

ACT OF UNION BETWEEN THE EASTERN AND WESTERN CHEROKEES

Whereas our Fathers have existed, as a separate and distinct Nation, in the possession and exercise of the essential and appropriate attributes of sovereignty, from a period extending into antiquity, beyond the records and memory of man: AND WHEREAS these attributes, with the rights and franchises which they involve, remain still in full force and virtue, as do also the national and social relations of the Cherokee people to each other and to the body politic, excepting in those particulars which have grown out of the provisions of the treaties of 1817 and 1819 between the United States and the Cherokee nation, under which a portion of our people removed to this country and became a separate community: But the force of circumstances having recently compelled the body of the Eastern Cherokees to remove to this country, thus bringing together again the two branches of the ancient Cherokee family, it has become essential to the general welfare that a union should be formed, and a system of government matured, adapted to their present condition, and providing equally for the protection of each individual in the enjoyment of all his rights:

Therefore we, the people composing the Eastern and Western Cherokee Nation, in National Convention assembled, by virtue of our original and inalienable rights, do hereby solemnly and mutually agree to form ourselves into one body politic, under the style and title of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the union now formed, and for the purpose of making satisfactory adjustments of all unsettled business which may have arisen before the consummation of this union, we agree that such business shall be settled according to the provisions of the respective laws under which it originated, and the courts of the Cherokee nation shall be governed in their decisions accordingly. Also, that the delegation authorized by the Eastern Cherokees to make arrangements with Major General Scott for their removal to this country shall continue in charge of that business, with their present powers, until it shall be finally closed. And also that all rights and title to public Cherokee lands on the east or west of the river Mississippi, with all other public interests which may have vested in either branch of the Cherokee family, whether inherited from our Fathers or derived from any other source, shall henceforward vest entire and unimpaired in the Cherokee Nation, as constituted by this union.

Given under our hands, at Illinois Camp-ground, this 12th day of July, 1839.

By order of the National Convention:

Constitution of 1839

The Eastern and Western Cherokees having again reunited, and become one body politic, under the style and title of the Cherokee nation; Therefore,

We, the people of the Cherokee nation, in National Convention assembled, in order to establish justice, insure tranquility, promote the common welfare, and to secure to ourselves and our posterity the blessings of freedom—acknowledging, with humility and gratitude, the goodness of the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe in permitting us so to do, and imploring His aid and guidance in its accomplishment—do ordain and establish this Constitution for the government of the Cherokee Nation.

ARTICLE I.

Sec. 1. The boundary of the Cherokee Nation shall be that described in the treaty of 1833 between the United States and Western Cherokees subject to such extension as may be made in the adjustment of the unfinished business with the United States.

Sec. 2. The lands of the Cherokee nation shall remain common property; but the improvements made thereon, and in the possession of the citizens of the Nation, are the exclusive and indefeasible property of the citizens respectively who made, or may rightfully be in possession of them: Provided, That the citizens of the Nation possessing exclusive and indefeasible right to their improvements, as expressed in this article, shall possess no right or power to dispose of their improvements, in any manner whatever, to the United States, individual States, or to individual citizens thereof; and that, whenever any citizen shall remove with his effects out of the limits of this Nation, and become a citizen of any other Government, all his rights and privileges as a citizen of this Nation shall cease: Provided, nevertheless, That the National Council shall have power to re-admit, by law, to all the rights of citizenship, any such person or persons who may, at any time, desire to return to the Nation, on memorializing the National Council for such readmission.

Moreover, the National Council shall have power to adopt such laws and regulations as its wisdom may deem expedient and proper to prevent citizens from monopolizing improvements with the view of speculation.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1. The power of this Government shall be divided into three distinct departments—the Legislative, the Executive, and the Judicial.

Sec. 2. No person or persons belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any of the powers properly belonging to either of the others, except in the cases hereinafter expressly directed or permitted.

ARTICLE III.

Sec. 1. The Legislative power shall be vested in two distinct branches—a National Committee, and Council; and the style of their acts shall be—Be it enacted by the National Council.

Sec. 2. The National Council shall make provision, by law, for laying off the Cherokee Nation into eight districts; and if subsequently it should be deemed expedient, one or two may be added thereto.

Sec. 3. The National Committee shall consist of two members from each district, and the Council shall consist of three members from each district, to be chosen by the qualified electors in their respective districts for two years; the elections to be held in the respective districts every two years, at such times and places as may be directed by law.

The National Council shall, after the present year, be held annually, to be convened on the first Monday in October, at such place as may be designated by the National Council, or, in case of emergency, by the Principal Chief.

Sec. 4. Before the districts shall be laid off, any election which may take place shall be by general vote of the electors throughout the Nation for all officers to be elected.

The first election for all the officers of the Government—Chiefs, Executive Council, members of the National Council, Judges, and Sheriffs—shall be held at Tah-le-quah before the rising of this Convention; and the term of service of all officers elected previous to the first Monday in October, 1839, shall be extended to embrace, in addition to the regular constitutional term, the time intervening from their election to the first Monday in October, 1839.

Sec. 5. No person shall be eligible to a seat in the National Council but a free Cherokee male citizen who shall have attained to the age of twenty-five years.

The descendants of Cherokee men by all free women except the African race, whose parents may have been living together as man and wife, according to the customs and laws of this nation, as well as the posterity of Cherokee women by all free men. No person who is of negro or mulatto parentage, either by the father or mother's side, shall be eligible to hold any office of profit, honor, or trust under this Government.

Sec. 6. The electors and members of the National Council shall in all cases, except those of treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at elections, and at the national Council, in going to and returning.

Sec. 7. In all elections by the people, the electors shall vote viva voce.

All free male citizens who shall have attained to the age of eighteen years shall be equally entitled to vote at all public elections.

Sec. 8. Each branch of the National Council shall judge of the qualifications and returns of its own members; and determine the rules of its proceedings; punish a member for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two thirds, expel a member; but not a second time for the same offence.

Sec. 9. Each branch of the National Council, when assembled, shall choose its own officers; a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalty as each branch may prescribe.

Sec. 10. The members of the National Council, shall each receive from the public Treasury a compensation for their services which shall be three dollars per day during their attendance at the national Council; and the members of the Council shall each receive three dollars per day for their services during their attendance at the National Council, provided that the same may be increased or diminished by law, but no alteration shall take effect during the period of service of the members of the National Council by whom such alteration may have been made.

Sec. 11. The National Council shall regulate by law by whom and in what manner, writs of election shall be issued to fill the vacancies which may happen in either branch thereof.

Sec. 12. Each member of the National Council, before he takes his seat, shall take the following oath, or affirmation: I, A. B. do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I have not obtained my election by bribery, threats, or any undue and unlawful means used by myself or others by my desire or approbation for that purpose; that I consider myself constitutionally qualified as a member of ____, and that on all questions and measures which may come before me I will so give my vote and so conduct myself as in my judgment shall appear most conducive to the interest and prosperity of this Nation, and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same, and to the utmost of my ability and power observe, conform to, support and defend the Constitution thereof.

Sec. 13. No person who may be convicted of felony shall be eligible to any office or appointment of honor, profit or trust within this Nation.

Sec. 14. The National Council shall have power to make all laws and regulations which they shall deem necessary and proper for the good of the Nation, which shall not be contrary to this Constitution.

Sec. 15. It shall be the duty of the National Council to pass such laws as may be necessary and proper to decide differences by arbitration, to be appointed by the parties, who may choose that summary mode of adjustment.

Sec. 16. No power of suspending the laws of this Nation shall be exercised, unless by the National Council or its authority.

Sec. 17. No retrospective law, nor any law impairing the obligation of contracts, shall be passed.

Sec. 18. The National Council shall have power to make laws for laying and collecting taxes, for the purpose of raising a revenue.

Sec. 19. All bills making appropriations shall originate in the National Committee, but the Council may propose amendments or reject the same; all other bills may originate in either branch, subject to the concurrence or rejection of the other.

Sec. 20. All acknowledged treaties shall be the supreme law of the land, and the National Council shall have the sole power of deciding on the construction of all treaty stipulations.

Sec. 21. The Council shall have the sole power of impeaching. All impeachments shall be tried by the National Committee. When sitting for that purpose the member shall be upon oath or affirmation; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Sec. 22. The Principal Chief, assistant Principal Chief, and all civil officers shall be liable to impeachment for misdemeanor in office; but judgment in such cases shall not extend further than removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under the Government of this Nation.

The party whether convicted or acquitted, shall, nevertheless, be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law.

ARTICLE IV.

Sec. 1. The Supreme Executive Power of this Nation shall be vested in a Principal Chief, who shall be styled the Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation.

The Principal Chief shall hold his office for the term of four years; and shall be elected by the qualified electors on the same day and at the places where they shall respectively vote for members to the national Council. The returns of the election for Principal Chief shall be sealed up and directed to the president of the national Committee, who shall open and publish them in the presence of the national Council assembled. The person having the highest number of votes shall be Principal Chief; but if two or more shall be equal and highest in votes, one of them shall be chosen by joint vote of both branches of the Council. The manner of determining contested elections shall be directed by law.

Sec. 2. No person except a natural born citizen shall be eligible to the office of principal Chief; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years.

Sec. 3. There shall also be chosen at the same time by the qualified electors in the same manner for four years an assistant Principal Chief, who shall have attained to the age of thirty-five years.

Sec. 4. In case of the removal of the Principal Chief from office, or of his death or resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the assistant Principal Chief until the disability be removed or the vacancy filled by the National Council.

Sec. 5. The National Council may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation, or disability of both the Principal and assistant Principal Chief, declaring what officer shall then act as Principal Chief until the disability be removed or a Principal Chief shall be elected.

Sec. 6. The Principal Chief and assistant Principal Chief shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which they shall have been elected; and they shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the Cherokee Nation or any other Government.

Sec. 7. Before the Principal Chief enters on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will faithfully execute the duties of Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend, the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation."

Sec. 8. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the National Council at the seat of Government.

Sec. 9. He shall, from time to time, give to the National Council information of the state of the Government, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he may deem expedient.

Sec. 10. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

Sec. 11. It shall be his duty to visit the different districts at least once in two years, to inform himself of the general condition of the country.

Sec. 12. The assistant Principal Chief shall, by virtue of his office, aid and advise the Principal Chief in the administration of the government, at all times during his continuance in office.

Sec. 13. Vacancies that may occur in offices, the appointment of which is vested in the National Council shall be filled by the Principal Chief, during the recess of the National Council, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of the next session thereof.

Sec. 14. Every bill which shall pass both branches of the National Council shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Principal Chief; if he approve, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his objections to that branch in which it may have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journals, and proceed to reconsider it; if, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that branch shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other branch, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that branch, it shall become a law. If any bill shall not be returned by the Principal Chief within five days (Sundays excepted) after the same has been presented to him, it shall become a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the National Council, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be a law, unless sent back within three days after their next meeting.

Sec. 15. Members of the National Council, and all officers, Executive and Judicial, shall be bound by oath to support the Constitution of this Nation, and to perform the duties of their respective offices with fidelity.

Sec. 16. In case of disagreement between the two branches of the National Council, with respect to the time of adjournment, the Principal Chief shall have power to adjourn the same to such a time as he may deem proper; provided, it be not to a period beyond the next constitutional meeting thereof.

Sec. 17. The Principal Chief shall, during the session of the National Council, attend at the seat of Government.

Sec. 18. There shall be a council composed of five persons to be appointed by the National Council, whom the Principal Chief shall have full power at his discretion to assemble; he, together with the assistant Principal Chief, and the counsellors, or a majority of them, may, from time to time, hold and keep a Council for ordering and directing the affairs of the Nation according to law; provided the National Council shall have power to reduce the number, if deemed expedient, after the first term of service, to a number not less than three.

Sec. 19. The members of the Executive Council shall be chosen for the term of two years.

Sec. 20. The resolutions and advice of the Council shall be recorded in a register, and signed by the members agreeing thereto, which may be called for by either branch of the National Council, and any counsellor may enter his dissent to the majority.

Sec. 21. The Treasurer of the Cherokee Nation shall be chosen by a joint vote of both branches of the National Council for the term of four years.

Sec. 22. The Treasurer shall, before entering on the duties of his office, give bond to the nation with sureties to the satisfaction of the National Council, for the faithful discharge of his trust.

Sec. 23. No money shall be drawn from the Treasury but by warrant from the Principal Chief, and in consequence of appropriations made by law.

Sec. 24. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all public moneys, and to make a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys, at the annual session of the National Council.

ARTICLE V.

Sec. 1. The Judicial powers shall be vested in a Supreme Court, and such Circuit and Inferior courts as the National Council may, from time to time, ordain and establish.

Sec. 2. The Judges of the Supreme and Circuit courts shall hold their commissions for the term of four years, but any of them may be removed from office on the address of two-thirds of each branch of the National Council to the Principal Chief, for that purpose.

Sec. 3. The Judges of the Supreme and Circuit courts shall, at stated times, receive a compensation which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites of office, nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the Government of this Nation or any other Power.

Sec. 4. No person shall be appointed a Judge of any of the courts until he shall have attained to the age of thirty years.

Sec. 5. The Judges of the Supreme and Circuit courts shall be elected by the National Council, and there shall be appointed in each district as many justices of the peace as it may be deemed expedient for the public good, whose powers, duties, and duration in office, shall be clearly designated by law.

Sec. 6. The Judges of the Supreme Court and of the Circuit courts shall have complete criminal jurisdiction in such cases and in such manner as may be pointed out by law.

Sec. 7. No Judge shall sit on trial of any cause when the parties are connected by affinity or consanguinity, except by consent of the parties.

In case all the Judges of the Supreme Court shall be interested in the issue of any cause, or related to all or either of the parties, the National Council may provide by law for the selection of a suitable number of persons of good character and knowledge for the determination thereof, and who shall be specially commissioned for the adjudication of such case by the Principal Chief.

Sec. 9. All writs and other process shall run "in the name of the Cherokee Nation," and bear test, and be signed by the respective clerks.

Sec. 10. The Supreme court shall, after the present year, hold its session annually at the seat of Government, to be convened on the first Monday of October, in each year.

Sec. 11. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall have the right of being heard; of demanding the nature and cause of the accusation; of meeting the witnesses face to face; of having compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his or their favor; and in prosecutions by indictment or information, a speedy public trial, by an impartial jury of the vicinage; nor shall the accused be compelled to give evidence against himself.

Sec. 12. The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and possessions from unreasonable seizures and searches, and no warrant to search any place, or to seize any person or things, shall issue without describing them as nearly as may be, nor without good cause supported by oath or affirmation.

Sec. 13. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient securities, unless for capital offences, where the proof is evident, or presumption great.

ARTICLE VI.

Sec. 1. No person who denies the being of a God, or a future state of reward and punishment, shall hold any office in the civil department in this Nation.

Sec. 2. The free exercise of religious worship, and serving God without distinction shall, forever, be enjoyed within the limits of this Nation: provided, that this liberty of conscience shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this Nation.

Sec. 3. When the National Council shall determine the expediency of appointing delegates, or other public agents, for the purpose of transacting business with the Government of the United States, the Principal Chief shall recommend, and, by the advice and consent of the National Committee, appoint and commission such delegates or public agents accordingly. On all matters of interest, touching the rights of the citizens of this Nation, which may require the attention of the United States Government, the Principal Chief shall keep up a friendly correspondence with that Government, through the medium of its proper officers.

Sec. 4. All commissions shall be "in the name, and by the authority of the Cherokee Nation;" and be sealed with the seal of the nation, and signed by the Principal Chief. The Principal Chief shall make use of his private seal until a National seal shall be provided.

Sec. 5. A Sheriff shall be elected in each district, by the qualified electors thereof, who shall hold his office two years, unless sooner removed. Should a vacancy occur, subsequent to an election, it shall be filled by the Principal Chief, as in other cases; and the person so appointed, shall continue in office until the next regular election.

Sec. 6. No person shall for the same offence be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall the property of any person be taken and applied to public use without a just and fair compensation: Provided, That nothing in this clause shall be so construed as to impair the right and power of the National Council to lay and collect taxes.

Sec. 7. The right of trial by jury, shall remain inviolate; and every person, for injury sustained in person, property, or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law.

Sec. 8. The appointment of all officers, not otherwise directed by this Constitution, shall be vested in the National Council.

Sec. 9. Religion, morality, and knowledge, being necessary to good government, the preservation of liberty, and the happiness of mankind, schools, and the means of education, shall forever be encouraged in this Nation.

Sec. 10. The National Council may propose such amendments to this Constitution, as two-thirds of each branch may deem expedient; and the Principal Chief shall issue a proclamation, directing all civil officers of the several districts to promulgate the same as extensively as possible within their respective districts, at least six months previous to the next general election. And if, at the first session of the National Council, after such general election two-thirds of each branch shall, by ayes and noes, ratify such proposed amendments, they shall be valid to all intent and purposes, as parts of this Constitution: Provided, That such proposed amendments shall be read on three several days in each branch, as well when the same are proposed, as when they are ratified.

CONSTITUTION OF THE CHEROKEE NATION OF OKLAHOMA 1975

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the Cherokee Nation, in order to preserve and enrich our tribal culture, achieve and maintain a desirable measure of prosperity the blessings of freedom, acknowledging, with humility and gratitude, the goodness of the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe in permitting us so to do, and imploring his aid and guidance in its accomplishment—do ordain and establish this Constitution for the government of the Cherokee Nation. The term "Nation" as used in this Constitution is the same as "Tribe."

Article I. Federal Relationship

The Cherokee Nation is an inseparable part of the Federal Union. The Constitution of the United States is the Supreme law of the land; therefore, the Cherokee Nation shall never enact any law which is in conflict with any Federal law.

Article II. Bill of Rights

Section 1. The judicial process of the Cherokee Nation shall be open to every member of the Cherokee Nation. Speedy and certain remedy shall be afforded under the terms of this Constitution for every wrong and injury to person, property or reputation wherein said remedy does not conflict with the laws of the United States. The Council shall prescribe the procedures pertinent thereto. The appropriate protections guaranteed by the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 shall apply to all members of the Cherokee Nation.

Article III. Membership

Section 1. All members of the Cherokee Nation must be citizens as proven by reference to the Dawes Commission Rolls, including the Delaware Cherokees of Article II of the Delaware Agreement dated the 8th day of May, 1867, and the Shawnee Cherokees as of Article III of the Shawnee Agreement dated the 9th day of June, 1869, and/or their descendants.

Section 2. There shall be established a Cherokee Register, to be kept by the Registrar, for the inclusion of any Cherokee for membership purposes in the Cherokee Nation who presents the necessary evidence of eligibility for registration.

(a) A Registration Committee shall be established. It shall be the duty of the Registration Committee to consider the qualifications and to determine the eligibility of those applying to have their names entered in the Cherokee Register. The Registration Committee shall consist of a Registrar and two (2) assistants. All members shall be appointed by the Principal Chief, and confirmed by the Council.

(b) There shall be a number assigned to every name which is approved and entered into the Cherokee Register. This number shall be preceded by the three words, "Cherokee Registry Number".

(c) The decisions of the Registration Committee shall be subject to review by the Tribunal created by Article VII.

Section 3. Registration as used in this article refers to the process of enrolling as a member of the Cherokee Nation and is not the same as the registration for voting purposes.

Article IV. Distribution of Powers

The powers of the government of the Cherokee Nation shall be divided into three (3) separate departments: Legislative, Executive and Judicial; and except as provided in this Constitution, the Legislative, Executive and Judicial departments of government shall be separate and distinct and neither shall exercise the powers properly belonging to either of the others.

Article V. Legislative

Section 1. The legislature shall consist of one legislative body to be called the Council of the Cherokee Nation. The initial election of members to the Council pursuant to this Constitution shall occur within 120 days from the date of its ratification on a day to be announced by the Principal Chief.

Section 2. The Council shall establish its rules for its credentials, decorum, and procedure.

Section 3. The Council shall consist of fifteen (15) members, who are members by blood of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. Each Council member shall be elected in the general election for a term of four (4) years and until his successor is duly elected and installed.

The Council shall establish representative districts which shall be within the historical boundaries of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. These districts shall be apportioned to afford a reasonably equal division of tribal membership among the districts.

Section 4. There shall be at least one regular session of the Council in the calendar year which shall convene on the second Monday in each January or at such other date as the Council shall determine. No business shall be conducted by the Council unless at least two-thirds (2/3) of members thereof regularly elected and qualified shall be in attendance, which number shall constitute a quorum. The session may not exceed a maximum of thirty (30) calendar days for pay purposes.

Section 5. Special meetings of the Council may be called: (A) by the Principal Chief, (B) by the Deputy Principal Chief when he has the full powers of the Principal Chief as elsewhere defined, (C) upon written request of fifty-one percent (51%) of the members of the Council, or (D) upon the written request of ten percent (10%) of the registered voters of the Cherokee Nation. The purposes of said meeting shall be stated in a notice published not less than ten (10) days prior to the meeting, and the Council may not consider any other subject not within such purposes. No special meetings may convene until thirty (30) days have elapsed after the adjournment of a prior session or meeting, unless called pursuant to (A) and (B) above.

Section 6. All meetings of the Council and of its committees shall be open to the public except: (A) When the discussion shall concern employment, retention or discharge of personnel; (B) When the question of the moral turpitude of any member of the Tribe is discussed; or (C) When the decorum of the audience shall prejudice orderly administration of business. In the event that consideration of a subject shall take place in Executive Session, the vote shall take place in an open meeting.

Section 7. The Council shall have the power to establish laws which it shall deem necessary and proper for the good of the Nation, which shall not be contrary to the provisions of this Constitution. Laws or enactments which are required by Federal statutes to be approved shall be transmitted immediately upon enactment as provided by Section 11 of this Article to the President of the United States or his authorized representative.

The style of all bills shall be: "Be It Enacted By The Cherokee Nation". The style of all resolutions shall be "Be It Resolved By The Cherokee Nation".

Section 8. No laws passed by the Council shall have retroactive effect or operation.

Section 9. The Council shall have the power of removal and said removal must be conducted in accordance with Article XI of this Constitution. Nothing herein is intended to abrogate or limit the authority of the President of the United States or any person or agency to which the President or Congress of the United States shall delegate authority therefore, to remove the Principal Chief or his subordinates.

Section 10. Members of the Council and all Executive Officers shall be bound by oath, provided in Article XIII, to support the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation, the Constitution of the United States of America, do everything within the individual's power to promote the culture, heritage and traditions of the Cherokee Nation and to perform the duties of their respective offices with fidelity.

Section 11. Every enactment which shall have been approved by a majority of the members in attendance at the Council shall, before it becomes effective be presented to the Principal Chief, if he approves, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it with his objections to the Council, which shall enter the objections in the Journal and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds (2/3) of the entire council shall agree to pass the enactment, it shall become fully effective and operational notwithstanding the objections of veto of the principal chief. In all such cases, the vote of the Council shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting shall be entered on the Council's Journal. If any enactment shall not be returned by the Principal Chief within five (5) days (Sundays and holidays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Council shall, by its adjournment, prevent its return, in which case, it shall become a law without the approval of the Principal Chief. No enactment shall become law after the final adjournment of the Council, unless approved by the Principal Chief within fifteen (15) days after such adjournment.

Article VI. Executive

Section 1. The executive power shall be vested in a Principal Chief, who shall be styled "The Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation". The Principal Chief shall hold his office for the term of four (4) years; and shall be elected by the qualified voters on the same day and in the same manner, except as otherwise provided by this Constitution, as they shall respectively vote for members of the Council for that particular year, provided, the Principal Chief in office when this Constitution is ratified shall continue in office until his successor is duly elected in the 1979 election and installed.

The returns of the election for the Principal Chief shall be sealed and directed by the lawfully appointed election officials to the Secretary-Treasurer, who shall, immediately after the organization of the Council, and before proceeding to other business, open and publish the same in the presence of a majority of the Council. The person having the highest number of votes shall be the Principal Chief; but if two (2) or more shall be equal and highest in votes, one of them shall be chosen by a vote of the Council. The manner of determining contested elections shall be as directed by Cherokee law.

Section 2. The Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation shall be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma in accordance with Article III. He shall have been born within boundaries of the United States of America, its territories or possessions; and he shall have obtained the age of thirty (30) years at the time of his election and be a member by blood of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.

Section 3. The qualified electors shall elect a Deputy Principal Chief, who shall possess the same qualifications as the Principal Chief, for a term of four (4) years at the same time and in the same manner as herein provided for the election of the Principal Chief, provided, that the initial election of the Deputy Principal Chief shall take place in conjunction with the first Council election pursuant to this Constitution and in accordance with Section 1 of this Article.

Section 4. In case of the absence of the Principal Chief from office due to his death, resignation, removal or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve upon the Deputy Principal Chief for the remaining portion of the four (4) year term to which the Principal Chief has been elected. In case of disability, such powers shall continue during the term of such disability. Vacancies in the office of the Deputy Principal Chief shall be filled by the Council.

Section 5. The Council may, in the case of removal, death, resignation or disability of both the Principal Chief and the Deputy Principal Chief, provide by law what officer shall then act as Principal Chief until the disability be removed or a successor shall be elected.

Section 6. The Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief shall, at stated times, receive for their service a compensation not inconsistent with Article X.

Section 7. Before the Principal Chief assumes his office, he shall take the oath or affirmation as provided for in Article XIII.

Section 8. The Principal Chief may on extraordinary occasions convene the Council at the seat of government pursuant to Article V, Section 5, and such notice and other laws as may be prescribed by the Council. The purpose of said meetings must be stated and the Council may consider only such matters as are specified in the call of the extraordinary meetings. Before the extraordinary meetings may be legally sufficient to conduct business, a quorum of the Council must be present.

Section 9. At every session of the Council, and immediately upon its organization, the Principal Chief shall communicate by message, delivered to the Council upon the condition of the Cherokee Nation; and shall recommend such matters to the Council as he shall judge expedient.

Section 10. The Principal Chief shall cause the laws of the Cherokee Nation to be faithfully executed, and shall conduct in person and in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, all communications and business of the Cherokee Nation. The Principal Chief may cause to be formed and operated, trusts, the beneficiary of which shall be the Cherokee Nation and these trusts shall be granted such powers as provided by law for public trusts. Authorization for these trusts, however, must be approved by a majority vote of the Council.

Section 11. The Deputy Principal Chief shall, by virtue of his office, aid and advise the Principal Chief in the administration of the government and shall be President of the Council but shall vote only for the purpose of breaking a tie vote.

Section 12. Nothing in this Constitution shall be construed as preventing the Principal Chief from appointing such administrative assistants as he deems proper.

Article VII. Judicial

There is hereby created a Judicial Appeals Tribunal composed of three (3) members all of whom must be admitted to practice law before the highest Court of the State of which they are residents, and all of whom shall be members of the Cherokee Nation, appointed by the Principal Chief and approved by the Council for such terms as the Council may provide. The purpose of this Tribunal shall be to hear and resolve any disagreements arising under any provisions of this Constitution or any enactment of the Council. The Council shall provide for a procedure which shall insure that any litigant receives due process of law together with prompt and speedy relief, and shall generally follow that portion of the Oklahoma Statutes known as the Administrative Procedures Act, Title 75 Oklahoma Statutes § 301 et seq. The decision of the Judicial Appeal Tribunal shall be final insofar as the judicial process of the Cherokee Nation is concerned.

Article VIII. Cabinet

There shall be a cabinet composed of the following persons who shall be members of the Cherokee Nation:

Secretary–Treasurer

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare

Secretary of Commerce and Industrial Development

General Counsel

Secretary of Communications

These persons shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and approved by the Council. The Council, on recommendation of the Chief only, may create additional cabinet positions and departments. The Chief shall prescribe the duties and responsibilities of cabinet members. Cabinet members shall be authorized to appoint such staff and other assistants as they deem necessary. The Council may, with recommendation of the Principal Chief, abolish any established cabinet position or function or revise the title or responsibilities of any foregoing department or function.

Article IX. Election

Section 1. The Council shall enact an appropriate law not inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution that will govern the conduct of all elections, provided that the initial election of the Council and Deputy Principal Chief shall be conducted pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the Principal Chief and the provision set forth in Articles V and VI of this Constitution, notwithstanding, the Principal Chief or Council may adopt rules requiring a majority vote for any elective office.

Section 2. Any member by blood of the Cherokee Nation at least twenty-five (25) years of age on that date of the election may be a candidate for the Council. No person who shall have been convicted of or has pled guilty or has pled no defense to a felony charge under the laws of United States of America, or of any State, Territory, or Possession thereof, shall be eligible to hold any office or appointment of honor, profit or trust within this Nation unless such person has received a pardon. Any person who holds any office of honor, profit or trust in any other tribe of Indians, either elective or appointive shall be ineligible to hold simultaneously any office of honor, profit or trust of the Cherokee Nation unless approved by the Council.

Article X. Fiscal

Section 1. The fiscal year shall commence on the first day of July in each year, unless otherwise provided by law.

Section 2. The Council shall provide by law for annual expenditure of funds, and the source from which funds are to be derived to defray the estimated expenses of the Executive, Council, Cabinet and Departments of Government of the Cherokee Nation for each fiscal year. The budget shall not exceed estimated revenues.

Section 3. At least thirty (30) days prior to the convening of each regular session of the Council, the Secretary–Treasurer shall make and present to the Council an itemized estimate of revenue to be received by the Cherokee Nation, together with a statement of the sources from which revenues are to be received, under the laws, grants, judgments, interests, and any other sources in effect at the time such estimate is made for the next ensuing fiscal year. The Secretary–Treasurer shall prepare annual financial statements reflecting the results of operations of all tribal activities and shall prepare a consolidated balance sheet in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles within sixty (60) days after the end of the fiscal year.

Section 4. The Council shall require that the records be maintained of all funds, monies, accounts and indebtedness and all other accounts bearing upon the fiscal interests of the Cherokee Nation by the use of a uniform system of accounting which records and financial statements shall be audited by a Certified Public Accountant or as otherwise may be prescribed by the Council prior to the submission of said accounts to the Council.

Section 5. The Secretary–Treasurer shall be authorized to accept all grants, donations of money, interest of funds of the Cherokee Nation, judgments and any and all other sources of monies available to the Cherokee Nation, for uses and purposes and upon the conditions and limitations for which the same are granted or donated; and the faith of the Cherokee Nation is hereby pledged to preserve such grants and donations as a sacred trust, and to keep the same for the use and purposes for which they were granted or donated.

Section 6. The Council shall have the authority to invest funds or money of the Cherokee Nation and the preference to be given to the security for such investments, the manner of selecting the securities, prescribing the rules, regulations, restrictions and conditions upon which the funds shall be loaned or invested, provided that no investment shall be in mortgages other than first mortgages only, and do all things necessary for the safety of the funds and permanence of the investments. If required by law, such investments would be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

Section 7. The credit of the Cherokee Nation shall not be given, pledged, or loaned to any individual, firm, company, corporation, or association without the approval of the Council. The Cherokee Nation shall not make any donations by gift, or otherwise, to any individual, firm, company, corporation, or association without the approval of the Council.

Section 8. All laws authorizing the expenditures of money by and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation shall specify the purpose for which the money is to be used, and the money so designated shall be used for no other purpose. Annual expenditures shall not exceed the available funds.

Section 9. General laws shall be enacted by the Council providing for the deposit of funds of the Cherokee Nation, and the depository thereof, and such funds shall be under the control of the Secretary–Treasurer, under such terms and conditions as shall be designated by said Council and under such laws which shall provide for the protection of said funds.

Section 10. No official, member or officer of the Council, Cabinet Member, employee of any official, Council, Cabinet, or subdivisions thereof, or any person employed in any capacity by the Cherokee Nation shall receive from any individual, partnership, corporation, or entity doing business with the Cherokee Nation directly or indirectly, any interest, profit, benefits or gratuity, other than wages, salary, per diem, or expenses, specifically provided by law.

Section 11. All officers, elected or appointed, who are authorized by this Constitution or any subsequent legislation to a position of trust over any land, property, accounts or monies, shall execute an official surety bond in the amount as may be required by the Council, and such surety bonds shall inure to the benefit of and be paid for by the Cherokee Nation for whose protection or surety the same shall be required and in no event shall said surety bond be other than by a Licensed Insurance Company, authorized to do business in the State of Oklahoma.

Article XI. Removal From Office

Section 1. The Principal Chief and the Deputy Principal Chief shall be subject to removal from office for willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, habitual drunkenness, incompetency or any conviction involving moral turpitude committed while in office.

Section 2. All other elective officers shall be subject to removal from office in such manner and for such causes as may be provided by laws passed by the Council.

Section 3. The Council shall pass such laws as are necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Article, insuring therein that due process is afforded the accused.

Article XII. Employee Rights

No employee, who having served in a position at least one (1) year, shall be removed from the employment of the Cherokee Nation except for cause. The employee shall be afforded a hearing by the Judicial Appeals Tribunal under such rules and procedures as may be prescribed by the Council. These rules and procedures, however, must follow, as nearly as practicable, the provisions of the Oklahoma Administrative Procedures Act, Title 75 Oklahoma Statutes § 301 et seq.

Article XIII. Oath

Section 1. All officers elected or appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will faithfully execute the duties of ____ of the Cherokee Nation, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitutions of the Cherokee Nation, and the United States of America. I swear or affirm further, that I will do everything within my power to promote the culture, heritage and traditions of the Cherokee Nation."

Section 2. The foregoing oath shall be administered by any person authorized by the Council to administer oaths. The oath shall be filed in the Office of the Secretary–Treasurer.

Article XIV.

Nothing in this Constitution shall be construed to prohibit the right of any Cherokee to belong to a recognized clan or organization in the Cherokee Nation.

Article XV. Initiative, Referendum and Amendment

Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article V, the people of the Cherokee Nation reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments to this Constitution and to enact or reject the same at the polls independent of the Council, and also reserve power at their own option to approve or reject at the polls any act of the Council.

Section 2. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by the Council, and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members of the Council, such proposed amendment or amendments shall, with the yeas and nays thereon, be entered into the Journal and referred by the Secretary–Treasurer to the people for their approval or rejection, at the next regular general election, except when the Council, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, shall order a special election for that purpose. If a majority of all the registered voters voting at such election shall vote in favor of any amendment thereto, it shall thereby become a part of this Constitution.

Section 3. The first power reserved by the people of the Cherokee Nation is the initiative and ten percent of the registered voters shall have the right to propose any legislative measures by petition and fifteen percent (15%) of the registered voters shall have the right to propose amendments to the Constitution by petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. The second power is the referendum, and it may be ordered (except as to laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety), either by petition signed by five percent of the registered voters or by the Council as other enactments are effectuated. The ratio and percent of registered voters hereinbefore stated shall be based upon the total number of votes cast at the last general election for the officer receiving the highest number of votes at such election.

Section 4. Referendum petitions shall be filed with the Secretary–Treasurer not more than ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of the session or meeting of the Council which passed the bill on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the Principal Chief shall not extend to measures voted on by the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the Cherokee Nation shall be had at the next regular general election except when the Council or the Principal Chief shall order a special election for the express purpose of making such reference. Any measure referred to the people by the initiative shall take effect and be in force when it shall have been approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon and provided that no measure which is required to be approved by the President of the United States or his authorized representative shall be effective until approved.

Section 5. Petitions and orders for the initiative and for the referendum shall be filed with the Secretary-Treasurer and addressed to the Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, who shall submit the same to the people. The Council shall make suitable provisions for carrying into effect the provisions of this Article.

Section 6. The referendum may be demanded by the people against one or more items, sections or parts of any enactment of the Council in the same manner in which such power may be exercised against a complete enactment. The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of an enactment shall not delay the remainder of such act from becoming operative.

Section 7. If two or more amendments are proposed they shall be submitted in such manner that electors may vote for or against them separately.

Section 8. No proposal for the amendment of this Constitution which is submitted to the voters shall embrace more than one general subject and the voters shall vote separately for or against each proposal submitted; provided, however, that in the submission of proposals for the amendment of this Constitution by articles, which embrace a general subject, each proposed article shall be deemed a single proposal or proposition.

Section 9. No convention shall be called by the Council to propose a new Constitution, unless the law providing for such convention shall first be approved by the people on a referendum vote at a regular or special election. Any amendments, alterations, revisions or new Constitution, proposed by such convention, shall be submitted to the electors of the Cherokee Nation at a general or special election and be approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon before the same shall become effective. The question of such proposed convention shall be submitted to the members of the Cherokee Nation at least once in every twenty (20) years.

Section 10. No amendment or new Constitution shall become effective without the approval of the President of the United States or his authorized representative.

Article XVI. Supersedes Old Constitution 1839

The provisions of this Constitution overrule and supersede the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Constitution enacted the 6th day of September 1839.

Article XVII. Seat of Government

Article XVIII. Adoption

This Constitution shall become effective when approved by the President of the United States or his authorized representative and when ratified by the qualified voters of the Cherokee Nation at a election conducted pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the Principal Chief. It shall be engrossed on parchment and signed by the Principal Chief and the Secretary of the Interior. It shall be filed in the office of the Cherokee Nation and sacredly preserved as fundamental law of the Cherokee Nation.

APPROVED FOR REFERENDUM BY THE COMMISSIONER MORRIS THOMPSON ON SEPTEMBER 5, 1975 SECOND BY THE PRINCIPAL CHIEF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION, ROSS O. SWIMMER ON OCTOBER 2, 1975

CONSTITUTION OF THE CHEROKEE NATION 1999

Preamble

We, the People of the Cherokee Nation, in order to preserve our sovereignty, enrich our culture, achieve and maintain a desirable measure of prosperity and the blessings of freedom, acknowledging with humility and gratitude the goodness, aid and guidance of the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe in permitting us to do so, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the government of the Cherokee Nation.

Article I. Federal Relationship

The Cherokee Nation reaffirms its sovereignty and mutually beneficial relationship with the United States of America.

Article II. Territorial Jurisdiction

The boundaries of the Cherokee Nation territory shall be those described by the patents of 1838 and 1846 diminished only by the Treaty of July 19, 1866, and the Act of March 3, 1893.

Article III. Bill of Rights

The People of the Cherokee Nation shall have and do affirm the following rights:

Section 1. The judicial process of the Cherokee Nation shall be open to every person and entity within the jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation. Speedy and certain remedy, and equal protection, shall be afforded under the laws of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 2. In all criminal proceedings, the accused shall have the right to: counsel; confront all adverse witnesses; have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in favor of the accused; and, to a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. The accused shall have the privilege against self-incrimination; and the Cherokee Nation shall not twice try or punish an accused for the same offense. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

Section 3. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate, and the Cherokee Nation shall not deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

Section 4. The Council shall make no law prohibiting the free exercise of religion or abridging the freedom of speech, or the press, or the right of the People to peaceably assemble, or to petition the Nation for a redress of grievances.

Article IV. Citizenship

Section 1. All citizens of the Cherokee Nation must be original enrollees or descendants of original enrollees listed on the Dawes Commission Rolls, including the Delaware Cherokees of Article II of the Delaware Agreement dated the 8th day of May, 1867, and the Shawnee Cherokees of Article III of the Shawnee Agreement dated the 9th day of June, 1869, and/or their descendants.

Notwithstanding any provisions of the Cherokee Nation Constitution approved on October 2, 1975, and the Cherokee Nation Constitution ratified by the people on July 26, 2003, upon passage of this Amendment, thereafter citizenship of the Cherokee Nation shall be limited to those originally enrolled on, or descendants of those enrolled on, the Final Rolls of the Cherokee Nation, commonly referred to as the Dawes Rolls, for those listed as Cherokees by blood, Delaware Cherokees pursuant to Article II of the Delaware Agreement dated the 8th day of May, 1867, and the Shawnee Cherokees pursuant to Article III of the Shawnee Agreement dated the 9th day of June, 1869.

The Cherokee Nation recognizes the basic rights retained by all distinct People and groups affiliated with the Cherokee Nation, retained from time immemorial, to remain a separate and distinct People. Nothing in this Constitution shall be construed to prohibit the Cherokee–Shawnee or Delaware–Cherokee from pursuing their inherent right to govern themselves, provided that it does not diminish the boundaries or jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation or conflict with Cherokee law.

Section 2. There shall be established a Cherokee Register, to be kept by the Registrar, for the inclusion of any Cherokee for citizenship purposes in the Cherokee Nation who presents the necessary evidence of eligibility for registration. The Council may empower the Registrar to keep and maintain other vital records.

(a) A Registration Committee shall be established. It shall be the duty of the Registration Committee to consider the qualifications and to determine the eligibility of those applying to have their names entered in the Cherokee Register. The Registration Committee shall consist of a Registrar and two (2) assistants. All members shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council.

(b) There shall be a number assigned to every name, which is approved and entered into the Cherokee Register. This number shall be preceded by the three words, "Cherokee Registry Number."

(c) The decisions of the Registration Committee shall be subject to de novo review by the lower courts created by Article VIII.

Section 3. Registration as used in this Article refers to the process of enrolling as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and is not the same as registration for voting purposes.

Article V. Distribution of Powers

The powers of the government of the Cherokee Nation shall be divided into three (3) separate branches: Legislative, Executive and Judicial; and except as provided in this Constitution, the Legislative, Executive and Judicial branches of government shall be separate and distinct and no branch shall exercise the powers properly belonging to either of the others.

Article VI. Legislative

Section 1. The legislature shall consist of one legislative body to be called the Council of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 2. The Council shall establish rules for its credentials, decorum, and procedure, and shall elect a Speaker and a Deputy Speaker from its own membership to officiate over Council meetings. The Speaker may vote in all matters before the Council. The Speaker shall be third in line of succession to serve as Acting Principal Chief in case of removal, death, resignation or disability of both the Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief until the disability be removed or a successor shall be elected.

Section 3. The Council shall consist of seventeen (17) members, who are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Any citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation at least twenty-five (25) years of age on that date of the election may be a candidate for the Council. Each Council member shall be elected in the general election for a term of four (4) years and until his or her successor is duly elected and installed. All Council members shall be limited to two (2) consecutive elected terms on the Council. All Council members having served two consecutive terms must sit out one (1) term before seeking any seat on the Council.

The Council shall establish representative districts which shall be within the boundaries of the Cherokee Nation. Fifteen of these seats shall be apportioned to afford a reasonably equal division of citizenship among the districts, and the remaining two shall be elected at-large by those registered voters residing outside the boundaries of the Cherokee Nation voting at-large in accordance with this section.

The Council members representing districts within the boundaries must be domiciled within their district. The Council shall, within sixty (60) days of this Constitution taking effect, select the two at-large Council members to serve until the next regularly scheduled election.

All registered voters residing outside the boundaries of the Cherokee Nation, may, at the time of the first election to fill at-large Council seats, choose to continue to be registered to vote in the district in which they were previously registered. In the absence of making that choice, they shall be registered to vote at-large. Notwithstanding the above, citizens under the age of twenty-five (25) who reside outside the boundaries and who have not previously registered to vote, may make a single choice to register to vote in the district of their choice at the time of their first registration, failing which their registration shall be to vote at-large. All citizens age twenty-five (25) or older residing outside the boundaries not registered to vote at the time of the first election to fill at-large Council seats may only register to vote at-large. Citizens residing outside the boundaries who relocate within a district shall be subject to the requirements to vote in that district. Those residing within the boundaries must vote within the district of their residence.

The Council shall, within one year of this Constitution taking effect, establish a system of staggered terms for all seats on the Council to be organized into elections every two years.

Section 4. There shall be at least one regular session of the Council in the calendar year which shall convene on the second Monday in each January or at such other date as the Council shall determine. No business shall be conducted by the Council unless at least two-thirds (2/3) of members thereof regularly qualified shall be in attendance, which number shall constitute a quorum. The session may not exceed a maximum of thirty (30) calendar days for pay purposes.

Section 5. Special meetings of the Council may be called: (A) by the Principal Chief, (B) by the Deputy Principal Chief when he or she has the full powers of the Principal Chief as elsewhere defined, (C) upon written request of fifty-one percent (51%) of the members of the Council, or (D) upon the written request of ten percent (10%) of the number of registered voters who voted in the last general election of the Cherokee Nation. The purposes of said meeting shall be stated in a notice published not less than ten (10) days prior to the meeting, and the Council may not consider any other subject not within such purposes. No meetings may convene until thirty (30) days have elapsed after the adjournment of a prior session or meeting, unless called pursuant to Section 7 of Article VII.

Section 6. All meetings of the Council and of its committees shall be open to the public except: (A) when the discussion shall concern employment, retention or discharge of personnel; (B) when the question of the moral turpitude of any citizen is discussed; and (C) when the decorum of the audience shall prejudice orderly administration of business. In the event that consideration of a subject shall take place in executive session, the vote shall take place in an open meeting.

Section 7. The Council shall have the power to establish laws which it shall deem necessary and proper for the good of the Nation, which shall not be contrary to the provisions of this Constitution. The style of all bills shall be: "Be It Enacted By The Cherokee Nation". The style of all resolutions shall be "Be It Resolved By The Cherokee Nation".

Section 9. The Council shall have the power to remove elected and appointed officials in the Cherokee Nation and said removal must be conducted in accordance with Article XI of this Constitution.

Section 10. Every enactment which shall have been approved by a majority of the members in attendance at the Council shall, before it becomes effective be presented to the Principal Chief, who may approve the enactment by signing it; if not, the Principal Chief shall return it with objections to the Council, which shall enter the objections in the Journal and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds (2/3) of the entire council shall agree to pass the enactment, it shall become fully effective and operational notwithstanding the objections of veto of the Principal Chief. In all such cases, the vote of the Council shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting shall be entered on the Council's Journal. If any enactment shall not be returned by the Principal Chief within five (5) days (Sundays and holidays excepted) after it shall have been presented, the same shall be law in like manner as if approved by the Principal Chief.

Section 11. The Council shall establish a continuing system of permanent publication for all laws of the Cherokee Nation and judicial opinions of the highest appellate court. The system shall provide for regular updating, indexing and digesting and shall be of public record at all times. The text of all laws, resolutions, judicial opinions and orders, except otherwise protected by law, and all other governmental publications, except those by Nation-owned entities, shall be in the public domain and free from encumbrances against use by the Citizens. This shall not constrain the Nation from copyrighting other aspects of governmental publications, except that citizens shall always have license for personal use of the copyrighted work without notice or fee.

Section 12. In accordance with Article 12 of the Treaty with the Cherokees, dated November 28, 1785 (Treaty of Hopewell), and Article 7 of the Treaty with the Cherokees dated December 29, 1835 (Treaty of New Echota), there shall be created the office of Delegate to the United States

House of Representatives, appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council. The Delegate shall be a citizen of the Nation and upon recognition by the United States shall be seated in accordance with federal law. The Delegate shall endeavor to participate in congressional activities and shall at all times advocate the best interests of the Cherokee People. The Delegate shall make regular reports to the Council and Principal Chief on congressional activities and administrative matters relating to federal law and policy and shall produce an annual report to the Cherokee People.

Section 13. In the case of removal, death, resignation or disability of any of Council member, such seat shall be filled by the candidate having the next highest number of votes in that district, who is available and willing to serve and whose eligibility is confirmed by the Election Commission. In the event no such candidate exists, the Council shall fill the vacated seat in the following manner: If a majority of the four-year term remains to be served, the Council shall authorize a special election in the district of the vacated seat to be conducted within ninety days; if a minority of the four-year term remains to be served, the Council shall elect a replacement who would otherwise be qualified to serve from the district of the vacated seat.

Section 14. Members of the Council and all Executive Officers shall be bound by oath, provided in Article XIII, to support the Constitutions of the Cherokee Nation and the United States of America, do everything within the individual's power to promote the culture, heritage and traditions of the Cherokee Nation and to perform the duties of their respective offices.

Article VII. Executive

Section 1. The executive power shall be vested in a Principal Chief, who shall be styled "The Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation". The Principal Chief shall hold office for a term of four (4) years. No person having been elected to the office of Principal Chief in two (2) consecutive elections shall be eligible to file for the office of Principal Chief in the election next following his or her second term of office. The Principal Chief shall be elected by the registered voters on the same day and in the same manner, except as otherwise provided by this Constitution, as they shall respectively vote for members of the Council in the year 2003 and every four years thereafter. The Principal Chief shall be elected by a majority of votes. The manner of determining contested elections shall be as directed by Cherokee law.

Section 2. The Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation shall be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Article IV; shall be domiciled within the boundaries of the Cherokee Nation for no less than 270 days immediately preceding the day of general election in which he or she seeks election; and, shall have obtained the age of thirty (30) years at the time of his or her election and be a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 3. The registered voters shall elect a Deputy Principal Chief, who shall possess the same qualifications as the Principal Chief, for a term of four (4) years at the same time and in the same manner as herein provided for the election of the Principal Chief. The Deputy Chief shall be subject to the same term limitations as provided for the Principal Chief in this Constitution.

Section 4. In case of the absence of the Principal Chief from office due to death, resignation, removal or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the same shall devolve upon the Deputy Principal Chief for the remaining portion of the four (4) year term to which the Principal Chief had been elected. In case of disability, such powers shall continue during the term of such disability.

In the event of the death, resignation, or removal of the Deputy Principal Chief, or his or her inability to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the person who is then the Speaker of the Council shall succeed to the office of the Deputy Principal Chief for the balance of the term. In the case of temporary disability, said person shall serve as Acting Deputy Principal Chief for the duration of the disability and thereafter shall reassume the office of Speaker.

Section 5. The Council may, in the case of removal, death, resignation or disability of the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief and the Speaker of the Council, provide by law what officer shall then act as Principal Chief until the disability be removed or a successor shall be elected.

Section 6. The Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief shall, at stated times, receive for their service a compensation not inconsistent with Article X.

Section 7. The Principal Chief may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the Council at the seat of government pursuant to Article VI, Section 5, and such notice and other laws as may be prescribed by the Council. The purposes of said meetings must be stated and the Council may consider only such matters as are specified in the call of the extraordinary meetings. Before the extraordinary meetings may be legally sufficient to conduct business, a quorum of the Council must be present.

Section 8. At one session of the Council annually, the Principal Chief shall deliver and communicate to the Council a message upon the condition of the Cherokee Nation; and shall recommend such matters to the Council as he or she shall judge expedient.

Section 9. The Principal Chief shall cause the laws of the Cherokee Nation to be faithfully executed, and shall conduct in person and in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, all communications and business of the Cherokee Nation. The Principal Chief may cause to be formed and operated, trusts, the beneficiary of which shall be the Cherokee Nation and these trusts shall be granted such powers as provided by law for public trusts. Authorization for these trusts, however, must be approved by a majority vote of the Council.

Section 10. The Deputy Principal Chief shall, by virtue of the office, aid and advise the Principal Chief in the administration of the government.

Section 11. Nothing in this Constitution shall be construed as preventing the Principal Chief from employing such administrative assistants as deems proper.

Section 12. There shall be a cabinet composed of the following persons who shall be citizens of the Cherokee Nation: (1) Secretary of State, (2) Treasurer, (3) Secretary of Natural Resources. These persons shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council. The Council, on recommendation of the Principal Chief only, may create additional cabinet positions and departments. The Principal Chief shall prescribe the duties and responsibilities of cabinet members. Cabinet members shall be authorized to appoint such staff and other assistants as they deem necessary. The Council may, with recommendation of the Principal Chief, abolish any established cabinet position or function or revise the title or responsibilities of any foregoing department or function.

Section 13. There shall be created an office of Attorney General. The Attorney General shall be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, admitted to practice law before the highest court of any state of the United States. The Attorney General shall represent the Nation in all criminal cases in the courts of the Nation, and in all civil actions wherein the Cherokee Nation is named as a party, and shall have such other duties as the Council may prescribe by law. The Attorney General shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council for a term of five (5) years. The Attorney General shall be authorized to designate such prosecutors and other assistants as deemed necessary to carry out the duties of office, and may only be removed from office in conformance with Article XI.

Section 14. There shall be created an office of Marshal. The Marshal shall be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and possess such training and experience in law enforcement as prescribed by law. The duties and authority of the Marshal shall be prescribed by law. The Marshal shall be authorized to deputize such officers as necessary to carry out the law enforcement needs of the Cherokee Nation. The Marshal shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and be confirmed by the Council for a term of five (5) years. The Marshal may only be removed from office in conformance with Article XI.

The terms of the Marshal and the Attorney General shall not be concurrent.

Section 15. A vacancy of an elected office by reason of removal, death, resignation or disability of the elected official, for which this Constitution does not provide a process for seating a replacement to serve out the term, shall be filled by appointment by the Principal Chief with confirmation by the Council.

Article VIII. Judicial

Section 1. The Judicial powers of the Cherokee Nation shall be vested in a Supreme Court and such lower courts as the Council shall from time-to-time ordain and establish. The Judicial Appeals Tribunal shall become known as the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation. The Supreme Court shall be composed of five (5) members all of whom must be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and be admitted to practice law before the highest Court of any state of the United States.

Section 2. Justices of the Supreme Court shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council to serve terms of ten (10) years each after expiration of the initial terms as follows: Seat 1: ending 12/31/2000, Seat 2: ending 12/31/2002, Seat 3: ending 12/31/2004, Seat 4: ending 12/31/2006, Seat 5: ending 12/31/2008. An appointment to the Supreme Court shall take place once every two (2) years, except in the case of filling a vacated seat on the Court for the remainder of that term. The Council shall, within six (6) months of this Constitution taking effect, pass such laws as are necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this section.

Section 3. Judges of the District Court shall be citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and shall be admitted to practice law before the highest Court of any state of the United States, and shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council to serve terms of four (4) years each. In the event of a judicial vacancy due to death, resignation, or removal from said office, any successor duly appointed and confirmed shall only serve the balance of the term of the vacancy being filled.

Section 4. The original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to a general supervisory control over all lower courts. General supervisory control does not include suspension, removal, or disciplinary action of any member of the judiciary. These powers are specifically reserved for the Court on the Judiciary as prescribed in Section 5 and/or Article XI.

The Supreme Court shall employ an Administrator, who shall have general administrative duties in the judicial branch. The Justices of the Supreme Court shall have supervisory authority over the Administrator.

In support of its original and appellate jurisdiction, the Supreme Court shall have power to issue, hear and determine writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition and such other remedial writs as may be provided by law and may exercise such other jurisdiction as may be conferred by statute. The appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to all cases at law and in equity arising under the laws or Constitution of the Cherokee Nation.

The Supreme Court shall promulgate rules of procedure relating to its original and appellate jurisdiction to insure any litigant appearing before it receives due process of law and impartial justice, together with prompt and speedy relief. Decisions of the Supreme Court shall be published and indexed and shall be final insofar as the judicial process of the Cherokee Nation is concerned.

Section 5. There is hereby created a Court on the Judiciary. Each branch of the government shall select two members of the Court; one of whom shall be a member of the Cherokee Nation Bar Association and the other shall be a non-lawyer. The six members shall appoint a seventh member. The members of the Court on the Judiciary shall promulgate its own rules of procedure, assuring due process, to be submitted to the Council for review and approval. The authority of the Court shall include suspension, sanction, discipline or recommendation of removal. The members shall not be employees of the Cherokee Nation or any entities thereof. The Council shall pass such laws as are necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this section. All members of the Court shall be citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 6. The District Courts of the Cherokee Nation shall be courts of general jurisdiction and shall be vested with original jurisdiction, not otherwise reserved to the Supreme Court, to hear and resolve disputes arising under the laws or Constitution of the Cherokee Nation in both law and equity, whether criminal or civil in nature. The Council shall enact, with advice from the judiciary, rules of procedure which shall insure that all litigants receive due process of law and impartial justice, together with prompt and speedy relief.

Section 7. The Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the District Court shall receive a compensation which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office, but shall receive no other fee, gratuity or perquisite of office, nor hold any other position of title, trust or profit within the Cherokee Nation or any entity thereof, either directly or indirectly.

Section 8. Members of the judiciary shall be subject to removal from office only for willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, habitual drunkenness, incompetency or any conviction of a felony, a crime under the laws of the Cherokee Nation that if committed in some other jurisdiction would be a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or offenses against the Cherokee Nation committed while in office.

Article IX. Election

Section 1. There is hereby created a Cherokee Nation Election Commission. The Commission shall be an autonomous and permanent entity charged with the administration of all Cherokee Nation elections, in accordance with election laws. The Council shall enact an appropriate law not inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution that will govern the conduct of all elections.

Section 2. No person who shall have been convicted of a felony charge under the laws of United States, or of any State, Territory, or Possession thereof, or a crime under the laws of the Cherokee Nation that if committed in some other jurisdiction would be a felony, shall be eligible to hold any office or appointment of honor, profit or trust within this Nation unless such person has received a pardon from the appropriate jurisdiction. Any person who holds any office of honor, profit or trust in any other tribe or Nation of American Indians, either elective or appointive shall be ineligible to hold simultaneously any office of honor, profit or trust of the Cherokee Nation unless approved by the Council.

Article X. Fiscal

Section 1. The fiscal year shall commence on the first day of October in each year, unless otherwise provided by law.

Section 2. The Council shall provide by law for annual expenditure of funds, and the source from which funds are to be derived, to defray the estimated expenses of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches and the departments of government of the Cherokee Nation for each fiscal year. The budget shall not exceed estimated revenues.

Section 3. At least forty-five (45) days prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, the Treasurer shall cause to be made and presented to the Council an itemized estimate of revenues and expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year adhering to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).

Section 4. The Council shall require that records be maintained and provided to the Council of all funds, monies, accounts and indebtedness and all other accounts bearing upon the fiscal interests, including but not limited to, any and all outside business interests, both for-profit and not-for-profit, of the Cherokee Nation by the use of an accounting system adhering to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). The annual financial statement shall be audited by a Certified Public Accountant and presented to the Council within six months following the end of each fiscal year. Unaudited reports will be submitted as required by the Council.

Section 5. The Treasurer shall be authorized to accept all grants, donations of money, interest of funds of the Cherokee Nation, judgments and any and all other sources of monies available to the Cherokee Nation, for uses and purposes and upon the conditions and limitations for which the same are granted or donated. The faith of the Cherokee Nation is hereby pledged to preserve such grants and donations as a sacred trust, and, if or when designated, to keep the same for the use and purposes for which they were granted or donated.

Section 6. The Council shall authorize the Treasurer to invest funds or money of the Cherokee Nation and determine the preference to be given to the security for such investments, the manner of selecting the securities, prescribing the rules, regulations, restrictions and conditions upon which the funds shall be loaned or invested, provided that no investment shall be in mortgages other than first mortgages only, and do all things necessary for the safety of the funds and permanence of the investments. If required by law, such investments would be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

Section 7. The credit of the Cherokee Nation shall not be given, pledged, or loaned to any individual, firm, company, corporation, or association without the approval of the Council. The Cherokee Nation shall not make any donations by gift, bonus, or otherwise, to any individual, firm, company, corporation, or association without the approval of the Council.

Section 8. All laws authorizing the expenditures of money by and on behalf of the Cherokee Nation shall specify the purpose for which the money is to be used, and the money so designated shall be used for no other purpose. No monies or resources of the Cherokee Nation or any of its entities shall be used to pay for representation of a defendant in a criminal matter, except where a public defender is authorized under Cherokee law. Annual expenditures shall not exceed the available funds.

Section 9. General laws shall be enacted by the Council providing for the deposit of funds of the Cherokee Nation, and the depository thereof, and such funds shall be under the control of the Treasurer, under such terms and conditions as shall be designated by the Council and under such laws which shall provide for the protection of said funds.

Section 10. No official, member or officer of the Council, Cabinet Member, employee of any official, Council, Cabinet, or subdivisions thereof, or any person employed in any capacity by the Cherokee Nation shall receive from any individual, partnership, corporation, or entity doing business with the Cherokee Nation directly or indirectly, any interest, profit, benefits or gratuity, other than wages, salary, per diem, or expenses specifically provided by law.

Section 11. All officers, elected or appointed, who are authorized by this Constitution or any subsequent legislation to a position of trust over any land, property, accounts or monies, shall execute an official surety bond in the amount as may be required by the Council. Such surety bonds shall inure to the benefit of, and be paid for by, the Cherokee Nation for whose protection or surety the same shall be required. In no event shall said surety bond be other than by a Licensed Insurance Company, authorized to do business in the State of Oklahoma.

Article XI. Removal From Office

Section 1. The Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, members of the Council, Attorney General and Marshal shall be subject to removal from office for willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, habitual drunkenness, incompetency or any conviction of a felony, or a crime under the laws of the Cherokee Nation that if committed in some other jurisdiction would be a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or offenses against the Cherokee Nation committed while in office.

Section 2. Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, all other appointed officials shall be subject to removal for cause, as prescribed by law.

Section 3. No official may be removed under Sections 1 or 2 of this Article or Section 8 of Article VIII except after trial before the Council, with the accused having been afforded due process and opportunity to be heard. Provided, removal under Sections 1 or 2 of this Article or Section 8 of Article VIII shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the Council.

Section 4. Separate from the Council's removal powers, the People of the Cherokee Nation reserve unto themselves the exclusive power to recall any elected official through petition and recall referendum. A petition must be signed by Cherokee citizens registered to vote. In the case of Principal Chief or Deputy Principal Chief, signatures must total a number equaling or exceeding fifteen percent (15%) of the total number of registered voters in the previous general election. In the case of district offices, signatures must total the greater of five hundred (500) or twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of registered voters in that district in the previous general election. The signed petition shall be filed with the Election Commission to determine whether the signatures are valid. Said determination shall be made within thirty (30) days after the filing of same. Upon verification of the requisite number of signatures the Election Commission shall certify the petition as valid and notify the Council and the Secretary of State. Upon notification of a valid certified petition the Council shall immediately call for and approve a special recall election for the office in question within sixty (60) days. The special recall election shall be limited in scope to the voting populace for the elected office in question. Votes cast shall be tabulated and the results certified in the same manner as in general elections. A majority vote to affirm the official shall retain the official in office. A majority vote to recall shall immediately remove the official from office. In the event of a tie-vote the Council shall call a special meeting to conduct a tie-breaking vote. Elected offices vacated under this section shall be filled as otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Article XII. Employee Rights

No employee, who having served in a position at least one (1) year, shall be removed from the employment of the Cherokee Nation except for cause, and only after being afforded pre-termination due process. Provided, the right of such employee to seek redress in the Cherokee Nation courts shall not be abridged.

Article XIII. Oath

Section 1. All officers elected or appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will faithfully execute the duties of _____ of the Cherokee Nation, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitutions of the Cherokee Nation, and the United States of America. I swear or affirm further, that I will do everything within my power to promote the culture, heritage and traditions of the Cherokee Nation."

Section 2. The foregoing oath shall be administered by any person authorized by the Council to administer oaths. The oath shall be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State.

Article XIV. Clans

Nothing in this Constitution shall be construed to prohibit the right of any Cherokee to belong to a recognized clan or organization in the Cherokee Nation.

Article XV. Initiative, Referendum and Amendment

Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article VI, the People of the Cherokee Nation reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments to this Constitution and to enact or reject the same at the polls independent of the Council, and also reserve power at their own option to approve or reject at the polls any act of the Council.

Section 2. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by the Council, and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members of the Council, such proposed amendment or amendments shall, with the yeas and nays thereon, be entered into the Journal and referred by the Secretary of State to the People for their approval or rejection, at the next regular general election, except when the Council, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, shall order a special election for that purpose. If a majority of all the registered voters voting at such election shall vote in favor of any amendment thereto, it shall thereby become a part of this Constitution.

Section 3. The first power reserved by the People of the Cherokee Nation is the initiative, and ten percent (10%) of the registered voters shall have the right to propose any legislative measures by petition and fifteen percent (15%) of the registered voters shall have the right to propose amendments to the Constitution by petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed.

The second power is the referendum, and it may be ordered (except as to laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety), either by petition signed by five percent (5%) of the registered voters or by the Council as other enactments are effectuated. The ratio and percent of registered voters hereinbefore stated shall be based upon the total number of votes cast in the last general election involving the office of Principal Chief.

Section 4. Referendum petitions shall be filed with the Secretary of State not more than ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of the session or meeting of the Council which passed the bill on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the Principal Chief shall not extend to measures voted on by the People. All elections on measures referred to the People of the Cherokee Nation shall be had at the next regular general election except when the Council or the Principal Chief shall order a special election for the express purpose of making such reference. Any measure referred to the People by the initiative shall take effect and be in force when it shall have been approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon.

Section 5. Petitions and orders for the initiative and for the referendum shall be filed with the Secretary of State and addressed to the Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, who shall submit the same to the People. The Council shall make suitable provisions for carrying into effect the provisions of this Article.

Section 6. The referendum may be demanded by the People against one or more items, sections or parts of any enactment of the Council in the same manner in which such power may be exercised against a complete enactment. The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of an enactment shall not delay the remainder of such act from becoming operative.

Section 7. If two or more amendments are proposed they shall be submitted in such manner that registered voters may vote for or against them separately.

Section 8. No proposal for the amendment of this Constitution which is submitted to the voters shall embrace more than one general subject and the voters shall vote separately for or against each proposal submitted; provided, however, that in the submission of proposals for the amendment of this Constitution by articles, which embrace a general subject, each proposed article shall be deemed a single proposal or proposition.

Section 9. No convention shall be called by the Council to propose a new Constitution, unless the law providing for such convention shall first be approved by the People on a referendum vote at a regular or special election. Any amendments, alterations, revisions or new Constitution, proposed by such convention, shall be submitted to the registered voters of the Cherokee Nation at a general or special election and be approved by a majority of the registered voters voting thereon before the same shall become effective. The question of such proposed convention shall be submitted to the citizens of the Cherokee Nation at least once every twenty (20) years.

Article XVI. Supersedes Constitutions of 1839 and 1976

The provisions of this Constitution overrule, supersede, and repeal the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Constitution enacted the 6th day of September, 1839, and the provisions of the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma enacted the 26th day of June, 1976.

Article XVII. Seat of Government

Article XVIII. Adoption

This Constitution shall become effective when ratified by the registered voters of the Cherokee Nation. It shall be engrossed on parchment and signed by the Principal Chief and the President of the United States, or his authorized representative. It shall be filed in the office of the Cherokee Nation and sacredly preserved as the fundamental law of the Cherokee Nation. The Constitution shall be printed in both Cherokee and English, provided however, that the English version shall be controlling for all governmental and legal purposes. The Council shall enact laws in conformance with this Constitution within eighteen (18) months of its ratification, provided that the provisions for Article XI shall be enacted within six (6) months of its ratification.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- f. press releases.

20. "Rule-making" means the process for formulation and adoption of a rule.

21. "Website" means the official internet website of Cherokee Nation, www.cherokee.org, or reasonably accessible via hyperlinks from the website.

22. "Written" means inscribed on a tangible medium.

DECLARATIONS BY AGENCY

§ 201. [Agency declarations]

A. Any interested person may petition an agency for a declaration of the applicability of any rule or prior order issued by the agency.

B. Each agency may adopt rules prescribing the form of the petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and prompt disposition. In the absence of declaratory order procedural rules petitioners shall generally follow the rules of the District Court. The provisions of this act for formal, informal, or other applicable hearing procedure do not apply to an agency proceeding for a declaration, except to the extent provided in this chapter or to the extent the agency so provides by rule or order.

C. Within sixty days after receipt of a petition pursuant to this section, an agency shall either decline to issue a declaration in writing or schedule the matter for hearing.

D. If the agency declines to consider the petition, it shall promptly notify the person who filed the petition of its decision, including a brief statement of the reasons therefore. An agency decision to decline to issue a declaration is not subject to judicial review.

E. If the agency issues a declaration, the agency declaration shall contain the names of all parties to the proceeding, the particular facts on which it is based, and the reasons for its conclusion. A declaratory order has the same status and binding effect as any other order issued in an adjudication.

CHAPTER 3

PROCEDURAL RULES

§ 300. Required procedures

The following procedures shall be followed to promulgate a rule.

§ 301. Current rulemaking docket

A. Except for 1 CNCA §§ 311, 312, 313, 314 and 315, as used in this chapter, "rule" does not include an emergency rule adopted under 1 CNCA § 309(A) or a fast-track rule adopted under 1 CNCA § 309(B).

B. The Information Systems Department shall maintain a current rulemaking docket for the agencies.

C. A current rulemaking docket must list each pending rulemaking proceeding. The docket must indicate or contain:

1. the subject matter of the proposed rule;
2. notices related to the proposed rule;
3. where written or electronic comments may be inspected;
4. the time within which written or electronic comments may be made;
5. electronic and written requests for public hearing;
6. appropriate information about the public hearing, if any, including the names of the persons making the request;
7. how comments may be made in writing and electronically; and
8. the timetable for action.

§ 302. Agency record in rulemaking proceeding

A. An agency shall maintain an official rulemaking record for each rule it proposes to adopt. The record and materials incorporated by reference must be available for public inspection online via the Internet.

B. The agency rulemaking record must contain:

1. copies of all public notices with respect to the rule or the proceeding upon which the rule is based;
2. copies of any portions of the agency's public rulemaking docket containing entries relating to the rule or the proceeding upon which the rule is based;
3. all written or electronic petitions, requests, submissions, and comments received by the agency and all other written or electronic materials or records considered by the agency in connection with the formulation, proposal, or adoption of the rule or the proceeding upon which the rule is based;

4. any official transcript of oral presentations made in the proceeding upon which the rule is based or, if not transcribed, any tape recording or stenographic record of those presentations, and any memorandum prepared by the agency official who presided over the hearing, summarizing the contents of those presentations;
5. a copy of the rule and explanatory statement filed in the office of the Principal Chief; and
6. all petitions for exceptions to, or amendment, repeal or suspension of the rule.

§ 303. Advice on possible rules before notice of proposed rule adoption

A. In addition to seeking information by other methods, an agency may solicit comments from the public on a subject matter of possible rulemaking under active consideration within the agency by giving public notice of the subject matter and indicating where, when, and how persons may comment.

B. Each agency may also appoint committees to comment on the subject matter of a possible rulemaking under active consideration within the agency. The membership of those committees must be given public notice within thirty (30) days of their formation or change of membership.

§ 304. Notice of proposed rule adoption

A. Following internal agency approval of a proposed rule, an agency shall cause notice of its contemplated action to be published on the website. The notice of the proposed adoption of a rule must include:

1. a short explanation of the purpose of the rule proposed;
2. the specific legal authority authorizing the rule proposed;
3. the text of the rule proposed, or if a rule is being amended the text shall plainly indicate the insertions and deletions;
4. where, when, and how persons may present their views on the rule proposed;
5. where persons may obtain copies of the full text of the regulatory analysis of the rule proposed; and
6. where, when, and how persons may present their views on the rule proposed and demand an oral proceeding thereon if one is not already provided.

B. Within three (3) days after publication of the notice of the proposed adoption of a rule on the website, the agency shall cause a copy of the notice to be mailed or sent electronically to each person that has made a timely request to the agency for a mailed or electronic copy of the notice. An agency may charge a person for the actual cost of providing written mailed copies if the person has made a request for a written copy.

C. A copy of the proposed rule and public notice shall be provided to the Tribal Council and the Office of the Principal Chief.

§ 305. Public participation

A. For at least thirty (30) days after publication of the notice of the proposed adoption of a rule, an agency shall allow persons to submit information and comment on a rule proposed by the agency. The information or comments may be submitted electronically or in writing.

B. Persons requesting public hearings or submitting comments must include their name, address, phone number, and e-mail address if submission is electronic, but may request that this identifying information be kept confidential.

C. Comments

1. Comments shall concisely address the proposed rule and contain relevant data, argument, and authorities supporting the position of the comment.

2. The agency may disregard anonymous, irrelevant or abusive submissions.

3. The agency shall consider fully all proper information and comments submitted respecting a rule proposed to be adopted by the agency.

4. A response to each comment shall be prepared and delivered to the person making the comment and given public notice. A single response may be addressed to groups of similar comments.

D. Public hearings

1. Recognizing that comments and responses may generate demand for a public meeting, the time to request a public meeting shall not end before fifteen (15) days following the public notice of all responses to written comments.

2. A request for a public meeting shall include a statement of the issues desired to be discussed and a summary of the argument supporting the person's position on the issues.

3. A public hearing on a rule proposed to be adopted may not be held earlier than twenty (20) days after notice of its location and time is published on the website.

4. Public hearings may be held only from 8:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. on Monday thru Saturday.

5. An agency official shall preside at a public hearing on a rule proposed to be adopted. If the presiding agency official is not the agency head, the official shall prepare a memorandum for consideration by the agency head summarizing the contents of the presentations made at the oral proceeding.

6. Public hearings must be open to the public and recorded by audio, audio and video, stenographic or other means.

7. Persons requesting an opportunity to comment at a public meeting may be required to register by name and indicate whether they support or oppose the rule or a part of the rule.

8. The agency shall employ its best efforts to allow equal time to both sides of an issue. If present, not less than five persons for each side shall be allowed not less than three minutes each to present verbal comments and records. Registered persons may yield their time to another registered person.

E. Rule adoption following notice and comment period

1. If no public meeting is timely requested, and no comments are filed, the rule as submitted shall be a final rule after ten (10) days from the deadline for requesting a public meeting.

2. If written comments are received or a public meeting is held, and the agency makes no substantive amendments, then the rule shall be final.

3. If written comments are received or a public meeting is held, and the agency makes substantive amendments to the rule, the agency shall invite public participation as required by this section for a new rule.

F. Copies of final rules shall be given public notice and provided to the public upon request.

§ 306. Emergency rules

A. If the Principal Chief finds that an urgent commercial issue or an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires immediate adoption of a rule and states in writing the reasons for that finding, the agency, without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable, may adopt an emergency rule.

B. The agency shall give public notice within a reasonable time and take appropriate measures to make an emergency rule known to the persons who may be affected by it.

C. The concurrent or subsequent adoption of an identical or similar rule under this chapter is not precluded.

D. An emergency rule may be effective for no longer than the threat of or actual existence of the commercial issue or the imminent peril requiring the rule.

E. An emergency rule shall not be effective longer than ninety (90) days unless previously a notice of proposed rule adoption is given pursuant to 1 CNCA § 304 and the agency diligently proceeds to adopt a rule pursuant to this chapter. Such rule shall be identical to or cover the same issue as the emergency rule that it replaces.

F. An emergency rule must be placed on the agenda of the next special or regularly scheduled meeting of the agency. Reasonable public comment shall be allowed concerning the emergency rule.

G. An emergency rule may not be adopted if a substantially similar emergency rule addressing a continuing threat has been adopted within the preceding ninety (90) days.

§ 307. Required rulemaking

In addition to other rulemaking requirements imposed by law, each agency shall:

1. within ninety (90) days of the enactment of this act, adopt as a rule a description of the organization of the agency which states the general course and method of its operations and where and how the public may obtain information or make submissions or requests;
2. within ninety (90) days of the enactment of this act, adopt rules of practice setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available to the public, including a description of all forms and instructions that are to be used by the public in dealing with the agency;
3. as soon as feasible and to the extent practicable, adopt rules, in addition to those otherwise required by this act, embodying appropriate standards, principles, and procedural safeguards that the agency will apply to the law it administers; and
4. as soon as feasible and to the extent practicable, adopt rules to supersede principles of law or policy lawfully declared by the agency as the basis for its decisions in particular cases.

§ 308. Contents of rule

Each rule adopted by an agency must contain the text of the rule and be accompanied by a record containing:

1. the date the agency adopted the rule;
2. a concise statement of the purpose of the rule;
3. a reference to all rules repealed, amended, or suspended by the rule;
4. a reference to the specific statutory or other authority authorizing the rule;
5. any findings required by any provision of law as a prerequisite to adoption or effectiveness of the rule; and

6. the effective date of the rule.

§ 309. Concise explanatory statement

A. At the time it adopts a rule, an agency shall issue a concise explanatory statement containing:

1. its reasons for adopting the rule, which shall include an explanation of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, and its reasons for overruling substantial arguments and considerations made in oral testimony and comments; and

2. the reasons for any change between the text of the proposed rule contained in the published notice of proposed rule adoption and the text of the rule as finally adopted.

B. Only the reasons contained in the concise explanatory statement required by subsection (A) may be used by any party as justifications for the adoption of the rule in any proceeding in which its validity is at issue.

§ 310. Incorporation by reference

An agency may incorporate, by reference in its rules and without publishing the incorporated matter in full, all or any part of a code, standard, or rule that has been adopted by Cherokee Nation, an agency of the United States, another state, or by a nationally recognized organization or association, if:

1. incorporation of its text in agency rules would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient;

2. the reference in the agency rules fully identifies the incorporated matter by location, date, and otherwise,

3. the reference in the agency rules states whether the rule does or does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter;

4. the agency, organization, or association originally issuing that matter makes copies of it readily available to the public. The rules must state where copies of the incorporated matter are available at cost from the agency issuing the rule, and where copies are available from Cherokee Nation, the agency of the United States, a state, or the organization or association originally issuing that matter; and

5. the rule is of limited public interest, as determined by the agency.

§ 311. Compliance, time limitation and effect

A. No rule adopted under this act is valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with the procedural requirements of this act.

B. A proceeding to contest any rule on the ground of noncompliance with the procedural requirements of this act must be commenced within two years from the effective date of the rule.

C. Rules shall be valid and binding on persons they affect, and shall have the force of law.

D. Except as otherwise provided by law, rules shall be prima facie evidence of the proper interpretation of the matter to which they refer.

§ 312. Declaratory judgment

A. The validity or applicability of a rule may be determined in an action for declaratory judgment in the District Court if it is alleged the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs, or threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the plaintiff.

B. The agency shall be made a party to the action.

C. Rules promulgated pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act are presumed to be valid until declared otherwise by a District Court of the Nation.

D. A declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the plaintiff has requested the agency to pass upon the validity or applicability of the rule in question.

ADJUDICATION

§ 401. When Chapter 4 applies—Disputed cases

This chapter applies to an adjudication made by an agency if, under Cherokee Nation or federal law, an opportunity for an evidentiary hearing is required for the formulation and issuance of an order. If the requirements for informal adjudication under 1 CNCA §§ 405 and 406 or an emergency adjudication under 1 CNCA § 407 are met, a disputed case hearing may be conducted following the procedures in those sections.

A. In a disputed case, a presiding officer shall preside over the conduct of the hearing and shall regulate the course of the proceedings in a manner that will promote their orderly and prompt resolution.

B. The agency head, one or more members of the agency head, one or more persons designated by the agency head, in the discretion of the agency head, may serve as the presiding officer.

C. An individual who has served as investigator, prosecutor, or advocate at any stage in a disputed case, including investigation, may not serve as a presiding officer or assist or advise any presiding officer in the same proceeding.

D. An individual who is subject to the authority, direction, or discretion of an individual who has served as investigator, prosecutor, or advocate at any stage in a disputed case, including investigation, may not serve as presiding officer or assist or advise a presiding officer in the same proceeding.

E. A presiding officer is subject to disqualification for bias, prejudice, financial interest, or any other cause for which a judge is or may be disqualified.

F. A party may request the disqualification of a presiding officer by filing an affidavit, promptly after discovery of grounds, stating with particularity the grounds upon which it is claimed that a fair and impartial hearing cannot be accorded, or the applicable rule or canon of practice or ethics that requires disqualification.

G. A presiding officer whose disqualification is requested shall determine whether to grant the position, and state facts and reasons for the determination in writing.

H. If a substitute presiding officer is required, the substitute must be appointed by:

1. the Principal Chief, if the original presiding officer is the agency head; or
2. the agency, if the original presiding officer was designated by the agency.

I. Any party to agency proceedings or any party to judicial review or civil enforcement proceedings shall have a matter decided by administrative judges en banc.

§ 403. Disputed case procedure

A. Except for emergency adjudications and except as otherwise provided in 1 CNCA § 406, this section applies to disputed cases.

B. Except as provided in 1 CNCA § 407(C) for emergency adjudications, the agency shall give to the person to which the agency action is directed notice that is consistent with 1 CNCA § 404.

C. The agency shall make available to the person to which the agency action is directed a copy of the governing procedure.

D. The following rules apply in a disputed case:

1. Relevant evidence must be admitted if it is the type of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs. Evidence may not be excluded solely because it is hearsay.

2. Hearsay evidence may be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence except that on timely objection shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding unless it would be admissible over objection in a civil action.

3. Upon proper objection the presiding officer shall exclude evidence that is immaterial, irrelevant, unduly repetitious, or excludable on constitutional or statutory grounds or on the basis of evidentiary privilege recognized in the courts of Cherokee Nation. In the absence of proper objection, the presiding officer may exclude evidence that is objectionable.

a. Evidence is unduly repetitious under this subsection if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the probability that its admission will necessitate undue consumption of time.

b. A presiding officer's determination that evidence is unduly repetitious may be overturned only for abuse of discretion.

c. An objection is timely if made before submission of the case or on reconsideration.

4. In a disputed case, any part of the evidence may be received in written form, if doing so will expedite the hearing without substantial prejudice to the interests of a party. Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts or by incorporation by reference.

5. All evidence must be made part of the hearing record of the case, including, if the agency desires to avail itself of information or it is offered into evidence by a party, records in the possession of the agency which contain information classified by law as not public. No factual information or evidence may be considered in the determination of the case unless it is part of the agency record. If the agency record contains information that is not public, the presiding officer may conduct a closed hearing to discuss the information, issue necessary protective orders, and seal all or part of the hearing record.

6. In a disputed case the presiding officer may take official notice of all facts of which judicial notice may be taken and of other scientific and technical facts within the specialized knowledge of the agency.

a. Parties must be notified at the earliest practicable time, either before or during the hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports, preliminary decisions or otherwise, of the facts proposed to be noticed and their source, including any staff memoranda or data.

b. The parties must be afforded an opportunity to contest any judicially noticed facts before the decision is announced, unless the agency determines as part of the record or decision that fairness to the parties does not require an opportunity to contest such facts.

7. The experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge of the presiding officer may be used in the evaluation of the evidence.

E. Except for informal hearings under 1 CNCA §§ 405 and 406 and emergency hearings under 1

CNCA § 407, in a disputed case, the presiding officer, at appropriate stages of the proceedings, shall give all parties the opportunity to file pleadings, motions, objections, and offers of settlement in a timely manner. The presiding officer, at appropriate stages of the proceeding, may give all parties full opportunity to file briefs, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, and proposed, recommended or final orders. If available, the original of all records must be filed with the agency, and copies of all filings shall be sent to all parties.

F. Except for informal hearings under 1 CNCA §§ 405 and 406 and emergency hearings under 1 CNCA § 407, in a disputed case, to the extent necessary for full disclosure of all relevant facts and issues, the presiding officer shall afford to all parties the opportunity to respond, present evidence and argument, conduct cross-examination, and submit rebuttal evidence.

G. Unless prohibited by law, if each party to a hearing has an opportunity to hear, speak and be heard in the proceeding as it occurs, the presiding officer may conduct all, or part of, an evidentiary hearing, or a pre-hearing conference, by telephone, television, or other electronic means;

H. All testimony of parties and witnesses must be given under oath or affirmation and the presiding officer may administer an oath or affirmation for that purpose;

I. The hearing in a disputed case is open to public observation, except for a hearing or part of a hearing that the presiding officer states to be closed on the same basis and for the same reasons that a Cherokee Nation court is empowered to close a hearing or states to be closed pursuant to a statutory provision other than this act that authorizes closure. To the extent that a hearing is conducted by telephone, television, or other electronic means, and is not closed, the availability of public observation is satisfied by giving members of the public an opportunity, at reasonable times, to hear or inspect the agency's record, and to inspect any transcript obtained by the agency.

J. Unless prohibited by law other than this [act], at the party's expense, any party may be represented by counsel or may be advised, accompanied or represented by another individual.

K. The decision in a disputed case must be in writing, based on the record, and include a statement of the factual and legal bases of the decision.

L. This section applies to agency procedure in disputed cases without further action by the agency, and prevails over a conflicting or inconsistent provision of the agency's rules.

M. The rules by which an agency conducts a disputed case may include provisions equivalent to, or more protective of, the rights of the person to which the agency action is directed than the requirements of this section.

§ 404. Notice

A. Except for emergency adjudication under 1 CNCA § 407, an agency shall give reasonable notice of the right to a hearing in a disputed case.

B. In case of applications or petitions submitted by persons other than the agency, within a reasonable time after filing the agency shall give an initial notice to all parties that an action has been commenced which must include:

1. the official file or other reference number; the name of the proceeding, and a general description of the subject matter;
2. the name, official title, mailing address, e-mail address, fax address and telephone number of the presiding officer;
3. a statement of the time, place and nature of the pre-hearing conference or hearing, if any;
4. the name, official title, mailing address and telephone number of any attorney or employee who has been designated to represent the agency; and
5. any other matter that the presiding officer considers desirable to expedite the proceedings.

C. In case of actions initiated by the agency that may or will result in an order, the agency shall give an initial notice to the party or parties against which the action is brought by personal service in a manner appropriate under the rules of civil procedure for the service of process in a civil action in Cherokee Nation which includes:

1. notification that an action that may result in an order has been commenced against them; and
2. a short and plain statement of the matters asserted, including the issues involved; and
3. a statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is held that includes identification of the statutory sections involved; and
4. the official file or other reference number, the name of the proceeding and a general description of the subject matter; and
5. the name, official title, mailing address [e-mail address] [fax address] and telephone number of the presiding officer, or, if no officer has been appointed at the time the first notice is given, the name, official title, mailing address [e-mail address] [fax address] and telephone number of any attorney or employee designated to represent the agency; and
6. a statement that a party who fails to attend any subsequent proceeding in a disputed case may be held in default.
7. a statement that the party served may request a hearing and instructions in plain language about how to request a hearing; and
8. the names and last known addresses of all parties and other persons to which notice is being given by the agency.

D. When a pre-hearing, hearing or other hearing, meeting or conference is scheduled, the agency shall give notice that shall contain the pre-hearing information described in this subsection at least fourteen (14) days before the hearing.

E. Any notice may include other matters that the presiding officer considers desirable to expedite the proceedings.

§ 405. Informal adjudication in disputed cases

Unless prohibited by law other than this act, an agency may use the informal hearing procedure as provided in 1 CNCA § 406 in a disputed case if:

1. there is no disputed issue of material fact; or
2. the matter at issue is limited to any of the following:
 - a. a monetary amount of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) whether liquidated in a sum certain or as periodic payments over no more than twelve (12) months;
 - b. a disciplinary sanction against a student that does not involve expulsion from an academic institution or suspension for more than ten (10) days or an employee that does not involve discharge from employment, demotion, or suspension for more than five (5) days;
 - c. a disciplinary sanction against a licensee that does not involve an actual revocation of a license or an actual suspension of a license for more than five (5) days;
 - d. a proceeding in which an opportunity for an evidentiary hearing is not required by Cherokee Nation or federal constitution or statute, common law, court rule, or executive order, and the agency by rule authorizes use of an informal hearing procedure under this section;
 - e. a proceeding where the Cherokee Nation or federal constitution requires an evidentiary hearing, but the hearing is not required to follow the adjudication procedures of 1 CNCA § 404; or
 - f. the parties by written agreement consent to an informal hearing under this section.

§ 406. Informal adjudication procedure

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (B), the adjudication procedures required under 1 CNCA § 403 in a disputed case apply to an informal adjudication.

B. In an informal adjudication, the presiding officer shall regulate the course of the proceeding. The presiding officer shall permit the parties and their representatives, and may permit others, to offer written or oral comments on the issues. The presiding officer may limit the use of witnesses, testimony, evidence, and argument and may limit or eliminate the use of pleadings, intervention, discovery, pre-hearing conferences, and rebuttal. Where appropriate in the discretion of the presiding officer, an informal adjudication may be in the nature of a conference.

C. In regulating the course of the informal adjudication proceedings, the presiding officer shall recognize the rights of the parties:

1. to notice that includes the decision to proceed by informal adjudication;
2. to protest the choice of informal procedure, and that protest must be promptly decided by the presiding officer;
3. to participate in person or by a representative;
4. to have notice of any contrary factual material in the possession of the agency that can be relied on as the basis for adverse decision; and
5. to be informed briefly in writing, of the basis for adverse decision in the case.

D. The agency record for review of informal adjudication consists of the official transcript of oral testimony and any records that were considered, prepared by, or submitted to, the presiding officer for use in the informal adjudication or by or to the agency on review. The agency shall maintain these records as its record of the informal adjudication.

§ 407. Emergency adjudication

A. Unless prohibited by law other than this act, an agency may conduct an emergency adjudication in a disputed case under the procedure provided in this section.

B. An agency may issue an order under this section only to deal with an immediate danger to the public health, safety, or welfare. The agency may take only action that is necessary to deal with the immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare. The emergency action must be limited to temporary, interim relief.

C. Before issuing an order under this section, the agency, if practicable, shall give notice and an opportunity to be heard to the person to which the agency action is directed. The notice and hearing may be oral or written and may be communicated by telephone, facsimile, or other electronic means. The hearing may be conducted in the same manner as an informal hearing under this chapter.

D. Any order issued under this section must contain an explanation that briefly explains the factual and legal basis for the emergency decision.

E. An agency shall give notice of an order to the extent practicable to the person to which the agency action is directed. The order is effective when issued.

F. After issuing an order pursuant to this section, an agency shall proceed as soon as feasible to conduct an adjudication following disputed case procedure under 1 CNCA § 403, or, if appropriate under this article, informal adjudication under 1 CNCA §§ 405 and 406, in order to resolve the issues underlying the temporary, interim relief.

G. The agency shall take reasonable and appropriate steps to document the emergency and the agency response, including the use of field notes, audio, video, or photography.

H. The agency record in an emergency adjudication consists of any testimony or records concerning the matter that were considered or prepared by the agency. The agency shall maintain those records as its official record.

I. On issuance of an order under this section, the person against which the agency action is directed may obtain judicial review without exhausting administrative remedies.

§ 408. Ex parte communications

While a disputed case is pending, the presiding officer shall not receive any communication, direct or indirect, from any person regarding any issue in the proceeding, without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate in the communication.

§ 409. Intervention

A. A presiding officer shall grant a petition for intervention in a disputed case if the petitioner has a statutory right to initiate the proceeding in which intervention is sought.

B. A presiding officer may grant a petition for intervention if the petitioner has an interest that will or may be adversely affected by the outcome of the proceeding and that interest is not adequately represented.

C. When intervention is granted or at any subsequent time, the presiding officer may impose conditions upon the intervenor's participation in the proceedings.

D. A presiding officer may permit intervention conditionally, and, at any time later in the proceedings or at the end of the proceedings, may revoke the conditional intervention.

E. The presiding officer, at least twenty-four (24) hours before the hearing, shall issue an order granting or denying each pending petition for intervention, specifying any conditions, and briefly stating the reasons for the order. The presiding officer shall promptly give notice to the petitioner for intervention and to all parties of an order granting, denying, or modifying intervention.

A. In a disputed case, upon request of a party, the presiding officer may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records and other evidence.

B. After the commencement of a disputed case, when a written request for a subpoena to compel attendance by a witness or to produce books, papers, records, or records that are relevant and reasonable is made by a party, the presiding officer shall issue subpoenas.

C. Subpoenas and orders issued under this subsection may be enforced pursuant to the rules of civil procedure.

§ 411. Discovery

A. For purposes of this section, "statement" includes records signed by a person of his oral statements, and records that summarize these oral utterances.

B. Except in an emergency hearing under 1 CNCA § 407, a party, upon written notice to another party at least ten (10) days before an evidentiary hearing, is entitled to:

1. obtain the names and addresses of witnesses to the extent known to the other party; and

2. inspect and make a copy of any of the following material in the possession, custody, or control of the other party:

i. a statement of a person named in the initial pleading or any subsequent pleading if it is claimed that respondent's act or omission as to that person is the basis for the adjudication;

ii. a statement relating to the subject matter of the adjudication made by any party to another party or person;

iii. statements of witnesses then proposed to be called and of other persons having knowledge of facts that are the basis for the proceeding;

iv. all writings, including reports of mental, physical and blood examinations and objects which the party then proposes to offer in evidence; and

v. investigative reports made by or on behalf of the agency or other party pertaining to the subject matter of the adjudication, to the extent that these reports contain the names and addresses of witnesses or of persons having personal knowledge of the acts, omissions, or events that are the basis for the adjudication or reflect matters perceived by the investigator in the course of the investigation, or contain or include by attachment any statement or writing described in this section.

§ 412. Conversion

A. The adjudication in a disputed case of one type may be converted to an adjudication of another type under this chapter provided that:

1. the adjudication at the time of conversion no longer meets the requirements under this chapter for adjudication of the type for which it was originally commenced; and

2. at the time it is converted it meets the requirements under this chapter for the type of adjudication to which it is being converted.

B. To the extent practicable and consistent with the rights of the parties and the requirements of this chapter relative to the new proceeding, the record of the original proceeding must be used in the new proceeding.

C. The agency may adopt rules to govern the conversion of one type of proceeding under this chapter to another. The rules may include an enumeration of the factors to be considered in determining whether and under which circumstances one type of proceeding will be converted to another.

Unless displaced or modified by law other than this act, if a party fails to attend or participate in a pre-hearing conference, hearing, or other stage of a disputed case, the presiding officer at his discretion may issue a default order.

§ 414. Licenses

A. This chapter applies when an opportunity for an evidentiary hearing is required by law to formulate an order granting, denying, renewing, revoking, suspending, annulling, withdrawing, limiting, transferring, or amending a license.

B. If an opportunity for an evidentiary hearing is not required by law for agency action on an application for a license, the agency shall give prompt notice of its action in response to the application. If the agency denies the application under this section, the agency shall include an explanation of the reasons for denial.

C. When a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license, the existing license does not expire until the application has been finally acted upon by the agency and, if the application is denied or the terms of the new license are limited, the last day for seeking review of the agency decision or a later date fixed by order of the reviewing court.

§ 415. Orders—Initial and final

A. If the presiding officer is the agency head, the presiding officer shall render a final order.

B. If the presiding officer is not the agency head, the presiding officer shall render an initial order, which becomes a final order in thirty (30) days, unless reviewed within the thirty (30) days by the agency head on its own motion or on petition of a party.

C. Unless the time is extended by stipulation, waiver, or upon a showing of good cause, an initial or final order must be served in a record within ninety (90) days after conclusion of the hearing or after submission of memos, briefs, or proposed findings, whichever is later.

D. An initial or final order must include, separately stated, findings of fact and conclusions of law on all material issues of fact, law, or discretion; on the remedy prescribed, and, if applicable, the action taken on a petition for stay of effectiveness. If a party has submitted proposed findings of fact, the order must include a ruling on the proposed findings. The order must also include a statement of the available procedures and time limits for seeking reconsideration or other administrative or judicial relief. An initial order must include a statement of any circumstances under which the initial order, without further notice, may become a final order.

E. Findings of fact must be based exclusively upon the evidence of record in the disputed case and on matters judicially noticed.

F. A presiding officer shall cause copies of the initial or final order to be delivered to each party and to the agency head within the time limits set in subsection (C).

§ 416. Agency review of initial orders

A. An agency head, upon its own motion, may review an initial order. A party may appeal an initial order. Upon appeal by any party, the agency head shall review an agency order, except to the extent that:

1. a provision of law precludes or limits agency review of the initial order; or
2. the agency head, in the exercise of discretion conferred by a provision of law, declines to review the initial order.

B. An appeal from an initial order must be filed with the agency head, or with any person designated for this purpose by rule of the agency, within ten (10) days after the initial order is rendered. If the agency head on its own motion decides to review an initial order, the agency head shall give written notice of its intention to review the initial order within ten (10) days after it is rendered. The ten (10) day period for a party to file an appeal or for the agency head to give notice of its intention to review an initial order is tolled by the submission of a timely petition for reconsideration of the initial order pursuant to 1 CNCA § 415. A new ten (10) day period starts to run upon disposition of the petition for reconsideration. If an initial order is subject both to a timely petition for reconsideration and to a petition for appeal or to review by the agency head on its own motion, the petition for reconsideration must be disposed of first, unless the agency head determines that action on the petition for reconsideration has been unreasonably delayed.

C. An agency head that reviews an initial order shall exercise all the decision-making power that the agency head would have had if the agency head had conducted the hearing that produced the initial order, except to the extent that the issues subject to review are limited by a provision of law or by the agency head upon notice to all the parties. In reviewing findings of fact in initial orders by presiding officers, the agency head shall give due regard to the presiding officer's opportunity to observe the witnesses. The agency head shall personally consider the whole record or such portions of it as may be cited by the parties.

D. An agency head may render a final order disposing of the proceeding or may remand the matter for further proceedings with instructions to the presiding officer who rendered the initial order. Upon remanding a matter, the agency head may order such temporary relief as is authorized and appropriate.

E. A final order or an order remanding the matter for further proceedings under this section must identify any difference between this order and the initial order and shall state the facts of record which support any difference in findings of fact, state the source of law which supports any difference in legal conclusions, and state the policy reasons which support any difference in the exercise of discretion. A final order under this section must include, or incorporate by express reference to the initial order, all the matters required by 1 CNCA § 415(D). The agency head shall cause an order issued under this subsection to be delivered to the presiding officer and to all parties.

A. Any party, within 15 days after notice of an initial or final order is rendered, may file a petition for reconsideration that states the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. The place of filing and other procedures, if any, shall be specified by agency rule.

B. Filing a petition for reconsideration is not a prerequisite for seeking administrative or judicial review.

C. No petition for reconsideration may stay the effectiveness of an order.

D. If a petition for reconsideration is timely filed, and the petitioner has complied with the agency's procedural rules for reconsideration, if any, the time for filing a petition for judicial review does not commence until the agency disposes of the petition for reconsideration as provided in 1 CNCA § 504(D).

E. If a petition is filed under subsection (A), the presiding officer shall render a written order within 20 days denying the petition, granting the petition and dissolving or modifying the initial or final order, or granting the petition and setting the matter for further proceedings. The petition may be granted only if the presiding officer states findings of facts, conclusions of law, and the reasons for granting the petition.

Except as otherwise provided by law other than this act, a party may request an agency to stay an initial or final order within five days after it is rendered.

§ 419. Availability of orders—Index

- A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (B), an agency shall index, by caption and subject, all final orders in disputed cases and give public notice of the index and orders.
- B. Final orders privileged by law or order of court and final orders, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy or release of trade secrets, are not public records and may not be indexed.
- C. In each case in which a final order is excluded under subsection (B), the justification for the exclusion must be explained in writing and attached to the order.
- D. An agency may not rely on a final order as precedent in future adjudications unless the order has been indexed and given public notice.
- E. An agency may not change, repeal, alter or modify a rule that the agency has enacted under Chapter 3 through adjudication under this chapter.

§ 420. Agency record in disputed case

- A. An agency shall maintain an official record of each disputed case.
- B. The agency record consists only of:
 - 1. notices of all proceedings;
 - 2. any pre-hearing order;
 - 3. any motions, pleadings, briefs, petitions, requests, and intermediate rulings;
 - 4. evidence received or considered;
 - 5. a statement of matters judicially noticed;
 - 6. proffers of proof and objections and rulings thereon;
 - 7. proposed findings, requested orders, and exceptions;
 - 8. the record prepared for the presiding officer at the hearing, and any transcript of all or part of the hearing considered before final disposition of the proceeding;
 - 9. any final order, initial order, or order on reconsideration; and
 - 10. all memoranda, data or testimony prepared under 1 CNCA § 410.

C. Except to the extent that this act or another statute provides otherwise, the agency record constitutes the exclusive basis for agency action in a disputed case and for judicial review of the case.

CHAPTER 5

JUDICIAL REVIEW

§ 501. Judicial review generally

A. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, a person is entitled to judicial review of final agency action affecting that person.

B. Final agency action for purposes of this chapter is agency action that imposes an obligation, denies a right, or fixes some legal relationship as a consummation of the administrative process.

C. A person otherwise qualified under this chapter is entitled to judicial review of agency action not subject to review under subsection (A) if postponement of judicial review would result in:

1. an inadequate remedy or substantial and irreparable harm to that person that outweighs the public benefit derived from postponement; and

2. it appears likely that the person will prevail in judicial review of the agency action.

D. The District Court shall conduct judicial review.

E. Venue shall be in Tahlequah unless allowed elsewhere in Cherokee Nation by court rule and agreed by the parties.

§ 502. Review of agency action other than order

A person otherwise qualified under this chapter is entitled to judicial review of agency rules and agency action other than an order if:

1. the agency action is intended to be final or is the completion of action on that issue;

2. postponement of judicial review of that issue would subject the person affected to a risk of substantial harm; and

3. the issue involved is fit and appropriate for judicial resolution; and

4. the judicial action does not substantially interfere with development of agency policy.

§ 503. Rules of procedure

A. Subject to this section, judicial review of agency action may be taken only by proceeding as provided by Cherokee Nation Rules of Civil Procedure.

B. A petition for review must be filed with the Clerk of the Court.

C. Fees shall be paid as established by the Court.

D. A petition for review must set forth:

1. the name and mailing address of the petitioner;
2. the name and mailing address of the agency whose action is at issue;
3. identification of the agency action at issue, together with a duplicate copy, summary, or brief description of the agency action;
4. identification of persons who were parties in any adjudicative proceedings that led to the agency action;
5. facts to demonstrate that the petitioner is entitled to obtain judicial review;
6. the petitioner's reasons for believing that relief should be granted; and
7. a request for relief, specifying the type and extent of relief requested.

E. A petition for review must be served by personal delivery or first-class mail with evidence of delivery on the agency, the Office of the Principal Chief, and all other parties in any adjudicative proceedings that led to the agency action.

§ 504. Time for seeking judicial review of agency action

A. Judicial review of a rule may be sought at any time after the date thirty (30) days before the effective date of the rule.

B. Judicial review of an order or other agency action other than a rule must be commenced within thirty (30) days after issuance of the order or other agency action if the record of the action provides notice that it is a final agency action and notes the thirty- (30) day time limit for judicial review.

C. If a final agency action other than a rule does not provide notice as required in subsection (B), then judicial review may be sought within two (2) years of the action becoming final.

D. A time for seeking judicial review under this section is tolled during any time a party is pursuing an administrative remedy before the agency which must be exhausted as a condition of judicial review.

E. A party may not file or petition for judicial review while seeking reconsideration under 1 CNCA § 417. During the time that a petition for reconsideration is pending before an agency, the time for seeking judicial review in subsection (B) is tolled.

§ 505. Stays pending appeal

The initiation of judicial review does not automatically stay a decision of the agency appealed from. An appellant may petition the reviewing court for a stay upon a showing of immediate, unavoidable, irreparable harm, and a colorable claim of error in the agency proceedings. The reviewing court may grant a stay whether or not the appellant first sought a stay from the agency.

§ 506. Standing

The following persons have standing to obtain judicial review of an agency action:

1. a person to which, or against which, the agency action is specifically directed;
2. a person that was a party to the agency proceedings that led to the agency action;
3. a person eligible for standing under law of Cherokee Nation other than this act; and
4. a person aggrieved or adversely affected by the agency action.

§ 507. Exhaustion of administrative remedies

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (B), a person may file a petition for judicial review under this act only after exhausting all administrative remedies available within the agency whose action is being challenged and within any other agency authorized to exercise administrative review, except a petition for reconsideration.

B. A petitioner for judicial review of a rule need not have participated in the rulemaking proceeding upon which that rule is based.

C. If the issue that a petitioner for judicial review under this subsection challenges was not raised and considered in a rulemaking proceeding:

1. before bringing a petition for judicial review, the petitioner must petition the agency to initiate rulemaking under 1 CNCA § 317 to take action to resolve or cure the issue or issues that the petitioner is challenging; and
2. in the petition for judicial review the petitioner must disclose the petition to the agency for rulemaking and the final agency action on that petition.

D. A petitioner need not have exhausted his administrative remedies if this act or a statute other than this act provides that exhaustion is not required.

E. The Court may relieve a petitioner of the requirement to exhaust any or all administrative remedies to the extent that the administrative remedies are inadequate or would result in irreparable harm.

§ 508. Agency record on judicial review

A. Judicial review of adjudication and rulemaking is confined to the agency record except as allowed by this section.

B. Within thirty (30) days after service of the petition, or within further time allowed by the Court or by other provision of law, the agency shall transmit to the Court the original or a certified copy of the agency record for judicial review of the agency action.

C. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings, the record may be shortened, summarized, or organized.

D. The Court may tax the cost of preparing transcripts and copies for the record against a party who unreasonably refuses to stipulate to shorten, summarize, or organize the record.

E. The Court may admit additional evidence when:

1. explanation or background of the decision is required;
2. a party alleges that the administrative record presented to the Court fails to disclose evidence or factors considered by the agency;
3. no record exists in cases where agencies are sued for a failure to take action; or

F. The Court may receive additional evidence if it is needed to decide disputed issues regarding:

1. improper constitution as a decision-making body, or improper motive or grounds for disqualification, of those taking the agency action;
2. unlawfulness of procedure or of decision-making process;
3. any material fact that was not required by any provision of law to be determined exclusively on an agency record of a type reasonably suitable for judicial review;
4. a failure to consider adequately a matter required to be considered by the agency's statute;
5. a factor not considered that is well known and relevant enough to be judicially noticeable as requiring consideration; or

6. whether the explanation or the record made by the appropriate agency procedures raises issues irrationally neglected by the agency.

§ 509. Scope of review—Grounds for invalidity

A. Except to the extent that this act or another statute provides otherwise, the validity of agency action must be determined in accordance with the standards of review provided in this section, as applied to the agency action at the time it was taken.

B. The burden of demonstrating the invalidity of agency action is on the party asserting invalidity;

C. The Court shall make a separate and distinct ruling on each material issue on which the Court's decision is based.

D. The Court shall grant relief only if it determines that a person seeking judicial relief has been substantially prejudiced by any one or more of the following:

1. The agency action, or the statute or rule on which the agency action is based, is unconstitutional on its face or as applied;

2. The agency has acted beyond the jurisdiction conferred by any provision of law;

3. The agency has not decided all issues requiring resolution;

4. The agency has erroneously interpreted or applied the law;

5. The agency has engaged in an unlawful procedure or decision-making process, or has failed to follow prescribed procedure;

6. The persons taking the agency action were improperly constituted as a decision-making body, motivated by an improper purpose, or subject to disqualification;

7. The agency action is based on a determination of fact, made or implied by the agency, that is not supported by evidence that is substantial when viewed in light of the whole record before the Court, which includes the agency record for judicial review, supplemented by any additional evidence received by the Court under this act;

8. The agency action is subject to agency discretion which has been abused by one or more of the following:

a. agency reliance on factors that may not be taken into account under, or ignored factors that must be taken into account under law;

b. agency action does not bear a reasonable relationship to statutory purposes or requirements;

- c. necessary factual premises of the action do not withstand scrutiny under the relevant standard of review;
- d. agency action is unsupported by any explanation or rests upon reasoning that is seriously flawed;
- e. the agency failed, without adequate justification, to give reasonable consideration to an important aspect of the problems presented by the action;
- f. the agency action is, without legitimate reason and adequate explanation, inconsistent with prior agency policies or precedents;
- g. without an adequate justification, to consider or adopt an important alternative solution to the problem addressed in the action;
- h. the agency failed to consider substantial arguments, or respond to relevant and significant comments, made by the participants in the proceeding that gave rise to the agency action;
- i. the agency has imposed a sanction that is greatly out of proportion to the magnitude of the violation;
- j. or the action fails in other respects to rest upon reasoned decision making.

E. The Court may remand a matter to the agency, before final disposition of a petition for review, with directions that the agency conduct fact-finding and other proceedings the Court considers necessary and that the agency take such further action on the basis thereof as the Court directs, if:

- 1. the agency was required by this act or any other provision of law to base its action exclusively on a record of a type reasonably suitable for judicial review, but the agency failed to prepare or preserve an adequate record;
- 2. the Court finds that (i) new evidence has become available that relates to the validity of the agency action at the time it was taken, that one or more of the parties did not know and was under no duty to discover, or did not know and was under a duty to discover but could not reasonably have discovered, until after the agency action, and (ii) the interests of justice would be served by remand to the agency;
- 3. the agency improperly excluded or omitted evidence from the record; or
- 4. a relevant provision of law changed after the agency action and the Court determines that the new provision may control the outcome.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Short title

This enactment shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Tribal Gaming Act of 2011.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is:

1. To repeal Legislative Act 30–89, as amended by Legislative Acts 9–90, 1–94, 126–95 (resolution), 29–03, 37–03, 44–04, 20–06, and 15–07; and amend Legislative Act 26–10.
2. To regulate the conduct of all gaming owned and operated by the Cherokee Nation, or its officially licensed agents, on Indian lands as defined by the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act and any other lands owned by the Cherokee Nation (hereafter referred to as Cherokee Nation) in compliance with Public Law 100–497, October 17, 1988, as amended, and in compliance with any tribal–state compact between Cherokee Nation and the State of Oklahoma or that the State has authorized by enactment.
3. To provide a basis under tribal law for the regulation of all gaming by Cherokee Nation adequate to shield it from organized crime and other corrupting influences; to insure that Cherokee Nation is the sole beneficiary of the gaming operation; and to assure that gaming is conducted fairly and honestly by the tribe, its agents and the players; and to implement the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, 25 U.S.C. § 2701 et seq. ("IGRA"), as amended, the regulations of the National Indian Gaming Commission ("NIGC") at 25 C.F.R. Parts 500 et seq., as amended, and in compliance with any tribal-state compact between Cherokee Nation and the State of Oklahoma or that the State has authorized by enactment.

4. To authorize and regulate all forms of gaming as defined by this act and the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, 25 U.S.C. § 2701 et seq., as amended, for which the Nation has duly compacted with the State of Oklahoma or the State has authorized by enactment.

5. To authorize and regulate gaming on Indian lands as defined by the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act and any other lands owned by the Cherokee Nation, for which the Nation has compacted with the State of Oklahoma or that the State has authorized by enactment. Provided, however that license requirements and regulations promulgated by the Gaming Commission shall be in addition to and shall not conflict with any and all regulations issued by the Oklahoma Horse Racing Commission.

§ 3. Legislative history

A. IGRA was enacted on October 17, 1988, establishing the NIGC. Under the IGRA, the NIGC is charged with regulating Class II gaming and certain aspects of Class III gaming.

B. The NIGC adopted certain regulations in Chapter III of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations (Parts 500–599), to provide purpose and scope, procedures for service of NIGC determinations, requirements for submitting new and existing gaming ordinances to the Chairman for approval, requirements for background investigations on primary management officials and key employees, and requirements for licensing employees of Indian gaming operations.

C. Cherokee Nation enacted Legislative Act 30–89, on April 8, 1989, known as the "Cherokee Nation Tribal Gaming Act," to regulate the conduct of gaming owned and operated by Cherokee Nation.

D. On October 22, 1990, the Cherokee Nation amended the Gaming Act with Legislative Act 9–90, to comply with P.L. 100–497, October 17, 1988, 102 Stat. 2467, and to establish the Cherokee Nation Gaming Commission.

E. On April 11, 1994, Cherokee Nation amended the Gaming Act with LA 1–94.

F. On October 16, 1995, Cherokee Nation adopted Resolution 126–95 to authorize Class III gaming on Indian lands under its jurisdiction in the State of Kansas and other states where such gaming is permitted.

G. On October 2, 2003, Cherokee Nation amended the act with LA 29–03 to authorize and provide for the regulation of Class III gaming which had been compacted for with the State of Oklahoma and/or authorized by legislative action.

H. On November 10, 2003, Cherokee Nation amended the Gaming Act with LA 37–03 to clarify the activities that fall under the jurisdiction of the Cherokee Nation Gaming Commission.

I. On November 15, 2004, Cherokee Nation amended the Gaming Act with LA 44-04 to provide technical amendments to the Gaming Act and provide for the regulation of Class III gaming that had been compacted for with the State of Oklahoma and/or authorized by legislative acts.

J. On August 21, 2006, Cherokee Nation amended the Gaming Act with LA 20-06 relating to gaming on lands within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation.

K. On March 12, 2007, Cherokee Nation amended the Gaming Act with LA 15-07 to clarify that the Cherokee Nation Gaming Commission shall issue a separate license to each place, facility, or location in which Class II or Class III gaming is conducted.

It being immediately necessary for the welfare of Cherokee Nation, the Council hereby declares that an emergency exists, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force after its passage and approval.

§§ 12 to 19. Reserved

CHAPTER 2

GAMING COMMISSION ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

§ 20. Establishment of Cherokee Nation Gaming Commission

The Cherokee Nation Gaming Commission is hereby established as a part of the Executive Branch of the government of the Nation in order to carry out the Nation's responsibilities under the IGRA (as amended) and the NIGC's regulations at 25 C.F.R. § 501 et seq. (as amended) and to implement the provisions of this act. Provided, however, all actions and regulations of the Gaming Commission shall be consistent with the provisions of this act, all other laws and resolutions of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council, and the Constitution of Cherokee Nation and any applicable laws and/or regulations of regulating agencies established by the State of Oklahoma either:

1. Pursuant to a compact on lands other than the lands defined in 4 CNCA § 4(P) and (Z) of this title; or
2. Applicable to facilities operating:
 - a. under the jurisdiction of the Oklahoma Horse Racing Act, 3A O.S. § 200 et seq.; or
 - b. in connection with a horse racing facility under a license granted under the authority of 3A O.S. § 262.

§ 21. Membership

- A. The Gaming Commission shall consist of no less than five (5) members of the Cherokee Nation to be appointed by the Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation and approved by the Tribal Council of Cherokee Nation.
- B. To be eligible to serve as a commissioner, a person must:
 1. Be at least twenty-five (25) years of age;
 2. Have a bachelor's degree from a college or university or equivalent experience;
 3. Be of high moral character or integrity;
 4. Be physically able to carry out the duties of office; and,
 5. Be able to pass a background investigation equivalent to that of a primary management official to obtain and maintain a gaming license.
- C. The Principal Chief shall, at the time of making the initial appointments and also at the time of making each appointment to fill a vacancy on the commission as provided herein, designate one member to serve as chairman, one member to serve as vice chairman and one member to serve as secretary.

D. The terms of office of the Gaming Commission shall be three (3) years. Provided, however, the amendments set forth in this Legislative Act shall not affect the terms of office of the persons who are members of the Gaming Commission as of the effective date of this act.

E. At the expiration of their term, a Gaming Commissioner shall continue to serve until he or she is reappointed or replaced pursuant to subsection (G) of this section.

F. Gaming Commission members shall serve their terms of office free from political influence from any department of the government of the Nation and may be removed only for cause, after a hearing by the Cherokee Nation District Court under such rules and procedures as prescribed by the Tribal Council. A petition for removal for cause may be brought by a vote of the majority of Tribal Council Members or the Principal Chief. Except as authorized under the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation, no member of the Gaming Commission shall, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution for any tribal political organization, candidacy or other tribal political purpose. No member of the Gaming Commission shall be a member of a committee of a partisan tribal political club, or a candidate for nomination or election to any paid tribal office, or take part in the management or affairs of any tribal political party or in any tribal political campaign, except to exercise his or her right as a private citizen privately to express his or her opinion and to cast his or her vote.

G. In the event of the expiration of a gaming commissioner's term or a vacancy in the membership of the Gaming Commission, the Principal Chief shall, within one hundred eighty (180) days of the occurrence of the vacancy, fill such vacancy for the unexpired term, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the Tribal Council. In the case of filling a vacancy, such appointment shall only be for the unexpired term.

§ 22. Powers and duties of the Gaming Commission

A. The Gaming Commission shall have the power to regulate and generally oversee conduct of all gaming operations in order to ensure compliance with this act and any regulations adopted and orders issued by the commission. The gaming commissioners shall each execute a conflict of interest provision disclosing potential unethical situations.

B. The Gaming Commission shall be charged with the sole responsibilities of administering and enforcing the provisions of this act and any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party.

C. It shall be the responsibility of the commission to promulgate regulations necessary to administer the relevant provisions of this act.

D. The powers and duties of the Gaming Commission shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

1. Making available application forms for all licenses and/or permits;
2. Supervising the collection of all fees prescribed by this act, Gaming Commission regulation, federal statutes or regulations, and any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party;
3. Processing all license applications and tax returns, which will be submitted under oath;
4. Determining applicable fees;
5. Auditing and/or reviewing financial records to ensure proper accountability;
6. Reviewing all records, documents and anything else necessary and pertinent to the financial accountability of licensees or enforcement of any provision of this ordinance;
7. Assessing sanctions, fines, or other penalties as needed against all vendors and/or facilities under the jurisdiction of and as deemed proper by the Gaming Commission for any violation of applicable laws, rules, and/or regulations;
8. Establishing procedures for conducting background investigations on and licensing of key employees, primary management officials, other gaming facility employees, and vendors;
9. Establishing procedures for issuing licenses and permits to such employees, officials, and vendors;
10. Obtaining and processing fingerprints, or designating a law enforcement agency to obtain and process fingerprints;
11. Reviewing and approving all investigative work conducted and reporting any possible or suspected criminal violation to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service;
12. Making license and/or permit suitability determinations;
13. Reporting background investigation results to the National Indian Gaming Commission, as required;
14. Inspecting, examining, and monitoring all gaming facility activities on a continuing basis;
15. Having immediate, unfettered access to all areas of a gaming facility to review, inspect, examine, photocopy and/or audit all records of the gaming facility;
16. Conducting civil/regulatory investigations of any suspected or reported violations of this act, Gaming Commission regulation, tribal and/or federal statutes or regulations, or any tribal-state compact provision;

17. Establishing procedures for resolving disputes between the gaming public and a licensed gaming facility;

18. Holding hearings on patron complaints, in compliance with procedures established by the Gaming Commission and/or any tribal-state compact provision;

19. Complying with any and all reporting requirements under the IGRA, any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party, and any other applicable law;

20. Promulgating, issuing, and enforcing regulations necessary to comply with the minimum internal control standards issued by the Gaming Commission or the National Indian Gaming Commission, as amended;

21. Promulgating, issuing, and enforcing regulations on levying of fines and/or denial, suspension, restriction, or revocation of a gaming license or—permit for violations of this act, any Gaming Commission regulation, or any other applicable tribal, federal, or state law or regulation. Fines may not be assessed on employees;

22. Ensuring compliance with National Indian Gaming Commission regulations requiring payment of annual fees to, and filing reports with, the National Indian Gaming Commission;

23. Ensuring that all gaming facilities are in compliance with the federal Privacy Act procedures as required by NIGC regulations;

24. The Gaming Commission or any member thereof, in the performance of its duties as defined by law, shall have the power to, in administrative proceedings administer oaths and conduct administrative hearings for the purpose of the enforcement of this act and/or any rules and regulations adopted by the Gaming Commission, assessment or collection of any fine, costs or other fees. The gaming facility shall provide the attendance of witnesses and the production of the books, records and papers of any person, firm, association or corporation within the jurisdiction of the Nation as necessary to show cause why action should not be taken by the Commission. Provided that the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and Office of Attorney General have primary jurisdiction to enforce all criminal laws concerning gaming.

E. Dispute resolution.

1. The Gaming Commission shall promulgate regulations for resolving disputes between the gaming public and a gaming facility.

a. Separate regulations shall be provided for Class II and Class III gaming activities.

b. For Class III disputes, the Gaming Commission shall follow the parameters set forth in any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party.

2. In resolving such disputes, the Gaming Commission may receive written statements, affidavits, or other materials from the parties of said dispute or their witnesses and, in its discretion, may order one or more hearings to take oral statements or testimony.

3. Any decision of the Gaming Commission in resolving such disputes shall be in writing and may be appealed by the parties to the Cherokee Nation District Court by filing an appeal, which shall contain a statement of the grounds for the appeal, within thirty (30) days of the date of receipt of the Gaming Commission's decision, in accordance with 4 CNCA § 67.

4. All decisions of the Gaming Commission for which a timely appeal has not been filed shall be final.

5. The dispute resolution procedures shall not apply to disputes governed by the regulations of the Oklahoma Horse Racing Commission.

