treatment, imprisonment and a fine within the limitations prescribed in subparagraphs a and b of this paragraph. However, if the treatment recommended for the defendant does not include residential or inpatient treatment for a period of not less than ten (10) days, the person shall serve a term of imprisonment of at least ten (10) days.

3. Any person who is convicted of a third or subsequent offense pursuant to the provisions of this section or a violation pursuant to the provisions of any law of any state or a violation pursuant to the provisions of any law of any federally-recognized Indian tribe shall participate in a substance abuse assessment and evaluation as approved by the District Court and shall be sentenced to: a) follow all recommendations made in the substance abuse assessment and evaluation at the defendant's expense, followed by not less than one (1) year of supervision and periodic testing at the defendant's expense, four hundred eighty (480) hours of community service, and use of an ignition interlock device, or b) incarceration for not less than one (1) year and not more than three (3) years and a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or c) treatment, imprisonment and a fine within the limitations prescribed in subparagraphs a and b of this paragraph. However, if the person does not undergo residential or inpatient treatment the person shall serve a term of imprisonment of at least ten (10) days.

D. Any person who is found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this section may be referred, prior to sentencing, to an alcoholism evaluation facility designated by the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services for the purpose of evaluating the receptivity to treatment and prognosis of the person. The Court shall order the person to reimburse the facility for the evaluation in an amount not to exceed Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00). The facility shall, within seventy-two (72) hours, submit a written report to the Court for the purpose of assisting the Court in its final sentencing determination.

§ 11-902.1. Course for drinking drivers

As used in this act:

1. Course for drinking drivers means a course designed to inform the offender about alcohol or drugs and driving, and encourages the participants to reassess their use of alcohol or other drugs, and driving behavior, in order to select practical alternatives.
2. Satisfactory completion of a course means that the institution or agency conducting the course verifies that the participant has satisfactorily met the requirements of the course.

§ 11–902.2. Courts—Conditional participation in drinking drivers course

In any case in a municipal or District Court of proper jurisdiction wherein the defendant is charged with actual physical control of or operation of a motor vehicle while under the influence of or impaired by alcohol or a drug, the Court may:

A. Upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or stipulation by the defendant, or a verdict, but before a judgment of guilt is entered, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the defendant, defer further proceedings upon the condition that the defendant enroll in, attend and successfully complete, at his own expense, a course for drinking drivers as provided by this act; or

B. Upon a conviction, suspend the execution of sentence, with or without probation, upon the condition that the defendant enroll in, attend and successfully complete, at his own expense, a course for drinking drivers as provided by this act.

§ 11–902.3. Institutions and organizations that may offer courses—Fees—Limitations on enrollment

A. Courses for drinking drivers shall be offered only by nonprofit educational institutions of higher learning, governmental or nonprofit organizations.

B. Enrollment fees for those attending the courses shall not exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

C. Enrollment in the course shall not be limited to persons ordered to enroll, attend and successfully complete the course under the provisions of 47 CNCA § 11–902.2.

D. All courses for drinking drivers shall be approved by the Department of Public Safety.

E. Any institution conducting a course for drinking drivers shall notify the prosecutor and the court of all persons who successfully complete such course as a condition to a deferred or suspended sentence pursuant to 47 CNCA § 11–902.2.

§ 11–902.4. Operating or being in actual physical control of motor vehicle while under the influence while under age—Penalties

A. It is unlawful, and punishable as provided in subsection (B) of this section, for any person under twenty-one (21) years of age to drive, operate, or be in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this Nation who:

1. has any measurable quantity of alcohol in the person's blood or breath at the time of a test administered within two (2) hours after an arrest of the person;

2. exhibits evidence of being under the influence of any other intoxicating substance as shown by analysis of a specimen of the person's blood, breath, saliva, or urine in accordance with the provisions of 47 O.S. § 752; or

3. exhibits evidence of the combined influence of alcohol and any other intoxicating substance.

B. Any person under twenty-one (21) years of age who violates any provision of this section shall be subject to the seizure of the driver license of that person at the time of arrest or detention and the person, upon conviction, shall be guilty of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence while under age and shall be punished:

1. for a first conviction, by:

a. a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00),

b. assignment to and completion of twenty (20) hours of community service,

c. requiring the person to attend and complete a treatment program, or

d. any combination of fine, community service, or treatment;

2. upon a second conviction, by:

a. assignment to and completion of not less than two hundred forty (240) hours of community service, and

b. the requirement, after the conclusion of the mandatory revocation period, to install an ignition interlock device or devices for a period of not less than thirty (30) days.

In addition, a second conviction may be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or by requiring the person to attend and complete a treatment program, as recommended by the assessment required pursuant to subparagraph c of paragraph 2 of subsection (D) of this section, or by both; or

3. upon a third or subsequent conviction, by:

a. assignment to and completion of not less than four hundred eighty (480) hours of community service, and

b. the requirement, after the conclusion of the mandatory revocation period, to install an ignition interlock device or device for a period of not less than thirty (30) days.

In addition, a third or subsequent conviction may be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), or by requiring the person to attend and complete a treatment program, as recommended by the assessment required pursuant to subparagraph c of paragraph 2 of subsection (D) of this section, or by both.

C. The Court may assess additional community service hours in lieu of any fine specified in this section.

D. In addition to any penalty or condition imposed pursuant to the provisions of this section, the person shall be subject to:

1. upon a first conviction:

a. the cancellation or denial of driving privileges as ordered by the Court,

b. the continued installation of an ignition interlock device or devices, at the expense of the person after the mandatory period of cancellation, denial or revocation of driving privileges;

2. upon a second or subsequent conviction:

a. the cancellation or denial of driving privileges,

b. an assessment of the person's degree of alcohol abuse, which may result in treatment as deemed appropriate by the Court, and

c. the continued installation of an ignition interlock device or devices, at the expense of the person, after the mandatory period of cancellation, denial or revocation of driving privileges.

E. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the filing of charges pursuant to 47 CNCA § 11-902 when the facts warrant.

F. As used in this section:

1. The term "conviction" includes a juvenile delinquency adjudication by a court; and

2. The term "revocation" includes the cancellation or denial of driving privileges by any states Department of Public Safety.

§ 11-903. Negligent homicide

A. When the death of any person ensues within one (1) year as a proximate result of injury received by the driving of any vehicle by any person sixteen (16) years of age or older in reckless disregard of the safety of others, the person so operating such vehicle shall be guilty of negligent homicide.

B. Any person convicted of negligent homicide shall be guilty of a crime.

C. The Commissioner of Public Safety shall revoke the license or permit to drive and any nonresident operating privilege of any person convicted of negligent homicide.

§ 11–904. Person involved in personal injury accident while under influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substance—Causing great bodily injury

A. Any person who is involved in a personal injury accident while driving or operating a motor vehicle within this state and who is in violation of the provisions of 47 CNCA § 11–902(A) may be charged with a violation of the provisions of this subsection as follows:

1. Any person who is convicted of a violation of the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

2. Any person who is convicted of a second or subsequent violation of the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

B. 1. Any person who causes an accident resulting in great bodily injury to any person other than himself while driving or operating a motor vehicle within this state and who is in violation of the provisions of 47 CNCA § 11–902(A) may be charged with a violation of the provisions of this subsection. Any person who is convicted of a violation of the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

2. As used in this subsection, "great bodily injury" means bodily injury which creates a substantial risk of death or which causes serious, permanent disfigurement or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ.

ARTICLE X. STOPPING, STANDING AND PARKING

§ 11–1001. Stopping, standing or parking outside of business or residence districts

A. Upon any highway outside of a business or residence district no person shall stop, park or leave standing any vehicle, whether attended or unattended, upon the paved or main-traveled part of the highway when it is practicable to stop, park or so leave such vehicle off such part of said highway, but in every event an unobstructed width of the highway opposite a standing vehicle shall be left for the free passage of other vehicles and a clear view of such stopped vehicles shall be available from a distance of two hundred (200) feet in each direction upon such highway.

B. This section shall not apply to the driver of any vehicle which is disabled while on the paved or main-traveled portion of a highway in such manner and to such extent that it is impossible to avoid stopping and temporarily leaving such disabled vehicle in such position.

§ 11–1002. Officers authorized to remove illegally stopped vehicle

A. Whenever any police officer finds a vehicle standing upon a highway in violation of any of the provisions of 47 CNCA § 11–1001, such officer is hereby authorized to move such vehicle, or require the driver or other person in charge of the vehicle to move the same, to a position off the paved or main-traveled part of such highway.

B. Whenever any police officer finds a vehicle unattended upon any bridge or causeway or in any underpass where such vehicle constitutes an obstruction to traffic, such officer is hereby authorized to provide for the removal of such vehicle to the nearest garage or other place of safety.

C. When any vehicle is left standing or abandoned upon a highway in violation of this section and at such a place or in such manner as to interfere or prevent the maintenance of said highway, the Cherokee Nation Marshal's Office or its designee may remove such vehicle or request the driver or other persons in charge thereof to move the same to some place of safety off the highway without charge to the owner of the vehicle.

§ 11–1003. Stopping, standing or parking prohibited in specified places

A. No person shall stop, stand or park a vehicle, except when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic or in compliance with law or the directions of a police officer or traffic-control device, in any of the following places:

1. On a sidewalk;
2. In front of a public or private driveway;
3. Within fifteen (15) feet of a fire hydrant;
4. Within an intersection;
5. On a crosswalk;
6. Within twenty (20) feet of a crosswalk at an intersection;
7. Within thirty (30) feet upon the approach to any flashing beacon, stop sign or traffic-control signal located at the side of a roadway;
8. Between a safety zone and the adjacent curb or within thirty (30) feet of points on the curb immediately opposite the ends of a safety zone, unless the authority having jurisdiction indicates a different length by signs or markings;
9. Within fifty (50) feet of the nearest rail of a railroad crossing;
10. Within twenty (20) feet of the driveway entrance to any fire station and on the side of a street opposite the entrance to any fire station within seventy-five (75) feet of said entrance (when properly sign posted);
11. Alongside or opposite any street excavation or obstruction when stopping, standing or parking would obstruct traffic;

12. On the roadway side of any vehicle stopped or parked at the edge or curb of a street;
13. Upon any bridge or other elevated structure upon a highway or within a highway underpass;
14. At any place where official signs prohibit stopping.

B. No person shall move a vehicle not lawfully under his control into any such prohibited area or away from a curb such distance as is unlawful.

§ 11–1004. Additional parking regulations

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, every vehicle stopped or parked upon a roadway where there are adjacent curbs shall be so stopped or parked with the right-hand wheels of such vehicle parallel to and within eighteen (18) inches of the right-hand curb.

B. Local authorities may by ordinance permit parking of vehicle with the left-hand wheels adjacent to and within eighteen (18) inches of the left-hand curb of a one-way roadway.

C. Local authorities may by ordinance permit angle parking on any roadway, except that angle parking shall not be permitted on any federal-aid or state highway unless Cherokee Nation has determined that the roadway is of sufficient width to permit angle parking without interfering with the free movement of traffic.

D. Cherokee Nation with respect to highways under its jurisdiction may place signs prohibiting or restricting the stopping, standing or parking of vehicles on any highway where such stopping, standing or parking is dangerous to those using the highway or where the stopping, standing or parking of vehicles would unduly interfere with the free movement of traffic thereon. Such signs shall be official signs and no person shall stop, stand or park any vehicle in violation of the restrictions stated on such signs.

§ 11–1005. Authorized emergency vehicles; vehicles used in construction or maintenance of highways—Excepted from certain provisions

Provisions of this article shall not apply to authorized emergency vehicles or to vehicles or machinery used in the construction or maintenance of highways, and such vehicles or machinery may be operated on any part of the road, whether same is open to traffic or closed, when such operation is necessary in the maintenance or construction of said highway; provided, that the Department of Highways or Cherokee Nation shall protect all such operations with adequate warnings, signs, signals, lights, devices, or flagmen.

§ 11–1006. Parking of vehicles on posted private property—Penalty—Liability of landowner

A. It shall be unlawful to place or park a motor vehicle or a trailer upon the posted private property of another, without first obtaining permission from the landowner or the person in charge of such property, except where said placing or parking is casual or involuntary.

B. Violation of the terms of this section shall be considered to be a crime and upon conviction violators shall be fined not to exceed Twenty Dollars ($20.00) and, in addition thereto, shall pay any and all reasonable and necessary charges incurred by the landowner or other person in having any vehicle or trailer removed from his property and stored.

C. The landowner or person in charge of the land shall not be liable for any damages which may occur to a trespassing vehicle or trailer under the terms of this section, while the same is trespassing or while it is being removed from his property, or while it is in storage.

§ 11–1007. Placing or parking vehicle in parking space designated and posted for physically-disabled persons—Penalties—Reciprocity agreements

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to place or park a motor vehicle in any parking space on private property accessible to the public and where the public is invited or public property that is designated and posted as a reserved area for parking of motor vehicles of a physically disabled person unless such is eligible for a detachable insignia as a physically disabled person under the provisions of 47 CNCA § 15–112, and such insignia is displayed as provided in 47 CNCA § 15–112 or regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

B. Violation of these provisions shall be a crime and upon conviction such person shall be fined not more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) and, in addition thereto, such person shall pay any and all reasonable and necessary charges incurred by the landowner or other person in having any motor vehicle removed from the property and stored.

C. The Cherokee Nation Marshal is hereby authorized to enter into reciprocity agreements with other states for the purpose of recognizing handicapped parking permits issued by those states.

§ 11–1008. Power of Cherokee Nation Marshal's Office to enforce act

The Cherokee Nation Marshal's Office may enact and enforce any ordinance, rule or regulation adopted in conformity with this act. Such ordinance shall also authorize the Nation to investigate accidents on private property where the public is invited or on public property.

ARTICLE XI. MISCELLANEOUS RULES

§ 11–1101. Unattended motor vehicle

The person driving or in charge of a motor vehicle shall not permit it to stand unattended without first stopping the engine, and effectively setting the brake thereon and, when standing upon any grade, turning the front wheels to the curb or side of the highway.

§ 11–1102. Limitations on backing

No vehicle shall be backed upon any street or highway except for such distance as may be necessary to permit the vehicle to enter the proper driving lane from a parked position. Such backing shall be done only after the driver of said vehicle has ascertained that such movement can be made without endangering other traffic.

§ 11–1103. Riding on motorcycles

No person shall drive a motorcycle, motor scooter, or a motorbicycle while transporting more than one (1) passenger, except a motorcycle, motor scooter or motorbicycle factory-designed for the purpose of carrying additional passengers.

§ 11–1104. Obstruction to driver's view or control—Overloading school bus

A. No person shall drive a vehicle when it is so loaded, or when there are in the front seat such a number of persons, exceeding three, as to obstruct the view of the driver to the front or sides of the vehicle or as to interfere with the driver's control over the driving mechanism of the vehicle.

B. No passenger in a vehicle shall ride in such position as to interfere with the driver's view ahead or to the sides or to interfere with his control over the driving mechanism of the vehicle.

C. No school bus shall be operated on the streets or highways in this Nation when loaded with passengers in excess of the number for which such bus is designed to carry. The number of passengers determined by the local school board which the bus is designed to carry shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the bus.

§ 11–1105. Opening and closing vehicle doors

No person shall open the door of a motor vehicle on the side available to moving traffic unless and until it is reasonably safe to do so, nor shall any person leave a door open on the side of a vehicle available to moving traffic for a period of time longer than necessary to load or unload passengers.

§ 11–1106. Driving on mountain highways

The driver of a motor vehicle traveling through defiles or canyons or on mountain highways shall hold such motor vehicle under control and as near the right-hand edge of the highway as reasonably possible.

§ 11–1108. Following fire apparatus and other emergency vehicles prohibited

A. The driver of any vehicle other than one on official business shall not follow any fire apparatus traveling in response to a fire alarm closer than five hundred (500) feet or drive into or park such vehicle within the block where fire apparatus has stopped in answer to a fire alarm.

B. The driver of any vehicle other than one on official business shall not follow any emergency vehicle or shall not purposely drive to any location on a highway where an emergency exists which would interfere with the free movement of authorized emergency vehicles or any other traffic using the high-way at that location. For the purpose of this subsection the definition of emergency shall include traffic accidents, airplane accidents, disasters, explosions, civil disturbances and (without limitation by the foregoing) any other related circumstances which tend to cause traffic congestion.

The purpose of this subsection is to eliminate sightseers and other persons who do not have official business at the scene of an emergency, and whose presence would tend to cause traffic congestion.

§ 11–1110. Putting glass, etc., on highway prohibited

A. No person shall throw or deposit upon any highway any glass bottle, glass, nails, tacks, wire, cans or any other substances likely to injure any person, animal or vehicle upon such highway.

B. Any person who drops, or permits to be dropped or thrown, upon any highway any destructive or injurious material shall immediately remove the same or cause it to be removed.

C. Any person removing a wrecked or damaged vehicle from a highway shall remove any glass or other injurious substance dropped upon the highway from such vehicle.

D. No person shall throw any substance at a standing vehicle or any occupant thereof, nor shall any person throw any substance at a person on or adjacent to a highway.

§ 11–1112. Child passenger restraint system required for certain vehicles—Exemptions

A. Every driver when transporting a child under four (4) years of age in a motor vehicle operated on the roadways, streets, or highways of this state shall provide for the protection of said child by properly using a child passenger restraint system, or a properly secured seat belt in the rear seat of the motor vehicle. For purposes of 47 CNCA §§ 11–1112 and 11–1113, "child passenger restraint system" means an infant or child passenger restraint system that meets the federal standards for crash-tested restraint systems as set by the United States Department of Transportation.

B. Children four (4) or five (5) years of age shall be protected by use of a child passenger restraint system or a seat belt.

C. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

1. A nonresident driver transporting a child in this state; and
2. The driver of a school bus, taxicab, moped, motorcycle, or other motor vehicle not required to be equipped with safety belts pursuant to state or federal laws; and
3. The driver of an ambulance or emergency vehicle; and
4. A driver of a vehicle if all of the seat belts in the vehicle are in use; and
5. The transportation of children who for medical reasons are unable to be placed in such devices.

D. A law enforcement officer is hereby authorized to stop a vehicle if it appears that the driver of the vehicle has violated the provisions of this section and to give an oral warning to said driver. The warning shall advise the driver of the possible danger to children resulting from the failure to install or use a child passenger restraint system or seat belts in the motor vehicle.

E. A violation of the provisions of this section shall not be admissible as evidence in any civil action or proceeding for damages.

F. In any action brought by or on behalf of an infant for personal injuries or wrongful death sustained in a motor vehicle collision, the failure of any person to have the infant properly restrained in accordance with the provisions of this section shall not be used in aggravation or mitigation of damages.

G. Any person convicted of violating subsection (A) or (B) of this section shall be punished by a fine of Ten Dollars ($10.00) and shall pay a maximum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) court costs thereof. This fine shall be suspended in the case of the first offense upon proof of purchase or acquisition by loan of a child passenger restraint system. Provided, the Department of Public Safety shall not assess points to the driving record of any licensed or unlicensed person convicted of a violation of this section.

§ 11–1114. Allowing passenger to ride outside of compartment

A. No operator of a motor vehicle shall allow a passenger to ride outside the passenger compartment of the vehicle on the streets, highways or turnpikes of Cherokee Nation; provided, this section shall not apply to persons so riding on private property or for parades or special events nor shall this section apply to passengers riding on the bed of a pickup truck.

B. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsection (A) of this section shall be punished by a fine of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) and shall pay court costs of Sixty Dollars ($60.00) provided the Department of Public Safety shall not assess points to the driving record of any licensed or unlicensed person convicted of a violation of this section.

§ 11–1115. Railroad crossings

At a railroad-highway grade crossing, a person operating a Class A, B or C commercial motor vehicle as described in 47 CNCA §§ 1-107.1, 1-107.2 and 1-107.3 shall not negotiate the crossing if there is:

1. Insufficient space to drive completely through the crossing without stopping; or
2. Insufficient clearance for the undercarriage of the vehicle.

ARTICLE XII. OPERATION OF BICYCLES AND PLAY VEHICLES

§ 11–1201. Effect of regulations

A. It is an offense and punishable by fine of not less than One Dollar ($1.00) nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for any person to do any act forbidden or fail to perform any act required in this article.

B. The parent of any child and the guardian of any ward shall not authorize or knowingly permit any such child or ward to violate any of the provisions of this article.

C. These regulations applicable to bicycles shall apply whenever a bicycle is operated upon any highway or upon any path set aside for the exclusive use of bicycles subject to those exceptions stated herein.

§ 11–1202. Traffic laws apply to persons riding bicycles

Every person riding a bicycle upon a roadway shall be granted all of the rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to the driver of a vehicle by this act, except as to special regulations in this article and except to those provisions of this act which by their nature can have no application.

§ 11–1203. Riding on bicycle

A. A person propelling a bicycle shall not ride other than upon or astride a permanent and regular seat attached thereto.

B. No bicycle shall be used to carry more persons at one time than the number for which it is designed and equipped.

§ 11–1204. Clinging to vehicles

No person riding upon any bicycle, coaster, roller skates, sled or toy vehicle shall attach the same or himself to any vehicle upon a roadway.

§ 11–1205. Riding on roadways and bicycle paths

A. Every person operating a bicycle upon a roadway shall ride as near to the right side of the roadway as practicable, exercising due care when passing a standing vehicle or one proceeding in the same direction.

B. Persons riding bicycles upon a roadway shall not ride more than two abreast except on paths or parts of roadways set aside for the exclusive use of bicycles.

C. Wherever a usable path for bicycles has been provided adjacent to a roadway, bicycle riders shall use such path and shall not use the roadway.

§ 11–1206. Carrying articles

No person operating a bicycle shall carry any package, bundle or article which prevents the driver from keeping at least one hand upon the handle bars.

§ 11–1207. Lamps and other equipment on bicycles

A. Every bicycle when in use at nighttime shall be equipped with a lamp on the front which shall emit a white light visible from a distance of at least five hundred (500) feet to the front and with a red reflector on the rear of a type approved by the Department which shall be visible from all distances from fifty (50) feet to three hundred (300) feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps on a motor vehicle. A lamp emitting a red light visible from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the rear may be used in addition to the red reflector.

B. Every bicycle shall be equipped with a brake which will enable the operator to make the braked wheels skid on dry, level, clean pavement.

ARTICLE XIII. MAINTENANCE, CONSTRUCTION AND SAFETY ZONES

§ 11–1301. Driving through safety zones prohibited

No vehicle shall at any time be driven through or within a safety zone.

§ 11–1302. Maintenance and construction zones

A. Cherokee Nation within its jurisdiction may close roads and highways to traffic while such highway is under repair, maintenance or construction and, in exercising such authority, shall erect or cause to be erected control devices and barricades to warn and notify the public that said highway has been closed to traffic.

B. When any highway has been closed to traffic under the provisions of subsection (A) and traffic-control devices or barricades have been erected, it shall be unlawful for any person to drive any vehicle through, under, over, or around such traffic-control devices or barricades, or otherwise to enter said closed area; except, that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to persons while engaged in the construction, maintenance and repair of said highway or to persons entering therein for the protection of lives or property; provided that persons having their places of residence or places of business within such closed area may travel, when possible to do so, through such area at their own risk.

C. Whenever construction, repair and maintenance of any highway is being performed under traffic, the governing body having jurisdiction over said highway shall erect, or cause to be erected, traffic-control devices to warn and guide the public, and every person using such highway shall obey all signs, signals, markings, flagmen or other traffic-control devices which are placed to regulate, control, and guide traffic through the construction or maintenance area.

D. No person shall remove, change, modify, deface or alter any traffic-control device or barricade which has been erected on any highway under the provisions of this article.

E. Nothing in this article shall relieve contractors, agents, servants or employees from liability for failure to perform any of the duties imposed herein.

F. Any person who violates any provision of this article shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and imprisonment in a penal institution not to exceed thirty (30) days, or both such fine and imprisonment, and shall be liable for any damage to property, or injury to or death to persons caused by such violations.

CHAPTER 12

EQUIPMENT OF VEHICLES

ARTICLE IV. OTHER EQUIPMENT

ARTICLE VI. MOTORCYCLES

ARTICLE IV. OTHER EQUIPMENT

§ 12-417. Safety belt law

A. 1. Every operator and front seat passenger of a passenger car operated in the jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation shall wear a properly adjusted and fastened safety seat belt system, required to be installed in the motor vehicle when manufactured pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 571.208.

2. For the purposes of this section, "passenger car" shall mean "vehicle" as defined in 47 CNCA § 1-186. "Passenger car" shall include the passenger compartment of pickups, vans, minivans, and sport utility vehicles, "Passenger car" shall not include trucks, truck-tractors, recreational vehicles, motorcycles, or motorized bicycles. "Passenger car" shall not include a vehicle used primarily for farm use which is registered and licensed pursuant to the provisions of 68 CNCA § 1258.

B. This section shall not apply to persons eligible for an exception for medical reasons pursuant to 59 O.S. § 495 and any other similar statute of another state.

C. This section shall not apply to an operator of a motor vehicle while performing official duties as a route carrier of the U.S. Postal Service.

D. Fine and court costs for violating the provisions of this section shall not exceed Twenty Dollars ($20.00) plus Sixty Dollars ($60.00) court costs.

ARTICLE VI. MOTORCYCLES

§ 12-609. Motorcycle and motor scooter

The following equipment shall be required on all motorcycles and all motor scooters except on actual trail rides conducted outside of public roads and highways:

1. Rear View Mirrors. All vehicles covered under this section shall be equipped with two mirrors, containing a reflection surface of not less than three (3) inches in diameter, mounted one on each side of the vehicle and positioned so as to enable the operator to clearly view the roadway for a distance of two hundred (200) feet to the rear of his vehicle.
2. Windshield. All vehicles covered under this section shall be equipped with a windshield of sufficient quality, size and thickness to protect the operator from foreign objects, except that in lieu of such windshield the operator shall wear goggles or face shield of material and design to protect him from foreign objects.
3. Brakes. All vehicles covered under this section shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of same to stop and hold such vehicles, including two (2) separate means of applying the brakes, one means shall be effective to apply the brakes to the front wheel and one means shall be effective to apply the brakes to the rear wheels. All such vehicles shall be equipped with a stop lamp on the rear of the vehicle, which shall display a red or amber light or any shade of color between red and amber, visible from a distance of not less than one hundred (100) feet to the rear in normal sunlight, and which shall be actuated upon application of the service brake.
4. Speedometer. All vehicles covered under this section shall be equipped with a properly operating speedometer capable of registering at least the maximum legal speed limit for that vehicle.
5. Fenders. All vehicles covered under this section shall be equipped with a fender over each wheel. All fenders shall be of the type provided by the manufacturer.
6. Lights. All vehicles covered under this section shall carry at least one (1) lighted headlamp capable of showing a white light visible at least three hundred (300) feet in the direction in which the same are proceeding, and one (1) tail lamp mounted on the rear which, when lighted, shall emit a red light plainly visible from at least three hundred (300) feet to the rear, and such lights required by this section shall be burning whenever such vehicles are in motion during the period from one-half (1/2) hour after sunset and one-half (1/2) hour before sunrise and at any other time when, due to insufficient light or unfavorable atmospheric conditions, persons and vehicles on the streets are not clearly discernible at a distance of at least five hundred (500) feet ahead.
7. Headgear. No person under eighteen (18) years of age shall operate or ride upon any vehicle covered under this section unless such person is equipped with and wearing on the head a crash helmet of a type which complies with standards established by the Department of Public Safety. All crash helmets shall consist of lining, padding and chin straps and be of the type as not to distort the view of the driver. The Commissioner of the Department of Public Safety is hereby authorized to approve or disapprove protective headgear and eye-protective devices sold and required herein, and to issue and enforce regulations establishing standards and specifications for approval thereof. The Commissioner shall publish lists of all approved protective headgear and eye-protective devices by name and type. Provided, however, the Department may not recommend one brand in preference to another if quality is identical.

CHAPTER 14

SIZE, WEIGHT AND LOAD

§ 14-107. Definitions

As used in this chapter:

1. "Axle load" means the total load transmitted to the road by all wheels whose centers are included between two parallel transverse vertical planes forty (40) inches apart, extending across the full width of the vehicle.
2. "Nondivisible" means any load or vehicle exceeding applicable length or weight which, if separated into smaller loads or vehicles, would;
 - a. compromise the intended use of the vehicle;
 - b. destroy the value of the load or vehicle; or
 - c. require more than eight (8) hours to dismantle using appropriate equipment.
3. "Tandem axle" means any two or more consecutive axles whose centers are more than forty (40) inches apart, but not more than ninety-five (95) inches apart.

§ 14-109. Overload, any axle or gross weight

A. On any road or highway within Cherokee Nation:

1. No single axle weight shall exceed twenty thousand (20,000) pounds; and
2. The total gross weight in pounds imposed thereon by a vehicle or combination of vehicles shall not exceed the value given in the following table corresponding to the distance in feet between the extreme axles of the group measured longitudinally to the nearest foot:

B. Except as to gross limits, the table in subsection (A) of this section shall not apply to a truck-tractor and dump semitrailer when used as a combination unit. In no event shall the maximum load in pounds carried by any set of tandem axles exceed thirty-four thousand (34,000) pounds for vehicles exempt from the table; however, any vehicle operating with split tandem axles or tri-axles shall adhere to the table.

C. Special permits may be issued as provided in this title for divisible loads for vehicle configurations in excess of six (6) axles. The permits may not exceed the Table "B" federal weights formula imposed by 23 U.S.C. § 127. Vehicles moving under the permits shall not traverse H-15 bridges or less without the express approval of the Secretary of Transportation.

D. Except for loads moving under special permits as provided in this title, no department or agency of this Nation or any county, city, or public entity thereof shall pay for any material that exceeds the legal weight limits moving in interstate or intrastate commerce in excess of the legal load limits of this Nation.

E. Exceptions to this section will be:

1. Utility or refuse collection vehicles used by counties, cities, or towns or by private companies contracted by counties, cities, or towns if the following conditions are met:

a. calculation of weight for a utility or refuse collection vehicle shall be "Gross Vehicle Weight". The "Gross Vehicle Weight" of a utility or refuse collection vehicle may not exceed the otherwise applicable weight by more than fifteen percent (15%). The weight on individual axles must not exceed the manufacturer's component rating which includes axle, suspension, wheels, rims, brakes, and tires as shown on the vehicle certification label or tag, and

b. utility or refuse collection vehicles operated under these exceptions will not be allowed to operate on interstate highways;

2. Vehicles transporting timber, pulpwood, and chips in their natural state, vehicles transporting oil field fluids, oil field equipment, or equipment used in oil and gas well drilling or exploration, and vehicles transporting grain, if the following conditions are met:

- a. the vehicles are registered for the maximum allowable rate.
- b. the vehicles do not exceed five percent (5%) of the gross limits set forth in subsection (A) of this section, and
- c. the vehicles operating pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph will not be allowed to operate on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways; and

3. Vehicles transporting rock, sand, gravel, and coal if the following conditions are met:

- a. the vehicles are registered for the maximum allowable rate.
- b. the vehicles do not exceed five percent (5%) of the axle limits set forth in subsection (A) of this section, and
- c. the vehicles operating pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph will not be allowed to operate on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways.

F. Utility or refuse collection vehicles, vehicles transporting timber, pulpwood, and chips in their natural state, vehicles transporting oil field equipment or equipment used in oil and gas well drilling or exploration, vehicles transporting rock, sand, gravel, and coal and vehicles transporting grain, operating under exceptions shall purchase an annual special overload permit for One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

G. For purposes of this section, "utility vehicle" shall mean any truck used by a private utility company, county, city, or town for the purpose of installing or maintaining electric, water, or sewer systems.

CHAPTER 15

RESPECTIVE POWERS OF STATE AND LOCAL AUTHORITIES

§ 15–103. Rights of owners of real property

Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the owner of real property used by the public for purposes of vehicular travel by permission of the owner, and not as a matter of right, from prohibiting such use, or from requiring other or different or additional conditions than those specified in this act, or otherwise regulating such use as may seem best to such owner.

§ 15–112. Physical disability insignia

A. As used in this section:

1. "Physical disability" means an illness, disease, injury or condition by reason of which a person:

a. Cannot walk two hundred (200) feet without stopping to rest, or

b. Cannot walk without the use of or assistance from a brace, cane, crutch, another person, prosthetic device, wheelchair or other assistant device, or

c. Is restricted to such an extent that the person's forced (respiratory) expiratory volume for one (1) second, when measured by spirometry, is less than one (1) liter, or the arterial oxygen tension is less than sixty (60) mm/hg on room air at rest, or

d. Must use portable oxygen, or

e. Has functional limitations which are classified in severity as Class III or Class IV according to standards set by the American Heart Association, or

f. Is severely limited in his or her ability to walk due to an arthritic, neurological, or orthopedic condition.

2. "Physician" means any person holding a valid license to practice medicine and surgery, osteopathy, or chiropractic, pursuant to the state licensing provisions of Title 59 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

B. Cherokee Nation adopts the physical disability insignia and issued by Department of Public Safety wherein it issues a detachable insignia indicating physical disability to any person who submits an application on forms furnished by the Department, together with a certificate signed by a physician stating that the applicant has a physical disability. The certificate of the physician and the detachable insignia shall each bear an expiration date reflecting the date estimated by the physician to be the termination date of such physical disability unless the physical disability is certified by the physician to be permanent.

C. The Department shall, upon request by a physician, provide said physician temporary insignias indicating physical disability to be issued, at the discretion of the physician, to any person who has a physical disability. The temporary insignia shall bear an expiration date reflecting the date estimated by the physician to be the termination date of such physical disability, which shall not be later than six (6) months from the date of issuance.

D. A physician may sign a certificate stating that a person has a physical disability, as provided in subsection (B) of this section, or issue to a person a temporary insignia indicating physical disability, as provided in subsection (C) of this section, only if care and treatment of the illness, disease, injury or condition causing the physical disability of such person falls within the authorized scope of practice of said physician.

E. Cherokee Nation shall have the power to formulate, adopt and promulgate rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement and administer the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, prescribing the manner in which the detachable insignia and the temporary insignia are to be displayed on a motor vehicle.

§ 15–112.1. Parking places—Authorized use

No person shall be allowed to park in a handicapped parking place other than the person to whom the insignia indicating physical disability is issued.

§ 15–113. Penalties

Any person who knowingly makes or procures the making of a false statement in an application or certificate submitted pursuant to this act or any person who knowingly makes unauthorized use of an insignia issued pursuant to this act is guilty of a crime and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). This penalty shall be stated on all applications and certificates.

CHAPTER 16

PARTIES AND PROCEDURE UPON ARREST

§ 16–101. Parties to a crime

A. Classification of parties. The parties to crimes are classified as:

1. Principals, and
2. Accessories.

B. Principals defined. All persons concerned in the commission of crime, and whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense or aid and abet in its commission, though not present, are principals.

C. Accessories defined. All persons who, after the commission of any crime, conceal or aid the offender, with the knowledge that he has committed a crime, and with intent that he may avoid or escape from arrest, trial, conviction, or punishment, are accessories.

§ 16–102. Offenses by persons owning or controlling vehicles

It is unlawful for the owner, or any other person, employing or otherwise directing the driver of any vehicle to require or knowingly to permit the operation of such vehicle upon a highway in any manner contrary to law.

§ 16–103. Public officers and employees—Exceptions

The provisions of Chapters 10, 11, 12 and 14, applicable to drivers of vehicles upon the highways, shall apply to the drivers of all vehicles owned or operated by the United States, the State of Oklahoma or any county, city, town, district or any other political subdivision of the state or of Cherokee Nation, subject to such specific exceptions as are set forth in this act.

§ 16–104. Procedure upon arrest for crime

Whenever a person is arrested for any violation of this act declared herein to be a crime, which if committed under the laws of Oklahoma would be a felony, he shall be dealt with in like manner as upon arrest for the commission of any other crime.

§ 16–105. When person must be taken immediately before a Magistrate

Whenever any person is halted by a peace officer for any violation of this act not amounting to a crime but designated as an offense, he shall be taken without unnecessary delay before the proper Magistrate, as specified in 47 CNCA § 16–110, in either of the following cases:

1. When the person demands an immediate appearance before a Magistrate; or
2. In any other event when the person is issued a traffic citation by an authorized person and refuses to give his written promise to appear in court as hereinafter provided.

§ 16–106. When officer has option to take person before a Magistrate

Whenever any person is halted by a peace officer for any violation of this act and is not required to be taken before a Magistrate as hereinbefore provided, the person shall, in the discretion of the officer, either be given a traffic citation as hereinafter provided, or be taken without unnecessary delay before the proper Magistrate, as specified in 47 CNCA § 16–110 in any of the following cases:

1. When the person does not furnish satisfactory evidence of identity or when the officer has reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person will disregard a written promise to appear in court;
2. Deleted;
3. When the person is charged with a violation of 47 O.S. § 13–103, relating to the refusal of a driver of a vehicle to submit such vehicle to an inspection and test; or
4. Deleted.

§ 16–108. Other criminal violations—Procedure

- A. Whenever a person is halted by a peace officer or highway patrolman for any violation of this title punishable as a crime, which if committed under the laws of Oklahoma would be misdemeanor, the officer may proceed in accordance with the Bail Bond Procedure Act, 22 CNCA § 1115 et seq.

B. If the person charged with the violation is a minor, then the citing peace officer shall ascertain from the minor the name and address of his parents or legal guardian, and said officer shall cause a copy of the "violation" to be mailed to the address of the parents or legal guardian, within three (3) days after the date of violation.

C. Whenever a person is halted by a peace officer or highway patrolman for any violation of this title punishable as a offense, the officer shall proceed in accordance with the Bail Bond Procedure Act, 22 CNCA § 1115 et seq.

§ 16–109.1. Authority of officer at scene of accident

Except for crimes which would be a felony if committed under the laws of Oklahoma, a police officer at the scene of a traffic accident may issue a written notice to appear to any driver of a vehicle involved in the accident when, based upon personal investigation, the officer has reasonable and probable grounds to believe that the person has committed any offense under the provisions of this title in connection with the accident.

In such cases the officer shall be endorsed as a witness and shall appear if said case is tried.

§ 16–112. Failure to obey notice to appear

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to violate his written promise to appear given to an officer upon the issuance of a notice to appear regardless of the disposition of the charge for which such notice to appear was originally issued.

B. A written promise to appear in court may be complied with by an appearance by counsel.

§ 16–113. Procedure prescribed herein not exclusive

The foregoing provisions of this chapter shall govern all peace officers in making arrests without a warrant for violations of any provisions of Chapters 10, 11, 12 or 14, but the procedure prescribed herein shall not otherwise be exclusive of any other method prescribed by law for the arrest and prosecution of a person for an offense of like grade.

§ 16–114. Arrest of traffic violators without warrant

A peace officer may, without a warrant, arrest a person for any moving traffic violation of which the arresting officer or another police officer in communication with the arresting officer has sensory or electronic perception including perception by radio, radar and reliable speed-measuring devices.

CHAPTER 17

PENALTIES

§ 17–101. Penalties for crimes which would be a misdemeanor under Oklahoma law—Plea of guilty by written statement—Acts not otherwise punishable by imprisonment

A. It is a crime for any person to violate any of the provisions of this title unless such violation is by this title or other law of Cherokee Nation designated as an offense.

B. 1. Every person convicted of a crime, which under the laws of Oklahoma would be a misdemeanor, which includes a violation of any of the provisions of 47 CNCA §§ 10–101 through 14–121 or 16–101 through 16–114 for which another penalty is not provided shall for a first conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days; for a second such conviction within one (1) year thereafter such person shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty Dollars ($20.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) or by imprisonment for not more than twenty (20) days or by both such fine and imprisonment; upon a third or subsequent conviction within one (1) year after the first conviction such person shall be punished by a fine or not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

2. Any person violating the provisions of 47 CNCA §§ 10–101 through 14–121 or 16–101 through 16–114, where a jail sentence is not mandatory may, in the discretion of the prosecuting attorney wherein the offense occurred, be permitted to enter a plea of guilty by written statement by the person charged to be presented to the Court wherein the case is filed. A remittance covering the fine and costs may be considered and received with the same force and effect as a written plea of guilty.

C. Unless another penalty is in this title or by the laws of this Nation provided, every person convicted of a crime, which under the laws of Oklahoma would be a misdemeanor, for the violation of any other provision of this title shall be punished by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment for not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

D. Provided, however, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any offense, including traffic offenses, in violation of any of the provisions of this title which is not otherwise punishable by a term of imprisonment or confinement shall be punishable by a term of imprisonment not to exceed one day in the discretion of the Court, in addition to any fine prescribed by law.

§ 17–102. Penalty for crimes

Any person who is convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this act herein or by the laws of this Nation declared to constitute a crime, which under the law of Oklahoma would be a felony, shall be punished by maximum imprisonment provided by 25 U.S.C. § 1302(7).

CHAPTER 18

RECORDS AND REPORTS OF CONVICTIONS

§ 18–101. Record of traffic cases—Report of convictions to department

A. Every Magistrate or Judge of a Court shall keep or cause to be kept a record of every traffic complaint, traffic citation or other legal form of traffic charge deposited with or presented to said Court or its traffic-violations bureau, and shall keep a record of every official action by said Court or its traffic-violations bureau in reference thereto, including but not limited to a record of every conviction, forfeiture of bail, judgment of acquittal and the amount of fine or forfeiture resulting from every said traffic complaint or citation deposited with or presented to said Court or traffic-violations bureau.

B. Within ten (10) days after the conviction or forfeiture of bail of a person upon a charge of violating any provision of this act or other law regulating the operation of vehicles on highways every said Magistrate of the Court or Clerk of the Court of record, in which such conviction was had or bail was forfeited shall prepare and immediately forward to the Department an abstract of the record of said Court covering the case in which said person was so convicted or forfeited bail, which abstract must be certified by the person so required to prepare the same to be true and correct. A report need not be made of any conviction involving the illegal parking or standing of a vehicle. The Court shall not make such a report of a conviction involving speeding if the speed limit is not exceeded by more than ten (10) miles per hour.

C. Said abstract must be made upon a form furnished by the Department and shall include the name and address of the party charged, the number, if any, of his operator's or chauffeur's license, the registration number of the vehicle involved, the nature of the offense, the date of hearing, the plea, the judgment, or whether bail forfeited and the amount of the fine or forfeiture as the case may be.

D. Every court of record shall also forward a like report to the Department upon the conviction of any person of manslaughter or other felony in the commission of which a vehicle was used.

CHAPTER 20

EFFECT AND SHORT TITLE OF ACT

§ 20–101. Uniformity of interpretation

This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

§ 20–102. Effect of headings

Chapter, article and section headings contained herein shall not be deemed to govern, limit, modify or in any manner affect the scope, meaning or intent of the provisions of any article or section hereof.

§ 20–103. Short title

This act may be cited as the Uniform Vehicle Code.

§ 20–105. Constitutionality

The provisions of this act are severable and if any part or provision hereof shall be void the decision of the Court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining parts or provisions of the act.

MISCELLANEOUS LAWS

CHAPTER 67

CHEMICAL TESTS

§ 752. Administration of tests—Authorization—Liability—Laboratories—Independent analysis—Costs

A. Only a licensed medical doctor, licensed osteopathic physician, licensed chiropractic physician, registered nurse, licensed practical nurse, physician's assistant, duly certified by any state, an employee of a hospital or other health care facility authorized by the hospital or health care facility to withdraw blood, or other qualified person authorized by the Oklahoma Board of Tests for Alcohol and Drug Influence acting at the request of a law enforcement officer may withdraw blood for purpose of having a determination made of its concentration of alcohol or the presence or concentration of other intoxicating substance. Only qualified persons authorized by the Board may collect breath, saliva or urine, or administer tests of breath under the provisions of this Title.

B. If the person authorized to withdraw blood as specified in subsection (A) of this section is presented with a written statement:

1. authorizing blood withdrawal signed by the person whose blood is to be withdrawn;
2. signed by a duly authorized peace officer that the person whose blood is to be withdrawn has agreed to the withdrawal of blood;
3. signed by a duly authorized peace officer that the person whose blood is to be withdrawn has been placed under arrest and that the officer has probable cause to believe that the person, while intoxicated, has operated a motor vehicle in such manner as to have caused the death or serious physical injury of another person, or the person has been involved in a traffic accident and has been removed from the scene of the accident that resulted in the death or great bodily injury, as defined in Cherokee Nation Code Annotated, of any person to a hospital or other health care facility outside Cherokee Nation before the law enforcement officer was able to effect an arrest for such offense; or

4. in the form of an order from a district court that blood be withdrawn, the person authorized to withdraw the blood and the hospital or other health care facility where the withdrawal occurs may rely on such a statement or order as evidence that the person has consented to or has been required to submit to the clinical procedure and shall not require the person to sign any additional consent or waiver form. In such a case, the person authorized to perform the procedure, the employer of such person, and the hospital or other health care facility shall not be liable in any action alleging lack of consent or lack of informed consent.

C. No person specified in subsection (A) of this section, no employer of such person, and no hospital or other health care facility where blood is withdrawn shall incur any civil or criminal liability as a result of the proper withdrawal of blood when acting at the request of a law enforcement officer, or when acting in reliance upon a signed statement or court order if the act is performed in a reasonable manner according to generally accepted clinical practice. No person specified in subsection (A) of this section shall incur any civil or criminal liability as a result of the proper collection of breath, saliva or urine when acting at the request of a law enforcement officer or when acting pursuant to a court order.

D. The blood, breath, saliva or urine specimens obtained shall be tested by the appropriate test as determined by the Board, or tested by a laboratory that is exempt from the Board rules to determine the alcohol concentration thereof, or the presence or concentration of any other intoxicating substance which might have affected the ability of the person tested to operate a motor vehicle safely.

E. When blood is withdrawn or saliva or urine is collected for testing of its alcohol concentration or other intoxicating substance presence or concentration, at the request of a law enforcement officer, a sufficient quantity of the same specimen shall be obtained to enable the tested person, at his or her own option and expense, to have an independent analysis made of such specimen. The excess blood, saliva or urine specimen shall be retained by a laboratory approved by the Board, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board, or by a laboratory that is exempt from the Board rules, for sixty (60) days from the date of collection. At any time within that period, the tested person or his or her attorney may direct that such blood, saliva or urine specimen be sent or delivered to a laboratory of his or her own choosing and approved by the Board for an independent analysis. Neither the tested person, nor any agent of such person, shall have access to the additional blood, saliva or urine specimen prior to the completion of the independent analysis, except the analyst performing the independent analysis and agents of the analyst.

F. When a test of breath is performed for the purpose of determining the alcohol concentration thereof, except when such test is performed by means of an automated analyzer as designated by the Board, a sufficient quantity of breath, or of the alcohol content of a fixed or measured quantity of breath, shall be obtained, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board, to enable the tested person, at his or her own option and expense, to have an independent analysis made of such specimen. The excess specimen of breath, or of its alcohol content, shall be retained by the law enforcement agency employing the arresting officer, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board, for sixty (60) days from the date of collection. At any time within that period, the tested person, or his or her attorney, may direct that such specimen be sent or delivered to a laboratory of his or her own choosing and approved by the Board for an independent analysis. Neither the tested person, nor any agent of such person, shall have access to the additional specimen of breath, or of its alcohol content, prior to the completion of the independent analysis thereof, except the analyst performing the independent analysis and agents of the analyst.

G. The costs of collecting blood, breath, saliva or urine specimens for the purpose of determining the alcohol or other intoxicating substance thereof, by or at the direction of a law enforcement officer, shall be borne by the law enforcement agency employing such officer; provided, if the person is convicted for any offense involving the operation of a motor vehicle while under the influence of or while impaired by alcohol or an intoxicating substance, or both, as a direct result of the incident which caused the collection of blood, saliva or urine specimens, an amount equal to the costs shall become a part of the court costs of the person and shall be collected by the court and remitted to the law enforcement agency bearing the costs. The cost of collecting, retaining and sending or delivering to an independent laboratory the excess specimens of blood, breath, saliva or urine for independent analysis at the option of the tested person shall also be borne by such law enforcement agency. The cost of the independent analysis of such specimen of blood, breath, saliva or urine shall be borne by the tested person at whose option such analysis is performed. The tested person, or his or her agent, shall make all necessary arrangements for the performance of such independent analysis other than the forwarding or delivery of such specimen.

H. Tests of blood or breath for the purpose of determining the alcohol concentration thereof, and tests of blood, saliva or urine for the purpose of determining the presence or concentration of any other intoxicating substance therein, under the provisions of this Title, whether administered by or at the direction of a law enforcement officer or administered independently, at the option of the tested person, on the excess specimen of such person's blood, breath, saliva or urine, to be considered valid and admissible in evidence under the provisions of this Title, shall have been administered or performed in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board, or performed by a laboratory that is exempt from the Board rules.

I. Any person who has been arrested for any offense arising out of acts alleged to have been committed while the person was operating or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol, any other intoxicating substance or the combined influence of alcohol and any other intoxicating substance who is not requested by a law enforcement officer to submit to a test shall be entitled to have an independent test of his or her blood, breath, saliva or urine which is appropriate as determined by the Board for the purpose of determining its alcohol concentration or the presence or concentration of any other intoxicating substance therein, performed by a person of his or her own choosing who is qualified as stipulated in this section. The arrested person shall bear the responsibility for making all necessary arrangements for the administration of such independent test and for the independent analysis of any specimens obtained, and bear all costs thereof. The failure or inability of the arrested person to obtain an independent test shall not preclude the admission of other competent evidence bearing upon the question of whether such person was under the influence of alcohol, or any other intoxicating substance or the combined influence of alcohol and any other intoxicating substance.

J. Any agency or laboratory certified by the Board or any agency or laboratory that is exempt from the Board rules, which analyses breath, blood, or urine shall make available a written report of the results of the test administered by or at the direction of the law enforcement officer to:

1. the tested person, or his or her attorney; and
2. the Office of the Attorney General.

The results of the tests provided for in this Title shall be admissible in civil actions.

§ 756. Admission of evidence shown by tests

A. Upon the trial of any criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or any other intoxicating substance, or the combined influence of alcohol and any other intoxicating substance, evidence of the alcohol concentration in the blood or breath of the person as shown by analysis of the blood or breath of the person performed in accordance with the provisions of 47 CNCA § 752 or evidence of the presence or concentration of any other intoxicating substance as shown by analysis of such person's blood, breath, saliva, or urine specimens in accordance with the provisions of 47 CNCA § 752 is admissible. Evidence that the person has refused to submit to either of said analyses is also admissible. For the purpose of this Title, when the person is under the age of twenty-one (21) years, evidence that there was, at the time of the test, any measurable quantity of alcohol is prima facie evidence that the person is under the influence of alcohol in violation of 47 CNCA § 11-906.4. For persons twenty-one (21) years of age or older:

1. Evidence that there was, at the time of the test, an alcohol concentration of five-hundredths (0.05) or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;
2. Evidence that there was, at the time of the test, an alcohol concentration in excess of five-hundredths (0.05) but less than eight-hundredths (0.08) is relevant evidence that the person's ability to operate a motor vehicle was impaired by alcohol. However, no person shall be convicted of the offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while such person's ability to operate such vehicle was impaired by alcohol solely because there was, at the time of the test, an alcohol concentration in excess of five-hundredths (0.05) but less than eight-hundredths (0.08) in the blood or breath of the person in the absence of additional evidence that such person's ability to operate such vehicle was affected by alcohol to the extent that the public health and safety was threatened or that said person had violated a state statute or local ordinance in the operation of a motor vehicle; and
3. Evidence that there was, at the time of the test, an alcohol concentration of eight-hundredths (0.08) or more shall be admitted as prima facie evidence that the person was under the influence of alcohol.

B. For purposes of this Title, "alcohol concentration" means grams of alcohol per one hundred (100) milliliters of blood if the blood was tested, or grams of alcohol per two hundred ten (210) liters of breath if the breath was tested.

C. To be admissible in a proceeding, the evidence must first be qualified by establishing that the test was administered to the person within two (2) hours after the arrest of the person.

§ 761. Operation of motor vehicle while ability impaired by consumption of alcohol—Penalties—Suspensions—Violation not bondable

A. Any person who operates a motor vehicle while his ability to operate such motor vehicle is impaired by the consumption of alcohol shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

B. Upon the receipt of a certified report from a court that a person has forfeited bond or has been convicted or has pleaded guilty to two or more offenses of subsection (A) of this section, the Commissioner of the Department of Public Safety shall suspend the driving privilege of such person for a period of six (6) months. Such suspension shall not be subject to modification.

C. The violations as set out in this section shall not be bondable under 22 CNCA § 1115.3.

CHAPTER 74

UNIFORM CERTIFICATE OF TITLE ACT

§ 1111.1. Short title

This act may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation Uniform Certificate of Title Act of 2004."

§ 1111.2. Applicability of supplemental principles of law

Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this act, the principles of law and equity supplement its provisions.

§ 1111.3. Definitions

A. In this act:

1. "Buyer" means a person that buys or contracts to buy an ownership interest in a vehicle.

2. "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person that buys a vehicle in good faith, without knowledge that the sale violates the rights of another person in the vehicle, and in ordinary course from a person, other than a pawnbroker, in the business of selling vehicles of that kind. A person buys a vehicle in ordinary course if the sale comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the seller is engaged or with the seller's own usual or customary practices. A buyer in ordinary course of business may buy for cash, by exchange of other property, or on secured or unsecured credit, and may acquire a vehicle under a pre-existing contract for sale. Only a buyer that takes possession of the vehicle or has a right to recover the vehicle from the seller under Uniform Commercial Code Article 2 may be a buyer in ordinary course of business. The term does not include a person that acquires a vehicle in a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt. A buyer in ordinary course of business does not lose that status solely because the certificate of title was not executed to the buyer.

3. "Cancel," with respect to a certificate of title or a certificate of origin, means to make the certificate ineffective.

4. "Certificate of origin" means a record, created or authorized by a manufacturer or importer as the manufacturer's or importer's proof of identity of a vehicle.

5. "Certificate of title" means the record, created or authorized by the CNTC, that is evidence of ownership of a vehicle and designated a certificate of title by the CNTC.

6. "Create," with respect to a certificate of title, means to bring the certificate of title into existence by making or authorizing the record that constitutes the certificate of title.

7. "Deliver" means to voluntarily give possession of a record to the recipient or to transmit it, by any reasonable means, properly addressed to the recipient and with the cost of delivery provided.

8. "Electronic" means relating to technology having electrical, digital, magnetic, wireless, optical, electromagnetic, or similar capabilities.

9. "Electronic certificate of origin" means a certificate of origin consisting of information that is stored solely in an electronic medium and retrievable in perceivable form.

10. "Electronic certificate of title" means a certificate of title consisting of information that is stored solely in an electronic medium and retrievable in perceivable form.

11. "Execute" means to sign and deliver a record on, attached to, accompanying, or logically associated with a certificate of title or certificate of origin for the purpose of transferring ownership of the vehicle covered by the certificate.

12. "Importer" means a person authorized by a manufacturer to bring into and distribute in the United States new vehicles manufactured outside the United States.

13. "Jurisdiction" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, a federally-recognized Indian tribe, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

14. "Lessee in ordinary course of business" means a person that leases a vehicle in good faith, without knowledge that the lease violates the rights of another person, and in ordinary course of business from a person, other than a pawnbroker, in the business of selling or leasing vehicles of that kind. A person leases in ordinary course if the lease to the person comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the lessor is engaged or with the lessor's own usual and customary practices. A lessee in ordinary course of business may lease for cash, by exchange of other property, or on secured or unsecured credit, and may acquire a vehicle or certificate of title covering a vehicle under a preexisting lease contract. Only a lessee that takes possession of the vehicle or has a right to recover the vehicle from the lessor under Uniform Commercial Code Article 2A may be a lessee in ordinary course of business. A person that acquires a vehicle in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt is not a lessee in ordinary course of business.

15. "Lien creditor" means:

- a. a creditor that has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy, or the like;
- b. an assignee for the benefit of creditors from the time of assignment;
- c. a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition; or
- d. a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

16. "Manufacturer" means a person that manufactures, fabricates, assembles, or completes new vehicles.

17. "Office" means Cherokee Nation Tax Commission (CNTC).

18. "Owner" means a person having legal title to a vehicle.

19. "Owner of record" means the owner of a vehicle as indicated in the files of the CNTC.

20. "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public corporation, government, or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

21. "Purchase" means to take by sale, lease, mortgage, pledge, consensual lien, security interest, gift, or any other voluntary transaction that creates an interest in a vehicle.

22. "Purchaser" means a person that takes by purchase.

23. "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

24. "Secured party" means:

a. a person in whose favor a security interest is created or provided for under a security agreement, whether or not any obligation to be secured is outstanding;

b. a person that is a consignor under Uniform Commercial Code Article 9;

c. a person to which accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes have been sold;

d. a trustee, indenture trustee, agent, collateral agent, or other representative in whose favor a security interest is created or provided for; or

e. a person that holds a security interest arising under Uniform Commercial Code Section 2-401, 2-505, 2-711(3), or 2A-508(5).

25. "Secured party of record" means the secured party first indicated in the files of the CNTC.

26. "Security interest" means an interest in goods that secures payment or performance of an obligation. The term includes any interest of a consignor and a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, a payment intangible, or a promissory note in a transaction that is subject to Uniform Commercial Code Article 9. The term does not include the special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of those goods to a contract for sale under Uniform Commercial Code Section 2-401, but a buyer may also acquire a security interest by complying with Uniform Commercial Code Article 9. Except as otherwise provided in Uniform Commercial Code Section 2-505, the right of a seller or lessor of goods under Uniform Commercial Code Article 2 or 2A to retain or acquire possession of the goods is not a security interest, but a seller or lessor may also acquire a security interest by complying with Uniform Commercial Code Article 9. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer under Uniform Commercial Code Section 2-401 is limited in effect to a reservation of a security interest. Whether a transaction in the form of a lease creates a security interest is determined pursuant to Uniform Commercial Code Section 1-203.

27. "Security interest statement" means a record, created or authorized by a secured party, that indicates a security interest in a vehicle.

28. "Sign" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record, to:

a. make or adopt a tangible symbol; or

b. attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

29. "Termination statement" means a record, created or authorized by the secured party under 47 CNCA § 1111.24 or the debtor under 47 CNCA § 1111.22, that:

- a. identifies the security interest statement to which it relates; and
- b. indicates either that it is a termination statement or that the identified security interest statement is not effective.

30. "Title brand" means a designation of previous damage, use, or condition that this act or law other than this act requires to be indicated on a certificate of title or a certificate of origin.

31. "Transfer" means to convey, voluntarily or involuntarily, an interest in a vehicle.

32. "Transferee" means a person that takes by transfer.

33. "Vehicle" means any type of motorized, wheeled device in, upon, or by which an individual or property may be lawfully and customarily transported on a road or highway, or a commercial, recreational, travel, or other trailer, including manufactured homes. The term does not include:

- a. specialized mobile equipment not designed primarily for transportation of individuals or property on a road or highway;
- b. an implement of husbandry; or
- c. a wheelchair or similar device designed for use by an individual having a physical impairment.

34. "Written certificate of origin" means a certificate of origin consisting of information that is inscribed on a tangible medium.

35. "Written certificate of title" means a certificate of title consisting of information that is inscribed on a tangible medium.

B. The following definitions in other laws apply to this act:

1. "Account debtor," UCC Section 9–102(a)(3).
2. "Agreement," UCC Section 1–201(b)(3).
3. "Collateral," UCC Section 9–102(a)(12).
4. "Debtor," UCC Section 9–102(a)(28).
5. "Good faith," UCC Section 1–201(b)(20).
6. "Lease," UCC Section 2A–103(a)(j).
7. "Lessee," UCC Section 2A–103(1)(n).

8. "Lessor," UCC Section 2A–103(a)(p).
9. "Manufactured home" UCC Section 9–102(a)(53).
10. "Merchant," UCC Section 2–104(1).
11. "Notice; Knowledge," UCC Section 1–202.
12. "Representative," UCC Section 1–201(b)(33).
13. "Sale," UCC Section 2–106(1).
14. "Security agreement," UCC Section 9–102(a)(73).
15. "Seller," UCC Section 2–103(1)(o).
16. "Send," UCC Section 1–201(b)(36).
17. "Value," UCC Section 1–204.

§ 1111.4. Law governing vehicles covered by certificate of title or certificate of origin

A. In this section, "certificate of title" includes a certificate of title created or authorized by a government agency of any jurisdiction which is permitted to create or authorize the certificate of title.

B. The local law of the jurisdiction under whose certificate of title a vehicle is covered governs all issues relating to the certificate of title, from the time the vehicle becomes covered by the certificate of title until the vehicle ceases to be covered by the certificate of title, even if there is no other relationship between the jurisdiction and the vehicle or its owner.

C. For purposes of this section, a vehicle becomes covered by a certificate of title when an application for a certificate of title and the fee are received by the CNTC in accordance with this act, or when an application for a certificate of title and the fee are received in another jurisdiction pursuant to the certificate of title law of that jurisdiction.

D. For purposes of this section and Uniform Commercial Code Article 9, a security interest statement that is effective under 47 CNCA § 1111.24 constitutes an application for a certificate of title if:

1. the debtor is located or has a place of business in this jurisdiction; and
2. an existing certificate of title covering the vehicle has not been created in another jurisdiction.

E. For purposes of this section, a vehicle ceases to be covered by a certificate of title at the earlier of the time the certificate of title ceases to be effective under the law pursuant to which it was created, or the time the vehicle subsequently becomes covered by another certificate of title, other than a certificate of title initiated only by a security interest statement, created in any jurisdiction.

F. If a vehicle is not covered by a certificate of title, but a certificate of origin has been created for the vehicle:

1. if the parties to the certificate have chosen the law of a jurisdiction, the law of that jurisdiction applies to the certificate of origin, even if this jurisdiction bears no other relation to the certificate of origin; and

2. in the absence of an agreement effective under paragraph 1 of this subsection, and except as provided in subsection (G) of this section, the rights and obligations of the parties are determined by the law that would be selected by application of this jurisdiction's conflict of laws principles.

G. An agreement otherwise effective under paragraph 1 of subsection (F) of this section is not effective to the extent that application of the law of the jurisdiction designated would be contrary to a fundamental policy of the jurisdiction whose law would govern in the absence of agreement under paragraph 1 of subsection (F). of this section

H. In the absence of an agreement as to choice of law, if a vehicle is not covered by a certificate of title or a certificate of origin, the rights and obligations of the parties to the certificate are determined by the choice of law principles of this jurisdiction.

§ 1111.5. Exclusions

Unless the vehicle is covered by a certificate of title, this act does not apply to a vehicle owned by the United States, the government of a country other than the United States, an Indian tribe, a state, or a local government of a state.

§ 1111.6. Vehicle identification number, make and model year

A. For each vehicle covered by a certificate of title, the CNTC must record as the vehicle identification number in the files of the CNTC the vehicle identification number, if any, assigned by its chassis manufacturer or importer.

B. If a vehicle is completed by a manufacturer using a chassis produced by another manufacturer, the make of the manufacturer that completes the vehicle must be used to describe the complete vehicle in the files of the CNTC that relate to the vehicle.

C. The model year of a complete new vehicle is the model year of chassis manufacture and must be the only model year indicated in the files of the CNTC that relates to the vehicle.

§ 1111.7. Execution of certificate of origin

A. If a manufacturer or importer creates or is authorized or required to create a certificate of origin for a vehicle, upon transfer of ownership of the vehicle it shall execute a certificate of origin to the transferee or deliver a signed certificate of origin to the CNTC.

Each succeeding transferor shall execute to the next transferee or sign and deliver to the CNTC all certificates of origin covering the vehicle which are known to the transferor.

B. For the purpose of obtaining a certificate of title, a buyer may require that the buyer's transferor execute to the buyer a written certificate of origin.

§ 1111.8. Cancellation of electronic certificate

If a written certificate of origin is created, any electronic certificate of origin covering the vehicle is canceled and replaced by the written certificate of origin.

§ 1111.9. Application for certificate of title

A. Subject to 47 CNCA § 1111.20, an application for a certificate of title must contain:

1. the owner's name and physical address and, if different, an address for receiving communications by United States mail;
2. the vehicle identification number as provided in 47 CNCA § 1111.6;
3. a description of the vehicle including, as required by the CNTC, the make, model, model year, and body type;
4. an indication of all security interests in the vehicle which are known to the applicant;
5. any title brand known to the applicant and, if known, the jurisdiction that created the title brand;
6. a signed record disclosing the vehicle's odometer reading, as required under law other than this act to be provided by the transferor when ownership of the vehicle is transferred;
7. if the application is made in connection with a transfer of ownership, the transferor's and transferee's names, physical addresses and, if different, addresses for receiving communications by United States mail, and the sales price if any, and the date of the transfer;
8. if the application includes a direction to terminate a security interest statement, the secured party's name and address for receiving communications; and
9. the signature of the owner.

B. An application for a certificate of title may contain electronic communication addresses of the owner and the transferor.

C. Except as otherwise provided in 47 CNCA § 1111.21 or 1111.22, if an application for a certificate of title includes a transfer of ownership or a direction to terminate a security interest statement, the application must be accompanied by all existing certificates of origin and any certificate of title covering the vehicle, created or authorized in any jurisdiction, which are known to the applicant, executed to the owner or other transferee by the transferor. Except as otherwise provided in Section 22, if the application includes a direction to terminate a security interest statement, the application must be accompanied by a termination statement under Section 26.

D. If an application for a certificate of title does not include a transfer of ownership or a direction to terminate a security interest statement, except as otherwise provided in 47 CNCA § 1111.23, the application must be accompanied by all existing certificates of origin and certificates of title covering the vehicle known to the applicant, created or authorized in any jurisdiction, evidencing the applicant as owner of the vehicle.

E. If there is no existing certificate of origin or certificate of title covering the vehicle known to the applicant, created or authorized in any jurisdiction, an application for a certificate of title must be accompanied by all existing information or records of the vehicle's ownership known to the applicant. Information submitted under this subsection is part of the application for the certificate of title and must be indicated in the files of the CNTC.

F. A power of attorney, including a simple power of attorney, may be used to meet the requirements of this section, unless prohibited by law other than this act.

G. The CNTC may require that the application for a certificate of title be accompanied by any tax or fee payable by the applicant under the law of this jurisdiction in connection with the acquisition or use of a vehicle, or evidence of payment of that tax or fee.

H. A security interest statement is subject to subsection (G) of this section, and is an application for a certificate of title under 47 CNCA § 1111.4.

§ 1111.10. Creation of an cancellation of certificate of title

A. Unless an application for a certificate of title is rejected under subsection (C) of this section, the CNTC shall create a certificate of title upon submission of an application that complies with 47 CNCA § 1111.9 and payment of all taxes and fees.

B. The CNTC may create a written certificate of title or, if the CNTC authorizes or creates electronic certificates of title, an electronic certificate of title, at the option of the secured party of record or, if no security interest is indicated in the files of the CNTC, at the option of any owner of record. If no request is made by an owner of record or secured party, the CNTC may create a written certificate of title or an electronic certificate of title.

C. The CNTC may reject an application for a certificate of title only if:

1. the application does not comply with 47 CNCA § 1111.9;
2. there is a reasonable basis for concluding that the application is fraudulent or would facilitate a fraudulent or illegal act; or
3. the application otherwise does not comply with law other than this act.

D. Rejection of an application affects only the applicant's ownership and does not alter the receipt or effect of a security interest statement under 47 CNCA § 1111.4, 1111.24, or 1111.25.

E. If the CNTC has created a certificate of title, it may cancel the certificate of title only if the CNTC could have rejected the application under subsection (C) and after providing an opportunity for a hearing. At this hearing the applicant and any other interested party may present evidence in support of the application. The CNTC shall provide at least thirty (30) days' notice of the opportunity for a hearing, served in person or sent by regular mail to the applicant, the owner of record, and all secured parties indicated in the files of the CNTC.

F. Cancellation of a certificate of title, or rejection of an application for a certificate of title, does not alter the receipt or effect of a security interest statement under 47 CNCA § 1111.4, 1111.24, or 1111.25 or Uniform Commercial Code Article 9.

§ 1111.11. Contents of certificate of title

A. Except as otherwise provided in 47 CNCA § 1111.20, a certificate of title must contain:

1. the date the certificate of title was created;
2. except as otherwise provided in 47 CNCA § 1111.25(B), the name and address of any secured party of record showing that status and an indication of the existence of any additional security interests disclosed under 47 CNCA § 1111.9 or indicated in a security interest statement effective under 47 CNCA § 1111.24, or otherwise indicated in the files of the CNTC or on a certificate of title created in any jurisdiction and submitted to the CNTC;
3. all title brands known to the CNTC, including brands previously indicated on a certificate of title or certificate of origin created in this jurisdiction or another jurisdiction; and
4. the information required for an application pursuant to 47 CNCA § 1111.9(A)(1) through (6).

B. The indication of a title brand on the certificate of title may use abbreviations, but not symbols, and must identify any jurisdiction whose certificate of title indicated the title brand. If the meaning of the previous title brand is not easily ascertainable or cannot be accommodated on the certificate of title, the certificate of title may state: "Previously branded in [the jurisdiction in which the title brand was previously indicated]."

C. If a vehicle was previously registered for use in a jurisdiction outside the United States, the CNTC shall indicate on the certificate of title that the vehicle was previously registered in that jurisdiction.

D. A certificate of title must contain a form for the owner to sign in executing the certificate.

§ 1111.12. Certificate of title and certificate of origin not subject to judicial process

A. A certificate of title or a certificate of origin does not by itself provide a right or a means to obtain possession of the vehicle covered by the certificate and is not itself subject to garnishment, attachment, levy, replevin, or other judicial process against property. However, this act does not prohibit enforcement of a security interest in, levy on, or foreclosure of a statutory or common law lien on, a vehicle, as permitted under law other than this act. The absence of an indication of a statutory or common law lien on a certificate of title does not invalidate the lien.

B. This section does not relieve a person of any duty under this act or law other than this act or preclude any remedies in personam.

§ 1111.13. Other information

A. The CNTC may accept a submission of information relating to a vehicle for inclusion in the files of the CNTC, even if the requirements for a certificate of title, an application for a certificate of title, a security interest statement, or a termination statement have not been met.

B. A submission of information under this section must include, to the extent practicable, the information required under 47 CNCA § 1111.9 for an application for a certificate of title.

C. To effectuate the law of this jurisdiction, the CNTC may require a person to provide other information relating to a vehicle, as required for payment of taxes or for issuance or renewal of license tags.

D. The CNTC may require a person submitting information under this section to provide a bond in the form and amount determined by the CNTC. Any bond must provide for indemnification of any secured party or other interested party against any expense, loss, or damage resulting from the submission and inclusion of the information in the files of the CNTC.

E. A submission of information under this section and its inclusion in the files of the CNTC is not a certificate of title, an application for a certificate of title, a security interest statement, or a termination statement and does not provide a basis for transferring or determining ownership of a vehicle or receipt or termination of a security interest statement.

§ 1111.14. Maintenance of files

A. For each record filed in the CNTC, the CNTC shall:

1. ascertain the vehicle identification number of the vehicle to which the record applies;

2. create or maintain a file that indicates the vehicle identification number of the vehicle to which the record applies and the information in the record, including the date and time the record was delivered to the CNTC;

3. maintain the file for public inspection, subject to subsection (D); and

4. index each file so as to be accessible by the vehicle identification number for the vehicle and any other indexing methods provided by the CNTC.

B. The CNTC shall maintain files of the information contained in all certificates of title created under this act. Each file must be accessible by the vehicle identification number for the vehicle covered by the certificate and any other indexing method used by the CNTC.

C. Each file maintained under this section must include all indicated security interests, title brands, and stolen property reports applicable to the vehicle, and the name and address of any known secured party or claimant to ownership.

D. Files of the CNTC are subject to the Cherokee Nation Freedom of Information Act, 67 CNCA § 101 et seq., (LA 25–01), as amended, and other law as applicable.

§ 1111.15. Delivery of certificate of title

A. Upon creation of a certificate of title, the CNTC shall promptly deliver the certificate of title, if written, or a record evidencing an electronic certificate of title, if electronic, to the secured party of record, if any, at the address shown on the security interest statement submitted by the secured party of record and, unless previously provided to the owner of record, shall deliver a record evidencing the certificate of title to that owner at the address indicated in the files of the CNTC. If no secured party is indicated in the files of the CNTC, the certificate of title or record evidencing the electronic certificate of title must be delivered to the owner of record. The secured party of record, if any, may elect to have the CNTC create a written certificate of title. The owner of record also may make such an election but only if no secured party is indicated in the files of the CNTC.

B. Within a reasonable period not to exceed fifteen (15) business days after receipt of a request for a written certificate of title pursuant to subsection (A), the CNTC shall create and deliver the certificate to the person making the request.

C. If a written certificate of title is created, any existing electronic certificate of title covering the vehicle is canceled. The cancellation must be noted in the files of the CNTC with an indication of the date and time of the cancellation.

D. Any existing written certificate of title must be canceled before an electronic certificate of title is created. The cancellation must be noted on the face of the written certificate of title and in the files of the CNTC with an indication of the date and time of the cancellation.

§ 1111.16. Transfer

A. Upon sale of a vehicle located in this jurisdiction or covered by a certificate of title created in this jurisdiction, a person authorized to execute the certificate of title or certificate of origin covering the vehicle, as promptly as practicable and in compliance with this act and any law other than this act, shall execute the certificate to the buyer. The buyer of a vehicle located in this jurisdiction or covered by a certificate of title created in this jurisdiction has a specifically enforceable right to require the seller to execute the certificate of title or certificate of origin to the buyer.

B. Execution of a certificate of title covering the vehicle created in any jurisdiction satisfies the requirement in subsection (A) of this section.

C. Execution of a certificate of title covering a vehicle created in any jurisdiction or a certificate of origin transfers the transferor's legal title to the vehicle to the transferee.

D. As between the parties to the transfer and their assignees and successors, a transfer of legal title is not rendered ineffective by a failure to execute a certificate of title or certificate of origin as provided in this section. However, except as otherwise provided in 47 CNCA § 1111.18 or 1111.19, a transfer of legal title without execution of a certificate of title covering the vehicle created in any jurisdiction is not effective as to other persons claiming an interest in the vehicle.

§ 1111.17. Notice of transfer without application

A transferor or transferee of legal title to a vehicle may submit a signed record to the CNTC evidencing the transfer, without filing an application for a certificate of title, in accordance with standards and procedures established by the CNTC. The record may evidence the transfer of legal title between the transferor and transferee but is not effective as to other persons claiming an interest in the vehicle.

§ 1111.18. Power to transfer

A. A purchaser of a vehicle acquires all interests that the transferor had or had power to transfer, except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person having voidable title to a vehicle has power to transfer a good title to a good faith purchaser for value. If ownership of a vehicle has been transferred in a transaction of purchase, the purchaser has the power to transfer good title to a good faith purchaser for value even though:

1. the transferor was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser in the transaction of purchase;
2. the transfer in the transaction of purchase was in return for a check that was later dishonored;
3. it was agreed that the transaction of purchase was to be a "cash sale";

4. the transfer in the transaction of purchase was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law; or

5. a certificate of title was not executed.

B. Entrusting of a vehicle to a merchant that deals in vehicles or other goods of that kind gives the merchant the power to transfer all rights of the entruster to a buyer in ordinary course of business or, to the extent of the lessee's interest, to a lessee in ordinary course of business, even if the certificate of title is not executed to the buyer or lessee. In this subsection, "entrusting" includes any relinquishment of possession and any acquiescence in retention of possession of the vehicle regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the relinquishment or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor's disposition of the vehicle was larcenous under the criminal law.

C. This section is subject to Uniform Commercial Code Section 2A-303.

§ 1111.19. Other transferees of vehicle covered by certificate of title

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section or in 47 CNCA § 1111.18, a transferee of a vehicle takes subject to:

1. a valid security interest in the vehicle indicated on the certificate of title; and
2. if the certificate of title contains a statement that the vehicle is or may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate of title, a valid security interest not so indicated.

B. If, during the period a security interest in a vehicle is perfected by any method under the law of any jurisdiction, the CNTC creates a written certificate of title that does not indicate that the vehicle is subject to the security interest or contain a statement that it may be subject to security interests not indicated on the certificate, a buyer of the vehicle, other than a person in the business of selling or leasing vehicles of that kind, takes free of the security interest if the buyer:

1. in good faith gives value, receives possession of the vehicle, and obtains execution of the written certificate of title; and
2. does not have notice of the security interest in the vehicle.

C. A buyer in ordinary course of business or a lessee in ordinary course of business of a vehicle takes free of a security interest, including a security interest indicated on the certificate of title, created by the buyer's seller or the lessee's lessor, even if the security interest is perfected, the buyer or lessee knows of its existence, and the certificate was not executed to the buyer or lessee.

§ 1111.20. Effect of incorrect information or omission

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a certificate of title, certificate of origin, security interest statement, or other record otherwise satisfying the requirements of this act is effective even if it contains incorrect information or required information is omitted.

B. In addition to any rights provided under 47 CNCA § 1111.18 or 1111.19, if a certificate of title, certificate of origin, security interest statement, or other record is seriously misleading because it contains incorrect information or omits required information, a purchaser of the vehicle covered by the record takes free of any claim or interest the validity of which is dependent on the correct information or omitted information, which would have been contained in the record if the correct or omitted information had been provided, to the extent that the purchaser gives value in reasonable reliance on the incorrect information or the absence of the omitted information.

C. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (D) of this section or in 47 CNCA § 1111.24(C), a description of the vehicle covered by a certificate of title, certificate of origin, security interest statement, or other record otherwise satisfying the requirements of this act is sufficient, and not seriously misleading, even if the description and vehicle identification number are not specific and accurate, if the information, including the vehicle identification number, reasonably identifies the vehicle.

D. With respect to a security interest or other interest indicated in the files of the CNTC and not indicated on a written certificate of title, if a search of the files of the CNTC using the correct vehicle identification number, name of the debtor, or other required information, using the CNTC's standard search logic, if any, would disclose the security interest or other interest, a failure to indicate the information specifically or accurately is not seriously misleading.

§ 1111.21. Transfer of ownership by operation of law

A. In this section:

1. "By operation of law" means pursuant to a law or judicial order affecting ownership of a vehicle:

a. on account of death, divorce, merger, consolidation, dissolution, or bankruptcy;

b. through the exercise of the rights of a lien creditor or a person with a common law or statutory lien or other nonconsensual lien; or

c. through other legal process.

2. "Transfer-by-law statement" means a record signed by a transferee containing:

a. a statement that, by operation of law, the transferee has acquired or has the right to acquire the ownership of the owner of record;

b. the name and mailing address of the owner of record and the transferee and any other information required by 47 CNCA § 1111.8(A);

c. documentation sufficient to establish the transferee's interest or right to acquire the ownership of the owner of record; and

d. a statement:

i. that the certificate of title is an electronic certificate of title;

ii. that the transferee does not have possession of the written certificate of title created in the name of the owner of record; or

iii. that the transferee is delivering the written certificate of title to the CNTC with the transfer-by-law statement.

B. If a transfer-by-law statement is delivered to the CNTC with the fee and taxes and documentation satisfactory to the CNTC as to the transferee's ownership interest or right to acquire the ownership of the owner of record, unless the transfer-by-law statement is rejected by the CNTC for a reason set forth in 47 CNCA § 1111.9, the CNTC shall:

1. accept receipt of the transfer-by-law statement;

2. promptly send notice to the owner of record and to all persons indicated in the files of the CNTC as having a security interest in the vehicle that a transfer-by-law statement has been received by the CNTC;

3. amend its records to reflect the transfer;

4. cancel the certificate of title created in the name of the owner of record listed in the transfer-by-law statement, whether or not the certificate has been delivered to the CNTC;

5. create a new certificate of title pursuant to 47 CNCA § 1111.9, indicating the transferee as owner of record; and

6. deliver the new certificate of title pursuant to 47 CNCA § 1111.19.

C. This section does not affect the rights and obligations of a secured party in the enforcement of a security interest under Uniform Commercial Code Article 9.

§ 1111.22. Application for transfer of ownership or termination of security interest statement without certificate of title or certificate of origin

A. The CNTC shall create a certificate of title upon receiving an application that includes a transfer of ownership or a direction to terminate a security interest statement but is not accompanied by submission of a signed certificate of title or certificate of origin only if:

1. all other requirements under 47 CNCA §§ 1111.9 and 1111.10 are met;

2. the applicant has provided an affidavit stating facts that indicate the applicant is entitled to a transfer of ownership or termination of the effectiveness of a security interest statement:

3. at least forty-five (45) days before the CNTC creates the certificate of title, notice of the application was sent to all persons having an interest in the vehicle as indicated in the files of the CNTC, and no objection from any of these persons has been received by the CNTC; and

4. the applicant presents other documentation required by the CNTC to evidence the applicant's ownership or right to termination of the security interest statement, and there is no credible information available to the CNTC indicating theft, fraud, or any undisclosed or unsatisfied security interest, lien, or other claim to an interest in the vehicle.

B. Unless the value of the vehicle is less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), the CNTC may require an applicant under subsection (A) to post a bond or provide an equivalent source of indemnity or security, in a form prescribed by the CNTC, providing for indemnity of any owner, purchaser, or other claimant, for any expense, loss, delay, or damage, including reasonable attorneys' fees but not consequential damages, resulting from creation of a certificate of title or termination of a security interest statement. The bond or other source of indemnity may not exceed twice the value of the vehicle as determined by the CNTC.

C. If the CNTC has not received a claim for indemnity within one (1) year after creation of the certificate of title under subsection (A) of this section, the CNTC shall release any required bond, indemnity, or other security.

D. In lieu of the requirements of subsection (B) of this section, the CNTC may include in the certificate of title created under subsection (A) of this section an indication that the certificate of title was created without submission of a signed certificate of title or termination statement. If no credible information indicating theft, fraud, or any undisclosed or unsatisfied security interest, lien, or other claim to an interest in the vehicle has been received by the CNTC within one (1) year after creation of the certificate of title, upon a request in a form and manner specified by the CNTC, the CNTC shall remove the indication from the certificate of title.

§ 1111.23. Replacement certificates of title

A. If a written certificate of title is lost, stolen, mutilated, destroyed, or otherwise becomes unavailable or illegible, the secured party of record or, if there is no secured party indicated in the files of the CNTC, the owner of record may make application for and obtain a replacement certificate of title in the name of the owner of record by furnishing information satisfactory to the CNTC in accordance with this section.

B. An application for a replacement certificate of title must be submitted in a record signed by the applicant and, except as otherwise permitted by the CNTC, must comply with 47 CNCA § 1111.8.

C. The existing certificate of title must be submitted to the CNTC with the application for a replacement certificate of title, unless it has been lost, stolen, destroyed, or is otherwise unavailable.

D. A replacement certificate of title created by the CNTC must comply with 47 CNCA § 1111.10 and conspicuously state that it is a replacement certificate of title.

E. If a person receiving a replacement certificate of title subsequently obtains possession of the original certificate, the person shall promptly destroy the original certificate.

§ 1111.24. Effectiveness of security interest statement

A. A security interest statement sufficient under subsection (B) of this section is effective upon receipt by the CNTC and tender of the applicable fee. An effective security interest statement is an application for a certificate of title for purposes of 47 CNCA § 1111.4 and Uniform Commercial Code Article 9 Section 9–303.

B. A security interest statement is sufficient if it includes the name of a debtor, the name of a secured party or a representative of a secured party, and a description of the vehicle, and one of the following conditions is met:

1. the debtor has signed a security agreement that provides a description of the vehicle;
2. the vehicle is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to Uniform Commercial Code Section 9–313 or pursuant to the debtor's agreement; or
3. the debtor has otherwise authorized the security interest statement in a signed record.

C. A security interest statement is not received if the CNTC rejects the statement under subsection (E) of this section. The CNTC may reject a security interest statement only under subsection (E) of this section and only if:

1. the record is not delivered by a means authorized by the CNTC;
2. an amount equal to or greater than the required filing fee is not tendered;
3. the record does not include the name and mailing address of a debtor and a secured party or a representative of a secured party; or
4. the record does not contain the correct vehicle identification number.

D. The CNTC shall maintain a file showing the date of receipt of each security interest statement that is not rejected and make this information available on request.

E. To reject a security interest statement, the CNTC shall notify the person that delivered the statement of the rejection, the reasons for the rejection, and the date the statement would have been received had the CNTC not rejected it. The CNTC shall send the notice not later than midnight of the second business day after the business day on which the security interest statement was delivered to the CNTC. If the CNTC does not send proper notice of rejection of a security interest statement by midnight of the second business day after the business day on which the statement was delivered to the CNTC, that is sufficient under subsection (B) of this section, the security interest statement is received as of the business day on which the statement was delivered to the CNTC.

§ 1111.25. Perfection of security interest

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (E) and (F) of this section, a security interest in a vehicle may be perfected only by receipt of a security interest statement that is effective under 47 CNCA § 1111.24. If a security interest statement is effective under 47 CNCA § 1111.24, the security interest represented by the security interest statement is perfected upon the later to occur of receipt of the security interest statement or attachment of the security interest pursuant to Uniform Commercial Code Section 9–203.

B. The CNTC may create a certificate of title naming as owner a lessor, consignor, bailor, or secured party and may treat the person as the owner for purposes of carrying out the duties of the CNTC under this act. If the interest of a person named as owner is a security interest, the certificate of title naming the person as owner perfects the security interest but is not of itself a factor in determining whether the interest is a security interest.

C. The CNTC may reject a security interest statement sufficient under 47 CNCA § 1111.24(B) only for a reason set forth in 47 CNCA § 1111.24(C) and in the manner set forth in 47 CNCA § 1111.24(E). Rejection for any other reason or in any other manner is ineffective and the security interest statement is received as of the business day on which the statement was delivered to the CNTC. A security interest statement that is sufficient under 47 CNCA § 1111.24(B) and is not rejected under 47 CNCA § 1111.24(C) is received as of the business day on which the statement was delivered to the CNTC, and if effective under 47 CNCA § 1111.24(A) constitutes perfection under subsection (A), unless it is rejected pursuant to 47 CNCA § 1111.24(E). A failure of the CNTC to index a security interest statement correctly or to indicate the security interest on the certificate of title does not affect the receipt or effectiveness of the security interest statement.

D. A secured party may transfer its rights as secured party under this act. An otherwise valid transfer of a security interest is effective between the parties to the transfer whether or not it is reflected in the files of the CNTC or indicated on the certificate of title. A transfer of a security interest vests in the transferee the rights of the secured party under this act and the Uniform Commercial Code. Perfection remains effective even if the transfer and the transferee of the security interest are not indicated in the files of the CNTC or on the certificate of title. However, a purchaser of the vehicle that obtains a release from a secured party indicated in the files of the CNTC or on the certificate of title takes free of that security interest and also free of the rights of a transferee of that security interest if the transfer is not indicated in the files of the CNTC or on the certificate.

E. A security interest created by a person in the business of selling or leasing vehicles is not subject to this section during any period in which the collateral is inventory held for sale or lease or is leased by the person.

F. A secured party may perfect a security interest by taking possession of a vehicle only as provided in Uniform Commercial Code Section 9–313(b) and 9–316(d).

§ 1111.26. Termination statement

A. A secured party indicated in the files of the CNTC as having a security interest in a vehicle shall deliver to the CNTC a signed termination statement if:

1. there is no obligation secured by the vehicle covered by the security interest and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value secured by the vehicle; or
2. the debtor did not authorize the filing of the security interest statement.

B. A secured party indicated in the files of the CNTC shall deliver the signed termination statement to the debtor or the CNTC upon the earlier of:

1. twenty (20) days after there is no obligation secured by the vehicle covered by the security interest statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value secured by the vehicle; or
2. ten (10) days after the secured party receives a signed demand from the debtor and there is no obligation secured by the vehicle and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value secured by the vehicle.

C. If a written certificate of title has been created and delivered to the secured party and a termination statement is required under subsection (A) of this section, the secured party shall deliver the written certificate of title to the debtor or the CNTC with the termination statement, within the time provided in subsection (B) of this section. If the written certificate is lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed or is otherwise unavailable or illegible, the secured party shall deliver with the termination statement, within the time provided in subsection (B) of this section, an application for a replacement certificate of title meeting the requirements of 47 CNCA § 1111.23.

D. Upon the delivery of a termination statement to the CNTC pursuant to this section, the security interest statement and any notation of the security interest on the certificate of title to which the termination statement relates becomes ineffective.

E. Only a secured party whose interest is required to be terminated is required to or may file a termination statement under this act.

F. A secured party is liable for damages in the amount of any loss caused by not complying with this section and for the reasonable cost of an application for a certificate of title under 47 CNCA §§

1111.9 and 1111.22.

G. Upon termination of the effectiveness of a security interest statement under this section, the CNTC shall reflect in its files the termination of the security interest, and that the subsequent secured party reflected in the files of the CNTC, if any, is the secured party of record. If a written certificate of title has been created indicating that the security interest has been terminated, the CNTC shall cancel that certificate of title, create a new certificate of title under 47 CNCA §§ 1111.10 and 1111.11, and deliver the new certificate of title in accordance with 47 CNCA § 1111.15.

§ 1111.27. Uniform security interest statement

§ 1111.28. Duties and operation of filing office

A. The CNTC shall maintain a file of the information provided in a security interest statement received by the CNTC under 47 CNCA § 1111.24 for a least one (1) year after termination of the security interest statement under 47 CNCA § 1111.26. The information must be accessible by the vehicle identification number for the vehicle and any other indexing methods as provided by the CNTC.

B. If a person that files a record with the CNTC, or submits information that is accepted by the CNTC, requests an acknowledgment of the filing or submission, the CNTC shall send to the person an acknowledgment showing the vehicle identification number of the vehicle to which the record or submission relates, the information in the filed record or submission, and the date and time the record was received or the submission accepted. A request under this section must contain the vehicle identification number and be delivered by means authorized by the CNTC.

C. The CNTC shall send or otherwise make available in a record the following information to any person that requests it:

1. whether there is on file on a date and time specified by the CNTC, but not a date earlier than three (3) business days before the CNTC received the request, any certificate of title and security interest statement that:

a. covers a vehicle identified by a vehicle identification number designated in the request; and

b. has not been canceled or terminated;

2. the effective date of the security interest statement; and

3. the name of the owner of record and all security interest statements indicated in the files of the CNTC that are not subject to a termination statement under 47 CNCA § 1111.26.

D. In responding to a request under this section, the CNTC may communicate the requested information in any medium. However, if requested, the CNTC shall send the requested information in a record that is admissible in evidence in the courts of this jurisdiction without extrinsic evidence of its authenticity.

E. The CNTC shall comply with the requirements of this section at the time and in the manner prescribed by the rules of the CNTC but shall comply with requests under this section not later than two (2) business days after the CNTC receives the request. A reasonable fee may be imposed for this service.

§ 1111.29. Title brand

A. A "salvage title" shall be issued to any vehicle ten (10) model years and newer which has been damaged by collision or other occurrence to the extent that the cost of repairing the vehicle for safe operation on the highway exceeds sixty percent (60%) of its fair market value determined as of its condition immediately prior to the damage.

B. A "rebuilt title" shall be issued on any salvage vehicle, which has been rebuilt and inspected for the purpose of registration and title with Cherokee Nation, or another jurisdiction.

§ 1111.30. Uniformity of application and construction

In applying and construing this Uniform Act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among jurisdictions that enact it.

CHAPTER 79

MOTOR VEHICLE CHOP SHOP, STOLEN AND ALTERED PROPERTY ACT

§ 1501. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Motor Vehicle Chop Shop, Stolen and Altered Property Act".

§ 1502. Definitions

As used in the Motor Vehicle Chop Shop, Stolen and Altered Property Act:

1. "Chop shop" means any building, lot or other premise where one or more persons are or have been knowingly engaged in altering, destroying, disassembling, dismantling, reassembling, or knowingly storing any motor vehicle, or motor vehicle part known to be illegally obtained by theft, fraud or conspiracy to defraud, in order to either:

a. Alter, counterfeit, deface, destroy, disguise, falsify, forge, obliterate, or remove the identity, including the vehicle identification number of such motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, in order to misrepresent the identity of such motor vehicle part, or to prevent the identification of such motor vehicle or motor vehicle part; or

b. Sell or dispose of such motor vehicle or motor vehicle part.

2. "Motor vehicle" means and includes every device in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, which is self-propelled or which may be connected to and towed by a self-propelled device, and also includes any and all other land-based devices which are self-propelled but which are not designed for use upon a highway, including but not limited to, farm machinery and construction equipment.

3. "Person" means and includes a natural person, company, corporation, unincorporated association, partnership, professional corporation, and any other legal entity.

4. "Unidentifiable" means that the uniqueness of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part cannot be established by either expert law enforcement investigative personnel specially trained and experienced in motor vehicle theft investigative procedures and motor vehicle identification examination techniques, or by expert employees of not-for-profit motor vehicle theft prevention agencies specially trained and experienced in motor vehicle theft investigation procedures and motor vehicle identification examination techniques.

5. "Vehicle identification number" means a number or numbers, a letter or letters, a character or characters, a datum or data, a derivative or derivatives, or a combination or combinations thereof, used by the manufacturer or the Oklahoma Tax Commission for the purpose of uniquely identifying a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part. The term shall include, but not be limited to, a number or numbers, a letter or letters, a character or characters, a datum or data, a derivative or derivatives, or a combination or combinations thereof.

§ 1503. Ownership and operation of chop shop—Alteration of vehicle identification number—Purchase or sale of parts from altered vehicle—Exceptions—Attempt—Conspiracy—Solicitation—Aiding and abetting—Accessory after fact—Penalties—Sentence—Restitution

A. Any person who knowingly and with intent that a violation of this section be committed:

1. owns, operates, or conducts a chop shop;

2. transports any motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to or from a location knowing it to be a chop shop; or

3. sells, transfers, purchases, or receives any motor vehicle or motor vehicle part either to or from a location knowing it to be a chop shop, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime.

B. Any person who knowingly alters, counterfeits defaces, destroys, disguises, falsifies, forges, obliterates, or knowingly removes a vehicle identification number with the intent to misrepresent the identity or prevent the identification of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, upon conviction is guilty of a crime, punishable by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or both such imprisonment and fine.

C. 1. Any person who buys, disposes, sells, transfers, or possesses a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, with knowledge that the vehicle identification number of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has been altered, counterfeited, defaced, destroyed, disguised, falsified, forged, obliterated, or removed, upon conviction is guilty of a crime.

2. The provisions of paragraph 1 of this subsection shall not apply to a motor vehicle scrap processor who, in the normal legal course of business and in good faith, processes a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part by crushing, compacting, or other similar methods, provided that any vehicle identification number is not removed from the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part prior to or during any such processing.

3. The provisions of paragraph 1 of this subsection shall not apply to any owner or authorized possessor of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part which has been recovered by law enforcement authorities after having been stolen or where the condition of the vehicle identification number of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part is known to or has been reported to law enforcement authorities. It shall be presumed that law enforcement authorities have knowledge of all vehicle identification numbers on a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part which are altered, counterfeited, defaced, disguised, falsified, forged, obliterated, or removed, when law enforcement authorities deliver or return the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to its owner or authorized possessor after it has been recovered by law enforcement authorities after having been reported stolen.

D. A person commits an attempt when, with intent to commit a violation proscribed by subsection (A), (B), or (C) of this section the person does any act which constitutes a substantial step toward the commission of the violation proscribed by subsection (A), (B) or (C) of this section, and upon conviction is guilty of a crime.

E. A person commits conspiracy when, with an intent that a violation proscribed by subsection (A), (B) or (C) of this section be committed, the person agrees with another to the commission of the violation proscribed by subsections (A), (B) or (C) of this section, and upon conviction is guilty of a crime. No person may be convicted of conspiracy under this section unless an act in furtherance of such agreement is alleged and proved to have been committed by that person or a co-conspirator.

F. A person commits solicitation when, with intent that a violation proscribed by subsection (A), (B) or (C) of this section be committed, the person commands, encourages, or requests another to commit the violation proscribed by subsection (A), (B) or (C) of this section, and upon conviction is guilty of a crime.

G. A person commits aiding and abetting when, either before or during the commission of a violation proscribed by subsection (A), (B) or (C) of this section, with the intent to promote or facilitate such commission of the violation proscribed by subsection (A), (B) or (C) of this section, and upon conviction is guilty of a crime.

H. A person is an accessory after the fact who maintains, assists, or gives any other aid to an offender while knowing or having reasonable grounds to believe the offender to have committed a violation under subsection (A), (B), (C), D, E, F or G of this section, and upon conviction is guilty of a crime.

I. No prosecution shall be brought, and no person shall be convicted, of any violation under this section, where acts of the person, otherwise constituting a violation were done in good faith in order to comply with the laws or regulations of any state or territory of the United States, or of the federal government of the United States.

J. 1. In addition to any other punishment, a person who violates this section, shall be ordered to make restitution to the lawful owner or owners of the stolen motor vehicle or vehicles or the stolen motor vehicle part or parts, or to the owner's insurer to the extent that the owner has been compensated by the insurer, and to any other person for any financial loss sustained as a result of a violation of this section.

Financial loss shall include, but not be limited to, loss of earnings, out-of-pocket and other expenses, repair and replacement costs and claims payments. Lawful owner shall include an innocent bona fide purchaser for value of a stolen motor vehicle or stolen motor vehicle part who does not know that the motor vehicle or part is stolen; or an insurer to the extent that such insurer has compensated a bona fide purchaser for value.

2. The Court shall determine the extent and method of restitution. In an extraordinary case, the Court may determine that the best interests of the victim and justice would not be served by ordering restitution. In any such case, the Court shall make and enter specific written findings on the record concerning the extraordinary circumstances presented which militated against restitution.

TITLE 49

NOTARIES PUBLIC

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Appointment

The Principal Chief or his designee shall appoint and commission in Cherokee Nation notaries public, who shall hold their office for four (4) years. An applicant for a notary commission shall be eighteen (18) years of age or older and a citizen of Cherokee Nation. All notary commissions shall run in the name and by the authority of Cherokee Nation, be signed by the Principal Chief and sealed with the Seal of Cherokee Nation. Said commissions shall not be attested.

§ 2. Oath, signature, bond and seal—Fees

A. Before entering upon the duties of his office every notary public so appointed and commissioned shall file in the office of the Court Clerk the commission issued to him, his oath of office, his official signature, an impression of his official seal, and a good and sufficient bond to Cherokee Nation, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), with one or more sureties to be approved by the Court Clerk, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

B. Such commission, bond, and oath shall be recorded in the office of such Court Clerk, as Clerk of the District Court. The commission shall be returned to the notary. The bond and oath shall be retained by the Court Clerk to be filed and recorded in his office. The filing of such commission, bond, official signature, and impression of official seal in the office of the Court Clerk shall be deemed sufficient evidence to enable the Court Clerk to certify that the person so commissioned is a notary public, duly commissioned and acting as such, during the time such commission is in force. Upon the filing of his commission with the Court Clerk, every notary public shall pay to the Court Clerk the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) to be held and accounted for by the Court Clerk as fees of his office.

C. Applications for renewal shall follow the same procedure except the fee shall be Twenty Dollars ($20.00).

§ 3. Blanks for bond and oath

Blanks for bonds and oaths of office shall be furnished with the commission by the Principal Chief.

§ 4. Reserved

§ 5. Official seal

Every notary shall provide a metal notarial seal containing his name and county of residence. Each notary shall authenticate all his official acts, attestations and instruments with this seal; and he shall add to his official signature the date of expiration of his commission as such notary public. If any notary public shall neglect or refuse to attach to his official signature the date of expiration of his commission he shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

§ 6. Authority of notary

Notaries public shall have authority within Cherokee Nation to make the proof and acknowledgment of deeds and other instruments of writing required to be proved or acknowledged; to administer oaths; to demand acceptance or payment of foreign or inland bills of exchange and promissory notes, and protest the same for nonacceptance of nonpayment, as the same may require, and to exercise such other powers and duties as by law of nations and commercial usage may be performed by notaries public. A notary may not notarize his own signature.

§ 7. Record of protests

In cases of protests for banks, notaries shall keep a register thereof in a book provided for that purpose by the bank, and the notary shall not be required to deliver such register to the court clerk, but shall leave the same in the possession of such bank.

§ 8. Official record

Every notary shall keep a fair record of his official acts, and if required shall give a certified copy of any record in his office, upon the payment of the fees therefor.

§ 9. Vacancy

If any notary die, resign, be disqualified or remove from the Nation, his record and official public papers of his office, shall, within thirty (30) days be delivered to the Court Clerk.

§ 10. Statute of limitations

No suit shall be instituted against any such notary or his securities more than three (3) years after the cause of action accrues.

CHAPTER 2

UNIFORM LAW ON NOTARIAL ACTS

§ 111. Short title

Sections 111 through 120 of this title shall be known and may be cited as the "Uniform Law on Notarial Acts".

§ 112. Definitions

As used in the Uniform Law on Notarial Acts:

1. "Acknowledgment" means a declaration by a person that the person has executed an instrument for the purposes stated therein and, if the instrument is executed in a representative capacity, that the person signed the instrument with proper authority and executed it as the act of the person or entity represented and identified therein.
2. "In a representative capacity" means:
 - a. For and on behalf of a corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity, as an authorized officer, agent, partner, trustee, or other representative;
 - b. As a public officer, personal representative, guardian, or other representative, in the capacity recited in the instrument;
 - c. As an attorney-in-fact for a principal;
 - d. in any other capacity as an authorized representative of another.
3. "Notarial acts" means any act that a notary public of this Nation is authorized to perform, and includes taking an acknowledgement, administering an oath or affirmation, taking a verification upon oath or affirmation, witnessing or attesting a signature, certifying or attesting a copy, and noting a protest of a negotiable instrument.

4. "Notarial officer" means a notary public or any other person authorized to perform notarial acts in the place in which the act is performed.

5. "Verification upon oath or affirmation" means a declaration that a statement is true made by a person upon oath or affirmation.

§ 113. Taking acknowledgment or verification—Witnessing or attesting signature—Certifying or attesting copies—Making or noting protest—Evidence of true signature

A. In taking an acknowledgment, the notarial officer must determine, either from personal knowledge or from satisfactory evidence, that the person appearing before the officer and making the acknowledgment is the person whose true signature is on the instrument.

B. In taking a verification upon oath or affirmation, the notarial officer must determine, either from personal knowledge or from satisfactory evidence, that the person appearing before the officer and making the verification is the person whose true signature is on the statement verified.

C. In witnessing or attesting a signature the notarial officer must determine, either from personal knowledge or from satisfactory evidence, that the signature is that of the person appearing before the officer and named therein.

D. In certifying or attesting a copy of a document or other item the notarial officer must determine that the proffered copy is a full, true and accurate transcription or reproduction of that which was copied. In the case of official records, only the custodian of the official records may issue an official certified copy.

E. In making or noting a protest of a negotiable instrument the notarial officer must determine the matters set forth in 80 CNCA § 3–505.

F. A notarial officer has satisfactory evidence that a person is the person whose true signature is on a document if that person is personally known to the notarial officer, is identified upon the oath or affirmation of a credible witness personally known to the notarial officer or is identified on the basis of identification documents.

§ 114. Person who may perform notarial acts—Federal acts—Genuineness of signature

A. A notarial act may be performed within this Nation by the following persons:

1. A notary public of this Nation or the State of Oklahoma;

2. A Judge, Clerk, or Deputy Clerk of any Court of this Nation or the State of Oklahoma;

3. All judge advocates, staff judge advocates, assistant judge advocates and all legal officers of the state military forces in performance of their official duties for military personnel and their dependents.

4. Any other person authorized to perform the specific act by the law of this state.

B. Notarial acts performed within this Nation under federal authority have the same effect as if performed by a notarial officer of this Nation.

C. The signature and title of a person performing a notarial act are prima facie evidence that the signature is genuine and that the person holds the designated title.

§ 115. Notarial acts performed in a state, commonwealth, territory, district, or possession of the United States

A. A notarial act has the same effect pursuant to the laws of this Nation as if performed by a notarial officer of this Nation, if performed in a state, commonwealth, territory, district, or possession of the United States by any of the following persons:

1. A notary public of that jurisdiction.

2. A judge, clerk, or deputy clerk of a court of that jurisdiction.

3. All judge advocates, staff judge advocates, assistant judge advocates and all legal officers of the state military forces.

4. Any other person authorized by the law of that jurisdiction to perform notarial acts.

B. Notarial acts performed in other jurisdictions of the United States under federal authority have the same effect as if performed by a notarial officer of this Nation.

C. The signature and title of a person performing a notarial act are prima facie evidence that the signature is genuine and that the person holds the designated title.

D. The signature and indicated title of an officer listed in this section conclusively establish the authority of a holder of that title to perform a notarial act.

§ 116. Notarial acts performed by certain federal officers

A. A notarial act has the same effect pursuant to the laws of this Nation as if performed by a notarial officer of this Nation if performed anywhere by any of the following persons under authority granted by the law of the United States:

1. A judge, clerk, or deputy clerk of a court.

2. A commissioned officer on active duty in the military service of the United States.

3. An officer of the foreign service or consular officer of the United States.

4. Any other person authorized by federal law to perform notarial acts.

B. The signature and title of a person performing a notarial act are prima facie evidence that the signature is genuine and that the person holds the designated title.

C. The signature and indicated title of an officer listed in this section conclusively establish the authority of a holder of that title to perform a notarial act.

§ 117. Notarial acts performed by officer of foreign nation or multinational or international organization

A. A notarial act has the same effect pursuant to the laws of this Nation as if performed by a notarial officer of this Nation if performed within the jurisdiction of and under authority of a foreign nation or its constituent units or a multinational or international organization by any of the following persons:

1. A notary public or notary.

2. A judge, clerk, or deputy clerk of a court of record.

3. Any other person authorized by the law of that jurisdiction to perform notarial acts.

B. An "apostille" in the form prescribed by the Hague Convention of October 5, 1961, conclusively establishes that the signature of the notarial officer is genuine and that the officer holds the indicated office.

C. A certificate by a foreign service or consular officer of the United States stationed in the nation under the jurisdiction of which the notarial act was performed, or a certificate by a foreign service or consular officer of that nation stationed in the United States, conclusively establishes any matter relating to the authenticity or validity of the notarial act set forth in the certificate.

D. An official stamp or seal of the person performing the notarial act is prima facie evidence that the signature is genuine and that the person holds the indicated title.

E. An official stamp or seal of an officer listed in this section is prima facie evidence that a person with the indicated title has authority to perform notarial acts.

F. If the title of office and indication of authority to perform notarial acts appears either in a digest of foreign law or in a list customarily used as a source for that information, the authority of an officer with that title to perform notarial acts is conclusively established.

§ 118. Certification of notarial act

A. A notarial act must be evidenced by a certificate signed and dated by a notarial officer. The certificate shall include identification of the jurisdiction in which the notarial act is performed and the title of the office of the notarial officer and may include the official stamp or seal of office. If the officer is a notary public, the certificate must also indicate the date of expiration, if any, of the commission of office, but omission of that information may subsequently be corrected. If the officer is a commissioned officer on active duty in the military service of the United States, it must also include the rank of the officer.

B. A certificate of a notarial act is sufficient if it meets the requirements of subsection (A) of this section and it:

1. Is in the short form set forth in 49 CNCA § 119;
2. Is in a form otherwise prescribed by the law of this Nation;
3. Is in a form prescribed by the laws or regulations applicable in the place in which the notarial act was performed;
4. Sets forth the actions of the notarial officer and those are sufficient to meet the requirements of the designated notarial act;

C. By executing a certificate of a notarial act, the notarial officer certifies that the officer has made the determinations required by 49 CNCA § 113.

§ 119. Short form certificates of notarial acts

The following short form certificates of notarial acts are sufficient for the purposes indicated, if completed with the information required by 49 CNCA § 118(A);

TITLE 51

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Salaries for future terms of elected officials

For all duly elected officials in August 2011, and thereafter the annual salaries for the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and Council Members of Cherokee Nation shall be based on the report submitted from a citizen committee:

1. The Citizens Committee shall be comprised of two (2) appointees by the Principal Chief, two (2) appointees by the Council of Cherokee Nation, and a fifth member selected by the four (4) appointees.
2. The Citizens Committee shall convene prior to the filing period for elected offices in the election year of the Principal Chief to make its findings and report and meet every four (4) years thereafter.
3. The Citizens Committee shall consider relevant comparative salary levels such as, but not limited to, salary information from other Tribal Governments, state and local governments, and the private sector. The Citizens Committee may use Cherokee Nation's Human Resources and the Council of Cherokee Nation's financial officer as sources of information.
4. The report of the Citizens Committee shall set the salary for all elected officials of Cherokee Nation unless rejected by Legislative Act within sixty (60) days of the committee's report.

§ 2. Compensation from other sources—Compensation information publicly available—Health insurance and retirement options—Insurance policies—Recalculation of salaries

- A. All elected officials shall not receive compensation from any other source for work directly related to their duties involving Cherokee Nation Boards or instrumentalities unless otherwise prescribed by law.
- B. Information concerning the total amount of compensation of all elected officials of Cherokee Nation including expenses and the value of benefits shall be made available to any citizen of Cherokee Nation upon request at no charge. This information shall be kept and maintained by the Treasurer of Cherokee Nation.
- C. All elected officials shall enjoy the same benefits of health insurance and retirement options as those offered to employees of Cherokee Nation except unemployment benefits and 401k.
- D. The Treasurer or his or her designee shall let for bid insurance policies of Cherokee Nation consistent with this act.
- E. All elected officials shall not be considered employees of Cherokee Nation.
- F. The calculation as to when to set the average for Cherokee Nation officials elected in the 2003 Cherokee Nation General Election shall be the salaries of the officials listed in 19 CNCA § 21 and 51 CNCA §§ 1 and 11 as of January 1, 2003. The average is to be recalculated on January 1, 2007 and every four (4) years thereafter in accordance with the procedure described in 51 CNCA § 1.1.

CHAPTER 2

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL CHIEF

§ 51. Salary of Principal Chief

The salary of the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation shall be the average of the salaries that are paid to the Chiefs and Governor of the Five Civilized Tribes and the Chief of the Eastern Band of Cherokees based on a survey conducted of available information; provided that this amount shall not exceed One Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($125,000.00) or fall below Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00).

§ 52. Travel expenses—Allowance for local travel

The Principal Chief shall receive Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month for travel within the fourteen-county area of Cherokee Nation.

§ 53. Reimbursement of expenses for travel outside Cherokee Nation

The Principal Chief, when on official business for Cherokee Nation, shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred for travel outside the fourteen-county area of Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. Proper receipts must be documented and submitted to the Accounting Department of Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.

The nature and amount of all such reimbursable expenses shall be published annually in the Cherokee Phoenix.

§ 54. Repealed by LA 34–07, eff. September 13, 2007

§ 55. Control of National Seal

The Principal Chief shall have control of the National Seal, and in all cases, when necessary, may direct the proper application, use, and preservation of the same.

§ 56. Authority to grant pardons

The Principal Chief shall have authority to grant, after conviction, pardons to persons convicted of crimes and sentenced to at least one (1) year in a correctional institution; or he may commute the punishment of persons convicted of crimes and sentenced to at least one (1) year in a correctional institution, to imprisonment for any term, upon such conditions and restrictions as he may think proper.

§ 57. Procedure—Application for pardon

All applications made to the Principal Chief for the pardon or commutation of sentence of any person convicted of a crime, shall be accompanied with a recommendation of credible persons, that the convict is a proper subject for executive clemency; and shall also be accompanied by the evidence in the case, or a certified copy thereof, if accessible, and a full statement of the facts in the case, and the grounds of application. The Principal Chief shall, after notice to the victim, carefully consider the evidence, the circumstances, and the facts in the case, and decide and order accordingly.

§ 58. Offer of reward for information leading to apprehension of criminals at large

Whenever, in his opinion, the public good requires it, the Principal Chief may offer, and pay from the Treasury of the Nation, a suitable reward, not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in any one case, to any person who shall provide information leading to the apprehension of a person subsequently convicted of a crime or a person who has escaped from a penal institution.

§ 59. State burial ceremony—Stipend

A. Cherokee Nation shall offer to conduct a memorial befitting a former or current Chief or Principal Chief which shall be conducted as a funeral service or as a separate event in accordance with the wishes of the family of the deceased. The cost of the memorial shall be incurred one hundred percent (100%) by Cherokee Nation.

B. A stipend to the family or burial and incidental expenses at a rate no less than our burial assistance program rate, the precise payment to be determined by the Principal Chief.

C. The Principal Chief or his designee shall commence planning for the memorial "immediately" upon the notice of death. If the deceased is the current Principal Chief, the current Deputy Chief shall conduct all duties related to the provisions of this act that direct actions by the Principal Chief.

CHAPTER 3

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY PRINCIPAL CHIEF

FILLING VACANCY IN OFFICE OF DEPUTY PRINCIPAL CHIEF

§ 71. Salary of Deputy Principal Chief

The salary of the Deputy Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation shall be the average of the salaries that are paid to the Deputy Principal Chief or the comparable office of the Five Civilized Tribes and the Eastern Band of Cherokees, based on a survey conducted of available information; provided that this amount shall not exceed Eighty Thousand Dollars ($80,000.00) or fall below Forty-Five Thousand Dollars ($45,000.00).

§ 72. Travel expenses—Allowance for local travel

The Deputy Principal Chief shall receive Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month for travel within the fourteen-county area of Cherokee Nation.

§ 73. Reimbursement of expenses for travel outside Cherokee Nation

The Deputy Principal Chief, when on official business for Cherokee Nation, shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred for travel outside the fourteen-county area of Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. Proper receipts must be documented and submitted to the Accounting Department of Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.

The nature and amount of all such reimbursable expenses shall be published annually in the Cherokee Phoenix.

§ 74. Repealed by LA 34-07, eff. September 13, 2007

FILLING VACANCY IN OFFICE OF DEPUTY PRINCIPAL CHIEF

§ 81. Purpose

The purpose of 51 CNCA §§ 81 through 89 is to provide procedures for filling vacancies in the Office of Deputy Principal Chief pursuant to Article VI, Section 4 [now Article VII, Section 4] of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

§ 82. Vacation of office generally

The office of Deputy Principal Chief shall become vacant on the happening of either of the following events before the expiration of the term of such office:

1. The death of the incumbent or his resignation; or
2. His removal from office or failure to qualify as required by law.

§ 83. Manner of resignation by Deputy Principal Chief—Proceedings upon receipt of resignation by Principal Chief

A resignation by the Deputy Principal Chief shall be made in writing to the Principal Chief. The Principal Chief shall, upon receipt of said resignation, immediately notify the Members of the Tribal Council.

§ 84. Filling of vacancies by vote of Tribal Council—Generally

A. Vacancies in the office of Deputy Principal Chief shall be filled by the Tribal Council. The Tribal Council shall elect a Member of the Tribal Council as successor to serve the remainder of the term.

B. Upon receipt of the vacancy notice from the Principal Chief, the Tribal Council shall, at the next regularly scheduled Council session, produce a slate of nominees for the office of Deputy Principal Chief. The slate of nominees shall consist of all current elected Council Members; provided that any Council Member may request that his name not appear on the slate of nominees; and provided, further, that each nominee shall qualify for the office of Deputy Principal Chief as provided for in

26 CNCA § 33.

C. Upon completion of the slate of nominees, the Tribal Council shall proceed to vote for said nominees. Each council Member shall cast one (1) vote for one (1) nominee by secret ballot.

D. The nominee receiving the lowest number of votes shall be removed from the slate until one (1) nominee receives a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote. In the event that more than one nominee receives the lowest number of votes, those having the same number of low votes shall be removed from the slate or until two (2) nominees remain, voting will then continue until one (1) nominee receives a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of those present.

E. No motion for adjournment shall be made or received until such time as the voting has been completed with one (1) nominee receiving a two-thirds (2/3) majority and the results of the voting announced and recorded.

§ 85. Vacancies occurring within thirty days of scheduled election

If a vacancy occurs within thirty (30) days prior to an election day at which it may be filled, no internal election shall be made unless it be necessary to carry out said election and the canvass of the same according to law; in that case an internal election by the Tribal Council may be made at any time prior to said election with the person elected to hold office until after said election or until his successor is elected and qualified.

§ 86. Term of officer elected by Council

The elected officer shall hold office until the end of the term for which the officer whom he succeeds was elected or appointed, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

§ 87. Compensation of officer elected by Council

Any officer elected as provided for herein shall receive the same rate of pay as the incumbent.

§ 88. Oath of officer elected by Council

Any officer elected as provided for herein shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation:

"I, _____, do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will faithfully execute the duties, of Deputy Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitutions of Cherokee Nation and the United States of America. I swear or affirm further, that I will do everything within my power to promote the culture, heritage and traditions of Cherokee Nation."

§ 89. Transfer of records, accounts, moneys, etc.

Upon the death, resignation, suspension or removal from office, or upon the expiration of his term, of any officer elected as provided for herein, all public moneys, books, records, accounts, papers, documents and property of other kind in his hands, or held by him by virtue of his office, shall be delivered to his successor.

CHAPTER 4

OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

§ 101. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Attorney General Act.

§ 102. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to assign to the Cherokee Nation's Attorney General those "other duties as the Council may prescribe by law" as provided for in Article VII, Section 13 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution drafted in 1999 and ratified in 2003. The Council recognizes the duties and powers delegated to the Attorney General by said Constitution and finds that nothing herein shall be construed to diminish or abridge those duties and powers delegated to the Attorney General by said Constitution.

§ 103. Definitions

For the purposes of this act:

1. "Administration" shall mean the Executive Branch of Cherokee Nation as provided for in Article VII of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.
2. "Agency" shall mean commissions, departments, government-owned companies, or other instrumentalities of Cherokee Nation.
3. "Council" or "Tribal Council" shall mean the Council of Cherokee Nation as provided for in Article VI of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.
4. "Government-owned company" or "instrumentalities" means those entities in which Cherokee Nation is the sole or majority stockholder or owner, including, but not limited to: Cherokee Nation Enterprises, Cherokee Nation Businesses, and Cherokee Nation Industries.
5. "Nation" shall mean Cherokee Nation.
6. "Person" means an agency, individual, a corporation, an estate, a trust, a general partnership, a limited partnership, a limited liability company, an association, or any other legal, commercial, government-owned company, or governmental entity.

7. "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, a federally-recognized Indian tribe, the District of Columbia or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

§ 104. Seal

The Attorney General shall have a seal for the Office of Attorney General. The design of the seal is subject to the approval of the Principal Chief.

§ 105. Functions and duties of Attorney General

A. Pursuant to Article VII, Section 13 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, the Attorney General "shall represent the Cherokee Nation in all criminal cases in the courts of the Nation, and in all civil actions wherein the Cherokee Nation is named as a party, and shall have such other duties as the Council may prescribe by law."