§ 23. Restrictions on commissioners

A. To avoid potential conflicts of interest between the management and regulation of a gaming operation, the Nation hereby declares that:

1. No person, while actively serving in any of the following capacities may serve on the Gaming Commission: Principal Chief or Deputy Principal Chief, Member of the Tribal Council, Justice or Judge of the Nation's Courts, Nation employee, employee of the Gaming Commission, any employee of a gaming facility owned and operated by the Nation or its authorized agent or any appointed member thereof, or any vendor actively conducting business with a gaming facility.

2. No person who is ineligible to be a key employee or primary management official or any person convicted of a felony, embezzlement, theft or any other financially-related crime or honesty-related crime, such as fraud, may serve on the Gaming Commission.

3. Gaming Commissioners are prohibited from:

a. Gambling in any gaming facility owned and operated by the Nation or its authorized agents;

b. Providing contractual services of any kind to any gaming facility;

c. Providing any management services to any gaming facility pursuant to a management contract;

d. Accepting complimentary items from a gaming facility;

e. Accepting gratuities or any other thing of value that could be considered a bribe from any licensee or applicant for a license or permit; and

f. Engaging in outside employment or activities, including seeking or negotiating for future employment, that conflicts with their official duties and responsibilities.

B. For purposes of subparagraphs (A)(3)(d) and (A)(3)(e) of this section, complimentary items and/or gratuities, shall not include ceremonial gifts or other items of nominal value, or meals provided at the expense of a gaming facility, provided that such items do not each exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in value and are not offered as an inducement or for any action taken by the Gaming Commission.

§ 24. Financial interest

No Gaming Commissioner shall have any direct or indirect financial interest in any gaming facility or gaming vendor licensee. For purposes of this section, indirect financial interest shall not include ownership of any mutual funds or other non-self-directed investment fund which holds stock in a publicly-traded company but shall include direct ownership of such stock.

§ 25. Limitations; recommendations

The Gaming Commission shall exercise only that authority granted herein, but may make additional recommendations to the Principal Chief at any time it deems proper.

§ 26. Budget and compensation

A. Commission funding and budget

1. Fees; general

a. The Gaming Commission shall be subject to the annual budgeting process as prescribed by the Principal Chief.

b. Each licensee under the jurisdiction of the Gaming Commission shall pay to the Nation fees as established and scheduled by the Gaming Commission.

c. The Gaming Commission, by a vote of not less than a majority of its members, shall adopt the rate of the fees imposed on any gaming vendor, employee, facility, and any other licensing fee schedule on a bi-annual basis.

d. The projected expenditures of the Gaming Commission shall be in an amount not to exceed the amount of funds projected to be derived from fee assessments made under this section.

e. Any increases to the Gaming Commission budget shall follow the established tribal budgetary process.

f. Any unexpended fees shall be considered gaming revenues and shall be used in accordance with 4 CNCA § 38.

2. Operational fees

- a. The Treasurer shall adopt preliminary rates for gaming operations fees prior to the beginning of each fiscal year based upon the approved budget for the Commission and, if deemed necessary, shall modify those rates at any time during the fiscal year.
- b. The Gaming Commission shall establish a schedule of fees to be paid to the Nation by each operation regulated under this act. Fees shall be paid to the Nation on a monthly basis.

3. Penalties

- a. Failure by any vendor or facility to pay the fees imposed under the schedules established by the Gaming Commission shall, subject to the regulations of the Gaming Commission, be grounds for denial or revocation of the approval of any permit or license issued the licensee.
- b. The Gaming Commission may assess a fine on any vendor or facility for failure to pay any prescribed license fee.

Any assessed fines shall be collected by the Nation to be used in accordance with 4 CNCA § 38 and shall not be considered a part of the Gaming Commission budget.

B. Gaming Commissioner compensation

1. The annual compensation, payable monthly, of the Gaming Commissioners shall be determined as a part of the annual budget appropriation.
2. In no event shall compensation be based on a percentage of net profits from gaming operations of the Nation.
3. Members are eligible to be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred for Gaming Commission business, including necessary travel expenses, in addition to their monthly compensation.

§ 27. Authorization of gaming

A. Prohibition of unauthorized gaming. No person licensed by the Gaming Commission shall engage, conduct or condone any game in a facility under the jurisdiction of the Gaming Commission unless such game is approved by the Gaming Commission and regulations for rules governing such game have been duly promulgated and approved by the Gaming Commission.

B. Authorization of gaming. The Gaming Commission may authorize the playing of any game not prohibited by the IGRA, any game not prohibited by a tribal-state compact, and/or not specifically prohibited by the laws of the State of Oklahoma. The Gaming Commission shall promulgate regulations for rules governing all authorized games, including regulations governing the equipment, whether electronic or manual (e.g., chips, cards, machines, computer systems, etc.) used in such game. Any provision in a tribal-state compact with the State of Oklahoma providing for testing, notice to, and comment from the state shall be complied with before any game is authorized by the Gaming Commission.

C. Approval of gaming equipment. The Gaming Commission shall have the discretion to review and approve all gaming systems and other equipment used in the gaming facility as to quality, design, integrity, fairness, honesty, and suitability.

1. The Gaming Commission may require a prototype or sample of any model of gaming system or other equipment used in the gaming facility to be placed in the custody of the Gaming Commission and retained as a control for comparison purposes.

2. The Gaming Commission may rely on an independent outside testing laboratory or other professional expertise it deems necessary or appropriate to ensure the integrity of gaming systems, equipment, supplies, etc.

D. Rules and regulations of games.

1. It shall be the responsibility of the Gaming Commission to promulgate regulations establishing the particular rules of all classes of gaming for each authorized game in order that said gaming will be conducted with fairness and uniformity.

2. The rules of each authorized game offered at facilities licensed by the Gaming Commission shall be posted, and shall be clearly legible, in a conspicuous location and/or made available to patrons in pamphlet form. Such rules, and any modifications or amendments thereto, must be approved by the Gaming Commission prior to publication and implementation.

E. Gaming-related activity of the Nation. The Gaming Commission shall have full jurisdiction for regulatory compliance and enforcement of any other gaming-related activity that the Nation may elect to conduct. The Gaming Commission shall promulgate such regulations as it deems necessary to ensure the integrity of such activity and to ensure compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Gaming Commission approval with regard to compliance with applicable gaming laws and regulations shall be required for any contracts related to any such gaming related activities. For the purposes of this section, such gaming related activities shall include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Manufacture, development, assembly, sales, or distribution of any gaming machines, devices, equipment, software, or components thereof;

2. Joint ventures with other tribes, entities, persons, etc. related to gaming activity;

3. Pre-licensure of any entity or individual providing loans, grants or similar financial arrangements related to gaming activity in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) in any twelve- (12) month period, subject to the exceptions set forth in the Compact between Cherokee Nation and the State of Oklahoma.

§ 28. Prohibited acts

A. In addition to other civil and criminal acts that may be regulated or prohibited by this act, any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party, other Tribal law or applicable federal law, the following shall constitute prohibited activities and unauthorized gaming under this act and shall subject any perpetrator to Gaming Commission action including, but not limited to, the imposition of civil penalties, referral to appropriate law enforcement authorities for criminal proceedings, and license suspension or revocation. It is prohibited for any person:

1. To alter or misrepresent the outcome of a game or other event on which wagers have been made after the outcome is determined but before it is revealed to the players;
2. To place, increase or decrease a bet or to determine the course of play after acquiring knowledge, not available to all players, of the outcome of the game or knowledge of any event that affects the outcome of the game or knowledge that is the subject of the bet or wager;
3. To aid anyone in acquiring such knowledge as set forth in paragraph (2) above for the purpose of increasing or decreasing a bet or wager, or for the purpose of determining the course of play contingent upon that event or outcome;
4. To claim, collect, or take or attempt to claim, collect or take, money or anything of value in or from a gambling game with intent to defraud, without having made a wager contingent thereon, or to claim, collect or take an amount greater than the amount won;
5. To knowingly entice or induce another to go to any place where a gambling game is being conducted or operated in violation of the provisions of this act, with the intent that the other person play or participate in that gambling game;
6. To place or increase a bet or wager after acquiring knowledge of the outcome of the game or event which is the subject of the bet or wager, including past-posting and pressing bets;
7. To reduce the amount wagered or cancel the bet after acquiring knowledge of the outcome of the game or other event which is the subject of the bet or wager, including pinching bets;
8. To manipulate with intent to cheat, any component of a gaming device in a manner contrary to the designed and normal operational purpose of the components, with knowledge or hope that the manipulation affects the outcome of the game or prize or with knowledge of any event that affects the outcome of the game or prize;
9. To solicit funds or anything of value from any patron or employee for personal gain, such as panhandling, vagrancy, or prostitution.
10. To unlawfully take or attempt to take any chips, currency, machine redemption tickets, or anything of value from any patron or employee on the gaming facility premises;

11. To refuse to leave the gaming facility when appropriately advised to do so by a member of management, security, and/or the Gaming Commission;
12. To damage or attempt to damage, either intentionally or negligently, any property, gaming device or equipment, or any article belonging to the Tribe, patron, or employee;
13. Under the age of eighteen (18) to make any wager either directly or indirectly in any gaming facility;
14. To either intentionally or knowingly cause injury or harm to any patron, or employee or threaten to do so;
15. To possess any chips, cards, devices, paraphernalia, etc., that could reasonably be concluded as useful in cheating, defrauding, manipulating, or altering any game, gaming device, equipment, machine, computer, or supplies;
16. For any employee to aid, conspire, collude or assist in any way any other employee or patron to win or have an unfair advantage to win or otherwise acquire anything of value unfairly;
17. For any employee to knowingly provide false information or to misrepresent information contained in a gaming license application and/or during the course of a background investigation;
18. For any employee to knowingly make a false or misleading statement to the independent auditors or internal auditors, nor shall any employee conceal or intentionally fail to reveal any information necessary to make the statements to such auditors not false or misleading;
19. For any employee to knowingly make a false or misleading statement in connection with any contract for services or property or in response to any official inquiry by the Gaming Commission or its agents;
20. For any employee to knowingly make a false or misleading statement to any investigator or other representative of the Gaming Commission in the course of an investigation of a complaint or violation of this act, the Gaming Commission rules and regulations, or of any provision of a tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party;
21. For any employee to knowingly alter and/or destroy gaming records (e.g. surveillance footage, gaming paperwork, accounting/financial reports) without proper authorization and/or that is outside of prescribed policies and procedures for such records;
22. For any person to offer or attempt to offer anything of value to a licensee in an attempt to induce the licensee to act or refrain from acting in a manner contrary to the official duties of the licensee contained in this act, the Gaming Commission rules and regulations, any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party, or any applicable law;
23. For any licensee to accept anything of value with the expectation that receipt of such thing of value is intended, or that may be perceived as intended, to induce the licensee to act or refrain from acting in a manner contrary to the official duties of the licensee contained in this act, the Gaming Commission rules and regulations, any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party, or any applicable federal law;

24. For any person to take any action which interferes with or prevents the Gaming Commission or its agents from fulfilling its duties and responsibilities under this act;

25. Any person possessing knowledge and/or any evidence that any gaming system or other equipment used in the gaming facility has been tampered with or altered in any way that would affect the integrity, fairness, honesty, or suitability of the system or equipment shall be immediately reported to the Gaming Commission;

26. Any action the Gaming Commission may take on an individual for engaging in any of the foregoing does not preclude the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and/or the Office of the Attorney General from taking any action they may deem necessary.

B. Unauthorized gaming. Any person who commits any act of unauthorized gaming on any premises licensed by the Gaming Commission and/or owned and operated by the Tribe shall be in violation of this act and the Gaming Commission shall seek prosecution in the appropriate court of competent jurisdiction. Prosecution for such violations in other than a federal court is not meant to be exclusive; a finding of guilt or innocence shall not deprive the federal government from jurisdiction.

C. Prohibition against electronic aids. Except as specifically permitted by the Gaming Commission, it is a crime for any person to possess with the intent to use, or actually use, at any table game, either alone or in concert with others, any calculator, computer, or other electronic, electrical, or electromechanical device to assist in projecting an outcome at any table game, to keep track of or analyze the cards having been dealt, to change the probabilities of any table game or the playing strategies to be utilized. Violations are subject to Gaming Commission action and/or prosecution by the Nation and/or federal government under applicable laws.

D. Violations and sanctions.

1. Any patron, employee, vendor, or vendor agent who violates any part of this act or any applicable law or regulation either referenced or contained herein, shall be deemed to have committed a crime. All matters and occurrences which indicate that a criminal act under the Tribal Code, any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party, and/or federal law may have occurred in or around any gaming facility shall be immediately reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency and the Gaming Commission.

2. Violations which are not covered under a criminal code shall be deemed a civil violation. The Gaming Commission is authorized to establish a civil violations list of penalties and fines which shall be imposed by the Gaming Commission for all such civil violations of a vendor or facility with the violator afforded the rights to a hearing as provided in Chapter 6 of this Title.

3. If the Gaming Commission should have reasonable cause to believe any such violation was committed, it may impose licensing sanctions, vendor or facility fines, seek prosecution and/or exclusion.

§ 29. Reserved

CHAPTER 3

LICENSING

§ 30. License required for gaming facilities

A. Any agent of Cherokee Nation conducting gaming operations for the benefit of Cherokee Nation on property of Cherokee Nation, including lands under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation other than the lands defined in 4 CNCA § 4(P), shall be required to have and display prominently an appropriate, valid and current license issued pursuant to provisions of this act.

B. The Gaming Commission shall issue a separate license to each place, facility, or location where Class II and/or Class III gaming is conducted under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation pursuant to this title. Said license shall be renewed annually as set out herein.

C. The Gaming Commission shall specify the form, conditions and content for the application for such licenses, which shall be submitted by the chief management official of the facility, and the initial application shall include a legal description of the lands whereon the facility is located, and a certification that said premises are lands under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation as defined by this title and shall identify the environmental, health, and public safety standards with which the place, facility, or location must comply, and a certification that the facility is in compliance therewith. Each subsequent application for the renewal of such facility license shall identify any changes or additions to said legal description and applicable environmental, health and safety standards, and include current certifications of compliance therewith. The Gaming Commission shall only issue such licenses if the applications therefore include the required information, certifications, and such further conditions as the Gaming Commission shall have specified.

D. Conducting gaming operations without the lawful written approval and licensure of the Gaming Commission is a crime, and is punishable under 21 CNCA § 10. The Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and Office of the Attorney General have primary authority to enforce tribal criminal laws concerning gaming.

§ 31. Classes and fees

There shall be four (4) different classes of gaming, each characterized by its separate requirements and fees. These classes are created in compliance with the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, Public Law 100-497, October 17, 1988, 25 U.S.C. § 2501 et seq., and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to said act.

§ 32. Charitable gaming

Charitable gaming operations are not required to be licensed by the Gaming Commission provided that:

1. All proceeds are for the benefit of a charitable organization;
2. The Gaming Commission determines the charitable organization to be exempt from this act;
3. The charitable gaming operation is operated wholly by the charitable organization's employees and/or volunteers; and
4. The Gaming Commission, at its sole discretion, may require the charitable organization to adopt procedures that protect the integrity of the gaming offered and that safeguard the assets used in connection with the gaming operation.

§ 33. Class I gaming

There is no license requirement for Class I gaming.

§ 34. Class II gaming license

Only a tribal enterprise wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation or its designated and approved agent or employee may apply for and receive a Class II gaming license. Gaming operations must be conducted in facilities of Cherokee Nation. A separate license must be issued by the Gaming Commission for each place, facility or location in which Class II gaming is conducted.

§ 35. Class III gaming license

Only a tribal enterprise wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation or its designated and approved agent or employee may apply for and receive a Class III Gaming license. Gaming operations must be conducted in facilities of Cherokee Nation. A separate license must be issued by the Gaming Commission for each place, facility or location on which Class III gaming is conducted.

§ 36. Facility license

The Gaming Commission may issue a facility license, pursuant to regulations adopted by the Gaming Commission, to a gaming facility if the gaming facility:

1. Is adequate in all respects to accommodate the gaming intended to be carried on within the structure.
2. Is equipped with security and surveillance equipment meeting or exceeding provisions set forth in regulations established by the Gaming Commission.

3. Meets environmental, public health and safety standards of the Nation pursuant to 4 CNCA § 5.
4. Meets all requirements of applicable tribal, federal, and/or state law.
5. Has paid all applicable license fees and other costs.

§ 37. Vendor licensing

A. All gaming and non-gaming vendors as defined in 4 CNCA § 4 are required to apply for and obtain a vendor license from the Gaming Commission prior to conducting business with any gaming facility, unless exempted under subsection (B) of this section.

B. The requirement in subsection (A) above does not apply to the following vendor categories:

1. Tribal, local, state, or federal governments and associated agencies;
2. Cherokee Nation-owned and/or chartered companies;
3. Attorneys and certified public accountants and their firms, to the extent that they provide services covered by their respective professional licenses;
4. Sponsorships or charitable organizations;
5. Public utilities;
6. Entertainment;
7. Insurance companies;
8. Travel companies;
9. Fleet service providers;
10. Any person that qualifies for an exemption under the terms of any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party; or
11. Any person otherwise specifically excluded by the Gaming Commission based on circumstances unique to that vendor or vendor category as determined by the Gaming Commission.

C. The Gaming Commission shall:

1. Promulgate regulations for the vendor licensing application, background investigation, and licensing process, which shall be in conformity with the terms of any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party;

2. Promulgate regulations that provide two tiers of licensure. The first tier shall cover non-gaming vendors, and the second tier shall cover gaming vendors;
3. Promulgate regulations that provide for due process for all license actions taken against a vendor and/or for any sanctions or fines levied against a vendor for violations of the Cherokee Nation gaming ordinance, Gaming Commission rules and regulations, the IGRA, NIGC rules and regulations, or any provision of any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party;
4. Promulgate fee schedules applicable to gaming and non-gaming vendor licenses, provided the non-gaming vendors shall be assessed a fee not to exceed the cost of the required background check;
5. Require vendor agreements and/or contracts over Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) to be included in the annual external audit.

§ 38. Use of gaming revenue

The Cherokee Nation will have the sole proprietary interest and responsibility for the conduct of any gaming activity under a Class II or Class III license and all net revenues from any such gaming are to be used for tribal purposes, including:

1. To fund tribal government operations or programs;
2. To provide for the general welfare of Cherokee Nation and its tribal citizens;
3. To promote tribal economic development;
4. To donate to charitable organizations; or
5. To help fund operations of local government agencies.

§ 39. Reserved

RULES OF OPERATION AND GENERAL ACCOUNTABILITY

§ 40. Records, returns and audits

A. It shall be the responsibility of the Gaming Commission to promulgate regulations and ensure the gaming operation establishes proper gaming accounting procedures and methods of operations for all licensees of Class II or Class III gaming activities so that all monies or things of value received and paid out may be properly monitored and accounted. All gaming facilities under the jurisdiction of the Gaming Commission shall be required to keep an approved gaming accounting system that shall comply with, but not be limited to, all applicable provisions of this act and/or regulations of the Gaming Commission. Said accounting system shall reflect all business and financial transactions involved or connected in any manner with the gaming operation and conducting of gaming activities authorized by this act. The Gaming Commission shall have the right to access such records or to secure a court order to seize records or property not surrendered.

B. No applicant, licensee or employee thereof shall neglect or refuse to produce records or evidence or to give information upon proper and lawful demand by the Director of the Gaming Commission, or shall otherwise interfere, with any proper and lawful efforts by the Director of the Gaming Commission to produce such information. The Gaming Commission may conduct such hearings as deemed necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of this act and accountability for all monies received and spent. Failure to comply with the provisions of this act or any rule or regulation promulgated by the Gaming Commission shall constitute grounds for denying, restricting, or revoking a gaming license or permit and/or levying sanctions or fines against gaming vendors and/or gaming facilities as determined by the Gaming Commission.

C. The Gaming Commission shall ensure annual independent audits of all gaming operations are conducted and shall submit the resulting annual audit report to the National Indian Gaming Commission in conformance with the NIGC's regulations, as applicable. The management and operation of any gaming facility shall be subject to all applicable provisions of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act and any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party.

D. All gaming related contracts that result in the purchase of supplies, services, or concessions in excess of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) annually, except contracts for professional legal and accounting services, shall be specifically included within the scope of the audit described in the preceding subsection.

§ 41. Certification of gaming systems and equipment

All gaming systems and/or equipment purchased, leased or otherwise acquired and utilized by a licensed gaming facility must meet all standards promulgated by the Gaming Commission. The Gaming Commission shall maintain records of all gaming equipment located at any gaming facility or storage facility approved by the Gaming Commission.

§ 42. Age limit for all gaming

No person who is under the age of eighteen (18) shall operate, engage, or participate in any manner in the operation of any class of gaming activity. It shall be the responsibility of the manager of all licensed gaming operations of Cherokee Nation to ensure compliance with this age limit requirement.

§ 43. Oversight of fiscal affairs

The Gaming Commission shall promulgate regulations for internal controls and fiscal audits of all gaming facilities owned and operated by the Nation. At a minimum, those regulations shall:

1. Prescribe minimum procedures for safeguarding the gaming operation's assets and revenues, including recording of cash and evidences of indebtedness and mandatory count procedures. Such procedures shall establish a control environment, gaming accounting system, and gaming control procedures that safeguard the assets of the organization, assures that operating transactions are properly recorded, and encourage adherence to prescribed policies;
2. Prescribe minimum reporting requirements to the Gaming Commission;
3. Promulgate regulations for internal controls and fiscal audits of the gaming facilities. At a minimum, those regulations shall require external and internal audits by Gaming Commission, Cherokee Nation Businesses internal audit or external Certified Public Accountants that meet federal requirements;
4. Ensure that an adequate accounting system and uniform code of accounts and accounting classifications are in place to assure consistency, comparability, and effective disclosure of financial information;
5. Prescribe intervals at which such information shall be furnished;
6. Provide for the maintenance of documentation to evidence all internal work performed as it relates to the requirements of this section, and;
7. Provide that all financial statements and documentation referred to in subdivision 6 be maintained for a minimum of five (5) years.

§ 44. Prohibition against embezzlement

Any delay, maneuver or action of any kind which is caused by any non-gaming employee, key employee, primary management official, and/or vendor to unlawfully divert gaming or other proceeds properly belonging to the Nation shall constitute grounds for taking sanctions against that licensee. If the Gaming Commission finds an unlawful diversion was conducted or attempted, it shall sanction the licensee, report the matter to the appropriate law enforcement agency for further action and may take such other action as it deems necessary or appropriate. Sanctions may include the imposition of fines and/or the revocation, suspension, or limitation of, or refusal to renew, any license.

§§ 45 to 49. Reserved

CHAPTER 5

LICENSING PROCEDURES FOR AND BACKGROUND INVESTIGATIONS OF KEY EMPLOYEES AND PRIMARY MANAGEMENT OFFICIALS

§ 50. Gaming permits and licenses—Generally

A. The Gaming Commission shall ensure that the following rules and regulations as prescribed by the IGRA, as amended, 25 C.F.R. §§ 556 and 558, as amended, and any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party, are implemented with respect to key employees and primary management officials employed at any gaming facility under the jurisdiction of the Gaming Commission.

B. The Gaming Commission shall ensure that rules and regulations are developed and implemented for the licensure of all non-gaming employees of a gaming facility that are not key employees or primary management officials.

C. The Gaming Commissioners and Gaming Commission staff shall be subject to the licensing standards for primary management officials.

§ 51. Standard for licenses and permits

A. Licenses issued to key employees and primary management officials hereunder shall comply with and incorporate all standards and requirements enumerated in 25 C.F.R. and any amendments thereto, and also according to all standards and requirements enumerated in any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party.

B. Licenses and permits issued to non-gaming employees shall comply with and incorporate all standards and requirements as provided for by the Gaming Commission in rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this act.

§ 52. Application forms

A. The following notice shall be placed on the application form for key employees or a primary management official before that form is filled out by an applicant:

"In compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the following information is provided: Solicitation of the information on this form is authorized by 25 U.S.C. § 2701 et seq. The purpose of the requested information is to determine the eligibility of individuals to be granted a gaming license. The information will be used by the tribal gaming regulatory authorities and by the National Indian Gaming Commission members and staff who have need for the information in the performance of their official duties. The information may be disclosed to appropriate federal, tribal, state, local, or foreign law enforcement and regulatory agencies when relevant to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigations or prosecutions or when pursuant to a requirement by a tribe or the National Indian Gaming Commission in connection with the issuance, denial, or revocation of a gaming license, or investigations of activities while associated with a tribe or a gaming operation. Failure to consent to the disclosures indicated in this notice will result in a tribe's being unable to license you in a primary management official or key employee position."

"The disclosure of your Social Security Number (SSN) is voluntary. However, failure to supply an SSN may result in errors on processing your application."

B. The following notice shall be placed on the application form for a key employee or a primary management official before that form is filled out by an applicant:

"A false statement on any part of your license application may be grounds for denying a license or the suspension or revocation of a license. Also, you may be punished by fine or imprisonment. (U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1001.)"

C. The Gaming Commission shall request the following information from each applicant for a key employee and primary management official license:

1. Full name, other names used (oral or written), social security number(s), date of birth, place of birth, citizenship, gender, all languages (spoken or written);
2. Currently and for the previous five (5) years; business and employment positions held, ownership interests in those businesses, business and residence addresses, and driver's license numbers(s);
3. The names and current addresses of at least three (3) personal references, including one personal reference who was acquainted with the applicant during each period of residence listed under paragraph 2 of this subsection;
4. Current business and residence telephone numbers;
5. A description of any existing and previous business relationships with Indian tribes, including ownership interests in those businesses;
6. A description of any existing and previous business relationships with the gaming industry generally, including ownership interests in those businesses;
7. The name and address of any licensing or regulatory agency with which the person has filed an application for a license or permit related to gaming, whether or not such license or permit was granted;
8. For each felony for which there is an ongoing prosecution or a conviction, the charge, the name and address of the Court involved, and date and disposition, if any;
9. For each misdemeanor conviction or ongoing misdemeanor prosecution (excluding minor traffic violations), within ten (10) years of the date of the application, the name and address of the Court involved, and the date and disposition, if any;
10. For each criminal charge (excluding minor traffic charges), whether or not there is a conviction, if such criminal charge is within ten (10) years of the date of the application and is not otherwise listed pursuant to paragraph 7 or 8 of this subsection, the criminal charge, the name and address of the Court involved, and the date and disposition, if any;

11. The name and address of any licensing or regulatory agency with which the person has filed an application for an occupational license or permit, whether or not such license or permit was granted;

12. A current photograph;

13. Any other information the Gaming Commission deems relevant; and

14. Fingerprints consistent with procedures adopted by the Gaming Commission in accordance with 25 C.F.R. § 522.2(h).

D. The Gaming Commission shall determine the information required from and the content of a non-gaming employee license application.

E. The Gaming Commission shall notify in writing existing vendors that they shall complete an application for licensure by the Gaming Commission.

§ 53. Background investigations

A. The Gaming Commission shall conduct a background investigation of all applicants, including key employees and primary management officials, sufficient to make a determination under 4 CNCA § 56 of the applicant's eligibility for continued employment in a gaming operation. In conducting a background investigation, the Gaming Commission and/or an agent acting on its behalf shall promise to keep confidential the identity of each person contacted in the course of the investigation.

B. The Gaming Commission shall ensure that all records and information obtained as a result of a background investigation shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed to persons who are not directly involved in the licensing process. Under no circumstances shall information obtained during the background investigation be disclosed to members of management, human resources personnel or others employed by the gaming facility without a signed and notarized release from the individual.

C. Subsection (B) above does not apply to requests for such information or records from any tribal, federal or state law enforcement or regulatory agency, or for the use of such information or records by the Gaming Commission and staff in the performance of their official duties.

§ 54. Continuing duty to provide information

All applicants and licensees shall have a continuing duty to provide any materials, assistance or other information required by the Gaming Commission, and to fully cooperate in any investigation conducted by or on behalf of the Gaming Commission. If any information provided on the application changes or becomes inaccurate in any way, the applicant or licensee shall promptly notify the Gaming Commission or the Director of the Gaming Commission of such changes or inaccuracies.

§ 55. Terms and parameters of licenses and permits

A. Terms

1. The terms for licenses issued to persons under this act shall be provided for in regulations promulgated by the Gaming Commission.
2. The terms for facility licenses shall be one year and shall expire on December 31st of each year.
3. The terms for licenses issued to vendors under this act shall be provided for in regulations promulgated by the Gaming Commission.
4. Any license issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter is valid only for the person, entity, or facility shown on the face thereof. It is not assignable or otherwise transferable to any other person, entity, or facility without the express written approval of the Gaming Commission.

B. Violations of any provision of this act or rules adopted by the Gaming Commission, any tribal–state compact, or relevant license provisions, by a licensee shall be deemed contrary to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the Nation and shall be deemed grounds for refusing to grant or renew a license, or restrict, suspend, or revoke a license. Acceptance of a license, or renewal thereof by a licensee, constitutes an agreement on the part of the licensee to be bound by the provisions of this act and the rules of Gaming Commission, now and in the future, and to cooperate fully with the Gaming Commission. It is the responsibility of the licensee to remain informed of the contents of this chapter, the rules and other applicable regulations, amendments, provisions, and condition, and ignorance thereof will not excuse violations. A license issued hereunder is a privilege and no right shall attach thereto.

§ 56. Eligibility determination

A. The Gaming Commission shall review a person's prior activities, criminal record, if any, and reputation, habits, and associations to make a finding concerning the eligibility of an applicant for obtaining and maintaining a gaming license or permit. If the Gaming Commission determines that licensure or a business relationship with an individual poses a threat to the public interest or to the effective regulation of gaming, or creates or enhances dangers of unsuitable, unfair, or illegal practices and methods and activities in the conduct of gaming, no gaming facility under the jurisdiction of the Gaming Commission shall employ that person in a position requiring a gaming license nor conduct any business with that vendor.

B. The Gaming Commission shall review a vendor's business history, history of the vendor's principals, as applicable, reputation, and associations to make a finding concerning the vendor's eligibility to receive a vendor license. If the Gaming Commission determines that the vendor poses a threat to the public interest or to the effective regulation of gaming, or creates or enhances dangers of unsuitable, unfair, or illegal practices and methods and activities in the conduct of gaming, a tribal gaming operation shall not conduct business with that vendor.

§ 57. Federal review of gaming applicants

A. Report to the National Indian Gaming Commission

1. When gaming facility employs a key employee or a primary management official, the Gaming Commission shall forward to the National Indian Gaming Commission a completed application containing the information listed in 4 CNCA § 52.

2. Prior to issuing a license to a key employee or primary management official, and pursuant to the procedures set out in 4 CNCA § 53, the Gaming Commission shall prepare and forward to the National Indian Gaming Commission an investigative report on each background investigation conducted for each key employee and primary management official. An investigative report shall include all of the following:

- a. steps taken in conducting a background investigation;
- b. results obtained;
- c. conclusions reached; and
- d. the basis for those conclusions.

The Gaming Commission shall submit with the report a copy of the eligibility determination made under 4 CNCA § 56.

3. If a license is not issued to an applicant for a key employee or primary management official position, the Nation:

- a. shall notify the National Indian Gaming Commission; and
- b. may forward copies of its eligibility determination and investigative report (if any) to the National Indian Gaming Commission for inclusion in the Indian Gaming Individuals Record System.

With respect to key employee and primary management officials, the Gaming Commission shall retain applications for employment and reports (if any) of background investigations for inspection by the Chairman of the NIGC or his or her designee for no less than three (3) years from the date of termination of employment.

B. Procedures for forwarding applications and reports for key employees and primary management officials to the NIGC.

1. When a key employee or primary management official begins work at a gaming operation authorized by this act, the Gaming Commission shall forward to the NIGC a completed application for employment and shall conduct the background investigation and make the determination referred to in 4 CNCA § 56.

2. The Gaming Commission shall forward the report referred to in subsection (A) of this section to the NIGC within sixty (60) days after an employee begins work or within sixty (60) days of the approval of this act by the Chairman of the NIGC.

3. The gaming operation shall not employ as a key employee or primary management official a person who does not have a license after ninety (90) days.

4. The provisions outlined in paragraph 1 above shall not apply to any background investigations conducted and reported to the NIGC under any agreement with the NIGC for reduced reporting of background investigation results.

C. The process in subsection (B) above does not apply to non-gaming employees or vendor principals/management officials as defined in this Title. The retention period for such records shall be defined by the Gaming Commission.

§ 58. Granting a gaming license or permit

A. If, within a thirty- (30) day period after the NIGC receives a report, the NIGC notifies the Gaming Commission that it has no objection to the issuance of a license pursuant to a license application filed by a key employee or a primary management official for whom the Gaming Commission has provided an investigative report to the NIGC, the Gaming Commission may issue a license to such applicant.

B. The Gaming Commission shall respond to a request for additional information from the Chairman of the NIGC concerning a key employee or a primary management official who is the subject of a report. Such a request shall suspend the thirty- (30) day period under subsection (A) of this section until the Chairman of the NIGC receives the additional information.

C. If, within the thirty- (30) day period described above, the NIGC provides the Gaming Commission with a statement itemizing objections to the issuance of a license to a key employee or to a primary management official for whom the Gaming Commission has provided an application and investigative report to the NIGC, the Gaming Commission shall reconsider the application, taking into account the objections itemized by the NIGC. The Gaming Commission shall make the final decision whether to issue a license to such applicant.

§ 59. Preliminary determination and license suspension

A. Whenever, upon preliminary factual finding, the Gaming Commission determines that any person has failed to comply with the provision of this act or any regulations promulgated hereunder, the Gaming Commission shall make a certification of findings with a copy thereof to the subject or subjects of that determination.

B. If, after the issuance of a license or permit to a gaming facility employee, the Gaming Commission receives from the NIGC, for a key employee or primary management official, or the Gaming Commission separately receives reliable information indicating that such licensee is not eligible for employment under 4 CNCA § 56, the Gaming Commission shall suspend such license and shall notify the licensee in writing of the suspension and proposed revocation.

C. The Gaming Commission shall provide at least five (5) days notice to the licensee and the gaming facility of a time and place for a hearing on the proposed revocation of a license or permit, to be held within thirty (30) days of a preliminary determination.

D. After a revocation hearing, the Gaming Commission shall decide to deny, revoke, reinstate, or set conditions for retention of a gaming license or permit. The Gaming Commission shall notify the NIGC of its decision for a key employee or primary management official.

CHAPTER 6

HEARINGS AND APPEALS

§ 60. Scope

This chapter provides procedures for hearings and appeals to the Gaming Commission for:

1. violation(s) of Gaming Commission rules, regulations, policies and/or procedures;
2. violation(s) of any tribal–state compact to which the Nation is a party;
3. violation(s) of any applicable Cherokee Nation law, rule, or regulations;
4. violation(s) of any applicable federal law, rule, or regulation;
5. patron disputes with a gaming facility;
6. citations and/or exclusions resulting from violations of federal and/or tribal statutes, and/or any provision of a tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party; or
7. any act that, in the view of the Gaming Commission, may affect an individual's ability to obtain or maintain a gaming license.

§ 61. Opportunities for hearing

A. The Gaming Commission shall afford an applicant for a license an opportunity for hearing prior to any final action denying such application and shall afford a licensee or any other person subject to this ordinance the opportunity for a hearing prior to taking final action resulting in denying, terminating, revoking, suspending, or limiting a license or any other adverse action the Gaming Commission deems appropriate; provided, the Director may temporarily suspend or extend suspension of licenses for up to sixty (60) days in those cases where such action is deemed appropriate by the Gaming Commission.

B. In cases where a license is suspended prior to hearing, an opportunity for a hearing shall be provided promptly after suspension at the request of the licensee.

C. The Gaming Commission is authorized to adopt rules and regulations, consistent with this act, governing the conduct of any and all hearings before the Gaming Commission as well as the process of issuing, modifying, conditioning, suspending, or revoking any license.

§ 62. Hearing

At such hearing it shall be the obligation of the applicant or licensee to show cause why the preliminary determination is incorrect, why the application in question should not be denied, why the license or licenses in question shall not be revoked or suspended, why the period of suspension should not be extended, or to show cause why special conditions or limitations upon a license should not be imposed, to show cause why any other action regarding any other person or persons subject to any action should not be taken.

§ 63. Appearance through counsel

A. Parties to all hearings governed by this act may appear personally or through an attorney, except that a party must personally attend any hearing on the merits unless his attendance has been waived, in writing, by the Gaming Commission.

B. When a party has appeared through an attorney, service of all notices, motions, orders, decisions and other papers shall thereafter be made upon the attorney, unless the party requests otherwise in writing.

C. When a party is represented by an attorney, the attorney shall sign all motions, notices, requests, and other papers on behalf of the party.

D. Any attorney appearing before the Gaming Commission must be duly admitted and licensed by, and be a member of good standing before the Cherokee Nation Bar.

§ 64. Hearing procedures

The Gaming Commission is vested with the authority to develop and implement such hearing procedures it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities to hear any issue raised under this act or under any term or condition of any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party.

§ 65. Determinations by the Commission

A. The Gaming Commission shall make all determinations of issues before it by a majority vote of the Gaming Commissioners.

B. All determinations made by the Gaming Commission involving the granting, denial, cancellation or revocation of a license; a finding of a violation of the gaming ordinance, the Gaming Commission rules and regulations, the IGRA, or any tribal-state compact to which the Nation may be a party, the conditions of any license issued by the Gaming Commission; any order by the Gaming Commission; or any other applicable laws, regulations or agreements, and the imposition of any sanctions or penalties shall be made by motion and on the record.

C. A copy of any determination shall be served upon the licensee by registered or certified mail, or may be served personally. Refusal of service by the licensee shall constitute service.

§ 66. Request for re-hearing

A. For permit or license determinations, the Gaming Commission may, in its discretion, grant a rehearing upon written request from a licensee, only upon a showing of substantial new evidence affecting the outcome of the decision, provided such request is made within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the initial decision rendered by the Gaming Commission.

B. For disputes, the decision rendered by the Gaming Commission is not subject to a rehearing and shall follow the procedure outlined in 4 CNCA § 67.

§ 67. Appeals

A. The Cherokee Nation District Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear appeals from final decisions of the Gaming Commission denying, modifying, conditioning, or revoking any license.

B. Any affected party may appeal any final decision of the Gaming Commission within thirty (30) days after such decision by filing a notice of appeal with the District Court and serving a copy to the Gaming Commission. Thereafter the Gaming Commission shall promptly file the full record of the proceeding with the District Court.

C. In all appeals, the District Court shall give proper deference to the administrative findings of the Gaming Commission. The District Court shall not set aside, modify or remand any determination by the Gaming Commission unless it finds that the determination is arbitrary and capricious, unsupported by substantial evidence or contrary to law. The District Court shall issue a written decision on all appeals.

D. The District Court may, in its discretion, award costs and attorney fees to the Gaming Commission against any appellant whose appeal was frivolous, malicious, or in bad faith. Such fees shall be assessed and collected as a tax imposed under this act.

§ 68. Finality of Gaming Commission or Cherokee Nation District Court action

Any final finding or determination of the Gaming Commission which is not timely appealed, and any final determination of the Courts of the Cherokee Nation of an appeal of a decision rendered by the Gaming Commission in proceedings pursuant to 4 CNCA § 67 shall be final and binding in any other proceeding against or by the same person before the Gaming Commission or the Courts of Cherokee Nation.

ATTORNEYS

PRACTICING BEFORE CHEROKEE NATION COURTS

§ 1. Membership in Cherokee Nation Bar required to practice before Cherokee Nation Courts—Qualifications for membership

No person shall practice as an attorney and counselor at law in any Court of Cherokee Nation unless said person first obtains membership in the Cherokee Nation Bar Association. All members in good standing of the Oklahoma Bar Association are eligible for membership in the Cherokee Nation Bar upon making application and submitting themselves to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation Courts and subjecting themselves to the contempt powers of Cherokee Nation Courts. Annual dues may be charged for membership in the Cherokee Nation Bar.

Any person admitted to the Cherokee Nation Bar shall, before he is allowed to appear as an attorney in any Court, Agency or Commission take the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear, that I will, to the best of my knowledge and ability, support and defend all causes that may be entrusted to my care, and that in so doing, I will be true to the Court and to the Constitution and laws of Cherokee Nation and subject myself to the contempt powers of Cherokee Nation Courts. So help me God."

§ 3. Removal of attorney

Any attorney practicing before Cherokee Nation Courts may be removed by the Supreme Court, for any deceit, malpractice, or other gross misconduct, willful neglect of the interests of his client, or collusion with the opposite party, upon complaint and showing made to the Supreme Court by the aggrieved party, and upon due notification given to the accused of such charge; and the expenses of any inquiry, instituted by the Supreme Court in reference to the removal of any attorney, shall be borne by the party at whose instance the expense shall be incurred.

§ 4. Granting special permission to appear before the Court

A. Any attorney, recognized as such under the laws of any other Indian nation or tribe, eligible for membership in the Cherokee Nation Bar, and in good standing where so recognized and admitted to practice law, may, on special occasions, be allowed, by permission of the presiding judge, to appear before any Courts of this Nation.

B. Any regularly-admitted practicing attorney in the courts of record of a state other than Oklahoma who has business in the Courts of this Nation may, on motion and at the discretion of the Judge presiding over the case, be admitted to practice before the Cherokee Nation Court for the purpose of said business only. Before practicing law in Cherokee Nation Courts, each specially admitted attorney must take the oath prescribed in 5 CNCA § 2 and must appear in the Court with an attorney who is a resident of or who maintains a law office within the State of Oklahoma, duly and regularly admitted to the Oklahoma Bar Association upon whom service may be had in all matters connected with said action, with the same effect as if personally made on such foreign attorney. Specially admitted attorneys will be subject to the removal power provided in 5 CNCA § 3.

Parties may manage, prosecute, or defend their own suits, and by such counsel as they see fit to engage.

§ 6. Judge shall not appear as counsel

CEMETERIES

CEMETERIES PRESERVATION

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Cemeteries Preservation Act of 2004.

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to make funds available for traditional Cherokee cemeteries that are threatened with neglect and non-maintenance.

§ 3. Definitions

"Traditional Cherokee cemetery" means any cemetery that contains gravesites of over fifty percent (50%) Cherokee tribal citizens or is historically significant.

§ 4. Appropriation—Advocate/coordinator—Policies and procedures

A. A total of Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000.00), to be expended equally among Council Members, shall be used for preservation and maintenance of traditional Cherokee cemeteries that are threatened by neglect and non-maintenance.

B. The funds are to be distributed to cemetery boards or individuals interested in the preservation of the cemetery in question.

C. The Principal Chief shall designate an advocate/coordinator to ensure effective implementation of this act.

D. The Language and Culture Committee of the Council is hereby authorized and directed to develop such policies and procedures necessary to effectively implement the program, including but not limited to, determining eligibility, verification of circumstances, assuring that services are not duplicated, and conducting appropriate follow-up services and appeal rights in the event that assistance is denied. The policies and procedures will be published for review by the Tribal Council as well as the general public.

E. The Language and Culture Committee of the Council shall review and approve requests or referrals for projects under this act, to be forwarded to the designated staff. Approvals or denials by the designated staff pursuant to the established policies and procedures will be reported to the Language and Culture Committee of the Council.

F. All approved applications will be processed in accordance with this act and applicable policies and procedures.

G. Persons or organizations receiving funds shall give a written accounting with receipts detailing the supplies expended on the maintenance of cemeteries in question. This accounting shall be presented to the designated staff within one hundred and twenty (120) days from receipt of any funds.

H. The Motor Fuels Tax Funds shall be the source of funds appropriated in this act.

I. All expenditures for this program shall be for materials only and those proposals or applications demonstrating self-help by labor contribution and community involvement shall be given preference.

CHILDREN

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Purpose

This title shall be liberally interpreted and construed to fulfill the following expressed purposes:

1. To preserve and retain the unity of the family whenever possible and to provide for the care, protection, and wholesome mental and physical development of children coming within the provisions of this Title;
2. To recognize that alcohol and substance abuse is a disease which is both preventable and treatable;
3. To achieve the purposes of this title in a family environment whenever possible, separating the child from the child's parents or extended family only when necessary for the child's welfare or in the interest of public safety;
4. To provide judicial and other procedures through which the provisions of this title are executed and enforced and in which the parties are assured a fair hearing and their civil and other legal rights recognized and enforced;
5. To protect the interest of Cherokee Nation in preserving and promoting the heritage, culture, tradition and values of Cherokee Nation for its children;

6. To protect the child from abuse and to encourage a healthy, comfortable and constructive family life and environment for the children of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1.2. Application of Title

This Title shall apply to children subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation as defined by federal and Cherokee Nation law.

§ 1.3. Presumption of legitimacy

All children born in wedlock are presumed to be legitimate.

§ 1.4. Children deemed legitimate

All children born shall be legitimate.

§ 2. Children born after dissolution of marriage or before wedlock

All children of a woman who has been married, born within ten (10) months after the dissolution of the marriage are presumed to be legitimate children of that marriage.

§ 3. Reserved

§ 4. Support and education

The parent entitled to the custody of a child must give him support and education suitable to his circumstances. If the support and education which the parent having custody is able to give are inadequate, the other parent must assist to the extent of his or her ability.

§ 5. Grandparental visitation rights

A. Pursuant to the provisions of this section, any grandparent of an unmarried minor child shall have reasonable rights of visitation to the child if the district court deems it to be in the best interest of the child.

1. The right of visitation to any grandparent of an unmarried minor child shall be granted only so far as that right is authorized and provided by order of the District Court. Visitation may be subject to supervision as directed by the Court.

2. Except as otherwise provided by paragraphs 5 and 6 of this subsection, if a child is born out of wedlock, the parents of the father of such child shall not have the right of visitation authorized by this section unless such father has been judicially determined to be the father of the child.

3. If one natural parent is deceased and the surviving natural parent remarries, any subsequent adoption proceedings shall not terminate any Court-granted grandparental rights belonging to the parents of the deceased natural parent unless said termination of visitation rights is ordered by the Court after opportunity to be heard, and the District Court determines it to be in the best interest of the child.

4. Except as otherwise provided by paragraphs 5 and 6 of this subsection, if the parental rights of one or both parents have been terminated, any person who is the parent of the person whose parental rights have been terminated may be given reasonable rights of visitation if the Court determines it to be in the best interest of the child.

5. If the child has been born out of wedlock and the parental rights of the father of the child have been terminated, the parents of the father of such child shall not have a right of visitation authorized by this section to such child unless:

a. the father of such child has been judicially determined to be the father of the child;

b. the Court determines that a previous grandparental relationship existed between the grandparents and the child; and

c. the Court determines such visitation rights to be in the best interest of the child.

6. If the child is born out of wedlock and the parental rights of the mother of the child have been terminated, the parents of the mother of such child shall not have a right of visitation authorized by this section to such child unless:

a. the Court determines that a previous grandparental relationship existed between the grandparents and the child; and

b. the Court determines such visitation rights to be in the best interest of the child.

7. For the purposes of paragraphs 5 and 6 of this subsection, the District Court shall not grant to the grandparents of an unmarried minor child, visitation rights to that child:

a. subsequent to the adoption of the child, provided however, any subsequent adoption proceedings shall not terminate any prior Court-granted grandparental visitation rights unless said termination of visitation rights is ordered by the Court after opportunity to be heard and the District Court determines it to be in the best interest of the child, or

b. if the child had been placed for adoption prior to attaining six (6) months of age.

B. The District Court is vested with jurisdiction to issue orders granting grandparental visitation rights and enforce such visitation rights, upon the filing of a verified application for such visitation rights or enforcement thereof. Notice as ordered by the Court shall be given to the person or parent having custody of said child.

C. Any transportation costs or other costs arising from any visitation ordered pursuant to this section shall be paid by the grandparent or grandparents requesting such visitation.

§ 5.1. Death of custodial parent—Custody of child

The question of custody of a minor child upon the death of the custodial parent shall always be based upon what is in the best interests of the minor child.

§ 5.2. Certain information and records to be available to both custodial and noncustodial parent

Any information or any record relating to a minor child which is available to the custodial parent of the child, upon request, shall also be provided the noncustodial parent of the child. Provided, however, that this right may be restricted by the Court, upon application, if such action is deemed necessary in the best interests of the child. For the purpose of this section, "information" and "record" shall include, but not be limited to, information and records kept by the school, physician and medical facility of the minor child.

§ 6. Custody of child born out of wedlock

Except as otherwise provided by law, the mother of an unmarried minor child born out of wedlock is entitled to the care, custody, services and earnings and control of such minor.

§ 6.5. Use of certain words in reference to children born out of wedlock prohibited

A. On and after the date upon which this act becomes operative, the designations "illegitimate" or "bastard" shall not be used to designate a child born out of wedlock.

B. No person, firm, corporation, agency, organization, Cherokee Nation nor any of its agencies, boards, commissions, officers or political subdivisions, nor any hospital, nor any institution supported by public funds, nor any employee of any of the above, shall use the term "illegitimate" or "bastard" in referring to or designating any child born on or after the operative date of this act.

§ 7. Allowance out of child's property for support and education

The District Court may direct an allowance to be made to a parent of a child out of its property, for its past or future support and education, on such conditions as may be proper whenever such direction is for its benefit.

§ 8. Parent without control over child's property

The parent as such, has no control over the property of the child.

§ 9. Abuse of parental authority—Civil action

The abuse of parental authority is the subject of judicial cognizance in a civil action in the District Court brought by the child, or by its relatives within the third degree, and when the abuse is established, the child may be freed from the dominion of the parent, and the duty of support and education enforced.

§ 10. Cessation of parent's authority

The authority of a parent ceases:

1. upon the appointment by a court of a guardian of the person of the child;
2. upon the marriage of the child; or
3. upon its attaining majority.

§ 11. Public action for support of deceased parent's child

If a parent chargeable with the support of a child dies, leaving it chargeable upon the Nation, and leaving an estate sufficient for its support, the Office of Attorney General, in the name of the Nation, may claim provision for its support from the parent's estate by civil action, and for this purpose may have the same remedies as any creditors against that estate, and against the heirs, devisees, and next of kin to the parent.

§ 13. Parent's liability for value of child's necessities

If a parent neglects to provide articles necessary for his child who is under his charge, according to his circumstances, a third person may in good faith supply such necessities and recover the reasonable value thereof from the parent.

§ 14. Compensation for support of child

A parent is not bound to compensate the other parent or a relative for the voluntary support of his child without an agreement for compensation, nor to compensate a stranger for the support of a child who has abandoned the parent without just cause.

§ 15. Support of stepchildren

A person is not bound to maintain his spouse's children by a former spouse; but if he receives them into his family and supports them, it is presumed that he does so as a parent, and where such is the case, they are not liable to him for their support, nor he to them for their services.

§ 16. Services and support after majority

Where a child, after attaining majority, continues to serve and to be supported by the parent, neither party is entitled to compensation in the absence of an agreement therefor.

§ 17. Relinquishment of rights by parent

The parent, whether solvent or insolvent, may relinquish to the child the right of controlling him and receiving his earnings. Abandonment by the parent is presumptive evidence of such relinquishment.

§ 17.1. Assignment by parent to child of right to recover for injury to child

The parent or parents having the right to recover damages for an injury to a minor child may assign to said child their right to recover said damages, and where the parent or parents of a minor child bring an action as guardian or guardian ad litem or next friend on behalf of said child and ask for a judgment for him for damages to which said parent or parents are entitled, said parent or parents will be deemed to have assigned to the minor child their right to recover such damages. Any damages recovered pursuant to this section shall be disposed of in the same manner as provided by 12 O.S. § 83, as amended.

§ 18. Payment of minor's wages

The wages of a minor employed in service may be paid to him until the parent or guardian entitled thereto gives the employer notice that he claims such wages.

§ 19. Parent's right to change child's residence

A parent entitled to the custody of a child has a right to change his residence, subject to the power of the District Court to restrain a removal which would prejudice the rights or welfare of the child.

§ 20. Parent or child not answerable for other's act

Neither parent or child is answerable, as such, for the act of the other.

§ 21. Custody during parents' separation—Habeas corpus

When husband and wife live separately and apart from each other, and while they so live in a state of separation without being divorced, the judge of the District Court upon application of either, may issue any civil process necessary to inquire into the custody of any minor unmarried child of the marriage, and may award the custody of such child to such party as he sees fit in accordance with the best interest of the child, for such time and under such regulations as the case may require.

§ 21.1. Custody—Order of preference—Death of custodial parent—Preference of child

A. Custody should be awarded in the following order of preference according to the best interests of the child to:

1. a parent or to both parents jointly except as otherwise provided in subsection (B) of this section;
2. a grandparent;
3. a person who was indicated by the wishes of a deceased parent;
4. a relative of either parent;
5. the person in whose home the child has been living in a wholesome and stable environment; or
6. any other person deemed by the Court to be suitable and able to provide adequate and proper care and guidance for the child.

B. When a parent having physical custody and providing support to a child becomes deceased, in awarding custody or appointing as guardian of the child the noncustodial parent, the Court may deny the custody or guardianship only if:

1. the noncustodial parent has willfully failed, refused, or neglected to contribute to the support of the child for a period of at least twelve (12) months immediately preceding the determination of custody or guardianship action:

- a. in substantial compliance with a support provision contained in a decree of divorce, or a decree of separate maintenance or an order adjudicating responsibility to support in a reciprocal enforcement of support proceeding, paternity action, juvenile proceeding, guardianship proceeding, or orders of modification to such decree, or other lawful orders of support entered by a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating the duty, amount, and manner of support, or

- b. according to such parent's financial ability to contribute to such child's support if no provision for support is provided in a decree of divorce or an order of modification subsequent thereto;

2. the noncustodial parent has abandoned the child; or

3. the Court finds it would be detrimental to the health or safety of the child for the noncustodial parent to have custody or be appointed guardian.

C. The Court may consider the preference of the child in awarding custody of said child if the child is of sufficient age to form an intelligent preference.

§ 24. Appointment of counsel—Compensation

A. When it appears to the Court that the minor or his parent or guardian desires counsel but is indigent and cannot for that reason employ counsel, the Court shall appoint counsel. The Office of the Attorney General shall represent the interest of the child unless there appears to be a conflict. In the event of conflicts the Court shall appoint an attorney for the child.

B. The child and the parents may not be represented by the same attorney.

CHAPTER 1A

CARE AND CUSTODY

§ 25. Definitions

As used in this Title, the terms hereinafter enumerated shall have the following meanings:

1. "Before the court" as used in 10 CNCA § 28, means in-person or electronically via telephone or internet.
2. "Cherokee Nation" means the government of Cherokee Nation or the administrative agency within Cherokee Nation designated by the Principal Chief to administer laws and programs involving children and juveniles.
3. "Child" means any unmarried or unemancipated person under the age of eighteen (18) years.
4. "Court" means any court of competent jurisdiction which may hereafter be established for such purposes authorized to officiate in matters relating to children.
5. "DHS" means the Oklahoma Department of Human Services.
6. "District Court" means the District Court of Cherokee Nation.
7. "Foster home" means a home or other place, other than the home of a parent, or a guardian of the child concerned, duly licensed by Cherokee Nation, wherein a child is received for care, custody and maintenance.
8. "Indian" means a person as defined by 10 CNCA § 40.2.
9. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.
10. "Person" means any natural person, corporation, association, organization, institution, or partnership.

Definitions provided in 10 CNCA § 1101 are incorporated for this title.

§ 26. Right to custody

No person, other than the parents, or relatives within the fourth degree, of the child concerned, may assume the permanent care and custody of a child except in accordance with the provisions of this act, or in accordance with the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 27. Authority to assign, relinquish or otherwise transfer

No person may assign, relinquish, or otherwise transfer to another his rights or duties with respect to the permanent care or custody of a child, except to the parents, or to the relatives within the fourth degree, of the child concerned, unless specifically authorized or required so to do by an order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or unless by a relinquishment executed in writing in accordance with the provisions of this act.

§ 28. Parties to whom relinquishments may be made

Relinquishments may be made only to:

1. Cherokee Nation, and shall be executed in writing before the Court;
2. a child-placing agency duly licensed or recognized under Cherokee Nation law;
3. any other person, with the written consent of the administrative officer of Cherokee Nation designated by the Principal Chief or the District Court.

§ 29. Execution of relinquishments

Relinquishments may be executed by:

1. the parents of a child;
2. one (1) parent alone, if:
 - a. the other parent consents thereto in writing; or
 - b. the other parent is dead; or
 - c. the other parent has been adjudicated incompetent and such incompetence is permanent in its nature and such fact has been proven to the satisfaction of the Court; or
 - d. the other parent, for one (1) year preceding, has abandoned the family; or
 - e. the other parent is imprisoned in a penitentiary, state or federal, for crime, provided such parent has been given proper notice and is authorized by the institutional head to attend said hearing and show cause why the child should not be taken from the parent or why such relinquishment should not be granted; or

f. the other parent has been declared by the Court to be morally unfit to provide for the care of the child; or

g. by the mother, if the child is born out of wedlock;

3. the guardian of the person of the child, if both parents are dead or if one (1) parent is a person whose consent is not required under the terms of subdivision 2 of this section.

§ 29.1. Termination of parental rights—Petition—Notice—Hearing—Orders

A. Whenever the mother of a child born out of wedlock who has custody of the child executes a relinquishment for the purpose of adoption pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 28, the person or agency to whom such relinquishment is made shall file a petition with the District Court in which the relinquishment was executed for the termination of the parental rights of the persons entitled to notice pursuant to subsection (B) of this section unless such rights have been previously terminated or relinquished.

B. Persons entitled to notice, pursuant to this section, shall include:

1. any person adjudicated by a court to be the father of the child;

2. any person who is recorded on the child's birth certificate as the child's father;

3. any person who is openly living with the child and the child's mother at the time the proceeding is initiated or at the time the child was placed in the care of an authorized agency, and who is holding himself out to be the child's father;

4. any person who has been identified as the child's father by the mother in a sworn statement;

5. any person who was married to the child's mother within ten (10) months prior or subsequent to the birth of the child.

C. Notice and hearing pursuant to this section shall comply with the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1131. The notice shall also apprise such person of his legal rights and shall include a clear statement that failure to appear at the hearing shall constitute a denial of interest in the child which denial may result, without further notice of this proceeding or any subsequent proceeding, in the termination of his parental rights and the transfer of the child's care, custody, or guardianship or in the child's adoption.

D. A person may waive his right to notice under this section. Such waiver signed by such person, shall include a statement affirming that the person signing such waiver understands that said waiver shall constitute grounds for the termination of his parental rights pursuant to the provisions of this section and 10 CNCA § 60.6.

E. 1. At the hearing the Court may, if it is in the best interest of the child:

- a. accept a relinquishment or consent to adoption executed by the father or putative father of the child; or
- b. determine that the consent of the father or putative father to the adoption of the child is not required and may terminate any parental rights which such father or putative father may have; or
- c. terminate the parental rights of the father or putative father, pursuant to the provisions of this section or 10 CNCA § 1130; or
- d. grant custody of the child to the father or putative father, if the Court determines such person to be the father of the child.

2. The Court shall terminate the rights of a father or putative father if he fails to appear at the hearing or has waived notice under this section.

F. No order of the Court shall be vacated, annulled, or reversed upon the application of any person who was properly served with notice in accordance with this section but failed to appear or who waived notice pursuant to subsection (D) of this section.

§ 30. Requisites of relinquishment

The relinquishment shall:

1. be signed by the person or persons by whom it is executed;
2. identify the child or children relinquished; and
3. be acknowledged before the Court.

§ 31. Recovery of child after relinquishment

A child whose care and custody has been surrendered by a written relinquishment under this act may not be recovered by the parents or other person who executed the relinquishment except through order of a court of competent jurisdiction, based on a finding, supported by proof, that the child is neglected by its foster parents, guardian, or custodian, within the meaning of neglect as defined by the statutes relating to neglected children.

§ 32. Placement of child in foster home

No person except:

1. the parent or parents of the child involved;
2. a relative within the fourth degree of such child, having lawful custody thereof;

3. the legal guardian of such child, duly authorized thereto by the Court by which he was appointed; or

4. Cherokee Nation or a child welfare agency enumerated in 10 CNCA § 28, if the care and custody of the child has been relinquished to the Cherokee Nation or the agency under the terms of this act or has been committed thereto by order of judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction shall place or offer to place a child for care in a foster home without securing the consent of Cherokee Nation or the District Court.

§ 33. Importation and exportation of children

No person shall bring, or cause to be brought, or sent, or cause to be sent, into this Nation, or take, or cause to be taken, or sent, or cause to be sent, out of this Nation any child for the purpose of placing such child in a foster home or procuring his adoption, without first having obtained the consent of the Court; but this section shall not apply to a resident who brings a child into the Nation for adoption in his own family, nor to a parent or guardian who takes or sends a child outside of the Nation for placement in a foster home.

§ 34. Application of act

All requirements established by this act, except as otherwise provided herein, shall be incumbent equally upon all public and private child welfare agencies and upon all private child placing or home finding agencies or institutions and upon all individuals.

§ 35. Violation of act

Violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be a crime and one who is convicted of such a violation shall be punished in accordance with law.

§ 36. Severability of provisions of act

If any provision or section of this act or the application thereof to any person, corporation, organization, or institution shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the act and the application of such provision or section to other persons, corporations, organizations and institutions shall not be affected thereby.

§ 37. Construction of act

Except as otherwise set forth or except in case of conflict between the provisions hereof and other law, the provisions of this act shall be cumulative to existing law.

§ 38. Voluntary relinquishment of physical custody—Presumption

When an order has been entered which provides for payment of child support and the legal custodian relinquishes physical custody of the child to any person, subject to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 27, without obtaining a modification of the order to change legal custody, the relinquishment, by operation of law, shall create a presumption that such person to whom the child was relinquished has legal custody of the child for the purposes of the payment of child support and the obligee shall remit such child support obligation to the person to whom the relinquishment was made.

INDIAN CHILD WELFARE ACT

§ 40. Short title

10 CNCA §§ 40.1 through 40.11 shall be known and may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare Act."

§ 40.1. Purpose—Policy of Nation

The purpose of the Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare Act is the clarification of Nation policies regarding Indian children.

§ 40.2. Definitions

For the purposes of the Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare Act:

1. "Child custody proceeding" means:

a. "Foster care placement" which shall mean any action removing an Indian child from its parent or Indian custodian for temporary placement in a foster home or institution or the home of a guardian or conservator where the parent or Indian custodian cannot have the child returned upon demand, but where parental rights have not been terminated;

b. "Termination of parental rights" which shall mean any action resulting in the termination of the parent-child relationship;

c. "Preadoptive placement" which shall mean the temporary placement of an Indian child in a foster home or institution after the termination of parental rights, but prior to or in lieu of adoptive placement; and

d. "Adoptive placement" which shall mean the permanent placement of an Indian child for adoption, including any action resulting in a final decree of adoption. Such term or terms shall not include a placement based upon an act which, if committed by an adult, would be deemed a crime or upon an award, in a divorce proceeding, of custody to one of the parents.

2. "Custodian" means any Indian person who has legal custody of an Indian child under tribal law or custom or under state law or to whom temporary physical care, custody and control has been transferred by the parent of such child.

3. "Indian" means a person who is either:

a. a member of an Indian tribe; or

b. eligible for membership in an Indian tribe.

4. "Indian child" means any unmarried or unemancipated person who is under the age of eighteen (18) and is either:

a. a member of an Indian tribe; or

b. eligible for membership in an Indian tribe.

5. "Indian-operated institution" means a residential care facility, group home or crisis foster care facility operated under a governing body or Board of Directors consisting of a minimum fifty percent (50%) whose board members are members of a federally-recognized Indian tribe.

6. "Indian tribe" means any Indian tribe, band, nation or other organized group or community of Indians recognized as eligible for the services provided to Indians by the Secretary of the Interior because of their status as Indians.

7. "Involuntary custody proceeding" means any action removing an Indian child from its parent or custodian for temporary placement in a foster home or institution or the home of a guardian or conservator where the parent or custodian cannot have the child returned upon demand, but where parental rights have not been terminated.

§ 40.3. Application of act—Exemptions—Determination of Indian status

A. The Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare Act applies to all child custody proceedings involving any Indian child who is subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation under federal, state or tribal law, except the following:

1. A child custody proceeding arising from a divorce proceeding; or

2. A child custody proceeding arising from an adjudication of delinquency, unless there has been a request for termination of parental rights.

B. The Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare Act applies to a child who is a member of an Indian tribe or who is eligible for membership in an Indian tribe.

C. The Court shall seek a determination of the Indian status of the child in accordance with the preceding standard in the following circumstances:

1. The Court has been informed by an interested party, an officer of the Court, a tribe, an Indian organization or a public or private agency that the child is Indian; or
 2. The child who is the subject of the proceeding gives the Court reason to believe he is an Indian child; or
 3. The Court has reason to believe the residence or domicile of the child is a predominantly Indian community.
- D. The Court shall seek verification of the Indian status of the child from the Indian tribe. A determination of membership by an Indian tribe shall be conclusive.
- E. The determination of the Indian status of a child shall be made as soon as practicable in order to ensure compliance with the notice requirements of 10 CNCA § 40.5.

§ 40.4. Indian child custody proceedings—Notice

In any Indian child custody proceeding under the Cherokee Nation Indian Child Welfare Act the Court or party initiating the action, if it is a private action, shall send notice to the parents or to the Indian custodians, if any, and to the tribe that may be the tribe of the Indian child, by registered mail return receipt requested, personal service by a court-approved process server, or after an affidavit of due diligence to locate, publication as provided for elsewhere in this title. The notice shall be written in clear and understandable language and include the following information:

1. The name and tribal affiliation of the Indian child;
2. A copy of the petition by which the proceeding was initiated;
3. A statement of the rights of the biological parents or Indian custodians, and the Indian tribe:
 - a. to intervene in the proceeding,
 - b. to request an additional twenty (20) days from receipt of notice to prepare for the proceeding; further extensions of time may be granted with court approval;
4. A statement of the potential legal consequences of an adjudication on the future custodial rights of the parents or Indian custodians or in a private proceeding, the legal consequences of failure to appear and contest the proceeding;
5. A statement that if the parents or Indian custodians are unable to afford counsel, counsel will be appointed to represent them; and
6. A statement that tribal officials should keep confidential the information contained in the notice.

§ 40.5. Emergency removal of Indian child from parent or custodian—Order

A. When a court order authorizes the emergency removal of an Indian child from the parent or Indian custodian of such child in accordance with 25 U.S.C. § 1922, the order shall be accompanied by an affidavit containing the following information:

1. The names, tribal affiliations, and addresses of the Indian child, the parents of the Indian child and Indian custodians, if any;
2. A specific and detailed account of the circumstances that lead the agency responsible for the removal of the child to take that action; and
3. A statement of the specific actions that have been taken to assist the parents or Indian custodians so that the child may safely be returned to their custody.

B. No pre-adjudicatory custody order shall remain in force or in effect for more than thirty (30) days without a determination by the Court, supported by the preponderance of the evidence that the placement is in the best interest of the child. However, the Court may, for good and sufficient cause shown, extend the effective period of such order for an additional period of sixty (60) days.

§ 40.6. Placement preference

The placement preferences specified in 25 U.S.C. § 1915, shall apply to all pre-adjudicatory placements, as well as pre-adoptive, adoptive and foster care placements as defined in the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1901 et seq., as amended by Legislative Resolution 03–04.

§ 40.7. Agreements with Indian tribes for care and custody of Indian children

The Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation or his designee is authorized to enter into agreements with the State of Oklahoma regarding care and custody of Indian children as authorized by the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1919, as amended.

§ 40.8. Payment of foster care expenses under certain circumstances

A. In the event the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) has legal custody of an Indian child, and that child is placed with a tribal-licensed or approved foster home, the state shall pay the costs of foster care in the same manner and to the same extent the state pays the costs of foster care to state-licensed or state-approved foster homes, provided that the tribe shall have entered into an agreement with the state pursuant to 10 CNCA § 40.7, which shall require tribal cooperation with state plans required by federal funding laws.

B. The state shall pay the costs of foster care of a child placed with a tribal licensed or approved foster home where the placement is made by a tribe having jurisdiction of the proceeding, provided that the tribe shall have entered into an agreement with the state pursuant to 10 CNCA § 40.7, which shall require tribal cooperation with state plans required by federal funding laws.

C. The Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation or his designee shall be authorized to enter into agreements to obtain any and all benefits from the state which are available to residents of the state.

D. The Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation or his designee shall be authorized to enter into agreements with the state and other institutions or agencies for providing residential, group home and crisis foster home care.

§ 40.9. Records

Cherokee Nation shall establish a single location where all records of every involuntary foster care, pre-adoptive placement and adoptive placement by the courts of any Indian child in the custody of Cherokee Nation will be available within seven (7) days of a request by the state, the tribe of the Indian child or by the Secretary of Interior. The records shall include, but not be limited to, all reports of the Nation caseworker, including a summary of the efforts to rehabilitate the parents of the Indian child, a list of the names and addresses of families and tribal-approved homes contacted regarding placement, and a statement of reason for the final placement decision.

§ 40.10. Involuntary custody placement orders—Evidence—Determination of damage to child

No involuntary custody placement may be ordered in an involuntary custody proceeding, in the absence of a determination, supported by clear and convincing evidence, including testimony of qualified expert witnesses, that the continued custody of the child by the parent or custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child, provided that nothing in this section shall prohibit a default order being entered by the Court in cases where a parent or custodian fails to appear for a hearing after receiving proper notice of that hearing; and provided further that nothing in this section will require the specified testimony if a parent or custodian appears before a Judge and admits, stipulates, or enters a no-contest stipulation to the allegations in a petition.

§ 40.11. Parental rights termination orders—Evidence—Determination of damage to child

No termination of parental rights may be ordered in the absence of a determination, supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, including testimony of qualified expert witnesses, that the continued custody of the child by the parent or custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child, provided that, nothing in this section shall prohibit a default order being entered by the Court in cases where a parent or custodian fails to appear for a hearing after receiving proper notice of that hearing; and provided further that nothing in this section will require the specified testimony if a parent or custodian appears before a judge and admits, stipulates, or enters a no-contest stipulation to the allegations in a petition or relinquishes parental rights for the purpose of an adoption not arising out of a deprived case.

ADOPTION

§ 55. Adoption of child born out of wedlock by father

The father of an child by publicly acknowledging it as his own, receiving it as such, with the consent of his wife, if he is married, into his family, and otherwise treating it as if it were a legitimate child, thereby adopts it as such, and such child is thereupon deemed for all purposes legitimate from the time of its birth. The status thus created is that of a child adopted by regular procedure of court.

§ 55.1. Notice of intent to claim paternity—Acknowledging paternity—Paternity registry

A. The father or putative father of a child born out of wedlock may file notice of intent to claim paternity of the child or an instrument acknowledging paternity of the child as provided in this section.

B. Cherokee Nation shall utilize the centralized paternity registry established by the Oklahoma Department of Human Services which records the names and addresses of:

1. any person adjudicated by a court of this state to be the father of a child born out of wedlock;
2. any person who has filed with the registry before or after the birth of a child out of wedlock a notice of intent to claim paternity of the child;
3. any person adjudicated by a court of another state or territory of the United States to be the father of a child born out of wedlock, where a certified copy of the Court order has been filed with the registry by such person or any other person; and
4. any person who has filed with the registry an instrument acknowledging paternity.

C. A person filing a notice of intent to claim paternity of a child or an acknowledgment of paternity shall include therein his current address and shall notify the registry of any change of address pursuant to procedures prescribed by regulations of the Oklahoma Department of Human Services.

D. A person who has filed a notice of intent to claim paternity may at any time, by filing a notice to disclaim, revoke a notice of intent to claim paternity.

E. An unrevoked notice of intent to claim paternity of a child or an instrument acknowledging paternity may be introduced in evidence by any party in any proceeding in which such fact may be relevant.

F, G. Deleted.

§ 57. Records to be kept confidential—Release of medical history and other information

A. Except as otherwise provided by this section, all records of proceedings in adoption cases and all papers and books relating to such proceedings, shall be kept in a separate confidential file in the Court Clerk's vault by the Court Clerk, and shall not be open to inspection or copy except upon order of a court of record for good cause shown.

B. Upon application and for good cause being shown, any court of record may, by written order reciting its findings, permit the necessary information to be released, or may restrict the purposes for which it shall be used.

C. No person in charge of adoption records in the District Court shall disclose the names of the natural or adoptive parents of a child unless ordered to do so by a court of record.

D. 1. The Cherokee Nation, any certified adoption agency or any licensed child-placing agency having custody of a child who is legally available for adoption is authorized to release the medical history, available to the Nation or agency, of the child, of the natural parents of the child and of the grandparents of the child to prospective parents of the adoptive child.

2. The release of any medical history of the natural parents of the child or the natural grandparents of the child shall be released in such a way that no person can be identified.

3. The medical history may include the information received pursuant to 10 CNCA § 60.5A or any other medical information or records regarding the child obtained by the Cherokee Nation or agency during the custody of the child.

E. Any person in charge of adoption records who discloses any information pertaining to an adoption proceeding, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a crime.

F. A child reaching the age of sixteen (16) may upon petition to the Court obtain his adoption records.

G. A child establishing his tribal citizenship or obtaining his Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood may obtain his adoption records.

§ 58. Limitation on challenge to adoption after entry of final decree

No adoption may be challenged on any ground either by a direct or collateral attack more than one (1) year after the entry of the final adoption decree regardless of whether the decree is void or voidable, and the minority of the natural parent shall not operate to prevent this time limit from running.

CHAPTER 2A

UNIFORM ADOPTION ACT

As used in this act, unless the context otherwise requires, "child" means any minor person, and "agency" means any person, authority or agency legally empowered to place children for adoption. Singular words may extend and be applied to several persons or things, as well as to one person or thing. Plural words may extend and be applied to one person or thing as well as to several persons or things.

§ 60.2. Eligibility for adoption

Any Indian child present within Indian country within Cherokee Nation or in the custody of Cherokee Nation at the time the petition for adoption is filed, may be adopted.

§ 60.3. Eligibility to adopt

The following persons are eligible to adopt a child:

1. A husband and wife jointly, or either the husband or wife if the other spouse is a parent of the child.
2. An unmarried person who is at least twenty-one (21) years old.
3. A married person at least twenty-one (21) years old who is legally separated from the other spouse.
4. In the case of a child born out of wedlock, its unmarried father or mother.

§ 60.4. Court and jurisdiction

Proceedings for adoption must be brought in the District Court, or any specially created court having jurisdiction where the petitioners reside. This act shall apply to Indian children present in Indian country within Cherokee Nation.

§ 60.5. Consent to adoption

Unless consent is not required by 10 CNCA § 60.6, an adoption of a child may be decreed when there has been filed written consent to adoption executed by:

1. Both parents, if living, or the surviving parent if one parent be deceased. Consent shall not be required from one whose parental rights have been judicially terminated. If the child is born out of wedlock, its parents, if sixteen (16) years of age or older, shall be deemed capable of giving consent. If the mother or father be below the age of sixteen (16), consent to the adoption shall be deemed sufficient if given by such mother or father before a Judge of the District Court, in writing, and if accompanied by the written consent of the legal guardian of the person of such parent. If such underage mother or father has no such guardian, the consent shall be accompanied by the written consent of his or her parents, but if one parent be deceased or the parents be divorced, then the written consent of the parent having the custody shall be deemed sufficient; if both parents of the underage mother or father be deceased, then the written consent of the person having his or her physical custody shall be deemed sufficient. If in any case consent cannot be secured from the person, other than the underage mother or father, authorized herein to give consent, notice by mailing shall be given by the Court, unless notice is waived by personal appearance, to such person or persons authorized herein to give consent, directing such person to show cause, at a time appointed by the Court, which shall be not less than ten (10) days from the date of mailing, why adoption should not be granted without that person's consent. If such person shall not appear to contest the adoption or if the Court should find that consent of such person is unreasonably withheld, the adoption may be granted without the consent of that person; or

2. The legal guardian of the person of the child or the guardian ad litem of the child if both parents are dead, or if the rights of the parents have been terminated by judicial proceedings, and such guardian or guardian ad litem has authority by order of the Court appointing him to consent to the adoption; or

3. Cherokee Nation if both parents are dead, or if the child has been relinquished for adoption to such agency, or if the rights of the parents have been judicially terminated and custody of the child has been legally vested in such agency with authority to consent to adoption of the child; or

4. Any person having legal custody of a child by court order if the parental rights of the parents have been judicially terminated, but in such case the court having jurisdiction of the custody of the child must consent to adoption, and a certified copy of its order shall be attached to the petition. The consent required by subparagraphs 1, 2 and 3 hereof, including the consent required by the parent, guardian or party having physical custody as required for mothers or fathers under sixteen (16) in subparagraph 1 hereof, shall be acknowledged before a Judge of the District Court or the judge of any specially created court having jurisdiction in adoption proceedings. Provided, that when the person whose consent is necessary does not reside in Cherokee Nation Indian country may execute such consent before a district judge of this state or probate judge or judge having adoption jurisdiction of any other state of the county of his residence. Provided, further, that when such consent for adoption is necessary for children in custody of Cherokee Nation, the Director of the appropriate department may designate, authorize, and direct in writing an employee of the Department to appear in the Court and to give written consent for the adoption of such child by the family whose application for adoption has been approved by the department. This provision shall apply to consents heretofore given as well as to those given after the approval of this act; or

5. In the event the person having the legal custody or the parents of a child desired to be adopted in this Nation reside in a country or place other than the United States of America, the consent of such person to the adoption may be obtained by a written instrument signed by such person and acknowledged before an officer of the legal subdivision of government of the place of his, her or their residence who is authorized to administer oaths under the laws of such country or place; or, when the party seeking to give such consent is a member of the United States Armed Services stationed in a country or place other than the United States, then such consent may be acknowledged before an officer of the Judge Advocate General's Office or other legal officer possessing the authority to administer oaths. Where consent is so obtained, it shall not be necessary for such person to appear before the District Court having jurisdiction of the adoption proceedings. If the written instrument containing such consent is written in any language other than the English language, the person adopting the child must have it translated into the English language by a person qualified so to do, and must file the original instrument together with the translation with the Court, and the translation must be sworn to as being a true and correct translation by the translator.

§ 60.5A. Medical history form to be completed for certain children—Contents—Filing

A. When ordered by the Court, any person required to consent to the adoption of a child pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 60.5 shall complete a medical history form which shall remain confidential pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 60.17 containing, as far as is ascertainable, the medical history of the child to be adopted, the medical history of the natural parents of the child, and the medical history of the natural grandparents of the child. Specifically, the form shall only contain information concerning:

1. the child, which shall include:

a. any medical or psychological evaluations, and

b. diseases, illnesses, accidents, allergies, and congenital defects; and

2. parents of the child, which shall include:

a. allergies, diseases, and illnesses, including but not limited to diabetes, high blood pressure, alcoholism, heart disease, venereal disease, and epilepsy, and

b. drugs taken and consumption of alcohol during the pregnancy of the mother; and

3. grandparents of the child, which shall include allergies, diseases, and illnesses including but not limited to high blood pressure, diabetes, heart disease, and epilepsy.

B. A copy of the medical history form shall be attached to the consent for adoption, or may be filed after the filing of the petition with the consent of the Court.

§ 60.6. Consent of parents—Exceptions

A child under eighteen (18) years of age cannot be adopted without the consent of its parents, if living, except that consent is not required from:

1. A parent whose parental rights have been terminated pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA §

29.1, 1130 or 1131; or

2. A parent who, for a period of twelve (12) months immediately preceding the filing of a petition for adoption of a child, has willfully failed, refused, or neglected to contribute to the support of such child:

a. in substantial compliance with a support provision contained in a decree of divorce, or a decree of separate maintenance or an order adjudicating responsibility to support in a reciprocal enforcement of support proceeding, paternity action, juvenile proceeding, guardianship proceeding, or orders of modification to such decree, or other lawful orders of support entered by a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating the duty, amount, and manner of support, or

b. according to such parent's financial ability to contribute to such child's support if no provision for support is provided in a decree of divorce or an order of modification subsequent thereto; or and where any of the above conditions exist it shall not be necessary to terminate parental rights under 10 CNCA § 1130 prior to the adoption of said child.

3. The father or putative father of a child born out of wedlock if:

a. prior to the hearing provided for in 10 CNCA § 29.1, and having actual knowledge of the birth or impending birth of the child believed to be his child, he fails to acknowledge paternity of the child or to take any action to legally establish his claim to paternity of the child or to exercise parental rights or duties over the child, including failure to contribute to the support of the mother of the child to the extent of his financial ability during her term of pregnancy, or

b. at the hearing provided for in 10 CNCA § 29.1:

i. he fails to prove that he is the father of the child, or

ii. having established paternity, he fails to prove that he has exercised parental rights and duties toward the child unless he proves that prior to the receipt of notice he had been specifically denied knowledge of the child or denied the opportunity to exercise parental rights and duties toward the child. As used in this subparagraph, specific denial of knowledge of the child or denial of the opportunity to exercise parental rights and duties toward the child shall not include those instances where the father or putative father fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Court that he made a sufficient attempt to discover if he had fathered the child or to exercise parental rights and duties toward the child prior to the receipt of notice, or

c. he waives in writing his right to notice of the hearing provided for in 10 CNCA § 29.1, or

d. he fails to appear at the hearing provided for in 10 CNCA § 29.1 if all notice requirements continued in or pursuant to 10 CNCA § 1131 have been met.

A determination that the consent of the father or putative father of a child born out of wedlock to the adoption of the child is not required shall not, by itself, act to relieve such father or putative father of his obligation to provide for the support of the child as otherwise required by law.

§ 60.7. Notice and hearing in cases of adoption without consent of parents—Procedure

A. Prior to a court hearing on a petition for adoption without the consent of a parent or parents, as provided for in 10 CNCA § 60.6, the consenting parent, legal guardian, or person having legal custody of the child to be adopted shall file an application stating the reason that the consent of the other parent or parents is not necessary. The application shall be heard by the Court and an order entered thereon in which said child is determined to be eligible for adoption pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 60.6.

B. Prior to a hearing on the application, notice shall be given the parent whose consent is alleged to be unnecessary. The notice of the application shall contain the name of each child for whom application for adoption is made, the date for hearing on the application, and the reason that said child is eligible for adoption without the consent of said parent. Notice shall be served upon said parent in the same manner as a summons is served in civil cases, not less than ten (10) days prior to the hearing. If said parent resides outside of the Nation, said notice shall be served upon said parent in the same manner as a summons is served in civil cases, not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing. If the location of said parent is not known and this fact is attested to by affidavit of the consenting parent, legal guardian, or person having legal custody of the child, notice by publication shall be given by publishing notice one (1) time in a newspaper qualified as a legal newspaper, pursuant to the laws relating to service of notice by publication, in the county where the petition for adoption is filed. The publication shall not be less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the hearing.

C. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to require notice to a parent whose parental rights have been previously terminated pursuant to 10 CNCA § 29.1, 1130 or 1131.

§ 60.7A. Court Clerk or Deputy may affix signature of Judge to order and notice of hearing

Whenever the Uniform Adoption Act requires that an order setting date of hearing and giving notice thereof be signed by a judge, the Chief Judge may by judicial order provide that such order or notice may be signed by the Court Clerk or his Deputy affixing his signature beneath the place where the Judge's name appears followed with the word "by" and then followed with the signing officer's title.

§ 60.9. Effect of act on prior adoptions

This act shall not invalidate any adoption heretofore granted by any court.

§ 60.10. Withdrawal of consent—Notice and hearing—Limitation

A. Withdrawal of any consent for adoption of a child pursuant to 10 CNCA § 60.5 shall not be permitted, except that the Court pursuant to the provisions of this section may, if it finds that the best interest of the child will be furthered thereby, issue a written order permitting the withdrawal of such consent if a petition for leave to withdraw consent is submitted in writing not later than thirty (30) days after consent was executed.

B. Notice of the petition to withdraw the consent and hearing on the petition to withdraw consent to the adoption shall be provided to:

1. the person who filed for adoption of the child;
2. any agency participating in the adoption; and
3. any person or agency in whose favor the consent was given.

The Court shall provide an opportunity to be heard to the person who has filed for adoption and to any agency participating in the adoption as to why the withdrawal of consent would not be in the best interest of the child.

C. The entry of the interlocutory or final decree of adoption renders any consent irrevocable.

Consent of the child, if twelve (12) years of age or over, shall be required. Such consent shall be given before the Court in such form as the Court shall direct.

§ 60.12. Petition for adoption

A. A petition for adoption shall be filed in duplicate, verified by the petitioners, and shall specify:

1. The full names, ages and places of residence of the petitioners and, if married, the place and date of the marriage.
2. When the petitioners acquired or intend to acquire custody of the child and from what person or agency.
3. The date and place of birth of the child and sex and race.
4. The name used for the child in the proceeding and, if a change in name is desired, the new name.
5. That it is the desire of the petitioners that the relationship of parent and child be established between them and the child.
6. A full description and statement of value of all property owned or possessed by the child, if any.
7. Facts, if any, which excuse consent on the part of the parents, or either of them, to the adoption.

8. The tribal membership or tribes in which the child may be eligible for membership.

B. Any written consent required by this act may be attached to the petition, or may be filed, after the filing of the petition, with the consent of the court.

§ 60.13. Investigations and reports

A. Upon the filing of a petition for adoption, the Court shall order or receive a preplacement investigation and report to be made by:

1. The agency having custody or legal guardianship of the child; or
2. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services; or
3. A licensed child-placing agency or certified adoption agency; or
4. A person qualified by training or experience, designated by the Court; or
5. Cherokee Nation.

B. The Court shall order that a report of such preplacement investigation be filed with the Court by the designated investigator within the time fixed by the Court and in no event more than sixty (60) days from the issuance of the order for preplacement investigation, unless time therefor is extended by the court.

C. The preplacement investigation shall include an appropriate inquiry to determine whether the proposed home is a suitable one for the child; and any other circumstances and conditions which may have a bearing on the adoption and of which the Court should have knowledge; and, in this entire matter of investigation, the Court is specifically authorized to exercise judicial knowledge and discretion.

D. A supplemental report including a determination as to the legal availability or status of the child for adoption shall be filed prior to the final adoption petition.

E. The Court may order agencies named in subsection (A) of this section located in one or more counties to make separate investigations on separate parts of the inquiry, as may be appropriate. Provided, that if the child petitioned to be adopted shall be the natural or adopted child of either of the petitioners then no investigation shall be made.

F. The report of such preplacement investigation shall become a part of the files in the case and shall contain a definite recommendation for or against the proposed adoption and the reasons therefor.

§ 60.14. Waiver of interlocutory decree and waiting period

If the child is related by blood to one of the petitioners, or is a stepchild of the petitioner, or the Court finds that the best interests of the child will be furthered thereby, the Court, after examination of the report required in 10 CNCA § 60.13, in its discretion, may waive the entry of an interlocutory decree and the waiting period of six (6) months provided in 10 CNCA § 60.15 and grant a final decree of adoption, if satisfied that the adoption is for the best interests of the child.

§ 60.15. Interlocutory decree—Hearing—Final decree

Upon examination of the report required in 10 CNCA § 60.13, and after hearing, the Court may issue an interlocutory decree giving the care and custody of the child to the petitioners, pending the further order of the Court. Thereafter the investigator shall observe the child in his proposed adoptive home and report in writing to the Court on any circumstances or conditions which may have a bearing on the granting of a final adoption decree. After six (6) months from the date of the interlocutory decree the petitioners may apply to the Court for a final decree of adoption. The Court shall thereupon set a time and place for final hearing. Notice of the time and date of the hearing shall be served on Cherokee Nation, in those cases where said Cherokee Nation has original custody, or the investigator. The investigator shall file with the court a written report of its findings and recommendations and certify that the required examination has been made since the granting of the interlocutory decree. After hearing on said application, at which the petitioners and the child shall appear unless the presence of the child is waived by the Court, the Court may enter a final decree of adoption, if satisfied that the adoption is for the best interests of the child.

A. After the final decree of adoption is entered, the relation of parent and child and all the rights, duties, and other legal consequences of the natural relation of child and parent shall thereafter exist between the adopted child and the adoptive parents of the child and the kindred of the adoptive parents. From the date of the final decree of adoption, the child shall be entitled to inherit real and personal property from and through the adoptive parents in accordance with the statutes of descent and distribution, and the adoptive parents shall be entitled to inherit real and personal property from and through the child in accordance with said statutes.

B. After a final decree of adoption is entered, the natural parents of the adopted child, unless they are the adoptive parents or the spouse of an adoptive parent, shall be relieved of all parental responsibilities for said child and shall have no rights over the adopted child or to his property by descent and distribution.

C. A grandparent, who is the parent of the child's natural parents, may be given reasonable rights of visitation to the child, pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 5.

§ 60.17. Confidential character of hearings and records—Release of medical history

A. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, all hearings held in proceedings pursuant to the Uniform Adoption Act shall be confidential and shall be held in closed court without admittance of any person other than interested parties and their counsel.

B. All papers and records including the original medical history forms pertaining to the adoption shall be kept as a permanent record of the Court and withheld from inspection except as otherwise provided by this section. No person shall have access to such records except upon order of the Judge of the Court in which the decree of adoption was entered, for good cause shown.

C. All files and records pertaining to said adoption proceedings shall be confidential and withheld from inspection except upon order of the Court for good cause shown. The adopted child may upon petition of the Court obtain his adoption records.

D. 1. Cherokee Nation, any certified adoption agency or any licensed child-placing agency having custody of a child who is legally available for adoption is authorized to release the medical history, available to the department or such agency, of the child, of the natural parents of the child and of the grandparents of the child to prospective parents of the adoptive child.

2. The release of any medical history of the natural parents of the child or the natural grandparents of the child shall be released in such a way that no person can be identified.

3. The medical history may include the information received pursuant to 10 CNCA § 60.5A or any other medical information or records regarding the child obtained by the department or agency during the custody of the child.

§ 60.18. Certificates

A. For each adoption or annulment of adoption, the Clerk of the Court shall prepare, within thirty (30) days after the decree becomes final, a certificate of such decree on a form furnished by the State Registrar of Vital Statistics, and before the 15th day of each calendar month the Clerk shall forward to the State Registrar the certificates prepared by him during the preceding calendar month, if adoptions in said court have been effected.

B. Deleted.

§ 60.19. Appeals

An appeal may be taken from any final order, judgment or decree rendered hereunder to the Supreme Court by any person aggrieved thereby, in the manner provided for appeals to said court in civil matters.

§ 60.20. Foreign decrees

When the relationship of parent and child has been created by a decree of adoption of a court of any other state or nation, the rights and obligations of the parties as to matters within the jurisdiction of this Nation shall be determined by 10 CNCA § 60.16.

§ 60.21. Adoption of adults

An adult person may be adopted by any other adult person, with the consent of the person to be adopted or his guardian, if the Court shall approve, and with the consent of the spouse, if any, of an adoptive parent, filed in writing with the Court. The provisions of 10 CNCA §§ 60.1 to 60.15, both inclusive, shall not apply to the adoption of a competent adult person. A petition therefor shall be filed with the District Court in the county where the adoptive parents reside. After a hearing on the petition and after such investigation as the Court deems advisable, if the Court finds that it is in the best interests of the people involved, a decree of adoption may be entered which shall have the legal consequences stated in 10 CNCA § 60.16.

PATERNITY

§ 100. Presumption that man is the natural father

A. Except as otherwise provided by 10 CNCA § 100.1, a man is presumed to be the natural father of a child for all intents and purposes if:

1. He and the child's natural mother are or have been married to each other and the child is born during the marriage, or within ten (10) months after the termination of the marriage by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, divorce or dissolution, or after a decree of separation is entered by a court. A child born before wedlock becomes legitimate by the subsequent marriage of his parents even if the marriage is, was or could be declared invalid. Any child born within the ten-month period specified in this subsection which is born during a subsequent marriage to another person shall be presumed to be the legitimate child of that subsequent marriage;
2. Before the child's birth, he and the child's natural mother have cohabitated and the child is born within ten (10) months after the termination of cohabitation. As used in this paragraph, the term cohabitation means the dwelling together continuously and habitually of a man and a woman who are in a private conjugal relationship not solemnized as a marriage according to law;
3. While the child is under the age of majority, he receives the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his natural child for a period of at least two (2) years;
4. The United States Immigration and Naturalization Service made or accepted a determination that he was the father of the child at the time of the child's entry into the United States and he had the opportunity at the time of the child's entry into the United States to admit or deny the paternal relationship; or
5. Statistical probability of paternity is established at ninety-five percent (95%) or more by scientifically reliable genetic tests, including but not limited to blood tests.

B. The presumption of paternity created pursuant to this section may be disputed pursuant to 10

CNCA § 101.

§ 100.1. Additional presumption of paternity

A child shall be presumed to be the offspring of the putative father if:

1. The father, in writing, signed in the presence of a competent witness acknowledges himself to be the father of the child;
2. The father and mother intermarried subsequent to the child's birth, and the father, after such marriage, acknowledged the child as his own or adopted him into his family;
3. The father publicly acknowledged such child as his own, receiving it as such, with the consent of his wife, if he is married, into his family and otherwise treating it as if it were a child born in wedlock; or
4. The father was judicially determined to be such in a paternity proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 101. Persons entitled to dispute presumption; proof of illegitimacy; time limit

A. The presumption of paternity created pursuant to 10 CNCA § 100 may be disputed only by the husband or wife, the putative father or their descendants. Paternity may be established pursuant to 10 CNCA § 104.

B. If a child is born during the course of the marriage and is reared by the husband and wife as a member of their family without disputing the child's legitimacy for a period of at least two (2) years, the presumption cannot be disputed by anyone.

§ 103. Death of custodial parent; custody of child

The question of custody of a minor child upon the death of the custodial parent shall always be based upon what is in the best interests of the minor child.

§ 104. Natural mother of child—Establishment of paternity

A. Except as otherwise provided by law, a woman who gives birth to a child is the natural mother of the child.

B. Paternity may be established by:

1. Completion of the affidavit acknowledging paternity, provided by the Division of Child Support Services, by the father and mother. A statement acknowledging paternity shall have the same legal effect as an order of paternity entered in a court or administrative proceeding.

a. The statement may be rescinded by the mother or acknowledging father within the earlier of:

- i. sixty (60) days after the statement is signed by making a motion to the District Court requesting an order rescinding the affidavit on the same grounds as subsection (B)(1)(a)(2) of this section; or
- ii. the date of an administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the child, including but not limited to a proceeding to establish a support order, in which the signatory is a party.

After the sixty- (60) day period referred to in division (1) of this subparagraph, a signed voluntary acknowledgment of paternity may be challenged in Court only on the basis of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact, with the burden of proof upon the challenger. Legal responsibilities, including but not limited to child support obligations, of any signatory arising from the acknowledgment shall not be suspended during the challenge, except for good cause shown.

This subparagraph shall not be interpreted to authorize the rescission of an acknowledgement of paternity if such rescission would be prohibited under applicable federal law.

b. i. If the mother was married at the time of conception or birth, and her husband is not the natural father of the child, the husband may sign a husband's denial of paternity form, which must be filed along with the affidavit acknowledging paternity.

ii. The husband's denial of paternity form shall be prescribed by the Division of Child Support Services and made available at the same locations as the affidavit acknowledging paternity;

2. Scientifically reliable genetic tests, including but not limited to blood tests;

3. District or Administrative Court order; or

4. As otherwise provided by law.

C. 1. If the person signing the acknowledgment of paternity is determined in an administrative or judicial proceeding not to be the father of the child, on the basis of fraud, duress or material mistake of fact pursuant to subsection (B) of this section, the Division of Child Support Services or the Court shall dismiss any pending court or administrative collection proceedings against the father and the father will be released from any Court-ordered or Division-ordered payments for the support and maintenance of the child.

2. The State Registrar of Vital Statistics shall remove the name of the person listed as the father from the birth certificate upon notice from the Division that such person has been judicially or administratively determined not to be the father. Once paternity is established, the State Registrar of Vital Statistics shall correct its records and amend the birth certificate to reflect the father's name.

D. Proceedings to establish paternity must be brought in the District Court. Proceedings may be brought by the mother, father, guardian, or custodian of the child, the Division, the prosecutor, a public or private agency or authority chargeable with the support of the child, or by the child. The Court, after determining paternity in a civil action, may, at the discretion of the Court, enter an order providing for the support and maintenance of the child. The social security numbers of both parents and the child shall be included on the summary of support order form provided for in 43 CNCA § 515 which shall be submitted to the Central Case Registry as provided for in 43 CNCA § 502. The District Court may further make provision for custody and visitation based upon the best interests of the child.

E. An action to establish paternity shall be available to a child if commenced prior to the child attaining the age of eighteen (18) years or within one (1) year after the child reaches the age of eighteen (18).

§ 105. Petition—Verification—Jurisdiction

If a woman is delivered of a child, or is pregnant with a child, and the paternity of said child is not determined, a petition may be filed, in writing duly verified by any person, to the District Court stating that fact and charging the proper person with being the father thereof if that person is a citizen of Cherokee Nation or in the case of a non-citizen Indian or a non-Indian, if the case arose within the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation and the child in question is an enrolled citizen of Cherokee Nation or is eligible for enrollment as a citizen of Cherokee Nation. The death of the mother shall not abate an action which is brought under this section, and it will not prevent the bringing of an action for the support of the child.

§ 105.1. Notice to Registrar

In all actions to determine the paternity of a child, or of a person younger than age nineteen (19) in accordance with 10 CNCA § 104(E), that would affect the citizenship rolls of Cherokee Nation, notice must be served on the Cherokee Nation Registrar at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the hearing on the petition. Proof of that notice must be filed with the District Court prior to any hearing on the petition for determination of paternity. However, this section shall not apply to paternity actions brought by Cherokee Nation.

§ 106. Trial of issues of paternity, support, custody and visitation—Burden of proof and procedure

The issues of paternity, support, custody and visitation shall be tried before a Judge of the District Court and the petitioning party shall bear the burden of proof. The Court shall not make a determination of paternity unless the preponderance of the evidence supports said determination.

§ 107. Court order determining paternity

When the paternity petition is filed, the Court shall order the defendant to appear and show cause why the Court should not determine him to be the father. If the defendant fails to appear, the Court shall upon the findings of the Judge enter an order determining paternity. If the defendant appears and does not admit paternity, then the Court shall enter at that time an order directing genetic testing to determine paternity. No finding of paternity shall be made by the Court unless service has been made upon the named defendant(s) in accordance with the laws of Cherokee Nation.

§ 108. Court may enlarge, diminish or vacate order or judgment

If the accused be found guilty, he shall be charged with the maintenance of the child in such sum or sums, and in such manner as the Court shall direct, and with the costs of the suit and execution may issue, immediately, and afterwards from time to time for the collection of any sum or sums ordered to be paid, and in addition thereto the Court shall require the defendant to secure the performance of the order of the Court, in such manner as the Court shall direct, and the Court shall have power to punish, as for contempt, any disobedience by the defendant of an order of the Court issued under this section.

§ 109. Appeals

Appeals may be taken in cases brought under the provisions of this chapter, in the same manner and with like effect as in other actions in the District Court.

§ 110. Father's liability to support and educate child

A. An individual who has been legally determined to be the father of a child pursuant to 10 CNCA § 104, or an individual who has been judicially determined to be the father of a child is liable for the support and education of the child to the same extent as the father of a child born in wedlock.

B. 1. An action to enforce the obligation of support, maintenance, and education may be brought by the mother or custodian or guardian of the child, by the public authority chargeable with the support of the child, or by the child.

2. An action to determine paternity and to enforce this obligation may be brought any time before the eighteenth (18th) birthday of the child.

3. If paternity has been legally determined pursuant to 10 CNCA § 104, or judicially determined, Court-ordered child support is not subject to any statute of limitations and an action to enforce the obligation may be brought at any time and the support in question is owed until paid.

4. The father's obligation to support is terminated if the child is adopted.

5. The Court may order the payments made to the mother or custodian or guardian of the child, or to some other person, corporation or agency to administer under the supervision of the Court.

C. An individual who has been legally determined to be the father of a child pursuant to 10 CNCA § 104, or an individual who has been judicially or administratively determined to be the father of a child shall be ordered to pay all or a portion of the reasonable expenses of providing for the child provided that liability for support provided before the determination of paternity shall be imposed for five (5) years preceding the filing of the action, absent good cause to deviate. The amount to be paid by the father shall be determined by applying the child support guidelines for establishing current support and applying the amount of the reasonable expenses against the percentage derived from the guidelines. No interest shall be applied to this amount retroactively.

D. The amount of child support and other support including amounts provided for in 10 CNCA § 110(C) shall be ordered and reviewed in accordance with the child support guidelines provided in 43 CNCA § 514.

E. 1. When a civil or administrative action is filed to determine paternity of a minor child, an interested party may request the Court to enter a temporary order for support of the child pending a final determination of paternity. The application for temporary support shall set forth facts supporting the application and shall be verified by the party or entity seeking the order. The application and notice of hearing shall be served as in other civil cases.

2. After service of the application and opportunity for hearing, the Court shall enter a temporary order for support if the Court finds there is clear and convincing evidence of paternity, including, but not limited to:

a. a genetic test which establishes a rebuttable or conclusive presumption of paternity pursuant to 10 CNCA § 121;

b. a notarized written statement acknowledging paternity of the child executed by the putative father;

c. a presumption of paternity pursuant to 10 CNCA § 100; or

d. other evidence which establishes a high probability of paternity.

3. Temporary orders for support shall be established in accordance with the child support guidelines pursuant to 43 CNCA § 514. A temporary support order terminates when a final judgment is entered which establishes support or when the action is dismissed. A temporary support order shall not be retroactively modified, but it may be modified prospectively before final judgment upon motion of an interested party and a showing of facts supporting a modification.

§ 111. Repealed by LA 20–07, eff. April 23, 2007

§ 112. Persons eligible to bring paternity actions

A. The mother, putative father, guardian or custodian of the child, the Division of Child Support Services, a public or private agency or authority chargeable with the support of the child, or the child may bring an action in a civil proceeding in District Court or by an administrative action through the Division of Child Support Services, to determine paternity and the amount of child support due and owing for the maintenance of the child.

B. Venue of an action to determine the paternity of a child pursuant to this section shall be, at the option of the plaintiff, in either the District Court in Tahlequah or the closest site of a Cherokee Nation child support enforcement court docket.

C. A Court may exercise personal jurisdiction over a person, whether or not a resident of Cherokee Nation, who is the subject of a paternity action. When a person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court is outside Cherokee Nation, the person may be served outside of Cherokee Nation by any method that is authorized by the statutes of this Nation.

D. The petition shall be verified as true by the affidavit of the plaintiff. A summons may be issued thereon and shall be served or publication made as in other civil cases.

E. The practice, pleading, and proceedings in such action shall conform to the rules prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

F. If the defendant fails to answer the petition of the plaintiff or appear for show cause hearing, then the Court shall proceed to determine issues of paternity, support, custody and visitation if service on the defendant was made pursuant to the Cherokee Nation Code.

G. Attorneys for the Division of Child Support Services may appear or initiate an action brought under this section on behalf of:

1. A recipient of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families; or
2. A person not receiving Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, including but not limited to the putative father, upon the request of such person and proper application pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the Division.

H. In a proceeding brought under subsection (G) of this section by the Division of Child Support Services, the Court may, and unless it is not in the best interests of the child, shall, limit the issues in that proceeding to issues of paternity and support, unless issues of custody and visitation are specifically and affirmatively pled by the father. All contested issues of custody and visitation shall be addressed by the District Court.

§ 113. Joinder of sexual partners as defendants—Genetic testing—Determination of paternity

A. All persons who have had sexual intercourse with a woman during the possible time of conception of a child for whom paternity is not determined may be joined as defendants in an action to determine the paternity of the child.

B. When more than one defendant is named or joined in a paternity action, the Court shall order all defendants to appear. The Court shall order genetic testing of all defendants who are duly served, including defendants who fail to answer or appear. The Court may order the mother, the child, or other individuals necessary to make a determination of paternity to submit to genetic testing.

C. 1. When genetic testing indicates a probability of paternity greater than ninety-eight percent (98%) for a specific defendant pursuant to 10 CNCA § 121, the Court shall enter an order establishing that defendant as the father.

2. If a duly served defendant fails to answer, or to appear for hearing or genetic testing after being ordered to appear, and all other duly served defendants have been excluded as possible fathers by genetic testing, the Court shall enter an order establishing the defendant who failed to answer or appear as the father.

3. If one or more defendants fail to appear for genetic testing after being ordered to appear for testing, the Court may proceed to determine paternity and related issues based upon competent testimony and genetic test results, if any.

D. The Court has the authority to enforce a subpoena or order to appear or to submit to genetic testing, or any other order entered pursuant to this section.

E. After paternity is determined by the Court, the Court shall dismiss the paternity action against the other defendants.

F. No judgment shall be entered against the defendant who has not been properly served.

§ 113.1. Effect of failure to appear or answer—Presumptions

Any administrative or court order of any jurisdiction determining the paternity of a child which is entered due to the failure to appear or answer by the alleged father and in which no presumption of paternity exists in accordance with 10 CNCA § 100 or 100.1, and which is not supported by genetic testing meeting the requirements of 10 CNCA § 121, shall not be used as the sole basis for eligibility for citizenship in Cherokee Nation.

§ 114. Costs and attorney fees

In an action to determine paternity brought pursuant to 10 CNCA § 100 et seq., the Court may award and tax fees and costs, and apportion them between the parties as justice dictates.

§ 115. Changing child's name to paternal surname

A. At any time after a determination of paternity, the mother, father, custodian or guardian of the child may file a motion requesting the Court to order that the surname of the child be changed to the surname of its father. The Court shall thereafter set a hearing on said motion. Notice of the filing of the motion and the date of the hearing shall be served by process on all parties.

B. If, after said hearing, the Judge finds that it is in the best interest of the child to bear the paternal surname, the Court shall enter an order to that effect which shall include findings of fact as to each issue raised by the parties.

C. The practice, pleading, and proceedings as set forth in this section shall conform to the applicable rules prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

§ 116. Authority of District Court

In all cases of paternity and for arrearage of child support, the District Court shall make inquiry to determine if the noncustodial parent has been denied reasonable visitation. If reasonable visitation has been denied by the custodial parent to the noncustodial parent, the District Court shall include visitation provisions in the support order.

§ 117. Preparation of birth certificate—Acknowledgement of paternity

A. Unless an adoption decree has been presented, and consent to adoption has been given as otherwise provided by law, upon the birth of a child to an unmarried woman, the person required by the State of Oklahoma, under 63 O.S. § 1–311, to prepare and file an Oklahoma birth certificate shall:

1. Provide written materials and an oral, audio, or video presentation to the child's mother and/or natural father including an affidavit acknowledging paternity on a form prescribed by the Division of Child Support Enforcement. The completed affidavit shall be filed with the District Court. The affidavit shall contain:

a. a statement by the mother consenting to the assertion of paternity and stating the name of the father,

b. a statement by the father that he is the natural father of the child,

c. the social security numbers of both parents, and

d. other information as the Secretary of Health and Human Services may require;

2. Provide written information, furnished by the Division of Child Support Enforcement, along with an oral, audio, or video presentation to the mother:

a. explaining that the completed, notarized affidavit shall be filed with the District Court,

b. regarding the benefits of having her child's paternity established and of the availability of paternity establishment services, including a request for support enforcement services, and

c. explaining the implications of signing, including parental rights and responsibilities; and

3. Provide the original affidavit acknowledging paternity to the Office of the State Registrar of Vital Statistics. Copies of the original affidavit acknowledging paternity shall be provided to the Division of Child Support Enforcement and to the mother and acknowledged father of the child.

B. The Division of Child Support Enforcement shall make the affidavits acknowledging paternity and the husband's denial of paternity forms available at each office of the Division.

C. A person signing an affidavit of paternity prior to attaining the age of 18 years shall be allowed to challenge said affidavit in Cherokee Nation District Court. A petition challenging the paternity affidavit must be filed by the person who acknowledged paternity prior to his nineteenth birthday. A challenge must be supported by DNA testing and the standard for proving paternity shall be the same as that found in 10 CNCA § 121.

§ 118. Authority for test

In a civil action in which paternity is a relevant fact and at issue, the Court shall order the mother, child and putative father to submit to genetic testing. If any party refuses to submit to such tests, the Court may resolve the question of paternity against such party or enforce its order if the rights of others and the interests of justice so require unless such individual is found to have good cause for refusing to cooperate.

§ 119. Selection of experts

The tests shall be made by experts qualified as examiners of genetic markers in the human body. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the experts may be called by the Court or by a party as witnesses to testify as to their findings and shall be subject to cross-examination by the parties. Any party may request that additional experts qualified as examiners of genetic markers in the human body perform independent tests subject to order of Court, the results of which may be offered in evidence. The number and qualifications of the experts shall be determined by the Court. A party requesting additional testing shall be responsible for the costs of the additional testing.

§ 120. Compensation of expert witnesses

A. The compensation of each expert witness appointed by the Court or called by a party and costs of tests required shall be fixed at reasonable amounts by the Court. Said compensation and costs shall be paid as the Court shall order. The Court may order that said compensation and costs be paid by the parties in such proportions and at such times as it shall prescribe. All additional testing must be paid for in advance by the party requesting the additional test. The Court may order that, after payment by the parties, said compensation and costs may be taxed as costs in the action.

B. The Court shall not assess costs against the Office of Child Support Enforcement.

§ 121. Effect of test results

A. Evidence which shows a statistical probability of paternity is admissible and shall be weighed in addition to other evidence of the paternity of the child. Evidence which shows a statistical probability of paternity may include but is not limited to medical, scientific, or genetic evidence relating to the paternity of the child based on tests performed by said experts.

B. If the Court finds that the evidence based upon the medical, scientific, and genetic tests, shows that the defendant is not the parent of the child, said evidence shall be conclusive proof of nonpaternity and the Court shall dismiss the action.

C. Evidence of statistical probability of paternity established at ninety-five percent (95%) or more creates a presumption of paternity. Said presumption is rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence admitted on behalf of the defendant.

D. Evidence of statistical probability of paternity established at ninety-eight percent (98%) or more creates a conclusive presumption of paternity.

E. The party receiving the copy of the genetic test results from the Court-appointed expert shall send all parties a copy of the genetic test results by certificate of mailing to the last-known address of the parties.

F. Any objection to genetic testing results must be made in writing within fifteen (15) days from the date of mailing of the genetic test results, and any hearing on the issue of paternity may not be held any sooner than fifteen (15) days after filing of objection to genetic test. If no objection is filed within the specified time, the genetic testing results will be admitted as evidence of paternity without the need for foundation testimony or other proof of authenticity or accuracy.

§ 122. Effect on presumption of legitimacy

Except as otherwise provided by law, presumption of legitimacy of a child born during wedlock is overcome if the Court finds that the conclusions of all the experts, as disclosed by the evidence based upon the tests, show that the husband is not the father of the child.

§ 123. Applicability to criminal actions

The genetic testing provisions shall also apply to criminal cases, subject to the following limitations and provisions:

1. An order for the tests shall be made on the application of a defendant or the Nation;
2. The compensation of the experts appointed by the Court shall be paid from the Court fund;
3. The Court may direct a verdict of acquittal upon the conclusions of all the experts under the provisions of 10 CNCA § 121, but otherwise the case shall be submitted for determination upon all the evidence.

CHAPTER 51

DELINQUENT, DEPENDENT AND NEGLECTED CHILDREN

ARTICLE I. DEPENDENT AND DELINQUENT CHILDREN

When used in this title, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Adjudicatory hearing" means a hearing to determine whether the allegations of a petition alleging the child to be neglected, deprived, in need of supervision, delinquent, or in need of treatment pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1103 are supported by the evidence and whether a child should be adjudged to be a ward of the Court.

2. "Child" means any person under eighteen (18) years of age, except for any person sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years of age and a member of an Indian tribe or eligible for membership in an Indian tribe who is charged with any crime specified in 10 CNCA § 1104.2(A), or who has been certified as an adult pursuant to 10 CNCA § 1112; provided that any person under eighteen (18) years of age who is not convicted after being charged with a crime pursuant to 10 CNCA § 1104.2, or who is not convicted after certification as an adult pursuant to 10 CNCA § 1112, shall continue to be subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

3. "Child in need of supervision" means a child who:

a. has repeatedly disobeyed reasonable and lawful commands or directives of his parent, legal guardian, or other custodian; or

b. is willfully and voluntarily absent from his home without the consent of his parent, legal guardian, or other custodian for a substantial length of time or without intent to return; or

c. is willfully and voluntarily absent from school for fifteen (15) or more days or parts of days within a semester or four (4) or more days or parts of days within a four-week period without a valid excuse as defined by the local school boards, if said child is subject to compulsory school attendance.

4. "Child in need of treatment" means a child who has a demonstrable mental illness and as a result of that mental illness:

a. can be expected within the near future to intentionally or unintentionally seriously physically injure himself or another person and has engaged in one or more recent overt acts or made significant recent threats which substantially support that expectation; or

b. is unable to attend to those of his basic needs that must be attended to in order for him to avoid serious harm in the near future and has demonstrated such inability by failing to attend to those basic needs in the recent past. A determination regarding the ability of the child to attend to his basic needs shall be based upon the age of the child and reasonable and appropriate expectation of the abilities of a child of such age to attend to said needs.

The term "child in need of treatment" shall not mean a child afflicted with epilepsy, developmental disability, organic brain syndrome, physical handicaps, brief periods of intoxication caused by such substances as alcohol or drugs or who is truant or sexually active unless the child also meets the criteria for a child in need of treatment pursuant to paragraphs 1 or 2 of this subsection.

5. "Community-based" means a facility, program or service, or open group home or other suitable place located near the home or family of the child, and programs of community supervision and service which maintain community participation in their planning, operation, and evaluation. These programs may include but are not limited to medical, educational, vocational, social, and psychological guidance, training, counseling, alcoholism treatment, drug treatment, and other rehabilitative services.

6. "Community residential center" means a residential facility for no more than twenty (20) children which offers a range of services including personal and social services, and emphasizes normal group living, school attendance, securing employment, and general participation in the community.

7. "DHS" means the Oklahoma Department of Human Services.

8. "Day treatment" means a program which provides intensive services to children who reside in their own home, the home of a relative, or a foster home. Day treatment programs include educational services and may be operated as a part of a residential facility.

9. "Delinquent child" means a child who:

a. has violated any federal, state, or tribal law or municipal ordinance, except a traffic statute or traffic ordinance, or any lawful order of the court made pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1101 et seq.; or

b. has habitually violated traffic laws or traffic ordinances.

10. "Deprived child" means a child:

a. who is for any reason destitute, homeless, or abandoned; or

b. who does not have the proper parental care or guardianship or whose home is an unfit place for the child by reason of neglect, cruelty, or depravity on the part of his parents, legal guardian, or other person in whose care the child may be; or

c. who is a child in need of special care and treatment because of his physical or mental condition including a child born in a condition of dependence on a controlled dangerous substance, and his parents, legal guardian, or other custodian is unable or willfully fails to provide said special care and treatment; or

d. who is a handicapped child deprived of the nutrition necessary to sustain life or of the medical treatment necessary to remedy or relieve a life-threatening medical condition in order to cause or allow the death of said child if such nutrition or medical treatment is generally provided to similarly situated nonhandicapped or handicapped children, provided that no medical treatment is necessary if, in the reasonable medical judgment of the attending physician, such treatment would be futile in saving the life of the child; or

e. who is, due to improper parental care and guardianship, absent from school for fifteen (15) or more days or parts of days within a semester or four (4) or more days or parts of days within a four- (4) week period without a valid excuse as defined by the local school boards if said child is subject to compulsory school attendance; or

f. whose parent or legal custodian for good cause desires to be relieved of his custody; or

g. who is a subsequent child born to a parent whose parental rights to any other child has been terminated by the Court; provided, that the applicant shall show that the condition which led to the making of the finding which resulted in the termination of such parent's parental rights to the other child has not been corrected.

No child who, in good faith, is being provided with treatment and care by spiritual means alone in accordance with the tenets and practice of a recognized church, religious denomination, traditional healing or medicine or other religious organization by a recognized practitioner thereof shall be considered, for that reason alone, to be a deprived child pursuant to any provision of this article. The phrase dependent and neglected shall be deemed to mean deprived.

11. "Dispositional hearing" means a hearing to determine the order of disposition which should be made with respect to a child adjudged to be a ward of the Court.

12. "Emergency youth shelter" means a temporary residential care facility which provides a range of services including counseling, crisis intervention, referrals, educational services, the maximum stay of which is thirty (30) days.

13. "Facility" means a place, an institution, a building or part thereof, a set of buildings, or an area whether or not enclosing a building or set of buildings which is used for the lawful custody and treatment of juveniles and may be owned or operated by a public or private agency or contracted by the Nation.

14. "Group home" means a residential facility housing no more than twelve children with a program which emphasizes family-style living in a homelike environment. Said group home may also offer a program within the community to meet the specialized treatment needs of its residents.

15. "Handicapped child" means any child who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of the major life activities of the child or who is regarded as having such an impairment by a competent medical professional.

16. "Independent" means that the person or persons performing a mental health examination and submitting a report to the Court pursuant to the provisions of this title has no financial interests in or other connections to or relationships with a facility in which the child will be placed for inpatient mental health services that would constitute a conflict of interest, and has signed an affidavit to that effect.

17. "Institution" means a residential facility offering care and treatment for more than twenty (20) residents. Said institution may:

- a. have a program which includes community participation and community-based services; or
- b. be a secure facility with a program exclusively designed for a particular category of resident.

18. "Less restrictive alternative to inpatient mental health care and treatment" means and shall include but not be limited to: outpatient counseling services, including services provided in the home of the child and which may be referred to as "home-based services"; day treatment or day hospitalization services; respite care; foster care; group home care that provides for the delivery of services specifically designed to meet the treatment needs of children in need of treatment; or some combination thereof.

19. "Mental health examination" and "mental health evaluation" means an examination or evaluation of a child by a qualified mental health professional for the purpose of making a determination or preparing reports or recommendations as to whether, in the opinion of the qualified mental health professional:

- a. the child is a child in need of treatment and the least restrictive treatment necessary and appropriate for the child; or
- b. the child is not a child in need of treatment, and the mental health services, if any, necessary and appropriate for the child.

20. "Mental health facility" means:

- a. a facility or program operated by Cherokee Nation, the Indian Health Service or the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services or a facility or program operated by a private agency which offers outpatient or residential care and treatment services to children in need of treatment including but not limited to public or private hospitals, institutions, or agencies, comprehensive mental health centers, clinics, satellites, day treatment facilities, halfway homes, and group homes; or
- b. a child guidance center operated by the State Department of Health; or
- c. a facility or program operated by the Oklahoma Department of Human Services and designated by the Department to be a mental health treatment center for children in the custody of the

21. "Preliminary inquiry" or "intake" means a mandatory, preadjudicatory interview of the child and, if available, his parents, legal guardian, or other custodian, which is performed by a duly authorized individual to determine whether a child comes within the purview of this chapter, whether other nonadjudicatory alternatives are available and appropriate, and if the filing of a petition is necessary.

22. "Qualified mental health professional" means an individual having specific training and current experience in the mental health testing, examination, evaluation and diagnosis of children and adolescents and who:

a. holds at least a master's degree in a mental health field; and

b. has been awarded a current, valid Oklahoma license in a mental health field or permission to practice by a licensure board in a mental health field. For the purpose of this paragraph, "mental health field" means medicine, psychology, counseling and guidance, applied behavioral studies, human relations or social work.

23. "Prescreening mental health evaluation" means a face-to-face examination of a child by a qualified mental health professional to determine whether the child should be admitted to a hospital or inpatient mental health facility on an emergency psychiatric basis as provided by 10 CNCA § 5.

24. "Rehabilitative facility" means a facility maintained by the state exclusively for the care, education, training, treatment, and rehabilitation of children in need of supervision.

25. "Secure facility" means a facility which is designed and operated to ensure that all entrances and exits from the facility are subject to the exclusive control of the staff of the facility, whether or not the person being detained has freedom of movement within the perimeter of the facility, or a facility which relies on locked rooms and buildings, fences, or physical restraint in order to control behavior of its residents.

26. "Treatment center" means a facility for the care, education, training, treatment, and rehabilitation of children who are in the custody of Cherokee Nation and who have been found by the Court to be in need of treatment.

§ 1102. Jurisdiction of District Court—Transfer or consolidation of proceedings

A. Upon the filing of a petition, or upon the assumption of custody pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1107, the District Court shall have jurisdiction of any Indian child who is or is alleged to be delinquent, in need of supervision, in need of treatment, or deprived, who is found within Indian country within Cherokee Nation; and of the parent, guardian or legal custodian of said child, regardless of where the parent, guardian or legal custodian is found. When jurisdiction shall have been obtained over a child in need of supervision, a child in need of treatment, or a deprived child, such may be retained until the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age and when jurisdiction shall have been obtained over a delinquent child, jurisdiction may be retained until the child becomes nineteen (19) years of age. For the convenience of the parties and in the interest of justice, a proceeding under this chapter may be transferred to the district court in any other jurisdiction.

B. The District Court in which a petition is filed or the district court in which custody has been assumed pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1107 may retain jurisdiction of a delinquent child in such proceeding notwithstanding the fact that the child is subject to the jurisdiction of another court. Any adjudication and disposition made by the Court in which said petition is filed shall control over prior orders in regard to the child.

C. The District Court in which a petition is filed which alleges that a child is in need of supervision, in need of treatment, or is deprived can issue any temporary order or grant any interlocutory relief authorized by this chapter notwithstanding the fact that another court has jurisdiction of the child or has jurisdiction to determine the custody or support of the child.

D. If the District Court in which a petition is filed pursuant to either subsection (B) or subsection (C) of this section sustains the petition, the District Court shall have the jurisdiction to make a final determination on the juvenile petition or to transfer the proceedings to a court having prior jurisdiction over the child.

§ 1102.1. Transfer of issues regarding child to juvenile docket for preliminary inquiry and determination

Where the evidence in an action for a divorce, for alimony without a divorce, for an annulment, for custody of a child or for the appointment of a guardian of the person of a child, or in subsequent proceedings in such actions, indicates that a child is deprived or in need of supervision, the Court, after proper notice, shall transfer the issues in regard to the child to the juvenile docket of the Court for preliminary inquiry and determination.

§ 1103. Preliminary inquiry—Verified petition—Contents—Filing by Prosecuting Attorney

A. The Court may provide by rule who shall make a preliminary inquiry to determine whether the interests of the public or of the child who is within the purview of this chapter require that further court action be taken. If it is determined that no further action be taken, said person or the Court may make such informal adjustment as is practicable without a petition.

B. A petition in a juvenile proceeding may be filed by the Prosecuting Attorney or the person who is authorized to make a preliminary inquiry to determine if further action is necessary. The proceeding shall be entitled:

"In the matter of ____, an alleged (delinquent) (deprived) child or (a child alleged to be in need of supervision) or (a child alleged to be in need of treatment)".

The petition shall be verified and may be upon information and belief. It shall set forth (1) with particularity facts which bring the child within the purview of 10 CNCA § 1101; (2) the name, age and residence of the child; (3) the names and residences of his parents; (4) the name and residence of his legal guardian, if there be one; (5) the name and residence of the person or persons having custody or control of the child; (6) the name and residence of the nearest known relative, if no parent or guardian can be found; (7) the relief requested; and (8) the specific law or ordinance under which the child is charged, and an endorsement of witnesses intended to be called by the petitioner, where the child is sought to be adjudged a delinquent child under 10 CNCA § 1101. If a termination of parental rights is desired, it must be stated in the petition and summons, and if an order for the payment of funds for the care and maintenance of the child is desired, it must be stated in the petition and summons. If any of the facts herein required are not known by the petitioner, the petition shall so state, along with the reasons why said facts are not known to petitioner.

C. A petition alleging a child to be a child in need of treatment shall be filed by a prosecuting attorney and may be filed by a prosecuting attorney only after receipt and review of a report of a mental health examination of the child by an independent qualified mental health professional.

D. Nothing in this section shall prevent the filing of a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of treatment and delinquent, in need of supervision or deprived.

E. A copy of the petition shall be attached to and delivered with the summons.

§ 1103.1. Amendment of petition

A. No pleading subsequent to the petition is required, and the filing of any motion or pleading shall not delay the holding of the adjudicatory hearing.

B. A petition may be amended by order of the Court at any time before an order of adjudication has been made, provided that the Court shall grant the parties such additional time to prepare as may be required to insure a full and fair hearing. A petition shall be deemed to have been amended to conform to the proof where the proof does not change the substance of the act, omission or circumstance alleged. However, the Court may not amend the adjudicatory category prayed for in the petition.

§ 1104. Summons—Contents—Service—Taking child into custody—Arrest warrant

A. After a petition shall have been filed, unless the parties hereinafter named shall voluntarily appear, a summons shall be issued which shall recite briefly the nature of the proceeding with the phrase "as described more fully in the attached petition" and requiring the person or persons who have the custody or control of the child to appear personally and bring the child before the Court at a time and place stated. The summons shall state the relief requested, and shall set forth the right of the child, parents and other interested parties to have an attorney present at the hearing on the petition.

B. The summons shall be served on the person who has actual custody of the child, and if the child has reached the age of twelve (12) years a copy shall be served on the child. If the person who has actual custody of the child shall be other than a parent or guardian of the child, a copy of the summons shall be served on the parent or guardian, or both, as hereinafter provided. A copy of the summons shall be served on each parent. If no parent or guardian can be found, a summons shall be served on such other person or persons as the Court shall designate. Provided that, upon a hearing the Court may find that no notice is required to a parent under the following circumstances:

1. The parent does not have custody of the child and has never established or has not maintained a substantial relationship with the child nor manifested a significant interest in the child for a period of not less than one (1) year preceding the filing of the petition; or

2. The parent does not have custody of the child and has willfully failed to contribute to the support of the child as provided in a decree of divorce or in some other court order during the year preceding the filing of the petition, or in the absence of such order, consistent with the parent's means and earning capacity.

Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any other person whose presence is necessary.

C. If it subsequently appears that a person who should have been served was not served and has not entered an appearance, the Court shall immediately order the issuance of a summons which shall be served on said person.

D. If after a petition has been filed, it appears that the child is in such condition or surroundings that his welfare requires that his custody be immediately assumed by the Court, the Judge may immediately issue a detention order or warrant authorizing the taking of said child into custody.

E. In a delinquency proceeding, whenever a warrant for the arrest of a child shall issue, it shall state the offense the child is being charged with having committed; in a child in need of supervision proceeding, whenever a warrant for detention of a child shall issue, it shall state the reason for detention. Warrants for the arrest or detention of a child shall comport with all other requirements of issuance of arrest warrants for adult criminal offenders.

§ 1104.1. Filing petition when child taken into custody—Time—Order to remove child from home

A. Where a child has been taken into custody under any provision of 10 CNCA § 1101 et seq., before a petition has been filed, a petition shall be filed and a summons issued within five (5) judicial days from the date of such assumption of custody, or custody of the child shall be relinquished to his parent, guardian or other legal custodian, unless otherwise provided for herein.

B. Where a child has been taken into custody and upon allegations of cruelty on the part of the parents, guardian or other person having custodial care of the child, the five- (5) day limitation herein shall not cause the child to be relinquished to such parent, guardian or other legal custodian. In all such cases, the Court shall determine whether the petition was filed within a reasonable time, except that a petition shall be filed within thirty (30) days of the child being taken into custody.

C. No order of the Court providing for the removal of an alleged or adjudicated deprived child from his home shall be entered unless the Court finds that the continuation of the child in his home is contrary to the welfare of the child. Said order shall include either:

1. a determination as to whether or not reasonable efforts have been made to prevent the need for the removal of the child from his home and, as appropriate, reasonable efforts have been made to provide for the return of the child to his home; or

2. a determination as to whether or not an absence of efforts to prevent the removal of the child from his home is reasonable under the circumstances, if such removal of the child from his home is due to an alleged emergency and is for the purpose of providing for the safety of the child.

§ 1104.2. Persons sixteen or seventeen years of age to be considered as adult for committing certain offenses—Warrants—Certification as child

A. Any person sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years of age who is charged with murder, kidnapping for purposes of extortion, robbery with a dangerous weapon, rape in the first degree, use of firearm or other offensive weapon while committing a felony, arson in the first degree, burglary with explosives, shooting with intent to kill, manslaughter in the first degree, nonconsensual sodomy, or manufacturing, distributing, dispensing, or possessing with intent to manufacture, distribute, or dispense a controlled dangerous substance, shall be considered as an adult. Upon the arrest and detention, such sixteen-or seventeen-year-old accused shall have all the statutory and constitutional rights and protections of an adult accused of a crime, but shall be detained in a jail cell or ward entirely separate from prisoners who are eighteen (18) years of age or over.

B. Upon the filing of an information against such accused person, a warrant shall be issued which shall set forth the rights of the accused person, and the rights of the parents, guardian or next friend of the accused person to be present at hearings, to have an attorney present and to make application for certification of such accused person as a child to the juvenile division of the District Court. The warrant shall be personally served together with a certified copy of the information on the accused person and on the parents, guardian or next friend of the accused person.

C. The accused person shall file a motion for certification as a child before the start of the criminal trial. Upon the filing of such motion, the complete juvenile record of the accused shall be made available to the prosecuting attorney and the accused person.

The accused person may have a hearing on the motion for certification as a child or may at the conclusion of the Nation's case at the criminal trial, the accused person may offer evidence to support the motion for certification as a child.

The Court shall rule on the certification motion of the accused person before ruling on other dispositive motions at trial. When ruling on the certification motion of the accused person, the Court shall give consideration to the following guidelines, listed in order of importance:

1. Whether the alleged offense was committed in an aggressive, violent, premeditated or willful manner;
2. Whether the offense was against persons or property, greater weight being given for retaining the accused person within the adult criminal system for offenses against persons, especially if personal injury resulted;
3. The record and past history of the accused person, including previous contacts with law enforcement agencies and juvenile or criminal courts, prior periods of probation and commitments to juvenile institutions; and
4. The prospects for adequate protection of the public if the accused person is processed through the juvenile system.

The Court, in its decision on the certification motion of the accused person, need not detail responses to each of the above considerations, but shall state that the Court has considered each of the guidelines in reaching its decision.

D. Upon the Court's ruling on the accused person's motion for certification as a child, if the accused person is certified as a child to the juvenile division of the District Court, then all adult court records relative to the accused person and this charge shall be expunged and any mention of the accused person shall be removed from public record.

E. An order certifying a person as a child or denying the request for certification as a child pursuant to subsection (D) of this section shall be a final order, appealable when entered.

§ 1105. Service of summons—Time of hearing—Mental health examination—Report

A. Service of summons shall be made as provided for service in civil actions or service may be made by certified mail to such person's last-known address, requesting a return receipt from the addressee only. Where the address of the person to be summoned is not known, or if the mailed summons is returned, the Court may order that notice of the hearing be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The Court may not hold the hearing until at least forty-eight (48) hours after the service of the summons, except with the consent of the parent or guardian; provided, however, that the Court may not hold the hearing until at least five (5) days after the date of mailing the summons, if the parent is not served within the state, except with the consent of the parent, or if notice is published, until at least ten (10) days after the date of publication; provided, further, that if one or more persons must be served by publication, and if it appears that the Court must order the child held in a place of detention in order to meet the requirement of this section with respect to the time for holding a hearing when a party can be served only by publication, the Court may advance the date of the hearing, with reasonable notice to the other persons who have been served or are properly and legally notified, to any date that the Court determines to be reasonable and may proceed with the action; but an order determining that a child is delinquent or in need of supervision or is deprived shall not become final until thirty (30) days after the date of the publication of the notice. Nothing contained herein shall prevent a Court from immediately assuming custody of a child and ordering whatever action may be necessary, including medical treatment, to protect the child's health or welfare.

B. Whenever a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of treatment is filed and the Court has ordered an inpatient mental health examination of the child, the hearing on the petition shall be set for not more than twenty (20) days after the inpatient admission of the child to a hospital or other mental health facility.

1. The report of a mental health examination of the child by an qualified mental health professional shall be attached to a petition alleging the child to be a child in need of treatment. If such report is not attached to the petition at the time it is filed, or if the Court finds the report to be inadequate to aid the Court in the adjudication or disposition of the case, the Court shall order a mental health examination of the child. A report of the examination shall be submitted to the Court prior to a hearing on the petition, and the Court may order such other reports as it deems necessary in order to aid the Court in the adjudication or disposition of the case.

2. Any report of a mental health examination of a child alleged to be a child in need of treatment that recommends that the child be found to be eligible for inpatient mental health treatment shall be certified and shall be signed by qualified mental health professionals, at least one of whom shall be independent as defined by 10 CNCA § 1101.

§ 1106. Failure to appear—Contempt—Warrants

If any person summoned as herein provided shall, without reasonable cause, fail to appear, he may be proceeded against for contempt of Court. In case the summons cannot be served, or the parties served fail to obey the same, or in any case when it shall be made to appear to the judge that the service will be ineffectual or that the welfare of the child requires that he shall be brought forthwith into the custody of the Court, a warrant may be issued against the parent or guardian, or against the child himself.

§ 1107. Taking child into custody prior to filing petition—Detention or release—Medical examination and treatment

A. A child may be taken into custody prior to the filing of a petition:

1. By a peace officer, or employee of the Court without a court order if the child is found violating any law or ordinance, or if the child is willfully and voluntarily absent from the home of the child without the consent of the parent, guardian or legal custodian for a substantial length of time or without intent to return, or if the child's surroundings are such as to endanger the welfare of the child.

2. Pursuant to an order of the District Court issued on the application of the office of the prosecuting attorney. The application presented by the prosecuting attorney may be supported by a sworn affidavit which may be based upon information and belief. The application shall state facts sufficient to demonstrate to the Court that there is reasonable suspicion to believe the child is in need of protection due to abandonment, abuse or neglect, or is in surroundings that are such as to endanger the welfare of the child.

B. Whenever a child is taken into custody as a delinquent child or a child in need of supervision, the child shall be detained or be released to the custody of his parent, guardian, attorney or custodian, upon the written promise of such parent, guardian, attorney or custodian to bring the child to the Court at the time fixed. If detained, such child shall be taken immediately before a judge of the District Court. If no judge be available locally, the person having the child in custody shall immediately report his detention of the child to another judge, provided that the child shall not be detained in custody beyond the next judicial day or for good cause shown due to problems of arranging for and transporting the child to and from a designated juvenile detention center, beyond the next two (2) judicial days unless the Court shall so order after a detention hearing to determine if there exists probable cause to detain the child, as provided in 10 CNCA § 1107.1. If detained, a reasonable bond for release shall be set. Pending further disposition of the case, a child whose custody has been assumed by the Court may be released to the custody of a parent or other person appointed by the Court, or be detained pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1107.1 in such place as shall be designated by the Court, subject to further order.

C. Whenever a child is taken into custody as a deprived child, he shall be taken to a shelter, hospital, foster home or other appropriate place as designated by the Court, or he shall be taken immediately before a Judge of the District Court for the purpose of obtaining an order for protective custody. When a child has been taken into custody as a deprived child without a court order, the peace officer or employee of the Court taking the child into custody shall immediately report the fact of the detention of the child to a Judge of the District Court. If no Judge is available locally, the detention shall be reported immediately to any Judge of the District Court. Within the next two (2) judicial days following the child being taken into custody, and thereafter at such intervals as may be determined by the Court, the Court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the child should remain in protective custody or be released to the parent, guardian, legal custodian or another responsible person pending further proceedings pursuant to this chapter. The parent or legal guardian of the child shall be given immediate notice of the custody of the child whenever possible and prior adequate notice of the hearing. The Court may release an alleged deprived child from protective custody upon such conditions as the Court finds reasonably necessary for the protection of the child and the Court shall determine whether the allegations regarding the child are such that additional time for the filing of a petition pursuant to 10 CNCA § 1104.1(B) is warranted.

D. When any child is taken into custody pursuant to this title and it reasonably appears to the peace officer, employee of the Court or person acting pursuant to court order that the child is in need of medical treatment to preserve his health, any peace officer, any employee of the Court or person acting pursuant to court order shall have the authority to authorize medical examination and medical treatment, for any child found to be in need of medical treatment as diagnosed by a competent medical authority in the absence of a parent or guardian who is competent to authorize medical treatment. The officer or the employee of the Court or person acting pursuant to court order shall authorize said medical treatment only after exercising due diligence to locate the parent, guardian or other person legally competent to authorize said medical treatment. The parent, guardian or custodian of the child shall be responsible for such medical expenses as ordered by the Court. No peace officer, any employee of the Court or person acting pursuant to court order authorizing such treatment in accordance with the provisions of this section for any child found in need of such medical treatment shall have any liability, civil or criminal, for giving such authorization.

§ 1107.1. Conditions of detention of child—Detention or confinement in adult facility

A. When a child is taken into custody pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1101 et seq., the child shall be detained only if it is necessary to assure the appearance of the child in Court or for the protection of the child or the public.

1. No pre-adjudicatory or predisposition detention or custody order shall remain in force and effect for more than thirty (30) days. The Court, for good and sufficient cause shown, may extend the effective period of such an order for an additional period not to exceed sixty (60) days.

2. No child alleged or adjudicated to be deprived, in need of supervision or in need of treatment shall be confined in any jail, adult lockup, or adult detention facility. No child shall be transported or detained in association with criminal, vicious, or dissolute persons.

3. Except as otherwise authorized by this section a child who has been taken into custody as a deprived child, a child in need of supervision, or a child in need of treatment, may not be placed in any detention facility pending court proceedings, but must be placed in shelter care or foster care, or released to the custody of his parents or some other responsible party. When a child is taken into custody as a child in need of supervision as a result of being a runaway, the Court may order the child placed in a juvenile detention facility pending court proceedings if it finds said detention to be essential for the safety of the child.

B. No child may be placed in secure detention unless:

1. the child is an escapee from a correctional facility or community correctional program or placement; or

2. the child is a fugitive from another jurisdiction with a warrant on a delinquency charge or confirmation of delinquency charges by the home jurisdiction; or

3. the child is seriously assaultive or destructive towards others or himself; or

4. the child is detained for the commission of a crime that would constitute a felony if committed by an adult; or

5. the child is currently charged with a crime that would constitute a misdemeanor if committed by an adult and:

a. is on probation or parole on a prior delinquent offense,

- b. is on pre-adjudicatory community supervision,
- c. is currently on release status on a prior delinquent offense, or
- d. has willfully failed or there is reason to believe that the child will willfully fail to appear for juvenile court proceedings.

C. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, no child may be placed in secure detention in a jail, adult lockup, or other adult detention facility unless:

a. the child is detained for the commission of a crime that would constitute a felony if committed by an adult, and

b. the child is awaiting an initial court appearance, and

c. the child's initial court appearance is scheduled within twenty-four (24) hours after being taken into custody, excluding weekends and holidays, and

d. there is no existing acceptable alternative placement for the child, and

e. the jail, adult lockup or adult detention facility meets the requirements for licensure of juvenile detention facilities, as adopted by the Commission for Human Services, is appropriately licensed, and provides sight and sound separation for juveniles, which includes:

i. total separation between juveniles and adult facility spatial areas such that there could be no haphazard or accidental contact between juvenile and adult residents in the respective facilities;

ii. total separation in all juvenile and adult program activities within the facilities, including recreation, education, counseling, health care, dining, sleeping and general living activities; and

iii. separate juvenile and adult staff, specifically direct care staff such as recreation, education and counseling. Specialized services staff, such as cooks, bookkeepers, and medical professionals who are not normally in contact with detainees or whose infrequent contacts occur under conditions of separation of juvenile and adults can serve both.

2. Nothing in this section shall preclude a child who is detained for the commission of a crime that would constitute a felony if committed by an adult, or a child who is an escapee from a Cherokee Nation placement, juvenile training school or from a Department of Human Services group home from being held in any jail certified by Cherokee Nation or the State Department of Health, police station or similar law enforcement offices for up to six (6) hours for purposes of identification, processing or arranging for transfer to a secure detention or alternative to secure detention. Such holding shall be limited to the absolute minimum time necessary to complete these actions.

a. The time limitations for holding a child in a jail for the purposes of identification, processing or arranging transfer established by this section shall not include the actual travel time required for transporting a child from a jail to a juvenile detention facility or alternative to secure detention.

b. Whenever the time limitations established by this subsection are exceeded, this circumstance shall not constitute a defense in a subsequent delinquency or criminal proceeding.

3. Nothing in this section shall preclude detaining in a county jail or other adult detention facility an eighteen- (18) year old charged in a juvenile petition for whom certification to stand trial as an adult is prayed.

D. Nothing contained in this section shall in any way reduce or eliminate a county's liability as otherwise provided by law for injury or damages resulting from the placement of a child in a jail, adult lockup, or other adult detention facility.

E. Any juvenile detention facility shall be available for use by any eligible Indian child as that term is defined by the Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Act, 10 O.S. § 40 et seq., providing that the use of the juvenile detention facility meets the requirements of this act. Cherokee Nation may contract with any juvenile detention facility for the providing of detention services.

F. Each member of the staff of a juvenile detention facility shall satisfactorily complete a training program provided or approved by Cherokee Nation.

§ 1108. Temporary detention of children—Reimbursement of transportation costs—Detention facilities—Detention services and centers—Standard for certification of facilities used to detain juveniles

A. Provision shall be made for the temporary detention of children in a juvenile detention facility or the Court may arrange for the care and custody of such children temporarily in private homes, subject to the supervision of the Court, or the Court may provide shelter or may enter into a contract with any institution or agency to receive, for temporary care and custody, children within the jurisdiction of the Court.

B. 1. "Juvenile detention facility" shall mean a secure facility, entirely separate from any prison, jail, adult lockup, or other adult facility, for the temporary care of children. All juvenile detention facilities shall be required to meet standards for certification by Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Commission for Human Services.

2. "Alternatives to secure detention" means those services and facilities which are included in the State Plan for the Establishment of Juvenile Detention Services adopted by the Commission for Human Services pursuant to subsection (C) of this section or those designated by Cherokee Nation and which are used for the temporary detention of juveniles in lieu of secure detention in a juvenile detention facility.

3. In order to operate juvenile detention facilities Cherokee Nation may:

- a. operate the juvenile detention facility subject to the supervision of the District Court; or
 - b. operate the juvenile detention facility by employing a manager who may employ personnel and incur other expenses as may be necessary for its operation and maintenance; or
 - c. contract with a public agency, private agency or single or multi-county trust authority for the operation of the juvenile detention facility. Cherokee Nation is authorized to directly contract with and pay such public or private agency for provision of detention services.
4. Management contracts for privately operated detention facilities shall be negotiated with the firm found most qualified by Cherokee Nation. However, no private management contract shall be entered into by the nation unless the private contractor demonstrates to the satisfaction of the board:
- a. that the contractor has the qualifications, experience, and personnel necessary to implement the terms of the contract;
 - b. that the financial condition of the contractor is such that the term of the contract can be fulfilled;
 - c. that the ability of the contractor to obtain insurance or provide self-insurance to indemnify the Nation against possible lawsuits and to compensate the nation for any property damage or expenses incurred due to the private operation of the juvenile detention facility; and
 - d. that the contractor has the ability to comply with applicable court orders and rules and regulations of the Oklahoma Department of Human Services and/or Cherokee Nation.

§ 1109. Questioning of children—Counsel—Appointment of guardian ad litem—Court appointed special advocates—Immunity—Confidentiality

A. No information gained by questioning a child nor any evidence subsequently obtained as a result of such information shall be admissible into evidence against the child unless the questioning about any alleged offense by any law enforcement officer or investigative agency, or employee of the Court, or the Department of Human Services or Cherokee Nation is done in the presence of the parents, guardian, attorney, or legal custodian of the child. No such questioning shall commence until the child and his parents, or guardian, or other legal custodian have been fully advised of the constitutional and legal rights of the child, including the right to be represented by counsel at every stage of the proceedings, and the right to have counsel appointed by the Court if the parties are without sufficient financial means.

B. If the parents, guardian, or other legal custodian of the child requests an attorney and is found to be without sufficient financial means, counsel shall be appointed by the Court if a petition has been filed alleging that the child is a deprived child, a child in need of supervision, or a child in need of treatment, or if termination of parental rights is a possible remedy, provided that the Court may appoint counsel without such request, if it deems representation by counsel necessary to protect the interest of the parents, guardian or other legal custodian. If the child is not otherwise represented by counsel, whenever a delinquent child petition is filed pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1103, and the parents, guardian, other legal custodian of the child are found to be without sufficient financial means the Court shall appoint a separate attorney for the child. In all other cases the prosecuting attorney shall protect the interest of the child. In the event the prosecuting attorney has a conflict or appearance of conflict the Court may appoint a separate attorney for the child.

C. Whenever a petition is filed alleging that a child is a deprived child the Court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the child at any time subsequent to the filing of the petition and shall appoint a guardian ad litem upon the request of the child, his attorney, or the prosecuting attorney.

1. The guardian ad litem shall not be a prosecuting attorney, an employee of the office of the prosecuting attorney, an employee of the Court, or an employee of any public agency having duties or responsibilities towards the child.

2. The guardian ad litem may be a Court-appointed special advocate.

D. For the purpose of this section and 21 CNCA § 846, a "Court-appointed special advocate" or "CASA" means a responsible adult, other than an attorney for the parties, who has volunteered to be available for appointment by the Court to serve as an officer of the Court and represent any child wherein a juvenile petition has been filed, based on the availability of volunteers, until discharged by the Court. It shall be the duty and responsibility of the Court-appointed special advocate to advocate for the best interests of the child and to assist the child in obtaining a permanent, safe, homelike placement.

The Court-appointed special advocate shall be given access to the Court file and access to all records and reports relevant to the case and to any records and reports of examination of the child's parent or other custodian, made pursuant to this section or 21 CNCA § 846.

A Court-appointed special advocate shall serve without compensation and shall have such other qualifications and duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed by rule by the Court. Any person participating in a judicial proceeding as a Court-appointed special advocate shall be presumed prima facie to be acting in good faith and in so doing shall be immune from any civil liability that otherwise might be incurred or imposed. Any person serving in positions of management of a CASA organization, including members of the Board of Directors acting in good faith, shall be immune from any civil liability or any vicarious liability for the negligence of any CASA organization advocates, managers, or directors.

All records concerning child abuse shall be confidential and shall be open to inspection only to persons duly authorized by the State of Oklahoma, Cherokee Nation or United States in connection with the performance of their official duties. It shall be unlawful and a misdemeanor for the Commission, or any employee working under the Department of Human Services, or Cherokee Nation, any other public officer or employee, or any Court-appointed special advocate (CASA), to furnish or permit to be taken off of the records any information therein contained for commercial, political or any other unauthorized purpose.

E. The prosecuting attorney shall prepare and prosecute any case or proceeding within the purview of 10 CNCA § 1101.

§ 1110. Jury trial

A. A parent entitled to service of summons, Cherokee Nation or a child shall have the right to demand a trial by jury only in the following circumstances:

1. When the initial petition to determine if a child is deprived also contains a request for immediate termination of parental rights; or
2. When, following a hearing in which the child is adjudicated deprived, a petition for termination of parental rights is filed by Cherokee Nation.

B. A jury trial shall be granted only if demanded. Such jury shall consist of six (6) persons. The right to a jury trial may be waived. The right to a jury trial shall be deemed waived by the Court when a parent, guardian or custodian or other person entitled to service of summons fails to appear at any hearing set for termination of parental rights. Nothing in this act shall prohibit a termination of parental rights by default should a parent, or other person entitled to service of summons, who has been properly served a summons, fails to appear at a trial or hearing set on the termination of said person's parental rights.

§ 1111. Conduct of hearings

All cases of children shall be heard separately from the trial of cases against adults. The adjudicative hearings shall be conducted according to the rules of evidence, and may be adjourned from time to time. The hearings shall be private unless specifically ordered by the judge to be conducted in public, but persons having a direct interest in the case shall be admitted. Stenographic notes or other transcript of the hearings shall be kept as in other cases, but they shall not be open to inspection except by order of the Court. The child may remain silent as a matter of right during said hearing, and before he is interrogated, he shall be so advised. A decision determining a child to come within the purview of this chapter must be based on sworn testimony and the child must have the opportunity for cross-examination unless the facts are stipulated. Where a child is alleged to be delinquent and the facts are stipulated, the judge must ascertain from the child if he agrees with the stipulation and if he understands the consequences of stipulating the facts.

§ 1112. Children charged with violating Nation statute or municipal ordinance—Juvenile proceedings—Felonies—Trial as adult—Matters considered—Bail

A. Except as otherwise provided, a child who is charged with having violated any statute or ordinance other than those enumerated in 10 CNCA § 1104.2, shall not be tried in a criminal action but in a juvenile proceeding. If, during the pendency of a criminal or quasi-criminal charge against any person, it shall be ascertained that the person was a child at the time of committing the alleged offense, the District Court shall transfer the case, together with all the papers, documents and testimony connected therewith, to the juvenile division of the District Court. The division making such transfer shall order the child to be taken forthwith to the place of detention designated by the juvenile division, to that division itself, or release such child to the custody of some suitable person to be brought before the juvenile division. However, nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the exercise of concurrent jurisdiction by another court in cases involving children wherein the child is charged with the violation of a Cherokee Nation, state or municipal traffic law or ordinance.

B. Except as otherwise provided by law, if a child is charged with delinquency as a result of an offense which would be a crime if committed by an adult, the Court on its own motion or at the request of the prosecuting attorney shall conduct a preliminary hearing to determine whether or not there is prosecutive merit to the complaint. If the Court finds that prosecutive merit exists, it shall continue the hearing for a sufficient period of time to conduct an investigation and further hearing to determine the prospects for reasonable rehabilitation of the child if he should be found to have committed the alleged act or omission. Consideration shall be given to:

1. The seriousness of the alleged offense to the community, and whether the alleged offense was committed in an aggressive, violent, premeditated or willful manner;
2. Whether the offense was against persons or property, greater weight being given to offenses against persons especially if personal injury resulted;
3. The sophistication and maturity of the juvenile and his capability of distinguishing right from wrong as determined by consideration of his psychological evaluation, home, environmental situation, emotional attitude and pattern of living;
4. The record and previous history of the juvenile, including previous contacts with community agencies, law enforcement agencies, schools, juvenile courts and other jurisdictions, prior periods of probation or prior commitments to juvenile institutions;
5. The prospects for adequate protection of the public and the likelihood of reasonable rehabilitation of the juvenile if he is found to have committed the alleged offense, by the use of procedures and facilities currently available to the juvenile court; and
6. Whether the offense occurred while the juvenile was escaping or in an escape status from an institution for delinquent children.

After such investigation and hearing, the Court may in its discretion proceed with the juvenile proceeding, or it shall state its reasons in writing and shall certify that such child shall be held accountable for his acts as if he were an adult and shall be held for proper criminal proceedings for the specific offense charged, by any other division of the Court which would have trial jurisdiction of such offense if committed by an adult. The juvenile proceeding shall not be dismissed until the criminal proceeding has commenced and if no criminal proceeding commences within thirty (30) days of the date of such certification, unless stayed pending appeal, the Court shall proceed with the juvenile proceeding and the certification shall lapse.

If not included in the original summons, notice of a hearing to consider whether a child should be certified for trial as an adult shall be given to all persons who are required to be served with a summons at the commencement of a juvenile proceeding, but publication in a newspaper when the address of a person is unknown is not required. The purpose of the hearing shall be clearly stated in the notice.

C. Prior to the entry of any order of adjudication, any child in custody shall have the same right to be released upon bail as would an adult under the same circumstances. Subsequent to the entry of an order that a child stand trial as an adult, said child shall have all the statutory and constitutional rights and protections of an adult accused of a crime but shall, while awaiting trial and for the duration of the trial, be detained in a jail cell or ward entirely separate from prisoners who are eighteen (18) years of age or over. Upon conviction, the juvenile may be incarcerated with the adult population. If, prior to the entry of any order of adjudication, the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age, the child may be detained in a jail or released on bail.

D. Any child who has been certified to stand trial as an adult pursuant to any certification procedure provided by law and is subsequently convicted of the alleged offense or against whom the imposition of judgment and sentencing has been deferred shall be tried as an adult in all subsequent criminal prosecutions, and shall not be subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court in any further proceedings.

E. An order either certifying a person as a child pursuant to subsection (b) of this section or denying such certification shall be a final order, appealable when entered.

§ 1113. Allegations of petition not supported by evidence

If the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are not supported by the evidence, the Court shall order the petition dismissed and the child discharged from any detention or restriction previously ordered. The child's parents, guardian or other legal custodian shall also be discharged from any restriction or other previous temporary order.

§ 1114. Allegations of petition supported by evidence

A. If the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are supported by the evidence, and that it is in the best interest of the child and the public that he be made a ward of the Court, the Court shall sustain the petition, and shall make an order of adjudication, setting forth whether the child is delinquent, or in need of supervision or deprived and shall adjudge the child as a ward of the Court.

B. If the Court finds the allegations on a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of treatment are supported by clear and convincing evidence, including but not limited to the evidence of a mental health examination of the child by an qualified mental health professional pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1105, and that it is in the best interest of the child that he be made a ward of the Court, the Court shall sustain the petition and shall make an order of adjudication. If warranted by the facts in the case, an order of adjudication finding a child to be a child in need of treatment shall not serve to preclude a subsequent order of adjudication finding a child to be delinquent, in need of supervision or deprived or to vacate any such order of adjudication previously entered.

§ 1115. Dispositional hearings—Additional reports or evidence

A. After making an order of adjudication, the Court shall hold a dispositional hearing, at which all evidence helpful in determining the proper disposition best serving the interest of the child and the public, including oral and written reports, may be admitted and may be relied upon to the extent of its probative value, even though not competent for the purposes of the adjudicatory hearing.

B. Before making an order of disposition, the Court shall advise the prosecuting attorney, the parents, guardian, custodian or responsible relative, and their counsel, of the factual contents and the conclusion of reports prepared for the use of the Court and considered by it, and afford fair opportunity, if requested, to controvert them. An order of disposition shall include a specific finding and order of the Court relative to the liability and accountability of the parents for the care and maintenance of the child as authorized by 10 CNCA § 1121, except where custody is placed with both parents.

C. On its own motion or that of the Prosecuting Attorney, or of the parent, guardian, custodian, responsible relative or counsel, the Court may adjourn the hearing for a reasonable period to receive reports or other evidence and, in such event, shall make an appropriate order for detention of the child, or his release from detention subject to supervision by the Court, during the period of the continuance.

D. In scheduling investigations and hearings, the Court shall give priority to proceedings in which a child is in detention, or has otherwise been removed from his home, before an order of disposition has been made.

§ 1115.1. Placement plan filing—Preparation—Approval—Contents—Substance abuse treatment program for parents—Child born dependent on controlled dangerous substance

A. A placement plan shall be filed and prepared by the legal custodian of a child with the Court within the thirty (30) days after any deprived child has been removed from the custody of its lawful parent or parents.

B. Except as otherwise specified by the Court, the placement plan shall contain but not be limited to the following information:

1. A history of the child and family;

2. A statement of the conditions that the intervention is designed to alleviate and a statement of the methods to be used to correct those conditions or to achieve permanent placement of the child or, when the child is sixteen (16) years of age or older, and as appropriate for the child, the services to be provided for the purpose of assisting the child to make the transition from foster care to independent living;

3. A description of the appropriate special programs available and to be used by the parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, or stepparent or other adult person living in the home as well as the child which are in the best interests of the child or will prevent further harm to the child;

4. A statement as to the unavailability or inappropriateness of local placement, or other good cause for any placement more than forty (40) miles from the child's home;

5. A description of acts and conduct that would be expected of the parent or parents, legal guardian, legal custodian, or stepparent or other adult person living in the home before the child should be returned home; and

6. The name and business address of the attorney representing the child, if any.

C. In addition to the information required pursuant to subsection (B) of this section, when a child born in a condition of dependence on a controlled dangerous substance has been removed from the home, Cherokee Nation, subject to Court approval:

1. may require, as part of the placement plan, that the mother of such child complete a treatment program approved by Cherokee Nation for alcohol and drug abuse prevention, training, treatment and rehabilitation prior to the return of the child to the home;

2. may require, as part of the placement plan, that the father of the child, legal guardian, legal custodian, stepparent or other adult person living in the home who is a drug-dependent person, as such term is defined by 43A O.S. § 3-403, as amended, and whose conduct has contributed to the dependency of such child or mother on the controlled dangerous substance, or to the conditions which caused the child to be adjudicated deprived, complete a treatment program approved by Cherokee Nation for alcohol and drug abuse prevention, training, treatment and rehabilitation prior to the return of the child to the home; and

3. may require testing for substance abuse of the mother, father, legal guardian, legal custodian, stepparent or other adult person living in the home, on a monthly basis for a twelve-month period following completion of the substance abuse program and after return of the child to the home. A positive test of any such person shall be presented to the Court and the prosecuting attorney.

D. Testing ordered by the Court pursuant to subsection (C) of this section shall be admissible only for the purposes of juvenile and custody proceedings.

§ 1115.2. Information to accompany child placed outside his home

The Court shall ensure that the following information accompanies any deprived child placed outside his home:

1. Demographic information;

2. Type of custody and previous placement;
3. Pertinent family information including, but not limited to, the names of family members who, by court order, may not visit the child;
4. Known or available medical history including, but not limited to:
 - a. allergies,
 - b. immunizations,
 - c. childhood diseases,
 - d. physical handicaps,
 - e. psycho-social information, and
 - f. the name of the child's last doctor, if known.
5. Copies of policies and procedures of Cherokee Nation which pertain to placement operations of Cherokee Nation, and which may be necessary to properly inform the institution, foster parent or other custodian of the duties, rights and responsibilities of the custodian.

§ 1116. Disposition orders

A. The following kinds of orders of disposition may be made in respect to wards of the Court:

1. The Court may place the child on probation or under supervision in his own home, or in the custody of a suitable person elsewhere, upon such conditions as the Court shall determine. The Court may require the parent or other person to give security by bond, with surety or sureties approved by the Court, for compliance with such order.

If it is consistent with the welfare of the child, the child shall be placed with his parent or legal guardian, but if it appears to the Court that the conduct of such parent, guardian, legal guardian, stepparent or other adult person living in the home has contributed to such delinquency, or need of supervision or treatment, or deprivation, the Court may issue a written order specifying conduct to be followed by such parent, guardian, legal custodian, stepparent or other adult person living in the home with respect to such child. The conduct specified shall be such as would reasonably prevent the child from becoming delinquent, in need of supervision or treatment, or deprived, as defined by 10 CNCA § 1101. Such order shall remain in effect for a period of not more than one (1) year to be specified by the Court, and the order may be extended or renewed by the Court.

- a. If it is consistent with the welfare of the child, in cases where the child has been adjudicated to be deprived or in need of supervision due to repeated absence from school, the Court may order counseling and treatment for the child and the parents of the child which may be provided by the local school district, the county, Cherokee Nation, the Department of Human Services or a private individual or entity. Prior to final disposition, the Court shall require that it be shown by the appropriate school district that a child found to be truant has been evaluated for learning disabilities, mental retardation, and hearing and visual impairments and other impediments which could constitute an educational handicap. The results of such tests shall be made available to the Court for use by the Court in determining the disposition of the case.

b. In issuing orders to a parent, guardian, legal guardian, stepparent or other adult person living in the home of a child adjudicated to be a delinquent child or in making other disposition of said delinquent child, the Court may consider the testimony of said parent, guardian, legal guardian, stepparent or other adult person concerning the behavior of the juvenile and his ability to exercise parental control over the behavior of the juvenile.

c. In any dispositional order involving a child age sixteen (16) or older, the Court shall make a determination, where appropriate, of the services needed to assist the child to make the transition from foster care to independent living.

No child who has been adjudicated in need of supervision or deprived upon the basis of truancy or noncompliance with the mandatory school attendance law alone may be placed in a public or private institutional facility or be removed from the custody of the lawful parent, guardian or custodian of the child. A deprived adjudication based upon repeated absence from school shall not constitute a ground for termination of parental rights.

2. The Court may commit the child to the custody of a private institution or agency, including any institution established and operated by Cherokee Nation or some other governmental agency, authorized to care for children or to place them in family homes. In committing a child to a private institution or agency, the Court shall select one that is licensed by Cherokee Nation or the Oklahoma Department of Human Services or any other state department supervising or licensing private institutions and agencies; or, if such institution or agency is in another state, by the analogous department of that state. Whenever the Court shall commit a child to any institution or agency, it shall transmit with the order of commitment a summary of its information concerning the child, and such institution or agency shall give to the Court such information concerning the child as the Court may at any time require.

3. The Court may order the child to receive counseling or other community-based services as necessary.

4. The Court may commit the child to the custody of Cherokee Nation; provided, any order adjudicating a child to be delinquent and committing the child to Cherokee Nation shall be for an indeterminate period of time.

5. The Court may place a child adjudicated to be in need of treatment with his parents or legal guardian or, if it is consistent with the treatment needs and the best interests of the child, commit the child to the custody of Cherokee Nation. In addition:

a. the Court shall order the child to receive the least restrictive mental health care and treatment appropriate for the treatment needs of the child through a public or private mental health facility until such time as such care and treatment is no longer necessary, as determined by a qualified mental health professional;

b. the Court may commit the child or authorize inpatient treatment for the child in a hospital or other facility accredited as an inpatient or residential psychiatric facility by the Joint Commission on Accreditation until such time as patient care and treatment is no longer necessary or appropriate. If the Court finds by clear and convincing evidence, including but not limited to the evidence of an independent qualified mental health professional, that a child in need of treatment:

i. has a demonstrable mental illness and as a result of that mental illness can be expected within the near future to intentionally or unintentionally seriously and physically injure himself or another person and has engaged in one or more recent overt acts or made significant recent threats which substantially support that expectation, or

ii. has a demonstrable mental illness and as a result of that mental illness is unable to attend to those of his basic physical or psychiatric needs that must be attended to in order for him to avoid serious harm in the near future and has demonstrated such inability by failing to attend to those basic physical or psychiatric needs in the recent past;

c. no order of the Court committing the child or authorizing inpatient care and treatment of the child shall be entered unless the Court makes a determination:

i. that reasonable efforts have been made to provide for the mental health treatment needs of the child through the provision of less restrictive alternatives to inpatient treatment and that such alternatives have failed to meet the treatment needs of the child, or

ii. after a thorough consideration of less restrictive alternatives to inpatient treatment, that the condition of the child is such that less restrictive alternatives are unlikely to meet the mental health treatment needs of the child;

d. pursuant to the provisions of subparagraphs b and c of this paragraph, the Court may:

i. commit a child whose custody remains with his parent or legal guardian to a public or private mental health facility appropriate for the inpatient care and treatment of children and which is willing to admit the child for treatment, provided that the Court shall not commit such child to a government-operated mental health facility for inpatient care and treatment,

ii. when the child is committed to the custody of Cherokee Nation, authorize inpatient care and treatment for the child;

e. the Court may also order the child to receive outpatient care and treatment, or other appropriate services, as necessary, upon his discharge from inpatient care and treatment; and

f. for the purposes of this paragraph "less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment" includes but is not limited to: Outpatient counseling services, including services provided in the home of the child and which may be referred to as "home-based services"; and day treatment or day hospitalization services; respite care; or foster care or group home care through a program established and specifically designed to meet the treatment needs of children in need of treatment; or some combination thereof.

6. If the child has been placed outside the home, and it appears to the Court that the parent, guardian, legal custodian, stepparent, or other adult person living in the home has contributed to the delinquency, need of supervision or treatment, or deprivation of the child, the Court may order that the parent, guardian, legal custodian, stepparent, or other adult living in the home be made subject to any treatment or placement plan prescribed by the Department or other person or agency receiving custody of the child.

7. The Court may order any child adjudicated a delinquent child for acts involving criminally injurious conduct as defined in 21 CNCA § 142.3, to pay a victim compensation assessment in an amount not to exceed that amount specified in 21 CNCA § 142.18. The Court shall forward a copy of the adjudication order to the Prosecuting Attorney for purposes of 21 CNCA § 142.11. Such adjudication order shall be kept confidential by the Court and Prosecuting Attorney.

8. The Court may order any child adjudicated a delinquent child to engage in a term of community service without compensation. Cherokee Nation or any political subdivision shall not be liable if a loss or claim results from any acts or omission of a child ordered to engage in a term of community service pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

9. The Court may dismiss the petition or otherwise terminate its jurisdiction at any time for good cause shown.

10. In any dispositional order removing a child from the home of the child, the Court shall make a determination that reasonable efforts have been made to provide for the return of the child to the child's own home, or that efforts to reunite the family are not feasible, and reasonable efforts are being made to secure an alternate permanent placement for the child.

B. A dispositional order removing a child from the custody of the parents of the child shall be reviewed at a hearing by the Court at least once every six (6) months until such time as the child is returned to the custody of his parents. No later than eighteen (18) months after placing a child in foster care and every twelve (12) months thereafter, the Court making the original order of adjudication shall conduct a dispositional hearing to consider whether the child should be returned to his parents or other family member; the child should be continued in foster care for a specified period; the rights of the parents of the child should be terminated and the child placed for adoption or legal guardianship; or whether the child, because of exceptional circumstances, should remain in foster care on a long-term basis as a permanent plan or with a goal of independent living.

C. The Court shall not terminate the rights of a parent who has not been notified that the parental rights might be terminated. If the Court terminates the rights of a parent and commits the child to an individual or agency, the court may invest in such individual or agency authority to consent to the adoption of the child. Provided, that where the Court commits the child to Cherokee Nation, it shall vest Cherokee Nation with authority to place the child and, upon notice to the Court that an adoption petition has been filed concerning said child, invest Cherokee Nation with authority to consent to the adoption of the child, and the jurisdiction of the committing Court shall terminate.

D. No child who has been adjudicated in need of supervision or deprived may be placed in a correctional or training school.

E. No child charged in a Cherokee Nation Court with a violation of Cherokee Nation laws or ordinances, or convicted therefor, may be incarcerated in jail for any said violation unless the charge for which the arrest was made would constitute a felony if the child were an adult; provided, that nothing contained in the above section prohibits the detention of a juvenile for traffic-related offenses prior to the filing of a petition in the District Court alleging delinquency as a result of said acts.

F. If it is consistent with the welfare of the child, the Court may require community service or restitution or both community service and restitution for acts of delinquency. The immunities provided by 57 O.S. §§ 227 and 228, as amended, shall apply to community services directed pursuant to this section.

G. The Court may require any child found to be a juvenile delinquent or child in need of supervision, the parents of any child found to be a juvenile delinquent, a child in need of supervision, a deprived child or a child in need of treatment, or both the child and the parents, to reimburse the Court fund, in whole or in part, for any disbursements made from the Court fund in conjunction with the case, including, but not limited to, Court-appointed attorney's fees, expert witness fees, law enforcement fees, witness fees, transcripts and postage. When any parent is financially able but has willfully failed to pay court costs or to reimburse the court fund as ordered by the court or has willfully failed to pay court costs and to reimburse the Court fund as ordered by the Court, the parent may be held in contempt of court and, upon conviction, shall be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 566. After a judicial determination that the child, the parent of the child, or both such child or parent, are able to pay the costs and to reimburse the court fund or pay the costs and to reimburse the court fund in the case in installments, the Court may order the costs and such reimbursement of the court fund to be paid in installments and shall set the amount and due date of each installment. A parent may be found to be financially able to pay court costs or to reimburse the court fund or to pay court costs and to reimburse the Court fund in installments even though the Court has previously found the parent indigent.

§ 1116.1. Review of order removing child from custody of lawful parents

A. Any disposition order removing a deprived child from the custody of its lawful parent or parents shall be reviewed by the Court at least once every six (6) months until such time as the child is returned to the custody of said parent or parents and the conditions which caused the child to be adjudicated deprived have been corrected or the parental rights of said parent or parents are terminated and a final adoption decreed. The provisions of this section shall also apply to a child who has been removed from the home of the lawful parent or parents of the child after the child has been returned to that home until such time as the Court orders the case closed.

B. 1. The legal custodian of a child who has been removed from the custody of its lawful parent or parents shall cause to be prepared for each review hearing required herein a written report concerning each child who is the subject of such review.

2. Said report shall include but not be limited to a summary of the physical, mental, and emotional condition of the child, the conditions existing in the home or institution where the child has been placed, and the child's adjustment thereto, a report on the child's progress in school and visitation exercised by the lawful parents of such child.

3. If Cherokee Nation is the legal custodian of the child, the report also shall include any efforts on the part of the parent or parents to correct the conditions which caused the child to be adjudicated deprived. The report shall specifically recommend, giving reasons therefor, whether or not the parental rights of the parent or parents of the child should be terminated and the child placed for adoption, whether or not the child should remain in the home or if placed outside the home of the child's lawful parents, whether or not the child should remain outside the home or be returned to the home from which the child was removed. If it is determined that the child should be placed for adoption, foster parents may be considered eligible to adopt the child.

C. At each such review hearing, the Court shall specifically inquire as to the nature and extent of services being provided the child and parent or parents of the child and shall direct additional services be provided if necessary to protect the child from further physical, mental, or emotional harm.

In any review order, the Court shall further make a determination:

1. as to whether or not reasonable efforts have been made to provide for the return of the child to the child's own home. If reasonable efforts have failed or are not feasible, the Court shall make a finding that the efforts to reunite the family have failed, or are not feasible, and reasonable efforts are being made to secure an alternate permanent placement for the child; and

2. where appropriate, when the child is age sixteen (16) or older, that services are being provided that will assist the child in making the transition from foster care to independent living.

D. The attorney representing a child whose case is being reviewed may submit a report to the Court for presentation at the review hearing to assist the Court in reviewing the placement or status of the child. The legal custodian shall not deny to a child the right of access to counsel and shall facilitate such access.

E. Cherokee Nation may not move any child from one foster home or institution to another, if the child has already been moved once since the last court hearing, without first obtaining the approval of the Court following a hearing into the reasons and necessity for moving the child. However, Cherokee Nation may move any child due to an emergency, in which case a hearing shall be conducted, if requested in writing, within ten (10) days following the moving of the child concerning the reasons and necessity for moving the child. Cherokee Nation shall notify the attorney of the child, if any, whenever the placement of the child is changed and shall inform said attorney regarding the location of the child.

F. The case of every deprived child removed by court order from the custody of its lawful parent or parents shall be reviewed as provided for in this section.

G. Cherokee Nation shall place siblings together in the same placement unless conditions prohibit such placement. In the event siblings cannot be placed together Cherokee Nation shall at hearing show cause as to why siblings cannot be placed together.

§ 1117. Persons or agencies receiving custody—Rights and duties

A.1. Whenever the Court transfers custody of a child as provided in 10 CNCA § 1116, the person, institution, agency, or Department receiving custody shall have the right to, and shall be responsible for, the care and control of the child, and shall have the duty and authority to provide food, clothing, shelter, ordinary medical care, education, discipline for the child, and, in an emergency, to authorize surgery or other extraordinary care. Except for an emergency psychiatric admission pursuant to 10 CNCA § 1107(F), said person, institution, agency or department may:

a. provide or arrange for the provision of an inpatient mental health examination of such child only pursuant to a court order as provided by 10 CNCA § 1120,

b. provide or arrange for the provision of inpatient mental health care and treatment of such child only after the filing of a petition alleging the child to be a child in need of treatment and a finding by the Court that the child is eligible for inpatient mental health care and treatment.

Nothing in this subsection shall be interpreted to prohibit or preclude the provision of outpatient mental health services, including an outpatient mental health examination, counseling, educational, rehabilitative or other similar services to said child, as necessary and appropriate, in the absence of a specific court order for such services.

2. The medical care, surgery and extraordinary care shall be charged to the appropriate agency where the child qualifies for the care under law, rule, regulation or administrative order or decision.

3. Nothing in this subsection shall be interpreted to:

a. relieve a parent of the obligation to provide for the support of the child as otherwise provided by law; or

b. limit the authority of the Court to order a parent to make support payments or to make payments or reimbursements for medical care or treatment, including mental health care or treatment, to the person, institution, agency or Department having custody of the child; or

c. abrogate the right of the child to any benefits provided through public funds for which the child is otherwise eligible.

4. No person, agency or institution shall be liable in a civil suit for damages for authorizing or not authorizing surgery or extraordinary care in an emergency, as determined by competent medical authority.

B. The person, institution, agency, or Department having legal custody of a child pursuant to an order of the Court shall receive notice of court proceedings regarding the child as provided in 10 CNCA §§ 1105 and 1115 and shall be allowed to intervene upon application as a party to all court proceedings pertaining to the care and custody of the child including, but not limited to: adjudication, disposition, review of disposition, and termination of parental rights.

§ 1118. Modification of decrees or orders

Any decree or order made under the provisions of this title may be modified by the Court at any time; provided, however, that an order terminating parental rights or an order certifying the juvenile as an adult may not be modified.

§ 1119. Religious faith of parents or child

In placing a child in the custody of an individual or of a private agency or institution, the Court shall, if at all possible, select a person or an agency or institution governed by persons of the same religious faith as that of the parents of the child, or in case of a difference in the religious faith of the parents, then of the religious faith of the child, or, if the religious faith of the child is not ascertainable, then of the faith of either of the parents. However, it shall be left to the discretion of the judge to place children where their total needs will best be served.

§ 1120. Examination of child by physician or mental health professional—Order for care—Expense—Emergency—Investigation

A. After a petition under the provisions of this title has been filed, the Court may order the child to be examined and evaluated by a physician or qualified mental health professional to aid the Court in making the proper disposition concerning the child.

B. The report of an examination and evaluation of the child by a qualified mental health professional may be attached to a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of treatment at the time it is filed. If such report is not attached to the petition or if the Court finds the report to be inadequate to aid in the adjudication and disposition of the case, after a petition is filed alleging a child to be a child in need of treatment, the Court shall order the child to be examined and evaluated by a qualified mental health professional to aid the Court in making the proper adjudication and disposition of the child. The mental health professional shall submit a report of the examination and evaluation to the Court prior to the adjudicatory hearing and shall submit such other reports as the Court may order to aid the Court in the disposition of the case.

1. Whenever possible, the Court shall order the examination and evaluation to be conducted on an outpatient basis in or near the community in which the child resides at the time of such order. When an inpatient evaluation is required, the Court shall order the examination and evaluation to be conducted in the mental health facility nearest to the place where the child resides at the time of such order and which is approved by Cherokee Nation or the Commissioner of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services as an appropriate facility for the inpatient examination and evaluation of a child alleged to be a child in need of treatment.

2. Whenever it appears that a child who is in the custody of Cherokee Nation as a deprived or delinquent child or a child in need of supervision may also be a child in need of treatment, Cherokee Nation shall arrange for the examination and evaluation of the child by a qualified mental health professional in order to determine if a petition alleging the child to be a child in need of treatment is warranted. The examination and evaluation shall, whenever possible, be conducted on an outpatient basis in or near the community in which the child is residing; if an inpatient examination and evaluation is required, it shall be conducted in the mental health facility appropriate for such inpatient evaluation and examination nearest to the community in which the child is residing.

3. Whenever, pursuant to the filing of a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of treatment, the Court receives a report of the inpatient examination and evaluation of the child by a qualified mental health professional, the Court shall immediately set a date for a hearing on the petition. Said hearing shall be within ten (10) judicial days following the receipt of the report by the Court.

C. Whenever a child concerning whom a petition has been filed appears to be in need of nursing, medical or surgical care, the Court may order the parent or other person responsible for the care and support of the child to provide such care in a hospital or otherwise. If the parent or other person fails to provide such care, the Court may, after due notice, enter an order therefor, and the expense thereof, when approved by the Court, shall be a charge upon the Nation, but the Court may adjudge that the person having the duty under the law to support the child pay part or all of the expenses of such care. In an emergency the Court may, when health or condition of the child may require it, cause the child to be placed in a public hospital or institution for treatment or special care, or in a private hospital or institution which will receive the child for like purpose, and consent to emergency treatment or surgery.

D. After adjudication and at the request of a judge in any juvenile proceeding, Cherokee Nation shall investigate the home conditions and environment of the child and the financial ability, occupation and earning capacity of the parent, legal guardian or custodian of the child. Upon request by the Court of a state, Cherokee Nation may conduct a similar investigation.

§ 1121. Care and maintenance of child—Orders for enforcement

A. In any hearing concerning the status of a child, the Court shall have authority to adjudge the parent or parents who have been served with notice of the hearing liable and accountable for the care and maintenance of any child or children, and to order the payment of funds for the care and maintenance of the child, including but not limited to all or some part of medical care and mental health services, as authorized by law. The Court shall have all powers incident to such orders necessary for their enforcement, including the power and authority to require bond or other security for the payment of such order; and may resort to execution and the power of punishment for contempt for noncompliance with such order.

B. The Court shall have the right to increase, decrease, or otherwise modify its orders for care and maintenance, as the conditions or needs of the child or children may require and the ability of the person or persons held to pay may afford. The Court may order support payments to be made direct to the person, organization or institution having the care and custody of the child or children, or directly to the Clerk of the Court.

C. All such funds ordered and paid to the Clerk shall be accounted for; provided, that when payments are made in advance for any child, and custody of the Court is terminated before the end of the period, then the Clerk may refund, by proper voucher, the unused or unaccrued portion of such payment; or the refund may be authorized and paid on claim properly verified and approved by the Judge.

A willful violation of any provision of an order of the Court issued under the provisions of this act shall constitute indirect contempt of Court and shall be punishable as such. Punishment for any such act of contempt shall not exceed a fine of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), or imprisonment in the penal institution of Cherokee Nation or its contracted facility for not more than thirty (30) days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1123. Appeals

A. Any interested party aggrieved by any order or decree may appeal to the Supreme Court in the same manner as other appeals are taken to the Supreme Court of this Nation. An order either certifying a juvenile to stand trial as an adult or denying such certification shall be a final order, appealable when entered.

B. The record on appeal of an order of adjudication or of an order certifying or denying certification of a juvenile to stand trial as an adult shall be completed and the appeal perfected within sixty (60) days after the date of the order.

C. The pendency of an appeal thus taken shall not suspend the order of the District Court regarding a child, nor shall it discharge the child from the custody of that Court or of the person, institution or agency to whose care such child has been committed, unless the Supreme Court shall so order. The pendency of an appeal from an order of adjudication shall not prevent the District Court from holding a dispositional hearing unless the appellate court shall so order. The pendency of an appeal from an order certifying a juvenile to stand trial as an adult shall not prevent the commencement of criminal proceedings against the juvenile unless stayed by the judge who issued the order of certification or by the appellate court. If the Supreme Court does not dismiss the proceedings and discharge the child, it shall affirm or modify the order of the District Court and remand the child to the jurisdiction of that Court for supervision and care; and thereafter the child shall be and remain under the jurisdiction of the District Court in the same manner as if such Court had made such order without an appeal having been taken.

§ 1123.1. Appellate titling of case by initials of child

In the published opinions of the appellate courts of this Nation in juvenile proceedings including, but not limited to, adoption and paternity proceedings and proceedings under the juvenile code, the initial of the child's surname shall be used rather than his name.

§ 1123.2. Time for filing petition—Completion of record—Briefing schedule

A. All appeals of cases involving deprived or allegedly deprived children shall be initiated by filing a petition in error in the Supreme Court within thirty (30) days of the order appealed from. The record on appeal shall be completed within sixty (60) days from the date of the order.

B. The briefing schedule is established as follows:

1. Appellant's brief in chief shall be filed twenty (20) days after the trial court clerk notifies all parties that the record is complete and such notice has been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court;

2. Appellee's answer brief shall be filed fifteen (15) days after the appellant's brief in chief is filed;

3. Appellant's reply brief may be filed within ten (10) days after the appellee's answer brief is filed; and

4. Adjudication of the appeals described herein shall be expedited by the Supreme Court.

§ 1124. Mileage and witness fees

In proceedings under 10 CNCA § 1101 et seq., the Court may allow mileage as in civil actions to witnesses and reimbursement for expert witnesses but such shall not be tendered in advance of the hearing.

§ 1125. Records

The Court shall make and keep records of all cases brought before it. Such records shall be open to public inspection only by order of the Court to persons having a legitimate interest therein, except that all records of proceedings in adoption cases and all papers and books relating thereto shall remain confidential as provided by law. The Court shall devise and cause to be printed such forms for social and legal records and such other papers as may be required. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit inspection by any person who is entitled to inspect such records pursuant to any provision of this title.

§ 1127. Use of records or evidence in other causes or proceedings prohibited—Fingerprinting—Civil disability—Criminal status

A. A record of any child under this act, or any evidence given in such cause, shall not in any civil, criminal or other cause or proceeding in any Court be lawful or proper evidence against the child for any purpose whatever, except in subsequent cases against the same child under this act. The records of law enforcement officers concerning juveniles shall be maintained separate from records of arrests, and shall not be open to public inspection, or their contents disclosed, except by order of the Court.

B. If latent fingerprints are found during the investigation of an offense, a law enforcement officer may fingerprint a child for the purpose of comparing his fingerprints with the latent fingerprints, and the fingerprints may be sent to a law enforcement agency for comparison purposes only. If the comparison is negative or if the Court finds that the child did not commit the alleged offense, the child's fingerprint card and all copies of his fingerprints shall be destroyed immediately after the juvenile proceeding is completed unless the child is reported to a law enforcement agency as a missing child or a custodial parent, legal guardian or legal custodian of the child requests issuance of the fingerprint card to the parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian. If the child is reported to a law enforcement agency as a missing child, and only until the child is located, his fingerprints may be retained pursuant to the provisions of this section. If the Court finds that the child committed the alleged offense, or if the commission of the offense is admitted or not contested by the juvenile and his parents pursuant to an informal adjustment, deflection or diversion of the referral, his fingerprints may be retained either in a central state depository or in a local district court file which local depository may be a duly constituted law enforcement agency or agencies designated by the presiding judge of the juvenile docket.

C. No adjudication by the Court upon the status of a child in a juvenile proceeding shall operate to impose any of the civil disabilities ordinarily resulting from conviction of a crime, nor shall a child be deemed a criminal by reason of such adjudication, nor shall any arrest or detention under this chapter or any adjudication in a juvenile proceeding be deemed a detention or an arrest or conviction for purposes of employment, civil rights, or any statute, regulation, license, questionnaire, application, or any other public or private purposes; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent an adjudication in a juvenile proceeding:

1. from being considered in connection with the sentencing of said child should he be convicted in a criminal action after he has become an adult; or
2. from being used to show the bias, if any, of the child should he be a witness in any civil or criminal action either while a child or after he has become an adult.

D. Subsections (A) and (B) of this section shall not apply to the use, confidentiality and disposition of the records and fingerprints of a person who is sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years old and charged with one of the crimes enumerated in 10 CNCA § 1104.2.

§ 1129. Liberal construction of act

This title shall be liberally construed, to the end that its purpose may be carried out, to wit:

1. That the care and custody and discipline of the child shall approximate, as nearly as may be, that which should be given by its parents, and that, as far as practicable, any delinquent child shall not be treated as a criminal.
2. That the public policy of this Nation is to assure adequate and appropriate care and treatment for any child, to allow for the use of the least restrictive method of treatment consistent with the treatment needs of the child and, in the case of delinquents, the protection of the public, to provide orderly and reliable procedures for the placement of a child alleged to be a child in need of treatment and to protect the rights of any child placed out of his home pursuant to law.

§ 1130. Termination of parental rights in certain situations

A. The finding that a child is delinquent, in need of supervision or deprived shall not deprive the parents of the child of their parental rights, but a Court may terminate the rights of a parent to a child in the following situations:

1. Upon a written consent of a parent, including a parent who is a minor, acknowledged as provided in 10 CNCA § 60.5(4), who desires to terminate his parental rights; provided that the Court finds that such termination is in the best interests of the child; or
2. A finding that a parent who is entitled to custody of the child has abandoned it; or
3. A finding that:
 - a. the child is deprived, as defined in this chapter, and
 - b. such condition is caused by or contributed to by acts or omissions of his parent, and
 - c. termination of parental rights is in the best interests of the child, and
 - d. the parent has failed to show that the condition which led to the making of said finding has not been corrected although the parent has been given three (3) months to correct the condition; provided, that the parent shall be given notice of any hearing to determine if the condition has been corrected. The Court may extend the time in which such parent may show the condition has been corrected, if, in the judgment of the Court, such extension of time would be in the best interest of the child. During the period that the parent has to correct the condition the Court may return the child to the custody of its parent or guardian, subject to any conditions which it may wish to impose or the Court may place the child with an individual or an agency; or
4. A finding that a parent who does not have custody of the child has willfully failed to contribute to the support of the child as provided in a decree of divorce or in some other court order during the preceding year or, in the absence of such order, consistent with the parent's means and earning capacity; or

5. A conviction in a criminal action pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA or §§ 843, 845 [repealed], 1021.3, 1111 and 1123 or 10 O.S. §§ 7102 and 7115, 21 O.S. §§ 1021.3, 1111 and 1123, as amended, or a finding in a deprived child action either that:

a. the parent has physically or sexually abused the child or a sibling of such child or failed to protect the child or a sibling of such child from physical or sexual abuse that is heinous or shocking to the Court or that the child or sibling of such child has suffered severe harm or injury as a result of such physical or sexual abuse; or

b. the parent has physically or sexually abused the child or a sibling of such child or failed to protect the child or a sibling of such child from physical or sexual abuse subsequent to a previous finding that such parent has physically or sexually abused the child or a sibling of such child or failed to protect the child or a sibling of such child from physical or sexual abuse; or

6. A conviction in a criminal action that the parent has caused the death of a sibling of the child as a result of the physical or sexual abuse or chronic neglect of such sibling; or

7. A finding that all of the following exist:

a. the child is deprived, as defined in this chapter, and

b. custody of the child has been placed outside the home of a natural or adoptive parent, guardian or extended family member, and

c. the parent whose rights are sought to be terminated has been sentenced to a period of incarceration of not less than ten (10) years, and

d. the continuation of parental rights would result in harm to the child based on consideration of the following factors, among others: the duration of incarceration and its detrimental effect on the parent/child relationship; any previous incarcerations; any history of criminal behavior, including crimes against children; the age of the child; the evidence of abuse or neglect of the child or siblings of the child by the parent; and the current relationship between the parent and the child and the manner in which the parent has exercised parental rights and duties in the past, and

e. termination of parental rights is in the best interests of the child.

Provided, that the incarceration of a parent shall not in and of itself be sufficient to deprive a parent of his parental rights; or

8. A finding that all of the following exist:

- a. the child is deprived as defined in this chapter, and
- b. custody of the child has been placed outside the home of a natural or adoptive parent, guardian or extended family member, and
- c. the parent whose rights are sought to be terminated has a mental illness or mental deficiency, as defined by 43A O.S. § 6–201, Article II, paragraphs f and g, as amended, which renders the parent incapable of adequately and appropriately exercising parental rights, duties and responsibilities, and
- d. the continuation of parental rights would result in harm or threatened harm to the child, and
- e. the mental illness or mental deficiency of the parent is such that it will not respond to treatment, therapy or medication and, based upon competent medical opinion, the condition will not substantially improve, and
- f. termination of parental rights is in the best interests of the child.

Provided, a finding that a parent has a mental illness or mental deficiency shall not in and of itself deprive the parent of his parental rights.

B. Unless otherwise provided for by law, any parent or legal custodian of a child who willfully omits or neglects, without lawful excuse, to perform any duty imposed upon such parent or legal custodian by law to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical attendance for such child, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime. As used in this section, the duty to furnish medical attention shall mean that the parent or legal custodian of a child must furnish medical treatment in such manner and on such occasions as an ordinarily prudent person, solicitous for the welfare of a child, would provide; such parent or legal custodian is not criminally liable for failure to furnish medical attendance for every minor or trivial complaint with which the child may be afflicted. Any person who leaves the state to avoid providing necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical attendance for such child, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean a child is endangered for the sole reason the parent or guardian, in good faith, selects and depends upon spiritual means alone through prayer or traditional methods of healing, in accordance with the tenets and practice of a recognized church or religion for the treatment or cure of disease or remedial care of such child; provided, that medical care shall be provided where permanent physical damage could result to such child; and that the laws, rules and regulations relating to communicable diseases and sanitary matters are not violated. Nothing contained herein shall prevent a Court from immediately assuming custody of a child and ordering whatever action may be necessary, including medical treatment, to protect his health or welfare. Psychiatric and psychological testing and counseling are exempt from the provisions of this act.

C. An order directing the termination of parental rights is a final appealable order.

D. A parent or guardian of a child may petition the Court to terminate the parental rights of a parent or the parents of a child for any of the grounds listed in paragraphs (1), (2) or (4) of subsection (A) of this section. A prior finding by a Court that a child is delinquent, deprived or in need of supervision shall not be required for the filing of such petition by the parent or guardian.

§ 1131. Notice of hearing to terminate parental rights

A. A parent shall be given actual notice of any hearing to terminate his parental rights. The notice shall indicate the relief requested, and the hearing shall not be held until at least ten (10) days after the receipt of such notice, except with the consent of the parent, if known. If the Court finds that the whereabouts of the parent cannot be ascertained, it may order that notice be given by publication and a copy mailed to the last-known address of the parent. The notice shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the action to terminate parental rights is brought, and the hearing shall not be held for at least ten (10) days after the date of publication of the notice. Except as otherwise provided by subsection (B) of this section, if a parent has not received actual notice of the hearing at which he is deprived of his parental rights, the order depriving him of those rights shall not become final for a period of six (6) months after the hearing. Nothing in this section shall prevent a Court from immediately taking custody of a child and ordering whatever action may be necessary to protect his health or welfare.

B. For the purpose of terminating parental rights, a father or putative father of a child born out of wedlock who has not, prior to commencement of a proceeding to terminate parental rights to such child, exercised parental rights and duties or whose consent is not required pursuant to 10 CNCA § 60.6 shall not be deemed to have parental rights to such child. The father or putative father shall be entitled to notice and an opportunity to be heard pursuant to this section and 10 CNCA § 29.1, except that the Court may:

1. waive notice to a putative father whose identity is unknown to the mother of the child born out of wedlock and the mother of the child signs a sworn statement before the Court that the identity of the father or putative father of the child is unknown and the Court is satisfied, after inquiry into the matter, that his identity is unknown and with due diligence could not be determined; the willful and deliberate falsification of said sworn statement shall be perjury and shall, upon conviction, be punishable as otherwise provided by law. The waiver of notice by the Court pursuant to this paragraph shall not constitute grounds to challenge an adoption of the child; and

2. when the identity of the father or putative father of a child born out of wedlock is known but his whereabouts is unknown and the Court, after inquiry, is satisfied that after diligent search his whereabouts remains unknown, order that notice be given by publication as provided in subsection (A) of this section and a copy mailed to the last-known address, if known, of such father or putative father. When notice is given by publication the order terminating parental rights shall not become final for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of the order.

§ 1132. Effect of termination of parental rights

The termination of parental rights terminates the parent-child relationship, including the parent's right to the custody of the child and his right to visit the child, his right to control the child's training and education, the necessity for the parent to consent to the adoption of the child and the parent's right to the earnings of the child, and the parent's right to inherit from or through the child. Provided, that nothing herein shall in any way affect the right of the child to inherit from the parent.

§ 1133. Custody with authority to consent to adoption after termination of parental rights

A. After parental rights have been terminated, a Court may award custody of the child to any qualified person or agency with authority to consent to the adoption of the child, or the Court, in its discretion, may reserve the authority to consent to the adoption of the child; but a Court cannot consent to or authorize any person or agency to consent to the adoption of a child unless the rights of the parents have been terminated in accordance with the provisions of this act.

B. When an interlocutory or final decree of adoption has been rendered, a decree terminating parental rights cannot be challenged on any ground either by a direct or a collateral attack, more than three (3) months after its rendition. The minority of the natural parent shall not operate to prevent this time limit from running.

§ 1134. Action to adopt not to be combined with action to terminate parental rights

A. Except as otherwise provided for in subsection (B) of this section, an action to adopt a child may not be combined with an action to terminate parental rights and when the rights of a parent have been terminated, neither an interlocutory nor a final decree of adoption may be rendered until the decree terminating parental rights has become final.

B. This section shall not apply to:

1. a proceeding to adopt a child without the consent of a parent when the Court has determined that consent is not legally required; or
2. a proceeding to adopt a child born out of wedlock when the mother of the child is granting consent to the adoption and is a party to the action; or
3. proceedings pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 60.6.

§ 1135. Placement determination

A. It is the intent of the Tribal Council of Cherokee Nation that the placement of each child adjudicated to be a ward of the Court and placed in the custody of Cherokee Nation will assure such care and guidance of the child, preferably in his home, as will serve the spiritual, emotional, mental and physical welfare of the child and will preserve and strengthen the family ties of the child whenever possible, with recognition of the fundamental rights of parenthood and with recognition of the responsibility of the Nation to assist the family in providing necessary education and training and to reduce the rate of juvenile delinquency and to provide a system for the rehabilitation and reintegration of juvenile delinquents and the protection of the welfare of the general public. In pursuit of these goals it is the intention of the Tribal Council to provide for removing the child from the custody of parents only when the welfare of the child or the safety and protection of the public cannot be adequately safeguarded without removal; and when the child has to be removed from his family, to secure for the child custody, care and discipline consistent with the best interests and the treatment needs of the child.

B. Cherokee Nation shall review and assess each child committed to it to determine the type of placement consistent with the treatment needs of the child in the nearest geographic proximity to the home of the child and, in the case of delinquent children, the protection of the public. Such review and assessment shall include an investigation of the personal and family history of the child, and his environment, and any physical or mental examinations considered necessary.

C. In making such review, Cherokee Nation or the Department may use any facilities, public or private, which offer aid to it in the determination of the correct placement of the child.

§ 1135.1. Child in need of treatment—Care and placement—Evaluation—Inpatient care and treatment

A. Cherokee Nation may provide for the care of a child adjudicated to be a child in need of treatment who is in the custody of Cherokee Nation:

1. in the home of the child, the home of a relative of the child, a foster home, a group home or in any other community-based child care facility under the jurisdiction or licensure of Cherokee Nation or the Department of Human Services appropriate for the care of the child and shall provide for the outpatient care and treatment of the child; or

2. Cherokee Nation may place a child in need of treatment and found by a Court to be eligible to receive inpatient care and treatment as provided in 10 CNCA § 1116 in a government-operated treatment center or other public or private mental health facility. Cherokee Nation may place such child in a Cherokee Nation-approved inpatient treatment facility or with the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services upon the consent of the Commissioner of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services or his designee. The Department shall establish a system for the regular review by a qualified mental health professional, at intervals of not more than sixty (60) days, of the case of each child in need of treatment in the custody of Cherokee Nation and receiving inpatient care and treatment to determine whether or not continued inpatient treatment is required and appropriate for the child. When such child no longer requires inpatient care and treatment in a mental health treatment facility, Cherokee Nation shall place the child as provided in paragraph 1 of this subsection.

B. In providing for the outpatient care and the treatment of children in its custody who have been adjudicated in need of treatment, Cherokee Nation shall utilize to the maximum extent possible and appropriate the services available through:

1. the guidance centers operated by Cherokee Nation, the federal government, or State Department of Health; and

2. the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services or Cherokee Nation; and
3. community-based private nonprofit agencies and organizations.

C. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to require Cherokee Nation to place a child found by a Court to be eligible for inpatient mental health treatment in a mental health facility when Cherokee Nation determines that such placement is inappropriate or unnecessary for the treatment needs of the child.

§ 1136. Cherokee Nation to care for deprived children

It shall be the responsibility of Cherokee Nation to provide care for deprived children who are committed to the care of Cherokee Nation for custody or guardianship. Cherokee Nation may provide for the care of such children in the home of the child, the home of a relative of the child, in a foster home, group home, transitional living program, independent living program or in any other community-based facility established for the care of deprived children. A deprived child found to be a child in need of treatment and eligible for residential care and treatment, as provided in 10 CNCA § 1116, by the Court, may be placed in a Department of Human Services treatment center or other mental health facility.

§ 1137. Child adjudicated in need of supervision—Placement—Rehabilitative facilities—Residential care and treatment

A. Whenever a child who has been adjudicated by the Court as a child in need of supervision has been committed to Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Nation may place the child in the home of the child, the home of a relative of the child, foster home, group home, transitional living program, independent living program, community-based setting, rehabilitative facility or child care facility, or in a state school for the mentally retarded if eligible for admission thereto.

B. Cherokee Nation may establish, maintain, or contract one or more rehabilitative facilities to be used exclusively for the custody of children in need of supervision.

C. A child in need of supervision who has been found to be a child in need of treatment and to be eligible for residential care and treatment, as provided in 10 CNCA § 1116, by the Court, may be placed in a mental health facility contracted or deemed appropriate by the District Court.

§ 1138. Delinquent children—Intent of Tribal Council—Powers and duties of Cherokee Nation

A. It is the intent of the Tribal Council of this Nation to provide for the creation of all reasonable means and methods that can be established by the Nation for the prevention of delinquency and for the care and rehabilitation of delinquent children. It is further the intent of the Tribal Council that this Nation, through Cherokee Nation, establish, maintain and continuously refine and develop a balanced and comprehensive program for children who are potentially delinquent or are delinquent.

B. Whenever a child who has been adjudicated by the Court as a delinquent child has been committed to Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Nation may:

1. Place the child in a training school or other institution or facility maintained by a government for delinquent children if the child has:

a. exhibited seriously violent, aggressive or assaultive behavior; or

b. committed a crime which if committed by an adult under the laws of a state would be a felony involving violent, aggressive and assaultive behavior; or

c. habitually committed serious delinquent acts; or

d. committed multiple serious delinquent acts; to the extent that it is necessary for the protection of the public; or

2. Place the child in a facility maintained by Cherokee Nation or the State of Oklahoma for children, or in a foster home, group home, transitional living program or community residential center; or

3. Allow the child his liberty, under supervision, in an independent living program; or

4. Allow the child his liberty, under supervision, either immediately or after a period in one of the facilities referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subsection; or

5. Place the child in a school for mentally retarded, if the child is eligible for admission thereto; or

6. Place the child in any licensed private facility deemed by Cherokee Nation to be in the best interest of the child; or

7. Place the child in a government-operated treatment center or other mental health facility if the delinquent child has been found to be in need of treatment and to be eligible for residential care and treatment, as provided in 10 CNCA § 1116, by the Court.

§ 1139. Discharge of children adjudicated delinquent—Retaining custody

A. All children adjudicated delinquent and committed to Cherokee Nation shall be discharged at such time as Cherokee Nation determines there is a reasonable probability that it is no longer necessary, either for the rehabilitation and treatment of the child, or for the protection of the public, that Cherokee Nation retain legal custody. Following a hearing, the Court may also order that a child adjudged delinquent and committed to Cherokee Nation shall be discharged by Cherokee Nation provided the child is on parole status and the Court deems the discharge in the best interest of the child and public.

B. All children adjudged delinquent and committed to Cherokee Nation and not discharged under subsection (A) of this section shall be discharged when the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age, unless Cherokee Nation is authorized by the Court to retain custody of the child until nineteen (19) years of age. Upon motion of Cherokee Nation the Court, after notice to the delinquent child and to the parents and attorney of said child, may authorize Cherokee Nation to retain custody of the child until he reaches nineteen (19) years of age. If the Court sustains the motion of Cherokee Nation, the delinquent child during the extended period shall be considered as a child for purposes of receiving services from Cherokee Nation. If a criminal offense is committed by the individual during the extended period, said offense shall be considered as having been committed by an adult. Except to the extent necessary to effectuate the purposes of this section, an individual after age eighteen (18) is considered an adult for purposes of other applicable law.

C. Cherokee Nation shall not place a child under ten (10) years of age in an institution maintained for delinquent children.

§ 1140. Children becoming unmanageable and uncontrollable

If a child who has been adjudicated as a delinquent, a child in need of supervision, or deprived, and who has been committed to Cherokee Nation becomes unmanageable and uncontrollable while in the legal custody of Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Nation may return the child to the Court having original jurisdiction for further disposition or may provide information to the Prosecuting Attorney and request the filing of a petition alleging the child to be delinquent or in need of treatment, if such petition is warranted by the facts in the case.

§ 1141. Intake, probation and parole services

Cherokee Nation shall provide intake, probation and parole services for juveniles pursuant to the provisions of 10 CNCA § 602 and may enter into agreements to supplement probationary services to juveniles with the state, county or federal government. Cherokee Nation may participate in federal programs for juvenile probation officers, and may apply for, receive, use and administer federal funds for such purpose.

§ 1142. Cooperative agreements for education and training of children

Cherokee Nation may enter into cooperative agreements with any other federal, state, county, or local entity for the purpose of enhancing services, supplementing existing services and/or collaborating this services on behalf of Cherokee children and families. Moreover, Cherokee Nation may apply for, receive and administer federal, state funds as a result of any cooperative effort.

§ 1143. Commitment of children to institution—Delivery

When a child is committed to the custody of Cherokee Nation under the provisions of this act, the Court shall order the child to be delivered by law enforcement offices to an institution, or other place, designated by the Court.

§ 1144. Causing, aiding, abetting or encouraging minor to become delinquent, in need of supervision, or dependent and neglected—Penalty

Any person who knowingly and willfully:

1. causes, aids, abets or encourages a minor to be, to remain or to become delinquent, in need of supervision or dependent and neglected; or

2. omits the performance of any duty, which act or omission causes or tends to cause, aid, abet, or encourage any minor to be delinquent, in need of supervision or dependent and neglected, within the purview of 10 CNCA § 1101(2), (3) or (4), upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime and, as applicable, shall be punished pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 856, 858.1 or 858.2.

§ 1145. Cherokee Nation to serve as legal guardian

Whenever parental rights of a child have been terminated and the child is committed to Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Nation shall serve as the legal guardian of the estate of the child, until another guardian is legally appointed, for the purpose of preserving the child's property rights, securing for the child any benefits to which he may be entitled under social security programs, insurance, claims against third parties, and otherwise, and receiving and administering such funds or property for the care and education of the child.

§ 1146. Escape or run away from institutional placement

Upon discovery that a child has escaped or run away from an institutional placement, Cherokee Nation may notify any law enforcement officer or agency in this state who shall use any reasonable method to notify law enforcement agencies and personnel. Upon receiving notification that a child has escaped or run away from an institutional placement, all law enforcement agencies and personnel shall be authorized to apprehend and detain said child. Escaping or running away by an adjudicated delinquent child from institutional placement shall be considered by the Court of juvenile jurisdiction as a delinquent act.

§ 1147. Admissibility of prerecorded statements of child age twelve or under who is victim of abuse

A. This section shall apply only to a proceeding affecting the parent-child, guardian-child or family relationship in which a child twelve (12) years of age or younger is alleged to have been abused, and shall apply only to the statement of that child or other child witness.

B. The recording of an oral statement of the child made before the proceedings begin is admissible into evidence if:

1. The Court determines that the time, content and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient indicia of reliability; no corroboration of the child's statement is necessary for admission;
2. No attorney for any party is present when the statement is made;
3. The recording is both visual and aural and is recorded on film or videotape or by other electronic means;
4. The recording equipment is capable of making an accurate recording, the operator of the equipment is competent and the recording is accurate and has not been altered;
5. The statement is not made in response to questioning calculated to lead the child to make a particular statement or is clearly shown to be the child's statement and not made solely as a result of a leading or suggestive question;
6. Every voice on the recording is identified;
7. The person conducting the interview of the child in the recording is present at the proceeding and is available to testify or be cross-examined by any party; and
8. Each party to the proceeding is afforded an opportunity to view the recording before it is offered into evidence, and a copy of a written transcript transcribed by a licensed or certified court reporter is provided to the parties.

§ 1148. Taking testimony of child age twelve or under in room other than courtroom—Recording

A. This section shall apply only to a proceeding affecting the parent-child, guardian-child or family relationship in which a child twelve (12) years of age or younger is alleged to have been abused, and shall apply only to the testimony of that child or other child witness.

B. The Court may, on the motion of a party to the proceeding, order that the testimony of the child be taken in a room other than the courtroom and be televised by closed-circuit equipment in the courtroom to be viewed by the Court, the finder of fact and the parties to the proceeding. Only an attorney for each party, an attorney ad litem for the child or other person whose presence would contribute to the welfare and well-being of the child and persons necessary to operate the equipment may be present in the room with the child during his testimony. Only the attorneys for the parties may question the child. The persons operating the equipment shall be confined to an adjacent room or behind a screen or mirror that permits them to see and hear the child during his testimony, but does not permit the child to see or hear them.

C. The Court may, on the motion of a party to the proceeding, order that the testimony of the child be taken outside the courtroom and be recorded for showing in the courtroom before the Court, the finder of fact and the parties to the proceeding. Only those persons permitted to be present at the taking of testimony under subsection (B) of this section may be present during the taking of the child's testimony. Only the attorneys for the parties may question the child, and the persons operating the equipment shall be confined from the child's sight and hearing. The Court shall ensure that:

1. The recording is both visual and aural and is recorded on film or videotape or by other electronic means;
2. The recording equipment is capable of making an accurate recording, the operator of the equipment is competent and the recording is accurate and has not been altered;
3. Every voice on the recording is identified; and
4. Each party to the proceeding is afforded an opportunity to view the recording before it is shown in the courtroom, and a copy of a written transcript transcribed by a licensed or certified court reporter is provided to the parties.

D. If the testimony of a child is taken as provided by subsections (B) or (C) of this section, the child shall not be compelled to testify in Court during the proceeding.

§ 1149. Aggravated assault and battery upon employee of facility for delinquent children

A. Every person who, without justifiable or excusable cause, knowingly commits any aggravated assault and battery upon the person of an employee of a facility maintained primarily for delinquent children, while the employee is in the performance of his duties, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a crime.

B. This act shall not supersede any other act or acts, but shall be cumulative thereto.

ARTICLE III. AREA CHILDREN'S DETENTION CENTERS

§ 1301. Establishment of area detention centers

Cherokee Nation may establish and maintain area children's detention centers where children committed thereto by District Judges or placed therein by peace officers may be kept, temporarily, subject to orders of the District Courts. Any such center may be maintained at a institution under the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation; or may, by contractual arrangement, be maintained at a facility established for the detention of juveniles.

§ 1403.1. Rules, regulations, policies and procedures regarding children in Cherokee Nation custody

A. Cherokee Nation shall promulgate written rules and regulations, outline policies and procedures governing the operation of those institutions and other facilities operated by Cherokee Nation wherein juveniles may be housed. Said policies and procedures shall include, but not be limited to, standards of cleanliness, temperature and lighting, availability of medical and dental care, provision of food, furnishings, clothing and toilet articles, supervision, appropriate and permissible use of restriction and confinement, procedures for enforcing rules of conduct consistent with due process of law and visitation privileges.

B. The policies prescribed shall, at a minimum, ensure that:

1. A child shall not be punished by physical force, deprivation of nutritious meals, deprivation of family visits or solitary confinement;
2. A child shall have the opportunity to participate in physical exercise each day;
3. A child shall be allowed daily access to showers and his own clothing or individualized clothing which is clean;
4. A child shall have constant access to writing materials and may send mail without limitation, censorship or prior reading, and may receive mail without prior reading, except that mail may be opened in the presence of the child, without being read, to inspect for contraband;
5. A child shall have reasonable opportunity to communicate and to visit with his family on a regular basis, and to communicate with persons in the community;
6. A child shall have immediate access to medical care as needed, and shall receive necessary psychological and psychiatric services;
7. A child in the custody or care of Cherokee Nation shall be provided access to education including teaching, educational materials and books, provided, that such policies shall provide emphasis upon basic literacy skills, including but not limited to curricula requirements stressing reading, writing, mathematics, science, vocational-technical education, and other courses of instruction designed to assure that such children will be capable of being assimilated into society as productive adults capable of self-support and full participation;
8. A child shall have reasonable access to an attorney upon request;
9. A child shall be afforded a grievance procedure, including an appeal procedure; and
10. A child's mental health needs and mental well-being will be met, protected and served through provision of guidance, counseling and treatment programs, staffed by competent, professionally qualified persons, serving under the supervision of licensed psychologists, psychiatrists or licensed clinical social workers.

§ 1403.2. Use of physical force—Mechanical restraints

A. Use of physical force in institutions and other facilities operated by Cherokee Nation wherein children are housed shall be permitted only under the following circumstances:

1. For self-protection;
2. To separate juveniles who are fighting;
3. To restrain juveniles in danger of inflicting harm to themselves or others; or
4. To restrain juveniles who have escaped or who are in the process of escaping.

B. When use of physical force is authorized, the least force necessary under the circumstances shall be employed.

C. Staff members of residential and nonresidential programs who are assigned to work with juveniles shall receive written guidelines on the use of physical force, and that, in accordance with staff disciplinary procedures, loss of employment may result if unauthorized use of physical force is proven.

D. Use of mechanical restraints in institutions and other facilities operated by Cherokee Nation wherein children are housed shall be minimal and shall be prohibited except as specifically provided for in the regulations of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1404.1. Juvenile Offender Victim Restitution Work Program

There is hereby created a program of juvenile crime victim restitution to be administered by Cherokee Nation. The program shall be known as the "Juvenile Offender Victim Restitution Work Program".

1. Cherokee Nation shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this act.

2. The programs developed under the provisions of this act shall provide restitution to a victim by requiring the child to work or provide a service for the victim, or to make monetary restitution to the victim from money earned from such a program. The supervised work or service program shall not deprive the child of schooling which is appropriate to his age, need, and specific rehabilitative goals. Provided, such program shall not prohibit the child from fulfilling his restitution obligation through jobs he has found, by performing volunteer services for the community, or by doing work for the victim.

3. Agreements for participation in the programs under this act may include restitution not in excess of actual damages caused by the child which shall be paid from the net earnings of the child received through participation in a constructive program of service or education acceptable to the child, the victim, Cherokee Nation, the prosecuting attorney and/or the District Court. During the course of such service, the child shall be paid no less than the federal minimum wage. In considering such agreement, Cherokee Nation, the Prosecuting Attorney and/or the District Court shall take into account the child's age, physical and mental capacity. The service shall be designed to relate to the child a sense of responsibility for the injuries caused to the person or property of another. If a petition has not been filed, the prosecuting attorney shall approve the nature of the work, the number of hours to be spent performing the assigned tasks and shall further specify that as part of a plan of treatment and rehabilitation, that fifty percent (50%) or more of the child's net earnings be used for restitution in order to provide positive reinforcement for the work performed. If a petition has been filed, the District Court may approve the nature of the work, the number of hours to be spent performing the assigned tasks and may further specify that as part of a plan of treatment and rehabilitation, that fifty percent (50%) or more of the child's net earnings be used for restitution.

4. Cherokee Nation may subsidize the employment of a child for the purposes of participation in a work program as provided by this section.

5. Any person, entity or political subdivision who is an employer of children or recipient of services either of which are under an agreement with the Juvenile Offender Victim Restitution Work Program shall not be liable for ordinary negligence for:

a. Damage to the property of the child or injury to the child except as to the liability established by the Workers' Compensation Act, 85 CNCA § 1 et seq., if the child is covered thereunder; or

b. Damage to any property or injury to any person; which results from the services of the child pursuant to this act.

§ 1405. Enforcement

The prosecuting attorney and any other law enforcement official having jurisdiction, shall have the authority to bring civil actions against any person, officer or department, board, commission or other entity, to enforce the provisions of 10 CNCA § 1101 et seq. or to enforce any of the laws of this Nation protecting or applying in any way to children removed from the custody of the lawful parent or parents of the child by a disposition order of the Court.

A. The malicious or wanton neglect, or sexual, physical or emotional abuse perpetrated by any person upon a child in the care or custody, or under the supervision of Cherokee Nation including employees of any agency, on duty or not, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Every co-worker, supervisor, supervisee or other individual witnessing the abuse or neglect or having reason to suspect abuse or neglect, has a duty to notify the Cherokee Nation Marshal, Cherokee Nation Department of Children's Services or its successor, and the Oklahoma Child Abuse Hotline. This report shall be made directly without notice to the person suspected of abuse, including the supervisor of an employee. It shall be a crime to fail to report abuse described in this section.

This act may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Act."

1. Findings and purpose.

a. Findings. The Council of Cherokee Nation, after careful review of the problem of child abuse on Indian country, finds that:

i. Incidents of abuse of children in Indian country are grossly under-reported, ii. There is no resource that is more vital to the continued existence and integrity of Cherokee Nation than its children and Cherokee Nation has a direct interest, as trustee, in protecting Indian children who are citizens of, or are eligible for citizenship in Cherokee Nation.

b. Purposes. The purposes of this act are to:

i. Require that reports of abused Indian children are made to the appropriate authorities in an effort to prevent further abuse, ii. Authorize such other actions as are necessary to ensure effective child protection in Indian country,

iii. Provide for the treatment and prevention of incidents of family violence,

iv. Provide minimum standards of character and suitability for employment or volunteerism for individuals whose duties and responsibilities allow them regular contact with or control over Indian children,

v. Authorize other actions necessary to ensure effective child protection on Indian country.

2. Definitions. For the purposes of this act, the term:

a. "Abuse" means harm or threatened harm to a child's health, safety or welfare by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare, including sexual abuse and sexual exploitation;

b. "Bureau" means the Bureau of Indian Affairs of the Department of the Interior;

c. "Child" means any person under the age of eighteen (18) years, except any person convicted of a crime where statute requires that persons charged with such crimes must be considered adults or any person who has been certified as an adult and convicted of a felony;

d. "Child advocacy center" means an entity that is a full member in good standing with Cherokee Nation or the State of Oklahoma's standard for accreditation;

e. "Child protective services worker" means a person employed by the Department with sufficient experience or training as determined by the Department in child abuse prevention and identification;

f. "Confirmed report—court intervention" means a report which is determined by a child protective services worker, after an investigation and based upon some credible evidence, to constitute child abuse or neglect which is of such a nature that the Department finds that the child's health, safety or welfare is threatened, and court intervention is being recommended;

g. "Confirmed report—services recommended" means a report which is determined by a child protective services worker, after an investigation and based upon some credible evidence, to constitute child abuse or neglect which is of such a nature that the Department recommends prevention and intervention-related services for the parents or persons responsible for the care of the child or children, but for which initial court intervention is not required;

h. "Department" means the Cherokee Nation Department of Children, Youth, and Family Services' Indian Child Welfare Program;

i. "Family violence" means any act, or threatened act, of violence, including any forceful detention of an individual, which:

i. results, or threatens to result, in physical or mental injury, and

ii. is committed by an individual against another individual:

(a) to whom such person is or was, related by blood or marriage or otherwise legally related, or

(b) with whom such person is, or was, residing.

j. "Harm or threatened harm to a child's health or safety" includes, but is not limited to:

i. nonaccidental physical or mental injury,

ii. sexual abuse,

iii. sexual exploitation,

iv. neglect,

v. failure or omission to provide protection from harm or threatened harm, or

vi. abandonment.

k. "Indian" means any individual who is a member of an Indian tribe or is eligible for membership in an Indian tribe.

l. "Indian child" has the meaning given to such term by Section 4(4) of the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978 (25 U.S.C. § 1903(4)).

m. "Indian country" has the meaning given to such term by 18 U.S.C. § 1151.

n. "Investigation" means an approach utilized by the Department to respond to reports of alleged child abuse or neglect which, according to priority guidelines established by the Department, constitute a serious and immediate threat to the child's health or safety. An investigation includes, but is not limited to, the following elements:

i. an evaluation of the child's safety or welfare,

ii. a determination whether or not child abuse or neglect occurred, and

iii. a determination regarding the family's need for prevention and intervention-related services;

o. "Local child protective services agency" means that agency of the federal government, of a state, or of an Indian tribe that has the primary responsibility for child protection on any Indian reservation or within any community in Indian country.

p. "Local law enforcement agency" means that federal, tribal, or state law enforcement agency that has the primary responsibility for the investigation of an instance of alleged child abuse within the portion of Indian country involved.

q. "Neglect" means failure or omission to provide:

i. adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical care, and supervision,

ii. special care made necessary by the physical or mental condition of the child, or

iii. abandonment.

r. "Person responsible for a child's health, safety or welfare" includes a parent; a legal guardian; a custodian; a foster parent; a person eighteen (18) years of age or older with whom the child's parent cohabitates or any other adult residing in the home of the child; an agent or employee of a public or private residential home, institution, facility or day treatment program; or an owner, operator, volunteer, or employee of a child care facility;

s. "Prevention and intervention-related services" means community-based programs that serve children and families on a voluntary and time-limited basis to help reduce the likelihood or incidence of child abuse and neglect.

t. "Related assistance":

i. includes counseling and self-help services to abusers, victims, and dependents in family violence situations (which shall include counseling of all family members to the extent feasible) and referrals for appropriate healthcare services (including alcohol and drug abuse treatment), and

ii. may include food, clothing, child care, transportation, and emergency services for victims of family violence and their dependents.

u. "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior.

v. "Service" means the Indian Health Service of the Department of Health and Human Services.

w. "Services not needed determination" means a report in which a child protective services worker, after an investigation, determines that there is no identified risk of abuse or neglect;

x. "Services recommended determination" means a report in which a child protective services worker, after an investigation, determines the allegations to be unfounded or for which there is insufficient evidence to fully determine whether child abuse or neglect has occurred, but one in which the Department determines that the child and the child's family could benefit from receiving prevention and intervention-related services;

y. "Sexual abuse" includes, but is not limited to, rape, incest and lewd or indecent acts or proposals made to a child, as defined by law, by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare;

z. "Sexual exploitation" includes, but is not limited to, allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution, as defined by law, by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare or allowing, permitting, encouraging, or engaging in the lewd, obscene, or pornographic photographing, filming, or depicting of a child in those acts as defined by the state law, by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare;

aa. "Shelter" means the provision of temporary refuge and related assistance in compliance with applicable federal and Tribal laws and regulations governing the provision, on a regular basis, of shelter, safe homes, meals, and related assistance to victims of family violence or their dependents.

3. Reporting procedures; report to local law enforcement agency.

a. Any person who is:

i. a physician, surgeon, dentist, podiatrist, chiropractor, nurse, dental hygienist, optometrist, medical examiner, emergency medical technician, paramedic, or health care provider,

ii. a teacher, school counselor, instructional aide, teacher's aide, teacher's assistant, or bus driver employed by any tribal, federal, public or private school,

iii. an administrative officer, supervisor of child welfare and attendance, or truancy officer of any tribal, federal, public or private school,

iv. a child day care worker, HeadStart teacher, public assistance worker, worker in a group home or residential or day care facility, or social worker,

v. a psychiatrist, psychologist, or psychological assistant,

vi. a licensed or unlicensed marriage, family, or child counselor,

vii. a person employed in the mental health profession, or viii. a law enforcement officer, probation officer, worker in a juvenile rehabilitation or detention facility, or person employed in a public agency who is responsible for enforcing statutes and judicial orders;

b. who knows, or has reasonable suspicion, that:

i. a child was abused in Indian country, or

ii. actions are being taken, or are going to be taken, that would reasonably be expected to result in abuse of a child in Indian country; and

c. fails to immediately report such abuse or actions described in paragraph b of this subdivision to the local child protective services agency or local law enforcement agency, shall be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months, or both.

d. Any person who supervises, or has authority over, a person described in this subdivision, who inhibits or prevents that person from making the report described in this subdivision, shall be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months, or both.

e. For purposes of this section, the term:

i. "Abuse" includes:

(a) any case in which a child is dead or exhibits evidence of skin bruising, bleeding, malnutrition, failure to thrive, burns, fracture of any bone, subdural hematoma, soft tissue swelling, and such condition is not justifiably explained or may not be the product of an accidental occurrence, and

(b) any case in which a child is subjected to sexual assault, sexual molestation, sexual exploitation, sexual contact, or prostitution;

ii. "Child" means any person under the age of eighteen (18) years, except any person convicted of a crime where statute requires that persons charged with such crimes must be considered adults or any person who has been certified as an adult and convicted of a felony;

iii. "Local child protective services agency" means that agency of the federal government, of a state, or of an Indian tribe that has the primary responsibility for child protection on any Indian reservation or within any community in Indian country; and

iv. "Local law enforcement agency" means that federal, tribal, or state law enforcement agency that has the primary responsibility for the investigation of an instance of alleged child abuse within the portion of Indian country involved.

f. Any person making a report described in this subdivision which is based upon their reasonable belief and which is made in good faith shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for making that report.

g. Notification of child abuse reports:

i. When a local law enforcement agency or local child protective services agency receives an initial report from any person of:

(a) the abuse of a child in Indian country, or

(b) actions which would reasonably be expected to result in abuse of a child in Indian country, the receiving agency shall immediately notify appropriate officials of the other agency of such report and shall also submit, when prepared, a copy of the written report required under paragraph (h) of this subdivision to such agency.

ii. Where a report of abuse involves an Indian child or where the alleged abuse is an Indian and where a preliminary inquiry indicates a criminal violation has occurred, the local law enforcement agency, if other than the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall immediately report such occurrence to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

h. Written report of child abuse:

i. Within thirty-six (36) hours after receiving an initial report as described in this subdivision, the receiving agency shall prepare a written report which shall include, at a minimum, if available:

(a) the name, address, age, and sex of the child that is the subject matter of the report,

(b) the grade and the school in which the child is currently enrolled,

(c) the name and address of the child's parents or other person responsible for the child's care,

(d) the name and address of the alleged offender,

(e) the name and address of the person who made the report to the agency,

(f) a brief narrative as to the nature and extent of the child's injuries, including any previously known or suspected abuse of the child or the child's siblings and the suspected date of the abuse, and

(g) any other information the agency or the person who made the report to the agency believes to be important to the investigation and disposition of the alleged abuse.

ii. (a) Any local law enforcement agency or local child protective services agency that receives a report alleging abuse described in this subdivision shall immediately initiate an investigation of such allegation and shall take immediate, appropriate steps to secure the safety and well-being of the child or children involved.

(b) Upon completion of the investigation of any report of alleged abuse that is made to a local law enforcement agency or local child protective services agency, such agency shall prepare a final written report on such allegation.

j. Confidentiality of informant: The identity of any person making a report described in this subdivision shall not be disclosed, without the consent of the individual, to any person other than a court of competent jurisdiction or an employee of an Indian tribe, a state or the federal government who needs to know the information in the performance of such employee's duties.

4. Confidentiality. Agencies of any Indian tribe, of any state, or of the federal government that investigate and treat incidents of abuse of children may provide information and records to those agencies of any Indian tribe, any state, or the federal government that need to know the information in performance of their duties. For purposes of this section, Indian tribal governments shall be treated the same as other federal government entities.

5. Waiver of parental consent.

a. Examination and interviews. Photographs, x-rays, medical examinations, psychological examinations, and interviews of an Indian child alleged to have been subject to abuse in Indian country shall be allowed without parental consent, if local child protective services or local law enforcement officials have reason to believe the child has been subject to abuse.

b. Interviews by law enforcement and child protective services officials. In any case in which officials of the local law enforcement agency or local child protective services agency have reason to believe that an Indian child has been subject to abuse in Indian country, the officials of those agencies shall be allowed to interview the child without first obtaining the consent of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian.

c. Protection of child. Examinations and interviews of a child who may have been the subject of abuse shall be conducted under such circumstances and with such safeguards as are designed to minimize additional trauma to the child.

d. Court order. Upon a finding of reasonable suspicion that an Indian child has been the subject of abuse in Indian country, a judge of the District Court may issue an order enforcing any provision of this action.

6. Character investigation.

a. The Cherokee Nation Human Resources Department shall conduct an investigation of the character of each individual who is employed by, or is being considered for employment by, is subject to the supervision of, or receives funding from Cherokee Nation, in a position that involves regular contact with, or control over, Indian children.

b. Cherokee Nation shall employ individuals in those positions having regular contact with or control over Indian children only if the individuals meet standards of character regarding care, custody, and safety of children established by the Human Resources Department subject to approval of the Principal Chief.

c. i. The Human Resources Department shall establish a list of positions at Cherokee Nation which involve regular contact with or control over Indian children.

ii. The positions listed by the Human Resources Department must include, at a minimum, any employee or volunteer of a children's residential facility, any position providing out-of-home care, education or services to children. The position list shall also include, but not be limited to:

(a) adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff who have regular contact with or control over Indian children,

(b) any staff person, volunteer, or official of the Nation who engages in regular contact with children as part of their duties with the Nation, and

(c) any staff person, volunteer, or official of the Nation who engages in activities with children where the activities include overnight stays with children.

iii. The following may be excluded from the character investigation requirement:

(a) A volunteer providing time-limited specialized services if this person is directly supervised by an individual who has cleared a character investigation, and the volunteer spends no more than sixteen (16) hours per week engaging in activities with children, and the volunteer does not spend any overnights with the children, and the volunteer is not left alone with children in care,

(b) A student enrolled or participating at an accredited educational institution if the student is directly supervised by an individual who has cleared a character investigation, the facility has an agreement with the educational institution concerning the placement of the student, and the volunteer does not spend any overnights with the children, and the student spends no more than sixteen (16) hours per week engaging in activities with children, and the student is not left alone with children in care,

(c) A volunteer who is a relative, legal guardian, or foster parent of a client being provided services by the Nation shall not be subject to the character investigation requirement when the volunteer is engaging in activities related to the services being provided to his/her child unless the volunteer is required to spend an overnight with the children in which case, he/she must be cleared through a character investigation,

(d) A contracted repair person retained by a facility where children are served, if not left alone with children in care, shall be exempt from the requirements of this subdivision,

(e) Any person similar to those described in this subdivision, as defined by Human Resources.

d. The Human Resources Department shall establish procedures for determining suitability for employment and efficiency of service as mandated by the Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Act and shall include in said procedures standards of character to ensure that individuals having regular contact with or control over Indian children have not been convicted of certain types of crimes or acted in a manner that placed others at risk or raised questions about their trustworthiness:

i. The Human Resources Department's determinations of suitability shall measure the fitness or eligibility of an applicant, volunteer, or employee for a particular position. Suitability for employment does not evaluate an applicant's education, skills, knowledge, experience, etc.; rather, it requires that the Human Resources Department investigate the background of each applicant, volunteer, and employee to:

(a) Determine the degree of risk the applicant, volunteer, or employee brings to the position, and

(b) Certify that the applicant's, volunteer's, or employee's past conduct would not interfere with his or her performance of duties, nor would it create an immediate or long-term risk for any Indian child.

ii. Efficiency of service procedures shall verify that the applicant or employee is able to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position, and his or her presence on the job will not inhibit other employees or the agency from performing their functions.

e. The Human Resources Department shall use character traits and past conduct to determine whether an applicant, volunteer, or employee can effectively perform the duties of a particular position without risk of harm to others. Minimum standards of character require that no applicant, volunteer, or employee will be placed in a position with regular contact with or control over Indian children if he or she has been found guilty of or entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to any offense under federal, state, or tribal law involving crimes of violence, sexual assault, sexual molestation, sexual exploitation, sexual contact or prostitution, crimes against persons, an offense involving a child victim, other sex crimes, or a drug-related felony. Minimum standards of character shall also require that no applicant, volunteer, or employee will be placed in a position with regular contact with or control over Indian children if the individual has resorted to physical punishment or mistreatment while working with children even if a criminal conviction has not been obtained.

f. An applicant, volunteer, or employee shall be disqualified from consideration or continuing employment or volunteer work where the employment or work requires regular contact with or control over children if it is found that he or she does not meet the minimum standards listed herein. Elected officials shall be disqualified from engaging in any activities and work, whether as part of their duties or as volunteers, where they would have regular contact with or control over children.

g. An applicant, volunteer, official, or employee may be disqualified from consideration or continuing employment or volunteer work where the employment or work requires regular contact or control over children if it is found that:

i. The individual's misconduct or negligence interfered with or affected a current or prior employer's performance of duties and responsibilities,

ii. The individual's criminal or dishonest conduct affected the individual's performance or the performance of others,

iii. The individual made an intentional false statement, deception or fraud on an examination or in obtaining employment,

iv. The individual has refused to furnish testimony or cooperate with an investigation,

v. The individual's alcohol or substance abuse is of a nature and duration that suggests the individual could not perform the duties of the position or would directly threaten the property or safety of others, vi. The individual has illegally used narcotics, drugs, or other controlled substances without evidence of substantial rehabilitation, vii. The individual knowingly and willfully engaged in an act or activities designed to disrupt government programs, viii. While working with children, the individual has resorted to physical punishment or mistreatment, ix. The individual fails to demonstrate good judgment as evidenced by prudent and responsible behavior that reasonably ensures the health and safety of children in care.

h. A determination that an individual who is currently employed by the Nation is disqualified for continuing employment pursuant to this section shall be cause for termination of such employee. An individual who is an official of the Nation or who is a volunteer and is determined to be disqualified shall be prohibited from engaging in any activities and work on behalf of the Nation or where children in the Nation's care are involved and where they would have regular contact with or control over children.

§ 1611. Pleading or affidavit—Oath—Information required

A. Every party in a custody proceeding in his first pleading or in an affidavit attached to that pleading shall give information under oath as to the child's present address, the places where the child has lived within the last five (5) years, and the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period. In this pleading or affidavit every party shall further declare under oath whether:

1. He has participated, as a party, witness, or in any other capacity, in any other litigation concerning the custody of the same child in this Court or any state, tribal or federal court;
2. He has information of any custody proceeding concerning the child pending in any court including tribal, state or federal.
3. He knows of any person not a party to the proceedings who has physical custody of the child or claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child.

B. If the declaration as to any of the above items is in the affirmative the declarant shall give additional information under oath as required by the Court. The Court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and as to other matters pertinent to the Court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.

C. Each party has a continuing duty to inform the Court of any custody proceeding concerning the child in this or any other state of which he obtained the information during this proceeding.

CITIZENSHIP

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Title

This title shall be known as the "Cherokee Nation Citizenship Act."

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish the policies and procedures governing the issuance of tribal citizenship.

§ 3. Definitions

A. "Adopted person" means a person whose biological parents' parental rights have been awarded to another or other persons pursuant to court order, judgment or decree, or an orphaned person who has been formally adopted by another person or other persons in accordance with the law. "Adoptive parent" means a person who has been awarded permanent care, custody and parental rights of another person pursuant to a final court order, judgment or decree of adoption.

B. "Applicant" means a person submitting an application for enrollment in Cherokee Nation.

C. "Base roll" means a specific list of individuals used for determining tribal citizenship. One must prove back directly to an individual who is listed by blood on a base roll. The base roll as used herein means those final rolls otherwise known as the Dawes Commission Rolls or the Final Rolls. The Final Rolls were closed in 1907. Those Final Rolls by Blood used for citizenship purposes are (1) Cherokees by Blood, (2) Cherokee Minors by Blood, (3) Delaware Cherokees, and (4) Shawnee Cherokees.

D. "Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood" means the official document issued by the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) stating a person's degree of Indian blood. The CDIB is an acceptable document used to meet the necessary evidence requirements. The CDIB is not an enrollment/citizenship document.

E. "Cherokee Register" means the current citizenship roll of the Nation and is maintained by the Registrar.

F. "Citizen," "enrolled citizen" and "tribal citizen" mean any person who, having met all requirements to be a citizen of Cherokee Nation under Article III of the Constitution [now Article IV], is enrolled on the Cherokee Register in accordance with the provisions of this Title, except that the term "citizen" also includes any original enrollee and any newborn child who qualifies for citizenship under the provisions of 11 CNCA § 11A, whether or not such enrollee or child has been enrolled on the Cherokee Register. Provided, however, any such newborn child shall no longer be a citizen when the period of his or her temporary citizenship expires as provided in 11 CNCA § 11A unless the child is otherwise enrolled on the Cherokee Register in accordance with the provisions of 11 CNCA §§ 11, 12, 13 and 14.

G. "Direct ancestors" means those persons who are the biological parents, grandparents, great-grandparents, etc., through whom enrollment rights are claimed. Collateral relations such as brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, cousins, etc., are not direct ancestors. "Direct descendant" means a person who is the biological child, grandchild, great-grandchild, etc., of a direct ancestor who is or was an original enrollee.

H. "Enrollment" means the process for applying to be formally recognized or registered as a citizen of Cherokee Nation.

I. "Member" means, for the purposes of this title, a citizen as defined in this section.

J. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.

K. "Necessary evidence" means the documents that clearly establish relationships from one generation to another and that the person has a direct ancestor on the Dawes Rolls. These documents must be state-certified copies of the original birth and/or death records. These records are issued by state vital statistics offices. Other acceptable records are court-ordered determinations or a CDIB issued by the BIA.

L. "Original enrollee" means an individual whose name is listed on the Final Rolls.

M. "Registrar" means the person who has the immediate administrative jurisdiction over the affairs of registration for enrollment/citizenship.

N. "Registration Committee" means the Registrar and two assistants.

O. "Sponsor" means a person who is acting on behalf of a minor or an incompetent adult in (i) submitting an application for tribal citizenship, (ii) requesting the release of records or information pursuant to 11 CNCA § 33, (iii) requesting and submitting a tribal citizenship relinquishment form pursuant to 11 CNCA § 34, or (iv) any other dealings with the Registrar which relate in any respect to tribal citizenship; and

1. in the case of a minor, a biological parent of such minor whose parental rights relating to the minor have not been terminated by a court of law, or a duly-appointed legal guardian, adoptive parent, child welfare social worker, or other representative with power and authority over the care, custody and welfare of such minor; or

2. in the case of an incompetent adult, a duly-appointed legal guardian or other representative with power and authority over the affairs, care, custody and welfare of such incompetent adult; or

3. whenever acting on behalf of either a minor citizen or an incompetent adult citizen, and subject to the provisions of 11 CNCA § 34(A), any adult person determined by the Registrar to have unambiguous authority in writing to act on behalf of the minor or incompetent adult for tribal citizenship purposes signed by a person who is qualified to be a sponsor under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection.

The Registrar may require any person purporting to be the Sponsor of a minor or incompetent adult to furnish any and all documents, written or oral statements, affidavits, or court records which, at the discretion of the Registrar, may be necessary to demonstrate that the person is qualified to act as a Sponsor pursuant to this subsection. Provided, however, the Tribal citizenship of any person who otherwise meets the requirements of citizenship in Cherokee Nation and has been enrolled on the Cherokee Register pursuant to this Title shall not be revoked or rendered invalid for the reason that his or her application for Tribal citizenship was submitted by a person not qualified to act as a Sponsor under this section.

P. "Tribal citizenship relinquishment form" means any form approved for use by the Registrar in connection with the relinquishment of a person's citizenship pursuant to the provisions of this Title.

Q. "Tribal membership" and "tribal citizenship" mean a person's status as a citizen of Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 2

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR CITIZENSHIP APPLICATIONS

§ 11. Requirements of the applicant

A. An applicant or sponsor has the burden of proof to establish the eligibility of the applicant.

B. An applicant or sponsor who knowingly files false or fraudulent information will be rejected for enrollment and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

A. This section 11A is enacted as an amendment to the Cherokee Nation Citizenship Act for the specific purpose of protecting the rights of Cherokee Nation under the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1901 et seq.

B. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Title to the contrary, every newborn child who is a direct descendant of an original enrollee shall be automatically admitted as a citizen of Cherokee Nation for a period of two hundred forty (240) days following the birth of the child. No request or application for tribal citizenship or other documentation need be submitted or delivered to the Registrar as a prerequisite to the temporary tribal citizenship of a child under this section. Such temporary tribal citizenship shall be effective automatically from and after the birth of the child for all purposes although the name of the child is not entered on the Cherokee Register.

C. The temporary tribal citizenship granted to a child pursuant to subsection (A) of this section shall automatically expire without notice to the child or to the sponsor or any other interested person, at the end of the two hundred forty- (240) day period following the child's birth. Any citizen whose temporary tribal citizenship has expired pursuant to this section may apply for citizenship pursuant to 11 CNCA §§ 11, 12, 13 and 14.

D. The Registrar may, at the request of Cherokee Nation Children's Services, on his own initiative or pursuant to 11 CNCA § 13(C), determine whether or not a child qualifies for temporary tribal citizenship pursuant to this section. A determination by the Registrar that such child does not so qualify may be appealed by a sponsor in accordance with 11 CNCA §§ 21 through 27, inclusive.

§ 12. Citizenship requirements

A. Tribal citizenship is derived only through proof of Cherokee blood based on the Final Rolls.

B. The Registrar will issue tribal citizenship to a person who can prove that he or she is an original enrollee listed on the Final Rolls by Blood or who can prove to at least one direct ancestor listed by blood on the Final Rolls.

§ 13. Procedures

A. Applications for tribal citizenship should be completed by the applicant. A sponsor may complete the application, if the person is legally incompetent or a minor child.

B. Requests for applications for tribal citizenship should be made to the Registrar.

C. If the Registrar determines that the person has failed to submit acceptable documentation to establish his or her identity as the tribal citizen named in the records or his or her relationship to an ancestor by blood named in the records, the Registrar must deny the request. The denial must be in writing and mailed by certified mail. It must be received by the addressee only and a return receipt requested. The denial letter shall explain fully the reason(s) for rejecting the application and the right of appeal of the applicant.

§ 14. Documentation

A. Tribal citizenship applications must be completed and submitted with required documentation.

1. Acceptable forms of documentation for establishing relationship are:

a. Birth certificates. The document must be a state-certified, full image/photocopy of the original birth record showing parentage and containing the state seal, state registrar's signature, and the state file number. In those states where state law prohibits the release of full photocopies without a court order, computer generated or transcribed records are acceptable; however, these must be verified by a sworn statement or affidavit from the Indian parent. Individuals born outside the United States must obtain a certified copy of the official State Department record showing parentage. In cases where the State Department record is not available, then the foreign agency responsible for recording vital records must be contacted for a certified copy of the birth record. The certified foreign record must be submitted with the State Department notice of no record on file and a certified translation if needed.

b. Delayed certificates of birth. This document must be state-certified, full image/photocopy showing parentage and containing the state seal, state registrar's signature, and the state file number. State regulations cover the requirements for issuing these; however, for this purpose they are not fully acceptable by themselves and must be verified by at least one supporting document.

c. Certificate of death. This record must be state-certified, full image photocopy of the original record showing parentage and containing the state seal, state registrar's signature, and state file number. Death certificates must be verified by at least one of the supporting documents for verification that must help define the relationships as claimed.

d. Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood (CDIB). This record is the formal certification document issued by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

2. Acceptable supporting documents must be original or certified copies and are listed as follows:

a. County and district court records

b. Hospital birth certificates

c. Birth certificates issued by the Bureau of Census

d. U.S. federal census records

e. Per capita payment records

f. Enrollment census cards

g. Social Security numident or extract

h. Affidavits. Affidavits are written declarations made under oath before a notary public, must be submitted in original form and are used for the following:

(1) For identification. Many people use more than one name. An affidavit may be used to certify that one person goes by two names or that two or more names actually refer to the same person.

(2) To clarify discrepancies in names for identification purposes. If identification is not questioned, minor variations in spelling, etc., may not require further proof.

(3) To help establish relationship.

(4) To establish paternity of children born out of wedlock. An acknowledgment of paternity must be signed by the natural father and presented to the Bureau of Vital Statistics and his name must be added to the birth record.

i. Other documents. Other documents that define relationship may be considered.

3. Adoption documentation:

a. Adoption decree signed by the judge of the county where adoption proceedings occurred.

b. Replacement birth certificate showing new name and name(s) of the adoptive parent(s).

c. In some cases, the name(s) of the natural parent(s) will not appear on the adoption decree; therefore, other pertinent records will be required for verification of the Indian parent(s). These records may include the original birth certificate established at birth, hospital birth certificate containing the name(s) of the natural parent(s), or other legal documents at the discretion of the Registrar.

APPEAL FROM ADVERSE ENROLLMENT ACTION

§ 21. Who may appeal

A person who is the subject of an adverse enrollment action may file or have filed on his or her behalf an appeal.