B. In addition to the duties prescribed by the Constitution, the duties of the Attorney General as the chief legal officer of the Nation shall be:

1. To supervise Cherokee Nation's representation in all litigation in which Cherokee Nation, an agency, or officer thereof is interested, and shall direct all special attorneys appointed pursuant to this title and all contract attorneys in the discharge of their respective duties; the conduct of litigation in which Cherokee Nation, an agency, department or officer thereof is a party, or is interested, is reserved to the Attorney General, provided that the Attorney General may waive this requirement for specific legal issues which do not implicate governmental interests;

2. To initiate or appear, at his or her discretion, in any action in which the interests of the Nation or the People of the Nation are at issue, and prosecute and defend in any court or before any commission, board or officers or other adjudicatory body, administrative tribunal or body of any nature, in all civil or criminal legal or quasi-legal matters, any cause or proceeding, in which the Nation may be interested; and when so appearing in any such cause or proceeding, the Attorney General may, if the Attorney General deems it advisable and to the best interest of the Nation, take and assume control of the prosecution or defense of the Nation's interests therein, provided that this section includes the authority to initiate or appear in any action involving a government-owned company;

3. To prosecute all actions necessary under Title 10 of the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated for the protection and welfare of children and juveniles in the Cherokee Nation Courts, and to intervene, at the discretion of the Attorney General, in any action in any state court wherein intervention is permitted pursuant to the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1901 et seq.;

4. To give an official opinion upon all questions of law submitted to the Attorney General by any Member of the Tribal Council, the Principal Chief, the Deputy Principal Chief, or by the Group Leader or equivalent of any Cherokee Nation board, commission or executive branch department, and only upon matters in which the requesting party is officially interested. Said opinions shall have the force of law in Cherokee Nation until a differing opinion or order is entered by a Cherokee Nation Court;

5. To prepare drafts of regulations, and of contracts and other instruments in which the Cherokee Nation government is interested and to render opinions on the legal sufficiency of all contracts and other instruments in which the Cherokee Nation is interested and the best interests of the people of the Cherokee Nation are served;

6. To prepare legislation and resolutions as the Attorney General deems appropriate and to provide review of all legislation in whatever form in order to provide a written opinion thereon as to the possibility of conflicts with other laws and the Constitutionality of said bills;

7. To enforce the proper application of monies appropriated by the Tribal Council and to prosecute breaches of trust in the administration of such funds;

8. To institute actions to recover Nation monies illegally expended, to recover Nation property;

9. To keep and file copies of all opinions of the Office of Attorney General, and to keep an index of all such opinions according to subject and section of the law construed or applied and to cause to be published such of his or her opinions as he or she considers valuable for preservation and to prescribe the manner for the publication of the opinions;

10. To keep a register or docket of all actions, demands and investigations prosecuted, defended or conducted by the Attorney General on behalf of the Nation. Said register or docket shall give the style of the case or investigation, where pending, court number if any, the substance of the matter, result and the names of the assistant(s) who handled the matter;

11. To keep a complete office file of all cases and investigations handled by the Attorney General on behalf of the Nation;

12. To furnish legal advice to Nation officials and all executive departments, boards, commissions, agencies, instrumentalities and officers of Cherokee Nation concerning any matter arising in connection with the exercise of their official powers and duties, and to supervise and direct the legal business of every executive department, board, commission, agency, instrumentality and officer of Cherokee Nation, provided that this section does not include advice and representation to such officials in their individual capacity, nor does it include advice to tribal citizens who are not officials of the Nation, and provided further that, in order to preserve the independence of the Office of Attorney General and to avoid actual and perceived conflicts of legal advice, the Office of Attorney General shall not provide legal advice on day-to-day operations of the Office of Principal Chief or Deputy Principal Chief;

13. To investigate any report by the Treasurer or the Office of Audit and Compliance filed with the Attorney General and prosecute all actions, civil or criminal, relating to such reports or any irregularities or derelictions in the management of public funds or property which are violations of the laws of the Nation;

14. To investigate and prosecute all actions, civil or criminal, relating to civil actions or crimes against or within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation, provided that any such criminal actions shall be investigated in coordination with the Marshal Service, and when deemed appropriate by the Attorney General, with any federal or local law enforcement agency and to convene grand juries in such manner and for such purposes as provided by law, provided that such grand juries shall be composed of citizens of Cherokee Nation;

15. To probate, at the request of Cherokee Nation Real Estate Services, restricted estates;

16. To settle any case or controversy on behalf of the Nation, except that a settlement involving injunctive relief which substantially impacts the operation or programs of a Nation agency or would impose obligations requiring the expenditure of funds in excess of unallocated unencumbered monies in the agency's appropriations or beyond the current fiscal year shall be reviewed prior to its finalization by the Principal Chief and the Tribal Council. The purpose of the review is to determine the budgetary, programmatic and operational impact of the proposed settlement;

17. To oversee all Nation activities related to child-support enforcement as designated by law;

18. Coordinate with the Marshal's Service the following duties:

a. bailiff duties;

b. transportation of prisoners;

c. protection of the Courthouse and the court staff;

d. protection of witnesses, parties and prosecutors;

e. service of process;

f. and to obey the lawful orders and directions of the Courts.

19. To direct and supervise all activities of the Attorney General's Office;

20. To prepare the budget for the Attorney General's Office;

21. To promulgate such rules, regulations, policies, and procedures as the Attorney General deems necessary to fulfill the duties of the Office;

22. To promulgate rules, regulations, policies, and procedures for the qualifications and conduct of employees of the Attorney General's Office, which may include rules for conduct and corresponding disciplinary actions for breaches of conduct which are more stringent than those of the Cherokee Nation Human Resources Policies and Procedures;

23. To carry firearms upon authorization of the Cherokee Nation Marshal;

24. To designate an individual to act as Attorney General in the absence of the Attorney General so long as said designation does not exceed six (6) months; and

25. To engage in other activities as may be prescribed in other sections of the Cherokee Nation Code.

§ 106. Costs of litigation

A. Except as otherwise provided by law or written agreement, the cost of litigation in any case for which representation is provided pursuant to this act shall be paid out of the Attorney General's budget.

B. Costs of litigation shall include, but are not limited to, court fees and costs, deposition expenses, travel and lodging, witness fees and other similar costs; except that this act shall not be construed as authorizing the payment by the Nation or any agency thereof of any judgment making an award of monetary damages.

§ 107. Appearance not waiver of immunity of Nation

The appearance of the Attorney General or his or her designee(s) in any matter, proceeding or action in any court, before any commission, board or officer or other adjudicatory body, shall not be construed to waive the sovereign immunity of Cherokee Nation.

§ 108. Prosecutors and other assistants to the Attorney General—Delegation of authority

A. Pursuant to Article VII, Section 13 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, the Attorney General is empowered "to designate such prosecutors and other assistants as deemed necessary to carry out the duties of office." The Attorney General may from time to time make such provisions as he or she considers appropriate authorizing the performance of any function of the Attorney General by any other officer or employee of the Office of Attorney General.

B. Investigators designated by the Attorney General shall be certified by an accredited police academy and will be deputized by the Marshal.

C. The Attorney General shall appoint and fix the duties of all prosecutors, assistants, and other employees of the Office of Attorney General as the Attorney General deems necessary to perform the duties imposed upon the Attorney General. The compensation of the Attorney General shall not be decreased during his or her term of office.

D. The Attorney General is further authorized to appoint special assistants or special attorneys, including those from external law firms and entities, to fulfill the functions of the Attorney General where deemed necessary and appropriate to secure the best interests of the Nation.

§ 108. Interests of Cherokee Nation in pending suits

Any attorney, officer, or employee of the Office of Attorney General may be sent by the Attorney General to any tribe, state or district in the United States to attend to the interests of Cherokee Nation in a suit pending in a court of the United States, a tribe or state, or to attend to any other interest of Cherokee Nation.

§ 109. Disqualification of officers and employees of the Office of Attorney General

The Attorney General shall promulgate rules and regulations which require the disqualification of any attorney, officer or employee of the Office of Attorney General, from participation in a particular investigation or prosecution if such participation may result in a personal, financial, or political conflict of interest, or the appearance thereof. Such rules and regulations may provide that a willful violation of any provision thereof shall result in removal from office.

§ 110. Vacancy in position of Attorney General

In case of a vacancy in the position of Attorney General by reason of removal, death, resignation or disability lasting for more than six (6) months, the Attorney General position shall be filled by appointment by the Principal Chief with confirmation by the Council with the replacement to fill out the remainder of the original term.

§ 111. Employment of attorneys, authority of boards or officials—Defense of actions by Attorney General Except as otherwise provided by this act, no Nation officer, agency, board or commission shall have authority to employ or appoint attorneys to advise or represent said officer, agency, board or commission in any matter without prior written approval of the Attorney General. Nothing herein shall prevent the Tribal Council or the Principal Chief, without approval from the Attorney General, from employing, contracting with, or otherwise seeking counsel with an attorney to provide day-to-day advice and counsel on matters within the purview of their respective powers and authorities.

§ 112. Legal representation of agency or official of Executive Branch—Contracts

A. An agency or official of the Executive Branch may obtain legal representation by one or more attorneys by means of one of the following:

1. Employing an attorney if authorized by the Attorney General;
2. Seeking representation by the Office of Attorney General; or
3. If the Office of Attorney General is unable to represent the agency or official due to a conflict of interest, or the Office of Attorney General is unable or lacks the personnel or expertise to provide the specific representation required by such agency or official, contracting with a private attorney or attorneys pursuant to this section.

B. When entering into a contract for legal representation by one or more private attorneys, an agency or official of the Executive Branch shall select an attorney or attorneys and gain approval of said attorney or attorneys from the Attorney General. The Attorney General must approve a schedule of fees for services. An agency or official may agree to deviate from the schedule of fees only with the approval of the Attorney General.

C. Before entering into a contract for legal representation, regardless of cost, by one or more private attorneys, an agency or official of the executive branch shall furnish a copy of the proposed contract to the Attorney General and, if not fully described in the contract, notify the Attorney General of the following:

1. The nature and scope of the representation including, but not limited to, a description of any pending or anticipated litigation or of the transaction(s) requiring representation;
2. The reason or reasons for not obtaining the representation from the Office of Attorney General;
3. The anticipated cost of the representation including the following:
 - a. the basis for or method of calculation of the fee, including, when applicable, the hourly rate for each attorney, paralegal, legal assistant, or other person who will perform services under the contract, and
 - b. the basis for and method of calculation of any expenses which will be reimbursed by the agency or official under the contract, and
 - c. an estimate of the anticipated duration of the contract.

D. Before entering into a contract for legal representation by one or more private attorneys, an agency or official of the Executive Branch shall obtain the approval of the Attorney General. Any amendment, modification, or extension of a contract covered by this section shall also require approval by the Attorney General.

E. When an agency or official of the Executive Branch enters into a contract for professional legal services pursuant to this section, the agency shall also comply with all other applicable procurement and finance regulations and procedures. All costs of contract legal representation, including costs of litigation occurring pursuant to the contract, shall be borne by the agency entering the contract.

F. Nothing herein shall prevent the Tribal Council or the Principal Chief, without approval from the Attorney General, from employing, contracting with, or otherwise seeking counsel with an attorney to provide day-to-day advice and counsel on matters within the purview of their respective powers and authorities.

§ 113. Nation officer or employee—Legal defense services—Defense duties—Evidence

A. The Attorney General shall defend any employee, elected or appointed Nation officer or employee of any Nation office, institution, agency, board or commission of any branch of Nation government in any civil action or special proceeding in the courts of the Nation, a state, or of the United States, by reason of any alleged act done or omitted in the scope of the employee's authority and in the course of his or her employment. The employee named in the action may employ private counsel at his own expense to assist in his defense, however, such employment of private counsel shall not preclude the Attorney General from intervening in the action on the Nation's behalf. Failure of an employee to request representation shall not prohibit the Attorney General from intervening to protect the Nation's interests in any cause of action.

B. The Attorney General shall not represent a Nation employee if that employee acted outside the scope of his or her authority.

C. The Attorney General may intervene in any such action or proceeding and appear on behalf of the Nation, or any of its officers or employees, where the Attorney General deems the Nation to have an interest in the subject matter of the litigation. However, in cases in the Nation's courts where one branch of the Nation's government is an opposing party in a suit brought by another branch of the Nation's government, the Attorney General shall not represent either party but may intervene to provide an opinion concerning the Nation's interests in the matter.

D. 1. When an original action seeking either a writ of mandamus or prohibition against a District Judge, Associate District Judge, or Special Judge of the District Court is commenced or when a cause of action challenging the authority of any Nation Court is commenced in state or federal court, the Attorney General shall represent such judicial officer(s) if, and only if, directed to do so, in writing, by the Chief Justice of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court, upon the Chief Justice's finding that such representation is necessary to protect either the function or integrity of the judiciary. Such finding by the Chief Justice shall be final and binding.

2. In the event that the Attorney General is or shall be disqualified from representing such judicial officer, the Attorney General shall immediately notify, in writing, the Chief Justice. The Chief Justice then may appoint counsel to represent the judicial officer. The appointed counsel shall determine the method of preparation and presentation of such defense. The appointed counsel shall not be held civilly liable for the exercise of such discretion. The appointed counsel shall, upon approval by the Chief Justice, be entitled to be compensated by the Court for services rendered.

CHAPTER 5

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

§ 201. Books of the Secretary of State's office open to inspection

The books, papers and transactions of the Secretary of State's office shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial officers of the Nation.

§ 202. Secretary of State not to hold other position which would conflict with duties

The Secretary of State shall not, during his term of office, accept, or be elected or appointed to any other office or position of trust or profit, whereby he may be prevented from exercising a uniform and uninterrupted supervision of the office.

CHAPTER 6

OFFICE OF THE TREASURER [RESERVED]

CHAPTER 7

MARSHAL SERVICE

§ 401. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Marshal Act.

§ 402. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to prescribe by law the duties and authority of the Cherokee Nation Office of Marshal as required by the Cherokee Nation Constitution drafted in 1999 and ratified in 2003. The Council recognizes the duties and powers delegated to the Office of the Marshal by said Constitution and finds that nothing herein shall be construed to diminish or abridge those duties and powers delegated to the Office of the Marshal by said Constitution.

§ 403. Definitions

A. "Administration" means the Executive Branch of Cherokee Nation as provided for in Article VII of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

B. "Agency" means commissions, departments, government-owned companies, or other instrumentalities of Cherokee Nation.

D. "Deputy Marshal" means a police officer, regardless of rank, employed by the Marshal Service and/or deputized by the Marshal.

E. "Government-owned company" means an entity wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation or any agency, instrumentality, or subdivision thereof.

F. "Marshal" or "the Marshal" means the "Office of Marshal" as created by the 1999 Cherokee Nation Constitution, Article VII, § 14.

G. "Marshal Service" means the Executive Branch agency developed, managed, directed, and overseen by the Marshal.

H. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.

I. "Person" means an agency, individual, corporation, estate, trust, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, association, or any other legal, commercial, government-owned company, or governmental entity.

J. "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, a federally-recognized Indian tribe, the District of Columbia or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

§ 404. Appointment of Marshal

The Marshal shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council for a term of five (5) years. The Marshal shall be authorized to deputize law enforcement officers, as needed, for the effective enforcement of tribal laws within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation. The Marshal shall be a Cherokee citizen possessing at a minimum a degree from a four-year college or university and an additional five years of experience in a supervisory capacity in law enforcement or a related field.

§ 405. Duties and authority of the Office of the Marshal

A. Pursuant to Article VII, Section 14 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, the "duties and authority of the Marshal shall be prescribed by law." That section also empowers the Marshal to "deputize such officers as necessary to carry out the law enforcement needs of the Cherokee Nation."

B. In addition to the duties prescribed by the Constitution, the duties and authority of the Office of the Marshal shall be to:

1. Plan, develop, implement and manage an overall law enforcement strategy for the effective enforcement of tribal law to include but not be exclusive to budgetary fiscal management, job duties, job requirements, and training requirements of employees as well as the hiring, firing and disciplining of employees to effectively preserve the peace, protect the people within the Nation's jurisdiction, protect the property of Cherokee Nation and its citizens properly living within the Nation's jurisdiction; and

2. Deputize officers as needed to carry out the law enforcement activities of Cherokee Nation and authorize those deputies to carry firearms, wear prescribed uniform, badge and credentials, execute or serve warrants, summons and other orders relating to a crime committed, investigate criminal offenses using all applicable laws and regulations, make an arrest with a warrant or without a warrant if the offense is committed in the deputy's presence or the offense is a felony and the deputy has reasonable grounds to believe the person being arrested has committed the felony and perform any other law enforcement-related duty;

3. Attend upon the courts, obey the court's orders, to serve all summons and other processes which may be placed in his hands according to the tenor of the mandates therein contained, and to take all necessary and lawful measures in the execution of the judgment of the courts committed to him to execute and to arrest and cause to be tried, all persons who may be charged with criminal offenses and to provide for bailiff services and protection of the court;

4. Promulgate such rules, regulations, policies and procedures as the Marshal deems necessary to fulfill the duties of the Office and the rules of conduct of employees of the Marshal Service, which may include rules for conduct and corresponding disciplinary actions for breaches of conduct which are to be reviewed annually and kept compliant with new enforcement codes and case laws;

5. Provide a law enforcement strategy, requirements, standards, qualifications and budget that is compliant to Cherokee Nation laws and regulations and equal to or better than the codes and rules of 25 Code of Federal Regulations and 25 United States Code dealing with wages, firearms and, authority of tribal law enforcement officers;

When an arrest shall be made of a person charged with a crime, the Marshal or Deputy shall notify the Judge having jurisdiction of the case of such arrest without delay; provided, that any accused person shall be allowed to give bail for his appearance at court at the time set for his trial by giving bond to the Court, the amount to be fixed by the Judge presiding in that case.

6. Recommend to the Principal Chief that the Nation enter written agreements, renegotiate agreements, or withdraw from agreements with other law enforcement agencies and jurisdictions as the Marshal deems necessary to extend police protection for Nation property and citizens across jurisdictional lines and shall perform all functions and duties as needed;

7. Board and care for prisoners of Cherokee Nation and negotiate and enter contracts therefor;

8. Coordinate investigations with the Cherokee Nation Office of Attorney General and other applicable federal and state prosecuting attorney's office to provide for effective enforcement of applicable laws;

9. Preserve the peace, protect the property of Cherokee Nation and the property of those living within the Nation's jurisdiction and protect the people within the Nation's jurisdiction;

10. Maintain responsibility for and have charge over all Nation police functions within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation to prevent and suppress all affrays, breaches of the peace, riots and insurrections which may come to the knowledge of the Marshal;

11. Designate an individual to act as Marshal in the absence of the Marshal so long as said designation does not exceed six (6) months;
12. Keep a complete office file of all cases and investigations handled by the Marshal Service on behalf of the Nation;
13. Oversee the Security Department of the Executive Branch of the Nation, not to include those security departments operated by the Nation's government-owned companies;
14. Establish, oversee, regulate and license registered security officers and promulgate such rules, regulations and policies as necessary;
15. Perform all other duties and functions which may be prescribed in other sections and titles of the Cherokee Nation Code.

§ 406. Vacancy in office of Marshal

In case of vacancy in the position of Marshal by reason of removal, death, resignation or disability lasting for more than six (6) months, the Office of the Marshal shall be filled by appointment by the Principal Chief with confirmation by the Council. Such appointment shall be to serve out the term of the prior appointment.

§ 407. Compensation of Marshal

The compensation of the Marshal shall not be decreased during his or her term.

§ 408. Deputy Marshals—Delegation of authority

A. Pursuant to Article VII, Section 14, of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, the Marshal is empowered "to deputize such officers as necessary to carry out the law enforcement needs of the Cherokee Nation." The Marshal may from time to time make such provisions as he or she considers appropriate authorizing the performance of any function of the Marshal by any other officer or employee of the Marshal Service.

B. The Marshal is authorized to develop the organizational structure of the Marshal Service, including any special teams, squads or units as the Marshal deems necessary to perform the duties imposed upon the Marshal.

§ 409. References in Cherokee Nation Code to peace officers, etc.

All references in current statutes to peace officers, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, marshals, policemen, or constables are hereby deemed references to the Marshal and those individuals deputized by the Marshal, and all references to the Director of the Marshal Service shall be deemed references to the Marshal.

§ 410. Reserve force Deputy Marshals

A. The Marshal may appoint as many reserve force Deputy Marshals as are necessary to preserve the peace and dignity of the Nation. A current list of each person holding such appointment shall be maintained by the Marshal and shall be available to the public.

B. Reserve force Deputy Marshals may perform duties which encompass a particular act or a series of acts at the Marshal's discretion.

C. The Marshal or a Deputy Marshal shall accompany a reserve force Deputy Marshal in the performance of all duties assigned to such reserve force Deputy Marshal unless such reserve force Deputy Marshal has completed the required one-hundred-sixty (160) hour basic police course. Such reserve force Deputy Marshals shall complete a one-hundred-sixty (160) hour basic police course within twelve (12) months after they have been commissioned as an individual reserve force Deputy Marshal.

D. Reserve force Deputies may receive compensation for their services. The Marshal may pay reserve force Deputies for travel expenses. The Marshal Service may pay for additional training courses attended by reserve force Deputies.

E. A reserve force Deputy Marshal shall be authorized to serve civil process.

CHAPTER 8

DELEGATE TO CONGRESS

§ 501. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Delegate To Congress Act.

§ 502. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to prescribe by law the duties and authority of the Delegate to the United States House of Representatives (Congress) as required by the Cherokee Nation Constitution drafted in 1999 and ratified in 2003. The Council recognizes the duties and powers delegated to the Office of the Delegate to Congress by said Constitution and finds that nothing herein shall be construed to diminish or abridge those duties and powers delegated to the Office of the Delegate by said Constitution.

§ 503. Definitions

For purposes of this act:

1. "Administration" shall mean the Executive Branch of Cherokee Nation as provided for in Article VII of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

2. "Council" or "Tribal Council" shall mean the Council of Cherokee Nation as provided for in Article VI of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

3. "Delegate" shall mean a person appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council as provided for in Article VI of the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

4. "Nation" shall mean Cherokee Nation.

§ 504. Qualifications for the Delegate to Congress

The Delegate shall be:

1. a citizen of Cherokee Nation;
2. a citizen of the United States of America;
3. twenty-five (25) years of age as of the date of the selection;
4. on the date of confirmation, a candidate for no other office.

§ 505. Selection

The Constitution, Article VI, Section 12, provides that the Cherokee Delegate shall be "appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council."

§ 506. Term of office

The term for the Cherokee Delegate shall coincide with the term of the Office of the Principal Chief.

§ 507. Duties and authority of the office of the Delegate to Congress

The duties and authority pursuant to Article VI, Section 12 of the Cherokee Nation Constitution and applicable federal law or House Rule respectively, of the Delegate shall be as follows:

1. Endeavor to participate in Congressional activities;
2. Advocate the best interests of the Cherokee People at all times;
3. Make regular reports to the Council and Principal Chief on Congressional activities and administrative matters relating to federal law and policy; and
4. Produce an annual report to the Cherokee People.

§ 508. Vacancies in office

The Principal Chief may, in case of a vacancy by reason of removal, death, resignation or permanent disability of the Delegate, appoint a successor with confirmation by the Council to fill the vacancy to serve the remainder of the term or until the disability be removed.

§ 509. Funding

The Principal Chief shall submit an annual budget to the Council to fund the office of the Delegate to Congress to include the Delegate's salary, benefits, and expenses, including an office and staff until such time as the position is funded by the United States House of Representatives.

§ 510. Removal from office

The Delegate to Congress shall be subject to removal from office for cause in accordance with Article VI, Section 9 and Article XI of the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 9

IMPEACHMENT PROCEDURES FOR ELECTED AND APPOINTED OFFICIALS

§ 601. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Impeachment Procedures for Elected and Appointed Officials Act of 2011.

§ 602. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish procedures for impeachment of the Principal Chief, the Deputy Principal Chief, Tribal Council Members, Attorney General or Marshal, hereinafter "Officials."

§ 603. Definitions

A. "Articles of Impeachment" means the written accusations of one or more of the grounds for impeachment, prepared and sworn to by the Special Prosecutor, after his or her investigation and determination that probable cause exists that an impeachable offense has occurred.

B. "Corruption in office" means the act of an official or fiduciary person who unlawfully and wrongfully uses his or her station or character to procure some benefit for himself or herself or for another person, contrary to duty and the rights of others.

C. "Habitual drunkenness" means one who frequently and repeatedly becomes intoxicated by excessive indulgence in intoxicating liquor so as to acquire a fixed habit and an involuntary tendency to become intoxicated as often as the temptation is presented even though he remains sober for days or even weeks at a time.

D. "Impeachment" means the prosecution through the Special Prosecutor of an elected official, under the Constitution, for willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, drunkenness, incompetency, or any conviction involving moral turpitude committed while in office.

E. "Incompetency" means lack of ability, legal qualification or fitness to discharge a required duty.

F. "Moral turpitude" means an act of business, vileness or depravity in private and social duties which man owes to his fellow man.

G. "Office of honor, profit or trust" means, for the purposes of this act, an elected position or a position appointed by the highest governing body of a tribe; such an office does not include employment, contract services or consulting agreements.

H. "Official" means the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief and all Members of the Tribal Council, Attorney General and Marshal, including those individuals who have been appointed to serve the remainder of a term of office that has been vacated for any reason.

I. "Presiding Judge" means the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation, or if he or she cannot serve, another Justice of the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation, who will preside over the impeachment proceedings.

J. "Special Prosecutor" means an attorney admitted to practice law before the highest Court of the State of which he or she is a resident, and shall not be an employee, contractor or official of Cherokee Nation.

§ 604. Grounds for impeachment

A. Officials shall be liable and subject to impeachment for willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, habitual drunkenness, incompetency or any conviction of a felony, or a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation that if committed in some other jurisdiction would be a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or offenses against Cherokee Nation committed while in office.

B. "Willful neglect" within the meaning of this act shall include the filing of frivolous allegations of impeachment under 51 CNCA § 605. The filing of allegations of impeachment that fails to achieve approval of at least a simple majority of the Council or to any committee or subcommittee to which the impeachment allegations are assigned, pursuant to 51 CNCA § 605, shall create the rebuttable presumption that such allegations were frivolous.

§ 605. Initiation of impeachment

A. Initiation by Council. The Council, upon allegations of an impeachable offense or offenses committed by any official may, by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the body, appoint a Special Prosecutor and give the Prosecutor the charges which have been alleged. The Special Prosecutor shall investigate those charges and any other transactions which are grounds for impeachment. If such investigation gives the Prosecutor probable cause to believe that activities constituting grounds for impeachment have been committed, he or she shall draft Articles of Impeachment for presentment to the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation. In conducting this investigation the Special Prosecutor shall have the power of subpoena, the power to compel evidence and witnesses and shall have the cooperation of all entities of Cherokee Nation.

B. Recommendation by Principal Chief. The Principal Chief, upon allegations of an impeachable offense or offenses committed by any official, may appoint a Special Prosecutor and give the Prosecutor the charges which have been alleged. The Special Prosecutor shall investigate those charges and any other transactions which are grounds for impeachment. If such investigation gives the Prosecutor probable cause to believe that activities constituting grounds for impeachment have been committed, he or she shall draft allegations of impeachment for recommended action by the Council of Cherokee Nation pursuant to subsection (A) of this section by filing said allegations with the Speaker of the Council. In conducting this investigation the Special Prosecutor shall have the power of subpoena, the power to compel evidence and witnesses and shall have the cooperation of all entities of Cherokee Nation.

C. Filing of impeachment allegations. The filing of impeachment allegations pursuant to subsection (A) or (B) shall be done in writing to the Speaker of the Council with a copy sent to the official accused of the impeachable offense(s). Said allegations shall be set forth in a statement reciting the basis for the allegation and signed by the official making the allegation under penalty of perjury. The impeachment allegations shall be assigned by the Speaker of the Council to the Rules Committee, and then to such subcommittee that the Rules Committee shall deem warranted.

D. Council to control impeachment proceedings, alternative disposition of allegations. The Council shall at all times control the impeachment proceedings, including but not limited to during the investigation stage, by reserving the right to direct the Special Prosecutor to suspend or terminate his or her investigation by majority vote of the Council. Termination of the investigation may be done for any reason, including, but not limited to, resignation of the official subject of the impeachment allegations or based on a determination by the Council that some other disposition of the allegation, such as censure, is warranted.

§ 606. Presentation of impeachment

The Special Prosecutor shall present the Articles of Impeachment to the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation by filing the same in the office of the Clerk.

§ 607. Presiding Officer of the Court of Impeachment

When sitting as a Court of Impeachment, the Tribal Council shall be presided over by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation, or if he is absent or disqualified, then by one (1) of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation.

§ 608. Oath—Concurrence of Councilors

When the Tribal Council is sitting as a Court of Impeachment the Councilors shall be on oath or affirmation, impartially to try the party impeached, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Tribal Council and unless it is found, by clear and convincing evidence, that one or more of the grounds for impeachment exist.

§ 609. Judgment—Criminal liability

An officer who is convicted of impeachment shall be removed from office, but this shall not prevent punishment of any such officer on either civil or criminal charges growing out of the same matter.

§ 610. Designation of offense

The Articles of Impeachment shall state with reasonable certainty the offense in office for which the officer is impeached and if there be more than one, they shall be stated separately and distinctly.

§ 611. Court of Impeachment

When Articles of Impeachment shall be presented, the Cherokee Nation Council shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, organize as a Court of Impeachment and may for the purpose of conducting the business of such Court, appoint a Clerk. The Clerk shall issue all process and keep a record of the proceedings of such Court. It may employ such stenographic, clerical and other help as may be required.

§ 612. Hearing and summons

The Tribal Council, when sitting as a Court of Impeachment shall appoint a day for hearing the impeachment and the accused shall be required by summons by the Clerk to appear on that day. The summons shall be served by delivering a copy of the same and of the Articles of Impeachment to the accused, in person if found, or by leaving the copies at his residence with some member of his family over sixteen (16) years of age.

At said hearing the accused shall have the right to have an attorney present, at his or her own expense, present evidence, object to evidence presented, call witnesses on his or her behalf, confront and cross-examine witnesses and do any other action deemed necessary by the Presiding Judge to ensure due process.

§ 613. Powers of Court of Impeachment—Orders and judgments—Power to enforce

The Tribal Council, sitting as a Court of Impeachment shall, through the Presiding Justice, have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, to enforce obedience to its orders, mandates, writs, precepts and judgments to preserve order, grant continuances that are for good cause and not for the purposes of delay and to punish in a summary way contempts of, and disobedience to, its authority and to make all orders, rules and regulations which it may deem essential or necessary for the orderly transaction of its business.

§ 614. Costs—How paid—Costs of accused if acquitted

A. If the accused is acquitted, he or she shall be entitled to costs, including attorney fees, to be taxed by the Clerk and paid by Cherokee Nation out of any funds available, and if convicted, he or she shall pay the costs, unless the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation otherwise directs.

B. Personal liability, treble damages. If an official is convicted of impeachment based on the earlier filing of frivolous allegations of impeachment under 51 CNCA § 604(B), such convicted official shall be liable for up to triple the amount of any cost, including attorney fees, borne by the accused official subject to said earlier allegations of impeachment, as determined by the Court of Impeachment, unless the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation otherwise directs.

§ 615. Expenses—How paid

This act shall be used as authorization to expend funds for the purposes of implementing the procedures and requirements mandated herein.

CHAPTER 10

EMPLOYEE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

§ 1001. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Employee Administrative Procedures Act.

§ 1002. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish a timely and fair procedure for appeals of employment terminations by employees of Cherokee Nation, which provides to the employees due process and other protections guaranteed by the federal Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 and the Cherokee Nation Constitution, Article II [now Article III], including notice and an opportunity for a hearing.

§ 1003. Definition

As used in the Employee Administrative Procedures Act:

1. "Act" shall mean the Employee Administrative Procedures Act.
2. "Administrative proceeding" means the formal process employed by the Employee Appeals Board for consideration of an employee termination appeal resulting in a final administrative decision.

3. "Board" shall mean the Employee Appeals Board.
4. "Cause to terminate employment" shall have the meaning as defined in 51 CNCA § 1011.
5. "District Court" shall mean the trial court of Cherokee Nation.
6. "Employee Appeals Clerk" shall mean a designated person in the Executive Offices of Cherokee Nation.
7. "Employee of Cherokee Nation" or "employee" shall mean a person who has been directly employed by Cherokee Nation on a regular permanent full-time basis for at least one (1) continuous year immediately prior to termination of employment, including such employees who have renewable contracts with the Cherokee Nation. For purposes of employee termination appeals under this act this term shall not include employees of any corporation for profit or other business entity owned and operated by Cherokee Nation, such as, but not limited to, Bingo Outpost, Cherokee Nation Enterprises and Cherokee Nation Industries; nor to specialized authorities and entities created by the Legislature, such as, but not limited to, the Arkansas Riverbed Trust Authority.
8. "Final administrative decision" means a final decision made by an Employee Appeals Hearing Officer pursuant to this act and which is subject to judicial review.
9. "Former employee" shall mean an employee as defined in paragraph 4 of this section who was terminated from employment.
10. "Human Resources Director" shall mean the Human Resources Director of Cherokee Nation.
11. "Order" means all or part of a formal or official decision made by the Employee Appeals Board or Supreme Court.
12. "Parties to an appeal" shall mean an employee who has been terminated from employment with Cherokee Nation and the Human Resources Director or his or her designee acting as the client representative of the employer.
13. "Supreme Court" shall mean the three (3) Justices of the Supreme Court acting en banc as an appellate court.
14. "Termination of employment" shall mean the involuntary severance of an employee from Cherokee Nation employment, including a decision to not renew a contract with an employee, provided that such term shall not include a temporary or permanent layoff for lack of funds or work.

§ 1004. Cherokee Nation Employee Appeals Board

The Cherokee Nation Employee Appeals Board is hereby established to serve in the capacity of an administrative body to hear appeals by former employees of decisions to terminate said persons.

§ 1005. Board qualification

The Employee Appeals Board shall be composed of three (3) Hearing Officers appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by Cherokee Nation Council. Qualifications of the Board members shall be as follows:

1. The person must be currently licensed to practice law by the Oklahoma Supreme Court and be a member of the Cherokee Nation bar;
2. The person must have a working knowledge of this act;
3. The person must not be an owner, stockholder, employee or officer of, nor have any other business relationship with, any corporation, partnership, or other business or entity that is subject to regulation by Cherokee Nation;
4. The person must be separate and apart from the Legal Division or Office of General Counsel of Cherokee Nation;
5. The person must not be responsible to or subject to the supervision or direction of a Cherokee Nation employee or agent engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions for Cherokee Nation; and
6. The person must not have been engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions for Cherokee Nation regarding the terminated employee.

§ 1006. Employee Appeals Board term

The first term of office for each Board member shall commence on October 1, 1996 and expire on September 30, 1999. Thereafter, commencing on October 1, 1999, the terms shall run every four years.

§ 1007. Employee Appeals Board officers

The Employee Appeals Board shall select a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman from its membership. Term of office shall be for one (1) year from October 1 until the following September 30. Any officer selected after October 1 of any given year shall serve the remainder of the one-year term expiring on the following September 30.

§ 1008. Appeals heard by Employee Appeal Board en banc

Any party to an appeal shall have a matter decided by Employee Appeal Board members en banc.

§ 1009. Employee Appeals Board Clerk

A person designated by the Principal Chief shall act as the Employee Appeals Board Clerk. The responsibilities of the Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall include maintenance of the appeal casefile, issuance of notices, and such other duties as required by the Employee Appeals Board.

§ 1010. Termination for cause

A. An employee of Cherokee Nation may be terminated for cause without prior warning, counseling, or reprimand, based on one (1) of the following grounds:

1. Any reason involving moral turpitude affecting or potentially affecting conduct while on duty, including without limitation any violation of the Cherokee Nation Code of Ethics; falsification of time cards, time sheets, tribal records or other documents; theft, embezzlement or misappropriation or destruction of property or funds; or use of official position for personal profit or advantage; provided that a criminal conviction shall not be a prerequisite for termination based on any conduct which could subject the employee to criminal prosecution;
2. Engaging in conduct while on duty which affects or could affect the safety of the work environment and co-workers or which could affect public safety, including possession of weapons, explosives or dangerous materials on the job without written authorization; drinking alcoholic beverage or using controlled drugs without a legal prescription during work while on duty or reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or drugs without a legal prescription; and any other conduct which poses a threat to the public safety;
3. Sexual harassment in the workplace;
4. Harassment of an employee because of political affiliations, religion, race, gender, age, disability, or national origin;
5. Conviction of a felony;
6. Mental or physical abuse to a child; and
7. Engaging in criminal sexual activity or sexual misconduct that has impeded the effectiveness of the individual's performance of duties.

B. An employee of Cherokee Nation may be terminated for cause, provided that the employee has received prior warning, counseling, and reprimand on one or more previous occasions, based on any one or any combination of the following grounds:

1. Repeated negligence in performance of duty;

2. Willful neglect of duty;

3. Other willful misconduct related to a violation of standards of conduct for employees of Cherokee Nation as defined in the Cherokee Nation Human Resources Manual.

§ 1011. Initiation of termination—Employee status

A termination action may be initiated by the employee's supervisor; but policy concurrence for the action shall be obtained in advance of the action by the Human Resources Director. The written notice of dismissal must be given to the employee, and must describe the reasons involved and a statement apprising the employee of his or her right to appeal the termination. The termination action shall take effect according to the written notice of such actions given to the employee, and shall remain in effect according to the notice even though review proceedings or appeal hearings concerning such matter have been instituted and are pending and not completed.

§ 1012. Human Resources Director review

A. A former employee may request review and reconsideration of the termination by the Human Resources Director in writing delivered to the Human Resources Director within ten (10) working days after receipt of the termination decision. The request should include a statement of reasons why the employee believes the termination was without cause, and should include any documents not already contained in the former employee's personnel file which the former employee believes to be relevant.

B. The Human Resources Director shall thereafter review the former employee's request, documents included with the request, and relevant documents in the employee's personnel file, and issue a written decision within ten (10) working days of receipt of the request for review.

C. If the Human Resources Director revokes the termination, the former employee shall be immediately restored to Cherokee Nation employment in the same or similar job position, with pay no less than the pay received at the time of termination and benefits retroactive to the date of the termination; his personnel records adjusted as may be consistent with the revocation action.

D. If the Human Resources Director revokes the termination, the decision shall be a final unappealable decision. If the Human Resources Director upholds the termination based on cause, the decision of the Human Resources Director shall be final unless the former employee appeals the decision to the Employee Appeals Board pursuant to procedures set forth in 51 CNCA § 1013.

§ 1013. Manner of filing appeal

A former employee must deliver to the Cherokee Nation Human Resources Office and to the Employee Appeals Board Clerk a written Notice of Appeal of Termination Decision no later than ten (10) working days from the date the Human Resources Director's decision upholding the termination was received by the former employee. The Notice of Appeal shall state the date of the termination and the reasons why the former employee believes the termination was without cause.

§ 1014. Administrative record and casefiles

A. Human Resources Summary Statement. If the former employee appeals the decision to the Employee Appeals Board, the Human Resources Director or his designee shall prepare a Human Resources Summary Statement for placement in the administrative record on a form containing the following information: case number, name of appealing party; position of employee; date decision made; date appeal received by the Human Resources Office; statement that the former employee filed appeal within time required or that the former employee did not file his appeal within the time required; and list of any specific Cherokee Nation laws and Cherokee Nation and/or federal regulations, policies and/or standards applicable to the former employee's conduct or termination of employment.

B. Administrative record. The administrative record shall be prepared by the Human Resources Director or his designee, who shall place the following documents in the record: Human Resources Summary Statement; Disciplinary Action Form containing notice of the termination which is the subject of the appeal; the former employee's written appeal; any documents submitted by the Human Resources Director, including designated documents from the former employee's personnel files; and any other relevant documents allowed into the record by the Board. The Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall add to the record all documents submitted by the former employee, including designated documents from his/her personnel files.

C. Establishment of casefile. The Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall maintain an Employee Appeals Board casefile for each appeal filed, which shall contain the administrative record; all notices issued by the Employee Appeals Board Clerk and all return receipts; any other documents accepted by the Appeals Board; and decision of the Appeals Board. The Human Resources Director shall initially prepare the casefile, by placing those portions of the administrative record in his or her possession in a file and delivering it to the Employee Appeals Board Clerk. The Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall assign each casefile a number beginning with the words "Emp. Ad. Appeal No.", followed by the last two digits of the year in which the appeal was filed, followed by a dash, followed by an individual number for each appeal.

D. Access to casefiles. Public inspection of the Human Resources Summary Statement and the Employee Appeals Board decision shall be allowed. Other materials contained in the casefile may be released for public inspection only if authorized by written consent of the former employee or authorized by the Employee Appeals Board Chairman pursuant to rules established by the Board.

§ 1015. Scheduling of hearing

The Hearing Officer designated to hear the case shall promptly notify the Employee Appeals Board Clerk of the scheduling of a hearing. The hearing shall be no later than thirty (30) days from date of the Appeals Board Clerk's receipt of the appeal notice, provided that for good cause the Board may grant either party an extension of time for the hearing date.

§ 1016. Employee administrative appeal proceedings—Notice of hearing

A. In an appeal proceeding, all parties shall be afforded an opportunity for hearing after reasonable notice. The Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall send notices to the Human Resources Director by inter-office mail and to the former employee, by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice must be served on the parties at least ten days (10) before the hearing, unless the appealing party states that he waives any objection he might have to receiving the notice. If the certified letter is returned undelivered, then a second notice shall be sent by regular mail. Service of notices will be considered to have been made on: the date of delivery indicated on the return receipt when the notice has been sent by certified mail, return receipt requested; or the date the second notice sent by regular mail is returned by the post office as undelivered, or ten (10) days after the date the second notice is sent by regular mail when the letter has not been returned by the post office, whichever occurs first.

B. The notice shall include:

1. A statement of the time, place and nature of the hearing;
2. A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;
3. A reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved;
4. A copy of the Employee Appeals Board casefile; and
5. A short and plain statement of the matters asserted. If the Human Resources Department or other party is unable to state the matters in detail at the time the notice is served, the initial notice may be limited to a statement of the issues involved. Thereafter upon application a more definite and detailed statement shall be furnished.

C. Opportunity shall be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved.

D. Unless precluded by law, informal disposition may be made of any individual proceeding by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default.

§ 1017. Employee Appeals Board record

A. The Employee Appeals Board record in an appeal proceeding shall include:

1. The Employee Appeals casefile, including all pleadings, motions and intermediate rulings;
2. Evidence received or considered at the appeal proceeding;
3. A statement of matters officially noticed;
4. Questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings thereon;

5. Proposed findings and exceptions;

6. Any decision, opinion, or report by the Hearing Officer presiding at the hearing; and

7. All other evidence or data submitted to the Hearing Officer in connection with consideration of the case, provided all parties have had access to such evidence.

B. Oral proceedings shall be electronically recorded. Such recordings shall be maintained for such time so as to protect the record through judicial review. Copies of the recordings shall be provided by the Employee Appeals Board at the request of any party to the proceeding. Costs of transcription of the recordings shall be borne by the party requesting the transcription. For judicial review, electronic recordings of an individual proceeding, as certified by the Employee Appeals Board, may be submitted to the reviewing court by the Board as part of the record of the proceedings under review without transcription unless otherwise required to be transcribed by the reviewing Court. In such case, the expense of transcriptions shall be taxed and assessed against the nonprevailing party. Parties to any proceeding may have the proceedings transcribed by a Court Reporter at their own expense.

§ 1018. Hearing procedures before Employee Appeals Board

A. In employee appeals hearings, the Cherokee Nation shall present its evidence to show that the termination was for cause, the former employee may then present evidence, and the Cherokee Nation shall have an opportunity to present rebuttal evidence. The burden of proof shall be on the employee to prove that the termination was not for cause, including proof that the decision to terminate was not made in good faith; or that the facts which constituted the grounds for the termination were not supported by substantial evidence; or that such facts were not reasonably believed by the employer to be true.

B. In employee appeal proceedings the Hearing Officer may admit and give probative effect to evidence which possesses probative value commonly accepted by reasonably prudent men in the conduct of their affairs. The Hearing Officer shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law in respect to: self-incrimination; confidential communications between husband and wife during the existence of the marriage relation; communication between attorney and client, made in that relation; confessions made to a clergyman or priest in his professional capacity in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs; communications made by a patient to a licensed practitioner of one of the healing arts with reference to any physical or supposed physical disease or of knowledge gained by such practitioner through a physical examination of a patient made in a professional capacity; records and files of any official or agency of any state or of the United States which, by any statute of such state or of the United States are made confidential and privileged. No greater exclusionary effect shall be given any such rule or privilege than would obtain in an action in court. The Hearing Officer may exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and unduly repetitious evidence. Objections to evidential offers may be made and shall be noted in the record. Subject to these requirements, when a hearing will be expedited and the interests of the parties will not be prejudiced substantially, any part of the evidence may be received in written form.

C. Documentary evidence may be received during the appeal hearing, in the form of copies or excerpts, if the original is not readily available. Upon request, parties shall be given an opportunity to compare the copy with the original.

D. Witnesses must be sworn to tell to the truth prior to the taking of testimony. A party may conduct cross-examinations required for a full and true disclosure of the facts during the appeal hearing.

E. Notice may be taken of judicially cognizable facts. Parties shall be notified either before or during the hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, of the material noticed, including any staff memoranda or data, and they shall be afforded an opportunity to contest the material so noticed.

F. Any party shall at all times have the right to counsel, provided that such counsel must be duly licensed to practice law by the Supreme Court of Oklahoma and shall be a member of the Cherokee Nation bar, and provided further that such counsel shall have the right to appear and act for and on behalf of the party he represents.

G. The hearing will be a public hearing. The public, the Human Resources Director and the former employee have the right to be present during the hearing at all times, except when the Board retires to make its decision. The Board will not be bound by technical rules of evidence in the conduct of hearings, and no informality in any proceeding, as in the manner of taking testimony, shall invalidate any order, decision, rule or regulation made, approved or confirmed by the Hearing Officer.

H. The hearing may be adjourned, postponed and continued if requested by either party, at the discretion of the Employee Appeals Board.

§ 1019. Final Employee Appeals Board decisions—Contents—Notification

A. A final Employee Appeals Board decision shall:

1. Be in writing; and

2. Include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings. If, in accordance with Employee Appeals Board rules, a party submitted proposed findings of fact, the final Appeals Board order shall include a ruling upon each proposed finding. Findings of fact shall be based exclusively on the evidence received and on matters officially noticed in the individual proceeding unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties on the record.

B. Parties shall be notified either personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested, of any final Appeals Board order. Upon request, a copy of the order shall be delivered or mailed forthwith to each party and to his attorney of record.

§ 1020. Employee Appeals Board members not to communicate

Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, Employee Appeals Board members shall not communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact, with any person or party, nor, in connection with any issue of law, with any party or his representative, except upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. An Employee Appeals Board member (1) may communicate with other members of the Board, and (2) may have the aid and advice of one or more personal assistants.

§ 1021. Furnishing of information, attendance of witnesses and production of books and records—Subpoenas

A. 1. The Employee Appeals Board shall have power to require the furnishing of such Information, the attendance of such witnesses, and the production of such books, records, papers or other objects as may be necessary and proper for the purposes of the proceeding.

2. Cherokee Nation and the former employee may take the depositions of witnesses, within or without the state, in the same manner as is provided by law for the taking of depositions in civil actions in courts of record. Depositions so taken shall be admissible in any proceeding affected by this act; provided, however, all or any part of the deposition may be objected to at the time of hearing, and may be received in evidence or excluded from the evidence by the Hearing Officer in accordance with the law with reference to evidence in this act or with reference to evidence in courts of record under the law of Cherokee Nation.

B. In furtherance of the powers granted by subsection (A) of this section, any Hearing Officer, upon his or her own motion may, and upon the request of any party appearing in an individual proceeding shall:

1. Issue subpoenas for witnesses, provided that the Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall also have such authority;

2. Issue subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of books, records, papers or other objects, which may be served by the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service or by any person in any manner prescribed for the service of a subpoena in a civil action, provided that the Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall also have such authority; or

3. Quash a subpoena or subpoenas duces tecum so issued; provided, prior to quashing a subpoena or subpoenas duces tecum the Hearing Officer shall give notice to all parties. A subpoena or subpoenas duces tecum may not be quashed if any party objects.

C. 1. In case of disobedience to any subpoena issued and served under this section or to any lawful Hearing Officer requirement for information, or of the refusal of any person to testify to any matter regarding which he may be interrogated lawfully in a proceeding before a Hearing Officer, the Hearing Officer may apply to the Cherokee Nation District or Supreme Court or to any Judge or Justice thereof for an order to compel compliance with the subpoena or the furnishing of information or the giving of testimony. Forthwith the Court or the Judge shall cite the respondent to appear and shall hear the matter as expeditiously as possible.

2. If the disobedience or refusal is found to be unlawful, the Judge or Justice shall enter an order requiring compliance. Disobedience of such an order shall be punished as contempt of court in the same manner and by the same procedure as is provided for like conduct committed in the course of judicial proceedings.

§ 1022. Disqualification of Hearing Officer

A Hearing Officer shall withdraw from any individual proceeding in which he or she cannot accord a fair and impartial hearing or consideration. Any party may request the disqualification of a Hearing Officer, on the ground of his inability to give a fair and impartial hearing, by filing an affidavit, promptly upon discovery of the alleged disqualification, stating with particularity the grounds upon which it is claimed that a fair and impartial hearing cannot be accorded. If the Hearing Officer does not remove himself or herself from hearing the case, the issue shall be determined promptly by the remaining two members of the Employee Appeals Board. Upon the entry of an order of disqualification affecting a Hearing Officer, the Employee Appeals Board shall assign another in his or her stead. Upon the disqualification of all three (3) Employee Appeals Board members, the Principal Chief shall immediately appoint a Special Hearing Officer to sit in place of the disqualified members in the proceeding.

§ 1023. Rehearing, reopening or reconsideration of decision

A. A final Employee Appeals Board decision shall be subject to rehearing, reopening or reconsideration. Any application or request for such rehearing, reopening or reconsideration shall be made by any party aggrieved by the final Appeals Board order within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of such final order. The grounds for such action shall be either:

1. Newly discovered or newly available evidence, relevant to the issues;
2. Need for additional evidence adequately to develop the facts essential to proper decision;
3. Probable error committed by the Employee Appeals Board in the proceeding or in its decision such as would be ground for reversal on judicial review of the final order;
4. Need for further consideration of the issues and the evidence in the public interest; or
5. A showing that issues not previously considered ought to be examined in order properly to dispose of the matter.

B. The order of the Appeals Board Hearing Officer granting rehearing, reconsideration or review, or the petition of a party therefor, shall set forth the grounds which justify such action.

C. Nothing in this section shall prevent rehearing, reopening or reconsideration of a matter by the Employee Appeals Board on the ground of fraud practiced by the prevailing party or of procurement of the order by perjured testimony or fictitious evidence.

D. On reconsideration, reopening, or rehearing, the matter may be heard by the Employee Appeals Board Hearing Officer who heard the case. The hearing shall be confined to those grounds upon which the reconsideration, reopening or rehearing was ordered.

E. If an application for rehearing shall be timely filed, the period within which judicial review, under the applicable statute, must be sought, shall run from the final disposition of such application.

§ 1024. Review by Supreme Court

A. 1. Any party aggrieved by a final order in an individual proceeding is entitled to certain, speedy, adequate and complete judicial review thereof pursuant to the provisions of this section and 51 CNCA §§ 1025, 1026 and 1027.

2. This section shall not prevent resort to other means of review, redress, relief or trial de novo, available because of constitutional provisions.

3. Neither a motion for new trial nor an application for rehearing shall be prerequisite to secure judicial review.

B. Proceedings for review shall be instituted by filing a petition with the Court Clerk of the Supreme Court, within thirty (30) days after the appellant is notified of the final Employee Appeals Board order as provided in 51 CNCA § 1027.

C. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the Cherokee Nation Human Resources Director and all other parties of record, and proof of such service shall be filed with the Court Clerk of the Supreme Court within ten (10) days after the filing of the petition. The Court, in its discretion, may permit other interested persons to intervene.

D. In any proceedings for review brought by a party aggrieved by a final Employee Appeals Board order the responding party may be entitled to recover against such appealing party any court costs and reasonable attorney fees, unless the Court determines that the appeal brought by the other party is frivolous.

§ 1025. Transmission of record to reviewing Court—Stipulations

Within thirty (30) days after service of the petition for review or equivalent process upon it, or within such further time as the reviewing Court, upon application for good cause shown, may allow, the Employee Appeals Board Clerk shall transmit to the reviewing Court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. For purposes of this section, "record" shall include such information as specified by 51 CNCA § 1017. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. Any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the Court for the additional costs resulting therefrom. The Court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable.

§ 1026. Review without jury—Additional testimony

The review shall be conducted by the Supreme Court without a jury and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the Employee Appeals Board, not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court, upon request, shall hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

§ 1027. Setting aside, modifying or reversing of orders—Remand—Affirmance

A. In any proceeding for the review of a final termination decision, the Supreme Court, in the exercise of proper judicial discretion or authority, may set aside or modify the order, or reverse it and remand it to the Administrative Appeals Board for further proceedings, if it determines that the substantial rights of the appellant or petitioner for review have been prejudiced because the Employee Appeals Board's findings, inferences, conclusions or decisions, are:

1. in violation of constitutional provisions; or
2. in excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the Employee Appeals Board; or
3. made upon unlawful procedure; or
4. affected by other error of law; or
5. clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, material, probative and substantial competent evidence, as defined in 51 CNCA § 1019, including matters properly noticed by the Hearing Officer upon examination and consideration of the entire record as submitted; but without otherwise substituting its judgment as to the weight of the evidence for that of the Employee Appeals Board on question of fact; or
6. arbitrary or capricious; or
7. because findings of fact, upon issues essential to the decision, were not made although requested.

B. The Supreme Court, also in the exercise of proper judicial discretion or authority, may remand the case to the Employee Appeals Board for the taking and consideration of further evidence, if it is deemed essential to a proper disposition of the issue.

C. The Supreme Court shall affirm the order and decision of the Employee Appeals Board, if it is found to be valid and the proceedings are free from prejudicial error to the appellant.

D. The decision of the Supreme Court shall be final and shall not be subject to further review by any other state, tribal or federal government body or court.

§ 1028. Remedies for termination without cause

A. If the termination is overturned based on a finding that the termination was without cause by unappealed decision of the Cherokee Nation Employee Appeals Board or by a final decision of the Supreme Court, the former employee shall be immediately restored to Cherokee Nation employment in the same or similar job position, with pay no less than the pay received at the time of termination, and with benefits retroactive to the date of the termination; and the employee's personnel records adjusted as may be consistent with the action of the Cherokee Nation Employee Appeals Board or Supreme Court. The remedies provided herein shall be exclusive, and Cherokee Nation expressly declines to waive sovereign immunity as to suit for recovery of any form of damages or other type or relief other than the relief set forth herein. All remedies listed herein shall be available to employees of corporations wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation, if said employee is successful in overturning a termination as provided through the applicable termination appeals process for that corporation.

B. Prevailing parties may be awarded costs and reasonable attorney fees as determined by the appropriate Board or Court.

§ 1029. Time computations

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this act, the day of the act, or event, from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined by the Oklahoma Statutes or any other day when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m., in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined by the Oklahoma Statutes, or any other day when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m.

PORT AUTHORITIES

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Port Authority Amendment Act of 2004.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish a Port Authority of Cherokee Nation in order to transact business for the economic benefit of Cherokee Nation.

§ 3. Definitions

As used in 56 CNCA §§ 2 to 16:

1. "Council" means the Council of Cherokee Nation as established by the Cherokee Nation Constitution, Article V, Section 1 [now Article VI, Section 1].
2. "Created," as related to port authorities, means the activation of said authorities by ordinance or resolution as provided herein.
3. "Notice of public hearing" means submitting notice to the Office of the Principal Chief and the Secretary of State of Cherokee Nation.
4. "Port Authority" means a port authority created pursuant to authority of 56 CNCA § 4.
5. "Submerged lands" means the lands presently underlying the navigable streams within the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation, and lands underlying the waters of lakes, harbors, and navigation channels that have already been or which the impoundment of the waters will create commercial navigation facilities in the said navigable streams.

6. "Uplands" means lands contiguous to or fronting upon any submerged lands in Cherokee Nation.

§ 4. Cherokee Nation Port Authority

A. This act establishes an agency of Cherokee Nation that shall be known as the "Port Authority of Cherokee Nation." The Port Authority created in this act may combine to form joint port authorities by cooperative agreement executed by the governing bodies of any city or county or cities or counties or tribe or tribes or tribal agency. Such joint authorities formed by such cooperative agreement shall have all the powers and jurisdiction enumerated in this act. The joint port authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the respective governing bodies of the respective governmental entities pass appropriate legislation acknowledging the said creation. Acknowledgment by the city or town shall be by ordinance. County approval must be expressed by appropriate resolution. The tribe or Cherokee Nation approval must be expressed by the appropriate resolution. Each of these legislative actions must declare a need exists for an authority to function in the city, town, or county or tribal jurisdiction and acknowledge the merger with Cherokee Nation. No member of said authority shall serve who owns land in an area within five (5) miles of lands surveyed or examined for port locations. Any member of said authority that has any interests that will conflict with the interests of the authority shall be subject to removal. Any member of the authority owning lands or having lands under his control as agent or in a fiduciary capacity in an area surveyed or examined for port location shall be deemed to have a conflict of interest and subjected to removal. This limitation or membership and conflict of interest shall not apply where the site of a port has been presently engineered and designated by a port authority already organized under this act. A port authority created hereunder shall be a body corporate and politic, which may sue and be sued, and shall have the powers and jurisdiction enumerated in 56 CNCA §§ 1 to 16, inclusive.

The exercise of the powers conferred under this act by the Port Authority of Cherokee Nation shall be deemed to be an essential governmental function of Cherokee Nation. However, the Port Authority shall not be immune from liability due to it. The laws of Cherokee Nation shall govern all actions of the Port Authority formed under this act. All disputes that arise shall be heard in Cherokee District Court, unless by agreement of all parties another court of competent jurisdiction is so designated for venue.

The merger of the appropriate laws shall govern those port authorities created by joint resolution of multiple governmental entities. Joint port authorities shall not be immune from liability due to their performance of essential governmental functions. All agreements shall state the court of competent jurisdiction that shall hear disputes arising within the jurisdiction of the created port authority.

B. A port authority established in accordance with this act may expend funds not otherwise appropriated to defray the expense of surveys and examinations incidental to the purposes of the port authority. The Council may appropriate to the Authority any available funds not otherwise appropriated for expenditure by the authority for any purpose authorized by this act.

C. Subject to making due provisions for payment and performance of its obligations, the Port Authority of Cherokee Nation may be dissolved by the Council of Cherokee Nation. In such event the properties of the port authority shall be transferred to Cherokee Nation. Obligations of the authority shall not be obligations of Cherokee Nation, unless said obligations are specifically accepted by a majority vote of the Council of Cherokee Nation.

§ 5. Board of Directors

A. A Board of Directors shall govern a port authority created by this act. Members of a Board of Directors of a port authority hereby created shall consist of not more than five (5) members. The Principal Chief with the approval of the Council shall appoint Board members. The Port Authority created under this act may, with the approval of the Principal Chief and Council, form a partnership with a port authority created by Act of the State of Oklahoma. When a port authority is created by this combination, the number of Directors composing the Board shall be determined by agreement between Cherokee Nation and the political subdivision(s) of the State of Oklahoma. The appointing body may anytime remove a Director appointed by it for misfeasance, nonfeasance or malfeasance in office.

B. Each Director shall have been a qualified elector in Cherokee Nation, and, for joint authorities, of the political subdivision in which they reside, for a period of at least three (3) years next preceding his appointment.

C. The Directors of any port authority first appointed shall serve staggered terms. After that each successor shall serve for a term of four (4) years, except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed to only the unexpired term and any Director shall be eligible for reappointment. No Director shall be removed except for cause, and if removed shall have the right of appeal to the District Court of Cherokee Nation.

D. The Directors shall elect one of their membership as Chairman and another as Vice-Chairman, and shall designate their terms of office, and shall appoint a Secretary who need not be a Director. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum, the affirmative vote of which shall be necessary for any action taken by the port authority. No vacancy in the membership of the Board shall impair the rights of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the port authority.

E. Each member of the Board of Directors of the port authority shall be entitled to receive such sum of money as the Board of Directors may determine as compensation for his service as Director and reimbursement for his reasonable expenses in the performance of his duties.

§ 6. Employees

A port authority created in accordance with 56 CNCA § 4 shall establish the qualifications, duties, and compensation of such employees and professional help as it may require to conduct the business of the port. The Board may appoint an advisory board that shall serve without compensation. Any employee and/or professional help may be suspended or dismissed at anytime by the port authority. Said employees and/or professional help serves at the pleasure of the port authority.

§ 7. Area of jurisdiction

The area of jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation Port Authority created in accordance with 56 CNCA § 4 shall include all of the territory of Cherokee Nation, together with any other property outside said boundaries conveyed to it or over which it exercises control pursuant to 56 CNCA § 9(1). A port authority created by multiple governmental entities shall exercise different powers. The right of eminent domain is set forth in 56 CNCA § 9(8). Never shall the same area be included in more than one port authority, but the jurisdiction of the Port Authority of Cherokee Nation or the first attaching shall be exclusive unless the first attaching shall cede or convey to the other.

§ 8. Regulation of vehicles within area of jurisdiction—Rules—Enforcement

A. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to establish rules to regulate vehicles within the real property under its direct control. The rules shall be consistent with the laws of Cherokee Nation governing the operation of vehicles on public streets and highways. Penalties for violation of these rules shall be no greater than the penalties for the same or similar violations in other areas of Cherokee jurisdiction.

The rules may include, but need not be limited to, the following:

1. The operation of vehicles within the jurisdiction of the port authority including, but not limited to speeds, stopping, and parking.
2. The type, sizes, and weight of vehicles that may be operated within the jurisdiction of the port authority.

B. The rules of the Board of Directors promulgated pursuant to this subsection including any amendments shall be filed with the Secretary of State of Cherokee Nation and Director of the Cherokee Nation Marshal at least thirty (30) days before becoming effective. Copies of the regulations shall be furnished to any person desiring to travel within the jurisdiction of the port authority upon request without charge.

C. The port authority shall post appropriate permanent signs at every entrance to the jurisdiction of the port authority showing that the use of vehicles within the jurisdiction is subject to the rules of the port authority. The port authority shall also post appropriate permanent traffic control signs or devices including, but not limited to, stop signs and speed limit signs. Such signs shall be the same as or similar to signs used by the Cherokee Nation Department of Transportation for the same or similar purposes.

D. Rules adopted by the port authority pursuant to this section shall be enforced by Cherokee Nation and law enforcement officials cross-deputized with Cherokee Nation.

E. The District Court of Cherokee Nation shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine violations as the same or similar violations of other Cherokee law. Appeals from decisions of the District Court in cases involving violations of the rules of the port authority promulgated pursuant to this section shall be to the Supreme Court in the same manner as the same or similar violations of law.

F. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter or prevent any concurrent or overlapping jurisdiction by other law enforcement agencies where agreements are in place.

§ 9. Powers—Plan for future development

Subject to the laws of Cherokee Nation and the regulations governing land held in trust status by the United States of America for the benefit of Cherokee Nation, a port authority established by 56 CNCA § 4 shall have full power and authority to:

1. Purchase, construct, reconstruct, sell, lease, operate and otherwise contract concerning docks, wharves, warehouses, piers, and other port, terminal, industrial or transportation facilities within its jurisdiction consistent with the purposes of the port authority, and to make charges for the use thereof;

2. Borrow money from either public or private financial institutions, sources or any agency of Cherokee Nation or of the United States of America, and to issue therefor such notes or other evidence of indebtedness as may be required and to mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber the assets, other than property held in trust status, of the authority as security therefor;

3. Apply for, receive, and participate in any grants from private sources, the State of Oklahoma or from the United States of America;

4. Straighten, deepen, improve, construct, reconstruct or extend any canal, channel, river, stream, basin or other watercourse or way which may be necessary or proper in the development of the facilities of such port;

5. Acquire, own, hold, sell, lease, operate or otherwise contract concerning real or personal property for the authorized purposes of the port authority:

a. Leases, subleases, assignments and contracts concerning real property held in trust status by the United States for the benefit of Cherokee Nation are subject to federal regulations and approval from the Secretary of the Interior;

b. Amendments and assignments of leases and subleases concerning real property held in trust status by the United States for the benefit of Cherokee Nation are subject to federal regulations and approval from the Secretary of the Interior;

c. The duration of leases concerning real property held in trust status is subject to federal regulations and the laws of Cherokee Nation.

6. Acquire, own, maintain, sell, or lease such land within its jurisdiction as it may deem desirable for the development, planning, construction, operation, or leasing of land or completed industrial facilities for industrial use which exercise of such authorization is hereby consistent with federal regulations and the laws of Cherokee Nation and declared to be for the benefit of Cherokee Nation;

7. Apply to the proper authorities of the United States pursuant to appropriate law for the right to establish, operate, and maintain foreign trade zones within the limits of the port authority and to establish, operate, and maintain such foreign trade zones;

8. Exercise the right of eminent domain to appropriate any land, rights, rights-of-way, franchises, easements, or other property, necessary or proper for the construction or the efficient operations of any facility of the port authority and included in its official plan, if funds equal to the appraised value of the property to be acquired as the result of such proceedings shall be on hand and available for such purposes, except that:

a. Nothing contained in 56 CNCA §§ 1 to 16, inclusive, shall authorize a port authority to take or disturb property or facilities belonging to any public corporations, tribal corporations, public utility, tribal utility, or common carrier, which property or facilities are necessary and convenient in the operation of such public corporation, public utility, or common carrier, unless provision is made for the restoration, relocating, or duplication of such property or facilities, or upon the election of such public corporation, tribal corporation, public utility, tribal utility or common carrier for the payment of compensation, if any, at the sole cost of the port authority, provided that:

i. If any restoration or duplication proposed to be made hereunder shall involve a relocation of such property or facilities, the new facilities and location shall be of at least comparable utilitarian value and effectiveness and such relocation shall not impair the ability of the public utility or tribal utility or common carrier to compete in its original area of operation;

ii. If any restoration or duplication made hereunder shall involve a relocation of such property or facilities, the port authority shall acquire no interest or right in or to the appropriated property or facilities, except as provided in subsection (C) of this section, until the relocated property or facilities are available for use and until marketable title thereto has been transferred to the public utility, tribal utility, or common carrier;

iii. Provisions for restoration or duplication shall be described in detail in the resolution for appropriation passed by the port authority;

b. Nothing contained in 56 CNCA §§ 1 to 16, inclusive, shall authorize a port authority to take or disturb property held in trust status by the United States for the benefit of Cherokee Nation;

9. Maintain such funds, as it deems necessary;

10. Direct its agents or employees, when properly identified in writing, and after at least five (5) days' written notice, to enter upon lands within the confines of its jurisdiction to make surveys and examinations preliminary to location and construction of works for the purposes of the port authority, without liability of the port authority or its agents or employees except for actual damage done;

11. Subject to the laws of Cherokee Nation and federal regulations, sell or lease real and personal property not needed for the operation of the port authority and grant easements or rights-of-way over property of the port authority;

12. Promote, advertise, and publicize the port and its facilities; provide traffic information and rate information to shippers and shipping interests; appear before rate-making authorities to represent and promote the interests of the port;

13. Repay grants or loans made before the effective date of this act where the funds have been expended for a proper purpose of the authority as originally authorized.

The Board of Directors of the port authority shall prepare or otherwise make provision for the preparation of a plan for the future development, construction, and improvement of the port and its facilities. The plan shall include maps, profiles, and other data and descriptions as may be necessary to set forth the location and character of the work to be undertaken by the port authority. The Board of Directors shall file five (5) copies of the plan with the Office of the Principal Chief, the Secretary of State and Secretary of Commerce and Industry of Cherokee Nation. The plan shall be available for inspection at their office by all persons interested. The plan shall fix a time and place for a public hearing of all objections to said plan, which shall be not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the last submission of said notice. Any interested person may file written objections to such plan, provided such objections are filed with the Secretary of the Board of Directors at his office not less than five (5) days before the date fixed for said hearing. After said hearing the Board of Directors may adopt such plan with any modifications or amendments thereto as the official plan of the port authority.

§ 10. Modification, amendment or extension of plan

The Board of Directors shall, from time to time after the adoption of said official plan, have the power to modify, amend or extend the same, provided that upon the making of any such modification, amendment or extension of it, the Board of Directors shall cause notice to be given and shall conduct a hearing, all as provided in 56 CNCA § 9. The Board shall not adopt any modification, amendment, or extension until the notice has been given and hearing held as herein provided.

§ 11. Conclusiveness and validity of plan

The plan and any modification, amendment or extension of it, when adopted by the Board of Directors after notice and hearing, shall be final and conclusive and its validity shall be conclusively presumed.

§ 12. Participation of private enterprise

The port authority shall foster and encourage the participation of private enterprise in the development of the port facilities. Private sector activity, to the fullest extent the Board deems practicable, limits the necessity of construction and operation of such facilities by the port authority. For this purpose the port authority may upon a written request by any person, partnership, or corporation, filed with the Secretary of the Board of Directors within thirty (30) days following the notice of the adoption of an official plan as provided in 56 CNCA §§ 9 and 10, submit a proposal to provide, operate, and maintain any facility included in such plan, by publication of and invitation for bids therefor based upon specifications prepared by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may accept the bid of the person, partnership, or corporation it deems best qualified by financial responsibility and business experience to construct and operate such facility or facilities in accordance with its official plan.

§ 13. Prohibitions

Nothing contained in 56 CNCA §§ 1 to 16, inclusive, of this act shall:

1. Impair the provisions of law or ordinance directing the payment of revenues derived from public property into sinking funds or dedicating such revenues to specific purposes;
2. Enlarge, alter, diminish, or affect in any way, any lease or conveyance made, or action taken before the creation of a port authority by any action of the Council of Cherokee Nation;
3. Impair or interfere with the exercise of any permit for the removal of sand or gravel, or other similar lease permits approved by the Council of Cherokee Nation and executed by the Arkansas Riverbed Authority or the United States.

§ 14. Bids

A. No contract for the creation, construction, alteration, or repair of any building, structure, or other improvement undertaken by a port authority created in accordance with 56 CNCA § 4 and involving an expenditure exceeding Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500.00) shall be let. Except as otherwise provided by subsection (C) of this section, no sale of any real property or property having a fair market value exceeding Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500.00) shall be made by the port authority unless notice calling for bids for the same shall have been given by notice as provided by 56 CNCA § 3. No such contract shall be let except to the lowest and best bidder. No such sale shall be made except to the highest and best bidder. For any sale of land by the port authority requiring competitive bids, specifications for the bids for such sale shall be in such form and detail as shall be determined by the port authority.

B. Competitive bids shall not be required for the sale of real property or property by a port authority if:

1. Such real property or property is to be sold for industrial development purposes;
2. The real property or property was acquired by the port authority for industrial development purposes; and
3. The contract for the sale of such real property or property has been approved by the Board of Directors of such port authority.

Every contract let shall be in writing, and if the same involves work or construction, it shall be accompanied by or shall refer to plans and specifications for the work to be done, prepared for and approved by the port authority, signed by the Chairman of the port authority and by the contractor, and shall be executed in triplicate.

§ 15. Budget—Disposition of rents and charges

A. The Board of Directors of a port authority created in accordance with 56 CNCA § 4 shall annually prepare a budget for the port authority.

B. Rents and charges received by the port authority shall be used for the general expenses of the port authority and to pay interest, amortization, and retirement charges on money borrowed.

At the end of any calendar year, any surplus of funds remains after providing for the above uses; the Board of Directors may pay such surplus into the general funds of Cherokee Nation in proportion to the taxable value of all property within the port authority.

§ 16. Bond of Secretary—Deposit of funds—Disbursements

Before receiving any monies, the Secretary of a port authority created in accordance with 56 CNCA § 4 shall furnish a bond in such amounts as shall be determined by the port authority, with sureties satisfactory to it. All funds coming into the hands of the Secretary shall be deposited by him to the account of the port authority in one or more such depositories as shall be qualified to receive deposits, which deposits shall be secured in the same manner as Cherokee Nation funds are required to be secured. No disbursements shall be made from such funds except in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the port authority.

CHAPTER 2

BONDS

§ 21. Authorization for port authority to borrow money and issue bonds

For the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of acquiring land or interests therein, and the cost of constructing, acquiring, equipping, and furnishing buildings, structures, plants, docks, wharves, warehouses, piers and other port, terminal and transportation facilities, or any part thereof; including additions, improvements, relocations, renovations, extensions and modifications thereof; (all of which are included in a single project are hereafter referred to in this act as "facility or facilities"), a port authority is authorized to borrow money upon credit of the income and revenues to be derived from the operation of such facilities, together with any other available income and revenues from other revenue-producing facilities of the port authority, and to issue negotiable bonds in such amounts as the Board of Directors of the port authority shall deem necessary for the purpose; and to provide for payment of such bonds and rights of holders thereof as herein provided.

§ 22. Terms, maturities, form, etc. of bonds

Bonds authorized by this act may be issued in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times not exceeding forty (40) years from their date, may be in such denominations and in such form, either coupon or registered, may carry such registration and conversion privileges, may be executed in such manner, may be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, may be subject to such terms of redemption with or without premium, and may bear such rate of interest, not exceeding five percent (5%) per annum, as may be provided by official resolution of the Board of Directors of such port authority.

Such bonds may be sold in such manner and at such price or prices, not less than par plus accrued interest to date of delivery, as provided in 56 CNCA § 29, but interest cost to maturity for bonds issued hereunder shall not exceed five percent (5%) per annum, computed on the basis of average maturities according to standard tables of bond values.

§ 23. Bonds issued pursuant to loan or purchase agreement with United States government

In the event any issue or series of bonds is issued under authority of this act pursuant to a loan agreement or bond purchase agreement with any agency of the United States government, then and in that event, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Board of Directors of the port authority may in any resolution authorizing bonds hereunder provide for the initial issuance of one or more bonds (in this section called "bond") aggregating the amount of the entire issue; and may arrange for installment payments of the principal amount of any such bond as it may consider desirable; and may provide for the making of any such bond payable to the bearer or otherwise, registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest, and where interest accruing thereon is not represented by interest coupons, for the endorsing of payments of interest on such bond. The Board of Directors of the port authority may further make provision in any such resolution for the manner and circumstances under which any such bond may in the future, at the request of the holder thereof, be converted into bonds of smaller denominations, which bonds of smaller denominations may in turn be either coupon bonds or bonds registrable as to principal or principal and interest

§ 24. Exemption from taxation—One bond issue for more than one project or facility— Payment from combined revenues

Bonds issued hereunder shall not be subject to taxation by the State of Oklahoma, or by any county, municipality or political subdivision thereof. The Board of Directors of a port authority may in its discretion authorize one (1) issue of bonds hereunder for the acquisition, construction, relocation, improvement, extension, addition, furnishing or equipping of more than one building, structure, project or facility, as herein defined, and may make said bonds payable from the combined revenues of all such buildings and facilities so constructed, acquired, improved, extended, furnished or equipped, in whole or in part, with the proceeds of such bonds; together with revenues from the operation of any existing revenue-producing buildings or facilities. If more than one series of bonds shall be issued hereunder, payable from the revenues of such buildings and facilities, priority of a lien thereof as to such revenues shall be as prescribed by proceedings authorizing the issuance of such respective bond issues. It shall be within the discretion of the Board of Directors of the port authority at the time the first series of bonds is authorized, to provide that subsequent series of bonds payable from the same revenues, in whole or in part, shall not be issued; or that subsequent series of bonds shall be subordinate as to a lien; or that subsequent series of bonds shall enjoy parity of a lien upon such conditions and restrictions as are specified therein.

§ 25. Refunding bonds

The Board of Directors of a port authority may issue bonds hereunder for the purpose of refunding any bonds or other obligations of the port authority theretofore issued pursuant to this act; or it may authorize a single issue of bonds hereunder for the purpose in part of refunding such previous obligations and in part for the making of additions, improvements and extensions to such buildings and facilities, or the construction and acquisition of additional buildings and facilities, and furnishing and equipping thereof.

Where bonds are issued under this paragraph solely for refunding purposes, such bonds either may be sold as provided in 56 CNCA § 33 or may be exchanged for outstanding obligations. If sold, the proceeds either may be applied to payment of obligations refunded or may be deposited in escrow for the retirement thereof. All refunding bonds issued under this section shall in all respects be authorized, issued and secured in the manner provided for other bonds issued under this act and shall have all attributes of such bonds. The Board of Directors may provide that any such refunding bonds shall have the same priority of a lien on the revenues pledged for their payment as was provided for obligations refunded thereby.

§ 26. Bonds as special obligation of port authority concerned

No provision of this act shall be construed to authorize the pledge or use of any appropriated funds of Cherokee Nation, or any other tax revenues, for the payment or security of any bonds issued pursuant to this act. No bonds issued under provisions of this act shall become a debt or obligation of Cherokee Nation, nor shall the faith and credit of Cherokee Nation be pledged in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, for the payment of such bonds, or interest thereon.

Bonds issued under this act shall not be an indebtedness of any county or counties, or any municipal corporation or municipal corporations, which shall have created or joined in the formation of the port authority issuing the same. All bonds issued pursuant to this act shall be special obligations of the port authority concerned, payable solely from the revenues of the buildings and facilities referred to therein. Such bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither Cherokee Nation, nor, in the instance of a joint authority, shall any county or a municipal corporation concerned be obligated to pay the same, or the interest thereon, except from revenues of such facilities; and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of Cherokee Nation or any political subdivision of the state is pledged or may hereafter be pledged to the payment of principal of or interest on such bonds.

§ 27. Powers of Board of Directors in connection with payment of principal and interest

The Board of Directors of a port authority issuing bonds pursuant to the provisions of this act is authorized to pledge for the payment of principal of or interest on such bonds, all or any part of the revenues to be derived from the management and operation of the buildings and facilities for the construction, acquisition or improvement of which the bonds are issued; together with any other available income and revenues from revenue-producing facilities of such port authority. In order to secure prompt payment of the principal and interest, and the proper application of revenues pledged thereto, the Board of Directors of such port authority is authorized by appropriate resolution:

1. To covenant as to the use and disposition of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds;
2. To covenant as to the operation of facilities and buildings and the collection and disposition of the revenues derived from such operation;
3. To covenant as to the rights, liabilities, powers and duties arising from the breach of any covenant or agreement into which it may enter in authorizing and issuing the bonds;
4. To covenant and agree to carry such insurance on the buildings and facilities, and the use and occupancy thereof as may be considered desirable and, in its discretion, to provide that the cost of such insurance shall be considered a part of the expense of operating the buildings and facilities;
5. To vest in a trustee or trustees the right to receive all or any part of the income and revenues pledged and assigned to or for the benefit of the holder or holders of bonds issued hereunder and to hold, apply and dispose of the same, and the right to enforce any covenant made to secure the bonds; and to execute and deliver a trust agreement or agreements which may set forth the powers and duties and the remedies available to such trustee or trustees and may limit the liabilities thereof and prescribe the terms and conditions upon which such trustee or trustees or the holder or holders of the bonds in any specified amount or percentage may exercise such rights and enforce any or all such covenants and resort to such remedies as may be appropriate;
6. To fix rents, charges and fees to be imposed in connection with and for the use of the buildings, services and facilities of such port authority, which rents, charges and fees shall be considered to be income and revenues derived from the operation of the buildings and facilities, and are hereby expressly required to be fully sufficient to assure the prompt payment of principal and interest on the bonds as each becomes due, and to make and enforce such rules and regulations with reference to the use of the buildings and facilities, as it may deem desirable for the accomplishment of the purposes of this act;

7. To covenant to maintain a maximum percentage of use and occupancy of the buildings and facilities for revenue producing purposes;

8. To covenant against the issuance of any other obligations payable from the revenues to be derived from the buildings and facilities; and to covenant as to priority of resort to such revenues between obligations of such port authority.

All such agreements and covenants entered into by the Board of Directors of such port authority shall be binding upon the Board and the authority, its agents and employees, and upon its successors in interest; and all such agreements and covenants shall be enforceable by appropriate action or suit at law or in equity, which may be brought by any holder or holders of bonds issued hereunder or in their behalf.

§ 28. Agreements or contracts with United States

The Board of Directors of a port authority may enter into any agreement or contract with the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof which it may consider advisable or necessary in order to obtain a grant of funds, a contract for purchase of its bonds, or any other aid or assistance in connection with the construction, addition, furnishing and equipping of any building or facility as herein defined.

§ 29. Segregation and use of proceeds from bond sales—Construction contracts

The proceeds to be derived from the sale of bonds herein authorized shall be segregated and used solely for the purpose for which the bonds are authorized. The Board of Directors of a port authority is authorized to make any contracts and execute all instruments which in its discretion may be deemed necessary or advisable to provide for the construction, furnishing and equipping of any building or facility as herein defined.

§ 30. Approval of bonds by Treasurer—Incontestability

All bonds issued hereunder shall contain the required certificates under the laws of Cherokee Nation. Such bonds shall be submitted to the Treasurer for examination, and when such bonds have been examined and certified as legal obligations of the issuing Authority by the Treasurer in accordance with such requirements as he may make, the same shall be incontestable in any court in Cherokee Nation unless suit thereon shall be brought in a court having jurisdiction thereof within thirty (30) days from the date of such approval.

§ 31. Lawful securities for investments

Bonds issued under the provisions of this act are hereby made securities in which all banks, trust companies, trust and loan associations, investment companies, and others carrying on a banking business; all insurance companies and insurance agencies and others carrying on an insurance business, may lawfully invest funds, including capital funds, under their control or belonging to them, providing such bonds shall not be used by any depository as security for any Cherokee Nation funds.

§ 32. Interim notes and conditions of issue

Whenever the Board of Directors of a port authority shall have adopted a resolution authorizing the issuance of any series of bonds hereunder and said bonds have been sold but prior to the time as of which the bonds can be delivered, the Board of Directors of a port authority finds it necessary to borrow money for the purpose for which the bonds were authorized, such Board of Directors may, by appropriate resolution, authorize the borrowing of money in anticipation of the issuance of the bonds, and the issuance of the note or notes of the Board of Directors to evidence such borrowing. The amount so borrowed shall not exceed the principal amount of the bonds and shall not bear interest at a rate exceeding the average interest rate of the bonds. Such note or notes shall be signed in the manner prescribed by the Board of Directors and shall be made payable at such time or times as the Board of Directors may prescribe, not later than one (1) year from their respective dates and may be renewed from time to time by the issuance of new notes hereunder. The proceeds of any loan made under this section shall be devoted exclusively to the purpose for which the bonds shall have been authorized and the note or notes and the interest thereon shall be paid with the proceeds of the bonds simultaneously with the delivery of the bonds. If for any reason the bonds shall not be issued, the holder or holders of the notes shall be entitled to all rights which would have been enjoyed by the holders of the bonds had they been issued; and the notes shall be paid from the revenues provided for the payment of the bonds, and shall be entitled to the benefit of all covenants, agreements and rights appearing in the resolution authorizing the bonds for the benefit of the bonds.

§ 33. Public bids for bonds sold

All bonds sold hereunder shall be awarded to the best bidder, based upon an open competitive public offering. Notice of sale of such bonds shall be advertised at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the time of receiving bids and said notice shall appear at least once a week for two (2) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in Cherokee Nation where the principal office of the port authority is located. No bonds shall be sold for less than par value.

Contracts for construction, labor, equipment, material, or repairs in excess of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) shall be awarded by the port authority to the lowest and best competitive bidder, pursuant to public invitations to bid, which shall be published in the manner provided in the preceding section hereof. Such advertisements shall appear in the county where the principal office of the port authority is located. Provided, however, should the port authority find that an immediate emergency exists, which findings shall be entered in the minutes of said port authority, by reason of which an expenditure in an amount exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) is necessary in order to avoid loss of life, substantial damage to property, or damage to the public peace or safety, then such contracts may be made and entered into without public notice or competitive bids.

§ 34. Trustees—Oath of office—Fidelity bond

Any trustee, as provided herein, first shall take the oath of office required of an elected public officer and shall be under a good and sufficient fidelity bond, to be approved by the Treasurer, in a surety company authorized to transact surety business in Cherokee Nation. The cost of said bond shall be paid from funds of the revenue bonds. Any person authorized to administer oaths in Cherokee Nation shall administer the oaths of office.

§ 35. Meetings and records of authority open to public

After the effective date of this act meetings of an organized port authority shall be open to the public to the same extent as is required by law of other public boards and commissions. All records of said authority shall be public records and shall be kept in a place, the location of which shall be listed in the Office of the Principal Chief.

§ 36. Limitation on liability of trustee or beneficiary

No trustee or beneficiary shall be charged with any liability whatsoever by reason of any act or omission committed or suffered in the performance of such trust or in the operation of the trust property, except for willful or grossly negligent breach of trust; provided, however, any act, liability for any omission, or obligation of a trustee or trustees, in the execution of such trust or in the operation of the trust property, shall extend to the whole of the trust estate or so much thereof as may be necessary to discharge such liability or obligation and not otherwise.

PRISONS AND REFORMATORIES

CHAPTER 1

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRATION AND NOTIFICATION

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.

§ 2. Purpose—Findings—Legislative intent

A. The Council finds that repeat sex offenders, sexual offenders who use physical violence or duress, and sex offenders who prey on children, the elderly, and the mentally impaired are sex offenders who present an extreme threat to the public safety and pose a high risk of re-offending after release from custody. The Council further finds that the privacy interest of persons adjudicated guilty of these crimes is less important than the Nation's compelling interest in public safety. Sex offenders are extremely likely to use physical violence and to repeat their offenses, and most sex offenders commit many offenses, have many more victims than are ever reported, and are prosecuted for only a fraction of their crimes. This makes the cost of sex offender victimization to society at large, while incalculable, extremely high. The Council also finds that federal crime statistics show that one out of every three Native American women is raped in her lifetime. Moreover, Native American women experience 7 sexual assaults per 1,000, compared with 4 per 1,000 among Blacks, 3 per 1,000 among Caucasians, 2 per 1,000 among Hispanics, and 1 per 1,000 among Asian–American women.

B. The high level of threat that a sex offender presents to the public safety, and the long-term effects suffered by victims of sex offenses, provide the Nation with sufficient justification to implement a strategy that includes:

1. Requiring the registration of sex offenders, with a requirement that complete and accurate information be maintained and accessible for use by law enforcement authorities, communities, and the public.
2. Providing for community and public notification concerning the presence of sex offenders.
3. Prohibiting sex offenders from working with children or the elderly, either for compensation or as a volunteer.

C. The Nation has a compelling interest in protecting the public from sex offenders and in protecting children and the elderly from predatory sexual activity, and there is sufficient justification for requiring sex offenders to register and for requiring community and public notification of the presence of sex offenders. Further, the Nation's control over internal relations is effected by the presence of sex offenders within the community and the regulation of such individuals is necessary to protect the health and welfare of the Nation's citizens.

D. It is the purpose of the Council that, upon the court's written finding in a civil proceeding that an individual is a sex offender with a relationship to the community, in order to protect the public, it is necessary that the sex offender be registered with the Marshal Service and that members of the community and the public be notified of the sex offender's presence in the community. The designation of a person as a sex offender is neither a sentence nor a punishment but simply a status designation.

E. By adopting the simple remedy of providing information regarding convictions for sex offenses to the public, the Nation assists communities in being better able to protect themselves through their increased awareness.

F. It is the intent of the Council to address the problem of sex offenders by;

1. Requiring sex offenders to register with the Marshal, as provided in this Act; and
2. Requiring community and public notification of the presence of a sex offender, as provided in this Act.

G. The Council further declares that it is the policy of the Nation to require the exchange, in accordance with this Act, of relevant information about sex offenders among public agencies and officials and to authorize the release in accordance with this Act of necessary and relevant information about sex offenders to members of the general public as a means of assuring public protection and that the exchange or release of that information is not punitive.

H. It is also the intent of the legislature to address the mandate of the United States that Indian tribes comply with federal law requiring tribal registration of sex offenders living, working, or attending school within their jurisdictions or to lose tribal jurisdiction over such registration to the state should the tribe fail to comply, as provided in Section 127 of the Adam Walsh Act (PL 109–248, July 27, 2006). The regulation of sex offenders thereby directly effects the political integrity of the Nation and regulation of such individuals directly effects tribal self-government.

I. The Cherokee Nation Marshal Service is authorized hereby to contract or enter any memorandum of understanding or agreement with any other agency of any government or with private contractors to complete any of the duties assigned by this Act to the Marshal Service, or as necessary to comply with the federal Adam Walsh Act (PL–109–248, July 27, 2006). In any case where such a contract or agreement requires a waiver of sovereign immunity by the Cherokee Nation, the Principal Chief is hereby authorized to sign such waiver without seeking a resolution from the Cherokee Nation Council.

§ 3. Definitions

As used in this act, the term:

1. "Adam Walsh Act" means the federal legislation embodied in PL 109–248 (July 27, 2006) and any subsequent amendments thereto.
2. "Aggravated sex offender" means any person who has received a conviction for a crime, including a deferred sentence imposed in violation of 22 CNCA § 991C, for a crime provided for in 21 CNCA § 843 if the offense involved sexual abuse or sexual exploitation as these terms are defined in that section, or any of 21 CNCA § 885, 1111, 1123, or 1123.1.
3. "Change in enrollment or employment status" means the commencement or termination of enrollment or employment or a change in location of enrollment or employment.
4. "Cherokee Nation Indian Country" means any trust or restricted lands within the Indian Territory that were ceded by the United States to the Cherokee Nation pursuant to the Treaties of May 6, 1828, February 14, 1833, and December 29, 1835, 7 Stat. 478, the Indian Removal Act of 1830, 4 Stat. 411, and the fee patent executed by President Martin Van Buren on December 31, 1838, diminished only by sales under the Acts of February 28, 1877, 19 Stat. 265, June 2, 1886, 24 Stat. 121, March 3, 1893, ch. 209, 27 Stat. 612, 645, and Proclamation No. 5, 20 Stat. 1222 (1893), or as otherwise determined by federal law or courts of competent jurisdiction including those lands later acquired or acknowledged through federal action or court decision.

5. "Conviction" means a determination of guilt which is the result of a trial or the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, regardless of whether adjudication is withheld. A conviction includes receipt of a suspended sentence or any probationary term, and includes those for which an individual is currently serving a sentence or any form of probation or parole including receipt of a deferred sentence imposed in violation of 22 CNCA § 991c. A conviction includes, but is not limited to, a conviction by a federal or military tribunal, including courts-martial conducted by the Armed Forces of the United States, and includes a conviction or entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere resulting in a sanction by a state, the United States, or an acceptable foreign jurisdiction. A sanction includes, but is not limited to, a fine, probation, community control, parole, conditional release, control release, or incarceration in a state prison, federal prison, private correctional facility, or local detention facility. A conviction shall also include court-ordered civil commitment. A sanction is by an acceptable foreign jurisdiction if it is by Canada, Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, or any foreign jurisdiction for which the United States State Department in its Country Reports on Human Rights Practices has concluded that an independent judiciary generally enforced the right to a fair trial in that country during the year in which the conviction occurred. For purposes of this act with respect to juvenile offenders, a conviction shall include only: (1) a conviction of a juvenile who has been certified as an adult, or (2) an adjudication of delinquency of a juvenile aged fourteen (14) years or over when the adjudication was for (a) a crime involving a sexual act with another by force or the threat of serious violence, or (b) a crime involving a sexual act with another by rendering the victim unconscious or by involuntarily drugging the victim, provided that no other conviction of a juvenile or adjudication of a juvenile as delinquent shall be considered a conviction for purposes of this Act. To the extent that such information is considered confidential by any other law, such information shall be made public pursuant to this act.

6. "Electronic mail address" means a destination, commonly expressed as a string of characters, to which electronic mail may be sent or delivered.

7. "Entering the Nation" includes but is not limited to being discharged from a correctional facility or jail or secure treatment facility after imprisonment by order of Cherokee Nation Courts or being under supervision within the Nation for the commission of a violation enumerated in 57 CNCA § 4.

8. "Habitual sex offender" means any person who has received a conviction for any crime or an attempt to commit a crime listed in 57 CNCA § 4(A)(1) or (A)(3) and who subsequently receives another conviction of a crime or an attempt to commit a crime listed in 57 CNCA § 4(A)(1) or (A)(3) or who has received a third conviction for any crime or an attempt to commit a crime listed in 57 CNCA § 4(A)(2).

9. "Instant message name" means an identifier that allows a person to communicate in real time with another person using the Internet.

10. "Institution of higher education" means a career center, community college, college, state university, or independent postsecondary institution.

11. "Marshal" or "the Marshal" means the "office of Marshal" as created by the 1999 Cherokee Nation Constitution, Article VII, § 14.

12. "Marshal Service" means the executive branch agency developed, managed, directed, and overseen by the Marshal.

13. "Nation" means the Cherokee Nation.

14. "Other jurisdiction" means a state, the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, or any foreign jurisdiction for which the United States State Department in its Country Reports on Human Rights Practices has concluded that an independent judiciary generally enforced the right to a fair trial in that country during the year in which the conviction occurred.

15. "Residence" or "resides" means any place where the person has a home, or any place where a person lives for five (5) or more consecutive days, or seven (7) cumulative days in any sixty-day (60-day) period, or an aggregate period of thirty (30) days or more in a calendar year.

16. "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, a federally-recognized Indian tribe, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Northern Mariana Islands, or the United States Virgin Islands.

17. "Student" shall mean an individual who enrolls in or attends an educational institution, including a public or private secondary school, trade or professional school, or an institution of higher education.

18. "Work" shall include self-employment or any employment for an entity whether compensated or not.

§ 4. Persons and crimes to which act applies

A. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act shall apply to any individual designated as a sex offender. The designation of sex offender shall be given to any person residing, working or attending school within Cherokee Nation who:

1. Has, regardless of the date on which the offense or conviction occurred, received a conviction for a first offense for a crime or an attempt to commit a crime or conspiracy to commit a crime provided for in:

a. 21 CNCA § 535 if the offense involved the detention of a minor;

b. 21 CNCA § 681 if the offense involved sexual assault;

c. 21 CNCA § 741 if the offense involved sexual abuse or sexual exploitation and the offender is not the parent;

d. 21 CNCA § 843 if the offense involved sexual abuse or sexual exploitation as those terms are defined in that section;

e. 21 CNCA § 843.1 or 843.3 if the offense involved sexual abuse or sexual exploitation;

f. 21 CNCA § 1021(A)(3), 1021(A)(4), 1021(B), 1021.2, 1021.3, 1024.2, 1040.8, or 1040.13 if the offense involved child pornography;

g. 21 CNCA § 866, 885, 886, or 891 if the offense involved sexual abuse or sexual exploitation; or

h. 21 CNCA § 1040.13a, 1087, 1088, 1111, 1123, 1123.1 or 1171; or

2. Has, regardless of the date on which the offense or conviction occurred, received a conviction for a second offense for a crime or for an attempt to commit a crime or for conspiracy to commit a crime provided for in 21 CNCA § 1021(A)(1) or 1021(A)(2); or

3. Has, regardless of the date on which the offense or conviction occurred, received a conviction for a federal offense committed on Cherokee Nation Indian Country for a crime or for an attempt to commit a crime or for conspiracy to commit a crime provided for in 18 U.S.C. § 1591, 1801, 2241, 2242, 2243, 2244, 2245, 2251, 2251A, 2252, 2252A, 2252B, 2252C, 2260, 2421, 2422, 2423, 2424, 2425, or any other federal crime for which the United States Attorney General or the Adam Walsh Act require registration as a sex offender.

B. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act shall apply:

1. To any person who is convicted of a crime, an attempt to commit a crime, or a conspiracy to commit a crime enumerated in subsection (A) of this section in the Courts of Cherokee Nation; and

2. To any person who is convicted of a crime, an attempt to commit a crime, or a conspiracy to commit a crime enumerated in subsection (A) of this section in a federal court for a crime committed in Cherokee Nation Indian Country; and

3. To any person who resides, works or attends school within Cherokee Nation and who has received a conviction for a crime, an attempt to commit a crime, or a conspiracy to commit a crime which if committed or attempted in Cherokee Nation, would be one of those crimes enumerated in subsection (A) of this section or an attempt of one of those as enumerated in subsection (A) of this section. For military offenses, the crimes for which an individual must register pursuant to this act shall be those specified by the Secretary of Defense under section 115(a)(8)(C)(i) of Public Law 105–119.

C. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act shall not apply to any such person while the person is incarcerated or civilly committed.

§ 5. Tiering

A person subject to sex offender registration in Cherokee Nation shall be assigned a tier based on the considerations enumerated in 57 CNCA §§ 5.1 through 5.3, inclusive.

§ 5.1. Tier I offenses

A. Sex offenses. A "Tier I" offense includes any sex offense, for which a person has been convicted, or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense that is not a "Tier II" or "Tier III" offense.

B. Offenses involving minors. A "Tier I" offense also includes any offense for which a person has been convicted by any jurisdiction, local government, or qualifying foreign country pursuant to Section 2.02(C) that involves the false imprisonment of a minor, video voyeurism of a minor, or possession or receipt of child pornography.

C. Tribal offenses. Any sex offense covered by this act where punishment was limited to one (1) year in jail shall be considered a "Tier I" sex offense.

D. Certain federal offenses. Conviction for any of the following federal offenses or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense shall be considered a conviction for a "Tier I" offense:

1. 18 U.S.C. § 1801 (video voyeurism of a minor);
2. 18 U.S.C. § 2252 (receipt or possession of child pornography);
3. 18 U.S.C. § 2252A (receipt or possession of child pornography);
4. 18 U.S.C. § 2252B (misleading domain names on the internet);
5. 18 U.S.C. § 2252C (misleading words or digital images on the internet);
6. 18 U.S.C. § 2422(a) (coercion to engage in prostitution);
7. 18 U.S.C. § 2423(b) (travel with the intent to engage in illicit conduct);
8. 18 U.S.C. § 2423(c) (engaging in illicit conduct in foreign places);
9. 18 U.S.C. § 2423(d) (arranging, inducing procuring or facilitating the travel in interstate commerce of an adult for the purpose of engaging in illicit conduct for financial gain);
10. 18 U.S.C. § 2424 (failure to file factual statement about an alien individual); or
11. 18 U.S.C. § 2425 (transmitting information about a minor to further criminal sexual conduct).

Certain military offenses. Any military offense specified by the Secretary of Defense under section 115(a)(8)(C)(i) of Public Law 105–119 (codified at 10 U.S.C. § 951 note) that is similar to those offenses outlined in Section 3.01 (A), (B), or (C) shall be considered a "Tier I" offense.

§ 5.2. Tier II offenses

A. Recidivism and felonies. Unless otherwise covered by 57 CNCA § 5.3, any sex offense that is not the first sex offense for which a person has been convicted or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense and that is punishable by more than one (1) year in jail is considered a "Tier II" offense.

B. Offenses involving minors. A "Tier II" offense includes any sex offense against a minor for which a person has been convicted, or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense that involves:

1. The use of minors in prostitution, including solicitations;
2. Enticing a minor to engage in criminal sexual activity;
3. A non-forcible sexual act with a minor sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years old;
4. Sexual contact with a minor thirteen (13) years of age or older, whether directly or indirectly through the clothing, that involves the intimate parts of the body;
5. The use of a minor in a sexual performance; or
6. The production or distribution of child pornography.

C. Certain federal offenses. Conviction for any of the following federal offenses or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense shall be considered a conviction for a "Tier II" offense:

1. 18 U.S.C. § 1591 (sex trafficking by force, fraud, or coercion);
2. 18 U.S.C. § 2423(d) (arranging, inducing procuring or facilitating the travel in interstate commerce of a minor for the purpose of engaging in illicit conduct for financial gain);
3. 18 U.S.C. § 2244 (Abusive sexual contact, where the victim is 13 years of age or older);
4. 18 U.S.C. § 2251 (sexual exploitation of children);
5. 18 U.S.C. § 2251A (selling or buying of children);
6. 18 U.S.C. § 2252 (material involving the sexual exploitation of a minor);
7. 18 U.S.C. § 2252A (production or distribution of material containing child pornography);

8. 18 U.S.C. § 2260 (production of sexually explicit depictions of a minor for import into the United States);

9. 18 U.S.C. § 2421 (transportation of a minor for illegal sexual activity);

10. 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b) (coercing a minor to engage in prostitution);

11. 18 U.S.C. § 2423(a) (transporting a minor to engage in illicit conduct).

D. Certain military offenses. Any military offense specified by the Secretary of Defense under section 115(a)(8)(C)(i) of Public Law 105–119 (codified at 10 U.S.C. § 951 note) that is similar to those offenses outlined in Section 3.02(A), (B), or (C) shall be considered a "Tier II" offense.

§ 5.3. Tier II Offenses

A. Recidivism and felonies. Any sex offense that is punishable by more than one year in jail where the offender has at least one (1) prior conviction or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense for a Tier II sex offense, or has previously become a Tier II sex offender, is a "Tier III" offense.

B. General offenses. A "Tier III" offense includes any sex offense, for which a person has been convicted, or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense that involves:

1. Non-parental kidnapping of a minor;

2. A sexual act with another by force or threat;

3. A sexual act with another who has been rendered unconscious or involuntarily drugged, or who is otherwise incapable of appraising the nature of the conduct or declining to participate; or

4. Sexual contact with a minor twelve (12) years of age or younger, including offenses that cover sexual touching of or contact with the intimate parts of the body, either directly or through the clothing.

C. Certain federal offenses. Conviction for any of the following federal offenses shall be considered conviction for a "Tier III" offense:

1. 18 U.S.C. § 2241 (aggravated sexual abuse);

2. 18 U.S.C. § 2242 (sexual abuse);

3. 18 U.S.C. § 2243 (sexual abuse of a minor or ward);

4. Where the victim is twelve (12) years of age or younger, 18 U.S.C. § 2244 (abusive sexual contact).

Certain military offenses. Any military offense specified by the Secretary of Defense under section 115(a)(8)(C)(i) of Public Law 105–119 (codified at 10 U.S.C. § 951 note) that is similar to those offenses outlined in Section 3.03(A), (B), or (C) shall be considered a "Tier III" offense.

§ 6. Designation as sex offender—Determination of offender's tier level

A. When an offender who meets the sex offender criteria described in 57 CNCA § 4 is before the Court for sentencing for a current offense, regardless of whether or not the individual is sentenced to a term of incarceration, receives a suspended sentence or any probationary term, including a deferred sentence imposed in violation of 22 CNCA § 991c, the Court must, as near as possible to the time of pronouncing the judgment and sentence, hold a separate civil hearing to designate the individual as a sex offender to whom this act applies. At the designation hearing, the Court shall:

1. Designate the person as a sex offender;
2. Make a determination of the tier level pursuant to 57 CNCA § 5 and assign to the person a tier level of I, II, or III;
3. Notify the person of the obligation to register as a sex offender as provided for in 57 CNCA § 7;
4. Notify the Marshal Service of the order of designation within twenty-four (24) hours. The Marshal Service shall ensure that the sex offender's fingerprints and palm prints are taken and registration information is collected within seventy-two (72) hours after receipt of the Court's written sex offender designation and findings; and
5. Notify the individual of the requirements of registration and community and public notification requirements under this act.

B. If the offender is sentenced to a term of imprisonment or supervision, a copy of the Court's written sex offender finding must be submitted to the facility where the offender will be incarcerated.

C. The Clerk of the Court that convicts and sentences a sex offender for the offense or offenses requiring registration under this act shall forward to the Marshal Service a certified copy of any order entered by the Court imposing any special condition or restriction on the sex offender which restricts or prohibits access to the victim or to minors.

D. If any person or agency obtains information which indicates that an individual who lives, works, or attends school in Cherokee Nation Indian Country, or who has received a conviction for a crime in Cherokee Nation Indian Country enumerated in 57 CNCA § 4 prior to the passage of this act, meets the sex offender criteria but that no jurisdiction, including Cherokee Nation, has made a written finding that the offender is a sex offender, such person or agency shall notify the Attorney General's Office. The Attorney General's Office shall file a civil petition with the District Court of Cherokee Nation requesting that the individual be designated as a sex offender. The Court shall hold a hearing to determine if the offender's criminal record meets the sex offender criteria of this act. If the Court finds that the offender meets the sex offender criteria because the offender has received a conviction for a violation of a law or laws enumerated in or similar to those listed in 57 CNCA § 4, the Court shall:

1. Designate the person as a sex offender;
2. Make a determination of the tier level of the person pursuant to 57 CNCA § 5 and assign to the person a tier level of I, II, or III;
3. Make a determination as to the remaining duration of registration for any Tier I or Tier II offender calculating the beginning of registration from the date of the individual's conviction for those who were not subject to incarceration for the offense or based on the release from custody for those subject to incarceration for the offense and providing;
4. Notify the person of the obligation to register as a sex offender as provided for in 57 CNCA § 7;
5. Notify the Marshal Service of the order of designation within twenty-four (24) hours. The Marshal Service shall ensure that the sex offender's fingerprints and palm prints are taken and registration information is collected within seventy-two (72) hours after receipt of the Court's written sex offender designation and findings; and
6. Notify the individual of the requirements of registration and community and public notification requirements under this act.

If the Attorney General's Office fails to establish that an offender meets the sex offender criteria under this section, and the Court does not make a written finding that an offender is a sex offender, the offender is not required to register with the Marshal Service as a sex offender. The Marshal Service, the Attorney General's Office, or any other law enforcement agency shall not administratively designate an offender as a sex offender without a written finding from the Court that the offender is a sex offender. The Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and Attorney General's Office shall make every effort to register all such offenders as soon as practicable; for such offenders who are currently incarcerated, under supervision or otherwise remaining in the criminal justice system within Cherokee Nation as quickly as possible and shall attempt to register such Tier III offenders within ninety (90) days of, such Tier II offenders within six (6) months of, and such Tier I offenders within one (1) year of the passage of this Act.

E. A person who resides, works, or attends school in Cherokee Nation Indian Country and who has not been designated as a sex offender by Cherokee Nation District Court but who has been designated as a sexual predator, as a sexually violent predator, or by another sexual offender designation in any federal, state, military, tribal or other jurisdiction and was, as a result of such designation, subjected to registration or community or public notification, or both, or would be if the person was a resident of that jurisdiction, without regard to whether the person otherwise meets the criteria for registration as a sex offender, shall register in the manner provided in this act and shall be subject to community and public notification as provided in this act. A person who meets the criteria of this subsection is subject to the requirements and penalty provisions of this act until the person provides the Marshal Service with an order issued by the court or government entity that designated the person as a sexual predator, as a sexually violent predator, or by another sexual offender designation in the federal, military, tribal, state, or other jurisdiction in which the order was issued, which states that such designation has been removed or demonstrates to the Marshal Service that such designation, if not imposed by a court, has been removed by operation of law or court order in the federal, military, state, tribal or other jurisdiction in which the designation was made, and provided such person no longer meets the criteria for registration as a sex offender under the laws of Cherokee Nation.

§ 7. Registration—Time limits—Duration—Petition for release from registration requirement—Information to be provided to offender

A. Any person who meets the definition of sex offender as set forth in this act shall register, in person, as follows:

1. With the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service:

a. if the person is not incarcerated, within one (1) business day of receiving a conviction including a deferred sentence imposed in violation of 22 CNCA § 991c, or

b. not less than ten (10) business days prior to the release of the person from incarceration, except as provided in subsection (B) of this section; and

2. With the local law enforcement authority having jurisdiction in the area where the person resides or intends to reside either temporarily or permanently. The registration is required within three (3) business days after entering the jurisdiction of the local law enforcement authority;

3. With the local law enforcement authority having jurisdiction in the area where the person works or intends to work. The registration is required within three (3) business days after entering the jurisdiction of the local law enforcement authority; and

4. With the security office of the educational institution and the local law enforcement authority having jurisdiction in the area where the person is enrolled as a student either full-time or part-time. The registration is required within three (3) business days after entering the jurisdiction of the local law enforcement authority;

5. With the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and the local law enforcement authority no less than three (3) business days prior to abandoning or moving from the address of the previous registration or any change to employment or change to student status. For purposes of this section, "local law enforcement authority" means:

a. i. the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service if the person resides or intends to reside or stay on Cherokee Nation Indian Country, or

ii. the municipal police department, if the person resides or intends to reside or stay at any place outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country but within the jurisdiction of any municipality, or

iii. the county sheriff, if the person resides or intends to reside or stay at any place outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country and outside the jurisdiction of any municipality, and

b. i. the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service if the person works or intends to work at any place on Cherokee Nation Indian Country, or

ii. the municipal police department, if the person works or intends to work at any place outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country but within the jurisdiction of any municipality, or

iii. the county sheriff, if the person works or intends to work at any place outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country and outside the jurisdiction of any municipality, and

c. the police or security department of any educational institution if the person:

i. enrolls as a full-time or part-time student,

ii. is a full-time or part-time employee at an institution of higher learning, or

iii. resides or intends to reside or stay on any property owned or controlled by the institution of higher learning.

B. Any person who:

1. Has received a conviction for an offense in another jurisdiction, which offense if committed or attempted in Cherokee Nation, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses listed in 57 CNCA § 4, and

2. Who enters Cherokee Nation and who has not been designated as a sex offender by a Court of the Cherokee Nation but who has been designated as a sexual predator, as a sexually violent predator, or by another sexual offender designation in another state or jurisdiction and was, as a result of such designation, subjected to registration or community or public notification, or both, or would be if the person was a resident of that state or jurisdiction, without regard to whether the person otherwise meets the criteria for registration as a sex offender shall register, in person, as follows:

a. With the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service when:

i. the person enters and intends to be in the Nation for any purpose for five (5) consecutive days or longer, calculated beginning with the first day,

ii. has any type of full-time or part-time employment, with or without compensation for more than five (5) cumulative days in any sixty (60) day period, or

iii. is enrolled as a full-time or part-time student within Cherokee Nation. Such registration is required within three (3) business days after entering the Nation;

b. With the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service no less than three (3) business days prior to abandoning or moving from the address of the previous registration; and

C. When a person has been designated as a sex offender by Cherokee Nation District Court, the person shall be required to register as follows:

1. For a period of fifteen (15) years, if the person is a Tier I registrant;

2. For a period of twenty-five (25) years, if the person is Tier II registrant; and

3. For life, if the person is a Tier III registrant.

The registration period shall begin, (1) if the person is sentenced to incarceration for the registration offense, from the date the person is released from custody, or (2) if the person receives a non-incarcerative sentence for the registration offense, from the date the offender is sentenced. The information received pursuant to the registration with the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service required by this section shall be maintained by the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service for at least ten (10) years from the date of the last registration. Any person required to register by another jurisdiction shall be required to maintain such registration pursuant to 57 CNCA § 6(E).

D. Any person who:

1. has been assigned to the Tier I designation and who has been registered for a period of ten (10) years; or

2. has been assigned to the Tier III designation and was required to register on the basis of a juvenile delinquency adjudication and who has been registered for a period of twenty-five (25) years;

may petition the District Court for the purpose of removing the tier level and sex offender designation and allowing the person to no longer be subject to the registration requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, thereby reducing the registration period. The District Court may reduce the registration duration and lift the registration requirements for such an offender only if the offender can show by clear and convincing evidence the following:

a. The registrant has not been convicted of any offense, regardless of its designation as a misdemeanor or felony during the registration period, and

b. The registrant has successfully completed any periods of supervised release, probation, and parole without any revocation or acceleration, and

c. The registrant has successfully completed an appropriate sex offender treatment program certified by either the Attorney General of the United States or the Attorney General of Cherokee Nation.

E. When registering an individual as provided in this section the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service shall:

1. Inform the registrant of the duty to register and obtain the information required for registration as described in this section;

2. Inform the registrant that if the registrant changes address within Cherokee Nation Indian Country, the registrant shall give notice of the move and the new address to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service in writing no later than three (3) business days before the offender establishes residence or is temporarily domiciled at the new address;

3. Inform the registrant that if the registrant changes address outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country, the registrant shall give notice of the move and shall register the new address with the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and with a designated law enforcement agency in the new jurisdiction not later than ten (10) calendar days before the offender establishes residency or is temporarily domiciled in the new jurisdiction, if such jurisdiction has a registration requirement;

4. Inform the registrant that if the registrant participates in any full-time or part-time employment, outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country, with or without compensation for more than fourteen (14) cumulative days in any sixty (60) day period or an aggregate period of thirty (30) days or more in a calendar year, then the registrant has a duty to register as a sex offender in the jurisdiction where the offender is so employed;

5. Inform the registrant that if the registrant enrolls in any type of school outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country as a full-time or part-time student then the registrant has a duty to register as a sex offender in the jurisdiction where the school is found;

6. Inform the registrant that if the registrant enrolls in any school within the Cherokee Nation as a full-time or part-time student, then the registrant has a duty to register as a sex offender with both the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and the security office of the school, if any; and

7. Inform the registrant that if the registrant participates in any full-time or part-time employment at any school, with or without compensation, or participates in any vocational course or occupation at any school in Cherokee Nation, then the registrant has a duty to notify the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and the security office of the school in writing of such employment or participation at least three (3) days before commencing or upon terminating such employment or participation; and

8. Inform the registrant that if the registrant graduates, transfers, drops, terminates or otherwise changes enrollment or employment at any school in Cherokee Nation, then the registrant shall notify the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and the school security department in writing of such change in enrollment or employment within three (3) business days of the change;

9. Inform the registrant that if the registrant changes his or her name or alias, telephone or pager information, vehicle, color of vehicle or vehicle registration, or any e-mail or instant message address or other internet address or identifier, or makes plans to travel outside of the United States, the registrant must notify the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service within three (3) business days of the change;

10. Require the registrant to read and sign a form stating that the duty of the person to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act has been explained.

F. Any person who resides outside Cherokee Nation Indian Country and who has been convicted of an offense or received a deferred judgment for an offense in Cherokee Nation, or in another jurisdiction, which offense if committed or attempted in Cherokee Nation would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses listed in 57 CNCA § 4, and who is the spouse of a person living in Cherokee Nation shall be registered with the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service when the person enters and intends to be in Cherokee Nation Indian Country for any purpose for five (5) consecutive days or longer, calculated beginning with the first day or an aggregate period of five (5) days or longer in a calendar year. Such registration is required at least three (3) business days prior to entering Cherokee Nation Indian Country.

G. The duty to register as a sex offender in Cherokee Nation shall not be prevented if, at the time of registration, it is determined that the person owns or leases a residence in violation of 57 CNCA § 17.

§ 8. Required registration information—Conviction data, fingerprints and palm prints—
Notice of certain changes to registration information

A. Any registration with the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service required by the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act shall be in a form approved by the Marshal Service and shall include, at a minimum, the following information, in digitized form, about the person registering:

1. The name of the person and all aliases, pseudonyms and nicknames used or under which the person has been known, including ethnic or tribal names;

Submission to testing for individuals registering shall be within thirty (30) days of registration. Registrants who already have valid samples on file in CODIS shall not be required to submit duplicate samples for testing;

4. The offenses listed in 57 CNCA § 4 for which the person has received a conviction, where the offense was committed, where the person received the conviction, the date of the conviction, a brief description of the crime or crimes committed by the offender, and the name under which the person received the conviction;

5. All telephone numbers for fixed locations and cellular numbers, including pager numbers;

6. The name and location of each hospital or penal institution to which the person was committed for each offense listed in 57 CNCA § 4;

7. Where the person previously resided, where the person currently resides either permanently or temporarily, how long the person has resided there, how long the person expects to reside there, and how long the person expects to remain in the Cherokee Nation:

a. Addresses shall include a rural route address and a post office box.

b. A post office box shall not be provided in lieu of a physical residential address. In instances where there is no physical address, the registrant shall give a specific description to the location.

c. If the sex offender's place of residence is a motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home, the sex offender shall also provide to the Marshal Service written notice of the vehicle identification number; the license tag number; the registration number; and a description, including color scheme, of the motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home.

d. If a sex offender's place of residence is a vessel, live-aboard vessel, or houseboat, the sex offender shall also provide to the Marshal Service written notice of the hull identification number; the manufacturer's serial number; the name of the vessel, live-aboard vessel, or houseboat; the registration number; and a description, including color scheme, of the vessel, live-aboard vessel, or houseboat.

8. A description of all occupants residing with the person registering, including, but not limited to, name, date of birth, gender, relation to the person registering, and how long the occupant has resided there;

9. If the sex offender is enrolled, employed, or carrying on a vocation at an institution of higher education, the sex offender shall also provide to the Marshal Service the name, address, and county of each institution, including each campus attended, and the sex offender's enrollment or employment status;

10. The name of any entity for whom the sex offender works whether for remuneration or voluntarily or as an unpaid intern or whether the person is self-employed, the position held by the sex offender, and the address where the sex offender will work or, if not a fixed location, as definite a description of the work location as is possible;

11. All professional licenses held by the person;
12. The license plate number, vehicle identification number, and description of all vehicles owned, operated, or regularly driven by the sex offender, including watercraft and airplanes, and a description of where these vehicles are habitually parked, docked, or otherwise kept;
13. A copy of the person's passport, and if the person is an alien, a copy of the person's immigration documentation;
14. A copy of the person's driver's license and/or any other identification cards;
15. The tier level of the person;
16. Any and all electronic mail addresses, instant message names, or other designations or monikers used for self-identification or routing in Internet communications or postings prior to using such electronic mail address or instant message name and any such electronic mail address or instant message name existing or otherwise in use at the time of registration;
17. The name of the federally-recognized Indian tribe in which the person is enrolled, and a copy of the person's tribal enrollment card or Certificate Degree of Indian Blood;
18. The text of the registration offense;
19. Criminal history of the person, including dates of all arrests and convictions, status of parole, probation or supervised release, registration status, and outstanding arrest warrants;
20. The age, gender, and race of the offender's victims; and
21. Any other information determined necessary by the department, including non-privileged personnel and treatment records and evidentiary genetic markers when available.

B. 1. Any person subject to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act who:

a. changes their name or alias, a permanent or temporary address, telephone or pager information, employment or termination thereof, school attendance, vehicle, color of vehicle or vehicle registration, or any e-mail or instant message address or other internet address or identifier, shall report in person to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and give a written notice of the change and the new address, name, employment, school, e-mail or instant message address, vehicle information, no later than three (3) business days prior to the change taking. Within three (3) business days of receipt of the updated information, the Marshal Service shall notify the jurisdictions listed in 57 CNCA § 10(A).

shall report in person to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and give a written notice of the change and the new address, name, employment, school, e-mail or instant message address, vehicle information, no later than three (3) business days prior to the change taking. Within three (3) business days of receipt of the updated information, the Marshal Service shall notify the jurisdictions listed in 57 CNCA § 10(A), and shall update the information in the registration database, or

b. makes plans to travel outside of the United States shall report in person to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and give a written notice no later than twenty-one (21) business days prior to the beginning of the travel. Within three (3) business days of receipt of the updated information, the Marshal Service shall notify the jurisdictions listed in 57 CNCA § 10(A), and shall update the information in the registration database. The Marshal Service shall notify the United States Marshals Service within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt of information that an individual will be traveling outside of the United States.

2. If a new address of a residence, school or workplace is outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country:

a. the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service shall, within three (3) business days, notify the new local law enforcement authority by teletype, electronic transmission, or letter of the change of address;

b. the offender shall notify the new local law enforcement authority of any previous registration; and

c. the new local law enforcement authority shall notify the most recent registering agency by electronic transmission, teletype or letter of the offender's registration of the new address in the new jurisdiction.

3. A sex offender who remains at an address after reporting his or her intent to vacate such address shall, within three (3) days after the date upon which the offender indicated he or she would or did vacate such residence, report in person to the Marshal Service for the purpose of reporting his or her address at such residence. An offender who makes a report as required under paragraph 1 but fails to make a report as required under this paragraph commits a crime.

§ 9. Notice of and access to registries—Biological samples—Habitual or aggravated sex offender designation—Immunity

A. Conviction data, digital DNA results, and fingerprints and palm prints shall be promptly transmitted at the time of registration to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) if the information was not previously sent at the time of conviction, and to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) or other law enforcement agency if required pursuant to a Memorandum of Agreement or Understanding.

B. The Marshal Service shall maintain a file of all sex offender registrations. A copy of the information contained in the registration shall promptly be available to all tribal, federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies, the Group Leader of Education, the Group Leader of Health, and the National Sex Offender Registry maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The file shall promptly be made available for public inspection or copying pursuant to rules promulgated by the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service. The Cherokee Nation Marshal Service shall promptly provide all municipal police departments and all county sheriff departments a list of those sex offenders registered and living on Cherokee Nation Indian Country within such agency's respective municipality or county.

C. The Group Leader of Education is authorized to copy and shall distribute information from the sex offender registry to individual public and private educational facilities within Cherokee Nation Indian Country with a notice using the following or similar language: "A person whose name appears on this registry has been convicted of a sex offense. Continuing to employ a person whose name appears on this registry may result in civil liability for the employer or criminal prosecution pursuant to 57 CNCA § 15."

D. The Group Leader of Health is authorized to distribute information from the sex offender registry to any nursing home or long-term care facility. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to impose any liability upon or give rise to a cause of action against any person, agency, organization, or company for failing to release information in accordance with the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.

E. The Marshal Service's sex offender registration list is a public record and shall be available upon request, without restriction, at a cost that is no more than what is charged for other records provided by the Marshal Service pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Freedom of Information Act, 67 CNCA § 101 et seq.

1. The Department is authorized to disseminate this public information by any means deemed appropriate.

2. When the Marshal Service provides information regarding a registered sex offender to the public, Marshal Service personnel must advise the person making the inquiry that positive identification of a person believed to be a sex offender cannot be established unless a fingerprint comparison is made, and that it is illegal to use public information regarding a registered sex offender to facilitate the commission of a crime.

3. Except in cases when the release is to law enforcement, to a prosecuting attorney, to a court, or pursuant to a valid court order, the release of the sex offender registration list under this section shall not include the following information:

a. social security number of the sex offender,

b. victim identification,

c. arrests not resulting in conviction,

d. travel and immigration document numbers.