§ 22. Appeals generally

A. The requirements in this part are to provide procedures for the filing and processing of appeals from adverse enrollment actions by the Registrar.

B. Appeals from actions taken by the Registrar must be in writing and must be filed pursuant to 11 CNCA § 23.

C. The decision of the Supreme Court shall be final.

§ 23. Appeal procedure

A. An appeal must be in writing and must be filed with the Registrar designated in the notification of an adverse enrollment action.

B. A sponsor may file an appeal on behalf of another person who is subject to an adverse enrollment action.

C. An appeal filed by mail or filed by personal delivery must be post-marked and received in the office of the Registrar by close of business within thirty (30) days of the notification of an adverse enrollment action, unless the appeal is mailed from outside the United States, in which case the appeal must be postmarked and received by the close of business within sixty (60) days of the notification of an adverse enrollment action.

D. The appellant or sponsor shall furnish the appellant's mailing address in the appeal. Thereafter, the appellant or sponsor shall promptly notify the Registrar with whom the appeal was filed of any change of address; otherwise, the address furnished in the appeal shall be the address of record.

E. An appellant or sponsor may request additional time to submit supporting evidence. A ninety-(90) day period for such submission may be granted by the Registrar with whom the appeal is filed. However, no additional time will be granted for the filing of the appeal.

F. In all cases where an appellant is represented by a sponsor, the sponsor shall be recognized as fully controlling the appeal on behalf of the appellant. Service of any document relating to the appeal shall be on the sponsor and shall be considered to be service on the appellant. Where an appellant is represented by more than one sponsor, service upon one of the sponsors shall be sufficient.

§ 24. Computation of the appeal period

A. A notification of an adverse enrollment action will be mailed to the address of record or the last available address and will be considered to have been made and computation of the appeal period shall begin on:

1. The date of delivery indicated on the return receipt when notice of the adverse enrollment action has been sent by certified mail, return receipt requested; or
2. Ten (10) days after the date of the decision letter to the individual when the notice of the adverse enrollment action has not been sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the letter has not been returned by the post office; or
3. The date the letter is returned by the post office as undeliverable whether the notice of the adverse enrollment action has been sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by regular mail.

B. In computing the thirty (30) or sixty (60) day appeal period, the count begins with the day following the notification of an adverse enrollment action and continues for thirty (30) or sixty (60) calendar days. If the thirtieth (30th) or sixtieth (60th) day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or other nonbusiness day, the appeal period will end on the first working day thereafter.

§ 25. Burden of proof

The burden of proof is on the appellant or sponsor. The appeal should include any supporting evidence not previously furnished and may include a copy or reference to any Bureau or tribal records having a direct bearing on the action.

§ 26. Action by the Registrar

A. When an appeal is from an adverse enrollment action taken by the Registrar, the Registrar shall acknowledge in writing receipt of the appeal and shall forward the appeal to the District Court of Cherokee Nation together with any relevant information or records and his or her recommendations on the appeal.

B. The Registrar may sustain an appeal, provided the reason for rejection has been overcome with presentation of new evidence.

§ 27. Action by the District Court of Cherokee Nation—Standard of review

A. When an appeal is from an adverse enrollment action taken by the Registrar, the District Court of Cherokee Nation will consider the record as presented together with such additional information as may be considered pertinent. The standard of review by the District Court will be de novo. Any additional information relied upon shall be specifically identified in the decision. The appellant may request a hearing, the granting of which shall be discretionary with the Court. The District Court shall make a decision on the appeal which shall be final for the Nation, unless appealed to the Supreme Court, and which shall so state in the decision. The appellant or sponsor will be notified in writing of the decision, provided that the District Court may waive his or her authority to make a final decision and forward the appeal to the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation. The District Court shall provide the appellant information and instructions pursuant to Title 20, Courts, for filing a petition before the Supreme Court.

B. When an appeal is from an adverse enrollment action taken by the District Court of Cherokee Nation, the District Court shall acknowledge in writing receipt of the appeal and shall forward the appeal and petition to the Supreme Court for final action together with any relevant information or records, the recommendations of the Registrar, when applicable, and the ruling of the District Court of Cherokee Nation.

C. The Supreme Court shall make a decision on the appeal, which shall be final for Cherokee Nation and which shall so state in the decision. The appellant or sponsor will be notified in writing of the decision.

CHAPTER 4

TRIBAL CITIZENSHIP

§ 31. Tribal citizenship cards

A. The tribal citizenship card shall be blue in color and contain the following information:

1. Name. The name which was approved and entered into the Cherokee Registry. This name would be the name that appears on the individual's birth record. For women who are married, their current married name is also included.
2. Cherokee Registry number. This number is a seven- (7) digit number preceded by the capital letter, "C."
3. Date of birth of the individual.
4. Current address.
5. Signature of the Tribal Registrar.

6. Signature of the Principal Chief.

7. Approval date.

8. The phrase, "This card shows the above named person to be a certified citizen of Cherokee Nation."

9. The legal signature or mark of the tribal citizen.

B. The front of the card shall also have the official name of the tribe in English and in Cherokee: Cherokee Nation. The reverse side of the card shall contain the following statement: "The responsibility of the tribal citizen is to notify the Cherokee Registration Committee of any citizenship change such as a name or address, as soon as possible. Please refer to: Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Registration Department, P.O. Box 948, Tahlequah, OK 74465."

C. The tribal citizenship card shall not be valid without the proper signatures of the Tribal Registrar and the Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation.

D. The tribal citizenship card shall not be valid without the indention of the Seal of Cherokee Nation.

E. The tribal citizenship card represents a permanent citizenship file maintained in the office of the Registrar. These cards are the property of Cherokee Nation and may be subject to recall.

§ 32. Maintenance of records

A. The Registrar shall keep and maintain the original applications, copies of required documents, and supporting documentation.

B. These records shall be subject to a records retention program as determined by the Registrar and in compliance with Cherokee Nation Code Annotated, Title 67, Records.

C. The Registrar shall develop and maintain a tribal citizenship database.

§ 33. Release of tribal citizenship information

A. All requests for copies of, or information contained in, records relating to tribal citizenship shall be made in writing and on a form prepared for that purpose by the Registrar.

B. The Registrar is hereby authorized and directed to prepare one or more forms to be used for all requests for the release of copies of tribal citizenship records or information.

C. Only a citizen of Cherokee Nation or the sponsor of a citizen may request copies of tribal citizenship records or information. Upon a request for such records or information by a citizen or a sponsor, the Registrar shall issue to the citizen or sponsor an authorization form. Provided, however, prior to issuing the form the Registrar shall enter thereon the name of the citizen, the citizen's Registry number, the sponsor's name (if any), and the date of issuance of the form. No authorization form issued pursuant to this section may be used to obtain information or records relating to any citizen other than the citizen whose name and Registry number is entered on the form by the Registrar.

D. Whenever authority to release information or records cannot be obtained from the tribal citizen or sponsor, the Principal Chief or the Principal Chief's designee may authorize the release of such records or information to any person if the Principal Chief or the designee determines that the release of same would be appropriate under the circumstances of the request.

E. Nothing in this section shall prevent the Registrar from releasing copies of records or information pursuant to a bona fide request from a law enforcement official.

F. Listings, statistics, and labels from the tribal citizenship database must be approved by the Principal Chief or designee. The receiving of such requests are routed through the Registrar, who obtains the Chief's approval, and coordinates with other departments to facilitate the request.

G. The status of a person as an enrolled citizen of Cherokee Nation is hereby deemed to be public information. In addition to any other tribal citizenship information that the Registrar is now or may hereafter be authorized to release or otherwise make public under the laws of the Cherokee Nation, the Registrar is authorized to disclose to any person, upon request, the following tribal citizen information:

1. Whether or not a person is currently enrolled as a citizen of Cherokee Nation, and, if so, the date on which the person became enrolled as a tribal citizen;
2. Whether or not a person has relinquished his or her tribal citizenship one or more times, and, if so, the date or dates on which the relinquishment of his or her tribal citizenship became effective under 11 CNCA § 34; and
3. Whether or not a person, having relinquished his or her tribal citizenship one or more times, has re-enrolled as a tribal citizen, and, if so, the date or dates upon which such person re-enrolled as a tribal citizen.

H. The Registrar shall maintain and keep current a list of the names of all persons who have relinquished their tribal citizenships, together with their former enrollment numbers and the effective dates of relinquishments of tribal citizenship. If any person appearing on the list re-enrolls pursuant to the Tribal Citizenship Act, the person's name shall remain on the relinquishment list but notation shall be made thereon of the re-enrollment and each of the date or dates on which such person re-enrolled as a citizen.

A. Any citizen or sponsor of a citizen of Cherokee Nation may request a tribal citizenship relinquishment form, which shall be furnished directly to the citizen or sponsor by the Registrar. Provided, however, if the person whose citizenship is to be relinquished is a minor child, the sponsor, in addition to the requirements of 11 CNCA § 3(O), must also be that minor child's biological parent or adoptive parent. A sponsor who is not a minor child's biological parent or adoptive parent shall have no authority to act on such minor child's behalf in the relinquishment of the minor's tribal citizenship. The request for a tribal citizenship relinquishment form shall be made in person or in a writing signed by the citizen or the citizen's sponsor and delivered to the Registrar.

B. The Office of the Attorney General of Cherokee Nation is hereby authorized to prepare the tribal citizenship relinquishment form and any other necessary forms, which shall be consistent with the provisions of this section, to be used in connection with the relinquishment of tribal citizenship.

C. Upon receipt of a request pursuant to subsection (A) of this section, the Registrar shall issue to the citizen or sponsor a tribal citizenship relinquishment form. Provided, however, prior to issuing the form the Registrar shall enter thereon the name of the citizen, the citizen's registry number, the sponsor's name (if any) and the date of issuance of the form. No tribal citizenship relinquishment form may be used to relinquish the citizenship of any person other than that of the citizen whose name and registry number is entered on the relinquishment form by the Registrar.

D. The tribal citizen or sponsor shall complete and sign the tribal citizenship relinquishment form before a notary public, and file the notarized form with the Clerk of the District Court of Cherokee Nation, who shall open a civil case styled "In re the relinquishment of citizenship of _____, a Tribal Citizen," without charging a filing fee, and shall assign the case a number. The relinquishment case so opened shall be set for an initial hearing on a date not more than thirty (30) days after the date of filing of the notarized form. The court clerk shall cause notice of the initial hearing to be delivered to the citizen at the time of filing or subsequently by first-class mail. Notice of the hearing shall also be mailed to the Cherokee Nation Department of Justice.

E. At the initial hearing, the tribal citizen or sponsor shall be placed under oath, and the Court or the Nation's attorney shall inquire of the citizen or sponsor who is relinquishing citizenship:

1. in any case where the tribal citizen whose citizenship is being relinquished is a minor, whether the sponsor is the biological parent or adoptive parent of the minor citizen and is otherwise qualified to act as a sponsor under 11 CNCA § 3(O); whether the minor citizen is currently the subject of a deprived child, juvenile delinquency, adoption or other proceeding involving the custody of the minor; and whether any person with parental or custodial rights to the child disputes the relinquishment or who, if unaware of the relinquishment proceeding, would likely dispute the relinquishment if he or she were aware of same;

2. whether the tribal citizen or sponsor is aware that by relinquishing tribal citizenship, all benefits and privileges to which the citizen is entitled as a consequence of being a citizen will be forfeited upon the effective date of relinquishment of citizenship; and

3. if the person whose citizenship is being relinquished is eighteen (18) years of age or older or will be of such age by the time the relinquishment form will be submitted to the Registrar pursuant to subsection (A) of this section, whether the tribal citizen or sponsor is aware that said person will not be eligible to re-enroll as a tribal citizen for a period of five (5) years following the effective date of the relinquishment.

F. At the conclusion of the initial hearing, the Court shall issue a written order authorizing the citizen or sponsor to submit the tribal citizen relinquishment form to the Registrar unless, based on the citizen's or sponsor's testimony, the Court finds:

1. in any case where the person whose citizenship is to be relinquished is a minor, that the person acting as a sponsor is not the child's biological parent or adoptive parent or is not qualified to act as a sponsor under the provisions of 11 CNCA § 3(O); that the minor citizen is the subject of a deprived child, juvenile delinquency, adoption or other custodial proceeding pending in any court; or that another person with parental or custodial rights with regard to the minor citizen disputes the relinquishment or, if such other person is unaware of the relinquishment request, he or she would likely dispute the relinquishment if he or she were aware of same; or

2. that the citizen or sponsor indicates that he or she had been unaware of the consequences of relinquishment and requests of the Court additional time in order to reconsider the decision to relinquish, in which event the Court shall reschedule the hearing for a later date to determine whether the citizen or sponsor wishes to proceed with relinquishment. If at the rescheduled hearing the citizen or sponsor thereafter indicates that he or she no longer wants to relinquish citizenship, or fails to appear at the rescheduled hearing without first requesting a continuance, the Court shall dismiss the action without prejudice. Otherwise, the Court shall issue an order authorizing submission of the relinquishment form to the Registrar in accordance with this section.

G. If at the conclusion of the initial hearing the Court finds that the person whose citizenship is to be relinquished is a minor child and that the person seeking the relinquishment of the minor child's citizenship is not the child's biological parent or adoptive parent or is not otherwise qualified to act as the child's sponsor, the Court shall issue an order dismissing the case without prejudice. If the Court finds that the person is qualified to act as the minor child's sponsor but that the minor is the subject of a deprived child, juvenile delinquency, adoption or other custodial proceeding, or that another person has parental or custodial rights with regard to the child and disputes or would likely dispute the relinquishment, the Court shall schedule another hearing no more than thirty (30) days after the initial hearing and shall require that notice of same be given to all persons known to the Court to have parental or custodial rights with regard to the minor citizen. All such persons, including the Nation through its attorneys, may appear at the subsequent hearing and present evidence and testimony of witnesses on the issue of whether or not relinquishment of tribal citizenship would be in the best interest of the minor citizen. Within fifteen (15) days after the conclusion of the subsequent hearing the Court shall issue its order and decision on whether relinquishment would be in the best interests of the minor citizen. The party seeking to have the child's citizenship relinquished shall have the burden of proving such by a preponderance of the evidence.

H. All Cherokee Nation District Court hearings required under this section involving minor citizens, and the Court files associated therewith, shall be confidential and closed to the public as in other juvenile cases; provided, copies of any court order authorizing or denying relinquishment shall be made available to the Registrar for filing in the minor child's citizenship records in accordance with this section but shall not otherwise be subject to public disclosure under this or any other law of Cherokee Nation. The Registrar shall not reproduce, release or disclose the contents of any such order to any person except as expressly authorized by order of Cherokee Nation District Court or Supreme Court.

I. If after any hearing authorized by this section the Court, having determined that the relinquishment process should proceed, issues an order allowing the citizen or sponsor to submit the tribal citizenship relinquishment form to the Registrar, the citizen or sponsor must, within sixty (60) days following the issuance of the order, deliver certified copies of the order and the notarized relinquishment form to the Registrar, which copies shall be made available to the citizen or sponsor by the court clerk without charge. Upon timely receipt of the certified copies of the Court's order and the relinquishment form, the Registrar shall stamp both with the date on which they were received by the Registrar and place them in the tribal citizen's file. The Registrar shall not accept the relinquishment form without the certified copy of the Court's order authorizing relinquishment to proceed. The relinquishment of the person's tribal citizenship shall become effective sixty (60) days after the date on which the certified copies of the Court's order and tribal citizenship relinquishment form were delivered to the Registrar in accordance with this subsection, unless prior to the expiration of said sixty- (60) day period the Registrar receives a written request from the citizen or sponsor that the tribal citizenship relinquishment form be revoked or withdrawn. If a written request by the tribal citizen or sponsor to revoke or withdraw his or her tribal citizenship relinquishment form is delivered to the Registrar prior to the expiration of the sixty- (60) day period, the tribal citizenship relinquishment form shall be deemed withdrawn and the person's status as a tribal citizen shall continue as if the relinquishment form had never been received by the Registrar.

J. Except as provided in subsections (K) and (M) of this section, any person who has relinquished his or her tribal citizenship may re-enroll at any time as a tribal citizen pursuant to 11 CNCA §§ 11, 12, 13 and 14.

K. Any person who relinquishes his or her own tribal citizenship in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be ineligible to re-enroll as a tribal citizen for a period of five (5) years following the effective date of his or her relinquishment of tribal citizenship if, but only if:

1. the certified copies of the notarized tribal citizenship relinquishment form and the Court's order authorizing relinquishment to proceed were received by the Registrar on or after the effective date of the Tribal Citizenship Relinquishment and Technical Amendments Act of 2002, LA 16-02; and
2. the tribal citizen whose citizenship was relinquished was eighteen (18) years of age or older on the date on which the certified copies of said relinquishment form and order were received by the Registrar.

Upon the expiration of said five- (5) year period following the effective date of his or her relinquishment, such person shall be eligible to re-enroll as a citizen in accordance with the provisions of this Title; provided, however, no person subject to the five- (5) year ineligibility period of this subsection shall be eligible to re-enroll as a citizen if, at any time after the effective date of his or her relinquishment, the person was convicted of a felony or of any crime involving moral turpitude under the laws of any federally-recognized Indian tribe, state or the United States; and provided further that in addition to all other requirements for enrollment under this Title, any person subject to the five- (5) year ineligibility period of this subsection who thereafter seeks to re-enroll as a tribal citizen must also execute an affidavit affirming under oath that at no time subsequent to the effective date of his or her relinquishment had he or she been convicted of any such felony or crime of moral turpitude. Said affidavit must be presented to the Registrar together with the application to re-enroll.

L. The provisions of subsection (K) of this section shall not apply to any person who was under the age of eighteen (18) years of age at the time his or her tribal citizenship relinquishment form was received by the Registrar or whose citizenship was relinquished through a sponsor, or to any person, regardless of age, whose tribal citizenship relinquishment form or other document requesting or declaring his or her relinquishment of tribal citizenship was received by the Registrar prior to the effective date of the Tribal Citizenship Relinquishment and Technical Amendments Act of 2002, LA 16-02.

M. Any person who relinquished his or her citizenship but, as of the effective date of the Tribal Citizenship Relinquishment and Technical Amendments Act of 2002, L.A. 16-02, had not re-enrolled as a citizen, may apply for re-enrollment by delivering to the Registrar a completed application to re-enroll no later than two hundred seventy (270) days following the effective date of said Act. Any such person who fails to deliver to the Registrar a completed application to re-enroll prior to the expiration of said two hundred seventy- (270) day period following the effective date of the Tribal Citizenship Relinquishment and Technical Amendments Act of 2002 shall be ineligible to re-enroll as a citizen for the remainder of the five- (5) year period commencing on the effective date of said act. Provided, however, the re-enrollment ineligibility period of this subsection shall not apply to any person who was at the time of his or her relinquishment less than eighteen (18) years of age or whose relinquishment was procured through a sponsor. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "completed application" means an application to re-enroll as a citizen that substantially complies with the provisions of 11 CNCA §§ 11, 12, 13 and 14 and is submitted to the Registrar simultaneously with all documentation required by 11 CNCA § 14. No later than thirty (30) days after the effective date of LA 16-02, the Registrar shall cause notice of the provisions of this subsection (M) to be sent by first-class mail to the last known address of all persons who are subject to the re-enrollment ineligibility period of this subsection. The Registrar shall also cause notice of this subsection to be published in the next issue of the Cherokee Phoenix and Indian Advocate published after the effective date of said LA 16-02.

N. Commencing on the effective date of the Tribal Citizenship Relinquishment and Technical Amendments Act of 2002 (LA 16-02), all tribal citizenship relinquishment forms shall include the following language above the signature line:

NOTICE: THE RELINQUISHMENT OF

YOUR TRIBAL CITIZENSHIP HAS SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, UNDERSTAND THAT ANY PERSON 18 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER WHO RELINQUISHES HIS OR HER TRIBAL CITIZENSHIP DOES THEREBY ALSO WAIVE THE RIGHT TO RE-ENROLL AS A CITIZEN OF CHEROKEE NATION FOR A PERIOD OF FIVE YEARS FOLLOWING THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CITIZENSHIP RELINQUISHMENT.

I UNDERSTAND THAT BY RELINQUISHING MY TRIBAL CITIZENSHIP I WILL LOSE ALL BENEFITS THAT I MAY BE ENTITLED TO BY VIRTUE OF MY STATUS AS A CITIZEN OF CHEROKEE NATION.

I UNDERSTAND THAT THIS RELINQUISHMENT OF TRIBAL CITIZENSHIP WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE 60 DAYS AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THIS RELINQUISHMENT FORM IS RECEIVED BY THE REGISTRAR UNLESS, BEFORE THE END OF THAT 60-DAY PERIOD, I DELIVER TO THE REGISTRAR A WRITTEN REQUEST TO REVOKE OR WITHDRAW THIS RELINQUISHMENT FORM.

§ 35. Recognition of Delaware Tribe of Cherokee Nation—Rights and duties of Delaware Tribe and Cherokee Nation and citizens thereof—Proposal of and conduct of referendum upon governing document for Delaware Tribe—Election of tribal officers

A. Cherokee Nation hereby recognizes that since 1867 the Delaware Tribe of Indians has maintained a separate, distinct identity within Cherokee Nation with its citizens having full rights of Cherokee citizenship.

B. Cherokee Nation does recognize the Delaware citizens to be citizens of the separate, domesticated Delaware Tribe with all inherent rights retained by the Delaware Tribe not specifically restricted by the Congress of the United States.

C. Cherokee Nation shall assist, as requested by Delaware Tribal resolution, to purchase and have placed in trust, land on which to develop income generating economic business and industry. No monies shall be committed for this purpose from Cherokee Nation except as shall be authorized and appropriated by Cherokee Nation. Revenues derived from land so placed in trust or businesses established are to be used for the exclusive benefit of the Delaware Tribal Council by such resolutions as may be appropriate.

D. Cherokee Nation will permit independent operation of the Delaware Tribe, its elected officials, citizens and businesses, except upon request by resolution from Cherokee Nation.

E. The Delaware Tribe will conduct its business in a manner to permit independent operation of Cherokee Nation, its elected officials, citizens and businesses, except upon request by resolution from Cherokee Nation.

F. Delaware Tribal citizens that are on or descendants from the Dawes Roll, June 21, 1906 (34 Stat. 325) shall remain full citizens of Cherokee Nation pursuant to the Constitution of Cherokee Nation; provided, that no elected officer of the Delaware Tribe of Indians shall seek or hold office within the Cherokee Nation tribal government, nor shall an elected official of the Cherokee Nation tribal government seek or hold office within the Delaware Tribe of Cherokee Nation.

G. Cherokee Nation will assist the Delaware Tribe through Cherokee Nation's recognized government-to-government status with the United States to protect legally and governmentally the Delaware Tribe's citizens, property, industries and businesses. No appropriations from Cherokee Nation shall be used for such protection. Funds available from the United States government may be requested by the Delaware Tribe for such purposes.

H. The Delaware Tribe shall not attempt efforts that would lead to a separation of the citizens or tribal government from Cherokee Nation nor shall it seek federal funding for programs separate from Cherokee Nation. Cherokee Nation shall remain the only tribal organization to administer federal programs, grants-in-aid or other special funding that may be available from time to time from the federal government, except, as provided in subsection (G) of this section; provided that all benefits of federal, state or local funds that might become available to Cherokee Nation shall be available to citizens of the Delaware Tribe on the same basis as all other Cherokee citizens.

I. The Delaware Tribe is prohibited from adopting any governing document or passing any tribal laws, ordinances or resolutions that are in contravention to or inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of Cherokee Nation. Any disputes regarding this provision or other laws affecting the relationship of the Delaware Tribe and Cherokee Nation shall be resolved by the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court after the filing of an appropriate action by one of the parties.

J. Cherokee Nation hereby authorizes and requests the Delaware Tribe of Cherokee Nation to propose and present a governing document, properly titled, to the Delaware citizens for their adoption or rejection. The authorized voters, for purposes of this election, shall be those Delaware citizens whose names are currently on file with the Bureau of Indian Affairs as being eligible to participate in per capita payments of the Delaware Tribe and who have attained the age of eighteen (18) years. Said referendum shall be supervised by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

K. Upon approval of the Delaware citizens of a governing document, an election for tribal officers shall be held and a referendum regarding use and/or distribution of judgment funds belonging to the Delaware Tribe shall be held.

L. The Principal Chief of Cherokee Nation shall appoint two (2) people and they shall select a third person of their choosing to meet with appropriate people to see that this section is executed.

TITLE 12

CIVIL PROCEDURE

CHAPTER 1

ADOPTION OF FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE—FEDERAL RULES OF EVIDENCE

§ 1. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure—Federal Rules of Evidence

A. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be used in Cherokee Nation courts in all suits of a civil nature whether cases at law or in equity unless superseded by a Cherokee Nation rule of civil procedure.

B. The Federal Rules of Evidence shall be used in Cherokee Nation courts in all suits of a civil nature whether cases at law or in equity unless superseded by a Cherokee Nation rule of evidence.

CHAPTER 2

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

§ 11. Express or implied contracts

Judgment shall not be rendered upon any written contract, obligation, or note of hand, in any suit brought before the Courts of this Nation, unless such suit be instituted thereafter as required by law within five (5) years next after the time at which the cause of action shall have accrued to the person bringing the same, or to the person through whom he claims. Nor shall any judgment be rendered upon any contract or obligation express or implied not in writing in any suit brought before the Courts of this Nation, unless suit be instituted thereafter as required by law within three (3) years next after the time at which the cause of action shall have accrued to the person bringing the same, or to the person through whom he claims.

§ 12. Property injury—Personal injury

Judgment shall not be rendered for the recovery of any claim or demand for trespass upon real property, taking, detaining or injuring personal property, including actions for the specific recovery of personal property, for injury to the rights of others, and for relief on the ground of fraud, except as provided in the preceding sections, in any suit brought before the Courts of this Nation, unless such suit be instituted for the recovery thereof, as required by law, within two (2) years next after the time at which the cause of action shall have been accrued to the person bringing the same, or to the person through whom he claims. Nor shall any judgment be rendered for the recovery of any claim for libel, slander, assault, battery, malicious prosecution, or false imprisonment unless such suit be instituted for the recovery thereof, as required by law, within one (1) year next after the time at which the cause of action shall have been accrued to the person bringing the same, or to the person through whom he claims.

§ 13. Tolling of period for minors or incompetents

The statutory limitations period shall not begin to run against minors until they reach their majority or against persons "non compos mentis" until their disability is removed. However, it is made the duty of every administrator, guardian, and executor to bring suit for the claims or demands due any estate or ward, within the time herein above specified; and any administrator, executor or guardian, neglecting or failing to do so, shall be liable to the parties in interest for such failure or neglect. However, any suit alleging neglect of duty against an administrator, guardian or executor must be brought within five (5) years.

§ 14. Action for relief not provided for

An action for relief, not hereinbefore provided for, can only be brought within five (5) years after the cause of action shall have accrued.

CHAPTER 3

INTEREST ON JUDGMENTS

§ 21. Interest on judgments

All promissory notes, executes, or judgments, payable in cash, shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the average United States Treasury Bill rate of the preceding calendar year as certified to the Court Clerk of Cherokee Nation by the Treasurer of Cherokee Nation on the first regular business day in January of each year, plus four (4) percentage points.

CHAPTER 4

CHANGE OF NAME

§ 31. Right to petition for change of name

Any citizen of Cherokee Nation, who has been domiciled in the Nation for more than thirty (30) days, and has been an actual resident of the county next preceding the filing of the action, may petition for a change of name in a civil action in the District Court. If the person be a minor, the action may be brought by guardian or next friend as in other actions.

§ 32. Petition

The petition shall be verified and shall state:

1. The name and address of the petitioner;
2. The facts as to domicile and residence;
3. The date and place of birth;
4. The birth certificate number, and place where the birth is registered, if registered;

5. The name desired by petitioner;
6. A clear and concise statement of the reasons for the desired change;
7. A positive statement that the change is not sought for any illegal or fraudulent purpose, or to delay or hinder creditors.

§ 33. Notice—Protest—Hearing date—Continuance

Notice of filing of such petition shall be given, in the manner provided for publication notice in civil cases, by publishing the same one (1) time at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for hearing in some newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices printed in the county where the petition is filed. The notice shall contain the style and number of the case, the time, date and place where the same is to be heard, and that any person may file a written protest in the case prior to the date set for the hearing. The hearing date may be any day after completion of the publication. The Court or Judge, for cause, may continue the matter to a later date.

§ 34. Evidence—Determination

The material allegations of the petition shall be sustained by sworn evidence, and the prayer of the petition shall be granted unless the Court or Judge finds that the change is sought for an illegal or fraudulent purpose, or that a material allegation in the petition is false.

§ 35. Judgment

The judgment shall recite generally the material facts and the change granted, or if denied, the reasons for the denial. A certified or authenticated copy of such judgment may be filed in any office, where proper to do so, and shall be regarded as a judgment in a civil action.

§ 36. Illegal or fraudulent purpose

Any person who obtains a judgment under this act, willfully intending to use change his or her name except as provided in 12 CNCA §§ 31 to 35 inclusive, other than by marriage or decree of divorce or by adoption.

CHAPTER 5

CIVIL PROTECTIVE ORDERS

§ 501. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Civil Protective Order Act."

§ 502. Definitions [Reserved]

§ 503. Jurisdiction for civil protective orders

A. Exclusive jurisdiction. The Cherokee Nation District Court shall exercise exclusive jurisdiction:

1. Upon any restricted individual Indian allotment within Cherokee Nation Tribal Jurisdiction Service Area.
2. Under any other established theory of exclusive jurisdiction.

B. Concurrent jurisdiction. The Cherokee Nation District Court may exercise concurrent jurisdiction:

1. When the respondent is a citizen or member of a federally-recognized tribe and is domiciled or found within the exterior reservation boundaries of the original patent to Cherokee Nation; and
2. Over Indian Country within the exterior boundaries of Cherokee Nation Tribal Jurisdiction Service Area.
3. When any act of domestic violence occurs either:
 - a. upon lands owned by Cherokee Nation,
 - b. upon lands within a dependent Indian community or developed by the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation,
 - c. upon lands within the exterior reservation boundaries of the original patent of Cherokee Nation.
4. When the Court is being asked to recognize and enforce a valid protective order of another court of competent jurisdiction; and
5. Over any proceedings for protective orders until such time as an alternative choice of forum shall have been decided.

C. Courts shall construe this section liberally to exercise maximum jurisdiction.

D. This section is not exclusive of the situations in which the Court may exercise jurisdiction.

§§ 504 to 510. Reserved

§ 511. Change of Judge for civil protective orders

- A. Motions for a change of Judge must be filed within five (5) days of service upon the perpetrator.
- B. Relationship by blood or marriage is not sole cause for a change of Judge.

§ 512. Availability of civil protective orders

A. Any of the following persons may seek relief under this chapter by filing a civil petition with the Court alleging that interpersonal or domestic violence has been committed by the respondent. The person may petition for relief on behalf of any victim including minors within the family or household members:

1. Any person claiming to be the victim of recent domestic violence;
2. Any family member or household member of a person claimed to be the victim of domestic violence on behalf of the alleged victim;
3. A police officer;
4. A victim advocate; and/or
5. The Tribal Prosecutor.

B. There is no minimum requirement of residency to petition for a protective order.

§ 513. Procedures for filing civil petitions for protective orders

A. No filing fees shall be required for filing a petition nor shall a bond be required to obtain relief under this chapter.

B. Petitioner, or the victim on whose behalf a petition has been filed, is not required to obtain an annulment, separation or divorce as a prerequisite to obtaining a protective order.

C. Standard petition forms with instructions for completion shall be available upon request from the Court Clerk or investigating Marshal.

D. A protective order does not preclude the rights of any party or child that are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding.

§ 514. Procedures for issuance of temporary and permanent protective orders

A. If the Court has a reasonable belief that the petitioner or the person on whose behalf the petition is filed is the victim of an act of interpersonal or domestic violence committed by the respondent, the Court shall immediately grant a temporary ex parte protective order based upon the facts contained within the verified statement or affidavit.

B. Within fourteen (14) days of the issuance of a temporary ex parte protective order, excluding holidays and weekends, unless by agreement, a hearing shall be held to determine whether the order should extend for an additional period of time, made permanent or modified in any respect.

C. Service must be made upon the respondent at least five (5) days prior to the hearing. If service cannot be made, the Court may set a new date.

D. Service shall be pursuant to the procedure set forth in Cherokee Nation Code Annotated and the District Court Rules.

E. The Court may issue protection to both parties only if each party has completed a petition pursuant to the provisions of this Code and the Court, after a hearing, has made specific written findings of fact that both parties committed acts of domestic violence and that neither party acted in self-defense. The order must clearly define the responsibilities and restrictions placed upon each party so that a law enforcement officer may readily determine which party has violated the order if a violation is alleged to have occurred.

F. Any protective order granted pursuant to this chapter shall be forwarded by the Court to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service dispatcher within twenty-four (24) hours of issuance. In the case of a temporary emergency ex parte protective order issued in accordance with 12 CNCA § 518 or a temporary ex parte protective order, it shall be filed immediately upon issuance. The Marshal's Office shall make information available to each officer as to the existence and status of every protective order issued under this chapter.

§ 515. Content of a protective order in general

A. A petition shall briefly describe the incident(s) of domestic violence and shall be a verified petition or supported by an affidavit made under oath stating the facts and circumstances justifying the requested order.

B. In addition to any other required information, the petition for a protective order must contain a statement listing each civil or criminal action involving both parties.

C. Protective orders shall include provisions:

1. Restraining the respondent from committing any acts of domestic violence;
2. Restraining the respondent from harassing, stalking, threatening telephoning or otherwise contacting the petitioner directly or indirectly, personally or through another person, or engaging in any other conduct that would place any named family or household members in reasonable fear of bodily injury;
3. Prohibiting the use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury;
4. Requiring the respondent to surrender for safekeeping any firearm or other specified dangerous weapon in the respondent's immediate possession or control or subject to the respondent's immediate control, so that the Respondent will not use, display or threaten to use the firearm or other dangerous weapon in any acts of violence. If so ordered, the respondent shall surrender the firearm or other dangerous weapon to law enforcement;

5. Requiring that an accounting be made to the Court for all authorized transfers, encumbrances, dispositions and expenditures; and

6. Notifying the parties involved that the knowing violation of any provision of the order may constitute contempt of court punishable by fines, imprisonment or both.

D. Where the Court in its protective order makes findings of any of the following behaviors, it shall order counseling, which shall include the development of behavior-specific relationship skills.

1. Using coercion and threats, such as:

- a. making and/or carrying out threats to do something to hurt another person;
- b. threatening to leave a spouse, to commit suicide, to report a spouse to welfare;
- c. threatening to file false domestic violence, restraining order or child sexual abuse charges;
- d. making a spouse to drop charges;
- e. making a spouse do illegal things;
- f. denying or refusing access to needed medical care or refusing to take prescribed medications.

2. Counseling should include development in skills of negotiation and fairness:

- a. seeking mutually satisfying resolutions to conflict;
- b. accepting change;
- c. being willing to compromise.

3. Using intimidation, such as:

- a. making a spouse afraid by using looks, actions, gestures;
- b. smashing things;
- c. destroying the property belonging to a spouse, relative or family member;
- d. displaying weapons (such as knives).

4. Counseling should include developing skills in non-threatening behavior, such as:

a. talking and acting so that family members feel safe and comfortable expressing themselves and doing things.

5. Using economic abuse, such as:

a. refusing to contribute income to basic expenses;

b. making a spouse or family member ask for money;

c. giving the victim(s) an allowance to limit their economic participation;

d. taking a spouse's money;

e. not letting a spouse or family member know about or have access to family income;

f. forcing a spouse to take higher-paying, more hazardous, less satisfying job;

g. preventing a spouse from getting or keeping a job.

6. Counseling should include developing skills in economic partnership:

a. making money decisions together;

b. making sure both partners benefit from financial arrangements;

c. expecting all family members to contribute in good faith to the financial success of the family.

7. Using emotional abuse, such as:

a. putting someone down;

b. making someone feel bad about herself or himself;

c. using sex as a weapon;

d. calling someone names;

e. making someone think they are crazy;

f. playing mind-games;

g. humiliating someone;

h. making someone feel guilty.

8. Counseling should include building skill in respect:

- a. listening to others non-judgmentally;
- b. being emotionally affirming and understanding;
- c. sharing responsibility for mutually-satisfying intimacy;
- d. valuing opinions.

9. Using gender privilege, such as:

- a. treating someone like a servant;
- b. treating someone as just a wallet;
- c. making all the big decisions;
- d. acting like the "master or mistress of the house";
- e. being the only one who defines the male and female roles.

10. Counseling should include the development of skills in shared responsibility:

- a. mutually agreeing on a fair distribution of work;
- b. making family decisions together.

11. Using isolation, such as:

- a. controlling what someone does, who that person sees and talks to, what that person reads, where someone goes;
- b. limiting a spouse's or family member's outside involvement;
- c. using jealousy to justify actions.

12. Counseling should include the development of skills in trust and support:

- a. supporting your partner's goals in life;
- b. respecting your partner's right to his own feelings, friends, activities and opinions.

13. Using children, such as:

- a. making a spouse feel guilty about the children;
- b. using the children to relay messages;
- c. alienating children from a parent;
- d. using visitation to harass a parent;
- e. threatening to take the children away;

14. Counseling should include developing skills in responsible parenting:

- a. sharing parental responsibilities;
- b. being a positive non-violent role model for the children;

15. Minimizing, denying and blaming, such as:

- a. making light of the abuse and not taking the other person's concerns about it seriously;
- b. saying the abuse didn't happen;
- c. shifting responsibility for abusive behavior;
- d. saying that the victim deserved it;
- e. saying that the victim caused it;
- f. saying it was the only way the victim would pay attention.

16. Counseling should include developing skills in honesty and accountability:

- a. accepting responsibility for self;
- b. acknowledging past use of violence;
- c. admitting being wrong;
- d. communicating openly and truthfully.

E. A protective order may include any other relief the Court deems appropriate, including but not limited to:

- 1. Excluding the respondent from the residence of the victim (whether or not the respondent and the victim share the residence), school, place of employment or a specified place frequented by the petitioner and/or any named family or household member;

2. Awarding temporary child custody and/or establishing temporary visitation rights or restrictions with regard to the minor children of the parties;

3. If visitation is granted there shall be set rules for the exchange of the children for visitation. These rules may include, but are not limited to times, places and persons allowed to visit;

4. Ordering temporary use and possession of personal property, including motor vehicles, to either party;

5. Ordering the respondent to make timely payments on existing debts of the respondent or of the parties, including but not limited to mortgage or rental payments and necessary utilities in order to maintain the petitioner in their residence;

6. Ordering the respondent to pay child support in accordance with Cherokee Nation child support laws and guidelines;

7. Ordering the respondent to pay such support as may be necessary for the support of a party and any minor children of the parties and/or reasonable attorney fees and costs.

8. Ordering the respondent to surrender all firearms and weapons to the custody of law enforcement while the protective order is in effect;

9. When appropriate, restraining one or both parties from transferring, removing, encumbering, mortgaging, concealing, disposing or altering property except as authorized by the Court; and

10. Ordering other lawful relief as the Court deems necessary for the protection of the victim of domestic violence, including orders or directives to law enforcement or other appropriate departments and programs; and

F. No order or agreement under this section affects title to any real property in any manner.

§ 516. Duration and amendments to permanent protective orders in general

A. A protective order shall be enforced until further order of the Court but not to exceed three hundred sixty five (365) days and may be subject to amendment for extension at the discretion of the Court or at the request of one of the parties.

B. After thirty (30) days, the Court may, in its discretion, revoke, modify, extend or amend a protective order upon subsequent petition filed by either party.

§ 517. Temporary emergency ex parte protective orders

A. During the hours that the Court is closed, the Court shall provide for the availability of a Judge or other authorized personnel who shall authorize the issuance of temporary emergency ex parte protective orders by any appropriate and effective method. The following conditions apply:

1. Temporary emergency ex parte orders will be issued upon a good cause showing that it is necessary to protect the applicant or others from interpersonal or domestic violence;
2. Immediate and present danger of interpersonal or domestic violence to the applicant or others constitutes good cause for purposes of this section;
3. Any order issued under this section expires seventy-two (72) hours after its issuance unless it is continued by the Judge or authorized personnel in the event of continuing unavailability of the Court. At any time, the applicant may seek a temporary ex parte protective order from the Court; and
4. Any order issued under this section and any documentation in support of the Order must be immediately certified to the Court.

B. If an officer cannot make an arrest, but there is probable cause to believe a person is in immediate and present danger of domestic violence, the Judge or other person authorized to issue temporary emergency ex parte protective orders may issue a temporary emergency ex parte protective order.

§ 518. False allegations of domestic violence—Effect

If, after investigation, the Court finds that a party's allegations of domestic violence in a domestic violence protective order proceeding, divorce proceeding, child custody proceeding, child visitation proceeding, separation proceeding or termination of parental rights proceeding are false and not made in good faith, the Court shall order the party making the false allegations to pay court costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the other party in responding to the allegation.

§ 519. Foreign domestic violence protective orders—Full faith and credit recognition and enforcement

A. Subject to registration, a domestic violence protective order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state, Indian tribe, the District of Columbia or a commonwealth, territory or possession of the United States must be accorded full faith and credit by the Cherokee Nation Court and enforced as if the order was issued by the Cherokee Nation Court.

1. A foreign domestic violence protective order is enforceable in the Cherokee Nation's jurisdiction, and as extended by cross-deputization or cooperative enforcement agreements, if all of the following are satisfied:
 - a. The respondent received notice of the protective order in compliance with requirements of the issuing jurisdiction;

b. The protective order is in effect in the issuing jurisdiction;

c. The issuing court had jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter;

d. The respondent was afforded reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard sufficient to protect that person's right to due process. In the case of ex parte protective orders, notice and opportunity to be heard must have been provided within the time required by the law of the issuing jurisdiction and in any event within a reasonable time after the protective order was issued, sufficient to protect the respondent's due process rights. Failure to provide reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard is an affirmative defense to any prosecution for violation of the foreign protective order or any process filed seeking enforcement of the protective order; and

e. If the protective order also provides protection for the respondent, a petition, application or other written pleading must have been filed with the issuing court seeking such a protective order and the issuing court must have made specific findings that the respondent was entitled to the protective order.

B. A person entitled to protection under a foreign domestic violence protective order may file the foreign protective order in the Clerk of Court's office. The person filing the protective order shall also file an affidavit with the Clerk of Court certifying the validity and status of the foreign protective order and attesting to the person's belief that the protective order has not been amended, rescinded or superseded by any other orders from a court of competent jurisdiction. If a foreign protective order is filed under this section, the Clerk of Court shall transmit a copy of the protective order to the Cherokee Marshal Service. Filing of a foreign protective order under this Section is not a prerequisite to the order's enforcement by Cherokee Nation. A fee for filing the foreign protective order shall not be assessed.

C. A law enforcement officer may rely upon any foreign domestic violence protective order that has been provided to the officer by any source. The officer may make arrests for violation of the protective order in the same manner as for violation of a protective order issued by Cherokee Nation. A law enforcement officer may rely on the statement of the person protected by the protective order that the protective order is in effect and that the respondent was personally served with a copy of the protective order. A law enforcement officer acting in good faith and without malice in enforcing a foreign protective order under this section is immune from civil or criminal liability for any action arising in connection with the enforcement of the protective order.

D. Any person who intentionally provides a law enforcement officer with a copy of a foreign domestic violence protective order known by that person to be false or invalid or who denies having been served with a protective order when that person has been served with such an order is guilty of a crime.

§ 520. Tribal registry for protective orders

A. The Court shall maintain a registry of all orders for protective orders issued by the Court. The Clerk of Court shall provide the Cherokee Nation Marshal's Office with certified protective orders within twenty-four (24) hours after issuance.

B. The Clerk of Court shall also provide the Cherokee Nation Marshal's Office with any modifications of, revocations of, withdrawal of and/or expiration of protective orders.

C. The information contained in the registry is available at all times to the Court, law enforcement agencies and domestic violence shelters.

D. Facsimile copies shall be recognized.

GARNISHMENT

§ 1170. Definitions

A. For the purposes of this section and 12 CNCA §§ 1171.2 through 1171.4:

1. "IV–D agency" means an agency of a state or federally-recognized tribe entering, enforcing, or collecting child support payments under Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of the Social Security Act found in Title 42 of the United States Code.

2. "Arrearage" means the total amount of unpaid support obligations.

3. "Child support" means and includes all payments or other obligations due and owing to the person entitled by the obligor pursuant to a child support order, including but not limited to medical insurance or health care premiums and other medical expenses, current child care obligations, child care arrearages and any fixed child care obligations and such other expenses and requirements as determined by the District Court.

4. "Delinquency" means any payment under an order for support which becomes due and remains unpaid.

5. "Disposable income" means income or earnings less any amounts required by law to be withheld, including, but not limited to, federal, state, and local taxes, Social Security, and public assistance payments.

6. "Income" or "earnings" means any form of payment to an individual regardless of source including, but not limited to, wages, gaming winnings, salary, commission, compensation as an independent contractor, workers' compensation, disability, annuity and retirement benefits, and any other payments made by any person, private entity, federal or state government, any unit of local government, school district, or any entity created by law.

7. "Income assignment" is a provision of a support order which directs the obligor to assign a portion of the monies, income, or periodic earnings due and owing to the obligor to the person entitled to the support or to another person designated by the support order or assignment for payment of support or arrearages or both. The assignment shall be in an amount which is sufficient to meet the periodic support arrearages or other maintenance payments or both imposed by the Court order or administrative order. The income assignment shall be made a part of the support order.

8. "Notice of income assignment" means the standardized form prescribed by the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services that is required to be used in all cases to notify a payor of an order to withhold for payment of child support and other maintenance payments.

9. "Obligor" means the person who is required to make payments under an order for support.

10. "Payor" means any person or entity paying monies, income, or earnings to an obligor. In the case of a self-employed person, the "payor" and "obligor" may be the same person.

11. "Person entitled" or "obligee" means the person to whom a duty of support is owed as designated in the support order or as otherwise specified by the Court.

12. "Support order" means an order for the payment of child support issued by the District Court, the Office of Child Support Enforcement or the IV–D agency of another state or tribe.

B. For the purposes of prejudgment garnishments, "judgment creditor" includes prejudgment garnishors.

A. Any creditor shall be entitled to proceed by garnishment in the District Court if said court has jurisdiction against a person who shall be indebted to the creditor's debtor or has any property in his possession or under his control belonging to such creditor's debtor, in the cases, upon the conditions, and in the manner described by law.

No garnishment shall be accepted by Cherokee Nation or any of its business entities unless said garnishment is issued by a court with jurisdiction over Cherokee Nation or its business entities. All foreign orders of garnishment, except those for child support, must be domesticated within the Cherokee Nation District Court in accordance with the laws or court rules of Cherokee Nation. Foreign garnishments for child support shall be delivered to the Cherokee Nation Office of Child Support Enforcement to be enforced in accordance with Cherokee Nation law and the policies and procedures of the Office of Child Support Enforcement.

B. Subject to the limitations and exceptions otherwise provided by law, there shall be two classes of garnishments:

1. Prejudgment garnishments, which shall consist only of general garnishments pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1173.3; and

2. Postjudgment garnishments, which shall consist of the following types of garnishments:

- a. Income assignment for child support pursuant to the provisions of 12 CNCA § 1171.2;
- b. Noncontinuing earnings garnishment pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1173;
- c. Garnishment for collection of child support pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1173.2;
- d. General garnishment pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1173.3; and
- e. Continuing earnings garnishment pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1173.4.
- f. Automatic gambling winnings garnishment pursuant to 12 CNCA §§ 1197 and 1198.

§ 1171.1. Money earned from prejudgment garnishment—Exemption

A. Money that was earned by a natural person as wages, salary, bonus or commission for personal services shall be exempt from garnishment issued before judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction except as provided for support in a divorce proceedings interlocutory order pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction which issued the order of support, and as otherwise specifically provided by statute.

B. Seventy-five percent (75%) of all earnings for personal or professional services earned during the last ninety (90) days shall be exempt from garnishment except for collection of child support obligations.

§ 1171.2. Child support payments—Garnishment—Filing fee

A. Any person awarded custody of and support for a minor child by a court of competent jurisdiction or awarded periodic child support payments by the Office of Child Support Enforcement, or the IV–D agency of another state or tribe on behalf of a recipient of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families or on behalf of a person not receiving Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, upon proper application, shall be entitled to proceed to collect any current child support and child support due and owing through income assignment pursuant to the provisions of this section and 12 CNCA §§ 1171.3 and 1171.4 or by garnishment, if the minor child is in the custody and care of the person entitled to receive the child support or as is otherwise provided by the Court or administrative order at the time of the income assignment or garnishment proceedings.

B. The maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of any person for any work week which is subject to garnishment or income assignment for the support of a minor child shall not exceed:

- 1. fifty percent (50%) of such person's disposable earnings for that week, if such person is supporting his spouse or a dependent child other than the child with respect to whose support such order is used; and

2. sixty percent (60%) of such person's disposable earnings for that week if such person is not supporting a spouse or dependent child. The fifty percent (50%) specified in paragraph 1 of this subsection shall be deemed to be fifty-five percent (55%) and the sixty percent (60%) specified in paragraph 2 of this subsection shall be deemed to be sixty-five percent (65%), if and to the extent that such earnings are subject to garnishment or income assignment to enforce a support order with respect to a period which is prior to the twelve- (12) week period which ends with the beginning of such work week.

C. No filing fee shall be required for a garnishment to collect current or past due child support.

§ 1171.3. Income assignments

A. In all child support cases arising out of an action for divorce, paternity or other proceedings, the Court shall order the payment of child support as provided under 43 CNCA § 508.

B. 1. A notice of income assignment shall be sent by the applicant to the payor on a standardized form prescribed by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services and available through the Office of Child Support Enforcement. The notice shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested or served according to law. The payor shall be required to comply with the provisions of this subsection and the provisions stated in the notice.

2. The income assignment shall take effect on the next payment of earnings to the obligor after the payor receives notice. The amount withheld shall be sent to the centralized support registry as provided for in 43 CNCA § 502 within seven (7) days after the date upon which the obligor is paid. The payor shall include with each payment a statement reporting the date the obligor's support obligation was withheld.

3. Each pay period the payor shall withhold the amounts specified in the notice from the obligor's income and earnings. The amount withheld by the payor shall not exceed the limits on the percentage of an obligor's income which may be assigned for support pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1171.2.

4. The income assignment is binding upon the payor until released or until further order of the Court.

5. All payments shall be made through the centralized support registry as provided in 43 CNCA § 502.

6. If the amount of support due under all income assignments against the obligor exceeds the maximum amount authorized by 12 CNCA § 1171.2, the payor shall pay the amount due up to the statutory limit, and the payor shall send written notice to the person or agency designated to receive payments that the amount due exceeds the amount subject to withholding. If the payor wrongfully fails to pay or notify as required in this subsection, the payor may be liable for an amount up to the accumulated amount due upon receipt of the notice.

7. If the payor is the obligor's employer, the payor shall send written notice to the person or agency designated to receive payments within ten (10) days of the date the obligor terminates employment, and shall provide the obligor's last-known address and the name of the obligor's new employer, if known.

8. If the payor has no income due or to be due to the obligor in the payor's possession or control or if the obligor has terminated employment with the payor prior to the receipt of notice of income assignment required pursuant to this subsection, the payor shall send written notice to the person or agency designated to receive payments within ten (10) days. Failure to notify the person or agency entitled to support within the required time limit may subject the payor to liability for an amount up to the accumulated amount due upon receipt of the notice of income assignment.

9. The payor is liable for any amount up to the accumulated amount that should have been withheld and paid, and may be fined up to Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for each failure to make the required deductions if the payor:

a. fails to withhold or pay the support in accordance with the provisions of the income assignment notice; or

b. fails to notify the person or agency designated to receive payments as required.

10. The payor may combine withheld amounts from earnings of two or more obligors subject to the same support order in a single payment and separately identify that portion of the single payment which is attributable to each individual obligor.

11. An income assignment for child support shall have priority over any prior or subsequent garnishments of the same wages.

12. The payor may deduct from any earnings of the obligor a sum not exceeding Five Dollars ($5.00) per pay period but not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10.00) per month as reimbursement for costs incurred by the payor for the income assignment.

13. The income assignment shall remain in effect regardless of a change of payor.

14. The income assignment shall remain in effect as long as current support is due or until all arrearages for support are paid, whichever is later. Payment of arrearages shall not prevent the income assignment from taking effect.

15. The payor may not discipline, suspend, discharge, or refuse to promote an obligor because of an income assignment executed pursuant to this section. Any payor who violates this section shall be liable to the obligor for all income, wages, and employment benefits lost by the obligor from the period of unlawful discipline, suspension, discharge, or refusal to promote until the time of reinstatement or promotion. Violation of this subsection may result in a fine of up to Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) against the payor for each violation.

C. Income assignment shall be available to collect any amounts due for child support, child care and medical expenses, as well as current support alimony payments; provided, child support shall be paid prior to any alimony payments.

D. Any existing support order or income assignment which is brought before the court shall be modified by the Court to conform to the provisions of this section.

E. Any person obligated to pay support, who has left or is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, may be prosecuted under any other proceedings available pursuant to the laws of this Nation for the enforcement of the duty of support and maintenance.

F. The income assignment proceedings specified in this section shall be available to other states or tribes for the enforcement of support and maintenance or to enforce out-of-state orders.

G. 1. In all child support cases in which child support services are being provided under the Nation's IV-D program, all orders for support are subject to immediate income assignment without need for a hearing by the District Court.

2. In all child support cases arising out of an action for divorce, paternity, or other proceeding in which services are not being provided under the Nation's IV-D program, the Court shall order the income of any parent ordered to pay child support to be subject to immediate income assignment regardless of whether child support payments are in arrears at the time of the order, unless:

a. one of the parties demonstrates and the Court finds that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding. Any finding that there is good cause not to require immediate income assignment must be based upon at least:

i. a written determination and explanation by the Court of why implementing immediate income assignment would not be in the best interests of the child; and

ii. proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of support orders; or

b. a written agreement is reached between the parties which provides for an alternative arrangement including in-kind payments. For purposes of this subparagraph, "written agreement" means a written alternative arrangement signed by both the custodial and noncustodial parents which has been reviewed by the Court and entered into the record by the Court.

H. The noncustodial parent may dispute a withholding only on the grounds of a mistake in the amount of the monthly withholding, amount of arrearage, or in the identity of the alleged noncustodial parent.

I. Where immediate income withholding is not in place, the income of the noncustodial parent shall become subject to withholding, at the earliest, on the date on which the payments which the noncustodial parent has failed to make under a tribal support order are at least equal to the support payable for one (1) month.

J. In addition to the amount to be withheld to pay the current month's obligation, the amount withheld must include an amount to be applied toward liquidation of any overdue support.

K. In cases brought by the Cherokee Nation Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE), OCSE shall promptly request of its payment system provider that amounts which have been improperly withheld be refunded and OCSE shall promptly terminate income withholding in cases where there is no longer a current order for support and all arrearages have been satisfied.

§ 1172. Affidavit—Contents

A. Garnishment proceedings, whether prejudgment or postjudgment, shall be commenced by the filing of an affidavit, on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation, stating:

1. The name(s) of the plaintiff(s);
2. The name(s) of the defendant(s);
3. In the case of prejudgment garnishments, the amount of the plaintiff's original claim against the defendant or defendants over and above all offsets;
4. In the case of postjudgment garnishments, the amount of the interest-bearing balance;
5. In the case of postjudgment garnishments, the rate and the date the interest begins to accrue; and
6. That the plaintiff verily believes that some person who is subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation, naming him, whether within or without the Nation, is indebted to or has property in his possession or under his control belonging to the defendant, or either or any of the defendants, in the action or execution and that the indebtedness or property is, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making such affidavit, not by law exempt from seizure or sale upon execution.

B. The affidavit may be filed by the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney at or before the time of filing of a garnishment summons.

C. Only one garnishee may be embraced in any affidavit or garnishment summons.

§ 1172.1. Prejudgment and postjudgment summons—Procedure

A. A garnishee summons shall not be issued in any action prior to judgment until:

1. Defendant has been served with a notice, to which the affidavit required by 12 CNCA § 1172 is attached, which notifies the defendant that the issuance of a garnishee summons is requested and that the defendant may object to the issuance of the summons by filing a written objection with the Court Clerk and delivering or mailing a copy to the plaintiff's attorney within five (5) days of the service of the notice. The service of the notice on the defendant satisfies the notice requirement of 12 CNCA § 1174;

2. If no written objection is filed within the five- (5) day period, and if the undertaking has been executed as provided herein, the Court Clerk shall issue the garnishee summons;

3. Should a written objection be filed within the five- (5) day period, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for a prompt hearing with notice to the adverse party. If, at the hearing, the plaintiff proves the probable merit of the plaintiff's cause and the truth of the matters asserted in the affidavit and if the plaintiff executes an undertaking, as provided herein, the Court may issue the garnishee summons; and

4. An undertaking on the part of the plaintiff has been executed by one or more sufficient sureties, approved by the Clerk or the Court and filed in the Clerk's office, in a sum not less than double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, to the effect that the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant all damages which the defendant may sustain by reason of the garnishment, together with a reasonable attorney fee, if the order be wrongfully obtained.

B. If the Court finds that the defendant cannot be given notice as provided by paragraph 1 of subsection (A) of this section, although a reasonable effort was made to notify the defendant, and at the hearing the plaintiff proves the probable merit of the plaintiff's cause of action and the truth of the matters asserted in the affidavit and the plaintiff has executed an undertaking as provided herein, the Court may issue a garnishee summons after which the defendant may move to have the garnishee summons quashed. Notice of a motion to quash, with the date of the hearing, shall be served on the attorney for the plaintiff. The motion shall be heard promptly, and in any case within five (5) days after the date that it is filed. The Court must grant the defendant's motion unless, at the hearing on defendant's motion, the plaintiff proves the probable merit of the plaintiff's cause and the truth of the matters asserted in the affidavit. The Court Clerk may issue an order to pay the money into the Court after the hearing, at the direction of the Court.

C. A prejudgment or postjudgment garnishment may be amended as in other civil actions. Upon request of the garnishor, alias or additional summons shall issue against the garnishee.

§ 1172.2. Garnishment summons—Payment of funds by garnishee

A. When a garnishment summons is issued in any action after the judgment is filed, the Court Clerk shall attach to the garnishment summons a notice of garnishment and exemptions required by 12 CNCA § 1174(C) and an application for the defendant to request a hearing. If the garnishee is indebted to or holds property or money belonging to the defendant, the garnishee shall immediately mail by first-class mail a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions and the application for hearing to the defendant at the last-known address of the defendant shown on the records of the garnishee at the time the garnishment summons was served on the garnishee. If more than one address is shown on the records of the garnishee at the time of service of the summons, the garnishee shall discharge the duty by mailing the required items to any one of the addresses shown on its records. In lieu of mailing, the garnishee may hand-deliver a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions and the application for hearing to the defendant. The garnishee shall have no liability except for willful failure to mail or hand-deliver the copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions and the application for hearing to the defendant. The answer of the garnishee shall contain a statement indicating substantial compliance with this section. If the application requesting a hearing is filed, the Court shall set the matter for hearing within not less than two (2) nor more than ten (10) days from receipt of the returned application, and the Court Clerk shall give notice of the hearing to each of the parties by first-class mail. The defendant shall have the burden of proof to show that some or all of the assets subject to the garnishment are exempt. The Court shall issue an order determining the exemption and directing distribution of funds, as appropriate. The Court may direct such other orders to the judgment creditor as are necessary to prevent subsequent garnishment of the exempt property.

B. In any case in which the garnishee is required by law or by order of the Court to pay garnishment funds, the garnishee shall pay the funds directly to the judgment creditor, unless otherwise ordered by the Court upon good cause shown, to pay the funds directly to the Court Clerk or unless due to federal law or federal regulation it is necessary that payment be made directly to the Court Clerk.

C. Any funds paid to the Court Clerk on a judgment, whether or not pursuant to a garnishment summons shall be paid to the judgment creditor's attorney, or to the judgment creditor if there is no attorney within twenty-one (21) days from receipt by the Court Clerk, notwithstanding the various times set forth above unless otherwise directed by the Court. No order of disbursement shall be necessary. In distribution of funds to the judgment creditor's attorney or judgment creditor, if received pursuant to a garnishment, the Court shall not have the duty to determine whether or not the garnishee has complied with the mailing or hand-delivery required of this section or be held liable for complete or partial noncompliance with the notice delivery requirement by the garnishee.

§ 1173. Garnishee summons

A. Any judgment creditor may obtain a noncontinuing lien on earnings. For the purposes of this section, "earnings" means any form of payment to an individual including, but not limited to, salary, commission, gambling winnings, or other compensation, but does not include reimbursements for travel expenses.

B. A noncontinuing earnings garnishment shall be commenced by filing the affidavit provided for by 12 CNCA § 1172.

C. The form for the summons required by this section shall be prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

D. The summons shall be served upon the garnishee, together with a copy of the judgment creditor's affidavit, a garnishee's answer form, notice of garnishment and request for hearing, and claim for exemptions, in the manner provided for the service of summons in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and shall be returned with proof of service within ten (10) days of its date.

E. The garnishee's answer shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

F. Within seven (7) days after the end of the defendant's then-current pay period or thirty (30) days from the date of service of the garnishment summons, whichever is earlier, the garnishee shall file the answer with the Court Clerk and the garnishee shall pay the amount withheld from the pay period to the judgment creditor's attorney or to the judgment creditor, if there is no attorney, with a copy of the answer which shall state:

1. Whether the garnishee was the employer of or indebted or under any liability to the defendant named in the notice in any manner or upon any account for earnings or wages, specifying, as applicable, the beginning and ending dates of the pay period existing at the time of the service of the affidavit and summons, the total amounts earned in the pay period, and all of the facts and circumstances necessary to a complete understanding of the indebtedness or liability. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting the liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

2. If the garnishee shall claim any setoff, defense, other indebtedness, liability, lien, or claim to the property, the facts and circumstances in the affidavit;

3. At the garnishee's option, any claim of exemption from execution on the part of the defendant or other objection known to the garnishee against the right of the judgment creditor to apply the indebtedness or property disclosed;

4. If the garnishee shall disclose any indebtedness or the possession of any property to which the defendant or any other person makes claim, at the garnishee's option, the names and addresses of other claimants and, so far as known, the nature of the claims; and

5. That the garnishee has mailed or hand-delivered a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions, application for hearing, and the manner and date of compliance.

G. The garnishment summons served on the garnishee under this section is a lien on the defendant's property due at the time of service or the effective date of the summons to the extent the property is not exempt from garnishment.

- H. 1. A garnishment lien under this section has priority over any subsequent garnishment lien or garnishment summons served on the garnishee except for a garnishment lien or summons to collect child support.

2. When a garnishment summons is served under this section on a garnishee while a previous garnishment lien is still in effect, the garnishee shall answer the subsequent garnishment lien or garnishment summons by stating that the garnishee is presently holding defendant's property under a previous garnishment lien or garnishment summons and by giving the date when all previous garnishment liens or garnishment summonses are expected to end.

I. 1. When a postjudgment noncontinuing earnings garnishment under 12 CNCA § 1173 or a continuing earnings garnishment under 12 CNCA § 1173.4 is issued against a defendant already subject to an income assignment for child support, the garnishee shall determine the maximum percentage of the defendant's disposable earnings according to the provisions of 12 CNCA § 1171.2 and then deduct from that percentage the actual percentage of the defendant's disposable earnings actually withheld under the income assignment. The resulting percentage shall be the amount to be withheld by the garnishee, not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%).

2. For any involuntary legal or equitable procedures through which the earnings of any individual are required to be withheld for the payment of any debt which has statutory priority over this section, the amount withheld pursuant to a garnishment under this section shall be reduced by the actual sums withheld pursuant to such other involuntary process.

Upon the filing of such affidavit and the undertaking and, when a hearing is required, after said hearing, where the garnishment is for the collection of support, garnishee summons shall be issued by the Judge of the District Court if prejudgment garnishment is sought or by the Clerk of the District Court if postjudgment garnishment is sought and served upon each of the garnishees, in the manner provided for service of summons under the laws or court rules of Cherokee Nation, and shall be returned with proof of service within ten (10) days of its date. The garnishee summons shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1173.3. General garnishment

A. A general garnishment shall be commenced by filing the affidavit provided for by 12 CNCA § 1172.

B. The summons required by this section shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

C. The summons required by subsection (B) of this section shall be served upon the garnishee together with a copy of the judgment creditor's affidavit, a garnishee's answer form, notice of garnishment and request for hearing, and claim for exemptions in the manner provided for by the laws or court rules of Cherokee Nation and shall be returned with proof of service within ten (10) days of its date.

D. The garnishee's answer shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

E. Within ten (10) days after service of the garnishment, the garnishee shall file its answer with the court clerk and pay or deliver to the judgment creditor's attorney or to the judgment creditor if there is no attorney the indebtedness or property belonging to or owed to the defendant, together with a copy of the answer which shall state:

1. Whether the garnishee was indebted or under any liability to or had in garnishee's possession or control, any property belonging to the defendant. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting any such liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

2. If the garnishee shall claim any setoff, defense, other indebtedness, liability, lien, or claim to the property, the facts and circumstances;

3. At the garnishee's option, any claim of exemption from execution on the part of the defendant, or other objection known to the garnishee against the right of the judgment creditor to apply the indebtedness or property disclosed;

4. If the garnishee shall disclose any indebtedness or the possession of any property to which the defendant or any other person makes claim, at the garnishee's option, the names and addresses of such other claimants and, so far as known, the nature of the claims; and

5. That the garnishee has mailed or hand-delivered a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions, application for hearing, and the manner and date of compliance.

F. The garnishment summons and affidavit served on the garnishee under this section are a lien on the defendant's property due at the time of service of the summons to the extent the property is not exempt from garnishment.

§ 1173.4. Continuing lien on earnings—Definitions

A. Any judgment creditor may obtain a continuing lien on earnings. For the purposes of this section, "earnings" means any form of payment to an individual including, but not limited to, salary, wages, commission, gaming winnings, or other compensation, but does not include reimbursements for travel expenses.

B. A continuing earnings garnishment shall be commenced by filing the affidavit provided for by 12 CNCA § 1172.

C. The summons required by this section shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

D. The summons required by this section shall be served upon each of the garnishees, together with a copy of the judgment creditor's affidavit, a garnishee's answer form, notice of garnishment and request for hearing, and claim for exemptions, in the manner provided for the service of summons in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and shall be returned with proof of service within ten (10) days of its date.

E. The garnishee's answer shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

F. Within seven (7) days after the end of each pay period, or, if the judgment debtor does not have regular pay periods, after any payment by the garnishee to the judgment debtor, the garnishee shall file an answer with the Court Clerk, and pay the amount withheld to the judgment creditor's attorney or to the judgment creditor, if there is no attorney, together with a copy of the answer which shall state:

1. Whether the garnishee was the employer of the defendant named in the notice, was indebted to the defendant, or was under any liability to the defendant in any manner or upon any account for earnings, specifying the beginning and ending dates of the pay period, if applicable, existing at the time of the service of the affidavit and summons, the total amounts earned in the entire pay period, and all of the facts and circumstances necessary to a complete understanding of any indebtedness or liability. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting the liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

2. If the garnishee shall claim any setoff, defense, other indebtedness, liability, lien, or claim to the property, the facts and circumstances in the affidavit;

3. At the garnishee's option, any claim of exemption from execution on the part of the defendant or other objection known to the garnishee against the right of the judgment creditor to apply the indebtedness or property disclosed;

4. If the garnishee shall disclose any indebtedness or the possession of any property to which the defendant or any other person makes claim, at the garnishee's option, the names and addresses of other claimants and, so far as known, the nature of their claims; and

5. That the garnishee has mailed or hand-delivered a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions, application for hearing, and the manner and date of compliance.

G. The garnishment summons served on the garnishee under this section is a lien on the defendant's property due at the time of service or the effective date of the summons, to the extent the property is not exempt from garnishment. This lien attaches to subsequent nonexempt earnings until one of the following occurs:

1. the total earnings subject to the lien equals the balance of the judgment against the defendant owing to the plaintiff;

2. the employment relationship is terminated;

3. the judgment against the defendant is vacated, modified, or satisfied in full;

4. the summons is dismissed; or

5. one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of service of the affidavit and summons have elapsed; provided, an affidavit and summons shall continue in effect and shall apply to a pay period beginning before the end of the one hundred eighty- (180) day period even if the conclusion extends beyond the end of the period.

H. 1. A garnishment lien under this section has priority over any subsequent garnishment lien or garnishment summons served on the garnishee during the period it is in effect, regardless of whether the amounts withheld by the garnishee are reduced by the Court or by agreement of the parties, except for a garnishment lien or garnishment summons issued for the collection of child support.

2. a. When a garnishment summons is served under this section on a garnishee while a previous garnishment lien is still in effect, the garnishee shall answer the subsequent garnishment lien or garnishment summons by stating that the garnishee is presently holding defendant's property under a previous garnishment lien or garnishment summons, and by giving the date when all previous garnishment liens or garnishment summons are expected to end.

b. The subsequent summons is not effective if a summons or lien on the same cause of action is pending at the time of service unless the subsequent summons in the same cause of action is served after the one-hundred-fiftieth (150th) day of the previous garnishment lien.

I. 1. When a postjudgment wage garnishment under 12 CNCA § 1173 or a continuing earnings garnishment under this section is issued against a defendant already subject to an income assignment for child support, the garnishee shall determine the maximum percentage of the defendant's disposable earnings according to the provisions of 12 CNCA § 1171.2 and then deduct from that percentage the actual percentage of the defendant's disposable earnings actually withheld under the income assignment. The resulting percentage shall be the amount to be withheld by the garnishee, not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%).

2. For any involuntary legal or equitable procedures through which the earnings of any individual are required to be withheld for the payment of any debt which has statutory priority over this section, the amount withheld pursuant to a garnishment under this section shall be reduced by the actual sums withheld pursuant to such other involuntary process.

J. A continuing earnings garnishment may be suspended or modified for a specific period of time within the effective period of the garnishment by the judgment creditor upon agreement with the judgment debtor, which agreement shall be in writing and filed by the judgment creditor with the Clerk of the Court in which the judgment was entered, and a copy of which shall be mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid by the judgment creditor to the garnishee.

K. Any garnishment issued against a debtor already subject to a continuing or noncontinuing earnings garnishment shall take effect immediately upon the conclusion of the prior garnishment, and shall be effective for its full period of time or as otherwise provided in this section.

§ 1174. Notice to defendant of garnishment proceedings

A. In all cases of garnishment before judgment, the defendant in the principal action shall be given notice of the issuance in said action of any garnishee summons, the date of issuance of said summons, and the name of the garnishee.

B. In all cases of garnishment for the collection of child support, the defendant shall be given notice as required by this section.

C. In all cases of postjudgment garnishment, the Court Clerk shall attach notice, in a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation, with the garnishment, in the manner provided by 12 CNCA § 1172.2 that the defendant may be entitled to claim an exemption for any assistance received pursuant to the terms of the federal or Oklahoma Social Security Act and other exemptions that may be available to the defendant, and that any such claim should be filed with the Court Clerk within five (5) days from receipt of notice in a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation, requesting a hearing as to the status of any assets which the defendant asserts are exempt. Any proceeding to claim an exemption initiated subsequent to five (5) days after receipt of notice shall be by motion unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

D. Said notification may be accomplished by:

1. Serving a copy of the garnishee summons on the defendant or on his attorney of record in the manner provided for the service of summons; or

2. Sending the notice or a copy of the garnishee summons to the defendant or his attorney of record by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested, which receipt shall be filed in the action; or

3. Attaching the notice on the summons issued in the principal action prior to its service; or

4. Including the notice in the publication notice when service in the principal action is by publication; or

5. Publication one (1) time in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the action is filed at least five (5) days prior to the date on which the garnishee's answer is due if the defendant is a nonresident or if the defendant's whereabouts are unknown to plaintiff.

§ 1175. Subsequent proceedings

The judgment creditor may in like manner subsequently proceed against other garnishees, or against the same garnishees, upon a new affidavit, if the judgment creditor shall have reason to believe they have subsequently become liable.

§ 1177. Trial of issue—Judgment on answer

The answer of the garnishee shall in all cases be conclusive of the truth of the facts therein stated, with reference to the garnishee's liability to the defendant unless the judgment creditor shall within twenty (20) days from the receipt of the garnishee's answer, from the date of the deposition of the garnishee, or from receipt of the garnishee's answers to interrogatories, whichever is later, serve upon the garnishee or the garnishee's attorney of record personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested, a notice in writing that the judgment creditor elects to take issue with the garnishee's answer; in which case, the issue shall stand for trial as a civil action in which the affidavit on the part of the judgment creditor shall be deemed the petition and the garnishee's answer the answer thereto. If an issue for trial shall be joined between the judgment creditor and a garnishee resident in another county other than that in which the action is pending, the Court may, on motion, change the place of trial of such issue to the county of the garnishee's residence. The judgment creditor may, in all cases, move the Court, upon the answer of the garnishee, and of the defendant, if the defendant shall also answer, for such judgment to which the judgment creditor shall be entitled, but any such judgment shall be no bar beyond the facts stated in the answer.

§ 1178. Affidavit required of garnishee

A. For the purposes of this section, "earnings" means any form of payment to an individual including, but not limited to, salary, wages, commission, gaming winnings, or other compensation, but does not include reimbursement for travel expenses.

B. Where the garnishment summons is on earnings and is issued under 12 CNCA § 1173, the garnishee shall, within seven (7) days after the end of defendant's present pay period or where a payment of earnings is due, or thirty (30) days from the service of the summons, whichever is earlier, file an affidavit with the Clerk of the Court in which the action is pending and deliver or mail a copy thereof to the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's attorney of record. The affidavit shall state:

1. Whether the garnishee was the employer of or indebted or under any liability to the defendant named in the notice in any manner or upon any account for earnings or wages, specifying, as applicable, the beginning and ending dates of the pay period existing at the time of the service of the garnishee summons, the total amounts earned in the pay period, and all of the facts and circumstances necessary to a complete understanding of such indebtedness or liability. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting any such liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

2. If the garnishee shall claim any setoff, defense, other indebtedness, liability, lien, or claim to such property, the facts and circumstances in the affidavit;

3. At the garnishee's option, any claim of exemption from execution on the part of the defendant, or other objection known to the garnishee against the right of the judgment creditor to apply the indebtedness or property disclosed;

4. If the garnishee shall disclose any indebtedness or the possession of any property to which the defendant, or any other person, makes claim, at the garnishee's option, the names and addresses of such other claimants and, so far as known, the nature of the claims; and

5. The garnishee shall state that he has mailed or hand-delivered a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions, application for hearing, and the manner and date of compliance.

C. The garnishee's answer shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1178.1. Summons for collection of support—Affidavit—Garnishee's answer

A. For the purposes of this section, "wages" or "earnings" means any form of payment to an individual including, but not limited to, salary, commission, or other compensation, but does not include reimbursement for travel expenses.

B. Where the garnishment summons is for the collection of support and is issued under 12 CNCA § 1173.2, the garnishee shall, within ten (10) days from the service of the garnishee's summons or within seven (7) days after the end of defendant's current pay period or thirty (30) days from the date of service of this summons, whichever is earlier, file an affidavit with the Clerk of the Court in which the action is pending and deliver or mail a copy thereof to the judgment creditor's attorney or to the judgment creditor if there is no attorney. The affidavit shall state:

1. Whether the garnishee was the employer of or indebted or under any liability to the defendant named in the notice in any manner or upon any account for earnings or wages specifying, as applicable, the beginning and ending dates of the pay period existing at the time of the service of the affidavit and summons, the total amounts earned in the pay period and all of the facts and circumstances necessary to a complete understanding of such indebtedness or liability. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting any such liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

2. Whether the garnishee was indebted or under any liability to or had in garnishee's possession or control, any property belonging to the defendant. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting any such liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

3. If the garnishee shall claim any setoff, defense, other indebtedness, liability, lien, or claim to such property, the facts and circumstances in the affidavit;

4. At the garnishee's option any claim of exemption from execution on the part of the defendant, or other objection known to the garnishee against the right of the judgment creditor, to apply the indebtedness or property disclosed;

5. If the garnishee shall disclose any indebtedness or the possession of any property to which the defendant or any other person, makes claim, at the garnishee's option the names and addresses of such other claimants and, so far as known, the nature of the claims; and

6. That the garnishee has mailed or hand-delivered a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions, application for hearing, and the manner and date of compliance.

C. The answer of the garnishee shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1178.2. Garnishment summons not on earnings or for collection of child support—
Affidavit—Garnishee's answer

A. Where the garnishment summons is not on earnings, is not for the collection of child support and is issued under 12 CNCA § 1173.3, the garnishee shall, within ten (10) days from the service of the garnishee's summons, file an affidavit with the Clerk of the Court in which the action is pending and deliver or mail a copy thereof to the judgment creditor's attorney or to the judgment creditor if there is no attorney. The affidavit shall state:

1. Whether the garnishee was indebted or under any liability to the defendant named in the notice in any manner or upon any account specifying if indebted or liable, the amount, the interest thereon, the manner in which evidenced, when payable, whether an absolute or contingent liability and all of the facts and circumstances necessary to a complete understanding of such indebtedness or liability. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting any such liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

2. Whether the garnishee was indebted or under any liability to or had in garnishee's possession or control, any property belonging to the defendant. When the garnishee shall be in doubt respecting any such liability or indebtedness, the garnishee may set forth all of the facts and circumstances concerning the same, and submit the question to the Court;

3. If the garnishee shall claim any setoff, defense, other indebtedness, liability, lien, or claim to such property, the facts and circumstances in the affidavit;

4. At the garnishee's option, any claim of exemption from execution on the part of the defendant, or other objection known to the garnishee against the right of the judgment creditor to apply the indebtedness or property disclosed;

5. If the garnishee shall disclose any indebtedness or the possession of any property to which the defendant or any other person makes claim, at the garnishee's option, the names and addresses of such other claimants and, so far as known, the nature of the claims; and

6. That the garnishee has mailed or hand-delivered a copy of the notice of garnishment and exemptions, application for hearing, and the manner and date of compliance.

B. The answer of the garnishee shall be on a form prescribed by the Judicial Branch of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1179. Failure of garnishee to answer

If any garnishee, having been duly summoned, shall fail to file and deliver or mail the answer as required by 12 CNCA § 1172.2, 1178, 1178.1 or 1178.2, to appear for deposition or to answer interrogatories as provided in 12 CNCA § 1183, the Court shall enter an order to the garnishee to file and deliver or mail the answer, to appear for deposition, or to answer the interrogatories within a time prescribed by the Court, not to be less than seven (7) days, in the order and also to deliver within the same period of time to the Court or the judgment creditor any money or property of defendant that the garnishee is required to pay or deliver under this title. The Court shall also direct the manner in which notice of the order shall be given to the garnishee. The order for giving notice shall specify a manner of giving notice which is calculated to be most likely to give actual notice to the garnishee or its managing officers, directors, or agents. The order shall specifically inform the garnishee that the garnishee has failed to respond to the summons and shall specifically advise the garnishee that judgment will be rendered against it in the principal amount of the judgment against the defendant plus costs, which amounts will be specified, upon failure to conform with the requirements of the order. If the garnishee shall fail to file and deliver or mail the answer affidavit as required in the order, appear for deposition, or to answer interrogatories as provided in the order, then the Court shall render judgment against the garnishee for the amount of the judgment and costs due the judgment creditor from the defendant in the principal action together with the costs of the garnishment, including a reasonable attorney fee to the judgment creditor for prosecuting the garnishment. The garnishee may also be subject to punishment for contempt; provided, however, the Court shall have power to vacate or modify any order issued pursuant to this section in the manner provided for under the statutes or court rules of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1180. Persons authorized to make answer

The answer of a corporation summoned as a garnishee may be made by any officer or attorney thereof; and of any other garnishee may be made by any agent or attorney of the garnishee.

§ 1181. Mutual defense by garnishee and defendant

At any time before final order or judgment against the garnishee, the defendant may in all cases, by answer duly verified defend the proceedings against any garnishee, upon the ground that the indebtedness of the garnishee, or any property held by him, is exempt from execution against such defendant, or for any other reason is not liable to garnishment; or upon any ground upon which a garnishee might defend the same; and may participate in the trial of any issue between the plaintiff and garnishee for the protection of his interests. The garnishee may at his option, defend the principal action for the defendant, if the latter does not, but shall be under no obligations so to do.

§ 1182. Proceedings deemed actions—Judgment and enforcement—Trial and dismissal—Unmatured or unliquidated debts

The proceedings against a garnishee shall be deemed an action by the judgment creditor against garnishee and defendant, as parties defendant, and all of the provisions for enforcing judgment shall be applicable thereto. No trial shall be had of the garnishee action until the judgment creditor shall have judgment in the principal action, and if the defendant have judgment, the garnishee action shall be dismissed with costs, unless the judgment creditor shall perfect an appeal according to law, in which event the garnishment proceeding shall be continued until the disposition of the appeal, and it shall not be necessary to appeal the garnishment proceedings, or make the garnishee a party to the appeal. The Court shall render such judgment in all cases as shall be just to all of the parties and shall properly protect their respective interests, and may adjudge the recovery of any indebtedness, the conveyance, transfer, or delivery to the appropriate law enforcement official, or any officer appointed by the judgment, of any property disclosed or found to be liable to be applied to the judgment creditor's demand, or by the judgment pass the title thereto; and may therein, or by its order when proper, direct the manner of making sale and of disposing of the proceeds thereof, or of any money or other things paid over or delivered to the Clerk or officer. The judgment against a garnishee shall acquit and discharge from all demands by the defendant or the defendant's representatives for all moneys, goods, effects, or credits paid, delivered or accounted for by the garnishee by force of such judgment; provided, it shall be no defense to proceedings against a garnishee that the debt owing by the garnishee to the defendant was unliquidated or was not due.

§ 1183. Examination of garnishee by deposition or interrogatories

The garnishee may be examined by the judgment creditor in any manner prescribed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for discovery. Discovery may commence at any time after the service of the garnishee summons. If the garnishee is a corporation, any principal officer thereof may be so examined. Within forty-five (45) days after the filing of the answer affidavit by the garnishee, the judgment creditor may commence discovery concerning any matter contained in the answer or germane to any liability on the garnishee's part to the principal defendant. Attached to any discovery request or notice of deposition shall be a statement that, upon failure to answer or appear, a judgment may be taken against the garnishee by default for the amount of the judgment and costs which the judgment creditor shall recover or has recovered against the defendant in the principal action, together with costs of the garnishment, and that the garnishee may also be proceeded against for contempt. A copy of the discovery request or notice of deposition and such statement shall be served upon the garnishee or the garnishee's attorney of record in the manner provided for service of summons. The garnishee within twenty (20) days of the date of service of a discovery request shall deliver by mail a copy to the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's attorney of record, full and true answers to all discovery requests, verified by affidavit, in the manner prescribed by the laws or court rules of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1184. Disclaimer by garnishee—Interpleading interested party

When the answer of the garnishee shall disclose that any other person than the defendant claims the indebtedness or property in his hands, and the name and residence of such claimant, the Court may, on motion, order that such claimant be interpleaded, as a defendant to the garnishee action; and that notice thereof, setting forth the facts, with a copy of such order, in such form as the Court shall direct, be served upon him; and that after such service shall have been made, the garnishee may pay or deliver to the officer or the Clerk such indebtedness or property, and have a receipt therefore, which shall be a complete discharge from all liability to any party for the amount paid or property so delivered. Such notice shall be served in the manner required for service of a summons in a civil action, and may be made without the state, or by publication thereof, if the order shall so direct. Upon such service being made, such claimant shall be deemed a defendant to the garnishee action and within ten (10) days shall answer, setting forth his claim or any defense which the garnishee might have made. In case of default, judgment may be rendered, which shall conclude any claim upon the part of such defendant.

§ 1185. Garnishee's liability

From the time of the service of the summons upon the garnishee he shall stand liable to the plaintiff to the amount of the property, moneys, credits and effects in his possession or under his control, belonging to the defendant or in which he shall be interested, to the extent of his right or interest therein, and of all debts due or to become due to the defendant, except such as may be by law exempt from execution. Any property, moneys, credits and effects held by a conveyance or title void as to the creditors of the defendant, shall be embraced in such liability. In case such moneys, credits and effects in the possession or under the control of the garnishee shall exceed the amount of the plaintiff's claim, the garnishee shall stand liable to the plaintiff only for the amount of the plaintiff's claim as disclosed by the garnishment affidavit together with such further amount as shall be equal to all costs and damages, which the plaintiff may recover in the action and garnishment proceedings.

§ 1186. No judgment upon garnishee's liability under certain circumstances

No judgment shall be rendered upon a liability of the garnishee arising:

First, by reason of his having drawn, accepted, made, endorsed or guaranteed any negotiable bill, draft, note, or other security.

Second, by reason of any money or other thing received or collected by him as a law enforcement officer, by force of an execution or other legal process in favor of the defendant.

Third, by reason of any money in his hands as a public officer, and for which he is accountable to the defendant merely as such officer.

Fourth, by reason of any money or other thing owing from him to the defendant, unless before judgment against the defendant it shall become due absolutely and without depending on any future emergency. Judgment may be given for any money or other thing owing, although it has not become payable, in which case the garnishee shall not be required to pay or deliver it before the time appointed by the contract.

No action shall be commenced by the defendant or his assignee against a garnishee upon any claim or demand liable to garnishment, or to recover any property garnished, or execution be issued upon a judgment in favor of defendant against such garnishee subsequent to the service of the garnishee summons upon him, until the termination of the garnishee action; and if an action shall have been commenced or an execution issued, it shall be stayed by the Court or a Judge thereof, upon the garnishee's application; except that upon cause shown, the Court or a Judge may by order permit the commencement of such an action, or the issue of an execution, or the further prosecution of one stayed.

The defendant may, at any time after the garnishment affidavit is filed, and before judgment, file with the Clerk of the Court an undertaking, executed by at least two sureties, authorized to issue bonds by Cherokee Nation, to the effect that they will, on demand, pay to the plaintiff the amount of the judgment that may be recovered against such defendant in the action, with all costs not exceeding a sum specified, which sum shall not be less than double the amount demanded by the complaint on file, or in such less sum as the Court shall, upon application, direct. The sureties shall justify their responsibility by affidavit annexed stating a sum which each is worth, in property, over and above all his debts and liabilities and property exempt from execution, the aggregate of which sums shall be double the amount specified in the undertaking. The defendant shall serve a copy of such undertaking, with a notice where and when the same was filed, on the plaintiff. Within three (3) days after the receipt thereof the plaintiff shall give notice to the defendant that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties, or he shall be deemed to have waived all objections to them.

§ 1189. When plaintiff excepts, sureties appear for justification—Discharge of garnishee

When the plaintiff excepts, the sureties shall appear for justification before the Judge of the District Court or the county judge of the county in which the action is brought, at a time and place to be mentioned in the notice given by the plaintiff, and may be examined on oath on the part of the plaintiff touching their sufficiency, in such manner as the Judge in his discretion may think proper. The examination shall be reduced to writing and subscribed by the sureties, if required by the plaintiff. If the Judge find the sureties sufficient he shall annex the examination to the undertaking, endorse his allowance thereon, and cause them to be filed with the Clerk of the District Court. Thereafter all the garnishees shall be discharged, and the garnishment proceedings shall be deemed discontinued, and any money or property paid or delivered to any officer shall be surrendered to the person entitled thereto, and the costs shall be taxable as disbursements of the plaintiff in the action if he recovers. The Judge may in his discretion require the costs of the justification before him, including fees to the sureties as witnesses, to be forthwith paid by the party requiring justification.

§ 1190. Costs

A. A garnishee may deduct a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) from the funds of the defendant in the garnishee's possession as reimbursement for costs incurred in answering. If the garnishee is not indebted to the defendant and the garnishee's answer evidencing that is filed and mailed or delivered to the judgment creditor or to the judgment creditor's attorney of record, the garnishee may assess the judgment creditor a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) as reimbursement for such costs.

B. 1. In case of the trial of any issue between the judgment creditor and any garnishee, costs shall be awarded to the judgment creditor and against the garnishee, in addition to the garnishee's liability, if the judgment creditor recovered more than the garnishee admitted by the garnishee's answer; and if the judgment creditor does not, the garnishee shall recover costs from the judgment creditor. The costs shall include a reasonable attorney fee to be taxed in favor of the prevailing party.

2. In the case of the trial to determine the amount to be recovered for due and owing child support, where any liability on the part of the garnishee is disclosed, costs shall be awarded to the judgment creditor and against the defendant, including a reasonable attorney fee.

C. In all other cases under this article not expressly provided for, the Court may, in its discretion, award costs in favor of or against any party.

D. In addition to sums otherwise due pursuant to a judgment, a judgment creditor, if represented by an attorney, shall be entitled to an attorney fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for prosecuting a garnishment pursuant to subparagraphs b, c, and d of paragraph 2 of subsection (B) of 12 CNCA § 1171, and an attorney fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for prosecuting a garnishment pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1171(B)(2)(e), not to exceed a total of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) in any twelve- (12) month period.

§ 1192. Garnishment—Employees of Cherokee Nation or its business entities

That it shall be lawful for any creditor of any person, firm or corporation within the boundaries of Cherokee Nation, to whom an employee of Cherokee Nation or any of its wholly-owned business entities is indebted, to cause a garnishment to issue to, and to garnishee wages due such creditor of the employee to the same extent and in like manner as if such creditor of the employee was a creditor of a private individual, firm or corporation; provided, however, that such employee of Cherokee Nation shall be entitled to the exemptions as to amount of such wages, salary, fund or compensation due thereto, as is exempt from attachment, execution or garnishment in favor of officers or employees of private individuals or corporations.

§ 1193. Summons when Cherokee Nation employee is garnisheed

When an employee of Cherokee Nation or one of its wholly-owned business entities is garnisheed, summons shall be served on the payroll manager of Cherokee Nation or the business entity. The payroll manager shall not enforce any garnishment that was not issued by Cherokee Nation District Court except for child support garnishments from IV–D agencies of other states or tribes.

§ 1194. Cherokee Nation as garnishee—Judgments

No judgment shall be rendered against Cherokee Nation as garnishee, but judgment may be rendered against any person served pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1193, who shall willfully fail, neglect or refuse to answer garnishment summons; provided, no person employed by Cherokee Nation shall be held personally liable unless the failure, neglect, or refusal to answer is willful.

§ 1195. Garnishment bond not required when Nation is plaintiff

That in all actions in which Cherokee Nation is party plaintiff, no garnishment bond shall be required of the plaintiff, but that a garnishment writ shall issue upon the filing of proper affidavits, as provided by law.

§ 1196. Judgment—Garnishee liability to defendant

If the plaintiff takes issue with the answer of the garnishee, the plaintiff may have a copy of the garnishee's answer and a copy of the plaintiff's notice which takes issue with the answer served on the defendant. If the defendant is served copies of the garnishee's answer and the plaintiff's notice, the determination of the Court as to the liability of the garnishee to the defendant will be binding on the defendant in any future action involving him and the garnishee whether or not the defendant participates in the trial of the issues raised by the garnishee's answer.

§ 1197. Garnishment of gaming winnings

Cherokee Nation Enterprises (CNE) shall verify that no child support arrearage is owed by any customer who wins an Internal Revenue Service reportable amount. Verification will be by comparing the social security number of the patron with the social security numbers provided by Cherokee Nation Office of Child Support Enforcement. CNE shall not be required to perform such comparison until the Office of Child Support Enforcement provides the information necessary, or access to the necessary information, to compare the social security number of the patron to the social security numbers of persons owing child support arrearages under Cherokee Nation issued or enforced child support orders and that indicates the amount of the arrearage owed. CNE shall collect the amounts indicated in the arrearage information and shall not be liable for any errors in said arrearage information.

§ 1198. Withholding gaming winnings

A. Cherokee Nation Enterprises shall withhold seventy-five percent (75%) of the amount of the gaming payout or prize awarded, not to exceed the amount owed, and forward that amount to Cherokee Nation Office of Child Support Enforcement. Failure to comply with this section shall result in CNE being liable for the amount it failed to withhold.

B. In circumstances where a patron is awarded a non-monetary prize and owes a child support arrearage, the patron shall be afforded the following options: 1) accept the cash equivalent of the prize offered minus the arrearage; or 2) pay the arrearage in cash or guaranteed funds and then take possession of the prize. After five (5) business days, the day of the prize winning event not included, if the patron has not made his/her election, CNE shall award the cash equivalent of the prize but withhold and remit the child support arrearage to the Office of Child Support

Enforcement or as directed by said Office, and then make any remaining funds available to the patron in accordance with CNE unclaimed jackpot procedures. The amount retained by CNE to pay the child support arrearage shall not exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the net amount of the prize. Net amount is the amount of the prize after all deductions required by law are made not including the child support arrearage.

C. For the purposes of this section, "winnings" include prizes awarded to patrons as the result of promotions, or for other reasons, and which do not require a wager to be placed in order to win the prize. The prize must be of a sufficient amount to require that a report be made to the Internal Revenue Service.

CHAPTER 7

DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS

§ 1201. Short title

This act shall be known as the "Cherokee Nation Declaratory Judgment Act of 2009".

§ 1202. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to establish authority for the Judicial Branch to exercise declaratory judgments.

§ 1203. Determination of rights, status or other legal relations—Exceptions

The District Court may, in cases of actual controversy, determine rights, status, or other legal relations, including but not limited to a determination of the construction or validity of any foreign judgment or decree, deed, contract, trust, or other instrument or agreement or of any statute, municipal ordinance, or other governmental regulation, whether or not other relief is or could be claimed, except that no declaration shall be made concerning liability or non-liability for damages on account of alleged tortious injuries to persons or to property either before or after judgment or for compensation alleged to be due under workers' compensation laws for injuries to persons. The determination may be made either before or after there has been a breach of any legal duty or obligation, and it may be either affirmative or negative in form and effect; provided however, that a Court may refuse to make a determination where the judgment, if rendered, would not terminate the controversy, or some part thereof, giving rise to the proceeding.

§ 1204. Pleading

A determination of rights, status, or other legal relations may be obtained by means of a pleading seeking that relief alone or as incident to or part of a petition, counterclaim, or other pleading seeking other relief, and when a party seeks other relief, a Court may grant declaratory relief where appropriate.

§ 1205. Parties—Venue

A. When declaratory relief is sought, all persons shall be made parties who have or claim any interest which would be affected by the declaration, and no declaration shall prejudice the rights of persons not parties to the proceeding.

B. The venue of the action shall be established by existing statutes; provided, where the action involves an individual defendant, the venue shall be in the county of the defendant's residence or where the defendant may be served with summons. If the action involves two or more defendants who reside in different counties, the venue shall be in any county where any defendant resides or may be served with summons.

C. In any proceeding which involves the validity of a municipal ordinance or regulation, the municipality shall be made a party, and shall be entitled to be heard, and if a statute or regulation is alleged to be unconstitutional, the Attorney General of Cherokee Nation shall also be served with a copy of the proceeding and be entitled to be heard.

Any determination of rights, status, or other legal relations shall have the force and effect of a final judgment, and it shall be reviewable in the same manner as other judgments.

§ 1207. Further relief

Further relief based upon determination of rights, status, or other legal relations may be granted whenever such relief becomes necessary and proper after the determination has been made. Application may be made by petition to any Court having jurisdiction for an order directed to any party or parties whose rights have been determined to show cause why the further relief should not be granted forthwith, upon reasonable notice prescribed by the Court in its order.

§ 1208. Issues of fact

When a proceeding under this act involves the determination of an issue of fact, such issue must be tried and determined in the same manner as issues of fact are tried and determined in other civil actions in the Court in which the proceeding is pending.

CHAPTER 8

UNIFORM ARBITRATION ACT

§ 1301. Definitions

In this Uniform Arbitration Act:

1. "Arbitration organization" means an association, agency, board, commission, or other entity that is neutral and initiates, sponsors, or administers an arbitration proceeding or is involved in the appointment of an arbitrator.

2. "Arbitrator" means an individual appointed to render an award, alone or with others, in a controversy that is subject to an agreement to arbitrate.

3. "Court" means a District Court of Cherokee Nation.

4. "Knowledge" means actual knowledge.

5. "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, government; governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality; public corporation; or any other legal or commercial entity.

6. "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

§ 1302. Notice

A. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a person gives notice to another person by taking action that is reasonably necessary to inform the other person in ordinary course, whether or not the other person acquires knowledge of the notice.

B. A person has notice if the person has knowledge of the notice or has received notice.

C. A person receives notice when it comes to the person's attention or the notice is delivered at the person's place of residence or place of business, or at another location held out by the person as a place of delivery of such communications.

§ 1303. When chapter applies

A. This chapter governs an agreement to arbitrate made on or after the effective date of this chapter.

B. This chapter governs an agreement to arbitrate made before the effective date of this chapter if all the parties to the agreement or to the arbitration proceeding so agree in a record.

C. On or after July 1, 2005, this chapter governs an agreement to arbitrate whenever made.

§ 1304. Effect of agreement to arbitrate—Nonwaivable provisions

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (B) and (C), a party to an agreement to arbitrate or to an arbitration proceeding may waive or, the parties may vary the effect of, the requirements of this Act to the extent permitted by law.

B. Before a controversy arises that is subject to an agreement to arbitrate, a party to the agreement may not:

1. waive or agree to vary the effect of the requirements of 12 CNCA § 1305(A), 12 CNCA § 1306(A), 12 CNCA § 1308, 12 CNCA § 1317(A), 12 CNCA § 1317(B), 12 CNCA § 1326, or 12 CNCA § 1328;
2. agree to unreasonably restrict the right under 12 CNCA § 1309 to notice of the initiation of an arbitration proceeding;
3. agree to unreasonably restrict the right under 12 CNCA § 1312 to disclosure of any facts by a neutral arbitrator, or
4. waive the right under 12 CNCA § 1316 of a party to an agreement to arbitrate to be represented by a lawyer at any proceeding or hearing under this act, but an employer and a labor organization may waive the right to representation by a lawyer in a labor arbitration.

C. A party to an agreement to arbitrate or arbitration proceeding may not waive, or the parties may not vary the effect of, the requirements of this section or 12 CNCA § 1303(A) or (C), 12 CNCA § 1307, 12 CNCA § 1314, 12 CNCA § 1318, 12 CNCA § 1320(D) or (E), 12 CNCA § 1322, 12 CNCA § 1323, 12 CNCA § 1324, 12 CNCA § 1325(A) or (B), 12 CNCA § 1329 or 12 CNCA § 1330.

§ 1305. Application for judicial relief

A. Except as otherwise provided in 12 CNCA § 1328, an application for judicial relief under this chapter must be made by petition to the Court and heard in the manner provided by law or rule of court for making and hearing petitions.

B. Unless a civil action involving the agreement to arbitrate is pending, notice of an initial petition to the Court under this act must be served in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons in a civil action. Otherwise, notice of the motion must be given in the manner provided by law or rule of court for serving motions in pending cases.

§ 1306. Validity of agreement to arbitrate

A. An agreement contained in a record to submit to arbitration any existing or subsequent controversy arising between the parties to the agreement is valid, enforceable, and irrevocable except upon a ground that exists at law or in equity for the revocation of a contract.

B. The Court shall decide whether an agreement to arbitrate exists or a controversy is subject to an agreement to arbitrate.

C. An arbitrator shall decide whether a condition precedent to arbitrability has been fulfilled and whether a contract containing a valid agreement to arbitrate is enforceable.

D. If a party to a judicial proceeding challenges the existence of, or claims that a controversy is not subject to, an agreement to arbitrate, the arbitration proceeding may continue pending final resolution of the issue by the Court, unless the Court otherwise orders.

§ 1307. Petition to compel or stay arbitration

A. On petition of a person showing an agreement to arbitrate and alleging another person's refusal to arbitrate pursuant to the agreement:

1. if the refusing party does not appear or does not oppose the petition, the Court shall order the parties to arbitrate; and
2. if the refusing party opposes the petition, the Court shall proceed summarily to decide the issue and order the parties to arbitrate unless it finds that there is no enforceable agreement to arbitrate.

B. On petition of a person alleging that an arbitration proceeding has been initiated or threatened but that there is no agreement to arbitrate, the Court shall proceed summarily to decide the issue. If the Court finds that there is an enforceable agreement to arbitrate, it shall order the parties to arbitrate.

C. If the Court finds that there is no enforceable agreement, it may not pursuant to subsection (A) or (B) of this section order the parties to arbitrate.

D. The Court may not refuse to order arbitration because the claim subject to arbitration lacks merit or grounds for the claim have not been established.

E. If a proceeding involving a claim referable to arbitration under an alleged agreement to arbitrate is pending in court, a petition under this section must be made in that court. Otherwise a petition under this section may be made in any court as provided in 12 CNCA § 1327.

F. If a party makes a petition to the Court to order arbitration, the Court on just terms shall stay any judicial proceeding that involves a claim alleged to be subject to the arbitration until the Court renders a final decision under this section.

G. If the Court orders arbitration, the Court on just terms shall stay any judicial proceeding that involves a claim subject to the arbitration. If a claim subject to the arbitration is severable, the Court may limit the stay to that claim.

§ 1308. Provisional remedies

A. Before an arbitrator is appointed and is authorized and able to act, the Court, upon motion of a party to an arbitration proceeding and for good cause shown, may enter an order for provisional remedies to protect the effectiveness of the arbitration proceeding to the same extent and under the same conditions as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action.

B. After an arbitrator is appointed and is authorized and able to act:

1. the arbitrator may issue such orders for provisional remedies, including interim awards, as the arbitrator finds necessary to protect the effectiveness of the arbitration proceeding and to promote the fair and expeditious resolution of the controversy, to the same extent and under the same conditions as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action; and

2. a party to an arbitration proceeding may move the Court for a provisional remedy only if the matter is urgent and the arbitrator is not able to act timely or the arbitrator cannot provide an adequate remedy.

C. A party does not waive a right of arbitration by making a petition under subsection (A) or (B) of this section.

§ 1309. Initiation of arbitration

A. A person initiates an arbitration proceeding by giving notice in a record to the other parties to the agreement to arbitrate in the agreed manner between the parties or, in the absence of agreement, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested and obtained, or by service as authorized for the commencement of a civil action. The notice must describe the nature of the controversy and the remedy sought.

B. Unless a person objects for lack or insufficiency of notice under 12 CNCA § 1315(C) not later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing, the person by appearing at the hearing waives any objection to lack of or insufficiency of notice.

§ 1310. Consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (C) of this section, upon petition of a party to an agreement to arbitrate or to an arbitration proceeding, the Court may order consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings as to all or some of the claims if:

1. there are separate agreements to arbitrate or separate arbitration proceedings between the same persons or one of them is a party to a separate agreement to arbitrate or a separate arbitration proceeding with a third person;

2. the claims subject to the agreements to arbitrate arise in substantial part from the same transaction or series of related transactions;

3. the existence of a common issue of law or fact creates the possibility of conflicting decisions in the separate arbitration proceedings; and

4. prejudice resulting from a failure to consolidate is not outweighed by the risk of undue delay or prejudice to the rights of or hardship to parties opposing consolidation.

B. The Court may order consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings as to some claims and allow other claims to be resolved in separate arbitration proceedings.

C. The Court may not order consolidation of the claims of a party to an agreement to arbitrate if the agreement prohibits consolidation.

§ 1311. Appointment of arbitrator—Service as a neutral arbitrator

A. If the parties to an agreement to arbitrate agree on a method for appointing an arbitrator, that method must be followed, unless the method fails. If the parties have not agreed on a method, the agreed method fails, or an arbitrator appointed fails or is unable to act and a successor has not been appointed, the Court, on motion of a party to the arbitration proceeding, shall appoint the arbitrator. An arbitrator so appointed has all the powers of an arbitrator designated in the agreement to arbitrate or appointed pursuant to the agreed method.

B. An individual who has a known, direct, and material interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding or a known, existing, and substantial relationship with a party may not serve as an arbitrator required by an agreement to be neutral.

§ 1312. Disclosure by arbitrator

A. Before accepting appointment, an individual who is requested to serve as an arbitrator, after making a reasonable inquiry, shall disclose to all parties to the agreement to arbitrate and arbitration proceeding and to any other arbitrators any known facts that a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator in the arbitration proceeding, including:

1. a financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding; and
2. an existing or past relationship with any of the parties to the agreement to arbitrate or the arbitration proceeding, their counsel or representatives, a witness, or another arbitrator.

B. An arbitrator has a continuing obligation to disclose to all parties to the agreement to arbitrate and arbitration proceeding and to any other arbitrators any facts that the arbitrator learns after accepting appointment which a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator.

C. If an arbitrator discloses a fact required by subsection (A) or (B) of this section to be disclosed and a party timely objects to the appointment or continued service of the arbitrator based upon the fact disclosed, the objection may be a ground under 12 CNCA § 1323(A)(2) for vacating an award made by the arbitrator.

D. If the arbitrator did not disclose a fact as required by subsection (A) or (B) of this section, upon timely objection by a party, the Court under 12 CNCA § 1323(A)(2) may vacate an award.

E. An arbitrator appointed as a neutral arbitrator who does not disclose a known, direct, and material interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding or a known, existing, and substantial relationship with a party is presumed to act with evident partiality under 12 CNCA § 1323(A)(2).

F. If the parties to an arbitration proceeding agree to the procedures of an arbitration organization or any other procedures for challenges to arbitrators before an award is made, substantial compliance with those procedures is a condition precedent to a petition to vacate an award on that ground under 12 CNCA § 1323(A)(2).

§ 1313. Action by majority

If there is more than one arbitrator, the powers of an arbitrator must be exercised by a majority of the arbitrators, but all of them shall conduct the hearing under 12 CNCA § 1315(C).

§ 1314. Immunity of arbitrator—Competency to testify—Attorney fees and costs

A. An arbitrator or an arbitration organization acting in that capacity is immune from civil liability to the same extent as a Judge of a Court of this Nation acting in a judicial capacity.

B. The immunity afforded by this section supplements any immunity under other law.

C. The failure of an arbitrator to make a disclosure required by 12 CNCA § 1312 does not cause any loss of immunity under this section.

D. In a judicial, administrative, or similar proceeding, an arbitrator or representative of an arbitration organization is not competent to testify, and may not be required to produce records as to any statement, conduct, decision, or ruling occurring during the arbitration proceeding, to the same extent as a Judge of a Court of this Nation acting in a judicial capacity. This subsection does not apply:

1. to the extent necessary to determine the claim of an arbitrator, arbitration organization, or representative of the arbitration organization against a party to the arbitration proceeding; or

2. to a hearing on a petition to vacate an award under 12 CNCA § 1323(A)(1) or (2) if the petitioner establishes prima facie that a ground for vacating the award exists.

E. If a person commences a civil action against an arbitrator, arbitration organization, or representative of an arbitration organization arising from the services of the arbitrator, organization, or representative or if a person seeks to compel an arbitrator or a representative of an arbitration organization to testify or produce records in violation of subsection (D) of this section, and the Court decides that the arbitrator, arbitration organization, or representative of an arbitration organization is immune from civil liability or that the arbitrator or representative of the organization is not competent to testify, the Court shall award to the arbitrator, organization, or representative reasonable attorney fees and other reasonable expenses of litigation.

§ 1315. Arbitration process

A. An arbitrator may conduct an arbitration in such manner as the arbitrator considers appropriate for a fair and expeditious disposition of the proceeding. The authority conferred upon the arbitrator includes the power to hold conferences with the parties to the arbitration proceeding before the hearing and, among other matters, determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality and weight of any evidence.

B. An arbitrator may decide a request for summary disposition of a claim or particular issue:

1. if all interested parties agree; or

2. upon request of one party to the arbitration proceeding if that party gives notice to all other parties to the proceeding, and the other parties have a reasonable opportunity to respond.

C. If an arbitrator orders a hearing, the arbitrator shall set a time and place and give notice of the hearing not less than five (5) days before the hearing begins. Unless a party to the arbitration proceeding makes an objection to lack or insufficiency of notice not later than the beginning of the hearing, the party's appearance at the hearing waives the objection. Upon request of a party to the arbitration proceeding and for good cause shown, or upon the arbitrator's own initiative, the arbitrator may adjourn the hearing from time to time as necessary but may not postpone the hearing to a time later than that fixed by the agreement to arbitrate for making the award unless the parties to the arbitration proceeding consent to a later date. The arbitrator may hear and decide the controversy upon the evidence produced although a party who was duly notified of the arbitration proceeding did not appear. The Court, on request, may direct the arbitrator to conduct the hearing promptly and render a timely decision.

D. At a hearing under subsection (C) of this section, a party to the arbitration proceeding has a right to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy, and to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing.

E. If an arbitrator ceases or is unable to act during the arbitration proceeding, a replacement arbitrator must be appointed in accordance with 12 CNCA § 1311 to continue the proceeding and to resolve the controversy.

§ 1316. Representation by lawyer

A party to an arbitration proceeding may be represented by a lawyer.

§ 1317. Witnesses—Subpoenas—Depositions—Discovery

A. An arbitrator may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness and for the production of records and other evidence at any hearing and may administer oaths. A subpoena must be served in the manner for service of subpoenas in a civil action and, upon motion to the Court by a party to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action.

B. In order to make the proceedings fair, expeditious, and cost effective, upon request of a party to or a witness in an arbitration proceeding, an arbitrator may permit a deposition of any witness to be taken for use as evidence at the hearing, including a witness who cannot be subpoenaed for or is unable to attend a hearing. The arbitrator shall determine the conditions under which the deposition is taken.

C. An arbitrator may permit such discovery as the arbitrator decides is appropriate in the circumstances, taking into account the needs of the parties to the arbitration proceeding and other affected persons and the desirability of making the proceeding fair, expeditious, and cost effective.

D. If an arbitrator permits discovery under subsection (C), the arbitrator may order a party to the arbitration proceeding to comply with the arbitrator's discovery-related orders, issue subpoenas for the attendance of a witness and for the production of records and other evidence at a discovery proceeding, and take action against a noncomplying party to the extent a Court could if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this Nation.

E. An arbitrator may issue a protective order to prevent the disclosure of privileged information, confidential information, trade secrets, and other information protected from disclosure to the extent a Court could if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this Nation.

F. All laws compelling a person under subpoena to testify and all fees for attending a judicial proceeding, a deposition, or a discovery proceeding as a witness apply to an arbitration proceeding as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this Nation.

G. The Court may enforce a subpoena or discovery-related order for the attendance of a witness within this Nation and for the production of records and other evidence issued by an arbitrator in connection with an arbitration proceeding in a state or another Indian nation upon conditions determined by the Court so as to make the arbitration proceeding fair, expeditious, and cost effective. A subpoena or discovery-related order issued by an arbitrator in a state or another Indian nation must be served in the manner provided by law for service of subpoenas in a civil action in this Nation and, upon motion to the Court by a party to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner provided by law for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action in this Nation.

§ 1318. Judicial enforcement of preaward ruling by arbitrator

If an arbitrator makes a preaward ruling in favor of a party to the arbitration proceeding, the party may request the arbitrator to incorporate the ruling into an award under 12 CNCA § 1319. A prevailing party may make a motion to the Court for an expedited order to confirm the award under 12 CNCA § 1322, in which case the Court shall summarily decide the motion. The Court shall issue an order to confirm the award unless the Court vacates, modifies, or corrects the award under 12 CNCA § 1323 or 12 CNCA § 1324.

§ 1319. Award

A. An arbitrator shall make a record of an award. The record must be signed or otherwise authenticated by any arbitrator who concurs with the award. The arbitrator or the arbitration organization shall give notice of the award, including a copy of the award, to each party to the arbitration proceeding.

B. An award must be made within the time specified by the agreement to arbitrate or, if not specified therein, within the time ordered by the Court. The Court may extend or the parties to the arbitration proceeding may agree in a record to extend the time. The Court or the parties may do so within or after the time specified or ordered. A party waives any objection that an award was not timely made unless the party gives notice of the objection to the arbitrator before receiving notice of the award.

§ 1320. Change of award by arbitrator

A. On motion to an arbitrator by a party to an arbitration proceeding, the arbitrator may modify or correct an award:

1. upon a ground stated in 12 CNCA § 1324(A)(1) or (3);
2. because the arbitrator has not made a final and definite award upon a claim submitted by the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or
3. to clarify the award.

B. A motion under subsection (A) of this section must be made and notice given to all parties within twenty (20) days after the movant receives notice of the award.

C. A party to the arbitration proceeding must give notice of any objection to the motion within ten (10) days after receipt of the notice.

D. If a motion to the Court is pending under 12 CNCA § 1322, § 1323, or § 1324, the Court may submit the claim to the arbitrator to consider whether to modify or correct the award:

1. upon a ground stated in 12 CNCA § 1324(A)(1) or (3);
2. because the arbitrator has not made a final and definite award upon a claim submitted by the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or
3. to clarify the award.

E. An award modified or corrected pursuant to this section is subject to 12 CNCA §§ 1319(A), 1322, 1323, and 1324.

§ 1321. Remedies—Fees and expenses of arbitration proceeding

A. An arbitrator may award punitive damages or other exemplary relief if such an award is authorized by law in a civil action involving the same claim and the evidence produced at the hearing justifies the award under the legal standards otherwise applicable to the claim.

B. An arbitrator may award reasonable attorney fees and other reasonable expenses of arbitration if such an award is authorized by law in a civil action involving the same claim or by the agreement of the parties to the arbitration proceeding.

C. As to all remedies other than those authorized by subsections (A) and (B) of this section, an arbitrator may order such remedies as the arbitrator considers just and appropriate under the circumstances of the arbitration proceeding. The fact that such a remedy could not or would not be granted by the Court is not a ground for refusing to confirm an award under 12 CNCA § 1322 or for vacating an award under 12 CNCA § 1323.

D. An arbitrator's expenses and fees, together with other expenses, must be paid as provided in the award.

E. If an arbitrator awards punitive damages or other exemplary relief under subsection (A) of this section, the arbitrator shall specify in the award the basis in fact justifying and the basis in law authorizing the award and state separately the amount of the punitive damages or other exemplary relief.

§ 1322. Confirmation of award

After a party to an arbitration proceeding receives notice of an award, the party may make a motion to the Court for an order confirming the award at which time the Court shall issue a confirming order unless the award is modified or corrected pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1320 or 1324 or is vacated pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1323.

§ 1323. Vacating award

A. Upon motion to the Court by a party to an arbitration proceeding, the Court shall vacate an award made in the arbitration proceeding if:

1. the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means;
2. there was:
 - a. evident partiality by an arbitrator appointed as a neutral arbitrator,
 - b. corruption by an arbitrator, or
 - c. misconduct by an arbitrator prejudicing the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding;

3. an arbitrator refused to postpone the hearing upon showing of sufficient cause for postponement, refused to consider evidence material to the controversy, or otherwise conducted the hearing contrary to 12 CNCA § 1315, so as to prejudice substantially the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding;

4. an arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's powers;

5. there was no agreement to arbitrate, unless the person participated in the arbitration proceeding without raising the objection under 12 CNCA § 1315(C) not later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing; or

6. the arbitration was conducted without proper notice of the initiation of an arbitration as required in 12 CNCA § 1309 so as to prejudice substantially the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding.

B. A motion under this section must be filed within ninety (90) days after the movant receives notice of the award pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1319 or within ninety (90) days after the movant receives notice of a modified or corrected award pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1320, unless the movant alleges that the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means, in which case the motion must be made within ninety (90) days after the ground is known or by the exercise of reasonable care would have been known by the movant.

C. If the Court vacates an award on a ground other than that set forth in subsection A(5) of this section, it may order a rehearing. If the award is vacated on a ground stated in subsection A(1) or (2) of this section, the rehearing must be before a new arbitrator. If the award is vacated on a ground stated in subsection A(3), (4), or (6) of this section, the rehearing may be before the arbitrator who made the award or the arbitrator's successor. The arbitrator must render the decision in the rehearing within the same time as that provided in 12 CNCA § 1319(B) for an award.

D. If the Court denies a motion to vacate an award, it shall confirm the award unless a motion to modify or correct the award is pending.

§ 1324. Modification or correction of award

A. Upon motion made within ninety (90) days after the movant receives notice of the award pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1319 or within ninety (90) days after the movant receives notice of a modified or corrected award pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1320, the Court shall modify or correct the award if:

1. there was an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident mistake in the description of a person, thing, or property referred to in the award;

2. the arbitrator has made an award on a claim not submitted to the arbitrator and the award may be corrected without affecting the merits of the decision upon the claims submitted; or

3. the award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits of the decision on the claims submitted.

B. If a motion made under subsection (A) of this section is granted, the Court shall modify or correct and confirm the award as modified or corrected. Otherwise, unless a motion to vacate is pending, the Court shall confirm the award.

C. A motion to modify or correct an award pursuant to this section may be joined with a motion to vacate the award.

§ 1325. Judgment on award—Attorney fees and litigation expenses

A. Upon granting an order confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing, modifying, or correcting an award, the Court shall enter a judgment in conformity therewith. The judgment may be recorded, docketed, and enforced as any other judgment in a civil action.

B. A Court may allow reasonable costs of the motion and subsequent judicial proceedings.

C. On application of a prevailing party to a contested judicial proceeding under 12 CNCA § 1322, 1323, or 1324, the Court may add reasonable attorney fees and other reasonable expenses of litigation incurred in a judicial proceeding after the award is made to a judgment confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing, modifying, or correcting an award.

§ 1326. Jurisdiction

A. A District Court of Cherokee Nation having jurisdiction over the controversy and the parties may enforce an agreement to arbitrate.

B. An agreement to arbitrate providing for arbitration in Cherokee Nation confers exclusive jurisdiction on the Court to enter judgment on an award under this chapter.

§ 1327. Venue

A motion pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1305 must be made in the District Court of Cherokee Nation.

§ 1328. Appeals

A. An appeal may be taken from:

1. an order denying a motion to compel arbitration;
2. an order granting a motion to stay arbitration;
3. an order confirming or denying confirmation of an award;

4. an order modifying or correcting an award;
 5. an order vacating an award without directing a rehearing; or
 6. a final judgment entered pursuant to this chapter.
- B. An appeal under this section must be taken as from an order or a judgment in a civil action.

§ 1329. Uniformity of application and construction

In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states and tribal nations that enact it.

§ 1330. Relationship to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act

The provisions of this chapter governing the legal effect, validity, and enforceability of electronic records or electronic signatures, and of contracts performed with the use of such records or signatures conform to the requirements of Section 102 of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7002.

CONTRACT PUBLICATION

§ 1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as "The Contract Publication Act of 2003".

§ 2. Purpose

The purpose of this act shall be to ensure that all laws and regulations are properly followed in awarding contracts given by Cherokee Nation to individuals, businesses or agencies; further the purpose of this act is to make available that information to other branches of government and the Cherokee people.

§ 3. Reports relating to contracts

A. Each Executive Director of a Department of Cherokee Nation shall submit to the Treasurer by November 1 of each year, a report listing all acquisitions exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) of the Department for the preceding fiscal year which will include the following information:

1. Professional service contracts;
2. Nonprofessional service contracts; and
3. Contracts for the leasing of property including real property contracts and any lease agreements for products or equipment.

B. The report shall contain:

1. The name of the supplier;
2. A description of each acquisition;
3. The purchase price of the acquisition; and
4. The total amount expended to date for the preceding fiscal year for the acquisition.

C. The report shall specifically identify sole source, sole brand acquisitions, and acquisitions by TERO vendors.

D. The Executive Director of the Department of Cherokee Nation shall submit the report to the Treasurer and to the Office of the Controller. The Executive Director of any Department shall submit the report to any Member of the Cherokee Nation Council if a Member so requests.

E. The Treasurer shall review the report for compliance with statutes and rules or other provisions of law applicable.

F. All contract awards given by Cherokee Nation to individuals, businesses or agencies over One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) will be published annually in January on the Cherokee Nation website and in the Cherokee Phoenix.

TITLE 18
CORPORATIONS
CHAPTER 1
CHEROKEE NATION GENERAL CORPORATION ACT
ARTICLE 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Short title

Sections 1 through 146 of this Title shall be known and may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act". Section captions are part of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act.

§ 2. Scope of act

A. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall be applicable to every for-profit corporation, whether stock or nonstock, existing as of the effective date of this act or thereafter formed or qualified to transact business in Cherokee Nation, and to all securities thereof, except to the extent that:

1. any such corporation is expressly excluded from the operation of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or portions thereof; or
2. special provisions concerning any such corporation conflict with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, in which case such special provisions shall govern.

B. Any conflicts with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act and any tax or unclaimed property laws of Cherokee Nation shall be governed by the tax or unclaimed property provisions, including those provisions relating to personal liability of corporate officers and directors.

C. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act concerning qualifications of foreign corporations and providing requirements and duties relating to such corporations shall apply to insurance companies until such times as an Insurance Commission or similar agency to govern insurance is formed.

D. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act concerning qualifications of foreign corporations and providing requirements and duties relating to such corporations shall apply to foreign transportation companies until such time as a Corporation Commission or similar agency to govern transportation is formed.

§ 3. Rights, liabilities and duties under prior statutes

All rights, privileges and immunities vested or accrued by and pursuant to any laws enacted prior to the adoption or subsequent amendment of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, all suits pending, all rights of action conferred, and all duties, restrictions, liabilities and penalties imposed or required by and pursuant to laws enacted prior to the adoption or amendment of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, shall not be impaired, diminished or affected.

§ 4. Reserved power of Cherokee Nation to amend or repeal—Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act part of corporation's charter or certificate of incorporation

The Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act may be amended or repealed at the pleasure of the Council of Cherokee Nation, but any amendment or repeal shall not take away or impair any remedy available pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act against any corporation or its officers for any liability which shall have been previously incurred. The Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act and any amendments thereto shall be a part of the charter or certificate of incorporation of every corporation except so far as the same are inapplicable and inappropriate to the objects of the corporation. The provisions of this section shall not affect or impair as to any corporation any rights protected or guaranteed by the Constitution of Cherokee Nation or of the United States.

FORMATION

§ 5. Incorporators—How corporation formed—Purposes

A. Any tribal citizen of Cherokee Nation pursuant to Article III, Section 1 [now Article IV, § 1] of the Cherokee Nation Constitution, Cherokee Nation, any partnership, association or corporation in which the majority of the shares are owned by Cherokee Nation or one or more tribal citizens may, singly or jointly with any person, partnership, association or corporation, and without regard to his or their residence, domicile or place of incorporation, incorporate or organize a corporation pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act by filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a certificate of incorporation which shall be executed, acknowledged and filed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7.

B. A corporation may be incorporated or organized pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to conduct or promote any lawful business or purposes, except as may otherwise be provided by the Constitution or other law of Cherokee Nation.

C. A corporation incorporated under the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act must maintain its principal office in Indian Country, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 1151 within Cherokee Nation boundaries.

§ 6. Certificate of incorporation—Contents

A. The certificate of incorporation shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation which shall contain one of the words "association", "company", "corporation", "club", "foundation", "fund", "incorporated", "institute", "society", "union", "syndicate", or "limited" or one of the abbreviations "co.", "corp.", "inc.", "ltd.", or words or abbreviations of like import in other languages provided that such abbreviations are written in Roman characters or letters, and which shall be such as to distinguish it upon the records in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative from:

a. names of other corporations organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation then existing or which existed at any time during the preceding three (3) years; or

b. names of foreign corporations registered in accordance with the laws of Cherokee Nation then existing or which existed at any time during the preceding three (3) years; or

c. names of then existing limited partnerships whether organized pursuant to the laws of Cherokee Nation or licensed or registered as foreign limited partnerships in Cherokee Nation; or

d. trade names or fictitious names filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative; or

e. corporate or limited partnership names reserved with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

2. The address, including the street, number, city and county, of the corporation's registered office in Cherokee Nation, and the name of the corporation's registered agent at such address;

3. The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted. It shall be sufficient to state, either alone or with other businesses or purposes, that the purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the general corporation law of Cherokee Nation, and by such statement all lawful acts and activities shall be within the purposes of the corporation, except for express limitations, if any;

4. If the corporation is to be authorized to issue only one class of stock, the total number of shares of stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue and the par value of each of such shares, or a statement that all such shares are to be without par value. If the corporation is to be authorized to issue more than one class of stock, the certificate of incorporation shall set forth the total number of shares of all classes of stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue and the number of shares of each class, and shall specify each class the shares of which are to be without par value and each class the shares of which are to have par value and the par value of the shares of each such class. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to corporations which are not organized for profit and which are not to have authority to issue capital stock. In the case of such corporations, the fact that they are not to have authority to issue capital stock shall be stated in the certificate of incorporation. The conditions of membership of such corporations shall likewise be stated in the certificate of incorporation or the certificate may provide that the conditions of membership shall be stated in the bylaws;

5. The name and mailing address of the incorporator or incorporators;

6. If the powers of the incorporator or incorporators are to terminate upon the filing of the certificate of incorporation, the names and mailing addresses of the persons who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualify; and

B. In addition to the matters required to be set forth in the certificate of incorporation pursuant to the provisions of subsection (A) of this section, the certificate of incorporation may also contain any or all of the following matters:

1. Any provision for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and any provision creating, defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation, the directors, and the shareholders, or any class of the shareholders, or the members of a nonstock corporation, if such provisions are not contrary to the laws of Cherokee Nation. Any provision which is required or permitted by any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to be stated in the bylaws may instead be stated in the certificate of incorporation;

2. The following provisions, in substantially the following form: "Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between this corporation and its shareholders or any class of them, the District Court of Cherokee Nation, on the application in a summary way of this corporation or of any creditor or shareholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under the provisions of 18 CNCA § 106 or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under the provisions of 18 CNCA § 100, may order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the shareholders or class of shareholders of this corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the Court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths (3/4) in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the shareholders or class of shareholders of this corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the compromise or arrangement and the reorganization, if sanctioned by the Court to which the application has been made, shall be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the shareholders or class of shareholders, of this corporation, as the case may be, and also on this corporation.";

3. Such provisions as may be desired granting to the holders of the stock of the corporation, or the holders of any class or series of a class thereof, the preemptive right to subscribe to any or all additional issues of stock of the corporation of any or all classes or series thereof, or to any securities of the corporation convertible into such stock. No shareholder shall have any preemptive right to subscribe to an additional issue of stock or to any security convertible into such stock unless, and except to the extent that, such right is expressly granted to him in the certificate of incorporation. Preemptive rights, if granted, shall not extend to fractional shares;

4. Provisions requiring, for any corporate action, the vote of a larger portion of the stock or of any class or series thereof, or of any other securities having voting power, or a larger number of the directors, than is required by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act;

5. A provision limiting the duration of the corporation's existence to a specified date; otherwise, the corporation shall have perpetual existence;

6. A provision imposing personal liability for the debts of the corporation on its shareholders or members to a specified extent and upon specified conditions; otherwise, the shareholders or members of a corporation shall not be personally liable for the payment of the corporation's debts, except as they may be liable by reason of their own conduct or acts;

7. A provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

a. for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; or

b. for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or

c. under 18 CNCA § 53; or

d. for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

No such provision shall eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when such provision becomes effective.

C. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the certificate of incorporation any of the powers conferred on corporations by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act.

§ 7. Execution, acknowledgment, filing and effective date of original certificate of incorporation and other instruments—Exceptions

A. Whenever any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act requires any instrument to be filed in accordance with the provisions of this section or with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, such instrument shall be executed as follows:

1. The certificate of incorporation and any other instrument to be filed before the election of the initial board of directors, if the initial directors were not named in the certificate of incorporation, shall be signed by the incorporator or incorporators;

2. All other instruments shall be signed:

a. by the chairman or vice-chairman of the board of directors, or by the president, or by a vice-president, and attested by the secretary or an assistant secretary; or by such officers as may be duly authorized to exercise the duties, respectively, ordinarily exercised by the president or vice-president and by the secretary or assistant secretary of a corporation;

b. if it appears from the instrument that there are no such officers, then by a majority of the directors or by such directors as may be designated by the board;

c. if it appears from the instrument that there are no such officers or directors, then by the holders of record, or such of them as may be designated by the holders of record, of a majority of all outstanding shares of stock; or

d. by the holders of record of all outstanding shares of stock.

B. Whenever any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act requires any instrument to be acknowledged, such requirement is satisfied by either:

1. The formal acknowledgment by the person or one of the persons signing the instrument that it is his act and deed or the act and deed of the corporation, as the case may be, and that the facts stated therein are true. Such acknowledgment shall be made before a person who is authorized by the law of the place of execution to take acknowledgments of deeds and who, if he has a seal of office, shall affix it to the instrument; or

2. The signature, without more, of the person or persons signing the instrument, in which case such signature or signatures shall constitute the affirmation or acknowledgment of the signatory, under penalties of perjury, that the instrument is his act and deed or the act and deed of the corporation, as the case may be, and that the facts stated therein are true.

C. Whenever any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act requires any instrument to be filed in accordance with the provisions of this section or with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, such requirement means that:

1. Two signed instruments, one of which may be a conformed copy, shall be delivered to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative;

2. All corporate franchise taxes authorized by law to be collected by the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall be tendered to the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission as prescribed by 68 CNCA § 1201 et seq.;

3. All fees authorized by law to be collected by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in connection with the filing of the instrument shall be tendered to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative; and

4. Upon delivery of the instrument, and upon tender of the required taxes and fees, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall certify that the instrument has been filed in his office by endorsing upon the signed instrument the word "Filed", and the date of its filing. This endorsement is the "filing date" of the instrument, and is conclusive of the date of its filing in the absence of actual fraud. Upon request, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall also endorse the hour that the instrument was filed, which endorsement shall be conclusive of the hour of its filing in the absence of actual fraud. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall thereupon file and index the endorsed instrument.

D. Any instrument filed in accordance with the provisions of subsection (C) of this section shall be effective upon its filing date. Any instrument may provide that it is not to become effective until a specified date subsequent to the time it is filed, but such date shall not be later than a time on the ninetieth (90th) day after the date of its filing.

E. If another section of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act specifically prescribes a manner of executing, acknowledging or filing a specified instrument or a time when such instrument shall become effective which differs from the corresponding provisions of this section, then the provisions of such other section shall govern.

F. Whenever any instrument authorized to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative under any provision of this title has been so filed and is an inaccurate record of the corporate action therein referred to, or was defectively or erroneously executed, sealed or acknowledged, such instrument may be corrected by filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a certificate of correction of such instrument which shall be executed, acknowledged and filed in accordance with the provisions of this section. The certificate of correction shall specify the inaccuracy or defect to be corrected and shall set forth the portion of the instrument in corrected form. The corrected instrument shall be effective as of the date the original instrument was filed, except as to those persons who are substantially and adversely affected by the correction and as to those persons the corrected instrument shall be effective from the filing date of the corrected instrument.

G. If any instrument authorized to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to any provision of this title is filed inaccurately, defectively or erroneously executed, sealed or acknowledged, or otherwise defective in any respect, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall have no liability to any person for the preclearance for filing, the acceptance for filing, or the filing and indexing of such instrument by the filing and indexing of such instrument by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

H. Any signature on any instrument authorized to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative under any provisions of this Title may be a facsimile.

§ 8. Certificate of incorporation—Definition

The term "certificate of incorporation", as used in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, unless the context requires otherwise, includes not only the original certificate of incorporation filed to create a corporation but also all other certificates, agreements of merger or consolidation, plans of reorganization, or other instruments, howsoever designated, which are filed pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA §§ 6, 23 through 26, 32, 76 through 87, or 118, or any other section of this Title, and which have the effect of amending or supplementing in some respect a corporation's original certificate of incorporation.

§ 9. Certificate of incorporation and other certificates—Evidence

A copy of a certificate of incorporation, or of a restated certificate of incorporation, or of any other certificate which has been filed in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as required by any provision of this title, when duly certified by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, shall be received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of:

1. Due execution, acknowledgment and filing of the instrument;
2. Observance and performance of all acts and conditions necessary to have been observed and performed precedent to the instrument becoming effective; and
3. Of any other facts required or permitted by law to be stated in the instrument.

§ 10. Commencement of corporate existence

Upon the filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative of the certificate of incorporation, executed and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, the incorporator or incorporators who signed the certificate, and his or their successors and assigns, from the date of such filing, shall be and constitute a body corporate by the name set forth in the certificate, subject to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7(D) and subject to dissolution or other termination of its existence as provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act.

§ 11. Powers of incorporators

If the persons who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders have not been named in the certificate of incorporation, the incorporator or incorporators, until the directors are elected, shall manage the affairs of the corporation and may do whatever is necessary and proper to perfect the organization of the corporation, including the adoption of the original bylaws of the corporation and the election of directors.

§ 12. Organization meeting of incorporators or directors named in certificate of incorporation

A. After the filing of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting of the incorporator or incorporators, or of the board of directors if the initial directors were named in the certificate of incorporation, shall be held either within or without Cherokee Nation at the call of a majority of the incorporators or directors, as the case may be, for the purposes of adopting bylaws, electing directors if the meeting is of the incorporators, to serve or hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualify, electing officers if the meeting is of the directors, doing any other or further acts to perfect the organization of the corporation, and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting.

B. The persons calling the meeting shall give to each other incorporator or director, as the case may be, at least two (2) days' written notice thereof by any usual means of communication, which notice shall state the time, place and purposes of the meeting as fixed by the persons calling it. Notice of the meeting need not be given to anyone who attends the meeting or who signs a waiver of notice either before or after the meeting.

C. Any action permitted to be taken at the organization meeting of the incorporators or directors, as the case may be, may be taken without a meeting if each incorporator or director, where there is more than one, or the sole incorporator or director where there is only one, signs an instrument which states the action so taken.

A. The original or other bylaws of a corporation may be adopted, amended or repealed by the incorporators, by the initial directors if they were named in the certificate of incorporation, or, before a corporation has received any payment for any of its stock, by its board of directors. After a corporation has received any payment for any of its stock, the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws shall be in the shareholders entitled to vote, or, in the case of a nonstock corporation, in its members entitled to vote; provided, however, any corporation, in its certificate of incorporation, may confer the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws upon the directors or, in the case of a nonstock corporation, upon its governing body by whatever name designated. The fact that such power has been so conferred upon the directors or governing body, as the case may be, shall not divest the shareholders or members of the power, nor limit their power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws.

B. The bylaws may contain any provision, not inconsistent with law or with the certificate of incorporation, relating to the business of the corporation, the conduct of its affairs, and its rights or powers or the rights or powers of its shareholders, directors, officers or employees.

§ 14. Emergency bylaws and other powers in emergency

A. The board of directors of any corporation may adopt emergency bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders, which, notwithstanding any different provision in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, in the certificate of incorporation, or bylaws, shall be operative during any emergency resulting from an attack on the United States or on a locality in which the corporation conducts its business or customarily holds meetings of its board of directors or its shareholders, or during any nuclear or atomic disaster, or during the existence of any catastrophe, or other similar emergency condition, as a result of which a quorum of the board of directors or a standing committee thereof cannot readily be convened for action. The emergency bylaws may make any provision that may be practical and necessary for the circumstances of the emergency, including provisions that:

1. A meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof may be called by an officer or director in such manner and under such conditions as shall be prescribed in the emergency bylaws;
2. The director or directors in attendance at the meeting, or any greater number fixed by the emergency bylaws, shall constitute a quorum; and
3. The officers or other persons designated on a list approved by the board of directors before the emergency, all in such order of priority and subject to such conditions and for such period of time, not longer than reasonably necessary after the termination of the emergency, as may be provided in the emergency bylaws or in the resolution approving the list, shall, to the extent required to provide a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors, be deemed directors for such meeting.

B. The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may provide, and from time to time modify, lines of succession in the event that during such emergency any or all officers or agents of the corporation shall for any reason be rendered incapable of discharging their duties.

C. The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may, effective in the emergency, change the head office or designate several alternative head offices or regional offices, or authorize the officers to do so.

D. No officer, director or employee acting in accordance with any emergency bylaws shall be liable except for willful misconduct.

E. To the extent not inconsistent with any emergency bylaws so adopted, the bylaws of the corporation shall remain in effect during any emergency and upon its termination the emergency bylaws shall cease to be operative.

F. Unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, notice of any meeting of the board of directors during such an emergency may be given only to such of the directors as it may be feasible to reach at the time and by such means as may be feasible at the time, including publication or radio.

G. To the extent required to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors during such an emergency, the officers of the corporation who are present shall, unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, be deemed, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, directors for such meeting.

H. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed exclusive of any other provisions for emergency powers consistent with other sections of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act which have been or may be adopted by corporations created pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act.

ARTICLE 3

POWERS

§ 15. General powers

In addition to the powers enumerated in 18 CNCA § 16, every corporation, its officers, directors and shareholders shall possess and may exercise all the powers and privileges granted by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or by any other law or by its certificate of incorporation, together with any powers incidental thereto, so far as such powers and privileges are necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the business or purposes set forth in its certificate of incorporation.

§ 16. Specific powers

Every corporation created pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall have power to:

1. Have perpetual succession by its corporate name, unless a limited period of duration is stated in its certificate of incorporation;
2. Sue and be sued in all courts and participate, as a party or otherwise, in any judicial, administrative, arbitrate or other proceeding, in its corporate name;
3. Have a corporate seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced;
4. Purchase, receive, take by grant, gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, lease or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, employ, use and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated and to sell, convey, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of, or mortgage or pledge, all or any of its property and assets, or any interest therein, wherever situated, subject to the limitations prescribed by 18 CNCA § 20;
5. Appoint or elect such officers and agents as the business of the corporation requires and to pay or otherwise provide for them suitable compensation;
6. Adopt, amend and repeal bylaws;
7. Wind up and dissolve itself in the manner provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act;
8. Conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise its powers within or without Cherokee Nation;
9. Make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes, and in time of war or other national emergency in aid thereof;

10. Be an incorporator, promoter or manager of other corporations of any type or kind;

11. Participate with others in any corporation, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture or other association of any kind, or in any transaction, undertaking or arrangement which the participating corporation would have power to conduct by itself, whether or not such participation involves sharing or delegation of control with or to others;

12. Transact any lawful business which the corporation's board of directors shall find to be in aid of governmental authority;

13. Make contracts, including contracts of guaranty and suretyship, incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage, pledge or other encumbrance of all or any of its property, franchises and income, and make contracts of guaranty and suretyship which are necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the business of:

a. a corporation, all of the outstanding stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by the contracting corporation;

b. a corporation which owns, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding stock of the contracting corporation; or

c. a corporation, all of the outstanding stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by a corporation which owns, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding stock of the contracting corporation, which contracts of guaranty and suretyship shall be deemed to be necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the business of the contracting corporation, and to make other contracts of guaranty and suretyship which are necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the business of the contracting corporation;

14. Lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take, hold and deal with real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested;

15. Pay pensions and establish and carry out pension, profit sharing, stock option, stock purchase, stock bonus, retirement, benefit, incentive and compensation plans, trusts and provisions for any or all of its directors, officers, and employees, and for any or all of the directors, officers, and employees of its subsidiaries;

16. Provide insurance for its benefit on the life of any of its directors, officers, or employees, or on the life of any shareholder for the purpose of acquiring at his death shares of its stock owned by such shareholder;

17. Provided that corporations in which Cherokee Nation is the sole or majority shareholder cannot give, pledge or loan its credit to any individual, firm, company, corporation or association without prior approval of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council. The Tribal Council shall develop procedures to facilitate this act without interfering with the daily operations of tribally-owned corporations or businesses. The Tribal Council hereby pre-approves a corporation in which Cherokee Nation is majority shareholder to make purchases of real property in an amount not to exceed Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000.00) in the aggregate during a fiscal year. Said corporation shall acquire Tribal Council approval to make additional purchases of real property in excess of the six million dollar fiscal year limit. Said tribal corporation through its officers shall report to the Executive and Finance Committee of Cherokee Nation Tribal Council on the status of real property acquisitions.

The amendment by LA 53–12, increasing the limit on real property purchases from Six Million Dollars to Fifteen Million Dollars, was in effect for only nine months and reverted back on October 1, 2013.

§ 17. Powers respecting securities of other corporations or entities

A. Any corporation organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation may guarantee, purchase, take, receive, subscribe for or otherwise acquire; own, hold, use or otherwise employ; sell, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of; mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise deal in and with, bonds and other obligations of, or shares or other securities or interests in, or issued by, any other domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, association, or individual, or by any government or agency or instrumentality thereof, subject to the limitation prescribed in subsection (B) of this section. A corporation while the owner of any such securities may exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote.

B. No trust company, or bank or banking company shall own, hold, or control, in any manner whatever, the stock of any other trust company or bank or banking company, except such stock as may be pledged in good faith to secure bona fide indebtedness, acquired upon foreclosure, execution sale, or otherwise for the satisfaction of debt; and such stock shall be disposed of in the time and manner hereinbefore provided.

Those for-profit corporations in which Cherokee Nation is the sole or majority shareholder, and that are incorporated under Cherokee Nation law, shall issue a monthly cash dividend in the amount of thirty-five percent (35%) of net income. Five percent (5%) of said dividend will be set aside exclusively for contract health services for Cherokee Nation citizens, including, but not limited to, eyeglasses, dentures, prostheses, cancer treatments and hearing aids provided the amount of increase (over current thirty percent [30%]) is conditioned upon CNE and CNB remaining in compliance with the financial covenants of any credit agreement and guaranty. In addition, the Board of Directors of such corporations will have the discretion to declare any special quarterly dividend that they deem appropriate. Funds expended under this section shall be expended to Cherokee Nation citizens who reside anywhere within the fourteen- (14) county jurisdictional area.

§§ 19, 20. Reserved

ARTICLE 4

REGISTERED OFFICE AND REGISTERED AGENT

§ 21. Registered office in Cherokee Nation—Principal office or place of business in Cherokee Nation

A. Every corporation shall have and maintain in Cherokee Nation a registered office which may, but need not be, the same as its place of business.

B. Whenever the term "corporation's principal office or place of business in Cherokee Nation" or "principal office or place of business of the corporation in Cherokee Nation", or other term of like import, is or has been used in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, or in any other document, or in any statute, it shall be deemed to mean and refer to, unless the context indicates otherwise, the corporation's registered office required by this section. It shall not be necessary for any corporation to amend its certificate of incorporation or any other document to comply with the provisions of this section.

§ 22. Registered agent in Cherokee Nation—Resident agent

A. Every domestic corporation shall have and maintain in Cherokee Nation a registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in the state whose business office is identical with the corporation's registered office, or a domestic corporation, which may be itself, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation, having a business office identical with such registered office.

B. Every foreign corporation qualified to transact business in Cherokee Nation shall have and maintain the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its registered agent in Cherokee Nation. In addition, such foreign corporation may have and maintain in Cherokee Nation a registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident of Cherokee Nation whose business office is identical with the corporation's registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation, having a business office identical with such registered office; provided that if such additional registered agent is designated, service of process shall be on such agent and not on the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

C. Whenever the term "resident agent" or "resident agent in charge of a corporation's principal office or place of business in Cherokee Nation", or other term of like import which refers to a corporation's agent required by statute to be located in Cherokee Nation, is or has been used in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, or in any other document, or in any statute, it shall be deemed to mean and refer to, unless the context indicates otherwise, the corporation's registered agent required by this section. It shall not be necessary for any corporation to amend its certificate of incorporation or any other document to comply with the provisions of this section.

§ 23. Change of location of registered office—Change of registered agent

Any corporation, by resolution of its board of directors, may change the location of its registered office in Cherokee Nation to any other place in Cherokee Nation. By like resolution, the registered agent of a corporation may be changed to any other person or corporation, including itself. In either such case, the resolution shall be as detailed in its statement as is required by the provisions of 18 CNCA § 6(A)(2). Upon the adoption of such a resolution, a certificate certifying the change shall be executed, acknowledged and filed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7.

§ 24. Change of address or name of registered agent

A. A registered agent may change the address of the registered office of the corporation or corporations for which he is the registered agent to another address in Cherokee Nation by filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a certificate in the name of each affected corporation, executed and acknowledged by such registered agent, setting forth the name of the corporation represented by such registered agent, the address at which the registered office for the corporation has been maintained, the new address to which the registered office will be changed as of a given date and at which new address such registered agent will thereafter maintain the registered office for the corporation recited in the certificate.

B. In the event of a change of name of any person or corporation acting as registered agent in Cherokee Nation, such registered agent shall file with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a certificate in the name of each affected corporation, executed and acknowledged by such registered agent, setting forth the new name of such registered agent, the name of such registered agent before it was changed, the name of the corporation represented by such registered agent, and the address at which such registered agent has maintained the registered office for the corporation.

§ 25. Resignation of registered agent coupled with appointment of successor

The registered agent of one or more corporations may resign and appoint a successor registered agent by filing in the name of each affected corporation a certificate with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, stating the name and address of the successor agent, in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 6(A)(2). There shall be attached to each such certificate a statement of the affected corporation ratifying and approving such change of registered agent. Each such statement shall be executed and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. Upon such filing, the successor registered agent shall become the registered agent of each corporation which has ratified and approved each substitution and the successor registered agent's address, as stated in each certificate, shall become the address of each such corporation's registered office in Cherokee Nation. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall then issue his certificate that the successor registered agent has become the registered agent of the corporation so ratifying and approving such change, and setting out the names of such corporation.

§ 26. Resignation of registered agent not coupled with appointment of successor—Absence of registered agent

A. The registered agent of one or more corporations may resign without appointing a successor by filing in the name of each affected corporation a certificate with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative; but such resignation shall not become effective until sixty (60) days after each certificate is filed. There shall be included in the certificate a statement of such registered agent, if an individual, or of the president, a vice-president, or the secretary thereof, if a corporation, that at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the filing of the certificate, due notice of the resignation of the registered agent was sent by certified or registered mail to the corporation for which such registered agent was acting, at the principal office thereof, if known to the registered agent or, if not, to the last-known address of the attorney or other individual at whose request the registered agent was appointed for such corporation and such address shall be specified therein.

B. After receipt of the notice of the resignation of its registered agent provided for in subsection (A) of this section, the corporation for which such registered agent was acting shall obtain and designate a new registered agent to take the place of the registered agent so resigning in the same manner as provided for in 18 CNCA § 23 for change of registered agent. If such corporation, being a corporation of Cherokee Nation, fails to obtain and designate a new registered agent prior to the expiration of the period of sixty (60) days after the filing by the registered agent of the certificate of resignation, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall be deemed to be the registered agent of such corporation until a new registered agent is designated. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall charge the fee prescribed by 18 CNCA § 23 for acting as registered agent.

C. If a corporation has no registered agent or the registered agent cannot be found, then service on the corporation may be made by serving the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its agent as provided in 12 CNCA and in Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

ARTICLE 5

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

§ 27. Board of directors—Powers—Number—Qualifications—Terms and quorum—committees—Classes of directors—Reliance upon books—Action without meeting, etc.

A. The business and affairs of every corporation organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall be managed by or under the direction of a board of directors, except as may be otherwise provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or in its certificate of incorporation. If any such provision is made in the certificate of incorporation, the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the board of directors by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall be exercised or performed to such extent and by such person or persons as shall be provided in the certificate of incorporation.

B. The board of directors of a corporation shall consist of one or more members. The number of directors shall be fixed by or in the manner provided for in the bylaws, unless the certificate of incorporation fixes the number of directors, in which case a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the certificate. Directors need not be shareholders unless so required by the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws. The certificate of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors. Each director shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. Provided, that a director shall not serve more than four (4) consecutive years without confirmation by the Tribal Council to a corporation whose majority shareholder is Cherokee Nation. Any director may resign at any time upon written notice to the corporation. A majority of the total number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws require a greater number. Unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise, the bylaws may provide that a number less than a majority shall constitute a quorum which in no case shall be less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of directors except that when a board of one director is authorized under the provisions of this section, then one director shall constitute a quorum. The vote of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors unless the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws shall require a vote of a greater number.

C. The board of directors, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole board, may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. The board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. The bylaws may provide that in the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the board of directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the board of directors, or in the bylaws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; but no such committee shall have the power or authority in reference to amending the certificate of incorporation (except that a committee, to the extent authorized in the resolution or resolution providing for the issuance of shares of stock adopted by the board of directors as provided for in 18 CNCA § 32(A), may fix the designations and any of the preferences or rights of such shares relating to dividends, redemption, dissolution, any distribution of assets of the corporation or the conversion into, or the exchange of such shares for, shares of any other class or classes or any other series of the same or any other class or classes of stock of the corporation or fix the number of shares of any series of stock or authorize the increase or decrease of the shares of any series), adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 81 or 82, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution, or amending the bylaws of the corporation; and, unless the resolution, bylaws or certificate of incorporation expressly so provide, no such committee shall have the power or authority to declare a dividend, authorize the issuance of stock, or to adopt a certificate of ownership and merger pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 83.

D. The directors of any corporation organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, by the certificate of incorporation or by an initial bylaw, or by a bylaw adopted by a vote of the shareholders, may be divided into one, two or three classes; the term of office of those of the first class to expire at the annual meeting next ensuing; of the second class one (1) year thereafter; of the third class two (2) years thereafter; and at each annual election held after such classification and election, directors shall be chosen for a full term, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire. The certificate of incorporation may confer upon holders of any class or series of stock the right to elect one or more directors who shall serve for such term, and have such voting powers as shall be stated in the certificate of incorporation. The terms of office and voting powers of the directors elected in the manner so provided in the certificate of incorporation may be greater than or less than those of any other director or class of directors. If the certificate of incorporation provides that directors elected by the holders of a class or series of stock shall have more or less than one vote per director on any matter, every reference in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to a majority or other proportion of directors shall refer to a majority or other proportion of the votes of such directors.

E. A member of the board of directors, or a member of any committee designated by the board of directors, in the performance of his duties, shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the corporation and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the corporation by any of the corporation's officers or employees, or committees of the board of directors, or by any other person as to matters the member reasonably believes are within such officer's, employee's, committee's or other person's competence and who have been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the corporation.

F. Unless otherwise restricted by the certificate of incorporation or bylaws:

1. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors, or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee;
2. The board of directors of any corporation organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act may hold its meetings, and have an office or offices, outside of Cherokee Nation;
3. The board of directors shall have the authority to fix the compensation of directors; and
4. Members of the board of directors of any corporation, or any committee designated by such board, may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

G. 1. The certificate of incorporation of any corporation organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act which is not authorized to issue capital stock may provide that less than one-third (1/3) of the members of the governing body may constitute a quorum thereof and may otherwise provided that the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed in a manner different from that provided for in this section.

2. Except as may be otherwise provided by the certificate of incorporation, the provisions of this section shall apply to such a corporation, and when so applied, all references to the board of directors, to members thereof, and to shareholders shall be deemed to refer to the governing body of the corporation, the members thereof and the members of the corporation, respectively.

H. 1. Any director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, except as follows:

a. Unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides, in the case of a corporation whose board is classified as provided for in subsection (D) of this section, shareholders may effect such removal only for cause; or

b. In the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, if less than the entire board is to be removed, no director may be removed without cause if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors, or, if there are classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which he is a part.

2. Whenever the holders of any class or series are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the certificate of incorporation, the provisions of this subsection shall apply, in respect to the removal without cause of a director or directors so elected, to the vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of that class or series and not to the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole.

I. There shall be an advisory board of directors to all corporations in which Cherokee Nation is a majority shareholder. This advisory board shall consist of eight (8) Members of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council. The Tribal Council shall appoint these Members in accordance with their rules and procedures. The advisory board shall have full access to all information and meetings of the board of directors and have all privileges of the board of directors except exercise of voting privileges or otherwise acting upon a matter. The attendance of a board of directors meeting by Tribal Council Members who do not serve on the advisory board, for the purpose of observing such meetings rather than for the purpose of discussing or acting upon a matter, shall not be construed as a "meeting" of the Tribal Council under the Freedom of Information and Privacy Rights Act of 2001 (67 CNCA § 101 et seq.), regardless of the number of Tribal Council Members present at such meeting.

§ 28. Officers; titles, duties, selection, term; failure to elect; vacancies

A. Every corporation organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall have such officers with such titles and duties as shall be stated in the bylaws or in a resolution of the board of directors which is not inconsistent with the bylaws and as may be necessary to enable it to sign instruments and stock certificates which comply with the provisions of 18 CNCA §§ 7(A)(2) and 39. One of the officers shall have the duty to record the proceedings of the meetings of the shareholders and directors in a book to be kept for that purpose. Any number of offices may be held by the same person unless the certificate of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise.

B. Officers shall be chosen in such manner and shall hold their offices for such terms as are prescribed by the bylaws or determined by the board of directors or other governing body. Each officer shall hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. Any officer may resign at any time upon written notice to the corporation.

C. The corporation may secure the fidelity of any or all of its officers or agents by bond or otherwise.

D. A failure to elect officers shall not dissolve or otherwise affect the corporation.

E. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, shall be filled as the bylaws provide. In the absence of such provision, the vacancy shall be filled by the board of directors or other governing body.

§ 29. Loans to employees and officers; guaranty of obligations of employees and officers

Any corporation may lend money to, or guarantee any obligation of, or otherwise assist any officer or other employee of the corporation or of its subsidiary, including any officer or employee who is a director of the corporation or its subsidiary whenever, in the judgment of the directors, such loan, guaranty or assistance may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation. The loan, guaranty or other assistance may be with or without interest, and may be unsecured, or secured in such manner as the board of directors shall approve, including, without limitation, a pledge of shares of stock of the corporation. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deny, limit or restrict the powers of guaranty or warranty of any corporation at common law or under any statute.

§ 30. Interested directors; quorum

A. No contract or transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between a corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association, or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the board or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose, if:

1. The material facts as to his relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or the committee, and the board or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum;

2. The material facts as to his relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the shareholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the shareholders; or

3. The contract or transaction is fair as to the corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the board of directors, a committee thereof, or the shareholders.

B. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

§ 31. Indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents; insurance

A. A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

B. A corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court shall deem proper.

C. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (A) or (B) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

D. Any indemnification under the provisions of subsection (A) or (B) of this section, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsection (A) or (B) of this section. Such determination shall be made:

1. by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding; or
2. if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or
3. by the shareholders.

E. Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized by the provisions of this section. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the board of directors deems appropriate.

F. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to the other subsections of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

G. A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this section.

H. For purposes of this section, references to "the corporation" shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation, including any constituent of a constituent, absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this section with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

I. For purposes of this section, references to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans; references to "finances" shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to "serving at the request of the corporation" shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services, by such director, officer, employee, or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the corporation" as referred to in this section.

J. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this section, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

ARTICLE 6

STOCK AND DIVIDENDS

§ 32. Classes and series of stock—Rights, etc.

A. Every corporation may issue one or more classes of stock or one or more series of stock within any class thereof, any or all of which classes may be of stock with par value or stock without par value and which classes or series may have such voting powers, full or limited, or no voting powers, and such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, as shall be stated and expressed in the certificate of incorporation or of any amendment thereto, or in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of its certificate of incorporation. Any of the voting powers, designations, preferences, rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of any such class or series of stock may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside the certificate of incorporation or of any amendment thereto, or outside the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of its certificate of incorporation, provided that the manner in which such facts shall operate upon the voting powers, designations, preferences, rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such class or series of stock is clearly and expressly set forth in the certificate of incorporation or in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the board of directors. The power to increase or decrease or otherwise adjust the capital stock as provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall apply to all or any such classes of stock.

B. Any stock which is entitled upon any distribution of the corporation's assets, whether by dividend or by liquidation, to a preference over another class or series of stock may be made subject to redemption by the corporation at its option or at the option of the holders of such stock or upon the happening of a specified event. Any stock of a regulated investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as heretofore or hereafter amended ¹, may be given the right to require the corporation to redeem or repurchase the stock at the option of the holder of the stock, provided such redemption or repurchase would not impair or cause a further impairment of the capital of the corporation. Any stock of a corporation which has a license or franchise from a governmental agency to conduct its business or is a member of a national securities exchange, which license, franchise or membership is conditioned upon some or all of the holders of its stock possessing prescribed qualifications, may be made subject to redemption by the corporation to the extent necessary to prevent the loss of such license, franchise or membership or to reinstate it. Any stock which may be made redeemable under this section may be redeemed for cash, property or rights, including securities of the same or another corporation, at such time or times, price or prices, or rate or rates, and with such adjustments, as shall be stated in the certificate of incorporation or in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the board of directors as provided for in subsection (A) of this section.

C. The holders of preferred or special stock of any class or of any series thereof shall be entitled to receive dividends at such rates, on such conditions and at such times as shall be stated in the certificate of incorporation or in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the board of directors as provided for in subsection (A) of this section, payable in preference to, or in such relation to, the dividends payable on any other class or classes or of any other series of stock, and cumulative or noncumulative as shall be so stated and expressed. When dividends upon the preferred and special stocks, if any, to the extent of the preference to which such stocks are entitled, shall have been paid or declared and set apart for payment, a dividend on the remaining class or classes or series of stock may then be paid out of the remaining assets of the corporation available for dividends as otherwise provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act.

D. The holders of the preferred or special stock of any class or of any series thereof shall be entitled to such rights upon the dissolution of, or upon any distribution of the assets of, the corporation as shall be stated in the certificate of incorporation or in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the board of directors as provided for in subsection (A) of this section.

E. Any stock of any class or of any series thereof may be made convertible into, or exchangeable for, at the option of either the holder or the corporation or upon the happening of a specified event, shares of any other class or classes or any other series of the same or any other class or classes of stock of the corporation, at such price or prices or at such rate or rates of exchange and with such adjustments as shall be stated in the certificate of incorporation or in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the board of directors as provided for in subsection (A) of this section.

F. If any corporation shall be authorized to issue more than one class of stock or more than one series of any class, the powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights of each class of stock or series thereof and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such preferences and/or rights shall be set forth in full or summarized on the face or back of the certificate which the corporation shall issue to represent such class or series of stock, provided that, except as otherwise provided for in 18 CNCA § 55, in lieu of the foregoing requirements, there may be set forth on the face or back of the certificate which the corporation shall issue to represent such class or series of stock, a statement that the corporation will furnish without charge to each shareholder who so requests the powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights of each class of stock or series thereof and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such preferences and/or rights. Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated stock, the corporation shall send to the registered owner thereof a written notice containing the information required to be set forth or stated on certificates pursuant to this section or 18 CNCA § 37, 18 CNCA § 55(A) or 18 CNCA § 63(A), or with respect to this section a statement that the corporation will furnish without charge to each shareholder who so requests the powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights of each class of stock or series thereof and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such preferences and/or rights. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the rights and obligations of the holders of uncertificated stock and the rights and obligations of the holder of certificates representing stock of the same class and series shall be identical.

G. 1. When any corporation desires to issue any shares of stock of any class or of any series of any class of which the powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, if any, or the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, shall not have been set forth in the certificate of incorporation or in any amendment thereto but shall be provided for in a resolution or resolutions adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of the certificate of incorporation or any amendment thereto, a certificate of designations setting forth a copy of such resolution or resolutions and the number of shares of stock of such class or series as to which the resolution or resolutions apply shall be executed, acknowledged and filed, and shall become effective, in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. Unless otherwise provided in any such resolution or resolutions, the number of shares of stock of any such series to which such resolution or resolutions apply may be increased, but not above the total number of authorized shares of the class, or decreased, but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding, by a certificate likewise executed, acknowledged and filed setting forth a statement that a specified increase or decrease therein had been authorized and directed by a resolution or resolutions likewise adopted by the board of directors. In case the number of such shares shall be decreased, the number of shares so specified in the certificate shall resume the status which they had prior to the adoption of the first resolution or resolutions. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, if no shares of stock have been issued of a class or series of stock established by a resolution of the board of directors, the voting powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, if any, or the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, may be amended by a resolution or resolutions adopted by the board of directors. A certificate which states that no shares of the class or series have been issued, sets forth a copy of the resolution or resolutions, and, if the designation of the class or series is being changed, indicates the original designation and the new designation, shall be executed, acknowledged and filed, and shall become effective, in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. When no shares of any such class or series are outstanding, either because none were issued or because no issued shares of any such class or series remain outstanding, a certificate setting forth a resolution or resolutions adopted by the board of directors that none of the authorized shares of such class or series are outstanding, and that none will be issued subject to the certificate of designations previously filed with respect to such class or series, may be executed, acknowledged and filed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7 and, when such certificate becomes effective, it shall have the effect of eliminating from the certificate of incorporation all matters set forth in the certificate of designations with respect to such class or series of stock.

2. When any certificate filed pursuant to the provisions of this subsection becomes effective, it shall have the effect of amending the certificate of incorporation; except that neither the filing of such certificate nor the filing of a restated certificate of incorporation pursuant to 18 CNCA § 80 shall prohibit the board of directors from subsequently adopting such resolutions as authorized by this subsection.

§ 33. Issuance of stock, lawful consideration—Fully paid stock

A. The consideration, as determined pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 34(A) and (B), for subscriptions to, or the purchase of, the capital stock to be issued by a corporation shall be paid in such form and in such manner as the board of directors shall determine. In the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the directors as to the value of such consideration shall be conclusive. The capital stock so issued shall be deemed to be fully paid and nonassessable stock, if:

1. the entire amount of such consideration has been received by the corporation in the form of cash, services rendered, personal property, real property, leases of real property, or a combination thereof; or

2. not less than the amount of the consideration determined to be capital pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 35 has been received by the corporation in such form and the corporation has received a binding obligation of the subscriber or purchaser to pay the balance of the subscription or purchase price.

B. The provisions of subsection (A) of this section shall not be construed to prevent the board of directors from issuing partly paid shares in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 37.

§ 34. Consideration for stock

A. Shares of stock with par value may be issued for such consideration, having a value not less than the par value thereof, as is determined from time to time by the board of directors, or by the shareholders if the certificate of incorporation so provides.

B. Shares of stock without par value may be issued for such consideration as is determined from time to time by the board of directors, or by the shareholders if the certificate of incorporation so provides.

C. Treasury shares may be disposed of by the corporation for such consideration as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors, or by the shareholders if the certificate of incorporation so provides.

D. If the certificate of incorporation reserves to the shareholders the right to determine the consideration for the issue of any shares, the shareholders, unless the certificate requires a greater vote, shall do so by a vote of a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon.

§ 35. Determination of amount of capital—Capital, surplus and net assets defined

Any corporation, by resolution of its board of directors, may determine that only a part of the consideration which shall be received by the corporation for any of the shares of its capital stock which it shall issue from time to time shall be capital; but, in case any of the shares issued shall be shares having a par value, the amount of the part of such consideration so determined to be capital shall be in excess of the aggregate par value of the shares issued for such consideration having a par value, unless all the shares issued shall be shares having a par value, in which case the amount of the part of such consideration so determined to be capital need be only equal to the aggregate par value of such shares. In each such case the board of directors shall specify in dollars the part of such consideration which shall be capital. If the board of directors shall not have determined, at the time of issue of any shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued for cash or within sixty (60) days after the issue of any shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued for property other than cash, what part of the consideration for such shares shall be capital, the capital of the corporation in respect of such shares shall be an amount equal to the aggregate par value of such shares having a par value, plus the amount of the consideration for such shares without par value. The amount of the consideration so determined to be capital in respect of any shares without par value shall be the stated capital of such shares. The capital of the corporation may be increased from time to time by resolution of the board of directors directing that a portion of the net assets of the corporation in excess of the amount so determined to be capital be transferred to the capital account. The board of directors may direct that the portion of such net assets so transferred shall be treated as capital in respect of any shares of the corporation of any designated class or classes. The excess, if any, at any given time, of the net assets of the corporation over the amount so determined to be capital shall be surplus. "Net assets" means the amount by which total assets exceed total liabilities. Capital and surplus are not liabilities for this purpose.

§ 36. Fractions of shares

A corporation may, but shall not be required to, issue fractions of a share. If it does not issue fractions of a share, it shall:

1. arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled thereto; or
2. pay in cash the fair value of fractions of a share as of the time when those entitled to receive such fractions are determined; or
3. issue scrip or warrants in registered form (either represented by a certificate or be uncertificated) or in bearer form (represented by a certificate) which shall entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of such scrip or warrants aggregating a full share.

A certificate for a fractional share or an uncertificated fractional share shall, but scrip or warrants shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The board of directors may cause scrip or warrants to be issued subject to the conditions that they shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing the full shares or uncertificated full shares before a specified date, or subject to the conditions that the shares for which scrip or warrants are exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of scrip or warrants, or subject to any other conditions which the board of directors may impose.

§ 37. Partly paid shares

A. Any corporation may issue the whole or any part of its shares as partly paid and subject to call for the remainder of the consideration to be paid therefor. Upon the face or back of each stock certificate issued to represent any such partly paid shares, or upon the books and records of the corporation in the case of uncertificated partly paid shares, the total amount of the consideration to be paid therefor and the amount paid thereon shall be stated and the corporation shall comply with applicable provisions of subsection (B) of this section. Upon the declaration of any dividend on fully paid shares, the corporation shall declare a dividend upon partly paid shares of the same class, but only upon the basis of the percentage of the consideration actually paid thereon.

B. Rules for determining whether certain obligations and interests are securities or financial assets.

1. A share or similar equity interest issued by a corporation, business trust, joint stock company, or similar entity is a security.
2. An "investment company security" is a security. "Investment company security" means a share or similar equity interest issued by an entity that is registered as an investment company under the federal investment company laws, an interest in an investment trust that is so registered, or a face-amount certificate issued by a face-amount certificate company that is so registered. Investment company security does not include an insurance policy or endowment policy or annuity contract issued by an insurance company.
3. An interest in a partnership or limited liability company is not a security unless it is dealt in traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets or it is an investment company security. However, an interest in a partnership or limited liability company is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.

4. An option or similar obligation issued by a clearing corporation to its participants is not a security, but is a financial asset.

5. A commodity contract is not a security or a financial asset. A "commodity contract" means a commodity futures contract, an option on a commodity futures contract, a commodity option, or other contract that in each case, is:

a. traded on or subject to the rules of a board of trade that has been designated as a contract market for such a contract pursuant to the federal commodities law; or

b. traded on a foreign commodity board of trade, exchange, or market, and is carried on the books of a commodity intermediary for a commodity customer.

§ 38. Rights and options respecting stock

Subject to any provisions in the certificate of incorporation, every corporation may create and issue, whether or not in connection with the issue and sale of any shares of stock or other securities of the corporation, rights or options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation any shares of its capital stock of any class or classes, such rights or options to be evidenced by or in such instrument or instruments as shall be approved by the board of directors. The terms upon which, including the time or times, which may be limited or unlimited in duration, at or within which, and the price or prices at which any such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of any such right or option, shall be such as shall be stated in the certificate of incorporation, or in a resolution adopted by the board of directors providing for the creation and issue of such rights or options, and, in every case, shall be set forth or incorporated by reference in the instrument or instruments evidencing such rights or options. In the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the directors as to the consideration for the issuance of such rights or options and the sufficiency thereof shall be conclusive. In case the shares of stock of the corporation to be issued upon the exercise of such rights or options shall be shares having a par value, the price or prices so to be received therefor shall not be less than the par value thereof. In case the shares of stock so to be issued shall be shares of stock without par value, the consideration therefor shall be determined in the manner provided for in 18 CNCA § 34.

The shares of a corporation shall be represented by certificates, provided that the board of directors of the corporation may provide by resolution or resolutions that some or all of any or all classes or series of its stock shall be uncertificated shares. Notwithstanding the adoption of any such resolution, shares represented by a certificate shall not become uncertificated shares until such certificate is surrendered to the corporation. Every holder of stock in a corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by, or in the name of, the corporation by the chairman or vice-chairman of the board of directors, or the president or vice-president, and by the treasurer or an assistant treasurer or the secretary or an assistant secretary of such corporation certifying and representing the number of shares owned by him in such corporation. Subject to applicable provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code—Investment Securities, such entitlement shall apply equally to a holder of uncertificated shares, notwithstanding the adoption of a resolution by the board of directors providing for the issuance of uncertificated shares, who makes written request of the corporation. Any or all the signatures on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent, or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent, or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

§ 40. Shares of stock—Personal property, transfer and taxation

The shares of stock in every corporation shall be deemed personal property and transferable as provided for in the Uniform Commercial Code—Investment Securities. No stock or bonds issued by any corporation organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall be taxed by Cherokee Nation when the same shall be owned by nonresidents of Cherokee Nation or by foreign corporations.

§ 41. Corporation's powers respecting ownership, voting, etc., of its own stock—Rights of stock called for redemption

A. Every corporation may purchase, redeem, receive, take or otherwise acquire, own and hold, sell, lend, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of, pledge, use and otherwise deal in and with its own shares; provided, however, that no corporation shall:

1. purchase or redeem its own shares of capital stock for cash or other property when the capital of the corporation is impaired or when such purchase or redemption would cause any impairment of the capital of the corporation, except that a corporation may purchase or redeem out of capital any of its own shares which are entitled upon any distribution of its assets, whether by dividend or in liquidation, to a preference over another class or series of its stock if such shares will be retired upon their acquisition and the capital of the corporation reduced in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA §§ 78 and 79. Nothing in this subsection shall invalidate or otherwise affect a note, debenture or other obligation of a corporation given by it as consideration for its acquisition by purchase, redemption or exchange of its shares of stock if at the time such note, debenture or obligation was delivered by the corporation its capital was not then impaired or did not thereby become impaired; or

2. purchase, for more than the price at which they may then be redeemed, any of its shares which are redeemable at the option of the corporation; or

3. redeem any of its shares unless their redemption is authorized by 18 CNCA § 32(B) and then only in accordance with the provisions of such section and the certificate of incorporation.

B. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or affect a corporation's right to resell any of its shares theretofore purchased or redeemed out of surplus and which have not been retired, for such consideration as shall be fixed by the board of directors or by the shareholders if the certificate of incorporation so provides.

C. Shares of its own capital stock belonging to the corporation or to another corporation, if a majority of the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors of such other corporation is held, directly or indirectly, by the corporation, shall neither be entitled to vote nor be counted for quorum purposes. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the right of any corporation to vote stock, including but not limited to its own stock, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

D. Shares which have been called for redemption shall not be deemed to be outstanding shares for the purpose of voting or determining the total number of shares entitled to vote on any matter on and after the date on which written notice of redemption has been sent to holders thereof and a sum sufficient to redeem such shares has been irrevocably deposited or set aside to pay the redemption price to the holders of the shares upon surrender of certificates therefor.

§ 42. Issuance of additional stock—When and by whom

The directors, at any time and from time to time, if all of the shares of capital stock which the corporation is authorized by its certificate of incorporation to issue have not been issued, subscribed for, or otherwise committed to be issued, may issue or take subscriptions for additional shares of its capital stock up to the amount authorized in its certificate of incorporation.

§ 43. Liability of shareholder or subscriber for stock not paid in full

A. When the whole of the consideration payable for shares of a corporation has not been paid in, and the assets shall be insufficient to satisfy the claims of its creditors, each holder of or subscriber for such shares shall be bound to pay on each share held or subscribed for by him the sum necessary to complete the amount of the unpaid balance of the consideration for which such shares were issued or to be issued by the corporation.

B. The amounts which shall be payable as provided in subsection (A) of this section may be recovered as provided for in 18 CNCA § 124, after a writ of execution against the corporation has been returned unsatisfied as provided for in that section.

C. Any person becoming an assignee or transferee of shares or of a subscription for shares in good faith and without knowledge or notice that the full consideration therefor has not been paid shall not be personally liable for any unpaid portion of such consideration, but the transferor shall remain liable therefor.

D. No person holding shares in any corporation as collateral security shall be personally liable as a shareholder but the person pledging such shares shall be considered the holder thereof and shall be so liable. No executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or other fiduciary shall be personally liable as a shareholder, but the estate or funds held by such executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or other fiduciary in such fiduciary capacity shall be liable.

E. No liability under the provisions of this section or under the provisions of 18 CNCA § 124 shall be asserted more than six (6) years after the issuance of the stock or the date of the subscription upon which the assessment is sought.

F. In any action by a receiver or trustee of an insolvent corporation or by a judgment creditor to obtain an assessment under the provisions of this section, any shareholder or subscriber for stock of the insolvent corporation may appear and contest the claim or claims of such receiver or trustee.

§ 44. Payment for stock not paid in full

The capital stock of a corporation shall be paid for in such amounts and at such times as the directors may require. The directors, from time to time, may demand payment, in respect of each share of stock not fully paid, of such sum of money as the necessities of the business, in the judgment of the board of directors, may require, not exceeding in the whole the balance remaining unpaid on such stock, and such sum so demanded shall be paid to the corporation at such times and by such installments as the directors shall direct. The directors shall give written notice of the time and place of such payments, which notice shall be mailed at least thirty (30) days before the time for such payment, to each holder of or subscriber for stock which is not fully paid at his last-known post office address.

§ 45. Failure to pay for stock—Remedies

When any shareholder fails to pay any installment or call upon his stock which may have been properly demanded by the directors, at the time when such payment is due, the directors may collect the amount of any such installment or call or any balance thereof remaining unpaid, from the said shareholder by an action at law, or they shall sell at public sale such part of the shares of such delinquent shareholder as will pay all demands then due from him with interest and all incidental expenses, and shall transfer the shares so sold to the purchaser, who shall be entitled to a certificate therefor. Notice of the time and place of such sale and of the sum due on each share shall be given by advertisement at least one (1) week before the sale, in the newspaper Cherokee Phoenix, and such notice shall be mailed by the corporation to such delinquent shareholder at his last-known post office address, at least twenty (20) days before such sale. If no bidder can be had to pay the amount due on the stock, and if the amount is not collected by an action at law, which may be brought within the county where the corporation has its registered office, within one (1) year from the date of the bringing of such action at law, said stock and the amount previously paid in by the delinquent shareholder on the stock shall be forfeited to the corporation.

§ 46. Revocability of pre-incorporation subscriptions

Unless otherwise provided for by the terms of the subscription, a subscription for stock of a corporation to be formed shall be irrevocable, except with the consent of all other subscribers or the corporation, for a period of six (6) months from its date.

§ 47. Formalities required of stock subscriptions

A subscription for stock of a corporation, whether made before or after the formation of a corporation, shall not be enforceable against a subscriber, unless in writing and signed by the subscriber or by his agent.

§ 48. Situs of ownership of stock

For all purposes of title, action, attachment, garnishment and jurisdiction of all courts held in Cherokee Nation, but not for the purpose of taxation, the situs of the ownership of the capital stock of all corporations existing under the laws of Cherokee Nation, whether organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or otherwise, shall be regarded as in Cherokee Nation.

§ 49. Dividends—Payment—Wasting asset corporations

A. The directors of every corporation, subject to any restrictions contained in its certificate of incorporation, may declare and pay dividends upon the shares of its capital stock either out of its surplus, as defined in and computed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA §§ 35 and 79, or in case there shall be no such surplus, out of its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year. If the capital of the corporation, computed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA §§ 35 and 79, shall have been diminished by depreciation in the value of its property, or by losses, or otherwise, to an amount less than the aggregate amount of the capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets, the directors of such corporation shall not declare and pay out of such net profits any dividends upon any shares of any classes of its capital stock until the deficiency in the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets shall have been repaired.

B. Subject to any restrictions contained in its certificate of incorporation, the directors of any corporation engaged in the exploitation of wasting assets (including but not limited to a corporation engaged in the exploitation of natural resources or other wasting assets, including patents, or engaged primarily in the liquidation of specific assets) may determine the net profits derived from the exploitation of such wasting assets or the net proceeds derived from such liquidation without taking into consideration the depletion of such assets resulting from lapse of time, consumption, liquidation or exploitation of such assets.

§ 50. Special purpose reserves

The directors of a corporation may set apart out of any of the funds of the corporation available for dividends a reserve or reserves for any proper purpose and may abolish any such reserve.

§ 51. Liability of directors as to dividends or stock redemption

A member of the board of directors, or a member of any committee designated by the board of directors, shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the corporation and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the corporation by any of its officers or employees, or committees of the board of directors, or by any other person as to matters the director reasonably believes are within such officer's, employee's, committee's or other person's competence and who have been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the corporation, as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities and/or net profits of the corporation, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of surplus or other funds from which dividends might properly be declared and paid, or with which the corporation's stock might properly be purchased or redeemed.

§ 52. Declaration and payment of dividends

No corporation shall pay dividends except in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act. Dividends may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation's capital stock. If the dividend is to be paid in shares of the corporation's theretofore unissued capital stock, the board of directors, by resolution, shall direct that there be designated as capital in respect of such shares an amount which is not less than the aggregate par value of par value shares being declared as a dividend and, in the case of shares without par value being declared as a dividend, such amount as shall be determined by the board of directors. No such designation as capital shall be necessary if shares are being distributed by a corporation pursuant to a split-up or division of its stock rather than as payment of a dividend declared payable in stock of the corporation.

§ 53. Liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividend or unlawful stock purchase or redemption—Exoneration from liability—Contribution among directors—Subrogation

A. In case of any willful or negligent violation of the provisions of 18 CNCA §§ 141 and 152, the directors under whose administration the same may happen shall be jointly and severally liable, at any time within six (6) years after paying any unlawful dividend or after any unlawful stock purchase or redemption, to the corporation, and to its creditors in the event of its dissolution or insolvency, to the full amount of the dividend unlawfully paid, or to the full amount unlawfully paid for the purchase or redemption of the corporation's stock, with interest from the time such liability accrued.

Any director who may have been absent when the same was done, or who may have dissented from the act or resolution by which the same was done, may exonerate himself from such liability by causing his dissent to be entered on the books containing the minutes of the proceedings of the directors at the time the same was done, or immediately after he has notice of the same.

B. Any director against whom a claim is successfully asserted under the provisions of this section shall be entitled to contribution from the other directors who voted for or concurred in the unlawful dividend, stock purchase or stock redemption.

C. Any director against whom a claim is successfully asserted under this section shall be entitled, to the extent of the amount paid by him as a result of such claim, to be subrogated to the rights of the corporation against shareholders who received the dividend on, or assets for the sale or redemption of, their stock with knowledge of facts indicating that such dividend, stock purchase or redemption was unlawful pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, in proportion to the amounts received by such shareholders respectively.

ARTICLE 7

STOCK TRANSFERS

§ 54. Transfer of stock, stock certificates and uncertificated stock

Except as otherwise provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the transfer of stock and the certificates of stock which represent the stock or uncertificated stock shall be governed by the Uniform Commercial Code—Investment Securities. To the extent that any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act is inconsistent with any provision of the Uniform Commercial Code—Investment Securities, the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code—Investment Securities shall be controlling.

§ 55. Restriction on transfer of securities

A. A written restriction on the transferor registration of transfer of a security of a corporation, if permitted by this section and noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the security or, in the case of uncertificated shares, contained in the notice sent pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 32(F), may be enforced against the holder of the restricted security or any successor or transferee of the holder including an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of the holder. Unless noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the security or, in the case of uncertificated shares, contained in the notice sent pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 32(F), a restriction, even though permitted by this section, is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of the restriction.

B. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of securities of a corporation may be imposed either by the certificate of incorporation or by the bylaws or by an agreement among any number of security holders or among such holders and the corporation. No restriction so imposed shall be binding with respect to securities issued prior to the adoption of the restriction unless the holders of the securities are parties to an agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

C. A restriction on the transfer of securities of a corporation is permitted by the provisions of this section if it:

1. obligates the holder of the restricted securities to offer to the corporation or to any other holders of securities of the corporation or to any other person or to any combination of the foregoing, a prior opportunity, to be exercised within a reasonable time, to acquire the restricted securities; or
2. obligates the corporation or any holder of securities of the corporation or any other person or any combination of the foregoing, to purchase the securities which are the subject of an agreement respecting the purchase and sale of the restricted securities; or

3. requires the corporation or the holders of any class of securities of the corporation to consent to any proposed transfer of the restricted securities or to approve the proposed transferee of the restricted securities; or

4. prohibits the transfer of the restricted securities to designated persons or classes of persons, and such designation is not manifestly unreasonable.

D. Any restriction on the transfer of the shares of a corporation for the purpose of maintaining its status as an electing small business corporation under Subchapter S of the United States Internal Revenue Code¹ or of maintaining any other tax advantage to the corporation is conclusively presumed to be for a reasonable purpose.

E. Any other lawful restriction on transfer or registration of transfer of securities is permitted by the provisions of this section.

ARTICLE 8

MEETINGS, ELECTIONS, VOTING AND NOTICE

§ 56. Meetings of shareholders

A. Meetings of shareholders may be held at such place, either within or without Cherokee Nation, as may be designated by or in the manner provided for in the bylaws or, if not so designated, at the registered office of the corporation in Cherokee Nation.

B. An annual meeting of shareholders shall be held for the election of directors on a date and at a time designated by or in the manner provided for in the bylaws. Any other proper business may be transacted at the annual meeting.

C. A failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time or to elect a sufficient number of directors to conduct the business of the corporation shall not affect otherwise valid corporate acts or work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation except as may be otherwise specifically provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act. If the annual meeting for election of directors is not held on the date designated therefor, the directors shall cause the meeting to be held as soon thereafter as is convenient. If there be a failure to hold the annual meeting for a period of thirty (30) days after the date designated therefor, or if no date has been designated, for a period of thirteen (13) months after the organization of the corporation or after its last annual meeting, the district court may summarily order a meeting to be held upon the application of any shareholder or director. The shares of stock represented at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat, shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of such meeting, notwithstanding any provision of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws to the contrary. The district court may issue such orders as may be appropriate, including, without limitation, orders designating the time and place of such meeting, the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to vote, and the form of notice of such meeting.

D. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the board of directors or by such person or persons as may be authorized by the certificate of incorporation or by the bylaws.

E. All elections of directors shall be by written ballot, unless otherwise provided for in the certificate of incorporation.

§ 57. Voting rights of shareholders—Proxies—Limitations

A. Unless otherwise provided for in the certificate of incorporation and subject to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 58, each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of capital stock held by such shareholder. If the certificate of incorporation provides for more or less than one vote for any share on any matter, every reference in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to a majority or other proportion of stock shall refer to such majority or other proportion of the votes of such stock.

B. Each shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for him by proxy, but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three (3) years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

C. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A proxy may be made irrevocable regardless of whether the interest with which it is coupled is an interest in the stock itself or an interest in the corporation generally.

§ 58. Fixing date for determination of shareholders of record

A. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors, and which record date shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting. If no record date is fixed by the board of directors, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. A determination of shareholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the board of directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

B. 1. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors, and which date shall not be more than ten (10) days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors. If no record date has been fixed by the board of directors, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the board of directors is required by the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in Cherokee Nation, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded. Delivery made to a corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. If no record date has been fixed by the board of directors and prior action by the board of directors is required by the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting shall be at the close of business on the day on which the board of directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

2. The provisions of this subsection shall be effective with respect to corporate actions taken by written consent, and to such written content or consents, as to which the first written consent is executed or solicited after June 10, 1996.

C. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or the shareholders entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted, and which record date shall be not more than sixty (60) days prior to such action. If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining shareholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the board of directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

The certificate of incorporation of any corporation may provide that at all elections of directors of the corporation, or at elections held under specified circumstances, each holder of stock or of any class or classes or of a series or series thereof shall be entitled to as many votes as shall equal the number of votes which, except for such provision as to cumulative voting, he would be entitled to cast for the election of directors with respect to his shares of stock multiplied by the number of directors to be elected by him, and that he may cast all of such votes for a single director or may distribute them among the number to be voted for, or for any two (2) or more of them as he may see fit.

§ 60. Voting rights of members of nonstock corporations—Quorum—Proxies

A. The provisions of 18 CNCA §§ 56 through 59 and 61 shall not apply to corporations not authorized to issue stock.

B. Unless otherwise provided for in the certificate of incorporation of a nonstock corporation, each member shall be entitled at every meeting of members to one vote in person or by proxy, but no proxy shall be voted on after three (3) years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

C. Unless otherwise provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of a nonstock corporation may specify the number of members having voting power who shall be present or represented by proxy at any meeting in order to constitute a quorum for, and the votes that shall be necessary for, the transaction of any business. In the absence of such specification in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of a nonstock corporation, one-third (1/3) of the members of such corporation shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of such members, and the affirmative vote of a majority of such members present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater number is required by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

D. If the election of the governing body of any nonstock corporation shall not be held on the day designated by the bylaws, the governing body shall cause the election to be held as soon thereafter as convenient. The failure to hold such an election at the designated time shall not work any forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation, but the district court may summarily order such an election to be held upon the application of any member of the corporation. At any election pursuant to such order the persons entitled to vote in such election who shall be present at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for such meeting, notwithstanding any provision of the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation to the contrary.

§ 61. Quorum and required vote for stock corporations

Subject to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, in respect of the vote that shall be required for a specified action, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of any corporation authorized to issue stock may specify the number of shares and/or the amount of other securities having voting power the holders of which shall be present or represented by proxy at any meeting in order to constitute a quorum for, and the votes that shall be necessary for, the transaction of any business, but in no event shall a quorum consist of less than one-third (1/3) of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. In the absence of such specification in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation:

1. a majority of the shares entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders;
2. in all matters other than the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders;
3. directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors; and

4. where a separate vote by a class or classes is required, a majority of the outstanding shares of such class or classes, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum entitled to take action with respect to that vote on that matter and the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of such class or classes present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting shall be the act of such class.

§ 62. Voting rights of fiduciaries, pledgors and joint owners of stock

A. Persons holding stock in a fiduciary capacity shall be entitled to vote the shares so held. Persons whose stock is pledged shall be entitled to vote, unless in the transfer by the pledgor on the books of the corporation he has expressly empowered the pledgee, to vote thereon, in which case only the pledgee, or his proxy may represent such stock and vote thereon.

B. If shares or other securities having voting power stand of record in the names of two or more persons, whether fiduciaries, members of a partnership, joint tenants, tenants in common, tenants by the entirety or otherwise, or if two or more persons have the same fiduciary relationship respecting the same shares, unless the secretary of the corporation is given written notice to the contrary and is furnished with a copy of the instrument or order appointing them or creating the relationship wherein it is so provided, their acts with respect to voting shall have the following effect:

1. If only one (1) vote, his act binds all; or

2. If more than one (1) vote, the act of the majority so voting binds all; or

3. If more than one (1) vote, but the vote is evenly split on any particular matter, each faction may vote the securities in question proportionally, or any person voting the shares, or a beneficiary, if any, may apply to the district court to appoint an additional person to act with the persons so voting the shares, which shall then be voted as determined by a majority of such persons and the person appointed by such court. If the instrument so filed shows that any such tenancy is held in unequal interests, a majority or even-split for the purpose of this subsection shall be a majority or even-split in interest.

§ 63. Voting trusts and other voting agreements

A. One or more shareholders, by agreement in writing, may deposit capital stock of an original issue with or transfer capital stock to any person or persons, or corporation or corporations authorized to act as trustee, for the purpose of vesting in such person or persons, corporation or corporations, who may be designated voting trustee, or voting trustees, the right to vote thereon for any period of time determined by such agreement, not exceeding ten (10) years, upon the terms and conditions stated in such agreement. The agreement may contain any other lawful provisions not inconsistent with such purpose. After the filing of a copy of the agreement in the registered office of the corporation in Cherokee Nation, which copy shall be open to the inspection of any shareholder of the corporation or any beneficiary of the trust under the agreement daily during business hours, certificates of stock or uncertificated stock shall be issued to the voting trustee or trustees to represent any stock of an original issue so deposited with him or them, and any certificates of stock or uncertificated stock so transferred to the voting trustee or trustees shall be surrendered and canceled and new certificates or uncertificated stock shall be issued therefor to the voting trustee or trustees. In the certificate so issued, if any, it shall be stated that it is issued pursuant to such agreement, and that fact shall also be stated in the stock ledger of the corporation. The voting trustee or trustees may vote the stock so issued or transferred during the period specified in the agreement. Stock standing in the name of the voting trustee or trustees may be voted either in person or by proxy, and in voting the stock, the voting trustee or trustees shall incur no responsibility as shareholder, trustee or otherwise, except for his or their own individual malfeasance. In any case where two or more persons are designated as voting trustees, and the right and method of voting any stock standing in their names at any meeting of the corporation are not fixed by the agreement appointing the trustees, the right to vote the stock and the manner of voting it at the meeting shall be determined by a majority of the trustees, or if they be equally divided as to the right and manner of voting the stock in any particular case, the vote of the stock in such case shall be divided equally among the trustees.

B. The trustee or trustees shall execute and deliver to the beneficiary or beneficiaries voting trust certificates. Such voting trust certificates shall be transferable in the same manner as certificates of stock under the provisions of this act.

C. At any time within two (2) years prior to the time of expiration of any voting trust agreement as originally fixed or as last extended as provided for in this subsection, one or more beneficiaries of the trust under the voting trust agreement, by written agreement and with the written consent of the voting trustee or trustees, may extend the duration of the voting trust agreement for an additional period not exceeding ten (10) years from the expiration date of the trust as originally fixed or as last extended, as provided for in this subsection. The voting trustee or trustees, prior to the time of expiration of any such voting trust agreement, as originally fixed or as previously extended, as the case may be, shall file in the registered office of the corporation in Cherokee Nation a copy of such extension agreement and of his or their consent thereto, and thereupon the duration of the voting trust agreement shall be extended for the period fixed in the extension agreement; but no such extension agreement shall affect the rights or obligations of persons not parties thereto.

D. An agreement between two or more shareholders, if in writing and signed by the parties thereto, may provide that in exercising any voting rights, the shares held by them shall be voted as provided by the agreement, or as the parties may agree, or as determined in accordance with a procedure agreed upon by them. No such agreement shall be effective for a term of more than ten (10) years, but, at any time within two (2) years prior to the time of the expiration of such agreement, the parties may extend its duration for as many additional periods, each not to exceed ten (10) years, as they may desire.

E. The validity of any such voting trust or other voting agreement, otherwise lawful, shall not be affected during a period of ten (10) years from the date when it was created or last extended by the fact that under its terms it will or may last beyond such ten- (10) year period.

F. This section shall not be construed to invalidate any voting or other agreement among shareholders or any irrevocable proxy which is not otherwise illegal.

§ 64. List of shareholders entitled to vote—Penalty for refusal to produce—Stock ledger

A. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of a corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each shareholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each shareholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified on the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any shareholder who is present.

B. Upon the willful neglect or refusal of the directors to produce such a list at any meeting for the election of directors, they shall be ineligible for election to any office at such meeting.

C. The stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by this section or the books of the corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of shareholders.

§ 65. Inspection of books and records

A. As used in this section, "shareholder" means a shareholder of record.

B. Any shareholder, in person or by attorney or other agent, upon written demand under oath stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right during the usual hours for business to inspect for any proper purpose the corporation's stock ledger, a list of its shareholders, and its other books and records, and to make copies or extracts therefrom. A proper purpose shall mean a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a shareholder. In every instance where an attorney or other agent shall be the person who seeks the right to inspection, the demand under oath shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or such other writing which authorizes the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the shareholder. The demand under oath shall be directed to the corporation at its registered office in Cherokee Nation or at its principal place of business.

C. 1. If the corporation or an officer or agent thereof refuses to permit an inspection sought by a shareholder or attorney or other agent acting for the shareholder pursuant to the provisions of subsection (B) of this section or does not reply to the demand within five (5) business days after the demand has been made, the shareholder may apply to the district court for an order to compel such inspection. The court may summarily order the corporation to permit the shareholder to inspect the corporation's stock ledger, an existing list of shareholders, and its other books and records, and to make copies or extracts therefrom; or the Court may order the corporation to furnish to the shareholder a list of its shareholders as of a specific date on condition that the shareholder first pay to the corporation the reasonable cost of obtaining and furnishing such list and on such other conditions as the Court deems appropriate.

2. Where the shareholder seeks to inspect the corporation's books and records, other than its stock ledger or list of shareholders, he shall first establish that:

a. he has complied with the provisions of this section respecting the form and manner of making demand for inspection of such documents; and

b. the inspection he seeks is for a proper purpose.

3. Where the shareholder seeks to inspect the corporation's stock ledger or list of shareholders and he has complied with the provisions of this section respecting the form and manner of making demand for inspection of such documents, the burden of proof shall be upon the corporation to establish that the inspection he seeks is for an improper purpose. The court may, in its discretion, prescribe any limitations or conditions with reference to the inspection, or award such other or further relief as the Court may deem just and proper. The court may order books, documents and records, pertinent extracts therefrom, or duly authenticated copies thereof, to be brought within Cherokee Nation and kept in Cherokee Nation upon such terms and conditions as the order may prescribe.

D. Any director shall have the right to examine the corporation's stock ledger, a list of its shareholders and its other books and records for a purpose reasonably related to his position as a director. The district court may summarily order the corporation to permit the director to inspect any and all books and records, the stock ledger and the stock list and to make copies or extracts therefrom. The court, in its discretion, may prescribe any limitations or conditions with reference to the inspection, or award such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

§ 66. Voting, inspection and other rights of bondholders and debenture holders

Every corporation, in its certificate of incorporation, may confer upon the holders of any bonds, debentures or other obligations issued or to be issued by the corporation the power to vote in respect to the corporate affairs and management of the corporation to the extent and in the manner provided in the certificate of incorporation, and may confer upon such holders of bonds, debentures or other obligations the same right of inspection of its books, accounts and other records, and also any other rights, which the shareholders of the corporation have or may have by reason of the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or of its certificate of incorporation. If the certificate of incorporation so provides, such holders of bonds, debentures or other obligations shall be deemed to be shareholders, and their bonds, debentures or other obligations shall be deemed to be shares of stock, for the purpose of any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act which requires the vote of shareholders as a prerequisite to any corporate action and the certificate of incorporation may divest the holders of capital stock, in whole or in part, of their right to vote on any corporate matter whatsoever, except as set forth in 18 CNCA § 77(B)(2).

§ 67. Notice of meetings and adjourned meetings

A. Whenever shareholders are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given which shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

B. Unless otherwise provided for in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the written notice of any meeting shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, notice is given when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, directed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation. An affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that the notice has been given, in the absence of fraud, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

C. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, unless the bylaws otherwise require, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

§ 68. Vacancies and newly created directorships

A. 1. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws:

a. Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors elected by all of the shareholders having the right to vote as a single class may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director; and

b. Whenever the holders of any class or classes of stock or series thereof are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the certificate of incorporation, vacancies and newly created directorships of such class or classes or series may be filled by a majority of the directors elected by such class or classes or series thereof then in office, or by a sole remaining director so elected.

2. If at any time, by reason of death or resignation or other cause, a corporation should have no directors in office, then any officer or any shareholder or an executor, administrator, trustee or guardian of a shareholder, or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of a shareholder, may call a special meeting of shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws, or may apply to the district court for a decree summarily ordering an election as provided for in 18 CNCA § 56.

B. In the case of a corporation the directors of which are divided into classes, any directors chosen under subsection (A) of this section shall hold office until the next election of the class for which such directors shall have been chosen, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

C. If, at the time of filling any vacancy or any newly created directorship, the directors then in office shall constitute less than a majority of the whole board, as constituted immediately prior to any such increase, the district court, upon application of any shareholder or shareholders holding at least ten percent (10%) of the total number of the shares at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, may summarily order an election to be held to fill any such vacancies or newly created directorships, or to replace the directors chosen by the directors then in office, which election shall be governed by the provisions of Section 56 of this act as far as applicable.

D. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, when one or more directors shall resign from the board, effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, shall have power to fill such vacancy or vacancies, the vote thereon to take effect when such resignation or resignations shall become effective, and each director so chosen shall hold office as provided for in this section in the filling of other vacancies.

§ 69. Form of records

Any records maintained by a corporation in the regular course of its business, including its stock ledger, books of account, and minute books, may be kept in, or be in the form of, punch cards, magnetic tape, photographs, microphotographs, or any other information storage device, provided that the records so kept can be converted into clearly legible written form within a reasonable time. Any corporation shall so convert any records so kept upon the request of any person entitled to inspect the same. Where records are kept in such manner, a clearly legible written form produced from the cards, tapes, photographs, microphotographs or other information storage device shall be admissible in evidence and shall be accepted for all other purposes, to the same extent as an original written record of the same information would have been, when said written form accurately portrays the record.

§ 70. Contested election of directors—Proceedings to determine validity

A. Upon application of any shareholder or director, or any officer whose title to office is contested, or any member of a corporation without capital stock, the district court may hear and determine the validity of any election of any director, member of the governing body, or officer of any corporation, and the right of any person to hold such office, and, in case any such office is claimed by more than one person, may determine the person entitled thereto; and to that end make such order or decree in any such case as may be just and proper, with power to enforce the production of any books, papers and records of the corporation relating to the issue. In case it should be determined that no valid election has been held, the district court may order an election to be held in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 56 or 18 CNCA § 60. In any such application, service of copies of the application upon the registered agent of the corporation shall be deemed to be service upon the corporation and upon the person whose title to office is contested and upon the person, if any, claiming such office; and the registered agent shall forward immediately a copy of the application to the corporation and to the person whose title to office is contested and to the person, if any, claiming such office, in a postpaid, sealed, registered letter addressed to such corporation and such person at their post office addresses last known to the registered agent or furnished to the registered agent by the applicant shareholder. The court may make such order respecting further or other notice of such application as it deems proper under the circumstances.

B. Upon application of any shareholder or any member of a corporation without capital stock, the district court may hear and determine the result of any vote of shareholders or members, as the case may be, upon matters other than the election of directors, officers or members of the governing body. Service of the application upon the registered agent of the corporation shall be deemed to be service upon the corporation, and no other party need be joined in order for the Court to adjudicate the result of the vote. The Court may make such order respecting notice of the application as it deems proper under the circumstances.

§ 71. Appointment of custodian or receiver of corporation on deadlock or for other cause

A. The District Court, upon application of any shareholder, may appoint one or more persons to be custodians, and, if the corporation is insolvent, to be receivers, of and for any corporation when:

1. at any meeting held for the election of directors the shareholders are so divided that they have failed to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would have expired upon qualification of their successors; or

2. the business of the corporation is suffering or is threatened with irreparable injury because the directors are so divided respecting the management of the affairs of the corporation that the required vote for action by the board of directors cannot be obtained and the shareholders are unable to terminate this division; or

3. the corporation has abandoned its business and has failed within a reasonable time to take steps to dissolve, liquidate or distribute its assets.

B. A custodian appointed pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have all the powers and title of a receiver appointed by the Court under applicable law, but the authority of the custodian is to continue the business of the corporation and not to liquidate its affairs and distribute its assets, except when the Court shall otherwise order and except in cases arising pursuant to paragraph 3 of subsection (A) of this section.

§ 72. Powers of court in elections of directors

A. The District Court, in any proceeding instituted pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 56, 18 CNCA § 60 or 18 CNCA § 70, may determine the right and power of persons claiming to own stock, or in the case of a corporation without capital stock, of the persons claiming to be members, to vote at any meeting of the shareholders or members.

B. The District Court may appoint a master to hold any election provided for in 18 CNCA § 56, 18 CNCA § 60 or 18 CNCA § 70 under such orders and powers as it deems proper; and it may punish any officer or director for contempt in case of disobedience of any order made by the Court; and, in case of disobedience by a corporation of any order made by the Court, may enter a decree against such corporation for a penalty of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

§ 73. Consent of shareholders in lieu of meeting

A. Except as provided in subsection (B) of this section or unless otherwise provided for in the certificate of incorporation, any action required by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of a corporation or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in Cherokee Nation, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded. Delivery made to a corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

B. With respect to a domestic corporation with a class of voting stock listed or traded on a national securities exchange or registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. § 78a et seq., as amended, which has one thousand or more shareholders of record, unless otherwise provided for in the certificate of incorporation, any action required by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of such corporation or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action to taken, shall be signed by the holders of all outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in Cherokee Nation, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded. Delivery made to a corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The provisions of this subsection shall be effective with respect to corporate actions by written consent, and to such written consent or consents, as to which the first written consent is executed or solicited after June 10, 1996.

C. Unless otherwise provided for in the certificate of incorporation, any action required by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to be taken at a meeting of the members of a nonstock corporation, or any action which may be taken at any meeting of the members of a nonstock corporation, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all members having a right to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in Cherokee Nation, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded. Delivery made to a corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

D. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each shareholder or member who signs the consent and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within sixty (60) days of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner required by this section to the corporation, written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders or members to take action are delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in Cherokee Nation, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded. Delivery made to a corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

E. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those shareholders or members, as the case may be, who have not consented in writing. In the event that the action which is consented to is such as would have required the filing of a certificate under any other section of this title, if such action had been voted on by shareholders or by members at a meeting thereof, the certificate filed under such other section shall state, in lieu of any statement required by such section concerning any vote of shareholders or members, that written consent has been given in accordance with the provisions of this section, and that written notice has been given as provided for in this section.

§ 74. Waiver of notice

Whenever notice is required to be given under any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, a written waiver thereof, signed by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the shareholders, directors, or members of a committee of directors need be specified in any written waiver of notice unless so required by the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws.

§ 75. Exception to requirements of notice

A. Whenever notice is required to be given, pursuant to any provision of this title or of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of any corporation, to any person with whom communication is unlawful, the giving of such notice to such person shall not be required and there shall be no duty to apply to any governmental authority or agency for a license or permit to give such notice to such person. Any action or meeting which shall be taken or held without notice to any such person with whom communication is unlawful shall have the same force and effect as if such notice had been duly given. In the event that the action taken by the corporation is such as to require the filing of a certificate under any of the other sections of this title, the certificate shall state, if such is the fact and if notice is required, that notice was given to all persons entitled to receive notice except such persons with whom communication is unlawful.

B. Whenever notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of any corporation, to any shareholder or, if the corporation is a nonstock corporation, to any member to whom:

1. notice of two (2) consecutive annual meetings and all notices of meetings or of the taking of action by written consent without a meeting to such person during the period between such two (2) consecutive annual meetings; or

2. all, and at least two, payments, if sent by first-class mail, of dividends or interest on securities during a twelve- (12) month period, have been mailed addressed to such person at his address as shown on the records of the corporation and have been returned undeliverable, the giving of such notice to such person shall not be required. Any action or meeting which shall be taken or held without notice to such person shall have the same force and effect as if such notice had been duly given. If any such person shall deliver to the corporation a written notice setting forth his then current address, the requirement that notice be given to such person shall be reinstated. In the event that the action taken by the corporation is such as to require the filing of a certificate under any of the other sections of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the certificate need not state that notice was not given to persons to whom notice was not required to be given pursuant to the provisions of this subsection.

ARTICLE 9

AMENDMENT OF CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION—CHANGES IN CAPITAL AND CAPITAL STOCK

A. Before a corporation has received any payment for any of its stock, it may amend its certificate of incorporation at any time or times, in any and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its certificate of incorporation as amended would contain only such provisions as it would be lawful and proper to insert in an original certificate of incorporation filed at the time of filing the amendment.

B. The amendment of certificate of incorporation authorized by the provisions of this section shall be adopted by a majority of the incorporators, if directors were not named in the original certificate of incorporation or have not yet been elected, or, if directors were named in the original certificate of incorporation or have been elected and have qualified, by a majority of the directors. A certificate setting forth the amendment and certifying that the corporation has not received any payment for any of its stock and that the amendment has been duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be executed, acknowledged and filed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. Upon such filing, the corporation's certificate of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly as of the date on which the original certificate of incorporation became effective, except as to those persons who are substantially and adversely affected by the amendment and as to those persons the amendment shall be effective from the filing date.

Nonstock corporations

A. 1. After a corporation has received payment for any of its capital stock, it may amend its certificate of incorporation, from time to time, in any and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its certificate of incorporation as amended would contain only such provisions as it would be lawful and proper to insert in an original certificate of incorporation filed at the time of the filing of the amendment; and if a change in stock or the rights of shareholders, or an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of stock or rights of shareholders is to be made, such provisions as may be necessary to effect such change, exchange, reclassification or cancellation. In particular, and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, a corporation may amend its certificate of incorporation, from time to time, so as:

a. to change its corporate name; or

b. to change, substitute, enlarge or diminish the nature of its business or its corporate powers and purposes; or

c. to increase or decrease its authorized capital stock or to reclassify the same, by changing the number, par value, designations, preferences, or relative, participating, optional, or other special rights of the shares, or the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such rights, or by changing shares with par value into shares without par value, or shares without par value into shares with par value either with or without increasing or decreasing the number of shares; or

d. to cancel or otherwise affect the right of the holders of the shares of any class to receive dividends which have accrued but have not been declared; or

e. to create new classes of stock having rights and preferences either prior and superior or subordinate and inferior to the stock of any class then authorized, whether issued or unissued; or

f. to change the period of its duration.

2. Any or all changes or alterations provided for in paragraph 1 of this subsection may be effected by one certificate of amendment.

B. Every amendment authorized by the provisions of subsection (A) of this section shall be made and effected in the following manner:

1. If the corporation has capital stock, its board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment proposed, declaring its advisability, and either calling a special meeting of the shareholders entitled to vote in respect thereof for the consideration of such amendment or directing that the amendment proposed be considered at the next annual meeting of shareholders. Such special or annual meeting shall be called and held upon notice in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 67. The notice shall set forth such amendment in full or a brief summary of the changes to be effected thereby, as the directors shall deem advisable. At the meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken for and against the proposed amendment. If a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class, has been voted in favor of the amendment, a certificate setting forth the amendment and certifying that such amendment has been duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be executed, acknowledged and filed and shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7.

2. The holders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the certificate of incorporation, if the amendment would increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class, or alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the shares of such class so as to affect them adversely. If any proposed amendment would alter or change the powers, references, or special rights of one or more series of any class so as to affect them adversely, but shall not so affect the entire class, then only the shares of the series so affected by the amendment shall be considered a separate class for the purposes of this paragraph. The number of authorized shares of any such class or classes of stock may be increased or decreased, but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the corporation entitled to vote irrespective of the provisions of this paragraph, if so provided in the original certificate of incorporation, in any amendment thereto which created such class or classes of stock or which was adopted prior to the issuance of any shares of such class or classes of stock, or in any amendment thereto which was authorized by a resolution or resolutions adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of such class or classes of stock.

3. If the corporation has no capital stock, then the governing body thereof shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment proposed and declaring its advisability. If at a subsequent meeting, held, on notice stating the purpose thereof, not earlier than fifteen (15) days and not later than sixty (60) days from the meeting at which such resolution has been passed, a majority of all the members of the governing body, shall vote in favor of such amendment, a certificate thereof shall be executed, acknowledged and filed and shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. The certificate of incorporation of any such corporation without capital stock may contain a provision requiring an amendment thereto to be approved by a specified number or percentage of the members or of any specified class of members of such corporation in which event only one meeting of the governing body thereof shall be necessary, and such proposed amendment shall be submitted to the members or to any specified class of members of such corporation without capital stock in the same manner, so far as applicable, as is provided for in this section for an amendment to the certificate of incorporation of a stock corporation; and in the event of the adoption thereof, a certificate evidencing such amendment shall be executed, acknowledged and filed and shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. In the event the amendment to the certificate of incorporation of a nonstock corporation results in the change of the name of such corporation, a notice of the name change shall be published one (1) time in the newspaper Cherokee Phoenix. Proof of such publication shall be filed in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

4. Whenever the certificate of incorporation shall require for action by the board of directors, by the holders of any class or series of shares or by the holders of any other securities having voting power the vote of a greater number or proportion than is required by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the provision of the certificate of incorporation requiring such greater vote shall not be altered, amended or repealed except by such greater vote.

A. A corporation, by resolution of its board of directors, may retire any shares of its capital stock that are issued but are not outstanding.

B. Whenever any shares of the capital stock of a corporation are retired, they shall resume the status of authorized and unissued shares of the class or series to which they belong unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides. If the certificate of incorporation prohibits the reissuance of such shares, or prohibits the reissuance of such shares as a part of a specific series only, a certificate stating that reissuance of the shares, as part of the class or series, is prohibited identifying the shares and reciting their retirement shall be executed, acknowledged and filed and shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. When such certificate becomes effective, it shall have the effect of amending the certificate of incorporation so as to reduce accordingly the number of authorized shares of the class or series to which such shares belong or, if such retired shares constitute all of the authorized shares of the class or series to which they belong, of eliminating from the certificate of incorporation all reference to such class or series of stock.

C. If the capital of the corporation will be reduced by or in connection with the retirement of shares, the reduction of capital shall be effected pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 79.

§ 79. Reduction of capital

A. A corporation, by resolution of its board of directors, may reduce its capital in any of the following ways:

1. By reducing or eliminating the capital represented by shares of capital stock which have been retired; or

2. By applying to an otherwise authorized purchase or redemption of outstanding shares of its capital stock some or all of the capital represented by the shares being purchased or redeemed, or any capital that has not been allocated to any particular class of its capital stock; or

3. By applying to an otherwise authorized conversion or exchange of outstanding shares of its capital stock some or all of the capital represented by the shares being converted or exchanged, or some or all of any capital that has not been allocated to any particular class of its capital stock, or both, to the extent that such capital in the aggregate exceeds the total aggregate par value or the stated capital of any previously unissued shares issuable upon such conversion or exchange; or

4. By transferring to surplus:

- a. some or all of the capital not represented by any particular class of its capital stock; or
- b. some or all of the capital represented by issued shares of its par value capital stock, which capital is in excess of the aggregate par value of such shares; or
- c. some of the capital represented by issued shares of its capital stock without par value.

B. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, no reduction of capital shall be made or effected unless the assets of the corporation remaining after such reduction shall be sufficient to pay any debts of the corporation for which payment has not been otherwise provided. No reduction of capital shall release any liability of any shareholder whose shares have not been fully paid.

§ 80. Restated certificate of incorporation

A. A corporation, whenever desired, may integrate into a single instrument all of the provisions of its certificate of incorporation which are then in effect and operative as a result of there having up to that time been filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative one or more certificates or other instruments pursuant to any of the sections referred to in 18 CNCA § 8, and it may at the same time also further amend its certificate of incorporation by adopting a restated certificate of incorporation.

B. If the restated certificate of incorporation merely restates and integrates but does not further amend the certificate of incorporation, as up to that time amended or supplemented by any instrument that was filed pursuant to any of the sections mentioned in 18 CNCA § 8, it may be adopted by the board of directors without a vote of the shareholders, or it may be proposed by the directors and submitted by them to the shareholders for adoption, in which case the procedure and vote required by 18 CNCA § 77 for amendment of the certificate of incorporation shall be applicable. If the restated certificate of incorporation restates and integrates and also further amends in any respect the certificate of incorporation, as up to that time amended or supplemented, it shall be proposed by the directors and adopted by the shareholders in the manner and by the vote prescribed by 18 CNCA § 77 or, if the corporation has not received any payment for any of its stock, in the manner and by the vote prescribed by 18 CNCA § 76.

C. A restated certificate of incorporation shall be specifically designated as such in its heading. It shall state, either in its heading or in an introductory paragraph, the corporation's present name, and, if it has been changed, the name under which it was originally incorporated, and the date of filing of its original certificate of incorporation with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. A restated certificate shall also state that it was duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of this section. If it was adopted by the board of directors without a vote of the shareholders, unless it was adopted pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 76, it shall state that it only restates and integrates and does not further amend the provisions of the corporation's certificate of incorporation as up to that time amended or supplemented, and that there is no discrepancy between those provisions and the provisions of the restated certificate. A restated certificate of incorporation may omit:

1. such provisions of the original certificate of incorporation which named the incorporator or incorporators, the initial board of directors, and the original subscribers for shares; and
2. such provisions contained in any amendment to the certificate of incorporation as were necessary to effect a change, exchange, reclassification or cancellation of stock, if such change, exchange, reclassification or cancellation has become effective.

Any such omissions shall not be deemed a further amendment.

D. A restated certificate of incorporation shall be executed, acknowledged and filed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. Upon its filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the original certificate of incorporation, as up to that time amended or supplemented, shall be superseded. From that time forward, the restated certificate of incorporation, including any further amendments or changes made thereby, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the corporation, but the original date of incorporation shall remain unchanged.

E. Any amendment or change effected in connection with the restatement and integration of the certificate of incorporation shall be subject to any other provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, which would apply if a separate certificate of amendment were filed to effect such amendment or change.

ARTICLE 10

MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION

§ 81. Merger or consolidation of domestic corporations

A. Any two or more corporations existing under the laws of Cherokee Nation may merge into a single corporation, which may be any one of the constituent corporations or may consolidate into a new corporation formed by the consolidation, pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, complying and approved in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. The board of directors of each corporation which desires to merge or consolidate shall adopt a resolution approving an agreement of merger or consolidation. The agreement shall state:

1. the terms and conditions of the merger or consolidation;
2. the mode of carrying the same into effect;
3. in the case of a merger, such amendments or changes in the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation as are desired to be effected by the merger, or, if no such amendments or changes are desired, a statement that the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be its certificate of incorporation of the surviving or resulting corporation;

4. in the case of a consolidation, that the certificate of incorporation of the resulting corporation shall be as is set forth in an attachment to the agreement;

5. the manner of converting the shares of each of the constituent corporations into shares or other securities of the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation, and, if any shares of any of the constituent corporations are not to be converted solely into shares or other securities of the surviving or resulting corporation, the cash, property, rights or securities of any other corporation which the holders of such shares are to receive in exchange for or upon conversion of such shares and the surrender of any certificates evidencing them, which cash, property, rights or securities of any other corporation may be in addition to or in lieu of shares or other securities of the surviving or resulting corporation; and

6. such other details or provisions as are deemed desirable, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a provision for the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance or recognition of fractional shares, interests or rights, or for any other arrangement with respect thereto, consistent with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 36. The agreement so adopted shall be executed and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. Any of the terms of the agreement of merger or consolidation may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such agreement, provided that the manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the agreement is clearly and expressly set forth in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

C. The agreement required by the provisions of subsection (B) of this section shall be submitted to the shareholders of each constituent corporation at an annual or special meeting thereof for the purpose of acting on the agreement. Due notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be mailed to each holder of stock whether voting or nonvoting, of the corporation at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation, at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice shall contain a copy of the agreement or a brief summary thereof, as the directors shall deem advisable; provided, however, such notice shall be effective only with respect to mergers or consolidations for which the notice of the shareholders meeting to vote thereon has been mailed after the effective date of this title. At the meeting the agreement shall be considered and a vote taken for its adoption or rejection. If a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon shall be voted for the adoption of the agreement, that fact shall be certified on the agreement by the secretary or the assistant secretary of the corporation. If the agreement shall be so adopted and certified by each constituent corporation, it shall then be filed and shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. In lieu of filing an agreement of merger or consolidation required by this section, the surviving or resulting corporation may file a certificate of merger or consolidation executed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7 and which states:

1. the name and state of incorporation of each of the constituent corporations;

2. that an agreement of merger or consolidation has been approved, adopted, certified, executed and acknowledged by each of the constituent corporations in accordance with the provisions of this section;

3. the name of the surviving or resulting corporation;

4. in the case of a merger, such amendments or changes in the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation as are desired to be effected by the merger, or, if no such amendments or changes are desired, a statement that the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be its certificate of incorporation;

5. in the case of a consolidation, that the certificate of incorporation of the resulting corporation shall be as is set forth in an attachment to the certificate;

6. that the executed agreement of consolidation or merger is on file at the principal place of business of the surviving corporation, stating the address thereof; and

7. that a copy of the agreement of consolidation or merger will be furnished by the surviving corporation, on request and without cost, to any shareholder of any constituent corporation. For purposes of 18 CNCA §§ 84 and 86, the term "shareholder" shall be deemed to include "member".

D. 1. Any agreement of merger or consolidation may contain a provision that at any time prior to the filing of the agreement with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the agreement may be terminated by the board of directors of any constituent corporation notwithstanding approval of the agreement by the shareholders of all or any of the constituent corporations. Any agreement of merger or consolidation may contain a provision that the boards of directors of the constituent corporations may amend the agreement at any time prior to the filing of the agreement, or a certificate in lieu thereof, with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, provided that an amendment made subsequent to the adoption of the agreement by the shareholders of any constituent corporation shall not:

a. alter or change the amount or kind of shares, securities, cash, property and/or rights to be received in exchange for or on conversion of all or any of the shares of any class or series thereof of such constituent corporation;

b. alter or change any term of the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by the merger or consolidation; or

c. alter or change any of the terms and conditions of the agreement if such alteration or change would adversely affect the holders of any class or series thereof of such constituent corporation.

2. For purposes of 18 CNCA § 83, the references to "agreement of merger" in this subsection shall mean the resolution of merger adopted by the board of directors of the parent corporation.

E. In the case of a merger, the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall automatically be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in the certificate of incorporation are set forth in the certificate of merger.

F. Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (C) of this section, unless required by its certificate of incorporation, no vote of shareholders of a constituent corporation surviving a merger shall be necessary to authorize a merger if:

1. the agreement of merger does not amend in any respect the certificate of incorporation of such constituent corporation;

2. each share of stock of such constituent corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger is to be an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving corporation after the effective date of the merger; and

3. either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities or obligations convertible into such stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or the treasury shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other shares, securities or obligations to be issued or delivered under such plan do not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the shares of common stock of such constituent corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. No vote of shareholders of a constituent corporation shall be necessary to authorize a merger or consolidation if no shares of the stock of such corporation shall have been issued prior to the adoption by the board of directors of the resolution approving the agreement of merger or consolidation. If an agreement of merger is adopted by the constituent corporation surviving the merger, by action of its board of directors and without any vote of its shareholders pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, the secretary or assistant secretary of that corporation shall certify on the agreement that the agreement has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this subsection and that, as of the date of such certificate, the outstanding shares of the corporation were such as to render the provisions of this subsection applicable. The agreement so adopted and certified shall then be filed and shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. Such filing shall constitute a representation by the person who executes the certificate that the facts stated in the certificate remain true immediately prior to such filing.

§ 82. Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations—Service of process upon surviving or resulting corporation

A. Any one or more corporations of Cherokee Nation may merge or consolidate with one or more other corporations of Cherokee Nation, any other federally-recognized Indian tribe, any other state or states of the United States, or of the District of Columbia if the laws of such other tribe, state or states or of the District permit a corporation of such jurisdiction to merge or consolidate with a corporation of another jurisdiction. The constituent corporations may merge into a single corporation, which may be any one of the constituent corporations, or they may consolidate into a new corporation formed by the consolidation, which may be a corporation of the state of incorporation of any one of the constituent corporations, pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, complying and approved in accordance with the provisions of this section. In addition, any one or more corporations organized under the laws of any jurisdiction other than one of the United States may merge or consolidate with one or more corporations existing under the laws of Cherokee Nation if the surviving or resulting corporation will be a corporation of Cherokee Nation, and if the laws under which the other corporation or corporations are formed permit a corporation of such jurisdiction to merge or consolidate with a corporation of another jurisdiction.

B. All the constituent corporations shall enter into an agreement of merger or consolidation. The agreement shall state:

1. the terms and conditions of the merger or consolidation;
2. the mode of carrying the same into effect;
3. the manner of converting the shares of each of the constituent corporations into shares or other securities of the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation and, if any shares of any of the constituent corporations are not to be converted solely into shares or other securities of the surviving or resulting corporation, the cash, property, rights, or securities of any other corporation which the holder of such shares are to receive in exchange for, or upon conversion of, such shares and the surrender of any certificates evidencing them, which cash, property, rights, or securities of any other corporation may be in addition to or in lieu of the shares or other securities of the surviving or resulting corporation;
4. such other details or provisions as are deemed desirable, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a provision for the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance or recognition of fractional shares of the surviving or resulting corporation or of any other corporation the securities of which are to be received in the merger or consolidation, or for some other arrangement with respect thereto consistent with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 36; and
5. such other provisions or facts as shall be required to be set forth in the certificate of incorporation by the laws of the state which are stated in the agreement to be the laws that shall govern the surviving or resulting corporation and that can be stated in the case of a merger or consolidation. Any of the terms of the agreement of merger or consolidation may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such agreement, provided that the manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the agreement is clearly and expressly set forth in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

C. The agreement shall be adapted, approved, executed and acknowledged by each of the constituent corporations in accordance with the laws under which it is formed, and, in the case of a Cherokee Nation corporation, in the same manner as is provided for in 18 CNCA § 81. The agreement shall be filed and shall become effective for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation when and as provided for in 18 CNCA § 81 with respect to the merger or consolidation of corporations of Cherokee Nation. In lieu of filing the agreement of merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation may file a certificate of merger or consolidation executed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, which states:

1. the name and state of incorporation of each of the constituent corporations;
2. that an agreement of merger or consolidation has been approved, adopted, executed and acknowledged by each of the constituent corporations in accordance with the provisions of this subsection;
3. the name of the surviving or resulting corporation;
4. in the case of a merger, such amendments or changes in the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation as are desired to be effected by the merger, or, if no such amendments or changes are desired, a statement that the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be its certificate of incorporation;
5. in the case of a consolidation, that the certificate of incorporation of the resulting corporation shall be as is set forth in an attachment to the certificate;
6. that the executed agreement of consolidation or merger is on file at the principal place of business of the surviving corporation and the address thereof;
7. that a copy of the agreement of consolidation or merger will be furnished by the surviving corporation, on request and without cost, to any shareholder of any constituent corporation;
8. if the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation is to be a corporation of Cherokee Nation, the authorized capital stock of each constituent corporation which is not a corporation of Cherokee Nation; and
9. the agreement, if any, required by the provisions of subsection (D) of this section. For purposes of 18 CNCA § 85, the term "shareholder" in subsection (D) of this section shall be deemed to include "member".

D. If the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation is to be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia or any state other than Cherokee Nation, it shall agree that it may be served with process in Cherokee Nation in any proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of any constituent corporation of Cherokee Nation, as well as for enforcement of any obligation of the surviving or resulting corporation arising from the merger or consolidation, including any suit or other proceeding to enforce the right of any shareholders as determined in appraisal proceedings pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 91, and shall irrevocably appoint the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its agent to accept service of process in any such suit or other proceedings and shall specify the address to which a copy of such process shall be mailed by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. In the event of such service upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall immediately notify such surviving or resulting corporation thereof by letter, certified mail, return receipt requested, directed to such surviving or resulting corporation at its address so specified unless such surviving or resulting corporation shall have designated in writing to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a different address for such purpose, in which case it shall be mailed to the last address to designated. Such letter shall enclose a copy of the process and any other papers served on the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to the provisions of this subsection. It shall be the duty of the plaintiff in the event of such service to serve process and any other papers in duplicate, to notify the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative that service is being effected pursuant to the provisions of this subsection and to pay the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative the fee provided for in 18 CNCA § 142(7), which fee shall be taxed as part of the costs in the proceeding, if the plaintiff shall prevail therein. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall maintain an alphabetical record of any such service setting forth the name of the plaintiff and the defendant, the title, docket number and nature of the proceeding in which process has been served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the fact that service has been effected pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, the return date thereof, and the date service was made. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall not be required to retain such information longer than five (5) years from receipt of the service of process by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

E. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(D) shall apply to any merger or consolidation pursuant to the provisions of this section. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(E) shall apply to a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section in which the surviving corporation is a corporation of the Cherokee Nation. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(F) shall apply to any merger pursuant to the provisions of this section.

§ 83. Merger of parent corporation and subsidiary or subsidiaries

A. In any case in which at least ninety percent (90%) of the outstanding shares of each class of the stock of a corporation or corporations is owned by another corporation and one of such corporations is a corporation of Cherokee Nation and the other or others are corporations of Cherokee Nation or of any state or states or of the District of Columbia and the laws of such state or states or of the District of Columbia permit a corporation of such jurisdiction to merge with a corporation of another jurisdiction, the corporation having such stock ownership may either merge such other corporation or corporations into itself and assume all of its or their obligations, or merge itself, or itself and one or more of such other corporations, into one of such other corporations by executing, acknowledging and filing, in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, a certificate of such ownership and merger setting forth a copy of the resolution of its board of directors to so merge and the date of the adoption thereof; provided, however, that in case the parent corporation shall not own all the outstanding stock of all the subsidiary corporations, parties to a merger as aforesaid, the resolution of the board of directors of the parent corporation shall state the terms and conditions of the merger, including the securities, cash, property, or rights to be issued, paid, delivered or granted by the surviving corporation upon surrender of each share of the subsidiary corporation or corporations not owned by the parent corporation. If the parent corporation is not the surviving corporation, the resolution shall include provision for the pro rata issuance of stock of the surviving corporation to the holders of the stock of the parent corporation on surrender of any certificates therefor, and the certificate of ownership and merger shall state that the proposed merger has been approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the parent corporation entitled to vote thereon at a meeting thereof duly called and held after twenty (20) days' notice of the purpose of the meeting mailed to each such shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation if the parent corporation is a corporation of Cherokee Nation or state that the proposed merger has been adopted, approved, certified, executed and acknowledged by the parent corporation in accordance with the laws under which it is organized if the parent corporation is not a corporation of Cherokee Nation. If the surviving corporation exists under the laws of the District of Columbia or any state other than Cherokee Nation, the provisions of 18 CNCA § 82(D) shall also apply to a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section.

B. Subject to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 6(A)(1), if the surviving corporation is a Cherokee Nation corporation, it may change its corporate name by the inclusion of a provision to that effect in the resolution of merger adopted by the directors of the parent corporation and set forth in the certificate of ownership and merger, and upon the effective date of the merger, the name of the corporation shall be so changed.

C. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(D) shall apply to a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section, and the provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(E) shall apply to a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section in which the surviving corporation is the subsidiary corporation and is a corporation of Cherokee Nation. Any merger which effects any changes other than those authorized by the provisions of this section or made applicable by this subsection shall be accomplished in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 81 or 18 CNCA § 82. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 91 shall not apply to any merger effected pursuant to the provisions of this section, except as provided for in subsection (D) of this section.

D. In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Cherokee Nation corporation party to a merger effected pursuant to the provisions of this section is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, the shareholders of the subsidiary Cherokee Nation corporation party to the merger shall have appraisal rights as set forth in 18 CNCA § 91.

E. A merger may be effected pursuant to the provisions of this section although one or more of the corporations is a corporation organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than one of the United States; provided that the laws of such jurisdiction permit a corporation of such jurisdiction to merge with a corporation of another jurisdiction; and provided further that the surviving or resulting corporation shall be a corporation of Cherokee Nation.

§ 84. Merger or consolidation of domestic nonstock, not for profit corporations

A. Any two or more nonstock corporations of Cherokee Nation, whether or not organized for profit, may merge into a single corporation, which may be any one of the constituent corporations, or they may consolidate into a new nonstock corporation, whether or not organized for profit, formed by the consolidation, pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, complying and approved in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. 1. The governing body of each corporation which desires to merge or consolidate shall adopt a resolution approving an agreement of merger or consolidation. The agreement shall state:

a. the terms and conditions of the merger or consolidation;

b. the mode of carrying the same into effect;

c. such other provisions or facts required or permitted by the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to be stated in a certificate of incorporation for nonstock corporations as can be stated in the case of a merger or consolidation, stated in such altered form as the circumstances of the case require;

d. the manner of converting the memberships of each of the constituent corporations into memberships of the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation; and

e. such other details or provisions as are deemed desirable.

2. Any of the terms of the agreement of merger or consolidation may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such agreement, provided that the manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the agreement is clearly and expressly set forth in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

C. The agreement shall be submitted to the members of each constituent corporation who have the right to vote for the election of the members of the governing body of their corporation, at an annual or special meeting thereof for the purpose of acting on the agreement. Due notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be mailed to each member of each such corporation who has the right to vote for the election of the members of the governing body of his corporation, at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice shall contain a copy of the agreement or a brief summary thereof, as the governing body shall deem advisable; provided, however such notice shall be effective only with respect to mergers or consolidations for which the notice of the members meeting to vote thereon has been mailed after the effective date of this title. At the meeting, the agreement shall be considered and a vote by ballot, in person or by proxy, taken for the adoption or rejection of the agreement, each member who has the right to vote for the election of the members of the governing body of his corporation being entitled to one vote. If the votes of two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of members of each such corporation who have the voting power above mentioned shall be for the adoption of the agreement, then that fact shall be certified on the agreement by the officer of each such corporation performing the duties ordinarily performed by the secretary or assistant secretary of a corporation. The agreement so adopted and certified shall be executed, acknowledged and filed, and shall become effective, in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(C)(1) through (6) shall apply to a merger under this section.

D. If, under the provisions of the certificate of incorporation of any one or more of the constituent corporations, there shall be no members who have the right to vote for the election of the members of the governing body of the corporation other than the members of that body themselves, the agreement duly entered into as provided for in subsection (B) of this section shall be submitted to the members of the governing body of such corporation or corporations, at a meeting thereof. Notice of the meeting shall be mailed to the members of the governing body in the same manner as is provided in the case of a meeting of the members of a corporation. If at the meeting two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of members of the governing body shall vote by ballot, in person, for the adoption of the agreement, that fact shall be certified on the agreement in the same manner as is provided in the case of the adoption of the agreement by the vote of the members of a corporation and thereafter the same procedure shall be followed to consummate the merger or consolidation.

E. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(E) shall apply to a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section.

F. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the merger of a charitable nonstock corporation into a nonstock corporation if such charitable nonstock corporation would thereby have its charitable status lost or impaired; but a nonstock corporation may be merged into a charitable nonstock corporation which shall continue as the surviving corporation.

§ 85. Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign nonstock, not for profit corporation; service of process upon surviving or resulting corporation

A. Any one or more nonstock, not for profit corporations of Cherokee Nation may merge or consolidate with one or more other nonstock, not for profit corporations of any state of the United States or of the District of Columbia, if the laws of such state or of the District of Columbia permit a corporation of such jurisdiction to merge with a corporation of another jurisdiction. The constituent corporations may merge into a single corporation, which may be any one of the constituent corporations, or they may consolidate into a new nonstock, not for profit corporation formed by the consolidation, which may be a corporation of Cherokee Nation, pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, complying and approved in accordance with the provisions of this section. In addition, any one or more nonstock, not for profit corporations organized under the laws of any jurisdiction other than one of the United States may merge or consolidate with one or more nonstock, not for profit corporations of Cherokee Nation if the surviving or resulting corporation will be a corporation of Cherokee Nation, and if the laws under which the other corporation or corporations are formed permit a corporation of such jurisdiction to merge with a corporation of another jurisdiction.

B. 1. All the constituent corporations shall enter into an agreement of merger or consolidation. The agreement shall state:

a. the terms and conditions of the merger or consolidation;

b. the mode of carrying the same into effect;

c. the manner of converting the memberships of each of the constituent corporations into members of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation;

d. such other details and provisions as shall be deemed desirable; and

e. such other provisions or facts as shall then be required to be stated in a certificate of incorporation by the laws of Cherokee Nation which are stated in the agreement to be the laws that shall govern the surviving or resulting corporation and that can be stated in the case of a merger or consolidation.

2. Any of the terms of the agreement of merger or consolidation may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such agreement, provided that the manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the agreement is clearly and expressly set forth in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

C. The agreement shall be adopted, approved, certified, executed and acknowledged by each of the constituent corporations in accordance with the laws under which it is formed and, in the case of Cherokee Nation, in the same manner as is provided for in 18 CNCA § 84. The agreement shall be filed and shall become effective for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation when and as provided for in 18 CNCA § 84 with respect to the merger of nonstock, not for profit corporations of Cherokee Nation. Insofar as they may be applicable, the provisions of 18 CNCA § 82(C)(1) through (9) shall apply to a merger under this section.

D. If the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation is to be governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than Cherokee Nation, it shall agree that it may be served with process in Cherokee Nation in any proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of any constituent corporation of Cherokee Nation, as well as for enforcement of any obligation of the surviving or resulting corporation arising from the merger or consolidation and shall irrevocably appoint the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceedings and shall specify the address to which a copy of such process shall be mailed by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. In the event of such service upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall immediately notify such surviving or resulting corporation thereof by letter, certified mail, return receipt requested, directed to such corporation at its address so specified, unless such surviving or resulting corporation shall have designated in writing to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a different address for such purpose, in which case it shall be mailed to the last address so designated. Such letter shall enclose a copy of the process and any other papers served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. It shall be the duty of the plaintiff in the event of such service to serve process and any other papers in duplicate, to notify the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative that service is being made pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, and to pay the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative the fee prescribed by 18 CNCA § 142(7), which fee shall be taxed as part of the costs in the proceeding if the plaintiff shall prevail therein. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall maintain an alphabetical record of any such service setting forth the name of the plaintiff and defendant, the title, docket number and nature of the proceeding in which process has been served upon him, the fact that service has been effected pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, the return date thereof, and the date when the service was made. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall not be required to retain such information for a period longer than five (5) years from his receipt of service of process.

E. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(E) shall apply to a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section if the corporation surviving the merger is a corporation of Cherokee Nation.

§ 86. Merger or consolidation of domestic stock and nonstock corporations

A. Any one or more nonstock corporations of Cherokee Nation, whether or not organized for profit, may merge or consolidate with one or more stock corporations of Cherokee Nation, whether or not organized for profit. The constituent corporations may merge into a single corporation, which may be any one of the constituent corporations, or they may consolidate into a new corporation formed by the consolidation, pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, complying and approved in accordance with the provisions of this section. The surviving constituent corporation or a new corporation may be organized for profit or not organized for profit and may be a stock corporation or a nonstock corporation.

B. The board of directors of each stock corporation which desires to merge or consolidate and the governing body of each nonstock corporation which desires to merge or consolidate shall adopt a resolution approving an agreement of merger or consolidation. The agreement shall state:

1. the terms and conditions of the merger or consolidation;
2. the mode carrying the same into effect;
3. such other provisions or facts required or permitted by the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to be stated in the certificate of incorporation as can be stated in the case of a merger or consolidation, stated in such altered form as the circumstances of the case require;
4. the manner of converting the shares of stock of a stock corporation and the interests of the members of nonstock corporation into shares or other securities of a stock corporation or membership interests of a nonstock corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, and if any shares of any such stock corporation or membership interests of any such nonstock corporation are not to be converted solely into shares or other securities of the stock corporation or membership interests of the nonstock corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, the cash, property, rights or securities of any other corporation or entity which the holders of shares of any such stock corporation or membership interests of any such nonstock corporation are to receive in exchange for, or upon conversion of such shares or membership interests, and the surrender of any certificates evidencing them, which cash, property, rights or securities of any other corporation or entity may be in addition to or in lieu of shares or other securities of any stock corporation or membership interests of any nonstock corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation; and

5. such other details or provisions as are deemed desirable.

C. In a merger or consolidation provided for in this section, the interests of members of a constituent nonstock corporation may be treated in various ways so as to convert such interests into interests of value, other than shares of stock, in the surviving or resulting stock corporation or into shares of stock Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in the surviving or resulting stock corporation, voting or nonvoting, or into creditor interests or any other interests of value equivalent to their membership interests in their nonstock corporation. The voting rights of members of a constituent nonstock corporation need not be considered an element of value in measuring the reasonable equivalence of the value of the interests received in the surviving or resulting stock corporation by members of a constituent nonstock corporation, nor need the voting rights of shares of stock in a constituent stock corporation be considered as an element of value in measuring the reasonable equivalence of the value of the interests in the surviving or resulting nonstock corporations received by shareholders of a constituent stock corporation, and the voting or nonvoting shares of a stock corporation may be converted into voting or nonvoting regular, life, general, special or other type of membership, however designated, creditor interests or participating interests, in the nonstock corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation of a stock corporation and a nonstock corporation. Any of the terms of the agreement of merger or consolidation may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such agreement, provided that the manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the agreement is clearly and expressly set forth in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

D. The agreement, required by subsection (B) of this section in the case of each constituent stock corporation, shall be adopted, approved, certified, executed and acknowledged by each constituent corporation in the same manner as is provided for in 18 CNCA § 81 and, in the case of each constituent nonstock corporation, shall be adopted, approved, certified, executed and acknowledged by each of said constituent corporations in the same manner as is provided for in 18 CNCA § 84. The agreement shall be filed and shall become effective for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation when and as provided for in 18 CNCA § 81 with respect to the merger of stock corporations of Cherokee Nation. Insofar as they may be applicable, the provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(C)(1) through (7) shall apply to a merger under this section.

E. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(E) shall apply to a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section, if the surviving corporation is a corporation of Cherokee Nation. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(D) shall apply to any constituent stock corporation participating in a merger or consolidation pursuant to the provisions of this section. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(F) shall apply to any constituent stock corporation participating in a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section.

F. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the merger of a charitable nonstock corporation into a stock corporation, if the charitable status of such nonstock corporation would thereby be lost or impaired; but a stock corporation may be merged into a charitable nonstock corporation which shall continue as the surviving corporation.

§ 87. Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign stock and nonstock corporations

A. Any one or more corporations of Cherokee Nation, whether stock or nonstock corporations and whether or not organized for profit, may merge or consolidate with one or more other corporations of any state or states of the United States or of the District of Columbia, whether stock or nonstock corporations and whether or not organized for profit, if the laws under which the other corporation or corporations are formed shall permit a corporation of such jurisdiction to merge with a corporation of another jurisdiction. The constituent corporations may merge into a single corporation, which may be any one of the constituent corporations, or they may consolidate into a new corporation formed by the consolidation, which may be a corporation of the place of incorporation of any one of the constituent corporations, pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, complying and approved in accordance with the provisions of this section. The surviving or new corporation may be either a stock corporation or a membership corporation, as shall be specified in the agreement of merger required by the provisions of subsection (B) of this section.

B. The method and procedure to be followed by the constituent corporations so merging or consolidating shall be as prescribed in 18 CNCA § 86 in the case of Cherokee Nation corporations. The agreement of merger or consolidation shall also set forth such other matters or provisions as shall then be required to be set forth in certificates of incorporation by the laws of Cherokee Nation which are stated in the agreement to be the laws which shall govern the surviving or resulting corporation and that can be stated in the case of a merger or consolidation. The agreement, in the case of foreign corporations, shall be adopted, approved, executed and acknowledged by each of the constituent foreign corporations in accordance with the laws under which each is formed.

C. The requirements of the provisions of 18 CNCA § 82(D) as to the appointment of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative to receive process and the manner of serving the same in the event the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any other state shall also apply to mergers or consolidations effected pursuant to the provisions of this section. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(E) shall apply to mergers effected pursuant to the provisions of this section if the surviving corporation is a corporation of Cherokee Nation. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(D) of this act shall apply to any constituent stock corporation participating in a merger of consolidation pursuant to the provisions of this section. The provisions of 18 CNCA § 81(F) shall apply to any constituent stock corporation participating in a merger pursuant to the provisions of this section.

D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the merger of a charitable nonstock corporation into a stock corporation, if the charitable status of such nonstock corporation would thereby be lost or impaired but a stock corporation may be merged into a charitable nonstock corporation which shall continue as the surviving corporation.