4. E-mail addresses and instant mail addresses shall not be released to the public generally, however, the Marshal Service shall allow the public to inquire as to whether a specified address belongs to a registered sex offender, and when such an address is registered to a sex offender, the Marshal Service is permitted to confirm such registration.

F. When the Marshal Service sends a copy of or otherwise makes the sex offender registry available to any public or private school offering any combination of prekindergarten through twelfth grade classes or child care facility licensed by the State of Oklahoma or the Nation, the agency shall provide a notice using the following or similar language: "A person whose name appears on this registry has been convicted of a sex offense. Continuing to employ a person whose name appears on this registry may result in civil liability for the employer or criminal prosecution pursuant to 57 CNCA § 15 or under the statutes of the State of Oklahoma."

G.1. Samples of blood, saliva, or other biological material for DNA testing required by subsection (A) of this section shall be taken by employees of the Marshal Service. Said individuals shall be properly trained to collect blood, saliva, or such biological samples as are required for testing. Persons collecting samples for DNA testing pursuant to this section shall be immune from civil liabilities arising from this activity.

2. If the Marshal Service collects DNA, it shall ensure the collected samples are mailed or hand-delivered to the contracted lab within ten (10) days of the time the subject appears for testing or such period as is required by the laboratory, whichever is shorter. The Marshal Service shall use sample kits provided by the contracted lab and procedures promulgated by the contracted lab.

3. Persons subject to DNA testing pursuant to this section shall be required to pay to the Marshal Service a fee to be established by the Marshal Service.

H. If the probation and parole officer supervising a person subject to registration receives information to the effect that the status of the registered sex offender has changed in any manner that affects proper supervision of the person including, but not limited to, a change in the physical health of the person, address, employment, or educational status, higher educational status, incarceration, or terms of release, the supervising officer or administrator shall notify the Marshal Service of that change.

§ 10. Forwarding of registration information and tier level—Community notification—Absconders

A. Within three (3) business days from the date on which a person registers as a sex offender or updates information under this act, the Marshal Service shall forward the registration information, as provided in 57 CNCA § 9, and tier level to:

1. the Federal Bureau of Investigation;
2. the United States Marshals Service;

3. the Bureau of Indian Affairs;
4. the city or county law enforcement authority and district attorney's office in the county in which the person expects to reside, work, or attend school, if the person expects to reside, work, or attend school outside of Cherokee Nation Indian Country;
5. the Oklahoma Department of Corrections;
6. Cherokee Nation Human Resources and any other agency responsible for conducting employment-related background checks;
7. Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare and the Oklahoma Department of Human Services;
8. the probation office of the registrant, if any, and
9. any other organization or agency as required by the Adam Walsh Act.

B. The Marshal Service is responsible for the online maintenance of current information regarding each registered sex offender and such information shall be accessible to the public. The registry shall include the information listed in paragraph 2 of subsection (D) of this section. The site shall enable searches by name, county, city and/or town, or zip code or geographic radius.

1. The information required to be included on the sex offender website shall be posted on the website within three (3) business days;
2. The sex offender website shall include a function under which organizations and members of the public who provide an e-mail address to which notices can be sent can request notification when a sex offender commences residence, employment, or school attendance within the zip code or a geographic area specified by the requestor;
3. Upon posting on the website of new residence, employment, or school attendance information, for a sex offender within an area specified by the requestor, the system will automatically send an e-mail notice to the requestor that identifies the sex offender;
4. The website shall include links to sex offender safety and education resources;
5. The website shall include a warning that information on the site should not be used to unlawfully injure, harass, or commit a crime against any individual named in the registry or residing or working at any reported address and that any such action could result in civil or criminal penalties;
6. The website shall include instructions on how to seek correction of information that an individual contends is erroneous.

C. The Marshal Service must maintain access for state, local, and federal law enforcement agencies to obtain instantaneous locator file and offender characteristics information on all released registered sex offenders for purposes of monitoring, tracking, and prosecution.

D. 1. Upon registration of any person designated as a sex offender, or upon updating of registration information of any person designated as a sex offender, the Marshal Service shall post on the website and may notify, by any method of communication it deems appropriate, anyone that the Marshal Service deems appropriate, including, but not limited to:

- a. the family of the sex offender,
- b. any prior victim of the sex offender if the whereabouts of such victim(s) is known,
- c. residential neighbors and churches, community parks, schools, convenience stores, businesses and other places within a one-mile radius of the offender's registered permanent or temporary address that children or other potential victims may frequent,
- d. any nursing facility, specialized facility, residential care home, continuum-of-care facility, assisted living center, and adult day care facility, or similar facility within a one-mile radius of the offender's registered permanent or temporary address, and
- e. any individual or organization who specifically requests that they be notified of such registration.

2. The posting on the website and any notification shall, at a minimum, include the following information:

- a. the name of the sex offender,
- b. the physical address of each residence of the sex offender, the address of each place where the sex offender is an employee, and the address of any place where the sex offender is or will be a student,
- c. a physical description of the sex offender, including, but not limited to, age, height, weight, eye color and hair color,
- d. a current photograph of the sex offender,
- e. the tier level of the person and whether or not the person is an absconder,
- f. a description of the vehicle that the sex offender is known to drive including license plate number, and
- g. a description of the offense for which the sex offender is registered and any other sex offenses for which the sex offender has been convicted.

3. The notification may also, but is not required to, include the following information:
 - a. any conditions or restrictions upon the probation, parole or conditional release of the sex offender,
 - b. a description of the primary targets of the sex offender, and
 - c. the name and telephone number of the probation or parole officer of the sex offender, if any.
4. The Marshal Service shall make the notification provided for in this subsection regarding a sex offender available to any person upon request.
5. The Marshal Service shall not display on the website or otherwise provide to the public any arrest for which the offender did not receive a conviction, the offender's social security number, travel and immigration document numbers, or the identity of any victim(s).

§ 11. Verification of offender's address

A. The Marshal Service shall conduct verification of the registration information of each registered sex offender by requiring the registrant to verify their registration information in-person at the Marshal Service Office as follows:

1. on an annual basis, if the tier level of the person is I, or
2. every six (6) months, if the tier level of the person is II, or
3. every ninety (90) days, if the tier level of the person is III.

The Marshal Service may determine the appropriate times and days for reporting by the sex offender which shall be consistent with the reporting requirements of this subsection.

B. Each verification shall include the following:

1. Verification by the registrant of existing information for accuracy where the registrant shall inform the Marshal Service if any of the information required to be submitted pursuant to 57 CNCA § 8 has changed;
2. Taking a current photograph; and
3. Production of proof by the registrant of the identity of the person and current address.

C. The Marshal Service shall, within two (2) business days, electronically submit and update all information provided by the sex offender to those law enforcement departments listed in 57 CNCA § 10(B).

D. In addition to the in-person verification required by this section, the Marshal Service may develop a system by which Marshal Service personnel go to the sex offender's registered physical addresses in Cherokee Nation Indian Country and verify the residence of the sex offender at such temporary or permanent address.

E. In any case where the Marshal Service receives notice from any other jurisdiction that a registered offender is transferring his or her place of residence, employment, or school to a location within Cherokee Nation Indian Country and the offender fails to register with the Marshal Service within the required time, the Marshal Service shall provide notice of this failure to register to the other jurisdiction from which the Marshal Service received notice that the offender would be transferring a residence, employment, or school into Cherokee Nation Indian Country.

F. The Cherokee Nation Marshal Service shall notify the applicable offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Marshals Service and local law enforcement authority of the appropriate county or city, if the Marshal Service is unable to verify the address of a sex offender within thirty (30) days of an initial attempt to verify the registrant's address. The Marshal Service may notify the Office of the Attorney General whenever it comes to the attention of the Marshal Service that a sex offender is not in compliance with any provisions of this act. If the Marshal Service receives information that a sex offender may have absconded, the Marshal Service shall:

1. seek an arrest warrant for the offender's arrest if the legal requirements for doing so are satisfied; and
2. notify the United States Marshals Service and any relevant local law enforcement authority; and
3. update the registration database to reflect the offender's status as an absconder and seek to enter the sex offender into the National Crime Information Center Wanted Person File.

§ 12. Notifying offenders of obligation to register

A. The Marshal Service, prior to release from incarceration of a person subject to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, and each Judge who suspends the sentence of a person subject to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act or orders any probationary term, including a deferred sentence imposed in violation of 22 CNCA § 991c, for a person subject to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, shall prior to discharge or release of said person:

1. explain to the person the duty to register pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act;
2. require the person to sign a written statement that the duty to register has been explained and the person understands the duty to register; and
3. obtain the address at which the person is to reside upon discharge or release.

B. The Marshal Service shall coordinate with federal law enforcement, and surrounding states and Indian tribes to establish necessary procedures for notifying offenders that reside in other state or tribal jurisdictions but work or attend school within Cherokee Nation of the obligation to register pursuant to this act and the procedure for registration of those offenders.

§ 13. False or misleading registration information

No person subject to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, shall furnish any false or misleading information in the registration required by this act.

§ 14. Immunity

All public agencies and employees and officials of Cherokee Nation, and all individuals or entities acting at the request or upon the direction of any law enforcement agency, are immune from civil liability for damages for good faith compliance with the requirements of this act or for the release of information under this act, and shall be presumed to have acted in good faith in compiling, recording, reporting, or releasing the information. The presumption of good faith is not overcome if a technical or clerical error is made, including but not limited to errors made because information is incomplete or incorrect because a sex offender fails to report or falsely reports his or her current place of permanent or temporary residence.

Nothing in this act shall be deemed to impose any liability upon or to give rise to a cause of action against any public official, public employee, or public agency for releasing information to the public or for failing to release information in accordance with the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent law enforcement officers from notifying members of the public of any persons that pose a danger under circumstances that are not enumerated in the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.

§ 15. Penalties

A. Except as otherwise specifically provided, any person required to register pursuant to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act who violates any provision of said act shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. Any non-Indian shall be subject to civil exclusion from the Cherokee Nation. Any non-Indian individual found to be in violation of this section shall be subject to a civil action for exclusion from Cherokee Nation Indian Country. Such action shall be commenced by the Office of the Attorney General by filing a petition for exclusion in the District Court. The individual shall be excluded upon a written finding, by the District Court, after notice and an opportunity to be heard being provided to the defendant, by clear and convincing evidence, that: (1) the individual is non-Indian; (2) the individual is required to register pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act; and (3) the individual is residing on Cherokee Nation Indian Country in violation of this subsection. The individual shall remove himself or herself from Cherokee Nation Indian Country no less than thirty (30) days from the entry of the District Court's order that he or she is in violation of this subsection or be in contempt of court. Any individual found to be in contempt of court under this section may be removed from Cherokee Nation Indian Country by the Marshal Service. Any individual ordered to be excluded from Cherokee Nation Indian Country under this subsection shall be required to notify the Marshal Service of the other jurisdiction in which the individual intends to reside upon leaving Cherokee Nation Indian Country, and the Marshal Service shall notify such other jurisdiction of the intended relocation.

B. A sex offender who works, whether for compensation or as a volunteer, at any business, school, day care center, park, playground, or other place where children regularly congregate, commits a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

C. Any person who misuses public records information relating to a sex offender to secure a payment from such an offender, who knowingly distributes or publishes false information relating to such an offender which the person misrepresents as being public records information, or who materially alters public records information with the intent to misrepresent the information, including documents, summaries of public records information provided by law enforcement agencies, or public records information displayed by law enforcement agencies on websites or provided through other means of communication, commits a crime punishable by up to six (6) months of imprisonment or a One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) fine or both.

D. An arrest on charges of failure to register, the service of an information or a complaint for a violation of this section, or an arraignment on charges for a violation of this section constitutes actual notice of the duty to register when the sex offender has been provided and advised of his or her statutory obligation to register under 57 CNCA § 12. A sex offender's failure to immediately register as required by this section following such arrest, service, or arraignment constitutes grounds for a subsequent charge of failure to register. A sex offender charged with the crime of failure to register who asserts, or intends to assert, a lack of notice of the duty to register as a defense to a charge of failure to register shall immediately register as required by this section. A sex offender who is charged with a subsequent failure to register may not assert the defense of a lack of notice of the duty to register. Registration following such arrest, service, or arraignment is not a defense and does not relieve the sex offender of criminal liability for the failure to register.

E. Any person who has reason to believe that a sex offender is not complying, or has not complied, with the requirements of this section and who, with the intent to assist the sex offender in eluding a law enforcement agency that is seeking to find the sex offender to question the sex offender about, or to arrest the sex offender for, his or her noncompliance with the requirements of this section:

1. withholds information from, or does not notify, the law enforcement agency about the sex offender's noncompliance with the requirements of this section, and, if known, the whereabouts of the sex offender;
2. harbors, or attempts to harbor, or assists another person in harboring or attempting to harbor, the sex offender;
3. conceals or attempts to conceal, or assists another person in concealing or attempting to conceal, the sex offender; or

4. provides information to the law enforcement agency regarding the sex offender which the person knows to be false information, commits a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. This subsection does not apply if the sex offender is incarcerated in or is in the custody of a state or tribal correctional facility, a private correctional facility, a local jail, or a federal correctional facility.

§ 16. Registered offenders prohibited from certain employment; penalties; civil damages

A. It is unlawful for any person required to register pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act to work with or provide services to children or to work on school premises. Violation of this section shall be a crime punishable by imprisonment up to one (1) year or a fine not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

B. It is unlawful for any person or business which contracts for work to be performed on school premises to knowingly and willfully allow any employee who is required to be registered pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act to work with children or to work on school premises. Upon conviction for any violation of the provisions of this subsection, the violator shall be punished by a fine not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00). In addition, the violator may be liable for civil damages.

C. A person or business who offers or provides services shall ensure compliance with subsection (B) of this section,

D. It is unlawful for any law enforcement agency to employ any person as a peace officer or criminal investigator who has received a conviction for any offense requiring the individual to register as a sex offender pursuant to this act. The Marshal Service shall notify the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training (CLEET) if any peace officer, private investigator, or security guard, is CLEET-certified and receives a conviction for a crime enumerated in 57 CNCA § 4 occurring within Cherokee Nation Indian Country. Any violator of this section shall be subject to a civil fine of no more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

§ 17. Residency restriction; penalty

A. It is unlawful for any person registered pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act to reside, either temporarily or permanently, within a two-thousand-foot (2,000') radius of any public or private school site, educational institution, a playground or park that is zoned by city, county, state, federal or tribal government, or a licensed child care center. Establishment of a day care center or park in the vicinity of the residence of a registered sex offender will not require the relocation of the sex offender or the sale of the property. On the effective date of this act, the distance indicated in this section shall be measured from the nearest property line of the residence of the person to the nearest property line of the public or private school site, educational institution, playground, park, or licensed child care facility; provided, any nonprofit organization established and housing sex offenders prior to the effective date of this provision shall be allowed to continue its operation.

B. Nothing in this provision shall require any person to sell or otherwise dispose of any real estate or home acquired or owned prior to the conviction of the person as a sex offender.

C. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any registered sex offender residing in a hospital or other facility certified or licensed to provide medical services.

D. It is prohibited for any non-Indian person required to register pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act to reside on Cherokee Nation Indian Country, either temporarily or permanently. Any non-Indian individual found to be in violation of this section shall be subject to a civil action for exclusion from Cherokee Nation Indian Country. Such action shall be commenced by the Office of the Attorney General by filing a petition for exclusion in District Court. The individual shall be excluded upon a written finding, by District Court, after notice and an opportunity to be heard being provided to the defendant, by clear and convincing evidence, that: (1) the individual is non-Indian; (2) the individual is required to register pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act; and (3) the individual is residing on Cherokee Nation Indian Country in violation of this subsection. The individual shall remove himself or herself from Cherokee Nation Indian Country no less than thirty (30) days from the entry of District Court's order that he or she is in violation of this subsection or be in contempt of court. Any individual found to be in contempt of court under this section may be removed from the Cherokee Nation Indian Country by the Marshal Service. Any individual ordered to be excluded from the Cherokee Nation Indian Country under this subsection shall be required to notify the Marshal Service of the other jurisdiction in which the individual intends to reside upon leaving the Cherokee Nation Indian Country, and the Marshal Service shall notify such other jurisdiction of the intended relocation.

E. Any person willfully violating the provisions of this section by intentionally moving into any neighborhood or to any real estate or home within the prohibited distance shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

TITLE 60

PROPERTY

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Prior right of possession

Any person having peaceable possession of private property obtained through lawful means, and claiming a limited or absolute right in the same, shall be held, in law, to have a prior right of possession thereto against all persons obtaining possession thereafter, until the right of such person shall expire, or be by him transferred to another for good or valuable consideration, or until his right shall be disputed and invalidated by due course of law. And any person, having a prior right of possession of any property to any other person, and the property being detained by the latter from the former without his voluntary consent, may recover such property upon suit for possession merely, without regard to, or investigation had by the court of, other or higher title, either in plaintiff or defendant of such suit. But such person as plaintiff may submit to the court the general question of right, involving the right of possession of the property, or be awarded possession of such property merely, as provided above, with the right accruing of answering as defendant in all suits involving the right, title and interest of the parties to such property.

§ 2. Suits for recovery of property

Suits for the recovery of property shall be instituted against the person having the property in legal possession and control; but in any suit by a third party against the lessee or agent of another, holding property of another in his possession, in which suit the right of the principal in such property is mainly involved, such fact being brought to the notice of the Court, at the calling of the case, by disclaimer of ownership on part of defendant, the Court shall order the name of the principal to be placed upon the record as party defendant in that suit, and judgment shall be rendered accordingly.

§ 3. Legal possession

Property shall be held to be in the legal possession and control of any person when in his actual possession, or in the actual possession of any person in the service or employment of such defendant temporarily to use or take charge thereof. When property consists of stock, the possession thereof shall be determined as provided by law.

§ 4. Conveyance of property to minor

Any contract whereby the title to, or possession of, property is conveyed or transferred, to which contract a minor shall be a party, shall not be lawful and is hereby forbidden, except the consent of the guardian of such minor, should there be one appointed, and if not, of the parent of such minor, be obtained previous to the making of such contract. And any adult person who shall enter into any contract, forbidden in this section, shall, for such offense, forfeit, for the benefit of the minor with whom such contract is made, twice the full value of the consideration of such contract on part of the minor, upon suit hereby authorized to be instituted by the parent or guardian.

TITLE 61

PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND PUBLIC WORKS

CHAPTER 1

BUILDING AND FACILITY NAMING ACT

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known as the Building and Facility Naming Act of 2011.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to set forth and establish the procedures and requirements for the process of naming buildings and/or facilities owned by Cherokee Nation and its entities.

§ 3. Definitions

A. "Cherokee Nation" means the government of the Cherokee Nation located at Tahlequah, Oklahoma and all divisions thereof.

B. "Cherokee Nation building or facility" means structures and areas owned and/or constructed or developed by Cherokee Nation or its entities, wherever they may be located, except for such structures owned or controlled by Cherokee Nation Enterprises or its subsidiaries.

C. "Cherokee Nation entity" means any corporation, organization or group in which the Cherokee Nation is a majority owner or contributor a majority of its funds to the entity's annual budget, or in which the Cherokee Nation exercises control.

§ 4. Building or facility naming

A. Naming of Cherokee Nation buildings or facilities. The names of Cherokee Nation buildings or facilities may only be designated, or redesignated, by Act of the Council of Cherokee Nation.

B. Prohibition on public depiction of building names prior to Council name designation. No Cherokee Nation building or facility may be depicted in any way, including but not limited to in documents or signage, by Cherokee Nation or any Cherokee Nation entity as bearing a particular name prior to the designation of that name by Act of Council pursuant to this act, except:

1. Temporary generic names. Where the Executive Branch, for ease of reference, designates a particular Cherokee Nation building or facility by the name of the community in which it is located and the basic function that it serves, for a period not to exceed one (1) year from the date the facility commences operation, after which time such name, or such other name designated by the Council, must be designated pursuant to this act;

2. Communication of proposals to Council. Where the Executive Branch designates a name solely for the purpose of communicating a proposal directly and solely to members of the Council for designation of a name pursuant to this act;

3. Cherokee Nation buildings or facilities already in operation. Where the Executive Branch, or the Council by previous resolution, has designated the name of a particular Cherokee Nation building or facility prior to the enactment of this act, but only where the Cherokee Nation building or facility was constructed and in operation prior to the enactment of this act.

TITLE 62

PUBLIC FINANCE

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Fiscal year

The fiscal year for Cherokee Nation shall commence on October 1 of each year and end on September 30 of the following year.

CHAPTER 2

OFFICE OF THE CONTROLLER

§ 11. Establishment—Purpose

A. There is established the Office of the Controller within the Executive Branch of Cherokee Nation.

B. The principal purpose of the Office of the Controller shall be to manage the accounting and finance functions of Cherokee Nation and to assure that all funds are properly accounted for in accordance with generally accepted or legally required accounting principles and methods.

§ 12. Powers and duties generally

Specifically, the Controller shall be responsible for:

1. Providing an accounting and reporting system that will accumulate and report appropriate revenues, expenses, assets, liabilities, and related quantitative information;

2. Assuring the integrity of financial information concerning Cherokee Nation's activities and resources;
3. Preparing financial reports based on generally accepted accounting principles, or other appropriate bases;
4. Quantifying and interpreting the effects on Cherokee Nation of planned transactions and other economic transactions;
5. Assuring protection of the assets of Cherokee Nation through internal control, internal auditing, and proper insurance coverage;
6. Supervising and coordinating the preparation and issuance of required reports for government agencies;
7. Maintaining banking arrangements, under the direction of or by delegation from the Treasurer, to receive and disburse the funds of Cherokee Nation and its programs;
8. Recommending the appointment of independent public accountants and the extent and scope of their audit work;
9. Establishing and supervising a sound program of cash management involving both receipts and disbursement of funds;
10. Forecasting fund and cash positions at future dates as a guide to their availability and need;
11. Overseeing the budgeting functions of Cherokee Nation and providing assistance as necessary with various program budgets;
12. Informing program managers and department heads of the status of program funds and budgets;
13. Acting as advisor to the Executive and Finance Committee of the Council;
14. Supervising the preparation and issuance of employee payrolls;
15. Establishing and implementing a sound plan of organization for assigned functions;
16. Determining the necessary manpower for performing assigned functions;
17. Selecting and maintaining qualified personnel in subordinate positions and recommending compensation for the same;
18. Establishing and issuing plans, policies and procedures governing the performance of assigned activities;

19. Performing all functions at the lowest cost, consistent with effective performance;

20. Performing any additional functions as delegated by the Treasurer and the Principal Chief.

CHAPTER 3

DEPOSIT OF FUNDS

§ 21. Requirement for deposit of funds generally

Any funds in the custody of Cherokee Nation shall be deposited in an approved depository. There shall be one (1) principal depository, provided for by law, and as many subsidiary depositories as may be necessary for the efficient regulation and management of tribal business. Said subsidiary depositories shall be approved in accordance with 62 CNCA § 23.

§ 22. Principal depository

The principal depository for funds under the control of Cherokee Nation shall be the First National Bank of Tahlequah.

§ 23. Subsidiary depositories

A. Subsidiary depositories used for investment of Nation funds shall be determined by competitive bidding. The bidding and selection process on investment depositories shall be conducted by the Controller, under review of the Treasurer, on a regular basis.

B. Other subsidiary depositories may be designated for the purpose of efficient regulation and management of Nation business in a particular locale. Subsidiary depositories provided for under this subsection shall maintain a checking/general banking relationship with Cherokee Nation and shall be approved, upon recommendation of the Controller, by resolution from the Council. Said resolution shall contain the name of the financial institution, the purpose of the depository, and the names of those persons authorized to conduct transactions with the depository.

§ 24. Control of deposited funds

A. No funds under the control of Cherokee Nation shall be deposited in any financial institution unless the institution is insured by either the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC).

B. No funds in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) shall be deposited in a single financial institution unless such funds are collateralized either by bonds with a minimum of an AA rating, or local, state, U.S. Government and Cherokee Nation securities.

CHAPTER 4

APPROPRIATIONS

§ 31. Requirements for appropriations of funds generally

A. All appropriations of funds shall be provided for by law. The appropriation bill shall include the source of funds, the amount of funds, and the purpose for which the funds are being appropriated.

B. Any appropriations law containing Nation trust funds shall, upon the enactment of the law, be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior or his delegatee for approval.

C. Any funds received by Cherokee Nation, the use of which is determined by the granting or contracting agency, shall be used only for those purposes and under those conditions for which the funds are made available. The funds shall not be appropriated by the Council, but shall be subject to review by the Council.

§ 32. Annual appropriations

A. In July of each year the Executive and Finance Committee of the Council, upon direction of the Treasurer and with advisement from the Controller, shall formulate an annual appropriations bill. The bill shall contain the budgeted annual revenue and expenditures from the general fund, enterprise fund, and trust fund for the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branches of Government. Said bill shall identify the individual sources of revenue for each Branch of Government. The sources of revenue may be based upon estimates. The budgeted expenditures formulated as provided for in this subsection shall not exceed total estimated revenues.

B. Upon completion of the annual appropriations bill, the Treasurer, or his delegatee, shall present the bill to the full Council for consideration and passage.

C. The Executive and Finance Committee, upon direction of the Treasurer and with advisement from the Controller, shall be responsible for proposing amendments to the annual appropriations law based upon material changes in real or estimated revenues and expenditures that affect the total amounts budgeted. Any amendments provided for in this subsection shall be presented to the full Council for consideration and passage.

CHAPTER 5

INVESTMENTS

§ 41. Investment of judgment funds—Generally

Any investment of judgment funds shall be pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 162a. The use or distribution of funds shall be in accordance with 25 C.F.R. § 87.1 et seq.

§ 42. Investment of judgment funds—Reservation of rights

The Council of Cherokee Nation reserves the right, within statutory authority and limitations, to recommend to the Secretary of the Interior preferred financial institutions for the investment of judgment funds.

§ 43. Investment of surplus funds—Generally

Surplus funds from Nation operations may be invested by the Controller, upon direction and with the consent of the Executive and Finance Committee of the Council, in accordance with 62 CNCA §§ 23, 45, and 46.

§ 44. Investment of surplus funds—Term of investments

Nation funds invested pursuant to 62 CNCA § 43 shall be for a period not to exceed one hundred twenty (120) days; provided that funds may be invested for a longer term upon approval of the Executive and Finance Committee of the Council.

§ 45. Investment of surplus funds—Selection of investment institution

A. The Controller shall, upon determination of the amount of surplus funds, solicit bids from financial institutions for the purpose of investing said funds.

B. The Controller shall use the following criteria in the determination of the successful bidding institution:

1. The institution offering the highest interest rate on the funds; and
2. In the event that one or more institutions offer the same highest rate of interest, the funds shall be equally distributed among those institutions; provided that if the amount of funds are not sufficient to distribute among several institutions, those institutions offering the highest rate of interest shall be selected by the earlier postmark.

§ 46. Investment of surplus funds—Protection of invested funds

In the event that the invested funds in a single institution amount to more than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), the funds shall be collateralized as provided for in 62 CNCA § 24(B), and provided further that the institution where the funds are invested shall secure and pledge to Cherokee Nation joint custody receipts for the full amount of the funds.

CHAPTER 6

BONDS

§ 51. Officers required to furnish surety bonds—Conditions of and payment for bonds

All officers, elected or appointed, who are authorized to a position of trust over any land, property, accounts or monies, shall execute an official surety bond. Said bonds shall inure to the benefit of and be paid for by Cherokee Nation.

§ 52. Amount of bonds

The following officers of Cherokee Nation shall be bonded in the following amounts:

A. Council Members	$ 10,000.00
B. Principal Chief	100,000.00
C. Deputy Principal Chief	100,000.00
D. Secretary of State	100,000.00
E. Treasurer	100,000.00
F. Controller	100,000.00
G. Registrar	50,000.00
H. Executive Directors	50,000.00

§ 53. Bonding company

The bonding of officers as required in 62 CNCA § 51 shall be by a licensed insurance company, authorized to do business in the State of Oklahoma.

CHAPTER 7

PLEDGES OF CREDIT

§ 61. Requirements for pledges of credit of Cherokee Nation generally

The credit of Cherokee Nation may be extended to any individual, company, corporation, or association by resolution of the Council. Said resolution shall contain the name of the entity Nation credit is being pledged to, the purpose of the credit, the amount of credit being pledged, and the length of time the pledge of credit is to be in effect.

§ 62. Pledges of credit requiring waiver of sovereign immunity

Any pledge of credit that requires the waiving of sovereignty of Cherokee Nation shall be effected by resolution of the Council and approved by the Principal Chief. Said resolution shall state the time the waiver is to be in effect, and such effective time shall rule past any change in the elected Council. Said resolution must contain the information required in 62 CNCA § 61.

CHAPTER 8

FINANCIAL RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 71. Governing accounting standards

Generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), established by the National Council on Governmental Accounting, The American Institute of CPA's, and the Financial Accounting Standards Board, shall be used in accounting and reporting for the financial activities of the various entities of Cherokee Nation, unless they conflict with applicable legal requirements.

§ 72. Combined financial statement reports

At each regular session of the Council, the Controller shall submit a combined financial statement. Said statement shall contain a combined balance sheet showing all fund and account groups, their assets, liabilities, and equity; a general fund statement of revenues and expenditures; a Nation enterprise statement of revenues and expenditures; a non-Nation grant expenditure statement; a statement of the Nation loan fund, showing changes in the fund balance; and a statement of the Nation judgment fund, showing changes in the fund balance.

§ 73. Annual audit statements and reports

Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of the Nation's fiscal year, the Controller shall submit to the Council audited financial statements and related reports developed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and applicable legal requirements.

§ 74. Retention of records

The Controller, under the direction of the Treasurer, shall develop and maintain a fiscal records retention program. Said records retention program shall identify the records to be retained, the length of time the records are to be retained, and the method of record destruction for those records not retained.

CHAPTER 9

CLAIMS AGAINST CHEROKEE NATION

§ 81. Verification and approval of claims

All appropriate claims against Cherokee Nation and against its funds shall be verified by the claimant and shall be approved by a Cherokee Nation representative who has personal knowledge of receipt of the goods or services before the same are paid.

§ 82. Development and maintenance of policies and procedures governing processing of claims

The policies and procedures covering the processing of claims against Cherokee Nation shall be developed and maintained by the Controller and the Director of Administrative Services.

CHAPTER 10

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE

§ 101. Short title

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Emergency Assistance and Community Support Projects Authorization Act of 2003.

§ 102. Purpose and findings

The purpose of this act is to establish a program for the distribution of funds to Cherokee citizens in the time of imminent need or emergency and to authorize the Council of Cherokee Nation to consider and authorize funding of community projects as provided in 62 CNCA §§ 104 to 111, inclusive.

The Council finds that legislation is necessary to establish a program for Emergency Assistance, formerly called the General Assistance Program. The Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation held in JAT-03-15, dated November 14, 2003, that the current General Assistance Program is unconstitutional in its present form because there is no legislation establishing a program. Further, the Supreme Court advises that in crafting legislation, the subject areas of health, education and welfare, commerce and communications, which constitute cabinet positions, are not infringed upon and legislation be narrowly crafted to avoid duplication. Finally, the Supreme Court advises that attention be given to the constitutional requirement for Council approval of "any donations by gift, or otherwise, to any individual, firm, company, corporation or association." (Article X, § 7 of the Cherokee Constitution).

§ 103. Definitions

For the purposes of this chapter:

1. "Basic utilities" means water, sewer, heating or cooling sources.
2. "Cherokee citizen" means any registered citizen of Cherokee Nation.
3. "Council Member" means any duly elected or appointed Member of the Cherokee Nation Council;
4. "Emergency housing repair" means necessary repair to a Cherokee citizen's home that would be required to keep the home safely habitable.
5. "Major house damage" means substantial damage to any part of a house that renders the house unsafe or uninhabitable.

6. "Medical emergency" means any medical condition that places an extreme emotional or financial burden on the Cherokee citizen.

7. Repealed by LA 25–09.

§ 104. Authorized disbursements

A. Authorized purposes. Disbursement of funds under this act shall only be made for the following purposes:

1. Emergency assistance to Cherokee citizens for the following:

a. Medical emergencies that are suffered such as transportation, medication or supplies;

b. Housing assistance to avoid eviction or shutting off basic utilities;

c. Emergency housing repairs or to obtain adequate emergency housing after major house damage;

d. Assistance for emergency meals or clothing when there is a finding of immediate jeopardy to health, safety or employment; or,

e. Other assistance for basic needs of an individual or family that if not addressed immediately, within 24 hours or less, may result in hunger, loss of shelter, medical peril, job loss or family breakdown.

2. Repealed by LA 25–09.

3. Self-help emergency housing repairs to pay Cherokee citizens for materials only. These materials must be used for dwelling repairs needed to alleviate or eliminate safety factors for occupants and repairs that prevent the immediate development of these conditions. Recipients will be responsible for securing labor to complete projects.

4. Housing accessibility to make renovations for handicapped or elder access for Cherokee citizens. These renovations may include accessibility ramps, structural modifications, and structural assistive devices for the elderly (citizens who are 62 years of age or older) and people with physical disabilities to allow them better mobility and use of their houses and/or to remedy health and safety concerns.

5. Emergency education assistance to Cherokee citizens as defined by published guidelines for program administration.

6. Delegations to pay for promotional items and nominal honorariums for visitors and awards to deserving individuals or groups.

§ 105. Duplication of services prohibited

Assistance provided under this act shall not duplicate or replace assistance available under any other program. The intent of this legislation is to meet special needs not covered by other programs.

§ 106. Expedited payment

The Controller of Cherokee Nation, whenever practicable, shall issue funds authorized in this act directly to the vendor or civic organization providing the needed service. After eligibility is determined, the Controller is responsible for developing appropriate procedures, as needed, for distributing funds within forty-eight (48) hours if not immediately, where emergencies and imminent needs exist, to insure timely receipt of such assistance.

§ 107. Policies and procedures for emergency assistance and community support projects

A. Policies and procedures for emergency assistance. The Human Services Group Leader of Cherokee Nation shall designate an advocate/coordinator to ensure effective implementation and the Group Leader is hereby authorized and directed to develop such policies and procedures necessary to effectively implement the program, including but not limited to the specific types of services, determining eligibility, verification of circumstances, assuring that services are not duplicated, and conducting appropriate follow-up services and appeal rights in the event that assistance is denied. The policies and procedures will be published for review by the Council as well as the general public. Human Services shall coordinate with any other departments or groups of the Nation, such as Health or Community Services, as necessary to effectively carry out this act.

B. Policies and procedures for community support project awards. Individual Council Members may nominate worthy projects not to exceed the District's allocation to be funded from the Community Support Project fund, provided the Council of the Cherokee Nation approves by enactment.

§ 108. Policies and procedures for the self-help emergency housing repairs, housing accessibility and emergency education assistance programs

Policies and procedures shall be developed to implement these programs, including but not limited to the specific types of services, determining eligibility, verification of circumstances, assuring that services are not duplicated, and conducting appropriate follow-up services and appeal rights in the event that assistance is denied. The policies and procedures will be published for review by the Council as well as the general public. Executive officials shall conduct appropriate coordination with any other Departments or Groups of the Nation as necessary to effectively carry out this Act.

§ 109. Requests or referrals

The Council of Cherokee Nation may, individually, or as a body, make requests or referrals to the designated Human Services staff for identified needs. Any requests or referrals denied under the Program will be reported to the Council Member making the initial referral. The tribal Council may consider for approval any emergency assistance application that has been denied by the Human Services Department of Cherokee Nation.

§ 110. Appropriations

The Council of Cherokee Nation may appropriate such sums as may be necessary to carry out the Emergency Assistance program requirements of this act.

§ 111. Reports

All expenditures for the Emergency Assistance Program shall be reported in the monthly Executive and Finance Committee of the Council. Further, a report regarding referrals not funded under the program will be made monthly in accordance with 62 CNCA § 107.

CHAPTER 11

DONATIONS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

§ 201. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Donations and Contribution Act of 2010.

§ 202. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to set forth parameters for the Executive and Legislative Branches to collaboratively approve funding requests for donations and contributions. Donations and contributions from the Nation to third parties are made to improve the quality of life for Cherokee citizens and establish positive partnerships between the Nation and other governments and organizations that share common goals.

§ 203. Appropriations

The Council may appropriate from time to time, subject to the Cherokee Constitution, Article X, Section 7, an undesignated pool of funds for contributions and donations.

§ 204. Subcommittee established

The Council shall establish a Subcommittee of the Executive and Finance Committee to consider and consent to expenditure of funding requests for donations and contributions.

§ 205. Coordination of requests

In order to expend enacted appropriations to the contributions and donations fund that are undesignated, Government Relations staff will collect and research requests for funding. Government Relations shall prepare a cover sheet with information about the organization, purpose of the funding, whether the request may be directed to any other existing programs, and amounts of assistance from the Nation or its entities received by the requestor over the last two (2) years.

§ 206. Recommendations for award

The Principal Chief shall make recommendations for expenditure after reviewing the requests and the information collected in 62 CNCA § 205. All requests, recommended and not recommended, will be forwarded to the Subcommittee.

§ 207. Unanimous consent

The Principal Chief will only make awards to recommended projects that have unanimous consent of the Subcommittee.

§ 208. Unfunded requests

If a request for funding is not recommended by the Principal Chief, or if any recommended projects fail to have unanimous consent of the Subcommittee, the funding request may be considered by the Council for an appropriation pursuant to the normal appropriation process.

§ 209. Donations and contributions awarded by district

Donations and contributions made under this act shall be awarded equitably by district. Awards that inure to the benefit of multiple districts or benefit organizations outside the jurisdiction will not be considered in the calculation for equity.

§ 210. Limitations on awards

Funds will not be provided for the primary benefit of one (1) individual. Any organization may only receive funds under this appropriation once per fiscal year.

§ 211. Notice of award

Administration shall develop a cover letter of award, which may be co-signed by the Tribal Council Members of the applicant's district.

CHAPTER 12

COMMUNITY ASSISTANCE

§ 301. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Community Assistance Act of 2012.

§ 302. Purpose and findings

The Council finds it is necessary to enhance the health, education and welfare of Cherokee citizens through the periodic distribution of funds to community organizations and schools for activities which benefit Cherokee citizens, based on recommendations from Members of the Council.

The purpose of this act is to establish a program for such periodic distribution of funds to community organizations and schools impacting the health, welfare and education of Cherokee citizens.

§ 303. Definitions

A. "Community organization" shall mean any entity whose primary purpose is to serve the public on a non-profit basis.

B. "Hardship" shall mean an extraordinary circumstance impacting the health or welfare of a Cherokee citizen for which no existing Cherokee Nation program can provide assistance in a timely manner.

C. "School" shall mean a public or private educational school or institute of higher education located within the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation, including any Indian Education Program or committee serving said school.

§ 304. Authorized purpose of community assistance funds

Disbursement of funds under this act shall be made only:

1. For the purpose of supporting community organizations that:

a. Are governed by individuals a majority of whom are citizens of Cherokee Nation;

b. Serve a constituency or membership of which a majority are citizens of Cherokee Nation; or

c. Engage in activities that substantially impact the health, welfare or education of Cherokee citizens.

2. For the purpose of supporting schools, county governments or municipal governments, for activities which substantially impact the health, welfare or education of Cherokee citizens.

3. For the purpose of addressing hardships.

§ 305. Procedures for approving funding

The Council may appropriate funds from time to time for disbursement pursuant to this act, at its direction, as follows:

1. Funding shall be allocated by Council seat on an equitable basis, except that individual Council Member travel funds from a previous fiscal year may be carried over and added to each Councilor's respective community assistance funds each fiscal year at the Council's direction.
2. The Speaker of the Council shall create and make copies available to each Council Member of an application form on which eligible schools or community organizations may apply for assistance, which shall require a written attestation by the applicant and the sponsoring Council Member that the applicant meets the eligibility criteria set forth in this act.
3. The Council, at its Executive and Finance Committee, shall consider for approval requests for disbursement of funds under this act to eligible community organizations or schools, the disbursement of which has been recommended orally or in writing by any Member of the Committee. Said approval may be made even in the absence of a written application by the applicant. Approval by the Committee shall create the presumption that the community organization or school is eligible to receive funds under this act.
4. Funds shall be distributed under this act only after receipt by the Speaker of the Council of an appropriate application form from the applicant, as set forth in paragraph 2 of this section, and approval of the disbursement as set forth in paragraph 3 of this section.
5. Approved disbursement of funds under this act shall be reported at the regular Council meeting following Committee approval. No action of the Council at its regular meeting is required for disbursement of funds under this act. Provided, the Council, at its regular meeting, may approve disbursement of funds to eligible applicants in extraordinary circumstances in which time is of the essence and approval of disbursement cannot reasonably wait until the next committee meeting.
6. Records relating to applications for funding, disbursement of funds to and expenditure of funds by community organizations and schools under this act shall be maintained by the Speaker of the Council and available for public inspection, subject to reasonable document retention policies developed by the Speaker of the Council.
7. The Speaker of the Council is authorized to develop for entities receiving funds under this act policies and procedures consistent with this act, including those relating to the accounting for disbursed funds by community organizations, schools, county and municipal governments, or in connection with hardships.

TITLE 63

PUBLIC HEALTH AND SAFETY

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS [RESERVED]

CHAPTER 2

CHEROKEE NATION COMPREHENSIVE CARE AGENCY ORGANIC ACT

§ 101. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Comprehensive Care Agency Organic Act.

§ 102. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish a government agency to provide health and human services.

§ 103. Establishment

The Cherokee Nation Comprehensive Care Agency (hereinafter "Agency") is hereby established within the Executive Branch of the government of the Nation.

§ 104. Board of Directors

A. Number. The Board of Directors for the Agency shall consist of:

1. At least three (3) but no more than five (5) regular members;
2. Five (5) standing ex-officio members, which are the executive heads of Health Services, Human Services, and Home Health, or their designee(s), and the Chairs of the Council Health Committee and Tribal Services Committee. Ex-officio members shall not have a vote on the Board.

B. Terms. Regular members shall serve for terms of three (3) years and may hold their seat until they are retained or their replacement is seated. In order to stagger the expiration of office, of the first group of regular members appointed hereunder, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year, one (1) for a term of two (2) years, and any additional for terms of three (3) years.

C. Conflicts of interest. Except as authorized under the Constitution of Cherokee Nation, no regular member of the Agency shall, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution from any political organization, candidacy or other political purpose. No regular member of the Commission shall be a member of any tribal or local committee of a political party, or an officer or a member of a committee of a partisan political club, or a candidate for nomination or election to any paid tribal office, or take part in the management or affairs of any tribal political party or in any political campaign, except to exercise his or her right as a citizen privately to express his or her opinion and to cast his or her vote.

D. Qualifications. To be eligible to serve as a regular member, a person must:

1. be at least twenty-five (25) years of age;

2. have a bachelor's degree from a college or university in a Health, Finance, Legal, Administration or related field, or have four (4) years or more of related experience, which may include four (4) years or more as a professional provider of health care or social services to elderly or disabled adults;

3. be of high moral character or integrity;

4. never have been convicted of a criminal offense other than misdemeanor traffic offenses; and

5. be physically able to carry out the duties of office.

E. Selection. The Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation shall select the regular members of the Board, subject to confirmation by majority vote of the Council of Cherokee Nation.

F. Vacancy. In the event of a vacancy in the membership of the Board, the Principal Chief shall fill such vacancy for the unexpired term, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the Council.

G. Removal. Regular board members shall serve their terms of office free from political influence from any department of the government of the Nation and may be removed only for cause, after a hearing by the Supreme Court under such rules and procedures as the Council prescribes. A petition for removal for cause may be brought by a majority vote of the Tribal Council, or the Principal Chief.

H. Authority. Subject to tribal and federal law, the Board of Directors shall have legal authority and responsibility for the following:

1. Governance and operation of the organization not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of Cherokee Nation;

2. Development of policies consistent with the mission;

3. Management and provision of all services, including the management of contractors;

4. Establishment of personnel policies that, at a minimum, address adequate notice of termination by employees or contractors with direct patient care responsibilities;

5. Fiscal operations;

6. Development of policies on participant health and safety, including comprehensive, systemic operational plan to ensure the health and safety of participants;

7. Quality assessment and performance improvement program;

8. Establishment of a consumer advisory committee to provide advice to the Board on matters of concern to participants. Participants and representatives of participants must constitute a majority of the membership of this committee;

9. Buy, sell, lease, or rent, real or personal property, as landlord or tenant, for authorized Agency activity, provided that facilities through which programs, services, functions or activities designated in paragraph 11 are carried out shall be considered facilities of Cherokee Nation and may be leased by Cherokee Nation to the Indian Health Service pursuant to 25 U.S.C. §§ 450j(l) and 458aaa-15(a);

10. Entering into service provider contracts, including contracts, agreements or grants with private or public entities to provide comprehensive care services authorized by this Act, provided, however, that Cherokee Nation reserves all rights with regard to intergovernmental compacts or government-to-government agreements, including but not limited to those authorized under P.L. 93-638 as amended, and such rights are not delegated to the Agency under this act;

11. Carrying out designated programs, services, functions and activities that are the responsibility of Cherokee Nation under agreements entered into by Cherokee Nation under P.L. 93-638, as amended;

12. Acquire or consolidate with other entities to enhance services provided;

13. Take any other action not prohibited by law that the Board finds to be in the best interest of the people served by the Agency.

§ 105. Finances

A. Funds appropriated or transferred to the Agency by Cherokee Nation, including those funds acquired by Cherokee Nation pursuant to an Agreement entered into under P.L. 93-638, shall be used by the Agency for the purposes designated by Cherokee Nation. Other funds of the Agency earned or received, including third-party revenue generated on activities that the Agency is designated to carry out under 63 CNCA § 104(H)(11), shall be retained by the Agency and used to carry out the programs and services of the Agency for the benefit of its clients, patients, or participants.

B. The Agency shall establish and maintain its own management systems.

C. Regular Board members may be reasonably compensated pursuant to Board action, subject to available funds and any applicable law.

D. Upon dissolution of the Agency all assets shall become property of Cherokee Nation unless otherwise required by law.

§ 106. Reporting

The Board or the Chief Executive Officer of the Agency shall report at least annually to the Principal Chief and Tribal Council as to its programs, finances, employees, facilities, plans, and any other information the Board deems important to convey.

TITLE 64

PUBLIC LANDS

CHAPTER 1

LANDS ACQUIRED FROM THE UNITED STATES

§ 1. Abandoned military and agency reservations

Every military and agency reservation, which is, or may be hereafter occupied by the United States, within the limits of this nation, and whenever the United States shall cease to occupy the same, shall revert to the Nation; and it will not be lawful for any citizen to take possession of any such reservation, except by the permission of the national authorities under the penalty of being removed therefrom.

CHAPTER 2

REAL PROPERTY ACQUISITION

§ 51. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Real Property Acquisition Act of 2005".

§ 52. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish principles for real property acquisition that assure accordance and alignment with the purpose of Cherokee Nation. Acquisitions of any real property should sustain, enhance and support the economies and welfare of Cherokee Nation. Sound planning for real property acquisitions ensures achievement of an overall objective to restore the land and territory base of the Nation and advance the Nation's strategy. Real property acquisitions should be conducted consistent with existing strategic plans of the Nation, including but not limited to the Land Consolidation Plan as amended and the Strategic Land Plan. This act does not apply to commercial transactions of Cherokee Nation instrumentalities.

§ 53. Definitions

For purposes of this act:

1. "Acquisition" means the action to become the owner of certain property, whether purchased, transferred or donated with or without consideration.

2. "Clear title" means a marketable title, or a good title, free from encumbrances, obstruction, burden or limitation.

3. "Real property" means land, and generally whatever is erected or growing upon or permanently affixed to land.

4. "Restricted land" means land the title to which is held by an individual Indian and which can only be alienated or encumbered by the owner with the approval of the U.S. Department of the Interior because of limitations contained in the conveyance instrument pursuant to federal law.

5. "Trust land" means the land, or an interest therein, for which the United States holds title in trust for the benefit of an individual Indian or for Cherokee Nation.

§ 54. Real property acquisitions

A. Acquisitions of real property utilizing Nation funds or funds directed by the Nation should be prioritized utilizing the following criteria, which are listed in no particular order:

1. Building sustainable communities (housing potential, community facilities, infrastructure built, supports community economy/jobs or local businesses, etc.);

2. Historic or cultural significance to Cherokee Nation;

3. Economic development potential;

4. Consistency with Land Consolidation Plan, as amended, or Strategic Land Plan, including acquisitions that are adjoining or adjacent to existing tribal lands;

5. Sustainability without ongoing financial support, and/or cost/benefit analysis;

6. Involvement of community in planning for the real property acquisition;

7. Real property located in the Arkansas Riverbed Settlement "mandatory trust acquisition" area, or acquisitions of individual trust or restricted lands.

B. All real property acquisitions or acceptances should meet the following due diligence steps:

1. All tracts require a formal or informal ASTM 1527 (American Society for Testing Material);

2. A review to ensure no back property tax is owed;

3. Funds have been identified for acquisition cost and any related cost, i.e., future property tax payments until taken into trust status, property upkeep and maintenance, remodeling, utilities, etc.;

4. The property has a clear title;

5. A review to determine whether the property is in another tribal jurisdiction and if so, whether an agreement between the Nation and the other tribe is necessary.

C. The Principal Chief will designate the Group to coordinate real property acquisitions, and will develop policies and procedures to implement this act, which will include roles and responsibilities to process acquisitions of real property by Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 3

REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY DONATION

§ 101. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Land Donation Act of 2010.

§ 102. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish procedures by which individuals, corporations and entities may donate, by gift or otherwise, real property to be used for the benefit of Cherokee Nation.

§ 103. Definitions

"Donate" or "gift" means to give to Cherokee Nation, without any compensation, real or personal property excluding cash donations.

§ 104. Gifts or donations of property

A. The Treasurer of Cherokee Nation is authorized to receive real or personal property from individuals or corporations or other entities by gift or donation.

B. The Treasurer is authorized to conduct valuation studies, environmental studies, appraisals or any other tests or determinations to ascertain whether the receipt of such gift or donation is in the strategic interest of Cherokee Nation.

C. Cherokee Nation shall appropriate adequate funds to ensure the functions of this act may be carried out.

D. All proposed donations or gifts excluding cash donations shall be reported to the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council prior to its acceptance or rejection.

CHAPTER 4

LAND INTO TRUST BY FOREIGN NATIVE AMERICAN TRIBES

§ 151. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Land into Trust by Foreign Native American Tribes Act of 2011.

§ 152. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish procedures to approve any application by a federally-recognized Native American tribe or member(s) thereof, to have land put into federal trust status, when said land is within the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation and when said tribe or individual is neither Cherokee Nation nor a citizen of Cherokee Nation.

§ 153. Definitions

A. "Federal trust status" means land the title to which is held in trust by the United States for an individual Indian or a tribe.

B. "Foreign Native American tribes" means federally-recognized Indian Tribes or bands, excluding Cherokee Nation.

§ 154. Land into trust by foreign Native American tribes

A. Cherokee Nation, through its Principal Chief and its officers, shall object to any application, request, or proposal by a foreign Native American tribe to acquire, transfer, or otherwise place land in federal trust status within the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation, unless the Principal Chief is authorized to consent to the same by a resolution of the Council of Cherokee Nation, approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Council's entire membership, and approved by the Principal Chief under Article VI, Section 10 of the Constitution of Cherokee Nation. The Principal Chief and the Officers of Cherokee Nation may be enjoined by the Courts of Cherokee Nation to carry out this obligation.

B. Except as authorized under subsection (A), neither the Principal Chief nor any other officer of Cherokee Nation may authorize or consent to establishment of federal trust status for land within the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation by any foreign Native American tribes or member(s) thereof.

C. Except as authorized under subsection (B), neither the Principal Chief nor any other officer of Cherokee Nation shall have any authority to consent to or otherwise authorize the acquisition of land in federal trust status by any foreign Native American tribes or member(s) thereof. The grant of such consent or, assuming actual notice has been received, a failure to object to land acquired in federal trust status by foreign Native American tribes or members thereof within the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation without the resolution required in subsection (B) shall be considered a "willful neglect of duty" as defined in Article XI, Section 1 of the Constitution of Cherokee Nation.

TITLE 67

RECORDS

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Archives and Records Commission—Creation—Composition

There is hereby created the Archives and Records Commission, hereinafter referred to as the Commission, to be composed of the Principal Chief as Chairman, the Executive Director of the Cherokee National Historical Society, Inc., and one (1) member of the Cherokee Nation Council as members.

§ 2. Commission powers and duties generally

The Commission shall have sole and exclusive authority governing the use and disposition of all public records and archives of tribal officers, departments, commissions, agencies, and institutions of Cherokee Nation.

§ 3. Establishment of policies and procedures for storage, processing, servicing, etc., of records and historical documents

The Commission is authorized to establish policies and procedures for the storage, processing, and servicing of records for tribal departments; and to make provisions for the preservation, arrangement, repair, and reproduction of those documents that are determined by the Commission to be of historical value.

§ 4. Design, construction, purchase, etc., of buildings for storage of records

The Commission shall have the authority to design, construct, purchase, lease, maintain, operate, protect and improve buildings used by the Commission for the storage of governmental and archival records.

§ 5. Submission to Council of plans, estimates, and recommendations

The Chairman of the Commission shall transmit to the Council from time to time, and at least annually, such plans, estimates, and recommendations as have been approved by the Commission.

§ 6. Special advisory committees

The Commission is authorized to establish special advisory committees to consult with and make recommendations to it. The members of such special advisory committees shall be chosen from among leading historians, political scientists, archivists, and librarians. Members of such special advisory committees shall be reimbursed for transportation and other expenses on the same basis as an employee of Cherokee Nation.

§ 7. Cherokee National Archives

There is hereby established the Cherokee National Archives which shall be permanently located on the grounds of the Cherokee National Historical Society, Inc. Said Archives shall be the official repository for all public records and archives of tribal officers, departments, commissions, agencies, and institutions of Cherokee Nation.

§ 8. Recovery of records or archives belonging to Cherokee Nation

On behalf of Cherokee Nation, and at the request of the Commission, the General Counsel of Cherokee Nation may replevin any public records or archives illegally removed which were formally part of the records or files of any public office of Cherokee Nation.

§ 9. Liability of Cherokee Nation for infringement of rights arising from use of letters and other intellectual property in custody of Commission

With respect to letters and other intellectual property (exclusive of material copyrighted or patented), after they come into the custody of the Commission, neither Cherokee Nation nor its agents shall be liable for any infringement of literary property rights or analogous rights arising thereafter out of the use of such materials for display, inspection, research, reproduction, or other purposes.

CHAPTER 2

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND RIGHTS TO PRIVACY

§ 101. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Freedom of Information and Rights to Privacy Agenda Act of 2007.

§ 102. Findings and purpose

A. The Council of Cherokee Nation and the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation find that it is vital in a democratic society that public business be performed in an open and public manner. Toward this end, provisions of this chapter must be construed so as to make it possible for Cherokee citizens, or their representatives, to have their public officials and governmental activities at a minimum cost or delay to the persons seeking access to public documents or meetings.

B. Citizens have a right to know the basis of the formulation of public policy. Therefore, it is the public policy of Cherokee Nation that citizens shall be advised of the performance of public officials and of the decisions that are reached in public activity.

§ 103. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Meeting" means the convening of a quorum of the constituent membership of a public body, whether corporeal or by means of electronic equipment, to discuss or act upon a matter over which the public body has supervision, control, jurisdiction or advisory power.
2. "Person" includes any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, organization, or association.
3. "Public body" means any Cherokee Nation board, commission, agency, authority, any public or governmental body or political subdivision of the Nation, including any organization, corporation, or agency supported in whole or in part by public funds under the authority of Cherokee Nation or which expends public funds under the care of the Nation, including committees, subcommittees, advisory committees, and the like of any such body by whatever name known, and includes any quasi-governmental body of the Nation, the business enterprises of the Nation and its political subdivisions, including, without limitation, bodies such as the Public Service Authority, the Port Authority, and any corporation for profit or non-profit.
4. "Public record" includes all books, papers, maps, photographs, cards, tapes, recordings, or other documentary materials regardless of physical form or characteristics prepared, owned, used, in the possession of, or retained by a public body. Records such as income tax returns, medical records, hospital medical staff reports, law enforcement investigative files and names of confidential informants, scholastic records, adoption records, records related to registration, and circulation of library materials which contain names or other personally identifying details regarding the users of public, private, school, college, technical college, university, and state institutional libraries and library systems, supported in whole or in part by public funds or expending public funds, or records which reveal the identity of the library patron checking out or requesting an item from the library or using other library services, except nonidentifying administrative and statistical reports of registration and circulation, and other records which by law are required to be closed to the public are not considered to be made open to the public under the provisions of this act.

5. "Quorum" for regular session of the Council means two-thirds (2/3) of members thereof regularly elected and qualified shall be in attendance. For all other meetings, unless otherwise defined by applicable law, quorum means a simple majority of the constituent membership of a public body.

6. "Tribal Council" means one legislative body called the Council of Cherokee Nation. This body consists of fifteen (15) members, who are members by blood of Cherokee Nation.

§ 104. Right to inspect and/or copy public records—Fees—Notification as to public availability of records—Presumption upon failure to give notice—Records to be available when requestor appears in person

A. Any person has a right to inspect or copy any public record of a public body, except as otherwise provided by 67 CNCA § 105, in accordance with reasonable rules concerning time and place of access.

B. The public body may establish and collect fees not to exceed the actual cost of searching for or making copies of records. Fees charged by a public body must be uniform for copies of the same record or document. However, Members of the Tribal Council may receive copies of records or documents at no charge from public bodies when their request relates to their legislative duties. The records must be furnished at the lowest possible cost to the person requesting the records. Records must be provided in a form that is both convenient and practical for use by the person requesting copies of the records concerned. Documents may be furnished when appropriate without charge or at a reduced charge where the agency determines that waiver or reduction of the fee is in the public interest because furnishing information can be considered as primarily benefiting the general public. Fees may not be charged for examination and review to determine if the documents are subject to disclosure. Nothing in this chapter prevents the custodian of the public records from charging a reasonable hourly rate for making records available to the public nor requiring a reasonable deposit of these costs before searching for or making copies of the records.

C. Each governmental department or branch of the Executive or Legislative public or corporate body, upon written request for records made under this chapter, shall within fifteen (15) days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) of the receipt of any such request notify the person making such request of its determination and the reasons therefore. Nothing in this act shall supercede Legislative Act 98–6, relating to access to records by members of the Tribal Council. Such a determination shall constitute the final opinion of the public body as to the public availability of the requested public record and, if the request is granted, the record must be furnished or made available for inspection or copying. If written notification of the determination of the public body as to the availability of the requested public record is neither mailed nor personally delivered to the person requesting the document within the fifteen (15) days allowed herein, the request must be considered disapproved and the requestor may appeal the denial as provided by this act.

D. The following records of a public body must be made available for public inspection and copying during the hours of operation of the public body without the requestor being required to make a written request or inspect or copy the records when the requestor appears in person:

1. minutes of the meetings of the public body;
2. all reports identified in 67 CNCA § 106(A)(8) for at least the fourteen (14) day period before the current day; and
3. documents identifying persons confined in any jail, detention center, or prison.

§ 105. Matters exempt from disclosure

A. A public body may, but is not required to, exempt from disclosure the following information:

1. Trade secrets, which are defined as unpatented, secret, commercially valuable plans, appliances, formulas, or processes, which are used for the making, preparing, compounding, treating, or processing of articles or materials which are trade commodities obtained from a person and which are generally recognized as confidential; and work products, in whole or in part collected or produced for sale or resale, and paid subscriber information. Trade secrets also include, for those public bodies who market services or products in competition with others, feasibility, planning, and marketing studies, and evaluations and other materials which contain references to potential customers, competitive information, or evaluation.
2. Information of a personal nature where the public disclosure thereof would constitute unreasonable invasion of personal privacy. Information of a personal nature shall include, but not be limited to, information as to gross receipts contained in applications for business licenses and information relating to public records which include the name, address, and telephone number. This provision must not be interpreted to restrict access by the public and press to information contained in public records.
3. Records of law enforcement and public safety agencies not otherwise available by law that were compiled in the process of detecting and investigating crime if the disclosure of the information would harm the agency by:
 - a. disclosing identity of informants not otherwise known;
 - b. the premature release of information to be used in a prospective law enforcement action;
 - c. disclosing investigative techniques not otherwise known outside the government;
 - d. endangering the life, health, or property of any person.
4. Matters specifically exempted from disclosure by statute or law.
5. Documents of and documents incidental to proposed contractual arrangements and documents of and documents incidental to proposed sales or purchase of property; however

a. these documents are not exempt from disclosure once a contract is entered into or the property is sold or purchased except as otherwise provided in this section;

b. a contract for the sale or purchase of real estate shall remain exempt from disclosure until the deed is executed, but this exemption applies only to those contracts of sale or purchase where the execution of the deed occurs within twelve (12) months from the date of sale or purchase;

c. confidential proprietary information provided to a public body for economic development or contract negotiations purposes is not required to be disclosed.

6. All salary compensation paid by public bodies to individuals by authorized positions as classified by Cherokee Nation laws or Executive and Legislative Human Resources or Personnel Policies and Procedures. The annual budgets shall contain such position listings without the names of the individuals holding such positions.

7. Correspondence or work products of legal counsel for a public body and any other material that would violate attorney-client relationships.

8. Memoranda, correspondence, and working papers in the possession of individual members of the Executive and Legislative Departments or Branches or their immediate staffs; however, nothing herein may be construed as limiting or restricting public access to source documents or records, factual data or summaries of factual data, papers, minutes, or reports otherwise considered to be public information under the provisions of this chapter and not specifically exempted by any other provisions of this chapter.

9. Memoranda, correspondence, documents, and working papers relative to efforts or activities of a public body to attract business or industry to invest within Cherokee Nation.

10. Information relative to the identity of the maker of a gift to a public body if the maker specifies that his making of the gift must be anonymous and that his identity must not be revealed as a condition of making the gift. With respect to the gifts, only information which identifies the maker may be exempt from disclosure. If the maker of the gift or any member of his immediate family has any business transaction with the recipient of the gift within three (3) years before or after the gift is made, the identity of the maker is not exempt from disclosure.

11. Records exempt: Council, Committees, Commission and Board meetings in executive session; disclosure of deliberation; exemptions.

a. Meetings while acting as trustee of the retirement system or by its fiduciary agents to deliberate about, or make tentative or final decisions on, investments or other financial matters may be in executive session if disclosure of the deliberations or decisions would jeopardize the ability to implement a decision or to achieve investment objectives.

b. Records of the Board or of its fiduciary agents that discloses deliberations about, or a tentative or final decision on, investments or other financial matters is exempt from the disclosure requirements of this chapter, to the extent and so long as its disclosure would jeopardize the ability to implement an investment decision or program or to achieve investment objectives.

Adoption of annual investment plan; quarterly review; deliberations in executive sessions; exceptions to making records public; administrative costs; duty of care; independent advisors.

c. The panel may discuss, deliberate on, and make decisions on a portion of the annual investment plan or other related financial or investment matters in executive session if disclosure thereof would jeopardize the ability to implement that portion of the plan or achieve investment objectives.

d. A record of the panel or of the retirement system that discloses discussions, deliberations, or decisions on portions of the annual investment plan or other related financial or investment matters is not a public record to the extent and so long as its disclosure would jeopardize the ability to implement that portion of the plan or achieve investment objectives.

e. Not in conflict with any other disclosure rules subject to federal regulations.

12. The identity, or information tending to reveal the identity, of any individual who in good faith makes a complaint or otherwise discloses information, which alleges a violation or potential violation of law or regulation, to a Nation regulatory agency.

13. If any public record contains material which is not exempt under subsection (A) of this section, the public body shall separate the exempt and the nonexempt material and make the nonexempt material available in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.

B. Any record that is requested and is determined to be exempt and not disclosed or is disclosed and marked confidential shall be accompanied by a statement setting out the reasons for such determination.

§ 106. Certain matters declared public information—Use of information for commercial solicitation prohibited

A. Without limiting the meaning of other sections of this chapter, the following categories of information are specifically made public information subject to the restrictions and limitations of sections of this chapter:

1. the names, sex, race, title, and dates of employment of all employees and officers of public bodies;

2. administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public;

3. final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, as well as orders, made in the adjudication of cases;

4. those statements of policy and interpretations of policy, statute, and the Constitution which have been adopted by the public body;
5. written planning policies and goals and final planning decisions;
6. information in or taken from any account, voucher, or contract dealing with the receipt or expenditure of public or other funds by public bodies;
7. the minutes of all proceedings of all public bodies and all votes at such proceedings, with the exception of all such minutes and votes taken at meetings closed to the public pursuant to the Constitution and law of Cherokee Nation;
8. reports which disclose the nature, substance, and location of any crime or alleged crime reported as having been committed. Where a report contains information exempt as otherwise provided by law, the law enforcement agency may delete that information from the report;
9. final audits of Cherokee Nation and its subsidiaries.

B. No information contained in a police incident report or in an employee salary schedule revealed in response to a request pursuant to this chapter may be utilized for commercial solicitation. However, this provision must not be interpreted to restrict access by the public and press to information contained in public records.

§ 107. Meetings of public bodies shall be open

Every meeting of all public bodies shall be open to the public unless closed pursuant to 67 CNCA § 108.

§ 108. Meetings which may be closed—Procedure—Circumvention of chapter—Disruption of meeting—Executive sessions of Tribal Council

A. A public body may hold a meeting closed to the public for one or more of the following reasons:

1. Discussion of employment, appointment, compensation, promotion, demotion, discipline, or release of an employee, a student, or a person regulated by a public body or the appointment of a person to a public body; however, if an adversary hearing involving the employee or client is held, the employee or client has the right to demand that the hearing be conducted publicly. Nothing contained in this item shall prevent the public body, in its discretion, from deleting the names of other employees or clients whose records are submitted for use at the hearing;
2. Discussion of negotiations incident to proposed contractual arrangements and proposed sale or purchase of property, the receipt of legal advice where the legal advice relates to a pending, threatened, or potential claim or other matters covered by the attorney-client privilege, settlement of legal claims, or the position of the public agency in other adversary situations involving the assertion against the agency of a claim;

3. Discussion regarding the development of security personnel or devices;

4. Investigative proceedings regarding allegations of criminal misconduct;

5. Discussion of matters relating to the proposed location, expansion, or the provision of services encouraging location or expansion of industries or other businesses in the area served by the public body.

B. Before going into executive session the public agency shall vote in public on the question and when the vote is favorable, the presiding officer shall announce the specific purpose of the executive session. As used in this subsection, "specific purpose" means a description of the matter to be discussed as identified in paragraphs 1 through 5 of subsection (A) of this section. However, when the executive session is held pursuant to 67 CNCA § 108(A)(1) or (A)(5), the identity of the individual or entity being discussed is not required to be disclosed to satisfy the requirement that the specific purpose of the executive session be stated. No action may be taken in executive session except to (a) adjourn or (b) return to public session. The members of a public body may not commit the public body to a course of action by a polling of members in executive session.

C. No chance meeting, social meeting, or electronic communication may be used in circumvention of the spirit of requirements of this chapter to act upon a matter over which the public body has supervision, control, jurisdiction, or advisory power.

D. This chapter does not prohibit the removal of any person who willfully disrupts a meeting to the extent that orderly conduct of the meeting is seriously compromised.

E. Sessions of the Tribal Council may enter into executive session authorized by the Constitution of this Nation and rules adopted pursuant thereto.

§ 109. Notice of meetings of public bodies

A. All public bodies must give written public notice of their regular meetings and special meetings as required by the Constitution and laws of Cherokee Nation. Provided, that agendas must be posted, in accordance with this act, ten (10) days prior to any regular meeting of a public body or twenty-four (24) hours prior to a special meeting.

B. Legislative committees must post their meeting agenda at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting. Subcommittees of standing legislative committees must give notice if it is practical to do so.

C. Subcommittees, other than legislative subcommittees, of committees required to give notice under subsection (A), must make reasonable and timely efforts to give notice of their meetings.

D. Written public notice must include but need not be limited to posting a copy of the notice at the principal office of the public body holding the meeting or, if no such office exists, at the building in which the meeting is to be held.

E. Informal legislative conferences between the Principal Chief and the Council of Cherokee Nation are authorized, provided that the date, time and place of such meetings are posted at least ten (10) days in advance of such meetings. No formal action shall be taken at these conferences. Such conferences are open to the public unless closed pursuant to 67 CNCA § 108.

F. All public bodies shall make efforts to notify persons or organizations, local news media, or such other news media as may request notification of the times, dates, places, and agenda of all public meetings, whether scheduled, rescheduled, or called, and the efforts made to comply with this requirement must be noted in the minutes of the meetings.

§ 110. Minutes of meetings of public bodies

A. All public bodies shall keep written minutes of all of their public meetings. Such minutes shall include but need not be limited to:

1. The date, time and place of the meeting;
2. The members of the public body recorded as either present or absent;
3. The substance of all matters proposed, discussed or decided and, at the request of any member, a record, by an individual member, of any votes taken;
4. Any other information that any member of the public body requests be included or reflected in the minutes.

B. The minutes shall be public record and shall be available within a reasonable time after the meeting.

C. All or any part of a meeting of a public body may be recorded by any person in attendance by means of a tape recorder or any other means of sonic reproduction, except when a meeting is closed pursuant to 67 CNCA § 108, provided that in so recording, there is no active interference with the conduct of the meeting. Provided, further, that the public body shall not be required to furnish recording facilities or equipment.

§ 111. Injunctive relief, costs and attorney fees

A. Any citizen of the Nation may apply to the District Court of Cherokee Nation for either or both a declaratory judgment and injunctive relief to enforce the provisions of this chapter in appropriate cases as long as such application is made no later than one (1) year following the date on which the alleged violation occurs or one (1) year after a public vote in public session, whichever comes later. The Court may order equitable relief as it considers appropriate and a violation of this chapter must be considered to be an irreparable injury for which no adequate remedy at law exists.

B. If a person or entity seeking such relief prevails, he or it may be awarded reasonable attorney fees and other costs of litigation. If such person or entity prevails in part, the Court may in its discretion award him or it reasonable attorney fees or an appropriate portion thereof.

§ 112. Penalties

Any person or group of persons who willfully and maliciously violates the provisions of this chapter may be found guilty of a crime and upon conviction shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned for not more than thirty (30) days for the first offense, shall be fined not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) or imprisoned for not more than sixty (60) days for the second offense, and shall be fined Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) or imprisoned for not more than ninety (90) days for the third or subsequent offense.

§ 113. Identification (I.D.) records

Photographs, signatures, addresses, and digitized images from a driver's license or personal identification cards are not public records.

§ 114. Privacy of driver's license information

A. Any Department of Public Office may not sell, provide, or furnish to a private party a person's height, weight, race, social security number, photograph, or signature in any form that has been compiled for the purpose of issuing special identification cards or completing an application for specific program requirements. The department shall not release to a private party any part of the record of a person under fifteen (15) years of age who has applied for or has been issued a special identification card.

B. A person's height, weight, race, photograph, signature, and digitized image contained in compiled application request or special identification card record are not public records.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a private person or private entity shall not use an electronically-stored version of a person's photograph, social security number, height, weight, race, or signature for any purpose, when the electronically-stored information was obtained from a driver's license record.

CHAPTER 3

FREE FLOW OF INFORMATION

§ 201. Short title

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Free Flow of Information Act of 2010.

§ 202. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to ensure the coordination of all departments of Cherokee Nation Government in the development and sharing of information concerning tribal citizens in order to provide better services to the Cherokee people.

§ 203. Definitions

A. "Criminal records" means any records that contain confidential criminal or investigatory information.

B. "Medical records" means any records that contain confidential health information.

§ 204. Central database

A. The Principal Chief shall ensure the creation of a central database of the address, date of birth, phone number (if available) and Cherokee registration number of all Cherokee Nation citizens.

B. In compiling this list, the various departments of Cherokee Nation Government shall cooperate and share information. These departments shall include, but are not limited to: Registration, Election Commission, Tax Commission, The Cherokee Phoenix and Housing Department.

C. The Cherokee Nation Health Services and the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service shall not provide information to the database to ensure that neither confidential health records nor criminal records are improperly disseminated.

D. The information collected by the various departments shall be used for Cherokee Nation internal use only, except as otherwise provided by law.

TITLE 68

REVENUE AND TAXATION

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Tax Code

The several tax laws codified herein shall be known as the Cherokee Nation Tax Code.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of the Cherokee Nation Tax Code is to raise revenues, in a fair and efficient manner, to enable the government of Cherokee Nation to provide governmental services to citizens of Cherokee Nation and to promote tribal economic development, self-sufficiency and a strong tribal government. As the population and needs of Cherokee Nation increase, with the resulting increase in the demand for governmental services partly as a result of increased employment and development with Cherokee Nation, it is an appropriate exercise of the sovereign authority of Cherokee Nation to require those earning income or possessing wealth in Cherokee Country as defined herein to share in the costs of such governmental services.

§ 3. Definitions

For the purposes of this Title:

1. "Cherokee country" means all "Indian country" lands as defined by federal law located within the geographical boundaries of Cherokee Nation, including but not limited to the following property located within said boundaries:
 - a. land held in trust by the United States of America for the benefit of Cherokee Nation;
 - b. All land within the limits of any Indian reservation, notwithstanding the issuance of any patent, including land set aside by the United States for and owned in fee by Cherokee Nation, and including rights-of-way running through the reservation;
 - c. All dependent Indian communities, including land set aside by the United States for and owned in fee by Cherokee Nation; and
 - d. All Indian allotments, the Indian titles to which have not been extinguished, including individual allotments held in trust by the United States or allotments owned in fee by individual Indians subject to federal law restrictions regarding disposition of said allotments and including rights-of-way running through the same.
2. "Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission as defined herein.
3. "Individual retail tobacco licensees" shall mean individuals who are licensed by the Nation and who are citizens of the Nation.
4. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.
5. "Non-citizens" means persons who are not citizens of Cherokee Nation.
6. "Person" means any natural individual, company, partnership, firm, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, political entity or other identifiable entity to which this Title can be applied.
7. "Restricted and trust individual lands" means Indian allotments as defined in paragraph d of subdivision 1 of this section.

8. "Tax" means compulsory payment levied on wages, income, property (tangible or intangible), sales of goods, products or services, transfers of property or the severance of any minerals or oil and gas for the support of the government of the Nation.

9. "Tribal enterprises retail tobacco licensees" shall mean businesses, corporations and other business entities which are licensed by the Nation and which are owned by the Nation or in which a majority interest is owned by the Nation.

10. "Tribal lands" means the following types or combination of types of "Cherokee country" land, regardless of whether characterized as a reservation or dependent Indian community; land the title to which is held in trust by the United States for the benefit of the Nation; land held by the Nation subject to federal restrictions against alienation and land set aside by the United States for Cherokee Nation and owned in fee by the Nation.

§ 4. Severability

If any provision of this title or its application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of this Title which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Title are severable.

§ 5. Distribution of tax revenue

At least seventy-five percent (75%) of all future tax appropriations, from revenues other than those collected pursuant to Chapter 9 of this Title, shall be dedicated for the purpose of education, health and human services, housing programs/projects and economic development.

CHAPTER 2

CHEROKEE NATION TAX COMMISSION AND ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

§ 11. Establishment

The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission is hereby established as a part of the Executive Branch of the government of the Nation.

§ 12. Membership

A. The Commission shall consist of three (3) members, at least two (2) of whom shall be citizens of the Nation and at least two (2) of whom shall reside within the boundaries of the Nation. To be eligible to serve as a Commissioner, a person must (i) be at least twenty-five (25) years of age; (ii) have a bachelor's degree from a college or university or its equivalent; (iii) be of high moral character or integrity; (iv) never have been convicted of a criminal offense other than misdemeanor traffic offenses; and (v) be physically able to carry out the duties of office.

B. The Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation shall select the members of the Commission, subject to confirmation by majority vote of the Council of Cherokee Nation.

C. The Principal Chief shall, at the time of making the initial appointments and also at the time of making each appointment to fill a vacancy on the Commission as provided herein, designate one (1) member to serve as Chairman, one (1) member to serve as Vice-Chairman and one (1) member to serve as Secretary.

D. The terms of office of the Commissioners shall be three (3) years; provided, however, that in order to stagger the expiration of office, one (1) of the first group of Commissioners appointed hereunder shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year, one (1) for a term of two (2) years, and one (1) for a term of three (3) years.

E. Commissioners shall serve their terms of office free from political influence from any department of the government of the Nation and may be removed only for cause, after a hearing by the Supreme Court under such rules and procedures as prescribed by the Council. A petition for removal for cause may be brought by a vote of the majority of Council Members, or the Principal Chief. Except as authorized under the Constitution of Cherokee Nation, no member of the Commission shall, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political organization, candidacy or other political purpose. No member of the Commission shall be a member of any tribal or local committee of a political party, or an officer or a member of a committee of a partisan political club, or a candidate for nomination or election to any paid tribal office, or take part in the management or affairs of any tribal political party or in any political campaign, except to exercise his or her right as a citizen privately to express his or her opinion and to cast his or her vote.

F. In the event of a vacancy in the membership of the Commission, the Principal Chief shall, within twenty (20) days of the occurrence of the vacancy, fill such vacancy for the unexpired term, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the Council.

§ 13. Powers

The Commission shall have the following powers:

1. To review and study all sources of income and wealth within the Nation and all possible taxes thereon.
2. To recommend to the Council such taxes as would be beneficial to the Nation, including without limitation taxes on wages, income, property (tangible and intangible), sales of goods, products or services, transfers of property or the severance of any minerals or oil and gas.
3. To enforce and administer the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Tax Code and to adopt by majority vote such other rules and regulations as it deems necessary for the proper functioning of the Commission and administration of Cherokee Nation Tax Code.

4. To devise an operational structure for itself and for any staffing requirements it may find necessary to the fulfillment of the duties and obligations contained herein, any such plan to be presented to the Council. The total amount disbursed by the Commission in any one (1) fiscal year for the payment of salaries, expenses and incidentals shall not, however, exceed the amount appropriated therefor by the Council.

§ 14. Additional powers

The Commission shall be empowered with all necessary powers of control over all such entities as would normally fall within the purview of such Commission, or of those entities over which specific control is granted to the Commission by the Council. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing statement, the Commission or any member thereof, in the performance of its duties as defined by law, shall have the power to administer oaths, to conduct hearings, to deputize law enforcement officers for purposes of enforcement of this code and to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of the books, records and papers of any person, firm, association or corporation within the jurisdiction of the Nation for the purpose of the enforcement, assessment or collection of any tax.

§ 15. Limitations—Recommendations

The Commission shall exercise only that authority granted herein, but may make additional recommendations to the Council at any time it deems proper.

§ 16. Salaries

The annual compensation, payable monthly, of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Secretary of the Commission shall be as determined in accordance with the annual budget appropriation.

§ 17. Civil actions for tax penalties and interest

In any case of failure of a person or corporation liable for taxes under this Title to pay the taxes, penalties or interest due, the amount of such taxes, penalties and interest may be recovered in a civil action before the District Court of Cherokee Nation. Such actions must be brought within three (3) years of the due date of any tax payment or tax return or the actual date of payment of any tax, whichever is the later, except in any case involving fraud, in which case an action must be brought within three (3) years of the discovery of the fraud.

§ 18. Refunds of excess tax payments

Any person or corporation who believes that it has overpaid taxes under this Title may apply to the Commission for a refund within six (6) months of the overpayment. Any tax paid, which after a hearing pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted by the Commission is found to be in excess of that required to be paid, shall be refunded to the person paying the tax, or credited against taxes due from the taxpayer.

§ 19. Appeals

A. The District Court of Cherokee Nation shall have original jurisdiction to hear appeals from final decisions of the Commission.

B. Any party may appeal any final decision of the Commission within thirty (30) days after such decision by filing a notice of appeal with the Commission, paying tax as determined by the Commission and serving a copy to Cherokee Nation. Thereafter the Commission shall promptly file the full record of the proceeding, including the notice of appeal, with the District Court.

C. In all appeals, the District Court shall give proper deference to the administrative expertise of the Commission. The District Court shall not set aside, modify or remand any determination by the Commission unless it finds that the determination is arbitrary and capricious, unsupported by substantial evidence or contrary to law. The District Court shall issue a written decision on all appeals.

D. The District Court may, in its discretion, award costs and attorney fees to Cherokee Nation against any appellant whose appeal was frivolous, malicious, or in bad faith. Such fees shall be assessed and collected as a tax imposed under this Title.

E. The Supreme Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear an appeal from the District Court of Cherokee Nation.

§ 20. Finality of Commission or Supreme Court action

Any final finding or determination of the Supreme Court in proceedings pursuant to 68 CNCA § 19 shall be final and binding in any other proceeding against or by the same person before the Commission or the Supreme Court.

§ 21. Settlements of taxes due

A. The Commission upon unanimous consent, may compromise the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of taxes and/or interest by entering in writing with the taxpayer a settlement agreement that adequately protects the interests of the Nation.

B. If entered into after any court acquires jurisdiction of the matter, a settlement agreement shall be part of the stipulated order or judgment disposing of the case.

C. As a condition for entering into a settlement agreement, the Commission may require the provision of security for payment of any taxes due according to the terms of the settlement agreement.

D. A settlement agreement is conclusive as to the liability or nonliability for payment of taxes relating to the periods referred in the settlement agreement, except upon a showing of fraud, malfeasance, misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact.

§ 22. Power to compact

The Principal Chief shall have the authority to negotiate a compact or contract with the State of Oklahoma in order to ensure that Cherokee Nation receives certain tax exemptions and revenues to which it is entitled under federal and tribal law in an efficient and timely manner. Such compact or contract must be approved by a majority of the Council.

§ 23. Penalty and interest

A. If any amount of tax imposed by this code is not paid before the same becomes delinquent, interest, at the rate of ten percent (10%) per month until payment of the tax, shall be calculated and collected as part of the delinquent tax. Interest may not be waived.

B. A penalty for failure to file monthly tobacco reports shall be ten percent (10%) per month of the tax due for each and any part of a month that the monthly report is delinquent, however this penalty shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the tax due for the delinquent month. An additional penalty for failure to pay tax due shall be ten percent (10%) per month of the tax due for each and any part of a month that the tax is delinquent, however this penalty shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) per month of the tax due for the delinquent month. Penalties will not be subject to waiver, except at the discretion of the Commission and can result in revocation of license, where payment of the total amount of such tax is a result of good cause and not as a result of negligence, design, or inadvertence. The minimum penalty shall be Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

§ 24. Substitute returns prepared by Commission

The Commission may assess tax based on substitute returns prepared by the Commission where no timely return or report was filed by the person required to file a return or report.

§ 25. Initial application fee

There shall be a One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) initial application fee in addition to annual license fees for all business licenses including sales and tobacco licenses.

CHAPTER 3

SALES TAX

§ 31. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Business enterprise" means any activity engaged in or caused to be engaged in by any person with object of gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect by retail sales of goods or services.

2. "Citizen" is defined by Article IV, Section 1 of the Constitution of Cherokee Nation.

3. "Event held on an irregular basis", for purposes of this section, means any event that does not occur on a continuous and ongoing basis, even if there is some frequency or pattern of occurrences. Events held on "an irregular basis" may include, but are not limited to, events held once a week or only certain weeks, events that are held every weekend or only on particular weekends, events held once a month or for only certain months, and other events that are held on a periodic basis, as well as those which occur more sporadically.

4. "Gross receipts" or "gross proceeds" means the total amount of consideration for the sales of any items of value or goods or services taxable under this chapter, whether the consideration is in money or otherwise. "Gross receipts" or "gross proceeds" shall include, but not be limited to:

a. cash paid;

b. any amount for which payment is charged, deferred, or otherwise to be made in the future, regardless of the time or manner of payment;

c. any amount for which credit or a discount is allowed by the vendor;

d. any value of a trade-in or other property accepted in-kind by the vendor as consideration.

There shall not be any deduction from the gross receipts or gross proceeds on account of cost of the property sold, labor service performed, interest paid, or losses, or of any expenses whatsoever, whether or not the tangible personal property sold was produced, constructed, fabricated, processed, or otherwise assembled for or at the request of the consumer as part of the sale.

5. "Non-profit" means a non-profit organization that employs less than ten (10) employees.

6. "Person" means any individual, company, partnership, joint venture, joint agreement association, mutual or otherwise, limited liability company, corporation, estate, trust business trust receiver or trustee appointed by any state or federal court or otherwise, syndicate, this state, any county, city, municipality, school district any other political subdivision of the state, or any group or combination acting as a unit in the plural or singular number.

7. "Promoter" or "organizer" means any person who organizes or promotes a special event which results in the rental, occupation or use of any structure, lot, tract of land, sample or display case, table or any other similar items for the exhibition and sale of tangible personal property or services taxable under 68 CNCA § 32 et seq. by special event vendors.

8. "Retail sales tax" means a compulsory payment levied on the retail sales price on all items of value or goods or services, as further defined herein, for the support of the government of

Cherokee Nation.

9. "Special event" means an entertainment amusement recreation, or marketing event that occurs at a single location on an irregular basis and at which tangible personal property is sold. "Special event" shall include, but not be limited to, gun shows, knife shows, craft shows, antique shows, flea markets, carnivals, bazaars, art shows, and other merchandise displays or exhibits.

10. "Special event vendor" means a person making sales of tangible personal property or services taxable under 68 CNCA § 32 et seq. at a special event within this Nation and who is not permitted under 68 CNCA § 32.

11. "Veteran" means a person who served in the active military, naval, or air service, Nation Guard or Military Reserve and who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable.

§ 32. Tax levy—Rate

A. There is hereby levied a sales tax of six percent (6%) on the gross receipts or gross proceeds of all items of value or goods or services bought, sold, rented, leased or exchanged, or any combination thereof on all transactions on, through, by or with any business enterprise which is located on tribal lands. Exempt from this tax are sales to Oklahoma public schools, and to certain non-profits. Also, exempt from this tax are sales of tangible personal property or services to veterans who are enrolled citizens of Cherokee Nation who have been honorably discharged from active service in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States, National Guard, or Military Reserve and those veterans who have been certified by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or its successor to be in receipt of disability compensation at the one-hundred-percent rate and the disability shall be permanent and have been sustained through military action or accident or resulting from disease contracted while in such active service; provided, sales for the benefit of the person to a spouse of the eligible person or to a member of the household in which the eligible person resides and who is authorized to make purchases on the person's behalf, when such person is not present at the sale, shall also be exempt for purposes of this paragraph.

B. The Commission is hereby directed to make such assessments effective upon the first full month following the effective date as defined in LA 01-01, Section 21-1-5 of and continuing monthly thereafter.

§ 33. Retail sales licensing

Every retail business enterprise must apply for and receive from the Commission a retail sales license prior to establishing any place of business or retail outlet for the sale of products on restricted tribal lands. Forms for such application and license shall be provided by the Commission. Retail business enterprises operating on restricted tribal lands as of the effective date as defined in LA 01-90, Section 21-1-5 shall apply for a license.

§ 34. Retail sales license

The retail sales license shall be valid for one (1) calendar year from the date of issue and shall be nontransferable and nonassignable. A separate license shall be required for each separate location at which a retailer may establish a place of business or retail outlet. The license shall be conspicuously posted in a public area in each such place of business or retail outlet. A license fee of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) shall be paid for each new or renewal license issued.

§ 35. Application for special event permit

A. Application. Every promoter or organizer of a special event shall file an application for a special event permit with the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission at least twenty (20) days before the beginning of the special event. If more than one special event is to be held at the same location during a single calendar year, all may be included in one (1) application, and a separate permit will be issued for each event. Each permit will include the dates of the event to be held, and must be prominently displayed at the site of the event for its duration. If an applicant wishes to have permits issued for additional events after an application has been previously submitted, another supplemental application must be filed for the additional events. The application form for a special event permit may be obtained from the Revenue and Taxation Dept., Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, P.O. Box 948 Tahlequah, OK 74464.

B. Fee. There is a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each application filed, which must be remitted with the application.

C. Tax. A flat fee will be the responsibility of the promoter or organizer which will be assessed for each special event in lieu of tribal sales tax and will be determined by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.

D. Promoter or organizer to distribute vendors' reporting forms. Special event promoters and organizations are required to provide sales report forms to special event vendors that will be selling tangible personal property and services at the event.

E. List of vendors. Within fifteen (15) days following the conclusion of the special event, the organizer or promoter shall also submit a list of vendors at each event that hold a valid sales tax permit issued under 68 CNCA § 33. The list shall include the vendor's name, address, telephone number and sales tax permit number.

F. Failure to comply. Failure by the promoter to comply with the requirements of this section or failure by vendors of the promoter's previous special events to comply with the provisions of subsection (B) of this section shall be subject to penalty and interest.

G. Penalty and interest. If any amount of tax imposed by this code is not paid before the same becomes delinquent, interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per month until payment of the tax, shall be calculated and collected as part of the delinquent tax. Interest may not be waived.

CHAPTER 4

TOBACCO TAX

§ 41. Definitions

For the purposes of this chapter:

1. "Cigarette" means all rolled tobacco or any substitute therefore, wrapped in paper or any substitute therefor and weighing not to exceed three (3) pounds per thousand (1,000) cigarettes.
2. "Consumer" means any person who received or comes into possession of cigarettes or tobacco products for the purpose of consuming or otherwise disposing of them in any way other than an exchange for value.
3. "Contraband" means any cigarettes, tobacco or related products upon which all applicable Cherokee Nation taxes have not been paid.
4. "Decal" means a picture, design, or label made to be transferred (as to glass) from specially prepared paper.
5. "Firmly affixed" means permanently attached, directly to the device, using the adhesive provided on the decal and does not include placing decal on the device using any other object, surface, or separate adhesive strip or apparatus.
6. "Permit" or "license" means a written warrant or license granted by the Commission.
7. "Retailer" means any person who comes into possession of cigarettes or tobacco products for the purpose of selling or who sells them at retail, any person not coming with the definition of a wholesaler having possession of more than one thousand (1,000) individual cigarettes, five hundred (500) individual cigars or more than two (2) pounds of other tobacco products, and any person operating one, two, or three vending machines.
8. "Sale" or "sales" means all sales, barters, exchanges or other transfers of ownership of cigarettes or tobacco products from one person to another, or the use or consumption occurring in Cherokee country in the first instance, of cigarettes or tobacco products from outside Cherokee country, upon which the tax imposed by this chapter has not been placed or paid.
9. "Stamp" means the stamp or stamps produced by the Commission by which the tax levied hereunder is paid.
10. "Tobacco" means either cigarettes or tobacco products.
11. "Tobacco product" means any smokable product of any species of the tobacco plant, including smoking in pipes or rolling into cigarettes, any roll of tobacco for smoking irrespective of size or shape or adulteration which has a wrapper made chiefly of tobacco and includes but is not limited to those items commonly known as cigars, cheroots, or stogies, and any articles or products made from tobacco or any substitute therefore except cigarettes, and including chewing tobacco of any description and snuff.

12. "Use" means the exercise of any right or power over cigarettes or tobacco products incident to the ownership thereof except sales of cigarettes or tobacco products in the regular course of business.

13. "Vending machines" or "machine" means any coin-operated machine that dispenses a product in exchange for money and operates unattended, except for refills and repairs.

14. "Wholesaler" means any jobber or person who is organized and existing or doing business primarily to sell cigarettes or tobacco products to and render services to retailers and who makes such sales or renders such services to retailers located in Cherokee country; provided, that, at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the entire amount of gross sales occurring in Cherokee country are made at wholesale. Irrespective of the foregoing requirements, any jobber or person who is recognized and licensed as a wholesaler in the jurisdiction wherein said jobber or person resides, is incorporated, or has its principal place of business shall be a wholesaler as defined by this chapter, and any operator of four (4) or more cigarette vending machines shall be a wholesaler as defined by this chapter.

§ 42. Tax on cigarettes

There is hereby levied upon the sale, use, gift, possession or consumption of cigarettes occurring in Cherokee country a tax which shall be assessed at the rate established by the Cherokee Nation/State of Oklahoma Tobacco Tax Compact, as amended or superseded by agreement of both parties.

§ 43. Tax on tobacco products

There is hereby levied upon the sale, use, gift, possession, or consumption of tobacco product occurring in Cherokee country a tax which shall be assessed at the rate established by the Cherokee Nation/State of Oklahoma Tobacco Tax Compact, as amended or superseded by agreement of both parties.

§ 44. Tax paid once

Such taxes pursuant to 68 CNCA §§ 42 and 43 shall be paid only once on any cigarettes or tobacco products sold, used, received, or possessed in Cherokee country. Cigarettes and tobacco products, on which taxes pursuant to 68 CNCA §§ 42 and 43 have been paid, are exempt from the taxes imposed by 68 CNCA § 32.

§ 45. Evidence of tax

Payment of the taxes imposed by this chapter may be evidenced by stamps applied to each taxable package containing tobacco which shall be furnished by and purchased from the Commission or by an impression of such stamp by use of a metering device approved by the Commission, or by invoice and receipt, or certification by wholesalers who have collected tax as determined by the Commission.

§ 46. Impact of tax

The impact of the taxes imposed by this chapter is declared to be on the consumer, user, or possessor and when such tax is paid by any other person that payment shall be considered an advance payment and shall be added to the price to be recovered from the ultimate user, possessor, or consumer. Every wholesaler who has paid such taxes shall show, and every retailer who has paid such taxes may show, the amount of such taxes as a separate item on any invoices which they may issue.

§ 47. Payment of tax

A. Every wholesaler who shall operate in Cherokee country a warehouse, supply house, storage house, truck or other point from which distribution of cigarettes or tobacco products to retailers or vending machines will be made shall, upon withdrawal from storage and prior to placing in a vending machine or making any sale, distribution, or transfer of possession or ownership of any such cigarettes or tobacco products, cause the same to have affixed thereto such stamp or stamps as are required by the Commission and pay the proper tax as required by the code.

B. Every retailer who comes into possession or ownership of any cigarettes or tobacco products from any source which does not have affixed thereto the proper stamps, shall within seventy-two (72) hours of receipt thereof excluding Sundays and legal holidays and prior to making any sale or distribution for consumption, cause the same to have affixed thereto such stamp or stamps as are required by the Commission and pay the proper tax as required by this code.

C. Every consumer who shall come into possession or ownership of cigarettes or tobacco products from any source which does not have affixed thereto the proper stamp or stamps shall within seventy-two (72) hours of receipt thereof excluding Sundays and legal holidays and prior to the consumption, gift, or other use thereof cause the same to have affixed thereto such stamp or stamps as are required by the Commission and pay the proper tax as required by this code.

§ 48. Exclusions from taxation

A. Notwithstanding the provision of 68 CNCA § 47(C) or any other provision of law, any natural person who shall come into possession or ownership of cigarettes or tobacco products outside Cherokee country for personal use and consumption only, and upon which is affixed evidence showing that any taxes imposed by the jurisdiction from which said cigarettes or tobacco products were acquired to have been paid shall have exempted from payment of taxes pursuant to this chapter the following amounts of each of the following in possession and/or ownership at any one time:

1. Cigarettes—one thousand (1,000) individual cigarettes;
2. Cigars—five hundred (500) individual cigars;
3. Other tobacco products—no more than two (2) pounds total.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of 68 CNCA § 47(C) or any other provision of law, possession, gift, or use of noncommercial, privately produced tobacco for religious or ceremonial use shall be exempt from taxation; provided, however, that if such tobacco is sold, such sale shall be prima facie evidence that the tobacco is not intended for religious or ceremonial use.

§ 49. Unstamped tobacco contraband

A. Any cigarettes or tobacco products found in the custody or control of any person upon which a tax stamp is required to have been placed which does not bear a proper tax stamp or have other evidence of the proper tax having been paid as required by this code and any vehicles or tangible personal property including vending machines used in their transportation, storage, consumption, or concealment are hereby declared to be contraband and subject to seizure, forfeiture and sale. The Commission may seize contraband, sell contraband and forward proceeds to Cherokee Nation.

B. The forfeiture provisions of this section with regard to vehicles and other personal property shall apply only to persons in possession of cigarettes or tobacco products with the intent to sell, barter, give away, or exchange the same for value; provided, that possession of more than one thousand (1,000) individual cigarettes or five hundred (500) individual cigars, or two (2) pounds of tobacco products shall create rebuttable presumption and be prima facie evidence that such cigars, cigarettes, or tobacco products are possessed with the intent to sell, barter, give away, or exchange the same for value.

C. Any cigarettes or tobacco products upon which a tax stamp is affixed found in the custody or control of an unlicensed wholesaler or unlicensed retailer is hereby declared contraband and is subject to seizure, forfeiture and sale.

D. Cigarettes and tobacco products held by, in the custody of, or under the control of any tobacco retailer who has not applied for and received a valid Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, or state of Oklahoma tobacco retailer license, within the fourteen (14) county area of Cherokee Nation at any location which does not constitute "Indian country" as defined by federal law, are hereby declared contraband and are subject to seizure, forfeiture and sale.

§ 50. Records

The Commission shall promulgate rules requiring that all wholesalers and retailers of tobacco within the tribal jurisdiction maintain for not less than three (3) years complete and adequate records, including invoices, of all tobacco received and sold or otherwise disposed of, and tax stamps purchased paid. The Commission may inspect said records at any time to determine whether sufficient stamps have been purchased to account for all tobacco received and sold or otherwise disposed of by said wholesaler or retailer, and whether the proper tax has been paid.

§ 51. Reports

Every wholesaler or retailer of cigarettes or tobacco products shall submit monthly reports to the Commission on forms prescribed and furnished by the Commission disclosing the opening and closing inventories of unstamped tobacco; stamped tobacco; tobacco stamps; tax paid; purchases of tobacco including the invoice number, name and address of seller, date and amount of each type of tobacco sold and such other information pertinent to their business done in Cherokee country as the Commission shall require; and sales of tobacco; including, if sold for resale, invoice number, name and address of buyer, date and amount of each type of tobacco sold and such other information pertinent to their business done in Cherokee country as the Commission shall require.

§ 52. Wholesale and retail stocks to be separate

Every person who is both a wholesaler and retailer of cigarettes or tobacco products shall keep separate records, make separate reports, and keep all stock of tobacco separated and identifiable for the wholesale and retail portions of such person's business.

§ 53. Repealed by LA 05–06, eff. April 1, 2006

§ 54. Collection of tax

Wholesalers may only sell cigarettes and tobacco products to retailers licensed by the Commission and retailers may only buy cigarettes and tobacco products from entities licensed by the Commission. The Commission may require the wholesaler or retailer to collect and remit tax to the Commission. Such tax collected and remitted shall be deemed an advance payment of the tax for the credit of the retailer. There is hereby created a fund not to exceed One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), to make loans available to tobacco retailers that are adversely and wrongfully affected by the Oklahoma Tax Commission emergency rules passed on February 22, 2006. The Nation will be repaid for such loans through the rebate amount that the Oklahoma Tax Commission sends to the Nation. The appropriate staff of the Legislative and Executive Branches are hereby directed to produce procedures for the fair and equitable allocation of these funds.

§ 55. Wholesaler licensing

Every wholesaler of cigarettes or tobacco products must apply and receive from the Commission a tobacco wholesaler license prior to establishing any place of business, warehouse, or wholesale outlet for the sale of cigarettes or tobacco products in Cherokee country. Forms for such application and license shall be provided by the Commission. Wholesalers of cigarettes or tobacco products operating in Cherokee country as of the effective date as defined in LA 01–90, Section 21–1–5 shall apply for a tobacco wholesaler license within one (1) month of such effective date.

§ 56. Tobacco wholesaler license

The tobacco wholesaler license shall be valid for one (1) calendar year from the date of issue and shall be nontransferable and nonassignable. A separate license shall be required for each separate location at which a wholesaler may establish a place of business, warehouse, or wholesale outlet. The license shall be conspicuously posted in a public area in each such place of business, warehouse, or wholesale outlet. A license fee of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) shall be paid for each new or renewal license issued.

§ 57. Retailer licensing

Every retailer of cigarettes or tobacco products must apply for and receive from the Commission a tobacco retailer license prior to establishing any place of business or retail outlet for the sale of cigarettes or tobacco products in Cherokee country. The Commission may issue retailer licenses only for places of business or retail outlets located on individual restricted land, individual trust land or tribal land. Forms for such application and license shall be provided by the Commission. Retailers of cigarettes or tobacco product operating in Cherokee country as of the effective date as defined in LA 01-90, Section 21-1-5 shall apply for a tobacco retailer license within one (1) month of such effective date.

§ 58. Tobacco retailer license

The tobacco retailer license shall be valid for one (1) calendar year from the date of issue and shall be nontransferable and nonassignable. A separate license shall be required for each separate location at which a retailer may establish a place of business or retail outlet. The license shall be conspicuously posted in a public area in each such place of business or retail outlet. A license fee of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) shall be paid for each new or renewal license issued.

§ 59. Other unlawful acts

It shall be unlawful for any retailer to sell cigarettes and tobacco products in Cherokee country without first applying for and receiving a tobacco retailer license at any location constituting Cherokee country. It shall further be unlawful for any retailer to sell cigarettes and tobacco products within the fourteen (14) county area of Cherokee Nation at any location which does not constitute "Indian country," as defined by federal law, without first affixing tax stamps or paying tax as required by the State of Oklahoma and/or without first applying for and receiving a tobacco retailer license from the State of Oklahoma. Failure to conspicuously post a valid Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, or state tobacco retailer license at the location establishes a presumption of violation of this section.

§ 60. Vending machine permits

A. Every wholesaler or retailer of cigarettes or tobacco products must apply for and receive from the Commission a tobacco vending machine permit prior to operating any vending machine in Cherokee country. The Commission may issue vending machine licenses only for vending machines located on individual restricted land, individual trust land or tribal land. Forms for such application and permits shall be provided by the Commission. Wholesalers or retailers of cigarettes or tobacco products operating any vending machines in Cherokee country as of the effective date as defined in LA 01-90, Section 21-1-5 shall apply for a tobacco vending machine permit within one (1) month of such effective date.

B. The vending machine permit shall be valid for one (1) calendar year from the date of issue and shall be nontransferable and nonassignable. A separate permit shall be required for each separate vending machine. The permit shall be attached to the vending machine in such a manner as to be clearly visible to the public and to persons purchasing cigarettes or tobacco products therefrom. A fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) shall be paid for each new or renewal permit issued.

C. Any operating vending machine from which cigarettes or tobacco products may be purchased not having a tobacco vending machine permit attached thereto is contraband in Cherokee country and is subject to seizure and sale as is provided by law.

D. Every owner(s) of any vending machine or machines must apply for and receive from the Commission a vending machine permit prior to operating any vending machine in Cherokee country. The Commission may issue vending machine permits only for vending machines located on individual restricted land, individual trust land or tribal land. The Commission shall provide forms for such application and permits. Owner(s) of any vending machines operated in Cherokee country as of the effective date as defined in LA 46-02, Section 16 shall apply for a vending machine permit within ninety (90) days after approval of this act.

E. The vending machine permit shall be valid for one (1) calendar year from the date of issue and shall be nontransferable and nonassignable. A separate permit shall be required for each separate vending machine. The permit shall be firmly affixed to the vending machine in such a manner as to be clearly visible to the public and to persons purchasing vending machine products therefrom. Any operating vending machine from which any kind of product may be purchased not having a vending machine permit attached thereto is contraband in Cherokee country and is subject to seizure and sale as is provided by law.

F. This act shall not apply to any machine operated for legal gaming purposes at a gaming establishment decaled by the Cherokee Nation Gaming Commission, to any machine kept at a regular place of business of distributors or manufactures for sale or lease without being operated.

G. The license tax levied by this enactment shall be in addition to all other taxes levied by law.

H. When such machine shall have been seized or possession taken to prevent further unlawful use thereof, the same shall remain under the exclusive jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission upon payment of the proper tax, penalty and costs, or until the same is disposed of under applicable law for the collection of the taxes due, together with penalties and costs.

I. It shall be the responsibility of the owner(s) to purchase a permit for each vending machine that will be placed in a place of business located within the Cherokee Nation 14-county jurisdictional boundaries.

§ 61. Civil fine for violations

The Commission may impose a fine for each violation of possession, control or sale of contraband cigarettes or tobacco in an amount equal to the retail value of the contraband cigarettes. This fine may include cigarettes or tobacco sold and not in the possession of the violator. In addition, the Commission may impose a fine, not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for retail possession, control, transportation or sale of cigarettes and tobacco without a tobacco wholesale or retail license issued by the Commission.

§ 62. Criminal penalty

It is a crime to possess contraband cigarettes as defined in 68 CNCA § 49(A).

CHAPTER 5

CHEROKEE NATION/STATE TOBACCO TAX COMPACT

§ 71. Short title

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation/State Tobacco Tax Compact Act of 2008."

TOBACCO TAX COMPACT BETWEEN THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA AND THE CHEROKEE NATION

August 2008

WHEREAS, the CHEROKEE Nation (hereinafter referred to as the "Nation"), is a federally-recognized Indian Tribe with inherent sovereign powers of self-government predating the formation of the United States;

WHEREAS, the State of Oklahoma (hereinafter referred to as "State") is an independent sovereign state within the United States of America possessed of full powers of state government;

WHEREAS, the Nation and its members are in possession of various tracts of land in its jurisdiction within the state, known and commonly referred to as "Indian Country";

WHEREAS, federal Indian law recognizes that tribal jurisdiction is extant in Indian Country regarding the rights of Indian Nations to pass their own laws and be governed by them, including the right to sell cigarettes and other tobacco products to tribal members free from State taxation; and

WHEREAS, the State recognizes the financial, cultural, educational and economic contributions of the Nation to the State and its members, and the Nation recognizes the need to develop and maintain good Tribal/State governmental relations.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Cherokee Nation, by and through its Principal Chief, Chad Smith, and the State of Oklahoma, by and through its Governor, Brad Henry, do hereby enter into this Compact for the mutual benefit of the Nation and the State, to-wit:

1. Regardless of any subsequent enactment by the State of any laws or administrative rules regarding the rate of taxation on the sale of cigarettes and other tobacco products, only the provisions of this Compact shall govern the minimum Tribal rate of taxation and payment to the State on the retail sales of cigarettes and other tobacco products in the Nation's Indian Country as defined by federal law, including 18 U.S.C. § 1151, hereinafter referred to as "Compact Jurisdiction", when said retail sales are made by (a) businesses owned by the Nation, (b) licensees who are members of the Nation, or (c) businesses licensed by the Nation in which the majority interest is owned by the Nation or members of the Nation, provided that nothing herein shall prohibit the Nation from enacting any laws and/or regulations regarding the retail sale, use or possession of cigarettes and other tobacco products in the Nation's Jurisdiction that would not be in conflict with the provisions set forth herein. The entities or groups described in clauses (a), (b), and (c) of this paragraph shall be collectively referred to as the "Retailers" or individually as a "Retailer." Nothing contained herein shall impair the ability of the Oklahoma Tax Commission to regulate cigarette manufacturers, importers, wholesalers, distributors, distributing agents, jobbers, or warehousemen ("Wholesalers"), provided such regulation shall not interfere with the rights of the Nation or its Retailers under this Compact.

2. (a). The Nation agrees to require as a condition to licensing and continuation of licensing that all Retailers comply with the provisions of this Compact

(b). The Nation shall furnish to the State the following information with respect to each of the Retailers unless unavailable to the Nation:

1. The owner's name(s) and address(es);

2. A list of any tax-related permits held;

3. For any Tobacco business of the Nation not in operation on July 1, 2008, documentation or certification that business premises are located within the Compact Jurisdiction.

4. The location of offices and business records; and

5. A copy of any reports by any Wholesalers or Retailers to the Nation documenting all sales of cigarettes and other tobacco products within the Compact Jurisdiction;

6. The current list of all Wholesalers providing Retailers within the Compact Jurisdiction with cigarettes or tobacco products; and

7. Any complaints, audit reports or concluded investigation findings related to the wholesale or retail sale of cigarettes or tobacco products within the Compact Jurisdiction.

(c). The State agrees to provide the following information from the Oklahoma Tax Commission to the Nation's Tax Commission unless unavailable to the Oklahoma Tax Commission:

1. The name and address of Wholesalers licensed by the State;
2. The number and dollar amount of Compact stamps purchased by Wholesalers for sale to Retailers;
3. A copy of any reports by Wholesalers or Retailers to the State documenting wholesale or retail sales within the Compact Jurisdiction;
4. A current list of all Wholesalers providing the Retailers with cigarettes or tobacco products;
5. Any complaints, audit reports or concluded investigation findings related to the wholesale or retail sale of cigarettes or tobacco products within the Compact Jurisdiction; and

The State and Nation stipulate and agree, for the sole purposes of the provisions of paragraph 2(c) hereof, the Nation is and shall be considered by the State as a "foreign country" for purposes of permissible disclosures to the Nation pursuant to 68 O.S. § 205C.7. and the Nation is and shall be considered by the State as an "international authority" for purposes of 68 O.S. § 312J.

The State and Nation further stipulate and agree, for the sole purposes of the provisions of paragraph 2(c) hereof, this Compact shall constitute a "contract" between the Nation and the Oklahoma Tax Commission for purposes of permissible disclosures to the Nation pursuant to 68 O.S. § 205.C.16.

The Nation and the State, in consideration hereof, stipulate and agree that any information received from the records and files of the Oklahoma Tax Commission or the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission will be treated and considered as confidential and privileged, to be used for the Nation's or the State's purposes in the administration and collection of the Tobacco Payment and the Tribal Tax provided herein which are the subject of this Compact, and not be disclosed to any third party, including, but not limited to the Nation's Retailers and any and all manufacturers, distributors and wholesalers of cigarettes and other tobacco products. A disclosure to a governmental agency for regulatory or enforcement purposes, in a court proceeding or arbitration to enforce the provisions of this Compact or to a court in response to a subpoena or other court order, shall not constitute a breach of this paragraph.

3. In exchange for the Nation's imposition of the Tribal Tax described in Paragraph 4 below and for the other obligations agreed to by the Nation herein, the State agrees to accept a reduced excise tax payment in lieu of the excise and all other taxes generally imposed upon cigarettes and tobacco products by Title 68 of the Oklahoma Statutes ("Tobacco Payment") for all sales of cigarettes and tobacco products by Retailers within the Compact jurisdiction, without reference to the Tribal membership or non-membership status of the ultimate purchasing consumer, in the amount of fifty percent (50%) of all applicable State taxes on cigarettes and other tobacco products. Provided, however, for any Retailer located within twenty (20) miles of the state line between Oklahoma and Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas or Oklahoma and Missouri, in existence and doing business as of January 1, 2009, ("Border Retailer") the Tobacco Payment shall be in the amount of twenty-five percent (25%) of all applicable State taxes on cigarettes and other tobacco products ("Border Rate") until such time as the State of Kansas, the State of Arkansas or the State of Missouri increases its tax on tobacco products to a rate at or above the rate currently in effect within the State. When such increase becomes effective in any such state, the Border rate provided herein shall no longer apply to the Border Retailers within twenty (20) miles of such state and the Border Retailer shall pay the Tobacco Payment provided for Retailers that are not Border Retailers. The State agrees that an amount equal to $2.00 per carton of cigarettes of the Tobacco Payment will be used by the State for the purpose of health care including but not limited to cancer and diabetes treatment and prevention in the Tulsa and Northeast Oklahoma area. The parties agree that the Tobacco Payment is, for purposes of the Master Settlement Agreement, a reduction in State excise taxes and all other taxes generally applicable to the sale of cigarettes and tobacco products.

The Nation agrees that the State may collect the Tobacco Payment directly from the Wholesaler, and that the Wholesaler must collect the Tobacco Payment directly from the Retailers. The Nation agrees to require the Retailers to: (A) pay the Tobacco Payment, (B) pass both the Tobacco Payment and the Tribal Tax on to the ultimate consumer in the retail price of the cigarettes or tobacco products and (C) refrain from selling, distributing, transporting, soliciting sales of or in any matter dealing with cigarette brands and products of manufacturers who do not fully comply with the requirements of 37 O.S. §§ 600.21–600.23 and only deal in tobacco products of complying manufacturers, as evidenced by their names and list of brands as maintained on the Oklahoma Attorney General's website. If any Retailer purchases cigarettes or tobacco products from an unlicensed Wholesaler or fails to comply with any of its obligations under this paragraph, the Nation shall take necessary enforcement measures to ensure compliance with this paragraph by the Retailer, provided that if the Retailer continues to violate any obligations of this paragraph ninety (90) days following notification to the Nation and Retailer from the State of such violation the State may remove such Retailer from the list of Retailers entitled to benefits under this Compact until such time as the Retailer is in compliance with its obligations hereunder, when the Retailer shall automatically be returned to the list.

If the State amends any applicable State tax on cigarettes or other tobacco products in effect as of January 1, 2008, the Nation shall have the right to cancel this Compact upon thirty days' prior written notice to the State or may elect to pay a Tobacco Payment of 50% of all State taxes generally applicable to cigarettes and tobacco products provided the Nation continues to require the Tribal Tax set forth in paragraph 4 below.

4. The State authorizes, and the Nation requires, all Wholesalers licensed by the State and selling cigarettes or tobacco products to any Retailer to: (a) collect a "Tribal Tax" on all cigarettes and tobacco products purchased by the Nation or a Retailer for resale in the Compact Jurisdiction, without reference to the membership or non-membership status of the purchasing consumer, in the amount of $1.50 per carton of ten (10) packs of twenty (20) cigarettes, $1.88 per carton of ten (10) packs of twenty-five (25) cigarettes, and its "Border Retailers" in the amount of $4.07 per carton of ten (10) packs of twenty (20) cigarettes, $5.10 per carton of ten (10) packs of twenty-five (25) cigarettes., and on other tobacco products in the amount of fourteen and six tenths percent (14.6%) of all applicable State taxes now in effect (b) remit the Tribal Tax to the Nation's Tax Commission on the same schedule as the payments described in Paragraph 3 above are made to the State; and (c) provide sufficient documentation to the State and to the Nation's Tax Commission to demonstrate that the appropriate Tribal Tax and Tobacco Payment have been remitted. The Nation may rebate to Border Retailers a payment reflecting lost profit from the Tribal Tax. If any Wholesaler selling cigarettes or tobacco products to a Retailer fails to properly collect and remit the Tribal Tax described in this paragraph, the State and Nation shall take necessary enforcement measures to ensure compliance with this paragraph by the Wholesaler.

The Nation may at its discretion, designate an additional tribal tax to be collected in the same manner, whose payment may be reflected by the use of either a single joint tax stamp or a second tax stamp supplied by the Nation. Should the Nation designate a higher Tribal Tax rate to be collected by the Wholesalers, the Nation must, thirty (30) days prior to its implementation, deliver written notice of its intent to implement such a tax, together with notice of its effective date to the Oklahoma Tax Commission. The Nation shall be required to bear the cost of producing any stamp that might be required should it elect a higher Tribal Tax. Nothing herein shall affect or impair the Nation's inherent authority to impose other taxes on the sale, purchase, or possession of cigarettes or tobacco products under Tribal law.

5. The Tribal Tax provided for in paragraph 4 above and the Tobacco Payment provided in Paragraph 3 above shall be collected, in advance, by the Wholesaler selling cigarettes and other tobacco products to the Retailers for resale to consumers in the Compact Jurisdiction and shall be collected at the time of the wholesale transaction. The Nation agrees that the Tribal Tax and the Tobacco Payment shall be included in the retail price and passed on to consumers, and will require the Retailers to do so. Pursuant to the terms of purchase of stamps from the State, each month the Wholesaler shall remit the Tobacco Payment to the State of Oklahoma Tax Commission and the Tribal Tax to the Nation's Tax Commission.

6. Any business, not a Retailer operating within the Compact Jurisdiction and engaging in the sale of cigarettes and other tobacco products, shall not be subject to the Compact and its provisions and shall be governed by applicable Oklahoma and Tribal law. The State may charge such retailers the excise tax imposed on cigarettes and other tobacco products provided by Title 68 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

7. The Nation agrees that it will require the Retailers to purchase cigarettes and other tobacco products only from Wholesalers that are duly licensed by the State of Oklahoma. The Nation preserves its authority to license any Wholesaler located within the Compact Jurisdiction. The Nation agrees that the Tobacco Payment provided for in this Compact applies only to the Retailers' retail sales of cigarettes to the consumer, and the Nation agrees to require its Retailers not to sell or otherwise transfer cigarettes or tobacco products stamped with the tax stamp authorized under this Compact to anyone other than the consumer. Except for transfers between Retailers authorized to sell tobacco products at the Tobacco Payment rate under this Compact, the Nation agrees to prohibit its Retailers from selling or otherwise transferring cigarettes or other tobacco products stamped with reduced tax stamps to anyone other than the consumer at retail outlets located in the Nation's Compact Jurisdiction, including sales or transfers to other retailers outside the Compact Jurisdiction.

8. Except as otherwise provided herein with respect to any additional Tribal Tax the Nation may impose, all cigarettes sold by the Retailers shall bear a single stamp, verifying that the Tobacco Payment and the Tribal Tax have been paid to the Wholesaler at the time of purchase. Except as otherwise provided herein with respect to any additional Tribal Tax the Nation may impose, the State shall bear all costs relative to the affixing of the tax stamp, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise, and shall require the Wholesaler to affix the required stamp.

9. (a) The parties agree that unstamped cigarettes, counterfeited stamped cigarettes, mutilated stamped cigarettes and cigarettes and tobacco products on which the Tobacco Payment and the Tribal Tax required to be paid pursuant to this Compact have not been paid are contraband and that each party has the right to seize contraband within its respective jurisdiction: the Nation may seize all contraband located within the Compact Jurisdiction; and the State may seize all contraband in the State of Oklahoma, excepting the Compact Jurisdiction.

(b) The State shall exempt all sales of cigarettes and other tobacco products to and by the Nation's Retailers from sales and excise and all other taxes generally imposed by Title 68 of the Oklahoma Statutes in consideration of the agreement by the Nation to require the Retailers to make the aforementioned Tobacco Payment.

10. A. The goal of the parties shall be to resolve all disputes amicably and voluntarily whenever possible. A party asserting noncompliance or seeking an interpretation of this Compact first shall serve written notice on the other party. The notice shall identify the specific Compact provision alleged to have been violated or in dispute and shall specify in detail the asserting party's contention and any factual basis for the claim. Representatives of the Nation and state shall meet within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice in an effort to resolve the dispute. Any and all disputes arising, whether directly or indirectly, out of the interpretation, performance or enforcement of this Compact, which are not resolved by good faith negotiations within thirty (30) days, shall be determined by the US District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma, which shall have the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of any and all such disputes. The parties hereto mutually waive any claim of sovereign immunity they might have, including but not limited to, exhaustion of tribal remedies or 11th Amendment immunity, to the extent, and only to the extent, necessary for a determination of rights and liabilities, if any, by the US District Court and the enforcement of that determination upon its becoming a final, non-appealable judgment. This waiver shall not be construed to allow any consequential, punitive, or exemplary damages against either party; neither does this waiver include the allowance of any attorney's fees or costs not specifically articulated elsewhere within this Compact. The parties agree that nothing herein is intended to create a direct right of action against the State of Oklahoma or the Nation by any person or entity not a party hereto through court action, arbitration or otherwise for any matter related to this Compact, its interpretation or performance or nonperformance of the parties hereto, except as otherwise set forth herein, and the limited waiver of sovereign immunity set forth herein shall not extend to any person entity or party other than the State of Oklahoma and the Nation.

B. In the event that the US District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma declines to accept and exercise jurisdiction of any dispute, then, and only in that event, the following procedures may be invoked:

1. Subject to the limitation set forth in paragraph 2 of this Part, either party may refer a dispute arising under this Compact to arbitration under the rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA), subject to enforcement or pursuant to review as provided by paragraph 2 of this Part by a federal district court. Notice of demand for arbitration shall be sent in writing to the other party. The remedies available through arbitration are limited to enforcement of the provisions of this Compact and a determination of any liabilities for a breach thereof. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such arbitration forum and court for such limited purposes and no other, and each waives immunity with respect thereto. The expenses of arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties. The arbitrators must be licensed attorneys. One shall be appointed by the Nation and one by the State. A third shall be appointed by the other two previously selected arbitrators. Once the first arbitrator is selected by the party invoking arbitration, the other party shall have no more than twenty (20) days from receiving written notice of the first party's election to select its arbitrator. Within twenty (20) days of selection of the second arbitrator, the two arbitrators selected by the parties will select the third arbitrator. Neutrality is required of all arbitrators, and shall not be waived as to party selected arbitrators. The expenses of arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties. The arbitration shall be conducted pursuant to the Commercial Arbitration Rules ("CAR") of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") except those rules relating to administration of the arbitration by AAA, provided that nothing in the CAR or any other rules of the AAA shall be deemed to give State courts jurisdiction over any disputes arising from this Compact. The Arbitrators shall determine the applicable law to construe the relative rights and obligations of the parties. The panel of arbitrators may modify the aforesaid procedures and shall modify the procedures on joint motion of the parties, specify such substitute and/or additional procedures as they may deem necessary.

A party asserting noncompliance or seeking an interpretation of this Compact under this section shall be deemed to have certified that to the best of the party's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after reasonable inquiry, the claim of noncompliance or the request for interpretation of this Compact is warranted and made in good faith and not for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or the needless incurring of the cost of resolving the dispute. If the dispute is found to have been initiated in violation of this Part, the Arbitrator, upon request or upon his or her own initiative, may impose upon the violating party an appropriate sanction, which may include an award to the other party of its reasonable expenses incurred in having to participate in the arbitration; and

2. Notwithstanding any provision of law, either party to the Compact may bring an action against the other in the US District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma for the review of any arbitration award under paragraph 1 of this Part pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act. The decision of the court shall be subject to appeal. Each of the parties hereto waives immunity and consents to suit therein for such limited purposes, and agrees not to raise the Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution or comparable defense to the validity of such waiver. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize a money judgment other than for damages for failure to comply with an arbitration decision requiring the payment of monies.

11. This agreement shall terminate on June 30, 2013. At the end of said term, this Compact shall continue in full force and effect for consecutive terms of five (5) years, unless either party hereto gives to the other written notice that the Compact shall terminate at the end of the present term provided that such notice is received at least six (6) months prior to said termination. Nothing in this Compact shall prevent the parties by mutual agreement from establishing an earlier or later termination date or otherwise modifying this agreement

12. By entering into this Compact, the Nation does not concede that the laws of the State of Oklahoma, including its tax laws, apply to the Nation or its members regarding activities and conduct within the Compact Jurisdiction.

13. Should another Indian Nation or Tribe become entitled to more favorable Tobacco Payment terms after the execution of this Compact by virtue of execution of a new compact, other than in specifically designated areas along the Kansas, Arkansas or Missouri borders, such more favorable Tobacco Payment terms and any conditions to such Indian Tribe becoming entitled to such more favorable Tobacco Tax Payment terms may be adopted by the Nation upon written notice to the State, and shall be incorporated into this Compact and shall supersede any inconsistent terms within this Compact.

14. Neither party shall be deemed the drafter of this Compact in the event of any action to interpret its terms. Therefore, the rule of construction that in the case of an ambiguity, the ambiguity is construed against the author is not applicable. Furthermore, any rule of construction of ambiguities either in favor of or against a State or Tribal governmental entity is not applicable to this Compact.

15. The parties agree that if any provision in this Compact is found to be unenforceable, the parties shall agree in writing on a mutually acceptable substitute for such provision or agree in writing that no substitute is necessary. By entering into this Compact, the Nation further agrees that all funds received from the Tribal Tax, except for administrative expenses, shall be devoted to economic development, health, welfare, education and other governmental purposes of the Nation. It is further agreed that no such funds shall be used by the Nation, directly or indirectly to purchase tobacco nor shall be remitted or rebated to tobacco retailers, with the exception that the Nation may use the Tribal Tax to provide rebates to Border Retailers negatively impacted by the Tribal Tax rates reflected in this Compact

16. This Compact comprises the entirety of the agreement between the parties hereto. Any and all prior or contemporaneous representations, predictions, warranties or other inducements, however denominated, are merged within the terms of this Compact, and shall not survive its execution. There are no representations, promises, predictions, warranties, inducements or other agreements, however denominated, between the parties other than as set forth herein. This Compact may not be amended or modified except by written agreement, approved and executed by the parties hereto.

17. In consideration for execution of this Compact, the parties hereby fully release each other from any and all claims that either party may have against the other or their agents, representatives, employees, attorneys, insurers, assigns and successors, tribally licensed Retailers to this date, for any actions associated with failure to collect the appropriate tax on the sale of cigarettes or tobacco products under the terms of any prior Compact between the Nation and the State or applicable State law, and/or any and all other claims that either party may have against the other based upon any prior Compact, including but not limited to, full satisfaction and release of all claims and issues involved in any pending arbitration. In accord with this agreement, the parties will file a joint motion for dismissal with prejudice in those arbitration proceedings.

18. Any notice required hereunder to the State shall be delivered to the Governor of the State of Oklahoma at 2300 N. Lincoln Blvd., Room 212, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73105-4890. Any notice to the Nation shall be delivered to the Nation's Principal Chief at P.O. Box 948, Tahlequah, OK 74465, and to the Nation's Tax Commission at P.O. Box 948, Tahlequah, OK 74465. Notice shall be by United States mail, postage prepaid.

19. The Nation agrees to require the Retailers to maintain complete records of all purchases and sales of cigarettes and other tobacco products by brand including information related to payment of both the Tobacco Payment and the Tribal Tax. Such records shall be maintained for a period of five (5) years from the date of any purchase or sale.

20. Nothing in this Compact shall be deemed to authorize the State to regulate the Nation's government, including the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, or to interfere in any way with the Nation's selection of its governmental officers, including members of the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission. This Compact shall not affect tribal federal or state civil adjudicatory or criminal jurisdiction.

21. The Nation agrees that the Nation and the Nation Retailers will not sell, distribute, transport, solicit sales for, or in any manner deal with cigarette brands and tobacco products of a manufacturer who does not fully comply with the requirements of 37 O.S. §§ 600.21 through 600.23, and will only deal in cigarettes and other tobacco products of complying manufacturers, as evidenced by the placement of the manufacturer's name and its product brands on the list of complying manufacturers and brands maintained on the Oklahoma Attorney General's website.

It is agreed this 3rd day of November, 2008.

Chad Smith,

Principal Chief Chad Smith

CHAPTER 6

LANDFILL USER FEE

§ 101. Short title

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Landfill Out-of-Nation User Fee.

§ 102. Purpose

It is the purpose of this chapter to impose a certain fee for waste materials generated outside the original territorial jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation; providing for the fee to be in addition to any other charges; providing for the fee to be deposited in a certain account; and providing for a statement of purpose for the fees collected.

§ 103. Definitions

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Disposers" means any person, company, business or organization that disposes of waste.
2. "Fee" means Out-of-Nation user fee.
3. "Landfill" means the Cherokee Nation Landfill.
4. "Original territorial jurisdiction" means all land within the fourteen (14) county area of northeastern Oklahoma as defined by the treaties of 1828, 1833 and 1835 and the Patent of 1838 between the United States of America and Cherokee Nation.

§ 104. Assessment

A. There is imposed and assessed a One Dollar and Fifty Cent ($1.50) per ton fee for waste disposed of at the Cherokee Nation Landfill where the said waste is generated from outside the original territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

B. The fee assessed by this section is to be charged against waste producers using the landfill in addition to any charges specified in contract or elsewhere.

§ 105. Reports—Provision for deposit of fees—Use of fees collected

A. The Cherokee Nation Department of Natural Resources shall prepare monthly reports indicating:

1. the tonnage of waste materials received for disposal.
2. the amount of fees assessed or collected pursuant to this chapter.
3. expenditure of fees.

B. All fees received pursuant to this act shall be credited to a separate account in the landfill operating budget.

C. The fees shall be expended for purposes of maintaining the landfill operations in an environmentally-protective manner and for the development of technical assistance programs, educational curricula, recycling and litter prevention and other programs that promote the environmental protection, health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Cherokee Nation.

D. All out-of-Nation user fees collected prior to the effective date of this chapter shall be deposited and expended in the same manner as those fees hereinafter collected.

CHAPTER 7

CONTROLLED DANGEROUS SUBSTANCE TAX

§ 450.1. Definitions

As used in 68 CNCA § 450.2 et seq.:

1. "Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.
2. "Controlled dangerous substance" means a drug, substance, or immediate precursor specified in Schedules I through V of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act which is held, possessed, transported, transferred, sold or offered to be sold in violation of the laws of this state.
3. "Dealer" means a person who in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act manufactures, distributes, produces, ships, transports, or imports into Cherokee Nation or in any manner acquires or possess more than forty-two and one-half (42 1/2) grams of marihuana, or seven (7) or more grams of any controlled dangerous substance other than marihuana, or ten (10) or more dosage units of any controlled dangerous substance other than marihuana which is not sold by weight. A quantity of a controlled dangerous substance is measured by the weight of the substance whether pure, impure or dilute, or by dosage units when the controlled dangerous substance is not sold by weight, in the possession of the dealer. A quantity of a controlled dangerous substance is dilute if it consists of a detectable quantity of pure controlled dangerous substance and any excipients or fillers.

§ 450.2. Levy of tax—Calculation

There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid in respect to controlled dangerous substances, a tax in the following amounts:

1. On each gram of marihuana, or each portion of a gram, Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($3.50).
2. On each gram or portion of a gram of a controlled dangerous substance, other than marihuana, Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).
3. On each fifty (50) dosage units or portion thereof, of a controlled dangerous substance, that is not sold by weight, other than marihuana, One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

For the purpose of calculating the tax pursuant to this section, a quantity of marihuana or other controlled dangerous substance is measured by the weight of the substance whether pure, impure or dilute, or by dosage units when the substance is not sold by weight, in the possession of the dealer. A quantity of a controlled dangerous substance is dilute if it consists of a detectable quantity of pure controlled dangerous substance and any excipients or fillers.

§ 450.3. Manner of payment of tax—Intent and purpose of act

A. The tax levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2 shall be paid by affixing stamps in the manner and at the time herein set forth.

When a dealer purchases, acquires, transports, or imports into this state a controlled dangerous substance on which a tax is levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2, the dealer shall have the stamp affixed on the controlled dangerous substance immediately after receiving the controlled dangerous substance. Each stamp may be used only once.

Taxes imposed upon controlled dangerous substances by 68 CNCA § 450.2 are due and payable immediately upon acquisition or possession of a controlled dangerous substance in this state by a dealer.

B. It is the intent and purpose of this act that no dealer shall possess any controlled dangerous substance upon which a tax is imposed by 68 CNCA § 450.2 unless the tax has been paid on the controlled dangerous substance as evidenced by a stamp issued by the Commission.

§ 450.4. Rules and regulations—Purchase of stamps—Reporting forms—Use of stamps in administrative, civil and criminal proceedings

A. The Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations for a uniform system of providing, affixing, and displaying official stamps for any controlled dangerous substance on which the tax levied in 68 CNCA § 450.2 is imposed.

B. The official stamps to be affixed to all controlled dangerous substances shall be purchased from the commission. The dealer purchasing said stamps shall pay in cash one hundred percent (100%) of face value for each stamp at the time of purchase. The Commission shall make the stamps in denominations of Ten Dollars ($10.00).

C. The Commission shall provide reporting forms for the reporting and payment of the taxes levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2. Dealers are not required to give their name, address, social security number, or other identifying information on the forms. Neither the Commission nor any public employee may reveal facts contained in a report required by this section, nor can any information contained in such a report be used against the dealer in any criminal proceeding, unless independently obtained, except in connection with a proceeding involving taxes due pursuant to this act from the dealer making the report.

D. A stamp denoting payment of the tax levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2 shall not be used against the taxpayer in a criminal proceeding, except that the stamp may be used against the taxpayer in connection with the administration or civil or criminal enforcement of the tax levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2.

§ 450.5. Immediate assessment and collection of tax—Delinquency—Penalties

A. The taxable period of the tax levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2 for any dealer not possessing valid stamps showing that the tax has been paid shall be declared terminated by the Commission. The Commission shall immediately assess the tax and applicable penalties from any information in its possession, notify the taxpayer, and demand immediate payment thereof. In the event of any failure or refusal to pay the tax and penalties immediately by the taxpayer, the tax shall become delinquent and the Commission shall proceed to collect such tax and penalties in the manner prescribed by law.

B. No person may bring an action to enjoin the assessment or collection of any taxes, interest or penalties imposed by the provisions of this act.

C. The tax and penalties assessed by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of this act are presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed. The burden is upon the taxpayer to show their incorrectness or invalidity.

§ 450.6. Exemptions from tax

Nothing in this act requires any person, including but not limited to pharmacists or doctors licensed by the State of Oklahoma, lawfully in possession of a controlled dangerous substance, to pay the tax levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2.

§ 450.7. Disposition of revenues

The revenue, including interest and penalties, collected pursuant to this act shall be paid monthly by the Commission to the Treasurer to be placed in the Drug Abuse Education Revolving Fund created in 21 CNCA § 2417. The monies shall be budgeted and expended by Cherokee Nation for drug abuse education programs.

§ 450.8. Civil and criminal penalties—Immunities

A. Any dealer violating the provisions of this act, except 68 CNCA § 450.9, shall pay a civil penalty of one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of the tax levied in 68 CNCA § 450.2 in addition to the actual tax levied in said section.

B. Any dealer manufacturing, distributing, producing, shipping, transporting, importing or possessing any controlled dangerous substance without affixing the appropriate stamp, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime.

C. Nothing in this act may in any manner provide immunity for a dealer from criminal prosecution pursuant to Cherokee Nation law.

§ 450.9. Reuse of used stamp prohibited—Penalties

A. No person shall willfully remove or otherwise prepare any adhesive stamps, with intent to use, or cause the same to be used, after it has already been used or knowingly or willfully buy, sell, offer for sale, or give away, any such washed or restored stamp to any person, or knowingly use the same, or have in his possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp which has been removed from the controlled dangerous substance to which it had been previously affixed.

B. No person shall for the purpose of indicating the payment of any tax levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2, reuse any stamp which has heretofore been used for the purpose of paying any tax levied by 68 CNCA § 450.2, or buy, sell, offer for sale, or have in his possession, any counterfeit stamps.

C. Any person convicted of violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 7–A

BOAT AND MOTOR LICENSING AND TAX

§ 500. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Boat and Motor Licensing and Tax Code.

§ 501. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish a boat and motor licensing system within Cherokee Nation; to raise revenues through the issuance and renewal of boat and/or motor license tags, tax and titles to enrolled citizens of Cherokee Nation.

§ 502. General powers and duties of Tax Commission

A. The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission is hereby granted authority and jurisdiction to administer the Cherokee Nation Boat and Motor Licensing and Tax Code, and the Commission is hereby authorized to promulgate, adopt and enforce all necessary rules and regulations and prepare forms and records to enact and enforce the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Boat and Motor Licensing and Tax Code.

B. The Cherokee Nation Marshal Service is hereby granted authority and jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of and any rules pertaining to the Cherokee Nation Boat and Motor Licensing and Tax Code within their jurisdiction.

C. The Commission shall have the authority in cases of dispute to determine the factory-delivered price of any boat or motor.

§ 503. Boat and outboard motor registration

A. "Eligible boat or motor" shall mean any boat or motor, which is owned by a tribal citizen who resides within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation and which is principally garaged within said boundaries on lands owned, leased or occupied by Cherokee Nation or any tribal citizen in trust, restricted or fee status.

B. Registration fees for boats and outboard motors are assessed for the period beginning July 1 and ending June 30 of the following year. Three (3) year registration fees are also available and are assessed for a period beginning on July 1 and ending June 30 of the third year.

C. A boat or outboard motor must be registered yearly whether in use or not. If an owner fails to do so, registration fees and penalties are due for the current year and one year previous.

D. Registration fees are based on a combination of the actual purchase price and the number of years registered.

§ 504. Registration fees and taxes

The Commission shall register and collect:

TITLE FEES

The Commission shall charge a fee of Six Dollars ($6.00) for issuing an original or transfer certificate of title and a fee of Six Dollars ($6.00) for issuing a duplicate certificate of title.

REGISTRATION TAX

There is hereby levied a registration tax of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the value of each boat and motor upon the transfer of legal ownership of any such boat or motor registered in this Nation.

REGISTRATION FEES

1. If the actual purchase price is less than $150.00
 - a. 1st year fee = administrative charge ($1.00) plus $0.50 for the first year.
 - b. 2nd year through 20th year fee = first year's fee
2. If the actual purchase price is over $150.00
 - a. 1st year fee = administrative charge ($1.00) plus $0.50 for every $100.00 of the actual purchase price or any fraction thereof. Fee shall not exceed $100.00.
 - b. 2nd year through 10th year fee = 80% of the previous year's fee plus the administrative charge ($1.00). Fee shall not exceed $100.00.
 - c. 11th year through 20th year fee = 80% of the 10th year fee plus administrative charge ($1.00).
 - d. Amounts for Codes Q1, Q2 and Q3 are based on the actual purchase price and may not be equal to one fourth, one half or three fourths of the full year price due to the $100.00 registration fee maximum.
3. If the actual purchase price of the boat or outboard motor is not known, registration fee will be based on book value from NADA.
4. The following quarterly periods in which a boat or outboard motor is purchased or enters the 14-county tribal jurisdictional boundary area determines the portion of a full year registration fee due:

July 1 through September 30	Full year registration
October 1 through December 31	3/4 year registration
January through March 31	1/2 year registration
April 1 through June 30	1/4 year registration

5. A three-year registration fee is also available and is equal to ninety percent (90%) of the total of the individual years' fees.

§ 505. Penalty on new assignments

A. New boats and outboard motors must be registered within thirty (30) days from the date of assignment on the MSO or notarized bill of sale.

B. If not registered within thirty (30) days, twenty-five cents ($0.25) per day penalty is due. However, the penalty will never exceed two (2) times the registration fee.

§ 506. Penalty on renewal registration

A. Boat and outboard motor registrations expire June 30 of each year.

B. The month of July is considered a grace month during which no penalty accrues.

C. On August 1, the penalty accrues twenty-five cents ($0.25) per day. However, the penalty will never exceed two (2) times the registration fee.

CHAPTER 8

FUEL TAX [REPEALED]

§§ 701 to 708. Repealed by LA 18-96, eff. September 16, 1996

CHAPTER 8-A

FRANCHISE TAX

§ 1201. Corporations and organizations to which chapter applicable

The terms of this chapter shall apply to every corporation organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation, or qualified to do, or doing business in Cherokee Nation in a corporate or organized capacity by virtue of creation or organization under the laws of Cherokee Nation or any state, territory or district, or a foreign county, including associations, joint-stock companies and business trusts as defined by 68 CNCA § 1202, but not including limited liability companies as defined by 18 CNCA § 211.

§ 1202. "Doing business" defined

When the term "doing business" is used in this chapter, it shall mean and include each and every act, power or privilege exercised or enjoyed in Cherokee Nation, as an incident to, or by virtue of the powers and privileges acquired by the nature of such organizations, as are enumerated in the preceding section.

§ 1203. Tax on domestic corporations and business organizations

There is hereby levied and assessed a franchise or excise tax upon every corporation, association, joint-stock company and business trust organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation, equal to One Dollar and Twenty-Five Cents ($1.25) for each One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or fraction thereof of the amount of capital used, invested or employed in the exercise of any power, privilege or right inuring to such organization, within Cherokee Nation; it being the purpose of this section to require the payment to Cherokee Nation of this tax for the right granted by the laws of Cherokee Nation to exist as such organization and enjoy, under the protection of the laws of Cherokee Nation, the powers, rights, privileges and immunities derived from Cherokee Nation by reason of the form of such existence. Provided however, the franchise or excise tax described under this act shall not be imposed on corporations which comply with the Indian preference requirements of 40 CNCA § 301 et seq.

§ 1204. Tax on foreign corporations and business organizations

There is hereby levied and assessed upon every corporation, association, joint-stock company and business trust, organized and existing by virtue of the laws of some other state, territory or country, now or hereafter doing business in Cherokee Nation, as hereinbefore defined, a franchise or excise tax equal to One Dollar and Twenty-Five Cents ($1.25) for each One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or fraction thereof of the amount of capital used, invested or employed within Cherokee Nation; it being the purpose of this section to require the payment of a tax by all organizations not organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation, measured by the amount of capital, or its equivalent, used, invested or employed in Cherokee Nation for which such organization receives the benefit and protection of the government and laws of Cherokee Nation. Provided however, the franchise or excise tax described under this act shall not be imposed on corporations which comply with the Indian Preference requirements of 40 CNCA § 301 et seq.

§ 1205. Minimum and maximum taxes

In determining the amount of tax to be levied, assessed and collected under the terms of this chapter, the minimum amount shall, in no case, be less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor shall the maximum amount exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00).

§ 1206. Corporations and organizations exempted

The terms of this article shall not apply to the following institutions, foreign or domestic: savings and loan associations, small business investment companies licensed under the Federal Small Business Act of 1958¹, credit unions, trust companies, real estate trusts operating under the Federal Real Estate Trust Act of 1960², insurance companies, including surety and bond companies, retirement or pension funds, savings banks and savings fund societies; nor to any organization enumerated in 68 CNCA § 1201 if such organization is neither organized for profit nor operated for profit, irrespective of the form of organization.

§ 1207. No tax for year in which other tax or fee paid

The tax herein levied shall not be exacted for the fiscal year during which a domestic or foreign corporation, association or organization has paid an incorporating, filing or qualifying fee or tax to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. However, such corporations or organizations shall file a "no tax" report to comply with such regulations as shall be adopted by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, who shall, upon such filing, issue a "no tax" license expiring on the next ensuing June 30th. Provided, that in the computation of the tax imposed by this chapter no credit shall be allowed against such tax by reason of any money paid to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as additional incorporation, qualifying or filing fee covering an increase of authorized capital or capital apportioned to Cherokee Nation.

§ 1208. Purpose and disposition of revenue—When due

A. It is hereby declared to be the purpose of this chapter to provide for revenue for general governmental functions of Cherokee Nation.

B. All monies collected under this chapter shall be transmitted monthly to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative to be placed in an account of Cherokee Nation.

C. The tax levied by this chapter shall become due and payable on the 1st day of July each year, and if not paid before the next ensuing September 1st, penalties hereinafter provided shall apply.

§ 1209. Capital—Computation

A. For the purpose of computing the amount of annual franchise tax levied upon and payable by the corporations, associations and organizations enumerated in 68 CNCA §§ 1203 and 1204, the word "capital" shall be construed to include the following:

Outstanding capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, which shall include any amounts designated for the payment of dividends until such amounts are definitely and irrevocably placed to the credit of stockholders, subject to withdrawal on demand, plus the amount of bonds, notes, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness maturing and payable more than three (3) years after issuance. The term "capital" stock where herein used shall include all written evidence of interest or ownership in the control or management of a corporation or other organization. The term "evidence of indebtedness" where herein used shall not include any deposit made in any bank.

B. Advances made by a parent to a subsidiary or by a subsidiary to a parent corporation, organization or association shall be eliminated by both the parent and subsidiary from the calculations necessary to determine the amount of taxable capital employed in the business of either or both the parent and subsidiary. Provided, however, advances made for purely operating expenses may, upon proper showing satisfactory to the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, be included in such calculations.

C. The amount of capital employed in the Cherokee Nation is hereby declared to be that portion of the capital of the corporation, association or organization which equals the proportion which the property owned, or property owned and business done, in Cherokee Nation bears to the total property owned, or total property owned and total business done, by the corporation, association or organization.

D. In the determination of the amount of tax payable under this chapter where intangibles are involved, such as notes, accounts receivable, stocks, bonds, and other securities, including cash, and the business of the corporation is managed, directed and controlled from within Cherokee Nation, the value of such intangibles shall be apportioned wholly to Cherokee Nation, unless a commercial or business situs for such intangibles has been established elsewhere.

E. Management, direction and control of the corporation's business shall be deemed to be within Cherokee Nation where (1) the corporation is incorporated under the laws of Cherokee Nation, or (2) where any corporation organized under the laws of a state transacts business in Cherokee Nation as its principal business, or maintains in Cherokee Nation its "business domicile" or "commercial domicile".

F. The portion of capital of any corporation, association or organization employed in Cherokee Nation, shall be segregated, and its value stated, based upon the proportions herein prescribed, and shall be reported to the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission; and the amount of said capital so reported shall be prima facie the measure of the value of the capital of such corporation, association or organization, apportioned to Cherokee Nation, for the purposes of this chapter.

G. The capital of a bank holding company or multi-bank holding company shall not include the capital, as defined in this chapter, of the owned bank or banks. Such banks, bank holding companies and multi-bank holding companies each shall comply with the terms of this chapter as separate corporations.

§ 1210. Annual statement or return

A. In addition to any other statement required by law, each and every corporation, association or organization, as enumerated in 68 CNCA §§ 1201, 1203, and 1204, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall, during the period of July 1st to August 31st, inclusive, of each year, file with the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission a statement under oath of its president, secretary or managing officer, or managing agent in Cherokee Nation, in such form, including balance sheets as at the close of its last preceding taxable year for which an income tax return was required to be filed, as the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission may prescribe, showing:

1. the amount of its authorized capital stock, interests, certificates, or other evidence of interest or ownership;

2. the amount thereof then paid up;
3. the number of units into which the same is divided;
4. the par value of each unit and the number of such units issued and outstanding;
5. the location of the office or offices;
6. the value of all property owned or used in its business and wherever located;
7. the value of all property owned or used in its business within Cherokee Nation as it existed on the last day of said year;
8. the total amount of all business wherever transacted during said year;
9. the total amount of business transacted within Cherokee Nation during such year;
10. the names of its officers and the residence and post office address of each as the same appear of record on June 30th.

B. If any corporation, association or organization making a return under the provisions of this article has no authorized capital, or if any of its shares of stock or other evidences of interest or ownership have no par value, then such corporation, association or organization shall so state in its return, and shall, in addition thereto, state the book value of its shares of stock or other evidences of interest or ownership. And it shall also, in making its return, make the showing required of all other corporations, associations and organizations; and each foreign corporation shall state the name of its registered agent in Cherokee Nation.

C. A corporation or organization subject to the tax levied by 68 CNCA § 1203 or 1204 for which the computation of capital employed in Cherokee Nation equals or exceeds Sixteen Million Dollars ($16,000,000.00), shall file a maximum franchise tax return on such form as may be prescribed by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.

D. A corporation or organization subject to the tax levied by 68 CNCA § 1203 or 1204 for which the computation of capital employed in Cherokee Nation is Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00) or less shall file a minimum franchise tax return on such form as may be prescribed by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.

E. The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall prescribe a form for use by corporations or organizations subject to the minimum tax and maximum tax imposed by 68 CNCA § 1205 in order for such corporations or organizations to determine if the value of capital employed in the Cherokee Nation requires filing either a minimum franchise tax return or maximum franchise tax return. If a corporation or organization is required to file either the minimum or maximum franchise tax return, such return shall not be subject to the requirements of subsection (A) of this section and the return shall only contain such information as may be prescribed by the Commission.

§ 1211. Organization of business trust

The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall not receive for filing in their office any instrument providing for the organization of any business trust unless and until a duplicate of such instrument is provided for filing with the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, which duplicate shall show the filing references of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in whose office the original of such instrument is filed, and it is hereby made the duty of Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative to see that such duplicate is immediately forwarded to the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.

§ 1212. Penalties—Uniform procedure—Operation without license—Suspension and forfeiture

A. If the report herein required and the tax levied is not filed and paid within the time provided under 68 CNCA § 1208(C), the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall levy and collect a penalty for such delinquency in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the tax due. Such penalty shall be collected and apportioned in the same manner as is the tax itself, and the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission may enter an order directing the suspension of the charter or other instrument of organization, under which the corporation, association or organization may be organized, and the forfeiture of all corporate or other rights inuring thereunder.

B. Any person who attempts or purports to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any such domestic corporation, association or organization, or who does or attempts to do any business in Cherokee Nation in behalf of any such foreign corporation, association or organization, without having first obtained a license therefor, as provided herein, or after any such license so obtained shall have been canceled, forfeited, or expired, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

C. Each trustee, director or officer of any such corporation, association or organization, whose right to do business within the Cherokee Nation shall be so forfeited, shall, as to any and all debts of such corporation, association or organization, which may be created or incurred with his knowledge, approval and consent, within Cherokee Nation after such forfeiture and before the reinstatement of the right of such corporation to do business, be deemed and be held liable thereon in the same manner and to the same extent as if such trustees, directors and officers of such corporation, association or organization were partners. Any corporation, association or organization whose right to do business shall be thus forfeited shall be denied the right to sue or defend in any court of Cherokee Nation, except in a suit to forfeit the charter of such corporation, association or organization. In any suit against such corporation, association or organization on a cause of action arising before such forfeiture, no affirmative relief shall be granted to such corporation, association or organization unless its right to do business in Cherokee Nation shall be reinstated as provided herein. Every contract entered into by or in behalf of such corporation, association or organization, after such forfeiture as provided herein, is hereby declared to be voidable.

D. Notice of such suspension and forfeiture shall be forwarded by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last-known address of the registered agent or managing officer of each corporation, association or organization, and the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission may cause notice of such suspension and forfeiture to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the general business office of each such corporation, association or organization is located in Cherokee Nation and in the newspaper Cherokee Phoenix.

E. The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall immediately upon entering an order suspending and forfeiting any such charter or other instrument of organization, transmit the name of each such corporation, association or organization named therein to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative who shall immediately record the same and such record shall constitute notice to the public. The suspension and forfeiture herein provided for shall become effective immediately upon such record being made and the certificate of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension and forfeiture.

F. After the issuance of such order of suspension and forfeiture by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, the charter or other instrument of organization may only be revived and reinstated upon the payment of the accrued fees and penalties and reinstatement fee in the amount of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00), and a showing by the corporation, association or organization of a full compliance with the laws of Cherokee Nation. Such payment of accrued fees and penalties must be made prior to the expiration of the time provided in such charter or other instrument of organization for the life of such corporation, association or organization.

CHAPTER 9

MOTOR VEHICLE LICENSING AND TAX

FINDINGS, PURPOSE, DEFINITIONS

DUTIES OF TAX COMMISSION—REGISTRATION OF VEHICLES—FEES AND TAXES—CERTIFICATES OF TITLE—LICENSE PLATES—PENALTIES

FINDINGS, PURPOSE, DEFINITIONS

§ 1301. Findings

A. As a sovereign, federally-recognized Indian tribe, Cherokee Nation has the power and authority to issue motor vehicle license tags to its enrolled citizens living within its territorial boundaries, in accordance with the United States Supreme Court's decision in Sac & Fox Nation vs. Oklahoma Tax Commission, 508 U.S. 114 (1993).

B. A large number of the Nation's citizens have expressed support for a motor vehicle licensing and registration tag code which would authorize the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission to issue tribal tags and administer a tribal tag system within the territorial area of Cherokee Nation.

C. The State public school system within Oklahoma relies in part on revenue generated by the sale of automobile license tags by the State of Oklahoma. Thousands of minor children enrolled as citizens of Cherokee Nation attend public schools in eastern Oklahoma. Therefore, to minimize the impact of the sale of automobile license tags by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission on the public schools within Cherokee Nation, a portion of the revenues generated by the sale of such tags should be allocated to the public schools within the Nation's territorial boundaries.

D. As a federally-funded Indian school, Sequoyah High School receives no monies from the State of Oklahoma's automobile licensing revenues. Therefore, a portion of the revenue received from the issuance of vehicle license tags by Cherokee Nation should be allocated to Sequoyah High School.

E. The Cherokee Nation Immersion Program receives no monies from the State of Oklahoma automobile licensing revenues. Therefore, a portion of the revenue received from the issuance of vehicle license tags by Cherokee Nation should be allocated to the Cherokee Nation Immersion Program.

F. The Cherokee Nation Headstart Program receives no monies from the State of Oklahoma automobile licensing revenues. Therefore, a portion of the revenue received from the issuance of vehicle license tags by Cherokee Nation should be allocated to the Cherokee Nation Headstart Program.

G. If possible, Cherokee Nation should endeavor to enter into a compact with the State of Oklahoma to coordinate its motor vehicle licensing activities with those of the Oklahoma Tax Commission, to make appropriate motor vehicle licensing information available to federal, state and local law enforcement agencies, and to engage in revenue-sharing for the benefit of public schools within the territorial boundaries of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1302. Purposes

The purpose of this act is to establish a vehicle and trailer licensing system within Cherokee Nation; to raise revenues through the issuance and renewal of vehicle and trailer license tags and titles to enrolled citizens of Cherokee Nation; to provide for the expenditures of said revenues for certain purposes, including an allocation of a portion of said revenues to the public schools within the territorial boundaries of Cherokee Nation and to Sequoyah High School; and to authorize the Principal Chief to negotiate with officials of the State of Oklahoma for a compact addressing certain matters relating to the registration and licensing of motor vehicles by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.

§ 1303. Short title

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Motor Vehicle Licensing and Tax Code.

§ 1304. Definitions

For the purposes of this code, and notwithstanding any other definitions set forth elsewhere in this Title, the words and terms set forth below shall be defined as follows:

1. "Abandoned vehicle" means an article of personal property, any service rendered to the owner thereof by furnishing material, labor or skill for the protection, improvement, safekeeping, towing, storage or carriage thereof, has a special lien thereon, dependent on possession, for the compensation, if any, which is due such person from the owner for such service; or a vehicle that is determined to be abandoned by the Cherokee Nation District Court after proper public notice is given so an unknown owner or interest holders may attend court proceedings to protest legal change of ownership.
2. "Act" shall mean this act, LA 01-01.
3. "Administrator" shall mean the Administrator of the Commission.
4. "All-terrain vehicle" means a vehicle powered by an internal combustion engine manufactured and used exclusively for off-highway traveling on three or more low-pressure tires and having a seat designed to be straddled by the operator and handlebars for steering.
5. "Assembled vehicle" means a vehicle from which major components from two or more vehicles are being incorporated into a single unit.
6. "Commercial trailer" shall mean any trailer used primarily for the transportation of goods in the ordinary course of any trade or business.
7. "Commercial vehicle" shall mean any vehicle used primarily for the transportation of persons or goods in the ordinary course of any trade or business.
8. "Commission" shall mean the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.
9. "Eligible vehicle" shall mean any personal vehicle, commercial vehicle, motorcycle, recreational vehicle, farm truck, farm tractor, farm trailer or other trailer, which is owned by a tribal citizen or owned by the federally-recognized Delaware Tribe of Indians for the use of conducting official government business, which is located within the historical boundaries of Cherokee Nation and is principally garaged within said boundaries on lands owned, leased or occupied by Cherokee Nation or any tribal citizen in trust, restricted or fee status. Also included are vehicles belonging to active military personnel and college students who maintain permanent residency in the 14-county jurisdiction but are temporarily domiciled in another location. The Commission shall determine the appropriate documentation for active military personnel or college student residency, and shall develop procedures for determining whether vehicles are owned by the federally-recognized Delaware Tribe of Indians and eligible for registration and licensing.

10. "Farm tractor" shall mean any vehicle owned by a farmer and used primarily for pulling or towing farming equipment, tilling the soil or in other agricultural activities. Provided, that no vehicle shall be registered as a farm tractor unless the applicant produces an income tax Schedule F for the preceding year or presents a valid exemption card issued pursuant to the provisions of 68 O.S. § 1358.1. Provided, further, that said Schedule F or exemption card must pertain to the applicant, the applicant's spouse, or a business entity owned and controlled by the applicant or the applicant's spouse. Provided, further, that an applicant shall not be eligible to register more than four (4) tractors as farm tractors. Businesses shall not be included in said limitation.

11. "Farm trailer" shall mean any trailer owned by a farmer and used primarily for the purpose of transporting farm animals or products to market or for the purpose of transporting to the farm material or things to be used thereon, and not for commercial or industrial purposes. Provided, that no vehicle shall be registered as a farm trailer unless the applicant produces an income tax Schedule F for the preceding year or presents a valid exemption card issued pursuant to the provisions of 68 O.S. § 1358.1. Provided, further, that said Schedule F or exemption card must pertain to the applicant, the applicant's spouse, or a business entity owned and controlled by the applicant or the applicant's spouse. Provided, further, that an applicant shall not be eligible to register more than four (4) trailers as farm trailers. Businesses shall not be included in said limitation.

12. "Farm truck" shall mean any vehicle equipped with four or more wheels and a cargo area for the conveyance of property that is used primarily for agricultural purposes, but not for commercial or industrial purposes. Vans and sport utility vehicles shall not be eligible to carry a farm truck tag. Provided, that no vehicle shall be registered as a farm truck unless the applicant produces an income tax Schedule F for the preceding year or presents a valid exemption card issued pursuant to the provisions of 68 O.S. § 1358.1. Provided, further, that said Schedule F or exemption card must pertain to the applicant, the applicant's spouse, or a business entity owned and controlled by the applicant or the applicant's spouse. Provided, further, that an applicant shall not be eligible to register more than four (4) trucks as farm trucks. Business shall not be included in said limitation.

13. "Low-speed electrical vehicle" means any four-wheeled electrical vehicle that is powered by an electric motor that draws current from rechargeable storage batteries or other sources of electrical current and whose top speed is greater than twenty (20) miles per hour but not greater than twenty-five (25) miles per hour and is manufactured in compliance with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration standards for low-speed vehicles in 49 C.F.R. § 571.500.

14. "Major component" means a body or cab, frame, and front end or rear end clip, if the public VIN is changed.

15. "Manufactured home" shall mean structures, transportable in one or more sections, which, in the traveling mode, are eight feet (8') or more in width or forty feet (40') or more in length, or, when erected on site, are more than three hundred twenty square feet (320 sq. ft.), and which are built on a permanent chassis and designed to be used as dwellings with or without permanent foundations when connected to the required utilities, and include the plumbing, heating, air conditioning and electrical systems contained thereon.

16. "Medium-speed electrical vehicle" means any self-propelled, electrically powered four-wheeled motor vehicle, equipped with a roll cage or crush-proof body design, whose speed attainable in one (1) mile is more than thirty (30) miles per hour but not greater than thirty-five (35) miles per hour.

17. "Mini-truck" means a foreign-manufactured import or domestic-manufactured vehicle powered by an internal combustion engine with a piston or rotor displacement of one thousand cubic centimeters (1,000 cu cm) or less, which is sixty-seven inches (67") or less in width, with an unladen dry weight of three thousand four hundred pounds (3,400 lbs.) or less, traveling on four or more tires, having a top speed of approximately fifty-five (55) miles per hour, equipped with a bed or compartment for hauling, and having an enclosed passenger cab.

18. "Motorcycle" shall mean any two or three-wheeled personal vehicle.

19. "Nation" shall mean Cherokee Nation.

20. "Off-road motorcycles" (ORM's) means a motorcycle manufactured for and used exclusively off roads, highways, and any other paved surfaces. Small street or sidewalk mini-motorcycles or scooters are not included in this category.

21. "Person" shall mean any natural person or legal entity legally competent to hold title to a vehicle.

22. "Reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation" shall mean the territorial boundaries of the Nation as they existed as of January 1, 1900.

23. "Personal vehicle" shall mean any vehicle having four or more wheels, including but not limited to cars, trucks, vans and sport utility vehicles, and any motorcycle; provided however, the definition of personal vehicle shall not include a commercial vehicle as defined in subdivision 4 of this section, a farm truck as defined in subdivision 9 of this section, a farm trailer as used in subdivision 8, a farm tractor as used in subdivision 7 of this section, or a recreational vehicle as defined in subdivision 16 of this section.

24. "Physical disability" means an illness, disease, injury or condition by reason of which a person:

a. cannot walk two hundred (200) feet without stopping to rest;

b. cannot walk without the use or assistance from a brace, cane, crutch, another person, prosthetic device, wheelchair or other assistive device;

c. is restricted to such an extent that the person's forced (respiratory) expiratory volume for one (1) second, when measured by spirometry, is less than one (1) liter, or the arterial oxygen tension is less than sixty (60) mm/hg on room air at rest;

- d. must use portable oxygen;
- e. has functional limitations which are classified in severity as Class III or Class IV according to standards set by the American Heart Association;
- f. is severely limited in the person's ability to walk due to an arthritic, neurological or orthopedic condition;
- g. is certified legally blind; or
- h. is missing one or more limbs.

To qualify for a "physically disabled" plate an individual must meet one or more of the above requirements, and present sufficient documentation that they are persons qualified through the Oklahoma Department of Public Safety (DPS) as being physically disabled and having a five- (5) year expiration parking permit from DPS attesting to such disability.

25. "Rebuilt vehicle" shall mean any salvage vehicle which has been rebuilt and inspected for the purpose of registration and title with Cherokee Nation, another tribe or state.

26. "Recreational vehicle" shall mean any vehicle that is equipped to serve as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping or travel purposes and is used solely as a family or personal conveyance.

27. "Salvage vehicle" shall mean any vehicle which is within the last ten (10) model years and has been damaged by collision or other occurrence to the extent that the cost of repairing the vehicle for safe operation on the highway exceeds sixty percent (60%) of its fair market value, immediately prior to the damage.

28. "Trailer" shall mean any portable structure having two or more wheels that is built on a chassis and is designed to be towed by a vehicle and not propelled by its own power, with a width not exceeding eight (8) feet in travel mode and overall length not exceeding forty (40) feet, including the hitch or coupling, whether used for towing property or livestock or as a temporary dwelling for travel or recreational use. "Trailer" shall include in its meaning any mobile home until such time as it becomes affixed to the land.

29. "Tribal citizen" shall mean any person who is duly enrolled as a citizen of Cherokee Nation pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Membership Act, 11 CNCA § 1 et seq., LA 06-92, as amended.

30. "Utility vehicle" means a vehicle powered by an internal combustion engine, electric engine or combination thereof, manufactured and used exclusively for off-highway use, equipped with seating for two or more people and a steering wheel, traveling on four or more wheels.;

31. "Vehicle" shall mean any wheeled conveyance for carrying persons or property capable of being propelled under its own power through the use of an electric engine or internal combustion engine greater than fifty cubic centimeters (50cc), designed primarily for use on roads and/or highways and equipped with brakes, headlights, taillights, brake lights, a horn, turn signals and a rear-view mirror, the ownership of which is reflected on a certificate of title.

§ 1305. Negotiation of compact—Effective date

A. The Principal Chief is hereby authorized to negotiate with appropriate officials of the State of Oklahoma for a compact between Cherokee Nation and the State of Oklahoma, the provisions of which would (i) allocate a portion of the revenue generated by motor vehicle license fees to the public schools within the Nation's jurisdictional area; (ii) coordinate motor vehicle title information with the appropriate state agencies; and (iii) address any other issues which may arise and may be resolved through a tribal-state compact. Provided, no such compact shall take effect until approved by way of Tribal Resolution enacted in accordance with 25 CNCA § 26 and all other parties have executed or approved the compact as required by applicable law.

B. The provisions of this act shall not take effect until the Commission adopts its rules and regulations pursuant to 68 CNCA § 1352.

§ 1306. Revenue sharing

A. A portion of the revenue generated from fees, taxes, penalties and fines generated in connection with the issuance of motor vehicle licenses hereunder shall be allocated to Sequoyah High School, the Cherokee Nation Head Start program and the public schools within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation and as described in subsection (B) of this section, to the Marshal Service and to certain counties and municipalities in accordance with the provisions of subsection (B) of this section.

B. Allocation of revenues. The fees, taxes, penalties and fines collected by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be allocated and expended for the purposes set forth in the following paragraphs:

1. The fees, taxes, penalties and fines collected by the Commission shall be applied to the costs and expenses of the Commission in carrying out the provisions of this act, as authorized and appropriated in the Nation's comprehensive annual budget. Provided, however, that said costs and expenses shall be paid out of revenues remaining after the prior allocations of funds pursuant to paragraphs 2 and 3 of this subsection.

2. An amount equal to thirty-eight percent (38%) of all fees and taxes collected by the Commission shall be allocated and made available to Oklahoma public schools located within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation that have students who are tribal citizens; to Sequoyah High School; and to the Cherokee Nation Head Start program in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 of subsection (C) of this section. Such students shall be included in a certified Cherokee student count by an eligible school under this subsection in order to participate in the allocation of revenues. Any public school located outside the reservation boundaries shall be eligible to receive a share of the allocation pursuant to paragraph 2 of subsection (C) of this section provided all three (3) of the following conditions are met with respect to such school: (a) any portion of the district of which said school is a part is within the reservation boundaries; and (b) any portion of the premises of said school is located within two (2) miles of the reservation boundary; and (c) the school has one or more enrolled Cherokee students as referenced herein.

3. Twenty percent (20%) of all fees and taxes collected by the Commission shall be made available for contribution to the cost of constructing or maintaining federal highways, state highways, or highways constructed or maintained with funds apportioned pursuant to 47 O.S. § 1104(A) that are part of the counties' collector system, within the Nation's reservation boundaries, to be allocated among such highway projects in accordance with paragraph 3 of subsection (C) of this section.

4. An amount not to exceed twenty percent (20%) but not less than five percent (5%) of the amount of such fees and taxes remaining after the amounts appropriated pursuant to paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this subsection shall be available to and allocated among counties and municipalities within the Nation's reservation boundaries and/or the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service in accordance with paragraph 4 of subsection (C) of this section.

5. Any funds not appropriated or expended pursuant to paragraphs 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this subsection shall remain available in the General Fund for appropriation and expenditure pursuant to Legislative Act. All amounts apportioned under subsection (C) of this section shall be appropriated as part of the Nation's comprehensive annual budget.

C. Distribution and expenditure of revenues. All revenues set aside pursuant to subsection (B) of this section shall be distributed and expended as follows:

1. Within ten (10) days after the end of each month during which this act is in effect, the Commission shall prepare and submit to the Controller a report setting forth separately the amounts collected by the Commission as fees, taxes, penalties and fines. The Commission shall make available any documents or records requested by the Controller to verify the accuracy of the report. In addition to the foregoing report, the Commission shall prepare and submit to the Controller any other reports as may be requested by the Controller.

The Principal Chief shall cause a copy of any report prepared pursuant to this paragraph to be delivered to the Tribal Council upon receipt of same by the Controller.

2. Each year, five percent (5%) of the revenues set aside under paragraph 2 of subsection (B) of this section shall be allocated for programs to assist public schools within Cherokee Nation with the A-F grading system, specifically to assist with teaching core subjects with emphasis placed on STEM classes/programs. This amount shall be matched with an equal amount to be paid from revenues described in paragraph 4 of subsection (B). Education services shall develop policies and procedures for the priority level of distribution for these funds. In particular, special consideration shall be granted to schools who receive a C-F and have a high enrollment of Cherokee students. The remaining ninety-five percent (95%) of the revenues set aside under paragraph 2 of subsection (B) of this section shall be distributed pro rata each year among eligible public schools, Sequoyah

High School and Cherokee Nation Head Start program based on each school's qualified student enrollment determined as follows: for the purposes of this distribution formula, (a) the qualified student enrollment for each public school shall be equal to the total number of its enrolled Cherokee students, as determined annually from a certified Cherokee student count as described in paragraph 2 of subsection (B) of this section, submitted and documented by the Superintendent of each eligible public school district as of October 1 of each year, and subject to review by the Cherokee Nation Education Department; and (b) the qualified student enrollment for Sequoyah High School shall be equal to the total number of its enrolled Indian students in accordance with the most recent Bureau of Indian Affairs student count; and (c) the qualified student enrollment for Cherokee Nation Head Start shall be equal to the total amount of its enrolled Indian students, who are at least four (4) years old as of October 1 of each year, submitted and documented by the Director of the program.

The pro rata share referred to in this paragraph shall be the percentage that each such school's qualified student enrollment bears to the total qualified student enrollment of all such schools within the reservation boundaries and as described in paragraph 2 of subsection (B) of this section; Sequoyah High School; and the Cherokee Nation Head Start program. Provided, however, for any year that the available per-pupil federal education funding for Indian students attending Sequoyah High School is less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the state per-pupil expenditures for students attending public schools in the State of Oklahoma, each Indian student enrolled at Sequoyah High School shall be weighted as two (2) Indian students for the purposes of the distribution formula in this paragraph.

The Cherokee Nation Education Department is hereby authorized to develop and implement policies and procedures necessary for review and proper documentation of the student counts for purposes of this act. Such policies and procedures shall, at a minimum, contain procedures by which appropriate parties will be notified about the requirements herein; requirements for documentation and substantiation of student count submissions; and procedures for appeal of determinations affecting an entity's student count.

3. The funds set aside under paragraph 3 of subsection (B) of this section shall be allocated each year to governmental agencies or political subdivisions for expenditure on construction or maintenance projects on federal highways, state highways, or highways constructed or maintained with funds apportioned pursuant to 47 O.S. § 1104(A) that are part of the counties' collector system, within the Nation's reservation boundaries. The projects and their respective allocations hereunder shall be identified in the comprehensive annual budget approved by the Tribal Council. These funds are to be distributed equally between Council Members for appropriation.

4. The funds set aside under paragraph 4 of subsection (B) of this section shall be allocated among the counties and municipalities within the Nation's reservation boundaries and/or to the Marshal Service in accordance with and as appropriated in the comprehensive annual budget of Cherokee Nation.

5. No funds allocated and distributed under this subsection shall be made available to the schools, highway projects, counties, municipalities or Marshal Service until appropriated as part of the comprehensive annual budget for the applicable fiscal year. Any revenue distributions to Sequoyah High School or the Cherokee Nation Head Start program pursuant to this act shall first be used to meet any matching requirements for federal funds, if applicable. The Controller, with the assistance of any officer designated by the Principal Chief, shall be responsible for calculating and making all expenditures authorized by this subsection.

DUTIES OF TAX COMMISSION—REGISTRATION OF VEHICLES—FEES AND TAXES— CERTIFICATES OF TITLE—LICENSE PLATES—PENALTIES

§ 1351. General powers and duties of Tax Commission

The Commission is hereby vested with the power, authority and duty to administer and enforce this Cherokee Nation Motor Vehicle Licensing and Tax Code. This power, authority and duty includes, but is not limited to, the calculation of all taxes, fees, penalties and fines assessed in accordance with the provisions of this act, as well as contracting with Oklahoma tag agents to distribute motor vehicle tags and process motor vehicle registration documents, if the Commission determines that utilizing Oklahoma tag agents for such purposes is in the best interests of the Nation. The Administrator shall be responsible for carrying out the rules, regulations and directives of the Commission and the Commission may delegate to the Administrator such authority as it deems proper for said purpose, provided that the authority to adopt rules and regulations pursuant to 68 CNCA § 1352 shall not be delegable to the Administrator or any other person.

§ 1352. Rules and regulations

The Commission shall adopt such rules and regulations, and amendments thereto, as it deems necessary to administer and enforce this code, which rules and regulations need not be approved by the Tribal Council, provided that said rules and regulations and any amendments thereto shall not be inconsistent with this code and shall be made available to the Council immediately after adoption. The Commission shall adopt such rules and regulations no later than one hundred fifty (150) days after the earlier of (i) the approval of a compact pursuant to 68 CNCA § 1305(A), or (ii) May 31, 2001. The rules and regulations shall provide for a process to appeal decisions of the Administrator assessing any fees, taxes, fines or penalties authorized by this act. Any decision by the Commission on a question so presented on appeal shall be final. The rules and regulations shall also set forth the procedures and requirements for perfecting the lien of a secured party against any vehicle registered pursuant to this act.

§ 1353. Registration of vehicles required

It shall be unlawful for any person, including without limitation any tribal citizen, to operate any vehicle on the public streets, alleys, roadways or highways within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation unless such vehicle is properly registered and tagged under the provisions of this act or under the laws of the United States, a territory, a state or a federally-recognized Indian tribe with jurisdiction over the lands where such vehicle is principally garaged. Except as expressly authorized by tribal compact between Cherokee Nation and another federally-recognized Indian tribe, it shall be unlawful for the purposes of this section for any Indian to operate a motor vehicle on any tribal fee or trust or individual Indian trust or restricted land within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation if (i) said motor vehicle is tagged by another federally-recognized Indian tribe and (ii) the owner of said motor vehicle resides within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation and the motor vehicle is principally garaged within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1354. Registration fees and taxes

Eligible vehicles and trailers may be registered with Cherokee Nation, subject to the following fees and taxes:

1. Registration fees. There is hereby levied on every eligible vehicle registered with Cherokee Nation, an annual registration fee of the following:

Registration years 1–4:	$75.00
Registration years 5–8:	$65.00
Registration years 9–12:	$45.00
Registration years 13–16:	$25.00
Registration years 17 and over:	$10.00

a. The registration fee on an eligible vehicle previously registered with any other tribe or with any state or territory will be calculated as if the vehicle had been registered with Cherokee Nation for the same number of years it had been so previously registered.

b. Exceptions.

i. The annual registration fee for tribal citizens who present documentation that they are entitled to veteran status shall be as follows:

(I) Any active or former member of a branch of the United States military, not including veterans of foreign wars or disabled veterans, Special Fee: $65.00 for registration years 1–4; $45.00 for registration years 5–12; and for registration years 13 and over, the same fees as provided above in this subdivision 1 for other eligible vehicles;

(II) Veterans of foreign wars, Special Fee: $60.00 for registration years 1–4; $40.00 for registration years 5–12; and for registration years 13 and over, the same fees as provided above in this subdivision 1 for other eligible vehicles;

(III) Disabled veterans, Special Fee: $5.00 for registration years 1–8; and for registration years 9 and over, no fee;

(IV) Winners of medals of honor, bronze or silver stars, equivalent medals for bravery or heroism in combat, Special Fee: $7.00 for registration years 1–8; and for registration years 9 and over, no fee;

(V) Prisoners of war: exempt from registration fee.

ii. The annual registration fee on farm trucks and farm tractors shall be $25.00.

iii. The annual registration fee on a commercial trailer shall be $45.00.

iv. The annual registration fee on a farm trailer shall be $20.00.

v. The one-time permit fee for all-terrain vehicles is $6.00.

vi. The annual registration fee for tribal citizens who present documentation that they are personally qualified through the Oklahoma Department of Public Safety (DPS) as being physically disabled and having a five (5) year expiration parking permit from DPS shall be free of charge. Any Cherokee citizen who is eligible for a "physically disabled" license plate or whose vehicle has had modifications because of the physical disability of the owner or of an individual related to the owner within the second degree of consanguinity (parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling by blood) may register the vehicle for the fee prescribed above. This fee shall be in lieu of all other registration fees provided by this act.

2. Registration tax on personal vehicles. There is hereby levied a registration tax of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the actual purchase price of personal vehicles not previously registered with Cherokee Nation or any other tribe or with any state, provided that the actual purchase price is no more than twenty percent (20%) less than the average retail value. This registration tax shall also be levied upon any vehicle registered pursuant to this act upon its sale by a tribal citizen to another tribal citizen. The "average retail value" as used in this subdivision shall be determined from a published index of automobile values to be specified by the Commission in its rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this act.

3. Registration tax on commercial vehicles. There is hereby levied on every commercial vehicle registered with Cherokee Nation a registration tax equal to one-half (1/2) of the amount of the tax which would otherwise be imposed by subdivision 2 of this section if the vehicle were a personal vehicle. Provided, however, the owner of said vehicle shall be required to sign an affidavit, under oath, in such form as shall be prescribed by the Commission, stating that the vehicle will be used primarily for trade or business purposes, and shall either:

a. affix the federal employer identification number of said business to the affidavit, or

b. cause the name of the business to be permanently affixed to each side of said vehicle in letters or numerals of at least one inch (1") in height and in a color contrasting with the color of said vehicle.

Proof of trade or business purposes shall be required each year for subsequent registrations. This registration tax shall also be levied on any commercial vehicle registered pursuant to this act upon its sale by one tribal citizen to another tribal citizen.

4. Registration tax on motorcycles. There is hereby levied a registration tax on every motorcycle not previously registered with Cherokee Nation or any other tribe or with any territory or state at the same rate as described in subdivision 2 of this section. This registration tax shall also be levied on any motorcycle registered pursuant to this act upon its sale by a tribal citizen to another tribal citizen.

5. Registration tax on recreational vehicles. There is hereby levied a registration tax on every recreational vehicle not previously registered with Cherokee Nation or any other tribe or with any territory or state equal to one-half (1/2) of the amount of tax which would otherwise be imposed by subdivision 2. This registration tax shall also be levied on any recreational vehicle registered pursuant to this act upon its sale by a tribal citizen to another tribal citizen.

6. Registration tax on farm trucks and farm tractors. There shall be no registration tax levied on farm trucks or farm tractors.

7. Registration tax on farm trailers and commercial trailers. There shall be no registration tax levied on farm trailers or commercial trailers.

8. Lien for delinquent fees, etc. Any delinquent fees, taxes, penalties or interest due under the provisions of this act with respect to any vehicle shall constitute a lien of first priority against said vehicle. The Commission shall not register, title or renew the registration for any such vehicle until the delinquent fees, taxes, penalties or interest are paid.

9. Registration tax on manufactured homes.

a. There is hereby levied a registration tax on every new manufactured home not previously registered with Cherokee Nation or any other tribe or with any territory or state at the rate of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the actual purchase price.

b. There is hereby levied a registration tax on every used manufactured home not previously registered with Cherokee Nation or any other tribe or with any territory or state at the rate equal to one-half (1/2) of the amount of the tax which would otherwise be imposed on a new manufactured home under paragraph a of this subdivision. The three quarter percent (3/4%) registration tax on a used manufactured home shall be applied to sixty-five percent (65%) of one half (1/2) of the actual purchase price/value.

10. Registration tax on assembled vehicles. There is hereby levied a registration tax of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the actual purchase price of assembled vehicles not previously registered with Cherokee Nation or any other tribe or with any territory or state, provided that the actual purchase price is no more than twenty percent (20%) less than the average retail value. This registration tax shall also be levied upon any vehicle registered pursuant to this act upon its sale by a tribal citizen to another tribal citizen. "Average retail value" is determined as used in subdivision 2 of this section.

Assembled vehicles shall require:

a. Affidavit of assembly and ownership. Affidavit shall be approved by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission Motor Vehicle Division.

b. Upon approval of the affidavit of assembly and ownership the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service shall conduct an inspection and permanently affix a Cherokee Nation assigned number to the vehicle.

11. Registration tax on abandoned vehicles. There is hereby levied a registration tax of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the actual purchase price of abandoned vehicles not previously registered with Cherokee Nation or any other tribe or with any territory or state, provided that the actual purchase price is no more than twenty percent (20%) less than the average retail value. This registration tax shall also be levied upon any vehicle registered pursuant to this act upon its sale by a tribal citizen to another tribal citizen. "Average retail value" is determined as used in subdivisions 2 and 4 of this section.

The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall adopt rules and regulations to set forth the procedures and requirements for the ownership transfer of abandoned vehicles.

12. Registration tax for all-terrain and utility vehicles. Except for persons that possess an agricultural exemption pursuant to this section, the registration tax shall be levied upon transfers of legal ownership of all-terrain vehicles, utility vehicles and motorcycles used exclusively off roads and highways. The registration tax for new and used all-terrain vehicles, utility vehicles and motorcycles used exclusively off roads and highways shall be levied at one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the actual sales price of each new and used all-terrain vehicle and motorcycle used exclusively off roads and highways before any discounts or credits are given for a trade-in. The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall promulgate regulations as to effective date taxes on utility vehicles.

13. Registration tax for 100-percent disabled veterans. Any vehicle which is purchased by an individual who has been honorably discharged from active service in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States or the Oklahoma National Guard and who has been certified by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs, its successor, or the Armed Forces of the United States to be a disabled veteran in receipt of compensation at the one-hundred-percent rate for a permanent disability sustained through military action or accident resulting from disease contracted while in such active service shall be exempt from registration tax. Provided, this exemption may not be claimed by an individual for more than one vehicle in a consecutive three- (3) year period.

14. Possessory/laborers' lien. Laborers who perform work and labor on or storage of a vehicle for any person under a written or verbal contract, if unpaid for the same, shall have a lien on the production of their labor, for such work, labor or storage; provided that such lien shall attach only while the title to the property remains in the original owner.

The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall adopt rules and regulations to set forth the procedures and requirements for possessory/laborers' liens.

15. Registration tax for mini-trucks. Mini-trucks shall be registered pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Motor Vehicle Licensing and Tax Code. The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall promulgate rules for the titling and registration of mini-trucks.

Mini-trucks which have been titled and registered pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Motor Vehicle Licensing and Tax Code may be operated on the roadways of the state of Oklahoma; provided, however, mini-trucks shall not be permitted to travel upon any highway in this state which is a part of the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways. Operators of mini-trucks shall comply with all traffic regulations and rules of conduct for the operation of motor vehicles on the roadways of the state of Oklahoma provided by law.

§ 1355. Certificates of title

A. Application for certificate of title. Prior to the initial registration of any vehicle with Cherokee Nation, the owner shall apply to the Commission, on a form that the Commission shall by regulation direct, for a certificate of title for said vehicle. Prior to issuance of a certificate of title for a vehicle, the Commission shall require the applicant to furnish proof of purchase from a licensed new or used car dealer, or a properly endorsed vehicle certificate of title issued by the Commission or some other tribal, state or territorial licensing authority. Notice of liens against said vehicle shall be placed upon said title upon request of the lending institution in accordance with regulations adopted by the Commission pursuant to this act. The procedures for placing and releasing liens on vehicles and reflecting same on the certificate of title shall be provided by regulations adopted by the Commission pursuant to this act.

B. Title fees. The Commission shall charge a fee of Six Dollars ($6.00) for issuing an original or transfer certificate of title and a fee of Six Dollars ($6.00) for issuing a duplicate certificate of title. A receipt shall be given for said fees. If an Oklahoma tag agency issues the certificate of title, the agency shall charge the same fees as are provided in this subsection.

C. Original, transfer and duplicate titles.

1. An "original title" shall be issued to the first purchaser of a vehicle from a new vehicle dealer.

2. A "transfer title" shall be the title issued to a second or subsequent owner of an eligible vehicle whether purchased from an individual or dealer.

3. A "duplicate title" shall be the title issued to the owner of record of an eligible vehicle to replace a lost, stolen or mutilated original or transfer title.

D. Salvage and rebuilt title.

1. A salvage title shall be issued to any vehicle ten (10) model years and newer which has been damaged by collision or other occurrence to the extent that the cost of repairing the vehicle for safe operation on the highway exceeds sixty percent (60%) of its fair market value, immediately prior to the damage.

2. A rebuilt title shall be issued on any salvage vehicle which has been rebuilt and inspected for the purpose of registration and title with Cherokee Nation, another tribe or state.

E. Repealed by LA 24-04, eff. June 17, 2004.

F. Manufactured home title.

1. A manufactured home title shall be issued and subtitled as follows:

a. "Manufactured home—original title" shall be issued to the first purchaser of a new manufactured home from a manufactured home dealer.

b. "Manufactured home—transfer title" shall be the title issued to a second or subsequent owner of an eligible manufactured home whether purchased from an individual or dealer.

c. "Manufactured home—duplicate title" shall be the title issued to the owner of record of an eligible manufactured home to replace a lost, stolen or mutilated original or transfer title.

§ 1356. License plates

A. Standard license plate. Each vehicle registered with the Cherokee Nation shall be issued a license plate to be properly displayed on the rear of said vehicle. The Commission shall be responsible for the design of all license plates issued hereunder which plates shall conform to the following requirements:

1. Each license plate shall be made of metal with a background and lettering of sufficient contrast so as to be easily read from a distance of not less than fifty (50) feet;

2. Each license plate shall bear the name of Cherokee Nation along the upper portion of the plate;

3. Each license plate shall bear the Cherokee Nation seal;

4. Each license plate shall bear the word Oklahoma;

5. Each license plate number shall contain no more than seven (7) characters, made up of numbers, letters or a unique combination of both, unless otherwise provided herein;

6. The identifying symbols on the license plate shall be large and clear enough to be read by the unaided eye at a distance of not less than fifty (50) feet;

7. Each license plate shall provide a space for the placement of month and year decals in two corners of the license plate;

8. The license plates for each class of vehicles shall bear some mark or decal as determined by the Commission so as to make it different from those assigned to other classes of vehicles; and

9. The Commission may in its discretion provide by regulation for special identifying symbols or legends to be placed upon personal vehicles license plates issued for:

- a. the physically handicapped;
- b. veterans of the Armed Forces;
- c. winners of selected medals for heroism in combat;
- d. past or present prisoners of war;
- e. parents whose child has been killed as a result of service in the Armed Forces; and
- f. past and present elected tribal officials.

The Commission shall require such documentation as it deems appropriate that the owner of the vehicle is eligible for the special symbol or legend.

B. Cherokee Nation government vehicles. The Commission shall issue without charge appropriate titles, certificates of registration, license plates and decals for any vehicle owned by Cherokee Nation or its agencies. Title to any such vehicles shall be in the name of Cherokee Nation and such vehicles shall not be sold or transferred except in accordance with applicable law.

C. Delaware Tribe of Indians government vehicles. The Commission shall issue without charge appropriate titles, certificates of registration, license plates and decals for any eligible vehicle owned by the federally-recognized Delaware Tribe of Indians, its agencies. Title to any such vehicles shall be in the name of the Delaware Tribe of Indians and such eligible vehicles shall not be sold or transferred except in accordance with applicable law.

D. Physically-disabled license plate. For those eligible individuals a specially-designed plate will be available which shall prominently display the international accessibility symbol, which is a stylized human figure in a wheelchair. Upon the death of the physically-disabled person, the special license plate shall be returned to the Tax Commission. There shall be no fee for such plate in addition to the rate provided by this act for the registration fee of the vehicle.

E. Lost, mutilated or destroyed license plate or decal.

1. In the event of loss, mutilation or destruction of a license plate or decal issued to an eligible vehicle the owner of the vehicle shall file an affidavit showing such fact and obtain a replacement plate or decal. The charge shall be Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each such plate or decal.

2. In the event a license plate becomes so mutilated as to make its numbers, letters or decals illegible, the owner/operator of the vehicle to which the plate was issued shall be subject to a fine of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). Law enforcement shall have the authority to detain and cite any owner or operator of vehicles bearing such mutilated license plates.

§ 1357. Documents required for registration

A. Each applicant for vehicle registration with the Nation shall present with the completed application form the following items:

1. A valid certificate of title to the vehicle in the name of the applicant; and
2. Unless the vehicle is currently registered with Cherokee Nation pursuant to this act in the applicant's name, proof of current and valid vehicle registration with another tribe, territory or state, or if a new purchase, a copy of the bill of sale; and
3. A valid Oklahoma drivers license showing applicant's residence within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation; and
4. Proof of current liability insurance policy or bond covering any liability for an accident involving such motor vehicle, with coverage limits, exclusive of interest and costs, of not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) because of bodily injury to or death to any one (1) person in any one (1) collision or accident and, subject to said limit for one (1) person, not less than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one (1) collision or accident, and not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one (1) collision or accident; and
5. Evidence that the owner of the vehicle is a tribal citizen and lives within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation or, if outside the boundaries, within the territorial areas of other tribes to the extent and as provided for in a compact with the State of Oklahoma approved pursuant to 68 CNCA § 1304(A).

B. Penalties for late registration.

1. Any tribal citizen residing within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation, or owning and garaging a vehicle within said boundaries, who is eligible to apply for a certificate of title, certificate of registration, tag and decal for said vehicle shall have thirty (30) days after purchasing or obtaining possession of said vehicle, or thirty (30) days after the expiration of the previous tag issued by Cherokee Nation, another tribe, Oklahoma or other state or territory, within which to apply for a Cherokee Nation certificate of title, certificate of registration, tag and decal. Failure to apply within the prescribed time will result in the civil penalty of Twenty-Five Cents ($0.25) per day beginning on the first day following the expiration of said 30-day period, provided that no such penalty shall be assessed unless and until an application for registration is made. Provided, the foregoing penalty shall not exceed two (2) times the registration fee for the vehicle and shall be assessed and collected by the Commission at the time of application for a new or renewal registration for said vehicle. No such application shall be granted until all civil penalties and fines owed by the applicant pursuant to this act are paid in full along with all other taxes and fees payable hereunder, except that penalties need not be paid if the Administrator waives the penalties in whole or in part in accordance with paragraph 2 of subsection (B) of this section. Any vehicle last registered with Cherokee Nation pursuant to this act whose tag has been expired for twelve (12) months or longer and being operated upon any tribal trust or fee land within the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation is hereby declared contraband and shall be subject to seizure and sale by the Commission; provided, that not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of sale the Commission shall give notice of the date and time of sale to the owner and any lienholder whose name(s) appears on the most recent application for registration and/or lien entry form for said vehicle, by certified mail sent to the address set forth therein, during which period the owner may avoid the sale and recover the vehicle by paying all fees, taxes, fines and penalties then owing with respect to said vehicle. The proceeds of such sale shall be deposited into the General Fund and shall be available for appropriation and allocation under 68 CNCA § 1305(B), unless there is a lienholder whose lien has been perfected in accordance with the regulations of the Commission, in which event the proceeds shall be first applied to the costs of sale, then to any such lienholders in accordance with their respective priorities, and the balance, if any, into the General Fund for appropriation and allocation pursuant to this act.

2. The Administrator shall have the authority to waive penalties in whole or in part for failure to register a vehicle in accordance with this act in cases where such vehicle is proven to have been inoperable during the registration period. Proof of inoperability may be by, but is not limited to, submission of parts or repair receipts or such other evidence deemed appropriate by the Administrator.

3. The Administrator shall have the authority to deny registration or renewal registration to any applicant when the application information submitted by the applicant is determined by the Administrator to be fraudulent or incorrect. If a vehicle is registered hereunder and thereafter the Administrator determines that the registration was made on the basis of false or fraudulent information, the Administrator shall notify the applicant-owner that the registration has been revoked. Notification shall be done by certified mail and shall be complete upon acceptance of, or refusal to accept, delivery of the notice.

4. Penalties under this section shall not apply if the vehicle has been properly registered with any other tribe, state, territory or the United States.

C. Application form. The vehicle registration application form shall be as prescribed by the Commission pursuant to regulations promulgated by it hereunder and shall include provisions whereby the applicant expressly submits himself or herself to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation and its courts for purposes of enforcement of this act, including without limitation the assessment and collection of any penalties, fines or interest provided for hereunder.

§ 1358. Operation of motor vehicle within Cherokee Nation

A. Every operator of a vehicle upon the public streets, alleys, roadways or highways within the reservation boundaries shall have in their possession a currently valid United States, state or territorial driver's license and shall exhibit such license to any law enforcement officer upon request.

B. Every owner and/or operator of a vehicle operated upon the public streets, alleys, roadways or highways within the reservation boundaries shall maintain with some insurance company or surety company a liability insurance policy or bond, to cover any liability arising from a collision or an accident involving such motor vehicle, with limits, exclusive of interest and costs, of not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) because of bodily injury to or death of one (1) person in any one (1) collision or accident and, subject to said limit for one (1) person, not less than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one (1) collision or accident, and not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one (1) collision or accident. This requirement shall not apply to any operator if the owner of such vehicle has insurance with the foregoing minimum limits that covers the operator while he or she is operating the vehicle.

C. Every owner of a vehicle registered with the Nation pursuant to the provisions of this act shall carry in such vehicle at all times a current owner's security verification form identifying the vehicle, which form must be issued by an insurance company or surety company and shall produce such form upon request for inspection by any law enforcement officer or representative of the Commission and, in case of a collision or accident, the form shall be shown upon request to any person injured by said collision or whose vehicle or property has been damaged by said collision. Said form shall not be valid or sufficient unless issued by an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in the State of Oklahoma. Provided, however, that residents of other states operating a vehicle registered in another state, territory or an Indian tribe from another state must have in effect liability insurance or other coverage, together with proof of same, as is required under the financial responsibility laws of the state, territory or Indian tribe where the vehicle is registered, or liability insurance coverage or other forms of financial security, and proof thereof, that meet the requirements of Oklahoma financial responsibility laws applicable to non-residents.

D. The following shall not be required to carry an owner's or operator's security verification form or an equivalent form during operation of a vehicle and shall not be required to surrender such form for vehicle registration purposes:

1. Any vehicle owned or leased by the federal, state, territory or tribal government, or any agency or political subdivision thereof;
2. Any vehicle bearing the name, symbol or logo of a business, corporation or utility on the exterior whose business, corporation or utility has a deposit, bond, self-insurance or fleet policy on file with the Commission in an amount that meets the minimum limits of subsection (B) of this section, or the financial responsibility laws of the State of Oklahoma, whichever amount is greater, or
3. Any vehicle not required to carry such security verification form under the provisions of 47 O.S. § 7-602, as amended, replaced or recodified from time to time.

§ 1359. Penalties

A. Any Indian operating a vehicle registered pursuant to this act within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation, including without limitation any tribal citizen, who knowingly issues or promulgates false or fraudulent information in connection with either the financial security verification form or an equivalent form of an owner or operator shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or by both such fine or imprisonment.

B. Any Indian who operates a vehicle, or allows to be operated a vehicle owned by him or her, on the streets, alleys, roads and highways in the reservation boundaries of Cherokee Nation in violation of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), or imprisonment for not more than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

C. Any vehicle operated in violation of any provision in 68 CNCA §§ 1353 to 1358, inclusive, shall be considered a public nuisance. The Commission shall have the authority to seize any Cherokee Nation license plate placed upon such vehicle and prohibit the return or re-registration of the vehicle until a security verification form is filed with the Commission or other appropriate action as ordered by the Commission is taken to assure that such vehicle shall not be used in violation of this act. If such vehicle has been in a collision or accident, any law enforcement officer shall impound such vehicle until a security verification form is filed with the Commission or other appropriate action as ordered by the Commission is taken.

§ 1360. Recognition of foreign titles and registration

It shall not be unlawful by reason of this act for any person to possess or operate a vehicle within the reservation boundaries of the Cherokee Nation so long as the vehicle is properly registered and tagged by the jurisdiction in which such persons resides or in which the vehicle is principally garaged and such jurisdiction extends like or similar recognition to the vehicle tags, certificates of title and registrations issued by the Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 20

TRIBAL–STATE MOTOR VEHICLE LICENSING COMPACT BETWEEN CHEROKEE NATION AND THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA

§ 2001. Tribal-state motor vehicle licensing compact

This Tribal–State Motor Vehicle Licensing Compact (hereinafter, "Compact") is entered into by and between Cherokee Nation, a federally-recognized Indian tribe (hereinafter, the "Nation"), and the State of Oklahoma (hereinafter, "State"), to be effective upon the date described hereinbelow.

Section 1: Recitals

a) The Nation is a federally-recognized Indian tribe with its capitol located in the City of

b) On the 15th day of January, 2001, the Nation's Tribal Council enacted a new motor vehicle code, L.A. 01–01, pursuant to which the Nation intends to exercise its authority to issue motor vehicle licenses to its citizens within the boundaries of its jurisdictional area to the extent authorized under applicable decisions of the United States Supreme Court. Copies of L.A. 01–01 and all amendments thereto in effect as of the effective date of this Compact are attached hereto as Exhibit A. Said boundaries encompass a portion of the lands within the Indian Territory that were ceded by the United States to the Nation pursuant to the Indian Removal Act of 1830, 4 Stat. 411, the 1835 Treaty of New Echota, 7 Stat. 478, and a fee patent executed by the President of the United States pursuant to Article 3 of said treaty. These ceded lands included what is now all of present-day Sequoyah, Adair, Cherokee, Mayes, Delaware, Rogers, Washington, Nowata and Craig Counties, and portions of present-day McIntosh, Muskogee, Wagoner, Tulsa and Ottawa Counties, in northeastern Oklahoma.

c) The Nation and the State have agreed that it would be in their respective best interests to enter into this Compact that would coordinate the Nation's motor vehicle licensing system with that of the State in the manner and to the extent set forth hereinbelow.

Section 2: Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this Compact is to set forth the agreement between the Nation and the State with respect to the Nation's licensing of motor vehicles and other vehicles owned by the Nation's enrolled citizens in accordance with the provisions of Cherokee Nation's motor vehicle licensing code, LA 01–01, as in effect on the date this Compact is effective (hereinafter, the "CN Motor Vehicle Code"); coordinating the use of and/or access to motor vehicle titling and registration information with the State for law enforcement and other purposes; developing agreed-to procedures for communicating and transmitting such information; and allocating a portion of revenues collected by the Nation from the licensing of vehicles for the benefit of schools and certain counties and municipalities within the Nation's jurisdictional area.

Section 3: Definitions

Wherever used in this Compact, the words and phrases set forth below shall have the following meanings:

a) "Citizen" shall mean a person who is an enrolled member of Cherokee Nation as provided in 68 CNCA § 1304.

b) "CN Motor Vehicle Code" shall mean L.A. 01–01 and the amendments thereto, codified as 68 CNCA § 1301 et seq., which are attached to this Compact as Exhibit A.

c) "Indian country" shall mean "Indian country" as that term is defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1151 and has been interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in Oklahoma Tax Commission vs. Sac and Fox Nation, 508 U.S. 114 (1993), and other decisions of said Court.

d) "Jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation" shall mean the area in the State of Oklahoma that lies within the boundaries of Cherokee Nation as more particularly described in Exhibit B attached to this Compact.

e) "Motor vehicle" or "Vehicle" shall have the same meaning given to the term "Eligible vehicle" in 68 CNCA § 1304 and any other vehicle eligible for registration thereunder.

f) "Tribal motor vehicle license" shall mean a license plate or tag issued by Cherokee Nation for a particular motor vehicle or other vehicle in accordance with provisions of the CN Motor Vehicle Code and of Section 3 of this Compact.

g) "Nation" shall mean Cherokee Nation.

h) "State" shall mean the State of Oklahoma.

Section 4: Tribal Motor Vehicle License

The parties stipulate and agree that the Nation, as a federally-recognized Indian tribe, has the sovereign authority to issue motor vehicle licenses in accordance with the United States Supreme Court's decision in Oklahoma Tax Commission vs. Sac and Fox Nation, 508 U.S. 114 (1993). However, the Nation and the State disagree in their respective interpretations of the Court's decision in Sac and Fox Nation, including without limitation the question of what lands or territory are to be considered "Indian country" in light of the Court's decision in that case, and by entering into this Compact the Nation and State do not intend to resolve that question. However, the Nation and State both recognize the practical difficulty in determining whether a vehicle is principally garaged in Indian country, under either party's legal interpretation of the term Indian country. Accordingly, in order to avoid the uncertainties and costs associated with litigation, and to promote a cooperative relationship between the Nation and the State of Oklahoma, the parties agree as follows:

a) The Nation agrees that it will issue tribal motor vehicle licenses only to persons who are citizens residing within the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation and in accordance with the provisions of the CN Motor Vehicle Code. The Nation agrees that it will not issue motor vehicle licenses to persons who reside outside the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation or to any person living within the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation who is not an enrolled citizen of Cherokee Nation.

b) The State agrees not to challenge (1) the registration of motor vehicles provided that they are registered to citizens by the Nation's Tax Commission in accordance with the CN Motor Vehicle Code and this Compact, or (2) the validity of tribal motor vehicle tags issued to persons residing within the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation provided that said tags are issued to a citizen in accordance with the provisions of the CN Motor Vehicle Code and this Compact.

c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Compact, the Nation and State agree that enforcement and administration of the CN Motor Vehicle Code shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Nation. This Compact shall not be construed, and is not intended, to enlarge, diminish or otherwise affect the civil or criminal law enforcement jurisdiction or obligations of either party.

Section 5: Tribal Motor Vehicle Information; Use of Oklahoma Tag Agents

a) The Nation and the State agree that each has a significant interest in sharing information relating to the registration of motor vehicles and other vehicles by the Nation and by the State so that (i) the Nation can verify registration information furnished by its citizens when applying for tribal motor vehicle licenses for vehicles previously registered with the State of Oklahoma, and (ii) law enforcement officers and agencies of the State of Oklahoma, other states and other Indian tribes can promptly verify the ownership and the current registration status of automobile and other vehicles bearing motor vehicle or other vehicle license tags issued by the Nation. Accordingly, the Nation and the State agree to share such registration information with the State as hereinafter provided.

b) The Nation shall transmit to the Oklahoma Tax Commission (OTC) motor vehicle ownership and registration information for each vehicle it registers, which information shall be included in the OTC's motor vehicle information database so that state, local, federal and tribal law enforcement and other governmental agencies may access such information to the same extent and in the same manner that such agencies have access to such information with regard to motor vehicles registered with the OTC, in order to confirm the ownership and currency of registration of each such vehicle with the Nation's Tax Commission. The Nation shall transmit the motor vehicle ownership and registration information to the OTC no later than fifteen (15) days after the date on which the motor vehicle is registered with the Nation, except information for vehicles registered prior to the effective date of this Compact shall be transmitted no later than sixty (60) days after the Compact goes into effect. The Nation shall bear any and all costs in providing the information to the OTC.

c) The parties further agree that the Nation may negotiate appropriate agreements with Oklahoma tag agents to process the Nation's motor vehicle registration and licensing documents and transmit information relating to motor vehicles registered by the Nation to the OTC as stated in paragraph (b), above. The fees and charges for services performed by any such agents on behalf of the Nation shall be as negotiated by the Nation and the agents and neither the State nor any political subdivision of the State, including the OTC, will bear any responsibility for such fees and charges.

d) Regardless of whether the Nation engages the services of Oklahoma tag agents in transmitting motor vehicle registration and ownership information to the State pursuant to this Compact, the parties acknowledge, stipulate and agree that the State shall have no responsibility for issuing certificates of title and registration under the CN Motor Vehicle Code. The content, accuracy and maintenance of all records relating to motor vehicle titles and registration issued by the Nation shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the Nation.

Section 6: Payments to Oklahoma Public Schools, Sequoyah High School, Certain Highway Projects, Counties and Municipalities

The Nation has adopted the CN Motor Vehicle Code, as amended, providing for annual payments by the Nation of a portion of tribal motor vehicle licensing revenues to Oklahoma public schools, counties, municipalities, and federally- and/or state-funded highway construction or maintenance projects located within the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation, as well as to Sequoyah High School and the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service. Said payments shall be made by the Nation directly to the schools, agencies conducting such highway projects, counties, municipalities and Marshal Service in accordance with the CN Motor Vehicle Code, as in effect on the date on which this Compact is effective, and the annual appropriations thereunder. Provided, as a condition of this Compact, the Nation agrees to appropriate and distribute each year during which this Compact remains in effect: (1) an amount equal to thirty-eight percent (38%) of all fees and taxes collected annually by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission under the CN Motor Vehicle Code to said public schools and Sequoyah High School in accordance with the allocation formula set forth in 68 CNCA § 1306; (2) an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of all such fees and taxes so collected for expenditure on the construction or maintenance of the following highways within the jurisdictional area of Cherokee Nation: federal highways, state highways or highways constructed or maintained with funds apportioned pursuant to 47 O.S. § 1104(A) that are part of the counties' collector system, all in accordance with 68 CNCA § 1306(C)(3) of said Code; and (3) an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the amount of such fees and taxes remaining after payment of the Nation's costs incurred in administering the CN Motor Vehicle Code to counties and municipalities within the jurisdictional area of the Cherokee Nation and/or to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service, as provided in 68 CNCA § 1306(C)(4) of said Code. The Nation further agrees that it will continue making said annual payments to said schools, counties, municipalities, Marshal Service and highway construction or maintenance projects in accordance with the provisions of the CN Motor Vehicle Code, as in effect on the day this Compact becomes effective, so long as this the Compact remains in effect.

Section 7: Sovereign Powers and Jurisdiction Unaffected; No Partnership or Agency Created

Nothing in this Compact is intended or shall be construed to enlarge, diminish or otherwise affect the sovereign powers or jurisdiction of either party over any persons or territory. Nothing in this Compact shall prohibit the State from requiring motor vehicle registration and the payment of fees and taxes by any resident of this state who does not reside, or whose motor vehicle is not principally garaged, in Indian country. No provision in this Compact shall be construed as an admission, concession or acknowledgement by the State that (1) the Nation has civil or criminal jurisdiction over territory that is not "Indian country" or (2) any particular lands and/or territory constitute Indian country, either as a formal or informal reservation or otherwise. Nor shall any provision herein be construed as an admission, concession or acknowledgement by the Nation that (1) it does not have such jurisdiction over territory that is not Indian country or (2) any particular lands and/or territory do not constitute Indian country either as a formal or informal reservation or otherwise. Further, this Compact is not intended, and shall not be construed, to create a partnership, joint venture or agency relationship between the Nation and the State.

Section 8: Term

This Compact shall remain in effect for a period of ten (10) years, commencing on the effective date described in Section 9 hereof, and shall automatically renew for a like period unless prior to the end of the initial term either of the parties gives written notice to the other that the Compact shall not be renewed. Provided, however, the parties agree that either party may terminate this Compact without cause by giving the other party ninety (90) days' written notice in accordance with Section 9 hereof, and provided further that either party may terminate the Compact for cause by giving the other party twenty (20) days' written notice in accordance with said section, which notice shall state the conduct, occurrence or condition giving rise to cause for termination. Provided, the parties agree that if either is terminating for cause, the party proposing to terminate the Compact should-but is not required to-give the other party opportunity and reasonable time to cure or otherwise correct the conditions described in the notice as grounds for termination.

Section 9: Effective Date

This Compact shall go into effect when it has been executed and/or approved by all of the following: the Governor of the State of Oklahoma, the Joint Committee of the Oklahoma Legislature on State-Tribal Relations, the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation, and the Tribal Council of Cherokee Nation.

Section 10: Notices

TITLE 70

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Neglect or refusal to compel child to attend school

A. It shall be unlawful for a parent, guardian, custodian or other person having control of a child who is over the age of five (5) years, unless such child has been screened by the Cherokee Nation, or an educational or behavioral health expert and such child is determined not to be ready for kindergarten, and under the age of eighteen (18) years, to neglect or refuse to cause or compel such child to attend and comply with the rules of some public, private or other school including home school, unless other means of education are provided for the full term the schools of the district are in session. One-half (1/2) day of kindergarten shall be required of all children five (5) years of age or older as appropriately provided, or as otherwise excepted from same by this section. A kindergarten program shall be directed toward developmentally appropriate objectives for such children. The program shall require that any teacher employed on program within the public school system shall be certified in early childhood education.

B. It shall be unlawful for any child who is over the age of sixteen (16) years and under the age of eighteen (18) years, and who has not finished four (4) years of high school work, to neglect or refuse to attend and comply with the rules of some public, private or other school including home school, or receive an education by other means for the full term the schools of the district are in session.

Provided, that this section shall not apply:

1. If any such child is prevented from attending school by reason of mental or physical disability, to be determined by the board of education of the district upon a certificate of the school physician or public health physician, or, if no such physician is available, a duly licensed and practicing physician.

2. If any such child is excused from attendance a school, due to an emergency, by the principal teacher of the school in which such child is enrolled, at the request of the parent, guardian, custodian or other person having control of such child.

3. If any such child who has attained his or her sixteenth birthday is excused from attending school by written, joint agreement between:

a. The school administrator of the school district where the child attends school, and

b. The parent, guardian or custodian of the child. Provided, further, that no child shall be excused from attending school by such joint agreement between a school administrator and the parent, guardian or custodian of the child unless and until it has been determined that such action is for the best interest of the child and/or the community, and that said child shall thereafter be under the supervision of the parent, guardian or custodian until the child has reached the age of eighteen (18) years; or

4. If any such child is excused pursuant to subsection (C) of this section.

C. A school shall excuse a student from attending school for the purpose of observing religious days if before the absence, the parent, guardian, or person having custody or control of the student submits a written request for the excused absence. The district shall excuse a student pursuant to this subsection for the days on which the religious holy days are observed and for the days on which the student must travel to and from the site where the student will observe the days.

D. It shall be the duty of the juvenile and law enforcement officers to enforce the provisions of this section. Any parent, guardian, custodian, child or other person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for the first offense, not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for the second offense, and not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each subsequent offense. Each day the child remains out of school after the written warning has been given or the child ordered to school by the juvenile court may constitute a separate offense. At the trial of any person charged with violating the provisions of this section, the attendance records of the child or ward may be presented in court by any authorized employee of the school district.

CHAPTER 2

FAMILY ADULT EDUCATION UNIT

§ 101. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish permanent funding for educational opportunities and learning experiences to enable Cherokee adults to be literate and to obtain the necessary academic skills and knowledge needed to gain meaningful employment and to exercise the rights and responsibilities of tribal and national citizenship.

§ 102. Establishment of the program

Cherokee Nation does hereby officially establish the Family Adult Education Unit as a permanent recurring program to be funded from the General Fund Budget.

§ 103. Education

The Cherokee Nation Family Adult Education Unit promotes lifelong learning which will allow every Cherokee an opportunity to obtain necessary academic skills to achieve meaningful employment, personal development and spiritual growth. It is therefore necessary for Cherokee Nation:

1. To provide community-based Adult Basic Education/GED classes to eligible Indian adults throughout the Nation's jurisdictional boundaries;
2. To provide adult students with instruction which incorporates Cherokee language and culture concepts;

3. To incorporate in all academic adult education programs scheduled sessions that focus on developing or enriching the sense of individual pride and dignity of being a Cherokee, American Indian and citizen of the U.S., utilizing the expertise of tribal elders, Tribal Council Members and local community leaders;
4. To implement curriculum materials that reflect the special cultural and academic needs of Cherokee adult learners and thereby increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of learning;
5. To achieve computer literacy for all Cherokee adults to the level that all Cherokee families may have access to updated computer systems in their homes or in a nearby Cherokee Indian Adult Education Program where adults may continue learning and upgrading their skills, becoming better informed and increasing their employability opportunities.

§ 204. Scholarships for eligible students

Cherokee Nation students who are eligible for PELL and non-PELL grant educational assistance and who are enrolled in a qualified educational facility shall receive a scholarship of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) per academic semester, up to Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) per academic year or equal distribution pending the allocation of the comprehensive budget. Said scholarship shall be automatically renewed for ten (10) semesters provided that the student remains enrolled in good standing at a qualified educational facility. Scholarship awards shall not require demonstration of need.

The funding source for this expenditure shall be the Cherokee Nation General Fund. Scholarship awards shall be contingent upon available funding.

§ 205. Administration of scholarship program

A. Cherokee Nation shall administer, through the Education Group, the Cherokee Nation Higher Education Scholarship Program. The purpose of this program is to provide financial support to qualified Cherokee citizens in order to attend educational institutions beyond the high school level. These institutions include but are not limited to universities, colleges, and junior colleges. The Council of Cherokee Nation shall appropriate funds for this program subject to the availability of resources.

Nothing herein shall impact the administration of funds to assist students attend nursing programs, vocational trade schools or other types of job training administered by the Career Services Group.

B. The Education Group shall promulgate regulations, rules, policies and procedures to administer the scholarship program consistent with this act. Beginning with Fiscal Year (FY) 2012, such rules, policies and procedures and any changes thereto shall be null and void unless they have been provided to the Council of Cherokee Nation, in writing, at least ninety (90) days prior to the effective date of the regulation, rule, policy or procedure, unless such time frame is waived by resolution of the Council.

CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT

§ 251. Short title

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Concurrent Enrollment Scholarship Act of 2011.

§ 252. Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to create a scholarship program to benefit Cherokee high school students residing in the Cherokee Nation Scholarship Program service area (see map available at Cherokee Nation College Resource Center) who are currently enrolled in an accredited public or private institution of higher learning.

§ 253. Definitions

"Concurrent enrollment" means students who are either a high school junior or senior who are taking college courses through an accredited public or private institution.

§ 254. Scholarships for high school students enrolled in college courses

The Cherokee Nation College Resource Center shall establish a scholarship program to benefit Cherokee high school students residing in the Cherokee Nation Scholarship Program service area (see map available at Cherokee Nation College Resource Center) who are currently enrolled in college courses through an accredited public or private institution of higher learning. The establishment of said program and scholarship awards shall be contingent upon the availability of funding.

TITLE 73

SOVEREIGNTY

CHAPTER 1

SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Sovereign Immunity Act.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to clarify Cherokee Nation sovereign immunity and authorize the Principal Chief to waive sovereign immunity on a limited basis for business transactions of Cherokee Nation-owned business entities in order to better fulfill the duties prescribed by the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

§ 3. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Act" means an enactment of the Council as provided in the Constitution.
2. "Business entity" means any business entity in which the Nation is a majority owner.
3. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.
4. "Resolution" means an enactment of the Council as provided in the Constitution.
5. "Sovereign immunity" means the preclusion of bringing suit against the government without its consent.

§ 4. Sovereign immunity

- A. The Nation is a federally-recognized Indian Nation existing from time immemorial and retains the inherent right to preclude lawsuits under the doctrine of sovereign immunity.
- B. The Nation does not consent to lawsuits in any court except by Legislative Act or Resolution of the Council of Cherokee Nation.
- C. The Nation has the inherent right to waive, and grant authority to waive sovereign immunity with limitations as to time, place, manner, subject, and any other restrictions desired.

§ 5. Delegation of authority as to business entities

The Principal Chief is authorized to execute a waiver of sovereign immunity and/or to agree not to raise the defense of sovereign immunity as to a business entity only as follows:

1. All waivers shall be in writing and signed by the Principal Chief and verified by the Secretary of State. A copy shall be filed and indexed in the Office of the Principal Chief and with the office of the Tribal Council. This signature authority shall not be delegated.
2. A waiver may be included in an agreement or contract containing other terms.
3. Except as provided in subdivision 5, all waivers shall contain provisions limiting:
 - a. Who may bring a claim. Only parties to a contract shall be eligible to bring a claim.
 - b. Type of claims allowed. Any waiver shall be limited to obligations or rights arising under a written contract or agreement in a breach of contract claim.

c. Types of relief or damages. The waiver shall be specifically limited to an award of actual or liquidated damages under the terms of the agreement. The waiver shall not allow recovery from the business entity for punitive or exemplary damages, nor shall the waiver allow recovery from any elected officials, officers or employees of Cherokee Nation for monetary damages, punitive or exemplary damages, court costs or attorney fees.

d. Choice of forum. Preference for jurisdiction of lawsuits pursuant to a waiver shall be filed, subject to a court asserting jurisdiction, first in Cherokee Nation courts, second in federal courts, third in state court.

e. Choice of law. Preference of applicable law shall be prioritized as follows: Nation law first, federal law second, and state law third.

f. Duration of the waiver. Waivers shall be limited to the duration of the contract.

4. Any waiver granted under this section shall not be canceled, terminated, or withdrawn except by agreement of the party entitled to the waiver.

5. A waiver conforming to the minimum "sue and be sued" requirements of the Small Business Administration for participation in the 8(a) Business Development program, 13 C.F.R. § 123.109(c)(1), as amended, is exempt from the limits of subdivision 3.

§ 6. Delegation of authority as to Cherokee Nation

In addition to all provisions in 73 CNCA § 5, any waiver of the sovereign immunity of Cherokee Nation as a government shall be limited to:

1. Actual damages resulting from legislative action which has a material adverse effect on an Business Entity's ability to perform obligations to a party to a contract under the contract.

2. Any contractual obligation of an Business Entity in the event that the Nation terminates or dissolves the Business Entity or materially and unreasonably increases restrictions on the Business Entity's capacity to engage in its operations.

3. Declaratory judgment interpreting the scope and validity of a waiver.

§ 7. Delegation of authority as to Cherokee Nation business entities

The Principal Chief is authorized to grant a waiver of the sovereign immunity of Cherokee Nation Businesses or a business entity in which Cherokee Nation Businesses owns an interest, (i) to a bonding company, surety, or other guarantor for the purpose of securing a contract. Such waiver will be, in the case of Cherokee Nation Businesses, limited to its cash or cash equivalent assets or (ii) to a company in connection with a New Markets Tax Credit transaction. Such waiver will be, in the case of a business entity in which Cherokee Nation Businesses owns an interest, limited to the assets of that entity. Waivers under this section will not be subject to the limitations of 73 CNCA § 5. This section does not allow the Principal Chief to grant a waiver as to Cherokee Nation or otherwise allow recovery against Cherokee Nation, its assets, or any elected officials, officers or employees of Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 2

CONSTITUTION CONVENTION COMMISSION

§ 101. Purpose

This act is adopted for the purpose of establishing a Constitution Convention Commission. The Commission shall oversee the conduct of a constitutional convention as called for by a vote of the Cherokee people in the 1995 election.

§ 102. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

1. "Appointed official" shall mean officials appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Tribal Council to serve for an established or indefinite term, but shall not include officials otherwise appointed and confirmed to serve only in a temporary or interim capacity because of exigent circumstances, provided there are no apparent conflicts of interest with the appointed official's duties or responsibilities.
2. "Campaign" means and includes all activities for or against the election of a candidate to a specific office within Cherokee Nation by a Constitution Convention Commissioner during his or her appointed term.
3. "Citizen of Cherokee Nation" means a person enrolled as a citizen of Cherokee Nation pursuant to 11 CNCA § 4(J), derived only through proof of Cherokee blood based on the Final Rolls.
4. "Constitution Commission" means the Cherokee Nation Constitution Convention Commission established pursuant to this statute.
5. "Council" means the Cherokee Nation Council.
6. "Council Member" means a member of the Cherokee Nation Council.
7. "Deputy Principal Chief" means the Deputy Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation who serves as President of the Council.
8. "Principal Chief" means the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation.

9. "Supreme Court" means the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation.

§ 103. Cherokee Nation Constitution Convention Commission

A. Establishment and appointment. The Commission shall be called the Cherokee Nation Constitution Convention Commission. The Constitution Convention Commission shall be composed of two (2) appointees of each Branch of the Tribal Government; two (2) from the Executive, the Chief and Deputy Chief concurring; two (2) from the Supreme Court, unanimous approval by all three Justices required; and two (2) from the Tribal Council, two-thirds (2/3) vote of approval required. The six (6) appointed members shall select a seventh member. The Constitution Convention Commission shall have the sole responsibility and explicit authority for the conduct of the Constitution Convention, including activities described in subsection (D) of this section, and shall be an independent Commission in the performance of its statutory authority. In the performance of that authority it shall not be subject to direction or supervision by the Executive, Legislative or Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation Government.

B. Term. The Constitution Convention Commission shall be appointed and take their oath of office when practical. Each Commission member shall serve a term commencing with the day of appointment, and ending six (6) months after the election on proposed amendments, alterations, revisions or a new constitution, or at the discretion of the Commission. In case of vacancy on the Commission, the Commission shall make a new appointment. A person appointed to fill a vacancy on the Constitution Convention Commission shall serve the remaining term of the vacant position.

C. Qualifications. The Commissioners shall be citizens of Cherokee Nation of high stature with excellent reputation, and have ability to comprehend basic legal issues. Elected or appointed officials of Cherokee Nation are specifically disqualified from serving on the Commission or any subcommittees created by the Commission.

D. Duties. The Constitution Convention Commission shall organize and proceed to carry out the process broadly outlined in this statute. That process will ensure citizen participation, on an equal footing, with all others. The Commission shall develop an effective and efficient method of communication with all citizens that will:

1. provide an objective assessment of the current governmental structure;
2. conduct a series of public hearings that provide citizens of each voting district an opportunity to provide both written and oral testimony before the Commission to express their views on constitutional amendments, alterations, revisions or a new constitution;
3. provide a regular progress report, a minimum of four times in a year, to the citizens and to each branch of the government;
4. upon completion of public review and comment, prepare an interim report to the Cherokee people detailing the proposed amendments, alterations, revisions or a new constitution at an at-large Constitution Convention; and

5. develop and present said final proposed amendments, alterations, revisions, or new constitution to a referendum vote by the citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

The Commission shall then work in cooperation with the Election Commission to prepare wording for said ballots for an election. The Constitution Convention Commission shall also engage in the following activities in the performance of its responsibilities:

1. Elect a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson/Parliamentarian, and a Secretary/Treasurer from its own membership;

2. Publish a schedule for its regular meetings, establish an agenda for each meeting in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, and approve and maintain correct and accurate minutes of its deliberations;

3. At its discretion, hire independent counsel to advise, who is neither currently employed or engaged in any manner by Cherokee Nation, or any agency or enterprise of Cherokee Nation, nor has been previously employed or engaged in any manner by Cherokee Nation or any agency or enterprise of Cherokee Nation within two (2) years prior to the enactment date of this statute;

4. Develop rules and regulations necessary to conduct the public hearings described above, provided that they shall publish and transmit such rules and regulations.

5. A minimum of three (3) members shall oversee the conduct of each of the public hearings at which citizens of Cherokee Nation will be permitted to provide written and oral testimony on their suggestions for proposed amendments, alterations, revisions, or new constitution.

6. Evaluate and determine the number and location of public hearings within the eleven (11) voting districts of Cherokee Nation. In addition, public hearings will be held in out-of-area major metropolitan centers in which a minimum of five hundred (500) citizens reside.

7. Hire support staff as the Commission deems appropriate for the conduct of business.

8. Establish a process to record and maintain a permanent record of comments taken from the citizens at the public hearings.

9. Engage in any other activities necessary for the performance of its responsibilities as required by provisions of this chapter.

10. Establish advisory committees and seek volunteers to the Commission that may contain citizens of Cherokee Nation who are neither on the Commission, nor employed by the Nation. Provided; that no such advisory committee member or volunteer shall have any voting right on matters before the Commission.

E. Meetings. The Constitution Convention Commission shall conduct business in open meetings at a location provided by Cherokee Nation or other location designated by the Commission, provided that the Commission may go into executive session for purposes of discussing policy and procedural matters in the initial organization of the Commission or any issues regarding personnel matters. No vote shall be taken in executive session, and all votes shall be public and recorded in the official minutes of the Commission. Meeting minutes shall be prepared by the Secretary/Treasurer setting forth the Commission members present, a summary of items discussed and action taken by vote of the Commission, and said minutes shall be subject to approval of the Commission. Public notice shall be given of all meetings no less than five (5) calendar days prior to meeting date. Special meetings may be called on the written concurrence of the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson/Parliamentarian, and Secretary/Treasurer with proper notice given.

Public notices shall be filed with the Secretary of State of Cherokee Nation and posted in the lobby by the Council chambers.

F. Quorum. Five (5) of the seven (7) Commission members shall constitute a quorum for all meetings held by the Commission.

G. Voting. Each member of the Commission may cast one (1) vote each on any given item taken to vote. A simple majority of votes cast by attending members will decide the issue. In the event of a tie, the vote shall be retaken with the Chairperson abstaining his or her vote.

H. Compensation. The Commission shall receive stipends or compensation for their services in accordance with their itemized budget as approved by the Council.

I. Immunity. All Commissioners serving on the Constitution Convention Commission shall be afforded qualified immunity from civil prosecution in the courts of Cherokee Nation for acts taken in performance of their statutory authority.

J. Removal of Commission member. Any Constitution Convention Commission member may be removed by a 5/7 vote of the Commission members under the following process:

1. Grounds for removal:

a. Campaigning for any candidate for elected office within Cherokee Nation,

b. Interfering with, or attempting to interfere with the orderly conduct of any public hearing on the Constitution,

c. Committing malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance of duty while in office. For purposes of removal, consecutively failing to attend three or more called meetings of the Commission, without just cause, will constitute nonfeasance of office.

2. A Commissioner removed by the Commission may seek a de novo appeal before the Supreme Court within ten (10) days. A petition for removal of a Commissioner may be brought by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Tribal Council, a five-sevenths (5/7) majority vote of the Commission itself or, only with respect to subsections (A) and (B) of this section, a citizen's petition brought by a minimum of twenty (20) citizens which includes the sworn statements of no less than ten (10) persons who witnessed the improper activity by a Commissioner.

CHAPTER 3

CONSENT FOR LITIGATION

§ 201. Short title

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Consent for Litigation Act of 2011.

§ 202. Purpose

The purpose for this enactment is to require Tribal Council consent prior to filing any litigation that involves the Nation's sovereignty or substantial assets.

§ 203. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Cherokee Nation" means the government of Cherokee Nation located at Tahlequah, Oklahoma.
2. "Filing" means the initiation of legal action in any court or regulatory body.
3. "Litigation" means any proceeding or suit at law.
4. "Principal Chief" means the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation.
5. "Sovereignty" means the matters that concern the boundaries, or territory, or the jurisdiction, or treaty rights, or the powers or rights of self-governance of Cherokee Nation.
6. "Substantial assets" means litigation that involves an amount in controversy in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).
7. "Tribal Council" means the Cherokee Nation Council.

§ 204. Authorization, ratification or approval of litigation

Any litigation brought on behalf of Cherokee Nation against any non-Cherokee Nation entity in any court or jurisdiction, must be authorized by the Principal Chief and ratified by the Tribal Council prior to the filing of said litigation, when said suit involves the Sovereignty of Cherokee Nation or substantial assets. If, due to exigent circumstances, litigation must be commenced or filed prior to securing ratification or approval by the Tribal Council, such ratification or approval must be granted within sixty (60) days or such litigation shall be dismissed. These requirements do not apply to routine civil or criminal litigation carried out by the Justice Department of Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 4

CHEROKEE NATION TREATY, COMPACT AND AGREEMENT ACT

§ 301. Short title

This legislative act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Treaty, Compact and Agreement Act.

§ 302. Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to grant to the Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation the authority to execute treaties, compacts, memorandums of understanding, contracts, and other agreements on behalf of Cherokee Nation between governments, state agencies or other entities; with said approval to be subject to ratification through a majority vote of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council.

§ 303. Definitions

For the purposes of this chapter:

1. "Cherokee Nation" means Cherokee Nation, located in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.
2. "Compact" means an agreement usually applied to agreements between nations or sovereign states.
3. "Comprehensive budget" means the incomes and expenditures as estimated, balanced, and approved by the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council.
4. "Contract" means a promissory agreement, to do or abstain from doing some act, in exchange for sufficient consideration, between two or more parties that creates, modifies or destroys some legal relation.
5. "Credit of Cherokee Nation" means obligation of tribal funds, property resources in which Cherokee Nation has an interest.
6. "Memorandum of Understanding" means a written document embodying the terms of an agreement that the parties desire to fix by an informal written document, which will serve as the basis for a future formal contract.
7. "Principal Chief" means the duly elected and confirmed Principal Chief, Executive Officer of the Cherokee Nation.

8. "Property of Cherokee Nation" means real estate owned or sought to be purchased by Cherokee Nation.

9. "Rights or privileges" means liberty, property, monetary, constitutional or legal interest held by citizens of Cherokee Nation.

10. "Sovereignty" means the matters that concern the boundaries, or territory, or the jurisdiction, or treaty rights, or the powers or the rights of self-governance of Cherokee Nation.

11. "Substantial assets" means litigation that involves an amount in controversy in excess of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00).

12. "Treaty" means a compact made between Cherokee Nation and one or more other independent nations or tribes, which if properly authorized and ratified becomes law.

13. "Tribal Council" means the duly elected and confirmed person(s) of the Legislative Branch of Cherokee Nation.

§ 304. Authority, procedure, and approval of contracts, compacts and other agreements

A. The Principal Chief shall have the authority to execute treaties, compacts, memorandums of understanding, contracts, and other agreements on behalf of Cherokee Nation between governments, state agencies or other entities regarding the sovereign immunity of Cherokee Nation, substantial assets or credit of Cherokee Nation, or where real property of Cherokee Nation is involved, or where significant rights and privileges of the Cherokee people are involved, such agreements shall be subject to ratification by majority vote of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council, as provided herein, before they are effective.

B. The above-described contract, compact or other agreement, executed by the Principal Chief on behalf of Cherokee Nation shall be submitted to the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council for a vote on ratification at the next regularly scheduled meeting or special session of the Tribal Council after execution of said agreement by the Principal Chief.

C. Upon receipt of said agreement by the Tribal Council from the Principal Chief, the Tribal Council shall include the vote on ratification in the agenda for the next regularly scheduled meeting or special session as provided by the Tribal Council Rules of Procedure.

D. The provisions of this act shall not apply to agreements necessary to carry out the functions of government as set forth in the annual comprehensive budget approved by the Tribal Council in each fiscal year.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT TRUST AUTHORITY

§ 1. Establishment of trust authority

In order to promote economic development projects, the Cherokee Nation Economic Development Trust Authority is established.

§ 2. Trust authority board

A. The Cherokee Nation Economic Development Trust Authority Board shall consist of five (5) members.

B. The members of the Trust Authority Board shall be nominated by the Principal Chief and confirmed, by way of resolution, by the Tribal Council.

C. Notwithstanding the language of subsection (A) of this section, the Trust Authority Board may conduct business even though there be a vacancy on the Board as long as a quorum is present and at least three (3) votes are cast in favor of the pending business by properly seated members of the Board.

CHAPTER 2

ARKANSAS RIVERBED TRUST FUND MANAGEMENT

§ 101. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Arkansas Riverbed Trust Fund Management Act of 2004.

§ 102. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish the policies and procedures for managing Cherokee Nation trust funds and trust assets pursuant to terms and the authority granted under P.L. 107-632, Section 6, "Cherokee, Choctaw, and Chickasaw Nations Claims Settlement Act", hereafter referred to as the "Settlement Act". This legislation will govern the use and expenditure of trust funds awarded to Cherokee Nation pursuant to the federal legislation. The funds awarded shall remain in trust for investment on behalf of Cherokee Nation until such time as appropriated by the Council of Cherokee Nation and withdrawn from the federal trust account for the settlement.

§ 103. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

"Trust funds" means all monies, interest in the principal from the investment or proceeds derived from the Settlement Act referenced in 79 CNCA § 102.

§ 104. Use and expenditure of trust funds

After the payment of attorney fees, which shall be approved by the Principal Chief and the Council of Cherokee Nation, and not exceed ten percent (10%) according to the Settlement Act, the balance of funds shall be used for the following purposes:

1. The first priority for the use of the settlement trust funds shall be given to the area referred to in LA 05-04, Section 3--Legislative History, to compensate for loss of any lands associated with the Settlement Act.

2. The second priority for the use of settlement trust funds shall be given to other trust land acquisitions based on land management and tenure plans of Cherokee Nation.

3. The remaining balance of the funds shall be reserved to restore the tribal land base based on the future needs of the Nation unless this act is amended.

PART 2. GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERPRETATION

§ 1–201. General definitions

General Definitions

(a) Unless the context otherwise requires, words or phrases defined in this section, or in the additional definitions contained in other articles of the Uniform Commercial Code that apply to particular articles or parts thereof, have the meanings stated.

(b) Subject to definitions contained in other articles of the Uniform Commercial Code that apply to particular articles or parts thereof:

(1) "Action", in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity, and any other proceeding in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to pursue a remedy.

(3) "Agreement", as distinguished from "contract", means the bargain of the parties in fact, as found in their language or inferred from other circumstances, including course of performance, course of dealing, or usage of trade as provided in 80 CNCA § 1–303.

(4) "Bank" means a person engaged in the business of banking and includes a savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, and trust company.

(5) "Bearer" means a person in possession of a negotiable instrument, document of title, or certificated security that is payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the trier of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its nonexistence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person that buys goods in good faith, without knowledge that the sale violates the rights of another person in the goods, and in the ordinary course from a person, other than a pawnbroker, in the business of selling goods of that kind. A person buys goods in the ordinary course if the sale to the person comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the seller is engaged or with the seller's own usual or customary practices. A person that sells oil, gas, or other minerals at the wellhead or minehead. is a person in the business of selling goods of that kind. A buyer in ordinary course of business may buy for cash, by exchange of other property, or on secured or unsecured credit, and may acquire goods or documents of title under a preexisting contract for sale. Only a buyer that takes possession of the goods or has a right to recover the goods from the seller under Article 2 may be a buyer in ordinary course of business. "Buyer in ordinary course of business" does not include a person that acquires goods in a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(10) "Conspicuous", with reference to a term, means so written, displayed, or presented that a reasonable person against which it is to operate ought to have noticed it. Whether a term is "conspicuous" or not is a decision for the court. Conspicuous terms include the following:

(A) a heading in capitals equal to or greater in size than the surrounding text, or in contrasting type, font, or color to the surrounding text of the same or lesser size; and

(B) language in the body of a record or display in larger type than the surrounding text, or in contrasting type, font, or color to the surrounding text of the same size, or set off from surrounding text of the same size by symbols or other marks that call attention to the language.

(11) "Consumer" means an individual who enters into a transaction primarily for personal, family, or household purposes

(12) "Contract", as distinguished from "agreement", means the total legal obligation that results from the parties' agreement as determined by the Uniform Commercial Code as supplemented by any other applicable laws.

(13) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor, and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity, and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

(14) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim.

(15) "Delivery", with respect to an instrument, document of title, or chattel paper, means voluntary transfer of possession.

(16) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold, and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title, a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(17) "Fault" means a default, breach, or wrongful act or omission.

(18) "Fungible goods" means:

(A) goods of which any unit, by nature or usage of trade, is the equivalent of any other like unit; or

(B) goods that by agreement are treated as equivalent.

(19) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(20) "Good faith", except as otherwise provided in Article 5, means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

(21) "Holder" means:

(A) the person in possession of a negotiable instrument that is payable either to bearer or to an identified person that is the person in possession; or

(B) the person in possession of a document of title if the goods are deliverable either to bearer or to the order of the person in possession.

(22) "Insolvency proceeding" includes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceeding intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) "Insolvent" means:

(A) having generally ceased to pay debts in the ordinary course of business other than as a result of bona fide dispute;

(B) being unable to pay debts as they become due; or

(C) being insolvent within the meaning of federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange currently authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government. The term includes a monetary unit of account established by an intergovernmental organization or by agreement between two or more countries.

- (25) "Organization" means a person other than an individual.
- (26) "Party", as distinguished from "third party", means a person that has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement subject to the Uniform Commercial Code.
- (27) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, public corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity.
- (28) "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain by use of either an interest rate specified by the parties if that rate is not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction is entered into or, if an interest rate is not so specified, a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances at the time the transaction is entered into.
- (29) "Purchase" means taking by sale, lease, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, security interest, issue or reissue, gift, or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.
- (30) "Purchaser" means a person that takes by purchase.
- (31) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.
- (32) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.
- (33) "Representative" means a person empowered to act for another, including an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor, or administrator of an estate.
- (34) "Right" includes remedy.
- (35) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. "Security interest" includes any interest of a consignor and a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, a payment intangible, or a promissory note in a transaction that is subject to Article 9. "Security interest" does not include the special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of those goods to a contract for sale under 80 CNCA § 2–401, but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 2–505, the right of a seller or lessor of goods under Article 2 or 2A to retain or acquire possession of the goods is not a "security interest", but a seller or lessor may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer under 80 CNCA § 2–401 is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest". Whether a transaction in the form of a lease creates a "security interest" is determined pursuant to 80 CNCA § 1–203.

(36) "Send" in connection with a writing, record, or notice means:

(A) to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and, in the case of an instrument, to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances; or

(B) in any other way to cause to be received any record or notice within the time it would have arrived if properly sent.

(37) "Signed" includes using any symbol executed or adopted with present intention to adopt or accept a writing.

(38) "State" means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(39) "Surety" includes a guarantor or other secondary obligor.

(40) "Term" means a portion of an agreement that relates to a particular matter.

(41) "Unauthorized signature" means a signature made without actual, implied, or apparent authority. The term includes a forgery.

(42) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(43) "Writing" includes printing, typewriting, or any other intentional reduction to tangible form. "Written" has a corresponding meaning.

§ 1–202. Notice, knowledge

Notice—Knowledge

(a) Subject to subsection (f), a person has "notice" of a fact if the person:

(1) has actual knowledge of it;

(2) has received a notice or notification of it; or

(3) from all the facts and circumstances known to the person at the time in question, has reason to know that it exists.

(b) "Knowledge" means actual knowledge. "Knows" has a corresponding meaning.

(c) "Discover", "learn", or words of similar import refer to knowledge rather than to reason to know.

(d) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another person by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other person in ordinary course, whether or not the other person actually comes to know of it.

(e) Subject to subsection (f), a person "receives" a notice or notification when:

(1) it comes to that person's attention; or

(2) it is duly delivered in a form reasonable under the circumstances at the place of business through which the contract was made or at another location held out by that person as the place for receipt of such communications.

(f) Notice, knowledge, or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction and, in any event, from the time it would have been brought to the individual's attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless the communication is part of the individual's regular duties or the individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

§ 1–203. Lease distinguished from security interest

Lease Distinguished From Security Interest

(a) Whether a transaction in the form of a lease creates a lease or security interest is determined by the facts of each case.

(b) A transaction in the form of a lease creates a security interest if the consideration that the lessee is to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is an obligation for the term of the lease and is not subject to termination by the lessee, and:

(1) the original term of the lease is equal to or greater than the remaining economic life of the goods;

(2) the lessee is bound to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods or is bound to become the owner of the goods;

(3) the lessee has an option to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods for no additional consideration or for nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement; or

(4) the lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for no additional consideration or for nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement.

(c) A transaction in the form of a lease does not create a security interest merely because:

(1) the present value of the consideration the lessee is obligated to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is substantially equal to or is greater than the fair market value of the goods at the time the lease is entered into;

(2) the lessee assumes risk of loss of the goods;

(3) the lessee agrees to pay, with respect to the goods, taxes, insurance, filing, recording, or registration fees, or service or maintenance costs;

(4) the lessee has an option to renew the lease or to become the owner of the goods;

(5) the lessee has an option to renew the lease for a fixed rent that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal at the time the option is to be performed; or

(6) the lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for a fixed price that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market value of the goods at the time the option is to be performed.

(d) Additional consideration is nominal if it is less than the lessee's reasonably predictable cost of performing under the lease agreement if the option is not exercised. Additional consideration is not nominal if:

(1) when the option to renew the lease is granted to the lessee, the rent is stated to be the fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal determined at the time the option is to be performed; or

(2) when the option to become the owner of the goods is granted to the lessee, the price is stated to be the fair market value of the goods determined at the time the option is to be performed.

(e) The "remaining economic life of the goods" and "reasonably predictable" fair market rent, fair market value, or cost of performing under the lease agreement must be determined with reference to the facts and circumstances at the time the transaction is entered into.

§ 1–204. Value

Value

Except as otherwise provided in Articles 3, 4, and 5, a person gives value for rights if the person acquires them:

- (1) in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit, whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection;
- (2) as security for, or in total or partial satisfaction of, a preexisting claim;
- (3) by accepting delivery under a preexisting contract for purchase; or
- (4) in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

§ 1–205. Reasonable time—Seasonableness

Reasonable Time—Seasonableness

- (a) Whether a time for taking an action required by the Uniform Commercial Code is reasonable depends on the nature, purpose, and circumstances of the action.
- (b) An action is taken seasonably if it is taken at or within the time agreed or, if no time is agreed, at or within a reasonable time.

§ 1–206. Presumptions

Presumptions

Whenever the Uniform Commercial Code creates a "presumption" with respect to a fact, or provides that a fact is "presumed", the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact unless and until evidence is introduced that supports a finding of its nonexistence.

PART 3. TERRITORIAL APPLICABILITY AND GENERAL RULES

§ 1–301. Territorial applicability—Parties' power to choose applicable law

Territorial Applicability—Parties' Power to Choose Applicable Law

- (a) In this section:
 - (1) "Domestic transaction" means a transaction other than an international transaction.
 - (2) "International transaction" means a transaction that bears a reasonable relation to a country other than the United States.
- (b) This section applies to a transaction to the extent that it is governed by another article of the Uniform Commercial Code.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this section:

(1) an agreement by parties to a domestic transaction that any or all of their rights and obligations are to be determined by the law of this Nation or of another state is effective, whether or not the transaction bears a relation to the state designated; and

(2) an agreement by parties to an international transaction that any or all of their rights and obligations are to be determined by the law of this Nation or of another state or country is effective, whether or not the transaction bears a relation to the state or country designated.

(d) In the absence of an agreement effective under subsection (c), and except as provided in subsections (e) and (g), the rights and obligations of the parties are determined by the law that would be selected by application of this Nation's conflict of laws principles.

(e) If one of the parties to a transaction is a consumer, the following rules apply:

(1) An agreement referred to in subsection (c) is not effective unless the transaction bears a reasonable relation to the state or country designated.

(2) Application of the law of the state or country determined pursuant to subsection (c) or (d) may not deprive the consumer of the protection of any rule of law governing a matter within the scope of this section, which both is protective of consumers and may not be varied by agreement:

(A) of the state or country in which the consumer principally resides, unless subparagraph (B) applies; or

(B) if the transaction is a sale of goods, of the state or country in which the consumer both makes the contract and takes delivery of those goods, if such state or country is not the state or country in which the consumer principally resides.

(f) An agreement otherwise effective under subsection (c) is not effective to the extent that application of the law of the state or country designated would be contrary to a fundamental policy of the state or country whose law would govern in the absence of agreement under subsection (d).