§ 88. Status, rights, liabilities, etc. of constituent and surviving or resulting corporations following merger or consolidation

When any merger or consolidation shall have become effective pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation the separate existence of all the constituent corporations, or of all such constituent corporations except the one into which the other or others of such constituent corporations have been merged, as the case may be, shall cease and the constituent corporations shall become a new corporation, or be merged into one of such corporations, as the case may be, possessing all the rights, privileges, powers and franchises as well of public as of a private nature, and being subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of each of such corporations so merged or consolidated; and all and singular, the rights, privileges, powers and franchises of each of said corporations, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due to any of said constituent corporations on whatever account, as well for stock subscriptions as all other things in action or belonging to each of such corporations shall be vested in the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation; and all property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises, and all and every other interest shall be thereafter as effectually the property of the surviving or resulting corporation as they were of the several and respective constituent corporations, and the title to any real estate vested by deed or otherwise, under the laws of Cherokee Nation, in any of such constituent corporations, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act; but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of any of said constituent corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the respective constituent corporations, from that time forward, shall attach to said surviving or resulting corporation, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

§ 89. Powers of corporation surviving or resulting from merger or consolidation; issuance of stock, bonds or other indebtedness

When two or more corporations are merged or consolidated, the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger may issue bonds or other obligations, negotiable or otherwise, and with or without coupons or interest certificates thereto attached, to an amount sufficient with its capital stock to provide for all payments it will be required to make, or obligations it will be required to assume, in order to effect the merger or consolidation. For the purpose of securing the payment of any such bonds and obligations, it shall be lawful for the surviving or resulting corporation to mortgage its corporate franchise, rights, privileges and property, real, personal or mixed. The surviving or resulting corporation may issue certificates of its capital stock or uncertificated stock if authorized to do so and other securities to the shareholders of the constituent corporations in exchange or payment for the original shares, in such amount as shall be necessary in accordance with the terms of the agreement of merger or consolidation in order to effect such merger or consolidation in the manner and on the terms specified in the agreement.

§ 90. Effect of merger upon pending actions

Any action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal or any other proceeding provided for in Cherokee Nation Code Annotated pending by or against any corporation which is a party to a merger or consolidation shall be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation may be substituted in such action or proceeding.

§ 90.1. Share acquisitions

A. One or more corporations may acquire all or part of the outstanding shares of one or more other corporations, if the board of directors of each corporation adopts and its shareholders approve, if required by subsection (C) of this section, the agreement of acquisition.

B. The agreement of acquisition shall set forth:

1. the name or names of the corporation or corporations whose shares will be acquired and the name or names of the acquiring corporation or corporations;
2. the terms and conditions of the acquisitions;
3. the manner and basis of exchanging the shares to be acquired for the consideration proffered;
4. any amendments or changes in the certificate of incorporation of a corporation which is a party to the agreement; and
5. such other provisions as the directors shall deem advisable.

C. After adopting an agreement of acquisition, the board of directors of each corporation whose shares are to be acquired, in whole or in part, or whose certificate of incorporation is to be amended, shall submit the agreement of acquisition for approval by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon. Due notice of the meeting shall be mailed to each holder of stock, whether voting or nonvoting, of the corporation at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation, at least twenty (20) days prior to the meeting. The notice shall contain a copy of the agreement or a brief summary thereof, as the directors shall deem advisable. At the meeting, the agreement shall be considered and a vote taken for its adoption or rejection. If a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon shall be voted for the adoption of the agreement, that fact shall be certified on the agreement by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation. If the agreement shall be adopted and approved in accordance with the provisions of this section, it shall then be filed and shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7. In lieu of filing an agreement of acquisition required by this section, the acquiring corporation may file a certificate of acquisition, executed in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, which states:

1. the name and jurisdiction of incorporation of each corporation which is a party to the agreement;
2. that the agreement of acquisition has been adopted, approved, certified, executed, and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of this section;
3. whether the corporation is an acquiring corporation or a corporation whose shares are to be acquired;
4. the amendments or changes, if any, in the certificate of incorporation that are to be effected by the agreement of acquisition;

5. that the executed agreement of acquisition is on file at the principal place of business of each corporation, stating the address thereof, and

6. that a copy of the agreement of acquisition will be furnished by each corporation, on request and without cost, to any of its shareholders.

D. Any agreement of acquisition may contain a provision that at any time prior to the filing of the agreement with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the agreement may be terminated by the board of directors of any affected corporation notwithstanding approval of the agreement by the shareholders of one or more of the affected corporations. Any agreement of acquisition may contain a provision that the board of directors of the affected corporations may amend the agreement at any time prior to the filing of the agreement, or a certificate in lieu thereof, with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, provided that an amendment made subsequent to the adoption of the agreement by the shareholders of any affected corporation shall not:

1. alter or change the amount or kind of consideration to be received in exchange for or on conversion of all or part of the shares to be acquired;

2. alter or change any term of the certificate of incorporation of the affected corporations; or

3. alter or change any of the terms and consideration of the agreement if such alteration or change would adversely affect the holders of any class or series of a corporation whose shares are to be acquired.

E. The holders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon an agreement of acquisition, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the certificate of incorporation, if the agreement provides for the acquisition of all or part of the shares of the class.

F. This section shall not limit the power of a corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of one or more classes or series of another corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise.

G. Any shareholder whose shares are to be acquired pursuant to an agreement of acquisition adopted and approved in accordance with this section and who has complied with the procedural steps specified in 18 CNCA § 91(D) for mergers and consolidations and who has neither voted in favor of the share acquisition nor consented thereto in writing shall be entitled to an appraisal by the District Court of the fair value of his shares in compliance with the same provisions and procedures and with the same rights and limitations as set out in 18 CNCA § 91(E) through (K).

H. If the entity acquiring shares pursuant to this section is governed by the laws of the District of Columbia or any state other than Cherokee Nation, the entity shall agree that it may be served with process in Cherokee Nation in any proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of the acquiring corporation arising from the share acquisition, including any suit or other proceeding to enforce the right of any shareholders as determined in appraisal proceedings pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 91, and shall irrevocably appoint the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its agent to accept service of process in any such suit or other proceedings and shall specify the address to which a copy of such process shall be mailed by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. In the event of such service upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in accordance with this subsection, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall forthwith notify such acquiring corporation thereof by letter sent by certified mail, with return receipt requested, directed to such acquiring corporation at its address so specified, unless such acquiring corporation shall have designated in writing to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a different address for such purpose, in which case it shall be mailed to the last address so designated. Such letter shall enclose a copy of the process and any other papers served on the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to this subsection. It shall be the duty of the plaintiff in the event of such service to serve process and any other papers in duplicate, to notify the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative that service is being effected pursuant to this subsection and to pay the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative the fee provided for in 18 CNCA § 142(7), which fee shall be taxed as part of the costs in the proceeding, if the plaintiff shall prevail therein. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall maintain an alphabetical record of any such service setting forth the name of the plaintiff and the defendant, the title, docket number and nature of the proceeding in which process has been served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the fact that service has been served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the fact that service has been effected pursuant to this subsection, the return date thereof, and the date service was made. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall not be required to retain such information longer than five (5) years from receipt of the service of process by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

§ 90.2. Merger or consolidation of domestic corporation and limited partnership

A. Any one or more corporations of Cherokee Nation may merge or consolidate with one or more limited partnerships, of Cherokee Nation or of any state of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, unless the laws of such states or the District of Columbia forbid such merger or consolidation. Such corporation or corporations and such one or more limited partnerships may merge with or into a corporation, which may be any one of such corporations, or they may merge with or into a limited partnership, which may be any one of such limited partnerships, or they may consolidate into a new corporation or limited partnership formed by the consolidation, which shall be a corporation or limited partnership of Cherokee Nation or any state of the United States, or the District of Columbia, which permits such merger or consolidation, pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, complying and approved in accordance with this section.

B. Each such corporation and limited partnership shall enter into a written agreement of merger or consolidation. The agreement shall state:

1. the terms and conditions of the merger or consolidation;
2. the mode of carrying the consolidation into effect;
3. the manner of converting the shares of stock of each such corporation and the partnership interests of each limited partnership into shares, partnership interests or other securities of the entity surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, and if any shares of any such corporation or any partnership interests of any such limited partnership are not to be converted solely into shares, partnership interests or other securities of the entity surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, the cash, property, rights or securities of any other rights or securities of any other corporation or entity which the holders of such shares or partnership interests are to receive in exchange for, or upon conversion of, such shares or partnership interests and the surrender of any certificates evidencing them, which cash, property, rights or securities of any other corporation or entity may be in addition to or in lieu of shares, partnership interests or other securities of the entity surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation; and
4. such other details or provisions as are deemed desirable, including but not limited to, a provision for the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares or interests of the surviving or resulting corporation or limited partnership. Any of the terms of the agreement of merger or consolidation may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such agreement, provided that the manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the agreement is clearly and expressly set forth in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

C. The agreement required by subsection (B) of this section shall be adopted, approved, certified, executed and acknowledged by each of the corporation in the same manner as is provided in 18 CNCA § 81 and, in the case of the limited partnerships, in accordance with their limited partnership agreements and in accordance with the laws of Cherokee Nation under which they are formed, as the case may be. The agreement shall be filed and recorded and shall become effective for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation when and as provided in 18 CNCA § 81 with respect to the merger or consolidation of corporations of Cherokee Nation. In lieu of filing and recording the agreement of merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or limited partnership may file a certificate of merger or consolidation, executed in accordance with 18 CNCA § 7 if the surviving or resulting entity is a corporation, or by a general partner, if the surviving or resulting entity is a limited partnership, which states:

1. the name and state of domicile of each of the constituent entities;
2. that an agreement of merger or consolidation has been approved, adopted, certified, executed and acknowledged by each of the constituent entities in accordance with this subsection;
3. the name of the surviving or resulting corporation or limited partnership;
4. in the case of a merger in which a corporation is the surviving entity, such amendments or changes in the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation as are desired to be effected by the merger, or, if no such amendments or changes are desired, a statement that the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be its certificate of incorporation;

5. in the case of a consolidation in which a corporation is the resulting entity, that the certificate of incorporation of the resulting corporation shall be as set forth in an attachment to the certificate;

6. that the executed agreement of consolidation or merger is on file at the principal place of business of the surviving corporation or limited partnership and the address thereof,

7. that a copy of the agreement of consolidation or merger shall be furnished by the surviving or resulting entity, on request and without cost, to any shareholder of any constituent corporation or any partner of any constituent limited partnership; and

8. the agreement, if any, required by subsection (D) of this section.

D. If the entity surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation is to be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia or any state of the United States, other than Cherokee Nation, the entity shall agree that it may be served with process in this Nation in any proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of any constituent corporation or limited partnership of Cherokee Nation, as well as for enforcement of any obligation of the surviving or resulting corporation or limited partnership arising from the merger or consolidation, including any suit or other proceeding to enforce the right of any shareholders as determined in appraisal proceedings pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 91, and shall irrevocably appoint the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its agent to accept service of process in any such suit or other proceedings and shall specify the address to which a copy of such process shall be mailed by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. In the event of service upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to this subsection, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall forthwith notify the surviving or resulting corporation or limited partnership thereof by a letter, sent by certified mail with return receipt requested, directed to such surviving or resulting corporation or limited partnership at its address so specified, unless such surviving or resulting corporation or limited partnership shall have designated in writing to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a different address for such purpose, in which case it shall be mailed to the last address so designated. Such letter shall enclose a copy of the process and any other papers served on the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to this subsection. It shall be the duty of the plaintiff in the event of such service to serve process and any other papers in duplicate, to notify the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative that service is being effected pursuant to this subsection and to pay the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative the fee provided for in 18 CNCA § 142(A)(7), which fee shall be taxed as part of the costs in the proceeding, if the plaintiff shall prevail therein. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall maintain an alphabetical record of any such service, setting forth the name of the plaintiff and the defendant, the title, docket number and nature of the proceeding in which process has been served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the fact that service has been served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the fact that service has been effected pursuant to this subsection, the return date thereof, and the date service was made. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall not be required to retain such information longer than five (5) years from the date of receipt of the service of process by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

E. 18 CNCA § 81(D), (E) and (F) and 18 CNCA §§ 88 through 90 and 127, insofar as they are applicable, shall apply to mergers or consolidations between corporations and limited partnerships.

§ 90.3. Business combinations with interested shareholders

A. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, a corporation shall not engage in any business combination with any interested shareholder for a period of three (3) years following the date that such person became an interested shareholder, unless:

1. prior to such date, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the person becoming an interested shareholder;

2. upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the person becoming an interested shareholder, the interested shareholder owned of record or beneficially capital stock having at least eighty-five percent (85%) of all voting power of the corporation at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining such voting power the votes attributable to those shares owned of record or beneficially by:

a. persons who are directors and also officers, and

b. employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or

3. on or subsequent to such date, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of shareholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of all voting power which is not attributable to shares owned of record or beneficially by the interested shareholder.

B. The restrictions contained in this section shall not apply if:

1. the corporation's original certificate of incorporation contains a provision expressly electing not to be governed by this section;

2. the corporation, by action of its board of directors, adopts an amendment to its bylaws within ninety (90) days of the effective date of this section, expressly electing not to be governed by this section, which amendment shall not be further amended by the board of directors;

3. the corporation, by action of its shareholders, adopts an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or bylaws expressly electing not to be governed by this section, provided that, in addition to any other vote required by law, such amendment to the certificate of incorporation or bylaws must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of all voting power of a corporation. An amendment adopted pursuant to this paragraph shall not be effective until twelve (12) months after the adoption of such amendment and shall not apply to any business combination between such corporation and any person who became an interested shareholder of such corporation on or prior to such adoption. A bylaw amendment adopted pursuant to this paragraph shall not be further amended by the board of directors;

4. the corporation does not have a class of voting stock that is:

a. listed on a national securities exchange,

b. authorized for quotation on an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association, or

c. held of record by one thousand or more shareholders, unless any of the foregoing results from action taken, directly or indirectly, by an interested shareholder or from a transaction in which a person becomes an interested shareholder;

5. a person becomes an interested shareholder inadvertently and:

a. as soon as practicable divests sufficient shares so that the person ceases to be an interested shareholder, and

b. would not, at any time within the three-year period immediately prior to a business combination between the corporation and such person, have been an interested shareholder but for the inadvertent acquisition;

6. a. the business combination is proposed prior to the consummation or abandonment of, and subsequent to the earlier of the public announcement or the notice required hereunder of, a proposed transaction which:

i. constitutes one of the transactions described in subparagraph b of this paragraph,

ii. is with or by a person who either was not an interested shareholder during the previous three (3) years or who became an interested shareholder with the approval of the corporation's board of directors, and

iii. is approved or not opposed by a majority of the members of the board of directors then in office, but not less than one, who were directors prior to any person becoming an interested shareholder during the previous three (3) years or were recommended for election or elected to succeed such directors by a majority of such directors;

b. the proposed transactions referred to in subparagraph a of this paragraph are limited to:

i. a share acquisition pursuant to 18 CNCA § 90.1, or a merger or consolidation of the corporation, except for a merger in respect of which, pursuant to 18 CNCA § 81(F), no vote of the shareholders of the corporation is required,

ii. a sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition, in one transaction or a series of transactions, whether as part of a dissolution or otherwise, of assets of the corporation or of any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation, other than to any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary or to the corporation, having an aggregate market value equal to fifty percent (50%) or more of either the aggregate market value of all of the assets of the corporation determined on a consolidated basis or the aggregate market value of all the outstanding stock of the corporation, or

iii. a proposed tender or exchange offer for outstanding stock of the corporation which represents fifty percent (50%) or more of all voting power of the corporation. The corporation shall give not less than twenty (20) days' notice to all interested shareholders prior to the consummation of any of the transactions described in divisions (i) or (ii) of this subparagraph.

C. Notwithstanding paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (B) of this section, a corporation may elect by a provision of its original certificate of incorporation or any amendment thereto to be governed by this section, provided that any such amendment to the certificate of incorporation shall not apply to restrict a business combination between the corporation and an interested shareholder of the corporation if the interested shareholder became such prior to the effective date of the amendment.

D. As used in this section only:

1. "Affiliate" means a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, another person;

2. "All voting power" means the aggregate number of votes which the holders of all classes of capital stock of the corporation would be entitled to cast in an election of directors generally;

3. "Associate", when used to indicate a relationship with any person, means:

a. any corporation or organization of which such person is a director, officer or partner or is, of record or beneficially, the owner of outstanding stock of the corporation having twenty percent (20%) or more of all voting power of the corporation,

b. any trust or other estate in which such person has at least a twenty percent (20%) beneficial interest or as to which such person serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity, and

c. any relative or spouse of such person, or any relative of such spouse, who has the same residence as such person;

4. "Beneficial ownership" shall have the meaning ascribed to such term by Rule 13d-3 under the

Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. § 78a et seq., as amended, except that a person shall be deemed to be the owner or beneficial owner of securities of which he has the right to acquire ownership either immediately or only after the passage of any time or the giving of notice or both; provided, however, that a person shall not be deemed the owner or beneficial owner of any stock if:

a. the agreement, arrangement or understanding to vote such stock arises solely from a revocable proxy or consent given in response to a proxy or consent solicitation made to more than ten (10) persons, or

b. the stock is tendered pursuant to a tender or exchange offer made by such person or any of such person's affiliates or associates, until such tendered stock is accepted for purchase or exchange;

5. "Business combination", when used in reference to any corporation and any interested shareholder of such corporation, means:

a. any merger or consolidation of the corporation or any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation with:

i. the interested shareholder, or

ii. any other corporation if the merger or consolidation is caused by the interested shareholder and as a result of such merger or consolidation subsection (A) of this section is not applicable to the surviving corporation,

b. any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition, in one transaction or a series of transactions, except proportionately as a shareholder of such corporation, to or with the interested shareholder, whether as part of a dissolution or otherwise, of assets of the corporation or of any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation which assets have an aggregate market value equal to ten percent (10%) or more of either the aggregate market value of all the assets of the corporation determined on a consolidated basis or the aggregate market value of all the outstanding stock of the corporation,

c. any transaction which results in the issuance or transfer by the corporation or by any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation of any stock of the corporation or of such subsidiary to the interested shareholder, except:

i. pursuant to the exercise, exchange or conversion of securities exercisable for, exchangeable for or convertible into stock of such corporation or any such subsidiary which securities were outstanding prior to the time that the interested shareholder became such,

ii. pursuant to a dividend or distribution paid or made, or the exercise, exchange or conversion of securities exercisable for, exchangeable for or convertible into stock of such corporation or any such subsidiary which security is distributed, pro rata to all holders of a class or series of stock of such corporation subsequent to the time the interested shareholder became such, or

iii. pursuant to an exchange offer by the corporation to purchase stock made on the same terms to all holders of said stock; provided, however, that in no case under divisions ii and iii of this subparagraph shall there be an increase in the interested shareholder's proportionate share of the stock of any class or series of the corporation or of all voting power of the corporation,

d. any transaction involving the corporation or any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the stock of any class or series, or securities convertible into the stock of any class or series, or all voting power, of the corporation or of any such subsidiary which is owned by the interested shareholder, except as a result of immaterial changes due to fractional share adjustments or as a result of any purchase or redemption of any shares of stock not caused, directly or indirectly, by the interested shareholder,

e. any receipt by the interested shareholder of the benefit, directly or indirectly, except proportionately as a shareholder of such corporation, of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges, or other financial benefits, other than those expressly permitted in subparagraphs a through d of this paragraph, provided by or through the corporation or any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary, or

f. any share acquisition by the interested shareholder from the corporation or any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation pursuant to 18 CNCA § 90.1;

6. "Control", including the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with", means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting stock, by contract, or otherwise. A person who owns, of record or beneficially, outstanding stock of the corporation having twenty percent (20%) or more of all voting power of the corporation shall be presumed to have control of such corporation, in the absence of proof by a preponderance of the evidence to the contrary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a presumption of control shall not apply where such person holds stock, in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this section, as an agent, bank, broker, nominee, custodian or trustee for one or more owners who do not individually or as a group have control of such corporation;

7. "Group" means two or more persons who agree to act together for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of securities of the corporation;

8.a. "Interested shareholder" means:

i. any person, other than the corporation and any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation, that:

(a) owns of record or beneficially outstanding stock of the corporation having fifteen percent (15%) or more of all voting power of the corporation, or

(b) is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and owned of record or beneficially outstanding stock of the corporation having fifteen percent (15%) or more of all voting power of the corporation at any time within the three- (3) year period immediately prior to the date on which it is sought to be determined whether such person is an interested shareholder, and

ii. the affiliates and associates of such person;

b. the term "interested shareholder" shall not include:

i. any person who:

(a) owned of record or beneficially shares in excess of the fifteen percent (15%) limitation set forth herein as of, or acquired such shares pursuant to a tender offer commenced prior to, September 1, 1991, or pursuant to an exchange offer announced prior to September 1, 1991, and commenced within ninety (90) days thereafter and continued to own shares in excess of such fifteen percent (15%) limitation or would have but for action by the corporation, or

(b) acquired such shares from a person described in subdivision (a) of this division by gift, inheritance or in a transaction in which no consideration was exchanged, or

ii. any person whose ownership of shares in excess of the fifteen percent (15%) limitation set forth herein is the result of action taken solely by the corporation provided that such person shall be an interested shareholder if thereafter he acquires additional shares of voting stock of the corporation, except as a result of further corporate action not caused, directly or indirectly, by such person;

c. for the purpose of determining whether a person is an interested shareholder, the stock of the corporation deemed to be outstanding shall include stock owned of record or beneficially by such person, but shall not include any other unissued stock of such corporation which may be issuable pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon exercise of conversion rights, warrants or options, or otherwise;

9. "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, unincorporated association, any other entity, any group and any member of a group.

E. No provisions of a certificate of incorporation or bylaw shall require, for any vote of shareholders required by this section, a greater vote of shareholders than that specified in this section.

§ 91. Appraisal rights

A. Any shareholder of a corporation of Cherokee Nation who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to the provisions of subsection (D) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with the provisions of subsection D of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 73 shall be entitled to an appraisal by the district court of the fair value of his shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections B and C of this section. As used in this section, the word "shareholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation. The provisions of this subsection shall be effective only with respect to mergers or consolidations consummated pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation entered into after the effective date of this title.

B. 1. Except as otherwise provided for in this subsection, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation, or of the acquired corporation in a share acquisition, to be effected pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 81, 18 CNCA § 82, 18 CNCA § 86, 18 CNCA § 87, 18 CNCA § 90.2, or 18 CNCA § 91.1.

2. a. No appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock which, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of shareholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either:

- i. listed on a national securities exchange; or
- ii. held of record by more than two thousand shareholders.

b. In addition, no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the shareholders of the surviving corporation as provided for in 18 CNCA § 81(F).

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection, appraisal rights provided for in this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 81, 18 CNCA § 82, 18 CNCA § 86 or 18 CNCA § 87 to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation; or
- b. shares of stock of any other corporation which at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than two thousand (2,000) shareholders; or
- c. cash in lieu of fractional shares of the corporations described in subparagraphs a and b of this paragraph; or
- d. any combination of the shares of stock and cash in lieu of the fractional shares described in subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this paragraph.

4. In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Cherokee Nation corporation party to a merger effected pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 83 is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Cherokee Nation corporation.

C. Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (D) and (E) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

D. Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

1. If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of shareholders, the corporation, not less than twenty (20) days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its shareholders entitled to such appraisal rights that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each shareholder electing to demand the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of the shares of the shareholder. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the shareholder and that the shareholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A shareholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within ten (10) days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each shareholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with the provisions of this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation as of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

2. If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 73 or 18 CNCA § 83, the surviving or resulting corporation, either before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or within ten (10) days thereafter, shall notify each of the shareholders entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. The notice shall be sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the shareholder at the address of the shareholder as it appears on the records of the corporation. Any shareholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within twenty (20) days after the date of mailing of the notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the shareholder and that the shareholder intends to demand the appraisal of the shares of the shareholder.

E. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any shareholder who has complied with the provisions of subsections (A) and (D) of this section and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in District Court demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such shareholders. Provided, however, at any time within sixty (60) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any shareholder shall have the right to withdraw the demand of the shareholder for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any shareholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (A) and (D) of this section, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the shareholder within ten (10) days after the shareholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within ten (10) days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal pursuant to the provisions of subsection (D) of this section, whichever is later.

F. Upon the filing of any such petition by a shareholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which, within twenty (20) days after such service, shall file in the office of the Court Clerk of the District Court in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all shareholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Court Clerk, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the shareholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by one or more publications at least one (1) week before the day of the hearing, in the newspaper Cherokee Phoenix or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

G. At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the shareholders who have complied with the provisions of this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the shareholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Court Clerk for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any shareholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such shareholder.

H. After determining the shareholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any shareholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the shareholder entitled to an appraisal. Any shareholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to the provisions of subsection (F) of this section and who has submitted the certificates of stock of the shareholder to the Court Clerk, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that the shareholder is not entitled to appraisal rights pursuant to the provisions of this section.

I. The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the shareholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such shareholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock immediately, and in the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the District Court may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of Cherokee Nation or of any state.

J. The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a shareholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any shareholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all of the shares entitled to an appraisal.

K. From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no shareholder who has demanded the appraisal rights of the shareholder as provided for in subsection (D) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock, except dividends or other distributions payable to shareholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation; provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided for in subsection (E) of this section, or if such shareholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of the shareholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within sixty (60) days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided for in subsection (E) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such shareholder to an appraisal shall cease. Provided, however, no appraisal proceeding in the District Court shall be dismissed as to any shareholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

L. The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation into which the shares of such objecting shareholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

ARTICLE 11

SALE OF ASSETS, DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

§ 92. Sale, lease or exchange of assets—Consideration—Procedure

A. Every corporation, at any meeting of its board of directors or governing body, may sell, lease, or exchange all or substantially all of its property and assets, including its goodwill and its corporate franchises, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or other property, including shares of stock in, and/or other securities of, any other corporation or corporations, as its board of directors or governing body deems expedient and for the bent interests of the corporation, when and as authorized by a resolution adopted by the holders of a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon or, if the corporation is a nonstock corporation, by a majority of the members having the right to vote for the election of the members of the governing body, at a meeting duly called upon at least twenty (20) days' notice. The notice of the meeting shall state that such a resolution will be considered.

B. Notwithstanding authorization or consent to a proposed sale, lease or exchange of a corporation's property and assets by the shareholders or members, the board of directors or governing body may abandon such proposed sale, lease or exchange without further action by the shareholders or members, subject to the rights, if any, of third parties under any contract relating thereto.

§ 93. Mortgage or pledge of assets

The authorization or consent of shareholders to the mortgage or pledge of a corporation's property and assets shall not be necessary, except to the extent that the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides.

§ 94. Dissolution of joint venture corporation having two shareholders

A. If the shareholders of a corporation of Cherokee Nation, having only two shareholders each of which owns fifty percent (50%) of the stock therein, shall be engaged in the prosecution of a joint venture and if such shareholders shall be unable to agree upon the desirability of discontinuing such joint venture and disposing of the assets used in such venture, either shareholder may file with the District Court a petition stating that it desires to discontinue such joint venture and to dispose of the assets used in such venture in accordance with a plan to be agreed upon by both shareholders or that, if no such plan shall be agreed upon by both shareholders, the corporation be dissolved. Such petition shall have attached thereto a copy of the proposed plan of discontinuance and distribution and a certificate stating that copies of such petition and plan have been transmitted in writing to the other shareholder and to the directors and officers of such corporation. The petition and certificate shall be executed and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7.

B. Unless both shareholders file with the District Court:

1. within three (3) months of the date of the filing of such petition, a certificate similarly executed and acknowledged stating that they have agreed on such plan, or a modification thereof; and

2. within one (1) year from the date of the filing of such petition, a certificate similarly executed and acknowledged stating that the distribution provided by such plan has been completed, the District Court may dissolve such corporation and may by appointment of one or more trustees or receivers with all the powers and title of a trustee or receiver appointed pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 100, administer and wind up its affairs. Either or both of the periods provided for in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection may be extended by agreement of the shareholders, evidenced by a certificate similarly executed, acknowledged and filed with the District Court prior to the expiration of such period.

§ 95. Dissolution before the issuance of shares or beginning business—Procedure

If a corporation has not issued shares or has not commenced the business for which the corporation was organized, a majority of the incorporators, or, if directors were named in the certificate of incorporation or have been elected, a majority of the directors, may surrender all of the corporation's rights and franchises by filing in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a certificate, executed and acknowledged by a majority of the incorporators or directors, stating that no shares of stock have been issued or that the business of activity for which the corporation was organized has not begun; that no part of the capital of the corporation has been paid, or, if some capital has been paid, that the amount actually paid in for the corporation's shares, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, has been returned to those entitled thereto; that if the corporation has begun business but it has not issued shares, all debts of the corporation have been paid; that if the corporation has not begun business but has issued stock certificates all issued stock certificates, if any, have been surrendered and canceled; and that all rights and franchises of the corporation are surrendered. Upon such certificate becoming effective in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, the corporation shall be dissolved.

§ 96. Dissolution—Procedure

A. If it should be deemed advisable in the judgment of the board of directors of any corporation that it should be dissolved, the board, after the adoption of a resolution to that effect by a majority of the whole board at any meeting called for that purpose, shall cause notice to be mailed to each shareholder entitled to vote thereon of the adoption of the resolution and of a meeting of shareholders to take action upon the resolution.

B. At the meeting a vote shall be taken upon the proposed dissolution. If a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon shall vote for the proposed dissolution, a certificate of dissolution shall be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to subsection (D) of this section.

C. Dissolution of a corporation may also be authorized without action of the directors if all the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall consent in writing and a certificate of dissolution shall be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to subsection (D) of this section.

D. If dissolution is authorized in accordance with this section, a certificate of dissolution shall be executed, acknowledged and filed, and shall become effective, in accordance with 18 CNCA § 7. Such certificate of dissolution shall set forth:

1. the name of the corporation;
2. the date dissolution was authorized;
3. that the dissolution has been authorized by the board of directors and shareholders of the corporation, in accordance with subsections (A) and (B) of this section, or that the dissolution has been authorized by all of the shareholders of the corporation entitled to vote on a dissolution, in accordance with subsection (C) of this section; and
4. the names and addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

E. The resolution authorizing a proposed dissolution may provide that notwithstanding authorization or consent to the proposed dissolution by the shareholders, or the members of a nonstock corporation pursuant to 18 O.S. § 1097, the board of directors or governing body may abandon such proposed dissolution without further action by the shareholders or members.

F. Upon a certificate of dissolution becoming effective in accordance with 18 CNCA § 7, the corporation shall be dissolved.

§ 98. Payment of franchise taxes before dissolution

No corporation shall be dissolved pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act until all franchise taxes due to or assessable by Cherokee Nation have been paid by the corporation.

§ 99. Continuation of corporation after dissolution for purposes of suit and winding up affairs

All corporations, whether they expire by their own limitation or are otherwise dissolved, nevertheless shall be continued, for the term of three (3) years from such expiration or dissolution or for such longer period as the District Court shall in its discretion direct, bodies corporate for the purpose of prosecuting and defending suits, whether civil, criminal or any other proceeding provided for by Cherokee Nation Code Annotated, by or against them, and of enabling them gradually to settle and close their business, to dispose of and convey their property, to discharge their liabilities, and to distribute to their shareholders any remaining assets, but not for the purpose of continuing the business for which the corporation was organized. With respect to any action, suit, or proceeding begun by or against the corporation either prior to or within three (3) years after the date of its expiration or dissolution, the action shall not abate by reason of the expiration or dissolution of the corporation. The corporation, solely for the purpose of such action, suit or proceeding, shall be continued as a body corporate beyond the three-year period and until any judgments, orders or decrees therein shall be fully executed, without the necessity for any special direction to that effect by the District Court.

§ 100. Trustees or receivers for dissolved corporations—Appointment—Powers—Duties

When any corporation organized in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall be dissolved in any manner whatever, the District Court, on application of any creditor, shareholder or director of the corporation, or any other person who shows good cause therefor, at any time, may either appoint one or more of the directors of the corporation to be trustees, or appoint one or more persons to be receivers, of and for the corporation, to take charge of the corporation's property, and to collect the debts and property due and belonging to the corporation, with power to prosecute and defend, in the name of the corporation, or otherwise, all such suits as may be necessary or proper for the purposes aforesaid, and to appoint an agent or agents under them, and to do all other acts which might be done by the corporation, if in being, that may be necessary for the final settlement of the unfinished business of the corporation. The powers of the trustees or receivers may be continued as long as the District Court shall think necessary for the purposes provided for in this section.

§ 100.1. Notice to claimants—Filing of claims

A. 1. After a corporation has been dissolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the corporation or any successor entity may give notice of the dissolution requesting all persons having a claim against the corporation to present their claims against the corporation in accordance with such notice. Such notice shall state:

- a. that all claims must be presented in writing and must contain sufficient information reasonably to inform the corporation or successor entity of the identity of the claimant and the substance of the claim;
- b. the mailing address to which a claim must be sent;
- c. the date by which a claim must be received by the corporation or successor entity, which date shall be no earlier than sixty (60) days from the date thereof; and
- d. that the corporation or a successor entity may make distributions to other claimants and the corporation's shareholders or persons interested as having been such without further notice to the claimant.

2. Such notice shall also be published at least once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the office of the corporation's last registered agent in Cherokee Nation is located and in the corporation's principal place of business and, in the case of a corporation having Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000.00) or more in total assets at the time of its dissolution, at least once in the newspaper Cherokee Phoenix. On or before the date of the first publication of such notice, the corporation or successor entity shall mail a copy of such notice by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to each known claimant of the corporation.

3. A corporation or successor entity may reject, in whole or in part, any claim made by a claimant pursuant to this subsection by mailing notice of such rejection by certified mail return receipt requested to the claimant within ninety (90) days after receipt of such claim and, in all events, at least one hundred fifty (150) days before the expiration of the period described in 18 CNCA § 99. A notice sent by a corporation or successor entity pursuant to this subsection shall be accompanied by a copy of 18 CNCA §§ 99 through 100.3.

B. 1. A corporation or successor entity electing to follow the procedures described in subsection (A) of this section shall also give notice of the dissolution of the corporation to persons with claims contingent upon the occurrence or nonoccurrence of future events or otherwise conditional or unmatured, and request that such persons present such claims in accordance with the terms of such notice. Such notice shall be in substantially the form, and sent and published in the same manner, as described in paragraph (1) of subsection (A) of this section.

2. The corporation or successor entity shall offer any claimant whose claim is contingent, conditional or unmatured, such security as the corporation or successor entity determines is sufficient to provide compensation to the claimant if the claim matures. The corporation or successor entity shall mail such offer to the claimant by certified mail, return receipt requested, within ninety (90) days of receipt of such claim and, in all events, at least one hundred fifty (150) days before the expiration of the period described in 18 CNCA § 99. If the claimant offered such security does not deliver in writing to the corporation or successor entity a notice rejecting the offer within one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt of such offer for security, the claimant shall be deemed to have accepted such security as the sole source from which to satisfy his claim against the corporation.

C. 1. A corporation or successor entity which has given notice in accordance with subsections (A) and (B) of this section shall petition the District Court to determine the amount and form of security that will be sufficient to provide compensation to any claimant who has rejected the offer for security made pursuant to paragraph (2) of subsection (B) of this section.

2. A corporation or successor entity which has given notice in accordance with subsection (A) of this section shall petition the district court to determine the amount and form of security which will be sufficient to provide compensation to claimants whose claims are known to the corporation or successor entity but whose identities are unknown. The District Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent all claimants whose identities are unknown in any proceeding brought under this subsection. The reasonable fees and expenses of such guardian, including all reasonable expert witness fees, shall be paid by the petitioner in such proceeding.

D. The giving of any notice or making of any offer pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not revive any claim then barred or constitute acknowledgment by the corporation or successor entity that any person to whom such notice is sent is a proper claimant and shall not operate as a waiver of any defense or counterclaim in respect of any claim asserted by any person to whom such notice is sent.

E. As used in this section, the term "successor entity" shall include any trust, receivership or other legal entity governed by the laws of Cherokee Nation to which the remaining assets and liabilities of a dissolved corporation are transferred and which exists solely for the purposes of prosecuting and defending suits, by or against the dissolved corporation, enabling the dissolved corporation to settle and close the business of the dissolved corporation, to dispose of and convey the property of the dissolved corporation, to discharge the liabilities of the dissolved corporation, and to distribute to the dissolved corporation's shareholders any remaining assets, but not for the purpose of continuing the business for which the dissolved corporation was organized.

§ 100.2. Payment and distribution to claimants and shareholders

A. A dissolved corporation or successor entity which has followed the procedures described in 18 CNCA § 100.1 shall:

1. pay the claims made and not rejected in accordance with 18 CNCA § 100.1(A);
2. post the security offered and not rejected pursuant to 18 CNCA § 100.1(B)(2);
3. post any security ordered by the District Court in any proceeding under 18 CNCA § 100.1(C); and
4. pay or make provision for all other obligations of the corporation or such successor entity.

Such claims or obligations shall be paid in full and any such provision for payment shall be made in full if there are sufficient funds. If there are insufficient funds, such claims and obligations shall be paid or provided for according to their priority, and, among claims of equal priority, ratably to the extent of funds legally available therefor. Any remaining funds shall be distributed to the shareholders of the dissolved corporation; provided, however, that such distribution shall not be made before the expiration of one hundred fifty (150) days from the date of the last notice of rejections given pursuant to 18 CNCA § 100.1(A)(3). In the absence of actual fraud, the judgment of the directors of the dissolved corporation or the governing persons of such successor entity as to the provision made for the payment of all obligations under paragraph (4) of this subsection shall be conclusive.

B. A dissolved corporation or successor entity which has not followed the procedures described in 18 CNCA § 100.1 shall pay or make reasonable provision to pay all claims and obligations, including all contingent, conditional or unmatured claims known to the corporation or such successor entity and all claims which are known to the dissolved corporation or such successor entity but for which the identity of the claimant is unknown. Such claims shall be paid in full and any such provision for payment made shall be made in full if there are sufficient funds. If there are insufficient funds, such claims and obligations shall be paid or provided for according to their priority and, among claims of equal priority, ratably to the extent of funds legally available therefore. Any remaining funds shall be distributed to the shareholders of the dissolved corporation.

C. Directors of a dissolved corporation or governing persons of a successor entity which has complied with subsection (A) or (B) of this section shall not be personally liable to the claimants of the dissolved corporation.

D. As used in this section, the term "successor entity" has the meaning set forth in 18 CNCA § 100.1(E).

§ 100.3. Liability of shareholders of dissolved corporations

A. A shareholder of a dissolved corporation the assets of which were distributed pursuant to 18 CNCA § 100.2(A) or (B) shall not be liable for any claim against the corporation in an amount in excess of such shareholder's pro rata share of the claim or the amount so distributed to him, whichever is less.

B. A shareholder of a dissolved corporation the assets of which were distributed pursuant to 18 CNCA § 100.2(A) shall not be liable for any claim against the corporation on which an action, suit or proceeding is not begun prior to the expiration of the period described in 18 CNCA § 99.

C. The aggregate liability of any shareholder of a dissolved corporation for claims against the dissolved corporation shall not exceed the amount distributed to him in dissolution.

§ 101. Jurisdiction of Court

The District Court shall have jurisdiction of the application prescribed in 18 CNCA § 100 and of all questions arising in the proceedings thereon, and may make such orders and decrees and issue injunctions therein as justice and equity shall require.

§ 104. Revocation or forfeiture of charter—Proceedings

A. The District Court shall have jurisdiction to revoke or forfeit the charter of any corporation for abuse, misuse or nonuse of its corporate powers, privileges or franchises. The Attorney General of Cherokee Nation, upon his own motion or upon the relation of a proper party, shall proceed for this purpose by complaint in Cherokee Nation District Court.

B. The District Court shall have power, by appointment of receivers or otherwise, to administer and wind up the affairs of any corporation whose charter shall be revoked or forfeited by any Court pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act or otherwise, and to make such orders and decrees with respect thereto as shall be just and equitable respecting its affairs and assets and the rights of its shareholders and creditors.

C. No proceeding shall be instituted pursuant to the provisions of this section for nonuse of any corporation's powers, privileges or franchises during the first two (2) years after its incorporation.

§ 105. Dissolution or forfeiture of charter by decree of Court—Filing Whenever any corporation is dissolved or its charter forfeited by decree or judgment of the District Court, the decree or judgment shall be immediately filed by the Clerk in the District Court, in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, and a note thereof shall be made by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative on the corporation's charter or certificate of incorporation and on the index thereof.

ARTICLE 12

INSOLVENCY; RECEIVERS AND TRUSTEES

§ 106. Receivers for insolvent corporations—Appointment and powers

Whenever a corporation shall be insolvent, the District Court of Cherokee Nation may at any time upon the application of a shareholder or shareholders, severally or jointly, who have been registered owners for a period of not less than six (6) months, of not less than ten percent (10%) of the entire outstanding stock of the corporation or a creditor whose claim has been reduced to judgment and execution thereon has been issued, appoint one or more persons to be receivers of and for the corporation, to take charge of its assets, estate, effects, business and affairs, and to collect the outstanding debts, claims, and property due and belonging to the corporation, with power to prosecute and defend, in the name of the corporation or otherwise, all claims or suits, to appoint an agent or agents under them, and to do all other acts which might be done by the corporation and which may be necessary or proper. The powers of the receivers shall be such and shall continue so long as the Court shall deem necessary.

§ 107. Title to property—Filing order of appointment—Exception

A. Trustees of or receivers for any corporation, appointed by the District Court, and their respective survivors and successors, upon their appointment and qualification or upon the death, resignation or discharge of any co-trustee or co-receiver, shall be vested by operation of law and without any act or deed, with the title of the corporation to all of its property, real, personal, or mixed of whatsoever nature, kind, class or description, and wheresoever situated, except real estate situated outside Cherokee Nation.

B. Trustees or receivers appointed by the District Court, within twenty (20) days from the date of their qualification, shall file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court a certified copy of the order of their appointment and evidence of their qualification.

C. This section shall not apply to receivers appointed pendente lite.

§ 108. Notices to shareholders and creditors

All notices required to be given to shareholders and creditors in any action in which a receiver or trustee for a corporation was appointed shall be given by the District Court, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

§ 109. Receivers or trustees—Inventory—List of debts and reports

Trustees or receivers, as soon as convenient, shall file in the District Court a full and complete itemized inventory of all the assets of the corporation which shall show their nature and probable value, and an account of all debts due from and to it, as nearly as the same can be ascertained. Trustees or receivers shall make a report to the District Court whenever and as often as the Court shall direct.

§ 110. Creditors' proof of claims—When barred—Notice

All creditors shall make proof under oath of their respective claims against the corporation, and cause the same to be filed in the District Court within the time fixed by the order of the District Court. All creditors and claimants failing to do so, within the time limited by the provisions of this section, or the time prescribed by the order of the District Court, by direction of the District Court, may be barred from participating in the distribution of the assets of the corporation. The District Court may also prescribe what notice, by publication or otherwise, shall be given to the creditors of the time fixed for the filing and making proof of claims.

§ 111. Adjudication of claims—Appeal

A. The District Court immediately upon the expiration of the time fixed for the filing of claims, in compliance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 110, shall notify the trustee or receiver of the filing of the claims, and the trustee or receiver, within thirty (30) days after receiving the notice, shall inspect the claims, and if the trustee or receiver or any creditor shall not be satisfied with the validity or correctness of the same, or any of them, the trustee or receiver shall immediately notify the creditors whose claims are disputed of his decision. The trustee or receiver shall require all creditors whose claims are disputed to submit themselves to such examination in relation to their claims as the trustee or receiver shall direct, and the creditors shall produce such books and papers relating to their claims as shall be required. The trustee or receiver shall have power to examine, under oath or affirmation, all witnesses produced before him touching the claims, and shall pass upon and allow or disallow the claims, or any part thereof, and notify the claimants of his determination.

B. Every creditor or claimant who shall have received notice from the receiver or trustee that his claim has been disallowed in whole or in part may appeal to the District Court within thirty (30) days thereafter. The District Court, after hearing, shall determine the rights of the parties.

§ 112. Sale of perishable or deteriorating property

Whenever the property of a corporation is at the time of the appointment of a receiver or trustee encumbered with liens of any character, and the validity, extent or legality of any lien is disputed or brought in question, and the property of the corporation is of a character which will deteriorate in value pending the litigation respecting the lien, the District Court may order the receiver or trustee to sell the property of the corporation, clear of all encumbrances, at public or private sale, for the best price that can be obtained therefor, and pay the net proceeds arising from the sale thereof after deducting the costs of the sale into the District Court, there to remain subject to the order of the District Court, and to be disposed of as the District Court shall direct.

§ 113. Compensation, costs and expenses of receiver or trustee

The District Court, before making distribution of the assets of a corporation among the creditors or shareholders thereof, shall allow a reasonable compensation to the receiver or trustee for his services, and the costs and expenses incurred in and about the execution of his trust, and the costs of the proceedings in the District Court, to be first paid out of the assets.

§ 114. Substitution of trustee or receiver as party—Abatement of actions

A trustee or receiver, upon application by him in the District Court, shall be substituted as party plaintiff in the place of the corporation in any suit or proceeding which was so pending at the time of his appointment. No action against a trustee or receiver of a corporation shall state by reason of his death, but, upon suggestion of the facts of the record, shall be continued against his successor or against the corporation in case no new trustee or receiver is appointed.

§ 115. Liens for wages or products when corporation is insolvent

A. Whenever any corporation of Cherokee Nation, or any foreign corporation doing business in Cherokee Nation, shall become insolvent, the employees performing labor or services of whatever character in the regular employ of the corporation shall have a lien upon the personal property of such corporation for the amount of the wages or payments due to them, not exceeding four months wages or payments which shall have accrued prior to the adjudication of the insolvency of such corporation, which lien shall be paid prior to any other debts, charges or claims against said corporation, except taxes or fees due the United States government or Cherokee Nation. The word "employee" shall not be construed to include any of the officers of the corporation.

B. The lien provided for in this section shall be enforced in the manner provided for by law for the enforcement of other liens for labor.

§ 116. Discontinuance of liquidation

The liquidation of the assets and business of an insolvent corporation may be discontinued at any time during the liquidation proceedings when it is established that cause for liquidation no longer exists. In such event the District Court in its discretion, and subject to such condition as it may deem appropriate, may dismiss the proceedings and direct the receiver or trustee to redeliver to the corporation all of its remaining property and assets.

§ 117. Compromise or arrangement between corporation and creditors or shareholders

A. Whenever the provision provided for in 18 CNCA § 6(B)(2) is included in the original certificate of incorporation of any corporation, all persons who become creditors or shareholders thereof shall be deemed to have become such creditors or shareholders subject in all respects to that provision and the same shall be absolutely binding upon them. Whenever that provision is inserted in the certificate of incorporation of any such corporation by an amendment of its certificate all persons who become creditors or shareholders of such corporation after such amendment shall be deemed to have become such creditors or shareholders subject in all respects to that provision and the same shall be absolutely binding upon them.

B. The District Court may administer and enforce any compromise or arrangement made pursuant to the provision provided for in 18 CNCA § 6(B)(2) and may restrain, pendente lite, all actions and proceedings against any corporation with respect to which the District Court shall have begun the administration and enforcement of that provision and may appoint a temporary receiver for such corporation and may grant the receiver such powers as it deems proper, and may make and enforce such rules as it deems necessary for the exercise of such jurisdiction.

§ 118. Bankruptcy proceedings under a statute of the United States—Effectuation

A. Any corporation of Cherokee Nation, a plan of reorganization of which, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States relating to the bankruptcy of corporations, has been or shall be confirmed by the decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, may put into effect and carry out the plan and the decrees and orders of the court or judge relative thereto and may take any proceedings and do any act provided in the plan or directed by such decrees and orders, without further action by its directors or shareholders. Such power and authority may be exercised, and such proceedings and acts may be taken, as may be directed by such decrees or orders, by the trustee or trustees of such corporation appointed in the bankruptcy proceedings, or a majority thereof, or if none be appointed and acting, by designated officers of the corporation, or by a master or other representative appointed by the court or judge, with like effect as if exercised and taken by unanimous action of the directors and shareholders of the corporation.

B. Such corporation, in the manner provided for in subsection (A) of this section, but without limiting the generality or effect of the foregoing, may alter, amend, or repeal its bylaws; constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify its board of directors, and name, constitute or appoint directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or some of the directors or officers then in office; amend its certificate of incorporation, and make any change in its capital or capital stock, or any other amendment, change, or alteration, or provision, authorized by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act; be dissolved, transfer all or part of its assets, merge or consolidate as permitted by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, in which case, however, no shareholder shall have any statutory right of appraisal of his stock; change the location of its registered office, change its registered agent, and remove or appoint any agent to receive service of process; authorize and fix the terms, manner and conditions of, the issuance of bonds, debentures or other obligations, whether or not convertible into stock of any class, or bearing warrants or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for stock of any class; or lease its property and franchises to any corporation, as permitted by law.

C. A certificate of any amendment, change or alteration, or of dissolution, or any agreement of merger or consolidation, made by such corporation pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, and, subject to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7(D), shall thereupon become effective in accordance with its terms and the provisions of this section. Such certificate, agreement of merger or other instrument shall be made, executed and acknowledged, as may be directed by such decrees or orders, by the trustee or trustees appointed in the reorganization or debtor in possession in the bankruptcy proceedings, or a majority thereof, or, if none be appointed and acting, by the officers of the corporation, or by a master or other representative appointed by the court or judge, and shall certify that provision for the making of such certificate, agreement or instrument is contained in a decree or order of a court or judge having jurisdiction of a proceeding under such applicable statute of the United States for the reorganization of such corporation.

D. The provisions of this section shall cease to apply to such corporation upon consummation of a plan of reorganization or the entry of a final decree in the bankruptcy proceedings closing the case and discharging the trustee, if any, or the debtor in possession.

E. On filing any certificate, agreement, report or other paper made or executed pursuant to the provisions of this section, there shall be paid to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, for the use of Cherokee Nation, the same fees as are payable by corporations not in bankruptcy proceedings upon the filing of like certificates, agreements, reports or other papers.

ARTICLE 13

RENEWAL, REVIVAL, EXTENSION AND RESTORATION OF CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OR CHARTER

§ 119. Revocation of voluntary dissolution

A. At any time prior to the expiration of three (3) years following the dissolution of a corporation pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 96, or, at any time prior to the expiration of such longer period as the District Court may have directed pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 99, a corporation may revoke the dissolution up to that time effected by it in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the dissolution be revoked and directing that the question of the revocation be submitted to a vote at a special meeting of shareholders.
2. Notice of the special meeting of shareholders shall be given in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 67 to each shareholder whose shares were entitled to vote upon a proposed dissolution before the corporation was dissolved.
3. At the meeting a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on a resolution to revoke the dissolution.

If a majority of the stock of the corporation which was outstanding and entitled to vote upon a dissolution at the time of its dissolution shall be voted for the resolution, a certificate of revocation of dissolution shall be executed and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7 which shall state:

a. the name of the corporation;

b. the names and respective addresses of its officers;

c. the names and respective addresses of its directors; and

d. that a majority of the stock of the corporation which was outstanding and entitled to vote upon a dissolution at the time of its dissolution have voted in favor of a resolution to revoke the dissolution; or, if it be the fact, that, in lieu of a meeting and vote of shareholders, the shareholders have given their written consent to the revocation in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 73.

B. Upon the filing in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative of the certificate of revocation of dissolution, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, upon being satisfied that the requirements of this section have been complied with, shall issue his certificate that the dissolution has been revoked. Upon the issuance of such certificate by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the revocation of the dissolution shall become effective and the corporation may again carry on its business.

C. If, after three (3) years from the date upon which the dissolution became effective, the name of the corporation is unavailable upon the records of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, then, in such case, the corporation shall not be reinstated under the same name which it bore when its dissolution became effective, but shall adopt and be reinstated under some other name, and in such case the certificate to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this section shall set forth the name borne by the corporation at the time its dissolution became effective and the new name under which the corporation is to be reinstated.

D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the jurisdiction or power of the District Court pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 100 or 18 CNCA § 101.

§ 120. Renewal, revival, extension and restoration of certificate of incorporation

A. As used in this section, the term "certificate of incorporation" includes the charter of a corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of any law of Cherokee Nation.

B. Any corporation, at any time before the expiration of the time limited for its existence and any corporation whose certificate of incorporation has become forfeited by law for nonpayment of taxes and any corporation whose certificate of incorporation has expired by reason of failure to renew it or whose certificate of incorporation has been renewed, but, through failure to comply strictly with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the validity of whose renewal has been brought into question, may at any time procure an extension, restoration, renewal or revival of its certificate of incorporation, together with all the rights, franchises, privileges and immunities and subject to all of its duties, debts and liabilities which had been secured or imposed by its original certificate of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

C. The extension, restoration, renewal or revival of the certificate of incorporation may be procured by executing, acknowledging and filing a certificate in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7.

D. The certificate required by the provisions of subsection (C) of this section shall state:

1. The name of the corporation, which shall be the existing name of the corporation or the name it bore when its certificate of incorporation expired, except as provided for in subsection (F) of this section;

2. The address, including the street, city and county, of the corporation's registered office in Cherokee Nation and the name of its registered agent at such address;

3. Whether or not the renewal, restoration or revival is to be perpetual and if not perpetual the time for which the renewal, restoration or revival is to continue and, in case of renewal before the expiration of the time limited for its existence, the date when the renewal is to commence, which shall be prior to the date of the expiration of the old certificate of incorporation which it is desired to renew;

4. That the corporation desiring to be renewed or revived and so renewing or reviving its certificate of incorporation was organized pursuant to the laws of Cherokee Nation;

5. The date when the certificate of incorporation would expire, if such is the case, or such other facts as may show that the certificate of incorporation has become forfeited or that the validity of any renewal has been brought into question; and

6. That the certificate for renewal or revival is filed by authority of those who were directors or members of the governing body of the corporation at the time its certificate of incorporation expired or who were elected directors or members of the governing body of the corporation as provided for in subsection (H) of this section.

E. Upon the filing of the certificate in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, the corporation shall be renewed and revived with the same force and affect as if its certificate of incorporation had not become forfeited, or had not expired by limitation. Such reinstatement shall validate all contracts, acts, matters and things made, done and performed within the scope of its certificate of incorporation by the corporation, its officers and agents during the time when its certificate of incorporation was forfeited or after its expiration by limitation, with the same force and effect and to all intents and purposes as if the certificate of incorporation had at all times remained in full force and effect. All real and personal property, rights and credits, which belonged to the corporation at the time its certificate of incorporation became forfeited, or expired by limitation and which were not disposed of prior to the time of its revival or renewal shall be vested in the corporation after the renewal or revival, as fully and amply as they were held by the corporation at and before the time its certificate of incorporation became forfeited, or expired by limitation, and the corporation after its renewal and revival shall be as exclusively liable for all contracts, acts, matters and things made, done or performed in its name and on its behalf by its officers and agents prior to its reinstatement, as if its certificate of incorporation had at all times remained in full force and effect.

F. If, after three (3) years from the date upon which the certificate of incorporation became forfeited for nonpayment of taxes, or expired by limitation, the name of the corporation is unavailable upon the records of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, then in such case the corporation to be renewed or revived shall not be renewed under the same name which it bore when its certificate of incorporation became forfeited, or expired but shall adopt or be renewed under some other name and in such case the certificate to be filed under the provisions of this section shall set forth the name borne by the corporation at the time its certificate of incorporation became forfeited, or expired and the new name under which the corporation is to be renewed or revived.

G. Any corporation that renews or revives its certificate of incorporation pursuant to the provisions of this section shall pay to Cherokee Nation the amounts provided in 68 CNCA §§ 1201 through 1214. No payment made pursuant to this subsection shall reduce the amount of franchise tax due pursuant to the provisions of 68 CNCA §§ 1201 through 1214 for the year in which the renewal or revival is effected.

H. If a sufficient number of the last acting officers of any corporation desiring to renew or revive its certificate of incorporation are not available by reason of death, unknown address or refusal or neglect to act, the directors of the corporation or those remaining on the board, even if only one, may elect successors to such officers. In any case where there shall be no directors of the corporation available to renew or revive the certificate of incorporation of the corporation, the shareholders may elect a full board of directors, as provided by the bylaws of the corporation, and the board shall then elect such officers as are provided by law, by the certificate of incorporation or by the bylaws to carry on the business and affairs of the corporation. A special meeting of the shareholders for the purposes of electing directors may be called by any officer, director or shareholder upon notice given in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 67.

I. After a renewal or revival of the certificate of incorporation of the corporation shall have been effected, except where a special meeting of shareholders has been called in accordance with the provisions of subsection (H) of this section, the officers who signed the certificate of renewal or revival shall, jointly, immediately call a special meeting of the shareholders of the corporation upon notice given in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 67, and at the special meeting the shareholders shall elect a full board of directors, which board shall then elect such officers as are provided by law, by the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws to carry on the business and affairs of the corporation.

§ 121. Status of corporation

Any corporation desiring to renew, extend and continue its corporate existence, upon complying with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 120, shall be and continue for the time stated in its certificate of renewal, a corporation and, in addition to the rights, privileges and immunities conferred by its charter, shall possess and enjoy all the benefits of the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, which are applicable to the nature of its business, and shall be subject to the restrictions and liabilities prescribed by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act imposed on such corporations.

ARTICLE 14

SUITS AGAINST CORPORATIONS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS OR SHAREHOLDERS

§ 122. Failure of corporation to obey order of Court—Appointment of receiver

Whenever any corporation shall refuse, fail or neglect to obey any order or decree of any Court of Cherokee Nation within the time fixed by the Court for its observance, such refusal, failure or neglect shall be a sufficient ground for the appointment of a receiver of the corporation by a court of Cherokee Nation. If the corporation is a foreign corporation, such refusal, failure, or neglect shall be a sufficient ground for the appointment of a receiver of the assets of the corporation within Cherokee Nation.

§ 123. Failure of corporation to obey writ of mandamus—Quo warranto proceedings for forfeiture of charter

If any corporation fails to obey the mandate of any peremptory writ of mandamus issued by a court of competent jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation for a period of thirty (30) days after the serving of the writ upon the corporation in any manner as provided by the laws of Cherokee Nation for the service of writs, any party in interest in the proceeding in which the writ of mandamus issued, either himself or through his or its attorney, may file a statement of such fact with the Attorney General of Cherokee Nation, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the Attorney General to immediately commence proceedings in the nature of quo warranto against the corporation in the District Court, and the Court, upon competent proof of such state of facts and proper proceedings had in such proceeding in the nature of quo warranto, shall decree the charter of the corporation forfeited.

§ 124. Actions against officers, directors or shareholders to enforce liability of corporation—Unsatisfied judgment against corporation

A. When the officers, directors or shareholders of any corporation shall be liable by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act to pay the debts of the corporation, or any part thereof, any person to whom they are liable may have an action, at law or in equity, against any one or more of them, and the petition shall state the claim against the corporation, and the ground on which the plaintiff expects to charge the defendants personally.

B. No suit shall be brought against any officer, director or shareholder for any debt of a corporation of which he is an officer, director or shareholder, until judgment is obtained therefor against the corporation and execution thereon returned unsatisfied.

§ 125. Action by officer, director or shareholder against corporations for corporate debt paid

When any officer, director or shareholder shall pay any debt of a corporation for which he is made liable by the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, he may recover the amount so paid in an action against the corporation for money paid for its use, and in such action only the property of a corporation shall be liable to be taken, and not the property of any shareholder.

§ 126. Shareholder's derivative action—Allegation of stock ownership

In any derivative suit instituted by a shareholder of a corporation, it shall be averred in the petition that the plaintiff was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the transaction of which he complains or that his stock thereafter devolved upon him by operation of law.

§ 127. Liability of corporation, etc.—Impairment by certain transactions

The liability of a corporation of Cherokee Nation, or of the shareholders, directors or officers thereof, or the rights or remedies of the creditors thereof, or persons doing or transacting business with the corporation, shall not in any way be lessened or impaired by the sale of its assets, or by the increase or decrease in the capital stock of the corporation, or by its merger or consolidation with one or more corporations or by any change or amendment in its certificates of incorporation.

§ 128. Defective organization of corporation as defense

A. No corporation of Cherokee Nation and no person sued by any such organization shall be permitted to assert the want of legal organization as a defense to any claim.

B. This section shall not be construed to prevent judicial inquiry into the regularity or validity of the organization of a corporation, or its lawful possession of any corporate power it may assert in any other suit or proceeding where its corporate existence or the power to exercise the corporate rights it asserts is challenged, and evidence tending to sustain the challenge shall be admissible in any such suit or proceeding.

§ 129. Usury—Pleading by corporation

No corporation shall plead any statute against usury in any court of law or equity in any suit instituted to enforce the payment of any bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness issued or assumed by it.

ARTICLE 15

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS

§ 130. Foreign corporations—Definition—Qualification to do business in Cherokee Nation—Procedure

A. As used in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, the words "foreign corporation" mean a corporation organized pursuant to the laws of any jurisdiction other than Cherokee Nation.

B. No foreign corporation shall do any business in Cherokee Nation, through or by branch offices, agents or representatives located in Cherokee Nation, until it shall have paid to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative of Cherokee Nation the fees prescribed in 18 CNCA § 142 and shall have filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative:

1. A certificate issued by an authorized officer of the jurisdiction of its incorporation evidencing its corporate existence. If such certificate is in a foreign language, a translation thereof, under oath of the translator, shall be attached thereto;

2. A statement executed by an authorized officer of the corporation and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, setting forth:

a. the mailing address of the corporation's principal place of business, wherever located;

b. the name and address of its additional registered agent in Cherokee Nation, if any, which agent shall be either an individual resident in Cherokee Nation when appointed or another corporation authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation;

c. the aggregate number of its authorized shares itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within any classes authorized, unless it has no authorized capital;

d. a statement, as of a date not earlier than six (6) months prior to the filing date, of the assets and liabilities of the corporation;

e. the business it proposes to do in Cherokee Nation and a statement that it is authorized to do that business in Cherokee Nation; and

f. a statement of the maximum amount of capital such corporation intends and expects to invest in Cherokee Nation at any time during the current fiscal year. "Invested capital" is defined as the value of the maximum amount of funds, credits, securities and property of whatever kind existing at any time during the fiscal year in Cherokee Nation and used or employed by such corporation in its business carried on in Cherokee Nation.

C. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, upon payment to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative of the fees prescribed in 18 CNCA § 142, shall issue a sufficient number of certificates under the hand and official seal of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, evidencing the filing of the statement required by the provisions of subsection (B) of this section. The certificate of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the corporation to do business in the Cherokee Nation; provided that the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall not issue such certificate unless the name of the corporation is such as to distinguish it upon the records of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 141.

D. A foreign corporation, upon receiving a certificate from the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as, but not greater than, a corporation organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation for the purposes set forth in the statement filed by the corporation with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to which such certificate is issued and, except as otherwise provided in the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties and liabilities now or hereafter imposed upon a corporation organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation with like purpose and of like character.

§ 131. Additional requirements in case of change of name, mailing address, authorized capital or business purpose, or merger or consolidation

A. Every foreign corporation admitted to do business in Cherokee Nation which shall change its corporate name, the mailing address of its principal office, or its authorized capital, or shall enlarge, limit or otherwise change the business which it proposes to do in Cherokee Nation, within thirty (30) days after the time the change becomes effective, shall file with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a statement executed by an authorized officer of the corporation and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, setting forth:

1. The name of the foreign corporation as it appears on the records of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative of Cherokee Nation;
2. The jurisdiction of its incorporation;
3. The date it was authorized to do business in Cherokee Nation;
4. If the name of the foreign corporation has been changed, a statement of the name relinquished, a statement of the new name and a statement that the change of name has been effected pursuant to the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and the date the change was effected;
5. If the mailing address of its principal office has been changed, a statement of the mailing address relinquished and a statement of the mailing address assumed;
6. If the authorized capital of the corporation has been changed, a restatement of the corporate article which states its amended capitalization, a statement that the change has been effected pursuant to the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and the date the change was effected;

and

7. If the business it proposes to do in Cherokee Nation is to be enlarged, limited or otherwise changed, a statement reflecting such change and a statement that it is authorized to do such business in Cherokee Nation.

B. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation shall be the survivor of a merger permitted by the laws of Cherokee Nation, state or country in which it is incorporated, within thirty (30) days after the merger becomes effective, it shall file a certificate, issued by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, attesting to the occurrence of such event. If the merger has changed the corporate name, mailing address, or authorized capital of such foreign corporation or has enlarged, limited or otherwise changed the business it proposes to do in Cherokee Nation, it shall also comply with the provisions of subsection (A) of this section.

C. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation ceases to exist because of a statutory merger or consolidation with a foreign corporation not qualified to transact business in Cherokee Nation, it shall comply with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 135.

D. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall be paid the fee prescribed in 18 CNCA § 142 for filing and indexing each statement or certificate required by the provisions of subsection (A) or (B) of this section.

§ 132. Exceptions to requirements

A. No foreign corporation shall be required to comply with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130 and 18 CNCA § 131, if:

1. it is the mail order or a similar business, merely receiving orders by mail or otherwise in pursuance of letters, circulars, catalogs, or other forms of advertising, or solicitation, accepting the orders outside Cherokee Nation, and filing them with goods shipped into Cherokee Nation; or

2. it employs salesmen, either resident or traveling, to solicit orders in Cherokee Nation, either by display of samples or otherwise, whether or not maintaining sales offices in Cherokee Nation, all orders being subject to approval at the offices of the corporation without Cherokee Nation, and all goods applicable to the orders being shipped in pursuance thereof from without Cherokee Nation to the vendee or to the seller or his agent for delivery to the vendee, and if any samples kept within Cherokee Nation are for display or advertising purposes only, and no sales, repairs, or replacements are made from stock on hand in Cherokee Nation; or

3. it sells, by contract consummated outside Cherokee Nation, and agrees by the contract, to deliver into Cherokee Nation, machinery, plants or equipment, the construction, erection or installation of which within Cherokee Nation requires the supervision of technical engineers or skilled employees performing services not generally available, and as a part of the contract of sale agrees to furnish such services, and such services only, to the vendee at the time of construction, erection or installation; or

4. its business operations within Cherokee Nation are wholly interstate in character; or

5. it is an insurance company doing business in Cherokee Nation; or

6. it creates, as borrower or lender, or acquires, evidences of debt, mortgages or liens on real or personal property; or

7. it secures or collects debts or enforces any rights in property securing the same.

B. The provisions of this section shall have no application to the question of whether any foreign corporation is:

1. subject to service of process and suit in Cherokee Nation pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 136 or any other law of Cherokee Nation; or

2. subject to the taxation laws of Cherokee Nation.

§ 133. Change of registered agent upon whom process may be served

A. Any foreign corporation which has qualified to do business in Cherokee Nation may change its registered agent and substitute therefor another registered agent by filing a certificate with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 7, setting forth:

1. the name and address of its registered agent designated in Cherokee Nation upon whom process directed to the corporation may be served; and

2. a revocation of all previous appointments of agent for such purposes.

Such registered agent shall be either an individual residing in Cherokee Nation when appointed or a corporation authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation.

B. Any individual or corporation designated by a foreign corporation as its registered agent for service of process may resign by filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a signed statement that he or it is unwilling to continue to act as the registered agent of the corporation for service of process, including in the statement the post office address of the main or headquarters office of the foreign corporation. Upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after the filing of the statement with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the capacity of the individual or corporation, as registered agent, shall terminate. Upon the filing of the statement, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative immediately shall give written notice to the corporation by mail of the filing of the statement, which notice shall be addressed to the corporation at the post office address given in the statement and also, if different, to the corporation at its post office address, if any, given in the corporation's certificate filed pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130.

C. If any agent designated and certified as required by the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130 shall die, remove himself from Cherokee Nation or resign, then the foreign corporation for which the agent had been so designated and certified, within ten (10) days after the death, removal or resignation of its agent, shall substitute, designate and certify to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the name of another registered agent for the purposes of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act, and all process, orders, rules and notices may be served on or given to the substituted agent with like effect.

§ 134. Violations and penalties

A. Any foreign corporation doing business of any kind in Cherokee Nation without first having complied with any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act applicable to it, shall be fined not less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each such offense. Any agent of any foreign corporation that shall do any business in Cherokee Nation for any foreign corporation before the foreign corporation has complied with any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act applicable to it, shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each such offense.

B. If any foreign corporation fails to file or cause to be filed a certificate as provided for in 18 CNCA § 142(A)(11) and (13) or fails to pay to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative any additional fees shown to be due by the certificate provided for in 18 CNCA § 142(A)(13), the corporation:

1. may be ousted from Cherokee Nation by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative and its certificate of authority to do business in Cherokee Nation revoked and canceled. Before such revocation the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall give not less than thirty (30) days' notice sent by mail duly addressed to such corporation at its principal place of business or last address shown on the records of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative's intent to revoke the corporation's authority to transact business in Cherokee Nation; and

2. after notice required in paragraph 1 above, shall be subject to a penalty and shall forfeit to Cherokee Nation for each day it fails to comply with the provisions of this subsection, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per day but not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each such offense.

C. All fines and penalties provided for by this section may be recovered in a suit brought therefor by the Attorney General, in the name of Cherokee Nation, against the corporation, in any District Court of Cherokee Nation. Fines and penalties received or collected pursuant to this section by the Clerk of the District Court as a result result of an action brought in the name of Cherokee Nation by the Attorney General, shall be paid into an account established by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

§ 135. Withdrawal of foreign corporation from Cherokee Nation—Service of process on Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative

A. Any foreign corporation which shall have qualified to do business in Cherokee Nation pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130, may surrender its authority to do business in Cherokee Nation and may withdraw therefrom by filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative:

1. A certificate signed by its president or a vice-president and attested by its secretary or an assistant secretary, stating that it surrenders its authority to transact business in Cherokee Nation and withdraws therefrom; and stating the address to which the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative may mail any process against the corporation that may be served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative; or

2. A copy of a certificate of dissolution issued by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, certified to be a true copy under the official seal of Cherokee Nation, together with a certificate, which shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of this subsection, stating the address to which the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative may mail any process against the corporation that may be served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative; or

3. A copy of an order or decree of dissolution made by any court of competent jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation or other jurisdiction of its incorporation, certified to be a true copy under the hand of the Clerk of the Court or other official body, and the official seal of the Court or official body or Clerk thereof, together with a certificate executed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of this subsection, stating the address to which the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative may mail any process against the corporation that may be served upon the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

B. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, upon payment to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative of the fees prescribed in 18 CNCA § 142, shall issue a sufficient number of certificates, under the hand and official seal of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, evidencing the surrender of the authority of the corporation to do business in Cherokee Nation and its withdrawal therefrom. One of the certificates shall be delivered to the agent of the corporation designated as such immediately prior to the withdrawal.

C. Upon the issuance of the certificates by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, the appointment of the registered agent of the corporation in Cherokee Nation, upon whom process against the corporation may be served, shall be revoked, and service on the corporation may be made by serving the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its agent as provided in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4, 28 U.S.C. and in 12 CNCA.

§ 136. Service of process on nonqualifying foreign corporations

A. If any foreign corporation shall transact business in Cherokee Nation without having qualified to do business in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130, service on the corporation may be made by serving the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as its agent as provided in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4, 28 U.S.C. and in 12 CNCA.

B. The provision of 18 CNCA § 132 shall not apply in determining whether any foreign corporation is transacting business in Cherokee Nation within the meaning of this section; and "the transaction of business" or "business transacted in Cherokee Nation", by any such foreign corporation, whenever those words are used in this section, shall mean the course or practice of carrying on any business activities in the Cherokee Nation, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the solicitation of business or orders in Cherokee Nation. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any insurance company doing business in Cherokee Nation.

§ 137. Actions by and against unqualified foreign corporations

A. A foreign corporation which is required to comply with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130 and 18 CNCA § 131 and which has done business in Cherokee Nation without authority shall not maintain any action or special proceeding in Cherokee Nation unless and until such corporation has been authorized to do business in Cherokee Nation and has paid to Cherokee Nation all fees, penalties and franchise taxes for the years or parts thereof during which it did business in Cherokee Nation without authority. This prohibition shall not apply to any successor in interest of such foreign corporation.

B. The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain authority to do business in Cherokee Nation shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of the foreign corporation or the right of any other party to the contract to maintain any action or special proceeding thereon, and shall not prevent the foreign corporation from defending any action or special proceeding in Cherokee Nation.

§ 138. Foreign corporations doing business without having qualified—Injunctions

The District Court shall have jurisdiction to enjoin any foreign corporation, or any agent thereof, from transacting any business in Cherokee Nation if such corporation has failed to comply with any provision of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act applicable to it or if such corporation has secured a certificate of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130 or on the basis of false or misleading representations. The Attorney General, upon his own motion or upon the relation of proper parties, shall proceed by filing a petition in the District Court of Cherokee Nation.

ARTICLE 16

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 139. Reservation of corporate name

A. The exclusive right to the use of a corporate name, in good faith, may be reserved by:

1. Any person intending to form a corporation under this title; or
2. Any corporation organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation intending to change its name; or
3. Any foreign corporation intending to qualify to transact business in Cherokee Nation under this title; or
4. Any foreign corporation qualified to transact business in Cherokee Nation intending to change its name; or
5. Any person intending to organize a foreign corporation and intending to have such corporation qualified to transact business in Cherokee Nation under the laws of Cherokee Nation; or
6. Any corporation whose charter has expired or has been forfeited intending to renew or revive the corporation under this title.

B. Such reservation shall be made by filing in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative an application to reserve a specified corporate name. If the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative finds that such name is available for corporate use, he shall reserve the same for the exclusive use of such applicant for a period of sixty (60) days.

C. The right to the exclusive use of a specified corporate name so reserved may be transferred to any other person by filing in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a notice of such transfer, executed by the person for whom such name was reserved and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

§ 140. Trade names

A. A corporation or other business entity doing business in Cherokee Nation under any name other than its legal name shall file a report with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative setting forth the trade name under which the business is carried on, a brief description of the kind of business transacted under the name, the address wherein the business is to be carried on, the legal name and the name and address of its registered agent in Cherokee Nation. The report shall be executed, acknowledged, and filed in accordance with 18 CNCA § 7. The trade name adopted shall be such as to be distinguishable upon the records in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative from:

1. Names of other business entities organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation then existing or which existed at any time during the preceding three (3) years; or

2. Names of foreign business entities qualified to do business in Cherokee Nation then existing or which existed at any time during the preceding three (3) years; or
3. Trade names or fictitious names filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative; or
4. Names reserved with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

B. As used in this section, "business entity" means a corporation, a business trust, a common law trust, a limited liability company, or any unincorporated business, including any form of partnership.

§ 141. Prohibition on use of name or indistinguishable names—Exceptions

The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall not accept for reservation or filing a statement or certificate containing a name which is the same as or indistinguishable from the name of any business entity, as defined in 18 CNCA § 15, trade name, fictitious name, or reserved name filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative unless one of the following is filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative:

1. The written consent of the business entity or holder of the trade name, fictitious name, or reserved name to use the same or indistinguishable name with the addition of one or more words to make that name distinguishable upon the records of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, except that the addition of words to make the name distinguishable shall not be required where the written consent states that the consenting entity is about to change its name, cease to do business, withdraw from Cherokee Nation, or be wound up;
2. A certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation establishing the prior right of the business entity or holder of a reserved name, trade name, or fictitious name to the use of the name in Cherokee Nation;
3. In the case of any foreign business entity having a name prohibited by this section which intends to qualify to transact business within Cherokee Nation, a resolution adopting a fictitious name not prohibited by this section, which shall be used to the exclusion of its true name when transacting business within Cherokee Nation.

§ 142. Filing and other service fees

A. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, for services performed in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative and for expense of mailing, shall charge and collect the following fees:

1. For any report, document, or other paper required to be filed in the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00);

2. For reservation of corporate name, a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00);
3. For issuing extra copies of any certificate not requiring any extra filing of papers or documents of any kind, a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00);
4. For issuing any other certificate, a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00);
5. For receiving a filing or indexing the annual certificate of a foreign corporation doing business in Cherokee Nation, or both when filed together, a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00);
6. For preclearance of any document for filing, a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00);
7. For each service of process made upon and accepted by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00);
8. For preparing and providing a written report of a record search, a fee of Five Dollars ($5.00);
9. For filing and issuing certificates of incorporation, the fee shall be one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) of the authorized capital stock of such corporation; provided, that the minimum fee for any such service shall be Fifty Dollars ($50.00); provided further, that not for profit corporations shall only be required to pay a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00);
10. For filing and issuing amended certificates of incorporation or certificates of consolidation, if the resulting corporation is a domestic corporation, merger, if the surviving corporation is a domestic corporation, restatement, reorganization, revival, extension or dissolution, the fee shall be Fifty Dollars ($50.00). If an amendment shall provide for an increase in authorized capital in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), the filing fee shall be an amount equal to one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) of such increase;
11. For issuing a certificate to a foreign corporation to do business in Cherokee Nation, and filing a certificate and statement of such corporation required pursuant to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 130, the fee shall be one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) of the maximum amount of capital invested by such corporation in Cherokee Nation at any time during the fiscal year such certificate is issued to any such foreign corporation; provided, that the minimum fee for any such service shall be Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00); provided further, that no such corporation shall be required to pay a fee on an amount in excess of its authorized capital;
12. For amended certificate of qualification of a foreign corporation, or certificate of consolidation, if the resulting corporation is a foreign corporation, merger, if the surviving corporation is a foreign corporation, or withdrawal to a foreign corporation doing business in Cherokee Nation, a fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00); provided, however, for a certificate solely reflecting a change of mailing address, a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00);
13. Every foreign corporation on the anniversary of its qualification in Cherokee Nation each year, shall cause to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative a certificate of its president, vice-president or other managing officers, in which shall be stated and shown the maximum amount of capital the corporation had invested in Cherokee Nation at any time subsequent to the issuance to it of a certificate to do business in Cherokee Nation and the amount of capital previously paid upon. If the amount of capital so invested as shown by said certificate exceeds the amount formerly paid upon, the corporation, at the time of filing said certificate, shall pay to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative an additional fee equal to one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) of the amount of such excess capital so invested by the corporation in Cherokee Nation; provided, that no such corporation shall be required to pay a filing fee on an amount in excess of its authorized capital, or to file the certificate provided for in this paragraph after it shall have paid a filing fee on its total authorized capitalization;

14. For acting as the registered agent, a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) payable on the first day of July each year, and if not paid before the next ensuing September 1st, the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall suspend and forfeit the charter of the delinquent corporation pursuant to the procedures prescribed in 68 CNCA § 1212. The Cherokee Nation Tax Commission shall collect and audit the registered agent fee authorized pursuant to this paragraph in conjunction with the collection and audit of franchise taxes as provided for in 68 CNCA §§ 1201 through 1214. All monies received by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall be paid to an account established by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative; and

15. For any response by means of telecommunications to inquiries regarding information required to be maintained by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, a fee of Five Dollars ($5.00), unless otherwise provided. Fees collected pursuant to this paragraph shall be deposited in an account established by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

B. Except as otherwise provided by law, fees paid to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act shall be properly accounted for and shall be deposited in an account established by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

C. For any certificate supplied by the Court Clerk, such Clerk shall receive a fee of One Dollar ($1.00). Such fees shall be properly accounted for and shall be paid into an account established by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

D. In any court proceeding pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act requiring the filing of any decree, order, report or other document the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative, in addition to the usual court costs and the costs for filing in the office of the Clerk of the Court, fees equal to the amounts provided for in this section for such required filing shall be collected as costs in such proceedings and such amount shall be forwarded to the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

E. The provisions contained in this section relating to the payment of incorporation fees by foreign corporations are not intended and shall not be construed to relieve such corporations, where applicable, of the payment of the annual corporate franchise tax to the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission.

F. For the purposes of computing the fees to be collected by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative pursuant to the provisions of this section, each share without par value shall be treated the same as a share with a par value of Fifty Dollars ($50.00), and the fees thereon shall be collected accordingly.

G. Payments for any required fees except as otherwise provided by law may be made as follows:

1. By the applicant's personal or company check, cash, or money order;
2. By a nationally-recognized credit card issued to the applicant. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative may add an amount equal to the amount of the service charge incurred, not to exceed four percent (4%) of the amount of such payment as a service charge for the acceptance of such credit card. For purposes of this paragraph, "nationally-recognized credit card" means any instrument or device, whether known as a credit card, credit plate, charge plate, or by any other name, issued with or without fee by an issuer for the use of the cardholder in obtaining goods, services, or anything else of value on credit. The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative shall determine which nationally recognized credit cards will be in the same manner as other fees collected by the clerk for the filing and recording of mortgages accepted; provided, however, the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative must ensure that no loss of Cherokee Nation revenue will occur by the use of such card.

§ 142.1. Fees for telephone assistance

The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative is authorized to charge fees as provided by law for a telephone assistance service to provide information concerning records retained by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

§ 143. Duplication of Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative—Distribution

The Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative may have printed, from time to time as he deems necessary, pamphlet copies of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act for distribution to persons and corporations desiring the same for a sum not exceeding the cost of printing. The money received from the sale of the copies shall be disposed of as are other fees of the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the free distribution of single pamphlet copies of the Cherokee Nation General Corporation Act by the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

§ 144. Required filing with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative following a merger or consolidation, or a change of corporate name

A. A certified copy of the following documents, as applicable, shall be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative the surviving or resulting corporation to a merger or consolidation, or a corporation whose name was changed, has a recorded interest in real property:

1. a certificate or agreement of merger or consolidation filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative in accordance with the provisions of 18 CNCA § 81, 18 CNCA § 82, 18 CNCA § 84, 18 CNCA § 85, 18 CNCA § 86 or 18 CNCA § 87;

2. a certificate of ownership and merger filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative as provided in 18 CNCA § 83;

3. an amendment to the certificate of incorporation effecting a change of name pursuant to 18 CNCA § 76, 18 CNCA § 77 or 18 CNCA § 131.

B. The provisions of this section shall have prospective application only.

§ 145. Inspection and auditing of books, records, and reports

A. The accounts, books, and papers of corporations which the majority of the shares are owned by Cherokee Nation shall be opened to inspection by the Principal Chief or his authorized representative during regular business hours. The account and records of such corporations shall be audited at the close of each fiscal year, and copies of the audit shall be furnished to the Principal Chief, the Council, and to such other persons as the Principal Chief directs.

§ 146. Forms

Recommended forms for the documents required to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative to comply with this title may be obtained from the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative.

ARTICLE 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 201. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act". Section captions are part of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act.

§ 202. Scope of act

A. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act shall be applicable to every limited liability company existing as of the effective date of this act or thereafter formed or qualified to transact business within Cherokee Nation, and to all securities thereof, except to the extent that:

1. Any such limited liability company is expressly excluded from the operation of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act or portions thereof; or

2. Special provisions concerning any such limited liability company conflict with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act, in which case such special provisions shall govern.

B. Any conflicts with the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act and any tax or unclaimed property laws of Cherokee Nation shall be governed by the tax or unclaimed property provisions, including those provisions relating to personal liability of corporate officers and directors.

C. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act concerning qualifications of foreign limited liability companies and providing requirements and duties relating to such limited liability companies shall apply to insurance companies until such time as an Insurance Commission or similar agency to govern insurance is formed.

D. The provisions of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act concerning qualifications of foreign limited liability companies and providing requirements and duties relating to such limited liability companies shall apply to foreign transportation companies until such time as a Corporation Commission or similar agency to govern transportation is formed.

§ 203. Rights, liabilities and duties under prior statutes

All rights, privileges and immunities vested or accrued by and pursuant to any laws enacted prior to the adoption or subsequent amendment of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act, all suits pending, all rights of action conferred, and all duties, restrictions, liabilities and penalties imposed or required by and pursuant to laws enacted prior to the adoption or amendment of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act, shall not be impaired, diminished or affected.

§ 204. Reserved power of Cherokee Nation to amend or repeal; Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act part of limited liability company's certificate of limited liability

The Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act may be amended or repealed at the pleasure of the Council of Cherokee Nation, but any amendment or repeal shall not take away or impair any remedy available pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act against any limited liability company or its members for any liability which shall have been previously incurred. The Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act and any amendment thereto shall be a part of the charter or certificate of limited liability of every limited liability company except so far as the same are inapplicable and inappropriate to the objects of the limited liability company. The provisions of this section shall not affect or impair as to any limited liability company any rights protected or guaranteed by the Constitution of Cherokee Nation or of the United States.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

18. "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, a federally-recognized Indian tribe, the District of Columbia or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

19. "Transfer" includes an assignment, conveyance, deed, bill of sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, encumbrance, and gift.

§ 206. Name of limited liability company

The name of each limited liability company as set forth in its articles of organization:

1. shall contain either the words "limited liability company" or "limited company" or the abbreviations "LLC", "LC", "L.L.C.", or "L.C." The word "limited" may be abbreviated as "LTD." and the word "Company" may be abbreviated as "CO."; and

2. may not be the same as or indistinguishable from:

a. names upon the records in the Office of the Principal Chief of then existing limited liability companies whether organized pursuant to the laws of Cherokee Nation or authorized as foreign limited liability companies, or

b. names upon the records in the Office of the Principal Chief of corporations organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation or of foreign corporations registered in accordance with the laws of Cherokee Nation then existing or which existed at any time during the preceding three (3) years, or

c. names upon the records in the Office of the Principal Chief of limited partnerships formed under the laws of Cherokee Nation or of foreign limited partnerships registered in accordance with the laws of Cherokee Nation, or

d. trade names, fictitious names, or other names reserved with the Office of the Principal Chief.

3. The provisions of subdivision 2 of this section shall not apply if one of the following is filed with the Office of the Principal Chief:

a. the written consent of the other limited liability company, corporation, limited partnership, or holder of the trade name, fictitious name or other reserved name to use the same or indistinguishable name with the addition of one or more words, numerals, numbers or letters to make that name distinguishable upon the records of the Office of the Principal Chief, except that the addition of words, numerals, numbers or letters to make the name distinguishable shall not be required where such written consent states that the consenting entity is about to change its name, cease to do business, withdraw from Cherokee Nation or be wound up, or

b. a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of such limited liability company or holder of a limited liability company name to the use of such name in Cherokee Nation.

4. A limited liability company may use the name, including a fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign company which is used in Cherokee Nation if the other company is organized or authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation and the company proposing to use the name has:

- a. merged with the other company;
- b. been formed by reorganization with the other company; or
- c. acquired substantially all of the assets, including the name, of the other company.

§ 207. Reservation of limited liability company name

A. A person may reserve the exclusive use of the name of a limited liability company, including a fictitious name for a foreign company whose name is not available, by delivering an application to the Office of the Principal Chief for filing. The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the Office of the Principal Chief or his authorized representative finds that the name applied for is available, it must be reserved for the applicant's exclusive use for a period of sixty (60) days.

B. The owner of a name reserved for a limited liability company may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the Office of the Principal Chief a signed notice of the transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

§ 208. Designated office and agent for service of process

A. A limited liability company and a foreign limited liability company authorized to do business in Cherokee Nation shall designate and continuously maintain in Cherokee Nation:

1. a principal office, which need not be a place of its business; and
2. a resident agent for service of process on the limited liability company that is an individual resident of Cherokee Nation, or a domestic or qualified foreign corporation limited liability company, or limited partnership.

B. An agent must be an individual resident of Cherokee Nation, a domestic corporation, another limited liability company, or a foreign corporation or foreign company authorized to do business in Cherokee Nation.

C. For purposes of this section, "in Cherokee Nation" and "of Cherokee Nation" means the historic reservation boundaries defined in the 1838 fee patent signed by President Martin Van Buren, or any other lands which are, or become, subject to tribal jurisdiction.

§ 209. Change of designated office or agent for service of process

A. A limited liability company may change its designated principal office or resident agent for service of process by delivering to the Office of the Principal Chief for filing a statement of change which sets forth:

1. the name of the company;
2. the street address of its current designated office;
3. if the current designated principal office is to be changed, the street address of the designated office;
4. the name and address of its current resident agent for service of process; and
5. if the current resident agent for service of process or street address of that resident agent is to be changed, the new address or the name and street address of the new agent for service of process.

B. Unless otherwise provided in the statement, the change of address of the principal office or resident agent is effective when the Office of the Principal Chief files the statement.

§ 210. Resignation of agent for service of process

A. A resident agent for service of process of a limited liability company may resign by delivering to the Office of the Principal Chief for filing a record of the statement of resignation.

B. After filing a statement of resignation, the Office of the Principal Chief or an authorized representative shall mail a copy to the designated office and another copy to the limited liability company at its principal office.

C. Unless a later time is specified in the resignation, it is effective thirty (30) days after it is filed.

§ 211. Nature of business and powers

A. A limited liability company may be organized under this chapter and may conduct business in any state for any lawful purpose, subject to any law of Cherokee Nation governing or regulating business.

B. A limited liability company organized under this chapter has a consensual civil relationship to Cherokee Nation and is subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation courts.

C. Unless its articles of organization provide otherwise, a limited liability company has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry on its business or affairs, including the power to:

1. sue and be sued, and defend in its name, except as provided in Article 11 with respect to government-owned limited liability companies;
2. purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;
3. sell, convey, mortgage, grant a security interest in, lease, exchange, and otherwise encumber or dispose of all or any part of its property;
4. purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, grant a security interest in, or otherwise dispose of and deal in and with, shares or other interests in or obligations of any other entity;
5. make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, which may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the limited liability company, and secure any of its obligations by a mortgage on or a security interest in any of its property, franchises, or income;
6. lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;
7. be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;
8. conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without Cherokee Nation;
9. elect managers and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the limited liability company, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit;
10. pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, bonus plans, option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current or former members, managers, officers, employees, and agents;
11. make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes;
12. make payments or donations, or do any other act, not inconsistent with law, that furthers the business of the limited liability company;
13. Indemnify and hold harmless any member, agent, or employee from and against any and all claims and demands whatsoever, except in the case of action or failure to act by the member, agent, or employee which constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness, and subject to the standards and restrictions, if any, set forth in the articles of organization or operating agreement;

14. Make and alter operating agreements, not inconsistent with its articles of organization or with the laws of Cherokee Nation, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the limited liability company;

15. Cease its activities and dissolve; and

16. Do every other act not inconsistent with law which is appropriate to promote and attain the purposes set forth in its articles of organization.

ORGANIZATION

§ 212. Limited liability company as legal entity

A limited liability company is a legal entity distinct from its members.

§ 213. Articles of organization—Filing

A. One or more persons may form a limited liability company upon the filing of executed articles of organization with the Office of the Principal Chief.

B. When the Office of the Principal Chief files the articles of organization, the proposed organization becomes a limited liability company under the name and subject to the purposes, conditions, and provisions stated in the articles.

C. Filing of the articles by the Office of the Principal Chief is conclusive evidence of the formation of the limited liability company.

§ 214. Articles of organization—Content

A. Articles of organization shall set forth:

1. the name of the limited liability company;
2. the term of the existence of the limited liability company which may be perpetual;
3. the street address of its principal place of business in the Cherokee Nation; and
4. the name and street address of its resident agent in the Cherokee Nation.

B. It is not necessary to set out in the articles of organization any of the powers enumerated in this chapter.

§ 215. Articles of organization—Amendment

A. The articles of organization shall be amended when:

1. There is a change in the name of the limited liability company;
2. There is a change in the name or address of a manager;
3. There is a false or erroneous statement in the articles of organization;
4. There is a change in the time as stated in the articles of organization for the cancellation of the limited liability company; or
5. The members desire to restate the articles of organization in their entirety or to make a change in any other statement or to add a statement in the articles of organization in order to accurately represent their agreement.

B. An amendment to the articles of organization of a limited liability company shall set forth:

1. the name of the limited liability company;
2. the date of filing of the articles of organization; and
3. the amendment to the articles.

§ 216. Articles of organization—Execution

A. Articles required by this chapter to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief shall be executed in the following manner:

1. Articles of organization must be signed by at least one (1) person who need not be a member of the limited liability company; and
2. Articles of amendment, merger, or dissolution must be signed by a manager.

B. Any person may sign any articles by an attorney in fact. Powers of attorney relating to the signing of articles by an attorney in fact need not be sworn to, verified or acknowledged, and need not be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief.

C. The execution of any articles under this chapter constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated therein are true.

D. Any signature on any instrument authorized to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief under this act may be a facsimile.

E. A record accepted for filing by the Office of the Principal Chief is effective:

1. at the time of filing on the date it is filed, as evidenced by the Office of the Principal Chief's date and time endorsement on the original record; or

2. at the time specified in the record as its effective time on the date it is filed.

F. A record may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does so the record becomes effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the record is effective at the close of business on that date. If a delayed effective date is later than the ninetieth (90th) day after the record is filed, the record is effective on the ninetieth (90th) day.

§ 217. Delivery of articles of organization and other documents to the Office of the Principal Chief

A. Two (2) signed copies of the articles of organization or any articles of amendment or dissolution or of any decree of judicial amendment or dissolution shall be delivered to the Office of the Principal Chief. A person who executes articles as an agent or fiduciary need not exhibit evidence of his authority as a prerequisite to filing. Unless the Office of the Principal Chief finds that any articles do not conform to law, upon receipt of all filing fees required by law he shall:

1. Endorse on each copy the word "filed" and the day, month and year of the filing thereof;

2. File one copy in his office; and

3. Return the other copy to the person who filed it or his representative.

B. Upon the filing of articles of amendment or a decree of judicial amendment in the Office of the Principal Chief, the articles of organization shall be amended as set forth therein and upon the effective date of articles of dissolution or a decree of judicial dissolution, the articles of organization are cancelled.

§ 218. Correcting filed record

A. A limited liability company or foreign limited liability company may correct a record filed with the Office of the Principal Chief if the record contains any typographical error, error of transcription, or other technical error or has been defectively executed.

B. Articles of correction shall set forth:

1. the title of the document being corrected;

2. that the document being corrected was filed; and

3. the provision in the document as previously filed and as corrected and, if execution of the document was defective, the manner in which it was defective.

C. Articles of correction may not make any other change or amendment which would not have complied in all respects with the requirements of this act at the time the document being corrected was filed.

D. Articles of correction shall be executed in the same manner in which the document being corrected was required to be executed.

E. Articles of correction may not:

1. Change the effective date of the document being corrected; or
2. Affect any right or liability accrued or incurred before its filing, except that any right or liability accrued or incurred by reason of the error or defect being corrected shall be extinguished by the filing if the person having the right has not detrimentally relied on the original document.

F. Notwithstanding that any instrument authorized to be filed with the Office of the Principal Chief pursuant to the provisions of this chapter is, when filed inaccurately, defectively, or erroneously executed, sealed or acknowledged, or otherwise defective in any respect, the Office of the Principal Chief shall not be liable to any person for the preclearance for filing, or the filing and indexing of the instrument by the Office of the Principal Chief.

§ 219. Certificate of existence or authorization

A. A person may request the Office of the Principal Chief to furnish a certificate of existence for a limited liability company or a certificate of authorization for a foreign limited liability company.

B. A certificate of existence for a limited liability company must set forth:

1. the company's name;
2. that it is duly organized under the laws of Cherokee Nation, the date of organization;
3. if payment is reflected in the records of the Office of the Principal Chief and if nonpayment affects the existence of the company, that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to Cherokee Nation have been paid;
4. whether its most recent annual certification required by 18 CNCA § 220 has been filed in the Office of the Principal Chief;
5. that articles of termination have not been filed; and
6. other facts of record in the Office of the Principal Chief which may be requested by the applicant.

C. A certificate of authorization for a foreign limited liability company must set forth:

1. the company's name used in Cherokee Nation;
2. that it is authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation;
3. if payment is reflected in the records of the Office of the Principal Chief and if nonpayment affects the authorization of the company, that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to Cherokee Nation have been paid;
4. whether its most recent annual certification required by 18 CNCA § 220 has been filed with the Office of the Principal Chief;
5. that a certificate of cancellation has not been filed; and
6. other facts of record in the Office of the Principal Chief which may be requested by the applicant.

D. Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or authorization issued by the Office of the Principal Chief may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the domestic or foreign limited liability company is in existence or is authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation.

§ 220. Annual certification for the Office of the Principal Chief

A. A domestic limited liability company, and a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in Cherokee Nation, shall deliver to the Office of the Principal Chief for filing an annual certification that sets forth:

1. the name of the company and the state or country under whose law it is organized;
2. the address of its designated office and the name and address of its agent for service of process in Cherokee Nation;
3. the address of its principal office; and
4. the names and business addresses of any managers.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no limited liability company in which Cherokee Nation or any agency, subdivision or other entity thereof is a member shall be required to file an annual certification under this section.

B. Information in an annual certification must be current as of the date the annual certification is signed on behalf of the limited liability company.

C. The first annual certification must be delivered to the Office of the Principal Chief between January 1 and April 1 of the year following the calendar year in which a limited liability company was organized or a foreign company was authorized to transact business. Subsequent annual certifications must be delivered to the Office of the Principal Chief between January 1 and April 1 of the ensuing calendar years.

D. If an annual certification does not contain the information required in subsection (A), the Office of the Principal Chief shall promptly notify the certifying limited liability company or foreign limited liability company and return the certification to it for correction. If the certification is corrected to contain the information required in subsection (A) and delivered to the Office of the Principal Chief within thirty (30) days after the effective date of the notice, it is timely filed.

ARTICLE 3

RELATIONS OF MANAGERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

§ 221. Manager as agent of limited liability company

A. Every manager is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of its business, and the act of every manager, including the execution in the limited liability company name of any instrument for apparently carrying on the business of the limited liability company of which he is a manager, binds the limited liability company, unless the manager so acting lacks the authority to act for the limited liability company in the particular matter pursuant to the operating agreement or otherwise, and the person with whom he is dealing has knowledge of the fact that he has no such authority. The unauthorized acts of the manager shall bind the limited liability company as to persons acting in good faith who have no knowledge of the fact that the manager had no such authority.

B. Subject to the provisions of subsection (A) of this section and 18 CNCA § 229, instruments and documents providing for the acquisition, mortgage, or disposition of real or personal property of the limited liability company shall be valid and binding upon the limited liability company if executed by one (1) or more of its managers.

§ 222. Limited liability company liable for member's or manager's actionable conduct

A limited liability company is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a manager acting in the ordinary course of business of the company or with authority of the company or a member acting as a manager pursuant to 18 CNCA § 226(C) acting on the company's behalf in the ordinary course of business of the company or with authority of the company.

§ 223. Member or manager—Limitation or elimination of liability—Indemnification

A. Subject to subsection (B) of this section, the articles of organization or operating agreement may:

1. Eliminate or limit the personal liability of a member or manager for monetary damages for breach of any duty provided for in 18 CNCA § 233; and

2. Provide for indemnification of a member or manager for judgments, settlements, penalties, fines or expenses incurred in any proceeding because he is or was a member or manager.

B. No provision permitted under subsection (A) of this section shall limit or eliminate the liability of a manager for:

1. Any breach of the manager's duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its members;

2. Acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or

3. Any transaction from which the manager derived an improper personal benefit.

C. The articles of organization or operating agreement may define the scope of any duties owed by the members or managers to the limited liability company, if not manifestly unreasonable. A definition shall not eliminate the duty of loyalty or the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

ARTICLE 4

RELATIONS OF MEMBERS TO EACH OTHER AND TO LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

§ 224. Form of contribution of member

A contribution of a member to a limited liability company may be in cash, property, services rendered, or a promissory note or other binding obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services.

§ 225. Member's liability for contributions

A. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or the operating agreement, a member is obligated to the limited liability company to perform any written promise to contribute cash or property or to perform services, even if he is unable to perform because of death, disability, or other reason. If a member does not make the required contribution of property or services, the member is obligated, at the option of the limited liability company, to contribute money equal to the value of that portion of the stated contribution which has not been made.

B. 1. The obligation of a member to make a contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of this chapter may be compromised only upon compliance with the operating agreement, or, if the operating agreement does not so provide, with the unanimous consent of the members.

2. A compromise shall not impair the right of any creditor to enforce the obligation or to require the obligation to be enforced if:

a. such creditor relied upon the obligation and the absence in the operating agreement of the limited liability company's authority to compromise the obligation, or

b. a duty to the creditor was breached in the making of the compromise.

C. An operating agreement may provide that the capital interest of a member who fails to make any contribution or other payment that the member is required to make shall be subject to specified remedies for, or specified consequences of, the failure. The remedy or consequence may take the form of reducing the defaulting member's capital interest in the limited liability company, subordinating the defaulting member's capital interest in the limited liability company to that of the nondefaulting members, a forced sale of the capital interest in the limited liability company, forfeiture of the capital interest in the limited liability company, the lending by the nondefaulting members of the amount necessary to meet the commitment, a fixing of the value of the member's capital interest in the limited liability company by appraisal or by formula and redemption and sale of the member's capital interest in the limited liability company at that value, or other remedy or consequences.

§ 226. Management of limited liability company

A. Management of company with managers:

1. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization, operating agreement, or this act, a limited liability company shall be managed by or under the authority of one or more managers who may but need not be members.

2. The articles of organization or operating agreement may prescribe qualifications for managers.

3. The number of managers shall be specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of organization or operating agreement.

B. Election and removal of managers:

1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement:

a. The election of managers shall be by majority vote of the members;

b. Any or all managers may be removed, with or without cause, by the written consent of the members.

c. A manager may resign in accordance with the operating agreement or, if the operating agreement does not provide for the manager's resignation, upon notice to the limited liability company.

C. Management of company without designated managers:

1. The articles of organization or operating agreement may provide that the business of the limited liability company shall be managed without designated managers. So long as such provision continues in effect:

a. The members shall be deemed to be managers for purposes of applying provisions of the Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act unless the context clearly requires otherwise;

b. The members shall have and be subject to all duties and liabilities of managers; and

c. A member signing on behalf of the limited liability company shall sign as a manager.

2. A member of a member-managed limited liability company may resign as a member in accordance with the operating agreement or, if the operating agreement does not provide for or prohibit the members' resignation, upon notice to the limited liability company. When a member of a member-managed limited liability company resigns, the member shall cease to have the rights and duties of a member and shall become an assignee, as set forth in Article 5 of this act; provided that the profits and losses of the limited liability company shall continue to be allocated to the member and any binding commitments for contributions shall continue as if the member had not resigned. If the resignation violates the operating agreement, in addition to any remedies otherwise available under applicable law, a limited liability company may recover from the resigning member damages for breach of the operating agreement and offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to the resigning member. The member's resignation shall not constitute a withdrawal from the limited liability company.

§ 227. Managers—Majority vote required

Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, if the limited liability company has more than one (1) manager, all decisions of the managers shall be made by majority vote of the managers.

§ 228. Allocation of profits and losses—Distributions

Except as otherwise provided in the operating agreement:

1. The profits and losses of a limited liability company shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their respective capital interests.

2. Distributions of the limited liability company shall be made to the members in proportion to their right to share in the profits of the limited liability company.

§ 229. Allocation of profits and losses—Distributions

A. A distribution may not be made if, after giving effect to the distribution:

1. the limited liability company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business; or
2. the company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the operating agreement permits otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of members whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

B. A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (A) on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

C. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (E), the effect of a distribution under subsection (A) is measured as of:

1. the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of authorization; or
2. the date the payment is made if it occurs more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of authorization.

D. A limited liability company's indebtedness to a member incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the company's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

E. If the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is to be made only if, and to the extent that, payment of a distribution to members could then be made under this section indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness issued as distribution, is not a liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (B) of this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

§ 230. Liability for unlawful distributions

If a member has received a distribution in violation of the operating agreement or 18 CNCA § 229, the member shall be liable to the limited liability company for the amount of the distribution wrongfully made. An action for the recovery of any wrongful distribution to a member must be brought within three (3) years from the date of the distribution.

§ 231. Member's right to information

A. Unless otherwise provided in a written operating agreement, a limited liability company shall keep at its principal place of business the following:

1. A current and a past list of the full name and last-known mailing address of each member and manager;
2. Copies of records that would enable a member to determine the relative voting rights of the members;
3. A copy of the articles of organization, together with any amendments thereto;
4. Copies of the limited liability company's federal, state and local income tax returns and financial statements, if any, for the three (3) most recent years or, if such returns and statements were not prepared for any reason, copies of the information and statements provided to, or which should have been provided to, the members to enable them to prepare their federal, state and local tax returns for such period;
5. Copies of any effective written operating agreements and all amendments thereto and copies of any written operating agreements no longer in effect; and
6. Unless provided in writing in an operating agreement, a writing setting out:
 - a. the amount of cash and a statement of the agreed value of other property or services contributed by each member and the times at which or events upon the happening of which any additional contributions agreed to be made by each member are to be made, and
 - b. the events upon the happening of which the limited liability company is to be consolidated and its affairs wound up, and
 - c. any other information prepared pursuant to a requirement in an operating agreement.

B. A member, for any purpose reasonably related to the member's interest, may:

1. At the member's own expense, inspect and copy any limited liability company record upon reasonable request during ordinary business hours;
2. Obtain from time to time upon reasonable demand:
 - a. true and complete information regarding the state of the business and financial condition of the limited liability company,
 - b. promptly after becoming available, a copy of the limited liability company's state, local and tribal, if applicable, income tax returns for each year, and

c. other information regarding the affairs of the limited liability company as is just and reasonable; and

3. Have a formal accounting of the limited liability company's affairs whenever circumstances render it just and reasonable.

C. A manager, for any purpose reasonably related to his position, may inspect and copy any limited liability company records upon reasonable request during ordinary business hours.

D. Failure of the limited liability company to keep or maintain any of the records or information required pursuant to this section shall not be grounds for imposing liability on any person for the debts and obligations of the limited liability company.

§ 232. Members—Voting rights

A. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, the members of a limited liability company shall vote in proportion to their respective capital interests. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (D) of this section or unless the context otherwise requires, references in this act to a vote or the consent of the members shall mean a vote or consent of the members holding a majority of the capital interests. The vote or consent may be evidenced in the minutes of a meeting of the members or by a written consent in lieu of a meeting.

B. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (D) of this section or in the articles of organization or operating agreement, a majority vote of the members shall be required to approve the following matters:

1. The sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge, or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the limited liability company;

2. Merger of the limited liability company with another limited liability company or other business entity; and

3. An amendment to the articles of organization or operating agreement.

C. The articles of organization or operating agreement may alter the above voting rights and provide for any other voting rights of members.

D. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or a written operating agreement, the unanimous vote or consent of the members shall be required to approve the following matters:

1. The dissolution of the limited liability company pursuant to 18 CNCA § 243(A); or

2. An amendment to the articles of organization or an amendment to a written operating agreement:

- a. which reduces the term of the existence of the limited liability company,
- b. which reduces the required vote of members to approve a dissolution, merger or sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge, or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the limited liability company,
- c. which permits a member to voluntarily withdraw from the limited liability company, or
- d. which reduces the required vote of members to approve an amendment to the articles of organization or written operating agreement reducing the vote previously required on the matters described in this section.

§ 233. Managers—Duties—Good faith—Liability

Subject to the provisions of 18 CNCA § 227 and except as otherwise provided in the operating agreement:

1. A manager shall discharge his duties as a manager in good faith, with the care an ordinary prudent person in a like position could exercise under similar circumstances, and in the manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the limited liability company;
2. In discharging his duties, a manager may rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:
 - a. one or more employees of the limited liability company whom the manager reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented,
 - b. legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the manager reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence, or
 - c. a committee of managers of which he is not a member if the manager reasonably believes the committee merits confidence;

A manager is not acting in good faith if the manager has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by this section unwarranted;

3. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a manager has the power and authority to delegate to one or more other persons the manager's rights and powers to manage and control the business and affairs of the limited liability company, including to delegate to the agents, officers and employees of a manager to the limited liability company, and to delegate by a management agreement or another agreement with, or otherwise to, other persons. The delegation by a manager shall not cause the manager to cease to be a manager of the limited liability company;
4. A manager is not liable for any action taken as a manager, or any failure to take any action, if the manager performed the duties of the office in compliance with the business judgment rule as applied to directors and officers of a corporation; and

5. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, every manager must account to the limited liability company and hold as trustee for it any profit or benefit derived by the manager without the informed consent of the members from any transaction connected with the conduct or winding up of the limited liability company or from any personal use by the manager of its property.

§ 234. Liability solely as manager or member

A person who is a member or manager, or both, of a limited liability company is not liable for the obligations of a limited liability company solely by reason of being such member or manager or both.

ARTICLE 5

ASSIGNEES AND CREDITORS OF MEMBER

§ 235. Membership interest

A membership interest is personal property. A member has no interest in specific limited liability company property.

§ 236. Assignment of membership interest

A. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement:

1. A membership interest is not transferable, except as provided in 18 CNCA § 237; provided, however, that a member may assign a membership interest in whole or in part as set forth in this section;
2. An assignment of a membership interest does not entitle the assignee to participate in the management and affairs of the limited liability company or to become or to exercise any rights or powers of a member;
3. An assignment entitles the assignee to receive any distribution or distributions to which the assignor was entitled to the extent assigned;
4. Unless the assignee of an interest in a limited liability company becomes a member by virtue of that interest, the assignor continues to be a member and to have the power to exercise any rights of a member, unless the assignor is removed as a member either in accordance with the operating agreement or, after having assigned all of the membership interest, by an affirmative vote of the members who have not assigned their interests. The removal of an assignor shall not, by itself, cause the assignee to become a member;

5. Until an assignee of a membership interest becomes a member, the assignee has no liability as a member solely as a result of the assignment; and

6. The assignor of a membership interest is not released from liability as a member solely as a result of the assignment.

B. The operating agreement may provide that a member's interest in a limited liability company may be evidenced by a certificate of membership interest issued by the limited liability company and also may provide for the assignment or transfer of any membership interest represented by such a certificate and may make other provisions with respect to such certificates.

C. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, the pledge of, or granting of a security interest, lien, or other encumbrance in or against any or all of the membership interest of a member is not an assignment and shall not cause the member to cease to be a member or cease to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member.

§ 237. Rights of assignees

A. An assignee of a membership interest may become a member of a limited liability company if and to the extent that the operating agreement provides or the members representing a majority of the capital interests which are not the subject of the assignment consent in writing.

B. An assignee who has become a member, to the extent assigned, has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under the operating agreement of a limited liability company and this chapter. However, unless otherwise provided in writing in the operating agreement or other written agreement, an assignee who becomes a member also is liable for any obligations of the assignor to make contributions, but the assignee is not obligated for liabilities of which the assignee had no knowledge unknown to the transferee at the time the assignee became a member and which could not be ascertained from a written operating agreement.

C. Whether or not an assignee of a membership interest becomes a member, the assignor is not released from liability to the limited liability company under the operating agreement or this chapter, unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement.

D. Except as otherwise provided in writing in the operating agreement, a member who assigns the member's entire interest in the limited liability company ceases to be a member or to have the power to exercise any rights of a member when any assignee of the interest becomes a member with respect to the assigned interest.

E. Subject to subsection (F) of this section, a person acquiring a limited liability company interest directly from the limited liability company may become a member in a limited liability company upon compliance with the operating agreement or, if the operating agreement does not so provide in writing, upon the written consent of the members.

F. The effective time of admission of a member to a limited liability company shall be the later of:

1. The date the limited liability company is formed; or
2. The time provided in the operating agreement, or if no such time is provided therein, then when the person's admission is reflected in the records of the limited liability company.

§ 238. Rights of creditors

- A. On application by a judgment creditor of a member of a limited liability company or of a member's assignee, a Court having jurisdiction may charge the membership interest of the judgment debtor to satisfy the judgment, with interest. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the membership interest.
- B. This chapter does not deprive any member of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to his membership interest.
- C. This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's membership interest.

§ 239. Distributions to members before withdrawal and dissolution

Except as otherwise provided in this act, a member is entitled to receive distributions from a limited liability company before the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company to the extent and at the times upon which the members agree or as provided in the operating agreement.

§ 240. Form of distribution—Asset in kind

Except as otherwise provided in the operating agreement:

1. A member, regardless of the nature of the member's contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than cash; and
2. No member may be compelled to accept from a limited liability company a distribution of any asset in kind to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to the member exceeds the percentage which the member's interest in the limited liability company is of all of the interests in the limited liability company.

§ 241. Status of member and distribution

At the time a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member has the status of and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.

ARTICLE 6

MEMBER'S DISSOCIATION

§ 242. Member's power to dissociate—Wrongful dissociation

A. Unless the operating agreement specifically permits in writing the power to withdraw voluntarily, a member may not withdraw at any time. If the operating agreement specifically provides in writing the power to withdraw voluntarily, but the withdrawal occurs as a result of wrongful conduct of the member, a member's voluntary withdrawal shall constitute a breach of the operating agreement and the limited liability company may recover from the withdrawing member damages, including the reasonable cost of replacing the services that the withdrawn member was obligated to perform. The limited liability company may offset its damages against the amount otherwise distributable to the member, in addition to pursuing any remedies provided for in the operating agreement or otherwise available under applicable law. The limited liability company shall not, however, be entitled to any equitable remedy that would prevent a member from exercising the power to withdraw if such power is permitted in the operating agreement.

B. If a member who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges the member to be incompetent to manage the member's person or property, the member's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, or other legal representative shall have all of the rights of an assignee of the member's interest.

C. The operating agreement may provide for the expulsion of a member, with or without cause, which shall include reasonable provision for the distributable interest.

ARTICLE 7

WINDING UP LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY'S BUSINESS

§ 243. Events causing dissolution and winding up of limited liability company's business

A. A limited liability company is dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up upon the earlier of:

1. the occurrence of the latest date on which the limited liability company is to dissolve set forth in the articles of organization;
2. the occurrence of events specified in writing in the operating agreement;
3. the written consent of all of the members; or
4. entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under subsection (B).

B. On application by or for a member, the District Court of Cherokee Nation may decree dissolution of a limited liability company whenever it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in conformity with the articles of organization or operating agreement.

§ 244. Winding up limited liability company

Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, the business or affairs of the limited liability company may be wound up in one of the following ways:

1. by the managers, or
2. if one or more of the members or managers have engaged in conduct that casts reasonable doubt on their ability to wind up the business or affairs of the limited liability company, or upon other cause shown, by the District Court on application of any member, his legal representative, or assignee.

§ 245. Right to wind up limited liability company's business

A. After dissolution, a member who has not wrongfully dissociated may participate in winding up a limited liability company's business, but on application of any member, member's legal representative, or transferee, the District Court of Cherokee Nation, for good cause shown, may order judicial supervision of the winding up.

B. A legal representative of the last surviving member may wind up a limited liability business.

C. A person winding up a limited liability company's business may preserve the company's business or property as a going concern for a reasonable time, prosecute and defend actions and proceedings, whether civil, criminal, or administrative, settle and close the company's business, dispose of and transfer the company's property, discharge the company's liabilities, distribute the assets of the company pursuant to 18 CNCA § 248, settle disputes by mediation or arbitration, and perform other necessary acts.

§ 246. Member's or manager's power and liability as agent after dissolution

A. A limited liability company is bound by a member's or manager's act after dissolution that:

1. is appropriate for winding up the limited liability company's affairs or completing transactions unfinished at dissolution;
2. would have bound the limited liability company had it not been dissolved, if the other party to the transaction did not have notice of the dissolution.

B. A member or manager who, with knowledge of the dissolution, subjects a limited liability company to liability by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the company's business is liable to the company for any damage caused to the company arising from the liability.

§ 247. Article of dissolution

A. At any time after dissolution and winding up, a limited liability company may terminate its existence by filing with the Office of the Principal Chief articles of dissolution stating:

1. the name of the limited liability company;
2. the date of filing of its articles of organization;
3. the reason for filing the articles of dissolution;
4. the effective date of the articles of dissolution, if they are not to be effective upon the filing; and
5. any other information the members or managers filing the certificate determine.

B. The existence of a limited liability company is terminated upon the filing of the articles of dissolution, or upon a later effective date, if specified in the articles of dissolution.

§ 248. Article of dissolution

Upon the winding up of a limited liability company, the assets shall be distributed as follows:

1. Payment, or adequate provision for payment, shall be made to creditors, including to the extent permitted by law, members who are creditors, in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited liability company;
2. Except as provided in writing in the articles of organization or operating agreement, to members or former members in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under 18 CNCA § 239; and
3. Except as provided in writing in the articles of organization or operating agreement, to members and former members first for the return of their contributions and second respecting their membership interests, in proportions in which the members share in distributions.

ARTICLE 8

CONVERSION AND MERGERS

§ 249. Merger or consolidation

A. Pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, a domestic limited liability company may merge or consolidate with or into one or more domestic or foreign limited liability companies or other business entities. As used in this section, "business entity" means a domestic or foreign corporation, a business trust, a common law trust, or an unincorporated business including a partnership, whether general or limited.

B. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or the operating agreement, a merger or consolidation shall be approved by each domestic limited liability company which is to merge or consolidate by a majority of the members or, if there is more than one class or group of members, then by a majority of each class or group. Notwithstanding prior approval, an agreement of merger or consolidation may be terminated or amended pursuant to a provision for such termination or amendment contained in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

C. If a domestic limited liability company is merging or consolidating pursuant to this section, the domestic limited liability company or other business entity surviving or resulting in or from the merger or consolidation shall file articles of merger or consolidation with the Office of the Principal Chief. The articles of merger or consolidation shall state:

1. The name and jurisdiction of formation or organization of each of the limited liability companies or other business entities which are to merge or consolidate;
2. That an agreement of merger or consolidation has been approved and executed by each of the domestic limited liability companies or other business entities which is to merge or consolidate;
3. The name of the surviving or resulting domestic limited liability company or other business entity;
4. The future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of the merger or consolidation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation;
5. That the agreement of merger or consolidation is on file at a place of business of the surviving or resulting domestic limited liability company or other business entity, and shall state the address thereof;
6. That a copy of the agreement of merger or consolidation shall be furnished by the surviving or resulting domestic limited liability company or other business entity, upon request and without cost, to any member of any domestic limited liability company or any person holding an interest in any other business entity which is to merge or consolidate;
7. In the case of a merger, any amendments or changes in the articles of organization of the surviving domestic limited liability company that are to be effected by the merger;
8. In the case of a consolidation, that the articles of organization of the resulting domestic limited liability company shall be as set forth in an attachment to the articles of consolidation; and
9. If the surviving or resulting entity is not a domestic limited liability company or business entity formed or organized pursuant to the laws of Cherokee Nation, a statement that the surviving or resulting other business entity agrees to be served with process in Cherokee Nation in any action, suit, or proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic limited liability company which is to merge or consolidate; irrevocably appoints the Office of the Principal Chief as its agent to accept service of process in any action, suit, or proceeding; and specifies the address to which process shall be mailed to the entity by the Office of the Principal Chief.

D. A merger or consolidation shall be effective upon the filing with the Office of the Principal Chief of articles of merger or consolidation, unless a future effective date or time is provided in the articles of merger or consolidation.

E. Articles of merger or consolidation shall act as articles of dissolution for a domestic limited liability company which is not the surviving or resulting entity in the merger or consolidation.

Once any merger or consolidation is effective pursuant to this section, for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation, all of the rights, privileges, and powers of each of the domestic limited liability companies and other business entities that have merged or consolidated and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due to each domestic limited liability company or other business entity, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to each domestic limited liability company or other business entity shall be vested in the surviving or resulting domestic limited liability company or other business entity. and shall thereafter be the property of the surviving or resulting domestic limited liability company or other business entity as they were of each domestic limited liability company or other business entity that has merged or consolidated, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise, under the laws of Cherokee Nation, in any domestic limited liability company or other business entity shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this section, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of each domestic limited liability company or other business entity shall be preserved unimpaired. All debts, liabilities and duties of each domestic limited liability company or other business entity that has merged or consolidated shall thereafter attach to the surviving or resulting domestic limited liability company or other business entity, and may be enforced against the surviving or resulting limited liability company or other entity to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by the surviving or resulting limited liability company or other entity. Unless otherwise agreed, a merger or consolidation of a domestic limited liability company, including a domestic limited liability company which is not the surviving or resulting entity in the merger or consolidation, shall not require the domestic limited liability company to wind up its affairs pursuant to 18 CNCA § 243 or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets pursuant to 18 CNCA § 248.