(g) To the extent that the Uniform Commercial Code governs a transaction, if one of the following provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law so specified:

(1) 80 CNCA § 2-402;

(2) 80 CNCA §§ 2A-105 and 2A-106;

(3) 80 CNCA § 4-102;

(4) 80 CNCA § 4A–507;

(5) 80 CNCA § 5–116;

[(6) 80 CNCA § 6–103;]

(7) 80 CNCA § 8–110;

(8) 80 CNCA §§ 9–301 through 9–307.

§ 1–302. Variation by agreement

Variation by Agreement

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) or elsewhere in the Uniform Commercial Code, the effect of provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code may be varied by agreement

(b) The obligations of good faith, diligence, reasonableness, and care prescribed by the Uniform Commercial Code may not be disclaimed by agreement. The parties, by agreement, may determine the standards by which the performance of those obligations is to be measured if those standards are not manifestly unreasonable. Whenever the Uniform Commercial Code requires an action to be taken within a reasonable time, a time that is not manifestly unreasonable may be fixed by agreement.

(c) The presence in certain provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code of the phrase "unless otherwise agreed", or words of similar import, does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement under this section.

§ 1–303. Course of performance, course of dealing, and usage of trade

Course of Performance, Course of Dealing, and Usage of Trade

(a) A "course of performance" is a sequence of conduct between the parties to a particular transaction that exists if:

(1) the agreement of the parties with respect to the transaction involves repeated occasions for performance by a party; and

(2) the other party, with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it, accepts the performance or acquiesces in it without objection.

(b) A "course of dealing" is a sequence of conduct concerning previous transactions between the parties to a particular transaction that is fairly to be regarded as establishing a common basis of understanding for interpreting their expressions and other conduct.

(c) A "usage of trade" is any practice or method of dealing having such regularity of observance in a place, vocation, or trade as to justify an expectation that it will be observed with respect to the transaction in question. The existence and scope of such a usage must be proved as facts. If it is established that such a usage is embodied in a trade code or similar record, the interpretation of the record is a question of law.

(d) A course of performance or course of dealing between the parties or usage of trade in the vocation or trade in which they are engaged or of which they are or should be aware is relevant in ascertaining the meaning of the parties' agreement, may give particular meaning to specific terms of the agreement, and may supplement or qualify the terms of the agreement. A usage of trade applicable in the place in which part of the performance under the agreement is to occur may be so utilized as to that part of the performance.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), the express terms of an agreement and any applicable course of performance, course of dealing, or usage of trade must be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other. If such a construction is unreasonable:

(1) express terms prevail over course of performance, course of dealing, and usage of trade;

(2) course of performance prevails over course of dealing and usage of trade; and

(3) course of dealing prevails over usage of trade.

(f) Subject to 80 CNCA § 2–209, a course of performance is relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with the course of performance.

(g) Evidence of a relevant usage of trade offered by one party is not admissible unless that party has given the other party notice that the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise to the other party.

§ 1–304. Obligation of good faith

Obligation of Good Faith

Every contract or duty within the Uniform Commercial Code imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance and enforcement.

§ 1–305. Remedies to be liberally administered

Remedies to be Liberally Administered

(a) The remedies provided by the Uniform Commercial Code must be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party may be put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed but neither consequential or special damages nor penal damages may be had except as specifically provided in the Uniform Commercial Code or by other rule of law.

(b) Any right or obligation declared by the Uniform Commercial Code is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect.

§ 1–306. Waiver or renunciation of claim or right after breach

Waiver or Renunciation of Claim or Right After Breach

A claim or right arising out of an alleged breach may be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by agreement of the aggrieved party in an authenticated record.

§ 1–307. Prima facie evidence by third-party documents

Prima Facie Evidence by Third-Party Documents

A document in due form purporting to be a bill of lading, policy or certificate of insurance, official weigher's or inspector's certificate, consular invoice, or any other document authorized or required by the contract to be issued by a third party is prima facie evidence of its own authenticity and genuineness and of the facts stated in the document by the third party.

§ 1–308. Performance or acceptance under reservation of rights

Performance or Acceptance Under Reservation of Rights

(a) A party that with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice," "under protest," or the like are sufficient.

(b) Subsection (a) does not apply to an accord and satisfaction.

§ 1–309. Option to accelerate at will

Option to Accelerate at Will

A term providing that one party or that party's successor in interest may accelerate payment or performance or require collateral or additional collateral "at will" or when the party "deems itself insecure," or words of similar import, means that the party has power to do so only if that party in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired. The burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against which the power has been exercised.

§ 1–310. Subordinated obligations

Subordinated Obligations

An obligation may be issued as subordinated to performance of another obligation of the person obligated, or a creditor may subordinate its right to performance of an obligation by agreement with either the person obligated or another creditor of the person obligated. Subordination does not create a security interest as against either the common debtor or a subordinated creditor.

(4) In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this Article.

§ 2–104. Definitions: "Merchant"; "Between Merchants"; "Financing Agency"

Definitions: "Merchant"—"Between Merchants"—"Financing Agency"

(1) "Merchant" means a person who deals in goods of the kind or otherwise by his occupation holds himself out as having knowledge or skill peculiar to the practices or goods involved in the transaction or to whom such knowledge or skill may be attributed by his employment of an agent or broker or other intermediary who by his occupation holds himself out as having such knowledge or skill.

(2) "Financing agency" means a bank, finance company or other person who in the ordinary course of business makes advances against goods or documents of title or who by arrangement with either the seller or the buyer intervenes in ordinary course to make or collect payment due or claimed under the contract for sale, as by purchasing or paying the seller's draft or making advances against it or by merely taking it for collection whether or not documents of title accompany the draft. "Financing agency" includes also a bank or other person who similarly intervenes between persons who are in the position of seller and buyer in respect to the goods (Section 2-707).

(3) "Between merchants" means in any transaction with respect to which both parties are chargeable with the knowledge or skill of merchants.

§ 2-105. Definitions: "Transferability"; "Goods"; "Future" goods; "Lot"; "Commercial unit"

Definitions: "Transferability"—"Goods"—"Future Goods"—"Lot"—"Commercial Unit"

(1) "Goods" means all things (including specially manufactured goods) which are movable at the time of identification to the contract for sale other than the money in which the price is to be paid, investment securities (Article 8) and things in action. "Goods" also includes the unborn young of animals and growing crops and other identified things attached to realty as described in the section on goods to be severed from realty (Section 2-107).

(2) Goods must be both existing and identified before any interest in them can pass. Goods which are not both existing and identified are "future" goods. A purported present sale of future goods or of any interest therein operates as a contract to sell.

(3) There may be a sale of a part interest in existing identified goods.

(4) An undivided share in an identified bulk of fungible goods is sufficiently identified to be sold although the quantity of the bulk is not determined. Any agreed proportion of such a bulk or any quantity thereof agreed upon by number, weight or other measure may to the extent of the seller's interest in the bulk be sold to the buyer who then becomes an owner in common.

(5) "Lot" means a parcel or a single article which is the subject matter of a separate sale or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the contract

(6) "Commercial unit" means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of sale and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article (as a machine) or a set of articles (as a suite of furniture or an assortment of sizes) or a quantity (as a bale, gross, or carload) or any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

§ 2-106. Definitions: "Contract"; "Agreement"; "Contract for sales"; "Sale"; "Present sale"; "Conforming" to contract; "Termination"; "Cancellation"

Definitions: "Contract"—"Agreement"—"Contract for Sales"—"Sale"—"Present Sale"—

"Conforming" to Contract—"Termination"—"Cancellation"

(1) In this Article unless the context otherwise requires "contract" and "agreement" are limited to those relating to the present or future sale of goods. "Contract for sale" includes both a present sale of goods and a contract to sell goods at a future time. A "sale" consists in the passing of title from the seller to the buyer for a price (Section 2-401). A "present sale" means a sale which is accomplished by the making of the contract.

(2) Goods or conduct including any part of a performance are "conforming" or conform to the contract when they are in accordance with the obligations under the contract

(3) "Termination" occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the contract otherwise than for its breach. On "termination" all obligations which are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior breach or performance survives.

(4) "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the contract for breach by the other and its effect is the same as that of "termination" except that the cancelling party also retains any remedy for breach of the whole contract or any unperformed balance.

§ 2-107. Goods to be severed from realty: Recording

Goods to be Severed From Realty—Recording

(1) A contract for the sale of minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or a structure or its materials to be removed from realty is a contract for the sale of goods within this Article if they are to be severed by the seller but until severance a purported present sale thereof which is not effective as a transfer of an interest in land is effective only as a contract to sell.

(2) A contract for the sale apart from the land of growing crops or other things attached to realty and capable of severance without material harm thereto but not described in subsection (1) or of timber to be cut is a contract for the sale of goods within this Article whether the subject matter is to be severed by the buyer or by the seller even though it forms part of the realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance.

(3) The provisions of this section are subject to any third party rights provided by the law relating to realty records, and the contract for sale may be executed and recorded as a document transferring an interest in land and shall then constitute notice to third parties of the buyer's rights under the contract for sale.

PART 2. FORM, FORMATION AND READJUSTMENT OF CONTRACT

§ 2-201. Formal requirements; statute of frauds

Formal Requirements—Statute of Frauds

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section a contract for the sale of goods for the price of $500 or more is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless there is some writing sufficient to indicate that a contract for sale has been made between the parties and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by his authorized agent or broker. A writing is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon but the contract is not enforceable under this paragraph beyond the quantity of goods shown in such writing.

(2) Between merchants if within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the contract and sufficient against the sender is received and the party receiving it has reason to know its contents, it satisfies the requirements of subsection (1) against such party unless written notice of objection to its contents is given within 10 days after it is received.

(3) A contract which does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) but which is valid in other respects is enforceable

(a) if the goods are to be specially manufactured for the buyer and are not suitable for sale to others in the ordinary course of the seller's business and the seller, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances which reasonably indicate that the goods are for the buyer, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement; or

(b) if the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in his pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract for sale was made, but the contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or

(c) with respect to goods for which payment has been made and accepted or which have been received and accepted (Sec. 2-606).

§ 2-202. Final written expression: parol or extrinsic evidence

Final Written Expression—Parol or Extrinsic Evidence

Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writing intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented

(a) by course of dealing or usage of trade (Section 1-205) or by course of performance (Section 2-208); and

(b) by evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writing to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

§ 2-203. Seals inoperative

Seals Inoperative

The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a contract for sale or an offer to buy or sell goods does not constitute the writing a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to such a contract or offer.

§ 2–204. Formation in general

Formation in General

- (1) A contract for sale of goods may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of such a contract.
- (2) An agreement sufficient to constitute a contract for sale may be found even though the moment of its making is undetermined.
- (3) Even though one or more terms are left open a contract for sale does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy.

§ 2–205. Firm offers

Firm Offers

An offer by a merchant to buy or sell goods in a signed writing which by its terms gives assurance that it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or if no time is stated for a reasonable time, but in no event may such period of irrevocability exceed three months; but any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror.

§ 2–206. Offer and acceptance in formation of contract

Offer and Acceptance in Formation of Contract

- (1) Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances
 - (a) an offer to make a contract shall be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonable in the circumstances;
 - (b) an order or other offer to buy goods for prompt or current shipment shall be construed as inviting acceptance either by a prompt promise to ship or by the prompt or current shipment of conforming or non-conforming goods, but such a shipment of non-conforming goods does not constitute an acceptance if the seller seasonably notifies the buyer that the shipment is offered only as an accommodation to the buyer.

(2) Where the beginning of a requested performance is a reasonable mode of acceptance an offeror who is not notified of acceptance within a reasonable time may treat the offer as having lapsed before acceptance.

§ 2–207. Additional terms in acceptance or confirmation

Additional Terms in Acceptance or Confirmation

(1) A definite and seasonable expression of acceptance or a written confirmation which is sent within a reasonable time operates as an acceptance even though it states terms additional to or different from those offered or agreed upon, unless acceptance is expressly made conditional on assent to the additional or different terms.

(2) The additional terms are to be construed as proposals for addition to the contract. Between merchants such terms become part of the contract unless:

(a) the offer expressly limits acceptance to the terms of the offer,

(b) they materially alter it; or

(c) notification of objection to them has already been given or is given within a reasonable time after notice of them is received.

(3) Conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a contract is sufficient to establish a contract for sale although the writings of the parties do not otherwise establish a contract. In such case the terms of the particular contract consist of those terms on which the writings of the parties agree, together with any supplementary terms incorporated under any other provisions of this Act.

§ 2–208. Course of performance or practical construction

Course of Performance or Practical Construction

(1) Where the contract for sale involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in without objection shall be relevant to determine the meaning of the agreement.

(2) The express terms of the agreement and any such course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, shall be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but when such construction is unreasonable, express terms shall control course of performance and course of performance shall control both course of dealing and usage of trade (Section 1–205).

(3) Subject to the provisions of the next section on modification and waiver, such course of performance shall be relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with such course of performance.

§ 2–209. Modification, rescission and waiver

Modification, Rescission and Waiver

- (1) An agreement modifying a contract within this Article needs no consideration to be binding.
- (2) A signed agreement which excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing cannot be otherwise modified or rescinded, but except as between merchants such a requirement on a form supplied by the merchant must be separately signed by the other party.
- (3) The requirements of the statute of frauds section of this Article (Section 2–201) must be satisfied if the contract as modified is within its provisions.
- (4) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (2) or (3) it can operate as a waiver.
- (5) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of the contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

§ 2–210. Delegation of performance; assignment of rights

Delegation of Performance—Assignment of Rights

- (1) A party may perform his duty through a delegate unless otherwise agreed or unless the other party has a substantial interest in having his original promisor perform or control the acts required by the contract. No delegation of performance relieves the party delegating of any duty to perform or any liability for breach.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed all rights of either seller or buyer can be assigned except where the assignment would materially change the duty of the other party, or increase materially the burden or risk imposed on him by his contract, or impair materially his chance of obtaining return performance. A right to damages for breach of the whole contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of his entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.
- (3) Unless the circumstances indicate the contrary a prohibition of assignment of "the contract" is to be construed as barring only the delegation to the assignee of the assignor's performance.
- (4) An assignment of "the contract" or of "all my rights under the contract" or an assignment in similar general terms is an assignment of rights and unless the language or the circumstances (as in an assignment for security) indicate the contrary, it is a delegation of performance of the duties of the assignor and its acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by him to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the original contract

(5) The other party may treat any assignment which delegates performance as creating reasonable grounds for insecurity and may without prejudice to his rights against the assignor demand assurances from the assignee (Section 2-609).

PART 3. GENERAL OBLIGATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF CONTRACT

§ 2-301. General obligations of parties

General Obligation of Parties

The obligation of the seller is to transfer and deliver and that of the buyer is to accept and pay in accordance with the contract.

§ 2-302. Unconscionable contract or clause

Unconscionable Contract or Clause

(1) If the court as a matter of law finds the contract or any clause of the contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made the court may refuse to enforce the contract, or it may enforce the remainder of the contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.

(2) When it is claimed or appears to the court that the contract or any clause thereof may be unconscionable the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to its commercial setting, purpose and effect to aid the court in making the determination.

§ 2-303. Allocation or division of risks

Allocation or Division of Risks

Where this Article allocates a risk or a burden as between the parties "unless otherwise agreed", the agreement may not only shift the allocation but may also divide the risk or burden.

§ 2-304. Price payable in money, goods, realty, or otherwise

Price Payable in Money, Goods, Realty, or Otherwise

(1) The price can be made payable in money or otherwise. If it is payable in whole or in part in goods each party is a seller of the goods which he is to transfer.

(2) Even though all or part of the price is payable in an interest in realty the transfer of the goods and the seller's obligations with reference to them are subject to this Article, but not the transfer of the interest in realty or the transferor's obligations in connection therewith.

§ 2–305. Open price term

Open Price Term

(1) The parties if they so intend can conclude a contract for sale even though the price is not settled. In such a case the price is a reasonable price at the time for delivery if

(a) nothing is said as to price; or

(b) the price is left to be agreed by the parties and they fail to agree; or

(c) the price is to be fixed in terms of some agreed market or other standard as set or recorded by a third person or agency and it is not so set or recorded.

(2) A price to be fixed by the seller or by the buyer means a price for him to fix in good faith.

(3) When a price left to be fixed otherwise than by agreement of the parties fails to be fixed through fault of one party the other may at his option treat the contract as cancelled or himself fix a reasonable price.

(4) Where, however, the parties intend not to be bound unless the price be fixed or agreed and it is not fixed or agreed there is no contract. In such a case the buyer must return any goods already received or if unable so to do must pay their reasonable value at the time of delivery and the seller must return any portion of the price paid on account.

§ 2–306. Output, requirements and exclusive dealings

Output, Requirements and Exclusive Dealings

(1) A term which measures the quantity by the output of the seller or the requirements of the buyer means such actual output or requirements as may occur in good faith, except that no quantity unreasonably disproportionate to any stated estimate or in the absence of a stated estimate to any normal or otherwise comparable prior output or requirements may be tendered or demanded.

(2) A lawful agreement by either the seller or the buyer for exclusive dealing in the kind of goods concerned imposes unless otherwise agreed an obligation by the seller to use best efforts to supply the goods and by the buyer to use best efforts to promote their sale.

§ 2–307. Delivery in single lot or several lots

Delivery in Single Lot or Several Lots

Unless otherwise agreed all goods called for by a contract for sale must be tendered in a single delivery and payment is due only on such tender but where the circumstances give either party the right to make or demand delivery in lots the price if it can be apportioned may be demanded for each lot

§ 2–308. Absence of specified place for delivery

Absence of Specified Place for Delivery

Unless otherwise agreed

- (a) the place for delivery of goods is the seller's place of business or if he has none his residence; but
- (b) in a contract for sale of identified goods which to the knowledge of the parties at the time of contracting are in some other place, that place is the place for their delivery, and
- (c) documents of title may be delivered through customary banking channels.

§ 2–309. Absence of specific time provision; notice of termination

Absence of Specific Time Provisions—Notice of Termination

- (1) The time for shipment or delivery or any other action under a contract if not provided in this Article or agreed upon shall be a reasonable time.
- (2) Where the contract provides for successive performances but is indefinite in duration it is valid for a reasonable time but unless otherwise agreed may be terminated at any time by either party.
- (3) Termination of a contract by one party except on the happening of an agreed event requires that reasonable notification be received by the other party and an agreement dispensing with notification is invalid if its operation would be unconscionable.

§ 2–310. Open time for payment or running of credit; authority to ship under reservation

Open Time for Payment or Running of Credit—Authority to Ship Under Reservation

Unless otherwise agreed

- (a) payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the goods even though the place of shipment is the place of delivery, and
- (b) if the seller is authorized to send the goods he may ship them under reservation, and may tender the documents of title, but the buyer may inspect the goods after their arrival before payment is due unless such inspection is inconsistent with the terms of the contract (Section 2–513); and
- (c) if delivery is authorized and made by way of documents of title otherwise than by subsection

(b) then payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the documents regardless of where the goods are to be received; and

(d) where the seller is required or authorized to ship the goods on credit the credit period runs from the time of shipment but post-dating the invoice or delaying its dispatch will correspondingly delay the starting of the credit period.

§ 2–311. Options and cooperation respecting performance

Options and Cooperation Respecting Performance

(1) An agreement for sale which is otherwise sufficiently definite (subsection (3) of Section 2–204) to be a contract is not made invalid by the fact that it leaves particulars of performance to be specified by one of the parties. Any such specification must be made in good faith and within limits set by commercial reasonableness.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed specifications relating to assortment of the goods are at the buyer's option and except as otherwise provided in subsections (1)(c) and (3) of Section 2–319 specifications or arrangements relating to shipment are at the seller's option.

(3) Where such specification would materially affect the other party's performance but is not seasonably made or where one party's cooperation is necessary to the agreed performance of the other but is not seasonably forthcoming, the other party in addition to all other remedies

(a) is excused for any resulting delay in his own performance; and

(b) may also either proceed to perform in any reasonable manner or after the time for a material part of his own performance treat the failure to specify or to cooperate as a breach by failure to deliver or accept the goods.

§ 2–312. Warranty of title and against infringement; buyer's obligation against infringement

Warranty of Title and Against Infringement—Buyer's Obligation Against Infringement

(1) Subject to subsection (2) there is in a contract for sale a warranty by the seller that

(a) the title conveyed shall be good, and its transfer rightful; and

(b) the goods shall be delivered free from any security interest or other lien or encumbrance of which the buyer at the time of contracting has no knowledge.

(2) A warranty under subsection (1) will be excluded or modified only by specific language or by circumstances which give the buyer reason to know that the person selling does not claim title in himself or that he is purporting to sell only such right or title as he or a third person may have.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed a seller who is a merchant regularly dealing in goods of the kind warrants that the goods shall be delivered free of the rightful claim of any third person by way of infringement or the like but a buyer who furnishes specifications to the seller must hold the seller harmless against any such claim which arises out of compliance with the specifications.

§ 2–313. Express warranties by affirmation, promise, description, sample

Express Warranties by Affirmation, Promise, Description, Sample

(1) Express warranties by the seller are created as follows:

(a) Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the seller to the buyer which relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the affirmation or promise.

(b) Any description of the goods which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the description.

(c) Any sample or model which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods shall conform to the sample or model.

(2) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the seller use formal words such as "warrant" or "guarantee" or that he have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the seller's opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

§ 2–314. Implied warranty: merchantability; usage of trade

Implied Warranty: Merchantability—Usage of Trade

(1) Unless excluded or modified (Section 2–316), a warranty that the goods shall be merchantable is implied in a contract for their sale if the seller is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind. Under this section the serving for value of food or drink to be consumed either on the premises or elsewhere is a sale.

(2) Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as

(a) pass without objection in the trade under the contract description; and

(b) in the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description; and

(c) are fit for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used; and

(d) run, within the variations permitted by the agreement, of even kind, quality and quantity within each unit and among all units involved; and

(e) are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the agreement may require; and

(f) conform to the promise or affirmations of fact made on the container or label if any.

(3) Unless excluded or modified (Section 2–316) other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.

§ 2–315. Implied warranty: Fitness for particular purpose

Implied Warranty: Fitness for Particular Purpose

Where the seller at the time of contracting has reason to know any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the buyer is relying on the seller's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is unless excluded or modified under the next section an implied warranty that the goods shall be fit for such purpose.

§ 2–316. Exclusion or modification of warranties

Exclusion or Modification of Warranties

(1) Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit warranty shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but subject to the provisions of this Article on parol or extrinsic evidence (Section 2–202) negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that such construction is unreasonable.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it the language must mention merchantability and in case of a writing must be conspicuous, and to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness the exclusion must be by a writing and conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it states, for example, that "There are no warranties which extend beyond the description on the face hereof."

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)

(a) unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions like "as is", "with all faults" or other language which in common understanding calls the buyer's attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty; and

(b) when the buyer before entering into the contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as he desired or has refused to examine the goods there is no implied warranty with regard to defects which an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed to him; and

(c) an implied warranty can also be excluded or modified by course of dealing or course of performance or usage of trade.

(4) Remedies for breach of warranty can be limited in accordance with the provisions of this Article on liquidation or limitation of damages and on contractual modification of remedy (Sections 2-718 and 2-719).

§ 2-317. Cumulation and conflict of warranties express or implied

Cumulation and Conflict of Warranties Express or Implied

Warranties whether express or implied shall be construed as consistent with each other and as cumulative, but if such construction is unreasonable the intention of the parties shall determine which warranty is dominant. In ascertaining that intention the following rules apply:

- (a) Exact or technical specifications displace an inconsistent sample or model or general language of description.
- (b) A sample from an existing bulk displaces inconsistent general language of description.
- (c) Express warranties displace inconsistent implied warranties other than an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

§ 2-318. Third party beneficiaries of warranties express or implied

Third Party Beneficiaries of Warranties Express or Implied

Note: If this Act is introduced in the Congress of the United States this section should be omitted. (States to select one alternative.)

Alternative A

A seller's warranty whether express or implied extends to any natural person who is in the family or household of his buyer or who is a guest in his home if it is reasonable to expect that such person may use, consume or be affected by the goods and who is injured in person by breach of the warranty. A seller may not exclude or limit the operation of this section.

Alternative B

A seller's warranty whether express or implied extends to any natural person who may reasonably be expected to use, consume or be affected by the goods and who is injured in person by breach of the warranty. A seller may not exclude or limit the operation of this section.

Alternative C

A seller's warranty whether express or implied extends to any person who may reasonably be expected to use, consume or be affected by the goods and who is injured by breach of the warranty. A seller may not exclude or limit the operation of this section with respect to injury to the person of an individual to whom the warranty extends.

§ 2–319. F.O.B. and F.A.S. terms

F.O.B. and F.A.S. Terms

(1) Unless otherwise agreed the term F.O.B. (which means "free on board") at a named place, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which

(a) when the term is F.O.B. the place of shipment, the seller must at that place ship the goods in the manner provided in this Article (Section 2–504) and bear the expense and risk of putting them into the possession of the carrier, or

(b) when the term is F.O.B. the place of destination, the seller must at his own expense and risk transport the goods to that place and there tender delivery of them in the manner provided in this Article (Section 2–503);

(c) when under either (a) or (b) the term is also F.O.B. vessel, car or other vehicle, the seller must in addition at his own expense and risk load the goods on board. If the term is F.O.B. vessel the buyer must name the vessel and in an appropriate case the seller must comply with the provisions of this Article on the form of bill of lading (Section 2–323).

(2) Unless otherwise agreed the term F.A.S. vessel (which means "free alongside") at a named port, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which the seller must

(a) at his own expense and risk deliver the goods alongside the vessel in the manner usual in that port or on a dock designated and provided by the buyer; and

(b) obtain and tender a receipt for the goods in exchange for which the carrier is under a duty to issue a bill of lading.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed in any case falling within subsection (1)(a) or (c) or subsection (2) the buyer must seasonably give any needed instructions for making delivery, including when the term is F.A.S. or F.O.B. the loading berth of the vessel and in an appropriate case its name and sailing date. The seller may treat the failure of needed instructions as a failure of cooperation under this Article (Section 2–311). He may also at his option move the goods in any reasonable manner preparatory to delivery or shipment.

(4) Under the term F.O.B. vessel or F.A.S. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents.

§ 2–320. C.I.F. and C. & F. terms

C.I.F. and C. & F. Terms

(1) The term C.I.F. means that the price includes in a lump sum the cost of the goods and the insurance and freight to the named destination. The term C. & F. or C.F. means that the price so includes cost and freight to the named destination.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed and even though used only in connection with the stated price and destination, the term C.I.F. destination or its equivalent requires the seller at his own expense and risk to

(a) put the goods into the possession of a carrier at the port for shipment and obtain a negotiable bill or bills of lading covering the entire transportation to the named destination; and

(b) load the goods and obtain a receipt from the carrier (which may be contained in the bill of lading) showing that the freight has been paid or provided for, and

(c) obtain a policy or certificate of insurance, including any war risk insurance, of a kind and on terms then current at the port of shipment in the usual amount, in the currency of the contract, shown to cover the same goods covered by the bill of lading and providing for payment of loss to the order of the buyer or for the account of whom it may concern; but the seller may add to the price the amount of the premium for any such war risk insurance; and

(d) prepare an invoice of the goods and procure any other documents required to effect shipment or to comply with the contract; and

(e) forward and tender with commercial promptness all the documents in due form and with any indorsement necessary to perfect the buyer's rights.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed the term C. & F. or its equivalent has the same effect and imposes upon the seller the same obligations and risks as a C.I.F. term except the obligation as to insurance.

(4) Under the term C.I.F. or C. & F. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents.

§ 2-321. C.I.F. or C. & F.: "Net landed weights"; "Payment on arrival"; Warranty of condition on arrival

C.I.F. or C. & F.: "Net Landed Weights"; "Payment On Arrival"; Warranty of Condition On Arrival

Under a contract containing a term C.I.F. or C. & F.

(1) Where the price is based on or is to be adjusted according to "net landed weights", "delivered weights", "out turn" quantity or quality or the like, unless otherwise agreed the seller must reasonably estimate the price. The payment due on tender of the documents called for by the contract is the amount so estimated, but after final adjustment of the price a settlement must be made with commercial promptness.

(2) An agreement described in subsection (1) or any warranty of quality or condition of the goods on arrival places upon the seller the risk of ordinary deterioration, shrinkage and the like in transportation but has no effect on the place or time of identification to the contract for sale or delivery or on the passing of the risk of loss.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed where the contract provides for payment on or after arrival of the goods the seller must before payment allow such preliminary inspection as is feasible; but if the goods are lost delivery of the documents and payment are due when the goods should have arrived.

§ 2-322. Delivery "Ex-ship"

Delivery "Ex-Ship"

(1) Unless otherwise agreed a term for delivery of goods "ex-ship" (which means from the carrying vessel) or in equivalent language is not restricted to a particular ship and requires delivery from a ship which has reached a place at the named port of destination where goods of the kind are usually discharged.

(2) Under such a term unless otherwise agreed

(a) the seller must discharge all liens arising out of the carriage and furnish the buyer with a direction which puts the carrier under a duty to deliver the goods; and

(b) the risk of loss does not pass to the buyer until the goods leave the ship's tackle or are otherwise properly unloaded.

§ 2-323. Form of bill of lading required in overseas shipment; "Overseas"

Form of Bill of Lading Required in Overseas Shipment; "Overseas"

(1) Where the contract contemplates overseas shipment and contains a term C.I.F or C. & F. or F.O.B. vessel, the seller unless otherwise agreed must obtain a negotiable bill of lading stating that the goods have been loaded in board or, in the case of a term C.I.F. or C. & F., received for shipment.

(2) Where in a case within subsection (1) a bill of lading has been issued in a set of parts, unless otherwise agreed if the documents are not to be sent from abroad the buyer may demand tender of the full set, otherwise only one part of the bill of lading need be tendered. Even if the agreement expressly requires a full set

(a) due tender of a single part is acceptable within the provisions of this Article on cure of improper delivery (subsection (1) of Section 2–508); and

(b) even though the full set is demanded, if the documents are sent from abroad the person tendering an incomplete set may nevertheless require payment upon furnishing an indemnity which the buyer in good faith deems adequate.

(3) A shipment by water or by air or a contract contemplating such shipment is "overseas" insofar as by usage of trade or agreement it is subject to the commercial, financing or shipping practices characteristic of international deep water commerce.

§ 2–324. "No arrival, no sale" term

"No Arrival, No Sale" Term

Under a term "no arrival, no sale" or terms of like meaning, unless otherwise agreed,

(a) the seller must properly ship conforming goods and if they arrive by any means he must tender them on arrival but he assumes no obligation that the goods will arrive unless he has caused the non-arrival; and

(b) where without fault of the seller the goods are in part lost or have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract or arrive after the contract time, the buyer may proceed as if there had been casualty to identified goods (Section 2–613).

§ 2–325. "Letter of credit" term; "Confirmed credit"

"Letter of Credit" Term—"Confirmed Credit"

(1) Failure of the buyer seasonably to furnish an agreed letter of credit is a breach of the contract for sale.

(2) The delivery to seller of a proper letter of credit suspends the buyer's obligation to pay. If the letter of credit is dishonored, the seller may on seasonable notification to the buyer require payment directly from him.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed the term "letter of credit" or "banker's credit" in a contract for sale means an irrevocable credit issued by a financing agency of good repute and, where the shipment is overseas, of good international repute. The term "confirmed credit" means that the credit must also carry the direct obligation of such an agency which does business in the seller's financial market.

§ 2–326. Sale on approval and sale or return; consignment sales and rights of creditors

Sale on Approval and Sale or Return—Consignment Sales and Rights of Creditors

(1) Unless otherwise agreed, if delivered goods may be returned by the buyer even though they conform to the contract, the transaction is

(a) a "sale on approval" if the goods are delivered primarily for use, and

(b) a "sale or return" if the goods are delivered primarily for resale.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), goods held on approval are not subject to the claims of the buyer's creditors until acceptance; goods held on sale or return are subject to such claims while in the buyer's possession.

(3) Where goods are delivered to a person for sale and such person maintains a place of business at which he deals in goods of the kind involved, under a name other than the name of the person making delivery, then with respect to claims of creditors of the person conducting the business the goods are deemed to be on sale or return. The provisions of this subsection are applicable even though an agreement purports to reserve title to the person making delivery until payment or resale or uses such words as "on consignment" or "on memorandum". However, this subsection is not applicable if the person making delivery

(a) complies with an applicable law providing for a consignor's interest or the like to be evidenced by a sign, or

(b) establishes that the person conducting the business is generally known by his creditors to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others, or

(c) complies with the filing provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9).

(4) Any "or return" term of a contract for sale is to be treated as a separate contract for sale within the statute of frauds section of this Article (Section 2–201) and as contradicting the sale aspect of the contract within the provisions of this Article on parol or extrinsic evidence (Section 2–202).

§ 2–327. Special incidents of sale on approval and sale or return

Special Incidents of Sale on Approval and Sale or Return

(1) Under a sale on approval unless otherwise agreed

(a) although the goods are identified to the contract the risk of loss and the title do not pass to the buyer until acceptance; and

(b) use of the goods consistent with the purpose of trial is not acceptance but failure seasonably to notify the seller of election to return the goods is acceptance, and if the goods conform to the contract acceptance of any part is acceptance of the whole; and

(c) after due notification of election to return, the return is at the seller's risk and expense but a merchant buyer must follow any reasonable instructions.

(2) Under a sale or return unless otherwise agreed

(a) the option to return extends to the whole or any commercial unit of the goods while in substantially their original condition, but must be exercised seasonably; and

(b) the return is at the buyer's risk and expense.

§ 2–328. Sale by auction

Sale by Auction

(1) In a sale by auction if goods are put up in lots each lot is the subject of a separate sale.

(2) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so announces by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner. Where a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid the auctioneer may in his discretion reopen the bidding or declare the goods sold under the bid on which the hammer was falling.

(3) Such a sale is with reserve unless the goods are in explicit terms put up without reserve. In an auction with reserve the auctioneer may withdraw the goods at any time until he announces completion of the sale. In an auction without reserve, after the auctioneer calls for bids on an article or lot, that article or lot cannot be withdrawn unless no bid is made within a reasonable time. In either case a bidder may retract his bid until the auctioneer's announcement of completion of the sale, but a bidder's retraction does not revive any previous bid.

(4) If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's behalf or the seller makes or procures such a bid, and notice has not been given that liberty for such bidding is reserved, the buyer may at his option avoid the sale or take the goods at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the completion of the sale. This subsection shall not apply to any bid at a forced sale.

PART 4. TITLE, CREDITORS AND GOOD FAITH PURCHASERS

§ 2–401. Passing of title; reservation for security; limited application of this section

Passing of Title—Reservation for Security—Limited Application of This Section

Each provision of this Article with regard to the rights, obligations and remedies of the seller, the buyer, purchasers or other third parties applies irrespective of title to the goods except where the provision refers to such title. Insofar as situations are not covered by the other provisions of this Article and matters concerning title become material the following rules apply:

(1) Title to goods cannot pass under a contract for sale prior to their identification to the contract (Section 2–501), and unless otherwise explicitly agreed the buyer acquires by their identification a special property as limited by this Act Any retention or reservation by the seller of the title (property) in goods shipped or delivered to the buyer is limited in effect to a reservation of a security interest. Subject to these provisions and to the provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9), title to goods passes from the seller to the buyer in any manner and on any conditions explicitly agreed on by the parties.

(2) Unless otherwise explicitly agreed title passes to the buyer at the time and place at which the seller completes his performance with reference to the physical delivery of the goods, despite any reservation of a security interest and even though a document of title is to be delivered at a different time or place; and in particular and despite any reservation of a security interest by the bill of lading

(a) if the contract requires or authorizes the seller to send the goods to the buyer but does not require him to deliver them at destination, title passes to the buyer at the time and place of shipment; but

(b) if the contract requires delivery at destination, title passes on tender there.

(3) Unless otherwise explicitly agreed where delivery is to be made without moving the goods,

(a) if the seller is to deliver a document of title, title passes at the time when and the place where he delivers such documents; or

(b) if the goods are at the time of contracting already identified and no documents are to be delivered, title passes at the time and place of contracting.

(4) A rejection or other refusal by the buyer to receive or retain the goods, whether or not justified, or a justified revocation of acceptance reverts title to the goods in the seller. Such reversion occurs by operation of law and is not a "sale".

§ 2-402. Rights of seller's creditors against sold goods

Rights of Seller's Creditors Against Sold Goods

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), rights of unsecured creditors of the seller with respect to goods which have been identified to a contract for sale are subject to the buyer's rights to recover the goods under this Article (Sections 2-502 and 2-716).

(2) A creditor of the seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to a contract for sale as void if as against him a retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated, except that retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by a merchant-seller for a commercially reasonable time after a sale or identification is not fraudulent.

(3) Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to impair the rights of creditors of the seller

(a) under the provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9); or

(b) where identification to the contract or delivery is made not in current course of trade but in satisfaction of or as security for a pre-existing claim for money, security or the like and is made under circumstances which under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated would apart from this Article constitute the transaction a fraudulent transfer or avoidable preference.

§ 2–403. Power to transfer; good faith purchase of goods; "entrusting"

Power to Transfer—Good Faith Purchase of Goods—"Entrusting"

(1) A purchaser of goods acquires all title which his transferor had or had power to transfer except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person with voidable title has power to transfer a good title to a good faith purchaser for value. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the purchaser has such power even though

(a) the transferor was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser, or

(b) the delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored, or

(c) it was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale", or

(d) the delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

(2) Any entrusting of possession of goods to a merchant who deals in goods of that kind gives him power to transfer all rights of the entruster to a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(3) "Entrusting" includes any delivery and any acquiescence in retention of possession regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the delivery or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor's disposition of the goods have been such as to be larcenous under the criminal law.

(4) The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the Articles on Secured Transactions (Article 9) and Documents of Title (Article 7).

PART 5. PERFORMANCE

§ 2–501. Insurable interest in goods; manner of identification of goods

Insurable Interest in Goods; Manner of Identification of Goods

(1) The buyer obtains a special property and an insurable interest in goods by identification of existing goods as goods to which the contract refers even though the goods so identified are non-conforming and he has an option to return or reject them. Such identification can be made at any time and in any manner explicitly agreed to by the parties. In the absence of explicit agreement identification occurs

(a) when the contract is made if it is for the sale of goods already existing and identified;

(b) if the contract is for the sale of future goods other than those described in paragraph (c), when goods are shipped, marked or otherwise designated by the seller as goods to which the contract refers;

(c) when the crops are planted or otherwise become growing crops or the young are conceived if the contract is for the sale of unborn young to be born within twelve months after contracting or for the sale of crops to be harvested within twelve months or the next normal harvest season after contracting whichever is longer.

(2) The seller retains an insurable interest in goods so long as title to or any security interest in the goods remains in him and where the identification is by the seller alone he may until default or insolvency or notification to the buyer that the identification is final substitute other goods for those identified.

(3) Nothing in this section impairs any insurable interest recognized under any other statute or rule of law.

§ 2-502. Buyer's right to goods on seller's insolvency

Buyer's Right to Goods on Seller's Insolvency

(1) Subject to subsection (2) and even though the goods have not been shipped a buyer who has paid a part or all of the price of goods in which he has a special property under the provisions of the immediately preceding section may on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of their price recover them from the seller if the seller becomes insolvent within ten days after receipt of the first installment on their price.

(2) If the identification creating his special property has been made by the buyer he acquires the right to recover the goods only if they conform to the contract for sale.

§ 2-503. Manner of seller's tender of delivery

Manner of Seller's Tender of Delivery

(1) Tender of delivery requires that the seller put and hold conforming goods at the buyer's disposition and give the buyer any notification reasonably necessary to enable him to take delivery. The manner, time and place for tender are determined by the agreement and this Article, and in particular

(a) tender must be at a reasonable hour, and if it is of goods they must be kept available for the period reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take possession; but

(b) unless otherwise agreed the buyer must furnish facilities reasonably suited to the receipt of the goods.

(2) Where the case is within the next section respecting shipment tender requires that the seller comply with its provisions.

(3) Where the seller is required to deliver at a particular destination tender requires that he comply with subsection (1) and also in any appropriate case tender documents as described in subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

(4) Where goods are in the possession of a bailee and are to be delivered without being moved

(a) tender requires that the seller either tender a negotiable document of title covering such goods or procure acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; but

(b) tender to the buyer of a non-negotiable document of title or of a written direction to the bailee to deliver is sufficient tender unless the buyer seasonably objects, and receipt by the bailee of notification of the buyer's rights fixes those rights as against the bailee and all third persons; but risk of loss of the goods and of any failure by the bailee to honor the non-negotiable document of title or to obey the direction remains on the seller until the buyer has had a reasonable time to present the document or direction, and a refusal by the bailee to honor the document or to obey the direction defeats the tender.

(5) Where the contract requires the seller to deliver documents

(a) he must tender all such documents in correct form, except as provided in this Article with respect to bills of lading in a set (subsection (2) of Section 2-323); and

(b) tender through customary banking channels is sufficient and dishonor of a draft accompanying the documents constitutes non-acceptance or rejection.

§ 2-504. Shipment by seller

Shipment by Seller

Where the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer and the contract does not require him to deliver them at a particular destination, then unless otherwise agreed he must

(a) put the goods in the possession of such a carrier and make such a contract for their transportation as may be reasonable having regard to the nature of the goods and other circumstances of the case; and

(b) obtain and promptly deliver or tender in due form any document necessary to enable the buyer to obtain possession of the goods or otherwise required by the agreement or by usage of trade; and

(c) promptly notify the buyer of the shipment.

Failure to notify the buyer under paragraph (c) or to make a proper contract under paragraph (a) is a ground for rejection only if material delay or loss ensues.

§ 2-505. Seller's shipment under reservation

Seller's Shipment Under Reservation

(1) Where the seller has identified goods to the contract by or before shipment

(a) his procurement of a negotiable bill of lading to his own order or otherwise reserves in him a security interest in the goods. His procurement of the bill to the order of a financing agency or of the buyer indicates in addition only the seller's expectation of transferring that interest to the person named.

(b) a non-negotiable bill of lading to himself or his nominee reserves possession of the goods as security but except in a case of conditional delivery (subsection (2) of Section 2-507) a non-negotiable bill of lading naming the buyer as consignee reserves no security interest even though the seller retains possession of the bill of lading.

(2) When shipment by the seller with reservation of a security interest is in violation of the contract for sale it constitutes an improper contract for transportation within the preceding section but impairs neither the rights given to the buyer by shipment and identification of the goods to the contract nor the seller's powers as a holder of a negotiable document.

§ 2-506. Rights of financing agency

Rights of Financing Agency

(1) A financing agency by paying or purchasing for value a draft which relates to a shipment of goods acquires to the extent of the payment or purchase and in addition to its own rights under the draft and any document of title securing it any rights of the shipper in the goods including the right to stop delivery and the shipper's right to have the draft honored by the buyer.

(2) The right to reimbursement of a financing agency which has in good faith honored or purchased the draft under commitment to or authority from the buyer is not impaired by subsequent discovery of defects with reference to any relevant document which was apparently regular on its face.

§ 2-507. Effect of seller's tender; delivery on condition

Effect of Seller's Tender—Delivery on Condition

(1) Tender of delivery is a condition to the buyer's duty to accept the goods and, unless otherwise agreed, to his duty to pay for them. Tender entitles the seller to acceptance of the goods and to payment according to the contract.

(2) Where payment is due and demanded on the delivery to the buyer of goods or documents of title, his right as against the seller to retain or dispose of them is conditional upon his making the payment due.

§ 2-508. Cure by seller of improper tender or delivery; replacement

Cure by Seller of Improper Tender or Delivery—Replacement

(1) Where any tender or delivery by the seller is rejected because non-conforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the seller may seasonably notify the buyer of his intention to cure and may then within the contract time make a conforming delivery.

(2) Where the buyer rejects a non-conforming tender which the seller had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance the seller may if he seasonably notifies the buyer have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender.

§ 2-509. Risk of loss in the absence of breach

Risk of Loss in the Absence of Breach

(1) Where the contract requires or authorizes the seller to ship the goods by carrier

(a) if it does not require him to deliver them at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier even though the shipment is under reservation (Section 2-505); but

(b) if it does require him to deliver them at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the buyer to take delivery.

(2) Where the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the buyer

(a) on his receipt of a negotiable document of title covering the goods; or

(b) on acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; or

(c) after his receipt of a non-negotiable document of title or other written direction to deliver, as provided in subsection (4)(b) of Section 2-503.

(3) In any case not within subsection (1) or (2), the risk of loss passes to the buyer on his receipt of the goods if the seller is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the buyer on tender of delivery.

(4) The provisions of this section are subject to contrary agreement of the parties and to the provisions of this Article on sale on approval (Section 2–327) and on effect of breach on risk of loss (Section 2–510).

§ 2–510. Effect of breach on risk of loss

Effect of Breach on Risk of Loss

(1) Where a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the contract as to give a right of rejection the risk of their loss remains on the seller until cure or acceptance.

(2) Where the buyer rightfully revokes acceptance he may to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as having rested on the seller from the beginning.

(3) Where the buyer as to conforming goods already identified to the contract for sale repudiates or is otherwise in breach before risk of their loss has passed to him, the seller may to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as resting on the buyer for a commercially reasonable time.

§ 2–511. Tender of payment by buyer; payment by check

Tender of Payment by Buyer—Payment by Check

(1) Unless otherwise agreed tender of payment is a condition to the seller's duty to tender and complete any delivery.

(2) Tender of payment is sufficient when made by any means or in any manner current in the ordinary course of business unless the seller demands payment in legal tender and gives any extension of time reasonably necessary to procure it.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act on the effect of an instrument on an obligation (Section 3–310), payment by check is conditional and is defeated as between the parties by dishonor of the check on due presentment.

§ 2–512. Payment by buyer before inspection

Payment by Buyer before Inspection

(1) Where the contract requires payment before inspection non-conformity of the goods does not excuse the buyer from so making payment unless

(a) the non-conformity appears without inspection; or

(b) despite tender of the required documents the circumstances would justify injunction against honor under this Act (Section 5–109(b)).

(2) Payment pursuant to subsection (1) does not constitute an acceptance of goods or impair the buyer's right to inspect or any of his remedies.

§ 2–513. Buyer's right to inspection of goods

Buyer's Right to Inspection of Goods

(1) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to subsection (3), where goods are tendered or delivered or identified to the contract for sale, the buyer has a right before payment or acceptance to inspect them at any reasonable place and time and in any reasonable manner. When the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer, the inspection may be after their arrival.

(2) Expenses of inspection must be borne by the buyer but may be recovered from the seller if the goods do not conform and are rejected.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to the provisions of this Article on C.I.F. contracts (subsection (3) of Section 2–321), the buyer is not entitled to inspect the goods before payment of the price when the contract provides

(a) for delivery "C.O.D." or on other like terms; or

(b) for payment against documents of title, except where such payment is due only after the goods are to become available for inspection.

(4) A place or method of inspection fixed by the parties is presumed to be exclusive but unless otherwise expressly agreed it does not postpone identification or shift the place for delivery or for passing the risk of loss. If compliance becomes impossible, inspection shall be as provided in this section unless the place or method fixed was clearly intended as an indispensable condition failure of which avoids the contract.

§ 2–514. When documents deliverable on acceptance; when on payment

When Documents Deliverable on Acceptance—When on Payment

Unless otherwise agreed documents against which a draft is drawn are to be delivered to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment.

PART 6. BREACH, REPUDIATION AND EXCUSE

§ 2–601. Buyer's rights on improper delivery

Buyer's Rights on Improper Delivery

Subject to the provisions of this Article on breach in installment contracts (Section 2–612) and unless otherwise agreed under the sections on contractual limitations of remedy (Sections 2–718 and 2–719), if the goods or the tender of delivery fail in any respect to conform to the contract, the buyer may

- (a) reject the whole; or
- (b) accept the whole; or
- (c) accept any commercial unit or units and reject the rest.

§ 2–602. Manner and effect of rightful rejection

Manner and Effect of Rightful Rejection

(1) Rejection of goods must be within a reasonable time after their delivery or tender. It is ineffective unless the buyer seasonably notifies the seller.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the two following sections on rejected goods (Sections 2–603 and 2–604),

(a) after rejection any exercise of ownership by the buyer with respect to any commercial unit is wrongful as against the seller, and

(b) if the buyer has before rejection taken physical possession of goods in which he does not have a security interest under the provisions of this Article (subsection (3) of Section 2–711), he is under a duty after rejection to hold them with reasonable care at the seller's disposition for a time sufficient to permit the seller to remove them; but

(c) the buyer has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.

(3) The seller's rights with respect to goods wrongfully rejected are governed by the provisions of this Article on Seller's remedies in general (Section 2–703).

§ 2–603. Merchant buyer's duties as to rightfully rejected goods

Merchant Buyer's Duties as to Rightfully Rejected Goods

(1) Subject to any security interest in the buyer (subsection (3) of Section 2–711), when the seller has no agent or place of business at the market of rejection a merchant buyer is under a duty after rejection of goods in his possession or control to follow any reasonable instructions received from the seller with respect to the goods and in the absence of such instructions to make reasonable efforts to sell them for the seller's account if they are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily. Instructions are not reasonable if on demand indemnity for expenses is not forthcoming.

(2) When the buyer sells goods under subsection (1), he is entitled to reimbursement from the seller or out of the proceeds for reasonable expenses of caring for and selling them, and if the expenses include no selling commission men to such commission as is usual in the trade or if there is none to a reasonable sum not exceeding ten per cent on the gross proceeds.

(3) In complying with this section the buyer is held only to good faith and good faith conduct hereunder is neither acceptance nor conversion nor the basis of an action for damages.

§ 2-604. Buyer's options as to salvage of rightfully rejected goods

Buyer's Options as to Salvage of Rightfully Rejected Goods

Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceding section on perishables if the seller gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection the buyer may store the rejected goods for the seller's account or reship them to him or resell them for the seller's account with reimbursement as provided in the preceding section. Such action is not acceptance or conversion.

§ 2-605. Waiver of buyer's objections by failure to particularize

Waiver of Buyer's Objections by Failure to Particularize

(1) The buyer's failure to state in connection with rejection a particular defect which is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes him from relying on the unstated defect to justify rejection or to establish breach

(a) where the seller could have cured it if stated seasonably; or

(b) between merchants when the seller has after rejection made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the buyer proposes to rely.

(2) Payment against documents made without reservation of rights precludes recovery of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents.

§ 2-606. What constitutes acceptance of goods

What Constitutes Acceptance of Goods

(1) Acceptance of goods occurs when the buyer

(a) after a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods signifies to the seller that the goods are conforming or that he will take or retain them in spite of their non-conformity; or

(b) fails to make an effective rejection (subsection (1) of Section 2–602), but such acceptance does not occur until the buyer has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect them; or

(c) does any act inconsistent with the seller's ownership; but if such act is wrongful as against the seller it is an acceptance only if ratified by him.

(2) Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit.

§ 2–607. Effect of acceptance; notice of breach; burden of establishing breach after acceptance; notice of claim or litigation to person answerable over

Effect of Acceptance—Notice of Breach—Burden of Establishing Breach after Acceptance—Notice of Claim or Litigation to Person Answerable Over

(1) The buyer must pay at the contract rate for any goods accepted.

(2) Acceptance of goods by the buyer precludes rejection of the goods accepted and if made with knowledge of a non-conformity cannot be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the non-conformity would be seasonably cured but acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by this Article for non-conformity.

(3) Where a tender has been accepted

(a) the buyer must within a reasonable time after he discovers or should have discovered any breach notify the seller of breach or be barred from any remedy; and

(b) if the claim is one for infringement or the like (subsection (3) of Section 2–312) and the buyer is sued as a result of such a breach he must so notify the seller within a reasonable time after he receives notice of the litigation or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation.

(4) The burden is on the buyer to establish any breach with respect to the goods accepted

(5) Where the buyer is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which his seller is answerable over

(a) he may give his seller written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the seller may come in and defend and that if the seller does not do so he will be bound in any action against him by his buyer by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the seller after reasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend he is so bound

(b) if the claim is one for infringement or the like (subsection (3) of Section 2–312) the original seller may demand in writing that his buyer turn over to him control of the litigation including settlement or else be barred from any remedy over and if he also agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the buyer after reasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control the buyer is so barred.

(6) The provisions of subsections (3), (4) and (5) apply to any obligation of a buyer to hold the seller harmless against infringement or the like (subsection (3) of Section 2-312).

§ 2-608. Revocation of acceptance in whole or in part

Revocation of Acceptance in Whole or in Part

(1) The buyer may revoke his acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose non-conformity substantially impairs its value to him if he has accepted it

(a) on the reasonable assumption that its non-conformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured; or

(b) without discovery of such non-conformity if his acceptance was reasonably induced either by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance or by the seller's assurances.

(2) Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by their own defects. It is not effective until the buyer notifies the seller of it.

(3) A buyer who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if he had rejected them.

§ 2-609. Right to adequate assurance of performance

Right to Adequate Assurance of Performance

(1) A contract for sale imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired. When reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance of either party the other may in writing demand adequate assurance of due performance and until he receives such assurance may if commercially reasonable suspend any performance for which he has not already received the agreed return.

(2) Between merchants the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered shall be determined according to commercial standards.

(3) Acceptance of any improper delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.

(4) After receipt of a justified demand failure to provide within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days such assurance of due performance as is adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is a repudiation of the contract

§ 2–610. Anticipatory repudiation

Anticipatory Repudiation

When either party repudiates the contract with respect to a performance not yet due the loss of which will substantially impair the value of the contract to the other, the aggrieved party may

- (a) for a commercially reasonable time await performance by the repudiating party; or
- (b) resort to any remedy for breach (Section 2–703 or Section 2–711), even though he has notified the repudiating party that he would await the tatter's performance and has urged retraction; and
- (c) in either case suspend his own performance or proceed in accordance with the provisions of this Article on the seller's right to identify goods to the contract notwithstanding breach or to salvage unfinished goods (Section 2–704).

§ 2–611. Retraction of anticipatory repudiation

Retraction of Anticipatory Repudiation

- (1) Until the repudiating party's next performance is due he can retract his repudiation unless the aggrieved party has since the repudiation cancelled or materially changed his position or otherwise indicated that he considers the repudiation final.
- (2) Retraction may be by any method which clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform, but must include any assurance justifiably demanded under the provisions of this Article (Section 2–609).
- (3) Retraction reinstates the repudiating party's rights under the contract with due excuse and allowance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation.

§ 2–612. "Installment contract"; breach

"Installment Contract"—Breach

- (1) An "installment contract" is one which requires or authorizes the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate contract" or its equivalent
- (2) The buyer may reject any installment which is non-conforming if the non-conformity substantially impairs the value of that installment and cannot be cured or if the non-conformity is a defect in the required documents; but if the non-conformity does not fall within subsection (3) and the seller gives adequate assurance of its cure the buyer must accept that installment.

(3) Whenever non-conformity or default with respect to one or more installments substantially impairs the value of the whole contract there is a breach of the whole. But the aggrieved party reinstates the contract if he accepts a non-conforming installment without seasonably notifying of cancellation or if he brings an action with respect only to past installments or demands performance as to future installments.

§ 2-613. Casualty to identified goods

Casualty to Identified Goods

Where the contract requires for its performance goods identified when the contract is made, and the goods suffer casualty without fault of either party before the risk of loss passes to the buyer, or in a proper case under a "no arrival, no sale" term (Section 2-324) then

(a) if the loss is total the contract is avoided; and

(b) if the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract the buyer may nevertheless demand inspection and at his option either treat the contract as avoided or accept the goods with due allowance from the contract price for the deterioration or the deficiency in quantity but without further right against the seller.

§ 2-614. Substituted performance

Substituted Performance

(1) Where without fault of either party the agreed berthing, loading, or unloading facilities fail or an agreed type of carrier becomes unavailable or the agreed manner of delivery otherwise becomes commercially impracticable but a commercially reasonable substitute is available, such substitute performance must be tendered and accepted.

(2) If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation, the seller may withhold or stop delivery unless the buyer provides a means or manner of payment which is commercially a substantial equivalent. If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the buyer's obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive or predatory.

§ 2-615. Excuse by failure of presupposed conditions

Excuse by Failure of Presupposed Conditions

Except so far as a seller may have assumed a greater obligation and subject to the preceding section on substituted performance:

(a) Delay in delivery or non-delivery in whole or in part by a seller who complies with paragraphs

(b) and (c) is not a breach of his duty under a contract for sale if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the non-occurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order whether or not it later proves to be invalid.

(b) Where the causes mentioned in paragraph (a) affect only a part of the seller's capacity to perform, he must allocate production and deliveries among his customers but may at his option include regular customers not then under contract as well as his own requirements for further manufacture. He may so allocate in any manner which is fair and reasonable.

(c) The seller must notify the buyer seasonably that there will be delay or non-delivery and, when allocation is required under paragraph (b), of the estimated quota thus made available for the buyer.

§ 2-616. Procedure on notice claiming excuse

Procedure on Notice Claiming Excuse

(1) Where the buyer receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under the preceding section he may by written notification to the seller as to any delivery concerned, and where the prospective deficiency substantially impairs the value of the whole contract under the provisions of this Article relating to breach of installment contracts (Section 2-612), then also as to the whole,

(a) terminate and thereby discharge any unexecuted portion of the contract; or

(b) modify the contract by agreeing to take his available quota in substitution.

(2) If after receipt of such notification from the seller the buyer fails so to modify the contract within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days the contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

(3) The provisions of this section may not be negated by agreement except in so far as the seller has assumed a greater obligation under the preceding section.

PART 7. REMEDIES

§ 2-701. Remedies for breach of collateral contracts not impaired

Remedies for Breach of Collateral Contracts Not Impaired

Remedies for breach of any obligation or promise collateral or ancillary to a contract for sale are not impaired by the provisions of this Article.

§ 2-702. Seller's remedies on discovery of buyer's insolvency

Seller's Remedies on Discovery of Buyer's Insolvency

(1) Where the seller discovers the buyer to be insolvent he may refuse delivery except for cash including payment for all goods theretofore delivered under the contract, and stop delivery under this Article (Section 2-705).

(2) Where the seller discovers that the buyer has received goods on credit while insolvent he may reclaim the goods upon demand made within ten days after the receipt, but if misrepresentation of solvency has been made to the particular seller in writing within three months before delivery the ten day limitation does not apply. Except as provided in this subsection the seller may not base a right to reclaim goods on the buyer's fraudulent or innocent misrepresentation of solvency or of intent to pay.

(3) The seller's right to reclaim under subsection (2) is subject to the rights of a buyer in ordinary course or other good faith purchaser under this Article (Section 2-403). Successful reclamation of goods excludes all other remedies with respect to them.

§ 2-703. Seller's remedies in general

Seller's Remedies in General

Where the buyer wrongfully rejects or revokes acceptance of goods or fails to make a payment due on or before delivery or repudiates with respect to a part or the whole, then with respect to any goods directly affected and, if the breach is of the whole contract (Section 2-612), then also with respect to the whole undelivered balance, the aggrieved seller may

- (a) withhold delivery of such goods;
- (b) stop delivery by any bailee as hereafter provided (Section 2-705);
- (c) proceed under the next section respecting goods still unidentified to the contract;
- (d) resell and recover damages as hereafter provided (Section 2-706);
- (e) recover damages for non-acceptance (Section 2-708) or in a proper case the price (Section 2-709);
- (f) cancel.

§ 2-704. Seller's right to identify goods to the contract notwithstanding breach or to salvage unfinished goods

Seller's Right to Identify Goods to the Contract Notwithstanding Breach or to Salvage Unfinished Goods

(1) An aggrieved seller under the preceding section may

(a) identify to the contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time he learned of the breach they are in his possession or control;

(b) treat as the subject of resale goods which have demonstrably been intended for the particular contract even though those goods are unfinished.

(2) Where the goods are unfinished an aggrieved seller may in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization either complete the manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the contract or cease manufacture and resell for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner.

§ 2-705. Seller's stoppage of delivery in transit or otherwise

Seller's Stoppage of Delivery in Transit or Otherwise

(1) The seller may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee when he discovers the buyer to be insolvent (Section 2-702) and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, planeload or larger shipments of express or freight when the buyer repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery or if for any other reason the seller has a right to withhold or reclaim the goods.

(2) As against such buyer the seller may stop delivery until

(a) receipt of the goods by the buyer; or

(b) acknowledgment to the buyer by any bailee of the goods except a carrier that the bailee holds the goods for the buyer, or

(c) such acknowledgment to the buyer by a carrier by reshipment or as warehouseman; or

(d) negotiation to the buyer of any negotiable document of title covering the goods.

(3)(a) To stop delivery the seller must so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods.

(b) After such notification the bailee must hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the seller but the seller is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages.

(c) If a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods the bailee is not obliged to obey a notification to stop until surrender of the document

(d) A carrier who has issued a non-negotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor.

§ 2–706. Seller's resale including contract for resale

Seller's Resale Including Contract for Resale

(1) Under the conditions stated in Section 2–703 on seller's remedies, the seller may resell the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof. Where the resale is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner the seller may recover the difference between the resale price and the contract price together with any incidental damages allowed under the provisions of this Article (Section 2–710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) or unless otherwise agreed resale may be at public or private sale including sale by way of one or more contracts to sell or of identification to an existing contract of the seller. Sale may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the sale including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable. The resale must be reasonably identified as referring to the broken contract, but it is not necessary that the goods be in existence or that any or all of them have been identified to the contract before the breach.

(3) Where the resale is at private sale the seller must give the buyer reasonable notification of his intention to resell.

(4) Where the resale is at public sale

(a) only identified goods can be sold except where there is a recognized market for a public sale of futures in goods of the kind; and

(b) it must be made at a usual place or market for public sale if one is reasonably available and except in the case of goods which are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily the seller must give the buyer reasonable notice of the time and place of the resale; and

(c) if the goods are not to be within the view of those attending the sale the notification of sale must state the place where the goods are located and provide for their reasonable inspection by prospective bidders; and

(d) the seller may buy.

(5) A purchaser who buys in good faith at a resale takes the goods free of any rights of the original buyer even though the seller fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this section.

(6) The seller is not accountable to the buyer for any profit made on any resale. A person in the position of a seller (Section 2–707) or a buyer who has rightfully rejected or justifiably revoked acceptance must account for any excess over the amount of his security interest, as hereinafter defined (subsection (3) of Section 2–711).

§ 2-707. "Person in the position of a seller"

"Person in the Position of a Seller"

(1) A "person in the position of a seller" includes as against a principal an agent who has paid or become responsible for the price of goods on behalf of his principal or anyone who otherwise holds a security interest or other right in goods similar to that of a seller.

(2) A person in the position of a seller may as provided in this Article withhold or stop delivery (Section 2-705) and resell (Section 2-706) and recover incidental damages (Section 2-710).

§ 2-708. Seller's damages for non-acceptance or repudiation

Seller's Damages for Non-Acceptance or Repudiation

(1) Subject to subsection (2) and to the provisions of this Article with respect to proof of market price (Section 2-723), the measure of damages for non-acceptance or repudiation by the buyer is the difference between the market price at the time and place for tender and the unpaid contract price together with any incidental damages provided in this Article (Section 2-710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach.

(2) If the measure of damages provided in subsection (1) is inadequate to put the seller in as good a position as performance would have done then the measure of damages is the profit (including reasonable overhead) which the seller would have made from full performance by the buyer, together with any incidental damages provided in this Article (Section 2-710), due allowance for costs reasonably incurred and due credit for payments or proceeds of resale.

§ 2-709. Action for the price

Action for the Price

(1) When the buyer fails to pay the price as it becomes due the seller may recover, together with any incidental damages under the next section, the price

(a) of goods accepted or of conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of their loss has passed to the buyer, and

(b) of goods identified to the contract if the seller is unable after reasonable effort to resell them at a reasonable price or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing.

(2) Where the seller sues for the price he must hold for the buyer any goods which have been identified to the contract and are still in his control except that if resale becomes possible he may resell them at any time prior to the collection of the judgment. The net proceeds of any such resale must be credited to the buyer and payment of the judgment entitles him to any goods not resold.

(3) After the buyer has wrongfully rejected or revoked acceptance of the goods or has failed to make a payment due or has repudiated (Section 2–610), a seller who is held not entitled to the price under this section shall nevertheless be awarded damages for non-acceptance under the preceding section.

§ 2–710. Seller's incidental damages

Seller's Incidental Damages

Incidental damages to an aggrieved seller include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions incurred in stopping delivery, in the transportation, care and custody of goods after the buyers breach, in connection with return or resale of the goods or otherwise resulting from the breach.

§ 2–711. Buyer's remedies in general—Buyer's security interest in rejected goods

Buyer's Remedies in General—Buyer's Security Interest in Rejected Goods

(1) Where the seller fails to make delivery or repudiates or the buyer rightfully rejects or justifiably revokes acceptance then with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to the whole if the breach goes to the whole contract (Section 2–612), the buyer may cancel and whether or not he has done so may in addition to recovering so much of the price as has been paid

(a) "cover" and have damages under the next section as to all the goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the contract; or

(b) recover damages for non-delivery as provided in this Article (Section 2–713).

(2) Where the seller fails to deliver or repudiates the buyer may also

(a) if the goods have been identified recover them as provided in this Article (Section 2–502); or

(b) in a proper case obtain specific performance or replevy the goods as provided in this Article (Section 2–716).

(3) On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance a buyer has a security interest in goods in his possession or control for any payments made on their price and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, care and custody and may hold such goods and resell them in like manner as an aggrieved seller (Section 2–706).

§ 2–712. "Cover"; buyer's procurement of substitute goods

"Cover"—Buyer's Procurement of Substitute Goods

(1) After a breach within the preceding section the buyer may "cover" by making in good faith and without unreasonable delay any reasonable purchase of or contract to purchase goods in substitution for those due from the seller.

(2) The buyer may recover from the seller as damages the difference between the cost of cover and the contract price together with any incidental or consequential damages as hereinafter defined (Section 2-715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.

(3) Failure of the buyer to effect cover within this section does not bar him from any other remedy.

§ 2-713. Buyer's damages for non-delivery or repudiation

Buyer's Damages for Non-Delivery or Repudiation

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article with respect to proof of market price (Section 2-723), the measure of damages for non-delivery or repudiation by the seller is the difference between the market price at the time when the buyer learned of the breach and the contract price together with any incidental and consequential damages provided in this Article (Section 2-715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.

(2) Market price is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival.

§ 2-714. Buyer's damages for breach in regard to accepted goods

Buyer's Damages for Breach in Regard to Accepted Goods

(1) Where the buyer has accepted goods and given notification (subsection (3) of Section 2-607) he may recover as damages for any non-conformity of tender the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the seller's breach as determined in any manner which is reasonable.

(2) The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the difference at the time and place of acceptance between the value of the goods accepted and the value they would have had if they had been as warranted, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount

(3) In a proper case any incidental and consequential damages under the next section may also be recovered.

§ 2-715. Buyer's incidental and consequential damages

Buyer's Incidental and Consequential Damages

(1) Incidental damages resulting from the seller's breach include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected, any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions in connection with effecting cover and any other reasonable expense incident to the delay or other breach.

(2) Consequential damages resulting from the seller's breach include

(a) any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the seller at the time of contracting had reason to know and which could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise; and

(b) injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty.

§ 2-716. Buyer's right to specific performance or replevin

Buyer's Right to Specific Performance or Replevin

(1) Specific performance may be decreed where the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.

(2) The decree for specific performance may include such terms and conditions as to payment of the price, damages, or other relief as the court may deem just.

(3) The buyer has a right of replevin for goods identified to the contract if after reasonable effort he is unable to effect cover for such goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing or if the goods have been shipped under reservation and satisfaction of the security interest in them has been made or tendered.

§ 2-717. Deduction of damages from the price

Deduction of Damages from the Price

The buyer on notifying the seller of his intention to do so may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any breach of the contract from any part of the price still due under the same contract.

§ 2-718. Liquidation or limitation of damages; deposits

Liquidation or Limitation of Damages—Deposits

(1) Damages for breach by either party may be liquidated in the agreement but only at an amount which is reasonable in the light of the anticipated or actual harm caused by the breach, the difficulties of proof of loss, and the inconvenience or nonfeasibility of otherwise obtaining an adequate remedy. A term fixing unreasonably large liquidated damages is void as a penalty.

(2) Where the seller justifiably withholds delivery of goods because of the buyer's breach, the buyer is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of his payments exceeds

(a) the amount to which the seller is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the seller's damages in accordance with subsection (1), or

(b) in the absence of such terms, twenty per cent of the value of the total performance for which the buyer is obligated under the contract or $500, whichever is smaller.

(3) The buyer's right to restitution under subsection (2) is subject to offset to the extent that the seller establishes

(a) a right to recover damages under the provisions of this Article other than subsection (1), and

(b) the amount or value of any benefits received by the buyer directly or indirectly by reason of the contract.

(4) Where a seller has received payment in goods their reasonable value or the proceeds of their resale shall be treated as payments for the purposes of subsection (2); but if the seller has notice of the buyer's breach before reselling goods received in part performance, his resale is subject to the conditions laid down in this Article on resale by an aggrieved seller (Section 2-706).

§ 2-719. Contractual modification or limitation of remedy

Contractual Modification or Limitation of Remedy

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section and of the preceding section on liquidation and limitation of damages,

(a) the agreement may provide for remedies in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this Article and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this Article, as by limiting the buyer's remedies to return of the goods and repayment of the price or to repair and replacement of non-conforming goods or parts; and

(b) resort to a remedy as provided is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive, in which case it is the sole remedy.

(2) Where circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this Act.

(3) Consequential damages may be limited or excluded unless the limitation or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima facie unconscionable but limitation of damages where the loss is commercial is not.

§ 2-720. Effect of "cancellation" or "rescission" on claims for antecedent breach

Effect of "Cancellation" or "Rescission" on Claims for Antecedent Breach

Unless the contrary intention clearly appears, expressions of "cancellation" or "rescission" of the contract or the like shall not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent breach.

§ 2-721. Remedies for fraud

Remedies for Fraud

Remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all remedies available under this Article for non-fraudulent breach. Neither rescission or a claim for rescission of the contract for sale nor rejection or return of the goods shall bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or other remedy.

§ 2-722. Who can sue third parties for injury to goods

Who Can Sue Third Parties for Injury to Goods

Where a third party so deals with goods which have been identified to a contract for sale as to cause actionable injury to a party to that contract

- (a) a right of action against the third party is in either party to the contract for sale who has title to or a security interest or a special property or an insurable interest in the goods; and if the goods have been destroyed or converted a right of action is also in the party who either bore the risk of loss under the contract for sale or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the other;
- (b) if at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the contract for sale and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, his suit or settlement is, subject to his own interest, as a fiduciary for the other party to the contract;
- (c) either party may with the consent of the other sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

§ 2-723. Proof of market price: Time and place

Proof of Market Price: Time and Place

- (1) If an action based on anticipatory repudiation comes to trial before the time, for performance with respect to some or all of the goods, any damages based on market price (Section 2-708 or Section 2-713) shall be determined according to the price of such goods prevailing at the time when the aggrieved party learned of the repudiation.
- (2) If evidence of a price prevailing at the times or places described in this Article is not readily available the price prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place which in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the cost of transporting the goods to or from such other place.

(3) Evidence of a relevant price prevailing at a time or place other than the one described in this Article offered by one party is not admissible unless and until he has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise.

§ 2-724. Admissibility of market quotations

Admissibility of Market Quotations

Whenever the prevailing price or value of any goods regularly bought and sold in any established commodity market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of such market shall be admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of such a report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility.

§ 2-725. Statute of limitations in contracts for sale

Statute of Limitations in Contracts for Sale

(1) An action for breach of any contract for sale must be commenced within four years after the cause of action has accrued. By the original agreement the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than one year but may not extend it.

(2) A cause of action accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party's lack of knowledge of the breach. A breach of warranty occurs when tender of delivery is made, except that where a warranty explicitly extends to future performance of the goods and discovery of the breach must await the time of such performance the cause of action accrues when the breach is or should have been discovered.

(3) Where an action commenced within the time limited by subsection (1) is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same breach such other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

(4) This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations nor does it apply to causes of action which have accrued before this Act becomes effective.

Short Title

This Article may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Negotiable Instruments.

§ 3–102. Subject matter

Subject Matter

- (a) This Article applies to negotiable instruments. It does not apply to money, to payment orders governed by Article 4A, or to securities governed by Article 8.
- (b) If there is conflict between this Article and Article 4 or 9, Articles 4 and 9 govern.
- (c) Regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and operating circulars of the Federal Reserve Banks supersede any inconsistent provision of this Article to the extent of the inconsistency.

§ 3–103. Definitions

Definitions

(a) In this Article:

- (1) "Acceptor" means a drawee who has accepted a draft.
- (2) "Consumer account" means an account established by an individual primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- (3) "Consumer transaction" means a transaction in which an individual incurs an obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

- (4) "Drawee" means a person ordered in a draft to make payment.
- (5) "Drawer" means a person who signs or is identified in a draft as a person ordering payment
- (6) ["Good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.]
- (7) "Maker" means a person who signs or is identified in a note as a person undertaking to pay.
- (8) "Order" means a written instruction to pay money signed by the person giving the instruction. The instruction may be addressed to any person, including the person giving the instruction, or to one or more persons jointly or in the alternative but not in succession. An authorization to pay is not an order unless the person authorized to pay is also instructed to pay.
- (9) "Ordinary care" in the case of a person engaged in business means observance of reasonable commercial standards, prevailing in the area in which the person is located, with respect to the business in which the person is engaged. In the case of a bank that takes an instrument for processing for collection or payment by automated means, reasonable commercial standards do not require the bank to examine the instrument if the failure to examine does not violate the bank's prescribed procedures and the bank's procedures do not vary unreasonably from general banking usage, not disapproved by this Article or Article 4.
- (10) "Party" means a party to an instrument.
- (11) "Principal obligor." with respect to an instrument, means the accommodated party or any other party to the instrument against whom a secondary obligor has recourse under this article.
- (12) "Promise" means a written undertaking to pay money signed by the person undertaking to pay. An acknowledgment of an obligation by the obligor is not a promise unless the obligor also undertakes to pay the obligation.
- (13) "Prove" with respect to a fact means to meet the burden of establishing the fact (Section 1–201(8)).
- (14) ["Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.]
- (15) "Remitter" means a person who purchases an instrument from its issuer if the instrument is payable to an identified person other than the purchaser.
- (16) "Remotely-created consumer item" means an item drawn on a consumer account which is not created by the payor bank and does not bear a handwritten signature purporting to be the signature of the drawer.

(17) "Secondary obligor." with respect to an instrument means (a) an indorser or an accommodation party, (b) a drawer having the obligation described in Section 3-414(d), or (c) any other party to the instrument that has recourse against another party to the instrument pursuant to Section 3-116(b).

§ 3–104. Negotiable instrument

Negotiable Instrument

(a) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d), "negotiable instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a fixed amount of money, with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order, if it:

(1) is payable to bearer or to order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder,

(2) is payable on demand or at a definite time; and

(3) does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money, but the promise or order may contain (i) an undertaking or power to give, maintain, or protect collateral to secure payment, (ii) an authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize on or dispose of collateral, or (iii) a waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of an obligor.

(b) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument.

(c) An order that meets all of the requirements of subsection (a), except paragraph (1), and otherwise falls within the definition of "check" in subsection (f) is a negotiable instrument and a check.

(d) A promise or order other than a check is not an instrument if, at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder, it contains a conspicuous statement, however expressed, to the effect that the promise or order is not negotiable or is not an instrument governed by this Article.

(e) An instrument is a "note" if it is a promise and is a "draft" if it is an order. If an instrument falls within the definition of both "note" and "draft," a person entitled to enforce the instrument may treat it as either.

(f) "Check" means (i) a draft, other than a documentary draft, payable on demand and drawn on a bank or (ii) a cashier's check or teller's check. An instrument may be a check even though it is described on its face by another term, such as "money order."

(g) "Cashier's check" means a draft with respect to which the drawer and drawee are the same bank or branches of the same bank.

(h) "Teller's check" means a draft drawn by a bank (i) on another bank, or (ii) payable at or through a bank.

(i) "Traveler's check" means an instrument that (i) is payable on demand, (ii) is drawn on or payable at or through a bank, (iii) is designated by the term "traveler's check" or by a substantially similar term, and (iv) requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the instrument.

(j) "Certificate of deposit" means an instrument containing an acknowledgment by a bank that a sum of money has been received by the bank and a promise by the bank to repay the sum of money. A certificate of deposit is a note of the bank.

§ 3–105. Issue of instrument

Issue of Instrument

(a) "Issue" means the first delivery of an instrument by the maker or drawer, whether to a holder or nonholder, for the purpose of giving rights on the instrument to any person.

(b) An unissued instrument, or an unissued incomplete instrument that is completed, is binding on the maker or drawer, but nonissuance is a defense. An instrument that is conditionally issued or is issued for a special purpose is binding on the maker or drawer, but failure of the condition or special purpose to be fulfilled is a defense.

(c) "Issuer" applies to issued and unissued instruments and means a maker or drawer of an instrument.

§ 3–106. Unconditional promise or order

Unconditional Promise or Order

(a) Except as provided in this section, for the purposes of Section 3–104(a), a promise or order is unconditional unless it states (i) an express condition to payment, (ii) that the promise or order is subject to or governed by another record, or (iii) that rights or obligations with respect to the promise or order are stated in another record. A reference to another record does not of itself make the promise or order conditional.

(b) A promise or order is not made conditional (i) by a reference to another record for a statement of rights with respect to collateral, prepayment, or acceleration, or (ii) because payment is limited to resort to a particular fund or source.

(c) If a promise or order requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the promise or order, the condition does not make the promise or order conditional for the purposes of Section 3–104(a). If the person whose specimen signature appears on an instrument fails to countersign the instrument, the failure to countersign is a defense to the obligation of the issuer, but the failure does not prevent a transferee of the instrument from becoming a holder of the instrument.

(d) If a promise or order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder contains a statement, required by applicable statutory or administrative law, to the effect that the rights of a holder or transferee are subject to claims or defenses that the issuer could assert against the original payee, the promise or order is not thereby made conditional for the purposes of Section 3–104(a); but if the promise or order is an instrument, there cannot be a holder in due course of the instrument.

§ 3–107. Instrument payable in foreign money

Instrument Payable in Foreign Money

Unless the instrument otherwise provides, an instrument that states the amount payable in foreign money may be paid in the foreign money or in an equivalent amount in dollars calculated by using the current bank-offered spot rate at the place of payment for the purchase of dollars on the day on which the instrument is paid.

§ 3–108. Payable on demand or at definite time

Payable on Demand or at Definite Time

(a) A promise or order is "payable on demand" if it (i) states that it is payable on demand or at sight, or otherwise indicates that it is payable at the will of the holder, or (ii) does not state any time of payment.

(b) A promise or order is "payable at a definite time" if it is payable on elapse of a definite period of time after sight or acceptance or at a fixed date or dates or at a time or times readily ascertainable at the time the promise or order is issued, subject to rights of (i) prepayment, (ii) acceleration, (iii) extension at the option of the holder, or (iv) extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

(c) If an instrument, payable at a fixed date, is also payable upon demand made before the fixed date, the instrument is payable on demand until the fixed date and, if demand for payment is not made before that date, becomes payable at a definite time on the fixed date.

§ 3–109. Payable to bearer or to order

Payable to Bearer or to Order

(a) A promise or order is payable to bearer if it:

(1) states that it is payable to bearer or to the order of bearer or otherwise indicates that the person in possession of the promise or order is entitled to payment;

(2) does not state a payee; or

(3) states that it is payable to or to the order of cash or otherwise indicates that it is not payable to an identified person.

(b) A promise or order that is not payable to bearer is payable to order if it is payable (i) to the order of an identified person or (ii) to an identified person or order. A promise or order that is payable to order is payable to the identified person.

(c) An instrument payable to bearer may become payable to an identified person if it is specially indorsed pursuant to Section 3–205(a). An instrument payable to an identified person may become payable to bearer if it is indorsed in blank pursuant to Section 3–205(b).

§ 3–110. Identification of person to whom instrument is payable

Identification of Person to Whom Instrument is Payable

(a) The person to whom an instrument is initially payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as, or in the name or behalf of, the issuer of the instrument. The instrument is payable to the person intended by the signer even if that person is identified in the instrument by a name or other identification that is not that of the intended person. If more than one person signs in the name or behalf of the issuer of an instrument and all the signers do not intend the same person as payee, the instrument is payable to any person intended by one or more of the signers.

(b) If the signature of the issuer of an instrument is made by automated means, such as a check-writing machine, the payee of the instrument is determined by the intent of the person who supplied the name or identification of the payee, whether or not authorized to do so.

(c) A person to whom an instrument is payable may be identified in any way, including by name, identifying number, office, or account number. For the purpose of determining the holder of an instrument, the following rules apply.

(1) If an instrument is payable to an account and the account is identified only by number, the instrument is payable to the person to whom the account is payable. If an instrument is payable to an account identified by number and by the name of a person, the instrument is payable to the named person, whether or not that person is the owner of the account identified by number.

(2) If an instrument is payable to:

(i) a trust, an estate, or a person described as trustee or representative of a trust or estate, the instrument is payable to the trustee, the representative, or a successor of either, whether or not the beneficiary or estate is also named;

(ii) a person described as agent or similar representative of a named or identified person, the instrument is payable to the represented person, the representative, or a successor of the representative;

(iii) a fund or organization that is not a legal entity, the instrument is payable to a representative of the members of the fund or organization; or

(iv) an office or to a person described as holding an office, the instrument is payable to the named person, the incumbent of the office, or a successor to the incumbent.

(d) If an instrument is payable to two or more persons alternatively, it is payable to any of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced by any or all of them in possession of the instrument. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons not alternatively, it is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced only by all of them. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.

§ 3–111. Place of payment

Place of Payment

Except as otherwise provided for items in Article 4, an instrument is payable at the place of payment stated in the instrument. If no place of payment is stated, an instrument is payable at the address of the drawee or maker stated in the instrument. If no address is stated, the place of payment is the place of business of the drawee or maker. If a drawee or maker has more than one place of business, the place of payment is any place of business of the drawee or maker chosen by the person entitled to enforce the instrument. If the drawee or maker has no place of business, the place of payment is the residence of the drawee or maker.

§ 3–112. Interest

Interest

(a) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, (i) an instrument is not payable with interest, and (ii) interest on an interest-bearing instrument is payable from the date of the instrument.

(b) Interest may be stated in an instrument as a fixed or variable amount of money or it may be expressed as a fixed or variable rate or rates. The amount or rate of interest may be stated or described in the instrument in any manner and may require reference to information not contained in the instrument. If an instrument provides for interest, but the amount of interest payable cannot be ascertained from the description, interest is payable at the judgment rate in effect at the place of payment of the instrument and at the time interest first accrues.

§ 3–113. Date of instrument

Date of Instrument

(a) An instrument may be antedated or postdated. The date stated determines the time of payment if the instrument is payable at a fixed period after date. Except as provided in Section 4–401(c), an instrument payable on demand is not payable before the date of the instrument.

(b) If an instrument is undated, its date is the date of its issue or, in the case of an unissued instrument, the date it first comes into possession of a holder.

§ 3–114. Contradictory terms of instrument

Contradictory Terms of Instrument

If an instrument contains contradictory terms, typewritten terms prevail over printed terms, handwritten terms prevail over both, and words prevail over numbers.

§ 3–115. Incomplete instrument

Incomplete Instrument

(a) "Incomplete instrument" means a signed writing, whether or not issued by the signer, the contents of which show at the time of signing that it is incomplete but that the signer intended it to be completed by the addition of words or numbers.

(b) Subject to subsection (c), if an incomplete instrument is an instrument under Section 3–104, it may be enforced according to its terms if it is not completed, or according to its terms as augmented by completion. If an incomplete instrument is not an instrument under Section 3–104, but, after completion, the requirements of Section 3–104 are met, the instrument may be enforced according to its terms as augmented by completion.

(c) If words or numbers are added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer, there is an alteration of the incomplete instrument under Section 3–407.

(d) The burden of establishing that words or numbers were added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer is on the person asserting the lack of authority.

§ 3–116. Joint and several liability; contribution

Joint and Several Liability—Contribution

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the instrument, two or more persons who have the same liability on an instrument as makers, drawers, acceptors, indorsers who indorse as joint payees, or anomalous indorsers are jointly and severally liable in the capacity in which they sign.

(b) Except as provided in Section 3–419(f) or by agreement of the affected parties, a party having joint and several liability who pays the instrument is entitled to receive from any party having the same joint and several liability contribution in accordance with applicable law.

§ 3–117. Other agreements affecting instrument

Other Agreements Affecting Instrument

Subject to applicable law regarding exclusion of proof of contemporaneous or previous agreements, the obligation of a party to an instrument to pay the instrument may be modified, supplemented, or nullified by a separate agreement of the obligor and a person entitled to enforce the instrument, if the instrument is issued or the obligation is incurred in reliance on the agreement or as part of the same transaction giving rise to the agreement. To the extent an obligation is modified, supplemented, or nullified by an agreement under this section, the agreement is a defense to the obligation.

§ 3–118. Statute of limitations

Statute of Limitations

(a) Except as provided in subsection (e), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay a note payable at a definite time must be commenced within six years after the due date or dates stated in the note or, if a due date is accelerated, within six years after the accelerated due date.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (d) or (e), if demand for payment is made to the maker of a note payable on demand, an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the note must be commenced within six years after the demand. If no demand for payment is made to the maker, an action to enforce the note is barred if neither principal nor interest on the note has been paid for a continuous period of 10 years.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (d), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to an unaccepted draft to pay the draft must be commenced within three years after dishonor of the draft or 10 years after the date of the draft, whichever period expires first.

(d) An action to enforce the obligation of the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a teller's check, cashier's check, or traveler's check must be commenced within three years after demand for payment is made to the acceptor or issuer, as the case may be.

(e) An action to enforce the obligation of a party to a certificate of deposit to pay the instrument must be commenced within six years after demand for payment is made to the maker, but if the instrument states a due date and the maker is not required to pay before that date, the six-year period begins when a demand for payment is in effect and the due date has passed.

(f) An action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay an accepted draft, other than a certified check, must be commenced (i) within six years after the due date or dates stated in the draft or acceptance if the obligation of the acceptor is payable at a definite time, or (ii) within six years after the date of the acceptance if the obligation of the acceptor is payable on demand.

(g) Unless governed by other law regarding claims for indemnity or contribution, an action (i) for conversion of an instrument, for money had and received, or like action based on conversion, (ii) for breach of warranty, or (iii) to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this Article and not governed by this section must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

§ 3–119. Notice of right to defend action

Notice of Right to Defend Action

In an action for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over pursuant to this Article or Article 4, the defendant may give the third person written notice of the litigation in a record, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over. If the notice states (i) that the person notified may come in and defend and (ii) that failure to do so will bind the person notified in an action later brought by the person giving the notice as to any determination of fact common to the two litigations, the person notified is so bound unless after seasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend.

PART 2. NEGOTIATION, TRANSFER, AND INDORSEMENT

§ 3–201. Negotiation

Negotiation

(a) "Negotiation" means a transfer of possession, whether voluntary or involuntary, of an instrument by a person other than the issuer to a person who thereby becomes its holder.

(b) Except for negotiation by a remitter, if an instrument is payable to an identified person, negotiation requires transfer of possession of the instrument and its indorsement by the holder. If an instrument is payable to bearer, it may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone.

§ 3–202. Negotiation subject to rescission

Negotiation Subject to Rescission

(a) Negotiation is effective even if obtained (i) from an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or a person without capacity, (ii) by fraud, duress, or mistake, or (iii) in breach of duty or as part of an illegal transaction.

(b) To the extent permitted by other law, negotiation may be rescinded or may be subject to other remedies, but those remedies may not be asserted against a subsequent holder in due course or a person paying the instrument in good faith and without knowledge of facts that are a basis for rescission or other remedy.

§ 3–203. Transfer of instrument; rights acquired by transfer

Transfer of Instruments—Rights Acquired by Transfer

(a) An instrument is transferred when it is delivered by a person other than its issuer for the purpose of giving to the person receiving delivery the right to enforce the instrument.

(b) Transfer of an instrument, whether or not the transfer is a negotiation, vests in the transferee any right of the transferor to enforce the instrument, including any right as a holder in due course, but the transferee cannot acquire rights of a holder in due course by a transfer, directly or indirectly, from a holder in due course if the transferee engaged in fraud or illegality affecting the instrument.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed, if an instrument is transferred for value and the transferee does not become a holder because of lack of indorsement by the transferor, the transferee has a specifically enforceable right to the unqualified indorsement of the transferor, but negotiation of the instrument does not occur until the indorsement is made.

(d) If a transferor purports to transfer less than the entire instrument, negotiation of the instrument does not occur. The transferee obtains no rights under this Article and has only the rights of a partial assignee.

§ 3–204. Indorsement

Indorsement

(a) "Indorsement" means a signature, other than that of a signer as maker, drawer, or acceptor, that alone or accompanied by other words is made on an instrument for the purpose of (i) negotiating the instrument, (ii) restricting payment of the instrument, or (iii) incurring indorser's liability on the instrument, but regardless of the intent of the signer, a signature and its accompanying words is an indorsement unless the accompanying words, terms of the instrument, place of the signature, or other circumstances unambiguously indicate that the signature was made for a purpose other than indorsement. For the purpose of determining whether a signature is made on an instrument, a paper affixed to the instrument is a part of the instrument.

(b) "Indorser" means a person who makes an indorsement.

(c) For the purpose of determining whether the transferee of an instrument is a holder, an indorsement that transfers a security interest in the instrument is effective as an unqualified indorsement of the instrument.

(d) If an instrument is payable to a holder under a name that is not the name of the holder, indorsement may be made by the holder in the name stated in the instrument or in the holder's name or both, but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or taking the instrument for value or collection.

§ 3–205. Special indorsement; blank indorsement; anomalous indorsement

Special Indorsement—Blank Indorsement—Anomalous Indorsement

(a) If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument, whether payable to an identified person or payable to bearer, and the indorsement identifies a person to whom it makes the instrument payable, it is a "special indorsement." When specially indorsed, an instrument becomes payable to the identified person and may be negotiated only by the indorsement of that person. The principles stated in Section 3–110 apply to special indorsements.

(b) If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument and it is not a special indorsement, it is a "blank indorsement." When indorsed in blank, an instrument becomes payable to bearer and maybe negotiated by transfer of possession alone until specially indorsed.

(c) The holder may convert a blank indorsement that consists only of a signature into a special indorsement by writing, above the signature of the indorser, words identifying the person to whom the instrument is made payable.

(d) "Anomalous indorsement" means an indorsement made by a person who is not the holder of the instrument An anomalous indorsement does not affect the manner in which the instrument may be negotiated.

§ 3–206. Restrictive indorsement

Restrictive Indorsement

(a) An indorsement limiting payment to a particular person or otherwise prohibiting further transfer or negotiation of the instrument is not effective to prevent further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.

(b) An indorsement stating a condition to the right of the indorsee to receive payment does not affect the right of the indorsee to enforce the instrument A person paying the instrument or taking it for value or collection may disregard the condition, and the rights and liabilities of that person are not affected by whether the condition has been fulfilled.

(c) If an instrument bears an indorsement (i) described in Section 4–201(b), or (ii) in blank or to a particular bank using the words "for deposit," "for collection," or other words indicating a purpose of having the instrument collected by a bank for the indorser or for a particular account, the following rules apply:

(1) A person, other than a bank, who purchases the instrument when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid for the instrument is received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(2) A depositary bank that purchases the instrument or takes it for collection when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid by the bank with respect to the instrument is received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(3) A payor bank that is also the depositary bank or that takes the instrument for immediate payment over the counter from a person other than a collecting bank converts the instrument unless the proceeds of the instrument are received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (3), a payor bank or intermediary bank may disregard the indorsement and is not liable if the proceeds of the instrument are not received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(d) Except for an indorsement covered by subsection (c), if an instrument bears an indorsement using words to the effect that payment is to be made to the indorsee as agent, trustee, or other fiduciary for the benefit of the indorser or another person, the following rules apply:

(1) Unless there is notice of breach of fiduciary duty as provided in Section 3–307, a person who purchases the instrument from the indorsee or takes the instrument from the indorsee for collection or payment may pay the proceeds of payment or the value given for the instrument to the indorsee without regard to whether the indorsee violates a fiduciary duty to the indorser.

(2) A subsequent transferee of the instrument or person who pays the instrument is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by the restriction in the indorsement unless the transferee or payor knows that the fiduciary dealt with the instrument or its proceeds in breach of fiduciary duty.

(e) The presence on an instrument of an indorsement to which this section applies does not prevent a purchaser of the instrument from becoming a holder in due course of the instrument unless the purchaser is a converter under subsection (c) or has notice or knowledge of breach of fiduciary duty as stated in subsection (d).

(f) In an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor has a defense if payment would violate an indorsement to which this section applies and the payment is not permitted by this section.

§ 3–207. Reacquisition

Reacquisition

Reacquisition of an instrument occurs if it is transferred to a former holder, by negotiation or otherwise. A former holder who reacquires the instrument may cancel indorsements made after the reacquirer first became a holder of the instrument. If the cancellation causes the instrument to be payable to the reacquirer or to bearer, the reacquirer may negotiate the instrument. An indorser whose indorsement is canceled is discharged, and the discharge is effective against any subsequent holder.

PART 3. ENFORCEMENT OF INSTRUMENTS

§ 3–301. Person entitled to enforce instrument

Person Entitled to Enforce Instrument

"Person entitled to enforce" an instrument means (i) the holder of the instrument, (ii) a nonholder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or (iii) a person not in—possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument pursuant to Section 3–309 or 3–418(d). A person may be a person entitled to enforce the instrument even though the person is not the owner of the instrument or is in wrongful possession of the instrument.

§ 3–302. Holder in due course

Holder in Due Course

(a) Subject to subsection (c) and Section 3–106(d), "holder in due course" means the holder of an instrument if:

(1) the instrument when issued or negotiated to the holder does not bear such apparent evidence of forgery or alteration or is not otherwise so irregular or incomplete as to call into question its authenticity; and

(2) the holder took the instrument (i) for value, (ii) in good faith, (iii) without notice that the instrument is overdue or has been dishonored or that there is an uncured default with respect to payment of another instrument issued as part of the same series, (iv) without notice that the instrument contains an unauthorized signature or has been altered, (v) without notice of any claim to the instrument described in Section 3–306, and (vi) without notice that any party has a defense or claim in recoupment described in Section 3–305(a).

(b) Notice of discharge of a party, other than discharge in an insolvency proceeding, is not notice of a defense under subsection (a), but discharge is effective against a person who became a holder in due course with notice of the discharge. Public filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice of a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument.

(c) Except to the extent a transferor or predecessor in interest has rights as a holder in due course, a person does not acquire rights of a holder in due course of an instrument taken (i) by legal process or by purchase in an execution, bankruptcy, or creditor's sale or similar proceeding, (ii) by purchase as part of a bulk transaction not in ordinary course of business of the transferor, or (iii) as the successor in interest to an estate or other organization.

(d) If, under Section 3–303(a)(1), the promise of performance that is the consideration for an instrument has been partially performed, the holder may assert rights as a holder in due course of the instrument only to the fraction of the amount payable under the instrument equal to the value of the partial performance divided by the value of the promised performance.

(e) If (i) the person entitled to enforce an instrument has only a security interest in the instrument and (ii) the person obliged to pay the instrument has a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument that may be asserted against the person who granted the security interest, the person entitled to enforce the instrument may assert rights as a holder in due course only to an amount payable under the instrument which, at the time of enforcement of the instrument, does not exceed the amount of the unpaid obligation secured.

(f) To be effective, notice must be received at a time and in a manner that gives a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(g) This section is subject to any law limiting status as a holder in due course in particular classes of transactions.

§ 3–303. Value and consideration

Value and Consideration

(a) An instrument is issued or transferred for value if:

(1) the instrument is issued or transferred for a promise of performance, to the extent the promise has been performed;

(2) transferee acquires a security interest or other lien in the instrument other than a lien obtained by judicial proceeding;

(3) instrument is issued or transferred as payment of or as security for, an antecedent claim against any person, whether or not the claim is due;

(4) instrument is issued or transferred in exchange for a negotiable instrument, or

(5) instrument is issued or transferred in exchange for the incurring of an irrevocable obligation to a third party by the person taking the instrument.

(b) "Consideration" means any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. The drawer or maker of an instrument has a defense if the instrument is issued without consideration. If an instrument is issued for a promise of performance, the issuer has a defense to the extent performance of the promise is due and the promise has not been performed. If an instrument is issued for value as stated in subsection (a), the instrument is also issued for consideration.

§ 3–304. Overdue instrument

Overdue Instrument

(a) An instrument payable on demand becomes overdue at the earliest of the following times:

- (1) the day after the day demand for payment is duly made;
- (2) the instrument is a check, 90 days after its date; or
- (3) the instrument is not a check, when the instrument has been outstanding for a period of time after its date which is unreasonably long under the circumstances of the particular case in light of the nature of the instrument and usage of the trade.

(b) With respect to an instrument payable at a definite time the following rules apply:

- (1) If the principal is payable in installments and a due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue upon default under the instrument for nonpayment of an installment, and the instrument remains overdue until the default is cured.
- (2) If the principal is not payable in installments and the due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the due date.
- (3) If a due date with respect to principal has been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the accelerated due date.

(c) Unless the due date of principal has been accelerated, an instrument does not become overdue if there is default in payment of interest but no default in payment of principal.

§ 3–305. Defenses and claims in recoupment; claims in consumer transactions

Defenses and Claims in Recoupment—Claims in Consumer Transactions

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the right to enforce the obligation of a party to pay an instrument is subject to the following:

- (1) a defense of the obligor based on (i) infancy of the obligor to the extent it is a defense to a simple contract, (ii) duress, lack of legal capacity, or illegality of the transaction which, under other law, nullifies the obligation of the obligor, (iii) fraud that induced the obligor to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to learn of its character or its essential terms, or (iv) discharge of the obligor in insolvency proceedings;

(2) a defense of the obligor stated in another section of this Article or a defense of the obligor that would be available if the person entitled to enforce the instrument were enforcing a right to payment under a simple contract; and

(3) a claim in recoupment of the obligor against the original payee of the instrument if the claim arose from the transaction that gave rise to the instrument; but the claim of the obligor may be asserted against a transferee of the instrument only to reduce the amount owing on the instrument at the time the action is brought.

(b) right of a holder in due course to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument is subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (a)(1), but is not subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (a)(2) or claims in recoupment stated in subsection (a)(3) against a person other than the holder.

(c) Except as stated in subsection (d), in an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor may not assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument (Section 3-306) of another person, but the other person's claim to the instrument may be asserted by the obligor if the other person is joined in the action and personally asserts the claim against the person entitled to enforce the instrument. An obligor is not obliged to pay the instrument if the person seeking enforcement of the instrument does not have rights of a holder in due course and the obligor proves that the instrument is a lost or stolen instrument.

(d) In an action to enforce the obligation of an accommodation party to pay an instrument, the accommodation party may assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument any defense or claim in recoupment under subsection (a) that the accommodated party could assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument, except the defenses of discharge in insolvency proceedings, infancy, and lack of legal capacity.

(e) In a consumer transaction, if law other than this article requires that an instrument include a statement to the effect that the rights of a holder or transferee are subject to a claim or defense that the issuer could assert against the original payee, and the instrument does not include such a statement:

(1) the instrument has the same effect as if the instrument included such a statement:

(2) the issuer may assert against the holder or transferee all claims and defenses that would have been available if the instrument included such a statement: and

(3) the extent to which claims may be asserted against the holder or transferee is determined as if the instrument included such a statement.

(f) This section is subject to law other than this article that establishes a different rule for consumer transactions.

§ 3–306. Claims to an instrument

Claims to an Instrument

A person taking an instrument, other than a person having rights of a holder in due course, is subject to a claim of a property or possessory right in the instrument or its proceeds, including a claim to rescind a negotiation and to recover the instrument or its proceeds. A person having rights of a holder in due course takes free of the claim to the instrument.

§ 3–307. Notice of breach of fiduciary duty

Notice of Breach of Fiduciary Duty

(a) In this section:

(1) "Fiduciary" means an agent, trustee, partner, corporate officer or director, or other representative owing a fiduciary duty with respect to an instrument.

(2) "Represented person" means the principal, beneficiary, partnership, corporation, or other person to whom the duty stated in paragraph (1) is owed.

(b) If (i) an instrument is taken from a fiduciary for payment or collection or for value, (ii) the taker has knowledge of the fiduciary status of the fiduciary, and (iii) the represented person makes a claim to the instrument or its proceeds on the basis that the transaction of the fiduciary is a breach of fiduciary duty, the following rules apply:

(1) Notice of breach of fiduciary duty by the fiduciary is notice of the claim of the represented person.

(2) In the case of an instrument payable to the represented person or the fiduciary as such, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is (i) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary, (ii) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or (iii) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

(3) If an instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary as such, and made payable to the fiduciary personally, the taker does not have notice of the breach of fiduciary duty unless the taker knows of the breach of fiduciary duty.

(4) If an instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary as such, to the taker as payee, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is (i) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary, (ii) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or (iii) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

§ 3–308. Proof of signatures and status as holder in due course

Proof of Signatures and Status as Holder in Due Course

(a) In an action with respect to an instrument, the authenticity of, and authority to make, each signature on the instrument is admitted unless specifically denied in the pleadings. If the validity of a signature is denied in the pleadings, the burden of establishing validity is on the person claiming validity, but the signature is presumed to be authentic and authorized unless the action is to enforce the liability of the purported signer and the signer is dead or incompetent at the time of trial of the issue of validity of the signature. If an action to enforce the instrument is brought against a person as the undisclosed principal of a person who signed the instrument as a party to the instrument, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the defendant is liable on the instrument as a represented person under Section 3–402(a).

(b) If the validity of signatures is admitted or proved and there is compliance with subsection (a), a plaintiff producing the instrument is entitled to payment if the plaintiff proves entitlement to enforce the instrument under Section 3–301, unless the defendant proves a defense or claim in recoupment. If a defense or claim in recoupment is proved, the right to payment of the plaintiff is subject to the defense or claim, except to the extent the plaintiff proves that the plaintiff has rights of a holder in due course which are not subject to the defense or claim.

§ 3–309. Enforcement of lost, destroyed, or stolen instrument

Enforcement of Lost, Destroyed or Stolen Instrument

(a) A person not in possession of an instrument is entitled to enforce the instrument if:

(1) the person seeking to enforce the instrument:

(A) was entitled to enforce the instrument when loss of possession occurred; or

(B) has directly or indirectly acquired ownership of the instrument from a person who was entitled to enforce the instrument when loss of possession occurred:

(2) the loss of possession was not the result of a transfer by the person or a lawful seizure; and

(3) the person cannot reasonably obtain possession of the instrument because the instrument was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

(b) A person seeking enforcement of an instrument under subsection (a) must prove the terms of the instrument and the person's right to enforce the instrument. If that proof is made, Section 3–308 applies to the case as if the person seeking enforcement had produced the instrument. The court may not enter judgment in favor of the person seeking enforcement unless it finds that the person required to pay the instrument is adequately protected against loss that might occur by reason of a claim by another person to enforce the instrument Adequate protection may be provided by any reasonable means.

§ 3–310. Effect of instrument on obligation for which taken

Effect of Instrument on Obligation For Which Taken

(a) Unless otherwise agreed, if a certified check, cashier's check, or teller's check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is discharged to the same extent discharge would result if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken in payment of the obligation. Discharge of the obligation does not affect any liability that the obligor may have as an indorser of the instrument.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed and except as provided in subsection (a), if a note or an uncertified check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is suspended to the same extent the obligation would be discharged if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken, and the following rules apply:

(1) In the case of an uncertified check, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the check or until it is paid or certified. Payment or certification of the check results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the amount of the check.

(2) In the case of a note, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the note or until it is paid. Payment of the note results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the payment.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (4), if the check or note is dishonored and the obligee of the obligation for which the instrument was taken is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligee may enforce either the instrument or the obligation. In the case of an instrument of a third person which is negotiated to the obligee by the obligor, discharge of the obligor on the instrument also discharges the obligation.

(4) If the person entitled to enforce the instrument taken for an obligation is a person other than the obligee, the obligee may not enforce the obligation to the extent the obligation is suspended. If the obligee is the person entitled to enforce the instrument but no longer has possession of it because it was lost, stolen, or destroyed, the obligation may not be enforced to the extent of the amount payable on the instrument, and to that extent the obligee's rights against the obligor are limited to enforcement of the instrument.

(c) If an instrument other than one described in subsection (a) or (b) is taken for an obligation, the effect is (i) that stated in subsection (a) if the instrument is one on which a bank is liable as maker or acceptor, or (ii) that stated in subsection (b) in any other case.

§ 3–311. Accord and satisfaction by use of instrument

Accord and Satisfaction by Use of Instrument

(a) If a person against whom a claim is asserted proves that (i) that person in good faith tendered an instrument to the claimant as full satisfaction of the claim, (ii) the amount of the claim was unliquidated or subject to a bona fide dispute, and (iii) the claimant obtained payment of the instrument, the following subsections apply.

(b) Unless subsection (c) applies, the claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that the instrument or an accompanying written communication contained a conspicuous statement to the effect that the instrument was tendered as full satisfaction of the claim.

(c) Subject to subsection (d), a claim is not discharged under subsection (b) if either of the following applies:

(1) The claimant, if an organization, proves that (i) within a reasonable time before the tender, the claimant sent a conspicuous statement to the person against whom the claim is asserted that communications concerning disputed debts, including an instrument tendered as full satisfaction of a debt, are to be sent to a designated person, office, or place, and (ii) the instrument or accompanying communication was not received by that designated person, office, or place.

(2) The claimant, whether or not an organization, proves that within 90 days after payment of the instrument, the claimant tendered repayment of the amount of the instrument to the person against whom the claim is asserted. This paragraph does not apply if the claimant is an organization that sent a statement complying with paragraph (1)(i).

(d) A claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that within a reasonable time before collection of the instrument was initiated, the claimant, or an agent of the claimant having direct responsibility with respect to the disputed obligation, knew that the instrument was tendered in full satisfaction of the claim.

§ 3-312. Lost, destroyed, or stolen cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check

Lost, Destroyed, or Stolen Cashier's Check, Teller's Check, or Certified Check

(a) In this section:

(1) "Check" means a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check.

(2) "Claimant" means a person who claims the right to receive the amount of a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check that was lost, destroyed, or stolen.

(3) "Declaration of loss" means a statement, made in a record under penalty of perjury, to the effect that (i) the declarer lost possession of a check, (ii) the declarer is the drawer or payee of the check, in the case of a certified check, or the remitter or payee of the check, in the case of a cashier's check or teller's check, (iii) the loss of possession was not the result of a transfer by the declarer or a lawful seizure, and (iv) the declarer cannot reasonably obtain possession of the check because the check was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

(4) "Obligated bank" means the issuer of a cashier's check or teller's check or the acceptor of a certified check.

(b) A claimant may assert a claim to the amount of a check by a communication to the obligated bank describing the check with reasonable certainty and requesting payment of the amount of the check, if (i) the claimant is the drawer or payee of a certified check or the remitter or payee of a cashier's check or teller's check, (ii) the communication contains or is accompanied by a declaration of loss of the claimant with respect to the check, (iii) the communication is received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable time to act on it before the check is paid, and (iv) the claimant provides reasonable identification if requested by the obligated bank. Delivery of a declaration of loss is a warranty of the truth of the statements made in the declaration. If a claim is asserted in compliance with this subsection, the following rules apply:

(1) The claim becomes enforceable at the later of (i) the time the claim is asserted, or (ii) the 90th day following the date of the check, in the case of a cashier's check or teller's check, or the 90th day following the date of the acceptance, in the case of a certified check.

(2) Until the claim becomes enforceable, it has no legal effect and the obligated bank may pay the check or, in the case of a teller's check, may permit the drawee to pay the check. Payment to a person entitled to enforce the check discharges all liability of the obligated bank with respect to the check.

(3) If the claim becomes enforceable before the check is presented for payment, the obligated bank is not obliged to pay the check.

(4) When the claim becomes enforceable, the obligated bank becomes obliged to pay the amount of the check to the claimant if payment of the check has not been made to a person entitled to enforce the check. Subject to Section 4-302(a)(1), payment to the claimant discharges—all liability of the obligated bank with respect to the check.

(c) If the obligated bank pays the amount of a check to a claimant under subsection (b)(4) and the check is presented for payment by a person having rights of a holder in due course, the claimant is obliged to (i) refund the payment to the obligated bank if the check is paid, or (ii) pay the amount of the check to the person having rights of a holder in due course if the check is dishonored.

(d) If a claimant has the right to assert a claim under subsection (b) and is also a person entitled to enforce a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check which is lost, destroyed, or stolen, the claimant may assert rights with respect to the check either under this section or Section 3-309.

PART 4. LIABILITY OF PARTIES

§ 3–401. Signature

Signature

- (a) A person is not liable on an instrument unless (i) the person signed the instrument, or (ii) the person is represented by an agent or representative who signed the instrument and the signature is binding on the represented person under Section 3–402.
- (b) A signature may be made (i) manually or by means of a device or machine, and (ii) by the use of any name, including a trade or assumed name, or by a word, mark, or symbol executed or adopted by a person with present intention to authenticate a writing.

§ 3–402. Signature by representative

Signature by Representative

- (a) If a person acting, or purporting to act, as a representative signs an instrument by signing either the name of the represented person or the name of the signer, the represented person is bound by the signature to the same extent the represented person would be bound if the signature were on a simple contract. If the represented person is bound, the signature of the representative is the "authorized signature of the represented person" and the represented person is liable on the instrument, whether or not identified in the instrument.
- (b) If a representative signs the name of the representative to an instrument and the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person, the following rules apply:
- (1) If the form of the signature shows unambiguously that the signature is made on behalf of the represented person who is identified in the instrument, the representative is not liable on the instrument.
- (2) Subject to subsection (c), if (i) the form of the signature does not show unambiguously that the signature is made in a representative capacity or (ii) the represented person is not identified in the instrument, the representative is liable on the instrument to a holder in due course that took the instrument without notice that the representative was not intended to be liable on the instrument. With respect to any other person, the representative is liable on the instrument unless the representative proves that the original parties did not intend the representative to be liable on the instrument.
- (c) If a representative signs the name of the representative as drawer of a check without indication of the representative status and the check is payable from an account of the represented person who is identified on the check, the signer is not liable on the check if the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person.

§ 3–403. Unauthorized signature

Unauthorized Signature

- (a) Unless otherwise provided in this Article or Article 4, an unauthorized signature is ineffective except as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of a person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value. An unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this Article.
- (b) If the signature of more than one person is required to constitute the authorized signature of an organization, the signature of the organization is unauthorized if one of the required signatures is lacking.
- (c) The civil or criminal liability of a person who makes an unauthorized signature is not affected by any provision of this Article which makes the unauthorized signature effective for the purposes of this Article.

§ 3–404. Impostors; fictitious payees

Impostors—Fictitious Payees

- (a) If an impostor, by use of the mails or otherwise, induces the issuer of an instrument to issue the instrument to the impostor, or to a person acting in concert with the impostor, by impersonating the payee of the instrument or a person authorized to act for the payee, an indorsement of the instrument by any person in the name of the payee is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.
- (b) If (i) a person whose intent determines to whom an instrument is payable (Section 3–110(a) or (b)) does not intend the person identified as payee to have any interest in the instrument, or (ii) the person identified as payee of an instrument is a fictitious person, the following rules apply until the instrument is negotiated by special indorsement
 - (1) Any person in possession of the instrument is its holder.
 - (2) An indorsement by any person in the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.
- (c) Under subsection (a) or (b), an indorsement is made in the name of a payee if (i) it is made in a name substantially similar to that of the payee or (ii) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depository bank to an account in a name substantially similar to that of the payee.
- (d) With respect to an instrument to which subsection (a) or (b) applies, if a person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss resulting from payment of the instrument, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

§ 3–405. Employer's responsibility for fraudulent indorsement by employee

Employer's Responsibility for Fraudulent Indorsement by Employee

(a) In this section:

(1) "Employee" includes an independent contractor and employee of an independent contractor retained by the employer.

(2) "Fraudulent indorsement" means (i) in the case of an instrument payable to the employer, a forged indorsement purporting to be that of the employer, or (ii) in the case of an instrument with respect to which the employer is the issuer, a forged indorsement purporting to be that of the person identified as payee.

(3) "Responsibility" with respect to instruments means authority (i) to sign or indorse instruments on behalf of the employer, (ii) to process instruments received by the employer for bookkeeping purposes, for deposit to an account, or for other disposition, (iii) to prepare or process instruments for issue in the name of the employer, (iv) to supply information determining the names or addresses of payees of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer, (v) to control the disposition of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer, or (vi) to act otherwise with respect to instruments in a responsible capacity. "Responsibility" does not include authority that merely allows an employee to have access to instruments or blank or incomplete instrument forms that are being stored or transported or are part of incoming or outgoing mail, or similar access.

(b) For the purpose of determining the rights and liabilities of a person who, in good faith, pays an instrument or takes it for value or for collection, if an employer entrusted an employee with responsibility with respect to the instrument and the employee or a person acting in concert with the employee makes a fraudulent indorsement of the instrument, the indorsement is effective as the indorsement of the person to whom the instrument is payable if it is made in the name of that person. If the person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss resulting from the fraud, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

(c) Under subsection (b), an indorsement is made in the name of the person to whom an instrument is payable if (i) it is made in a name substantially similar to the name of that person or (ii) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depository bank to an account in a name substantially similar to the name of that person.

§ 3–406. Negligence contributing to forged signature or alteration of instrument

Negligence Contributing to Forged Signature or Alteration of Instrument

(a) A person whose failure to exercise ordinary care substantially contributes to an alteration of an instrument or to the making of a forged signature on an instrument is precluded from asserting the alteration or the forgery against a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(b) Under subsection (a), if the person asserting the preclusion fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss, the loss is allocated between the person precluded and the person asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of each to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

(c) Under subsection (a), the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person asserting the preclusion. Under subsection (b), the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person precluded.

§ 3-407. Alteration

Alteration

(a) "Alteration" means (i) an unauthorized change in an instrument that purports to modify in any respect the obligation of a party, or (ii) an unauthorized addition of words or numbers or other change to an incomplete instrument relating to the obligation of a party.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), an alteration fraudulently made discharges a party whose obligation is affected by the alteration unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the alteration. No other alteration discharges a party, and the instrument may be enforced according to its original terms.

(c) A payor bank or drawee paying a fraudulently altered instrument or a person taking it for value, in good faith and without notice of the alteration, may enforce rights with respect to the instrument (i) according to its original terms, or (ii) in the case of an incomplete instrument altered by unauthorized completion, according to its terms as completed.

§ 3-408. Drawee not liable on unaccepted draft

Drawee Not Liable on Unaccepted Draft

A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until the drawee accepts it.

§ 3-409. Acceptance of draft; Certified check

Acceptance of Draft—Certified Check

(a) "Acceptance" means the drawee's signed agreement to pay a draft as presented. It must be written on the draft and may consist of the drawee's signature alone. Acceptance may be made at any time and becomes effective when notification pursuant to instructions is given or the accepted draft is delivered for the purpose of giving rights on the acceptance to any person.

(b) A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer, is otherwise incomplete, is overdue, or has been dishonored.

(c) If a draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date the acceptance, the holder may complete the acceptance by supplying a date in good faith.

(d) "Certified check" means a check accepted by the bank on which it is drawn. Acceptance may be made as stated in subsection (a) or by a writing on the check which indicates that the check is certified. The drawee of a check has no obligation to certify the check, and refusal to certify is not dishonor of the check.

§ 3-410. Acceptance varying draft

Acceptance Varying Draft

(a) If the terms of a drawee's acceptance vary from the terms of the draft as presented, the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored. In that case, the drawee may cancel the acceptance.

(b) The terms of a draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at a particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at that bank or place.

(c) If the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of a draft, the obligation of each drawer and indorser that does not expressly assent to the acceptance is discharged.

§ 3-411. Refusal to pay cashier's checks, teller's checks, and certified checks

Refusal to Pay Cashier's Checks, Teller's Checks, and Certified Checks

(a) In this section, "obligated bank" means the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a cashier's check or teller's check bought from the issuer.

(b) If the obligated bank wrongfully (i) refuses to pay a cashier's check or certified check, (ii) stops payment of a teller's check, or (iii) refuses to pay a dishonored teller's check, the person asserting the right to enforce the check is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the nonpayment and may recover consequential damages if the obligated bank refuses to pay after receiving notice of particular circumstances giving rise to the damages.

(c) Expenses or consequential damages under subsection (b) are not recoverable if the refusal of the obligated bank to pay occurs because (i) the bank suspends payments, (ii) the obligated bank asserts a claim or defense of the bank that it has reasonable grounds to believe is available against the person entitled to enforce the instrument, (iii) the obligated bank has a reasonable doubt whether the person demanding payment is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, or (iv) payment is prohibited by law.

§ 3-412. Obligation of issuer of note or cashier's check

Obligation of Issuer of Note or Cashier's Check

The issuer of a note or cashier's check or other draft drawn on the drawer is obliged to pay the instrument (i) according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or (ii) if the issuer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in Sections 3-115 and 3-407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to an indorser who paid the instrument under Section 3-415.

§ 3-413. Obligation of acceptor

Obligation of Acceptor

(a) The acceptor of a draft is obliged to pay the draft (i) according to its terms at the time it was accepted, even though the acceptance states that the draft is payable "as originally drawn" or equivalent terms, (ii) if the acceptance varies the terms of the draft, according to the terms of the draft as varied, or (iii) if the acceptance is of a draft that is an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in Sections 3-115 and 3-407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to the drawer or an indorser who paid the draft under Section 3-414 or 3-415.

(b) If the certification of a check or other acceptance of a draft states the amount certified or accepted, the obligation of the acceptor is that amount. If (i) the certification or acceptance does not state an amount, (ii) the amount of the instrument is subsequently raised, and (iii) the instrument is then negotiated to a holder in due course, the obligation of the acceptor is the amount of the instrument at the time it was taken by the holder in due course.

§ 3-414. Obligation of drawer

Obligation of Drawer

(a) This section does not apply to cashier's checks or other drafts drawn on the drawer.

(b) If an unaccepted draft is dishonored, the drawer is obliged to pay the draft (i) according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or (ii) if the drawer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in Sections 3-115 and 3-407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to an indorser who paid the draft under Section 3-415.

(c) If a draft is accepted by a bank, the drawer is discharged, regardless of when or by whom acceptance was obtained.

(d) If a draft is accepted and the acceptor is not a bank, the obligation of the drawer to pay the draft if the draft is dishonored by the acceptor is the same as the obligation of an indorser under Section 3-415(a) and (c).

(e) If a draft states that it is drawn "without recourse" or otherwise disclaims liability of the drawer to pay the draft, the drawer is not liable under subsection (b) to pay the draft if the draft is not a check. A disclaimer of the liability stated in subsection (b) is not effective if the draft is a check.

(f) If (i) a check is not presented for payment or given to a depository bank for collection within 30 days after its date, (ii) the drawee suspends payments after expiration of the 30-day period without paying the check, and (iii) because of the suspension of payments, the drawer is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee to cover payment of the check, the drawer to the extent deprived of funds may discharge its obligation to pay the check by assigning to the person entitled to enforce the check the rights of the drawer against the drawee with respect to the funds.

§ 3-415. Obligation of indorser

Obligation of Indorser

(a) Subject to subsections (b), (c), (d), (e) and to Section 3-419(d), if an instrument is dishonored, an indorser is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument (i) according to the terms of the instrument at the time it was indorsed, or (ii) if the indorser indorsed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in Sections 3-115 and 3-407. The obligation of the indorser is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to a subsequent indorser who paid the instrument under this section.

(b) If an indorsement states that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaims liability of the indorser, the indorser is not liable under subsection (a) to pay the instrument.

(c) If notice of dishonor of an instrument is required by Section 3-503 and notice of dishonor complying with that section is not given to an indorser, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

(d) If a draft is accepted by a bank after an indorsement is made, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

(e) If an indorser of a check is liable under subsection (a) and the check is not presented for payment, or given to a depository bank for collection, within 30 days after the day the indorsement was made, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

§ 3-416. Transfer warranties

Transfer Warranties

(a) A person who transfers an instrument for consideration warrants to the transferee and, if the transfer is by indorsement, to any subsequent transferee that

(1) the warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the instrument;

(2) all signatures on the instrument are authentic and authorized;

(3) the instrument has not been altered;

(4) the instrument is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment of any party which can be asserted against the warrantor;

(5) the warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer, and

(6) with respect to a remotely-created consumer item, that the person on whose account the item is drawn authorized the issuance of the item in the amount for which the item is drawn.