§ 250. Conversion of certain entities to a limited liability company

A. As used in this section, the term "business entity" means a domestic corporation, partnership, whether general or limited, business trust, common law trust, or other unincorporated association.

B. Any business entity may convert to a domestic limited liability company by complying with subsection (H) of this section and filing with the Office of the Principal Chief in accordance with 18 CNCA § 206 articles of conversion to a limited liability company that have been executed in accordance with 18 CNCA § 216, to which shall be attached articles of organization that comply with 18 CNCA §§ 206 and 214 and have been executed by one or more authorized persons in accordance with 18 CNCA § 216.

C. The articles of conversion to a limited liability company shall state:

1. The date on which the business entity was first formed;
2. The name of the business entity immediately prior to the filing of the articles of conversion to a limited liability company; and
3. The name of the limited liability company as set forth in its articles of organization filed in accordance with subsection (B) of this section.

D. Upon the filing in the Office of the Principal Chief of the articles of conversion to a limited liability company and the articles of organization, the business entity shall be converted into a domestic limited liability company and the limited liability company shall thereafter be subject to all of the provisions of this act, except that notwithstanding 18 CNCA § 213, the existence of the limited liability company shall be deemed to have commenced on the date the business entity was formed.

E. The conversion of any business entity into a domestic limited liability company shall not be deemed to affect any obligations or liabilities of the business entity incurred prior to its conversion to a domestic limited liability company or the personal liability of any person incurred prior to such conversion.

F. When any conversion shall have become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation, all of the rights, privileges and powers of the business entity that has converted, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due to such business entity, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to such business entity, shall be vested in the domestic limited liability company and shall thereafter be the property of the domestic limited liability company as they were of the business entity that has converted, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in such business entity shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this act, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of such business entity shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the business entity that has converted shall thenceforth attach to the domestic limited liability company and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

G. Unless otherwise agreed or otherwise provided by any laws of Cherokee Nation applicable to the converting business entity, the converting business entity shall not be required to wind up its affairs or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets, and the conversion shall not be deemed to constitute a dissolution of such business entity and shall constitute a continuation of the existence of the converting business entity in the form of a domestic limited liability company. When a business entity has been converted to a limited liability company pursuant to this section, the limited liability company shall, for all purposes of the laws of Cherokee Nation, be deemed to be the same entity as the converting business entity.

H. Prior to filing the articles of conversion of a business entity to a limited liability company with the Office of the Principal Chief, the conversion shall be approved in the manner provided for by the document, instrument, agreement or other writing, as the case may be, governing the internal affairs of the business entity and the conduct of its business or by applicable law, as appropriate, and an operating agreement shall be approved by the same authorization required to approve the conversion.

§ 251. Approval of conversion of a limited liability company

A domestic limited liability company may convert to a corporation, partnership, whether general or limited, business trust, common law trust or other unincorporated association organized, formed or created under the laws of Cherokee Nation. upon the authorization of such conversion in accordance with this section. If the operating agreement specifies the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited liability company, the conversion shall be authorized as specified in the operating agreement. If the operating agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited liability company and does not prohibit a conversion of the limited liability company, the conversion shall be authorized in the same manner as is specified in the operating agreement for authorizing a merger or consolidation that involves the limited liability company as a constituent party to a merger or consolidation. If the operating agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited liability company or a merger or consolidation that involves the limited liability company as a constituent party and does not prohibit a conversion of the limited liability company, the conversion shall be authorized by the approval by the members or, if there is more than one (1) class or group of members, then by each class or group of members, in either case, by members who own more than fifty percent (50%) of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic limited liability company owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in addition to any other authorization required by this section, if the entity into which the limited liability company is to convert does not afford all of its interest holders protection against personal liability for the debts of the entity, the conversion must be authorized by any and all members who would be exposed to personal liability.

ARTICLE 9

FOREIGN LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES

§ 252. Law governing foreign limited liability companies

A. The laws of the state or other jurisdiction under which a foreign limited liability company is organized shall govern its organization and internal affairs and the liability of its managers and members.

B. A foreign limited liability company may not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of any difference between the laws of another jurisdiction under which the foreign company is organized and the laws of Cherokee Nation.

C. A certificate of authority does not authorize a foreign limited liability company to engage in any business or exercise any power that a limited liability company may not engage in or exercise in Cherokee Nation.

§ 253. Application for certificate of authority

A. Before transacting business in Cherokee Nation, a foreign limited liability company shall apply for a certificate of authority to transact business in Cherokee Nation by delivering an application to the Office of the Principal Chief for filing. The application must set forth:

1. the name of the foreign limited liability company or, if its name is unavailable for use in Cherokee Nation, a name that satisfies the requirements of 18 CNCA § 206;
2. the name of the state or country under whose law it is organized;
3. the street address of its principal office;
4. the address of its initial principal office in Cherokee Nation;
5. the name and street address of its initial resident agent for service of process in Cherokee Nation; and
6. such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the Office of the Principal Chief to determine whether such limited liability company is entitled to transact business in Cherokee Nation.

B. A foreign limited liability company shall deliver with the completed application a certificate of existence or a record of similar import authenticated by the secretary of state or other official having custody of company records in the state, Indian tribe, country or other jurisdiction under whose law it is organized.

§ 254. Activities that do not constitute transacting business in Cherokee Nation

A. Activities of a foreign limited liability company that do not constitute transacting business in Cherokee Nation within the meaning of this article include:

1. maintaining, defending, or settling an action or proceeding;
2. holding meetings of its members or managers or carrying on any other activities concerning its internal affairs;
3. maintaining bank accounts;
4. maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of the foreign limited liability company's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;
5. selling through independent contractors;

6. soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside Cherokee Nation before they become contracts;
7. creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, or security interests in real or personal property;
8. securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages or other security interests in property securing the debts, and holding, protecting, and maintaining property so acquired;
9. holding, protecting, renting, maintaining and operating real or personal property in Cherokee Nation so acquired;
10. selling or transferring title to property in Cherokee Nation to any person;
11. conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within thirty (30) days and is not one in the course of repeated transactions of a like manner; and
12. transacting business with Cherokee Nation.

B. For purposes of this article, the ownership in Cherokee Nation of income-producing real property or tangible personal property, other than property excluded under subsection (A), constitutes transacting business in Cherokee Nation.

C. This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a foreign limited liability company to service of process, taxation, or regulation under any other law of Cherokee Nation or under federal law.

§ 255. Issuance of certificate of authority

Unless the Office of the Principal Chief determines that an application for a certificate of authority fails to comply as to form with the filing requirements of this chapter, the Office of the Principal Chief, upon payment of all filing fees, shall file the application and send a receipt for it and the fees to the limited liability company or its representative.

§ 256. Name of foreign limited liability company

If the name of a foreign limited liability company does not satisfy the requirements of 18 CNCA § 206, the company, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to transact business in Cherokee Nation, must use a fictitious name to transact business in Cherokee Nation if its real name is unavailable and it delivers to the Office of the Principal Chief for filing a copy of the resolution of its managers, in the case of a manager-managed company, or of its members, in the case of a member-managed company, adopting the fictitious name.

§ 257. Revocation of certificate of authority

A. A certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability company to transact business in Cherokee Nation may be revoked by the Office of the Principal Chief in the manner provided in subsection (B) if:

1. the company fails to:

a. pay any fees, taxes, and penalties owed to Cherokee Nation;

b. deliver its annual certification required under 18 CNCA § 220 to the Office of the Principal Chief within sixty (60) days after it is due;

c. appoint and maintain an agent for service of process as required by this article; or

d. file a statement of a change in the name or business address of the agent as required by this article; or

2. a misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other record submitted by the company pursuant to this article.

B. The Office of the Principal Chief may not revoke a certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability company unless the Office of the Principal Chief sends the company notice of the revocation, at least sixty (60) days before its effective date, by a record addressed to its agent for service of process in Cherokee Nation, or if the company fails to appoint and maintain a proper agent in Cherokee Nation, addressed to the office required to be maintained by 18 CNCA § 209. The notice must specify the cause for the revocation of the certificate of authority. The authority of the company to transact business in Cherokee Nation ceases on the effective date of the revocation unless the foreign limited liability company cures the failure before that date.

§ 258. Cancellation of authority

A foreign limited liability company may cancel its authority to transact business in Cherokee Nation by filing in the Office of the Principal Chief a certificate of cancellation. Cancellation does not terminate the authority of the Office of the Principal Chief to accept service of process in the company for claims for relief arising out of the transaction of business in Cherokee Nation.

§ 259. Effect of failure to obtain certificate of authority

A. A foreign limited liability company transacting business in Cherokee Nation may not maintain an action or proceeding in the courts of Cherokee Nation unless it has a certificate of authority to transact business in Cherokee Nation.

B. The failure of a foreign limited liability company to have a certificate of authority to transact business in Cherokee Nation does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the foreign limited liability company or prevent the foreign limited liability company from defending an action or proceeding in the courts of Cherokee Nation.

C. Limitations on personal liability of managers, members, and their assignees are not waived solely by transacting business in Cherokee Nation without a certificate of authority.

D. If a foreign limited liability company transacts business in Cherokee Nation without a certificate of authority, it appoints the Office of the Principal Chief as its agent for service of process for claims for relief arising out of the transaction of business in Cherokee Nation.

§ 260. Action by the Office of the Principal Chief

The Office of the Principal Chief may maintain an action to restrain a foreign limited liability company from transacting business in Cherokee Nation in violation of this article.

ARTICLE 10

DERIVATIVE ACTIONS

§ 261. Right of action

A member of a limited liability company may maintain an action in the right of the company if the members or managers having authority to do so have refused to commence the action or an effort to cause those members or managers to commence the action is not likely to succeed.

§ 262. Proper plaintiff

In a derivative action for a limited liability company, the plaintiff must be a member of the company when the action is commenced; and

1. must have been a member at the time of the transaction of which the plaintiff complains; or
2. the plaintiff's status as a member must have devolved upon the plaintiff by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the operating agreement from a person who was a member at the time of the transaction.

§ 263. Pleading

In a derivative action for a limited liability company, the complaint must set forth with particularity the effort of the plaintiff to secure initiation of the action by a member or manager who would otherwise have the authority to cause the limited liability company to sue in its own right.

§ 264. Expenses

If a derivative action for a limited liability company is successful, in whole or in part, or if anything is received by the plaintiff as a result of a judgment, compromise, or settlement of an action or claim, the Court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, and shall direct the plaintiff to remit to the limited liability company the remainder of the proceeds received.

ARTICLE 11

GOVERNMENT-OWNED LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES

§ 265. Limited liability companies formed by Cherokee Nation

Cherokee Nation or any agency, subdivision or other entity thereof are authorized to form limited liability companies under this act for the conduct of business on behalf of Cherokee Nation or any such agency, subdivision or entity.

§ 266. Sovereign immunity of Cherokee Nation wholly-owned limited liability companies

A. All limited liability companies which are wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation, or any agency or subdivision thereof, or any entity which is wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation or any agency or subdivision thereof, formed pursuant to this act are hereby expressly cloaked with the mantle of sovereign immunity of Cherokee Nation to the fullest extent allowed under applicable law.

B. Except as prohibited in the operating agreement, any waiver of sovereign immunity by a limited liability company wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation, or any agency or subdivision thereof, or any entity which is wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation or any agency or subdivision thereof, must be effected by resolution of the Council and approved by the Principal Chief. Said resolution shall state the time the waiver is to be in effect, and such effective time shall rule past any change in the elected Council.

CHAPTER 3

CHEROKEE NATION NONPROFIT CORPORATIONS ACT

§ 301. Short title

This act shall be known as the Cherokee Nation Nonprofit Corporations Act.

§ 302. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to enable Cherokee Nation to form a nonprofit corporation and/or non profit corporations for the purpose of performing certain exclusive functions for the benefit of Cherokee citizens, and enabling such nonprofit corporations to achieve tax-exempt status pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

§ 303. Definitions

For the purpose of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings ascribed to them as follows:

1. "Articles" means the original articles of incorporation as amended, articles of merger, or articles of consolidation and incorporation, as the case may be.
2. "Bylaws" means the code adopted for the regulation or management of the internal affairs of the nonprofit corporation, regardless of how designated.
3. "Cherokee Nation nonprofit corporation" or "nonprofit corporation" means a nonprofit corporation formed by those elected officials of Cherokee Nation specified in 18 CNCA § 306 for a tribal purpose not involving pecuniary gain to its shareholders or members, paying no dividends or other pecuniary remuneration, directly or indirectly, to its shareholders or members as such, and having no capital stock.
4. "Directors" means the persons vested with the general management of the affairs of the nonprofit corporation, regardless of how they are designated.
5. "Member" means an entity, either corporate or natural, having any membership or shareholder rights in a nonprofit corporation in accordance with its articles, bylaws, or both.
6. "Notice" means written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and in case of a special meeting, the purpose for which the meeting is called, which shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president or the secretary; provided that regular and special meetings of the board of directors may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the by-laws. "Waiver of notice" means (1) a written waiver signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, which shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice; or (2) attendance of a director at a meeting, except where the director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

§ 304. Purposes of a nonprofit corporation

A nonprofit corporation may be formed under this chapter for exclusive operations for one or more of the following purposes: charitable, educational, scientific, literary, or any other purpose allowed for organizations subject to federal income tax exemptions under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

§ 305. Incorporators

The Cherokee Nation Principal Chief, Cherokee Nation Deputy Chief and Chairman or Co-Chairman of the Executive and Finance Committee of the Council of Cherokee Nation shall serve as the three incorporators of each Cherokee Nation nonprofit corporation established under this chapter.

§ 306. Articles of incorporation

A. Execution and approval. The articles shall be signed by each of the incorporators and acknowledged by each of them, and shall be approved by resolution of the Council of Cherokee Nation.

B. Contents. The articles of the nonprofit corporation organized under this chapter shall state:

1. The name of the nonprofit corporation;
2. The purpose of the nonprofit corporation;
3. That the nonprofit corporation does not afford pecuniary gain, incidentally or otherwise, to its members;
4. The period of duration of corporate existence which may be perpetual;
5. The location, by city, town, or other community, and the name of its registered agent and registered office in the Nation's jurisdiction;
6. The name and address of each incorporator;
7. The number of directors constituting the first board of directors, the name and address of each such director, and the tenure in office of the first directors, provided that the board shall consist of not less than five (5) or not more than eleven (11) members as may be provided by the by-laws of the corporation, and provided further that said directors shall be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council of Cherokee Nation; and
8. Any other provision, consistent with the law of Cherokee Nation for regulating the business of the nonprofit corporation or the conduct of the corporate affairs.

§ 307. Corporate name

A nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to this chapter may use any corporate name authorized by the Principal Chief, provided, that it shall not be necessary for a nonprofit corporation to use the word "corporation," "company," "incorporated," or "limited" or an abbreviation of one of those words in its corporate name.

§ 308. Corporate capacity and powers

A nonprofit corporation incorporated under this chapter shall have general corporate capacity, and shall have and possess all of the general powers of a domestic corporation incorporated under this title.

§ 309. Filing of articles

The articles of incorporation shall be filed in the Office of the Principal Chief. If the articles conform to law, the Office of the Principal Chief shall record the articles and issue and record a certificate of incorporation. The certificate shall state the name of the nonprofit corporation and the fact and date of incorporation. Corporate existence shall begin upon the issuance by the Principal Chief of the certificate of incorporation.

§ 310. Amendment of articles

A. A corporation established under this chapter may amend its articles of incorporation from time to time, in any and as many respects as may be desired including without limitation change of name, change in period of duration and change to enlarge or diminish its corporate purposes; provided that its articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendments.

B. Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority vote of the Board after notice in accordance with 18 CNCA § 303(6) herein, and shall be approved by Cherokee Nation Council. The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president and its secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such articles and shall set forth the name of the corporation, the amendments so adopted the date of the adoption of the amendments by the board of directors, and the number of directors voting for and against such amendment respectively. A copy of the Council resolution approving the articles of amendment shall be attached to each duplicate original.

C. Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be filed in the Office of the Principal Chief. If the Principal Chief finds the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall record the articles of amendment and issue and record a certificate of amendment. The certificate of amendment together with the duplicate original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative.

D. The articles of incorporation shall be deemed amended upon issuance of the certificate of amendment by the Principal Chief or on such later date, not more than thirty (30) days subsequent to the filing thereof with the Principal Chief, as shall be provided for in the articles of incorporation. No amendment shall affect any existing causes of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons; and in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

§ 311. Organizational meeting

After commencement of corporate existence, the first meeting of the board of directors shall be held at the call of the incorporators or the directors, after notice, for the purpose of adopting the initial bylaws, electing officers, performing other acts in the internal organization of the nonprofit corporation, and for such other purposes as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting. Such meeting shall be held within thirty (30) days after the issuance of a certificate of incorporation by the Principal Chief. The first meeting of the members shall be held at the call of an officer or of the initial board of directors, after notice. The initial bylaws adopted by the board of directors shall remain effective until legally amended or repealed at a membership meeting duly called for the specific purpose of amending or repealing the bylaws.

§ 312. Disposition of assets

Notwithstanding any provision of the Nation's law or in the articles of incorporation to the contrary, the articles of incorporation of each nonprofit corporation which is an exempt charitable, literary, educational, or scientific organization as described in 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), as amended, shall be conclusively deemed to contain the following provisions: Upon the dissolution of the nonprofit corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the nonprofit corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the nonprofit corporation exclusively for the purposes of the nonprofit corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, literary or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, as the board of trustees shall determine. Any such assets not to disposed of shall be disposed of by the courts of Cherokee Nation, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

§ 313. General corporate laws applicable

The provisions of this title shall generally apply to nonprofit corporations organized pursuant to this chapter except where a different rule is provided in this chapter. Provided, that nonprofit corporations formed exclusively for charitable, literary, educational, or scientific purposes which qualify as a nonprofit corporation exempt from federal taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), as amended, or any successor provision to this section, shall be exempt from payment of any filing fees, franchise fees or license fees. Each nonprofit corporation shall file an annual report with the Office of the Principal Chief, which shall be subject to review by the Council of Cherokee Nation.

CHAPTER 4

JOBS GROWTH

§ 401. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Jobs Growth Act of 2005.

§ 402. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to implement a more effective business structure and efficient process for:

1. Maintaining and improving supervision and control over the Nation's business operations;

2. Improving accountability and consolidated financial reporting to the Nation by the entities conducting business operations;
3. Streamlining the business infrastructure and decision-making processes;
4. Preserving and enhancing profits and cash flow available for redistribution and investment according to the Nation's priorities;
5. Providing strategic planning, support for direction setting and coordination of business activities between the Nation and the businesses it owns, as well as among the business entities themselves;
6. Serving as the primary point for guiding overall implementation of economic development and business development strategy for the Nation;
7. Enhancing leveraging of resources and debt, and providing a disciplined process for funding expansion and diversification of the Nation's business interests;
8. Providing a more transparent view of allocation of resources for business development;
9. Increasing accountability to Cherokee Nation, the shareholder of the business entities.

This act constitutes a thoughtful, deliberate investment for the future of Cherokee citizens by providing for sustainable jobs, and making future business investment in a comprehensive manner to economic development, health, community services, education, language and culture and infrastructure. In so doing, the Nation advances its long-term vision of responsible economic development, self-sufficiency for the government and its citizens, and a strong, tribal government.

§ 403. Definitions

For the purposes of this act:

1. "Parent company" means a company that owns a majority of the shares in another company or companies.
2. "Subsidiary" means a company owned by another company. If a subsidiary is wholly owned, all its stock is held by the parent company.

§ 404. Ownership of certain Cherokee Nation business entities

A. Jobs growth.

1. Assignment of ownership. The Principal Chief, or designee, shall be authorized to execute the necessary documents to transfer ownership of Cherokee Nation Enterprises, Inc. (CNE), Cherokee Nation Industries, Inc. (CNI), Cherokee Nation Distributors (CND), and any subsidiaries of the listed entities to Cherokee Nation Businesses, Inc. (CNB), a corporation wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation, as the parent company of the listed entities.

2. Parent company ownership. The Nation shall be the sole owner of the parent company for all purposes, including all assets and goodwill, and no interest in CNB shall be held at any time by any other party.

For the purposes of this act, any business corporation, or entity wholly-owned by Cherokee Nation, or in which Cherokee Nation owns a majority interest, the entity which shall represent the shareholder and vote any and all shares of stock or interest shall be the Principal Chief and the Cherokee Nation Council. It will take two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Council to take any action pursuant to this section. The Council and the Principal Chief shall adopt procedures to effectuate the provisions of this section.

3. CNB purpose. The purpose of CNB shall be to:

i. engage in all lawful activities, and to facilitate and promote the Nation's economic development through strategic planning, self-sufficiency, and a strong tribal government;

ii. preserve and enhance profits and cash flow available for redistribution and investment, consistent with the policy direction of Cherokee Nation;

iii. establish procedures to evaluate and approve allocation of capital to new business ventures and opportunities, and expansion of existing businesses;

iv. provide the necessary debt, subject to Council approval, or equity capital to pursue such business ventures and opportunities, and meet the long term capital requirements of new, as well as existing, businesses.

4. CNB Board of Directors. The CNB Board of Directors shall be comprised of no more than seventeen (17) members and shall, upon the dissolution of the CNE and CNI boards, be comprised of the then-current CNB directors and the former members of the dissolved CNE and CNI boards. Other subsidiaries may have directors as allowed by Cherokee law. Provided that, effective upon enactment of this act, the seats shall be assigned as follows:

Seat 1, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Mike Watkins

Seat 2, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Tommy Sue Wright

Seat 3, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Rex Earl Starr

Seat 4, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Bob Berry

Seat 5, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Brent Taylor

Seat 6, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Sam Hart

Seat 7, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Gary Cooper

Seat 8, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Jerry Holderby

Seat 9, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Rick Doherty

Seat 10, a term expiring 9/30/14, currently held by Deacon Turner

Seat 11, a term expiring 9/30/11, currently held by David Ballew

Seat 12, currently an open seat

Seat 13, currently an open seat

Seat 14, currently an open seat

Seat 15, currently an open seat

Seat 16, currently an open seat

Seat 17, currently an open seat

5. Capital investments. The CNB Board of Directors shall establish appropriate policies for capital maintenance and investments based upon individual subsidiary business needs. Provided, that Cherokee Nation Enterprises shall retain minimum capital for expansions from net income in the amounts equal to forty percent (40%) of net income for fiscal years 2006 through 2008.

6. Business operations. All business operations shall be conducted directly by each subsidiary in its own name.

7. Advisory Board Members. Legislative Act 35–02 establishing Advisory Board Members for each business entity in which the Nation is a majority shareholder is referenced and hereby reaffirmed. Advisory Board members provide oversight of the Council for ongoing advice and notice of business activities.

8. Dividends not affected. Dividends required or otherwise authorized by LA 16–96, as amended, remain unchanged by this act.

9. Authority. CNB shall have all powers of corporations as provided by LA 16–96, as amended.

B. Acquisitions.

1. Real estate acquisitions. CNB shall be subject to Legislative Act 4–04, as amended, which requires that all real estate acquisitions by corporations in which the Nation is a majority shareholder, greater than Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000.00) in the aggregate annually be approved by the Council of Cherokee Nation.

2. Notice to Council. Notice for business acquisitions shall be provided to the Council of Cherokee Nation, prior to notification to the public or to members of the press. Such notification will include, but not be limited to, notice in writing or presentation to special and regular committee meetings.

COUNCIL

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Voting upon appointment to public office of persons related to Members of Council

No Member of the Council shall vote for the appointment of any person to any office in the Nation who is related to such Member by affinity or consanguinity within the first degree.

§ 2. Removal of Members of Council

Any Member of the Council may be removed by a majority vote of the other Members of the Council for willful neglect of duty, habitual drunkenness or conviction of any crime involving moral turpitude while in office.

§ 3. Filling of vacancies

A. When a vacancy occurs in any office of elected councilors, the Tribal Council shall appoint, by a majority vote of the remaining councilors, a person to fill the vacancy until the next General Election. Provided that if there are twenty-four (24) months or more remaining of the term of office that has been vacated then the vacancy shall be filled by Special Election by the electorate of that District.

B. A vacancy occurs upon the effective date of the resignation of the Councilor, the death of a Councilor, the disability of the Councilor or the judicial determination of the inability to serve as Councilor.

C. If more than twenty-four (24) months remain of the Councilor's term whose office is vacated, then a Special Election shall be called to elect an individual to fill the remaining term. This election shall be held as soon as practicable after the vacancy occurs. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the Cherokee Nation Election Code, 26 CNCA.

D. The person appointed by the Tribal Council to fill the vacancy shall be a registered voter and tribal citizen in and of the District for which the deceased or disabled Councilor served.

E. To be eligible for appointment to fill a vacancy in an elected Councilor's office, a person must meet the same qualifications required for filing a declaration for candidacy for that office, as prescribed by law.

F. Applications by person(s) applying to fill the vacancy shall not be in any particular form, however, the application must include the person's name(s), address (both physical and mailing), phone number(s), and length of residence in the vacant District.

G. All applicants shall appear before the Rules Committee for interviews. The Chairperson of the Rules Committee shall notify all applicants of the specific date, time and place of said interview by regular mail. Further, public notice of said interviews shall be posted at least ten (10) days in advance. This notice shall be posted outside Cherokee Nation Tribal Council Chambers. Every effort should be made to publish the information concerning the procedures on how the vacancy will be filled throughout the appropriate District.

H. Cherokee Nation shall cause to be published the vacancy of office and said publication shall specify the District in which the vacancy exists, and a deadline by which the Cherokee Council shall receive applications for the position. This information shall be published in at least one (1) newspaper, which is circulated in the District in which the vacancy exists.

I. Nothing herein shall prevent Councilors from obtaining and submitting resumes of qualified candidates for consideration.

J. The Rules Committee shall forward one or more names to the next regular Council meeting for consideration. If more than one name is submitted to full Council, the Council shall vote for the candidate of their choice. If no candidate receives a majority of votes of those Councilpersons present and voting, then the last placed candidate shall be excluded and voting shall commence. This process shall continue until one (1) candidate receives a majority of votes cast.

K. All voting shall be done by public roll call.

L. Immediately after the candidate has received a majority of votes he or she shall be sworn in as Councilperson and assume office for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacated office.

§ 4. Repealed by LA 34-07, eff. September 13, 2007

§ 5. Publication of Council minutes

The approved minutes of each Council meeting, Executive Sessions excepted, will be published in the Cherokee Phoenix in their entirety on a regular monthly basis.

CHAPTER 2

COMMITTEES

§ 11. Standing Committees—Establishment

The following Standing Committees of the Council are hereby established:

1. Community Services
2. Rules Committee
3. Resources Committee
4. Executive and Finance Committee
5. Education and Culture Committee
6. Health Committee

§ 12. Standing Committees—Membership

Membership on all Standing Committees shall be by appointment of the Deputy Principal Chief with nominations for the appointments coming from the Council of Cherokee Nation. Without good cause shown, no appointment of a nominee shall be denied. All nominations shall be brought before the Council for approval and confirmation. The Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief shall serve as non-voting ex-officio members of any Standing Committee. The Council shall set the number of members to serve on each Standing Committee.

§ 13. Standing Committees—Jurisdiction and duties

The Council shall define the jurisdiction and duties of the Standing Committees in the Rules of Procedure governing the Tribal Council.

§ 14. Code Subcommittee—Establishment—Composition—Compensation of Members—Meetings

A Code Subcommittee is hereby established within the Rules Committee of the Council of Cherokee Nation to be composed of such members of the Rules Committee as the Chairman of that Committee shall appoint. The Code Subcommittee shall serve without additional compensation. The Subcommittee shall meet upon the call of the Chairman.

§ 15. Repeal of prior legislation

Any and all resolutions, bills, or laws pertaining to establishing committees and the duties and procedures thereof are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 3

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

§ 21. Compensation of Council Members—Generally

A. Tribal Council Member. Salaries of Council Members of Cherokee Nation shall be the average of the salaries paid to the Council Members or comparable office of the members of the five Civilized Tribes and the Eastern Band of Cherokees based on a survey conducted of available information. Provided that this amount shall not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) or fall below Twenty-Eight Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($28,600.00).

B. Salaries for future terms of elected officials. For all duly elected officials serving in August 2011, and thereafter, the annual salaries for the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and Council Members of Cherokee Nation shall be based on the report submitted from a Citizens' Committee.

1. The Citizens' Committee shall be comprised of two (2) appointees by the Principal Chief, two (2) appointees by the Council of Cherokee Nation, and a fifth member selected by the four (4) appointees.

2. The Citizens' Committee shall convene prior to the filing period for the elected offices in the election year of the Principal Chief to make its finding and report and meet every four (4) years thereafter.

3. The Citizens' Committee shall consider relevant comparative salary levels such as, but not limited to, salary information from other tribal governments, state and local governments, and the private sector. The Citizens' Committee may use Cherokee Nation's Human Resources and the Council of Cherokee Nation's Financial Officer as sources of information.

4. The report of the Citizens' Committee shall set the salaries for all elected officials of Cherokee Nation unless rejected by Legislative Act within sixty (60) days of the Committee's report.

§§ 22, 23. Repealed by LA 17-09, eff. June 21, 2009

CHAPTER 4

OFFICERS AND MEETINGS

COUNCIL ATTENDANCE

§ 31. President of the Council

The Deputy Principal Chief shall preside over meetings of the Council, as President of the Council, and in his absence this function shall be performed by any Member whom the Council shall designate.

§ 32. Secretary of the Council

The Council shall select from its membership a Secretary of the Council. The Secretary or his delegated deputy shall attend all meetings of the Council and be responsible for maintaining the journal and providing any clerical assistance requested by the Council.

§ 33. Time and place of sessions

The Council of Cherokee Nation shall meet in regular session once a month on the second Saturday at the seat of government of Cherokee Nation, three miles south of Tahlequah, Oklahoma, commencing at 9 a.m.

§ 33.5. Attendance by means of electronic interactive device

A. At-Large Members of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council may attend Tribal Council Committee meetings through the aid of a device which provides two-way transmission of both visual and audio communication, provided that there is otherwise a quorum physically present at the location of the meeting without counting the Members attending via electronic devices, and also provided that the physically absent Members are able to fully participate and vote through the aid of the interactive devices.

B. Any Member of the Tribal Council who is unable to attend a meeting or session because he or she is conducting official Cherokee Nation business may attend Tribal Council Committee meetings through the aid of a device which provides two-way transmission of both visual and audio communication, provided that there is otherwise a quorum physically present at the location of the meeting without counting the Members attending via electronic devices, and also provided that the physically absent Members are able to fully participate and vote through the aid of the interactive devices. Further this privilege may be extended to any Member of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council who is unable to attend committee meetings provided that two-thirds (2/3) of the committee approves the circumstances or reason for the Council person being unable to be physically present.

C. The provisions of the act do not apply to a Chairperson of a Committee.

§ 34. Adjournment of sessions

Sessions of the Council shall be adjourned to a day certain or the next Regular Session.

§ 35. Rules and procedure generally

All proceedings, meetings, and sessions of the Council shall be conducted in accordance with recognized rules and procedures, and, where the same do not conflict with rules adopted by the Council, this chapter or the Constitution, said recognized rules and procedures shall be consistent with Robert's Rules of Order, revised edition.

§ 36. Order of business

The order of business of each regular meeting of the Council of Cherokee Nation shall be as follows:

- A. Call to order
- B. Invocation
- C. Roll call
- D. Approval of minutes of previous meeting
- E. State of the Nation address
- F. Action of unfinished business
- G. Committee reports
- H. New business
- I. Adjournment

§ 37. Roll call votes

A roll call vote shall be called, the vote recorded on every law and, when requested by any Member of the Council, on individual resolutions and said vote shall be recorded in the permanent journal of the Council.

§ 37.5. Executive Session

A. The Tribal Council and its Committees shall be able to go into Executive Session for the following reasons:

1. When discussion shall concern employment, retention or discharge of personnel;
2. When the question or the moral turpitude of any citizen of Cherokee Nation is discussed; or
3. When the decorum of the audience shall prejudice orderly administration of business.

B. Prior to going into Executive Session the specific reason and justification must be stated and made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

C. No subject other than the items specifically stated may be discussed in Executive Session.

D. Upon entering into Executive Session, no vote shall be taken nor any course of action be agreed upon by the Council.

E. All Executive Sessions shall be recorded. Upon leaving Executive Session, the tape shall be sealed and kept in a secure location by the Council staff. The recording shall not be made available to any party unless ordered by the Court of law with appropriate jurisdiction.

F. Nothing in this act shall prevent Councilors from privately meeting to obtain proprietary or sensitive information, provided that a quorum is not established at such meetings.

COUNCIL ATTENDANCE

§ 38. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as "The Council Attendance Act of 1998."

§ 38.1. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to allow the Council to ensure attendance of a quorum as defined in the Constitution of Cherokee Nation whereby they may conduct the necessary affairs of Cherokee Nation.

§ 38.2. Legislative intent

The intent of the Council in enacting this act is to ensure legislative matters to be addressed by the Council are resolved in a timely manner without unreasonable or unwarranted delay.

§ 38.3. Quorum

A quorum shall consist of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Members of the Council thereof regularly elected and qualified.

§ 38.4. Absence

No Member of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council shall absent himself or herself from attendance at regular or special meetings, as defined in Article V, Sections 4 and 5 of the Cherokee Constitution of 1975 [now Article VI, Sections 4 and 5], without leave.

§ 38.5. Establishment of quorum

If, at any regular or special council meeting, as defined in Article V, Sections 4 and 5 of the Cherokee Constitution of 1975 [now Article VI, Sections 4 and 5], a question shall be raised by any Councilor as to the presence of a quorum, the President of the Council shall forthwith direct the Secretary to call the roll and shall announce the result, and these proceedings shall be without debate.

§ 38.6. Compelling attendance

Whenever upon such roll call it shall be ascertained that a quorum is not present, a majority of the Council present may direct the Chief of the Marshal Service to request and, when necessary, to compel the attendance of the absent Councilor(s), which order shall be determined without debate, and pending its execution, and until a quorum shall be present, no debate nor motion, except to adjourn or to recess pursuant to a previous order entered by unanimous consent, shall be in order.

§ 39. Legislative Aide

A. The Legislative Aide shall be the custodian of all official recordings of Committee or Council meetings regardless of whether or not the Legislative Aide performed the actual recording. The Legislative Aide shall not release original records and shall maintain those records in a secure place.

B. The Legislative Aide shall maintain and not relinquish custody of the recordings except as provided herein.

C. The Legislative Aide shall make a public copy of the records for copying and inspection. Any citizen of Cherokee Nation, upon written request, may inspect and listen to a copy of the records in the offices of the Clerk.

D. The Legislative Aide shall make provisions upon written request for a copy of the records and tender of cost of copying by any citizen of Cherokee Nation to copy the records within forty-eight (48) hours.

E. After the expiration of three (3) years, the Legislative Aide shall transfer custody of the original records for archiving in the Cherokee National Historical Society.

CHAPTER 5

GOVERNMENTAL RECORDS

§ 41. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation Governmental Records Act".

§ 42. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to provide for open access to each Member of the Council of Cherokee Nation ("Council") to all "records" as defined below prepared in the discharge of governmental duties of the "Cherokee Government" as defined below, and to provide procedures under which the Council and its Members shall obtain such records.

§ 43. Findings

The Council of Cherokee Nation finds as follows:

1. Pursuant to Article V, Section 7 of the Cherokee Constitution of 1975 [now Article VI, Section 7], the Council, as the Legislative Department of the Government, has "the power to establish laws which it shall deem necessary and proper for the good of the Nation."
2. Among the constitutional duties of the Council are the responsibilities to oversee the implementation of the laws enacted by the Council and oversee the disbursement of funds appropriated by the Council. In order to carry out these duties, the Council must have access to all records of the Cherokee Government.

§ 44. Definitions

A. "Cherokee Government" means collectively, Cherokee Nation, its elected officials, officers, employees, agents and contractors, or any of the Nation's agencies, commissions, boards, corporations and their subsidiaries, or other entities, and their elected officials, officers, directors, employees, members, agents and contractors.

B. "Records" means all documents, including but not limited to any book, paper, photograph, microfilm, data files created by or used with computer software, computer tape, disk, and record, sound recording, film recording, video record or other material regardless of physical form or characteristic, created by, received by, under the authority of, or coming into the custody, control or possession of the Cherokee Government. "Records" does not mean computer software or nongovernmental personal effects.

§ 45. Requests for records

A. Requests for records shall be in writing and addressed to the Principal Chief or his designated officer. The request shall identify with particularity the agency(ies) or other entity(ies) and/or the matter(s) which are the subject of the request. Said requests shall be delivered to the Legislative Aide of the Council, who shall enter said request in the records of the Council and shall deliver it to the Principal Chief or his designee on the same or the following working day.

B. The Principal Chief shall cause the records requested to be produced within six (6) working days of the receipt of such request at no cost to the Council Member(s). If it is not possible to produce the requested record during the prescribed time limit, the Principal Chief shall, within the prescribed time limit, provide a written explanation to the Council Member(s) as to why the requested record cannot be made available. If the record cannot be made available at a later date, the Chief will include a statement as to when the record will be provided to the Council Member(s). In no event shall the total time to produce be extended beyond sixteen (16) working days from the date of the receipt of the initial request.

C. No confidentiality agreements affecting records covered by this act or claim of privilege or confidentiality shall prevent the Council Members from having access to any records.

D. In the event that the record submitted to the Council Member(s) is "privileged or confidential" as defined under the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4) and the federal case law thereunder, that record shall, nevertheless, be produced or otherwise made available to the requesting Council Member(s); provided, however, that the producing Cherokee Government officer shall give notice to the Council Member(s) of such status and shall clearly mark each such record with the words "Privileged and Confidential." The Council Member(s) shall make no disclosures of such privileged or confidential records to third parties. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, personal financial information, credit reports or other financial data obtained by or submitted to the Cherokee Government for the purpose of evaluating credit worthiness, obtaining a license, permit or for the purpose of becoming qualified to contract with the Cherokee Government shall be "privileged or confidential" under this act.

E. Individual health, adoption, and medical records, records deemed classified by the U.S. government, records constituting attorney-client privilege and any records prohibited by federal law from delivery to the Tribal Council shall not be disclosable to the Council under this act.

F. A violation of this act shall be a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 6

SUBPOENA AND INVESTIGATIONS

§ 51. Short title

This legislative act shall be known and may be cited as the "Cherokee Nation Subpoena and Investigation Act of 2000."

§ 52. Purpose

The purpose of this act is to enable the Tribal Council to conduct necessary investigations and compel attendance of witnesses and production of documents at properly called hearings before Cherokee Nation Tribal Council.

§ 53. Definitions

A. "Contempt" means a willful disregard or disobedience of a public authority, namely, the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council.

B. "Hearing" means a relatively formal proceeding where evidence is taken to determine issues of fact and to render decisions based on that evidence.

C. "Subpoena" means a command to appear at a certain time and place to give testimony upon a certain matter.

D. "Subpoena duces tecum" means a subpoena requiring the production of books, papers and other things, which are in the control or custody of the person served with process.

§ 54. Authority to conduct hearings—Procedures

A. The Cherokee Nation Tribal Council shall have the authority to hold hearings and conduct investigation concerning matters in which the Council has oversight authority.

B. A hearing shall be called upon a majority vote of the Tribal Council at Regular Session. The agenda item calling for the hearing shall state the time and place at which the hearing is to be conducted. Further, the agenda shall state in detail the subject matter of the hearing.

C. The Tribal Council shall have authority to require the furnishing of such information, attendance of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, papers or other objects as may be necessary and proper for the purpose of the proceeding.

D. The Tribal Council or its designated representative may take the deposition of witnesses, within or without Cherokee Nation, in the same manner as is provided by law for the taking of depositions in civil actions of courts of record.

§ 55. Subpoena authority

In furtherance of the powers granted in 19 CNCA § 54, the Tribal Council upon its own motion may, at any hearing:

1. issue subpoenas for witnesses;
2. issue subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of books, records, papers or other objects, which may be served by any person in any manner prescribed for the service of a subpoena in a civil action; or
3. quash a subpoena or subpoenas duces tecum so issued; provided, prior to quashing a subpoena or subpoenas duces tecum the Tribal Council shall give notice to the necessary parties.

§ 56. Mandatory compliance

A. In case of disobedience to any subpoena issued and served under this section or to Cherokee Nation Tribal Council requirement for information, or of the refusal of any person to testify to any matter regarding which he may be interrogated lawfully in a proceeding before the Tribal Council, the Tribal Council or its designated representative may apply to the District Court or to any Judge thereof for an order to compel compliance with the subpoena or the furnishing of information or the giving of testimony. Forthwith the Court or the Judge shall cite the respondent to appear and shall hear the matter as expeditiously as possible.

B. If the disobedience or refusal is found to be unlawful, the Court, or the Judge, shall enter an order requiring compliance. Disobedience of such an order shall be punished as contempt of court in the some manner and by the same procedure as is provided for like conduct committed in the course of judicial proceedings.

C. The Tribal Council shall have the authority to freeze the funding authorities of any department or agency within Cherokee Nation whose directors, employees, appointed or elected officials fail to comply with any subpoena issued and served under this section or fall to furnish information or refuse to testify to Cherokee Nation Tribal Council as required herein.

TITLE 20

COURTS

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Courts may appoint Interpreter

The several Courts of this Nation shall, whenever the Presiding Judge may deem necessary, appoint and compensate an Interpreter. The Interpreter shall be sworn to accurately interpret to the best of his ability.

§ 2. Witness qualifications—Oath

Any person, of whatever religious belief, and of sufficient age and intelligence to comprehend the obligation of an oath, not excluded upon the ground of interest, and not otherwise disqualified by law, may be called as a witness in any suit brought before a Cherokee Nation Court. The following oath shall be administered to each witness when called for examination in any cause or proceeding, before making his statement:

"You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the statement you will make, and the answers you will give, in the matter whereof you are about to be examined, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, to the best of your knowledge. So help you God."

§ 3. Cross-examination

All matters, properly affecting the credibility of any witness who has been examined by one party, shall be allowed to be proven by the opposite party by means of cross-examination or by other witnesses, under the rules established by law or the Supreme Court and found applicable by the Presiding Judge. If no such rule be found applicable, the Presiding Judge shall determine it as justice shall appear to him to require, and shall cause his ruling on each point to be recorded with the reasons, in brief, thereof.

§ 4. Non-attendance of witnesses

No excuse for non-attendance on the part of a witness, duly summoned to testify before any Court, shall be deemed lawful and valid, unless satisfactory showing be made to the Court that obedience to the summons was impossible, or would have been attended with serious and unavoidable loss, or with probable and serious danger to his own health, or to the health of his family.

§ 5. Costs and attorneys fees

Necessary costs and reasonable fees may be awarded to a prevailing party in any lawsuit, action, claim, appeal, grievance, or controversy of any kind initiated within or brought before any department, agency, commission or board of Cherokee Nation or the District Court or Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation, if it is determined by the Judge, Justice, Administrative Law Judge or ultimate decision maker that the above described action or defense is frivolous or without merit.

CHAPTER 2

DISTRICT COURT—JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE

§ 11. Application and purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the establishment of a Cherokee Nation District Court of general jurisdiction to hear cases and controversies arising under the Constitution, treaties and laws of Cherokee Nation. Decisions of the Cherokee Nation District Court will be subject to review by the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court as the court of final review.

§ 12. Composition

The District Court of Cherokee Nation shall be composed of one (1) or more District Judges and Associate District Judges to be appointed by the Principal Chief and confirmed by the Council as needed for the orderly administration of justice.

Any citizen of Cherokee Nation who is a member in good standing of a state bar association who has never been convicted of a felony shall be eligible for appointment as District Judge.

§ 13. Terms of District Judges

District Judges and Associate District Judges shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years. Previous appointment and service by a District Judge shall not disqualify the Judge for continued appointment and service.

§ 14. Oath of District Judge

Any District Judge or Associate District Judge shall, before entering upon the duties of office, take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation:

"I, _____, do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will faithfully execute the duties of District Judge of Cherokee Nation and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitutions of Cherokee Nation and the United States of America. I swear or affirm further that I will do everything within my power to promote the culture, heritage and traditions of Cherokee Nation."

§ 15. Disability or vacancy in office of District Judge

Whenever a District Judge or Associate District Judge is unable to perform his duties of office or the office is vacant, his powers and duties shall devolve upon the Associate District Judge next in seniority who is able to act, until such disability is removed or another District Judge is appointed and duly qualified.

§ 16. Salaries—Travel expenses—Disciplinary action

Salary for District Judges and Associate District Judges shall be fixed by the Office of the Principal Chief with approval by the Council. District Court Judges and Associate District Court Judges shall be considered a special class of employees for travel purposes. District Court Judges and Associate District Court Judges are exempt from any disciplinary action through the Human Resource Department Policy and Procedures. Such Judges may only be disciplined or removed under the provision of the Constitution of Cherokee Nation or applicable statute.

§ 17. Removal from office

A. Any District Judge of Cherokee Nation or the Council of Cherokee Nation may recommend the removal of any District Judge from office if, in the opinion of the District Judge or the Council, there is reasonable cause to believe a Judge to be guilty of malfeasance or misfeasance of office, neglect of duty, mental or physical incompetence to perform his duties of office, or the Judge has been convicted of a felony in state or federal court since entering upon duty or a crime under Cherokee law which if committed under the laws of Oklahoma would be a felony.

B. Such recommendation shall be presented promptly to the Council, and the Judge whom it has sought to remove from office shall be accorded an opportunity to appear before the Council and present evidence in his own defense. Thereafter, such Judge may be removed from office by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Council.

§ 18. Clerk

The Office of the Principal Chief shall select a Clerk of the District Court to manage and otherwise maintain the business office of the District Court, and such clerkship may be combined with that of the Supreme Court.

§ 19. Reserved

§ 20. District Court Office

The District Court of Cherokee Nation shall maintain an office at the seat of government. The purpose of said office is to conduct the regular business affairs of the District Court.

§ 21. Place and terms of District Court proceedings

The District Court shall hold Court at the seat of government or at such other place as deemed necessary for the orderly administration of justice. Terms of Court shall be set by the District Judges.

§ 22. District Court deemed always open—Effect of sessions

A. The District Court shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing papers, issuing and returning process and making motion and orders.

B. Continued existence or expiration of a session of the District Court in no way affects the power of the District Court to do any act or take any proceeding.

§ 23. Judicial Conference

District Judges and Associate District Judges shall attend and participate in the annual Judicial Conference called by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

§ 24. Jurisdiction—Generally

The District Court of Cherokee Nation shall have general jurisdiction and is vested with original jurisdiction, not otherwise reserved to the Supreme Court, to hear and resolve disputes arising under the laws or Constitution of Cherokee Nation in both law and equity, whether criminal or civil in nature. Such actions shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Crimes. All violations of the Criminal Code of Cherokee Nation committed within its territorial jurisdiction within the following categories:

a. Offenses committed by Indians, as defined by federal law, against all others, Indian and non-Indian; and

b. Offenses committed by Indians, as defined by federal law, which are victimless.

2. Civil causes of action. All causes of action which arise within the territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation within the following categories:

a. Between all parties, Indian and non-Indian, who by their actions have submitted themselves to the jurisdiction of said Court; and

b. Where the defendant is Indian, as defined by federal law.

3. Domestic relations. All cases involving the domestic relations of Indians including child custody and adoption matters.

4. Child support enforcement.

a. All child support cases arising in Cherokee Nation Indian country regardless of whether the parties are Indian or non-Indian.

b. All child support cases arising on fee land within the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation if the child in question is an enrolled citizen of Cherokee Nation or is eligible for enrollment as a citizen of Cherokee Nation except that the petitioning party may request that the matter be heard in state district court.

c. At the request of the custodial parent or entity, all child support cases arising on fee land outside the jurisdictional boundaries of Cherokee Nation where the noncustodial parent is a citizen of Cherokee Nation.

d. All child support cases presented to Cherokee Nation by the IV–D agencies of states or other tribes if Cherokee Nation District Court has personal jurisdiction over the noncustodial parent or the employer of the noncustodial parent.

5. Miscellaneous. All other matters over which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in Cherokee Nation District Court or which may hereafter be placed within the jurisdiction of said Court by enactment of the Council.

§ 25. Jurisdiction—Territorial

The territorial jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation District Court shall extend to include all "Indian country" also known as "Cherokee country" within the fourteen- (14) county area of northeastern Oklahoma as defined by the Treaties of 1828, 1833 and 1835 and the Patent of 1838 between the United States of America and Cherokee Nation, and at such other locations within the United States which qualify as "Cherokee country."

§ 26. Writs or orders

The District Court shall have the power to issue any writs or orders necessary and proper to complete the exercise of its jurisdiction.

§ 27. Rules

The District Court shall have the power to adopt all such rules as are necessary for the proper and complete exercise of its jurisdiction and for orderly conduct of proceedings in the court.

CHAPTER 3

SUPREME COURT—ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

§§ 31 to 43. Repealed by LA 29–07, eff. October 1, 2007

§ 44. Reimbursement of expenses incurred by members of Supreme Court—Annual disclosure

The Justices of the Supreme Court shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred for secretarial assistance, law clerk assistance and/or research, travel, training, postage, telephone, photocopies, facsimiles, judicial conferences, lodging and meals. Such expenses shall be paid from the Supreme Court budget, and must be documented and submitted to the Accounting Department of Cherokee Nation. The nature and amount of all reimbursable expenses shall be reported annually to the citizens of Cherokee Nation, and such report shall be available for publication in any newspaper or newspapers requesting such information.

§ 45. Establishment of a law library—Maintenance and expenditures—Use by Cherokee citizens—Annual disclosure

The Supreme Court shall establish, maintain, oversee and control a law library in the Cherokee Nation Courthouse. The law library shall contain such books, publications and research aids as deemed necessary by the Justices of the Supreme Court, the District Court Judges and Associate District Judges, including but not limited to electronic research aids. The cost of such law library shall be paid from the budget of the Supreme Court and District Court. When such books and publications are not being used by the Justices of the Supreme Court, District Court Judges, Associate District Judges and other officials of Cherokee Nation, and their assistants, such items may be used by the citizens of Cherokee Nation, on such conditions and rules are adopted by the Supreme Court.

The expenses incurred in maintaining such library shall be reported annually to the citizens of Cherokee Nation, and such report shall be made available for publication in any newspaper or newspapers requesting such information.

§ 46. Supplies, material, postage, office equipment, telephone and facsimile expense—Annual disclosure

The Justices of the Supreme Court shall purchase and pay for such supplies, material, postage, office equipment, telephone and facsimile expense from the budget of the Supreme Court as is reasonable and necessary. The amount of such purchases and expenditures shall be reported annually to the citizens of Cherokee Nation, and such report shall be available for publication in any newspaper or newspapers requesting such information.

§ 47. Filing fees and court costs

The Supreme Court shall have the authority to establish filing fees and court costs for actions or proceedings filed in the Supreme Court and Courts over which it exercises general superintendence and Courts of inferior jurisdiction. Provided that the Court upon the filing of a verified Pauper's Affidavit may waive these fees and costs. The Supreme Court shall establish rules to carry out the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 4

SUPREME COURT—POWERS AND DUTIES GENERALLY

§ 51. Jurisdiction of Supreme Court generally

A. The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction over all matters set forth in Article VIII, Section 4 of the Cherokee Constitution and:

1. Any dispute between the branches of the Government of Cherokee Nation.
2. Any case or controversy involving Cherokee Nation elections that has first been addressed by the Cherokee Nation Election Commission, and/or which is specifically provided for by statute.

B. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction over all other cases.

§ 51.1. Codification of term "Supreme Court"

All statutes and official documents of Cherokee Nation which contain the term "Judicial Appeals Tribunal" shall be changed to "Cherokee Nation Supreme Court" or "Supreme Court" where applicable.

§ 52. Superintendence over courts of inferior jurisdiction

The Supreme Court shall have authority within the limits of its judicial action as prescribed by law, to exercise a general superintendence over courts of inferior jurisdiction, through and by means of decisions made and declared by the Supreme Court upon questions of law, evidence, and practice, submitted to them in the course of the trial or examination of all causes of which they shall be allowed cognizance by law.

§ 53. Supreme Court may prescribe rules of procedure for courts of inferior jurisdiction

The Supreme Court shall also have power to prescribe from time to time, such rules of practice for regulating the procedure in the trial of cases in the lower courts, as they may deem necessary, expedient or serviceable, and which shall not conflict with the rules prescribed by law. The object of the Court in prescribing such rules shall be the more speedy and accurate presentation of the issue or point of difference between the parties, the exclusions of unnecessary and irrelevant testimony, and the more certain administration of justice.

§ 54. Supreme Court decisions to have the force of law

All decisions made by the Supreme Court shall have the force of law, as to the construction and application thereof, in all the Courts of this Nation, until such construction or application shall be limited, altered, or in any manner amended, by the subsequent decision of a subsequent case by the Supreme Court.

§ 55. Publication of decisions of Supreme Court

All decisions of the Supreme Court shall be preserved and open to inspection. The court shall forward copies of each decision to the Secretary–Treasurer of Cherokee Nation.

§ 56. Decisions to be rendered for the true interpretation of the law

All decisions of the Supreme Court (intermediate and final) shall be made and rendered, as well for the government and guidance of the lower Courts and the citizens of this Nation in general, as for the just and true interpretation of the law, and the settlement of the dispute and administration of justice between the parties. Accordingly, each decision shall be accompanied with a statement, as far and as full as may be practicable, or necessary for the purpose, of the grounds in law or evidence upon and by reason of which, such decision has been made. Each decision shall be attended or preceded by a distinct statement of the issue between the parties, the situation of the case as set forth by the evidence before the Court, the law or laws governing the case, and the interpretation and application of the same by the Court, with the reasons therefor, and the principles of law or evidence involved in the suit and affecting the decision thereof; and of such other matters and considerations, having relation to the decision, which the Court may deem essential to give value and force to a law precedent for the government and guidance of the Courts and citizens of the Nation in similar cases arising thereafter.

§ 57. Adoption of rules governing pleading, practice and procedure

A. The Justices shall have authority to adopt rules of pleading, practice and procedure applicable to any or all proceedings in the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation. In addition, they may adopt uniform rules for the admission of evidence and may require the use of standard forms for pleadings, motions and other papers filed in the Supreme Court by litigants, as well as for judgments, writs, and court orders.

B. Any rule adopted by the Justices shall be transmitted to the Council, directing the codification of such rule.

C. No rule adopted by the Justices shall be effective until approved under procedures adopted by the Justices and transmitted to the Council.

§ 58. Administration of oaths and affirmations—Taking of acknowledgments

Each Justice of Cherokee Nation may administer oaths and affirmations and take acknowledgements.

§ 59. Disqualification of Justices

Any Justice of Cherokee Nation shall disqualify himself in any case in which he has a substantial interest, has been of counsel, is or has been a material witness, or is so related to or connected with any party or his attorney as to render it improper, in his opinion, for him to sit during any proceeding therein.

§ 60. Temporary appointment on disqualification or recusal of Justice

Upon the disqualification or recusal of a Justice of the Supreme Court, the remaining members shall appoint a Judge of the District Court of Cherokee Nation to temporarily serve as a Justice of the Supreme Court for the specific case only.

XVIII. MISCELLANEOUS JUDICIAL RULES

I. IN GENERAL

Rule 1. Rules to be liberally construed

The rules and procedures in this Appendix shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes and provisions of the Appendix.

Rule 2. Amendment or rescission of rules

Any rule or procedure may be amended or rescinded by the Supreme Court at anytime; provided, however, any amendment or rescission of rules by the Supreme Court must meet the requirements of 20 CNCA § 57(B) and (C). All prior Court Rules are hereby rescinded or incorporated herein.

II. PETITION

Rule 3. Withdrawal and dismissal

Prior to the time an answer is filed, any petition may be withdrawn and dismissed without Court approval. After an answer has been filed, a petition may be dismissed only with the consent of the Court.

Rule 4. Assignment and disposition of cases, effectiveness of orders, appeal—Motions for reconsideration—Cases retained for en banc determination

The Chief Justice shall have the power to retain any case, or assign any case to one of the Justices for all such preliminary proceedings as ordered. Any final adjudication or dismissal in a case shall be made by a majority of the Justices and shall be effective immediately when filed with the Court Clerk.

The Chief Justice shall retain the power to assign any case to the entire court for decision. In that case, the words "the Justice," used herein, shall apply to a majority of the Supreme Court.

Rule 5. Filing

Any petition requesting judicial review shall meet the requirements of 20 CNCA § 51(A), (B), (C), or (D). The petition shall be filed in the Office of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court, P.O. Box 1097, Tahlequah, Oklahoma 74465. The offices of the Supreme Court are at the Cherokee Nation Courthouse, Cherokee Capitol Square, 101 S. Muskogee Ave., Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

Rule 6. Requirement of filing fees

All petitions must be filed in person. The petitioner must pay the required filing fee of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00), or Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for an appeal. Payments can be made in the form of cash, check, or money order payable to the Court. An application for waiver of fee pauper's affidavit can be completed and submitted to the Court Administrator for approval.

Rule 7. Use of fax/e-mail

A. Fax

1. Parties may file affidavits, pleadings, motions and other documents by use of fax transmission for documents of ten (10) pages or less;
2. The fax must include a transmittal/cover sheet reflecting the sending party's name, address, bar number, phone number, fax number, case name and case number. The fax number for the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court is (918) 458-9572.
3. The faxed document, which must bear a facsimile of the required signature, will be accepted as an "original" document.

B. E-mail

1. A document permitted to be filed by e-mail pursuant to these rules shall be sent to the Court Clerk of the Supreme Court using the following e-mail address: kendall-bird@cherokee.org. Documents sent to any other e-mail address of the Supreme Court shall not be considered for filing under any circumstances.
2. The e-mail must reflect the sending party's name, address, bar number, phone number, e-mail address, case name and case number.
3. A document permitted to be filed by e-mail shall be submitted as a PDF file (Portable Document Format).
4. A document that may be filed by e-mail pursuant to these rules shall include a scanned version of the person's original signature or a signature line with a backslash followed by an "s" followed by the person's name in print (e.g., /s/ "John T. Smith").

C. Documents transmitted by fax or e-mail pursuant to these rules and received on a Saturday, Sunday, or other day on which the Clerk's Office is closed to the public, or after 4:30 p.m. on a business day, shall be considered for filing on the next business day. The time of receipt of a document is the timestamp provided by the Supreme Court's e-mail/fax system, the timestamp provided by any other computer/fax system shall not alter the time of receipt and affect this rule.

D. All risks associated with fax/e-mail filing are borne by the sender (e.g., court's phone/computer system being out of order, the receiving fax machine running out of paper, etc.)

E. Any document filed by fax/e-mail must also be served concurrently by fax, e-mail, hand-delivery or mail on all other parties to the appeal, and the faxed/e-mailed document must contain a certificate of service attesting to such service and that the document was initially filed with the Court via fax/e-mail. The time for filing a response to a document filed by fax/e-mail runs from the date the document was received by the Court pursuant to subsection (C) above.

F. The Clerk may reject documents that are not clearly legible or that fail to comply with these requirements.

Rule 8. Form—Jurat or declaration—Number of copies

Such petition shall be in writing with pages sequentially numbered at the bottom center of each page and signed, and either shall be sworn to before a notary public, Justice, or other person authorized by law to administer oaths and take acknowledgements or shall contain a declaration by the person signing it, under the penalties of the Criminal Code, that its contents are true and correct to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief. An unstapled original of such petition shall be filed.

Rule 9. Contents

Such petition, or charge, shall contain the following:

1. the full name, address, telephone number, e-mail and fax number, if any, of the person filing the petition.
2. if the petition is filed on behalf of another person or organization, the full name, address, telephone number, e-mail and fax number, if any, of the party or organization represented.
3. the full name, address, telephone number, e-mail and fax number, if any, of the person against whom the charge is made (herein referred to as respondent).
4. a clear and concise statement of the facts, constituting the alleged claim, including the date, place and names of those parties involved in the alleged claim.
5. a clear and concise statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the cause of action is being predicated.

Rule 10. Use of Bar Identification number

Every pleading, motion, and other paper of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his or her name, with Cherokee Nation Bar Association number and State Bar Association number.

III. NOTICE

Rule 11. Service of the petition and return

A copy of the petition and a copy of the summons issued by the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall be served by the Petitioner or his or her representative by certified mail-return receipt requested or by personal service by a process server licensed by the State of Oklahoma. Return of service shall be verified by the individual accomplishing such service and shall be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Rule 12. Rejection of petition

If at any time it appears to a majority of the Court that a formal proceeding is not warranted, the Court shall cause to be served on the parties a formal notice of rejection of the petition.

Rules 13 to 19. Reserved

IV. SERVICE AND FILING OF PAPERS

Rule 20. Service of pleadings, orders and notices

A. Service of pleadings to parties or their representatives who have entered their appearances by the parties shall be by personal delivery or regular mail with certificates of mailing/delivery attached.

B. Service of notices, notice of hearings, final order, orders and decisions of the Supreme Court shall be made by the Clerk of the Supreme Court by mail, fax or e-mail and shall be certified by the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Rule 21. Date of service—Filing of proof of service

A. The date of service shall be the day when the matter served is deposited in the United States mail or is actually delivered, as the case may be.

B. The person or party serving the papers or process on other parties shall submit a written statement of service thereof to the Supreme Court, stating the names of the parties served and the date and manner of service. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

Rule 22. Certification of papers and documents

The Court Clerk or Deputy Court Clerk of the Supreme Court or, in the event of their absence or disability, whosoever may be designated by the Chief Justice shall be authorized to certify copies of all papers and documents which are a part of any of the files or records of the Supreme Court as may be necessary or desirable from time to time.

Rule 23. Signature of orders

The Court Clerk or Deputy Court Clerk of the Supreme Court or, in the event of their absence or disability, whosoever may be designated by the Supreme Court in their place and stead is hereby authorized to sign all orders of the Supreme Court.

Rules 24 to 29. Reserved

V. ANSWER

Rule 30. When and by whom filed—Contents

Unless otherwise directed in the notice or scheduling order, the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the petition, file a response thereto. The response may be in the form of a motion to dismiss or other such motion. The respondent's answer shall specifically admit, deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the petition unless the respondent is without knowledge, in which case the respondent shall so state, such statement operating as a denial.

Rule 31. Place of filing—Service upon other parties—Form

An unstapled original of the response or answer shall be filed with the office of the Supreme Court, Cherokee Nation, P.O. Box 1097, Tahlequah, Oklahoma, 74465 by mail to or in person at the Cherokee Nation Courthouse, Cherokee Capitol Square, 101 S. Muskogee Ave., Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Filing by fax/e-mail is appropriate pursuant to Rule 7. Immediately upon the filing of a response, the respondent shall serve a copy thereof on the other parties. The pleadings of a party represented by counsel shall be signed by at least one attorney of record whose address, phone number, e-mail and fax number shall be stated, in their individual name. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign the pleadings and state an address, phone, e-mail and fax number, if any. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, an answer need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of the person filing an answer constitutes a certificate that the signer has read the answer; that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If an answer is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the answer had not been filed. For willful violation of this rule, the signing party may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

Rule 32. Extension of time for filing

The Chief Justice, or the Justice who is assigned to the case, upon own motion or upon proper cause shown through motion by any other party, may by written order extend the time within which a response or pleading shall be filed.

Rule 33. Amendment

Petitioner may amend the petition and the respondent may amend the answer at any time prior to the time allowing amendments as set forth in the scheduling order by the Chief Justice. When the time set in the scheduling order to amend has passed, amendments may only be allowed through good cause shown by motion to the Chief Justice or the Justice assigned to the case. If amendment is allowed, the Chief Justice or Justice shall fix such terms and periods providing so. If there is no scheduling order then the petition or answer maybe amended without permission from the Chief Justice or Justice.

Rules 34 to 39. Reserved

VI. MOTIONS

Rule 40. Place of filing—Contents—Service on other parties—Time for filing of motions and responses thereto

All motions shall be filed in writing in the office of the Supreme Court either in person, by mail, fax or e-mail as provided in Rule 7. All motions for summary judgment shall also be filed in writing in the office of the Supreme Court either in person, by mail, fax or e-mail as provided in Rule 7. Unless otherwise provided in these rules or by order of the Supreme Court, motions and responses thereto shall be filed promptly and within such time as not to delay the proceedings. Promptness and diligence are favored in all filings in the Supreme Court.

Rule 41. Rulings on motions generally

The Chief Justice's rulings as provided in Rule 11 and all other judicial rulings and orders shall be issued in writing and a copy served on each of the parties. The Justice designated to conduct the hearing shall rule on all motions after the opening of the hearing, and any orders in connection therewith, if announced at the hearing, shall be stated orally on the record; in all other cases, the Justice shall issue such rulings and orders in writing and shall cause a copy of the same to be served on each of the parties, or shall rule on the matter in the decision.

Rule 42. Motions, rulings and orders to be part of the record

All motions, rulings, and orders shall become a part of the record.

Rule 43. Motion to dismiss

The respondent may file a motion to dismiss at any time prior to the scheduling order or as permitted in the scheduling order, or move for dismissal at any hearing for:

1. lack of jurisdiction over subject matter.
2. lack of jurisdiction over persons.
3. insufficiency of process or service thereof.
4. failure of petitioner to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Rule 44. Motion for summary judgment

Either party may move for summary judgment by alleging that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and by alleging that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

Rule 45. Granting of motion to dismiss entire petition

All dispositive motions must be considered by the Court en banc except as set forth in Rule 11.

Rule 46. Filing of answer or other participation in proceedings not deemed a waiver of rights

The right to make motions or to make objections to rulings upon motions shall not be deemed waived by the filing of an answer or by other participation in the proceedings before the Supreme Court.

Rule 47. Intervention

Any person desiring to intervene in any proceeding shall file a motion in writing or, if made at the hearing, may move orally on the record, stating the grounds upon which such person claims an interest. An unstapled original of written motions shall be filed. Immediately upon filing such motion, the moving party shall serve a copy thereof on the other parties. The Court shall rule upon all such motions filed and shall cause a copy of said rulings to be served on the other parties. The Court may by order permit intervention in person or by counsel or other representative to such extent and upon such terms as deemed proper.

Rules 48, 49. Reserved

VII. APPELLATE PROCEDURE

Rule 50. Who may appeal

- A. Any party significantly and adversely affected by a decision of the District Court of the Cherokee Nation in a civil case may appeal.
- B. Any party in a criminal case may appeal a judgment or sentence. The prosecution may only appeal a decision to the extent it raises a question of law, rather than a question of fact.

Rule 51. Procedure for appeal—Time period to appeal

- A. An appeal to the Supreme Court in civil cases shall be by petition in error filed no later than thirty (30) days after the entry of the written judgment or order of the District Court.
- B. An appeal to the Supreme Court in criminal cases shall be made no later than thirty (30) days after entry of the written judgment or order of the District Court.
- C. If one party has filed an appeal within the time period provided, the other party shall file a response and may take a Cross–Appeal by filing across–petition in error within thirty (30) days of filing of the initial appeal.
- D. Late appeals shall be denied filing by the Clerk of the Supreme Court unless leave for late filing has been granted by the Court.
- E. The Court may, at their discretion, grant leave to appeal from any order or judgment upon the showing by appellant, supported by affidavit, that there is merit in the reasons for appeal and that late filing was not due to appellant or appellant's attorney/advocate's negligence.

Rule 52. Appeal

- A. An appeal is made by the filing of a petition in error with the Clerk of the Supreme Court.
- B. The petition in error must specify the party or parties taking the appeal by naming each one in the caption or body of the petition in error; designating and attaching a certified copy of the judgment, order, or part thereof being appealed; state whether oral arguments are requested, and the decision on the appeal desired from the Supreme Court.
- C. No appeal shall be dismissed for deficiency of form or title of the petition in error, or for failure to name a party whose intent to appeal is otherwise clear from the Petition In Error.
- D. Upon receipt of the petition in error and full payment of the filing fee, the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall docket the appeal and notify the Chief Justice of the pending appeal.

Rule 53. Service of notice of appeal

- A. A copy of the petition in error shall be served by the party filing the appeal on all parties' counsel of record and on the Clerk of the District Court or Administrative Court.
- B. Upon filing a petition in error, the appellant must pay a filing fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). A filing will only be accepted without payment when an appellant's pauper's affidavit is approved.

Rule 54. Bond or supersedeas bond

Upon the filing of the petition in error of a civil money judgment, the District Court may order the filing of a bond or other security in an amount sufficient to satisfy the judgment including costs in the event that the judgment is affirmed on appeal. The Supreme Court may waive the bond if the party demonstrates by petition or affidavit that he/she is unable to post the bond.

Rule 55. Stay or injunction

Application for a stay of the judgment or order of the District Court pending appeal, or for approval of a supersedeas bond, or for an order suspending, modifying, restoring or granting an injunction during the pendency of an appeal must be made first in the District Court. A motion for such relief may be made to the Supreme Court, but the motion shall show that application to the District Court for the relief sought is not practicable, or that the District Court has denied an application, or has failed to afford the relief which the applicant requested with the reasons given by the District Court for its action. Reasonable notice of the motion shall be given to all parties.

A stay shall be granted if the purposes of justice require it, and irreversible harm may occur if the stay is not granted.

Rule 56. Designation of record

All parties to an appeal shall file either a designation of record or counter designation of record. Concurrently with filing a petition in the Supreme Court, the party desiring the appeal shall mail to the other parties and file in both the District Court and Supreme Court a designation of any pertinent pleadings or documents filed in the case, transcript of proceedings, and evidence adduced which are sought to be included in the record of appeal. The Supreme Court reserves the right to order any additional parts of the entire District Court record to be transmitted to the Supreme Court at any stage of the appeal.

The designation of record shall be made using the designation record form or court docket sheet. Pleadings and other documents filed with the District Court Clerk in the case can be designated by circling the document on a copy of the court docket sheet or by listing the specific pleadings and other documents on the designation of record form.

The record on appeal shall not include unless ordered by the Supreme Court the following: subpoenas, summonses, certificate of service, and procedural motions or orders (e.g., extensions, continuances, etc.)

All appellees shall file a counter designation of record in the District Court and Supreme Court within thirty (30) days after appellant's designation of record is filed. The counter designation of record shall be made by using the counter designation of record form or court docket sheet.

Each appellant must advance the costs for transcripts ordered by any party relating to the appeal of the appellant. Failure to pay costs shall not be a good cause for an extension of time to complete the record and shall be grounds for dismissal of the appeal.

Rule 57. Record of appeal

A. Upon receiving the designation of record, the Clerk of the District Court shall compile the record for transmittal to the Supreme Court. The Clerk of the District Court shall certify the contents of the record as true, correct, and complete.

B. If no report of the evidence or proceeding at a trial or hearing was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence. The appellant must file a copy of the statement with the Supreme Court and the appellee shall have twenty (20) days to raise objections and make amendments. The Supreme Court shall rule on the objections and amendments and approve the statement for inclusion in the record of appeal.

C. In place of the record on appeal, the parties may prepare, sign, and submit to the District Court a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the District Court. The statement must set forth only those facts certain and proved or sought to be proved that are essential to the Court's resolution of the issues. If the statement is truthful, the statement, together with any additions that the District Court may consider necessary to a full presentation of the issues on appeal must be approved by the District Court and must then be certified to the Supreme Court as the record on appeal.

D. The record on appeal shall be ready for transmission to the Supreme Court no later than six (6) months from the date of the judgment appealed.

Rule 58. Certification of the record

A. The accuracy of the record on appeal shall be certified by the Clerk of the District Court of Cherokee Nation.

B. The Clerk of the District Court shall transmit by certified mail or its equivalent the complete record and all duly numbered copies of original documents to the Clerk of the Supreme Court within six (6) months of the designation of record.

C. The Clerk of the District Court shall mail a copy of the certification of the record to the parties.

Rule 59. Reserved

VIII. BRIEFS

Rule 60. Filing and service of briefs

A. The appellant shall file and serve an appellate brief-in-chief within sixty (60) days after the date on which the appellee has filed his or her response to the petition in error. The appellee shall file and serve the appellant's brief within forty (40) days after service of the brief of the appellant. The appellant may file and serve a reply brief within twenty (20) days after service of the brief of the appellee.

B. One (1) original unstapled/unbound copy of each brief shall be filed with the Court Clerk, and one copy shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented.

C. If an appellant fails to file the appellant's brief-in-chief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time as extended, the Court may dismiss the appeal. If an appellee fails to file the appellee's brief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time as extended, the appellee will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the Court upon a showing of good cause submitted in writing prior to argument; and in determining the appeal, the Court may rule on the appellant's statement of the facts and issues.

D. The appellant or appellee may file an extension of time to file a brief or response to a brief for extraordinary circumstances and the Court may grant it for good cause shown. An extension shall be granted for no more than fourteen (14) days.

Rule 61. Briefs

A. Briefs filed by both the appellant and appellee shall contain the following:

1. a table of contents, with page references.
2. a table of cases alphabetically arranged, statutes, and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where cited.
3. a statement of the assignments of error presented for review, with reference to the place in the record where each error is reflected.
4. a statement of the issues presented for review, with references to the assignments of error to which each issue relates.
5. a statement of the case briefly describing the nature of the case, the course of proceedings, and the disposition in the District Court.
6. a statement of facts relevant to the assignments of error presented for review, with appropriate reference to the record. (References in the briefs to parts of the record shall be to the pages of the parts of the record involved; e.g., Answer p. 2, Transcript p. 47.)
7. a conclusion briefly stating the relief sought by the party.

B. Briefs shall not exceed thirty (30) pages in length excluding cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, appendix, attorney signature line and information, and certificate of service.

C. An appellee's answer brief shall be combined with the brief-in-chief on any counter or cross-appeal filed by the appellee. The combined brief shall be filed within forty (40) days after the filing of the brief-in-chief of the appellant. The brief-in-chief on any other counter or cross-appeal shall be filed within forty (40) days after the filing of the brief-in-chief of the appellant.

An appellant shall combine a reply brief, if any is filed, with an answer brief to a brief-in-chief on a counter or cross-appeal against the appellant. The combined brief shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the filing of the brief-in-chief on the counter or cross-appeal. Any other party against whom a counter or cross-appeal has been filed shall file an answer brief within thirty (30) days after the filing of the brief-in-chief on such counter or cross-appeal.

A counter or cross-appellant may file a reply brief to the answer brief on the counter or cross-appeal within twenty (20) days after the filing of the answer brief on the counter or cross-appeal.

D. A combined brief by a party to a counter or cross appeal shall not exceed forty (40) pages excluding the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, appendix, attorney signature line and information, and certificate of service.

Rule 62. Amicus curiae brief

An amicus curiae brief may be filed if accompanied by the written consent of all parties, or by leave of Court pursuant to a properly filed motion, or at the request of the Court. The amicus curiae brief shall specify whether consent was granted or if granted by leave of Court, and its cover shall identify the party supported. The brief shall be confined to the issues raised by the parties and shall be submitted within the time allowed for filing the brief for the party supported, or if in support of neither party, within the time allowed for filing the petitioner's or appellant's brief.

Rules 63 to 69. Reserved

IX. EX-PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

Rule 70. Communication between Justices or employees of Supreme Court and persons involved in proceedings—Communication between Justices and assistants

Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, Justices of the Supreme Court or their employees involved in a proceeding shall not communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact, with any party, nor, in connection with any issue of law, with any party, except upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. A Justice may communicate with other Justices and may have the advice of one or more persons.

Rules 71 to 79. Reserved

X. WITNESSES

Rule 80. Examination of witnesses generally—Depositions

A. Witnesses shall be examined orally under oath, except that for good cause shown after the issuance of a notice, testimony may be taken by deposition.

B. Applications to take depositions shall be in writing, setting forth the reasons why such depositions should be taken, the name and address of the witness, the matters concerning which it is expected the witness will testify, and the time and place proposed for the taking of the deposition, together with the name and address of the person before whom it is desired that the deposition be taken (for the purposes of this section hereinafter referred to as the officer). Such application shall be made to the office of the Supreme Court prior to the hearing, and to the Presiding Justice during the hearing. Such application shall be served by the Justice on all other parties, not less than seven (7) days (when the deposition is to be taken within the continental United States) and fifteen (15) days (if the deposition is to be taken elsewhere) prior to the time when it is desired that the deposition be taken. The Justice shall have the discretion upon receipt of the application, if good cause has been shown, to make and serve on the parties an order which will specify the name of the witness whose deposition is to be taken, the time and the place, and designation of the officer before whom the witness is to testify, who may or may not be the same officer as the one specified in the application. Such order shall be served on all the other parties by the Justice.

C. Such deposition may be taken before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths.

D. At the time and place specified in said order, the officer designated to take such deposition shall permit the witness to be examined and cross-examined under oath by all the parties appearing, and the testimony shall be reduced to typewriting by the officer or under the officer's direction. All objections to questions or evidence shall be deemed waived unless made at the examination. The officer shall not have the power to rule upon any objections but shall note them upon the deposition. The testimony shall be subscribed by the witness in the presence of the officer, who shall attach a certificate stating that the witness was duly sworn by the officer, that the deposition is a true record of the testimony and exhibits given by the witness, and that said officer is not of counsel or attorney to any of the parties nor interested in the event of the proceeding. If the deposition is not signed by the witness because of illness or death, because the witness cannot be found or refuses to sign it, such fact shall be included in the certificate of the officer and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed. The officer shall immediately deliver an original and two (2) copies of said transcript, together with the certificate, in person or by certified mail with return receipt requested, to the office of the Supreme Court.

E. The Justice shall rule upon the admissibility of the deposition or any part thereof.

F. All errors or irregularities in compliance with the provisions of this rule shall be deemed waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence, might have been, ascertained.

G. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person at any time or place, upon any notice and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions.

Rule 81. Payment of witness fees and mileage

Witnesses requested to appear before the Supreme Court shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States. Witnesses' fees and mileage shall be taxed against the party at whose instance the witness appears and the fees of persons taking the deposition shall be taxed against the party at whose instance the deposition is taken.

Rule 82. Pretrial discovery depositions

A. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of Court is required only if a party seeks to take the deposition prior to the expiration of thirty (30) days after service of the petition upon the respondent.

B. The parties shall enter into a written stipulation to take the oral deposition of a witness or witnesses. In the event such written stipulation cannot be accomplished, the party desiring to take a witness' oral deposition shall give written notice of examination to all parties setting forth the date, time, and place and identification of any documents to be presented, not less than five (5) days prior to the date of the deposition.

C. The witnesses may be compelled to appear for deposition by subpoena, or, subpoena duces tecum if documents are required to be produced at the deposition.

D. The deposition shall be taken before a certified shorthand reporter (CSR) or a licensed shorthand reporter (LSR) licensed by the State of Oklahoma or as ordered by the Court.

E. The requesting party shall schedule the reporter identified in subsection (D) and shall all parties participating in the deposition a copy of the testimony.

F. A deposition upon oral examination shall not last more than six (6) hours and shall be taken only between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on a day other than Saturday, Sunday, or National Holiday recognized by Cherokee Nation unless ordered by the Court or by agreement.

G. A deposition may be recorded by non-stenographic means by persons licensed by the State of Oklahoma in addition to the stenographic recording, by agreement of the parties or by Court order. The requesting party shall furnish copies of all recordings to all other parties.

H. Any witness or party during the deposition determined to be testifying in bad faith by the Court shall be subject to sanctions by the Court including attorney fees and cost incurred by any of the parties as a result thereof.

I. The deposition recording may be reviewed by the witness before certification by the recording officer and within five (5) days of receiving a copy of such recording from the recording officer the witness may note requested changes to be accompanied with the certified recordings.

XI. PRETRIAL PROCESS

Rule 90. Scheduling order

A scheduling order may be issued at the discretion of the Chief Justice. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may enter a scheduling order for a time and date certain for the performance of the following duties and any other duties the Chief Justice deems appropriate:

1. response or amended response of defendant;
2. reply, if any, of plaintiff;
3. mutual exchange of names of proposed witnesses and expected testimony;
4. mutual exchange of proposed exhibits and description of such exhibits;
4. filing of motions to join additional parties or to dismiss;
5. status conference report due;
6. status and simplification conference;
7. cut-off for amendments to pleadings;
8. settlement conference;
9. mutual exchange of authorities to be relied upon at trial and mutual exchange of trial briefs, if any;
10. final exchange of list of witnesses and exhibits;
11. cut-off for filing additional motions or responses to amended pleadings, if any;
12. discovery cut-off;
13. cut-off for filing responses to motions, if any;
14. pretrial conference report due;
15. pretrial conference;
16. disposition of pending motions; and

17. trial.

Rule 91. Time for hearing—Certain

Each individual hearing shall be set at a time certain.

Rule 92. Status and simplification conference

A. Prior to the first status and simplification conference scheduled by the Supreme Court as set forth in the scheduling order, counsel for each of the parties shall confer and prepare a status report. The plaintiff's counsel shall tender the report to the Supreme Court, unless plaintiff is a pro se litigant, then the defendant's counsel shall tender the report. In all cases where Cherokee Nation is a party, Cherokee Nation's counsel shall be responsible to tender the report to the Supreme Court. The jointly prepared status report shall be a single document signed by counsel or any pro se litigant, whatever the case may be. The report shall be filed at least ten (10) days before the status conference unless otherwise directed in the scheduling order.

B. All parties either through counsel or themselves if pro se shall be in attendance and be represented at the status conference. Those in attendance must have authority to commit their client for all purposes. The status conference may be conducted by phone if the assigned Justice decides circumstances warrant such.

Rule 93. Settlement conference

A. Settlement conference. Unless the Court otherwise directs, each case shall be scheduled for a mandatory settlement conference at the earliest practicable time. This will normally be a date certain set forth in the scheduling order.

B. Settlement Judge disinterested. A disinterested District Judge or past Supreme Court Justice designated by the Chief Justice will normally preside at the settlement conference.

C. Fully-authorized representative required. At least one attorney for each of the parties who is fully familiar with the case shall appear, along with all parties involved. In the event one or more of the parties is a trust, partnership, corporation and/or government entity, a representative of such party shall appear in addition to the attorney, with authority to enter into a binding settlement. If a party is pro se then such party shall personally appear at the settlement conference, prepared to discuss the matter, and to enter into a binding settlement of the dispute. Unless approved in advance by the Chief Justice, settlement conferences shall be conducted in person and not by telephone. However, a settlement conference, which is a continuance of an earlier settlement conference, may be conducted by telephone. The Settlement Judge presiding over the settlement conference may make such other and additional requirements of the parties as shall be deemed proper in order to expedite an amicable resolution of the case.

D. Confidences kept. It is expected that the parties, their representatives and attorneys be completely candid with the Settlement Judge so that settlement discussions may be properly and productively guided. To encourage candor, the confidential nature of settlement discussions conducted under the auspices of a Court-sponsored settlement conference will be absolutely respected by all participants, and strictly enforced by the Court. The Settlement Judge may meet jointly or individually with any participant(s). Statements made in any sub-conference will not be shared with participants not party to the sub-conference, unless specific permission of the declarant is obtained. Any statement made in the context of the settlement conference will not constitute an admission and will not be used in any form in the litigation or trial of the case. The Settlement Judge will not discuss the substance of the conference with the Justices of the Supreme Court.

E. Report of Settlement Judge. At the conclusion of the settlement conference, the Judge presiding over the settlement conference shall provide the Chief Justice with a brief one-page report on the happenings of the settlement conference subject to subsection (D) of this rule. Settlement Judges shall be paid from the Court Fund or by the parties as determined by the Chief Justice.

Rule 94. Pretrial order

On or before a date certain as set forth in the scheduling order, or if there is no scheduling order then at least ten (10) days prior to the pretrial conference, the petitioner's counsel shall tender a jointly prepared proposed pretrial conference order unless petitioner is acting pro se, then the respondent's counsel shall have the duty of tendering the proposed pretrial order. In all cases to which Cherokee Nation is party, Cherokee Nation's counsel shall have the duty of tendering the proposed pretrial order.

Rule 95. Purpose of the agreed pretrial order—Expectations and directions for parties

A. Purpose of the agreed pretrial order. The purpose of the agreed pretrial order is to condense all material information into one working document that will control the trial of the case.

B. Prior rulings. The agreed pretrial order must reflect the current status of the case and accurately reflect all prior rulings by the court.

C. Unprofessional conduct. Failure of the plaintiff's attorney to timely initiate and/or failure of any attorney in the case to cooperate in timely preparation of the agreed pretrial order shall be deemed by the Court to be unprofessional conduct.

D. Good faith disputes. While all reasonable efforts should be made by counsel and litigants to timely agree on a pretrial order, if, following good faith effort, disputes still remain regarding factual and/or legal issues, such should be noted in the single pretrial order submitted, for ultimate resolution by the Court.

E. No adoption of pleadings by reference. Counsel may not adopt pleadings and incorporate them into the pretrial order by reference.

F. Reservation of rights not allowed. No reservation of an asserted right to add additional witnesses or exhibits or to take additional discovery will be allowed in the agreed pretrial order.

G. Late exhibits. Late exhibits are those not listed in the agreed pretrial order. If late exhibits are discovered, the party desiring to offer them shall immediately mark them for identification and furnish copies to opposing counsel with a statement explaining their late production. If objected to, the sponsoring party must file a written motion requesting permission to supplement the exhibit list.

H. Late witnesses. Additional witnesses, listed after the witness exchange date, will be permitted to testify only if ordered to prevent manifest injustice and only then, if proper notice is given, under the facts and circumstances of the case, to the other party, and a written motion is immediately filed requesting permission to supplement the witness list.

I. Pro se litigants. Pro se litigants and opposing counsel should confer before a pretrial conference and be prepared to discuss at the conference significant disputes relative to issues of fact and law, exhibits, witnesses, evidence, in limine matters and all matters bearing on an expeditious settlement or trial of the case.

J. Pretrial conference. At the pretrial conference, the Court may take any appropriate action to insure a fair trial to all parties.

K. Demonstrative aids, exhibits and summaries. All demonstrative aids, exhibits and summaries intended to be used for any purpose at trial shall be displayed to opposing counsel at least fourteen (14) days in advance of trial, unless a shorter time is allowed pursuant to the scheduling order.

Rule 96. Informal conference to settle discovery dispute

A. Conference required. Regarding all motions relative to discovery the Supreme Court will refuse to hear any such motion, unless counsel for movant first advises the Supreme Court in writing that the lawyers, lay representative and/or pro se litigants have personally met and conferred in good faith, but that, after a sincere attempt to resolve differences has been made, they have been unable to reach an accord. However, no personal conference shall be required where the movant's counsel represents to the Court in writing that counsel has conferred by telephone and the distance between counsels' offices renders a personal conference not feasible. An exchange of correspondence alone does not satisfy this requirement.

B. Unprofessional conduct exception. An opposing counsel's repeated failure to communicate in connection with discovery disputes will be viewed as unprofessional conduct on the part of that attorney. A demonstration of such unprofessional conduct, deemed sufficient by the Court and contained in a motion to compel, will satisfy the requirements of subsection (A).

XII. HEARINGS

Rule 100. Duties and powers of Supreme Court Justices generally

It shall be the duty of the Justice assigned to the case to inquire fully into the facts alleged in the petition or notice. The Justice shall have authority, with respect to cases assigned:

1. to administer oaths and affirmations;
2. to rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence;
3. to take or cause depositions to be taken whenever the ends of justice would be served thereby;
4. to regulate the course of the hearing and, if appropriate or necessary to exclude persons or counsel from the hearing for contemptuous conduct and to strike all related testimony of witnesses refusing to answer any proper question;
5. to hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues;
6. to dispose of procedural requests, motions or similar matter or to amend pleadings; to order hearings reopened; and upon motion to order proceedings consolidated or severed prior to the issuance of the Justices' decisions;
7. to approve stipulations voluntarily entered into by all parties to the case which will dispense with a verbatim written transcript of record of the oral testimony adduced at the hearing and which will also provide for the waiver by the respective parties of their right to file exceptions to the findings of fact (but not to conclusions of law or recommended orders) which the Justice shall make in the decision;
8. to make and file decisions in conformity with 20 CNCA § 55;
9. to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses and to introduce into the record documentary or other evidence;
10. to request the parties at any time during the hearing to state their respective positions concerning any issue in the case or theory in support thereof;
11. to take any other action necessary under the foregoing and authorized by the published rules and procedures of the Supreme Court; and
12. to, under appropriate circumstances, give credit and honor to any individual or entity committed to, by acts and deeds, the cause of justice and fairness.

Rule 101. Disqualification of Justices

See Rule 161.

Rule 102. Rights of parties generally—Copies submitted

Any party shall have the right to appear at hearings and/or trials in person, by counsel, or by other representative, to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce into the record documentary or other evidence, except that the participation of any party shall be limited to the extent permitted by the Justice; and provided further, that documentary evidence shall be submitted in triplicate if the matter is a hearing and quintuplicate if the matter is a trial. An unrepresented party shall have the right to have an unpaid lay person assist such party in any proceeding before the Supreme Court on such terms and conditions as may be deemed appropriate.

Rule 103. Applicability of Federal Rules of Evidence and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

All proceedings hereunder shall be conducted in accordance with the Court's rules herein. In the event these rules are incomplete in evidentiary and/or civil procedure issues then the Court may look to the Federal Rules of Evidence and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for guidance.

Rule 104. Admissibility of stipulations of fact

In any proceeding, stipulations of fact may be introduced in evidence with respect to any issue.

Rule 105. Objections to conduct of hearing and/or trial

Any objection with respect to the conduct of a hearing and/or trial, including any objection to the introduction of evidence, may be stated orally or in writing, accompanied by a short statement of the grounds of such objection, and included in the record. No such objection shall be deemed waived by further participation in the hearing and/or trial.

Rule 106. Opportunity for oral argument—Filings of briefs and proposed findings

Any party may be entitled, upon request, to a reasonable period at the close of the proceeding for oral argument, which shall be included upon request in the stenographic report of the proceeding. Any party may be entitled, upon request made before the close of the proceeding, to file a brief or proposed findings and conclusions, or both, with the Court who may fix a reasonable time for such filing, but not to exceed thirty-five (35) days from the close of the proceeding.

Rule 107. Continuances and adjournments

In the discretion of the Chief Justice or the presiding Justice, the proceeding may be continued from day to day, or adjourned to a later date, by announcement thereof at the proceeding, or by other appropriate notice.

Rule 108. Penalties for misconduct at any proceeding before a Justice

A. Misconduct at any proceeding before a Justice of the Supreme Court shall be grounds for summary exclusion from the proceeding.

B. Such misconduct of an aggravated character, when engaged in by an attorney or other representative of a party, shall be grounds for suspension or disbarment by the Supreme Court from further practice before it after due notice and hearing.

C. The refusal of a witness at any such proceeding to answer any question which has been ruled proper shall, in the discretion of the Justice, be grounds for striking all testimony previously given by such witness on related matters and such witness shall be in direct contempt of Court.

XIII. JUDGMENTS

Rule 110. Procedure for obtaining, entering, enforcement and collection of judgments

The procedure for obtaining, entering, enforcement and collection of judgments set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and in the rules and statutes of the State of Oklahoma shall apply to the obtaining, entering, enforcement and collection of judgments of the District Court and Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation.

Rule 111. Full faith and credit

The Courts of Cherokee Nation shall give full faith and credit to judgments entered by the State of Oklahoma. Likewise, the State of Oklahoma gives full faith and credit to judgments entered by the Courts of Cherokee Nation.

Rule 112. Recognition of other sovereign judgments—Full faith and credit

The Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation shall grant full faith and credit and cause to be enforced to any sovereign judgment, where the sovereign that issued the judgment grants reciprocity to judgments of the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation.

1. Listing of sovereigns granting reciprocity—A list of the sovereigns that grant full faith and credit to the Courts of Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma shall be maintained by the Court Clerk of the Supreme Court. Any sovereign may provide the Court Clerk a copy of the ordinance, statute, court rule or other evidence that demonstrates that the sovereign grants reciprocity to the Supreme Court.

2. Filing of judgments—A copy of any judgment may be filed in the office of the Court Clerk. The Court Clerk shall treat the judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the Supreme Court which may be enforced or satisfied as deemed proper.

3. Notice of filing—At the time of filing of the judgment with the Court Clerk, the sovereign filing the judgment or the sovereign's attorney shall make and file with the Court Clerk an affidavit setting forth the name and last-known address of all parties in the action, including the name and last-known address of any party's attorney.

Promptly upon the filing of the judgment and the affidavit, the Court Clerk shall mail notice of the filing of the judgment to the party against whom the judgment was rendered at the address given and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket. The notice shall include the name and address of the party filing the judgment, and that party's attorney, if any. In addition, the party filing the judgment shall mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the party against whom judgment was rendered and shall file an affidavit proving the mailing of the notice with the Court Clerk within ten (10) days of the date that the tribal judgment was filed with the Court Clerk. Failure of the Court Clerk to mail the notice of filing of the judgment shall not affect the enforcement proceedings if an affidavit proving the mailing of the notice has been filed by the party filing the judgment.

No execution or other process for enforcement of a tribal court judgment filed hereunder shall issue until the affidavit proving the mailing of the notice has been filed with the Court Clerk, and twenty (20) days have expired from the date the judgment was filed with the Court Clerk.

Rule 113. Declaratory judgments

A. Standing in a declaratory judgment action must be predicated on an interest that is direct, immediate and substantial.

B. An action for declaratory judgment shall not be invoked to try a disputed question of fact as a determinative issue.

C. An action for declaratory judgment shall not be invoked to determine political policy.

XV. ATTORNEYS

Rule 130. Eligibility

Any member in good standing of the bar of any state is eligible for admission to the bar of Cherokee Nation.

Every pleading, motion, and other paper of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one (1) attorney of record in his or her name, with his or her Cherokee Nation Bar Association number, and his or her state bar association number.

Rule 131. Temporary admission

Any attorney who is eligible for admission to the bar of Cherokee Nation may, in the discretion of a Justice or District Court Judge, including an Associate District Court Judge, be granted temporary admission to practice in a pending case or proceeding before each judicial official. The judicial official presiding in such pending case or proceeding may, in his or her discretion, require presentment of a current certificate of good standing from the attorney's resident bar association prior to granting temporary admission. Any lawyer who seeks, and is granted, temporary admission thereby submits himself or herself to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Cherokee Nation, and the applicability of these rules, during the pendency of such case or proceeding for which it is granted.

Rule 132. Membership in Cherokee Nation Bar required to practice before Cherokee Nation Courts—Qualifications for membership

No person shall practice as an attorney and counselor-at-law in any Court of Cherokee Nation unless said person first obtains membership in the Cherokee Nation Bar Association. An attorney shall submit a certificate certifying the attorney's good standing from a state bar in which the attorney has been admitted. This Court may take into consideration the suspension or disbarment from practice in any other court of law. All members in good standing may be admitted upon making application and submitting themselves to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation Courts and subjecting themselves to the contempt powers of Cherokee Nation Courts. Annual dues may be charged for membership in the Cherokee Nation Bar. 5 CNCA § 1

Rule 133. Oath required

Any person admitted to the Cherokee Nation Bar shall, before he is allowed to appear as an attorney in any court, agency or commission take the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear, that I will, to the best of my knowledge and ability, support and defend all causes that may be entrusted to my care, and that in so doing, I will be true to the Court and to the Constitution and laws of Cherokee Nation and subject myself to the contempt powers of Cherokee Nation Courts. So help me God." 5 CNCA § 2

Rule 134. Removal of attorney

Any attorney practicing before Cherokee Nation Courts may be removed by the Supreme Court for any deceit, malpractice, or other gross misconduct, willful neglect of the interests of his client, or collusion with the opposite party, upon complaint and showing made to the Supreme Court by the aggrieved party, and upon due notification given to the accused of such charge; and the expenses of any inquiry, instituted by the Supreme Court in reference to the removal of any attorney shall be borne by the party at whose instance the expense shall be incurred. 5 CNCA § 3.

Rule 135. Granting special permission to appear before the Court

A. Any attorney, recognized as such under the laws of any other Indian nation or tribe, eligible for membership in the Cherokee Nation Bar, and in good standing where so recognized and admitted to practice law, may, on special occasions, be allowed, by permission of the Presiding Judge, to appear before any Courts of this Nation.

B. Any regularly-admitted practicing attorney in the courts of record of a state other than Oklahoma who has business in the Courts of this Nation may, on motion and at the discretion of the Judge presiding over the case, be admitted to practice before the Cherokee Nation Court for the purpose of said business only. Before practicing law in Cherokee Nation Courts, each specially admitted attorney must take the oath proscribed in Rule 133 of these Rules and must appear in the court with an attorney who is a resident of or who maintains a law office within the State of Oklahoma, duly and regularly admitted to the Oklahoma Bar Association upon whom service may be had in all matters connected with said action, with the same effect as if personally made on such foreign attorney. Specially admitted attorneys will be subject to the removal power provided in Rule 134 of these Rules. 5 CNCA § 4

Rule 136. Choice of counsel

Parties may manage, prosecute, or defend their own suits, and by such counsel as they see fit to engage. 5 CNCA § 5

Rule 137. Judge shall not appear as counsel

No Judge appointed under the authority of this Nation shall be allowed to appear as counsel or attorney and to practice law in the Courts of this Nation. 5 CNCA § 6

Rule 138. Discipline by the Court

A. Any member of the bar of Cherokee Nation guilty of a violation of the prescribed oath of office, or of a violation of the Supreme Court Rules of Professional Conduct, or of any conduct unbecoming a member of the bar of Cherokee Nation, shall be subject to reprimand, suspension, disbarment or such other disciplinary action as the Supreme Court deems appropriate.

B. Discipline by Other Courts; Criminal Convictions. Whenever it appears to the Supreme Court that any member admitted to practice in the Courts of Cherokee Nation, including a lawyer granted temporary admission or admission for limited practice, has been suspended or disbarred from the practice of law by any other court of competent jurisdiction or has been convicted of a felony or any crime involving moral turpitude in any court, such disbarment, suspension, or conviction shall operate as an automatic disbarment of the attorney's right to practice in the courts of Cherokee Nation, and an order of disbarment shall be issued by the Supreme Court. The order of disbarment shall remain in effect unless, within thirty (30) days from the date of the order of disbarment, the attorney has by motion to the Supreme Court shown good cause as to why disbarment should not be imposed.

Rule 139. Filing and processing of grievances

A. A grievance or request for investigation involving a lawyer or lay advocate shall be in writing and signed by the person filing the same. All proceedings concerning processing of grievances shall be confidential.

B. A grievance or request for investigation involving a lawyer or lay advocate shall be filed with the Office of the Attorney General for a preliminary investigation and determination of the validity of the grievance. The lawyer or lay advocate who is the subject of the grievance or request for investigation will be immediately notified of the receipt of a grievance and furnished a copy thereof.

C. In a matter involving lesser misconduct, which is defined as conduct not involving misappropriation of funds, dishonesty, deceit, fraud, misrepresentation, or serious crimes involving dishonesty or fitness, the Attorney General may resolve the grievance without publication.

D. If the Attorney General determines that a formal hearing is required to address the grievance, the Attorney General shall submit the evidence produced by the Attorney General's investigation to the District Court for certification of a formal complaint to the Supreme Court for adjudication. The District Court shall have the sole discretion, after review of the Attorney General's offer of evidence, to forward the grievance as a formal complaint before the Supreme Court.

E. The Attorney General shall prosecute the grievances submitted to the Supreme Court. The verified complaint shall set forth with specificity all facts alleging the misconduct. A copy of the complaint shall be personally served on the respondent from which the respondent shall have thirty (30) days to file a written response. In the event the respondent fails to answer, the charges shall be deemed admitted upon the submission of evidence for the purpose of discipline to be imposed. The disciplinary proceedings and evidentiary reception shall be governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure so far as practicable. The charge or charges must be established by clear and convincing evidence and at least three (3) Justices must concur in the findings. The respondent may be represented by counsel.

F. All proceedings mentioned hereinabove may be reviewed by the Supreme Court upon a verified request of an aggrieved party.

XVI. LAY ADVOCATES

Rule 140. Lay advocates

Any lay person demonstrating experience or education in Indian Law and the laws of Cherokee Nation may be registered to practice before this Court upon filing with the Court Clerk of the Cherokee Nation, on a form prescribed by the Supreme Court, a written application for admission, signed by the applicant.

Rule 141. Registry of lay advocates

Subject to all of the requirements set forth in these Rules and Procedures, the Lay Advocate Registry of Cherokee Nation shall consist of those lay advocates admitted to practice before the Courts of Cherokee Nation who have taken the oath prescribed in Rule 133 of these Rules and who have completed and signed the prescribed application for lay advocates.

Every pleading, motion and other paper of a party represented by a lay advocate shall be signed by the lay advocate of record in his or her name.

Rule 142. Procedure for admission

Every applicant to the Lay Advocate Registry shall file with the Court Clerk of the Cherokee Nation, on a lay advocate form prescribed by the Supreme Court, a written application for admission, signed by the applicant, which shall be referred immediately to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for investigation into the applicant's qualifications and fitness (per standards established in 5 CNCA § 1 et seq., and these Rules) to be registered to the Lay Advocate Registry of this Court. The Chief Justice shall report his recommendations in writing to all Justices. Upon a favorable report of the full Supreme Court, the applicant may be admitted.

Rule 143. Fees and dues

Every applicant shall pay to the Court Clerk of the Cherokee Nation a non-refundable fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00). Annual dues shall be charged for membership to the Lay Advocate Registry.

Rule 144. Lay advocate withdrawal from case

In civil cases, lay advocates of record shall not withdraw from the case except by leave of the Justice or Judge to whom the case is assigned, upon reasonable notice to the client and all other parties who have appeared in the case. Withdrawal may be granted subject to the conditions stated by the presiding Justice or Judge, including the condition that subsequent papers may continue to be served upon the lay advocate for forwarding purposes or upon the Court Clerk of the Cherokee Nation, as the presiding Justice, or Judge, may direct, unless and until the client appears by another lay advocate, by counsel or pro se, and any notice to the client shall so state and any filed consent of the client shall so acknowledge.

Rule 145. Discipline by the Court

A. Any lay advocate registered with Cherokee Nation guilty of a violation of the prescribed oath of office, or of a violation of the Supreme Court Rules of Professional Conduct, or of any conduct unbecoming as a court advocate of Cherokee Nation, shall be subject to reprimand, suspension, losing privilege as a court advocate, or such other disciplinary action as the Supreme Court deems appropriate.

B. Sanctions. Discipline by the Supreme Court may include fine, loss of privilege as lay advocate, suspension from practice for a definite time, reprimand, or other discipline which the Supreme Court deems proper.

C. Unauthorized practice. Any person who before admission to practice as a lay advocate of Cherokee Nation or who during suspension or loss of privilege exercises any of the privileges bestowed upon members of the Lay Advocate Registry or who pretends to be entitled to such privileges shall be guilty of contempt of court and shall be subject to punishment and shall be subject to any other discipline which the Supreme Court may impose. Lay advocates shall not charge for their services.

Rule 146. Statement by litigant

Prior to a lay advocate accepting the obligation to represent a litigant before any Cherokee Nation Court, the litigant must submit a verified statement that he/she understands that the lay advocate is not a trained lawyer licensed to practice law as defined in these Rules, and, that the lay advocate cannot accept payment for his representation, and, that the litigant understands a lay advocate is held to the same standards of expertise as a trained, licensed lawyer and further can be subject to malpractice claims.

XVII. ARBITRATORS

Rule 150. Workers' compensation disputes

A. Arbitration will be mandatory to all workers' compensation claims and will be conducted according to the provisions of this act. The Supreme Court shall be responsible for certifying those persons who are eligible and qualified to serve as arbitrators. An individual may be certified as an arbitrator by application to the Court. Qualified individuals will be a member of the Cherokee Nation bar, be trained in arbitration and the Cherokee Nation Uniform Arbitration Act, and practice or have practiced in workers' compensation law.

B. The Court Clerk of the Supreme Court shall maintain a list of potential arbitrators. The parties in the dispute shall select an arbitrator from this list. If the parties cannot agree to an arbitrator, the arbitrator will be determined by the Court Clerk by selecting the first arbitrator on the list. The list will be rotated when an arbitrator has been selected for arbitration by moving his or her name to the bottom of the list. The next arbitrator on the list will be moved to the top of the list to be selected for the next arbitration.

C. Arbitrators shall be required to complete at least six (6) hours of continuing education per two-(2) year period in the areas of arbitration or workers' compensation. Proof of compliance with this requirement shall be submitted to the Court Clerk of the Supreme Court.

D. If the dispute is agreed to by both parties and resolved, any final settlement of the action shall be completed upon the filing of a joint petition or an agreement between the employer and employee as to relation to injury and payment of compensation and pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1322.

E. Arbitration will be binding in workers' compensation disputes unless a motion made pursuant to 12 CNCA § 1323 or 12 CNCA § 1325 has been filed in the District Court.

XVIII. MISCELLANEOUS JUDICIAL RULES

Rule 160. Judicial office

If a judicial office term expires prior to a successor being approved to take that office then the incumbent Justice shall hold over until a successor is duly qualified and takes the oath of office.

Rule 161. Disqualification of Justices

A. A Justice may be deemed disqualified in any case in which he or she has a substantial interest, has been of counsel, is or has been a material witness, or is so related to or connected with any party or his attorney as to render it improper, in his or her opinion, for him or her to sit during any proceeding therein.

B. Any party to a proceeding may request a Justice to withdraw on the grounds of personal bias or disqualification prior to any hearings in the proceedings. Before filing any motion to disqualify a Justice, an "in camera" request shall first be made to the Justice by the moving party seeking to disqualify the Justice. If such request is not satisfactorily resolved within a reasonable time from the time the oral request is made, the moving party may file a written motion with the Supreme Court containing an affidavit, which sets forth in detail the matters alleged to constitute grounds for disqualification. If the Justice does not withdraw from the proceedings, the Justice shall so rule and state the grounds for the ruling on the record and then proceed with the case. A majority of the Justices may review the request for recusal.

Rule 162. Superintendence over all Courts

The Supreme Court shall exercise a general superintendence over all Courts.

Rule 163. Chief Justice

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall be a Justice who has two (2) remaining years left in his/her term of office and who has served on the Court for two (2) years prior to his/her taking office as Chief Justice. In the event no Justice qualifies hereunder then the Justice that has four (4) remaining years left in his/her term of office shall serve as Chief Justice. The Chief Justice term of office shall expire upon the expiration of his term of office as Justice.

Rule 164. Judicial Conference

A. The Chief Justice of Cherokee Nation shall summon annually the Courts of Cherokee Nation to conference.

B. The Chief Justice shall submit to the Council and Principal Chief an annual report of the proceedings of the Judicial Conference and recommendations for legislation at the annual Judicial Conference.

Rule 165. Judicial promulgation of rules and procedures

The Supreme Court shall promulgate additional rules and procedures to provide any remedy guaranteed by the Cherokee Nation Constitution in the event the Council has failed to prescribe procedures for such remedy and such rules and procedures shall remain in effect until the Council prescribes such procedures.

I. PLEADINGS

Rule 1. Initial pleadings

All initial pleadings must include a certification by the attorney which demonstrates the subject matter jurisdiction of the Court. All pleadings shall be filed with the Court Clerk of the District Court, P.O. Box 1097, Tahlequah, Oklahoma 74465. The offices of the District Court of Cherokee Nation are at the Cherokee Nation Courthouse, Cherokee Capitol Square, 101 South Muskogee Avenue, Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

Rule 2. Requirement of filing fees

The petitioner must pay the required filing fee of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) for the Civil Petition Filing, or Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for a Landlord/Tenant Petition, Guardian Petition, Adoption Petition, Name Change Petition, Garnishment, or Foreign Judgment. Payments can be made in the form of cash, check, or money order payable to the Court. An Application for Waiver of Fee—Pauper's Affidavit can be completed and submitted to the Court Administrator for approval.

Rule 3. Use of fax/e-mail

1. Fax

a. Parties may file affidavits, pleadings, motions and other documents by use of fax transmission for documents of ten (10) pages or less.

b. The fax must include a transmittal/cover sheet reflecting the sending party's name, address, bar number, phone number, fax number, case name and case number. The fax number for the Cherokee Nation District Court is (918) 458-9572.

c. The faxed document, which must bear a facsimile of the required signature, will be accepted as an "original" document.

2. E-mail

a. A document permitted to be filed by e-mail pursuant to these rules shall be sent to the Court Clerk of the District Court using the following e-mail address: kristi-moncooyea@cherokee.org. Documents sent to any other e-mail address of the District Court shall not be considered for filing under any circumstances.

b. The e-mail must reflect the sending party's name, address, bar number, phone number, e-mail address, case name and case number.

c. A document permitted to be filed by e-mail shall be submitted as a PDF file (Portable Document Format).

d. A document that may be filed by e-mail pursuant to these rules shall include a scanned version of the person's original signature or a signature line with a backslash followed by an "s" followed by the person's name in print (e.g., /s/ "John T. Smith").

3. Documents transmitted by fax or e-mail pursuant to these rules and received on a Saturday, Sunday, or other day on which the Clerk's Office is closed to the public, or after 4:30 p.m. on a business day, shall be considered for filing on the next business day. The time of receipt of a document is the timestamp provided by the District Court's e-mail/fax system, the timestamp provided by any other computer/fax system shall not alter the time of receipt and effect this rule.

4. All risks associated with fax/e-mail filing are borne by the sender (e.g., Court's phone/computer system being out of order, the receiving fax machine running out of paper, etc.).

5. Any document filed by fax/e-mail must also be served concurrently by fax, e-mail, hand-delivery or mail on all other parties to the appeal, and the faxed/e-mailed document must contain a certificate of service attesting to such service and that the document was initially filed with the Court via fax/e-mail. The time for filing a response to a document filed by fax/e-mail runs from the date the document was received by the Court pursuant to subdivision 3 of this rule.

6. The Clerk may reject documents that are not clearly legible or that fail to comply with these requirements.

Rule 4. Court files not to be removed Original papers on file in the Court Clerk's office shall not be removed from the Clerk's office without a written order signed by a Judge, except the Clerk or the Clerk's deputies may bring them to the courtrooms to be used by the Court officials, the parties and their attorneys, for the purposes of trial, and they shall then be returned to the Clerk's office. An attorney of record in the case or Official Reporter may take the Court files from the Clerk's office or from the Clerk or Deputy Clerk for official use, but must give the Clerk a written receipt for them and return them to the Clerk's office within forty-eight (48) hours, excluding days when Court is not in session. Criminal case files should not be removed from the custody of the Court Clerk except upon order of the Court.

Rule 5. Exhibits

No exhibit offered or admitted in evidence shall be removed from the courtroom or from the custody of the Court Clerk or Court Reporter, as the case may be, without permission of the Judge and a written receipt shall be taken from the person receiving it.

Rules 6 to 9. Reserved

II. COURTROOM DECORUM

Rule 10. Use of courtrooms

The use of tobacco, beverages, food or candy, pagers and/or cell phones, by anyone, at any time, in any of the District courtrooms, is forbidden. All persons are forbidden to scratch, alter, spit on or deface in any manner, by any means, any of the furniture, equipment, floors, walls, or ceilings of the courtrooms.

Rule 11. Photographs, broadcasting and televising of judicial proceedings

The following rules governing the taking of photographs, the broadcasting and televising of judicial proceedings in the Courthouse are hereby promulgated:

Except as expressly permitted by the individual Judge the use of cameras, television and other broadcasting equipment is prohibited:

1. inside a courtroom;
2. in the immediate vicinity of a courtroom, including the hallways.

The use of cameras, television and broadcasting equipment is not prohibited in other areas of the Courthouse, provided, that media representatives exercise diligence to insure that such equipment, and the use thereof, does not interfere with the session of any proceeding being covered or with any proceeding in a courtroom adjacent to the proceeding being covered.

Notwithstanding the above and foregoing rules, the Presiding Judge or an individual Judge, may promulgate special rules governing the use of cameras, television and broadcasting equipment to remain in force and effect for any specific proceeding or event.

The purpose of this directive is to insure that Courtroom proceedings be conducted at all time with dignity and in a manner calculated to avoid the disruption of order and decorum which the judicial process demands.

It should be emphasized that the representatives of the news media are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a professional manner consistent with the spirit and intent of this directive. In order to insure such conduct, in the event conduct of the news media is brought to the attention of any Judge which is violative of the foregoing rules, the offending person shall be immediately notified to cease and desist such activity. If the offending party refuses to comply with such order, then the Judge may immediately command official personnel to take affirmative action causing cessation of such activity, including the seizure of the equipment of such person. Any offender may be dealt with for contempt of court.

This directive does not tend to prohibit any Judge from giving photographic or broadcasting interviews with any television or radio station or to be photographed in any manner in chambers, and any Judge may permit broadcasting, televising, recording or photographing of investigative, ceremonial proceedings or any moot court trial use for education or scientific purpose.

Rule 12. Courtroom conduct

The following is requested of counsel for proper courtroom conduct:

1. Arguments shall be addressed to the Court and not to opposing counsel.
2. Stand when talking to the Court or when addressed by the Court.
3. When examining a witness, stand or sit where the Court, witness, jury and reporter can hear you.
4. Do not sit on counsel table.
5. Cell phones and pagers are to be turned off while in the courtroom.
6. Do not read newspapers in the courtroom.
7. Do not take files, pleadings, or papers away from the Court Clerk's desk or exhibits from the Court Reporter unless you obtain permission to do so.
8. When your business in Court is finished, depart from the courtroom quietly if you wish to retire. Do not hold conferences in the courtroom with your client when Court is in session.
9. Advise your clients as to the impropriety of discussing pending matters in the courtroom.

10. Your conduct in the courtroom as a member of the Bar demonstrates your respect for the administration of justice.

Rules 13 to 19. Reserved

III. COURT PROCEDURE—CRIMINAL CASES

Rule 20. Initial appearances and bond setting—Telephone

The District Court may conduct initial appearances and bond settings by telephone hearing. The hearing may consist of the Court Clerk, the District Court Judge, the defendant, and the prosecutor in attendance by conference call or speakerphone at two or more telephones. Each person shall be able to speak and hear the conversations of each of the others.

Rule 21. District Court arraignments: Continuances

Trial arraignments shall be held only on the day, and at the time designated by each Judge. Counsel shall be prepared at the time of the trial arraignment to assist the Court in setting the trial date to avoid conflicts with prior commitments of counsel.

Rule 22. Notification of entry of appearance of private counsel in criminal cases

In criminal cases in which private counsel accepts employment to represent a client who is represented by the Public Defender's Office, written notice of such entry or appearance shall be given immediately to the Court and to the Public Defender's Office.

Rule 23. Withdrawal of counsel in criminal cases

In any case, regularly set for trial, any application for permission to withdraw as counsel for a defendant or to seek continuance of the trial date, must be presented to the Trial Judge at least ten (10) days before the date on which the case is set for trial.

Rule 24. Expunge order

The following procedure shall be followed by the Court Clerk upon receipt of an Expunge Order in criminal cases wherein a defendant has received a deferred sentence and the prior pleas of guilty (or nolo contendere) are being ordered expunged from the records:

The order of probation and the Expunge Order on pleas of guilty (or nolo contendere) shall be removed from the case file and retained together with a copy of the docket sheet in a separate confidential file.

All reference to the defendant's plea of guilty (or nolo contendere) shall then be deleted from the docket sheet, leaving only the references to the dismissal of the case.

No information concerning the confidential files shall be revealed except upon a written order of a District or Associate District Judge.

Rule 25. Transcripts in criminal cases

The delivery of transcripts in criminal cases where the fee for making the transcript is paid in the first instance by Cherokee Nation or by a defendant shall be as follows: A transcript of the Court Reporter's notes, upon request and for the use of an indigent defendant or a prosecuting attorney, may not be charged to the court fund unless, before its preparation, the cost to be incurred was authorized by written judicial order.

When a Judge authorizes or orders a transcript of the Court Reporter's notes of any proceeding to be prepared at the expense of the Court Fund, or where a Prosecuting Attorney orders such a transcript at public or Court Fund expense and the accused as an indigent is constitutionally entitled to a free copy of the transcript, a Reporter shall prepare an original and two (2) copies of the transcript so ordered and file it with the Clerk of the Trial Court. The Court Reporter shall immediately notify the Prosecuting Attorney and the defendant of the date the transcript was filed. The Prosecuting Attorney and the defendant shall have access to the copies of the transcript on such terms as the Trial Court may impose. The Chief Judge may prescribe rules for access to or disposition of the copies of the transcript. In addition to the copies which are required to be filed as set forth above, a party who desires a copy shall be furnished a copy by the Court Reporter upon payment of the costs for that copy by said party.

Rule 26. Public Defender—Duties

Each month the Public Defender shall examine into the causes for confinement of any and all persons detained in the Penal Institution, and report, briefly, the facts of such examination to the Judge and Prosecutor, in writing, on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of each month. An original of said report shall be filed in the Office of the Court Clerk for reference by any properly authorized person as an official record.

Rules 27 to 29. Reserved

IV. COURT PROCEDURE—GENERAL

Rule 30. Voir dire examination

The Judge shall initiate the voir dire examination of jurors by identifying the parties and their respective counsel. The Judge may outline the nature of the case, the issues of fact and law to be tried, and may then put to the jurors any questions regarding their qualifications to serve as jurors in the cause on trial. The parties or their attorneys shall be allowed a reasonable opportunity to supplement such examination. Counsel shall scrupulously guard against injecting any argument in their voir dire examination and shall refrain from asking a juror how he or she would decide hypothetical questions involving law or facts. Counsel shall avoid repetition, shall not call jurors by their first names or indulge in other familiarities with individual jurors, and shall be fair to the Court and opposing counsel.

Rule 31. Uniformity of rulings

When a question of law, fact or procedure has been presented to a Judge, the same question, so far as it relates to the same case, shall not thereafter knowingly be presented to another Judge sitting in the District without apprising the subsequent Judge of the former Judge's ruling or, if no ruling has been made, that such question has already been presented to the first Judge. When this rule has been violated, an order that is issued by the second Judge may be vacated at any time before the entry of a final judgment.

Rule 32. Vacation of final judgments

A. In any proceeding to vacate, modify or reopen a final judgment that is commenced more than thirty (30) days after its rendition, (1) proceeding by motion instead of by petition or by petition instead of by motion, or (2) failure to verify the petition, or (3) incorrect service of process or the required notice is waived if the opposing party appears in the proceeding but does not immediately object thereto; and such defects are waived by any party in default who had actual notice of the proceeding.

B. In any proceeding to vacate, modify or reopen a judgment, whether by a motion, petition or application, jurisdictional grounds are not waived by being joined with non-jurisdictional grounds in the motion, petition or application or by raising non-jurisdictional defenses in an accompanying pleading.

Rule 33. Matters taken under advisement

In any matter taken under advisement, a decision shall be rendered within sixty (60) days of the date on which the matter was taken under advisement or, if briefs are to be submitted, within sixty (60) days of the date of the filing of the final brief.

When a Trial Court takes a matter under advisement, the Judge shall specify the date by which a decision shall be rendered. If briefs are to be submitted the dates for filing such shall also be specified.

The Chief Judge may extend the deadline for a decision upon sworn application for an extension of time of the Trial Judge setting forth with specificity the reasons therefor.

Upon entering and filing the decision with the Court Clerk, it shall be the duty of the Judge to see that copies of the minute order or judgment setting out such decision are delivered or mailed by the Court Clerk to counsel in the case and to any party appearing pro se. The time to appeal from a decision rendered in absentia runs from the day its copy is mailed or personally delivered to the parties.