(b) A person to whom the warranties under subsection (a) are made and who took the instrument in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the instrument plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

(c) The warranties stated in subsection (a) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection (b) is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(d) A [cause of action] for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

§ 3-417. Presentment warranties

Presentment Warranties

(a) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, (i) the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and (ii) a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee making payment or accepting the draft in good faith that:

(1) the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;

(2) the draft has not been altered;

(3) the warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the drawer of the draft is unauthorized;
and

(4) with respect to any remotely-created consumer item, that the person on whose account the item is drawn authorized the issuance of the item in the amount for which the item is drawn.

(b) A drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor. If the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

(c) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (a) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under Section 3-404 or 3-405 or the drawer is precluded under Section 3-406 or 4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.

(d) If (i) a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or (ii) any other instrument is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the instrument, and (iii) payment is received, the following rules apply:

(1) The person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the instrument warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the instrument, a person entitled to enforce the instrument or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the instrument.

(2) The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.

(e) The warranties stated in subsections (a) and (d) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection (b) or (d) is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(f) A [cause of action] for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

§ 3–418. Payment or acceptance by mistake

Payment or Acceptance by Mistake

(a) Except as provided in subsection (c), if the drawee of a draft pays or accepts the draft and the drawee acted on the mistaken belief that (i) payment of the draft had not been stopped pursuant to Section 4–403 or (ii) the signature of the drawer of the draft was authorized, the drawee may recover the amount of the draft from the person to whom or for whose benefit payment was made or, in the case of acceptance, may revoke the acceptance. Rights of the drawee under this subsection are not affected by failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in paying or accepting the draft.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), if an instrument has been paid or accepted by mistake and the case is not covered by subsection (a), the person paying or accepting may, to the extent permitted by the law governing mistake and restitution, (i) recover the payment from the person to whom or for whose benefit payment was made or (ii) in the case of acceptance, may revoke the acceptance.

(c) The remedies provided by subsection (a) or (b) may not be asserted against a person who took the instrument in good faith and for value or who in good faith changed position in reliance on the payment or acceptance. This subsection does not limit remedies provided by Section 3–417 or 4–407.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 4–215, if an instrument is paid or accepted by mistake and the payor or acceptor recovers payment or revokes acceptance under subsection (a) or (b), the instrument is deemed not to have been paid or accepted and is treated as dishonored, and the person from whom payment is recovered has rights as a person entitled to enforce the dishonored instrument.

§ 3–419. Instruments signed for accommodation

Instruments Signed for Accommodation

(a) If an instrument is issued for value given for the benefit of a party to the instrument ("accommodated party") and another party to the instrument ("accommodation party") signs the instrument for the purpose of incurring liability on the instrument without being a direct beneficiary of the value given for the instrument, the instrument is signed by the accommodation party "for accommodation."

(b) An accommodation party may sign the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser and, subject to subsection (d), is obliged to pay the instrument in the capacity in which the accommodation party signs. The obligation of an accommodation party may be enforced notwithstanding any statute of frauds and whether or not the accommodation party receives consideration for the accommodation.

(c) A person signing an instrument is presumed to be an accommodation party and there is notice that the instrument is signed for accommodation if the signature is an anomalous indorsement or is accompanied by words indicating that the signer is acting as surety or guarantor with respect to the obligation of another party to the instrument Except as provided in Section 3–605, the obligation of an accommodation party to pay the instrument is not affected by the fact that the person enforcing the obligation had notice when the instrument was taken by that person that the accommodation party signed the instrument for accommodation.

(d) If the signature of a party to an instrument is accompanied by words indicating unambiguously that the party is guaranteeing collection rather than payment of the obligation of another party to the instrument, the signer is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument to a person entitled to enforce the instrument only if (i) execution of judgment against the other party has been returned unsatisfied, (ii) the other party is insolvent or in an insolvency proceeding, (iii) the other party cannot be served with process, or (iv) it is otherwise apparent that payment cannot be obtained from the other party.

(e) If the signature of a party to an instrument is accompanied by words indicating that the party guarantees payment or the signer signs the instrument as an accommodation party in some other manner that does not unambiguously indicate an intention to guarantee collection rather than payment, the signer is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument to a person entitled to enforce the instrument in the same circumstances as the accommodated party would be obliged, without prior resort to the accommodated party by the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

(f) An accommodation party who pays the instrument is entitled to reimbursement from the accommodated party and is entitled to enforce the instrument against the accommodated party. In proper circumstances, an accommodation party may obtain relief that requires the accommodated party to perform its obligations on the instrument. An accommodated party that pays the instrument has no right of recourse against, and is not entitled to contribution from, an accommodation party.

§ 3–420. Conversion of instrument

Conversion of Instrument

(a) The law applicable to conversion of personal property applies to instruments. An instrument is also converted if it is taken by transfer, other than a negotiation, from a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or a bank makes or obtains payment with respect to the instrument for a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or receive payment An action for conversion of an instrument may not be brought by (i) the issuer or acceptor of the instrument or (ii) a payee or indorsee who did not receive delivery of the instrument either directly or through delivery to an agent or a co-payee.

(b) In an action under subsection (a), the measure of liability is presumed to be the amount payable on the instrument, but recovery may not exceed the amount of the plaintiff's interest in the instrument.

(c) A representative, other than a depository bank, who has in good faith dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the person entitled to enforce the instrument is not liable in conversion to that person beyond the amount of any proceeds that it has not paid out.

PART 5. DISHONOR

§ 3-501. Presentment

Presentment

(a) "Presentment" means a demand made by or on behalf of a person entitled to enforce an instrument (i) to pay the instrument made to the drawee or a party obliged to pay the instrument or, in the case of a note or accepted draft payable at a bank, to the bank, or (ii) to accept a draft made to the drawee.

(b) The following rules are subject to Article 4, agreement of the parties, and clearing-house rules and the like:

(1) Presentment may be made at the place of payment of the instrument and must be made at the place of payment if the instrument is payable at a bank in the United States; may be made by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; is effective when the demand for payment or acceptance is received by the person to whom presentment is made; and is effective if made to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees, or other payors.

(2) Upon demand of the person to whom presentment is made, the person making presentment must (i) exhibit the instrument, (ii) give reasonable identification and, if presentment is made on behalf of another person, reasonable evidence of authority to do so, and (iii) sign a receipt on the instrument for any payment made or surrender the instrument if full payment is made.

(3) Without dishonoring the instrument, the party to whom presentment is made may (i) return the instrument for lack of a necessary indorsement, or (ii) refuse payment or acceptance for failure of the presentment to comply with the terms of the instrument, an agreement of the parties, or other applicable law or rule.

(4) The party to whom presentment is made may treat presentment as occurring on the next business day after the day of presentment if the party to whom presentment is made has established a cut-off hour not earlier than 2 p.m. for the receipt and processing of instruments presented for payment or acceptance and presentment is made after the cut-off hour.

§ 3-502. Dishonor

Dishonor

(a) Dishonor of a note is governed by the following rules:

(1) If the note is payable on demand, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made to the maker and the note is not paid on the day of presentment.

(2) If the note is not payable on demand and is payable at or through a bank or the terms of the note require presentment, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made and the note is not paid on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.

(3) If the note is not payable on demand and paragraph (2) does not apply, the note is dishonored if it is not paid on the day it becomes payable.

(b) Dishonor of an unaccepted draft other than a documentary draft is governed by the following rules:

(1) If a check is duly presented for payment to the payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter, the check is dishonored if the payor bank makes timely return of the check or sends timely notice of dishonor or nonpayment under Section 4-301 or 4-302, or becomes accountable for the amount of the check under Section 4-302.

(2) If a draft is payable on demand and paragraph (1) does not apply, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the drawee and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.

(3) If a draft is payable on a date stated in the draft, the draft is dishonored if (i) presentment for payment is duly made to the drawee and payment is not made on the day the draft becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later, or (ii) presentment for acceptance is duly made before the day the draft becomes payable and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(4) If a draft is payable on elapse of a period of time after sight or acceptance, the draft is dishonored if presentment for acceptance is duly made and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(c) Dishonor of an unaccepted documentary draft occurs according to the rules stated in subsection (b)(2), (3), and (4), except that payment or acceptance may be delayed without dishonor until no later than the close of the third business day of the drawee following the day on which payment or acceptance is required by those paragraphs.

(d) Dishonor of an accepted draft is governed by the following rules:

(1) If the draft is payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.

(2) If the draft is not payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and payment is not made on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.

(e) In any case in which presentment is otherwise required for dishonor under this section and presentment is excused under Section 3–504, dishonor occurs without presentment if the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.

(f) If a draft is dishonored because timely acceptance of the draft was not made and the person entitled to demand acceptance consents to a late acceptance, from the time of acceptance the draft is treated as never having been dishonored.

§ 3–503. Notice of dishonor

Notice of Dishonor

(a) The obligation of an indorser stated in Section 3–415(a) and the obligation of a drawer stated in Section 3–414(d) may not be enforced unless (i) the indorser or drawer is given notice of dishonor of the instrument complying with this section or (ii) notice of dishonor is excused under Section 3–504(b).

(b) Notice of dishonor may be given by any person; may be given by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; and is sufficient if it reasonably identifies the instrument and indicates that the instrument has been dishonored or has not been paid or accepted. Return of an instrument given to a bank for collection is sufficient notice of dishonor.

(c) Subject to Section 3–504(c), with respect to an instrument taken for collection by a collecting bank, notice of dishonor must be given (i) by the bank before midnight of the next banking day following the banking day on which the bank receives notice of dishonor of the instrument, or (ii) by any other person within 30 days following the day on which the person receives notice of dishonor. With respect to any other instrument, notice of dishonor must be given within 30 days following the day on which dishonor occurs.

§ 3–504. Excused presentment and notice of dishonor

Excused Presentment and Notice of Dishonor

(a) Presentment for payment or acceptance of an instrument is excused if (i) the person entitled to present the instrument cannot with reasonable diligence make presentment, (ii) the maker or acceptor has repudiated an obligation to pay the instrument or is dead or in insolvency proceedings, (iii) by the terms of the instrument presentment is not necessary to enforce the obligation of indorsers or the drawer, (iv) the drawer or indorser whose obligation is being enforced has waived presentment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be paid or accepted, or (v) the drawer instructed the drawee not to pay or accept the draft or the drawee was not obligated to the drawer to pay the draft.

(b) Notice of dishonor is excused if (i) by the terms of the instrument notice of dishonor is not necessary to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, or (ii) the party whose obligation is being enforced waived notice of dishonor. A waiver of presentment is also a waiver of notice of dishonor.

(c) Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused if the delay was caused by circumstances beyond the control of the person giving the notice and the person giving the notice exercised reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceased to operate.

§ 3–505. Evidence of dishonor

Evidence of Dishonor

(a) The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of any notice of dishonor stated:

(1) a document regular in form as provided in subsection (b) which purports to be a protest;

(2) a purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank, or presenting bank on or accompanying the instrument stating that acceptance or payment has been refused unless reasons for the refusal are stated and the reasons are not consistent with dishonor;

(3) a book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or collecting bank, kept in the usual course of business which shows dishonor, even if there is no evidence of who made the entry.

(b) A protest is a certificate of dishonor made by a United States consul or vice consul, or a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to that person. The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that presentment has been made or, if not made, the reason why it was not made, and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment. The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to some or all parties.

PART 6. DISCHARGE AND PAYMENT

§ 3–601. Discharge and effect of discharge

Discharge and Effect of Discharge

(a) The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is discharged as stated in this Article or by an act or agreement with the party which would discharge an obligation to pay money under a simple contract.

(b) Discharge of the obligation of a party is not effective against a person acquiring rights of a holder in due course of the instrument without notice of the discharge.

§ 3–602. Payment

Payment

(a) Subject to subsection (e), an instrument is paid to the extent payment is made by or on behalf of a party obliged to pay the instrument, and to a person entitled to enforce the instrument.

(b) Subject to subsection (e), a note is paid to the extent payment is made by or on behalf of a party obliged to pay the note to a person that formerly was entitled to enforce the note only if at the time of the payment the party obliged to pay has not received adequate notification that the note has been transferred and that payment is to be made to the transferee. A notification is adequate only if it is signed by the transferor or the transferee; reasonably identifies the transferred note; and provides an address at which payments subsequently are to be made. Upon request a transferee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the note has been transferred. Unless the transferee complies with the request a payment to the person that formerly was entitled to enforce the note is effective for purposes of subsection (c) even if the party obliged to pay the note has received a notification under this paragraph.

(c) Subject to subsection (e), to the extent of a payment under subsections (a) and (b), the obligation of the party obliged to pay the instrument is discharged even though payment is made with knowledge of a claim to the instrument under Section 3–306 by another person.

(d) Subject to subsection (e), a transferee, or any party that has acquired rights in the instrument directly or indirectly from a transferee, including any such party that has rights as a holder in due course, is deemed to have notice of any payment that is made under subsection (b) after the date that the note is transferred to the transferee but before the party obliged to pay the note receives adequate notification of the transfer.

(e) The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is not discharged under subsections (a) through (d) if:

(1) a claim to the instrument under Section 3–306 is enforceable against the party receiving payment and (i) payment is made with knowledge by the payor that payment is prohibited by injunction or similar process of a court of competent jurisdiction, or (ii) in the case of an instrument other than a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check, the party making payment accepted, from the person having a claim to the instrument, indemnity against loss resulting from refusal to pay the person entitled to enforce the instrument; or

(2) the person making payment knows that the instrument is a stolen instrument and pays a person it knows is in wrongful possession of the instrument

(f) As used in this section, "signed," with respect to a record that is not a writing, includes the attachment to or logical association with the record of an electronic symbol, sound, or process with the present intent to adopt or accept the record.

§ 3–603. Tender of payment

Tender of Payment

- (a) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the effect of tender is governed by principles of law applicable to tender of payment under a simple contract
- (b) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument and the tender is refused, there is discharge, to the extent of the amount of the tender, of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse with respect to the obligation to which the tender relates.
- (c) If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment stated in the instrument, the obligor is deemed to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

§ 3-604. Discharge by cancellation or renunciation

Discharge by Cancellation or Renunciation

- (a) A person entitled to enforce an instrument, with or without consideration, may discharge the obligation of a party to pay the instrument (i) by an intentional voluntary act, such as surrender of the instrument to the party, destruction, mutilation, or cancellation of the instrument, cancellation or striking out of the party's signature, or the addition of words to the instrument indicating discharge, or (ii) by agreeing not to sue or otherwise renouncing rights against the party by a signed record.
- (b) Cancellation or striking out of an indorsement pursuant to subsection (a) does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the indorsement.
- (c) In this section, "signed," with respect to a record that is not a writing, includes the attachment to or logical association with the record of an electronic symbol, sound, or process with fee present intent to adopt or accent the record.

§ 3-605. Discharge of secondary obligors

Discharge of Secondary Obligors

- (a) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument releases the obligation of a principal obligor in whole or in part and another party to the instrument is a secondary obligor with respect to the obligation of that principal obligor, the following rules apply:

(1) Any obligations of the principal obligor to the secondary obligor with respect to any previous payment by the secondary obligor are not affected. Unless the terms of the release preserve the secondary obligor's recourse, the principal obligor is discharged, to the extent of the release, from any other duties to the secondary obligor under this article.

(2) Unless the terms of the release provide that the person entitled to enforce the instrument retains the right to enforce the instrument against the secondary obligor, the secondary obligor is discharged to the same extent as the principal obligor from any unperformed portion of its obligation on the instrument. If the instrument is a check and the obligation of the secondary obligor is based on an indorsement of the check, the secondary obligor is discharged without regard to the language or circumstances of the discharge or other release.

(3) If the secondary obligor is not discharged under paragraph (2), the secondary obligor is discharged to the extent of the value of the consideration for the release, and to the extent that the release would otherwise cause the secondary obligor a loss.

(b) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument grants a principal obligor an extension of the time at which one or more payments are due on the instrument and another party to the instrument is a secondary obligor with respect to the obligation of that principal obligor, the following rules apply:

(1) Any obligations of the principal obligor to the secondary obligor with respect to any previous payment by the secondary obligor are not affected. Unless the terms of the extension preserve the secondary obligor's recourse, the extension correspondingly extends the time for performance of any other duties owed to the secondary obligor by the principal obligor under this article.

(2) The secondary obligor is discharged to the extent that the extension would otherwise cause the secondary obligor a loss.

(3) To the extent that the secondary obligor is not discharged under paragraph (2), the secondary obligor may perform its obligations to a person entitled to enforce the instrument as if the time for payment had not been extended or, unless the terms of the extension provide that the person entitled to enforce the instrument retains the right to enforce the instrument against the secondary obligor as if the time for payment had not been extended, treat the time for performance of its obligations as having been extended correspondingly.

(c) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to a modification of the obligation of a principal obligor other than a complete or partial release or an extension of the due date and another party to the instrument is a secondary obligor with respect to the obligation of that principal obligor, the following rules apply:

(1) Any obligations of the principal obligor to the secondary obligor with respect to any previous payment by the secondary obligor are not affected. The modification correspondingly modifies any other duties owed to the secondary obligor by the principal obligor under this article.

(2) The secondary obligor is discharged from any unperformed portion of its obligation to the extent that the modification would otherwise cause the secondary obligor a loss.

(3) To the extent that the secondary obligor is not discharged under paragraph (2), the secondary obligor may satisfy its obligation on the instrument as if the modification had not occurred, or treat its obligation on the instrument as having been modified correspondingly.

(d) If the obligation of a principal obligor is secured by an interest in collateral, another party to the instrument is a secondary obligor with respect to that obligation, and a person entitled to enforce the instrument impairs the value of the interest in collateral, the obligation of the secondary obligor is discharged to the extent of the impairment. The value of an interest in collateral is impaired to the extent the value of the interest is reduced to an amount less than the amount of the recourse of the secondary obligor, or the reduction in value of the interest causes an increase in the amount by which the amount of the recourse exceeds the value of the interest. For purposes of this subsection, impairing the value of an interest in collateral includes failure to obtain or maintain perfection or recordation of the interest in collateral, release of collateral without substitution of collateral of equal value or equivalent reduction of the underlying obligation, failure to perform a duty to preserve the value of collateral owed, under Article 9 or other law, to a debtor or other person secondarily liable, and failure to comply with applicable law in disposing of or otherwise enforcing the interest in collateral.

(e) A secondary obligor is not discharged under subsections (a)(3), (b), (c), or (d) unless the person entitled to enforce the instrument knows that the person is a secondary obligor or has notice under Section 3419(c) that the instrument was signed for accommodation.

(f) A secondary obligor is not discharged under this section if the secondary obligor consents to the event or conduct that is the basis of the discharge, or the instrument or a separate agreement of the party provides for waiver of discharge under this section specifically or by general language indicating that parties waive defenses based on suretyship or impairment of collateral. Unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, consent by the principal obligor to an act that would lead to a discharge under this section constitutes consent to that act by the secondary obligor if the secondary obligor controls the principal obligor or deals with the person entitled to enforce the instrument on behalf of the principal obligor.

(g) A release or extension preserves a secondary obligor's recourse if the terms of the release or extension provide that:

(1) the person entitled to enforce the instrument retains the right to enforce the instrument against the secondary obligor; and

(2) the recourse of the secondary obligor continues as if the release or extension had not been granted.

(h) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (i), a secondary obligor asserting discharge under this section has the burden of persuasion both with respect to the occurrence of the acts alleged to harm the secondary obligor and loss or prejudice caused by those acts.

(i) If the secondary obligor demonstrates prejudice caused by an impairment of its recourse, and the circumstances of the case indicate that the amount of loss is not reasonably susceptible of calculation or requires proof of facts that are not ascertainable, it is presumed that the act impairing recourse caused a loss or impairment equal to the liability of the secondary obligor on the instrument. In that event, the burden of persuasion as to any lesser amount of the loss is on the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

§ 4-101. Short title

Short Title

This Article may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Bank Deposits and Collections.

§ 4-102. Applicability

Applicability

(a) To the extent that items within this Article are also within Articles 3 and 8, they are subject to those Articles. If there is conflict, this Article governs Article 3, but Article 8 governs this Article.

(b) The liability of a bank for action or non-action with respect to an item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment, or collection is governed by the law of the place where the bank is located. In the case of action or non-action by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located.

§ 4-103. Variation by agreement—Measure of damages—Action constituting ordinary care

Variation by Agreement—Measure of Damages—Action Constituting Ordinary Care

(a) The effect of the provisions of this Article may be varied by agreement, but the parties to the agreement cannot disclaim a bank's responsibility for its lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or limit the measure of damages for the lack or failure. However, the parties may determine by agreement the standards by which the bank's responsibility is to be measured if those standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(b) Federal Reserve regulations and operating circulars, clearing-house rules, and the like have the effect of agreements under subsection (a), whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.

(c) Action or non-action approved by this Article or pursuant to Federal Reserve regulations or operating circulars is the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or non-action consistent with clearing-house rules and the like or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this Article, is prima facie the exercise of ordinary care.

(d) The specification or approval of certain procedures by this Article is not disapproval of other procedures that may be reasonable under the circumstances:

(e) The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount that could not have been realized by the exercise of ordinary care. If there is also bad faith it includes any other damages the party suffered as a proximate consequence.

§ 4-104. Definitions and index of definitions

Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) In this Article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Account" means any deposit or credit account with a bank, including a demand, time, savings, passbook, share draft, or like account, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit;

(2) "Afternoon" means the period of a day between noon and midnight;

(3) "Banking day" means the part of a day on which a bank is open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its banking functions;

(4) "Clearing house" means an association of banks or other payors regularly clearing items;

(5) "Customer" means a person having an account with a bank or for whom a bank has agreed to collect items, including a bank that maintains an account at another bank;

(6) "Documentary draft" means a draft to be presented for acceptance or payment if specified documents, certificated securities (Section 8–102) or instructions for uncertificated securities (Section 8–102), or other certificates, statements, or the like are to be received by the drawee or other payor before acceptance or payment of the draft;

(7) "Draft" means a draft as defined in Section 3–104 or an item, other than an instrument, that is an order,

(8) "Drawee" means a person ordered in a draft to make payment;

(9) "Item" means an instrument or a promise or order to pay money handled by a bank for collection or payment. The term does not include a payment order governed by Article 4A or a credit or debit card slip;

(10) "Midnight deadline" with respect to a bank is midnight on its next banking day following the banking day on which it receives the relevant item or notice or from which the time for taking action commences to run, whichever is later;

(11) "Settle" means to pay in cash, by clearing-house settlement, in a charge or credit or by remittance, or otherwise as agreed. A settlement may be either provisional or final;

(12) "Suspends payments" with respect to a bank means that it has been closed by order of the supervisory authorities, that a public officer has been appointed to take it over, or that it ceases or refuses to make payments in the ordinary course of business.

§ 4–105. Definitions of types of banks

Definitions of Types of Banks

In this Article:

- (1) "Bank" means a person engaged in the business of banking, including a savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or trust company;
- (2) "Depository bank" means the first bank to take an item even though it is also the payor bank, unless the item is presented for immediate payment over the counter;
- (3) "Payor bank" means a bank that is the drawee of a draft;
- (4) "Intermediary bank" means a bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depository or payor bank;
- (5) "Collecting bank" means a bank handling an item for collection except the payor bank;
- (6) "Presenting bank" means a bank presenting an item except a payor bank.

§ 4-106. Payable through or payable at bank: Collecting bank

Payable Through or Payable at Bank: Collecting Bank

- (a) If an item states that it is "payable through" a bank identified in the item, (i) the item designates the bank as a collecting bank and does not by itself authorize the bank to pay the item, and (ii) the item may be presented for payment only by or through the bank.

ALTERNATIVE A

- (b) If an item states that it is "payable at" a bank identified in the item, the item is equivalent to a draft drawn on the bank.

ALTERNATIVE B

- (b) If an item states that it is "payable at" a bank identified in the item, (i) the item designates the bank as a collecting bank and does not by itself authorize the bank to pay the item, and (ii) the item may be presented for payment only by or through the bank.
- (c) If a draft names a nonbank drawee and it is unclear whether a bank named in the draft is a co-drawee or a collecting bank, the bank is a collecting bank.

§ 4-107. Separate office of bank

Separate Office of Bank

A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders shall be given under this Article and under Article 3.

§ 4-108. Time of receipt of items

Time of Receipt of Items

(a) For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances, and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of 2 P.M. or later as a cutoff hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.

(b) An item or deposit of money received on any day after a cutoff hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day.

§ 4-109. Delays

Delays

(a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment of a specific item drawn on a payor other than a bank, and with or without the approval of any person involved, may waive, modify, or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this Act for a period not exceeding two additional banking days without discharge of drawers or indorsers or liability to its transferor or a prior party.

(b) Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this Act or by instructions is excused if (i) the delay is caused by interruption of communication or computer facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank, and (ii) the bank exercises such diligence as the circumstances require.

§ 4-110. Electronic presentment

Electronic Presentment

(a) "Agreement for electronic presentment" means an agreement, clearing-house rule, or Federal Reserve regulation or operating circular, providing that presentment of an item may be made by transmission of an image of an item or information describing the item ("presentment notice") rather than delivery of the item itself. The agreement may provide for procedures governing retention, presentment, payment, dishonor, and other matters concerning items subject to the agreement.

(b) Presentment of an item pursuant to an agreement for presentment is made when the presentment notice is received.

(c) If presentment is made by presentment notice, a reference to "item" or "check" in this Article means the presentment notice unless the context otherwise indicates.

§ 4–111. Statute of limitations

Statute of Limitations

An action to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this Article must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

PART 2. COLLECTION OF ITEMS: DEPOSITARY AND COLLECTING BANKS

§ 4–201. Status of collecting bank as agent and provisional status of credits—Applicability of article—item indorsed "pay any bank"

Status of Collecting Bank as Agent and Provisional Status of Credits—Applicability of Article—Item Indorsed "Pay Any Bank"

(a) Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and before the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final, the bank, with respect to an item, is an agent or sub-agent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of indorsement or lack of indorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank, such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and rights of recoupment or setoff. If an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment, collection, or return, the relevant provisions of this Article apply even though action of the parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it.

(b) After an item has been indorsed with the words "pay any bank" or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder until the item has been:

- (1) returned to the customer initiating collection; or
- (2) specially indorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank.

§ 4–202. Responsibility for collection or return—When action timely

Responsibility for Collection or Return—When Action Timely

(a) A collecting bank must exercise ordinary care in:

- (1) presenting an item or sending it for presentment;
- (2) sending notice of dishonor or nonpayment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank's transferor after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be;

(3) settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement; and

(4) notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.

(b) A collecting bank exercises ordinary care under subsection (a) by taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice, or settlement. Taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may constitute the exercise of ordinary care, but the bank has the burden of establishing timeliness.

(c) Subject to subsection (a)(1), a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake, or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in the possession of others or in transit.

§ 4–203. Effect of instructions

Effect of Instructions

Subject to Article 3 concerning conversion of instruments (Section 3–420) and restrictive indorsements (Section 3–206), only a collecting bank's transferor can give instructions that affect the bank or constitute notice to it, and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to the instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor.

§ 4–204. Methods of sending and presenting—Sending directly to payor bank

Methods of Sending and Presenting—Sending Directly to Payor Bank

(a) A collecting bank shall send items by a reasonably prompt method, taking into consideration relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of those items on hand, the cost of collection involved, and the method generally used by it or others to present those items.

(b) A collecting bank may send:

(1) an item directly to the payor bank;

(2) an item to a nonbank payor if authorized by its transferor; and

(3) an item other than documentary drafts to a nonbank payor, if authorized by Federal Reserve regulation or operating circular, clearing-house rule, or the like.

(c) Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank or other payor has requested that presentment be made.

§ 4–205. Depository bank holder of unindorsed item

Depository Bank Holder of Unindorsed Item

If a customer delivers an item to a depository bank for collection:

(1) the depository bank becomes a holder of the item at the time it receives the item for collection if the customer at the time of delivery was a holder of the item, whether or not the customer indorses the item, and, if the bank satisfies the other requirements of Section 3–302, it is a holder in due course; and

(2) the depository bank warrants to collecting banks, the payor bank or other payor, and the drawer that the amount of the item was paid to the customer or deposited to the customer's account.

§ 4–206. Transfer between banks

Transfer Between Banks

Any agreed method that identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank.

§ 4–207. Transfer warranties

Transfer Warranties

(a) A customer or collecting bank that transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration warrants to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that:

(1) the warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the item;

(2) all signatures on the item are authentic and authorized;

(3) the item has not been altered;

(4) the item is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment (Section 3–305(a)) of any party that can be asserted against the warrantor;

(5) the warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer, and

(6) with respect to any remotely-created consumer item, that the person on whose account the item is drawn authorized the issuance of the item in the amount for which the item is drawn.

(b) If an item is dishonored, a customer or collecting bank transferring the item and receiving settlement or other consideration is obliged to pay the amount due on the item (i) according to the terms of the item at the time it was transferred, or (ii) if the transfer was of an incomplete item, according to its terms when completed as stated in Sections 3–115 and 3–407. The obligation of a transferor is owed to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that takes the item in good faith. A transferor cannot disclaim its obligation under this subsection by an indorsement stating that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaiming liability.

(c) A person to whom the warranties under subsection (a) are made and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the item plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

(d) The warranties stated in subsection (a) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(e) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

§ 4–208. Presentment warranties

Presentment Warranties

(a) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, (i) the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and (ii) a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee that pays or accepts the draft in good faith that:

(1) the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;

(2) the draft has not been altered; and

(3) the warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft is unauthorized; and

(4) with respect to any remotely-created consumer item, that the person on whose account the item is drawn authorized the issuance of the item in the amount for which the item is drawn.

(b) A drawee making payment may recover from a warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft (i) breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor, and (ii) if the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from a warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

(c) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (a) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under Section 3-404 or 3-405 or the drawer is precluded under Section 3-406 or 4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.

(d) If (i) a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or (ii) any other item is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the item, and the item is paid, the person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the item warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the item, a person entitled to enforce the item or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the item. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.

(e) The warranties stated in subsections (a) and (d) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(f) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

§ 4-209. Encoding and retention warranties

Encoding and Retention Warranties

(a) A person who encodes information on or with respect to an item after issue warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that the information is correctly encoded. If the customer of a depository bank encodes, that bank also makes the warranty.

(b) A person who undertakes to retain an item pursuant to an agreement for electronic presentment warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that retention and presentment of the item comply with the agreement. If a customer of a depository bank undertakes to retain an item, that bank also makes this warranty.

(c) A person to whom warranties are made under this section and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

§ 4–210. Security interest of collecting bank in items, accompanying documents and proceeds

Security Interest of Collecting Bank in Items, Accompanying Documents and Proceeds

(a) A collecting bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:

(1) in case of an item deposited in an account, to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;

(2) in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given, whether or not the credit is drawn upon or there is a right of charge-back; or

(3) if it makes an advance on or against the item.

(b) If credit given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part, the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

(c) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents, and proceeds. So long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues to that extent and is subject to Article 9, but:

(1) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (Section 9–203(l)(a));

(2) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

(3) the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents, or proceeds.

§ 4–211. When bank gives value for purposes of holder in due course

When Bank Gives Value for Purposes of Holder in Due Course

For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, a bank has given value to the extent it has a security interest in an item, if the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of Section 3–302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.

§ 4–212. Presentment by notice of item not payable by, through, or at bank—Liability of drawer or indorser

Presentment by Notice of Item Not Payable By, Through, or At Bank—Liability of Drawer or Indorser

(a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through, or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a record providing notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under Section 3–501 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

(b) If presentment is made by notice and payment, acceptance, or request for compliance with a requirement under Section 3–501 is not received by the close of business on the day after maturity or, in the case of demand items, by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any drawer or indorser by sending it notice of the facts.

§ 4–213. Medium and time of settlement by bank

Medium and Time of Settlement by Bank

(a) With respect to settlement by a bank, the medium and time of settlement may be prescribed by Federal Reserve regulations or circulars, clearing-house rules, and the like, or agreement. In the absence of such prescription:

(1) the medium of settlement is cash or credit to an account in a Federal Reserve bank of or specified by the person to receive settlement; and

(2) the time of settlement, is:

(i) with respect to tender of settlement by cash, a cashier's check, or teller's check, when the cash or check is sent or delivered;

(ii) with respect to tender of settlement by credit in an account in a Federal Reserve Bank, when the credit is made;

(iii) with respect to tender of settlement by a credit or debit to an account in a bank, when the credit or debit is made or, in the case of tender of settlement by authority to charge an account, when the authority is sent or delivered; or

(iv) with respect to tender of settlement by a funds transfer, when payment is made pursuant to Section 4A–406(a) to the person receiving settlement.

(b) If the tender of settlement is not by a medium authorized by subsection (a) or the time of settlement is not fixed by subsection (a), no settlement occurs until the tender of settlement is accepted by the person receiving settlement.

(c) If settlement for an item is made by cashier's check or teller's check and the person receiving settlement, before its midnight deadline:

(1) presents or forwards the check for collection, settlement is final when the check is finally paid;
or

(2) fails to present or forward the check for collection, settlement is final at the midnight deadline of the person receiving settlement.

(d) If settlement for an item is made by giving authority to charge the account of the bank giving settlement in the bank receiving settlement, settlement is final when the charge is made by the bank receiving settlement if there are funds available in the account for the amount of the item.

§ 4-214. Right of charge-back or refund—Liability of collecting bank—Return of item

Right of Charge-Back or Refund—Liability of Collecting Bank—Return of Item

(a) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank, or otherwise to receive settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account, or obtain refund from its customer, whether or not it is able to return the item, if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. If the return or notice is delayed beyond the bank's midnight deadline or a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts, the bank may revoke the settlement, charge back the credit, or obtain refund from its customer, but it is liable for any loss resulting from the delay. These rights to revoke, charge back, and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final.

(b) A collecting bank returns an item when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to its instructions.

(c) A depository bank that is also the payor may charge back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (Section 4-301).

(d) The right to charge back is not affected by:

(1) previous use of a credit given for the item; or

(2) failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item, but a bank so failing remains liable.

(e) A failure to charge back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(f) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in foreign money, the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund must be calculated on the basis of the bank-offered spot rate for the foreign money prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course.

§ 4-215. Final payment of item by payor bank—When provisional debits and credits become final—When certain credits become available for withdrawal

Final Payment of Item by Payor Bank—When Provisional Debits and Credits Become Final—When Certain Credits Become Available for Withdrawal

(a) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has first done any of the following:

(1) paid the item in cash;

(2) settled for the item without having a right to revoke the settlement under statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement; or

(3) made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement.

(b) If provisional settlement for an item does not become final, the item is not finally paid.

(c) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(d) If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final, the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(e) Subject to (i) applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and (ii) any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in a customer's account becomes available for withdrawal as of right:

(1) if the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item, when the settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to receive return of the item and the item has not been received within that time;

(2) if the bank is both the depositary bank and the payor bank, and the item is finally paid, at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item.

(f) Subject to applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and any right of a bank to apply a deposit to an obligation of the depositor, a deposit of money becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day after receipt of the deposit.

§ 4-216. Insolvency and preference

Insolvency and Preference

(a) If an item is in or comes into the possession of a payor or collecting bank that suspends payment and the item has not been finally paid, the item must be returned by the receiver, trustee, or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.

(b) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(c) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement's becoming final if the finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events.

(d) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item, which settlement is or becomes final and the bank suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which settlement is or becomes Final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the collecting bank.

PART 3

COLLECTION OF ITEMS: PAYOR BANKS

§ 4-301. Posting—Recovery of payment by return of items—Time of dishonor—Return of items by payor bank

Posting—Recovery of Payment by Return of Items—Time of Dishonor—Return of Items by Payor Bank

(a) If a payor bank settles for a demand item other than a documentary draft presented otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter before midnight of the banking day of receipt, the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover the settlement if, before it has made final payment and before its midnight deadline, it

(1) returns the item;

(2) returns an image of the item, if the party to which the return is made has entered

(3) into an agreement to accept an image as a return of the item and the image is returned in accordance with that agreement; or sends a record providing notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is unavailable for return.

(b) If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books, it may return the item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in subsection (a).

(c) Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent, an item is dishonored at the time when for purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent in accordance with this section.

(d) An item is returned:

(1) as to an item presented through a clearing house, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearing house or is sent or delivered in accordance with clearing-house rules; or

(2) in all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to instructions.

§ 4-302. Payor's bank responsibility for late return of item

Payor's Bank Responsibility for Late Return of Item

(a) If an item is presented to and received by a payor bank, the bank is accountable for the amount of:

(1) a demand item, other than a documentary draft, whether properly payable or not, if the bank, in any case in which it is not also the depository bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, whether or not it is also the depository bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline; or

(2) any other properly payable item unless, within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item, the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.

(b) The liability of a payor bank to pay an item pursuant to subsection (a) is subject to defenses based on breach of a presentment warranty (Section 4-208) or proof that the person seeking enforcement of the liability presented or transferred the item for the purpose of defrauding the payor bank.

§ 4-303. When items subject to notice, stop-payment order, legal process, or setoff—Order in which items may be changed or certified

When Items Subject to Notice, Stop-Payment Order, Legal Process, or Setoff—Order in Which Items May Be Changed or Certified

(a) Any knowledge, notice, or stop-payment order received by, legal process served upon, or setoff exercised by a payor bank comes too late to terminate, suspend, or modify the bank's right or duty to pay an item or to charge its customer's account for the item if the knowledge, notice, stop-payment order, or legal process is received or served and a reasonable time for the bank to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the earliest of the following:

(1) the bank accepts or certifies the item;

(2) the bank pays the item in cash;

(3) the bank settles for the item without having a right to revoke the settlement under statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement; the bank becomes accountable for the amount of the item under Section 4-302

(4) dealing with the payor bank's responsibility for late return of items; or

(5) with respect to checks, a cutoff hour no earlier than one hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check and no later than the close of that next banking day or, if no cutoff hour is fixed, the close of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check.

(b) Subject to subsection (a), items may be accepted, paid, certified, or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order.

PART 4. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PAYOR BANK AND ITS CUSTOMER

§ 4-401. When bank may charge customer's account

When Bank May Charge Customer's Account

(a) A bank may charge against the account of a customer an item that is properly payable from the account even though the charge creates an overdraft. An item is properly payable if it is authorized by the customer and is in accordance with any agreement between the customer and bank.

(b) A customer is not liable for the amount of an overdraft if the customer neither signed the item nor benefited from the proceeds of the item.

(c) A bank may charge against the account of a customer a check that is otherwise properly payable from the account, even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless the customer has given notice to the bank of the postdating describing the check with reasonable certainty. The notice is effective for the period stated in Section 4-403(b) for stop-payment orders, and must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the bank takes any action with respect to the check described in Section 4-303. If a bank charges against the account of a customer a check before the date stated in the notice of postdating, the bank is liable for damages for the loss resulting from its act. The loss may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items under Section 4-402.

(d) A bank that in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to:

(1) the original terms of the altered item; or

(2) the terms of the completed item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper.

§ 4-402. Bank's liability to customer for wrongful dishonor, time of determining insufficiency of account

Bank's Liability to Customer for Wrongful Dishonor, Time of Determining Insufficiency of Account

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, a payor bank wrongfully dishonors an item if it dishonors an item that is properly payable, but a bank may dishonor an item that would create an overdraft unless it has agreed to pay the overdraft.

(b) A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. Liability is limited to actual damages proved and may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case.

(c) A payor bank's determination of the customer's account balance on which a decision to dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is based may be made at any time between the time the item is received by the payor bank and the time that the payor bank returns the item or gives notice in lieu of return, and no more than one determination need be made. If, at the election of the payor bank, a subsequent balance determination is made for the purpose of reevaluating the bank's decision to dishonor the item, the account balance at that time is determinative of whether a dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is wrongful.

§ 4-403. Customer's right to stop payment—Burden of proof of loss

Customer's Right to Stop Payment—Burden of Proof of Loss

(a) A customer or any person authorized to draw on the account if there is more than one person may stop payment of any item drawn on the customer's account or close the account by an order to the bank describing the item or account with reasonable certainty received at a time and in a manner that affords the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before any action by the bank with respect to the item described in Section 4-303. If the signature of more than one person is required to draw on an account, any of these persons may stop payment or close the account.

(b) A stop-payment order is effective for six months, but it lapses after 14 calendar days if the original order was oral and was not confirmed in a record within that period. A stop-payment order may be renewed for additional six-month periods by a record given to the bank within a period during which the stop-payment order is effective.

(c) The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a stop-payment order or order to close an account is on the customer. The loss from payment of an item contrary to a stop-payment order may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items under Section 4-402.

§ 4-404. Bank not obliged to pay check more than six months old

Bank Not Obligated to Pay Check More Than Six Months Old

A bank is under no obligation to a customer having a checking account to pay a check, other than a certified check, which is presented more than six months after its date, but it may charge its customer's account for a payment made thereafter in good faith.

§ 4-405. Death or incompetence of customer

Death or Incompetence of Customer

(a) A payor or collecting bank's authority to accept, pay, or collect an item or to account for proceeds of its collection, if otherwise effective, is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an adjudication of incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes the authority to accept, pay, collect, or account until the bank knows of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and has reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(b) Even with knowledge, a bank may for 10 days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or before that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account.

§ 4-406. Customer's duty to discover and report unauthorized signature or alteration

Customer's Duty to Discover and Report Unauthorized Signature or Alteration

(a) A bank that sends or makes available to a customer a statement of account showing payment of items for the account shall either return or make available to the customer the items paid or provide information in the statement of account sufficient to allow the customer reasonably to identify the items paid. The statement of account provides sufficient information if the item is described by item number, amount, and date of payment.

(b) If the items are not returned to the customer, the person retaining the items shall either retain the items or, if the items are destroyed, maintain the capacity to furnish legible copies of the items until the expiration of seven years after receipt of the items. A customer may request an item from the bank that paid the item, and that bank must provide in a reasonable time either the item or, if the item has been destroyed or is not otherwise obtainable, a legible copy of the item.

(c) If a bank sends or makes available a statement of account or items pursuant to subsection (a), the customer must exercise reasonable promptness in examining the statement or the items to determine whether any payment was not authorized because of an alteration of an item or because a purported signature by or on behalf of the customer was not authorized. If, based on the statement or items provided, the customer should reasonably have discovered the unauthorized payment, the customer must promptly notify the bank of the relevant facts.

(d) If the bank proves that the customer failed, with respect to an item, to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by subsection (c), the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank:

(1) the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item, if the bank also proves that it suffered a loss by reason of the failure; and

(2) the customer's unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrongdoer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank if the payment was made before the bank received notice from the customer of the unauthorized signature or alteration and after the customer had been afforded a reasonable period of time, not exceeding 30 days, in which to examine the item or statement of account and notify the bank.

(e) If subsection (d) applies and the customer proves that the bank failed to exercise ordinary care in paying the item and that the failure substantially contributed to loss, the loss is allocated between the customer precluded and the bank asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of the customer to comply with subsection (c) and the failure of the bank to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss. If the customer proves that the bank did not pay the item in good faith, the preclusion under subsection (d) does not apply.

(f) Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank, a customer who does not within one (1) year after the statement or items are made available to the customer (subsection (a)) discover and report the customer's unauthorized signature on or any alteration on the item is precluded from asserting against the bank the unauthorized signature or alteration. If there is a preclusion under this subsection, the payor bank may not recover for breach of warranty under Section 4-208 with respect to the unauthorized signature or alteration to which the preclusion applies.

§ 4-407. Payor bank's right to subrogation on improper payment

Payor Bank's Right to Subrogation On Improper Payment

If a payor bank has paid an item over the order of the drawer or maker to stop payment, or after an account has been closed, or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank is subrogated to the rights

(1) of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker;

(2) of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose; and

(3) of the drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose.

PART 5. COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS

§ 4-501. Handling of documentary drafts—Duty to send for presentment and to notify customer of dishonor

Handling of Documentary Drafts—Duty to Send for Presentment and to Notify Customer of Dishonor

A bank that takes a documentary draft for collection shall present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and, upon learning that the draft has not been paid or accepted in due course, shall seasonably notify its customer of the fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right.

§ 4-502. Presentment of "on arrival" drafts

Presentment of "On Arrival" Drafts

If a draft or the relevant instructions require presentment "on arrival", "when goods arrive" or the like, the collecting bank need not present until in its judgment a reasonable time for arrival of the goods has expired. Refusal to pay or accept because the goods have not arrived is not dishonor; the bank must notify its transferor of the refusal but need not present the draft again until it is instructed to do so or learns of the arrival of the goods.

§ 4-503. Responsibility of presenting bank for documents and goods—Report of reasons for dishonor—Referee in case of need

Responsibility of Presenting Bank for Documents and Goods—Report of Reasons for Dishonor—Referee in Case of Need

Unless otherwise instructed and except as provided in Article 5, a bank presenting a documentary draft:

(1) must deliver the documents to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment; and

(2) upon dishonor, either in the case of presentment for acceptance or presentment for payment, may seek and follow instructions from any referee in case of need designated in the draft or, if the presenting bank does not choose to utilize the referee's services, it must use diligence and good faith to ascertain the reason for dishonor, must notify its transferor of the dishonor and of the results of its effort to ascertain the reasons therefor, and must request instructions.

However the presenting bank is under no obligation with respect to goods represented by the documents except to follow any reasonable instructions seasonably received; it has a right to reimbursement for any expense incurred in following instructions and to prepayment of or indemnity for those expenses.

§ 4-504. Privilege of presenting bank to deal with goods—Security interest for expenses

Privilege of Presenting Bank to Deal With Goods—Security Interest for Expenses

(a) A presenting bank that, following the dishonor of a documentary draft, has seasonably "requested instructions" but does not receive them within a reasonable time may store, sell, or otherwise deal with the goods in any reasonable manner.

(b) For its reasonable expenses incurred by action under subsection (a) the presenting bank has a lien upon the goods or their proceeds, which may be foreclosed in the same manner as an unpaid seller's lien.

REVISED ARTICLE 5

LETTERS OF CREDIT

§ 5-101. Short title

Short Title

This article may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Letters of Credit.

§ 5-102. Definitions

Definitions

(a) In this article:

(1) "Adviser" means a person who, at the request of the issuer, a confirmer, or another adviser, notifies or requests another adviser to notify the beneficiary that a letter of credit has been issued, confirmed, or amended.

(2) "Applicant" means a person at whose request or for whose account a letter of credit is issued. The term includes a person who requests an issuer to issue a letter of credit on behalf of another if the person making the request undertakes an obligation to reimburse the issuer.

(3) "Beneficiary" means a person who under the terms of a letter of credit is entitled to have its complying presentation honored. The term includes a person to whom drawing rights have been transferred under a transferable letter of credit.

(4) "Confirmer" means a nominated person who undertakes, at the request or with the consent of the issuer, to honor a presentation under a letter of credit issued by another.

(5) "Dishonor" of a letter of credit means failure timely to honor or to take an interim action, such as acceptance of a draft, that may be required by the letter of credit.

(6) "Document" means a draft or other demand, document of title, investment security, certificate, invoice, or other record, statement, or representation of fact, law, right, or opinion (i) which is presented in a written or other medium permitted by the letter of credit or, unless prohibited by the letter of credit, by the standard practice referred to in Section 5-108(e) and (ii) which is capable of being examined for compliance with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit. A document may not be oral.

(7) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(8) "Honor" of a letter of credit means performance of the issuer's undertaking in the letter of credit to pay or deliver an item of value. Unless the letter of credit otherwise provides, "honor" occurs

(i) upon payment,

(ii) if the letter of credit provides for acceptance, upon acceptance of a draft and, at maturity, its payment, or

(iii) if the letter of credit provides for incurring a deferred obligation, upon incurring the obligation and, at maturity, its performance.

(9) "Issuer" means a bank or other person that issues a letter of credit, but does not include an individual who makes an engagement for personal, family, or household purposes.

(10) "Letter of credit" means a definite undertaking that satisfies the requirements of Section 5-104 by an issuer to a beneficiary at the request or for the account of an applicant or, in the case of a financial institution, to itself or for its own account, to honor a documentary presentation by payment or delivery of an item of value.

(11) "Nominated person" means a person whom the issuer (i) designates or authorizes to pay, accept, negotiate, or otherwise give value under a letter of credit and (ii) undertakes by agreement or custom and practice to reimburse.

(12) "Presentation" means delivery of a document to an issuer or nominated person for honor or giving of value under a letter of credit.

(13) "Presenter" means a person making a presentation as or on behalf of a beneficiary or nominated person.

(14) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium, or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(15) "Successor of a beneficiary" means a person who succeeds to substantially all of the rights of a beneficiary by operation of law, including a corporation with or into which the beneficiary has been merged or consolidated, an administrator, executor, personal representative, trustee in bankruptcy, debtor in possession, liquidator, and receiver.

(b) Definitions in other Articles applying to this article and the sections in which they appear are:

"Accept" or "Acceptance" Section 3–409

"Value" Sections 3–303, 4–211

(c) Article 1 contains certain additional general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

§ 5–103. Scope

Scope

(a) This article applies to letters of credit and to certain rights and obligations arising out of transactions involving letters of credit

(b) The statement of a rule in this article does not by itself require, imply, or negate application of the same or a different rule to a situation not provided for, or to a person not specified, in this article.

(c) With the exception of this subsection, subsections (a) and (d), Sections 5–102(a)(9) and (10), 5–106(d), and 5–114(d), and except to the extent prohibited in Sections 1–102(3) and 5–117(d), the effect of this article may be varied by agreement or by a provision stated or incorporated by reference in an undertaking. A term in an agreement or undertaking generally excusing liability or generally limiting remedies for failure to perform obligations is not sufficient to vary obligations prescribed by this article.

(d) Rights and obligations of an issuer to a beneficiary or a nominated person under a letter of credit are independent of the existence, performance, or nonperformance of a contract or arrangement out of which the letter of credit arises or which underlies it, including contracts or arrangements between the issuer and the applicant and between the applicant and the beneficiary.

§ 5–104. Formal requirements

Formal Requirements

A letter of credit, confirmation, advice, transfer, amendment, or cancellation may be issued in any form that is a record and is authenticated (i) by a signature or (ii) in accordance with the agreement of the parties or the standard practice referred to in Section 5–108(e).

§ 5–105. Consideration

Consideration

Consideration is not required to issue, amend, transfer, or cancel a letter of credit, advice, or confirmation.

§ 5–106. Issuance, amendment, cancellation, and duration

Issuance, Amendment, Cancellation, and Duration

(a) A letter of credit is issued and becomes enforceable according to its terms against the issuer when the issuer sends or otherwise transmits it to the person requested to advise or to the beneficiary. A letter of credit is revocable only if it so provides.

(b) After a letter of credit is issued, rights and obligations of a beneficiary, applicant, confirmer, and issuer are not affected by an amendment or cancellation to which that . person has not consented except to the extent the letter of credit provides that it is revocable or that the issuer may amend or cancel the letter of credit without that consent.

(c) If there is no stated expiration date or other provision that determines its duration, a letter of credit expires one year after its stated date of issuance or, if none is stated, after the date on which it is issued.

(d) A letter of credit that states that it is perpetual expires five years after its stated date of issuance, or if none is stated, after the date on which it is issued.

§ 5–107. Confirmer, nominated person, and adviser

Confirmer, Nominated Person, and Adviser

(a) A confirmer is directly obligated on a letter of credit and has the rights and obligations of an issuer to the extent of its confirmation. The confirmer also has rights against and obligations to the issuer as if the issuer were an applicant and the confirmer had issued the letter of credit at the request and for the account of the issuer.

(b) A nominated person who is not a confirmer is not obligated to honor or otherwise give value for a presentation.

(c) A person requested to advise may decline to act as an adviser. An adviser that is not a confirmer is not obligated to honor or give value for a presentation. An adviser undertakes to the issuer and to the beneficiary accurately to advise the terms of the letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice received by that person and undertakes to the beneficiary to check the apparent authenticity of the request to advise. Even if the advice is inaccurate, the letter of credit, confirmation, or amendment is enforceable as issued.

(d) A person who notifies a transferee beneficiary of the terms of a letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice has the rights and obligations of an adviser under subsection (c). The terms in the notice to the transferee beneficiary may differ from the terms in any notice to the transferor beneficiary to the extent permitted by the letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice received by the person who so notifies.

§ 5–108. Issuer's rights and obligations

Issuer's Rights and Obligations

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5–109, an issuer shall honor a presentation that, as determined by the standard practice referred to in subsection (e), appears on its face strictly to comply with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5–113 and unless otherwise agreed with the applicant, an issuer shall dishonor a presentation that does not appear so to comply.

(b) An issuer has a reasonable time after presentation, but not beyond the end of the seventh business day of the issuer after the day of its receipt of documents:

(1) to honor,

(2) if the letter of credit provides for honor to be completed more than seven business days after presentation, to accept a draft or incur a deferred obligation, or

(3) to give notice to the presenter of discrepancies in the presentation.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), an issuer is precluded from asserting as a basis for dishonor any discrepancy if timely notice is not given, or any discrepancy not stated in the notice if timely notice is given.

(d) Failure to give the notice specified in subsection (b) or to mention fraud, forgery, or expiration in the notice does not preclude the issuer from asserting as a basis for dishonor fraud or forgery as described in Section 5–109(a) or expiration of the letter of credit before presentation.

(e) An issuer shall observe standard practice of financial institutions that regularly issue letters of credit. Determination of the issuer's observance of the standard practice is a matter of interpretation for the court. The court shall offer the parties a reasonable opportunity to present evidence of the standard practice.

(f) An issuer is not responsible for:

(1) the performance or nonperformance of the underlying contract, arrangement, or transaction,

(2) an act or omission of others, or

(3) observance or knowledge of the usage of a particular trade other than the standard practice referred to in subsection (e).

(g) If an undertaking constituting a letter of credit under Section 5–102(a)(10) contains nondocumentary conditions, an issuer shall disregard the nondocumentary conditions and treat them as if they were not stated.

(h) An issuer that has dishonored a presentation shall return the documents or hold them at the disposal of, and send advice to that effect to, the presenter.

(i) An issuer that has honored a presentation as permitted or required by this article:

(1) is entitled to be reimbursed by the applicant in immediately available funds not later than the date of its payment of funds;

(2) takes the documents free of claims of the beneficiary or presenter,

(3) is precluded from asserting a right of recourse on a draft under Sections 3–414 and 3–415;

(4) except as otherwise provided in Sections 5–110 and 5–117, is precluded from restitution of money paid or other value given by mistake to the extent the mistake concerns discrepancies in the documents or tender which are apparent on the face of the presentation; and

(5) is discharged to the extent of its performance under the letter of credit unless the issuer honored a presentation in which a required signature of a beneficiary was forged.

§ 5–109. Fraud and forgery

Fraud and Forgery

(a) If a presentation is made that appears on its face strictly to comply with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit, but a required document is forged or materially fraudulent, or honor of the presentation would facilitate a material fraud by the beneficiary on the issuer or applicant:

(1) the issuer shall honor the presentation, if honor is demanded by (i) a nominated person who has given value in good faith and without notice of forgery or material fraud, (ii) a confirmer who has honored its confirmation in good faith, (iii) a holder in due course of a draft drawn under the letter of credit which was taken after acceptance by the issuer or nominated person, or (iv) an assignee of the issuer's or nominated person's deferred obligation that was taken for value and without notice of forgery or material fraud after the obligation was incurred by the issuer or nominated person; and

(2) the issuer, acting in good faith, may honor or dishonor the presentation in any other case.

(b) If an applicant claims that a required document is forged or materially fraudulent or that honor of the presentation would facilitate a material fraud by the beneficiary on the issuer or applicant, a court of competent jurisdiction may temporarily or permanently enjoin the issuer from honoring a presentation or grant similar relief against the issuer or other persons only if the court finds that:

(1) the relief is not prohibited under the law applicable to an accepted draft or deferred obligation incurred by the issuer;

(2) a beneficiary, issuer, or nominated person who may be adversely affected is adequately protected against loss that it may suffer because the relief is granted;

(3) all of the conditions to entitle a person to the relief under the law of this State have been met; and

(4) on the basis of the information submitted to the court, the applicant is more likely than not to succeed under its claim of forgery or material fraud and the person demanding honor does not qualify for protection under subsection (a)(1).

§ 5-110. Warranties

Warranties

(a) If its presentation is honored, the beneficiary warrants:

(1) to the issuer, any other person to whom presentation is made, and the applicant that there is no fraud or forgery of the kind described in Section 5-109(a); and

(2) to the applicant that the drawing does not violate any agreement between the applicant and beneficiary or any other agreement intended by them to be augmented by the letter of credit.

(b) The warranties in subsection (a) are in addition to warranties arising under Article 3, 4, 7, and 8 because of the presentation or transfer of documents covered by any of those articles.

§ 5–111. Remedies

Remedies

(a) If an issuer wrongfully dishonors or repudiates its obligation to pay money under a letter of credit before presentation, the beneficiary, successor, or nominated person presenting on its own behalf may recover from the issuer the amount that is the subject of the dishonor or repudiation. If the issuer's obligation under the letter of credit is not for the payment of money, the claimant may obtain specific performance or, at the claimant's election, recover an amount equal to the value of performance from the issuer. In either case, the claimant may also recover incidental but not consequential damages. The claimant is not obligated to take action to avoid damages that might be due from the issuer under this subsection. If, although not obligated to do so, the claimant avoids damages, the claimant's recovery from the issuer must be reduced by the amount of damages avoided. The issuer has the burden of proving the amount of damages avoided. In the case of repudiation the claimant need not present any document.

(b) If an issuer wrongfully dishonors a draft or demand presented under a letter of credit or honors a draft or demand in breach of its obligation to the applicant, the applicant may recover damages resulting from the breach, including incidental but not consequential damages, less any amount saved as a result of the breach.

(c) If an adviser or nominated person other than a confirmer breaches an obligation under this article or an issuer breaches an obligation not covered in subsection (a) or (b), a person to whom the obligation is owed may recover damages resulting from the breach, including incidental but not consequential damages, less any amount saved as a result of the breach. To the extent of the confirmation, a confirmer has the liability of an issuer specified in this subsection and subsections (a) and (b).

(d) An issuer, nominated person, or adviser who is found liable under subsection (a), (b), or (c) shall pay interest on the amount owed thereunder from the date of wrongful dishonor or other appropriate date.

(e) Reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses of litigation must be awarded to the prevailing party in an action in which a remedy is sought under this article.

(f) Damages that would otherwise be payable by a party for breach of an obligation under this article may be liquidated by agreement or undertaking, but only in an amount or by a formula that is reasonable in light of the harm anticipated.

§ 5–112. Transfer of letter of credit

Transfer of Letter of Credit

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5–113, unless a letter of credit provides that it is transferable, the right of a beneficiary to draw or otherwise demand performance under a letter of credit may not be transferred

(b) Even if a letter of credit provides that it is transferable, the issuer may refuse to recognize or carry out a transfer if:

(1) the transfer would violate applicable law; or

(2) the transferor or transferee has failed to comply with any requirement stated in the letter of credit or any other requirement relating to transfer imposed by the issuer which is within the standard practice referred to in Section 5–108(e) or is otherwise reasonable under the circumstances.

§ 5–113. Transfer by operation of law

Transfer by Operation of Law

(a) A successor of a beneficiary may consent to amendments, sign and present documents, and receive payment or other items of value in the name of the beneficiary without disclosing its status as a successor.

(b) A successor of a beneficiary may consent to amendments, sign and present documents, and receive payment or other items of value in its own name as the disclosed successor of the beneficiary. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), an issuer shall recognize a disclosed successor of a beneficiary as beneficiary in full substitution for its predecessor upon compliance with the requirements for recognition by the issuer of a transfer of drawing rights by operation of law under the standard practice referred to in Section 5–108(e) or, in the absence of such a practice, compliance with other reasonable procedures sufficient to protect the issuer.

(c) An issuer is not obliged to determine whether a purported successor is a successor of a beneficiary or whether the signature of a purported successor is genuine or authorized.

(d) Honor of a purported successor's apparently complying presentation under subsection (a) or (b) has the consequences specified in Section 5–108(i) even if the purported successor is not the successor of a beneficiary. Documents signed in the name of the beneficiary or of a disclosed successor by a person who is neither the beneficiary nor the successor of the beneficiary are forged documents for the purposes of Section 5–109.

(e) An issuer whose rights of reimbursement are not covered by subsection (d) or substantially similar law and any confirmer or nominated person may decline to recognize a presentation under subsection (b).

(f) A beneficiary whose name is changed after the issuance of a letter of credit has the same rights and obligations as a successor of a beneficiary under this section.

§ 5–114. Assignment of proceeds

Assignment of Proceeds

(a) In this section, "proceeds of a letter of credit" means the cash, check, accepted draft, or other item of value paid or delivered upon honor or giving of value by the issuer or any nominated person under the letter of credit. The term does not include a beneficiary's drawing rights or documents presented by the beneficiary.

(b) A beneficiary may assign its right to part or all of the proceeds of a letter of credit. The beneficiary may do so before presentation as a present assignment of its right to receive proceeds contingent upon its compliance with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit

(c) An issuer or nominated person need not recognize an assignment of proceeds of a letter of credit until it consents to the assignment.

(d) An issuer or nominated person has no obligation to give or withhold its consent to an assignment of proceeds of a letter of credit, but consent may not be unreasonably withheld if the assignee possesses and exhibits the letter of credit and presentation of the letter of credit is a condition to honor.

(e) Rights of a transferee beneficiary or nominated person are independent of the beneficiary's assignment of the proceeds of a letter of credit and are superior to the assignee's right to the proceeds.

(f) Neither the rights recognized by this section between an assignee and an issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person nor the issuer's or nominated person's payment of proceeds to an assignee or a third person affect the rights between the assignee and any person other than the issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person. The mode of creating and perfecting a security interest in or granting an assignment of a beneficiary's rights to proceeds is governed by Article 9 or other law. Against persons other than the issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person, the rights and obligations arising upon the creation of a security interest or other assignment of a beneficiary's right to proceeds and its perfection are governed by Article 9 or other law.

§ 5–115. Statute of limitations

Statute of Limitations

An action to enforce a right or obligation arising under this article must be commenced within one year after the expiration date of the relevant letter of credit or one year after the [claim for relief] [cause of action] accrues, whichever occurs later. A [claim for relief] [cause of action] accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party's lack of knowledge of the breach.

§ 5–116. Choice of law and forum

Choice of Law and Forum

(a) The liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction chosen by an agreement in the form of a record signed or otherwise authenticated by the affected parties in the manner provided in Section 5–104 or by a provision in the person's letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking. The jurisdiction whose law is chosen need not bear any relation to the transaction.

(b) Unless subsection (a) applies, the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the person is located. The person is considered to be located at the address indicated in the person's undertaking. If more than one address is indicated, the person is considered to be located at the address from which the person's undertaking was issued. For the purpose of jurisdiction, choice of law, and recognition of interbranch letters of credit, but not enforcement of a judgment, all branches of a bank are considered separate juridical entities and a bank is considered to be located at the place where its relevant branch is considered to be located under this subsection.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser is governed by any rules of custom or practice, such as the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, to which the letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking is expressly made subject. If (i) this article would govern the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser under subsection (a) or (b), (ii) the relevant undertaking incorporates rules of custom or practice, and (iii) there is conflict between this article and those rules as applied to that undertaking, those rules govern except to the extent of any conflict with the nonvariable provisions specified in Section 5–103(c).

(d) If there is conflict between this article and Article 3, 4, 4A, or 9, this article governs.

(e) The forum for settling disputes arising out of an undertaking within this article may be chosen in the manner and with the binding effect that governing law may be chosen in accordance with subsection (a).

§ 5–117. Subrogation of issuer, applicant, and nominated person

Subrogation of Issuer, Applicant, and Nominated Person

(a) An issuer that honors a beneficiary's presentation is subrogated to the rights of the beneficiary to the same extent as if the issuer were a secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the beneficiary and of the applicant to the same extent as if the issuer were the secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the applicant.

(b) An applicant that reimburses an issuer is subrogated to the rights of the issuer against any beneficiary, presenter, or nominated person to the same extent as if the applicant were the secondary obligor of the obligations owed to the issuer and has the rights of subrogation of the issuer to the rights of the beneficiary stated in subsection (a).

(c) A nominated person who pays or gives value against a draft or demand presented under a letter of credit is subrogated to the rights of:

(1) the issuer against the applicant to the same extent as if the nominated person were a secondary obligor of the obligation owed to the issuer by the applicant;

(2) the beneficiary to the same extent as if the nominated person were a secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the beneficiary; and

(3) the applicant to same extent as if the nominated person were a secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the applicant.

(d) Notwithstanding any agreement or term to the contrary, the rights of subrogation stated in subsections (a) and (b) do not arise until the issuer honors the letter of credit or otherwise pays and the rights in subsection (c) do not arise until the nominated person pays or otherwise gives value. Until then, the issuer, nominated person, and the applicant do not derive under this section present or prospective rights forming the basis of a claim, defense, or excuse.

Short Title

This article may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Documents of Title.

§ 7–102. Definitions and index of definitions

Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Bailee" means a person that by a warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title acknowledges possession of goods and contracts to deliver them.

(2) "Carrier" means a person that issues a bill of lading.

(3) "Consignee" means a person named in a bill of lading to which or to whose order the bill promises delivery.

(4) "Consignor" means a person named in a bill of lading as the person from which the goods have been received for shipment.

(5) "Delivery order" means a record that contains an order to deliver goods directed to a warehouse, carrier, or other person that in the ordinary course of business issues warehouse receipts or bills of lading.

(6) "Good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

(7) "Goods" means all things that are treated as movable for the purposes of a contract for storage or transportation.

(8) "Issuer" means a bailee that issues a document of title or, in the case of an unaccepted delivery order, the person that orders the possessor of goods to deliver. The term includes a person for which an agent or employee purports to act in issuing a document if the agent or employee has real or apparent authority to issue documents, even if the issuer did not receive any goods, the goods were misdescribed, or in any other respect the agent or employee violated the issuer's instructions.

(9) "Person entitled under the document" means the holder, in the case of a negotiable document of title, or the person to which delivery of the goods is to be made by the terms of, or pursuant to instructions in a record under, a nonnegotiable document of title.

(10) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(11) "Sign" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

(A) to execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or

(B) to attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

(12) "Shipper" means a person that enters into a contract of transportation with a carrier.

(13) "Warehouse" means a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(b) Definitions in other articles applying to this article and the sections in which they appear are:

(1) "Contract for sale", Section 2–106.

(2) "Lessee in ordinary course", Section 2A–103.

(3) "Receipt of goods", Section 2–103.

(c) In addition, Article I contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

§ 7–103. Relation of article to treaty or statute

Relation of Article to Treaty or Statute

(a) This article is subject to any treaty or statute of the United States or a regulatory statute of this State to the extent the treaty, statute, or regulatory statute is applicable.

(b) This article does not repeal or modify any law prescribing the form or contents of a document of title or the services or facilities to be afforded by a bailee, or otherwise regulating a bailee's businesses in respects not specifically treated in this article. However, violation of these laws does not affect the status of a document of title that otherwise complies with the definition of a document of title.

§ 7–104. Negotiable and nonnegotiable document of title

Negotiable and Nonnegotiable Document of Title

(a) A document of title is negotiable if by its terms the goods are to be delivered to bearer or to the order of a named person.

(b) A document of title other than one described in subsection (a) is nonnegotiable. A bill of lading that states that the goods are consigned to a named person is not made negotiable by a provision that the goods are to be delivered only against an order in a record signed by the same or another named person.

(c) A document of title is nonnegotiable if, at the time it is issued, the document has a conspicuous legend, however expressed, that it is nonnegotiable.

§ 7-105. Reissuance in alternative medium

Reissuance in Alternative Medium

(a) Upon request of a person entitled under an electronic document of title, the issuer of the electronic document may issue a tangible document of title as a substitute for the electronic document if:

(1) the person entitled under the electronic document surrenders control of the document to the issuer, and

(2) the tangible document when issued contains a statement that it is issued in substitution for the electronic document.

(b) Upon issuance of a tangible document of title in substitution for an electronic document of title in accordance with subsection (a):

(1) the electronic document ceases to have any effect or validity; and

(2) the person that procured issuance of the tangible document warrants to all subsequent persons entitled under the tangible document that the warrantor was a person entitled under the electronic document when the warrantor surrendered control of the electronic document to the issuer.

(c) Upon request of a person entitled under a tangible document of title, the issuer of the tangible document may issue an electronic document of title as a substitute for the tangible document if:

(1) the person entitled under the tangible document surrenders possession of the document to the issuer; and

(2) the electronic document when issued contains a statement that it is issued in substitution for the tangible document.

(d) Upon issuance of the electronic document of title in substitution for a tangible document of title in accordance with subsection (c):

(1) the tangible document ceases to have any effect or validity; and

(2) the person that procured issuance of the electronic document warrants to all subsequent persons entitled under the electronic document that the warrantor was a person entitled under the tangible document when the warrantor surrendered possession of the tangible document to the issuer.

§ 7–106. Control of electronic document of title

Control of Electronic Document of Title

(a) A person has control of an electronic document of title if a system employed for evidencing the transfer of interests in the electronic document reliably establishes that person as the person to which the electronic document was issued or transferred.

(b) A system satisfies subsection (a), and a person is deemed to have control of an electronic document of title, if the document is created, stored, and assigned in such a manner that:

(1) a single authoritative copy of the document exists which is unique, identifiable, and, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (4), (5), and (6), unalterable;

(2) the authoritative copy identifies the person asserting control as:

(A) the person to which the document was issued; or

(B) if the authoritative copy indicates that the document has been transferred, the person to which the document was most recently transferred;

(3) the authoritative copy is communicated to and maintained by the person asserting control or its designated custodian;

(4) copies or amendments that add or change an identified assignee of the authoritative copy can be made only with the consent of the person asserting control;

(5) each copy of the authoritative copy and any copy of a copy is readily identifiable as a copy that is not the authoritative copy; and

(6) any amendment of the authoritative copy is readily identifiable as authorized or unauthorized.

§ 7–107. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act

Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act

This act modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (15 U.S.C. § 7001 et seq.) but does not modify, limit, or supersede Section 101(c) of that act (15 U.S.C. § 7001(c)) or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act (15 U.S.C. § 7003(b)).

PART 2. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

§ 7-201. Person that may issue a warehouse receipt—Storage under bond

Person That May Issue a Warehouse Receipt—Storage Under Bond

- (a) A warehouse receipt may be issued by any warehouse.
- (b) If goods, including distilled spirits and agricultural commodities, are stored under a statute requiring a bond against withdrawal or a license for the issuance of receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, a receipt issued for the goods is deemed to be a warehouse receipt even if issued by a person that is the owner of the goods and is not a warehouse.

§ 7-202. Form of warehouse receipt

Form of Warehouse Receipt

- (a) A warehouse receipt need not be in any particular form.
- (b) Unless a warehouse receipt provides for each of the following, the warehouse is liable for damages caused to a person injured by the omission:
 - (1) the location of the warehouse facility where the goods are stored;
 - (2) the date of issue of the receipt;
 - (3) the unique identification code of the receipt;
 - (4) a statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a named person, or to a named person or its order;
 - (5) the rate of storage and handling charges, but if goods are stored under a field warehousing arrangement, a statement of that fact is sufficient on a nonnegotiable receipt;
 - (6) a description of the goods or the packages containing them;;
 - (7) the signature of the warehouse or its agent;
 - (8) if the receipt is issued for goods that the warehouse owns, either solely, jointly, or in common with others, the fact of that ownership; and
 - (9) a statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouse claims a lien or security interest but if the precise amount of advances made or of liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouse or to its agent that issued the receipt, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose of the advances or liabilities is sufficient.

(c) A warehouse may insert in its receipt any terms that are not contrary to the provisions of [the Uniform Commercial Code] and do not impair its obligation of delivery under Section 7-403 or its duty of care under Section 7-204. Any contrary provisions are ineffective.

§ 7-203. Liability for nonreceipt or misdescription

Liability for Nonreceipt or Misdescription

A party to or purchaser for value in good faith of a document of title, other than a bill of lading, that relies upon the description of the goods in the document may recover from the issuer damages caused by the nonreceipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that:

(1) the document conspicuously indicates that the issuer does not know whether all or part of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, such as a case in which the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity, or condition, or the receipt or description is qualified by "contents, condition, and quality unknown", "said to contain", or words of similar import, if the indication is true; or

(2) the party or purchaser otherwise has notice of the nonreceipt or misdescription.

§ 7-204. Duty of care—Contractual limitation of warehouse's liability

Duty of Care—Contractual Limitation of Warehouse's Liability

(a) A warehouse is liable for damages for loss of or injury to the goods caused by its failure to exercise care with regard to the goods that a reasonably careful person would exercise under similar circumstances. However, unless otherwise agreed, the warehouse is not liable for damages that could not have been avoided by the exercise of that care.

(b) Damages may be limited by a term in the warehouse receipt or storage agreement limiting the amount of liability in case of loss or damage beyond which the warehouse is not liable. No such limitation is effective with respect to the warehouse's liability for conversion to its own use. The warehouse's liability, on request of the bailor in a record at the time of signing such storage agreement or within a reasonable time after receipt of the warehouse receipt, may be increased on part or all of the goods covered by the storage agreement or the warehouse receipt. In this event, increased rates may be charged based on an increased valuation of the goods.

(c) Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and commencing actions based on the bailment may be included in the warehouse receipt or storage agreement.

(d) This section does not impair or repeal [Insert reference to any statute that imposes a higher responsibility upon the warehouse or invalidates contractual limitations that would be permissible under this Article.]

§ 7–205. Title under warehouse receipt defeated in certain cases

Title Under Warehouse Receipt Defeated in Certain Cases

A buyer in ordinary course of business of fungible goods sold and delivered by a warehouse that is also in the business of buying and selling such goods takes the goods free of any claim under a warehouse receipt even if the receipt is negotiable and has been duly negotiated.

§ 7–206. Termination of storage at warehouse's option

Termination of Storage at Warehouse's Option

(a) A warehouse, by giving notice to the person on whose account the goods are held and any other person known to claim an interest in the goods, may require payment of any charges and removal of the goods from the warehouse at the termination of the period of storage fixed by the document of title or, if a period is not fixed, within a stated period not less than 30 days after the warehouse gives notice. If the goods are not removed before the date specified in the notice, the warehouse may sell them pursuant to Section 7–210.

(b) If a warehouse in good faith believes that goods are about to deteriorate or decline in value to less than the amount of its lien within the time provided in subsection (a) and Section 7–210, the warehouse may specify in the notice given under subsection (a) any reasonable shorter time for removal of the goods and, if the goods are not removed, may sell them at public sale held not less than one week after a single advertisement or posting.

(c) If, as a result of a quality or condition of the goods of which the warehouse did not have notice at the time of deposit, the goods are a hazard to other property, the warehouse facilities, or other persons, the warehouse may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertisement or posting on reasonable notification to all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. If the warehouse, after a reasonable effort, is unable to sell the goods, it may dispose of them in any lawful manner and does not incur liability by reason of that disposition.

(d) A warehouse shall deliver the goods to any person entitled to them under this article upon due demand made at any time before sale or other disposition under this section.

(e) A warehouse may satisfy its lien from the proceeds of any sale or disposition under this section but shall hold the balance for delivery on the demand of any person to which the warehouse would have been bound to deliver the goods.

§ 7–207. Goods must be kept separate—Fungible goods

Goods Must be Kept Separate—Fungible Goods

(a) Unless the warehouse receipt provides otherwise, a warehouse shall keep separate the goods covered by each receipt so as to permit at all times identification and delivery of those goods. However, different lots of fungible goods may be commingled.

(b) If different lots of fungible goods are commingled, the goods are owned in common by the persons entitled thereto and the warehouse is severally liable to each owner for that owner's share. If, because of overissue, a mass of fungible goods is insufficient to meet all the receipts the warehouse has issued against it, the persons entitled include all holders to which overissued receipts have been duly negotiated.

§ 7–208. Altered warehouse receipts

Altered Warehouse Receipts

If a blank in a negotiable tangible warehouse receipt has been filled in without authority, a good faith purchaser for value and without notice of the lack of authority may treat the insertion as authorized. Any other unauthorized alteration leaves any tangible or electronic warehouse receipt enforceable against the issuer according to its original tenor.

§ 7–209. Lien of warehouse

Lien of Warehouse

(a) A warehouse has a lien against the bailor on the goods covered by a warehouse receipt or storage agreement or on the proceeds thereof in its possession for charges for storage or transportation, including demurrage and terminal charges, insurance, labor, or other charges, present or future, in relation to the goods, and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law. If the person on whose account the goods are held is liable for similar charges or expenses in relation to other goods whenever deposited and it is stated in the warehouse receipt or storage agreement that a lien is claimed for charges and expenses in relation to other goods, the warehouse also has a lien against the goods covered by the warehouse receipt or storage agreement or on the proceeds thereof in its possession for those charges and expenses, whether or not the other goods have been delivered by the warehouse. However, as against a person to which a negotiable warehouse receipt is duly negotiated, a warehouse's lien is limited to charges in an amount or at a rate specified in the warehouse receipt or, if no charges are so specified, to a reasonable charge for storage of the specific goods covered by the receipt subsequent to the date of the receipt.

(b) The warehouse may also reserve a security interest under Article 9 against the bailor for the maximum amount specified on the receipt for charges other than those specified in subsection (a), such as for money advanced and interest. A security interest is governed by Article 9.

(c) A warehouse's lien for charges and expenses under subsection (a) or a security interest under subsection (b) is also effective against any person that so entrusted the bailor with possession of the goods that a pledge of them by the bailor to a good faith purchaser for value would have been valid. However, the lien or security interest is not effective against a person that before issuance of a document of title had a legal interest or a perfected security interest in the goods and that did not:

(1) deliver or entrust the goods or any document covering the goods to the bailor or the bailor's nominee with actual or apparent authority to ship, store, or sell; or with power to obtain delivery under Section 7-403; or with power of disposition under Sections 2-403, 2A-304(2), 2A-305(2) or 9-320 or other statute or rule of law; or

(2) acquiesce in the procurement by the bailor or its nominee of any document

(d) A warehouse's lien on household goods for charges and expenses in relation to the goods under subsection (a) is also effective against all persons if the depositor was the legal possessor of the goods at the time of deposit. In this subsection, "household goods" means furniture, furnishings, or personal effects used by the depositor in a dwelling.

(e) A warehouse loses its lien on any goods that it voluntarily delivers or unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

§ 7-210. Enforcement of warehouse's lien

Enforcement of Warehouse's Lien

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a warehouse's lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods, in bulk or in packages, at any time or place and on any terms that are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. The notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale, and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the warehouse is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. The warehouse has sold in a commercially reasonable manner if the warehouse sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor, sells at the price current in that market at the time of the sale, or has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to ensure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable, except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.

(b) A warehouse's lien on goods, other than goods stored by a merchant in the course of its business, may be enforced only if the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) All persons known to claim an interest in the goods must be notified.

(2) The notification must include an itemized statement of the claim, a description of the goods subject to the lien, a demand for payment within a specified time not less than 10 days after receipt of the notification, and a conspicuous statement that unless the claim is paid within that time the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

- (3) The sale must conform to the terms of the notification.
- (4) The sale must be held at the nearest suitable place to where the goods are held or stored.
- (5) After the expiration of the time given in the notification, an advertisement of the sale must be published once a week for two weeks consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held. The advertisement must include a description of the goods, the name of the person on whose account the goods are being held, and the time and place of the sale. The sale must take place at least 15 days after the first publication. If there is no newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held, the advertisement must be posted at least 10 days before the sale in not less than six conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the proposed sale.
- (c) Before any sale pursuant to this section, any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred in complying with this section. In that event, the goods may not be sold but must be retained by the warehouse subject to the terms of the receipt and this article.
- (d) A warehouse may buy at any public sale held pursuant to this section.
- (e) A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a warehouse's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against which the lien was valid, despite the warehouse's noncompliance with this section.
- (f) A warehouse may satisfy its lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but shall hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to which the warehouse would have been bound to deliver the goods.
- (g) The rights provided by this section are in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against a debtor.
- (h) If a lien is on goods stored by a merchant in the course of its business, the lien may be enforced in accordance with subsection (a) or (b).
- (i) A warehouse is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and, in case of willful violation, is liable for conversion.

PART 3. BILLS OF LADING: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

§ 7-301. Liability for nonreceipt or misdescription—"Said to contain"—"Shipper's load and count"—Improper handling

Liability for Nonreceipt or Misdescription—"Said to Contain"—"Shipper's Load and Count"—Improper Handling

- (a) A consignee of a nonnegotiable bill of lading which has given value in good faith, or a holder to which a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated, relying upon the description of the goods in the bill or upon the date shown in the bill, may recover from the issuer damages caused by the misdating of the bill or the nonreceipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document of title indicates that the issuer does not know whether any part or all of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, such as in a case in which the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity, or condition or the receipt or description is qualified by "contents or condition of contents of packages unknown", "said to contain", "shipper's weight, load and count" or words of similar import, if that indication is true.

(b) If goods are loaded by the issuer of the bill of lading, the issuer must count the packages of goods if shipped in packages and ascertain the kind and quantity if shipped in bulk and words such as "shipper's weight, load and count" or words of similar import indicating that the description was made by the shipper are ineffective except as to goods concealed by packages.

(c) If bulk goods are loaded by a shipper that makes available to the issuer of the bill of lading adequate facilities for weighing those goods, the issuer must ascertain the kind and quantity within a reasonable time after receiving the shipper's request in a record to do so. In that case, "shipper's weight" or words of similar import are ineffective.

(d) The issuer, by including in the bill of lading the words "shipper's weight, load and count" or words of similar import, may indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper, and, if that statement is true, the issuer is not liable for damages caused by the improper loading. However, omission of such words does not imply liability for damages caused by improper loading.

(e) A shipper guarantees to the issuer the accuracy at the time of shipment of the description, marks, labels, number, kind, quantity, condition, and weight, as furnished by the shipper, and the shipper shall indemnify the issuer against damage caused by inaccuracies in those particulars. This right of the issuer to that indemnity does not limit its responsibility or liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper.

§ 7-302. Through bills of lading and similar documents of title

Through Bills of Lading and Similar Documents of Title

(a) The issuer of a through bill of lading or other document of title embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by a person acting as its agent or by a performing carrier is liable to any person entitled to recover on the document for any breach by the other person or the performing carrier of its obligation under the document. However, to the extent that the bill covers an undertaking to be performed overseas or in territory not contiguous to the continental United States or an undertaking including matters other than transportation, this liability for breach by the other person or the performing carrier may be varied by agreement of the parties.

(b) If goods covered by a through bill of lading or other document of title embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by a person other than the issuer are received by that person, the person is subject, with respect to its own performance while the goods are in its possession, to the obligation of the issuer. The person's obligation is discharged by delivery of the goods to another person pursuant to the document and does not include liability for breach by any other person or by the issuer.

(c) The issuer of a through bill of lading or other document of title described in subsection (a) is entitled to recover from the performing carrier, or other person in possession of the goods when the breach of the obligation under the document occurred:

(1) the amount it may be required to pay to any person entitled to recover on the document for the breach, as may be evidenced by any receipt, judgment, or transcript, and;

(2) the amount of any expense reasonably incurred by the issuer in defending any action commenced by any person entitled to recover on the document for the breach.

§ 7–303. Diversion—Reconsignment—Change of instructions

Diversion—Reconsignment—Change of Instructions

(a) Unless the bill of lading otherwise provides, a carrier may deliver the goods to a person or destination other than that stated in the bill or may otherwise dispose of the goods, without liability for misdelivery, on instructions from:

(1) the holder of a negotiable bill;

(2) the consignor on a nonnegotiable bill even if the consignee has given contrary instructions;

(3) the consignee on a nonnegotiable bill in the absence of contrary instructions from the consignor, if the goods have arrived at the billed destination or if the consignee is in possession of the tangible bill or in control of the electronic bill; or

(4) the consignee on a nonnegotiable bill, if the consignee is entitled as against the consignor to dispose of the goods.

(b) Unless instructions described in subsection (a) are included in a negotiable bill of lading, a person to which the bill is duly negotiated may hold the bailee according to the original terms.

§ 7–304. Tangible bills of lading in a set

Tangible Bills of Lading in a Set

(a) Except as customary in international transportation, a tangible bill of lading may not be issued in a set of parts. The issuer is liable for damages caused by violation of this subsection.

(b) If a tangible bill of lading is lawfully issued in a set of parts, each of which contains an identification code and is expressed to be valid only if the goods have not been delivered against any other part, the whole of the parts constitutes one bill.

(c) If a tangible negotiable bill of lading is lawfully issued in a set of parts and different parts are negotiated to different persons, the title of the holder to which the first due negotiation is made prevails as to both the document of title and the goods even if any later holder may have received the goods from the carrier in good faith and discharged the carrier's obligation by surrendering its part.

(d) A person that negotiates or transfers a single part of a tangible bill of lading issued in a set is liable to holders of that part as if it were the whole set.

(e) The bailee is obliged to deliver in accordance with Part 4 of this article against the first presented part of a tangible bill of lading lawfully issued in a set. Delivery in this manner discharges the bailee's obligation on the whole bill.

§ 7–305. Destination bills

Destination Bills

(a) Instead of issuing a bill of lading to the consignor at the place of shipment, a carrier, at the request of the consignor, may procure the bill to be issued at destination or at any other place designated in the request.

(b) Upon request of any person entitled as against a carrier to control the goods while in transit and on surrender of possession or control of any outstanding bill of lading or other receipt covering the goods, the issuer, subject to Section 7–105, may procure a substitute bill to be issued at any place designated in the request.

§ 7–306. Altered bills of lading

Altered Bills of Lading

An unauthorized alteration or filling in of a blank in a bill of lading leaves the bill enforceable according to its original tenor.

§ 7–307. Lien of carrier

Lien of Carrier

(a) A carrier has a lien on the goods covered by a bill of lading or on the proceeds thereof in its possession for charges after the date of the carrier's receipt of the goods for storage or transportation, including demurrage and terminal charges, and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods incident to their transportation or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law. However, against a purchaser for value of a negotiable bill of lading, a carrier's lien is limited to charges stated in the bill or the applicable tariffs or, if no charges are stated, a reasonable charge.

(b) A lien for charges and expenses under subsection (a) on goods that the carrier was required by law to receive for transportation is effective against the consignor or any person entitled to the goods unless the carrier had notice that the consignor lacked authority to subject the goods to those charges and expenses. Any other lien under subsection (a) is effective against the consignor and any person that permitted the bailor to have control or possession of the goods unless the carrier had notice that the bailor lacked authority.

(c) A carrier loses its lien on any goods that it voluntarily delivers or unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

§ 7-308. Enforcement of carrier's lien

Enforcement of Carrier's Lien

(a) A carrier's lien on goods may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods, in bulk or in packages, at any time or place and on any terms that are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. The notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale, and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the carrier is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. The carrier has sold goods in a commercially reasonable manner if the carrier sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor, sells at the price current in that market at the time of the sale, or has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to ensure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable, except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.

(b) Before any sale pursuant to this section, any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred in complying with this section. In that event, the goods may not be sold but must be retained by the carrier, subject to the terms of the bill of lading and this article.

(c) A carrier may buy at any public sale pursuant to this section.

(d) A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a carrier's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against which the lien was valid, despite the carrier's noncompliance with this section.

(e) A carrier may satisfy its lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but shall hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to which the carrier would have been bound to deliver the goods.

(f) The rights provided by this section are in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against a debtor.

(g) A carrier's lien may be enforced pursuant to either subsection (a) or the procedure set forth in subsection Section 7–210(b).

(h) A carrier is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and, in case of willful violation, is liable for conversion.

§ 7–309. Duty of care—Contractual limitation of carrier's liability

Duty of Care—Contractual Limitation of Carrier's Liability

(a) A carrier that issues a bill of lading, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable, must exercise the degree of care in relation to the goods which a reasonably careful person would exercise under similar circumstances. This subsection does not affect any statute, regulation, or rule of law that imposes liability upon a common carrier for damages not caused by its negligence.

(b) Damages may be limited by a term in the bill of lading that the carrier's liability may not exceed a value stated in the bill if the carrier's rates are dependent upon value and the consignor is afforded an opportunity to declare a higher value and the consignor is advised of the opportunity. However, no such limitation is effective with respect to the carrier's liability for conversion to its own use.

(c) Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and commencing actions based on the shipment may be included in a bill of lading.

PART 4. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

§ 7–401. Irregularities in issue of receipt or bill or conduct of issuer

Irregularities in Issue of Receipt or Bill or Conduct of Issuer

The obligations imposed by this article on an issuer apply to a document of title even if:

(1) the document does not comply with the requirements of this article or of any other statute, rule, or regulation regarding its issue, form, or content;

(2) the issuer violated laws regulating the conduct of its business;

(3) the goods covered by the document were owned by the bailee when the document was issued;
or

(4) the person issuing the document is not a warehouse but the document purports to be a warehouse receipt.

§ 7-402. Duplicate document of title—Overissue

Duplicate Document of Title—Overissue

A duplicate or any other document of title purporting to cover goods already represented by an outstanding document of the same issuer does not confer any right in the goods, except as provided in the case of tangible bills of lading in a set of parts, overissue of documents for fungible goods, substitutes for lost, stolen, or destroyed documents, or substitute documents issued pursuant to Section 7-105. The issuer is liable for damages caused by its overissue or failure to identify a duplicate document by a conspicuous notation.

§ 7-403. Obligation of warehouse or carrier to deliver—Excuse

Obligation of Warehouse or Carrier to Deliver—Excuse

(a) A bailee shall deliver the goods to a person entitled under a document of title that complies with subsections (b) and (c), unless and to the extent that the bailee establishes any of the following:

- (1) delivery of the goods to a person whose receipt was rightful as against the claimant;
- (2) damage to or delay, loss, or destruction of the goods for which the bailee is not liable;
- (3) previous sale or other disposition of the goods in lawful enforcement of a lien or on a warehouse's lawful termination of storage;
- (4) the exercise by a seller of its right to stop delivery pursuant to Section 2-705 or by a lessor of its right to stop delivery pursuant to Section 2A-526;
- (5) a diversion, reconsignment, or other disposition pursuant to Section 7-303;
- (6) release, satisfaction, or any other fact affording a personal defense against the claimant; or
- (7) any other lawful excuse.

(b) A person claiming goods covered by a document of title shall satisfy the bailee's lien if the bailee so requests or the bailee is prohibited by law from delivering the goods until the charges are paid.

(c) Unless a person claiming the goods is one against which the document of title does not confer a right under Section 7-503(a):

- (1) the person claiming under a document shall surrender possession or control of any outstanding negotiable document covering the goods for cancellation or indication of partial deliveries; and

(2) the bailee shall cancel the document or conspicuously indicate in the document the partial delivery or be liable to any person to which the document is duly negotiated.

§ 7-404. No liability for good faith delivery pursuant to document of title

No Liability for Good Faith Delivery Pursuant to Document of Title

A bailee that in good faith has received goods and delivered or otherwise disposed of the goods according to the terms of a document of title or pursuant to this article is not liable for the goods even if:

(1) the person from which the bailee received the goods did not have authority to procure the document or to dispose of the goods; or

(2) the person to which the bailee delivered the goods did not have authority to receive the goods.

PART 5. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER

§ 7-501. Form of negotiation and requirements of due negotiation

Form of Negotiation and Requirements of Due Negotiation

(a) The following rules apply to a negotiable tangible document of title:

(1) If the document's original terms run to the order of a named person, the document is negotiated by the named person's indorsement and delivery. After the named person's indorsement in blank or to bearer, any person may negotiate the document by delivery alone.

(2) If the document's original terms run to bearer, it is negotiated by delivery alone.

(3) If the document's original terms run to the order of a named person and it is delivered to the named person, the effect is the same as if the document had been negotiated.

(4) Negotiation of the document after it has been indorsed to a named person requires indorsement by the named person as well as delivery.

(5) A document is duly negotiated if it is negotiated in the manner stated in this subsection to a holder that purchases it in good faith without notice of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person and for value, unless it is established that the negotiation is not in the regular course of business or financing or involves receiving the document in settlement or payment of a monetary obligation.

(b) The following rules apply to a negotiable electronic document of title:

(1) If the document's original terms run to the order of a named person or to bearer, the document is negotiated by delivery of the document to another person. Indorsement by the named person is not required to negotiate the document.

(2) If the document's original terms run to the order of a named person and the named person has control of the document, the effect is the same as if the document had been negotiated.

(3) A document is duly negotiated if it is negotiated in the manner stated in this subsection to a holder that purchases it in good faith without notice of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person and for value, unless it is established that the negotiation is not in the regular course of business or financing or involves taking delivery of the document in settlement or payment of a monetary obligation.

(c) Indorsement of a nonnegotiable document of title neither makes it negotiable nor adds to the transferee's rights.

(d) The naming in a negotiable bill of lading of a person to be notified of the arrival of the goods does not limit the negotiability of the bill or constitute notice to a purchaser of the bill of any interest of that person in the goods.

§ 7-502. Rights acquired by due negotiation

Rights Acquired by Due Negotiation

(a) Subject to Sections 7-205 and 7-503, a holder to which a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

(1) title to the document;

(2) title to the goods;

(3) all rights accruing under the law of agency or estoppel, including rights to goods delivered to the bailee after the document was issued; and

(4) the direct obligation of the issuer to hold or deliver the goods according to the terms of the document free of any defense or claim by the issuer except those arising under the terms of the document or under this article. In the case of a delivery order, the bailee's obligation accrues only upon the bailee's acceptance of the delivery order and the obligation acquired by the holder is that the issuer and any indorser will procure the acceptance of the bailee.

(b) Subject to Section 7-503, title and rights acquired by due negotiation are not defeated by any stoppage of the goods represented by the document of title or by surrender of the goods by the bailee and are not impaired even if:

(1) the due negotiation or any prior due negotiation constituted a breach of duty;

(2) any person has been deprived of possession of a negotiable tangible document or control of a negotiable electronic document by misrepresentation, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft, or conversion; or

(3) a previous sale or other transfer of the goods or document has been made to a third person.

§ 7–503. Document of title to goods defeated in certain cases

Document of Title to Goods Defeated in Certain Cases

(a) A document of title confers no right in goods against a person that before issuance of the document had a legal interest or a perfected security interest in the goods and that did not:

(1) deliver or entrust the goods or any document covering the goods to the bailor or the bailor's nominee with actual or apparent authority to ship, store, or sell; with power to obtain delivery under Section 7–403; or with power of disposition under Section 2–403, 2A–304(2), 2A–305(2), or 9–320 or other statute or rule of law; or

(2) acquiesce in the procurement by the bailor or its nominee of any document.

(b) Title to goods based upon an unaccepted delivery order is subject to the rights of any person to which a negotiable warehouse receipt or bill of lading covering the goods has been duly negotiated. That title may be defeated under Section 7–504 to the same extent as the rights of the issuer or a transferee from the issuer.

(c) Title to goods based upon a bill of lading issued to a freight forwarder is subject to the rights of any person to which a bill issued by the freight forwarder is duly negotiated. However, delivery by the carrier in accordance with Part 4 pursuant to its own bill of lading discharges the carrier's obligation to deliver.

§ 7–504. Rights acquired in absence of due negotiation—Effect of diversion—Stoppage of delivery

Rights Acquired in Absence of Due Negotiation—Effect of Diversion—Stoppage of Delivery

(a) A transferee of a document of title, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable, to which the document has been delivered but not duly negotiated, acquires the title and rights that its transferor had or had actual authority to convey.

(b) In the case of a nonnegotiable document of title, until but not after the bailee receives notice of the transfer, the rights of the transferee may be defeated:

(1) by those creditors of the transferor that could treat the transfer as void under Section 2–402 or 2A–308;

(2) by a buyer from the transferor in ordinary course of business if the bailee has delivered the goods to the buyer or received notification of the buyer's rights;

(3) by a lessee from the transferor in ordinary course of business if the bailee has delivered the goods to the lessee or received notification of the lessee's rights; or

(4) as against the bailee, by good faith dealings of the bailee with the transferor.

(c) A diversion or other change of shipping instructions by the consignor in a nonnegotiable bill of lading which causes the bailee not to deliver the goods to the consignee defeats the consignee's title to the goods if the goods have been delivered to a buyer in ordinary course of business or a lessee in ordinary course of business and in any event defeats the consignee's rights against the bailee.

(d) Delivery of the goods pursuant to a nonnegotiable document of title may be stopped by a seller under Section 2-705 or a lessor under Section 2A-526, subject to the requirements of due notification in those sections. A bailee honoring the seller's or lessor's instructions is entitled to be indemnified by the seller or lessor against any resulting loss or expense.

§ 7-505. Indorser not guarantor for other parties

Indorser Not Guarantor for Other Parties

The indorsement of a tangible document of title issued by a bailee does not make the indorser liable for any default by the bailee or previous indorsers.

§ 7-506. Delivery without indorsement—Right to compel indorsement

Delivery Without Indorsement—Right to Compel Indorsement

The transferee of a negotiable tangible document of title has a specifically enforceable right to have its transferor supply any necessary indorsement, but the transfer becomes a negotiation only as of the time the indorsement is supplied.

§ 7-507. Warranties on negotiation or delivery of document of title

Warranties on Negotiation or Delivery of Document of Title

If a person negotiates or delivers a document of title for value, otherwise than as a mere intermediary under Section 7-508, unless otherwise agreed, the transferor warrants to its immediate purchaser only in addition to any warranty made in selling or leasing the goods that:

(1) the document is genuine;

(2) the transferor does not have knowledge of any fact that would impair the document's validity or worth; and

(3) the negotiation or delivery is rightful and fully effective with respect to the title to the document and the goods it represents.

§ 7–508. Warranties of collecting bank as to documents of title

Warranties of Collecting Bank as to Documents of Title

A collecting bank or other intermediary known to be entrusted with documents of title on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against delivery of documents warrants by the delivery of the documents only its own good faith and authority even if the collecting bank or other intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim or draft to be collected.

§ 7–509. Adequate compliance with commercial contract

Adequate Compliance With Commercial Contract

Whether a document of title is adequate to fulfill the obligations of a contract for sale, a contract for lease, or the conditions of a letter of credit is determined by Article 2, 2A, or 5.

PART 6. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 7–601. Lost, stolen, or destroyed documents of title

Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Documents of Title

(a) If a document of title is lost, stolen, or destroyed, a court may order delivery of the goods or issuance of a substitute document and the bailee may without liability to any person comply with the order. If the document was negotiable, a court may not order delivery of the goods or issuance of a substitute document without the claimant's posting security unless it finds that any person that may suffer loss as a result of nonsurrender of possession or control of the document is adequately protected against the loss. If the document was nonnegotiable, the court may require security. The court may order payment of the bailee's reasonable costs and attorney's fees in any action under this subsection.

(b) A bailee that without court order delivers goods to a person claiming under a missing negotiable document of title is liable to any person injured thereby. If the delivery is not in good faith, the bailee is liable for conversion. Delivery in good faith is not conversion if the claimant posts security with the bailee in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting to indemnify any person injured by the delivery which files a notice of claim within one year after the delivery.

§ 7–602. Attachment of goods covered by negotiable document of title

Attachment of Goods Covered by Negotiable Document of Title

Unless the document of title was originally issued upon delivery of the goods by a person that did not have power to dispose of them, a lien does not attach by virtue of any judicial process to goods in the possession of a bailee for which a negotiable document of title is outstanding unless possession or control of the document is first surrendered to the bailee or the document's negotiation is enjoined. The bailee may not be compelled to deliver the goods pursuant to process until possession or control of the document is surrendered to the bailee or to the court. A purchaser of the document for value without notice of the process or injunction takes free of the lien imposed by judicial process.

§ 7–603. Conflicting claims—Interpleader

Conflicting Claims—Interpleader

If more than one person claims title to or possession of the goods, the bailee is excused from delivery until the bailee has a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claims or to commence an action for interpleader. The bailee may assert an interpleader either in defending an action for nondelivery of the goods or by original action.

PART 7. TRANSITION PROVISIONS

§ 7–701. Effective date

Effective Date

This Act takes effect on October 2, 2003.

§ 7–702. Repeals

Repeals

[Existing Article 7] and [Section 10–104 of the Uniform Commercial Code] are repealed.

§ 7–703. Applicability

Applicability

This Act applies to a document of title that is issued or a bailment that arises on or after the effective date of this Act. This Act does not apply to a document of title that is issued or a bailment that arises before the effective date of this Act even if the document of title or bailment would be subject to this Act if the document of title had been issued or bailment had arisen after the effective date of this Act. This Act does not apply to a right of action that has accrued before the effective date of this Act.

§ 7–704. Savings clause

Savings Clause

A document of title issued or a bailment that arises before the effective date of this Act and the rights, obligations, and interests flowing from that document or bailment are governed by any statute or other rule amended or repealed by this Act as if amendment or repeal had not occurred and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced under that statute or other rule.

§ 8–102. Definitions

Definitions

(a) In this article:

(1) "Adverse claim" means a claim that a claimant has a property interest in a financial asset and that it is a violation of the rights of the claimant for another person to hold, transfer, or deal with the financial asset.

(2) "Bearer form," as applied to a certificated security, means a form in which the security is payable to the bearer of the security certificate according to its terms but not by reason of an indorsement.

(3) "Broker" means a person defined as a broker or dealer under the federal securities laws, but without excluding a bank acting in that capacity.

(4) "Certificated security" means a security that is represented by a certificate.

(5) "Clearing corporation" means:

(i) a person that is registered as a "clearing agency" under the federal securities laws;

(ii) a federal reserve bank; or

(iii) any other person that provides clearance or settlement services with respect to financial assets that would require it to register as a clearing agency under the federal securities laws but for an exclusion or exemption from the registration requirement, if its activities as a clearing corporation, including promulgation of rules, are subject to regulation by a federal or state governmental authority.

(6) "Communicate" means to:

(i) send a signed writing; or

(ii) transmit information by any mechanism agreed upon by the persons transmitting and receiving the information.

(7) "Entitlement holder" means a person identified in the records of a securities intermediary as the person having a security entitlement against the securities intermediary. If a person acquires a security entitlement by virtue of Section 8–501(b)(2) or (3), that person is the entitlement holder.

(8) "Entitlement order" means a notification communicated to a securities intermediary directing transfer or redemption of a financial asset to which the entitlement holder has a security entitlement.

(9) "Financial asset," except as otherwise provided in Section 8–103, means:

(i) a security;

(ii) an obligation of a person or a share, participation, or other interest in a person or in property or an enterprise of a person, which is, or is of a type, dealt in or traded on financial markets, or which is recognized in any area in which it is issued or dealt in as a medium for investment; or

(iii) any property that is held by a securities intermediary for another person in a securities account if the securities intermediary has expressly agreed with the other person that the property is to be treated as a financial asset under this Article.

As context requires, the terra means either the interest itself or the means by which a person's claim to it is evidenced, including a certificated or uncertificated security, a security certificate, or a security entitlement.

(10) "Good faith," for purposes of the obligation of good faith in the performance or enforcement of contracts or duties within this Article, means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

(11) "Indorsement" means a signature that alone or accompanied by other words is made on a security certificate in registered form or on a separate document for the purpose of assigning, transferring, or redeeming the security or granting a power to assign, transfer, or redeem it.

(12) "Instruction" means a notification communicated to the issuer of an uncertificated security which directs that the transfer of the security be registered or that the security be redeemed.

(13) "Registered form," as applied to a certificated security, means a form in which:

(i) the security certificate specifies a person entitled to the security; and

(ii) a transfer of the security may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer, or the security certificate so states.

(14) "Securities intermediary" means:

(i) a clearing corporation; or

(ii) a person, including a bank or broker, that in the ordinary course of its business maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity.

(15) "Security," except as otherwise provided in Section 8–103, means an obligation of an issuer or a share, participation, or other interest in an issuer or in property or an enterprise of an issuer:

(i) which is represented by a security certificate in bearer or registered form, or the transfer of which may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer;

(ii) which is one of a class or series or by its terms is divisible into a class or series of shares, participations, interests, or obligations; and

(iii) which:

(A) is, or is of a type, dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or securities markets; or

(B) is a medium for investment and by its terms expressly provides that it is a security governed by this Article.

(16) "Security certificate" means a certificate representing a security.

(17) "Security entitlement" means the rights and property interest of an entitlement holder with respect to a financial asset specified in Part 5.

(18) "Uncertificated security" means a security that is not represented by a certificate.

(c) In addition, Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

(d) The characterization of a person, business, or transaction for purposes of this Article does not determine the characterization of the person, business, or transaction for purposes of any other law, regulation, or rule.

§ 8–103. Rules for determining whether certain obligations and interests are securities or financial assets

Rules for Determining Whether Certain Obligations and Interests Are Securities or Financial Assets

(a) A share or similar equity interest issued by a corporation, business trust, joint stock company, or similar entity is a security.

(b) An "investment company security" is a security. "Investment company security" means a share or similar equity interest issued by an entity that is registered as an investment company under the federal investment company laws, an interest in a unit investment trust that is so registered, or a face-amount certificate issued by a face-amount certificate company that is so registered. Investment company security does not include an insurance policy or endowment policy or annuity contract issued by an insurance company.

(c) An interest in a partnership or limited liability company is not a security unless it is dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets, its terms expressly provide that it is a security governed by this Article, or it is an investment company security. However, an interest in a partnership or limited liability company is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.

(d) A writing that is a security certificate is governed by this Article and not by Article 3, even though it also meets the requirements of that Article. However, a negotiable instrument governed by Article 3 is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account

(e) An option or similar obligation issued by a clearing corporation to its participants is not a security, but is a financial asset.

(f) A commodity contract, as defined in Section 9–115, is not a security or a financial asset

§ 8–104. Acquisition of security or financial asset or interest therein

Acquisition of Security or Financial Asset or Interest Therein

(a) A person acquires a security or an interest therein, under this Article, if:

(1) the person is a purchaser to whom a security is delivered pursuant to Section 8–301; or

(2) the person acquires a security entitlement to the security pursuant to Section 8–501.

(b) A person acquires a financial asset, other than a security, or an interest therein, under this Article, if the person acquires a security entitlement to the financial asset.

(c) A person who acquires a security entitlement to a security or other financial asset has the rights specified in Part 5, but is a purchaser of any security, security entitlement, or other financial asset held by the securities intermediary only to the extent provided in Section 8–503.

(d) Unless the context shows that a different meaning is intended, a person who is required by other law, regulation, rule, or agreement to transfer, deliver, present, surrender, exchange, or otherwise put in the possession of another person a security or financial asset satisfies that requirement by causing the other person to acquire an interest in the security or financial asset pursuant to subsection (a) or (b).

§ 8–105. Notice of adverse claim

Notice of Adverse Claim

(a) A person has notice of an adverse claim if:

- (1) the person knows of the adverse claim;
 - (2) the person is aware of facts sufficient to indicate that there is a significant probability that the adverse claim exists and deliberately avoids information that would establish the existence of the adverse claim; or
 - (3) the person has a duty, imposed by statute or regulation, to investigate whether an adverse claim exists, and the investigation so required would establish the existence of the adverse claim.
- (b) Having knowledge that a financial asset or interest therein is or has been transferred by a representative imposes no duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of a transaction and is not notice of an adverse claim. However, a person who knows that a representative has transferred a financial asset or interest therein in a transaction that is, or whose proceeds are being used, for the individual benefit of the representative or otherwise in breach of duty has notice of an adverse claim.
- (c) An act or event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a security certificate or sets a date on or after which the certificate is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange does not itself constitute notice of an adverse claim except in the case of a transfer more than:
- (1) one year after a date set for presentment or surrender for redemption or exchange; or
 - (2) six months after a date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the certificate, if money was available for payment on that date.
- (d) A purchaser of a certificated security has notice of an adverse claim if the security certificate:
- (1) whether in bearer or registered form, has been indorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for some other purpose not involving transfer; or
 - (2) is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor, but the mere writing of a name on the certificate is not such a statement.
- (e) Filing of a financing statement under Article 9 is not notice of an adverse claim to a financial asset.

§ 8-106. Control

Control

- (a) A purchaser has "control" of a certificated security in bearer form if the certificated security is delivered to the purchaser.
- (b) A purchaser has "control" of a certificated security in registered form if the certificated security is delivered to the purchaser, and:

- (1) the certificate is indorsed to the purchaser or in blank by an effective indorsement; or
- (2) the certificate is registered in the name of the purchaser, upon original issue or registration of transfer by the issuer.

(c) A purchaser has "control" of an uncertificated security if:

- (1) the uncertificated security is delivered to the purchaser; or
- (2) the issuer has agreed that it will comply with instructions originated by the purchaser without further consent by the registered owner.

(d) A purchaser has "control" of a security entitlement if:

- (1) the purchaser becomes the entitlement holder; or
- (2) the securities intermediary has agreed that it will comply with entitlement orders originated by the purchaser without further consent by the entitlement holder.

(e) If an interest in a security entitlement is granted by the entitlement holder to the entitlement holder's own securities intermediary, the securities intermediary has control.

(f) A purchaser who has satisfied the requirements of subsection (c)(2) or (d)(2) has control even if the registered owner in the case of subsection (c)(2) or the entitlement holder in the case of subsection (d)(2) retains the right to make substitutions for the uncertificated security or security entitlement, to originate instructions or entitlement orders to the issuer or securities intermediary, or otherwise to deal with the uncertificated security or security entitlement.

(g) An issuer or a securities intermediary may not enter into an agreement of the kind described in subsection (c)(2) or (d)(2) without the consent of the registered owner or entitlement holder, but an issuer or a securities intermediary is not required to enter into such an agreement even though the registered owner or entitlement holder so directs. An issuer or securities intermediary that has entered into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another party unless requested to do so by the registered owner or entitlement holder.

§ 8-107. Whether indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order is effective

Whether Indorsement, Instruction, or Entitlement Order is Effective

(a) "Appropriate person" means:

- (1) with respect to an indorsement, the person specified by a security certificate or by an effective special indorsement to be entitled to the security;

- (2) with respect to an instruction, the registered owner of an uncertificated security;
 - (3) with respect to an entitlement order, the entitlement holder;
 - (4) if the person designated in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) is deceased, the designated person's successor taking under other law or the designated person's personal representative acting for the estate of the decedent; or
 - (5) if the person designated in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) lacks capacity, the designated person's guardian, conservator, or other similar representative who has power under other law to transfer the security or financial asset
- (b) An indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order is effective if:
- (1) it is made by the appropriate person;
 - (2) it is made by a person who has power under the law of agency to transfer the security or financial asset on behalf of the appropriate person, including, in the case of an instruction or entitlement order, a person who has control under Section 8–106(c)(2) or (d)(2); or
 - (3) the appropriate person has ratified it or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness.
- (c) An indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order made by a representative is effective even if:
- (1) the representative has failed to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the State having jurisdiction of the representative relationship, including any law requiring the representative to obtain court approval of the transaction; or
 - (2) the representative's action in making the indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order or using the proceeds of the transaction is otherwise a breach of duty.
- (d) If a security is registered in the name of or specially indorsed to a person described as a representative, or if a securities account is maintained in the name of a person described as a representative, an indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order made by the person is effective even though the person is no longer serving in the described capacity.
- (e) Effectiveness of an indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order is determined as of the date the indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order is made, and an indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order does not become ineffective by reason of any later change of circumstances.

§ 8–108. Warranties in direct holding

Warranties in Direct Holding

(a) A person who transfers a certificated security to a purchaser for value warrants to the purchaser, and an indorser, if the transfer is by indorsement, warrants to any subsequent purchaser, that:

- (1) the certificate is genuine and has not been materially altered;
- (2) the transferor or indorser does not know of any fact that might impair the validity of the security;
- (3) there is no adverse claim to the security;
- (4) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer;
- (5) if the transfer is by indorsement, the indorsement is made by an appropriate person, or if the indorsement is by an agent, the agent has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and
- (6) the transfer is otherwise effective and rightful.

(b) A person who originates an instruction for registration of transfer of an uncertificated security to a purchaser for value warrants to the purchaser that:

- (1) the instruction is made by an appropriate person, or if the instruction is by an agent, the agent has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person;
- (2) the security is valid;
- (3) there is no adverse claim to the security; and
- (4) at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer:
 - (i) the purchaser will be entitled to the registration of transfer;
 - (ii) the transfer will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction;
 - (iii) the transfer will not violate any restriction on transfer; and
 - (iv) the requested transfer will otherwise be effective and rightful.

(c) A person who transfers an uncertificated security to a purchaser for value and does not originate an instruction in connection with the transfer warrants that:

- (1) the uncertificated security is valid;

- (2) there is no adverse claim to the security;
 - (3) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer; and
 - (4) the transfer is otherwise effective and rightful.
- (d) A person who indorses a security certificate warrants to the issuer that:
- (1) there is no adverse claim to the security; and
 - (2) the indorsement is effective.
- (e) A person who originates an instruction for registration of transfer of an uncertificated security warrants to the issuer that:
- (1) the instruction is effective; and
 - (2) at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer the purchaser will be entitled to the registration of transfer.
- (f) A person who presents a certificated security for registration of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that the person is entitled to the registration, payment, or exchange, but a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims to whom transfer is registered warrants only that the person has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature in a necessary indorsement.
- (g) If a person acts as agent of another in delivering a certificated security to a purchaser, the identity of the principal was known to the person to whom the certificate was delivered, and the certificate delivered by the agent was received by the agent from the principal or received by the agent from another person at the direction of the principal, the person delivering the security certificate warrants only that the delivering person has authority to act for the principal and does not know of any adverse claim to the certificated security.
- (h) A secured party who redelivers a security certificate received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers the security certificate to another person, makes only the warranties of an agent under subsection (g).
- (i) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a broker acting for a customer makes to the issuer and a purchaser the warranties provided in subsections (a) through (f). A broker that delivers a security certificate to its customer, or causes its customer to be registered as the owner of an uncertificated security, makes to the customer the warranties provided in subsection (a) or (b), and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warranties given by and in favor of the customer.

§ 8–109. Warranties in indirect holding

Warranties in Indirect Holding

(a) A person who originates an entitlement order to a securities intermediary warrants to the securities intermediary that:

- (1) the entitlement order is made by an appropriate person, or if the entitlement order is by an agent, the agent has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and
- (2) there is no adverse claim to the security entitlement.

(b) A person who delivers a security certificate to a securities intermediary for credit to a securities account or originates an instruction with respect to an uncertificated security directing that the uncertificated security be credited to a securities account makes to the securities intermediary the warranties specified in Section 8–108(a) or (b).

(c) If a securities intermediary delivers a security certificate to its entitlement holder or causes its entitlement holder to be registered as the owner of an uncertificated security, the securities intermediary makes to the entitlement holder the warranties specified in Section 8–108(a) or (b).

§ 8–110. Applicability—Choice of law

Applicability—Choice of Law

(a) The local law of the issuer's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection (d), governs:

- (1) the validity of a security;
- (2) the rights and duties of the issuer with respect to registration of transfer;
- (3) the effectiveness of registration of transfer by the issuer,
- (4) whether the issuer owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security; and
- (5) whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom transfer of a certificated or uncertificated security is registered or a person who obtains control of an uncertificated security.

(b) The local law of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection (e), governs:

- (1) acquisition of a security entitlement from the securities intermediary;
- (2) the rights and duties of the securities intermediary and entitlement holder arising out of a security entitlement;

(3) whether the securities intermediary owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security entitlement; and

(4) whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person who acquires a security entitlement from the securities intermediary or a person who purchases a security entitlement or interest therein from an entitlement holder.

(c) The local law of the jurisdiction in which a security certificate is located at the time of delivery governs whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom the security certificate is delivered.

(d) "Issuer's jurisdiction" means the jurisdiction under which the issuer of the security is organized or, if permitted by the law of that jurisdiction, the law of another jurisdiction specified by the issuer. An issuer organized under the law of this State may specify the law of another jurisdiction as the law governing the matters specified in subsection (a)(2) through (5).

(e) The following rules determine a "securities intermediary's jurisdiction" for purposes of this section:

(1) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder specifies that it is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

(2) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify the governing law as provided in paragraph (1), but expressly specifies that the securities account is maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

(3) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify a jurisdiction as provided in paragraph (1) or (2), the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which is located the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the entitlement holder's account.

(4) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify a jurisdiction as provided in paragraph (1) or (2) and an account statement does not identify an office serving the entitlement holder's account as provided in paragraph (3), the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which is located the chief executive office of the securities intermediary.

(f) A securities intermediary's jurisdiction is not determined by the physical location of certificates representing financial assets, or by the jurisdiction in which is organized the issuer of the financial asset with respect to which an entitlement holder has a security entitlement, or by the location of facilities for data processing or other record keeping concerning the account.

§ 8–111. Clearing corporation rules

Clearing Corporation Rules

A rule adopted by a clearing corporation governing rights and obligations among the clearing corporation and its participants in the clearing corporation is effective even if the rule conflicts with this Act and affects another party who does not consent to the rule.

§ 8–112. Creditor's legal process

Creditor's Legal Process

(a) The interest of a debtor in a certificated security may be reached by a creditor only by actual seizure of the security certificate by the officer making the attachment or levy, except as otherwise provided in subsection (d). However, a certificated security for which the certificate has been surrendered to the issuer may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the issuer.

(b) The interest of a debtor in an uncertificated security may be reached by a creditor only by legal process upon the issuer at its chief executive office in the United States, except as otherwise provided in subsection (d).

(c) The interest of a debtor in a security entitlement may be reached by a creditor only by legal process upon the securities intermediary with whom the debtor's securities account is maintained, except as otherwise provided in subsection (d).

(d) The interest of a debtor in a certificated security for which the certificate is in the possession of a secured party, or in an uncertificated security registered in the name of a secured party, or a security entitlement maintained in the name of a secured party, may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the secured party.

(e) A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a certificated security, uncertificated security, or security entitlement is entitled to aid from a court of competent jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in reaching the certificated security, uncertificated security, or security entitlement or in satisfying the claim by means allowed at law or in equity in regard to property that cannot readily be reached by other legal process.

§ 8–113. Statute of Frauds inapplicable

Statute of Frauds Inapplicable

A contract or modification of a contract for the sale or purchase of a security is enforceable whether or not there is a writing signed or record authenticated by a party against whom enforcement is sought, even if the contract or modification is not capable of performance within one year of its making.

§ 8–114. Evidentiary rules concerning certificated securities

Evidentiary Rules Concerning Certificated Securities

The following rules apply in an action on a certificated security against the issuer:

- (1) Unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on a security certificate or in a necessary indorsement is admitted.
- (2) If the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue, the burden of establishing effectiveness is on the party claiming under the signature, but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized.
- (3) If signatures on a security certificate are admitted or established, production of the certificate entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the validity of the security.
- (4) If it is shown that a defense or defect exists, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the plaintiff or some person under whom the plaintiff claims is a person against whom the defense or defect cannot be asserted.

§ 8–115. Securities intermediary and others not liable to adverse claimant

Securities Intermediary and Others Not Liable to Adverse Claimant

A securities intermediary that has transferred a financial asset pursuant to an effective entitlement order, or a broker or other agent or bailee that has dealt with a financial asset at the direction of its customer or principal, is not liable to a person having an adverse claim to the financial asset, unless the securities intermediary, or broker or other agent or bailee:

- (1) took the action after it had been served with an injunction, restraining order, or other legal process enjoining it from doing so, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, and had a reasonable opportunity to act on the injunction, restraining order, or other legal process; or
- (2) acted in collusion with the wrongdoer in violating the rights of the adverse claimant; or
- (3) in the case of a security certificate that has been stolen, acted with notice of the adverse claim.

§ 8–116. Securities intermediary as purchaser for value

Securities Intermediary as Purchaser for Value

A securities intermediary that receives a financial asset and establishes a security entitlement to the financial asset in favor of an entitlement holder is a purchaser for value of the financial asset. A securities intermediary that acquires a security entitlement to a financial asset from another securities intermediary acquires the security entitlement for value if the securities intermediary acquiring the security entitlement establishes a security entitlement to the financial asset in favor of an entitlement holder.

PART 2. ISSUE AND ISSUER

§ 8–201. Issuer

Issuer

(a) With respect to an obligation on or a defense to a security, an "issuer" includes a person that:

(1) places or authorizes the placing of its name on a security certificate, other than as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like, to evidence a share, participation, or other interest in its property or in an enterprise, or to evidence its duty to perform an obligation represented by the certificate;

(2) creates a share, participation, or other interest in its property or in an enterprise, or undertakes an obligation, that is an uncertificated security;

(3) directly or indirectly creates a fractional interest in its rights or property, if the fractional interest is represented by a security certificate; or

(4) becomes responsible for, or in place of, another person described as an issuer in this section.

(b) With respect to an obligation on or defense to a security, a guarantor is an issuer to the extent of its guaranty, whether or not its obligation is noted on a security certificate.

(c) With respect to a registration of a transfer, issuer means a person on whose behalf transfer books are maintained.

§ 8–202. Issuer's responsibility and defenses—Notice of defect or defense

Issuer's Responsibility and Defenses—Notice of Defect or Defense

(a) Even against a purchaser for value and without notice, the terms of a certificated security include terms stated on the certificate and terms made part of the security by reference on the certificate to another instrument, indenture, or document or to a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, or the like, to the extent the terms referred to do not conflict with terms stated on the certificate. A reference under this subsection does not of itself charge a purchaser for value with notice of a defect going to the validity of the security, even if the certificate expressly states that a person accepting it admits notice. The terms of an uncertificated security include those stated in any instrument, indenture, or document or in a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, or the like, pursuant to which the security is issued.

(b) The following rules apply if an issuer asserts that a security is not valid:

(1) A security other than one issued by a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, even though issued with a defect going to its validity, is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value and without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of a constitutional provision. In that case, the security is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value and without notice of the defect, other than one who takes by original issue.

(2) Paragraph (1) applies to an issuer that is a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality only if there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8–205, lack of genuineness of a certificated security is a complete defense, even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

(d) All other defenses of the issuer of a security, including nondelivery and conditional delivery of a certificated security, are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken the certificated security without notice of the particular defense.

(e) This section does not affect the right of a party to cancel a contract for a security "when, as and if issued" or "when distributed" in the event of a material change in the character of the security that is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which the security is to be issued or distributed.

(f) If a security is held by a securities intermediary against whom an entitlement holder has a security entitlement with respect to the security, the issuer may not assert any defense that the issuer could not assert if the entitlement holder held the security directly.

§ 8–203. Staleness as notice of defect or defense

Staleness as Notice of Defect or Defense

After an act or event, other than a call that has been revoked, creating a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a certificated security or setting a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer, if the act or event:

(1) requires the payment of money, the delivery of a certificated security, the registration of transfer of an uncertificated security, or any of them on presentation or surrender of the security certificate, the money or security is available on the date set for payment or exchange, and the purchaser takes the security more than one year after that date; or

(2) is not covered by paragraph (1) and the purchaser takes the security more than two years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which performance became due.

§ 8–204. Effect of issuer's restriction on transfer

Effect of Issuer's Restriction On Transfer

A restriction on transfer of a security imposed by the issuer, even if otherwise lawful, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction unless:

- (1) the security is certificated and the restriction is noted conspicuously on the security certificate; or
- (2) the security is uncertificated and the registered owner has been notified of the restriction.

§ 8–205. Effect of unauthorized signature on security certificate

Effect of Unauthorized Signature on Security Certificate

An unauthorized signature placed on a security certificate before or in the course of issue is ineffective, but the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value of the certificated security if the purchaser is without notice of the lack of authority and the signing has been done by:

- (1) an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security certificate or of similar security certificates, or the immediate preparation for signing of any of them; or
- (2) an employee of the issuer, or of any of the persons listed in paragraph (1), entrusted with responsible handling of the security certificate.

§ 8–206. Completion or alteration of security certificate

Completion or Alteration of Security Certificate

(a) If a security certificate contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect:

- (1) any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and
- (2) even if the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security certificate as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of the incorrectness.

(b) A complete security certificate that has been improperly altered, even if fraudulently, remains enforceable, but only according to its original terms.

§ 8–207. Rights and duties of issuer with respect to registered owners

Rights and Duties of Issuer With Respect to Registered Owners

(a) Before due presentment for registration of transfer of a certificated security in registered form or of an instruction requesting registration of transfer of an uncertificated security, the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, receive notifications, and otherwise exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

(b) This article does not affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for a call, assessment, or the like.

§ 8–208. Effect of signature of authenticating trustee, registrar, or transfer agent

Effect of Signature of Authenticating Trustee, Registrar, or Transfer Agent

(a) A person signing a security certificate as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like, warrants to a purchaser for value of the certificated security, if the purchaser is without notice of a particular defect, that:

(1) the certificate is genuine;

(2) the person's own participation in the issue of the security is within the person's capacity and within the scope of the authority received by the person from the issuer, and

(3) the person has reasonable grounds to believe that the certificated security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed, a person signing under subsection (a) does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in other respects.

§ 8–209. Issuer's lien

Issuer's Lien

A lien in favor of an issuer upon a certificated security is valid against a purchaser only if the right of the issuer to the lien is noted conspicuously on the security certificate.

§ 8–210. Overissue

Overissue

(a) In this section, "overissue" means the issue of securities in excess of the amount the issuer has corporate power to issue, but an overissue does not occur if appropriate action has cured the overissue.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d), the provisions of this article which validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue, or reissue would result in overissue.

(c) If an identical security not constituting an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, a person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase the security and deliver it if certificated or register its transfer if uncertificated, against surrender of any security certificate the person holds.

(d) If a security is not reasonably available for purchase, a person entitled to issue or validation may recover from the issuer the price the person or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest from the date of the person's demand.

PART 3. TRANSFER OF CERTIFICATED AND UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES

§ 8-301. Delivery

Delivery

(a) Delivery of a certificated security to a purchaser occurs when:

(1) the purchaser acquires possession of the security certificate;

(2) another person, other than a securities intermediary, either acquires possession of the security certificate on behalf of the purchaser or, having previously acquired possession of the certificate, acknowledges that it holds for the purchaser; or

(3) a securities intermediary acting on behalf of the purchaser acquires possession of the security certificate, only if the certificate is in registered form and has been specially indorsed to the purchaser by an effective indorsement

(b) Delivery of an uncertificated security to a purchaser occurs when:

(1) the issuer registers the purchaser as the registered owner, upon original issue or registration of transfer; or

(2) another person, other than a securities intermediary, either becomes the registered owner of the uncertificated security on behalf of the purchaser or, having previously become the registered owner, acknowledges that it holds for the purchaser.

§ 8-302. Rights of purchaser

Rights of Purchaser

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c), upon delivery of a certificated or uncertificated security to a purchaser, the purchaser acquires all rights in the security that the transferor had or had power to transfer.

(b) A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.

(c) A purchaser of a certificated security who as a previous holder had notice of an adverse claim does not improve its position by taking from a protected purchaser.

§ 8-303. Protected purchaser

Protected Purchaser

(a) "Protected purchaser" means a purchaser of a certificated or uncertificated security, or of an interest therein, who:

(1) gives value;

(2) does not have notice of any adverse claim to the security; and

(3) obtains control of the certificated or uncertificated security.

(b) In addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser, a protected purchaser also acquires its interest in the security free of any adverse claim.

§ 8-304. Indorsement

Indorsement

(a) An indorsement may be in blank or special. An indorsement in blank includes an indorsement to bearer. A special indorsement specifies to whom a security is to be transferred or who has power to transfer it. A holder may convert a blank indorsement to a special indorsement.

(b) An indorsement purporting to be only of part of a security certificate representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the indorsement.

(c) An indorsement, whether special or in blank, does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the certificate on which it appears or, if the indorsement is on a separate document, until delivery of both the document and the certificate.

(d) If a security certificate in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary indorsement, the purchaser may become a protected purchaser only when the indorsement is supplied. However, against a transferor, a transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary indorsement supplied.

(e) An indorsement of a security certificate in bearer form may give notice of an adverse claim to the certificate, but it does not otherwise affect a right to registration that the holder possesses.

(f) Unless otherwise agreed, a person making an indorsement assumes only the obligations provided in Section 8–108 and not an obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer.

§ 8–305. Instruction

Instruction

(a) If an instruction has been originated by an appropriate person but is incomplete in any other respect, any person may complete it as authorized and the issuer may rely on it as completed, even though it has been completed incorrectly.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed, a person initiating an instruction assumes only the obligations imposed by Section 8–108 and not an obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer.

§ 8–306. Effect of guaranteeing signature, indorsement, or instruction

Effect of Guaranteeing Signature, Indorsement, or Instruction

(a) A person who guarantees a signature of an indorser of a security certificate warrants that at the time of signing:

(1) the signature was genuine;

(2) the signer was an appropriate person to indorse, or if the signature is by an agent, the agent had actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and

(3) the signer had legal capacity to sign.

(b) A person who guarantees a signature of the originator of an instruction warrants that at the time of signing:

(1) the signature was genuine;

(2) the signer was an appropriate person to originate the instruction, or if the signature is by an agent, the agent had actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person, if the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner was, in fact, the registered owner, as to which fact the signature guarantor does not make a warranty, and

(3) the signer had legal capacity to sign.

(c) A person who specially guarantees the signature of an originator of an instruction makes the warranties of a signature guarantor under subsection (b) and also warrants that at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer:

(1) the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner of the uncertificated security will be the registered owner; and

(2) the transfer of the uncertificated security requested in the instruction will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction.

(d) A guarantor under subsections (a) and (b) or a special guarantor under subsection (c) does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the transfer.

(e) A person who guarantees an indorsement of a security certificate makes the warranties of a signature guarantor under subsection (a) and also warrants the rightfulness of the transfer in all respects.

(f) A person who guarantees an instruction requesting the transfer of an uncertificated security makes the warranties of a special signature guarantor under subsection (c) and also warrants the rightfulness of the transfer in all respects.

(g) An issuer may not require a special guaranty of signature, a guaranty of indorsement, or a guaranty of instruction as a condition to registration of transfer.

(h) The warranties under this section are made to a person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guaranty, and the guarantor is liable to the person for loss resulting from their breach. An indorser or originator of an instruction whose signature, indorsement, or instruction has been guaranteed is liable to a guarantor for any loss suffered by the guarantor as a result of breach of the warranties of the guarantor.

§ 8-307. Purchaser's right to requisites for registration of transfer

Purchaser's Right to Requisites for Registration of Transfer

Unless otherwise agreed, the transferor of a security on due demand shall supply the purchaser with proof of authority to transfer or with any other requisite necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of the security, but if the transfer is not for value, a transferor need not comply unless the purchaser pays the necessary expenses. If the transferor fails within a reasonable time to comply with the demand, the purchaser may reject or rescind the transfer.

PART 4. REGISTRATION

§ 8-401. Duty of issuer to register transfer

Duty of Issuer to Register Transfer

(a) If a certificated security in registered form is presented to an issuer with a request to register transfer or an instruction is presented to an issuer with a request to register transfer of an uncertificated security, the issuer shall register the transfer as requested if:

- (1) under the terms of the security the person seeking registration of transfer is eligible to have the security registered in its name;
- (2) the indorsement or instruction is made by the appropriate person or by an agent who has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person;
- (3) reasonable assurance is given that the indorsement or instruction is genuine and authorized (Section 8-402);
- (4) any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with;
- (5) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer imposed by the issuer in accordance with Section 8-204;
- (6) a demand that the issuer not register transfer has not become effective under Section 8-403, or the issuer has complied with Section 8-403(b) but no legal process or indemnity bond is obtained as provided in Section 8-403(d); and
- (7) the transfer is in fact rightful or is to a protected purchaser.

(b) If an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer of a security, the issuer is liable to a person presenting a certificated security or an instruction for registration or to the person's principal for loss resulting from unreasonable delay in registration or failure or refusal to register the transfer.

§ 8-402. Assurance that indorsement or instruction is effective

Assurance That Indorsement or Instruction is Effective

- (a) An issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary indorsement or each instruction is genuine and authorized:
- (1) in all cases, a guaranty of the signature of the person making an indorsement or originating an instruction including, in the case of an instruction, reasonable assurance of identity;
 - (2) if the indorsement is made or the instruction is originated by an agent, appropriate assurance of actual authority to sign;
 - (3) if the indorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a fiduciary pursuant to Section 8-107(a)(4) or (a)(5), appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency;
 - (4) if there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so; and

(5) if the indorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a person not covered by another provision of this subsection, assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the provisions of this subsection.

(b) An issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section.

(c) In this section:

(1) "Guaranty of the signature" means a guaranty signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible. An issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility if they are not manifestly unreasonable.

(2) "Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency" means:

(i) in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction or supervision of the court or an officer thereof and dated within 60 days before the date of presentation for transfer; or

(ii) in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by an issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of that document or certificate, other evidence the issuer reasonably considers appropriate.

§ 8-403. Demand that issuer not register transfer

Demand That Issuer Not Register Transfer

(a) A person who is an appropriate person to make an indorsement or originate an instruction may demand that the issuer not register transfer of a security by communicating to the issuer a notification that identifies the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part and provides an address for communications directed to the person making the demand. The demand is effective only if it is received by the issuer at a time and in a manner affording the issuer reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(b) If a certificated security in registered form is presented to an issuer with a request to register transfer or an instruction is presented to an issuer with a request to register transfer of an uncertificated security after a demand that the issuer not register transfer has become effective, the issuer shall promptly communicate to (i) the person who initiated the demand at the address provided in the demand and (ii) the person who presented the security for registration of transfer or initiated the instruction requesting registration of transfer a notification stating that:

(1) the certificated security has been presented for registration of transfer or the instruction for registration of transfer of the uncertificated security has been received;

(2) a demand that the issuer not register transfer had previously been received; and

(3) the issuer will withhold registration of transfer for a period of time stated in the notification in order to provide the person who initiated the demand an opportunity to obtain legal process or an indemnity bond.

(c) The period described in subsection (b)(3) may not exceed 30 days after the date of communication of the notification. A shorter period may be specified by the issuer if it is not manifestly unreasonable.

(d) An issuer is not liable to a person who initiated a demand that the issuer not register transfer for any loss the person suffers as a result of registration of a transfer pursuant to an effective indorsement or instruction if the person who initiated the demand does not, within the time stated in the issuer's communication, either:

(1) obtain an appropriate restraining order, injunction, or other process from a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining the issuer from registering the transfer; or

(2) file with the issuer an indemnity bond, sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar, or other agent of the issuer involved from any loss it or they may suffer by refusing to register the transfer.

(e) This section does not relieve an issuer from liability for registering transfer pursuant to an indorsement or instruction that was not effective.

§ 8-404. Wrongful registration

Wrongful Registration

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8-406, an issuer is liable for wrongful registration of transfer if the issuer has registered a transfer of a security to a person not entitled to it, and the transfer was registered:

(1) pursuant to an ineffective indorsement or instruction;

(2) after a demand that the issuer not register transfer became effective under section 8-403(a) and the issuer did not comply with Section 8-403(b);

(3) after the issuer had been served with an injunction, restraining order, or other legal process enjoining it from registering the transfer, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, and the issuer had a reasonable opportunity to act on the injunction, restraining order, or other legal process; or

(4) by an issuer acting in collusion with the wrongdoer.

(b) An issuer that is liable for wrongful registration of transfer under subsection (a) on demand shall provide the person entitled to the security with a like certificated or uncertificated security, and any payments or distributions that the person did not receive as a result of the wrongful registration. If an overissue would result, the issuer's liability to provide the person with a like security is governed by Section 8–210.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a) or in a law relating to the collection of taxes, an issuer is not liable to an owner or other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer of a security if registration was made pursuant to an effective indorsement or instruction.

§ 8–405. Replacement of lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken security certificate

Replacement of Lost, Destroyed, or Wrongfully Taken Security Certificate

(a) If an owner of a certificated security, whether in registered or bearer form, claims that the certificate has been lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken, the issuer shall issue a new certificate if the owner.

(1) so requests before the issuer has notice that the certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser,

(2) files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and

(3) satisfies other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

(b) If, after the issue of a new security certificate, a protected purchaser of the original certificate presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer shall register the transfer unless an overissue would result. In that case, the issuer's liability is governed by 80 CNCA § 8–210. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, an issuer may recover the new certificate from a person to whom it was issued or any person taking under that person, except a protected purchaser.

§ 8–406. Obligation to notify issuer or lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken security certificate

Obligation to Notify Issuer or Lost, Destroyed, or Wrongfully Taken Security Certificate

If a security certificate has been lost, apparently destroyed, or wrongfully taken, and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after the owner has notice of it and the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving notification, the owner may not assert against the issuer a claim for registering the transfer under 80 CNCA § 8–404 or a claim to a new security certificate under 80 CNCA § 8–405.

§ 8–407. Authenticating trustee, transfer agent, and registrar

Authenticating Trustee, Transfer Agent, and Registrar

A person acting as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in the registration of a transfer of its securities, in the issue of new security certificates or uncertificated securities, or in the cancellation of surrendered security certificates has the same obligation to the holder or owner of a certificated or uncertificated security with regard to the particular functions performed as the issuer has in regard to those functions.

PART 5. SECURITY ENTITLEMENTS

§ 8–501. Securities account—Acquisition of security entitlement from securities intermediary

Securities Account—Acquisition of Security Entitlement From Securities Intermediary

(a) "Securities account" means an account to which a financial asset is or may be credited in accordance with an agreement under which the person maintaining the account undertakes to treat the person for whom the account is maintained as entitled to exercise the rights that comprise the financial asset.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (d) and (e), a person acquires a security entitlement if a securities intermediary:

(1) indicates by book entry that a financial asset has been credited to the person's securities account;

(2) receives a financial asset from the person or acquires a financial asset for the person and, in either case, accepts it for credit to the person's securities account; or

(3) becomes obligated under other law, regulation, or rule to credit a financial asset to the person's securities account.

(c) If a condition of subsection (b) has been met, a person has a security entitlement even though the securities intermediary does not itself hold the financial asset.

(d) If a securities intermediary holds a financial asset for another person, and the financial asset is registered in the name of, payable to the order of, or specially indorsed to the other person, and has not been indorsed to the securities intermediary or in blank, the other person is treated as holding the financial asset directly rather than as having a security entitlement with respect to the financial asset.

(e) Issuance of a security is not establishment of a security entitlement.

§ 8–502. Assertion of adverse claim against entitlement holder

Assertion of Adverse Claim Against Entitlement Holder

An action based on an adverse claim to a financial asset, whether framed in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien, or other theory, may not be asserted against a person who acquires a security entitlement under 80 CNCA § 8–501 for value and without notice of the adverse claim.

§ 8–503. Property interest of entitlement holder in financial asset held by securities intermediary

Property Interest of Entitlement Holder in Financial Asset Held by Securities Intermediary

(a) To the extent necessary for a securities intermediary to satisfy all security entitlements with respect to a particular financial asset, all interests in that financial asset held by the securities intermediary are held by the securities intermediary for the entitlement holders, are not property of the securities intermediary, and are not subject to claims of creditors of the securities intermediary, except as otherwise provided in Section 8–511.

(b) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (a) is a pro rata property interest in all interests in that financial asset held by the securities intermediary, without regard to the time the entitlement holder acquired the security entitlement or the time the securities intermediary acquired the interest in that financial asset.

(c) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (a) may be enforced against the securities intermediary only by exercise of the entitlement holder's rights under 80 CNCA §§ 8–505 through 8–508.

(d) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (a) may be enforced against a purchaser of the financial asset or interest therein only if:

(1) insolvency proceedings have been initiated by or against the securities intermediary;

(2) the securities intermediary does not have sufficient interests in the financial asset to satisfy the security entitlements of all of its entitlement holders to that financial asset;

(3) the securities intermediary violated its obligations under 80 CNCA § 8–504 by transferring the financial asset or interest therein to the purchaser, and

(4) the purchaser is not protected under subsection (e). The trustee or other liquidator, acting on behalf of all entitlement holders having security entitlements with respect to a particular financial asset, may recover the financial asset, or interest therein, from the purchaser. If the trustee or other liquidator elects not to pursue that right, an entitlement holder whose security entitlement remains unsatisfied has the right to recover its interest in the financial asset from the purchaser.

(e) An action based on the entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (a), whether framed in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien, or other theory, may not be asserted against any purchaser of a financial asset or interest therein who gives value, obtains control, and does not act in collusion with the securities intermediary in violating the securities intermediary's obligations under 80 CNCA § 8–504.

§ 8–504. Duty of securities intermediary to maintain financial asset

Duty of Securities Intermediary to Maintain Financial Asset

(a) A securities intermediary shall promptly obtain and thereafter maintain a financial asset in a quantity corresponding to the aggregate of all security entitlements it has established in favor of its entitlement holders with respect to that financial asset. The securities intermediary may maintain those financial assets directly or through one or more other securities intermediaries.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise agreed by its entitlement holder, a securities intermediary may not grant any security interests in a financial asset it is obligated to maintain pursuant to subsection (a).

(c) A securities intermediary satisfies the duty in subsection (a) if:

(1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to obtain and maintain the financial asset.

(d) This section does not apply to a clearing corporation that is itself the obligor of an option or similar obligation to which its entitlement holders have security entitlements.

§ 8-505. Duty of securities intermediary with respect to payments and distributions

Duty of Securities Intermediary With Respect to Payments and Distributions

(a) A securities intermediary shall take action to obtain a payment or distribution made by the issuer of a financial asset. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

(1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to attempt to obtain the payment or distribution.

(b) A securities intermediary is obligated to its entitlement holder for a payment or distribution made by the issuer of a financial asset if the payment or distribution is received by the securities intermediary.

§ 8-506. Duty of securities intermediary to exercise rights as directed by entitlement holder

Duty of Securities Intermediary to Exercise Rights as Directed by Entitlement Holder

A securities intermediary shall exercise rights with respect to a financial asset if directed to do so by an entitlement holder. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

(1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary either places the entitlement holder in a position to exercise the rights directly or exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to follow the direction of the entitlement holder.

§ 8-507. Duty of securities intermediary to comply with entitlement order

Duty of Securities Intermediary to Comply With Entitlement Order

(a) A securities intermediary shall comply with an entitlement order if the entitlement order is originated by the appropriate person, the securities intermediary has had reasonable opportunity to assure itself that the entitlement order is genuine and authorized, and the securities intermediary has had reasonable opportunity to comply with the entitlement order. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

(1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to comply with the entitlement order.

(b) If a securities intermediary transfers a financial asset pursuant to an ineffective entitlement order, the securities intermediary shall reestablish a security entitlement in favor of the person entitled to it, and pay or credit any payments or distributions that the person did not receive as a result of the wrongful transfer. If the securities intermediary does not reestablish a security entitlement, the securities intermediary is liable to the entitlement holder for damages.

§ 8-508. Duty of securities intermediary to change entitlement holder's position to other form of security holding

Duty of Securities Intermediary to Change Entitlement Holder's Position to Other Form of Security Holding

A securities intermediary shall act at the direction of an entitlement holder to change a security entitlement into another available form of holding for which the entitlement holder is eligible, or to cause the financial asset to be transferred to a securities account of the entitlement holder with another securities intermediary. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

(1) the securities intermediary acts as agreed upon by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to follow the direction of the entitlement holder.

§ 8–509. Specification of duties of securities intermediary by other statute or regulation—Manner of performance of duties of securities intermediary and exercise of rights of entitlement holder

Specification of Duties of Securities Intermediary by Other Statute or Regulation—Manner of Performance of Duties of Securities Intermediary and Exercise of Rights of Entitlement Holder

(a) If the substance of a duty imposed upon a securities intermediary by Sections 8–504 through 8–508 is the subject of other statute, regulation, or rule, compliance with that statute, regulation, or rule satisfies the duty.

(b) To the extent that specific standards for the performance of the duties of a securities intermediary or the exercise of the rights of an entitlement holder are not specified by other statute, regulation, or rule or by agreement between the securities intermediary and entitlement holder, the securities intermediary shall perform its duties and the entitlement holder shall exercise its rights in a commercially reasonable manner.

(c) The obligation of a securities intermediary to perform the duties imposed by 80 CNCA §§ 8–504 through 8–508 is subject to:

(1) rights of the securities intermediary arising out of a security interest under a security agreement with the entitlement holder or otherwise; and

(2) rights of the securities intermediary under other law, regulation, rule, or agreement to withhold performance of its duties as a result of unfulfilled obligations of the entitlement holder to the securities intermediary.

(d) 80 CNCA §§ 8–504 through 8–508 do not require a securities intermediary to take any action that is prohibited by other statute, regulation, or rule.

§ 8–510. Rights of purchaser of security entitlement from entitlement holder

Rights of Purchaser of Security Entitlement From Entitlement Holder

(a) An action based on an adverse claim to a financial asset or security entitlement, whether framed in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien, or other theory, may not be asserted against a person who purchases a security entitlement, or an interest therein, from an entitlement holder if the purchaser gives value, does not have notice of the adverse claim, and obtains control.

(b) If an adverse claim could not have been asserted against an entitlement holder under 80 CNCA § 8–502, the adverse claim cannot be asserted against a person who purchases a security entitlement, or an interest therein, from the entitlement holder.

(c) In a case not covered by the priority rules in Article 9, a purchaser for value of a security entitlement, or an interest therein, who obtains control has priority over a purchaser of a security entitlement, or an interest therein, who does not obtain control. Purchasers who have control rank equally, except that a securities intermediary as purchaser has priority over a conflicting purchaser who has control unless otherwise agreed by the securities intermediary.

§ 8-511. Priority among security interests and entitlement holders

Priority Among Security Interests and Entitlement Holders

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c), if a securities intermediary does not have sufficient interests in a particular financial asset to satisfy both its obligations to entitlement holders who have security entitlements to that financial asset and its obligation to a creditor of the securities intermediary who has a security interest in that financial asset, the claims of entitlement holders, other than the creditor, have priority over the claim of the creditor.

(b) A claim of a creditor of a securities intermediary who has a security interest in a financial asset held by a securities intermediary has priority over claims of the securities intermediary's entitlement holders who have security entitlements with respect to that financial asset if the creditor has control over the financial asset.

(c) If a clearing corporation does not have sufficient financial assets to satisfy both its obligations to entitlement holders who have security entitlements with respect to a financial asset and its obligation to a creditor of the clearing corporation who has a security interest in that financial asset, the claim of the creditor has priority over the claims of entitlement holders.

§ 9–102. Definitions and index of definitions

Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) Article 9 definitions. In this article:

(1) "Accession" means goods that are physically united with other goods in such a manner that the identity of the original goods is not lost.

(2) "Account", except as used in "account for", means a right to payment of a monetary obligation, whether or not earned by performance, (i) for property that has been or is to be sold, leased, licensed, assigned, or otherwise disposed of, (ii) for services rendered or to be rendered, (iii) for a policy of insurance issued or to be issued, (iv) for a secondary obligation incurred or to be incurred, (v) for energy provided or to be provided, (vi) for the use or hire of a vessel under a charter or other contract, (vii) arising out of the use of a credit or charge card or information contained on or for use with the card, or (viii) as winnings in a lottery or other game of chance operated or sponsored by a state, governmental unit of a state, or person licensed or authorized to operate the game by a state or governmental unit of a state. The term includes health-care-insurance receivables. The term does not include (i) rights to payment evidenced by chattel paper or an instrument, (ii) commercial tort claims, (iii) deposit accounts, (iv) investment property, (v) letter-of-credit rights or letters of credit, or (vi) rights to payment for money or funds advanced or sold, other than rights arising out of the use of a credit or charge card or information contained on or for use with the card.

(3) "Account debtor" means a person obligated on an account, chattel paper, or general intangible. The term does not include persons obligated to pay a negotiable instrument, even if the instrument constitutes part of chattel paper.

(4) "Accounting", except as used in "accounting for", means a record:

(A) authenticated by a secured party;

(B) indicating the aggregate unpaid secured obligations as of a date not more than thirty-five (35) days earlier or thirty-five (35) days later than the date of the record; and

(C) identifying the components of the obligations in reasonable detail.

(5) "Agricultural lien" means an interest, other than a security interest, in farm products:

(A) which secures payment or performance of an obligation for:

(i) goods or services furnished in connection with a debtor's farming operation; or

(ii) rent on real property leased by a debtor in connection with its farming operation;

(B) which is created by statute in favor of a person that:

(i) in the ordinary course of its business furnished goods or services to a debtor in connection with a debtor's farming operation; or

(ii) leased real property to a debtor in connection with the debtor's farming operation; and

(C) whose effectiveness does not depend on the person's possession of the personal property.

(6) "As-extracted collateral" means:

(A) oil, gas, or other minerals that are subject to a security interest that:

(i) is created by a debtor having an interest in the minerals before extraction; and

(ii) attaches to the minerals as extracted; or

(B) accounts arising out of the sale at the wellhead or minehead of oil, gas, or other minerals in which the debtor had an interest before extraction.

(7) "Authenticate" means:

(A) to sign; or

(B) to execute or otherwise adopt a symbol, or encrypt or similarly process a record in whole or in part, with the present intent of the authenticating person to identify the person and adopt or accept a record.

(8) "Bank" means an organization that is engaged in the business of banking. The term includes savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, and trust companies.

(9) "Cash proceeds" means proceeds that are money, checks, deposit accounts, or the like.

(10) "Certificate of title" means a certificate of title with respect to which a statute provides for the security interest in question to be indicated on the certificate as a condition or result of the security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the collateral.

(11) "Chattel paper" means a record or records that evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in specific goods, a security interest in specific goods and software used in the goods, a security interest in specific goods and license of software used in the goods, a lease of specific goods, or a lease of specific goods and license of software used in the goods. In this paragraph, "monetary obligation" means a monetary obligation secured by the goods or owed under a lease of the goods and includes a monetary obligation with respect to software used in the goods. The term does not include (i) charters or other contracts involving the use or hire of a vessel or (ii) records that evidence a right to payment arising out of the use of a credit or charge card or information contained on or for use with the card. If a transaction is evidenced by records that include an instrument or series of instruments, the group of records taken together constitutes chattel paper.

(12) "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest or agricultural lien. The term includes:

(A) proceeds to which a security interest attaches;

- (B) accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, and promissory notes that have been sold; and
- (C) goods that are the subject of a consignment.

(13) "Commercial tort claim" means a claim arising in tort with respect to which:

- (A) the claimant is an organization; or
- (B) the claimant is an individual and the claim:
 - (i) arose in the course of the claimant's business or profession; and
 - (ii) does not include damages arising out of personal injury to or the death of an individual.

(14) "Commodity account" means an account maintained by a commodity intermediary in which a commodity contract is carried for a commodity customer.

(15) "Commodity contract" means a commodity futures contract, an option on a commodity futures contract, a commodity option, or another contract if the contract or option is:

- (A) traded on or subject to the rules of a board of trade that has been designated as a contract market for such a contract pursuant to federal commodities laws; or
- (B) traded on a foreign commodity board of trade, exchange, or market, and is carried on the books of a commodity intermediary for a commodity customer.

(16) "Commodity customer" means a person for which a commodity intermediary carries a commodity contract on its books.

(17) "Commodity intermediary" means a person that:

- (A) is registered as a futures commission merchant under federal commodities law; or
- (B) in the ordinary course of its business provides clearance or settlement services for a board of trade that has been designated as a contract market pursuant to federal commodities law.

(18) "Communicate" means:

- (A) to send a written or other tangible record;
- (B) to transmit a record by any means agreed upon by the persons sending and receiving the record; or
- (C) in the case of transmission of a record to or by a filing office, to transmit a record by any means prescribed by filing-office rule.

(19) "Consignee" means a merchant to which goods are delivered in a consignment.

(20) "Consignment" means a transaction, regardless of its form, in which a person delivers goods to a merchant for the purpose of sale and:

(A) the merchant:

(i) deals in goods of that kind under a name other than the name of the person making delivery;

(ii) is not an auctioneer; and

(iii) is not generally known by its creditors to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others;

(B) with respect to each delivery, the aggregate value of the goods is One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or more at the time of delivery;

(C) the goods are not consumer goods immediately before delivery; and

(D) the transaction does not create a security interest that secures an obligation.

(21) "Consignor" means a person that delivers goods to a consignee in a consignment.

(22) "Consumer debtor" means a debtor in a consumer transaction.

(23) "Consumer goods" means goods that are used or bought for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(24) "Consumer-goods transaction" means a consumer transaction in which:

(A) an individual incurs an obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; and

(B) a security interest in consumer goods secures the obligation.

(25) "Consumer obligor" means an obligor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation as part of a transaction entered into primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(26) "Consumer transaction" means a transaction in which (i) an individual incurs an obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, (ii) a security interest secures the obligation, and (iii) the collateral is held or acquired primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. The term includes consumer-goods transactions.

(27) "Continuation statement" means an amendment of a financing statement which:

- (A) identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which it relates; and
- (B) indicates that it is a continuation statement for, or that it is filed to continue the effectiveness of, the identified financing statement.
- (28) "Debtor" means:
- (A) a person having an interest, other than a security interest or other lien, in the collateral, whether or not the person is an obligor;
- (B) a seller of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes; or
- (C) a consignee.
- (29) "Deposit account" means a demand, time, savings, passbook, or similar account maintained with a bank. The term does not include investment property or accounts evidenced by an instrument.
- (30) "Document" means a document of title or a receipt of the type described in 80 CNCA § 7–201(2).
- (31) "Electronic chattel paper" means chattel paper evidenced by a record or records consisting of information stored in an electronic medium.
- (32) "Encumbrance" means a right, other than an ownership interest, in real property. The term includes mortgages and other liens on real property.
- (33) "Equipment" means goods other than inventory, farm products/or consumer goods.
- (34) "Farm products" means goods, other than standing timber, with respect to which the debtor is engaged in a farming operation and which are:
- (A) crops grown, growing, or to be grown, including:
- (i) crops produced on trees, vines, and bushes; and
- (ii) aquatic goods produced in aquacultural operations;
- (B) livestock, born or unborn, including aquatic goods produced in aquacultural operations;
- (C) supplies used or produced in a farming operation; or
- (D) products of crops or livestock in their unmanufactured states.
- (35) "Farming operation" means raising, cultivating, propagating, fattening, grazing, or any other farming, livestock, or aquacultural operation.

(36) "File number" means the number assigned to an initial financing statement pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–519(a).

(37) "Filing office" means an office designated in 80 CNCA § 9–501 as the place to file a financing statement.

(38) "Filing-office rule" means a rule adopted pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–526.

(39) "Financing statement" means a record or records composed of an initial financing statement and any filed record relating to the initial financing statement.

(40) "Fixture filing" means the filing of a financing statement covering goods that are or are to become fixtures and satisfying 80 CNCA § 9–502(a) and (b). The term includes the filing of a financing statement covering goods of a transmitting utility which are or are to become fixtures.

(41) "Fixtures" means goods that have become so related to particular real property that an interest in them arises under real property law.

(42) "General intangible" means any personal property, including things in action, other than accounts, chattel paper, commercial tort claims, deposit accounts, documents, goods, instruments, investment property, letter-of-credit rights, letters of credit, money, and oil, gas, or other minerals before extraction. The term includes payment intangibles and software.

(43) "Good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

(44) "Goods" means all things that are movable when a security interest attaches. The term includes (i) fixtures, (ii) standing timber that is to be cut and removed under a conveyance or contract for sale, (iii) the unborn young of animals, (iv) crops grown, growing, or to be grown, even if the crops are produced on trees, vines, or bushes, and (v) manufactured homes. The term also includes a computer program embedded in goods and any supporting information provided in connection with a transaction relating to the program if (i) the program is associated with the goods in such a manner that it customarily is considered part of the goods, or (ii) by becoming the owner of the goods, a person acquires a right to use the program in connection with the goods. The term does not include a computer program embedded in goods that consist solely of the medium in which the program is embedded. The term also does not include accounts, chattel paper, commercial tort claims, deposit accounts, documents, general intangibles, instruments, investment property, letter-of-credit rights, letters of credit, money, or oil, gas, or other minerals before extraction.

(45) "Governmental unit" means a subdivision, agency, department, county, parish, municipality, or other unit of the government of the United States, a state, or a foreign country. The term includes an organization having a separate corporate existence if the organization is eligible to issue debt on which interest is exempt from income taxation under the laws of the United States.

(46) "Health-care-insurance receivable" means an interest in or claim under a policy of insurance which is a right to payment of a monetary obligation for health-care goods or services provided.

(47) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument or any other writing that evidences a right to the payment of a monetary obligation, is not itself a security agreement or lease, and is of a type that in ordinary course of business is transferred by delivery with any necessary indorsement or assignment. The term does not include (i) investment property, (ii) letters of credit, or (iii) writings that evidence a right to payment arising out of the use of a credit or charge card or information contained on or for use with the card.

(48) "Inventory" means goods, other than farm products, which:

(A) are leased by a person as lessor;

(B) are held by a person for sale or lease or to be furnished under a contract of service;

(C) are furnished by a person under a contract of service; or

(D) consist of raw materials, work in process, or materials used or consumed in a business.

(49) "Investment property" means a security, whether certificated or uncertificated, security entitlement, securities account, commodity contract, or commodity account.

(50) "Jurisdiction of organization", with respect to a registered organization, means the jurisdiction under whose law the organization is organized.

(51) "Letter-of-credit right" means a right to payment or performance under a letter of credit, whether or not the beneficiary has demanded or is at the time entitled to demand payment or performance. The term does not include the right of a beneficiary to demand payment or performance under a letter of credit.

(52) "Lien creditor" means:

(A) a creditor that has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy, or the like;

(B) an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment;

(C) a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition; or

(D) a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

(53) "Manufactured home" means a structure, transportable in one or more sections, which, in the traveling mode, is eight (8) body feet or more in width or forty (40) body feet or more in length, or, when erected on site, is three hundred twenty (320) or more square feet, and which is built on a permanent chassis and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and includes the plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, and electrical systems contained therein. The term includes any structure that meets all of the requirements of this paragraph except the size requirements and with respect to which the manufacturer voluntarily files a certification required by the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and complies with the standards established under Title 42 of the United States Code.

(54) "Manufactured-home transaction" means a secured transaction:

(A) that creates a purchase-money security interest in a manufactured home, other than a manufactured home held as inventory, or

(B) in which a manufactured home, other than a manufactured home held as inventory, is the primary collateral.

(55) "Mortgage" means a consensual interest in real property, including fixtures, which secures payment or performance of an obligation.

(56) "New debtor" means a person that becomes bound as debtor under 80 CNCA § 9–203(d) by a security agreement previously entered into by another person.

(57) "New value" means (i) money, (ii) money's worth in property, services, or new credit, or (iii) release by a transferee of an interest in property previously transferred to the transferee. The term does not include an obligation substituted for another obligation.

(58) "Noncash proceeds" means proceeds other than cash proceeds.

(59) "Obligor" means a person that, with respect to an obligation secured by a security interest in or an agricultural lien on the collateral, (i) owes payment or other performance of the obligation, (ii) has provided property other than the collateral to secure payment or other performance of the obligation, or (iii) is otherwise accountable in whole or in part for payment or other performance of the obligation. The term does not include issuers or nominated persons under a letter of credit.

(60) "Original debtor", except as used in 80 CNCA § 9–310(c), means a person that, as debtor, entered into a security agreement to which a new debtor has become bound under 80 CNCA § 9–203(d).

(61) "Payment intangible" means a general intangible under which the account debtor's principal obligation is a monetary obligation.

(62) "Person related to", with respect to an individual, means:

- (A) the spouse of the individual;
- (B) a brother, brother-in-law, sister, or sister-in-law of the individual;

- (C) an officer or director of, or a person performing similar functions with respect to, a person described in subparagraph (A);
- (D) the spouse of an individual described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C); or
- (E) an individual who is related by blood or marriage to an individual described in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D) and shares the same home with the individual.

(64) "Proceeds", except as used in 80 CNCA § 9–609(b), means the following property:

- (A) whatever is acquired upon the sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition of collateral;
- (B) whatever is collected on, or distributed on account of, collateral;
- (C) rights arising out of collateral;
- (D) to the extent of the value of collateral, claims arising out of the loss, nonconformity, or interference with the use of, defects or infringement of rights in, or damage to, the collateral; or
- (E) to the extent of the value of collateral and to the extent payable to the debtor or the secured party, insurance payable by reason of the loss or nonconformity of, defects or infringement of rights in, or damage to, the collateral.

(65) "Promissory note" means an instrument that evidences a promise to pay a monetary obligation, does not evidence an order to pay, and does not contain an acknowledgment by a bank that the bank has received for deposit a sum of money or funds.

(66) "Proposal" means a record authenticated by a secured party which includes the terms on which the secured party is willing to accept collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures pursuant to 80 CNCA §§ 9–620, 9–621, and 9–622.

(67) "Public-finance transaction" means a secured transaction in connection with which:

(A) debt securities are issued;

(B) all or a portion of the securities issued have an initial stated maturity of at least twenty (20) years; and

(C) the debtor, obligor, secured party, account debtor or other person obligated on collateral, assignor or assignee of a secured obligation, or assignor or assignee of a security interest is a State or a governmental unit of a state.

(68) "Pursuant to commitment", with respect to an advance made or other value given by a secured party, means pursuant to the secured party's obligation, whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within the secured party's control has relieved or may relieve the secured party from its obligation.

(69) "Record", except as used in "for record", "of record", "record or legal title", and "record owner", means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or which is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(70) "Registered organization" means an organization organized solely under the law of a single State or the United States and as to which the State or the United States must maintain a public record showing the organization to have been organized.

(71) "Secondary obligor" means an obligor to the extent that:

(A) the obligor's obligation is secondary; or

(B) the obligor has a right of recourse with respect to an obligation secured by collateral against the debtor, another obligor, or property of either.

(72) "Secured party" means:

(A) a person in whose favor a security interest is created or provided for under a security agreement, whether or not any obligation to be secured is outstanding;

(B) a person that holds an agricultural lien;

(C) a consignor,

(D) a person to which accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes have been sold;

(E) a trustee, indenture trustee, agent, collateral agent, or other representative in whose favor a security interest or agricultural lien is created or provided for; or

(F) a person that holds a security interest arising under 80 CNCA § 2–401, 2–505, 2–711(3), 2A–508(5), 4–210, or 5–118.

(73) "Security agreement" means an agreement that creates or provides for a security interest.

(74) "Send", in connection with a record or notification, means:

(A) to deposit in the mail, deliver for transmission, or transmit by any other usual means of communication, with postage or cost of transmission provided for, addressed to any address reasonable under the circumstances; or

(B) to cause the record or notification to be received within the time that it would have been received if properly sent under subparagraph (A).

(75) "Software" means a computer program and any supporting information provided in connection with a transaction relating to the program. The term does not include a computer program that is included in the definition of goods.

(76) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(77) "Supporting obligation" means a letter-of-credit right or secondary obligation that supports the payment or performance of an account, chattel paper, a document, a general intangible, an instrument, or investment property.

(78) "Tangible chattel paper" means chattel paper evidenced by a record or records consisting of information that is inscribed on a tangible medium.

(79) "Termination statement" means an amendment of a financing statement which:

(A) identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which it relates; and

(B) indicates either that it is a termination statement or that the identified financing statement is no longer effective.

(80) "Transmitting utility" means a person primarily engaged in the business of:

(A) operating a railroad, subway, street railway, or trolley bus;

(B) transmitting communications electrically, electromagnetically, or by light;

(C) transmitting goods by pipeline or sewer; or

(D) transmitting or producing and transmitting electricity, steam, gas, or water,

§ 9–103. Purchase-money security interest—Application of payments—Burden of establishing

Purchase-Money Security Interest—Application of Payments—Burden of Establishing

(a) Definitions. In this section:

(1) "Purchase-money collateral" means goods or software that secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to that collateral; and

(2) "Purchase-money obligation" means an obligation of an obligor incurred as all or part of the price of the collateral or for value given to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of the collateral if the value is in fact so used.

(b) Purchase-money security interest in goods. A security interest in goods is a purchase-money security interest:

(1) to the extent that the goods are purchase-money collateral with respect to that security interest;

(2) if the security interest is in inventory that is or was purchase-money collateral, also to the extent that the security interest secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to other inventory in which the secured party holds or held a purchase-money security interest; and

(3) also to the extent that the security interest secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to software in which the secured party holds or held a purchase-money security interest.

(c) Purchase-money security interest in software. A security interest in software is a purchase-money security interest to the extent that the security interest also secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to goods in which the secured party holds or held a purchase-money security interest if:

(1) the debtor acquired its interest in the software in an integrated transaction in which it acquired an interest in the goods; and

(2) the debtor acquired its interest in the software for the principal purpose of using the software in the goods.

(d) Consignor's inventory purchase-money security interest. The security interest of a consignor in goods that are the subject of a consignment is a purchase-money security interest in inventory.

(e) Application of payment in non-consumer-goods transaction. In a transaction other than a consumer-goods transaction, if the extent to which a security interest is a purchase-money security interest depends on the application of a payment to a particular obligation, the payment must be applied:

(1) in accordance with any reasonable method of application to which the parties agree;

(2) in the absence of the parties' agreement to a reasonable method, in accordance with any intention of the obligor manifested at or before the time of payment; or

(3) in the absence of an agreement to a reasonable method and a timely manifestation of the obligor's intention, in the following order

(A) to obligations that are not secured; and

(B) if more than one obligation is secured, to obligations secured by purchase-money security interests in the order in which those obligations were incurred,

(f) No loss of status of purchase-money security interest in non-consumer-goods transaction. In a transaction other than a consumer-goods transaction, a purchase-money security interest does not lose its status as such, even if:

(1) the purchase-money collateral also secures an obligation that is not a purchase-money obligation;

(2) collateral that is not purchase-money collateral also secures the purchase-money obligation; or

(3) the purchase-money obligation has been renewed, refinanced, consolidated, or restructured.

(g) Burden of proof in non-consumer-goods transaction. In a transaction other than a consumer-goods transaction, a secured party claiming a purchase-money security interest has the burden of establishing the extent to which the security interest is a purchase-money security interest.

(h) Non-consumer-goods transactions; no inference. The limitation of the rules in subsections (e), (f), and (g) to transactions other than consumer-goods transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer-goods transactions. The court may not infer from that limitation the nature of the proper rule in consumer-goods transactions and may continue to apply established approaches.

§ 9–104. Control of deposit account

Control of Deposit Account

(a) Requirements for control. A secured party has control of a deposit account if:

(1) the secured party is the bank with which the deposit account is maintained;

(2) the debtor, secured party, and bank have agreed in an authenticated record that the bank will comply with instructions originated by the secured party directing disposition of the funds in the deposit account without further consent by the debtor; or

(3) the secured party becomes the bank's customer with respect to the deposit account,

(b) Debtor's right to direct disposition. A secured party that has satisfied subsection (a) has control, even if the debtor retains the right to direct the disposition of funds from the deposit account.

§ 9–105. Control of electronic chattel paper

Control of Electronic Chattel Paper

A secured party has control of electronic chattel paper if the record or records comprising the chattel paper are created, stored, and assigned in such a manner that:

- (1) a single authoritative copy of the record or records exists which is unique, identifiable and, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (4), (5), and (6), unalterable;
- (2) the authoritative copy identifies the secured party as the assignee of the record or records;
- (3) the authoritative copy is communicated to and maintained by the secured party or its designated custodian;
- (4) copies or revisions that add or change an identified assignee of the authoritative copy can be made only with the participation of the secured party;
- (5) each copy of the authoritative copy and any copy of a copy is readily identifiable as a copy that is not the authoritative copy; and
- (6) any revision of the authoritative copy is readily identifiable as an authorized or unauthorized revision.

§ 9–106. Control of investment property

Control of Investment Property

- (a) Control under 80 CNCA § 8–106. A person has control of a certificated security, uncertificated security, or security entitlement as provided in 80 CNCA § 8–106.
- (b) Control of commodity contract. A secured party has control of a commodity contract if:
 - (1) the secured party is the commodity intermediary with which the commodity contract is carried;
or
 - (2) the commodity customer, secured party, and commodity intermediary have agreed that the commodity intermediary will apply any value distributed on account of the commodity contract as directed by the secured party without further consent by the commodity customer.
- (c) Effect of control of securities account or commodity account. A secured party having control of all security entitlements or commodity contracts carried in a securities account or commodity account has control over the securities account or commodity account.

§ 9–107. Control of letter-of-credit right

Control of Letter-of-Credit Right

A secured party has control of a letter-of-credit right to the extent of any right to payment or performance by the issuer or any nominated person if the issuer or nominated person has consented to an assignment of proceeds of the letter of credit under 80 CNCA § 5-114(c) or otherwise applicable law or practice.

§ 9-108. Sufficiency of description

Sufficiency of Description

(a) Sufficiency of description. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c), (d), and (e), a description of personal or real property is sufficient, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.

(b) Examples of reasonable identification. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), a description of collateral reasonably identifies the collateral if it identifies the collateral by:

(1) specific listing;

(2) category;

(3) except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a type of collateral defined in the Uniform Commercial Code;

(4) quantity;

(5) computational or allocational formula or procedure; or

(6) except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), any other method, if the identity of the collateral is objectively determinable.

(c) Supergeneric description not sufficient. A description of collateral as "all the debtor's assets" or "all the debtor's personal property" or using words of similar import does not reasonably identify the collateral.

(d) Investment property. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a description of a security entitlement, securities account, or commodity account is sufficient if it describes;

(1) the collateral by those terms or as investment property; or

(2) the underlying financial asset or commodity contract,

(e) When description by type insufficient. A description only by type of collateral defined in the Uniform Commercial Code is an insufficient description of:

(1) a commercial tort claim; or

(2) in a consumer transaction, consumer goods, a security entitlement, a securities account, or a commodity account.

SUBPART 2. APPLICABILITY OF ARTICLE

§ 9–109. Scope

Scope

(a) General scope of article. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d), this article applies to:

(1) a transaction, regardless of its form, that creates a security interest in personal property or fixtures by contract;

(2) an agricultural lien;

(3) a sale of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes;

(4) a consignment;

(5) a security interest arising under 80 CNCA § 2–401, 2–505, 2–711(3), or 2A–508(5), as provided in 80 CNCA § 9–110; and

(6) a security interest arising under 80 CNCA § 4–210 or 5–118.

(b) Security interest in secured obligation. The application of this article to a security interest in a secured obligation is not affected by the fact that the obligation is itself secured by a transaction or interest to which this article does not apply.

(c) Extent to which article does not apply. This article does not apply to the extent that:

(1) a statute, regulation, or treaty of the United States preempts this article;

(2) another statute of this Nation expressly governs the creation, perfection, priority, or enforcement of a security interest created by this Nation or a governmental unit of this Nation;

(3) a statute of a state, a foreign country, or a governmental unit of another nation or a foreign country, other than a statute generally applicable to security interests, expressly governs creation, perfection, priority, or enforcement of a security interest created by the nation, country, or governmental unit; or

(4) the rights of a transferee beneficiary or nominated person under a letter of credit are independent and superior under 80 CNCA § 5–114,

(d) Inapplicability of article. This article does not apply to:

(1) a landlord's lien, other than an agricultural lien;

(2) a lien, other than an agricultural lien, given by statute or other rule of law for services or materials, but 80 CNCA § 9–333 applies with respect to priority of the lien;

(3) an assignment of a claim for wages, salary, or other compensation of an employee;

(4) a sale of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes as part of a sale of the business out of which they arose;

(5) an assignment of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes which is for the purpose of collection only;

(6) an assignment of a right to payment under a contract to an assignee that is also obligated to perform under the contract;

(7) an assignment of a single account, payment intangible, or promissory note to an assignee in full or partial satisfaction of a preexisting indebtedness;

(8) a transfer of an interest in or an assignment of a claim under a policy of insurance, other than an assignment by or to a health-care provider of a health-care-insurance receivable and any subsequent assignment of the right to payment, but 80 CNCA §§ 9–315 and 9–322 apply with respect to proceeds and priorities in proceeds;

(9) an assignment of a right represented by a judgment, other than a judgment taken on a right to payment that was collateral;

(10) a right of recoupment or set-off, but;

(A) 80 CNCA § 9–340 applies with respect to the effectiveness of rights of recoupment or set-off against deposit accounts; and

(B) 80 CNCA § 9–404 applies with respect to defenses or claims of an account debtor;

(11) the creation or transfer of an interest in or lien on real property, including a lease or rents thereunder, except to the extent that provision is made for:

(A) liens on real property in 80 CNCA §§ 9–203 and 9–308;

(B) fixtures in 80 CNCA § 9–334;

(C) fixture filings in 80 CNCA §§ 9–501, 9–502, 9–512, 9–516, and 9–519; and

(D) security agreements covering personal and real property in 80 CNCA § 9–604;

(12) an assignment of a claim arising in tort, other than a commercial tort claim, but 80 CNCA §§ 9–315 and 9–322 apply with respect to proceeds and priorities in proceeds; or

(13) an assignment of a deposit account in a consumer transaction, but 80 CNCA §§ 9–315 and 9–322 apply with respect to proceeds and priorities in proceeds.

§ 9–110. Security interests arising under Article 2 or 2A

Security Interests Arising Under Article 2 or 2A

A security interest arising under 80 CNCA § 2–401, 2–505, 2–711(3), or 2A–508(5) is subject to this article. However, until the debtor obtains possession of the goods:

(1) the security interest is enforceable, even if 80 CNCA § 9–203(b)(3) has not been satisfied;

(2) filing is not required to perfect the security interest;

(3) the rights of the secured party after default by the debtor are governed by Article 2 or 2A; and

(4) the security interest has priority over a conflicting security interest created by the debtor.

PART 2. EFFECTIVENESS OF SECURITY AGREEMENT, ATTACHMENT OF SECURITY INTEREST, RIGHTS OF PARTIES TO SECURITY AGREEMENT

SUBPART 1. EFFECTIVENESS AND ATTACHMENT

§ 9–201. General effectiveness of security agreement

General Effectiveness of Security Agreement

(a) General effectiveness. Except as otherwise provided in the Uniform Commercial Code, a security agreement is effective according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the collateral, and against creditors.

(b) Applicable consumer laws and other law. A transaction subject to this article is subject to any applicable rule of law which establishes a different rule for consumers.

(c) Other applicable law controls. In case of conflict between this article and a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (b), the rule of law, statute, or regulation controls. Failure to comply with a statute or regulation described in subsection (b) has only the effect the statute or regulation specifies.

(d) Further deference to other applicable law. This article does not:

(1) validate any rate, charge, agreement, or practice that violates a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (b); or

(2) extend the application of the rule of law, statute, or regulation to a transaction not otherwise subject to it.

§ 9–202. Title to collateral immaterial

Title to Collateral Immaterial

Except as otherwise provided with respect to consignments or sales of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes, the provisions of this article with regard to rights and obligations apply whether title to collateral is in the secured party or the debtor.

§ 9–203. Attachment and enforceability of security interest—Proceeds—Supporting obligations—Formal requisites

Attachment and Enforceability of Security Interest—Proceeds—Supporting Obligations—Formal Requisites

(a) Attachment. A security interest attaches to collateral when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the collateral, unless an agreement expressly postpones the time of attachment.

(b) Enforceability. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) through (i), a security interest is enforceable against the debtor and third parties with respect to the collateral only if:

(1) value has been given;

(2) the debtor has rights in the collateral or the power to transfer rights in the collateral to a secured party; and

(3) one of the following conditions is met:

(A) the debtor has authenticated a security agreement that provides a description of the collateral and, if the security interest covers timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned;

(B) the collateral is not a certificated security and is in the possession of the secured party under 80 CNCA § 9–313 pursuant to the debtor's security agreement;

(C) the collateral is a certificated security in registered form and the security certificate has been delivered to the secured party under 80 CNCA § 8–301 pursuant to the debtor's security agreement;
or

(D) the collateral is deposit accounts, electronic chattel paper, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights, and the secured party has control under 80 CNCA § 9–104, 9–105, 9–106, or 9–107 pursuant to the debtor's security agreement.

(c) Other UCC provisions. Subsection (b) is subject to 80 CNCA § 4–210 on the security interest of a collecting bank, 80 CNCA § 5–118 on the security interest of a letter-of-credit issuer or nominated person, 80 CNCA § 9–110 on a security interest arising under Article 2 or 2A, and 80 CNCA 9–206 on security interests in investment property.

(d) When person becomes bound by another person's security agreement. A person becomes bound as debtor by a security agreement entered into by another person if, by operation of law other than this article or by contract:

(1) the security agreement becomes effective to create a security interest in the person's property, or

(2) the person becomes generally obligated for the obligations of the other person, including the obligation secured under the security agreement, and acquires or succeeds to all or substantially all of the assets of the other person.

(e) Effect of new debtor becoming bound. If a new debtor becomes bound as debtor by a security agreement entered into by another person:

(1) the agreement satisfies subsection (b)(3) with respect to existing or after-acquired property of the new debtor to the extent the property is described in the agreement; and

(2) another agreement is not necessary to make a security interest in the property enforceable.

(f) Proceeds and supporting obligations. The attachment of a security interest in collateral gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided by Section 9–315 and is also attachment of a security interest in a supporting obligation for the collateral.

(g) Lien securing right to payment. The attachment of a security interest in a right to payment or performance secured by a security interest or other lien on personal or real property is also attachment of a security interest in the security interest, mortgage, or other lien.

(h) Security entitlement carried in securities account. The attachment of a security interest in a securities account is also attachment of a security interest in the security entitlements carried in the securities account.

(i) Commodity contracts carried in commodity account. The attachment of a security interest in a commodity account is also attachment of a security interest in the commodity contracts carried in the commodity account.

§ 9–204. After-acquired property—Future advances

After-Acquired Property—Future Advances

- (a) After-acquired collateral. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a security agreement may create or provide for a security interest in after-acquired collateral.
- (b) When after-acquired property clause not effective. A security interest does not attach under a term constituting an after-acquired property clause to:
- (1) consumer goods, other than an accession when given as additional security, unless the debtor acquires rights in them within 10 days after the secured party gives value; or
 - (2) a commercial tort claim.
- (c) Future advances and other value. A security agreement may provide that collateral secures, or that accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes are sold in connection with, future advances or other value, whether or not the advances or value are given pursuant to commitment.

§ 9–205. Use or disposition of collateral permissible

Use or Disposition of Collateral Permissible

- (a) When security interest not invalid or fraudulent. A security interest is not invalid or fraudulent against creditors solely because:
- (1) the debtor has the right or ability to:
 - (A) use, commingle, or dispose of all or part of the collateral, including returned or repossessed goods;
 - (B) collect, compromise, enforce, or otherwise deal with collateral;
 - (C) accept the return of collateral or make repossessions; or
 - (D) use, commingle, or dispose of proceeds; or
 - (2) the secured party fails to require the debtor to account for proceeds or replace collateral.
- (b) Requirements of possession not relaxed. This section does not relax the requirements of possession if attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by the secured party.

§ 9–206. Security interest arising in purchase or delivery of financial asset

Security Interest Arising in Purchase or Delivery of Financial Asset

(a) Security interest when person buys through securities intermediary. A security interest in favor of a securities intermediary attaches to a person's security entitlement if:

(1) the person buys a financial asset through the securities intermediary in a transaction in which the person is obligated to pay the purchase price to the securities intermediary at the time of the purchase; and

(2) the securities intermediary credits the financial asset to the buyer's securities account before the buyer pays the securities intermediary.

(b) Security interest secures obligation to pay for financial asset. The security interest described in subsection (a) secures the person's obligation to pay for the financial asset.

(c) Security interest in payment against delivery transaction. A security interest in favor of a person that delivers a certificated security or other financial asset represented by a writing attaches to the security or other financial asset if:

(1) the security or other financial asset:

(A) in the ordinary course of business is transferred by delivery with any necessary indorsement or assignment; and

(B) is delivered under an agreement between persons in the business of dealing with such securities or financial assets; and

(2) the agreement calls for delivery against payment.

(d) Security Interest secures obligation to pay for delivery. The security interest described in subsection (c) secures the obligation to make payment for the delivery.

SUBPART 2. RIGHTS AND DUTIES

§ 9–207. Rights and duties of secured party having possession or control of collateral

Rights and Duties of Secured Party Having Possession or Control of Collateral

(a) Duty of care when secured party In possession. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), a secured party shall use reasonable care in the custody and preservation of collateral in the secured party's possession. In the case of chattel paper or an instrument, reasonable care includes taking necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties unless otherwise agreed.

(b) Expenses, risks, duties, and rights when secured party in possession. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), if a secured party has possession of collateral:

(1) reasonable expenses, including the cost of insurance and payment of taxes or other charges, incurred in the custody, preservation, use, or operation of the collateral are chargeable to the debtor and are secured by the collateral;

(2) the risk of accidental loss or damage is on the debtor to the extent of a deficiency in any effective insurance coverage;

(3) the secured party shall keep the collateral identifiable, but fungible collateral may be commingled; and

(4) the secured party may use or operate the collateral;

(A) for the purpose of preserving the collateral or its value;

(B) as permitted by an order of a court having competent jurisdiction; or

(C) except in the case of consumer goods, in the manner and to the extent agreed by the debtor.

(c) Duties and rights when secured party in possession or control. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), a secured party having possession of collateral or control of collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–104, 9–105, 9–106, or 9–107:

(1) may hold as additional security any proceeds, except money or funds, received from the collateral;

(2) shall apply money or funds received from the collateral to reduce the secured obligation, unless remitted to the debtor; and

(3) may create a security interest in the collateral.

(d) Buyer of certain rights to payment. If the secured party is a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes or a consignor:

(1) subsection (a) does not apply unless the secured party is entitled under an agreement:

(A) to charge back uncollected collateral; or

(B) otherwise to full or limited recourse against the debtor or a secondary obligor based on the nonpayment or other default of an account debtor or other obligor on the collateral; and

(2) subsections (b) and (c) do not apply.

§ 9–208. Additional duties of secured party having control of collateral

Additional Duties of Secured Party Having Control of Collateral

(a) Applicability of section. This section applies to cases in which there is no outstanding secured obligation and the secured party is not committed to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value.

(b) Duties of secured party after receiving demand from debtor. Within ten (10) days after receiving an authenticated demand by the debtor:

(1) a secured party having control of a deposit account under 80 CNCA § 9–104(a)(2) shall send to the bank with which the deposit account is maintained an authenticated statement that releases the bank from any further obligation to comply with instructions originated by the secured party;

(2) a secured party having control of a deposit account under 80 CNCA § 9–104(a)(3) shall:

(A) pay the debtor the balance on deposit in the deposit account; or

(B) transfer the balance on deposit into a deposit account in the debtor's name;

(3) a secured party, other than a buyer, having control of electronic chattel paper under 80 CNCA § 9–105 shall:

(A) communicate the authoritative copy of the electronic chattel paper to the debtor or its designated custodian;

(B) if the debtor designates a custodian that is the designated custodian with which the authoritative copy of the electronic chattel paper is maintained for the secured party, communicate to the custodian an authenticated record releasing the designated custodian from any further obligation to comply with instructions originated by the secured party and instructing the custodian to comply with instructions originated by the debtor; and

(C) take appropriate action to enable the debtor or its designated custodian to make copies of or revisions to the authoritative copy which add or change an identified assignee of the authoritative copy without the consent of the secured party;

(4) a secured party having control of investment property under 80 CNCA § 8–106(d)(2) or 9–106(b) shall send to the securities intermediary or commodity intermediary with which the security entitlement or commodity contract is maintained an authenticated record that releases the securities intermediary or commodity intermediary from any further obligation to comply with entitlement orders or directions originated by the secured party, and

(5) a secured party having control of a letter-of-credit right under 80 CNCA § 9–107 shall send to each person having an unfulfilled obligation to pay or deliver proceeds of the letter of credit to the secured party an authenticated release from any further obligation to pay or deliver proceeds of the letter of credit to the secured party.

§ 9–209. Duties of secured party if account debtor has been notified of assignment

Duties of Secured Party if Account Debtor Has Been Notified of Assignment

(a) Applicability of section. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), this section applies if:

(1) there is no outstanding secured obligation; and

(2) the secured party is not committed to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value.

(b) Duties of secured party after receiving demand from debtor. Within ten (10) days after receiving an authenticated demand by the debtor, a secured party shall send to an account debtor that has received notification of an assignment to the secured party as assignee under 80 CNCA § 9–406(a) an authenticated record that releases the account debtor from any further obligation to the secured party.

(c) Inapplicability to sales. This section does not apply to an assignment constituting the sale of an account, chattel paper, or payment intangible.

§ 9–210. Request for accounting—Request regarding list of collateral or statement of account

Request for Accounting—Request Regarding List of Collateral or Statement of Account

(a) Definitions. In this section:

(1) "Request" means a record of a type described in paragraph (2), (3) or (4).

(2) "Request for an accounting" means a record authenticated by a debtor requesting that the recipient provide an accounting of the unpaid obligations secured by collateral and reasonably identifying the transaction or relationship that is the subject of the request.

(3) "Request regarding a list of collateral" means a record authenticated by a debtor requesting that the recipient approve or correct a list of what the debtor believes to be the collateral securing an obligation and reasonably identifying the transaction or relationship that is the subject of the request.

(4) "Request regarding a statement of account" means a record authenticated by a debtor requesting that the recipient approve or correct a statement indicating what the debtor believes to be the aggregate amount of unpaid obligations secured by collateral as of a specified date and reasonably identifying the transaction or relationship that is the subject of the request.

(b) Duty to respond to requests. Subject to subsections (c), (d), (e), and (f), a secured party, other than a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes or a consignor, shall comply with a request within fourteen (14) days after receipt:

(1) in the case of a request for an accounting, by authenticating and sending to the debtor an accounting; and

(2) in the case of a request regarding a list of collateral or a request regarding a statement of account, by authenticating and sending to the debtor an approval or correction.

(c) Request regarding list of collateral; statement concerning type of collateral. A secured party that claims a security interest in all of a particular type of collateral owned by the debtor may comply with a request regarding a list of collateral by sending to the debtor an authenticated record including a statement to that effect within fourteen (14) days after receipt.

(d) Request regarding list of collateral; no interest claimed. A person that receives a request regarding a list of collateral, claims no interest in the collateral when it receives the request, and claimed an interest in the collateral at an earlier time shall comply with the request within fourteen (14) days after receipt by sending to the debtor an authenticated record:

(1) disclaiming any interest in the collateral; and

(2) if known to the recipient, providing the name and mailing address of any assignee of or successor to the recipient's interest in the collateral.

(e) Request for accounting or regarding statement of account; no interest in obligation claimed. A person that receives a request for an accounting or a request regarding a statement of account, claims no interest in the obligations when it receives the request, and claimed an interest in the obligations at an earlier time shall comply with the request within fourteen (14) days after receipt by sending to the debtor an authenticated record:

(1) disclaiming any interest in the obligations; and

(2) if known to the recipient, providing the name and mailing address of any assignee of or successor to the recipient's interest in the obligations.

(f) Charges for responses. A debtor is entitled without charge to one (1) response to a request under this section during any six-month period. The secured party may require payment of a charge not exceeding Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for each additional response.

PART 3. PERFECTION AND PRIORITY

SUBPART 1. LAW GOVERNING PERFECTION AND PRIORITY

§ 9-301. Law governing perfection and priority of security interests

Law Governing Perfection and Priority of Security Interests

Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA §§ 9–303 through 9–306, the following rules determine the law governing perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in collateral:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, while a debtor is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in collateral.

(2) While collateral is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a possessory security interest in that collateral.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4), while negotiable documents, goods, instruments, money, or tangible chattel paper is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs:

(A) perfection of a security interest in the goods by filing a fixture filing;

(B) perfection of a security interest in timber to be cut; and

(C) the effect of perfection or nonperfection and the priority of a nonpossessory security interest in the collateral.

(4) The local law of the jurisdiction in which the wellhead or minehead is located governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in as-extracted collateral.

§ 9–302. Law governing perfection and priority of agricultural liens

Law Governing Perfection and Priority of Agricultural Liens

While farm products are located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of an agricultural lien on the farm products.

§ 9–303. Law governing perfection and priority of security interests in goods covered by a certificate of title

Law Governing Perfection and Priority of Security Interests in Goods Covered by a Certificate of Title

(a) Applicability of section. This section applies to goods covered by a certificate of title, even if there is no other relationship between the jurisdiction under whose certificate of title the goods are covered and the goods or the debtor.

(b) When goods covered by certificate of title. Goods become covered by a certificate of title when a valid application for the certificate of title and the applicable fee are delivered to the appropriate authority. Goods cease to be covered by a certificate of title at the earlier of the time the certificate of title ceases to be effective under the law of the issuing jurisdiction or the time the goods become covered subsequently by a certificate of title issued by another jurisdiction.

(c) Applicable law. The local law of the jurisdiction under whose certificate of title the goods are covered governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in goods covered by a certificate of title from the time the goods become covered by the certificate of title until the goods cease to be covered by the certificate of title.

§ 9–304. Law governing perfection and priority of security interests in deposit accounts

Law Governing Perfection and Priority of Security Interests in Deposit Accounts

(a) Law of bank's jurisdiction governs. The local law of a bank's jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in a deposit account maintained with that bank.

(b) Bank's jurisdiction. The following rules determine a bank's jurisdiction for purposes of this part:

(1) If an agreement between the bank and the debtor governing the deposit account expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the bank's jurisdiction for purposes of this part, this article, or the Uniform Commercial Code, that jurisdiction is the bank's jurisdiction.

(2) If paragraph (1) does not apply and an agreement between the bank and its customer governing the deposit account expressly provides that the agreement is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the bank's jurisdiction.

(3) If neither paragraph (1) nor paragraph (2) applies and an agreement between the bank and its customer governing the deposit account expressly provides that the deposit account is maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the bank's jurisdiction.

(4) If none of the preceding paragraphs applies, the bank's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the customer's account is located.

(5) If none of the preceding paragraphs applies, the bank's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the chief executive office of the bank is located.

§ 9–305. Law governing perfection and priority of security interests in investment property

Law Governing Perfection and Priority of Security Interests in Investment Property

(a) Governing law: general rules. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), the following rules apply:

(1) While a security certificate is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in the certificated security represented thereby.

(2) The local law of the issuer's jurisdiction as specified in 80 CNCA § 8–110(d) governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in an uncertificated security.

(3) The local law of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction as specified in 80 CNCA § 8–110(e) governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in a security entitlement or securities account.

(4) The local law of the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in a commodity contract or commodity account.

(b) Commodity intermediary's jurisdiction. The following rules determine a commodity intermediary's jurisdiction for purposes of this part:

(1) If an agreement between the commodity intermediary and commodity customer governing the commodity account expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction for purposes of this part, this article, or the Uniform Commercial Code, that jurisdiction is the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction.

(2) If paragraph (1) does not apply and an agreement between the commodity intermediary and commodity customer governing the commodity account expressly provides that the agreement is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction.

(3) If neither paragraph (1) nor paragraph (2) applies and an agreement between the commodity intermediary and commodity customer governing the commodity account expressly provides that the commodity account is maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction.

(4) If none of the preceding paragraphs applies, the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the commodity customer's account is located.

(5) If none of the preceding paragraphs applies, the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the chief executive office of the commodity intermediary is located.

(c) When perfection governed by law of jurisdiction where debtor located. The local law of the jurisdiction in which the debtor is located governs:

(1) perfection of a security interest in investment property by filing;

(2) automatic perfection of a security interest in investment property created by a broker or securities intermediary, and

(3) automatic perfection of a security interest in a commodity contract or commodity account created by a commodity intermediary.

§ 9–306. Law governing perfection and priority of security interests in letter-of-credit rights

Law Governing Perfection and Priority of Security Interests in Letter-of-Credit Rights

(a) Governing law: issuer's or nominated person's jurisdiction. Subject to subsection (c), the local law of the issuer's jurisdiction or a nominated person's jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in a letter-of-credit right if the issuer's jurisdiction or nominated person's jurisdiction is a state.

(b) Issuer's or nominated person's jurisdiction. For purposes of this part, an issuer's jurisdiction or nominated person's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction whose law governs the liability of the issuer or nominated person with respect to the letter-of-credit right as provided in 80 CNCA § 5–116.

(c) When section not applicable. This section does not apply to a security interest that is perfected only under 80 CNCA § 9–308(d).

§ 9–307. Location of debtor

Location of Debtor

(a) "Place of business". In this section, "place of business" means a place where a debtor conducts its affairs.

(b) Debtor's location: general rules. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the following rules determine a debtor's location:

(1) A debtor who is an individual is located at the individual's principal residence.

(2) A debtor that is an organization and has only one place of business is located at its place of business.

(3) A debtor that is an organization and has more than one place of business is located at its chief executive office.

(c) Limitation of applicability of subsection (b). Subsection (b) applies only if a debtor's residence, place of business, or chief executive office, as applicable, is located in a jurisdiction whose law generally requires information concerning the existence of a nonpossessory security interest to be made generally available in a filing, recording, or registration system as a condition or result of the security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the collateral. If subsection (b) does not apply, the debtor is located in the District of Columbia.

(d) Continuation of location: cessation of existence, etc. A person that ceases to exist, have a residence, or have a place of business continues to be located in the jurisdiction specified by subsections (b) and (c).

(e) Location of registered organization organized under state law. A registered organization that is organized under the law of a State is located in that state.

(f) Location of registered organization organized under federal law; bank branches and agencies. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (i), a registered organization that is organized under the law of the United States and a branch or agency of a bank that is not organized under the law of the United States or a state are located:

(1) in the state that the law of the United States designates, if the law designates a state of location;

(2) in the State that the registered organization, branch, or agency designates, if the law of the United States authorizes the registered organization, branch, or agency to designate its state of location; or

(3) in the District of Columbia, if neither paragraph (1) nor paragraph (2) applies.

(g) Continuation of location: change in status of registered organization. A registered organization continues to be located in the jurisdiction specified by subsection (c) or (f) notwithstanding:

(1) the suspension, revocation, forfeiture, or lapse of the registered organization's status as such in its jurisdiction of organization; or

(2) the dissolution, winding up, or cancellation of the existence of the registered organization.

(h) Location of United States. The United States is located in the District of Columbia.

(i) Location of foreign bank branch or agency if licensed in only one state. A branch or agency of a bank that is not organized under the law of the United States or a State is located in the State in which the branch or agency is licensed, if all branches and agencies of the bank are licensed in only one State.

(j) Location of foreign air carrier. A foreign air carrier under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, is located at the designated office of the agent upon which service of process may be made on behalf of the carrier.

(k) Section applies only to this part. This section applies only for purposes of this part.

SUBPART 2. PERFECTION

§ 9–308. When security interest or agricultural lien is perfected—Continuity of perfection

When Security Interest or Agricultural Lien is Perfected—Continuity of Perfection

(a) Perfection of security interest. Except as otherwise provided in this section and 80 CNCA § 9–309, a security interest is perfected if it has attached and all of the applicable requirements for perfection in 80 CNCA §§ 9–310 through 9–316 have been satisfied. A security interest is perfected when it attaches if the applicable requirements are satisfied before the security interest attaches.

(b) Perfection of agricultural lien. An agricultural lien is perfected if it has become effective and all of the applicable requirements for perfection in 80 CNCA § 9–310 have been satisfied. An agricultural lien is perfected when it becomes effective if the applicable requirements are satisfied before the agricultural lien becomes effective.

(c) Continuous perfection; perfection by different methods. A security interest or agricultural lien is perfected continuously if it is originally perfected by one method under this article and is later perfected by another method under this article, without an intermediate period when it was unperfected.

(d) Supporting obligation. Perfection of a security interest in collateral also perfects a security interest in a supporting obligation for the collateral.

(e) Lien securing right to payment. Perfection of a security interest in a right to payment or performance also perfects a security interest in a security interest, mortgage, or other lien on personal or real property securing the right.

(f) Security entitlement carried in securities account. Perfection of a security interest in a securities account also perfects a security interest in the security entitlements carried in the securities account.

(g) Commodity contract carried in commodity account. Perfection of a security interest in a commodity account also perfects a security interest in the commodity contracts carried in the commodity account.

§ 9–309. Security interest perfected upon attachment

Security Interest Perfected Upon Attachment

The following security interests are perfected when they attach:

- (1) a purchase-money security interest in consumer goods, except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–311(b) with respect to consumer goods that are subject to a statute or treaty described in 80 CNCA § 9–311(a);
- (2) an assignment of accounts or payment intangibles which does not by itself or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the assignor's outstanding accounts or payment intangibles;
- (3) a sale of a payment intangible;
- (4) a sale of a promissory note;
- (5) a security interest created by the assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable to the provider of the health-care goods or services;
- (6) a security interest arising under 80 CNCA § 2–401, 2–505, 2–711(3), or 2A–508(5), until the debtor obtains possession of the collateral;
- (7) a security interest of a collecting bank arising under 80 CNCA § 4–210;
- (8) a security interest of an issuer or nominated person arising under 80 CNCA § 5–118;
- (9) a security interest arising in the delivery of a financial asset under 80 CNCA § 9–206(c);
- (10) a security interest in investment property created by a broker or securities intermediary;
- (11) a security interest in a commodity contract or a commodity account created by a commodity intermediary;
- (12) an assignment for the benefit of all creditors of the transferor and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder; and
- (13) a security interest created by an assignment of a beneficial interest in a decedent's estate.

§ 9–310. When filing required to perfect security interest or agricultural lien—Security interests and agricultural liens to which filing provisions do not apply

When Filing Required to Perfect Security Interest or Agricultural Lien—Security Interests and Agricultural Liens to Which Filing Provisions Do Not Apply

(a) General rule: perfection by filing. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) and 80 CNCA § 9–312(b), a financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests and agricultural liens.

(b) Exceptions: filing not necessary. The filing of a financing statement is not necessary to perfect a security interest

(1) that is perfected under 80 CNCA § 9–308(d), (e), (f), or (g);

(2) that is perfected under 80 CNCA § 9–309 when it attaches;

(3) in property subject to a statute, regulation, or treaty described in 80 CNCA § 9–311(a);

(4) in goods in possession of a bailee which is perfected under 80 CNCA § 9–312(d)(1) or (2);

(5) in certificated securities, documents, goods, or instruments which is perfected without filing or possession under 80 CNCA § 9–312(e), (f), or (g);

(6) in collateral in the secured party's possession under 80 CNCA § 9–313;

(7) in a certificated security which is perfected by delivery of the security certificate to the secured party under 80 CNCA § 9–313;

(8) in deposit accounts, electronic chattel paper, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights which is perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–314;

(9) in proceeds which is perfected under 80 CNCA § 9–315; or

(10) that is perfected under 80 CNCA § 9–316.

(c) Assignment of perfected security interest. If a secured party assigns a perfected security interest or agricultural lien, a filing under this article is not required to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the original debtor.

§ 9–311. Perfection of security interests in property subject to certain statutes, regulations, and treaties

Perfection of Security Interests in Property Subject to Certain Statutes, Regulations, and Treaties

(a) Security interest subject to other law. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), the filing of a financing statement is not necessary or effective to perfect a security interest in property subject to:

(1) a statute, regulation, or treaty of the United States whose requirements for a security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the property preempt 80 CNCA § 9–310(a);

(2) Cherokee Nation Motor Vehicle Code; or

(3) a certificate-of-title statute of another jurisdiction which provides for a security interest to be indicated on the certificate as a condition or result of the security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the property.

(b) Compliance with other law. Compliance with the requirements of a statute, regulation, or treaty described in subsection (a) for obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor is equivalent to the filing of a financing statement under this article. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) and 80 CNCA §§ 9–313 and 9–316(d) and (e) for goods covered by a certificate of title, a security interest in property subject to a statute, regulation, or treaty described in subsection (a) may be perfected only by compliance with those requirements, and a security interest so perfected remains perfected notwithstanding a change in the use or transfer of possession of the collateral.

(c) Duration and renewal of perfection. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) and 80 CNCA § 9–316(d) and (e), duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the requirements prescribed by a statute, regulation, or treaty described in subsection (a) are governed by the statute, regulation, or treaty. In other respects, the security interest is subject to this article.

(d) Inapplicability to certain inventory. During any period in which collateral subject to a statute specified in subsection (a)(2) is inventory held for sale or lease by a person or leased by that person as lessor and that person is in the business of selling goods of that kind, this section does not apply to a security interest in that collateral created by that person.

§ 9–312. Perfection of security interests in chattel paper, deposit accounts, documents, goods covered by documents, instruments, investment property, letter-of-credit rights, and money—Perfection by permissive filing—Temporary perfection without filing or transfer of possession

Perfection of Security Interests in Chattel Paper, Deposit Accounts, Documents, Goods Covered by Documents, Instruments, Investment Property, Letter-of-Credit Rights, and Money—Perfection by Permissive Filing—Temporary Perfection Without Filing or Transfer of Possession

(a) Perfection by filing permitted. A security interest in chattel paper, negotiable documents, instruments, or investment property may be perfected by filing.

(b) Control or possession of certain collateral. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–315(c) and (d) for proceeds:

(1) a security interest in a deposit account may be perfected only by control under 80 CNCA § 9–314;

(2) and except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–308(d), a security interest in a letter-of-credit right may be perfected only by control under 80 CNCA § 9–314; and

(3) a security interest in money may be perfected only by the secured party's taking possession under 80 CNCA § 9–313.

(c) Goods covered by negotiable document. While goods are in the possession of a bailee that has issued a negotiable document covering the goods:

(1) a security interest in the goods may be perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document; and

(2) a security interest perfected in the document has priority over any security interest that becomes perfected in the goods by another method during that time.

(d) Goods covered by nonnegotiable document. While goods are in the possession of a bailee that has issued a nonnegotiable document covering the goods, a security interest in the goods may be perfected by:

(1) issuance of a document in the name of the secured party;

(2) the bailee's receipt of notification of the secured party's interest; or

(3) filing as to the goods.

(e) Temporary perfection: new value. A security interest in certificated securities, negotiable documents, or instruments is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of twenty (20) days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under an authenticated security agreement.

(f) Temporary perfection: goods or documents made available to debtor. A perfected security interest in a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee, other than one that has issued a negotiable document for the goods, remains perfected for twenty (20) days without filing if the secured party makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of:

(1) ultimate sale or exchange; or

(2) loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, manufacturing, processing, or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange.

(g) Temporary perfection: delivery of security certificate or instrument to debtor. A perfected security interest in a certificated security or instrument remains perfected for twenty (20) days without filing if the secured party delivers the security certificate or instrument to the debtor for the purpose of:

(1) ultimate sale or exchange; or

(2) presentation, collection, enforcement, renewal, or registration of transfer.

(h) Expiration of temporary perfection. After the twenty- (20) day period specified in subsection (e), (f), or (g) expires, perfection depends upon compliance with this article.

§ 9–313. When possession by or delivery to secured party perfects security interest without filing

When Possession by or Delivery to Secured Party Perfects Security Interest Without Filing

(a) Perfection by possession or delivery. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a secured party may perfect a security interest in negotiable documents, goods, instruments, money, or tangible chattel paper by taking possession of the collateral. A secured party may perfect a security interest in certificated securities by taking delivery of the certificated securities under 80 CNCA § 8–301.

(b) Goods covered by certificate of title. With respect to goods covered by a certificate of title issued by this State, a secured party may perfect a security interest in the goods by taking possession of the goods only in the circumstances described in 80 CNCA § 9–316(d).

(c) Collateral in possession of person other than debtor. With respect to collateral other than certificated securities and goods covered by a document, a secured party takes possession of collateral in the possession of a person other than the debtor, the secured party, or a lessee of the collateral from the debtor in the ordinary course of the debtor's business, when:

(1) the person in possession authenticates a record acknowledging that it holds possession of the collateral for the secured party's benefit; or

(2) the person takes possession of the collateral after having authenticated a record acknowledging that it will hold possession of collateral for the secured party's benefit.

(d) Time of perfection by possession; continuation of perfection. If perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by a secured party, perfection occurs no earlier than the time the secured party takes possession and continues only while the secured party retains possession.

(e) Time of perfection by delivery; continuation of perfection. A security interest in a certificated security in registered form is perfected by delivery when delivery of the certificated security occurs under 80 CNCA § 8–301 and remains perfected by delivery until the debtor obtains possession of the security certificate.

(f) Acknowledgment not required. A person in possession of collateral is not required to acknowledge that it holds possession for a secured party's benefit.

(g) Effectiveness of acknowledgment; no duties or confirmation. If a person acknowledges that it holds possession for the secured party's benefit:

(1) the acknowledgment is effective under subsection (c) or 80 CNCA § 8–301(8), even if the acknowledgment violates the rights of a debtor, and

(2) unless the person otherwise agrees or law other than this article otherwise provides, the person does not owe any duty to the secured party and is not required to confirm the acknowledgment to another person.

(h) Secured party's delivery to person other than debtor. A secured party having possession of collateral does not relinquish possession by delivering the collateral to a person other than the debtor or a lessee of the collateral from the debtor in the ordinary course of the debtor's business if the person was instructed before the delivery or is instructed contemporaneously with the delivery:

(1) to hold possession of the collateral for the secured party's benefit; or

(2) to redeliver the collateral to the secured party.

(i) Effect of delivery under subsection (h); no duties or confirmation. A secured party does not relinquish possession, even if a delivery under subsection (h) violates the rights of a debtor. A person to which collateral is delivered under subsection (h) does not owe any duty to the secured party and is not required to confirm the delivery to another person unless the person otherwise agrees or law other than this article otherwise provides.

§ 9–314. Perfection by control

Perfection by Control

(a) Perfection by control. A security interest in investment property, deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights, or electronic chattel paper may be perfected by control of the collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–104, 9–105, 9–106, or 9–107.

(b) Specified collateral: time of perfection by control; continuation of perfection. A security interest in deposit accounts, electronic chattel paper, or letter-of-credit rights is perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–104, 9–105, or 9–107 when the secured party obtains control and remains perfected by control only while the secured party retains control.

(c) Investment property: time of perfection by control; continuation of perfection. A security interest in investment property is perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–106 from the time the secured party obtains control and remains perfected by control until:

(1) the secured party does not have control; and

(2) one of the following occurs:

(A) if the collateral is a certificated security, the debtor has or acquires possession of the security certificate;

(B) if the collateral is an uncertificated security, the issuer has registered or registers the debtor as the registered owner; or

(C) if the collateral is a security entitlement, the debtor is or becomes the entitlement holder.

§ 9–315. Secured party's rights on disposition of collateral and in proceeds

Secured Party's Rights on Disposition of Collateral and in Proceeds

(a) Disposition of collateral: continuation of security interest or agricultural lien; proceeds. Except as otherwise provided in this article and in 80 CNCA § 2–403(2):

(1) a security interest or agricultural lien continues in collateral notwithstanding sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition thereof unless the secured party authorized the disposition free of the security interest or agricultural lien; and

(2) a security interest attaches to any identifiable proceeds of collateral.

(b) When commingled proceeds identifiable. Proceeds that are commingled with other property are identifiable proceeds:

(1) if the proceeds are goods, to the extent provided by 80 CNCA § 9–336; and

(2) if the proceeds are not goods, to the extent that the secured party identifies the proceeds by a method of tracing, including application of equitable principles, that is permitted under law other than this article with respect to commingled property of the type involved.

(c) Perfection of security interest in proceeds. A security interest in proceeds is a perfected security interest if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected.

(d) Continuation of perfection. A perfected security interest in proceeds becomes unperfected on the 21st day after the security interest attaches to the proceeds unless:

(1) the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) a filed financing statement covers the original collateral;

(B) the proceeds are collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing in the office in which the financing statement has been filed; and

(C) the proceeds are not acquired with cash proceeds;

(2) the proceeds are identifiable cash proceeds; or

(3) the security interest in the proceeds is perfected other than under subsection (c) when the security interest attaches to the proceeds or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

(e) When perfected security interest in proceeds becomes unperfected. If a filed financing statement covers the original collateral, a security interest in proceeds which remains perfected under subsection (d)(1) becomes unperfected at the later of:

(1) when the effectiveness of the filed financing statement lapses under 80 CNCA § 9–515 or is terminated under 80 CNCA § 9–513; or

(2) the 21st day after the security interest attaches to the proceeds.

§ 9–316. Continued perfection of security interest following change in governing law

Continued Perfection of Security Interest Following Change in Governing Law

(a) General rule: effect on perfection of change in governing law. A security interest perfected pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction designated in 80 CNCA § 9–301(1) or 9–305(c) remains perfected until the earliest of:

(1) the time perfection would have ceased under the law of that jurisdiction;

(2) the expiration of four months after a change of the debtor's location to another jurisdiction; or

(3) the expiration of one year after a transfer of collateral to a person that thereby becomes a debtor and is located in another jurisdiction.

(b) Security Interest perfected or unperfected under law of new jurisdiction. If a security interest described in subsection (a) becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earliest time or event described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earliest time or event, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(c) Possessory security interest in collateral moved to new jurisdiction. A possessory security interest in collateral, other than goods covered by a certificate of title and as-extracted collateral consisting of goods, remains continuously perfected if:

(1) the collateral is located in one jurisdiction and subject to a security interest perfected under the law of that jurisdiction;

(2) hereafter the collateral is brought into another jurisdiction; and

(3) upon entry into the other jurisdiction, the security interest is perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction.

(d) Goods covered by certificate of title from this state. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a security interest in goods covered by a certificate of title which is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction when the goods become covered by a certificate of title from this state remains perfected until the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become so covered.

(e) When subsection (d) security interest becomes unperfected against purchasers. A security interest described in subsection (d) becomes unperfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value if the applicable requirements for perfection under 80 CNCA § 9–311(b) or 9–313 are not satisfied before the earlier of:

(1) the time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become covered by a certificate of title from this state; or

(2) the expiration of four (4) months after the goods had become so covered.

(f) Change In jurisdiction of bank, issuer, nominated person, securities intermediary, or commodity Intermediary. A security interest in deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights, or investment property which is perfected under the law of the bank's jurisdiction, the issuer's jurisdiction, a nominated person's jurisdiction, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, or the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction, as applicable, remains perfected until the earlier of:

(1) the time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of that jurisdiction; or

(2) the expiration of four (4) months after a change of the applicable jurisdiction to another jurisdiction.

(g) Subsection (f) security interest perfected or unperfected under law of new jurisdiction. If a security interest described in subsection (f) becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time or the end of the period described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of that time or the end of that period, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

SUBPART 3. PRIORITY

§ 9–317. Interests that take priority over or take free of security interest or agricultural lien

Interests That Take Priority Over or Take Free of Security Interest or Agricultural Lien

(a) Conflicting security interests and rights of lien creditors. A security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to the rights of:

(1) a person entitled to priority under 80 CNCA § 9–322; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a person that becomes a lien creditor before the earlier of the time:

(A) the security interest or agricultural lien is perfected; or

(B) one of the conditions specified in 80 CNCA § 9–203(b)(3) is met and a financing statement covering the collateral is filed.

(b) Buyers that receive delivery. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a buyer, other than a secured party, of tangible chattel paper, documents, goods, instruments, or a security certificate takes free of a security interest or agricultural lien if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest or agricultural lien and before it is perfected.

(c) Lessees that receive delivery. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a lessee of goods takes free of a security interest or agricultural lien if the lessee gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest or agricultural lien and before it is perfected.

(d) Licensees and buyers of certain collateral. A licensee of a general intangible or a buyer, other than a secured party, of accounts, electronic chattel paper, general intangibles, or investment property other than a certificated security takes free of a security interest if the licensee or buyer gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(e) Purchase-money security interest. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA §§ 9–320 and 9–321, if a person files a financing statement with respect to a purchase-money security interest before or within twenty (20) days after the debtor receives delivery of the collateral, the security interest takes priority over the rights of a buyer, lessee, or lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

§ 9–318. No interest retained in right to payment that is sold—Rights and title of seller of account or chattel paper with respect to creditors and purchasers

No Interest Retained in Right to Payment That is Sold—Rights and Title of Seller of Account or Chattel Paper With Respect to Creditors and Purchasers

(a) Seller retains no interest. A debtor that has sold an account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note does not retain a legal or equitable interest in the collateral sold.

(b) Deemed rights of debtor if buyer's security interest unperfected. For purposes of determining the rights of creditors of, and purchasers for value of an account or chattel paper from, a debtor that has sold an account or chattel paper, while the buyer's security interest is unperfected, the debtor is deemed to have rights and title to the account or chattel paper identical to those the debtor sold.

§ 9–319. Rights and title of consignee with respect to creditors and purchasers

Rights and Title of Consignee With Respect to Creditors and Purchasers

(a) Consignee has consignor's rights. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), for purposes of determining the rights of creditors of, and purchasers for value of goods from, a consignee, while the goods are in the possession of the consignee, the consignee is deemed to have rights and title to the goods identical to those the consignor had or had power to transfer.

(b) Applicability of other law. For purposes of determining the rights of a creditor of a consignee, law other than this article determines the rights and title of a consignee while goods are in the consignee's possession if, under this part, a perfected security interest held by the consignor would have priority over the rights of the creditor.

§ 9–320. Buyer of goods

Buyer of Goods

(a) Buyer in ordinary course of business. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a buyer in ordinary course of business, other than a person buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations, takes free of a security interest created by the buyer's seller, even if the security interest is perfected and the buyer knows of its existence.

(b) Buyer of consumer goods. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a buyer of goods from a person who used or bought the goods for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes takes free of a security interest, even if perfected, if the buyer buys:

- (1) without knowledge of the security interest;
- (2) for value;
- (3) primarily for the buyer's personal, family, or household purposes; and
- (4) before the filing of a financing statement covering the goods.

(c) Effectiveness of filing for subsection (b). To the extent that it affects the priority of a security interest over a buyer of goods under subsection (b), the period of effectiveness of a filing made in the jurisdiction in which the seller is located is governed by 80 CNCA § 9–316(a) and (b).

(d) Buyer in ordinary course of business at wellhead or minehead. A buyer in ordinary course of business buying oil, gas, or other minerals at the wellhead or minehead or after extraction takes free of an interest arising out of an encumbrance.

(e) Possessory security interest not affected. Subsections (a) and (b) do not affect a security interest in goods in the possession of the secured party under 80 CNCA § 9–313.

§ 9–321. Licensee of general intangible and lessee of goods in ordinary course of business

Licensee of General Intangible and Lessee of Goods in Ordinary Course of Business

(a) Licensee in ordinary course of business. In this section, "licensee in ordinary course of business" means a person that becomes a licensee of a general intangible in good faith, without knowledge that the license violates the rights of another person in the general intangible, and in the ordinary course from a person in the business of licensing general intangibles of that kind. A person becomes a licensee in the ordinary course if the license to the person comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the licensor is engaged or with the licensor's own usual or customary practices.

(b) Rights of licensee in ordinary course of business. A licensee in ordinary course of business takes its rights under a nonexclusive license free of a security interest in the general intangible created by the licensor, even if the security interest is perfected and the licensee knows of its existence.

(c) Rights of lessee in ordinary course of business. A lessee in ordinary course of business takes its leasehold interest free of a security interest in the goods created by the lessor, even if the security interest is perfected and the lessee knows of its existence.

§ 9–322. Priorities among conflicting security interests in and agricultural liens on same collateral

Priorities Among Conflicting Security Interests in and Agricultural Liens on Same Collateral

(a) General priority rules. Except as otherwise provided in this section, priority among conflicting security interests and agricultural liens in the same collateral is determined according to the following rules:

(1) Conflicting perfected security interests and agricultural liens rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the earlier of the time a filing covering the collateral is first made or the security interest or agricultural lien is first perfected, if there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

(2) A perfected security interest or agricultural lien has priority over a conflicting unperfected security interest or agricultural lien.

(3) The first security interest or agricultural lien to attach or become effective has priority if conflicting security interests and agricultural liens are unperfected.

(b) Time of perfection: proceeds and supporting obligations. For the purposes of subsection (a)(1):

(1) the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in proceeds; and

(2) the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral supported by a supporting obligation is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in the supporting obligation.

(c) Special priority rules: proceeds and supporting obligations. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), a security interest in collateral which qualifies for priority over a conflicting security interest under 80 CNCA § 9–327, 9–328, 9–329, 9–330, or 9–331 also has priority over a conflicting security interest in:

(1) any supporting obligation for the collateral; and

(2) proceeds of the collateral if:

(A) the security interest in proceeds is perfected;

(B) the proceeds are cash proceeds or of the same type as the collateral; and

(C) in the case of proceeds that are proceeds of proceeds, all intervening proceeds are cash proceeds, proceeds of the same type as the collateral, or an account relating to the collateral.

(d) First-to-file priority rule for certain collateral. Subject to subsection (c) and except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), if a security interest in chattel paper, deposit accounts, negotiable documents, instruments, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights is perfected by a method other than filing, conflicting perfected security interests in proceeds of the collateral rank according to priority in time of filing.

(e) Applicability of subsection (d). Subsection (d) applies only if the proceeds of the collateral are not cash proceeds, chattel paper, negotiable documents, instruments, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights.

(f) Limitations on subsections (a) through (e). Subsections (a) through (e) are subject to:

(1) subsection (g) and the other provisions of this part;

(2) 80 CNCA § 4–210 with respect to a security interest of a collecting bank;

(3) 80 CNCA § 5–118 with respect to a security interest of an issuer or nominated person; and

(4) 80 CNCA § 9–110 with respect to a security interest arising under Article 2 or 2A.

(g) Priority under agricultural lien statute. A perfected agricultural lien on collateral has priority over a conflicting security interest in or agricultural lien on the same collateral if the statute creating the agricultural lien so provides.

§ 9–323. Future advances

Future Advances

(a) When priority based on time of advance. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), for purposes of determining the priority of a perfected security interest under 80 CNCA § 9–322(a)(1), perfection of the security interest dates from the time an advance is made to the extent that the security interest secures an advance that:

(1) is made while the security interest is perfected only:

(A) under 80 CNCA § 9–309 when it attaches; or

(B) temporarily under 80 CNCA § 9–312(c), (f), or (g); and

(2) is not made pursuant to a commitment entered into before or while the security interest is perfected by a method other than under 80 CNCA § 9–309 or 9–312(e), (f), or (g).

(b) Lien creditor. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a security interest is subordinate to the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor to the extent that the security interest secures an advance made more than forty-five (45) days after the person becomes a lien creditor unless the advance is made:

(1) without knowledge of the lien; or

(2) pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

(c) Buyer of receivables. Subsections (a) and (b) do not apply to a security interest held by a secured party that is a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes or a consignor.

(d) Buyer of goods. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a buyer of goods other than a buyer in ordinary course of business takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures advances made after the earlier of:

(1) the time the secured party acquires knowledge of the buyer's purchase; or

(2) forty-five (45) days after the purchase.

(e) Advances made pursuant to commitment: priority of buyer of goods. Subsection (d) does not apply if the advance is made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the buyer's purchase and before the expiration of the forty-five (45) -day period.

(f) Lessee of goods. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a lessee of goods, other than a lessee in ordinary course of business, takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest to the extent that it secures advances made after the earlier of:

- (1) the time the secured party acquires knowledge of the lease; or
- (2) forty-five (45) days after the lease contract becomes enforceable.

(g) Advances made pursuant to commitment: priority of lessee of goods. Subsection (f) does not apply if the advance is made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lease and before the expiration of the forty-five (45) -day period.

§ 9–324. Priority of purchase-money security interests

Priority of Purchase-Money Security Interests

(a) General rule: purchase-money priority. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a perfected purchase-money security interest in goods other than inventory or livestock has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same goods, and, except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–327, a perfected security interest in its identifiable proceeds also has priority, if the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

(b) Inventory purchase-money priority. Subject to subsection (c) and except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a perfected purchase-money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory, has priority over a conflicting security interest in chattel paper or an instrument constituting proceeds of the inventory and in proceeds of the chattel paper, if so provided in 80 CNCA § 9–330, and, except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–327, also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds of the inventory to the extent the identifiable cash proceeds are received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer, if:

- (1) the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the inventory;
- (2) the purchase-money secured party sends an authenticated notification to the holder of the conflicting security interest;
- (3) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five (5) years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and
- (4) the notification states that the person sending the notification has or expects to acquire a purchase-money security interest in inventory of the debtor and describes the inventory.

(c) Holders of conflicting inventory security interests to be notified. Subsections (b)(2) through (4) apply only if the holder of the conflicting security interest had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory:

(1) if the purchase-money security interest is perfected by filing, before the date of the filing; or

(2) if the purchase-money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession under 80 CNCA § 9–312(f) before the beginning of the twenty (20) -day period thereunder.

(d) Livestock purchase-money priority. Subject to subsection (e) and except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a perfected purchase-money security interest in livestock that are farm products has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same livestock, and, except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–327, a perfected security interest in their identifiable proceeds and identifiable products in their unmanufactured states also has priority, if:

(1) the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the livestock;

(2) the purchase-money secured party sends an authenticated notification to the holder of the conflicting security interest;

(3) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within six (6) months before the debtor receives possession of the livestock; and

(4) the notification states that the person sending the notification has or expects to acquire a purchase-money security interest in livestock of the debtor and describes the livestock.

(c) Holders of conflicting livestock security interests to be notified. Subsections (d)(2) through (4) apply only if the holder of the conflicting security interest had filed a financing statement covering the same types of livestock:

(1) if the purchase-money security interest is perfected by filing, before the date of the filing; or

(2) if the purchase-money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession under 80 CNCA § 9–312(f) before the beginning of the twenty (20) -day period thereunder.

(f) Software purchase-money priority. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a perfected purchase-money security interest in software has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral, and, except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–327, a perfected security interest in its identifiable proceeds also has priority, to the extent that the purchase-money security interest in the goods in which the software was acquired for use has priority in the goods and proceeds of the goods under this section.

(g) Conflicting purchase-money security interests. If more than one security interest qualifies for priority in the same collateral under subsection (a), (b), (d), or (f):

(1) a security interest securing an obligation incurred as all or part of the price of the collateral has priority over a security interest securing an obligation incurred for value given to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of collateral; and

(2) in all other cases, 80 CNCA § 9–322(a) applies to the qualifying security interests.

§ 9–325. Priority of security interests in transferred collateral

Priority of Security Interests in Transferred Collateral

(a) Subordination of security interest in transferred collateral. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a security interest created by a debtor is subordinate to a security interest in the same collateral created by another person if:

(1) the debtor acquired the collateral subject to the security interest created by the other person;

(2) the security interest created by the other person was perfected when the debtor acquired the collateral; and

(3) there is no period thereafter when the security interest is unperfected.

(b) Limitation of subsection (a) subordination. Subsection (a) subordinates a security interest only if the security interest:

(1) otherwise would have priority solely under 80 CNCA § 9–322(a) or 9–324; or

(2) arose solely under 80 CNCA § 2–711(3) or 2A–508(5).

§ 9–326. Priority of security interests created by new debtor

Priority of Security Interests Created by New Debtor

(a) Subordination of security interest created by new debtor. Subject to subsection (b), a security interest created by a new debtor which is perfected by a filed financing statement that is effective solely under 80 CNCA § 9–508 in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights is subordinate to a security interest in the same collateral which is perfected other than by a filed financing statement that is effective solely under 80 CNCA § 9–508.

(b) Priority under other provisions; multiple original debtors. The other provisions of this part determine the priority among conflicting security interests in the same collateral perfected by filed financing statements that are effective solely under 80 CNCA § 9–508. However, if the security agreements to which a new debtor became bound as debtor were not entered into by the same original debtor, the conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of the new debtor's having become bound.

§ 9–327. Priority of security interests in deposit account

Priority of Security Interests in Deposit Account

The following rules govern priority among conflicting security interests in the same deposit account:

- (1) A security interest held by a secured party having control of the deposit account under 80 CNCA § 9–104 has priority over a conflicting security interest held by a secured party that does not have control.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (3) and (4), security interests perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–314 rank according to priority in time of obtaining control.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4), a security interest held by the bank with which the deposit account is maintained has priority over a conflicting security interest held by another secured party.
- (4) A security interest perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–104(a)(3) has priority over a security interest held by the bank with which the deposit account is maintained.

§ 9–328. Priority of security interests in investment property

Priority of Security Interests in Investment Property

The following rules govern priority among conflicting security interests in the same investment property:

- (1) A security interest held by a secured party having control of investment property under 80 CNCA § 9–106 has priority over a security interest held by a secured party that does not have control of the investment property.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (3) and (4), conflicting security interests held by secured parties each of which has control under 80 CNCA § 9–106 rank according to priority in time of:
 - (A) if the collateral is a security, obtaining control;
 - (B) if the collateral is a security entitlement carried in a securities account and:
 - (i) if the secured party obtained control under 80 CNCA § 8–106(d)(1), the secured party's becoming the person for which the securities account is maintained;

(ii) if the secured party obtained control under 80 CNCA § 8–106(d)(2), the securities intermediary's agreement to comply with the secured party's entitlement orders with respect to security entitlements carried or to be carried in the securities account; or

(iii) if the secured party obtained control through another person under 80 CNCA § 8–106(d)(3), the time on which priority would be based under this paragraph if the other person were the secured party; or

(C) if the collateral is a commodity contract carried with a commodity intermediary, the satisfaction of the requirement for control specified in 80 CNCA § 9–106(b)(2) with respect to commodity contracts carried or to be carried with the commodity intermediary.

(3) A security interest held by a securities intermediary in a security entitlement or a securities account maintained with the securities intermediary has priority over a conflicting security interest held by another secured party.

(4) A security interest held by a commodity intermediary in a commodity contract or a commodity account maintained with the commodity intermediary has priority over a conflicting security interest held by another secured party.

(5) A security interest in a certificated security in registered form which is perfected by taking delivery under 80 CNCA § 9–313(a) and not by control under 80 CNCA § 9–314 has priority over a conflicting security interest perfected by a method other than control

(6) Conflicting security interests created by a broker, securities intermediary, or commodity intermediary which are perfected without control under 80 CNCA § 9–106 rank equally.

(7) In all other cases, priority among conflicting security interests in investment property is governed by 80 CNCA §§ 9–322 and 9–323.

§ 9–329. Priority of security interests in letter-of-credit right

Priority of Security Interests in Letter-of-Credit Right

The following rules govern priority among conflicting security interests in the same letter-of-credit right:

(1) A security interest held by a secured party having control of the letter-of-credit right under 80 CNCA § 9–107 has priority to the extent of its control over a conflicting security interest held by a secured party that does not have control.

(2) Security interests perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–314 rank according to priority in time of obtaining control.

§ 9–330. Priority of purchaser of chattel paper or instrument

Priority of Purchaser of Chattel Paper or Instrument

(a) Purchaser's priority: security interest claimed merely as proceeds. A purchaser of chattel paper has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest if:

(1) in good faith and in the ordinary course of the purchaser's business, the purchaser gives new value and takes possession of the chattel paper or obtains control of the chattel paper under 80 CNCA § 9–105; and

(2) the chattel paper does not indicate that it has been assigned to an identified assignee other than the purchaser.

(b) Purchaser's priority: other security interests. A purchaser of chattel paper has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper which is claimed other than merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest if the purchaser gives new value and takes possession of the chattel paper or obtains control of the chattel paper under 80 CNCA § 9–105 in good faith, in the ordinary course of the purchaser's business, and without knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

(c) Chattel paper purchaser's priority in proceeds. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–327, a purchaser having priority in chattel paper under subsection (a) or (b) also has priority in proceeds of the chattel paper to the extent that:

(1) 80 CNCA § 9–322 provides for priority in the proceeds; or

(2) the proceeds consist of the specific goods covered by the chattel paper or cash proceeds of the specific goods, even if the purchaser's security interest in the proceeds is unperfected.

(d) Instrument purchaser's priority. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–331(a), a purchaser of an instrument has priority over a security interest in the instrument perfected by a method other than possession if the purchaser gives value and takes possession of the instrument in good faith and without knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

(e) Holder of purchase-money security interest gives new value. For purposes of subsections (a) and (b), the holder of a purchase-money security interest in inventory gives new value for chattel paper constituting proceeds of the inventory.

(f) Indication of assignment gives knowledge. For purposes of subsections (b) and (d), if chattel paper or an instrument indicates that it has been assigned to an identified secured party other than the purchaser, a purchaser of the chattel paper or instrument has knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

§ 9–331. Priority of rights of purchasers of instruments, documents, and securities under other articles—Priority of interests in financial assets and security entitlements under Article 8

Priority of Rights of Purchasers of Instruments, Documents, and Securities Under Other Articles—
Priority of Interests in Financial Assets and Security Entitlements Under Article 8

(a) Rights under Articles 3, 7, and 8 not limited. This article does not limit the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument, a holder to which a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated, or a protected purchaser of a security. These holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest, even if perfected, to the extent provided in Articles 3, 7, and 8.

(b) Protection under Article 8. This article does not limit the rights of or impose liability on a person to the extent that the person is protected against the assertion of a claim under Article 8.

(c) Filing not notice. Filing under this article does not constitute notice of a claim or defense to the holders, or purchasers, or persons described in subsections (a) and (b).

§ 9–332. Transfer of money—Transfer of funds from deposit account

Transfer of Money—Transfer of Funds from Deposit Account

(a) Transferee of money. A transferee of money takes the money free of a security interest unless the transferee acts in collusion with the debtor in violating the rights of the secured party.

(b) Transferee of funds from deposit account. A transferee of funds from a deposit account takes the funds free of a security interest in the deposit account unless the transferee acts in collusion with the debtor in violating the rights of the secured party.

§ 9–333. Priority of certain liens arising by operation of law

Priority of Certain Liens Arising by Operation of Law

(a) Possessory lien. In this section, "possessory lien" means an interest, other than a security interest or an agricultural lien:

(1) which secures payment or performance of an obligation for services or materials furnished with respect to goods by a person in the ordinary course of the person's business;

(2) which is created by statute or rule of law in favor of the person; and

(3) whose effectiveness depends on the person's possession of the goods.

(b) Priority of possessory lien. A possessory lien on goods has priority over a security interest in the goods unless the lien is created by a statute that expressly provides otherwise.

§ 9–334. Priority of security interests in fixtures and crops

Priority of Security Interests in Fixtures and Crops

(a) Security interest in fixtures under this article. A security interest under this article may be created in goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures. A security interest does not exist under this article in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(b) Security interest in fixtures under real property law. This article does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures under real property law.

(c) General rule: subordination of security interest in fixtures. In cases not governed by subsections (d) through (h), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real property other than the debtor.

(d) Fixtures purchase-money priority. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (h), a perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property and:

(1) the security interest is a purchase-money security interest;

(2) the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures; and

(3) the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

(e) Priority of security interest in fixtures over interests in real property. A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(1) the debtor has an interest of record in the real property or is in possession of the real property and the security interest:

(A) is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record; and

(B) has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner,

(2) before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by this article and the fixtures are readily removable:

(A) factory or office machines;

(B) equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real property; or

(C) replacements of domestic appliances that are consumer goods;

(3) the conflicting interest is a lien on the real property obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this article; or

(4) the security interest is:

(A) created in a manufactured home in a manufactured-home transaction; and

(B) perfected pursuant to a statute described in 80 CNCA § 9–311(a)(2).

(f) Priority based on consent, disclaimer, or right to remove. A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(1) the encumbrancer or owner has, in an authenticated record, consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(2) the debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner.

(g) Continuation of paragraph (f)(2) priority. The priority of the security interest under paragraph (f)(2) continues for a reasonable time if the debtor's right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner terminates.

(h) Priority of construction mortgage. A mortgage is a construction mortgage to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land, including the acquisition cost of the land, if a recorded record of the mortgage so indicates. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (f), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage if a record of the mortgage is recorded before the goods become fixtures and the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. A mortgage has this priority to the same extent as a construction mortgage to the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage.

(i) Priority of security interest in crops. A perfected security interest in crops growing on real property, has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property.

§ 9–335. Accessions

Accessions

(a) Creation of security interest in accession. A security interest may be created in an accession and continues in collateral that becomes an accession.

(b) Perfection of security interest. If a security interest is perfected when the collateral becomes an accession, the security interest remains perfected in the collateral.

(c) Priority of security interest. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), the other provisions of this part determine the priority of a security interest in an accession.

(d) Compliance with certificate-of-title statute. A security interest in an accession is subordinate to a security interest in the whole which is perfected by compliance with the requirements of a certificate-of-title statute under 80 CNCA § 9–311(b).

(e) Removal of accession after default. After default, subject to Part 6, a secured party may remove an accession from other goods if the security interest in the accession has priority over the claims of every person having an interest in the whole.

(f) Reimbursement following removal. A secured party that removes an accession from other goods under subsection (e) shall promptly reimburse any holder of a security interest or other lien on, or owner of, the whole or of the other goods, other than the debtor, for the cost of repair of any physical injury to the whole or the other goods. The secured party need not reimburse the holder or owner for any diminution in value of the whole or the other goods caused by the absence of the accession removed or by any necessity for replacing it. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate assurance for the performance of the obligation to reimburse.

§ 9–336. Commingled goods

Commingled Goods

(a) Commingled goods. In this section, "commingled goods" means goods that are physically united with other goods in such a manner that their identity is lost in a product or mass.

(b) No security interest in commingled goods as such. A security interest does not exist in commingled goods as such. However, a security interest may attach to a product or mass that results when goods become commingled goods.

(c) Attachment of security interest to product or mass. If collateral becomes commingled goods, a security interest attaches to the product or mass.

(d) Perfection of security interest. If a security interest in collateral is perfected before the collateral becomes commingled goods, the security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (c) is perfected.

(e) Priority of security interest. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), the other provisions of this part determine the priority of a security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (c).

(f) Conflicting security interests in product or mass. If more than one security interest attaches to the product or mass under subsection (c), the following rules determine priority:

(1) A security interest that is perfected under subsection (d) has priority over a security interest that is unperfected at the time the collateral becomes commingled goods.

(2) If more than one security interest is perfected under subsection (d), the security interests rank equally in proportion to the value of the collateral at the time it became commingled goods.

§ 9–337. Priority of security interests in goods covered by certificate of title

Priority of Security Interests in Goods Covered by Certificate of Title

If, while a security interest in goods is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction, this Nation issues a certificate of title that does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or contain a statement that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate:

(1) a buyer of the goods, other than a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, takes free of the security interest if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest; and

(2) the security interest is subordinate to a conflicting security interest in the goods that attaches, and is perfected under 80 CNCA § 9–311(b), after issuance of the certificate and without the conflicting secured party's knowledge of the security interest.

§ 9–338. Priority of security interest or agricultural lien perfected by filed financing statement providing certain incorrect information

Priority of Security Interest or Agricultural Lien Perfected by Filed Financing Statement Providing Certain Incorrect Information

If a security interest or agricultural lien is perfected by a filed financing statement providing information described in 80 CNCA § 9–516(b)(5) which is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed:

(1) the security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to a conflicting perfected security interest in the collateral to the extent that the holder of the conflicting security interest gives value in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information; and

(2) a purchaser, other than a secured party, of the collateral takes free of the security interest or agricultural lien to the extent that, in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information, the purchaser gives value and, in the case of chattel paper, documents, goods, instruments, or a security certificate, receives delivery of the collateral.

§ 9–339. Priority subject to subordination

Priority Subject to Subordination

This article does not preclude subordination by agreement by a person entitled to priority.

SUBPART 4. RIGHTS OF BANK

§ 9–340. Effectiveness of right of recoupment or set-off against deposit account

Effectiveness of Right of Recoupment or Set-Off Against Deposit Account

(a) Exercise of recoupment or set-off. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a bank with which a deposit account is maintained may exercise any right of recoupment or set-off against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account.

(b) Recoupment or set-off not affected by security interest. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), the application of this article to a security interest in a deposit account does not affect a right of recoupment or set-off of the secured party as to a deposit account maintained with the secured party.

(c) When set-off ineffective. The exercise by a bank of a set-off against a deposit account is ineffective against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account which is perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–104(a)(3), if the set-off is based on a claim against the debtor.

§ 9–341. Bank's rights and duties with respect to deposit account

Bank's Rights and Duties With Respect to Deposit Account

Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–340(c), and unless the bank otherwise agrees in an authenticated record, a bank's rights and duties with respect to a deposit account maintained with the bank are not terminated, suspended, or modified by:

- (1) the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the deposit account;
- (2) the bank's knowledge of the security interest; or
- (3) the bank's receipt of instructions from the secured party.

§ 9–342. Bank's right to refuse to enter into or disclose existence of control agreement

Bank's Right to Refuse to Enter into or Disclose Existence of Control Agreement

This article does not require a bank to enter into an agreement of the kind described in 80 CNCA §

9–104(a)(2), even if its customer so requests or directs. A bank that has entered into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another person unless requested to do so by its customer.

PART 4. RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES

§ 9–401. Alienability of debtor's rights

Alienability of Debtor's Rights

(a) Other law governs alienability; exceptions. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) and 80 CNCA §§ 9–406, 9–407, 9–408, and 9–409, whether a debtor's rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred is governed by law other than this article.

(b) Agreement does not prevent transfer. An agreement between the debtor and secured party which prohibits a transfer of the debtor's rights in collateral or makes the transfer a default does not prevent the transfer from taking effect.

§ 9–402. Secured party not obligated on contract of debtor or in tort

Secured Party Not Obligated on Contract of Debtor or in Tort

The existence of a security interest, agricultural lien, or authority given to a debtor to dispose of or use collateral, without more, does not subject a secured party to liability in contract or tort for the debtor's acts or omissions.

§ 9–403. Agreement not to assert defenses against assignee

Agreement Not to Assert Defenses Against Assignee

(a) Value. In this section, "value" has the meaning provided in 80 CNCA § 3–303(a).

(b) Agreement not to assert claim or defense. Except as otherwise provided in this section, an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor not to assert against an assignee any claim or defense that the account debtor may have against the assignor is enforceable by an assignee that takes an assignment:

(1) for value;

(2) in good faith;

(3) without notice of a claim of a property or possessory right to the property assigned; and

(4) without notice of a defense or claim in recoupment of the type that may be asserted against a person entitled to enforce a negotiable instrument under 80 CNCA § 3–305(a).

(c) When subsection (b) not applicable. Subsection (b) does not apply to defenses of a type that may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under 80 CNCA § 3–305(b).

(d) Omission of required statement in consumer transaction. In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this article requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the rights of an assignee are subject to claims or defenses that the account debtor could assert against the original obligee, and the record does not include such a statement:

(1) the record has the same effect as if the record included such a statement; and

(2) the account debtor may assert against an assignee those claims and defenses that would have been available if the record included such a statement.

(e) Rule for individual under other law. This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(f) Other law not displaced. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), this section does not displace law other than this article which gives effect to an agreement by an account debtor not to assert a claim or defense against an assignee.

§ 9–404. Rights acquired by assignee—Claims and defenses against assignee

Rights Acquired by Assignee—Claims and Defenses Against Assignee

(a) Assignee's rights subject to terms, claims, and defenses; exceptions. Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims, and subject to subsections (b) through (e), the rights of an assignee are subject to:

(1) all terms of the agreement between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim in recoupment arising from the transaction that gave rise to the contract; and

(2) any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives a notification of the assignment authenticated by the assignor or the assignee.

(b) Account debtor's claim reduces amount owed to assignee. Subject to subsection (c) and except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), the claim of an account debtor against an assignor may be asserted against an assignee under subsection (a) only to reduce the amount the account debtor owes.

(c) Rule for individual under other law. This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(d) Omission of required statement in consumer transaction. In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this article requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the account debtor's recovery against an assignee with respect to claims and defenses against the assignor may not exceed amounts paid by the account debtor under the record, and the record does not include such a statement, the extent to which a claim of an account debtor against the assignor may be asserted against an assignee is determined as if the record included such a statement.

(e) Inapplicability to health-care-insurance receivable. This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

§ 9–405. Modification of assigned contract

Modification of Assigned Contract

(a) Effect of modification on assignee. A modification of or substitution for an assigned contract is effective against an assignee if made in good faith. The assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that the modification or substitution is a breach of contract by the assignor. This subsection is subject to subsections (b) through (d).

(b) Applicability of subsection (a). Subsection (a) applies to the extent that;

(1) the right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance; or

(2) the right to payment or a part thereof has been fully earned by performance and the account debtor has not received notification of the assignment under 80 CNCA § 9–406(a).

(c) Rule for individual under other law. This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(d) Inapplicability to health-care-insurance receivable. This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

§ 9–406. Discharge of account debtor—Notification of assignment—Identification and proof of assignment—Restrictions on assignment of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, and promissory notes ineffective

Discharge of Account Debtor—Notification of Assignment—Identification and Proof of Assignment—Restrictions on Assignment of Accounts, Chattel Paper, Payment Intangibles, and

Promissory Notes Ineffective

(a) Discharge of account debtor; effect of notification. Subject to subsections (b) through (i), an account debtor on an account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

(b) When notification ineffective. Subject to subsection (h), notification is ineffective under subsection (a):

(1) if it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;

(2) to the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this article; or

(3) at the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:

(A) only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;

(B) a portion has been assigned to another assignee; or

(C) the account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.

(c) Proof of assignment. Subject to subsection (h), if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under subsection (a).

(d) Term restricting assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) and 80 CNCA §§ 2A-303 and 9-407, and subject to subsection (h), a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

(1) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

(e) Inapplicability of subsection (d) to certain sales. Subsection (d) does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory note.

(f) Legal restrictions on assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA §§ 2A–303 and 9–407 and subject to subsections (h) and (i), a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(1) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account or chattel paper.

(g) Subsection (b)(3) not waivable. Subject to subsection (h), an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under subsection (b)(3).

(h) Rule for individual under other law. This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(i) Inapplicability to health-care-insurance receivable. This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

§ 9–407. Restrictions on creation or enforcement of security interest in leasehold interest or in lessor's residual interest

Restrictions on Creation or Enforcement of Security Interest in Leasehold Interest or in Lessor's Residual Interest

(a) Term restricting assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a term in a lease agreement is ineffective to the extent that it:

(1) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a party to the lease to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the lease.

(b) Effectiveness of certain terms. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 2A–303(7), a term described in subsection (a)(2) is effective to the extent that there is:

(1) a transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the term; or

(2) a delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the term.

(c) Security interest not material impairment. The creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the lessor's interest under the lease contract or the lessor's residual interest in the goods is not a transfer that materially impairs the lessee's prospect of obtaining return performance or materially changes the duty of or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the lessee within the purview of 80 CNCA § 2A–303(4) unless, and then only to the extent that, enforcement actually results in a delegation of material performance of the lessor.

§ 9–408. Restrictions on assignment of promissory note, health-care-insurance receivables, and certain general intangibles ineffective

Restrictions on Assignment of Promissory Note, Health-Care-Insurance Receivables, and Certain General Intangibles Ineffective

(a) Term restricting assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise, and which term prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, is ineffective to the extent that the term:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(b) Applicability of subsection (a) to sales of certain rights to payment. Subsection (a) applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory note.

(c) Legal restrictions on assignment generally ineffective. A rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(d) Limitation on ineffectiveness under subsections (a) and (c). To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (c) would be effective under law other than this article but is ineffective under subsection (a) or (c), the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible:

(1) is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(2) does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor,

(3) does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or performance from the secured party;

(4) does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible;

(5) does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess, or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and

(6) does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

§ 9-409. Restrictions on assignment of letter-of-credit rights ineffective

Restrictions on Assignment of Letter-of-Credit Rights Ineffective

(a) Term or law restricting assignment generally ineffective. A term in a letter of credit or a rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice applicable to the letter of credit which prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of an applicant, issuer, or nominated person to a beneficiary's assignment of or creation of a security interest in a letter-of-credit right is ineffective to the extent that the term or rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right; or

(2) provides that the assignment or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the letter-of-credit right.

(b) Limitation on ineffectiveness under subsection (a). To the extent that a term in a letter of credit is ineffective under subsection (a) but would be effective under law other than this article or a custom or practice applicable to the letter of credit, to the transfer of a right to draw or otherwise demand performance under the letter of credit, or to the assignment of a right to proceeds of the letter of credit, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right:

(1) is not enforceable against the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary;

(2) imposes no duties or obligations on the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary; and

(3) does not require the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or other performance from the secured party.

PART 5. FILING

SUBPART 1. FILING OFFICE—CONTENTS AND EFFECTIVENESS OF FINANCING STATEMENT

§ 9–501. Filing office

Filing Office

(a) Filing offices. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), if the local law of this Nation governs perfection of a security interest or agricultural lien, the office in which to file a financing statement to perfect the security interest or agricultural lien is:

(1) the office designated for the filing or recording of a record of a mortgage on the related real property, if:

(A) the collateral is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut; or

(B) the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing and the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures; or

(2) the office of the Principal Chief or any office duly authorized by the Principal Chief, in all other cases, including a case in which the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures and the financing statement is not filed as a fixture filing.

(b) Filing office for transmitting utilities. The office in which to file a financing statement to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the Principal Chief. The financing statement also constitutes a fixture filing as to the collateral indicated in the financing statement which is or is to become fixtures.

§ 9–502. Contents of financing statement—Record of mortgage as financing statement—
Time of filing of financing statement

Contents of Financing Statement—Record of Mortgage as Financing Statement—Time of Filing of Financing Statement

(a) Sufficiency of financing statement. Subject to subsection (b), a financing statement is sufficient only if it:

(1) provides the name of the debtor;

(2) provides the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party; and

(3) indicates the collateral covered by the financing statement.

(b) Real-property-related financing statements. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–501(b), to be sufficient, a financing statement that covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, or which is filed as a fixture filing and covers goods that are or are to become fixtures, must satisfy subsection (a) and also:

(1) indicate that it covers this type of collateral;

(2) indicate that it is to be filed for record in the real property records;

(3) provide a description of the real property to which the collateral is related sufficient to give constructive notice of a mortgage under the law of this Nation if the description were contained in a record of the mortgage of the real property; and

(4) if the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real property, provide the name of a record owner.

(c) Record of mortgage as financing statement. A record of a mortgage is effective, from the date of recording, as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or as a financing statement covering as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut only if:

- (1) the record indicates the goods or accounts that it covers;
 - (2) the goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real property described in the record or the collateral is related to the real property described in the record and is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut;
 - (3) the record satisfies the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than an indication that it is to be filed in the real property records; and
 - (4) the record is duly recorded.
- (d) Filing before security agreement or attachment. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches.

§ 9-503. Name of debtor and secured party

Name of Debtor and Secured Party

(a) Sufficiency of debtor's name. A financing statement sufficiently provides the name of the debtor:

(1) if the debtor is a registered organization, only if the financing statement provides the name of the debtor indicated on the public record of the debtor's jurisdiction of organization which shows the debtor to have been organized;

(2) if the debtor is a decedent's estate, only if the financing statement provides the name of the decedent and indicates that the debtor is an estate;

(3) if the debtor is a trust or a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust, only if the financing statement:

(A) provides the name specified for the trust in its organic documents or, if no name is specified, provides the name of the settlor and additional information sufficient to distinguish the debtor from other trusts having one or more of the same settlors; and

(B) indicates, in the debtor's name or otherwise, that the debtor is a trust or is a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust; and

(4) in other cases:

(A) if the debtor has a name, only if it provides the individual or organizational name of the debtor, and

(B) if the debtor does not have a name, only if it provides the names of the partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(b) Additional debtor-related information. A financing statement that provides the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (a) is not rendered ineffective by the absence of:

(1) a trade name or other name of the debtor, or

(2) unless required under subsection (a)(4)(B), names of partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(c) Debtor's trade name insufficient. A financing statement that provides only the debtor's trade name does not sufficiently provide the name of the debtor.

(d) Representative capacity. Failure to indicate the representative capacity of a secured party or representative of a secured party does not affect the sufficiency of a financing statement.

(e) Multiple debtors and secured parties. A financing statement may provide the name of more than one debtor and the name of more than one secured party.

§ 9–504. Indication of collateral

Indication of Collateral

A financing statement sufficiently indicates the collateral that it covers if the financing statement provides:

(1) a description of the collateral pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–108; or

(2) an indication that the financing statement covers all assets or all personal property.

§ 9–505. Filing and compliance with other statutes and treaties for consignments, leases, other bailments, and other transactions

Filing and Compliance With Other Statutes and Treaties for Consignments, Leases, Other Bailments, and Other Transactions

(a) Use of terms other than "debtor" and "secured party." A consignor, lessor, or other bailor of goods, a licensor, or a buyer of a payment intangible or promissory note may file a financing statement, or may comply with a statute or treaty described in 80 CNCA § 9–311(a), using the terms "consignor", "consignee", "lessor", "lessee", "bailor", "bailee", "licensor", "licensee", "owner", "registered owner", "buyer", "seller", or words of similar import, instead of the terms "secured party" and "debtor".

(b) Effect of financing statement under subsection (a). This part applies to the filing of a financing statement under subsection (a) and, as appropriate, to compliance that is equivalent to filing a financing statement under 80 CNCA § 9–311(b), but the filing or compliance is not of itself a factor in determining whether the collateral secures an obligation. If it is determined for another reason that the collateral secures an obligation, a security interest held by the consignor, lessor, bailor, licensor, owner, or buyer which attaches to the collateral is perfected by the filing or compliance.

§ 9–506. Effect of errors or omissions

Effect of Errors or Omissions

(a) Minor errors and omissions. A financing statement substantially satisfying the requirements of this part is effective, even if it has minor errors or omissions, unless the errors or omissions make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(b) Financing statement seriously misleading. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with 80 CNCA § 9–503(a) is seriously misleading.

(c) Financing statement not seriously misleading. If a search of the records of the filing-office under the debtor's correct name, using the filing-office's standard search logic, if any, would disclose a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with 80 CNCA § 9–503(a), the name provided does not make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(d) Debtor's correct name. For purposes of 80 CNCA § 9–508(b), the "debtor's correct name" in subsection (c) means the correct name of the new debtor.

§ 9–507. Effect of certain events on effectiveness of financing statement

Effect of Certain Events on Effectiveness of Financing Statement

(a) Disposition. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition.

(b) Information becoming seriously misleading. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) and 80 CNCA § 9–508, a financing statement is not rendered ineffective if, after the financing statement is filed, the information provided in the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under 80 CNCA § 9–506.

(c) Change in debtor's name. If a debtor so changes its name that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading under 80 CNCA § 9–506:

(1) the financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four (4) months after, the change; and

(2) the financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four (4) months after the change, unless an amendment to the financing statement which renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four (4) months after the change.

§ 9–508. Effectiveness of financing statement if new debtor becomes bound by security agreement

Effectiveness of Financing Statement if New Debtor Becomes Bound by Security Agreement

(a) Financing statement naming original debtor. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a filed financing statement naming an original debtor is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights to the extent that the financing statement would have been effective had the original debtor acquired rights in the collateral.

(b) Financing statement becoming seriously misleading. If the difference between the name of the original debtor and that of the new debtor causes a filed financing statement that is effective under subsection (a) to be seriously misleading under 80 CNCA § 9–506:

(1) the financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four (4) months after, the new debtor becomes bound under 80 CNCA § 9–203 (d); and

(2) the financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor more than four (4) months after the new debtor becomes bound under 80 CNCA § 9–203(d) unless an initial financing statement providing the name of the new debtor is filed before the expiration of that time.

(c) When section not applicable. This section does not apply to collateral as to which a filed financing statement remains effective against the new debtor under 80 CNCA § 9–507(a).

§ 9–509. Persons entitled to file a record

Persons Entitled to File a Record

(a) Persons entitled to file record. A person may file an initial financing statement, amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement, or amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

(1) the debtor authorizes the filing in an authenticated record or pursuant to subsection (b) or (c); or

(2) the person holds an agricultural lien that has become effective at the time of filing and the financing statement covers only collateral in which the person holds an agricultural lien.

(b) Security agreement as authorization. By authenticating or becoming bound as debtor by a security agreement, a debtor or new debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering:

(1) the collateral described in the security agreement; and

(2) property that becomes collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–315(a)(2), whether or not the security agreement expressly covers proceeds.

(c) Acquisition of collateral as authorization. By acquiring collateral in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues under 80 CNCA § 9–315(a)(1), a debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering the collateral and property that becomes collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–315(a)(2).

(d) Person entitled to file certain amendments. A person may file an amendment other than an amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement or an amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

(1) the secured party of record authorizes the filing; or

(2) the amendment is a termination statement for a financing statement as to which the secured party of record has failed to file or send a termination statement as required by 80 CNCA § 9–513(a) or (c), the debtor authorizes the filing, and the termination statement indicates that the debtor authorized it to be filed.

(e) Multiple secured parties of record. If there is more than one secured party of record for a financing statement, each secured party of record may authorize the filing of an amendment under subsection (d).

§ 9–510. Effectiveness of filed record

Effectiveness of Filed Record

(a) Filed record effective if authorized. A filed record is effective only to the extent that it was filed by a person that may file it under 80 CNCA § 9–509.

(b) Authorization by one secured party of record. A record authorized by one secured party of record does not affect the financing statement with respect to another secured party of record.

(c) Continuation statement not timely filed. A continuation statement that is not filed within the six (6) month period prescribed by 80 CNCA § 9–515(d) is ineffective.

§ 9–511. Secured party of record

Secured Party of Record

(a) Secured party of record. A secured party of record with respect to a financing statement is a person whose name is provided as the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party in an initial financing statement that has been filed. If an initial financing statement is filed under 80 CNCA § 9–514(a), the assignee named in the initial financing statement is the secured party of record with respect to the financing statement.

(b) Amendment naming secured party of record. If an amendment of a financing statement which provides the name of a person as a secured party or a representative of a secured party is filed, the person named in the amendment is a secured party of record. If an amendment is filed under 80 CNCA § 9–514(b), the assignee named in the amendment is a secured party of record.

(c) Amendment deleting secured party of record. A person remains a secured party of record until the filing of an amendment of the financing statement which deletes the person.

§ 9–512. Amendment of financing statement

Amendment of Financing Statement

(a) Amendment of information in financing statement. Subject to 80 CNCA § 9–509, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or, subject to subsection (e), otherwise amend the information provided in, a financing statement by filing an amendment that:

(1) identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which the amendment relates; and

(2) if the amendment relates to an initial financing statement filed or recorded in a filing office described in 80 CNCA § 9–501(a)(1), provides the information specified in 80 CNCA § 9–502(b).

(b) Period of effectiveness not affected. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–515, the filing of an amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of the financing statement.

(c) Effectiveness of amendment adding collateral. A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds collateral is effective as to the added collateral only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(d) Effectiveness of amendment adding debtor. A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds a debtor is effective as to the added debtor only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(e) Certain amendments ineffective. An amendment is ineffective to the extent it:

(1) purports to delete all debtors and fails to provide the name of a debtor to be covered by the financing statement; or

(2) purports to delete all secured parties of record and fails to provide the name of a new secured party of record.

§ 9–513. Termination statement

Termination Statement

(a) Consumer goods. A secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to file a termination statement for the financing statement if the financing statement covers consumer goods and:

(1) there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(2) the debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(b) Time for compliance with subsection (a). To comply with subsection (a), a secured party shall cause the secured party of record to file the termination statement:

(1) within one (1) month after there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(2) if earlier, within twenty (20) days after the secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor.

(c) Other collateral. In cases not governed by subsection (a), within twenty (20) days after a secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor, the secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to send to the debtor a termination statement for the financing statement or file the termination statement in the filing office if:

(1) except in the case of a financing statement covering accounts or chattel paper that has been sold or goods that are the subject of a consignment, there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value;

(2) the financing statement covers accounts or chattel paper that has been sold but as to which the account debtor or other person obligated has discharged its obligation;

(3) the financing statement covers goods that were the subject of a consignment to the debtor but are not in the debtor's possession; or

(4) the debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(d) Effect of filing termination statement. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–510, upon the filing of a termination statement with the filing-office, the financing statement to which the termination statement relates ceases to be effective. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–510, for purposes of 80 CNCA §§ 9–519(g), 9–522(a), and 9–523(c), the filing with the filing-office of a termination statement relating to a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a transmitting utility also causes the effectiveness of the financing statement to lapse.

§ 9–514. Assignment of powers of secured party of record

Assignment of Powers of Secured Party of Record

(a) Assignment reflected on initial financing statement. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), an initial financing statement may reflect an assignment of all of the secured party's power to authorize an amendment to the financing statement by providing the name and mailing address of the assignee as the name and address of the secured party.

(b) Assignment of filed financing statement. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a secured party of record may assign of record all or part of its power to authorize an amendment to a financing statement by filing in the filing-office an amendment of the financing statement which:

(1) identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which it relates;

(2) provides the name of the assignor; and

(3) provides the name and mailing address of the assignee.

(c) Assignment of record of mortgage. An assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture covered by a record of a mortgage which is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under 80 CNCA § 9–502(c) may be made only by an assignment of record of the mortgage in the manner provided by law of this Nation other than the Uniform Commercial Code.

§ 9–515. Duration and effectiveness of financing statement—Effect of lapsed financing statement

Duration and Effectiveness of Financing Statement—Effect of Lapsed Financing Statement

(a) Five-year effectiveness. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b), (e), (f), and (g), a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five (5) years after the date of filing.

(b) Public-finance or manufactured-home transaction. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (e), (f), and (g), an initial financing statement filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction is effective for a period of thirty (30) years after the date of filing if it indicates that it is filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction.

(c) Lapse and continuation of financing statement. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the period of its effectiveness unless before the lapse a continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (d). Upon lapse, a financing statement ceases to be effective and any security interest or agricultural lien that was perfected by the financing statement becomes unperfected, unless the security interest is perfected otherwise. If the security interest or agricultural lien becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(d) When continuation statement may be filed. A continuation statement may be filed only within six (6) months before the expiration of the five (5) year period specified in subsection (a) or the thirty (30) year period specified in subsection (b), whichever is applicable.

(e) Effect of filing continuation statement. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–510, upon timely filing of a continuation statement, the effectiveness of the initial financing statement continues for a period of five (5) years commencing on the day on which the financing statement would have become ineffective in the absence of the filing. Upon the expiration of the five (5) year period, the financing statement lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (c), unless, before the lapse, another continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (d). Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the initial financing statement.

(f) Transmitting utility financing statement. If a debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed financing statement so indicates, the financing statement is effective until a termination statement is filed.

(g) Record of mortgage as financing statement. A record of a mortgage that is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under 80 CNCA § 9–502(c) remains effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real property.

§ 9–516. What constitutes filing—Effectiveness of filing

What Constitutes Filing—Effectiveness of Filing

(a) What constitutes filing. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), communication of a record to a filing-office and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the record by the filing-office constitutes filing.

(b) Refusal to accept record; filing does not occur. Filing does not occur with respect to a record that a filing-office refuses to accept because:

(1) the record is not communicated by a method or medium of communication authorized by the filing-office;

- (2) an amount equal to or greater than the applicable filing fee is not tendered;
- (3) the filing-office is unable to index the record because:
 - (A) in the case of an initial financing statement, the record does not provide a name for the debtor;
 - (B) in the case of an amendment or correction statement, the record:
 - (i) does not identify the initial financing statement as required by 80 CNCA § 9–512 or 9–518, as applicable; or
 - (ii) identifies an initial financing statement whose effectiveness has lapsed under 80 CNCA § 9–515;
 - (C) in the case of an initial financing statement that provides the name of a debtor identified as an individual or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor identified as an individual which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates, the record does not identify the debtor's last name; or
 - (D) in the case of a record filed in the filing-office described in 80 CNCA § 9–501(a)(1), the record does not provide a sufficient description of the real property to which it relates;
- (4) in the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that adds a secured party of record, the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the secured party of record;
- (5) in the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the amendment relates, the record does not:
 - (A) provide a mailing address for the debtor;
 - (B) indicate whether the debtor is an individual or an organization; or
 - (C) if the financing statement indicates that the debtor is an organization, provide:
 - (i) a type of organization for the debtor;
 - (ii) a jurisdiction of organization for the debtor; or
 - (iii) an organizational identification number for the debtor or indicate that the debtor has none;
- (6) in the case of an assignment reflected in an initial financing statement under 80 CNCA § 9–514(a) or an amendment filed under 80 CNCA § 9–514(b), the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the assignee; or

(7) in the case of a continuation statement, the record is not filed within the six (6) month period prescribed by 80 CNCA § 9–515(d).

(c) Rules applicable to subsection (b). For purposes of subsection (b):

(1) a record does not provide information if the filing-office is unable to read or decipher the information; and

(2) a record that does not indicate that it is an amendment or identify an initial financing statement to which it relates, as required by 80 CNCA § 9–512, 9–514, or 9–518, is an initial financing statement.

(d) Refusal to accept record; record effective as filed record. A record that is communicated to the filing-office with tender of the filing fee, but which the filing-office refuses to accept for a reason other than one set forth in subsection (b), is effective as a filed record except as against a purchaser of the collateral which gives value in reasonable reliance upon the absence of the record from the files.

§ 9–517. Effect of indexing errors

Effect of Indexing Errors

The failure of the filing-office to index a record correctly does not affect the effectiveness of the filed record.

§ 9–518. Claim concerning inaccurate or wrongfully filed record

Claim Concerning Inaccurate or Wrongfully Filed Record

(a) Correction statement. A person may file in the filing-office a correction statement with respect to a record indexed there under the person's name if the person believes that the record is inaccurate or was wrongfully filed.

(b) Sufficiency of correction statement. A correction statement must:

(1) identify the record to which it relates by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates;

(2) indicate that it is a correction statement; and

(3) provide the basis for the person's belief that the record is inaccurate and indicate the manner in which the person believes the record should be amended to cure any inaccuracy or provide the basis for the person's belief that the record was wrongfully filed.

(c) Record not affected by correction statement. The filing of a correction statement does not affect the effectiveness of an initial financing statement or other filed record.

SUBPART 2. DUTIES AND OPERATION OF FILING OFFICE

§ 9–519. Numbering, maintaining, and indexing records—Communicating information provided in records

Numbering, Maintaining, and Indexing Records—Communicating Information Provided in Records

(a) Filing-office duties. For each record filed in a filing-office, the filing-office shall:

- (1) assign a unique number to the filed record;
- (2) create a record that bears the number assigned to the filed record and the date and time of filing;
- (3) maintain the filed record for public inspection; and
- (4) index the filed record in accordance with subsections (c), (d), and (e).

(b) File number. A file number assigned after January 1, 2002, must include a digit that:

- (1) is mathematically derived from or related to the other digits of the file number, and
- (2) aids the filing office in determining whether a number communicated as the file number includes a single-digit or transpositional error.

(c) Indexing: general. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (d) and (e), the filing office shall:

- (1) index an initial financing statement according to the name of the debtor and index all filed records relating to the initial financing statement in a manner that associates with one another an initial financing statement and all filed records relating to the initial financing statement; and
- (2) index a record that provides a name of a debtor which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates also according to the name that was not previously provided.

(d) Indexing: real-property-related financing statement. If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, it must be filed for record and the filing-office shall index it:

- (1) under the names of the debtor and of each owner of record shown on the financing statement as if they were the mortgagors under a mortgage of the real property described; and

(2) to the extent that the law of this Nation provides for indexing of records of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee thereunder, or, if indexing is by description, as if the financing statement were a record of a mortgage of the real property described.

(e) Indexing: real-property-related assignment. If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing-office shall index an assignment filed under 80 CNCA § 9–514(a) or an amendment filed under 80 CNCA § 9–514(b):

(1) under the name of the assignor as grantor; and

(2) to the extent that the law of this Nation provides for indexing a record of the assignment of a mortgage under the name of the assignee, under the name of the assignee.

(f) Retrieval and association capability. The filing-office shall maintain a capability:

(1) to retrieve a record by the name of the debtor and by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates; and

(2) to associate and retrieve with one another an initial financing statement and each filed record relating to the initial financing statement.

(g) Removal of debtor's name. The filing-office may not remove a debtor's name from the index until one (1) year after the effectiveness of a financing statement naming the debtor lapses under 80 CNCA § 9–515 with respect to all secured parties of record.

(h) Timeliness of filing-office performance. The filing-office shall perform the acts required by subsections (a) through (e) at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule, but not later than two (2) business days after the filing-office receives the record in question.

(i) Inapplicability to real-property-related filing-office. Subsections (b) and (h) do not apply to a filing-office described in 80 CNCA § 9–501(a)(1).

§ 9–520. Acceptance and refusal to accept record

Acceptance and Refusal to Accept Record

(a) Mandatory refusal to accept record. A filing-office shall refuse to accept a record for filing for a reason set forth in 80 CNCA § 9–516(b) and may refuse to accept a record for filing only for a reason set forth in 80 CNCA § 9–516(b).

(b) Communication concerning refusal. If a filing-office refuses to accept a record for filing, it shall communicate to the person that presented the record the fact of and reason for the refusal and the date and time the record would have been filed had the filing office accepted it. The communication must be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule but in no event more than two (2) business days after the filing-office receives the record.

(c) When filed financing statement effective. A filed financing statement satisfying 80 CNCA § 9–502(a) and (b) is effective, even if the filing-office is required to refuse to accept it for filing under subsection (a). However, 80 CNCA § 9–338 applies to a filed financing statement providing information described in 80 CNCA § 9–516(b)(5) which is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed.

(d) Separate application to multiple debtors. If a record communicated to a filing-office provides information that relates to more than one debtor, this part applies as to each debtor separately.

§ 9–521. Uniform form of written financing statement and amendment

Uniform Form of Written Financing Statement and Amendment

(a) Initial financing statement form. A filing office that accepts written records may not refuse to accept a written initial financing statement in the following form and format except for a reason set forth in 80 CNCA § 9–516(b):

T80UCC1, size-44 picas, type-DPI

T80UCC1Ad, size-44 picas, type-DPI

(b) Amendment form. A filing office that accepts written records may not refuse to accept a written record in the following form and format except for a reason set forth in 80 CNCA § 9–516(b):

T80UCC3Ad, size-44 picas, type-DPI

T80UCC3, size-44 picas, type-DPI

§ 9–522. Maintenance and destruction of records

Maintenance and Destruction of Records

(a) Post-lapse maintenance and retrieval of information. The filing-office shall maintain a record of the information provided in a filed financing statement for at least one (1) year after the effectiveness of the financing statement has lapsed under 80 CNCA § 9–515 with respect to all secured parties of record. The record must be retrievable by using the name of the debtor and by using the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates.

(b) Destruction of written records. Except to the extent that a statute governing disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing-office immediately may destroy any written record evidencing a financing statement. However, if the filing-office destroys a written record, it shall maintain another record of the financing statement which complies with subsection (a).

§ 9–523. Information from filing-office—Sale or license of records

Information From Filing-Office—Sale or License of Records

(a) Acknowledgment of filing written record. If a person that files a written record requests an acknowledgment of the filing, the filing office shall send to the person an image of the record showing the number assigned to the record pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–519(a)(1) and the date and time of the filing of the record. However, if the person furnishes a copy of the record to the filing office, the filing office may instead:

(1) note upon the copy the number assigned to the record pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–519(a)(1) and the date and time of the filing of the record; and

(2) send the copy to the person.

(b) Acknowledgment of filing other record. If a person files a record other than a written record, the filing office shall communicate to the person an acknowledgment that provides:

(1) the information in the record;

(2) the number assigned to the record pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–519(a)(1); and

(3) the date and time of the filing of the record.

(c) Communication of requested information. The filing-office shall communicate or otherwise make available in a record the following information to any person that requests it:

(1) whether there is on file on a date and time specified by the filing-office, but not a date earlier than three (3) business days before the filing-office receives the request, any financing statement that:

(A) designates a particular debtor or, if the request so states, designates a particular debtor at the address specified in the request;

(B) has not lapsed under 80 CNCA § 9–515 with respect to all secured parties of record; and

(C) if the request so states, has lapsed under 80 CNCA § 9–515 and a record of which is maintained by the filing-office under 80 CNCA § 9–522(a);

(2) the date and time of filing of each financing statement; and

(3) the information provided in each financing statement.

(d) Medium for communicating information. In complying with its duty under subsection (c), the filing-office may communicate information in any medium. However, if requested, the filing-office shall communicate information by issuing a record that can be admitted into evidence in the courts of this Nation without extrinsic evidence of its authenticity.

(e) Timeliness of filing office performance. The filing office shall perform the acts required by subsections (a) through (d) at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule, but not later than two (2) business days after the filing office receives the request.

(f) Public availability of records. At least weekly, the Office of the Principal Chief shall offer to sell or license to the public on a nonexclusive basis, in bulk, copies of all records filed in it under this part, in every medium from time to time available to the filing-office.

§ 9–524. Delay by filing-office

Delay by Filing-Office

Delay by the filing-office beyond a time limit prescribed by this part is excused if:

- (1) the delay is caused by interruption of communication or computer facilities, war, emergency conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances beyond control of the filing-office; and
- (2) the filing-office exercises reasonable diligence under the circumstances.

§ 9–525. Fees

Fees

(a) Initial financing statement or other record: general rule. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), the fee for filing and indexing a record under this part, other than an initial financing statement of the kind described in subsection (b), is:

- (1) $ X if the record is communicated in writing and consists of one (1) or two (2) pages;
- (2) $ 2X if the record is communicated in writing and consists of more than two (2) pages;
and
- (3) $ 1/2X if the record is communicated by another medium authorized by filing-office rule.

(b) Initial financing statement: public-finance and manufactured-housing transactions. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), the fee for filing and indexing an initial financing statement of the following kind is:

- (1) $ if the financing statement indicates that it is filed in connection with a public-finance transaction;

(2) $_____ if the financing statement indicates that it is filed in connection with a manufactured-home transaction.

(c) Number of names. The number of names required to be indexed does not affect the amount of the fee in subsections (a) and (b).

(d) Response to information request. The fee for responding to a request for information from the filing-office, including for communicating whether there is on file any financing statement naming a particular debtor, is:

(1) $_____ if the request is communicated in writing; and

(2) $_____ if the request is communicated by another medium authorized by filing-office rule.

(e) Record of mortgage. This section does not require a fee with respect to a record of a mortgage which is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or as a financing statement covering as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut under 80 CNCA § 9–502(c). However, the recording and satisfaction fees that otherwise would be applicable to the record of the mortgage apply.

§ 9–526. Filing-office rules

Filing-Office Rules

(a) Adoption of filing-office rules. The Office of the Principal Chief shall adopt and publish rules to implement this article. The filing-office rules must be:

(1) consistent with this article; and

(2) adopted and published in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act, 1 CNCA § 1 et seq.

(b) Harmonization of rules. To keep the filing-office rules and practices of the filing-office in harmony with the rules and practices of filing-offices in other jurisdictions that enact substantially this part, and to keep the technology used by the filing-office compatible with the technology used by filing-offices in other jurisdictions that enact substantially this part, the Office of the Principal Chief, so far as is consistent with the purposes, policies, and provisions of this article, in adopting, amending, and repealing filing-office rules, shall:

(1) consult with filing-offices in other jurisdictions that enact substantially this part; and

(2) consult the most recent version of the Model Rules promulgated by the International Association of Corporate Administrators or any successor organization; and

(3) take into consideration the rules and practices of, and the technology used by, filing-offices in other jurisdictions that enact substantially this part.

§ 9–527. Duty to report

Duty to Report

The Principal Chief shall report annually on or before November 1 to the Cherokee Nation Council on the operation of the filing office. The report must contain a statement of the extent to which:

(1) the filing-office rules are not in harmony with the rules of filing offices in other jurisdictions that enact substantially this part and the reasons for these variations; and

(2) the filing-office rules are not in harmony with the most recent version of the Model Rules promulgated by the International Association of Corporate Administrators, or any successor organization, and the reasons for these variations.

PART 6. DEFAULT

SUBPART 1. DEFAULT AND ENFORCEMENT OF SECURITY INTEREST

§ 9–601. Rights after default—Judicial enforcement—Consignor or buyer of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes

Rights After Default—Judicial Enforcement—Consignor or Buyer of Accounts, Chattel Paper, Payment Intangibles, or Promissory Notes

(a) Rights of secured party after default. After default, a secured party has the rights provided in this part and, except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–602, those provided by agreement of the parties. A secured party:

(1) may reduce a claim to judgment, foreclose, or otherwise enforce the claim, security interest, or agricultural lien by any available judicial procedure; and

(2) if the collateral is documents, may proceed either as to the documents or as to the goods they cover.

(b) Rights and duties of secured party in possession or control. A secured party in possession of collateral or control of collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–104, 9–105, 9–106, or 9–107 has the rights and duties provided in 80 CNCA § 9–207.

(c) Rights cumulative; simultaneous exercise. The rights under subsections (a) and (b) are cumulative and may be exercised simultaneously.

(d) Rights of debtor and obligor. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g) and 80 CNCA § 9–60S, after default, a debtor and an obligor have the rights provided in this part and by agreement of the parties.

(e) Lien of levy after judgment. If a secured party has reduced its claim to judgment, the lien of any levy that may be made upon the collateral by virtue of an execution based upon the judgment relates back to the earliest of:

- (1) the date of perfection of the security interest or agricultural lien in the collateral;
- (2) the date of filing a financing statement covering the collateral; or
- (3) any date specified in a statute under which the agricultural lien was created.

(f) Execution sale. A sale pursuant to an execution is a foreclosure of the security interest or agricultural lien by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section. A secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this article.

(g) Consignor or buyer of certain rights to payment. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–607(c), this part imposes no duties upon a secured party that is a consignor or is a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes.

§ 9–602. Waiver and variance of rights and duties

Waiver and Variance of Rights and Duties

Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–624, to the extent that they give rights to a debtor or obligor and impose duties on a secured party, the debtor or obligor may not waive or vary the rules stated in the following listed sections:

- (1) 80 CNCA § 9–207(b)(4)(C), which deals with use and operation of the collateral by the secured party;
- (2) 80 CNCA § 9–210, which deals with requests for an accounting and requests concerning a list of collateral and statement of account;
- (3) 80 CNCA § 9–607(c), which deals with collection and enforcement of collateral;
- (4) 80 CNCA §§ 9–608(a) and 9–615(c) to the extent that they deal with application or payment of noncash proceeds of collection, enforcement, or disposition;
- (5) 80 CNCA §§ 9–608(a) and 9–615(d) to the extent that they require accounting for or payment of surplus proceeds of collateral;
- (6) 80 CNCA § 9–609 to the extent that it imposes upon a secured party that takes possession of collateral without judicial process the duty to do so without breach of the peace;

(7) 80 CNCA §§ 9–610(b), 9–611, 9–613, and 9–614, which deal with disposition of collateral;

(8) 80 CNCA § 9–615(f), which deals with calculation of a deficiency or surplus when a disposition is made to the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor;

(9) 80 CNCA § 9–616, which deals with explanation of the calculation of a surplus or deficiency;

(10) 80 CNCA §§ 9–620, 9–621, and 9–622, which deal with acceptance of collateral in satisfaction of obligation;

(11) 80 CNCA § 9–623, which deals with redemption of collateral;

(12) 80 CNCA § 9–624, which deals with permissible waivers; and

(13) 80 CNCA §§ 9–625 and 9–626, which deal with the secured party's liability for failure to comply with this article.

§ 9–603. Agreement on standards concerning rights and duties

Agreement on Standards Concerning Rights and Duties

(a) Agreed standards. The parties may determine by agreement the standards measuring the fulfillment of the rights of a debtor or obligor and the duties of a secured party under a rule stated in 80 CNCA § 9–602 if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(b) Agreed standards inapplicable to breach of peace. Subsection (a) does not apply to the duty under 80 CNCA § 9–609 to refrain from breaching the peace.

§ 9–604. Procedure if security agreement covers real property or fixtures

Procedure if Security Agreement Covers Real Property or Fixtures

(a) Enforcement: personal and real property. If a security agreement covers both personal and real property, a secured party may proceed:

(1) under this part as to the personal property without prejudicing any rights with respect to the real property; or

(2) as to both the personal property and the real property in accordance with the rights with respect to the real property, in which case the other provisions of this part do not apply.

(b) Enforcement: fixtures. Subject to subsection (c), if a security agreement covers goods that are or become fixtures, a secured party may proceed:

(1) under this part; or

(2) in accordance with the rights with respect to real property, in which case the other provisions of this part do not apply.

(c) Removal of fixtures. Subject to the other provisions of this part, if a secured party holding a security interest in fixtures has priority over all owners and encumbrancers of the real property, the secured party, after default, may remove the collateral from the real property.

(d) Injury caused by removal. A secured party that removes collateral shall promptly reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real property, other than the debtor, for the cost of repair of any physical injury caused by the removal. The secured party need not reimburse the encumbrancer or owner for any diminution in value of the real property caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate assurance for the performance of the obligation to reimburse.

§ 9–605. Unknown debtor or secondary obligor

Unknown Debtor or Secondary Obligor

A secured party does not owe a duty based on its status as secured party:

(1) to a person that is a debtor or obligor, unless the secured party knows:

(A) that the person is a debtor or obligor,

(B) the identity of the person; and

(C) how to communicate with the person; or

(2) to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against a person, unless the secured party knows:

(A) that the person is a debtor, and

(B) the identity of the person.

§ 9–606. Time of default for agricultural lien

Time of Default for Agricultural Lien

For purposes of this part, a default occurs in connection with an agricultural lien at the time the secured party becomes entitled to enforce the lien in accordance with the statute under which it was created.

§ 9–607. Collection and enforcement by secured party

Collection and Enforcement by Secured Party

(a) Collection and enforcement generally. If so agreed, and in any event after default, a secured party:

(1) may notify an account debtor or other person obligated on collateral to make payment or otherwise render performance to or for the benefit of the secured party;

(2) may take any proceeds to which the secured party is entitled under 80 CNCA § 9–315;

(3) may enforce the obligations of an account debtor or other person obligated on collateral and exercise the rights of the debtor with respect to the obligation of the account debtor or other person obligated on collateral to make payment or otherwise render performance to the debtor, and with respect to any property that secures the obligations of the account debtor or other person obligated on the collateral;

(4) if it holds a security interest in a deposit account perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–104(a)(1), may apply the balance of the deposit account to the obligation secured by the deposit account; and

(5) if it holds a security interest in a deposit account perfected by control under 80 CNCA § 9–104(a)(2) or (3), may instruct the bank to pay the balance of the deposit account to or for the benefit of the secured party.

(b) Nonjudicial enforcement of mortgage. If necessary to enable a secured party to exercise under subsection (a)(3) the right of a debtor to enforce a mortgage nonjudicially, the secured party may record in the office in which a record of the mortgage is recorded:

(1) a copy of the security agreement that creates or provides for a security interest in the obligation secured by the mortgage; and

(2) the secured party's sworn affidavit in recordable form stating that:

(A) a default has occurred; and

(B) the secured party is entitled to enforce the mortgage nonjudicially.

(c) Commercially reasonable collection and enforcement. A secured party shall proceed in a commercially reasonable manner if the secured party:

(1) undertakes to collect from or enforce an obligation of an account debtor or other person obligated on collateral; and

(2) is entitled to charge back uncollected collateral or otherwise to full or limited recourse against the debtor or a secondary obligor.

(d) Expenses of collection and enforcement. A secured party may deduct from the collections made pursuant to subsection (c) reasonable expenses of collection and enforcement, including reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party.

(e) Duties to secured party not affected. This section does not determine whether an account debtor, bank, or other person obligated on collateral owes a duty to a secured party.

§ 9–608. Application of proceeds of collection or enforcement—Liability for deficiency and right to surplus

Application of Proceeds of Collection or Enforcement—Liability for Deficiency and Right to Surplus

(a) Application of proceeds, surplus, and deficiency if obligation secured. If a security interest or agricultural lien secures payment or performance of an obligation, the following rules apply:

(1) A secured party shall apply or pay over for application the cash proceeds of collection or enforcement under 80 CNCA § 9–607 in the following order to:

(A) the reasonable expenses of collection and enforcement and, to the extent provided for by agreement and not prohibited by law, reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;

(B) the satisfaction of obligations secured by the security interest or agricultural lien under which the collection or enforcement is made; and

(C) the satisfaction of obligations secured by any subordinate security interest in or other lien on the collateral subject to the security interest or agricultural lien under which the collection or enforcement is made if the secured party receives an authenticated demand for proceeds before distribution of the proceeds is completed.

(2) If requested by a secured party, a holder of a subordinate security interest or other lien shall furnish reasonable proof of the interest or lien within a reasonable time. Unless the holder complies, the secured party need not comply with the holder's demand under paragraph (1)(C).

(3) A secured party need not apply or pay over for application noncash proceeds of collection and enforcement under 80 CNCA § 9–607 unless the failure to do so would be commercially unreasonable. A secured party that applies or pays over for application noncash proceeds shall do so in a commercially reasonable manner.

(4) A secured party shall account to and pay a debtor for any surplus, and the obligor is liable for any deficiency.

(b) No surplus or deficiency in sales of certain rights to payment. If the underlying transaction is a sale of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes, the debtor is not entitled to any surplus, and the obligor is not liable for any deficiency.

§ 9–609. Secured party's right to take possession after default

Secured Party's Right to Take Possession After Default

(a) Possession; rendering equipment unusable; disposition on debtor's premises. After default, a secured party:

(1) may take possession of the collateral; and

(2) without removal, may render equipment unusable and dispose of collateral on a debtor's premises under 80 CNCA § 9–610.

(b) Judicial and nonjudicial process. A secured party may proceed under subsection (a):

(1) pursuant to judicial process; or

(2) without judicial process, if it proceeds without breach of the peace,

(c) Assembly of collateral. If so agreed, and in any event after default, a secured party may require the debtor to assemble the collateral and make it available to the secured party at a place to be designated by the secured party which is reasonably convenient to both parties.

§ 9–610. Disposition of collateral after default

Disposition of Collateral After Default

(a) Disposition after default. After default, a secured party may sell, lease, license, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its present condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing.

(b) Commercially reasonable disposition. Every aspect of a disposition of collateral, including the method, manner, time, place, and other terms, must be commercially reasonable. If commercially reasonable, a secured party may dispose of collateral by public or private proceedings, by one or more contracts, as a unit or in parcels, and at any time and place and on any terms.

(c) Purchase by secured party. A secured party may purchase collateral:

(1) at a public disposition; or

(2) at a private disposition only if the collateral is of a kind that is customarily sold on a recognized market or the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations.

(d) Warranties on disposition. A contract for sale, lease, license, or other disposition includes the warranties relating to title, possession, quiet enjoyment, and the like which by operation of law accompany a voluntary disposition of property of the kind subject to the contract.

(e) Disclaimer of warranties. A secured party may disclaim or modify warranties under subsection (d):

(1) in a manner that would be effective to disclaim or modify the warranties in a voluntary disposition of property of the kind subject to the contract of disposition; or

(2) by communicating to the purchaser a record evidencing the contract for disposition and including an express disclaimer or modification of the warranties.

(f) Record sufficient to disclaim warranties. A record is sufficient to disclaim warranties under subsection (e) if it indicates "There is no warranty relating to title, possession, quiet enjoyment, or the like in this disposition" or uses words of similar import.

§ 9–611. Notification before disposition of collateral

Notification Before Disposition of Collateral

(a) "Notification date." In this section, "notification date" means the earlier of the date on which:

(1) a secured party sends to the debtor and any secondary obligor an authenticated notification of disposition; or

(2) the debtor and any secondary obligor waive the right to notification.

(b) Notification of disposition required. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), a secured party that disposes of collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–610 shall send to the person specified in subsection (c) a reasonable authenticated notification of disposition.

(c) Persons to be notified. To comply with subsection (b), the secured party shall send an authenticated notification of disposition to:

(1) the debtor;

(2) any secondary obligor; and

(3) if the collateral is other than consumer goods:

(A) any other person from which the secured party has received, before the notification date, an authenticated notification of a claim of an interest in the collateral;

(B) any other secured party or lienholder that, ten (10) days before the notification date, held a security interest in or other lien on the collateral perfected by the filing of a financing statement that:

(i) identified the collateral;

(ii) was indexed under the debtor's name as of that date; and

(iii) was filed in the office in which to file a financing statement against the debtor covering the collateral as of that date; and

(C) any other secured party that, ten (10) days before the notification date, held a security interest in the collateral perfected by compliance with a statute, regulation, or treaty described in 80 CNCA § 9-311(a).

(d) Subsection (b) inapplicable: perishable collateral; recognized market. Subsection (b) does not apply if the collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market.

(e) Compliance with subsection (c)(3)(B). A secured party complies with the requirement for notification prescribed by subsection (c)(3)(B) if:

(1) not later than twenty (20) days or earlier than thirty (30) days before the notification date, the secured party requests, in a commercially reasonable manner, information concerning financing statements indexed under the debtor's name in the office indicated in subsection (c)(3)(B); and

(2) before the notification date, the secured party:

(A) did not receive a response to the request for information; or

(B) received a response to the request for information and sent an authenticated notification of disposition to each secured party or other lienholder named in that response whose financing statement covered the collateral.

§ 9-612. Timeliness of notification before disposition of collateral

Timeliness of Notification Before Disposition of Collateral

(a) Reasonable time is question of fact. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), whether a notification is sent within a reasonable time is a question of fact.

(b) Ten (10)-day period sufficient in non-consumer transaction. In a transaction other than a consumer transaction, a notification of disposition sent after default and ten (10) days or more before the earliest time of disposition set forth in the notification is sent within a reasonable time before the disposition.

§ 9–613. Contents and form of notification before disposition of collateral: General

Contents and Form of Notification Before Disposition of Collateral: General

Except in a consumer-goods transaction, the following rules apply:

(1) The contents of a notification of disposition are sufficient if the notification:

(A) describes the debtor and the secured party;

(B) describes the collateral that is the subject of the intended disposition;

(C) states the method of intended disposition;

(D) states that the debtor is entitled to an accounting of the unpaid indebtedness and states the charge, if any, for an accounting; and

(E) states the time and place of a public disposition or the time after which any other disposition is to be made.

(2) Whether the contents of a notification that lacks any of the information specified in paragraph (1) are nevertheless sufficient is a question of fact.

(3) The contents of a notification providing substantially the information specified in paragraph (1) are sufficient, even if the notification includes:

(A) information not specified by that paragraph; or

(B) minor errors that are not seriously misleading.

(4) A particular phrasing of the notification is not required.

(5) The following form of notification and the form appearing in 80 CNCA § 9–614(3), when completed, each provides sufficient information:

End of Form

§ 9–614. Contents and form of notification before disposition of collateral: Consumer-goods transaction

Contents and Form of Notification Before Disposition of Collateral: Consumer-Goods Transaction

In a consumer-goods transaction, the following rules apply:

(1) A notification of disposition must provide the following information:

(A) the information specified in 80 CNCA § 9–613(1);

(B) a description of any liability for a deficiency of the person to which the notification is sent;

(C) a telephone number from which the amount that must be paid to the secured party to redeem the collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–623 is available; and

(D) a telephone number or mailing address from which additional information concerning the disposition and the obligation secured is available.

(2) A particular phrasing of the notification is not required.

(3) The following form of notification, when completed, provides sufficient information:

Name and address of secured party

We are sending this notice to the following other people who have an interest in describe collateral or who owe money under your agreement:

Names of all other debtors and obligors, if any

End of Form

(4) A notification in the form of paragraph (3) is sufficient, even if additional information appears at the end of the form.

(5) A notification in the form of paragraph (3) is sufficient, even if it includes errors in information not required by paragraph (1), unless the error is misleading with respect to rights arising under this article.

(6) If a notification under this section is not in the form of paragraph (3), law other than this article determines the effect of including information not required by paragraph (1).

§ 9–615. Application of proceeds of disposition—Liability for deficiency and right to surplus

Application of Proceeds of Disposition—Liability for Deficiency and Right to Surplus

(a) Application of proceeds. A secured party shall apply or pay over for application the cash proceeds of disposition under 80 CNCA § 9–610 in the following order to:

(1) the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for disposition, processing, and disposing, and, to the extent provided for by agreement and not prohibited by law, reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party,

(2) the satisfaction of obligations secured by the security interest or agricultural lien under which the disposition is made;

(3) the satisfaction of obligations secured by any subordinate security interest in or other subordinate lien on the collateral if:

(A) the secured party receives from the holder of the subordinate security interest or other lien an authenticated demand for proceeds before distribution of the proceeds is completed; and

(B) in a case in which a consignor has an interest in the collateral, the subordinate security interest or other lien is senior to the interest of the consignor, and

(4) a secured party that is a consignor of the collateral if the secured party receives from the consignor an authenticated demand for proceeds before distribution of the proceeds is completed.

(b) Proof of subordinate interest. If requested by a secured party, a holder of a subordinate security interest or other lien shall furnish reasonable proof of the interest or lien within a reasonable time. Unless the holder does so, the secured party need not comply with the holder's demand under subsection (a)(3).

(c) Application of noncash proceeds. A secured party need not apply or pay over for application noncash proceeds of disposition under 80 CNCA § 9–610 unless the failure to do so would be commercially unreasonable. A secured party that applies or pays over for application noncash proceeds shall do so in a commercially reasonable manner.

(d) Surplus or deficiency if obligation secured. If the security interest under which a disposition is made secures payment or performance of an obligation, after making the payments and applications required by subsection (a) and permitted by subsection (c):

(1) unless subsection (a)(4) requires the secured party to apply or pay over cash proceeds to a consignor, the secured party shall account to and pay a debtor for any surplus; and

(2) the obligor is liable for any deficiency.

(e) No surplus or deficiency in sales of certain rights to payment. If the underlying transaction is a sale of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes:

(1) the debtor is not entitled to any surplus; and

(2) the obligor is not liable for any deficiency.

(f) Calculation of surplus or deficiency in disposition to person related to secured party. The surplus or deficiency following a disposition is calculated based on the amount of proceeds that would have been realized in a disposition complying with this part to a transferee other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor if:

(1) the transferee in the disposition is the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor; and

(2) the amount of proceeds of the disposition is significantly below the range of proceeds that a complying disposition to a person other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.

(g) Cash proceeds received by junior secured party. A secured party that receives cash proceeds of a disposition in good faith and without knowledge that the receipt violates the rights of the holder of a security interest or other lien that is not subordinate to the security interest or agricultural lien under which the disposition is made:

(1) takes the cash proceeds free of the security interest or other lien;

(2) is not obligated to apply the proceeds of the disposition to the satisfaction of obligations secured by the security interest or other lien; and

(3) is not obligated to account to or pay the holder of the security interest or other lien for any surplus.

§ 9–616. Explanation of calculation of surplus or deficiency

Explanation of Calculation of Surplus or Deficiency

(a) Definitions. In this section:

(1) "Explanation" means a writing that:

(A) states the amount of the surplus or deficiency;

(B) provides an explanation in accordance with subsection (c) of how the secured party calculated the surplus or deficiency;

(C) states, if applicable, that future debits, credits, charges, including additional credit service charges or interest, rebates, and expenses may affect the amount of the surplus or deficiency; and

(D) provides a telephone number or mailing address from which additional information concerning the transaction is available.

(2) "Request" means a record:

(A) authenticated by a debtor or consumer obligor,

(B) requesting that the recipient provide an explanation; and

(C) sent after disposition of the collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–610.

(b) Explanation of calculation. In a consumer-goods transaction in which the debtor is entitled to a surplus or a consumer obligor is liable for a deficiency under 80 CNCA § 9–615, the secured party shall:

(1) send an explanation to the debtor or consumer obligor, as applicable, after the disposition and:

(A) before or when the secured party accounts to the debtor and pays any surplus or first makes written demand on the consumer obligor after the disposition for payment of the deficiency; and

(B) within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a request; or

(2) in the case of a consumer obligor who is liable for a deficiency, within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a request, send to the consumer obligor a record waiving the secured party's right to a deficiency.

(c) Required information. To comply with subsection (a)(1)(B), a writing must provide the following information in the following order:

(1) the aggregate amount of obligations secured by the security interest under which the disposition was made, and, if the amount reflects a rebate of unearned interest or credit service charge, an indication of that fact, calculated as of a specified date:

(A) if the secured party takes or receives possession of the collateral after default, not more than thirty-five (35) days before the secured party takes or receives possession; or

(B) if the secured party takes or receives possession of the collateral before default or does not take possession of the collateral, not more than thirty-five (35) days before the disposition;

(2) the amount of proceeds of the disposition;

(3) the aggregate amount of the obligations after deducting the amount of proceeds;

(4) the amount, in the aggregate or by type, and types of expenses, including expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for disposition, processing, and disposing of the collateral, and attorney's fees secured by the collateral which are known to the secured party and relate to the current disposition;

(5) the amount, in the aggregate or by type, and types of credits, including rebates of interest or credit service charges, to which the obligor is known to be entitled and which are not reflected in the amount in paragraph (1); and

(6) the amount of the surplus or deficiency.

(d) Substantial compliance. A particular phrasing of the explanation is not required. An explanation complying substantially with the requirements of subsection (a) is sufficient, even if it includes minor errors that are not seriously misleading.

(e) Charges for responses. A debtor or consumer obligor is entitled without charge to one response to a request under this section during any six (6) -month period in which the secured party did not send to the debtor or consumer obligor an explanation pursuant to subsection (b)(1). The secured party may require payment of a charge not exceeding Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for each additional response.

§ 9–617. Right of transferee of collateral

Right of Transferee of Collateral

(a) Effects of disposition. A secured party's disposition of collateral after default:

(1) transfers to a transferee for value all of the debtor's rights in the collateral;

(2) discharges the security interest under which the disposition is made; and

(3) discharges any subordinate security interest or other subordinate lien other than liens created under cite acts or statutes providing for liens, if any, that are not to be discharged.

(b) Rights of good-faith transferee. A transferee that acts in good faith takes free of the rights and interests described in subsection (a), even if the secured party fails to comply with this article or the requirements of any judicial proceeding.

(c) Rights of other transferee. If a transferee does not take free of the rights and interests described in subsection (a), the transferee takes the collateral subject to:

(1) the debtor's rights in the collateral;

(2) the security interest or agricultural lien under which the disposition is made; and

(3) any other security interest or other lien.

§ 9–618. Rights and duties of certain secondary obligors

Rights and Duties of Certain Secondary Obligor

(a) Rights and duties of secondary obligor. A secondary obligor acquires the rights and becomes obligated to perform the duties of the secured party after the secondary obligor:

(1) receives an assignment of a secured obligation from the secured party;

(2) receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party and agrees to accept the rights and assume the duties of the secured party; or

(3) is subrogated to the rights of a secured party with respect to collateral.

(b) Effect of assignment, transfer, or subrogation. An assignment, transfer, or subrogation described in subsection (a):

(1) is not a disposition of collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–610; and

(2) relieves the secured party of further duties under this article.

§ 9–619. Transfer of record or legal title

Transfer of Record or Legal Title

(a) Transfer statement. In this section, "transfer statement" means a record authenticated by a secured party stating:

- (1) that the debtor has defaulted in connection with an obligation secured by specified collateral;
- (2) that the secured party has exercised its post-default remedies with respect to the collateral;
- (3) that, by reason of the exercise, a transferee has acquired the rights of the debtor in the collateral; and
- (4) the name and mailing address of the secured party, debtor, and transferee.

(b) Effect of transfer statement. A transfer statement entitles the transferee to the transfer of record of all rights of the debtor in the collateral specified in the statement in any official filing, recording, registration, or certificate-of-title system covering the collateral. If a transfer statement is presented with the applicable fee and request form to the official or office responsible for maintaining the system, the official or office shall:

- (1) accept the transfer statement;
- (2) promptly amend its records to reflect the transfer, and
- (3) if applicable, issue a new appropriate certificate of title in the name of the transferee.

(c) Transfer not a disposition; no relief of secured party's duties. A transfer of the record or legal title to collateral to a secured party under subsection (b) or otherwise is not of itself a disposition of collateral under this article and does not of itself relieve the secured party of its duties under this article.

§ 9–620. Acceptance of collateral in full or partial satisfaction of obligation—Compulsory disposition of collateral

Acceptance of Collateral in Full or Partial Satisfaction of Obligation—Compulsory Disposition of Collateral

(a) Conditions to acceptance in satisfaction. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a secured party may accept collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures only if:

- (1) the debtor consents to the acceptance under subsection (c);
- (2) the secured party does not receive, within the time set forth in subsection (d), a notification of objection to the proposal authenticated by:

(A) a person to which the secured party was required to send a proposal under 80 CNCA § 9–621; or

(B) any other person, other than the debtor, holding an interest in the collateral subordinate to the security interest that is the subject of the proposal;

(3) if the collateral is consumer goods, the collateral is not in the possession of the debtor when the debtor consents to the acceptance; and

(4) subsection (e) does not require the secured party to dispose of the collateral or the debtor waives the requirement pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–624.

(b) Purported acceptance ineffective. A purported or apparent acceptance of collateral under this section is ineffective unless:

(1) the secured party consents to the acceptance in an authenticated record or sends a proposal to the debtor; and

(2) the conditions of subsection (a) are met.

(c) Debtor's consent. For purposes of this section:

(1) a debtor consents to an acceptance of collateral in partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures only if the debtor agrees to the terms of the acceptance in a record authenticated after default; and

(2) a debtor consents to an acceptance of collateral in full satisfaction of the obligation it secures only if the debtor agrees to the terms of the acceptance in a record authenticated after default or the secured party:

(A) sends to the debtor after default a proposal that is unconditional or subject only to a condition that collateral not in the possession of the secured party be preserved or maintained;

(B) in the proposal, proposes to accept collateral in full satisfaction of the obligation it secures; and

(C) does not receive a notification of objection authenticated by the debtor within twenty (20) days after the proposal is sent.

(d) Effectiveness of notification. To be effective under subsection (a)(2), a notification of objection must be received by the secured party:

(1) in the case of a person to which the proposal was sent pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–621, within twenty (20) days after notification was sent to that person; and

(2) in other cases:

(A) within twenty (20) days after the last notification was sent pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–621; or

(B) if a notification was not sent, before the debtor consents to the acceptance under subsection (c).

(e) Mandatory disposition of consumer goods. A secured party that has taken possession of collateral shall dispose of the collateral pursuant to 80 CNCA § 9–610 within the time specified in subsection (f) if:

(1) Sixty percent (60%) of the cash price has been paid in the case of a purchase-money security interest in consumer goods; or

(2) Sixty percent (60%) of the principal amount of the obligation secured has been paid in the case of a non-purchase-money security interest in consumer goods.

(f) Compliance with mandatory disposition requirement. To comply with subsection (e), the secured party shall dispose of the collateral:

(1) within ninety (90) days after taking possession; or

(2) within any longer period to which the debtor and all secondary obligors have agreed in an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.

(g) No partial satisfaction in consumer transaction. In a consumer transaction, a secured party may not accept collateral in partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures.

§ 9–621. Notification of proposal to accept collateral

Notification of Proposal to Accept Collateral

(a) Persons to whom proposal to be sent. A secured party that desires to accept collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures shall send its proposal to:

(1) any person from whom the secured party has received, before the debtor consented to the acceptance, an authenticated notification of a claim of an interest in the collateral;

(2) any other secured party or lienholder that, ten (10) days before the debtor consented to the acceptance, held a security interest in or other lien on the collateral perfected by the filing of a financing statement that:

(A) identified the collateral;

(B) was indexed under the debtor's name as of that date; and

(C) was filed in the office or offices in which to file a financing statement against the debtor covering the collateral as of that date; and

(3) any other secured party that, ten (10) days before the debtor consented to the acceptance, held a security interest in the collateral perfected by compliance with a statute, regulation, or treaty described in 80 CNCA § 9–311(a).

(b) Proposal to be sent to secondary obligor in partial satisfaction. A secured party that desires to accept collateral in partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures shall send its proposal to any secondary obligor in addition to the persons described in subsection (a).

§ 9–622. Effect of acceptance of collateral

Effect of Acceptance of Collateral

(a) Effect of acceptance. A secured party's acceptance of collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures:

(1) discharges the obligation to the extent consented to by the debtor,

(2) transfers to the secured party all of a debtor's rights in the collateral;

(3) discharges the security interest or agricultural lien that is the subject of the debtor's consent and any subordinate security interest or other subordinate lien; and

(4) terminates any other subordinate interest.

(b) Discharge of subordinate interest notwithstanding noncompliance. A subordinate interest is discharged or terminated under subsection (a), even if the secured party fails to comply with this article.

§ 9–623. Right to redeem collateral

Right to Redeem Collateral

(a) Persons that may redeem. A debtor, any secondary obligor, or any other secured party or lienholder may redeem collateral.

(b) Requirements for redemption. To redeem collateral, a person shall tender:

(1) fulfillment of all obligations secured by the collateral; and

(2) the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees described in 80 CNCA § 9–615(a)(1).

(c) When redemption may occur. A redemption may occur at any time before a secured party:

(1) has collected collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–607;

(2) has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under 80 CNCA § 9–610; or

(3) has accepted collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures under 80 CNCA § 9–622.

§ 9–624. Waiver

Waiver

(a) Waiver of disposition notification. A debtor or secondary obligor may waive the right to notification of disposition of collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–611 only by an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.

(b) Waiver of mandatory disposition. A debtor may waive the right to require disposition of collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–620(e) only by an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.

(c) Waiver of redemption right. Except in a consumer-goods transaction, a debtor or secondary obligor may waive the right to redeem collateral under 80 CNCA § 9–623 only by an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.

SUBPART 2. NONCOMPLIANCE WITH ARTICLE

§ 9–625. Remedies for secured party's failure to comply with article

Remedies for Secured Party's Failure to Comply With Article

(a) Judicial orders concerning noncompliance. If it is established that a secured party is not proceeding in accordance with this article, a court may order or restrain collection, enforcement, or disposition of collateral on appropriate terms and conditions.

(b) Damages for noncompliance. Subject to subsections (c), (d), and (f), a person is liable for damages in the amount of any loss caused by a failure to comply with this article. Loss caused by a failure to comply may include loss resulting from the debtor's inability to obtain, or increased costs of, alternative financing.

(c) Persons entitled to recover damages; statutory damages in consumer-goods transaction. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–628:

(1) a person that, at the time of the failure, was a debtor, was an obligor, or held a security interest in or other lien on the collateral may recover damages under subsection (b) for its loss; and

(2) if the collateral is consumer goods, a person that was a debtor or a secondary obligor at the time a secured party failed to comply with this part may recover for that failure in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus ten percent (10%) of the principal amount of the obligation or the time-price differential plus ten percent (10%) of the cash price.

(d) Recovery when deficiency eliminated or reduced. A debtor whose deficiency is eliminated under 80 CNCA § 9–626 may recover damages for the loss of any surplus. However, a debtor or secondary obligor whose deficiency is eliminated or reduced under 80 CNCA § 9–626 may not otherwise recover under subsection (b) for noncompliance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

(e) Statutory damages: noncompliance with specified provisions. In addition to any damages recoverable under subsection (b), the debtor, consumer obligor, or person named as a debtor in a filed record, as applicable, may recover Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) in each case from a person that:

(1) fails to comply with 80 CNCA § 9–208;

(2) fails to comply with 80 CNCA § 9–209;

(3) files a record that the person is not entitled to file under 80 CNCA § 9–509(a);

(4) fails to cause the secured party of record to file or send a termination statement as required by 80 CNCA § 9–513(a) or (c);

(5) fails to comply with 80 CNCA § 9–616(b)(1) and whose failure is part of a pattern, or consistent with a practice, of noncompliance; or

(6) fails to comply with 80 CNCA § 9–616(b)(2).

(f) Statutory damages: noncompliance with 80 CNCA § 9–210. A debtor or consumer obligor may recover damages under subsection (b) and, in addition, Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) in each case from a person that, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with a request under 80 CNCA § 9–210. A recipient of a request under 80 CNCA § 9–210 who never claimed an interest in the collateral or obligations that are the subject of a request under that section has a reasonable excuse for failure to comply with the request within the meaning of this subsection.

(g) Limitation of security interest: noncompliance with 80 CNCA § 9–210. If a secured party fails to comply with a request regarding a list of collateral or a statement of account under 80 CNCA § 9–210, the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the list or statement included in the request as against a person that is reasonably misled by the failure.

§ 9–626. Action in which deficiency or surplus is in issue

Action in Which Deficiency or Surplus is in Issue

(a) Applicable rules if amount of deficiency or surplus in issue. In an action arising from a transaction, other than a consumer transaction, in which the amount of a deficiency or surplus is in issue, the following rules apply:

(1) A secured party need not prove compliance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance unless the debtor or a secondary obligor places the secured party's compliance in issue.

(2) If the secured party's compliance is placed in issue, the secured party has the burden of establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with this part.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–628, if a secured party fails to prove that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance, the liability of a debtor or a secondary obligor for a deficiency is limited to an amount by which the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees exceeds the greater of:

(A) the proceeds of the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance; or

(B) the amount of proceeds that would have been realized had the noncomplying secured party proceeded in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3)(B), the amount of proceeds that would have been realized is equal to the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees unless the secured party proves that the amount is less than that sum.

(5) If a deficiency or surplus is calculated under 80 CNCA § 9–615(f), the debtor or obligor has the burden of establishing that the amount of proceeds of the disposition is significantly below the range of prices that a complying disposition to a person other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.

(b) Non-consumer transactions; no inference. The limitation of the rules in subsection (a) to transactions other than consumer transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer transactions. The court may not infer from that limitation the nature of the proper rule in consumer transactions and may continue to apply established approaches.

§ 9–627. Determination of whether conduct was commercially reasonable

Determination of Whether Conduct Was Commercially Reasonable

(a) Greater amount obtainable under other circumstances; no preclusion of commercial reasonableness. The fact that a greater amount could have been obtained by a collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to preclude the secured party from establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was made in a commercially reasonable manner.

(b) Dispositions that are commercially reasonable. A disposition of collateral is made in a commercially reasonable manner if the disposition is made:

(1) in the usual manner on any recognized market;

(2) at the price current in any recognized market at the time of the disposition; or

(3) otherwise in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property that was the subject of the disposition.

(c) Approval by court or on behalf of creditors. A collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is commercially reasonable if it has been approved:

(1) in a judicial proceeding;

(2) by a bona fide creditors' committee;

(3) by a representative of creditors; or

(4) by an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

(d) Approval under subsection (c) not necessary; absence of approval has no effect. Approval under subsection (c) need not be obtained, and lack of approval does not mean that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is not commercially reasonable.

§ 9–628. Nonliability and limitation on liability of secured party—Liability of secondary obligor

Nonliability and Limitation on Liability of Secured Party—Liability of Secondary Obligor

(a) Limitation of liability of secured party for noncompliance with article. Unless a secured party knows that a person is a debtor or obligor, knows the identity of the person, and knows how to communicate with the person:

(1) the secured party is not liable to the person, or to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against the person, for failure to comply with this article; and

(2) the secured party's failure to comply with this article does not affect the liability of the person for a deficiency.

(b) Limitation of liability based on status as secured party. A secured party is not liable because of its status as secured party:

(1) to a person that is a debtor or obligor, unless the secured party knows:

(A) that the person is a debtor or obligor;

(B) the identity of the person; and

(C) how to communicate with the person; or

(2) to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against a person, unless the secured party knows:

(A) that the person is a debtor, and

(B) the identity of the person.

(c) Limitation of liability if reasonable belief that transaction not a consumer-goods transaction or consumer transaction. A secured party is not liable to any person, and a person's liability for a deficiency is not affected, because of any act or omission arising out of the secured party's reasonable belief that a transaction is not a consumer-goods transaction or a consumer transaction or that goods are not consumer goods, if the secured party's belief is based on its reasonable reliance on:

(1) a debtor's representation concerning the purpose for which collateral was to be used, acquired, or held; or

(2) an obligor's representation concerning the purpose for which a secured obligation was incurred.

(d) Limitation of liability for statutory damages. A secured party is not liable to any person under 80 CNCA § 9–625(c)(2) for its failure to comply with 80 CNCA § 9–616.

(e) Limitation of multiple liability for statutory damages. A secured party is not liable under 80 CNCA § 9–625(c)(2) more than once with respect to any one (1) secured obligation.

PART 7. TRANSITION

§ 9–701. Effective date

Effective Date

This act takes effect on enactment.

§ 9–702. Savings clause

Savings Clause

(a) Pre-effective-date transactions or liens. Except as otherwise provided in this part, this Act applies to a transaction or lien within its scope, even if the transaction or lien was entered into or created before this act takes effect.

(b) Continuing validity. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) and 80 CNCA §§ 9–703 through 9–709:

(1) transactions and liens that were not governed by former Article 9, were validly entered into or created before this act takes effect, and would be subject to this act if they had been entered into or created after this act takes effect, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from those transactions and liens remain valid after this act takes effect; and

(2) the transactions and liens may be terminated, completed, consummated, and enforced as required or permitted by this act or by the law that otherwise would apply if this act had not taken effect.

(c) Pre-effective-date proceedings. This act does not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before this act takes effect.

§ 9–703. Security interest perfected before effective date

Security Interest Perfected Before Effective Date

(a) Continuing priority over lien creditor: perfection requirements satisfied. A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this act takes effect and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time is a perfected security interest under this act if, when this act takes effect, the applicable requirements for enforceability and perfection under this act are satisfied without further action.

(b) Continuing priority over lien creditor: perfection requirements not satisfied. Except as otherwise provided in 80 CNCA § 9–705, if, immediately before this act takes effect, a security interest is enforceable and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time, but the applicable requirements for enforceability or perfection under this act are not satisfied when this act takes effect, the security interest:

(1) is a perfected security interest for one (1) year after this act takes effect;

(2) remains enforceable thereafter only if the security interest becomes enforceable under 80 CNCA § 9–203 before the year expires; and

(3) remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under this act are satisfied before the year expires.

§ 9–704. Security interest unperfected before effective date

Security Interest Unperfected Before Effective Date

A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this act takes effect but which would be subordinate to the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time:

- (1) remains an enforceable security interest for one (1) year after this act takes effect;
- (2) remains enforceable thereafter if the security interest becomes enforceable under 80 CNCA § 9–203 when this act takes effect or within one (1) year thereafter, and
- (3) becomes perfected:
 - (A) without further action, when this act takes effect if the applicable requirements for perfection under this act are satisfied before or at that time; or
 - (B) when the applicable requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after that time.

§ 9–705. Effectiveness of action taken before effective date

Effectiveness of Action Taken Before Effective Date

- (a) Pre-effective-date action; one-year perfection period unless reperfected. If action, other than the filing of a financing statement, is taken before this act takes effect and the action would have resulted in priority of a security interest over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor had the security interest become enforceable before this act takes effect, the action is effective to perfect a security interest that attaches under this act within one (1) year after this act takes effect. An attached security interest becomes unperfected one (1) year after this act takes effect unless the security interest becomes a perfected security interest under this act before the expiration of that period.
- (b) Pre-effective-date filing. The filing of a financing statement before this act takes effect is effective to perfect a security interest to the extent the filing would satisfy the applicable requirements for perfection under this act.
- (c) Pre-effective-date filing in jurisdiction formerly governing perfection. This act does not render ineffective an effective financing statement that, before this act takes effect, is filed and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in former 80 CNCA § 9–103. However, except as otherwise provided in subsections (d) and (e) and 80 CNCA § 9–706, the financing statement ceases to be effective at the earlier of:
 - (1) the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is filed; or

(2) June 30, 2006.

(d) Continuation statement. The filing of a continuation statement after this act takes effect does not continue the effectiveness of the financing statement filed before this act takes effect. However, upon the timely filing of a continuation statement after this act takes effect and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before this act takes effect continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.

(e) Application of subsection (c)(2) to transmitting utility financing statement. Subsection (c)(2) applies to a financing statement that, before this act takes effect, is filed against a transmitting utility and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in former 80 CNCA § 9–103 only to the extent that Part 3 provides that the law of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.

(f) Application of Part 5. A financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before this act takes effect and a continuation statement filed after this act takes effect is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of Part 5 for an initial financing statement.

§ 9–706. When initial financing statement suffices to continue effectiveness of financing statement

When Initial Financing Statement Suffices to Continue Effectiveness of Financing Statement

(a) Initial financing statement in lieu of continuation statement. The filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in 80 CNCA § 9–501 continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this act takes effect if:

(1) the filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under this act;

(2) the pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in a state or another office in this Nation; and

(3) the initial financing statement satisfies subsection (c).

(b) Period of continued effectiveness. The filing of an initial financing statement under subsection (a) continues the effectiveness of the pre-effective-date financing statement:

(1) if the initial financing statement is filed before this act takes effect, for the period provided in former Section 9–403 with respect to a financing statement; and

(2) if the initial financing statement is filed after this act takes effect, for the period provided in 80

CNCA § 9–515 with respect to an initial financing statement.

(c) Requirements for initial financing statement under subsection (a). To be effective for purposes of subsection (a), an initial financing statement must:

(1) satisfy the requirements of Part 5 for an initial financing statement;

(2) identify the pre-effective-date financing statement by indicating the office in which the financing statement was filed and providing the dates of filing and file numbers, if any, of the financing statement and of the most recent continuation statement filed with respect to the financing statement; and

(3) indicate that the pre-effective-date financing statement remains effective.

§ 9–707. Amendment of pre-effective-date financing statement

Amendment of Pre-Effective-Date Financing Statement

(a) Pre-effective-date financing statement. In this section, "pre-effective-date financing statement" means a financing statement filed before this act takes effect.

(b) Applicable law. After this act takes effect, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or otherwise amend the information provided in, a pre-effective-date financing statement only in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3. However, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement also may be terminated in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed.

(c) Method of amending: general rule. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), if the law of this Nation governs perfection of a security interest, the information in a pre-effective-date financing statement may be amended after this act takes effect only if:

(1) the pre-effective-date financing statement and an amendment are filed in the office specified in 80 CNCA § 9–501;

(2) an amendment is filed in the office specified in 80 CNCA § 9–501 concurrently with, or after the filing in that office of, an initial financing statement that satisfies 80 CNCA § 9–706(c); or

(3) an initial financing statement that provides the information as amended and satisfies 80 CNCA § 9–706(c) is filed in the office specified in 80 CNCA § 9–501.

(d) Method of amending: continuation. If the law of this Nation governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement may be continued only under 80 CNCA § 9–705(d) and (f) or 9–706.

(e) Method of amending: additional termination rule. Whether or not the law of this Nation governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement filed in this Nation may be terminated after this act takes effect by filing a termination statement in the office in which the pre-effective-date financing statement is filed, unless an initial financing statement that satisfies 80 CNCA § 9–706(c) has been filed in the office specified by the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 as the office in which to file a financing statement.

§ 9–708. Persons entitled to file initial financing statement or continuation statement

Persons Entitled to File Initial Financing Statement or Continuation Statement

A person may file an initial financing statement or a continuation statement under this part if:

- (1) the secured party of record authorizes the filing; and
- (2) the filing is necessary under this part:
 - (A) to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this act takes effect; or
 - (B) to perfect or continue the perfection of a security interest.

§ 9–709. Priority

Priority

(a) Law governing priority. This act determines the priority of conflicting claims to collateral. However, if the relative priorities of the claims were established before this act takes effect, former Article 9 determines priority.

(b) Priority if security interest becomes enforceable under 80 CNCA § 9–203. For purposes of 80 CNCA § 9–322(a), the priority of a security interest that becomes enforceable under 80 CNCA § 9–203 dates from the time this act takes effect if the security interest is perfected under this act by the filing of a financing statement before this act takes effect which would not have been effective to perfect the security interest under former Article 9. This subsection does not apply to conflicting security interests each of which is perfected by the filing of such a financing statement.

TITLE 85

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Short title

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Workers' Compensation Act Amendments of 2010.

§ 2. Definitions

In this Title, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Accident" means an unforeseen event occurring without the will or design of the person whose mere act causes it; a sudden, unexpected, unusual, or undesigned occurrence; or the effect of an unknown cause or, the cause, being known, an unprecedented consequence of it, provided, however, that no incident shall be considered an accident that does not involve a sudden and discernable physical trauma or event, and provided that the accident must occur during the course and scope of employment.

2. "Acting in the course of employment" means:

a. "Acting in the course of employment" means the worker acting at his or her employer's direction or in the furtherance of his or her employer's business which shall include time spent going to and from work on the jobsite, insofar as such time is immediate to the actual time that the worker is engaged in the work process in areas controlled by his or her employer, except parking area. It is not necessary that at the time an injury is sustained by a worker he or she is doing the work on which his or her compensation is based or that the event is within the time limits on which industrial insurance or medical aid premiums or assessments are paid.

b. "Acting in the course of employment" does not include:

i. Time spent going to or coming from the employer's place of business in an alternative commute mode, notwithstanding that the employer (i) paid directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, the cost of a fare, pass, or other expense associated with the alternative commute mode; (ii) promoted and encouraged employee use of one or more alternative commute modes; or (iii) otherwise participated in the provision of the alternative commute mode.

ii. An employee's participation in social activities, recreational or athletic activities, events, or competitions, and parties or picnics, whether or not the employer pays some or all of the costs thereof unless: (i) The participation is during the employee's working hours, not including paid leave; (ii) the employee was paid monetary compensation by the employer to participate; or (iii) the employee was ordered or directed by the employer to participate or reasonably believed the employee was ordered or directed to participate.

3. "Alternative commute mode" means (a) a carpool or vanpool arrangement whereby a group of at least two but not more than fifteen persons including passengers and driver, is transported between their places of abode or termini near those places, and their places of employment or educational or other institutions, where the driver is also on the way to or from his or her place of employment or educational or other institution; (b) a bus, ferry, or other public transportation service; or (c) a nonmotorized means of commuting such as bicycling or walking.

4. "Artificial member" means a fabricated substitute replacing or enhancing a diseased or missing part of the body, to include eye(s) and/or teeth.

5. "Average weekly wage" means the earnings of the claimant in the employment in which he or she was working at the time of the injury during the period ninety-one (91) days immediately preceding the date of the injury, divided by thirteen (13) weeks. If the claimant has been employed for less than ninety-one (91) days, then the "average weekly wage" shall mean the actual earnings of the claimant in the employment in which he or she was working at the time of the injury divided by the actual number of weeks the employee worked. Volunteers shall be paid medical benefits only.

6. "Award" means the administrative or arbitration finding or decision determining the amount of compensation due a claimant.

7. "Claimant" means a person who claims benefits pursuant to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act.

8. "Compensation" means indemnity benefits, payments for medical expenses, mileage and other expenses associated with medical treatment, and death benefits paid pursuant to this Title.

9. "Controlled substance" means any drug so designated or defined by Cherokee Nation, federal, and/or other applicable laws where availability or possession of such substance is restricted or prohibited.

10. "Employee" means every person in the service of an employer as defined herein, under any contract of hire, express or implied, oral or written, or under any appointment or election, including executive officers of corporations. In the event of the death of an employee the legal heirs or representatives may be deemed to be the employee for purposes of this Title.

a. Subject to paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the following persons may be excluded from the definition of employee:

i. any person who would be an independent contractor under Internal Revenue Service law and regulations.

ii. any person who is employed as a domestic servant or as a casual worker in and about a private home or household, which private home or household had a gross annual payroll in the preceding calendar year of less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for such workers.

iii. any person for whom an employer is liable under any Act of Congress for providing compensation to employees for injuries, disease or death arising out of and in the course of employment including, but not limited to, the Federal Employees' Compensation Act, the Federal Employers' Liability Act, the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Act and the Jones Act, to the extent his employees are subject to such Acts.

iv. any person who is employed in agriculture or horticulture by an employer who had a gross annual payroll in the preceding calendar year of less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) cash wages for agricultural or horticultural workers.

v. any person who is a licensed real estate sales associate or broker, paid on a commission basis.

vi. agricultural employees who are not engaged in operation of motorized machines shall be exempt from coverage of workers' compensation.

vii. an employer with five or less total employees, all of whom are related by blood or marriage to the employer, will be exempt from the Workers' Compensation Act.

viii. any person providing or performing voluntary service who receives no wages for the services other than meals, drug or alcohol rehabilitative therapy, transportation, lodging or reimbursement for incidental expenses.

b. Employees eligible to be excluded under paragraph (a) of this subdivision may be covered by this Title if the employer elects coverage as to the employee or as to the class of employees of that employer pursuant to this chapter by purchasing and accepting a valid workers' compensation insurance policy or endorsement, or by written notice to the group self-insurer of which the employer is a member.

11. "Cumulative trauma" means an injury resulting from employment activities which are repetitive in nature and engaged in over a period of time and which is supported by objective medical evidence. This term shall not include stress-related and mental health issues unless accompanied by injury.

12. "Earnings" means money rate at which the service rendered is recompensed under the contract of hiring in force at the time of the injury, including the reasonable value of board, rent, housing, lodging, or similar advantage received from the employer.

13. "Employer" means Cherokee Nation, its agencies, commissions, subsidiaries, and any business entity wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation regardless of where the entities are located, or where the employees are located, within or without the territorial limits of Cherokee Nation, any person, body of persons, corporate or otherwise, and the legal representatives of a deceased employer, all while engaged in Cherokee Nation in any work covered by the provisions of this Title, by way of trade or business, or who contracts with one or more employees, the essence of which is the personal labor of such employee or employees.

14. "Health care provider" means a person licensed to practice medicine by any state within the United States, or foreign country if the injury occurs outside of the United States, including a pharmacy dispensing prescribed medication.

15. "Human Resources Department" shall mean the department or office responsible for administration of personnel, human resources, and benefits for the applicable, respective employer of the employee.

16. "Impairment" means an anatomical or functional abnormality, as determined by the health-care provider approved by the employer existing after the date of maximum medical improvement based on objective medical evidence evaluated in accordance with the most recent edition of the American Medical Association's guide to the evaluation of permanent impairment or comparable publications of the American Medical Association existing at the time of the healthcare providers' determination. This term shall not include stress-related and mental health issues unless accompanied by injury.

17. "Indemnity benefits" means payments awarded pursuant to 85 CNCA § 46.

18. a. "Injury" means physical damage to the body or part of the body resulting from an accident, occupational disease or cumulative trauma sustained or incurred while acting in the course and scope of employment.

b. An injury other than cumulative trauma is compensable only if it is caused by a specific incident that is identifiable by time, place, and occurrence.

c. Injury includes heart-related or vascular injury, illness or death only if resultant from stress in excess of that experienced by a person in the conduct of everyday living. Such stress must arise out of and in the course of a claimant's employment. Such injury shall be compensable only if it is demonstrated that the exertion necessary to produce the harm was extraordinary and unusual in comparison to other occupations and that the occupation was the major cause of the harm.

d. Injury shall not include stress-related or mental health issues or mental injury that is unaccompanied by physical injury, except in the case of rape which arises out of and in the course of employment.

e. Injury shall not include the ordinary, gradual deterioration or progressive degeneration caused by the aging process, unless the employment is the cause of the deterioration or degeneration and is supported by objective medical evidence; nor shall it include injury incurred while engaging in, performing or as the result of engaging in or performing any recreational or social activities.

f. An injury must be supported by objective medical evidence.

19. "Maximum medical improvement" means the medical status after which further recovery from or lasting improvement to an injury can no longer be reasonably anticipated based upon reasonable medical probability as determined by the health care provider selected by the employer.

20. "Minor employee" shall mean an individual aged seventeen (17) or younger working at an occupation legally permitted. Such minor shall be deemed at the age of majority for the purpose of this Title.

21. "Objective medical evidence" means evidence which meets the criteria of Federal Rule of Evidence 702, Testimony by Experts, and all U.S. Supreme Court case law applicable thereto.

22. "Occupational disease" means only that disease or illness which is due to causes and conditions characteristic of or peculiar to the particular trade, occupation, process or employment in which the employee is exposed to such disease. An occupational disease arises out of the employment only if the employment was the cause of the resulting occupational disease and such is supported by objective medical evidence, as defined in this section. This term shall not include stress-related and mental health issues unless accompanied by injury.

23. "Permanent total disability" means incapacity, because of accidental injury or occupational disease, to earn any wages in any employment for which the employee may become physically suited and reasonably fitted by education, training or experience including vocational rehabilitation, loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or any two (2) thereof.

24. "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, public corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity.

25. "Preexisting condition" means anatomical or functional abnormality, or impairment whether physical or mental, which existed prior to the events giving rise to a claim.

26. "Settlement" means the execution of a release of all claims and an agreement concerning compensation.

27. "Temporary total disability" means the inability of the claimant, by reason of an injury, to perform his or her duties prior to the date of his or her maximum medical improvement, as determined by the health-care provider selected by the employer.

28. "Temporary partial disability" means the limited ability of the claimant who is back at work, but by reason of an injury, unable to perform the amount or type of work he or she previously engaged in, prior to the date of his or her maximum medical improvement, as determined by the health-care provider selected by the employer.

29. "Week" means seven (7) calendar days.

§ 3. Acknowledgment of Title

A. All employees shall be conclusively presumed to have acknowledged the exclusive applicability of the terms, conditions and provisions of this Title, and that Cherokee Nation is a sovereign Nation for the purposes of workers' compensation, governed by the laws set forth by the Council of Cherokee Nation and that no other workers' compensation law, including but not limited to that of the State of Oklahoma, is applicable to injuries or death sustained by them.

B. The employer, including human resources offices of the respective employers, shall be responsible for explaining the provisions of this Title to their workers and shall post in a conspicuous location a notice as follows:

NOTICE TO WORKERS

All employees are hereby notified that Cherokee Nation is a sovereign Nation for purposes of workers' compensation, governed by the laws set forth by the Tribal Council of Cherokee Nation and that no other workers' compensation law, including that of the State of Oklahoma, is applicable to injuries or death sustained by an employee. If you do not fully understand the terms, conditions, and provisions of the Cherokee Nation Workers' Compensation Act, contact your supervisor or the human resources office for further details. The right to receive workers' compensation pursuant to the provisions of the Act for injuries or death sustained by a claimant shall be the exclusive remedy against the employer. The employer shall not be required to pay for an injury, death, or disability if (1) an injury is occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to bring about injury to himself or herself or another; or (2) if an injury results directly from the willful failure of the injured employee to use a guard or protection against accident furnished for use by the employer; or (3) such claim is otherwise excluded by the Act.

§ 4. Insurance—Sovereign immunity

The employer may provide insurance for any or all of the benefits provided herein. To the extent no coverage is provided, the employer shall be deemed to be self-insured and therefore responsible for payment of those benefits. Nothing herein shall be deemed to be an acknowledgment of jurisdiction of a court or a waiver of sovereign immunity in any proceeding of any state, tribe, the United States or any other jurisdiction. Provided further, the sovereign immunity of Cherokee Nation or other employer shall not be raised as a defense when a claim is brought properly under the provisions of this Title.

§ 5. Payment of benefits

The employer shall administer this Title in accordance with the terms and conditions as described herein, and shall process properly approved payments of compensation as provided for in this Title. All compensation and benefits payable under this Title shall not exceed Five Million Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,000,000.00) per claim including all expenses associated with the claim, including defense costs.

§ 6. Employer—Power and duties—Joint agreements

A. Each employer may adopt additional standard operating procedures for the orderly administration of its respective workers' compensation program. Standard operating procedures adopted by one employer shall not be applied to the workers' compensation program of other employers.

B. The employer shall be empowered to request medical reports, records and notes, police reports, autopsy reports and special investigations, engage the services of adjusters, third party administrators and/or consultants, and perform other activities as may be needed to process any claim for compensation or to further the intent of this Title. Payments for expenses associated with these activities shall be made at the direction of the employer through its workers' compensation program.

C. Complete and accurate administrative records and claim files shall be maintained on all activities relating to any workers' compensation program. All closed files shall be preserved for five (5) years from the date of closure.

D. The employer shall make a final decision on claims filed under this Title within a reasonable time.

E. If the claimant agrees with the final decision of the employer, a memorandum of such agreement signed by both the employer and the employee shall be placed in the workers' compensation case file. This agreement shall be deemed binding upon the parties thereto. Such joint agreements may be made during any phase of a workers' compensation claim.

§ 7. Compensation as exclusive remedy

The right to receive workers' compensation pursuant to the provisions of this Title for injuries or death sustained by a claimant shall be the exclusive remedy against the employer.

§ 8. Limitations

A. The employer shall not be required to pay for an injury, death, or disability in the following circumstances:

1. An injury is occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to bring about injury to himself or herself or another; or
2. An injury results directly from the willful failure of the injured employee to use a guard or protection against accident furnished for use by the employer; or
3. an injury results directly from unsanitary or injurious practices;
4. the refusal of a claimant to submit to any reasonable surgical treatment or medical aid;
5. the employee is acting outside any restriction dictated by a health care provider;
6. an injury or death caused by a prank, horseplay or similar willful, reckless, or intentional behavior, except for injury or death to innocent victims;
7. stress-related or mental health issues except when accompanied by physical injury or resulting from a case of rape which arises out of and in the course of employment;
8. injury or death deemed an "Act of God" which arises within the course and scope of employment shall be considered compensable only if the employment puts the employee at a greater risk of injury or death by "Act of God" than is the risk to the general population. "Act of God" means an act occasioned exclusively by forces of nature without the interference of human agency.
9. injury or death that results from natural causes, i.e., heart attack, stroke, or other natural body function failures which are not work-related.
10. the injury is otherwise excluded by this Title.

B. The employer may reduce or suspend the compensation of a claimant who persists in unsanitary or injurious practices tending to imperil or retard his or her recovery or who refuses to submit to medical or surgical treatment reasonably necessary to promote his or her recovery.

C. Substance-abuse-related injury or death.

1. No compensation of any kind shall be paid for any injury or death substantially related to the intentional use or abuse, by the employee, of alcohol, controlled substances or chemicals, which shall include the use or abuse of prescription drugs where the employee does not have a valid prescription or where the employee was not properly taking prescription drugs as prescribed;

2. The use or abuse of alcohol, controlled substances or chemicals shall be deemed substantially related to an injury or death if:

a. Objective testing of the breath, blood, saliva, hair, or urine or testing by other federally-accepted means, of the employee demonstrates the use or abuse of alcohol, controlled substances or chemicals and any competent evidence establishes that it is more probable than not that the use or abuse of alcohol, controlled substances or chemicals contributed to the occurrence of the accident that caused the injury or death to the employee; or

b. Subjective observations of the employee, by co-workers, supervisors, medical or emergency personnel or other witnesses, the statements, behavior or actions of the employee or other direct or circumstantial evidence establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the employee's use or abuse of alcohol, controlled substances or chemicals contributed to the occurrence of the accident that caused the injury or death to the employee; or

c. Such use or abuse of alcohol, controlled substances or chemicals, by the employee resulted in a criminal conviction by any lawful jurisdiction.

§ 9. False statement or representation

If, in order to obtain any compensation under the provisions of this Title, any claimant knowingly makes a false statement or representation, including any material omission, such claimant shall forfeit all rights to such compensation and will be liable for restitution upon proof that the offense was committed, and may be referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency. A violation under this section shall be a crime. Further, any such claimant may be immediately dismissed from employment without progressive discipline.

§ 10. Medical information

A. Information obtained by the attending physician, surgeon, hospital or other medical facility or personnel while in attendance of an injured worker shall not be a privileged communication if such information is determined by the employer to be necessary for a proper understanding and evaluation of the claim.

B. The employer shall have the right to request a full and complete report and any and all records from the physician, surgeon, hospital or other medical facility or personnel at times and in the form and details as deemed necessary and shall have a right to present specific questions required to evaluate the claim.

C. By the employee's election to make a claim under this Title, the employee acknowledges the right of the employer to obtain such information. Each employee shall sign any and all releases and waivers as needed to enable the employer to obtain any and all related medical records. Receipt of benefits shall be denied until the employee signs the necessary paperwork.

D. The employer shall maintain all information obtained pursuant to this section as confidential information, except that the employer may release information to the claimant, the employer's insurance provider, a third-party administrator working on the case, the attorneys representing either the employer or any of the entities stated in this subsection, and any arbitrator reviewing the claim.

§ 11. Filing of claim

A. All claims for any compensation or benefits under the Workers' Compensation Act shall be commenced within two (2) years from the date of the injury, and shall commence upon the filing of a notice of injury with the human resources office of the respective employer. The employer shall publish a form that must be used when filing.

B. All parties to a claim shall cooperate with any applicable loss-control program.

§ 12. Retaliation

In no event will an employer retaliate against an employee for reporting an accident or injury or giving notice of such an occurrence. For the purposes of this Title, retaliation shall be defined as taking the following actions against the claimant without good cause and based on the employee's reporting of the accident, injury, or occurrence: any form of formal discipline; dismissal; demotion; suspension; reprimand; warning of possible dismissal; refusal to hire; reduction in rank; a decision reducing pay, benefits, or awards; or a less-than-satisfactory performance evaluation.

§ 13. Right to compensation and medical treatment benefits

A. Except as provided in 85 CNCA § 9, every claimant coming within the provisions of this Title who is killed or injured while in the course and scope of his or her employment, wherever the injury or death occurred shall be entitled to receive, and shall be paid compensation as provided in this Title.

B. Unless prohibited by other law, the employer shall pay for treatment by a health-care provider reasonably required at the time of the injury, and during any period of disability attributable thereto, provided that such treatment is medically necessary and reasonable.

C. Employers may agree to a traditional Indian healer for supplementary treatment but not medical determinations.

§ 14. Time limit for filing of claims

A. No claims for injury or death shall be allowed unless notice of the claim is filed with the department so designated per the Human Resource policy, for receiving such claims by the employer within thirty (30) days from the date of occurrence.

B. Claims for occupational disease shall be made within ninety (90) days from date of diagnosis by a physician.

C. All claims for any compensation or benefits under the Workers' Compensation Act shall be commenced within two (2) years from the filing of a notice of injury with the human resources office of the respective employer. The employer shall publish a form that must be used when filing.

D. All claims for any compensation or benefits under the Workers' Compensation Act shall be deemed closed upon a decree of final order issued by an arbitrator, or upon agreed settlement on a full and final release, or in the alternative, two (2) years from the date the notice of injury was given if the employee thereafter fails to seek medical treatment of the injury complained of in the notice of injury.

E. A claim may be reopened upon an application based upon a change in condition for the worse only if filed within three (3) years from the date of the last determination of maximum medical improvement or forever be barred.

F. Post-termination injury claims shall be filed within sixty (60) days of termination of employment, provided that nothing herein shall extend any limitation period set forth in this section.

G. The claim shall be deemed filed when it is actually received by the human resources office of the respective employer.

§ 15. Burden of proof

A. Except as set forth in subsection (B), the claimant shall have the burden to prove by a preponderance of the evidence:

1. that an injury exists or that a death has occurred; and
2. that the injury complained of was the result of a work-related accident or occupational disease; and
3. that it arose in the course and scope of his or her employment.

B. Unless the employer presents clear and convincing evidence in rebuttal, when an employee is killed under circumstances indicating that the death took place within time and place limits of employment it shall be presumed that death arose out of employment and compensation shall be paid pursuant to 85 CNCA § 32.

§ 16. Acting under employer's directions

Any employee who is injured or killed while following the directions of his or her employer shall be considered to have been in the course and scope of his or her employment and in furtherance of the employer's interests and shall be entitled to compensation.

§ 17. Going to and returning from work

An accident or injury occurring to a employee while on the way to or from work shall not be covered unless (1) the employer pays travel expenses as permitted by the employer's travel policies and procedures or (2) the employee is assigned a special task outside regular working hours.

§ 18. Injuries occurring outside Cherokee Nation

From and after the passage and effective date of this act, all the provisions of this act shall apply to employers and to employees, irrespective of where the accident resulting in injury may occur, whether within or without the territorial limits of Cherokee Nation. In the event that an injury occurs outside the territorial limits of Cherokee Nation, the injured employee may commence and maintain his or her action for benefits and compensation in Cherokee Nation as provided in this act, and Cherokee Nation courts are hereby vested with jurisdiction thereof as fully as if such injury or accident had occurred within Cherokee Nation. This section shall preclude the injured employee from recovering any benefits or compensation provided under any workers' compensation law or similar law, no matter how titled, of the state, territory, country, or other jurisdiction where the injury occurred, and if such action be so commenced in such other jurisdiction, Cherokee Nation may raise the defense of sovereign immunity.

§ 19. Preexisting condition

A. All covered workers shall disclose at the request of the employer any preexisting condition at the time of hire and before commencing employment.

B. Any claim for aggravation of a preexisting condition which was not disclosed may be denied by the employer under this Title if that person had knowledge of the preexisting condition and failed to disclose the preexisting condition.

C. If an employee is suffering from a preexisting condition at the time an accident occurs and the preexisting condition is aggravated, the worker is eligible for compensation to the extent of the aggravation only, subject to the provisions of subsections B and D.

D. For the purpose of settlement for permanent partial or permanent total disability, the amount of the award for that disability as set forth in 85 CNCA § 46 may be reduced or denied in its entirety by the employer in consideration of the following:

1. a prior settlement or award from any source for the same preexisting condition;
2. the difference between the degree of disability of the employee before the accident or occupational disease and the worker's present degree of disability.

§ 20. Occupational disease

An occupational disease, as defined in 85 CNCA § 2 shall be eligible for compensation only if there is a direct causal connection between the conditions under which the work is performed and the occupational disease, and which can be seen to have followed as a natural incident of the work as a result of the exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment and which can be fairly traced to the employment as the proximate cause.

§§ 21 thru 24. Reserved

§ 25. Periodic medical examination of claimant—Effect of refusal or obstruction of examination or treatment

A. A claimant entitled to compensation shall submit to medical examination selected and paid for by the employer from time to time at a place reasonably convenient for the worker, if and when requested by the employer. The worker shall be required to submit to continuing medical treatment by health care providers selected by the claimant or employer and approved by the employer. The employer shall not be liable for treatment provided by non-approved providers or providers not selected by the employer.

B. The request for the medical examination shall fix a time and place having regard for the convenience of the claimant, his or her physical condition and ability to attend. The claimant may have a health care provider present at the examination if procured and paid for by the claimant.

C. If the claimant refuses to submit to the medical examination or obstructs the examination, his or her right to compensation shall be suspended until the examination has been made, and no compensation shall be payable during or for such period. If the claimant refuses to submit to the medical examination or obstructs the examination within ninety (90) days, all benefits shall be permanently forfeited.

D. Any health care provider who conducts or is present at the medical examination may be requested by the employer to testify as to the result thereof, and the reasonable cost of this appearance shall be at the expense of the employer. Should a health care provider be called to testify by the claimant, the costs of the appearance of such health care provider shall be at the expense of the claimant.

E. A claimant must have prior approval from the employer in order for claimant to change health care provider.

§ 26. Claims against third persons

A. Where the compensable injury is caused in whole or in part by the act or omission of a third party, the employer shall be subrogated to the right of the employee against such third party to the extent of the compensation payable under this act by the employer;

B. Reasonable attorney fees and other proper disbursements incurred in obtaining a recovery or in effecting a compromise settlement shall be prorated between the employer and employee. The employer shall pay that proportion of the attorney fees and other proper disbursements that the amount of compensation paid or payable at the time of recovery or settlement bears to the total recovery or settlement.

C. Any recovery against such third person in excess of the compensation theretofore paid by the employer shall be paid forthwith to the employee, and, adding reasonable interest, shall be treated as an advance payment by the employer on account of any future installments of compensation.

D. If the claimant entitled to compensation under this Title does not pursue a remedy against such other person by instituting an action within six (6) months after the cause of action accrues, the employer shall be subrogated to the rights of the employee to maintain the action against such third party, and may recover damages for the injury to the same extent that the employee might.

E. Compromise of any claim by the claimant at an amount less than the compensation paid shall be made only with written approval of the employer.

F. The employee, employer, and carrier have a duty to cooperate with each other in investigating and prosecuting claims and potential claims against third-party tortfeasors by producing nonprivileged evidence and allowing inspection of premises, but only to the extent necessary for such purpose. Unless previously public information, such documents and the results of such inspections are confidential and exempt from the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act and shall not be used or disclosed for any other purpose.

§ 27. Waiting period—Overpayments—Paid leave—Absence

A. Benefits shall be paid under the provisions of this Title only for an injury which results in a claimant's disability for more than three (3) consecutive days. No benefits shall be paid for the first three (3) consecutive days of disability. A claimant may not recover indemnity benefits for the period of time that he or she is compensated by paid leave. No employer shall allow a claimant to collect more than one-hundred percent (100%) of his or her regular earnings. Paid leave time taken shall apply against any waiting period for indemnity payments. Whether or not paid leave may be used to supplement or in lieu of workers' compensation leave and benefits shall be determined by the policies and procedures of the applicable employer.

B. Overpayments can be deducted from future benefit payments if the employee remains off work. At the employer's option, the employee may present a check to the employer for any overpaid amount within five (5) days of returning to work, or the employer shall recover overpayment of benefits by deducting the amount from the employee's paycheck.

C. While on workers' compensation leave, the employee shall not accrue annual or sick leave unless required by the employment contract or specifically allowed by employer in this circumstance.

D. While on a leave-of-absence for a work-related injury, an employee may not be separated from employment as a result of the employer's no-fault absence policy during the first eighteen (18) months absence from work.

§ 28. Temporary total disability

A. Payment. Temporary total disability shall be paid at seventy-two percent (72%) of the "average weekly wage" which shall in no case exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars and Zero Cents ($717.00). Temporary total disability shall in no case be paid in excess of one-hundred fifty-six (156) weeks.

B. Notice. Any person receiving temporary total disability benefits must report in writing to the employer any change in a material fact or the amount of income he or she is receiving or any changes in his or her employment status or medical status occurring during the period of such receipts. Benefits shall cease if an employee participates in any employment while receiving temporary total disability benefits.

§ 29. Temporary partial disability

A. Payment. Except for particular cases mentioned in 85 CNCA v35, an injured worker shall be paid at seventy-two percent (72%) of the difference between the employee's average weekly wage and the employee's wage-earning capacity thereafter in the same employment or otherwise, if less than before the injury, during continuance of such partial disability, but not to exceed one-hundred fifty-six (156) weeks. In the case of soft tissue injuries entitlement to temporary partial benefits is limited to twelve (12) weeks.

B. Notice. Any person receiving temporary partial disability benefits must report in writing to the employer any change in a material fact or the amount of income he or she is receiving or any changes in his or her employment status or medical status occurring during the period of such receipts.

§ 30. Condition permanent—Termination of benefits

When a claimant's injury reaches maximum medical improvement as defined in subdivision 1:

1. The claimant's injury shall be considered permanent and stationary;

2. Once the claimant is notified that he or she has reached maximum medical improvement, the claimant shall provide notice to the employer within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt of documentation that he or she has reached maximum medical improvement. The employee shall inform the employer after receiving said documentation, and benefits shall cease said following business day. Should the employee fail to report to the employer on the next business day, the employee shall be deemed to be absent without leave, and should the employee, once released to return to work, fail to report to the employer within twenty-four (24) consecutive working hours, the employee may be terminated for job abandonment.

3. The employer shall issue a close claim letter or respective payment to close the claim after receiving documentation that the claimant has reached maximum medical improvement or after receiving a signed settlement.

§ 31. Notice by claimant of absence from locality

Any claimant leaving the locality in which he or she is receiving medical treatment, without prior written approval from the employer, may forfeit his or her right to compensation during such time.

§ 32. Death benefits

A. If an injury or occupational disease sustained by an employee proximately results in his or her death following his or her injury or diagnosis of occupational disease, compensation shall be paid as follows:

1. If there are eligible dependents at the time of the employee's death, payment shall consist of weekly death benefits computed as seventy-two percent (72%) of the deceased's average weekly wage, but the gross average weekly wage shall in no case exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00). The maximum weekly income benefits payable to all beneficiaries varies depending upon the deceased's average weekly wage. If the deceased's average weekly wage is less than Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00), the aggregate weekly income benefits payable to all beneficiaries shall not exceed one-hundred percent (100%) of the deceased's average weekly wage. If the deceased's average weekly wage is equal to or greater than Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00), the aggregate weekly income benefits payable to all beneficiaries shall not exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00). Such benefits may be paid through a structured settlement or lump sum as agreed by the employer and beneficiaries.

2. Payments of death benefits to an employee's spouse shall continue until the death of the spouse.

3. If there are no eligible dependents, compensation shall be limited to direct payment of funeral expenses, not to exceed Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00), and compensation benefits due up to the time of his or her death, payable to the estate of the deceased.

4. In no case shall death benefits exceed Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000.00).

B. If an employee dies as a result of a compensable injury or occupational disease, any unapproved portion of an award or order shall abate.

C. The line of dependency for payment of death benefits shall be in the order set out below; provided each qualifies as a dependent under the terms and conditions as defined in subsection G.

1. First to the surviving widow or widower, if there are no children. If dependent children exist at time of employee's death, payment is to widow or widower, subject to the provisions of this section.

2. If no surviving widow or widower, to a dependent child, fifty percent (50%) of the deceased's average weekly wage not to exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00), or if two (2) dependent children, seventy percent (70%) of the average weekly wage not to exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00), or if three (3) children, ninety percent (90%) of the average weekly wage not to exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00) or if four (4) or more children, a weekly benefit of Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00) to be equally distributed among such dependent children;

3. To a parent or parents, if dependent upon the deceased employee and if there are no surviving widow or widower or eligible children, twenty-five percent (25%) of the deceased's average weekly wage not to exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00) if only one (1) parent; or fifty percent (50%) of the deceased's average weekly wage not to exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00) to be divided equally between both parents if both are dependent upon the deceased covered worker;

4. If there is no eligible dependent widow or widower, children or parents, the death benefit shall be equally distributed among all other eligible dependents at twenty-five percent (25%) of the deceased workers' average weekly wage, subject to the maximum of Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00).

D. If a deceased minor employee has no other dependents, his or her parent(s), guardian(s), or adoptive parent(s) are entitled to death benefits as defined in subsection G.

E. In no case shall death benefits exceed Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000.00).

F. Compensation to a dependent widow or widower shall be for the use and benefit of the widow or widower and the dependent children; and the employer may, at the time of award, apportion the compensation between them in such a way as it deems best for the interest of all dependents.

G. In respect to death benefits under this section, the following definitions shall apply:

1. "Child" means a natural or adopted son or daughter of the employee under eighteen (18) years of age; or a natural or adopted son or daughter of an employee eighteen (18) years of age or over and physically or mentally incapable of self-support; or any natural or adopted son or daughter of an employee eighteen (18) years of age or over who is actually dependent; or any natural or adopted son or daughter of an employee between eighteen (18) and twenty-three (23) years of age who is enrolled as a full-time student in any accredited educational institution. The term "child" includes a posthumous child, a child legally adopted or one for whom adoption proceedings are pending at the time of death, an actually dependent stepchild or an actually dependent acknowledged child born out of wedlock.

2. "Dependent" means:

a. a surviving spouse as defined in this section;

b. a child as defined in this section; or

c. any other person dependent in fact upon the employee and refers only to a person who receives one-half (1/2) or more of his support from the employee.

3. "Parent" means a mother or father, a stepparent, a parent by adoption and a parent-in-law, if actually dependent in each case except as provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

4. "Surviving spouse" means only the employee's spouse living with or actually dependent upon the employee at the time of his injury or death, or living apart for justifiable cause or by reason of desertion by the employee;

H. All questions of relationship and dependency shall be determined as of the time of injury for purposes of income benefits for injury, and as of the time of death for purposes of income benefits for death.

I. A person ceases to be dependent when the person's income from all sources exclusive of workers' compensation income benefits is such that, if it had existed at the time the original determination of actual dependency was made, it would not have supported a finding of dependency. If the present annual income of a dependent person including workers' compensation income benefits at any time exceeds the total annual support received by the person from the deceased employee, the workers' compensation benefits shall be reduced so that the total annual income is no greater than such amount of annual support received from the deceased employee. In all cases, a person found to be dependent shall be presumed to be no longer dependent three (3) years after the time as of which the person was found to be dependent. This presumption may be overcome by proof of continued dependency as defined in this section.

J. Change in dependents. Upon the cessation of income benefits under this section to or for the benefit of any person, the income benefits payable to the remaining persons who continue to be entitled to income benefits for the unexpired part of the period during which their income benefits are payable shall be that which such persons would have received if they had been the only persons entitled to income benefits at the time of the decedent's death.

§ 33. Reserved

§ 34. Artificial members

A. In all cases where the injury is such as to permit, pursuant to this section, the use of artificial members, including teeth and eyes, the employer shall pay all reasonable expenses connected with the artificial member.

B. Where an injury results in a loss of one or more eyes, teeth, or limbs of the body, the employer shall furnish such prosthetic devices as may be necessary, as determined by the employer in the treatment and rehabilitation of the injured worker.

C. Where a worker sustains an injury which results in damage to a prosthetic device with which such worker is equipped, the employer shall be responsible for repair or replacement of such device.

§ 35. Soft tissue injuries

A. Nonsurgical—In case of a nonsurgical soft tissue injury, neither temporary total compensation, nor temporary partial compensation shall not exceed twelve (12) weeks.

B. Surgical—A claimant who has been recommended by a treating physician for surgery for a soft tissue injury may petition the employer for an extension of temporary total compensation and the employer may authorize such an extension if the treating physician indicates that such an extension is appropriate and as agreed to by all parties. In the event the surgery is not performed, the benefits for the extension period shall be terminated as of the date of cancellation of the surgery.

C. For purposes of this section, "soft tissue injury" means damage to one or more of the tissues that surround bones and joints. "Soft tissue injury" includes, but is not limited to: sprains, strains, contusions, tendonitis, and muscle tears. Cumulative trauma is to be considered a soft tissue injury.

D. "Soft tissue injury" does not include any of the following:

1. injury to or disease of the spine, spinal disks, spinal nerves or spinal cord, where corrective surgery is performed;

2. brain or closed-head injury as evidenced by:

a. sensory or motor disturbances,

b. communication disturbances,

c. complex integrated disturbances of cerebral function,

d. episodic neurological disorders, or

e. other brain and closed-head injury conditions at least as severe in nature as any condition provided in paragraphs a through d of this subdivision; or

3. Total knee replacement.

E. In all cases of soft tissue injury, the employee shall only be entitled to appropriate and necessary medical care and temporary total disability, unless there is objective medical evidence of a permanent anatomical abnormality.

F. If claimant returns to work at the same job the claimant is not entitled to permanent partial disability.

§ 36. Hernia—Operations

A. A claimant, in order to be entitled to compensation for a hernia, must prove by a preponderance of the evidence:

1. that the hernia is of recent origin;
2. that this appearance was accompanied by pain;
3. that this was immediately preceded by some accident suffered in the course and scope of employment; and
4. that it did not exist prior to the date of the alleged injury.

B. If the claimant, after establishing his or her right to compensation for a hernia, as provided above, elects to be operated upon, the operating fee and reasonable hospital expenses shall be paid by the employer.

C. If the claimant elects not to be operated upon and the hernia becomes strangulated, the results of the strangulation shall not be compensable.

D. Benefits for a hernia shall be limited to nine (9) weeks of temporary total disability, and should the claimant be released to return to work prior to the end of the nine (9) weeks, the claimant shall be compensated only for the number of weeks during which the physician restricted the claimant from work.

§ 37. Disfigurement benefits

An additional sum not to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) may be paid to a claimant for serious permanent disfigurement resulting from an injury. The application of the claimant will be reviewed by the employer or third party administrator and an award made as the employer or third party administrator deems just. Disfigurement benefits shall not be paid in the event of the claimant's death.

§ 38. Fee schedule

- A. Health providers may submit such charges and duration of treatment to the employer for review.
- B. Such charges and duration of treatment shall be limited to the usual, customary, and reasonable charges of health care providers in the same trade area for comparable treatment of a person with similar injuries and the duration of treatment.
- C. Usual, customary, and reasonable charges shall be presumed to be that of the workers' compensation fee schedule applied in the jurisdiction where treatment is provided.

§ 39. Vocational rehabilitation services

- A. In addition to the compensation provided, a claimant who is unable to return to his or her former job because of his or her injury may receive reasonable vocational rehabilitation services, including counseling and training, as the employer deems necessary to restore him or her to suitable employment. Such additional benefits shall not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).
- B. Where an employee agrees to accept or is ordered to receive vocational rehabilitation services, the covered person admits that he or she is incapable of performing the job duties of his or her former position. Upon written agreement accepting vocational rehabilitation services or upon the filing of an order to enter vocational rehabilitation services, whichever comes first, the employee shall be deemed to have voluntarily resigned his or her job position.

§ 40. Modified duty

The employer may offer an employee a temporary modified duty position on a case-by-case basis. If the employee refuses the modified duty assignment, then the temporary total disability benefits may be terminated immediately.

§ 41. Eyewear

The employer shall pay for frames and/or lenses of a like kind and quality which were damaged as a result of an injury to the claimant, but shall not pay for vision correction examinations unless an injury to the claimant's eye(s) caused a change in vision.

§ 42. Clothing

A claimant who incurs damage to an article of clothing worn during an accident which results in an injury shall be paid the replacement value for clothing of a like kind and quality.

§ 43. Travel for treatment

- A. A claimant shall be compensated for travel from his or her home address, as designated on the claim form, to a treatment facility at a rate consistent with the travel allowance authorized by the employer which shall in no case be higher nor more than twenty-five percent (25%) lower than the prevailing federal reimbursement rate. Provided that the employer shall not be liable for travel which is wholly within the limits of the city or town of claimant's residence.

B. A claimant shall be compensated for meals and lodging when required to travel more than one hundred (100) miles from his or her home address, as designated on the claim form, to a treatment facility at a rate consistent with the per diem allowance authorized by the employer which shall in no case be higher nor more than twenty-five percent (25%) lower than the prevailing federal reimbursement rate.

C. All claims for payment or reimbursement must be supported by documentation.

D. In order to be reimbursed for such travel expenses, the claimant must provide the supporting documentation to the employer within ten (10) days after the date on which the travel occurred.

§ 44. Indemnity benefits exempt from creditors and writs

A. Except for amounts due pursuant to a court of competent jurisdiction for the payment of child support, indemnity benefits shall be exempt from claims of creditors and from any writs of attachment, garnishment or execution.

B. Indemnity benefits shall be paid only to a claimant or his or her personal representative or such other person(s) as the employer may, under the terms of this Title, appoint to receive or collect the same, or an individual designated by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

C. Indemnity benefits shall be diverted for payment of child support only pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 45. Reserved

§ 46. Permanent partial disability—Permanent total disability

A. Scheduled benefits.

1. A schedule of benefits is hereby established.

2. A total loss of use of a member exists whenever, by reason of injury, such member no longer possesses any substantial utility as a member of the body as determined by a medical provider chosen by the employer.

3. Permanent partial disability benefits are measured by multiplying the gross average weekly wage times the number of weeks reflected as in the benefits for total loss of use in subdivision 4 of this subsection times the percentage of permanent impairment. The gross average weekly wage shall in no case exceed Five Hundred Thirteen Dollars and Twelve Cents ($513.12).

4. Benefits for total loss of use.

a. ARM	196.5 weeks
b. HAND	157.2 weeks
c. THUMB	47.15 weeks
d. FIRST FINGER (Index finger)	27.87 weeks
e. SECOND FINGER	23.58 weeks
f. THIRD FINGER	15.72 weeks
g. FOURTH FINGER	12.15 weeks
h. LEG	196.5 weeks
i. FOOT	157.2 weeks
j. GREAT TOE	23.58 weeks
k. ONE TOE	7.86 weeks
l. EYE—ONE
(1) Total blindness	196.5 weeks
m. EAR
(1) Total deafness, one ear	78.6 weeks
(2) Total deafness, both ears	235.8 weeks
n. BODY AS A WHOLE	357.3 weeks

B. Permanent partial disability.

1. Upon the establishment of the percentage of permanent partial disability in accordance with this Title, such evaluation of the permanent partial disability shall be binding for any and all proceedings occurring under this Title. This evaluation of the percentage of permanent partial disability shall be made by a physician selected by the designated Third Party Administrator or the physician of the employer's choice.

2. If an injury has left a claimant with a non-scheduled permanent bodily impairment, indemnity benefits for a specified number of weeks is payable, without regard to presence or absence of wage loss in the future, and such benefits shall be paid weekly or bi-weekly or through a structured settlement or, at the employer's election, as a lump sum. For other non-scheduled permanent impairments, a calculation of percentage of permanent partial disability shall be made by a physician selected by the Third Party Administrator or the physician of the employer's choice.

3. Permanent partial disability benefits, for an injury to a scheduled member, are calculated by multiplying the gross average weekly wage times the number of weeks provided for in the Benefits for Total Loss of Use times the percentage of permanent impairment, but the gross average weekly wage shall in no case exceed Five Hundred Thirteen Dollars and Twelve Cents ($513.12).

4. Permanent partial disability benefits for injury to the body as a whole are calculated by multiplying the gross average weekly wage times the number of weeks provided in the Benefits for Total Loss of Use times the percentage of permanent impairment. The gross average weekly wage shall in no case exceed Five Hundred Thirteen Dollars and Twelve Cents ($513.12).

C. Permanent total disability.

An award of permanent total disability shall be in lieu of all lesser indemnity benefits that may be applicable to the injury that created the condition of permanent total disability. Permanent total disability shall be paid at seventy-two percent (72%) of the "average weekly wage" but shall in no case exceed Seven Hundred Seventeen Dollars ($717.00) per week. Permanent total disability benefits shall be paid only during the period of continuous total disability and shall end upon the claimant's ability to resume gainful employment or death.

CHAPTER 2

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

§ 47. Arbitration

A. A final decision made pursuant to 85 CNCA § 6 may be reviewed through arbitration pursuant to this section and the Cherokee Nation Arbitration Act, 12 CNCA § 1301 et seq.

1. An employee disputing a final decision rendered by the employer may within twenty (20) calendar days after the issuance of the written decision by the employer request, in writing, that arbitration be scheduled between the employee and the applicable employer. The request for arbitration shall be sent to the employer's Director of Human Resources or his or her designee.

2. The employee's request for arbitration must include:

a. The name and mailing address of the employee;

b. A brief summary of the relevant facts;

c. A brief statement of the disputed issues;

d. A brief statement of the relief sought; and

e. A copy of the final written decision the employee seeks to have reviewed.

f. A signed declaration that the information submitted is true and correct to the best of the claimant's knowledge.

B. Request for arbitration.

1. A single arbitrator from a list of qualified arbitrators maintained by the Supreme Court may be mutually agreed upon by the claimant and the employer. If an arbitrator cannot be selected from the list the parties may agree on any other arbitrator. If the parties cannot select an arbitrator, then the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall randomly select an arbitrator from the list pursuant to procedures adopted by the Supreme Court.

2. The employee's right to be heard is contingent upon compliance with all requirements, including filing deadlines provided herein.

3. In furtherance of Cherokee Nation's policy to simplify and expedite claims under this Title, arbitrators and Courts shall give deference to unrepresented employees by excusing honest, non-material or correctable mistakes. Filing deadlines are deemed to be material and non-correctable for purposes of this paragraph.

C. Arbitration costs.

1. The employee shall be required to pay, and submit with the request for arbitration, a One Hundred Dollar ($100.00) filing fee in order to obtain arbitration; provided that said One Hundred Dollar ($100.00) fee shall be refunded to the employee if said person prevails at arbitration.

2. Cost of arbitration shall be paid by the employer.

3. If the arbitrator determines that the request for arbitration is frivolous, some or all of the prevailing party's attorney fees and costs of arbitration may be borne by the non-prevailing party as determined by the arbitrator.

§ 48. Administrative record

A. The right to file an appeal of the arbitration award shall be forever barred unless the appeal is filed within thirty (30) days of the date of the award. All awards of arbitration will be deemed final upon the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date the award is issued.

B. The administrative record in an appeal of an arbitration award to the District Court shall include:

1. The administrative case file, including all documents, pleadings, motions, and intermediate rulings made in the administrative decision and the arbitration review;

2. Evidence received or considered at the arbitration proceeding;

3. A statement of matters officially noticed;

4. Questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings thereon;

5. Proposed findings and exceptions;

6. The final arbitration decision appealed, and any other decision, opinion, or report entered by the arbitrator presiding over the hearing; and

7. All other evidence or data submitted to the arbitrator in connection with consideration of the case, provided all parties have had access to such evidence.

C. Arbitration proceedings shall be recorded by audio and may also be recorded by video at the option of the arbitrator. Such recordings shall be maintained for such time so as to protect the record through judicial review. Copies of the recordings shall be provided by the arbitrator at the request of any party to the proceeding. Costs of copying the recordings shall be borne by the party requesting the copy. For judicial review, recordings of an individual proceeding, as certified by the arbitrator, may be submitted to the District Court by the arbitrator as part of the record of the proceedings under review without transcription unless otherwise required to be transcribed by the Court.

§ 49. Transmission of record to reviewing court—Stipulations

Within thirty (30) days of the filing of the arbitration appeal, the employer or arbitrator shall compile and transmit to the District Court the original or a certified copy of the record, as specified by 85 CNCA § 49, of the proceeding under review. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. Any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the Court for the additional costs resulting therefrom. The Court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable.

§ 50. Review without jury—Additional testimony

The review shall be conducted by the District Court without a jury and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the arbitrator pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1323 or 1324 which are not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken by the Court.

§ 51. Time computations

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Title, the day of the act, default, or event from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined by Cherokee Nation or any other day when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m., in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined by Cherokee Nation, or any other day, when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than eleven (11) days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays as defined by the Cherokee Nation or any other day when the receiving office does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m., shall be excluded in the computation.