Rule 34. Jury sessions—Motion and demurrer sessions—When and how held—Jury terms

Jury sessions of the District Court may be held at any time upon order of the Judge. A session for the hearing and disposition of at least once every thirty (30) days, and any motion or demurrer that has been on file for at least five (5) days shall be placed on the docket. The date or dates of regular sessions for the hearing of motions and demurrers shall be fixed by any of the Judges of the District Court unless the District Judges shall prescribe otherwise provided that a Judge may hear any matter in any case assigned to him more frequently than provided herein.

The Presiding Judge shall be in charge of the jury panel and shall excuse and discharge those jurors not engaged when their services are no longer required.

Jurors shall be summoned to appear for jury terms of one (1) week duration.

Rules 35 to 39. Reserved

V. DOCKETS

Rule 40. Time of hearing—Set certain

Court dockets are held on the first Wednesday, first, second and third Friday of each month. On the first Wednesday and third Friday, adoptions and juvenile matters are held beginning at 9:00 a.m.; criminal and civil matters begin at 10:00 a.m. On the first and second Friday, adoptions and juvenile matters are held beginning at 10:00 a.m.; criminal and civil matters begin at 11:00 a.m. Judges at their discretion may alter the times of certain hearings in the economy of justice.

Rule 41. Citation docket

There shall be a Judge assigned to be responsible for the docket concerning all citations issued pursuant to the following procedures and rules:

The peace officer shall set all citations and promises to appear at the Cherokee Nation Courthouse, Cherokee Nation Capitol Square, 101 S. Muskogee Ave., Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Citations may be disposed of pursuant to 22 CNCA § 1115 et seq.

All cases in which the defendant enters a plea of not guilty at arraignment will be set on a monthly disposition docket. At the calling of the disposition docket, the defendant will have the following alternatives:

1. enter a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, subject to the approval of the Court, and be sentenced immediately;
2. waive right to trial and have the case set for sentencing on a date certain; or
3. have the case set for trial on a date certain.

No continuances will be granted except by the Court and for good cause shown.

Where a bench warrant has been issued for defendant because of non-appearance, that defendant must thereafter post bond before release, and no attorney's affidavit will be accepted in such events, except for good cause shown at the discretion of the Court. Bench warrants issued for failure to pay costs, fees, fines, etc. may be satisfied by payment of the obligation to the Court Clerk. In that event, the bench warrant may be recalled without incarceration of the defendant or the defendant may be released from custody without the necessity of being brought personally before the Court.

Pleas of guilty to traffic tickets may be entered before the Court Clerk in person or by mail in accordance with 22 CNCA § 1115, in all cases except the following:

- a. driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs;
- b. being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs;
- c. driving with a blood-breath alcohol concentrate of 0.08 or more;
- d. leaving the scene of an accident;
- e. driving without a license or while license is suspended or revoked;
- f. reckless driving;
- g. any other charge filed because of a motor vehicle accident in which personal injury or death occurred; or
- h. crimes which if committed under the laws of Oklahoma would be a felony.

The fines, including court costs, imposed upon a plea of guilty entered before the Court Clerk shall be as provided in by order of the District Court.

Any person violating the provisions of 47 CNCA § 10, 47 CNCA § 11, 47 CNCA § 12, 47 CNCA § 13, 47 CNCA § 14 or 47 CNCA § 16, where a jail sentence is not mandatory, may in the discretion of the Prosecutor and subject to the approval of the Court, be permitted to enter a plea of guilty by written statement by the person charged to be presented to the Court.

Except as provided in paragraphs (g) and (h) above, all pleas of guilty must be made orally by the defendant before the Court.

Rules 42 to 49. Reserved

VI. ATTORNEY BOND PRIVILEGES

Rule 50. Procedures concerning release of defendants upon attorney's Affidavit of Responsibility for Court Appearance of Client (O.R. system)

The privilege of having defendants released upon their attorney's Affidavit of Responsibility for Court Appearance is hereby given to all attorneys who are members of the Cherokee Bar Association, under the following terms and conditions:

1. That said privilege shall apply only to defendants arrested for crimes which are misdemeanors;
2. That the defendant involved shall never have been convicted of a felony or convicted of an offense involving dishonesty;
3. That the defendant is a resident of Cherokee Nation;
4. That the attorney involved signs an affidavit that personally holds the attorney responsible to the Court for the appearance of said defendant at all proceedings until final disposition has been made of the case to the satisfaction of the Court;
5. That the Court Clerk shall have the duty of administering the procedures of the O.R. system;
6. That the Court Clerk shall maintain a list of eligible members having the O.R. privilege;
7. That no attorney shall be allowed O.R. privileges who has previously executed an attorney's Affidavit of Responsibility for Court Appearance of a client, and that said client did not appear at any proceedings required, the same which resulted in a Bench Warrant being issued for the said defendant and outstanding, unless the Court Clerk has, upon hearing, reinstated said attorney with O.R. privileges;
8. That the Clerk of said Court shall give written notice to attorneys of revocation of their O.R. privileges.

Rules 51 to 59. Reserved

VII. DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGES

Rule 60. Disqualification of Judges in civil and criminal cases

Before filing any motion to disqualify a Judge, an "in camera" request shall first be made to the Judge to disqualify or to transfer the cause to another Judge. If such request is not satisfactorily resolved, not less than ten (10) days before the case is set for trial, a written motion to disqualify a Judge or to transfer a cause to another Judge may be filed and a copy delivered to the Judge.

Any interested party who deems himself aggrieved by the refusal of a Judge to grant a motion to disqualify or transfer a cause to another Judge may petition the Supreme Court within five (5) days from the date of said refusal by a written request for rehearing. A copy of the request shall be mailed or delivered to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to the adverse party and to the Judge who entered the original order.

An original proceeding in mandamus to disqualify a Judge in a civil action or proceeding shall be brought before the Supreme Court.

Rule 61. Disqualification of Trial Judge

No Judge of any Court shall sit in any cause or proceeding in which the Judge may be interested, or in the result of which the Judge may be interested, or when the Judge is related to any party to said cause within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity, or in which the Judge has been of counsel for either side, or in which is called in question the validity of any judgment or proceeding in which the Judge was of counsel or interested, or the validity of any instrument or paper prepared or signed by the Judge as counselor or attorney, without the consent of the parties to said action entered of record.

No Judge of any Court shall sit in any contested civil cause or proceeding that is related to any attorney of record in such cause within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity without the consent of the parties in such cause or proceeding who have entered a formal appearance of record. This disqualification shall not apply when an appearance is made by a party for the purpose of disclaiming any interest in such action or proceeding or waiving the right to appear and contest such cause or proceeding.

No Judge of any Court shall sit in the trial or hearing of any criminal cause or proceeding if the Judge is related to any attorney of record in such cause within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity without the consent of the parties who have made an appearance in such cause or proceeding entered of record. This disqualification shall not apply to arraignments, the fixing of bail, or the acceptance of pleas.

"Attorney of record" as used in this rule shall include not only the attorney actually appearing in such action but any other attorney who is an associate or a member of a partnership or professional corporation with such appearing attorney. However, "attorney of record" as the term relates to the Prosecuting Attorney and Public Defender's Office shall mean only that attorney actually appearing in the cause or proceeding.

The disqualifications provided for in this rule shall not exclude the disqualifications at common law.

Rule 62. Disqualification of Judge, claim of mandamus

Any party to any cause pending in a court of record may in term time or in vacation file a written application with the Clerk of the Court, setting forth the grounds or facts upon which the claim is made that the Judge is disqualified, and request said Judge so to certify, after reasonable notice to the other side, same to be presented to such Judge, and upon failure so to do within three (3) days before said cause is set for trial, application may be made to the proper tribunal for mandamus requiring him so to do.

Rules 63 to 69. Reserved

VIII. CONTEMPT

Rule 70. Direct contempt

Power of the Court. The Court has the power to punish any contempt in order to protect the rights of the parties and the interests of the public by assuring that the administration of justice shall not be thwarted. The Trial Judge has the power to cite and if necessary punish summarily anyone who, in open court, willfully obstructs the court or judicial proceedings after an opportunity to be heard has been afforded.

Admonition and warning. No sanction other than censure should be imposed by the Trial Judge unless (i) it is clear from the identity of the offender and the character of the acts that disruptive conduct was willfully contemptuous, or (ii) the conduct warranting the sanction was preceded by a clear warning that the conduct is impermissible and that specified sanctions may be imposed for its repetition.

Notice of intent to use contempt power; postponement of adjudication. The Trial Judge should as soon as practicable after the Judge is satisfied that courtroom misconduct requires contempt proceedings, inform the alleged offender of the intention to institute such.

The Trial Judge should consider the advisability of deferring adjudication of contempt or courtroom misconduct of a defendant, an attorney or a witness until after the trial, and should defer such a proceeding unless prompt punishment is imperative.

Notice of charges and opportunity to be heard. Before imposing any punishment for contempt, the Judge should give the offender notice of the charges and at least a summary opportunity to adduce evidence or argument relevant to guilt or punishment.

Referral to another Judge. The Judge before whom courtroom misconduct occurs may impose appropriate sanctions, including punishment for contempt, but should refer the matter to another Judge, if his conduct was so integrated with the contempt that the Judge contributed to it or was otherwise involved, or objectivity can reasonably be questioned.

Rule 71. Indigent defendant in civil contempt action—Right to counsel—Attorney fees

In a civil contempt action which may result in the incarceration of a defendant who appears without counsel, the Court must inform the defendant that he or she has a right to counsel and that if the defendant is financially unable to employ counsel and desires such, the Court must assign counsel to represent the defendant. Only after receiving notice of this right, can the defendant knowingly and intelligently waive the right to counsel. A defendant who desires counsel and can establish indigence under the normal standards for appointment of counsel in a criminal case, shall have an attorney appointed to represent him or her. The attorney shall represent the defendant until final disposition of the civil contempt action and shall receive compensation, payable from the Court Fund, in an amount set by the Trial Court.

Rules 72 to 79. Reserved

IX. COURT REPORTERS

Rule 80. Persons qualified for appointment as Court Reporter

Only the following persons may act and are eligible for employment on a full-time or part-time basis as official Court Reporters for the Courts:

Persons now certified or hereafter certified by the State Board of Examiners of Official Shorthand Reporters.

Rule 81. Duties of Reporter—Methods—Transcripts

The Court Reporter shall make a full reporting by means of stenographic hand, steno-mask or machine notes, or a combination thereof, of all proceedings, including the statements of counsel and the Court and the evidence, in trials and other judicial proceedings to which the Court Reporter is assigned by the appointing Judge unless excused by the Judge who is trying the case with the consent of the parties to the action. A refusal of the Court to permit or to require any statement to be taken down by the Court Reporter or transcribed after being taken down, upon the same being shown by affidavit or other direct and competent evidence, to the Supreme Court, shall constitute a denial of due process of law. The Court Reporter may use an electronic instrument as a supplementary device. In any trial, hearing or proceedings, the Judge before whom the matter is being heard may, unless objection is made by a party or counsel, order the proceedings electronically recorded. A trial or proceedings may proceed without the necessity of a Court Reporter being present, unless there is objection by a party or counsel. Provided that if an official transcript is ordered then it shall be prepared by the certified Court Reporter.

Upon request of either party in a civil or criminal case the Reporter shall transcribe the proceedings in a trial or other judicial proceeding, or so much thereof as may be requested by the party, certify to the correctness of the transcript, and deliver the same as the Court may prescribe. The fee for an original transcript shall be Five Dollars ($5.00) per page. Two (2) copies of the original transcript shall be furnished without additional charge. A charge of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) per hour if not transcribed provided that this amount shall be deducted if transcription is requested at a later date. Mileage is set at the government rate. Each page shall be at least twenty-five (25) lines to the page and typed in ten-point pica type. Said page as mentioned herein shall be no more than double-spaced and the margin on the left side of the page shall be no more than one and one-half (1 1/2) inches and the margin on the right side of the page shall be no more than one-half (1/2) inch from the edge of the paper. The fees for making the transcript shall be paid in the first instance by the party requesting the transcript and shall be taxed as costs in the suit.

When the Judge's own motion orders a transcript of the Reporter's notes, the Judge may direct the payment of charges therefor and the taxation of the charges as costs in such manner as may seem just. In a criminal action, if the defendant shall present to the Judge an affidavit that defendant intends in good faith to take an appeal in the case and that a transcript of the Reporter's notes is necessary to enable defendant to prosecute the appeal, and that the defendant does not have the means to pay for the transcript, the Court, upon finding that there is reasonable basis for the averment, shall order the transcript made at the expense of the District Court Fund. The format preparation, delivery and filing of transcripts to be used in civil and criminal appeals may be regulated by the Supreme Court.

The Court Reporter shall file records of the evidence and the proceedings taken in any case with the Clerk of the Court in which the case was tried.

To the extent that it does not substantially interfere with the Court Reporter's other official duties, the Judge by whom a reporter is employed or to whom assigned may assign a Reporter to secretarial or clerical duties arising out of official Court operations.

Rule 82. Transcripts—Access to copies—Costs

A transcript of the Court Reporter's notes, upon request and for the use of an indigent defendant or a Prosecutor, may not be charged to the Court Fund unless, before its preparation, the cost to be incurred was authorized by written judicial order.

When a Judge authorizes or orders a transcript of the Court Reporter's notes of any proceeding to be prepared at the expense of the Court Fund, or where a Prosecuting Attorney orders such a transcript at public or Court Fund expense and the accused as an indigent is constitutionally entitled to a free copy of the transcript, a Reporter shall prepare an original and two (2) copies of the transcript so ordered and file it with the Clerk of the Trial Court. The Court Reporter shall immediately notify the Prosecuting Attorney and the defendant of the date the transcript was filed. The prosecuting attorney and the defendant shall have access to the copies of the transcript on such terms as the Trial Court may impose. The Chief Judge may prescribe rules for access to or disposition of the copies of the transcript.

Rule 83. Admissibility of transcripts as evidence

Any transcript of notes, duly certified as correct by the Reporter who took the evidence, and filed with the Clerk of the Court in which the cause was tried, shall be admissible as evidence in all cases, of like force and effect, as testimony taken in the cause by deposition, and subject to the same objection, a transcript of said notes may be incorporated into any appellate record. If any Reporter ceases to be the official Reporter of the Court, and thereafter makes a transcript of the notes while acting as official Reporter, the Court Reporter shall swear to the transcript as true and correct and when so verified, the transcript shall have the same force and effect as if certified while an official Reporter.

X. COURT FUND

Rule 90. Deposit of fees, fines and forfeitures in the Court Fund—Uses—Agent of Fund—Bond

All fees, fines and forfeitures shall, when collected by the Court Clerk, be designated as an account in the Cherokee Nation Treasury designated "The Court Fund", and shall be used, from year to year, in defraying the expenses of holding Court.

Rule 91. Claims allowable—Approval

Claims against the Court Fund shall include only such expenses as may be lawfully incurred for the operation of the Court. Payment of the expenses may be made after the claim therefor is approved by the Court Administrator.

The term "expenses" shall include the following items and none other:

1. compensation of staff;
2. juror and witness fees and mileage, as well as overnight accommodations and food expense for jurors kept together as well as compensation to a witness for attendance as set out in legislation as created by the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council, except that expert witnesses who appear on behalf of Cherokee Nation shall be paid a reasonable fee for their services from the Court Fund;
3. office supplies, books for records, postage and printing;
4. furniture, fixtures and equipment;
5. renovating, remodeling and maintenance of courtrooms, Judges' chambers, Clerks' offices and other areas primarily used for judicial functions;
6. judicial robes;
7. attorney fees for indigents in the Trial Court and on appeal;
8. transcripts ordered by the Court;
9. necessary telephone expenses, gas, water and electrical utilities for the part of the courthouse occupied by the Court;
10. the cost of publication notice in juvenile proceedings as provided in 10 CNCA § 1105 and in termination of parental rights proceedings brought by the Nation as provided in 10 CNCA § 1131;

11. interpreter fees; and
12. any other expenses now or hereafter expressly authorized by court rule and/or statute.

Rules 92 to 99. Reserved

XI. PETITION

Rule 100. Contents

Such petition, or charge, shall contain the following:

1. The full name, address, telephone number and fax number, if any, of the person filing the petition;
2. If the petition is filed on behalf of another person or organization, the full name, address, telephone number and fax number, if any, of the party or organization represented;
3. The full name, address, telephone number and fax number, if any, of the person against whom the charge is made (herein referred to as respondent);
4. A clear and concise statement of the facts, constituting the alleged claim, including the date, place and names of those parties involved in the alleged claim;
5. A clear and concise statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the cause of action is being predicated.

Rule 101. Use of bar identification number

Every pleading, motion, and other paper of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his or her name, with a Cherokee Nation Bar Association number.

Rules 102 to 106. Reserved

XII. SERVICE OF PLEADINGS–DISMISSAL–FRIVOLOUS PLEADINGS

[Rule 107. Service–Dismissal–F frivolous pleadings]

After summons is issued, the original shall be returned and filed in the case with the Court Clerk. In those cases where the Court has issued contempt or restraining orders, or granted injunctive relief or in other extraordinary proceedings requiring personal notice to the party affected, the original order shall be filed with the Court Clerk after its issuance, and certified copies thereof shall be used for service on the parties.

If the Court (Judge or Court Clerk) has examined the court file and docket sheet of a case and determines that more than one-hundred eighty (180) days have elapsed without service being made on a named defendant, the Court may notify the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney with notice to all parties or counsel of record to file a pleading to show cause why the action should not be dismissed as to that defendant. If good cause is not shown or response is not made, the Court may dismiss the case without prejudice.

If a pleading is found to be frivolous, the Court may, on its own motion or on the oral or written motion of the opposing party, tax costs in the case or a portion of the costs up to and including the frivolous pleading, against the party filing it. The Court may make subsequent orders to insure compliance with the Court's findings.

XIII. BRIEFS

[Rule 108. Briefs—Requirements]

Each brief shall be clearly styled to show whether it is in support of a motion, in opposition to a motion, or a reply brief, the particular application or proceeding to which it relates, and the party or parties on whose behalf it is presented.

All motions and applications and responses to them, including briefs if required, shall not exceed twenty (20) pages in length without prior permission of the Court. Reply briefs are permitted only by leave of Court by application stating the reason for filing a reply brief. No reply brief may exceed five (5) pages in length. No further briefs shall be filed without prior permission of the Court.

XIV. RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES AND REQUESTS FOR ADMISSIONS AND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

[Rule 109. Answers or objections to be preceded by interrogatory or request]

Each answer or objection to an interrogatory, request for admission, or request for production of documents shall be immediately preceded by the interrogatory or request to which response is being made.

XV. PRETRIAL PROCESS

Rule 110. Scheduling order

A scheduling order may be issued at the discretion of the District Court Judge. The Judge may enter a scheduling order for a time and date certain for the performance of the following duties and any other duties the Judge deems appropriate:

1. response or amended response of defendant;

2. reply, if any, of plaintiff;
3. mutual exchange of names of proposed witnesses and expected testimony;
4. mutual exchange of proposed exhibits and description of such exhibits;
5. filing of motions to join additional parties or to dismiss;
6. status conference report due;
7. status and simplification conference;
8. cut-off for amendments to pleadings;
9. settlement conference;
10. mutual exchange of authorities to be relied upon at trial and mutual exchange of trial briefs, if any;
11. final exchange of list of witnesses and exhibits;
12. cut-off for filing additional motions or responses to amended pleadings, if any;
13. discovery cut-off;
14. cut-off for filing responses to motions, if any;
15. pretrial conference report due;
16. pretrial conference;
17. disposition of pending motions; and
18. trial.

Rule 111. Pretrial order

Plaintiff's counsel shall initiate the preparation of the pretrial order by submitting a proposed pretrial order to opposing counsel no later than fifteen (15) days before the pretrial conference hearing. If plaintiff's counsel fails to do so, then at least ten (10) days before the pretrial conference hearing, defendant's counsel shall submit a proposed pretrial order to plaintiff's counsel. If plaintiff is pro se, the first named represented party shall initiate its preparation. Opposing counsel and pro se parties must cooperate with the preparing party in the completion of the pretrial order and shall return the completed pretrial order to opposing counsel no later than five (5) days before the pretrial hearing. In all cases in which Cherokee Nation is party, Cherokee Nation's counsel shall have the duty of tendering the proposed pretrial order.

Rule 112. Purpose of the agreed pretrial order—Expectations and directions for parties

Purpose of the agreed pretrial order. The purpose of the agreed pretrial order is to condense all material information into one working document that will control the trial of the case.

Prior rulings. The agreed pretrial order must reflect the current status of the case and accurately reflect all prior rulings by the Court.

Unprofessional conduct. Failure of the plaintiff's attorney to timely initiate and/or failure of any attorney in the case to cooperate in timely preparation of the agreed pretrial order shall be deemed by the Court to be unprofessional conduct.

Good faith disputes. While all reasonable efforts should be made by counsel and litigants to timely agree on a pretrial order, if, following good faith effort, disputes still remain regarding factual and/or legal issues, such should be noted in the single pretrial order submitted for ultimate resolution by the Court.

No adoption of pleadings by reference. Counsel may not adopt pleadings and incorporate them into the pretrial order by reference.

Reservation of rights not allowed. No reservation of an asserted right to add additional witnesses or exhibits or to take additional discovery will be allowed in the agreed pretrial order.

Late exhibits. Late exhibits are those not listed in the agreed pretrial order. If late exhibits are discovered, the party desiring to offer them shall immediately mark them for identification and furnish copies to opposing counsel with a statement explaining their late production. If objected to, the sponsoring party must file a written motion requesting permission to supplement the exhibit list.

Late witnesses. Additional witnesses, listed after the witness exchange date, will be permitted to testify only if ordered to prevent manifest injustice and only then, if proper notice is given, under the facts and circumstances of the case, to the other party, and a written motion is immediately filed requesting permission to supplement the witness list.

Pro se litigants. Pro se litigants and opposing counsel should confer before a pretrial conference and be prepared to discuss at the conference significant disputes relative to issues of fact and law, exhibits, witnesses, evidence, in limine matters and all matters bearing on an expeditious settlement or trial of the case.

Pretrial conference. At the pretrial conference, the Court may take any appropriate action to insure a fair trial to all parties.

Demonstrative aids, exhibits and summaries. All demonstrative aids, exhibits and summaries intended to be used for any purpose at trial shall be displayed to opposing counsel at least fourteen (14) days in advance of trial, unless a shorter time is allowed pursuant to the scheduling order.

Rule 113. Application to Withdraw and Order for Withdrawal

Upon application, counsel may request an Order for Withdrawal as Counsel. The application must state the reason for requesting the withdrawal and the status of the case.

Every order allowing withdrawal must contain:

1. the case's current status, including when hearings, if any, have been scheduled;
2. a certificate of mailing to the client showing the last known mailing address and to all other attorneys of record in the case; and
3. Whether new or substitute counsel has been obtained by the client and entered an appearance.

An Application to Withdraw will only be considered if submitted to the Judge at least twenty (20) days prior to a scheduled hearing or trial.

Rules 114 to 119. Reserved

XVI. MOTIONS

Rule 120. Place of Filing—Contents—Service on other parties—Time for filing of motions and responses thereto

All motions shall be filed in writing in the office of the District Court either in person, by mail or fax. All motions for summary judgment shall also be filed in writing in the office of the District Court either in person, by mail or fax. Unless otherwise provided in these rules or by order of the District Court, motions and responses thereto shall be filed promptly and within such time as not to delay the proceedings. Promptness and diligence are favored in all filings in the District Court.

Rule 121. Rulings on motions—Generally

The District Court Judge designated to conduct the hearing shall rule on all motions after the opening of the hearing, and any orders in connection therewith, if announced at the hearing, shall be stated orally on the record; in all other cases, the Judge shall issue such rulings and orders in writing and shall cause a copy of the same to be served on each of the parties, or shall rule on the matter in the decision.

Rule 122. Motions, rulings and orders to be part of the record

All motions, rulings and orders shall become a part of the record.

Rule 123. Motion to dismiss

The respondent may file a motion to dismiss at any time prior to the scheduling order or as permitted in the scheduling order, or move for dismissal at any hearing for:

1. lack of jurisdiction over subject matter;
2. lack of jurisdiction over persons;
3. insufficiency of process or service thereof;
4. failure of petitioner to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Rule 124. Motion for summary judgment

Either party may move for summary judgment by alleging that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and by alleging that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

Rule 125. Filing of answer or other participation in proceedings not deemed a waiver of rights

The right to make motions or to make objections to rulings upon motions shall not be deemed waived by the filing of an answer or by other participation in the proceedings before the District Court.

Rule 126. Intervention

Any person desiring to intervene in any proceeding shall file a motion in writing or, if made at the hearing, may move orally on the record, stating the grounds upon which such person claims an interest. An unstapled original of written motions shall be filed. Immediately upon filing such motion, the moving party shall serve a copy on the other parties. The assigned Judge may by order permit intervention in person or by counsel or other representative to such extent and upon such terms as deemed proper.

XVII. WITNESSES' FEES AND MILEAGE

Rule 127. Witness fees and mileage

Witnesses requested to appear before the District Court shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States. Witnesses' fees and mileage shall be taxed against the party at whose instance the witness appears and the fees of persons taking the deposition shall be taxed against the party at whose instance the deposition is taken.

XVIII. REQUEST FOR JURY TRIAL

Rule 128. Request for jury trial

A request for a jury trial must be made with the pretrial order. No pretrial order will be filed without payment of the jury fees. Failure to post jury fees could result in the loss of a jury trial.

XIX. ATTORNEYS

Rule 129. Attorneys

Attorneys allowed to practice in the District Courts of Cherokee Nation are required to follow procedures codified by the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation in Supreme Court Rules 130 to 138.

XX. LAY ADVOCATES

Rule 129A. Lay advocates

Lay advocates are allowed to practice in the courts of Cherokee Nation and shall be required to follow procedures codified by the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation in Supreme Court Rules 140 to 145.

XXI. COURT PROCEDURE—GRIEVANCES

Rule 130. District Court shall review all requests for formal hearings

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 139, the District Court shall review all requests made by the Cherokee Nation Attorney General for certification for formal hearing of a grievance against an attorney or lay advocate before the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court.

Rule 131. District Court to determine jurisdiction for formal hearing

The District Court before certifying a grievance for formal hearing before the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall determine that the attorney or lay advocate is a member of the Cherokee Nation Bar Association and the subject matter of the grievance occurred within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation Courts.

Rule 132. Burden of proof—Clear and convincing evidence

The District Court before certifying a grievance for formal hearing before the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court shall determine that there is clear and convincing evidence in support of the Attorney General's request for a formal hearing.

XXII. RULES TO BE LIBERALLY CONSTRUED, AMENDMENT OR RESCISSION OF RULES

Rule 140. Rules to be liberally construed

The rules and procedures in this appendix shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes and provisions of the appendix.

Rule 141. Amendment or rescission of Rules

Any rule or procedure may be amended or rescinded by the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation at any time; provided, however, any amendment or rescission of rules by the Supreme Court of Cherokee Nation must meet the requirements of 20 CNCA § 57(B) and (C).

PART II. CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE

PART III. CRIMES AGAINST THE PERSON

PART IV. CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC DECENCY AND MORALITY

PART V. CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC HEALTH AND SAFETY

PART VI. CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE

CHEROKEE NATION FIREARMS ACT OF 1971

PART VII. CRIMES AGAINST PROPERTY

PART VIII. CONTROLLED DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES

PART I

IN GENERAL

CHAPTER 1

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

§ 1. Title of code

This title shall be known and may be cited as the Penal Code of Cherokee Nation.

§ 2. Criminal acts are only those prescribed—"This code" defined

No act or omission shall be deemed criminal or punishable except as prescribed or authorized by this code. The words "this code" as used in the "penal code" shall be construed to mean "Cherokee Nation Code Annotated."

§ 3. Crime and public offense defined

A crime or public offense is an act or omission forbidden by law, and to which is annexed, upon conviction, any of the following punishments:

1. Imprisonment;
2. Fine;
3. Removal from office;
4. Disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust, or profit, under this Nation;
5. Restitution;
6. Community service; or
7. Victim compensation assessment.

§ 4. Crimes classified

All crimes or offenses are classified as "crimes."

§ 7. Objects of penal code

This title specifies the classes of persons who are deemed capable of crimes, and liable to punishment therefor; and defines the nature of the various crimes; and prescribes the kind and measure of punishment to be inflicted for each. The manner of prosecuting and convicting criminals is regulated by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 22 CNCA.

§ 8. Conviction must precede punishment

The punishments prescribed by this title can be inflicted only upon a legal conviction in a court having jurisdiction.

§ 10. Punishment of crimes

Except in cases where a different punishment is prescribed by this title or by some existing provisions of law, every offense declared to be a crime is punishable by the maximum punishment provided for by the Indian Civil Rights Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1302(a)(7). The Court may not impose for conviction of any one (1) offense any penalty or punishment greater than imprisonment for a term of one (1) year or a fine of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or both; except that the Court may subject a defendant to a term of imprisonment greater than one (1) year but not to exceed three (3) years for any one (1) offense, or a fine greater than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) but not to exceed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), or both, if the defendant is a person accused of a criminal offense who (a) has been previously convicted of the same or a comparable offense by any jurisdiction in the United States; or (b) is being prosecuted for an offense comparable to an offense that would be punishable by more than one (1) year of imprisonment if prosecuted by the United States or any of the states.

§ 10a. Punishment of crimes concerning public officials, appointed officials or department heads

Any elected official, appointed official or department head who is convicted of a crime concerning bribery, embezzlement, fraud, perjury, or forgery or larceny may in addition to the punishments provided under this title, be subject to the punishment of disqualification from employment with Cherokee Nation.

§ 11. Specific statutes in other titles as governing—Acts punishable in different ways—Acts not otherwise punishable by imprisonment

A. If there be in any other titles of the laws of this Nation a provision making any specific act or omission criminal and providing the punishment therefor, and there be in this penal code any provision or section making the same act or omission a criminal offense or prescribing the punishment therefor, that offense and the punishment thereof, shall be governed by the special provisions made in relation thereto, and not by the provisions of this penal code. But an act or omission which is made punishable in different ways by different provisions of this code may be punished under any of such provisions, the punishments therein prescribed are substituted for those prescribed for a first offense, but in no case can it be punished under more than one section of law; and an acquittal or conviction and sentence under any one section of law, bars the prosecution for the same act or omission under any other section of law.

B. Provided, however, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any offense, including traffic offenses, in violation of the laws of this Nation which is not otherwise punishable by a term of imprisonment or confinement shall be punishable by a term of imprisonment not to exceed one day in the discretion of the Court, in addition to any fine prescribed by law.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SENTENCE AND IMPRISONMENT

PERJURY ON EXAMINATION OF PRIVILEGED WITNESS

DEFINITIONS

OTHER REMEDIES AND PUNISHMENTS

FINES AND PENALTIES

CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION ACT

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 21. Prohibited act a crime, when

Where the performance of an act is prohibited by any statute, and no penalty for the violation of such statute is imposed in any statute, the doing of such act is a crime.

§ 22. Gross injuries—Grossly disturbing peace—Openly outraging public decency—Injurious acts not expressly forbidden

Every person who willfully and wrongfully commits any act which grossly injures the person or property of another, or which grossly disturbs the public peace or health, or which openly outrages public decency, and is injurious to public morals, although no punishment is expressly prescribed therefor by this code, is guilty of a crime.

§ 24. Acts punishable under foreign laws

An act or omission declared punishable by this title is not less so because it is also punishable under the laws of a state, another government or country, unless the contrary is expressly declared in this title.

§ 25. Foreign conviction or acquittal

Whenever it appears upon the trial that the accused has already been acquitted or convicted upon any criminal prosecution under the laws of a state, another government or country, founded upon the act or omission in respect to which he is upon trial, this is a sufficient defense.

§ 26. Contempts, criminal acts which are also punishable as

A criminal act is not the less punishable as a crime because it is also declared to be punishable as a contempt.

§ 27. Mitigation of punishment

Where it is made to appear at the time of passing sentence upon a person convicted, that such person has already paid a fine or suffered an imprisonment for the act which he stands convicted, under an order adjudging it a contempt, the Court authorized to pass sentence may mitigate the punishment to be imposed, in its discretion.

§ 28. Aiding in a crime

Whenever an act is declared a crime, and no punishment for counseling or aiding in the commission of such act is expressly prescribed by law, every person who counsels or aids another in the commission of such act, is guilty of a crime, and punishable in the same manner as the principal offender.

§ 29. Sending letter—When complete—Place of prosecution

In the various cases in which the sending of a letter is made criminal by this title, the offense is deemed complete from the time when such letter is deposited in any post office or any other place, or delivered to any person with intent that it shall be forwarded. And the party may be indicted and tried in any county wherein such letter is so deposited or delivered, or in which it shall be received by the person to whom it is addressed.

§ 30. Failure to perform duty

No person is punishable for an omission to perform an act, where such act has been performed by another person acting in his behalf, and competent by law to perform it.

ATTEMPTS

§ 41. Conviction for attempt not permitted where crime is perpetrated

No person can be convicted of an attempt to commit a crime when it appears that the crime intended or attempted was perpetrated by such person in pursuance of such attempt.

§ 42. Attempts to commit crimes—Punishment

Every person who attempts to commit any crime, and in such attempt does any act toward the commission of such crime, but fails, or is prevented or intercepted in the perpetration thereof, is punishable, where no provision is made by law for the punishment of such attempt, as follows:

If the offense so attempted be punishable by imprisonment and or by a fine, the offender convicted of such attempt may be punished by both imprisonment and or fine, not exceeding one-half (1/2) the longest term of imprisonment and one-half (1/2) the largest fine which may be imposed upon a conviction for the offense so attempted.

§ 43. Unsuccessful attempt—Another crime committed

The last two sections do not protect a person who in attempting unsuccessfully to commit a crime, accomplishes the commission of another and different crime, whether greater or less in guilt, from suffering the punishment prescribed by law for the crime committed.

§ 44. Attempt defined

A person is guilty of an attempt to commit a crime if, acting with the kind of culpability otherwise required for commission of the crime, he:

1. purposely engages in conduct which would constitute the crime if the attendant circumstances were as he believes them to be; or
2. when causing a particular result in an element of the crime, does anything with the purpose of causing or with the belief that it will cause such result, without further conduct on his part.

§ 53. Attempt to conceal death of child—Punishment on subsequent conviction

Every person who, having endeavored to conceal the live birth of an child, or the death of any such child under the age of two (2) years, is guilty of a crime.

SENTENCE AND IMPRISONMENT

§ 61.1. Sentences to be served in order received by penal institution—Concurrent sentences

When any person is convicted of two or more crimes in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and the judgment and sentence for each conviction arrives at a Cherokee Nation penal institution on different dates, the sentence which is first received at the institution shall commence and be followed by those sentences which are subsequently received at the institution, in the order in which they are received by the institution, regardless of the order in which the judgments and sentences were rendered by the respective courts, unless a judgment and sentence provides that it is to run concurrently with another judgment and sentence.

§ 61.2. Sentences to run concurrent with federal or state court sentence

When a defendant is sentenced in a Cherokee Nation Court and is also under sentence from a federal court or a state court, the Court may direct that custody of the defendant be relinquished to the federal or state authorities and that such Nation Court sentence as is imposed may run concurrently with the federal or state sentence imposed.

§ 61.4. Suspended sentence—Revocation—Relinquishment of custody

When a defendant has received a suspended sentence from a Cherokee Nation Court and is also under sentence from a federal court or a state court, the Court may revoke the suspended sentence and direct that custody of the defendant be relinquished to the federal or the state's authorities and that the sentence may run concurrently with the federal or the state's sentence which has been imposed.

§ 61.5. Return to Cherokee Nation to complete sentence

Provided, that, after a defendant has been transferred to another jurisdiction pursuant to the provisions of this title, if any sentence remains to be served in Cherokee Nation, such defendant shall be returned by the sentencing court to Cherokee Nation to complete his sentence.

§ 64. Fine, though not prescribed, may be added to imprisonment

Upon a conviction for any crime punishable by imprisonment in any jail or prison, in relation to which no fine is herein prescribed, the Court may impose a fine as provided in 25 U.S.C. § 1302(a)(7).

§ 65. Civil rights suspended

A sentence of imprisonment suspends all the civil rights of the person so sentenced, except the right to make employment contracts, during confinement under said sentence, subject to the approval of the Nation's Court, when this benefits the vocational training or release preparation of the prisoner, and forfeits all public offices.

§ 67. Person of convict protected

The person of a convict sentenced to imprisonment in the Cherokee Nation penal institution is under the protection of the law, and any injury to his person, not authorized by law, is punishable in the same manner as if he was not convicted or sentenced.

§ 68. Conviction does not work forfeiture

No conviction of any person for crime works any forfeiture of any property, except in the cases of any outlawry for treason, and other cases in which a forfeiture is expressly imposed by law.

§ 69. Sentence—Transfer to Bureau of Prisons

The District Court, upon the request of the Marshal or the Attorney General, may refer any person sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Nation to the Bureau of Prisons for transfer of he inmate to the nearest appropriate and available Bureau of Prisons facility.

PERJURY ON EXAMINATION OF PRIVILEGED WITNESS

§ 81. Testimony—Privilege of witnesses and perjury

The various sections of this title which declare that evidence obtained upon the examination of a person as a witness shall not be received against him in any criminal proceeding, do not forbid such evidence being proved against such person upon any proceedings founded upon a charge of perjury committed in such examination.

DEFINITIONS

§ 91. Terms to have meanings specified unless different meaning appears

Wherever the terms mentioned in the following sections are employed in this title, they are deemed to be employed in the senses hereafter affixed to them, except where a different sense plainly appears.

§ 92. Willfully defined

The term "willfully" when applied to the intent with which an act is done or omitted, implies simply a purpose or willingness to commit the act or the omission referred to. It does not require any intent to violate law, or to injure another, or to acquire any advantage.

§ 93. Negligent—Negligence

The terms "neglect," "negligence," "negligent" and "negligently," when so employed, import a want of such attention to the nature or probable consequences of the act or omission as a prudent man ordinarily bestows in acting in his own concerns.

§ 94. Corruptly

The term "corruptly" when so employed, imports a wrongful design to acquire some pecuniary or other advantage to the person guilty of the act or omission referred to.

§ 95. Malice—Maliciously

The terms "malice" and "maliciously," when so employed, import a wish to vex, annoy or injure another person, established either by proof or presumption of law.

§ 96. Knowingly

The term "knowingly," when so applied, imports only a knowledge that the facts exist which bring the act or omission within the provisions of this code. It does not require any knowledge of the unlawfulness of such act or omission.

§ 97. Bribe

The term "bribe" signifies any money, goods, right in action, property, thing of value or advantage, present or prospective, or any promise or undertaking, asked, given or accepted, with a corrupt intent to influence unlawfully the person to whom it is given, in his action, vote or opinion, in any public or official capacity.

§ 98. Vessel

The word "vessel," when used with reference to shipping, includes ships of all kinds, steamboats, and steamships, canal boats, and every structure adapted to be navigated from place to place.

§ 99. Peace officer

The term "peace officer" signifies any marshal, sheriff, law enforcement officer, highway patrolman, constable or policeman, and any other officers whose duty it is to enforce and preserve the public peace.

§ 100. Signature

The term "signature" includes any name, mark or sign, written with the intent to authenticate any instrument or writing.

§ 101. Writing includes printing

The term "writing" includes printing.

§ 102. Real property

The term "real property" includes every estate, interest and right in lands, tenements and hereditaments.

§ 103. Personal property

The term "personal property" includes every description of money, goods, chattels, effects, evidences of right in action, and written instruments by which any pecuniary obligation, right or title to property, real or personal, is created or acknowledged, transferred, increased, defeated, discharged or diminished.

§ 104. Property defined

The term "property" includes both real and personal property.

§ 105. Person defined

The word "person" includes corporations, as well as natural persons who are subject to the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation pursuant to federal law.

§ 106. Person as designating party whose property may be subject of offense

Where the term "person" is used in this Title to designate the party whose property may be the subject of any offense, it includes this Nation, any state, other government or country which may lawfully own any property within this Nation, and all public and private corporations or joint associations, as well as individuals.

§ 107. Singular includes plural

The singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular.

§ 108. Gender

Words used in the masculine gender comprehend as well the feminine and neuter.

§ 109. Present tense

Words used in the present tense include the future, but exclude the past.

§ 110. Intent to defraud

Whenever, by any of the provisions of this title, an intent to defraud is required in order to constitute any offense, it is sufficient if an intent appears to defraud any person, association or body politic or corporate whatever.

OTHER REMEDIES AND PUNISHMENTS

§ 131. Civil remedies not affected

The omission to specify or affirm in this title, any liability to any damages, penalty, forfeiture or other remedy, imposed by law, and allowed to be recovered or enforced in any civil action or proceeding, for any act or omission declared punishable herein, does not affect any right to recover or enforce the same.

§ 132. Proceeding to impeach or remove

The omission to specify or affirm in this title, any ground of forfeiture of a public office or other trust or special authority conferred by law, to impeach, remove, depose or suspend any public officer or other person holding any trust, appointment or other special authority conferred by law, does not affect such forfeiture or power, or any proceeding authorized by law to carry into effect such impeachment, removal, deposition or suspension.

FINES AND PENALTIES

§ 141. Payment into Cherokee Nation

All fines, forfeitures and pecuniary penalties prescribed as a punishment by any of the provisions of this title, when collected, shall be paid to Cherokee Nation.

CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION ACT

§ 142.1. Intent of Cherokee Nation Council

It is the intent of the Cherokee Nation Council to provide a method of compensating and assisting those persons within the Nation who are victims of criminal acts and who suffer bodily injury or death. To this end, it is the further intent of the Council to provide compensation in the amount of expenses actually incurred as a direct result of the criminal acts of other persons.

§ 142.18. Victim compensation assessments

A. In addition to the imposition of any costs, penalties or fines imposed pursuant to law, any person convicted or pleading guilty to a crime involving criminally injurious conduct shall be ordered to pay a victim compensation assessment of at least Five Dollars ($5.00), but not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), for each crime for which he was convicted. In imposing this penalty, the Court shall consider factors such as the severity of the crime, the prior criminal record, and the ability of the defendant to pay, as well as the economic impact of the victim compensation assessment on the dependents of the defendant.

B. When a cash bond is posted for any offense included in this subsection, the bond shall also include a sufficient amount to cover the victim compensation assessment.

C. All monies collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Victims Compensation Revolving Fund.

CHAPTER 3

PERSONS LIABLE TO PUNISHMENT

§ 151. Persons liable to punishment in Cherokee Nation

The following persons are liable to punishment under the laws of this Nation:

1. All persons who commit, in whole or in part, any crime within the Nation.
2. All who commit theft out of this Nation, and bring, or are found with the property stolen, in this Nation.
3. All who, being out of this Nation, abduct or kidnap, by force or fraud, any person contrary to the laws of the place where such act is committed, and bring, send, or convey such person within the limits of this Nation, and are afterward found therein.

4. And all who, being out of this Nation, cause or aid, advise or encourage, another person, causing an injury to any person or property within this Nation by means of any act or neglect which is declared criminal by this code, and who are afterward found within this Nation.

§ 152. Persons capable of committing crimes—Exceptions—Children—Idiots—Lunatics—Ignorance—Commission without consciousness—Involuntary subjection

All persons are capable of committing crimes, except those belonging to the following classes:

1. Children under the age of seven (7) years.
2. Children over the age of seven (7) years, but under the age of fourteen (14) years, in the absence of proof that at the time of committing the act or neglect charged against them, they knew its wrongfulness.
3. Idiots.
4. Lunatics, insane persons, and all persons of unsound mind, including persons temporarily or partially deprived of reason, upon proof that at the time of committing the act charged against them they were incapable of knowing its wrongfulness.
5. Persons who committed the act, or made the omission charged, under an ignorance or mistake of fact which disproves any criminal intent. But ignorance of the law does not excuse from punishment for its violation.
6. Persons who committed the act charged without being conscious thereof.
7. Persons who committed the act, or make the omission charged, while under involuntary subjection to the power of superiors.

§ 153. Intoxication no defense

No act committed by a person while in a state of voluntary intoxication shall be deemed less criminal by reason of his having been in such condition.

§ 154. Morbid propensity no defense

A morbid propensity to commit prohibited acts existing in the mind of a person who is not shown to have been incapable of knowing the wrongfulness of such acts, forms no defense to a prosecution therefor.

§ 155. Subjection to superior exonerates

The involuntary subjection to the power of a superior which exonerates a person charged with a criminal act or omission from punishment therefor, arises from duress.

§ 156. Duress must be actual

The duress which excuses a person from punishment who has committed a prohibited act or omission must be an actual compulsion by use of force or fear.

CHAPTER 4

PARTIES TO CRIME

§ 171. Classification of parties

The parties to crimes are classified as:

1. Principals, and,
2. Accessories.

§ 172. Principals defined

All persons concerned in the commission of crime, and whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense, or aid and abet in its commission, though not present, are principals.

§ 173. Accessories defined

All persons who, after the commission of any crime, conceal or aid the offender, with knowledge that he has committed a crime, and with intent that he may avoid or escape from arrest, trial, conviction, or punishment, are accessories.

§ 175. Punishment of accessories

Except in cases where a different punishment is prescribed by law, an accessory to a crime is punishable as a principal.

CHAPTER 6

CRIMES AGAINST THE EXECUTIVE POWER

§ 264. Falsely assuming to be peace officers—Private persons may make arrests

Any person who shall without due authority exercise or attempt to exercise the functions of or hold himself out to any one as a deputy sheriff, marshal, policeman, constable or peace officer, shall be deemed guilty of a crime: Provided, however, that this section shall not be so construed as to prevent private persons from making arrests for crimes committed in their presence.

§ 265. Bribing or offering bribe to executive officer

Every person who gives or offers any bribe to any executive officer, with intent to influence him in respect to any act, decision, vote, opinion, or other proceedings of such officer, is guilty of a crime.

§ 266. Asking or receiving bribes

Every executive officer or person elected or appointed to executive office who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion or action upon any matter then pending, or which may by law be brought before him in his official capacity, shall be influenced thereby, is guilty of a crime and in addition thereto, forfeits his office and is forever disqualified from holding any public office under the laws of the Nation.

§ 267. Preventing officer's performance of duty

§ 268. Resisting executive officer

Every person who knowingly resists, by the use of force or violence, any executive officer in the performance of his duty, is guilty of a crime.

§ 269. Asking or receiving unauthorized reward for official act

Every executive officer who asks or receives any emolument, gratuity or reward, or any promise of any emolument, gratuity or reward, excepting such as may be authorized by law, for doing any official act, is guilty of a crime.

§ 270. Reward for omission to act, asking or receiving

Every executive officer who asks or receives any emolument, gratuity or reward, or any promise of any emolument, gratuity or reward, for omitting or deferring the performance of any official duty, is guilty of a crime.

§ 278. Refusal to surrender books to successor

Every person who having been an executive officer of this Nation, wrongfully refuses to surrender the official seal or any of the books and papers appertaining to his office, to his successor, who has been duly elected or appointed, and has duly qualified, and has demanded the surrender of the books and papers of such office is guilty of a crime.

§ 279. Administrative officers included

The various provisions of this article which relate to executive officers apply in relation to administrative officers in the same manner as if administrative and executive officer were both mentioned together.

CHAPTER 7

CRIMES AGAINST THE LEGISLATIVE POWER

§ 301. Preventing meetings of Council

Every person who willfully and by force or fraud prevents the Council, or any of the Members thereof, from meeting or organizing, is guilty of a crime.

§ 304. Preventing Council Member or personnel from performing official duties—Penalty

Any person who alone or in concert with others willfully either by force, physical interference, fraud, intimidation, or by means of any independently unlawful act, prevents or attempts to prevent any member, officer or employee of the council from performing any official act, function, power or duty shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 308. Bribery of or influencing Council Members

Every person who gives or offers to give a bribe to any Member of the Council, or attempts directly or indirectly, by menace, deceit, suppression of truth or any other corrupt means, to influence a Member in giving or withholding his vote, or in not attending the Council meeting, or any committee thereof is guilty of a crime.

§ 309. Soliciting bribes—Trading votes

Every Member of the Council who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe upon any understanding that his official vote, opinion, judgment or action shall be influenced thereby, or shall be given in any manner or upon any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity or who gives, or offers or promises to give any official vote in consideration that another Member of the Council shall give any such vote, either upon the same or another question, is guilty of a crime.

§ 312. Forfeiture of office—Disqualification to hold office

The conviction of a Member of the Council of bribery involves as a consequence, in addition to the punishment prescribed by this code, a forfeiture of his office, and disqualifies him from ever afterwards holding any office under this Nation.

§ 318. Bribery

No person, firm, or member of a firm, corporation, or association shall give or offer any money, position or thing of value to any Member of the Council to influence him to work or to vote for any proposition, nor shall any Member of the Council accept any money, position, promise, or reward or thing of value for his work or vote upon any bill, resolution or measure before the Council.

§ 321. Member of Council—Soliciting or securing employment with Cherokee Nation

It shall be unlawful for any Member of the Council to solicit, receive or accept any money or thing of value either directly or through another person for soliciting or securing employment of or for another person from any department or institution of the Nation, where the said department or institution is supported in whole or in part from revenues levied pursuant to shall be given in any manner or upon any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity, or who gives, or offers or promises to give any official vote in consideration that another Member of the Council shall give any such vote, either upon the same or another question, is guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 8

CRIMES AGAINST THE REVENUE AND PROPERTY OF THE NATION

§ 341. Embezzlement and false accounts by officers

Every public officer of the Nation and every deputy or clerk of any such officer and every other person receiving any money or other thing of value on behalf of or for account of this Nation or any department of the government of this Nation or any bureau or fund created by law and in which this Nation or the people thereof, are directly or indirectly interested, who either:

First: Appropriates to his own use, or to the use of any person not entitled thereto, without authority of law, any money or anything of value received by him as such officer, clerk, or deputy, or otherwise, on behalf of this Nation, or any subdivision of this Nation, or the people thereof, or in which they are interested; or

Second: Receives, directly or indirectly, any interest, profit or perquisites, arising from the use or loan of public funds in his hands or money to be raised through his agency for the Nation; or

Third: Knowingly keeps any false account, or makes any false entry or erasure in any account of or relating to any monies so received by him, on behalf of the Nation, or the people thereof, or in which they are interested; or

Fourth: Fraudulently alters, falsifies, cancels, destroys or obliterates any such account; or

Fifth: Willfully omits or refuses to pay over to the Nation, or its officers or agents authorized by law to receive the same, any money or interest, profit or perquisites arising therefrom, received by him under any duty imposed by law so to pay over the same, shall upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a crime, and in addition thereto shall be disqualified to hold office in this Nation, and the court shall issue an order of such forfeiture, and should appeal be taken from the judgment of the Court, the defendant may, in the discretion of the Court, stand suspended from such office until such cause is finally determined.

§ 344. Fraud by officer authorized to sell, lease or make contract

Every public officer, being authorized to sell or lease any property, or make any contract in his official capacity, who voluntarily becomes interested individually in such sale, lease or contract, directly or indirectly, is guilty of a crime.

§ 346. Obstructing the collection of taxes

Every person who willfully obstructs or hinders any public officer from collecting any revenue, taxes, or other sums of money in which, or any part of which the people of this Nation are directly or indirectly interested, and which such officer is by law empowered to collect, is guilty of a crime.

§ 349. Injuring or burning public buildings

Every person who willfully burns, destroys, or injures any public buildings or improvements in this Nation, is guilty of a crime.

§ 351. False statement regarding taxes

Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as the basis of imposing any tax or assessment, or of an application to reduce any tax or assessment, willfully states any material matter which he knows to be false, is guilty, upon conviction, of a crime.

§ 353. Officer dealing in warrants—Crime

It shall be unlawful for any public officer or deputy or employee of such officer to either directly or indirectly, buy, barter for, or otherwise engage in any manner in the purchase of any bonds, warrants or any other evidence of indebtedness against this Nation, any subdivision thereof, of which he is an officer.

§ 355. Member of governing body not to furnish public supplies for consideration

It shall be unlawful for any Member of the Council of the nation to furnish, for a consideration any material or supplies for the use of said Nation or subdivision.

§ 358. False, fictitious or fraudulent claims against Cherokee Nation

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association or agency to make, present, or cause to be presented to any employee or officer of Cherokee Nation, or to any department or agency thereof, any false, fictitious or fraudulent claim for payment of public funds upon or against Cherokee Nation, or any department or agency thereof, knowing such claim to be false, fictitious or fraudulent.

§ 359. Penalties

Any person, firm, corporation, association or agency found guilty of violating the foregoing section shall be guilty of a crime.

PART II

CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE

CHAPTER 10

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

§ 380. Bribery of fiduciary

A. Any fiduciary who, with a corrupt intent and without the consent of his beneficiary, intentionally or knowingly solicits, accepts, or agrees to accept any bribe from another person with the agreement or understanding that the bribe as defined by law will influence the conduct of the fiduciary in relation to the affairs of his beneficiary, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime.

B. Any person who offers, confers, or agrees to confer any bribe the acceptance of which is an offense pursuant to the provisions of subsection (A) of this section, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime.

C. As used in subsection (A) of this section:

1. "Beneficiary" means any person for whom a fiduciary is acting.

2. "Fiduciary" means:

a. an agent or employee; or

b. a trustee, guardian, custodian, administrator, executor, conservator, receiver, or similar fiduciary; or

c. a lawyer, physician, accountant, appraiser, or other professional advisor; or

d. an officer, director, partner, manager, or other participant in the direction of the affairs of a corporation or association.

§ 381. Bribing officers

Whoever corruptly gives, offers, or promises to any executive, legislative, judicial, or other public officer, or any employee of Cherokee Nation or any political subdivision thereof, including peace officers and any other law enforcement officer, or any person assuming to act as such officer, after his election or appointment, either before or after he has qualified or has taken his seat, any gift or gratuity whatever, with intent to influence his act, vote, opinion, decision, or judgment on any matter, question, cause, or proceeding which then may be pending, or may by law come or be brought before him in his official capacity, or as a consideration for any speech, work, or service in connection therewith, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 382. Officers receiving bribes

Every executive, legislative, judicial, or other public officer, or any employee of Cherokee Nation or any political subdivision thereof, including peace officers and any other law enforcement officer, or any person assuming to act as such officer, who corruptly accepts or requests a gift or gratuity, or a promise to make a gift, or a promise to do an act beneficial to such officer, or that judgment shall be given in any particular manner, or upon a particular side of any question, cause or proceeding, which is or may be by law brought before him in his official capacity, or that in such capacity he shall make any particular nomination or appointment, shall forfeit his office, be forever disqualified to hold any public office, trust, or appointment under the laws of this Nation, is guilty of a crime.

§ 383. Bribing jurors, referees, etc.

Every person who gives or offers to give a bribe to any judicial officer, juror, referee, arbitrator, umpire or assessor, or to any person who may be authorized by law or agreement of parties interested to hear or determine any question or controversy, with intent to influence his vote, opinion or decision upon any matter or question which is or may be brought before him for decision, is guilty of a crime.

§ 384. Receiving bribes by jurors, referees, etc.

Every juror, referee, arbitrator, umpire or assessor, and every person authorized by law to hear or determine any question or controversy, who asks, receives, or agrees to receive, any bribe upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion or decision upon any matter or question which is or may be brought before him for decision, shall be thereby influenced, is guilty of crime.

§ 385. Misconduct of jurors

Every juror or person drawn or summoned as a juror, or chosen arbitrator, or umpire, or appointed referee, who either:

1. Makes any promise or agreement to give a verdict for or against any party; or
2. Willfully permits any communication to be made to him, or receives any book, paper, instrument, or information relative to any cause pending before him, except according to the regular course of proceeding upon the trial of such cause, is guilty of a crime.

§ 386. Accepting gifts

Every judicial officer, juror, referee, arbitrator or umpire, who accepts any gift from any person, knowing him to be a party in interest or the attorney or counsel of any party in interest to any action or proceeding then pending or about to be brought before him, is guilty of a crime.

§ 387. Gifts defined

The word "gift" in the foregoing section shall not be taken to include property received by inheritance, by will or by gift in view of death.

§ 388. Attempts to influence jurors

Every person who attempts to influence a juror, or any person summoned or drawn as a juror, or chosen as arbitrator or appointed a referee, in respect to his verdict, or decision of any cause or matter pending, or about to be brought before him, either:

1st, By means of any communication oral or written had with him, except in the regular course of proceedings upon the trial of the cause;

2nd, By means of any book, paper, or instrument, exhibited otherwise than in the regular course of proceedings, upon the trial of the cause;

3rd, By means of any threat or intimidation;

4th, By means of any assurance or promise of any pecuniary or other advantage; or,

5th, By publishing any statement, argument or observation relating to the cause, is guilty of a crime.

§ 389. Drawing jurors fraudulently

Every person authorized by law to assist at the drawing of any jurors to attend any court, who willfully puts or consents to the putting upon any list of jurors as having been drawn any name which shall not have been drawn for that purpose in the manner prescribed by law; or, who omits to place on such list any name that shall have been drawn in the manner prescribed by law, or who signs or certifies any list of jurors as having been drawn which was not drawn according to law; or, who is guilty of any other unfair, partial or improper conduct in the drawing of any such list of jurors, is guilty of a crime.

§ 390. Misconduct by officer in charge of jury

Every officer to whose charge any juror or jury is committed by any court or magistrate who negligently or willfully permits them, or any one of them, either:

1. To receive any communication from any person;
2. To make any communication to any person;
3. To obtain or receive any book or paper or refreshment; or
4. To leave the jury room, the jury box, or his immediate custody or control, without the leave of such court or magistrate first obtained, is guilty of a crime.

Every bailiff, or other officer or person, into whose custody and care any court of record contemplates committing any juror or jury, before entering upon his duties as such for the Court term or such lesser period of such service as the Court may determine, shall first be admonished and shall make in writing and file with the Clerk of such Court a solemn oath, sworn to before the Clerk or Judge of such Court, to the effect that he will regard the foregoing provisions of this section and that he will faithfully prevent the same and obstruct any attempt to accomplish or to attempt to do any of them, but at the same time to have regard to the comfort and well-being of the jurors and all of them, entrusted into his care in each and every jury trial in any cause during such Court term or lesser period of appointment by such Court.

In every Court the same admonition shall be given and the same oath required as above, in each jury trial; but the Court shall have the option whether the same be oral, or in writing and filed in such case, but thereafter during the trial of the same cause and until such jury is dismissed from further consideration of the same it shall not be necessary, for all intent and purposes of this act, to administer again such admonition or to require such oath.

CHAPTER 11

CONSPIRACY

§ 421. Conspiracy—Definition—Punishment

A. If two or more persons conspire, either:

1. To commit any crime; or
2. Falsely and maliciously to indict another for any crime, or to procure another to be charged or arrested for any crime; or
3. Falsely to move or maintain any suit, action or proceeding; or
4. To cheat and defraud any person of any property by any means which are in themselves criminal, or by any means which, if executed, would amount to a cheat or to obtaining money or property by false pretenses; or

5. To commit any act injurious to the public health, to public morals, or to trade or commerce, or for the perversion or obstruction of justice or the due administration of the laws, they are guilty of a conspiracy.

B. Except in cases where a different punishment is prescribed by law the punishment for conspiracy shall be a crime.

§ 422. Conspiracy outside Cherokee Nation against the peace of the Nation

If two or more persons, being out of this Nation, conspire to commit any act against the peace of this Nation, the commission or attempted commission of which, within this nation, would be treason against the Nation, they are guilty of a crime.

§ 423. Overt act necessary

No agreement to commit a crime amounts to a conspiracy, unless some act besides such agreement be done to effect the object thereof, by one or more of the parties to such agreement.

§ 424. Punishment for conspiracy against Cherokee Nation

If two or more persons conspire either to commit any offense against Cherokee Nation, any subdivision thereof, or to defraud Cherokee Nation, any subdivision thereof, in any manner or for any purpose, and if one or more of such parties do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, all the parties to such conspiracy shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 11A

ELECTION FRAUD

§ 425. Voting fraud

Every person, not having the qualification of a voter, who shall fraudulently vote, or attempt to vote, at any election, or who shall vote or attempt to vote, more than once for the same candidate, at any election, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), and be imprisoned for any time less than one (1) year and exceeding six (6) months, and be forever disqualified from voting.

§ 426. Unlawful influence of voters

Every person who shall by bribery, treats or offers of employment, attempt to influence any voter in giving his vote, or shall use threats to procure any voter to vote contrary to the inclination of such voter, or to deter him from giving his vote, shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, be fined in a sum of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), and not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or be imprisoned for any time less than one (1) year, and exceeding three (3) months, or both by fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the Court.

§ 427. Receiving the votes of unqualified voters

Any Election Board member who shall willfully and knowingly receive or sanction the reception of the vote of any person not having the qualification of a voter, or who shall be guilty of a wilful neglect of duty, or of any corrupt action in the execution of the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, be fined in a sum of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), and be imprisoned for any term less than one (1) year and exceeding three (3) months.

§ 428. Tampering with election returns

Any person, who shall fraudulently alter, mutilate, destroy, or unlawfully open, after being sealed up, any returns of election, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, be imprisoned for any term less than one (1) year and exceeding three (3) months.

CHAPTER 12

ESCAPES AND AIDING THEREIN

§ 431. Rearrest of escaped prisoners

Every prisoner confined upon conviction for a criminal offense, who escapes from a penal institution, may be pursued, retaken and imprisoned again, notwithstanding the term for which he was sentenced to be imprisoned may have expired at the time when he is retaken, and he shall remain so imprisoned until tried for such escape, or discharged, on a failure to prosecute therefor.

§ 434. Escape from penal institution

Every prisoner confined in the penal institution, who escapes by force or fraud from such penal institution, is guilty of a crime.

§ 436. Attempt to escape from penal institution

Every prisoner confined in any penal institution who attempts by force or fraud, although unsuccessfully, to escape therefrom, is guilty of a crime.

§ 437. Assisting prisoner to escape

Every person who willfully by any means whatever, assists any prisoner confined in any penal institution to escape therefrom, is guilty of a crime.

§ 438. Carrying into penal institution things to aid escape

Every person who carries or sends into any penal institution anything useful to aid any prisoner in making his escape, with intent thereby to facilitate the escape of any prisoner confined therein, is punishable as guilty of a crime.

§ 439. Concealing escaped prisoner

Every person who willfully and knowingly conceals any prisoner, who having been confined in penal institution upon a charge or conviction of crime, has escaped therefrom, is guilty of a crime.

§ 440. Harboring criminals and fugitives—Penalty

Any person who shall knowingly feed, lodge, clothe, arm, equip in whole or in part, harbor, aid, assist or conceal in any manner any person guilty of any crime, or outlaw, or fugitive from justice, or any person seeking to escape arrest for any crime committed within this Nation or state, jurisdiction or territory, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 441. Assisting escape from officer

Every person who willfully assists any prisoner in escaping or attempting to escape from the custody of any officer or person having the lawful charge of such prisoner under any process of law or under any lawful arrest, is guilty of a crime.

§ 442. Prisoner defined

The term "prisoner" in this chapter includes every person held in custody under process of law issued from a court of competent jurisdiction, whether civil or criminal, or under any lawful arrest.

§ 443. Escape from penal institution

Any person having been imprisoned awaiting charges or prisoner awaiting trial or having been sentenced to confinement who escapes from such confinement, either while actually confined therein, or while permitted to be at large as a trusty, or while awaiting transportation thereto, is guilty of a crime regardless of being in physical custody.

§ 443A. Additional punishment under rules and regulations of penal institution after escape

In addition, all prisoners who escape from the aforesaid penal institutions either while confined therein, or while at large as a trusty, when apprehended and returned to the penal institution, shall be punishable by the penal institution authorities in such manner as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the penal institution, provided that such punishment shall not be cruel or unusual.

§ 444. Escape or attempt to escape from arrest or detention

A. It is unlawful for any person, after being lawfully arrested or detained by a peace officer, to escape or attempt to escape from such peace officer.

B. Such person who escapes or attempts to escape after being lawfully arrested or detained for custody for a crime offense shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 445. Unauthorized entry into penal institution, jail, etc.—Penalties

Any person who willfully gains unauthorized entry into any Cherokee Nation penal institution, any place where prisoners are located, or the penal institution grounds, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 13

FALSIFYING EVIDENCE

§ 450. Misprision of crime and false statements to law enforcement

A. Misprision of crime. It shall be unlawful for any person having knowledge of the actual commission of a crime cognizable by a Court of the Cherokee Nation, which crime would be a felony under the laws of the State of Oklahoma or the United States of America, to affirmatively conceal and not make known that crime to a Cherokee Nation Judge or some other person in civil authority within Cherokee Nation. Such act shall constitute a crime against Cherokee Nation, and shall be punished as provided in 21 CNCA § 10.

B. False statement to law enforcement. In connection with a law enforcement investigation, whoever, in any manner within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals or covers up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or makes any false, fictitious or fraudulent statements or representations, or makes or uses any false writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry, shall be guilty of a crime, subject to punishment as provided in 21 CNCA § 10.

§ 451. Offering false evidence

Every person who, upon any trial, proceedings, inquiry or investigation whatever, authorized by law, offers in evidence, as genuine, any book, paper, document, record, or other instrument in writing, knowing the same to have been forged, or fraudulently altered, is guilty of a crime.

§ 452. Deceiving witness

Every person who practices any fraud or deceit, or knowingly makes or exhibits any false statement, representation, token or writing, to any witness or person about to be called as a witness, upon any trial, proceeding, inquiry or investigation whatever, proceeding by authority of law, with intent to affect the testimony of such witness, is guilty of a crime.

§ 453. Preparing false evidence

Every person guilty of falsely preparing any book, paper, record, instrument in writing, or other matter or thing, with intent to produce it, or allow it to be produced as genuine upon any trial, proceeding or inquiry whatever, authorized by law, is guilty of a crime.

§ 454. Destroying evidence

Every person who knowing that any book, paper, record, instrument in writing, or other matter or thing, is about to be produced in evidence upon any trial, proceeding, inquiry or investigation whatever, authorized by law, willfully destroys the same, with intent thereby to prevent the same from being produced, is guilty of a crime.

§ 455. Preventing witness from giving testimony

Every person who willfully prevents any person from giving testimony who has been duly summoned or subpoenaed or endorsed on the criminal information as a witness or threatens physical or mental harm through force or fear with the intent to prevent the witness from appearing in Court to give his testimony, or to alter his testimony, is guilty of a crime.

§ 456. Bribing witness—Subornation of perjury

Every person who gives or offers or promises to give to any witness or person about to be called as a witness in any matter whatever, any bribe upon any understanding or agreement that the testimony of such witness shall be influenced, or who attempts by any other means fraudulently to induce any witness to give false testimony is guilty of a crime, but if the offer, promise, or bribe is in any way to induce the witness to swear falsely, then it shall be held to be subornation of perjury.

CHAPTER 14

FORGING, STEALING, MUTILATING AND FALSIFYING JUDICIAL AND PUBLIC RECORDS AND DOCUMENTS

§ 461. Larceny or destruction of records by clerk or officer

Every clerk, register or other officer having the custody of any record, maps or book, or of any paper or proceeding of any Court, filed or deposited in any public office, who is guilty of stealing, willfully destroying, mutilating, defacing, altering or falsifying or unlawfully removing or secreting such record, map, book, paper or proceeding, or who permits any other person so to do, is guilty of a crime.

§ 462. Larceny or destruction of records by other persons

Every person not an officer such as is mentioned in the last section, who is guilty of any of the acts specified in that section, is guilty of a crime.

§ 463. Offering forged or false instruments for record

Every person who knowingly procures or offers any false or forged instrument to be filed, registered, or recorded in any public office within this Nation, which instrument, if genuine, might be filed or registered or recorded under any law of this Nation or of the United States, is guilty of a crime.

§ 464. Forging name to petition—Penalties

Any person who shall knowingly sign, subscribe or forge the name of any other person, without the consent of such other person, to any petition, application, remonstrance, or other instrument of writing, authorized by law to be filed in or with any Court, board or officer, with intent to deceive or mislead such Court, board or officer, shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 15

ILLEGAL USE OF GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS

§ 471. Criminal activity with respect to Cherokee Nation citizenship

A. A person who knowingly buys or barter the Cherokee Nation Citizenship Card from another tribal citizen for whatever purposes may be subject to criminal prosecution. The penalty upon conviction of the offense specified in this subsection shall be no longer than one (1) year imprisonment, or a fine of no more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or both.

B. A person who knowingly sells or barter his or her Cherokee Nation Citizenship Card to another tribal citizen or person for whatever purposes maybe subject to criminal prosecution. The penalty upon conviction of the offense specified in this subsection shall be no longer than one (1) year imprisonment, or a fine of no more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or both.

C. In addition to the foregoing sanctions, any person who knowingly buys, sells, or barter the Cherokee Nation Citizenship Card to or from another person for whatever purposes may be subject to a civil penalty as hereinafter provided. The penalty for violating this subsection shall be a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

D. Any person who knowingly uses, or allows another person to use, any Cherokee Nation Citizenship Card, Cherokee Nation Registry Number, or Cherokee Roll Number, for the purpose of defrauding Cherokee Nation or the United States, or for any other fraudulent purpose, may be subject to criminal prosecution. The penalty upon conviction of the offense specified in this subsection shall be no longer than one (1) year imprisonment, no greater than a Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) fine, or both.

CHAPTER 16

NEPOTISM

§ 481. Repealed by LA 34–07, eff. September 13, 2007

§ 482. Unlawful to pay salary to ineligible persons

It shall be unlawful for any such executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer mentioned in the preceding section, to draw or authorize the drawing of any warrant or authority for the payment out of any public fund, of the salary, wages, pay or compensation of any such ineligible person, and it shall be unlawful for any executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer to pay out of any public funds in his custody or under his control the salary, wages, pay or compensation of any such ineligible person.

§ 483. Appointment of one related to another officer

It shall be unlawful for any executive, legislative, ministerial, or judicial officer to appoint and furnish employment for any person whose services are to be rendered under his direction and control and paid for out of the public funds, and who is related by either blood or marriage within the third degree to any other executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer when such appointment is made in part consideration that such other officer shall appoint and furnish employment to any one so related to the officer making such appointment.

§ 485. Penalty

Any executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer who shall violate any provision of this article, shall be deemed guilty of a crime involving official misconduct.

§ 486. Removal from office for violation of chapter

Every person guilty of violating the provisions of this chapter, shall, independently of, or in addition to any criminal prosecution that may be instituted, be removed from office according to the mode of trial and removal prescribed in the Constitution and laws of this Nation.

§ 487. Officers affected

Under the designation executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer as mentioned herein are included the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, Council Members, Commissioners, all the heads of the Departments of the Nation Government, Judges of all the Courts of this Nation, Trustees, Officers and Commissioners of subdivisions of the Nation.

CHAPTER 17

PERJURY AND SUBORNATION OF PERJURY

§ 491. Perjury defined—Defense

Whoever, in a trial, hearing, investigation, deposition, certification or declaration, in which the making or subscribing of a statement is required or authorized by law, makes or subscribes a statement under oath, affirmation or other legally binding assertion that the statement is true, when in fact the witness or declarant does not believe that the statement is true or knows that it is not true or intends thereby to avoid or obstruct the ascertainment of the truth, is guilty of perjury. It shall be a defense to the charge of perjury as defined in this section that the statement is true.

§ 492. Oath defined

The term "oath," as used in the last section, includes an affirmation, and every other mode of attesting the truth of that which is stated, which is authorized by law.

§ 493. Oath of office

So much of an oath of office as relates to the future performance of official duties is not such an oath as is intended by the previous sections.

§ 494. Irregularities no defense

It is no defense to a prosecution for perjury that the oath was administered or taken in an irregular manner.

§ 495. Incompetency no defense

It is no defense to a prosecution for perjury that the accused was not competent to give the testimony, deposition or certificate of which falsehood is alleged. It is sufficient that he actually was required to give such testimony or made such deposition or certificate.

§ 497. Making deposition or certificate

The making of a deposition or certificate is deemed to be complete, within the provisions of this chapter, from the time when it is delivered by the accused to any other person with the intent that it be uttered or published as true.

§ 498. Degree of proof required

A. Proof of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt is sufficient for conviction under this chapter, and it shall not be necessary also that proof be by a particular number of witnesses or by documentary or other type of evidence.

B. Lack of materiality of the statement is not a defense but the degree to which a perjured statement might have affected some phase or detail of the trial, hearing, investigation, deposition, certification or declaration shall be considered, together with the other evidence or circumstances, in imposing sentence.

§ 500. Punishment for perjury

Perjury is a crime.

§ 501. Summary committal of witness

Whenever it appears probable in any court of record, that any person who has testified in any action or proceeding in such Court has committed perjury, such Court must immediately commit such person by an order or process for that purpose to a penal institution or take a recognizance with sureties for his appearance and answering to an information for perjury.

§ 503. Documents may be retained

If, upon the hearing of such action or proceeding in which such perjury has probably been committed, any papers or documents produced by either party shall be deemed necessary to be used on the prosecution for such perjury, the Court may by order detain such papers or documents from the party producing them, and direct them to be delivered to the Prosecuting Attorney.

§ 504. Perjury by subornation—Attempted perjury by subornation

Whoever procures another to commit perjury is guilty of perjury by subornation. Whoever does any act with the specific intent to commit perjury by subornation but fails to complete that offense is guilty of attempted perjury by subornation.

§ 505. Punishment of subornation of perjury

Any person guilty of subornation of perjury is punishable in the same manner as he would be if personally guilty of the perjury so procured.

CHAPTER 18

RESCUES

§ 521. Rescuing prisoners

Every person who by force or fraud rescues or attempts to rescue, or aids another person in rescuing or in attempting to rescue any prisoner from any officer or other person having him in lawful custody, is guilty of a crime.

§ 522. Taking goods from legal custody

Every person who willfully injures or destroys, takes or attempts to take, or assists any other person in taking or attempting to take from the custody of any officer or person, any personal property which such officer or person has in charge under any process of law, is guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 19

OTHER CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE

§ 531. Injury to records—Embezzlement by officer

Every sheriff, marshal, police officer, clerk, coroner, clerk of a court, constable or other ministerial officer, and every deputy or subordinate of an ministerial officer who either:

1. Mutilates, destroys, conceals, erases, obliterates or falsifies any record or paper appertaining to his office; or
2. Fraudulently appropriates to his own use or to the use of another person, or secretes with intent to appropriate to such use, any money, evidence of debt or other property entrusted to him in virtue of his office;

is guilty of a crime.

§ 532. Permitting escapes

Every sheriff, marshal, policeman, coroner, clerk of a court, constable or other ministerial officer and any deputy or subordinate of any ministerial officer, who either:

1. Willfully or carelessly allows any person lawfully held by him in custody to escape or go at large, except as may be permitted by law; or
2. Receives any gratuity or reward, or any security or promise of one, to procure, assist, connive at or permit any prisoner in his custody to escape, whether such escape is attempted or not; or
3. Commits any unlawful act tending to hinder justice;

is guilty of a crime.

§ 533. Refusing to receive prisoners

Every officer who, in violation of a duty imposed upon him by law as such officer to receive into his custody any person as a prisoner, willfully neglects or refuses so to receive such person into his custody, is guilty of a crime.

§ 535. Arrest without authority

Every public officer or person pretending to be a public officer, who under the pretense or color of any process or other legal authority arrests any person, or detains him against his will, or seizes or levies upon any property, or dispossesses anyone of any lands or tenements without due and legal process, is guilty of a crime.

§ 537. Refusing to aid officer

Every person who, after having been lawfully commanded to aid any officer in arresting any person or in retaking any person who has escaped from legal custody, or in executing any legal process, willfully neglects or refuses to aid such officer, is guilty of a crime.

§ 538. Refusing to make arrest

Every person who, after having been lawfully commanded by any magistrate to arrest another person, willfully neglects or refuses so to do, is guilty of a crime.

§ 540. Obstructing officer

Every person who willfully delays or obstructs any peace officer in the discharge or attempt to discharge any duty of his office, is guilty of a crime.

§ 540A. Eluding police officer

Any operator of a motor vehicle who has received a visual and audible signal, a red light and a siren from a peace officer driving a motor vehicle showing the same to be an official police, marshal, sheriff, highway patrol or state game ranger vehicle directing the said operator to bring his vehicle to a stop and who willfully increases his speed or extinguishes his lights in an attempt to elude such peace officer, or wilfully attempts in any other manner to elude the peace officer, or who does elude such peace officer, is guilty of a crime.

§ 540B. Roadblocks

A peace officer may set up one or more roadblocks to apprehend any person riding upon or within a motor vehicle traveling upon a highway, street, turnpike, or area accessible to motoring public, when the officer has probable cause to believe such person is committing or has committed:

1. a violation of 21 CNCA § 540A;
2. escape from the lawful custody of any peace officer;
3. a crime under the laws of this Nation or the laws of any other jurisdiction.

A roadblock is defined as a barricade, sign, standing motor vehicle, or similar obstacle temporarily placed upon or adjacent to a public street, highway, turnpike or area accessible to the motoring public, with one or more peace officers in attendance thereof directing each operator of approaching motor vehicles to stop or proceed.

Every operator of a motor vehicle approaching such roadblock has a duty to stop at the roadblock unless directed otherwise by a peace officer in attendance thereof and the willful violation hereof shall constitute a separate offense from any other offense committed. Any person who willfully attempts to avoid such roadblock or in any manner willfully fails to stop at such roadblock or who willfully passes by or through such roadblock without receiving permission from a peace officer in attendance thereto, is guilty of a crime.

§ 543. Compounding crimes

Every person who, having knowledge of the actual commission of a crime or violation of statute, takes any money or property of another, or any gratuity or reward, or any engagement or promise therefor, upon any agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal such crime, or violation of statute, or to abstain from any prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof, is guilty of a crime.

§ 544. Compounding prosecution

Every person who takes any money or property of another, or any gratuity or reward, or any engagement or promise therefor, upon any agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound, discontinue or delay any prosecution then pending for any crime or violation of statute, or to withhold any evidence in aid thereof, is guilty of a crime.

§ 545. Attempt to intimidate officer

Every person who, directly or indirectly, utters or addresses any threat or intimidation to any judicial or ministerial officer, to any juror, referee, arbitrator, umpire or assessor or other person authorized by law to hear or determine any controversy, with intent to induce him either to any act not authorized by law, or to omit or delay the performance of any duty imposed upon him by law, is guilty of a crime.

§ 546. Suppressing evidence

Every person who maliciously practices any deceit or fraud, or uses any threat, menace or violence, with intent to prevent any party to an action or proceeding from obtaining or producing therein any book, paper, or other matter or thing which might be evidence, or from procuring the attendance or testimony of any witness therein, or with intent to prevent any person having in his possession any book, paper or other matter or thing which might be evidence in such suit or proceeding, or prevent any person being cognizant of any fact material thereto from producing or disclosing the same, is guilty of a crime.

§ 547. Buying lands in suit

Every person who takes any conveyance of any lands or tenements, or of any interest or estate therein, from any person not being in the possession thereof, while such lands or tenements are the subject of controversy, by suit in any Court, knowing the pendency of such suit, and that the grantor was not in possession of such lands or tenements, is guilty of a crime.

§ 554. Attorneys—Buying demands for suit—Misleading inferior courts

Every attorney who either directly or indirectly buys or is interested in buying any evidence of debt or thing in action with intent to bring suit thereon is guilty of a crime. Any attorney who in any proceeding before any Court in which he appears as attorney, willfully misstates any proposition or seeks to mislead the Court in any matter of law is guilty of a crime and on any trial therefor the nation shall only be held to prove to the Court that the cause was pending, that the defendant appeared as an attorney in the action, and showing what the legal statement was, wherein it is not the law. If the defense be that the act was not willful the burden shall be on the defendant to prove that he did not know that there was error in his statement of the law.

§ 555. Prosecutors and their partners

Every attorney who directly or indirectly advises in relation to, or aids or promotes the defense of any action or proceeding in any Court, the prosecution of which is carried on, aided or promoted by any person as prosecutor or other public attorney; with whom such person is directly or indirectly connected as a partner, or who takes or receives, directly or indirectly, from or on behalf of any defendant therein, any valuable consideration, upon any understanding or agreement whatever, express or implied, having relation to the defense thereof, is guilty of a crime.

§ 556. Prosecutor advising the defense

Every attorney who, having prosecuted or in any manner aided or promoted any action or proceeding in any court, as prosecutor or other public attorney, afterward, directly or indirectly, advises in relation to, or takes any part in the defense thereof, as attorney or otherwise, or takes or receives any valuable consideration from or on behalf of any defendant therein, upon any understanding or agreement whatever, express or implied, having relation to the defense thereof, is guilty of a crime; and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor he shall forfeit his license to practice.

§ 557. Attorneys may defend themselves

The two last sections do not prohibit an attorney from defending himself in person, as attorney or as counsel, when prosecuted either civilly or criminally.

§ 565. Definition of direct contempt and indirect contempt

Contempts of court shall be divided into direct and indirect contempts. Direct and indirect contempts can be civil or criminal in nature.

A. Direct and indirect contempts

1. Direct contempts shall consist of disorderly or insolent behavior committed during the session of the Court and in its immediate view, and presence, and of the unlawful and willful refusal of any person to be sworn as a witness, and the refusal to answer any legal or proper question; and any breach of the peace, noise or disturbance, so near to it as to interrupt its proceedings, shall be deemed direct contempt of court, and may be summarily punished as hereinafter provided for.

2. Indirect contempts of court shall consist of willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued or made by court; resistance willfully offered by any person to the execution of a lawful order or process of a Court.

B. Civil and criminal contempts

1. Civil contempts: failure to obey a court order that was issued for another party's benefit. A civil contempt procedure is coercive or remedial in nature.

2. Criminal contempts: acts that obstruct justice or attack the integrity of the court. A criminal contempt proceeding is punitive in nature.

§ 565.1. Trial court—Power to punish contempt—Censure—Contempt proceedings

A. The Trial Judge has the power to cite for contempt anyone who, in his presence in open court, willfully obstructs judicial proceedings. If necessary, the Trial Judge may punish a person cited for contempt after an opportunity to be heard has been given.

B. Censure shall be imposed by the Trial Judge only if:

1. it is clear from the identity of the offender and the character of his acts that disruptive conduct is willfully contemptuous; or

2. the conduct warranting the sanction is preceded by a clear warning that the conduct is impermissible and that specified sanctions may be imposed for its repetition.

C. The Trial Judge, as soon as practicable after he is satisfied that courtroom misconduct requires contempt proceedings, should inform the alleged offender of his intention to institute said proceedings.

D. Before imposing any punishment for contempt, the Judge shall give the offender notice of the charges and an opportunity to adduce evidence or argument relevant to guilt or punishment.

E. The Judge before whom courtroom misconduct occurs may impose appropriate sanctions including punishment for contempt. If the Judge's conduct was so integrated with the contempt that he contributed to it or was otherwise involved or his objectivity can reasonably be questioned, the matter shall be referred to another Judge.

§ 566. Punishment for direct or indirect contempt—Guidelines for determination of sentence and purge fee for failure to comply with certain orders regarding children

A. Unless otherwise provided for by law, punishment for direct or indirect contempt shall be by the imposition of a fine in a sum not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six (6) months, or by both, at the discretion of the Court.

B. 1. In the case of indirect contempt for the failure to comply with an order for child support, other support, visitation, or other court orders regarding minor children the Supreme Court shall promulgate guidelines for determination of the sentence and purge fee. If the Court fails to follow said guidelines, the Court shall make a specific finding stating the reasons why the imposition of the guidelines would result in inequity. The factors that shall be used in determining the sentence and purge fee are:

- a. the proportion of the child support or other support that was unpaid in relation to the amount of support that was ordered paid;
- b. the proportion of the child support or other support that could have been paid by the party found in contempt in relation to the amount of support that was ordered paid;
- c. the present capacity of the party found in contempt to pay any arrearages;
- d. any willful actions taken by the party found in contempt to reduce factor c;
- e. the past history of compliance or noncompliance with the support or visitation order; and
- f. willful acts to avoid the jurisdiction of the Court.

2. When a court of competent jurisdiction makes an order compelling a parent to furnish monetary support, necessary food, clothing, shelter, medical attention, medical insurance or other remedial care for the minor child of the parent:

a. proof that:

- i. the order was made, filed, and served on the parent, or
- ii. the parent had actual knowledge of the existence of the order, or
- iii. the order was granted by default after prior due process notice to the parent, or
- iv. the parent was present in Court at the time the order was pronounced; and

b. proof of noncompliance with the order, shall be prima facie evidence of an indirect civil contempt of court.

§ 567. Indirect contempts—Notice—Trial by jury—Appearance bond

A. In all cases of indirect contempt the party charged with contempt shall be notified in writing of the accusation and have a reasonable time for defense; and the party so charged shall, upon demand, have a trial by jury.

B. In the event the party so charged shall demand a trial by jury, the Court shall thereupon set the case for trial at the next jury term of said Court, and shall fix the amount of an appearance bond to be posted by said party charged, which bond shall be signed by said party and two sureties, which sureties together shall qualify by showing ownership of real property, the equal of which property shall be in double the amount of the bond, or, in the alternative, the party charged may deposit with the Court Clerk cash equal to the amount of the appearance bond.

C. In a case of indirect contempt, it shall not be necessary for the party alleging indirect contempt, or an attorney for that party, to attend an initial appearance or arraignment hearing for the party charged with contempt, unless the party alleging the indirect contempt is seeking a cash bond. If a cash bond is not being requested, the Clerk of the Court shall, upon request, notify the party alleging the indirect contempt of the date of the trial.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a party charged with indirect civil contempt of court for failure to pay child support, day care expenses or unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, psychological, optometric, or any other physical or mental health expenses as required by the terms of a valid child support order shall not be entitled to trial by jury.

§ 567.1. Indirect contempt for failure to pay child support—Purge fee

When a person is found guilty of indirect contempt of court for failure to pay child support, day care expenses or unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, psychological, optometric, or any other physical or mental health expenses, that person may purge the contempt by:

1. Making all future payments for child support, day care expenses and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, psychological, optometric, or any other physical or mental health expenses as required by the current order for child support; and
2. a. paying the full amount of the arrearage, or some portion thereof, as a lump sum if the Court determines the contemnor has the financial ability to do so; and
b. if the full amount of the arrearage is not paid in a lump sum, then by making additional monthly payments in an amount equal to one-half of the current monthly child support obligation, exclusive of day care expenses.

All payments made pursuant to this subdivision (2)(b) shall be applied to reduce the amount of child support arrearage which was the subject of the contempt action. Payments made in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision (2)(b) shall bear interest as set forth in 43 CNCA § 511(C) and 43 CNCA § 513.

3. The total amount of the payments required to be made pursuant to subdivisions (1) and (2)(b) above shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the contemnor's current gross monthly income. For purposes of this subdivision, the contemnor's gross income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of 43 O.S. § 118(2) and (3) as incorporated by reference in the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated at 43 CNCA § 514. If the total amount of the payments required to be made pursuant to subdivisions (1) and (2)(b) above exceeds forty percent (40%) of the contemnor's gross monthly income, then the amount required to be paid under subdivision (2)(b) above shall be reduced such that the total payments required under subdivision (1) and (2)(b) shall equal forty percent (40%) of the contemnor's gross monthly income. If application of this subdivision (3) creates a payout schedule which exceeds three (3) years then the terms and provisions of 43 CNCA § 511(B) shall apply.

4. The payments required to be made pursuant to this section shall continue until the child support arrearage, which was the subject of the contempt action has been paid in full, at which time the contempt shall be deemed purged.

5. If a contemnor is committed to the custody of the sheriff to serve the sentence imposed by the Court, the contemnor may thereafter only be discharged from the custody of the sheriff:

a. upon payment in full of the adjudicated arrearage; or

b. upon serving the full sentence: or

c. upon the making of a subsequent agreement by the parties as to payment of the arrearages, which agreement has been approved by the Court and entry of a court order that the contemnor be released from the custody of the sheriff with the balance of the sentence to be conditionally suspended, subject to performance of the terms of the agreement and the provisions of the court order for release. Persons incarcerated pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not be entitled to credit for good time, blood time, trustee time, or any other credit for time served. Persons incarcerated pursuant to the provisions of this section shall serve flat time in all cases.

§ 568. Contempt—Substance of offense made of record

Whenever a person shall be imprisoned for contempt the substance of the offense shall be set forth in the order for his confinement, and made a matter of record in the Court.

§ 569. Attorneys—Second application to another judge to stay trial

Every attorney or counselor at law who, knowing that an application has been made for an order staying the trial of an indictment, to a Judge authorized to grant the same, and has been denied, without leave reserved to renew it, makes an application to another Judge to stay the same trial, is guilty of a crime.

§ 573. Fraudulent concealment of property

Every person who, having been called upon, by the lawful order of any Court, to make a true exhibit of his real and personal effects, either:

1. willfully conceals any of his estate or effects, or any books or writing relative thereto; or,
2. willfully omits to disclose to the Court any debts or demands which he has collected, or any transfer of his property which he had made after being ordered to make an exhibit thereof, is guilty of a crime.

§ 575. Attorneys, misconduct by—Deceit—Delaying suit—Receiving allowance for money not laid out Every attorney who, whether as attorney or as counselor, who:

1st, is guilty of any deceit or collusion, or consents to any deceit or collusion with intent to deceive the Court or any party; or

2nd, willfully delays his client's suit, with a view to his own gain; or 3rd, willfully receives any money or allowance for or on account of any money which he has not laid out or become answerable for, is guilty of a crime; and, in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor by this code, he forfeits to the party injured treble damages, to be recovered in a civil action.

§ 576. Attorney permitting other person to use his name

If any attorney knowingly permits any person not being his general law partner or a clerk in his office to sue out any process or to prosecute or defend any action in his name, except as authorized by the next section, such attorney, and every person who shall so use his name is guilty of a crime.

§ 577. Attorneys, use of name lawful, when

Whenever an action or proceeding is authorized by law to be prosecuted or defended in the name of the people, or of any public officer, board of officers or municipal corporation, on behalf of another party, the prosecutor, or attorney of such public officer or board or corporation may permit any proceeding therein to be taken in his name by an attorney to be chosen by the party in interest.

§ 578. Inheritance, intercepting by fraudulent production of infant

Every person who fraudulently produces an infant, falsely pretending it to have been born of any parent whose child would be entitled to inherit any real estate or to receive a share of any personal estate, with intent to intercept the inheritance of any such real estate, or the distribution of any such personal estate, from any person lawfully entitled thereto, is guilty of a crime.

§ 579. Substituting child

Every person to whom an infant has been confided for nursing, education, or any other person, who, with intent to deceive any parent or guardian of such child, substitutes or produces to such parent or guardian another child in the place of the one so confided, is guilty of a crime.

§ 584. Prosecuting suit or bringing action or procuring arrest in false name

Every person who maliciously institutes or prosecutes any action or legal proceeding; or makes or procures any arrest, in the name of a person who does not exist, or has not consented that it be instituted or made, is guilty of a crime.

§ 587. False certificate by public officer

Every public officer who, being authorized by law to make or give any certificate or other writing, knowingly makes and delivers as true any such certificate or writing containing any statement which he knows to be false, is guilty of a crime.

§ 588. Recording of petit jury proceedings—Listening or observing—Penalty

Any person, firm or corporation who knowingly and willfully, by means of any device whatsoever, records or attempts to record the proceedings of any jury in any Court of Cherokee Nation while such jury is deliberating or voting or listens to or observes, or attempts to listen to or observe, the proceedings of any jury of which he is not a member in any Court of Cherokee Nation while such jury is deliberating or voting shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 589. False reporting of crime

It shall be unlawful to willfully, knowingly and without probable cause make a false report to any person of any crime or circumstances indicating the possibility of crime having been committed, including the unlawful taking of personal property, which report causes or encourages the exercise of police action or investigation, and any person violating the provisions hereof shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be guilty of a crime.

PART III

CRIMES AGAINST THE PERSON

CHAPTER 20

ASSAULT AND BATTERY

§ 641. Assault defined

An assault is any willful and unlawful attempt or offer with force or violence to do a corporal hurt to another.

§ 642. Battery defined

A battery is any willful and unlawful use of force or violence upon the person of another.

§ 643. Force against another not unlawful, when—Self-defense—Defense of property

To use or to attempt to offer to use force or violence upon or toward the person of another is not unlawful in the following cases:

1. When necessarily committed by a public officer in the performance of any legal duty, or by any other person assisting him or acting by his direction.
2. When necessarily committed by any person in arresting one who has committed any crime, and delivering him to a public officer competent to receive him in custody.
3. When committed either by the party about to be injured, or by any other person in his aid or defense, in preventing or attempting to prevent an offense against his person, or any trespass or other unlawful interference with real or personal property in his lawful possession; provided the force or violence used is not more than sufficient to prevent such offense.
4. When committed by a parent or the authorized agent of any parent, or by any guardian, master or teacher, in the exercise of a lawful authority to restrain or correct his child, ward, apprentice or scholar, provided restraint or correction has been rendered necessary by the misconduct of such child, ward, apprentice or scholar, or by his refusal to obey the lawful command of such parent or authorized agent or guardian, master or teacher, and the force or violence used is reasonable in manner and moderate in degree.
5. When committed by a carrier of passengers, or the authorized agents or servants of such carrier, or by any person assisting them at their request, in expelling from any carriage, railroad car, vessel or other vehicle any passenger who refuses to obey a lawful and reasonable regulation prescribed for the conduct of passengers, if such vehicle has first been stopped and the force and violence used is not more than is sufficient to expel the offending passenger, with a reasonable regard to his personal safety.
6. When committed by any person in preventing an idiot, lunatic, insane person of unsound mind, including persons temporarily or partially deprived of reason, from committing an act dangerous to himself or to another, or enforcing such restraint as is necessary for the protection of his person or for his restoration to health, during such period only as shall be necessary to obtain legal authority for the restraint or custody of his person.

§ 644. Assault or assault and battery—Punishment

A. Assault shall be punishable by imprisonment in a penal institution not exceeding thirty (30) days, or by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or both, at the discretion of the Court.

B. Assault and battery shall be punishable by imprisonment in a penal institution not exceeding ninety (90) days, or by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by both such imprisonment and fine.

§ 645. Assault, battery, or assault and battery with a dangerous weapon punishment

Every person who with intent to do bodily harm and without justifiable or excusable cause, commits any assault, battery, or assault and battery upon the person of another with any sharp or dangerous weapon, or who, without such cause, shoots at another with any kind of firearm or air gun or other means whatever, with intent to injure any person, although without the intent to kill such person or to commit any felony, upon conviction shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 646. Aggravated assault and battery defined

A. An assault and battery becomes aggravated when committed under any of the following circumstances:

1. When great bodily injury is inflicted upon the person assaulted; or

CHAPTER 24

HOMICIDE

MURDER

MANSLAUGHTER

EXCUSABLE AND JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 691. Homicide defined

Homicide is the killing of one human being by another.

§ 692. Homicide classified

Homicide is either:

1. Murder;
2. Manslaughter;

3. Excusable homicide; or

4. Justifiable homicide.

§ 693. Proof necessary to conviction of murder or manslaughter

No person can be convicted of murder or manslaughter, or of aiding suicide, unless the death of the person alleged to have been killed and the fact of the killing by the accused are each established as independent facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

§ 694. Petit treason by killing master or husband abolished—Such offenses homicides

The rules of the common law, distinguishing the killing of a master by his servant and of a husband by his wife, as petit treason are abolished and these offenses are deemed homicides, punishable in the manner prescribed by this chapter.

§ 695. Confidential or domestic relation may be considered

Whenever the grade or punishment of homicide is made to depend upon its having been committed under circumstances evincing a depraved mind or unusual cruelty, or in a cruel manner, the jury may take into consideration the fact that any domestic or confidential relation existed between the accused and the person killed, in determining the moral quality of the acts proved.

MURDER

§ 701.7. Murder in the first degree

A. A person commits murder in the first degree when he unlawfully and with malice aforethought causes the death of another human being. Malice is that deliberate intention unlawfully to take away the life of a human being, which is manifested by external circumstances capable of proof.

B. A person also commits the crime of murder in the first degree when he takes the life of a human being, regardless of malice, in the commission of forcible rape, robbery with a dangerous weapon, kidnapping, escape from lawful custody, first degree burglary, first degree arson, unlawful distributing or dispensing of controlled dangerous substances, or trafficking in illegal drugs.

C. A person commits murder in the first degree when the death of a child results from the willful or malicious injuring, torturing, maiming or using of unreasonable force by said person or who shall willfully cause, procure or permit any of said acts to be done upon the child pursuant to 21 CNCA § 843.

D. A person commits murder in the first degree when he unlawfully and with malice aforethought solicits another person or persons to cause the death of a human being in furtherance of unlawfully manufacturing, distributing or dispensing controlled dangerous substances, as defined in the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq., unlawfully possessing with intent to distribute or dispense controlled dangerous substances, or trafficking in illegal drugs.

§ 701.8. Murder in the second degree

Homicide is murder in the second degree in the following cases:

1. When perpetrated by an act imminently dangerous to another person and evincing a depraved mind, regardless of human life, although without any premeditated design to effect the death of any particular individual; or
2. When perpetrated by a person engaged in the commission of any crime other than the unlawful acts set out in 21 CNCA § 701.7(B).

§ 701.9. Punishment for murder

A. A person who is convicted of or pleads guilty or nolo contendere to murder in the first degree shall be guilty of a crime.

B. A person who is convicted of or pleads guilty or nolo contendere to murder in the second degree shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 701.16. Solicitation for murder in the first degree

It shall be unlawful for any person or agent of that person to solicit another person or persons to cause the death of a human being by the act of murder in the first degree as is defined by 21 CNCA § 701.7. A person who is convicted, pleads guilty or pleads nolo contendere to the act of solicitation for murder in the first degree, except as provided in 21 CNCA § 701.7, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 702. Design to effect death inferred

A design to effect death is inferred from the fact of killing, unless the circumstances raise a reasonable doubt whether such design existed.

§ 703. Premeditation

A design to effect death sufficient to constitute murder may be formed instantly before committing the act by which it is carried into execution.

§ 704. Anger or intoxication no defense

Homicide committed with a design to effect death is not the less murder because the perpetrator was in a state of anger or voluntary intoxication at the time.

§ 705. Act imminently dangerous and evincing depraved mind

Homicide perpetrated by an act imminently dangerous to others and evincing a depraved mind, regardless of human life, is not the less murder because there was no actual intent to injure others.

MANSLAUGHTER

§ 711. Manslaughter in the first degree defined

Homicide is manslaughter in the first degree in the following cases:

1. When perpetrated without a design to effect death by a person while engaged in the commission of a crime.
2. When perpetrated without a design to effect death, and in a heat of passion, but in a cruel and unusual manner, or by means of a dangerous weapon; unless it is committed under such circumstances as constitute excusable or justifiable homicide.
3. When perpetrated unnecessarily either while resisting an attempt by the person killed to commit a crime, or after such attempt shall have failed.

§ 712. Liability of physicians

Every physician who being in a state of intoxication without a design to effect death, administers any poison, drug or medicine, or does any other act as such physician to another person, which produces the death of such other person, is guilty of manslaughter in the first degree.

§ 713. Killing an unborn quick child

The willful killing of an unborn quick child by any injury committed upon the person of the mother of such child is manslaughter in the first degree.

§ 715. Punishment for manslaughter in the first degree

Every person committing manslaughter in the first degree is guilty of a crime.

§ 716. Manslaughter in the second degree

Every killing of one human being by the act, procurement or culpable negligence of another, which, under the provisions of this chapter, is not murder, nor manslaughter in the first degree, nor excusable nor justifiable homicide, is manslaughter in the second degree.

§ 717. Owner of mischievous animal which kills person

If the owner of a mischievous animal, knowing its propensities, willfully suffers it to go at large, or keeps it without ordinary care, and such animal, while so at large or not confined, kills any human being who has taken all the precautions which the circumstances permitted, to avoid such animal, the owner is deemed guilty of manslaughter in the second degree.

§ 722. Punishment for manslaughter in the second degree

Every person committing of manslaughter in the second degree is guilty of a crime.

EXCUSABLE AND JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE

§ 731. Excusable homicide, what is

Homicide is excusable in the following cases:

1. When committed by accident and misfortune in doing any lawful act, by lawful means, with usual and ordinary caution, and without any unlawful intent.
2. When committed by accident and misfortune in the heat of passion, upon any sudden and sufficient provocation, or upon a sudden combat provided that no undue advantage is taken, nor any dangerous weapon used, and that the killing is not done in a cruel or unusual manner.

§ 732. Justifiable homicide by officer

A peace officer, correctional officer, or any person acting by his command in his aid and assistance, is justified in using deadly force when:

1. In effecting an arrest or preventing an escape from custody following arrest and the officer reasonably believes both that:
 - a. such force is necessary to prevent the arrest from being defeated by resistance or escape, and
 - b. there is probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has committed a crime involving the infliction or threatened infliction of serious bodily harm, or the person to be arrested is attempting to escape by use of a deadly weapon, or otherwise indicates that he will endanger human life or inflict great bodily harm unless arrested without delay; or
2. The officer is in the performance of his legal duty or the execution of legal process and reasonably believes the use of the force is necessary to protect himself or others from the infliction of serious bodily harm; or
3. The force is necessary to prevent an escape from a penal institution from custody while in transit thereto or therefrom unless the officer has reason to know:
 - a. the person escaping is not a person who has committed a crime involving violence, and

b. the person escaping is not likely to endanger human life or to inflict serious bodily harm if not apprehended.

§ 733. Justifiable homicide by any person

Homicide is also justifiable when committed by any person in either of the following cases:

1. When resisting any attempt to murder such person, or to commit any crime upon him, or upon or in any dwelling house in which such person is; or
2. When committed in the lawful defense of such person, or of his or her husband, wife, parent, child, master, mistress, or servant, when there is a reasonable ground to apprehend a design to commit a crime, or to do some great personal injury, and imminent danger of such design being accomplished; or
3. When necessarily committed in attempting, by lawful ways and means, to apprehend any person for any crime committed; or in lawfully suppressing any riot; or in lawfully keeping and preserving the peace.

CHAPTER 25

KIDNAPPING

§ 741. Kidnapping defined

A. Every person who, without lawful authority, forcibly seizes and confines another, or inveigles or kidnaps another, with intent, either:

1. To cause such other person to be confined or imprisoned in this Nation against the will of the other person; or,
2. To cause such other person to be sent out of this Nation against the will of the other person; or,
3. To cause such person to be sold as a slave, or in any way held to service against the will of such other person, is guilty of a crime, punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment when the offense was by a non-parent and involved sexual abuse or sexual exploitation.

B. Upon any trial for a violation of this section, the consent thereto of the person kidnapped or confined, shall not be a defense, unless it appears satisfactorily to the jury, that such person was above the age of twelve (12) years, and that such consent was not extorted by threat, or by duress.

C. Any person, except for the parent of the child, convicted for a violation of subsection (A) of this section where the offense involved sexual abuse or sexual exploitation, shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 745. Kidnapping for purpose of extortion—Assisting in disposing, receiving, possessing or exchanging money or property received

A. Every person who, without lawful authority, forcibly seizes and confines another, or inveigles or kidnaps another, for the purpose of extorting any money, property or thing of value or advantage from the person so seized, confined, inveigled or kidnapped, or from any other person, or in any manner threatens either by written instrument, word of mouth, message, telegraph, telephone, by placing an ad in a newspaper, or by messenger, demands money or other thing of value, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Every person, not a principal in the kidnapping and not a relative or agent authorized by a relative of a kidnapped person, but who knowingly aids, assists, or participates in the disposing, receiving, possession or exchanging of any moneys, property or thing of value or advantage from the person so seized, confined, inveigled or kidnapped, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 746. Venue

Every offense prohibited in the last section may be tried in the jurisdiction in which the crime may have been committed or in any jurisdiction through which the person so seized, confined, inveigled or kidnapped shall have been taken, carried, or into which such person may be brought.

§ 747. Holder of hostage—Telephone communications

A. The supervising law enforcement official having jurisdiction in the geographical area where hostages are held who has probable cause to believe that the holder of one or more hostages is committing a crime shall have the authority to order a telephone company to arrange to cut, reroute or divert telephone lines in any emergency in which such hostages are being held, for the purpose of preventing telephone communication by the holder of such hostages with any person other than a peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer.

B. The serving telephone company within the geographical area of a law enforcement unit shall designate appropriate telephone company management employees to provide, or cause to be provided, all required assistance to law enforcement officials to carry out the purposes of this section.

C. Good faith reliance on an order by a supervising law enforcement official pursuant to this section, shall constitute a complete defense to any civil or criminal action brought against a telephone company, its agents or employees, as a result of compliance with said order.

CHAPTER 26

MAIMING

§ 751. Maiming defined

Every person who, with premeditated design to injure another, inflicts upon his person any injury which disfigures his personal appearance or disables any member or organ of his body or seriously diminishes his physical vigor, is guilty of maiming.

§ 752. Maiming one's self

Every person who with design to disable himself from performance of any legal duty, existing or anticipated, inflicts upon himself any injury whereby he is so disabled, is guilty of maiming.

§ 754. Means and manner of maiming immaterial

To constitute maiming it is immaterial by what means or instrument, or in what manner the injury was inflicted.

§ 755. Maiming by disfigurement

To constitute maiming by disfigurement, the injury must be such as is calculated, after healing, to attract observation. A disfigurement which can only be discovered by close inspection does not constitute maiming.

§ 756. Design to maim inferred

A design to injure, disfigure, or disable, is inferred from the fact of inflicting an injury which is calculated to disfigure or disable, unless the circumstances raise a reasonable doubt whether such design existed.

§ 757. Premeditated design

A premeditated design to injure, disfigure or disable, sufficient to constitute maiming, may be formed instantly before inflicting the wound.

§ 758. Recovery before trial at bar—Conviction of assault and battery

Where it appears, upon a trial for maiming another person, that the person injured has, before the time of trial, so far recovered from the wound that he is no longer by it disfigured in personal appearance, or disabled in any member or organ of his body, or affected in physical vigor, no conviction for maiming shall be had; but the accused may be convicted of assault and battery, with or without a special intent, according to proof.

§ 759. Punishment for maiming

Every person convicted of maiming is guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 28

ROBBERY

§ 791. Robbery defined

Robbery is a wrongful taking of personal property in the possession of another, from his person or immediate presence, and against his will, accomplished by means of force or fear.

§ 792. Force or fear—How employed

To constitute robbery, the force or fear must be employed either to obtain or retain possession of the property, or to prevent or overcome resistance to the taking.

§ 793. Degree of force immaterial

When force is employed in either of the ways specified in the last section, the degree of force employed is immaterial.

§ 794. What fear is an element

The fear which constitutes robbery may be either:

1. The fear of an unlawful injury, immediate or future, to the person or property of the person robbed or of any relative of his, or member of his family; or
2. The fear of an immediate and unlawful injury to the person or property of anyone in the company of the person robbed, at the time of the robbery.

§ 795. Value of property not material

When property is taken under the circumstances, required to constitute robbery, the fact that the property was of trifling value does not qualify the offense.

§ 796. Taking secretly not robbery

The taking of property from the person of another is not robbery, when it clearly appears that the taking was fully completed without his knowledge.

§ 797. Degrees of robbery

Robbery, when accomplished by the use of force, or of putting the person robbed in fear of some immediate injury to his person, is robbery in the first degree. When accomplished in any other manner, it is robbery in the second degree.

§ 798. Punishment for first degree

Every person convicted of robbery in the first degree is guilty of a crime.

§ 799. Punishment for second degree

Every person convicted of robbery in the second degree is guilty of a crime.

§ 800. Robbery by two or more persons—Punishment

§ 811. Suicide defined

Suicide is the intentional taking of one's own life.

§ 813. Aiding suicide

Every person who willfully, in any manner, advises, encourages, abets, or assists another person in taking his own life, is guilty of aiding suicide.

§ 814. Furnishing weapon or drug

Every person who willfully furnishes another person with any deadly weapon or poisonous drug, knowing that such person intends to use such weapon or drug in taking his own life, is guilty of aiding suicide, if such person thereafter employs such instrument or drug in taking his own life.

§ 815. Aid in attempt to commit suicide

Every person who willfully aids another in attempting to take his own life, in any manner which by the preceding sections would have amounted to aiding suicide if the person assisted had actually taken his own life, is guilty of aiding an attempt at suicide.

§ 816. Incapacity of person committing or attempting suicide no defense

It is no defense to a prosecution for aiding suicide or aiding an attempt at suicide, that the person who committed or attempted to commit the suicide was not a person deemed capable of committing crime.

§ 817. Punishment for aiding suicide

Every person convicted of aiding suicide is guilty of a crime.

§ 818. Punishment for aiding an attempt at suicide

Every person convicted of aiding an attempt at suicide is guilty of a crime.

§ 841. Tattooing prohibited—Definition—Exemption

It shall be unlawful for any person to tattoo or offer to tattoo any person. As used herein to "tattoo" means to insert pigment under the surface of the skin of a human being, by pricking with a needle or otherwise, so as to produce a permanent indelible mark or figure visible on the skin. Provided, however, that the provisions hereof shall not apply to any act of a licensed practitioner of the healing arts performed in the course of his practice.

§ 842. Penalty

Any person violating the provisions of 21 CNCA § 841 shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penal institution not to exceed ninety (90) days or payment of a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHILD ABUSE

§ 843. Abuse of children—Penalties

A. For the purposes of this section:

1. "Abuse" means harm or threatened harm to a child's health, safety or welfare by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare, including sexual abuse and sexual exploitation.
2. "Child" means any unmarried person under the age of eighteen (18) years.
3. "Harm or threatened harm to a child's health or safety" includes, but is not limited to:
 - a. nonaccidental physical or mental injury;
 - b. sexual abuse;
 - c. sexual exploitation;
 - d. neglect;
 - e. failure or omission to provide protection from harm or threatened harm; or
 - f. abandonment.

4. "Neglect" means abandonment, or failure or omission to provide any of the following:

a. adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical care, or supervision; or

b. special care made necessary by the physical or mental condition of the child.

5. "Person responsible for a child's health, safety or welfare" includes a parent, a legal guardian, a custodian, a foster parent, a person eighteen (18) years of age or older with whom the child's parent cohabitates or any other adult residing in the home of the child, an agent or employee of a public or private residential home, institution, facility or day treatment program, or an owner, operator, or employee of a child care facility.

6. "Sexual abuse" includes, but is not limited to, rape, incest and lewd or indecent acts or proposals made to a child, as defined by law, by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare regardless of the age or consent of the child.

7. "Sexual exploitation" includes, but is not limited to, allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution, as defined by law, by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare or allowing, permitting, encouraging, or engaging in the lewd, obscene, or pornographic photographing, filming, or depicting of a child in those acts as defined by the law, by a person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare.

B. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in child abuse shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime, punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. As used in this subsection, "child abuse" means the willful or malicious abuse, as defined by paragraph 1 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another, or the act of willfully or maliciously injuring, torturing or maiming a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another.

C. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in enabling child abuse shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. As used in this subsection, "enabling child abuse" means the causing, procuring or permitting of a willful or malicious act of child abuse, as defined by paragraph 1 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another. As used in this subsection, "permit" means to authorize or allow for the care of a child by an individual when the person authorizing or allowing such care knows or reasonably should know that the child will be placed at risk of abuse as proscribed by this subsection.

D. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in child neglect shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. As used in this subsection, "child neglect" means the willful or malicious neglect, as defined by paragraph 3 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another.

E. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in enabling child neglect shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. As used in this subsection,

"enabling child neglect" means the causing, procuring or permitting of a willful or malicious act of child neglect, as defined by paragraph 3 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another. As used in this subsection, "permit" means to authorize or allow for the care of a child by an individual when the person authorizing or allowing such care knows or reasonably should know that the child will be placed at risk of neglect as proscribed by this subsection.

F. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in child sexual abuse shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. As used in this section, "child sexual abuse" means the willful or malicious sexual abuse, as defined by paragraph 6 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another.

G. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in sexual abuse to a child under twelve (12) years of age shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

H. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in enabling child sexual abuse shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. As used in this subsection, "enabling child sexual abuse" means the causing, procuring or permitting of a willful or malicious act of child sexual abuse, as defined by paragraph 6 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under the age of eighteen (18) by another. As used in this subsection, "permit" means to authorize or allow for the care of a child by an individual when the person authorizing or allowing such care knows or reasonably should know that the child will be placed at risk of sexual abuse as proscribed by this subsection.

I. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in child sexual exploitation shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. As used in this subsection, "child sexual exploitation" means the willful or malicious sexual exploitation, as defined by paragraph 7 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another.

J. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in sexual exploitation of a child under twelve (12) years of age shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

K. Any parent or other person who shall willfully or maliciously engage in enabling child sexual exploitation shall, upon conviction, be punished pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. As used in this subsection, "enabling child sexual exploitation" means the causing, procuring or permitting of a willful or malicious act of child sexual exploitation, as defined by paragraph 7 of subsection (A) of this section, of a child under eighteen (18) years of age by another. As used in this subsection, "permit" means to authorize or allow for the care of a child by an individual when the person authorizing or allowing such care knows or reasonably should know that the child will be placed at risk of sexual exploitation as proscribed by this subsection.

L. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any parent or other person convicted of rape or lewd molestation of a child under fourteen (14) years of age subsequent to a previous conviction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for any offense of forcible anal or oral sodomy, rape, or lewd molestation of a child under fourteen (14) years of age shall be punished, punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

M. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsections (F) through (L) of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

N. Consent shall not be a defense for any violation of this section.

§ 843.1. Caretaker—Abuse, neglect or financial exploitation of charge

A. No caretaker or other person as defined in 43A O.S. § 10-103 shall abuse, commit financial neglect of, commit neglect of, commit sexual abuse upon, or financially exploit any person entrusted to the care of such caretaker or other person in a nursing facility or other setting or knowingly cause, secure, or permit any of said acts to be done.

B. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that when such conviction involves sexual abuse or sexual exploitation, such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

C. Consent shall not be a defense for any violation of this section.

D. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this section by committing sexual abuse or sexual exploitation shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

E. For purposes of this section and 21 CNCA §§ 843.2 through 843.4:

1. "Abuse" means causing or permitting:

a. the infliction of physical pain, injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, unreasonable restraint or confinement, or mental anguish; or

b. the deprivation of nutrition, clothing, shelter, health care, or other care or services without which serious physical or mental injury is likely to occur to a vulnerable adult by a caretaker or other person providing services to a vulnerable adult.

2. "Caretaker" shall be defined as a person who has:

a. the responsibility for the care of a vulnerable adult or the financial management of the resources of a vulnerable adult as a result of a family relationship;

b. assumed the responsibility for the care of a vulnerable adult voluntarily, by contract, or as a result of the ties of friendship; or

c. been appointed a guardian, limited guardian, or conservator.

3. "Exploitation" or "exploit" means an unjust or improper use of the resources of a vulnerable adult for the profit or advantage, pecuniary or otherwise, of a person other than the vulnerable adult through the use of undue influence, coercion, harassment, duress, deception, false representation or false pretense;

4. "Financial neglect" means repeated instances by a caretaker, or other person, who has assumed the role of financial management, of failure to use the resources available to restore or maintain the health and physical well-being of a vulnerable adult, including, but not limited to:

a. squandering or negligently mismanaging the money, property, or accounts of a vulnerable adult;

b. refusing to pay for necessities or utilities in a timely manner; or

c. providing substandard care to a vulnerable adult despite the availability of adequate financial resources.

5. "Incapacitated person" means:

a. any person eighteen (18) years of age or older:

i. who is impaired by reason of mental or physical illness or disability, dementia or related disease, mental retardation, developmental disability or other cause; and

ii. whose ability to receive and evaluate information effectively or to make and to communicate responsible decisions is impaired to such an extent that such person lacks the capacity to manage his or her financial resources or to meet essential requirements for his or her mental or physical health or safety without assistance from others; or

b. a person for whom a guardian, limited guardian, or conservator has been appointed.

6. "Indecent exposure" means forcing or requiring a vulnerable adult to:

a. look upon the body or private parts of another person or upon sexual acts performed in the presence of the vulnerable adult; or

b. touch or feel the body or private parts of another.

7. "Neglect" means:

a. the failure to provide protection for a vulnerable adult who is unable to protect his or her own interest; or

b. the failure to provide a vulnerable adult with adequate shelter, nutrition, health care, or clothing; or

c. negligent acts or omissions that result in harm or the unreasonable risk of harm to a vulnerable adult through the action, inaction, or lack of supervision by a caretaker providing direct services.

8. "Self-neglect" means the action or inaction of a vulnerable adult which causes that person to fail to meet the essential requirements for physical or mental health and safety due to the vulnerable adult's lack of awareness, incompetence or incapacity;

9. "Sexual abuse" means:

a. oral, anal, or vaginal penetration of a vulnerable adult by or through the union with the sexual organ of a caretaker or other person providing services to the vulnerable adult, or the anal or vaginal penetration of a vulnerable adult by a caretaker or other person providing services to the vulnerable adult with any other object; or

b. for the purpose of sexual gratification, the touching, feeling or observation of the body or private parts of a vulnerable adult by a caretaker or other person providing services to the vulnerable adult; or

c. indecent exposure by a caretaker or other person providing services to the vulnerable adult.

10. "Sexual exploitation" includes, but is not limited to, a caretaker's causing, allowing, permitting or encouraging a vulnerable adult to engage in prostitution or in the lewd, obscene, or pornographic photographing, filming or depiction of the vulnerable adult as those acts are defined by the Nation's laws.

11. "Verbal abuse" means the use of words, sounds, or other communication including, but not limited to, gestures, actions or behaviors, by a caretaker or other person providing services to a vulnerable adult that are likely to cause a reasonable person to experience humiliation, intimidation, fear, shame or degradation.

12. "Vulnerable adult" means an individual who is an incapacitated person or who, because of physical or mental disability, incapacity, or other disability, is substantially impaired in the ability to provide adequately for the care or custody of himself or herself, or is unable to manage his or her property and financial affairs effectively, or to meet essential requirements for mental or physical health or safety, or to protect himself or herself from abuse, verbal abuse, neglect, or exploitation without assistance from others.

F. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean a vulnerable adult is abused or neglected for the sole reason the vulnerable adult, in good faith, selects and depends upon spiritual means alone, in accordance with the practices of a recognized religious method of healing, for the treatment or cure of disease or remedial care, or a caretaker or other person responsible, in good faith, is furnishing such vulnerable adult spiritual means alone, in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination, for the treatment or cure of disease or remedial care in accordance with the practices of or express consent of the vulnerable adult.

§ 843.2. Verbal abuse by caretaker

No caretaker shall verbally abuse any person entrusted to the care of the caretaker, or knowingly cause, secure, or permit an act of verbal abuse to be done. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

§ 843.3. Abuse or exploitation of vulnerable adult by non-caretaker

A. Any person who engages in abuse, sexual abuse, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult, as defined in 21 CNCA § 843, shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment when the offense involved sexual abuse or exploitation. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this subsection by committing sexual abuse or exploitation shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

B. Any person who has a responsibility to care for a vulnerable adult who purposely, knowingly or recklessly neglects the vulnerable adult shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

§ 843.4. Exploitation of elderly persons or disabled adults

A. As used in this section, "exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult" means:

1. Knowingly, by deception or intimidation, obtaining or using, or endeavoring to obtain or use, an elderly person's or disabled adult's funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the elderly person or disabled adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the funds, assets, or property, or to benefit someone other than the elderly person or disabled adult, by a person who:

- a. stands in a position of trust and confidence with the elderly person or disabled adult; or
- b. has a business relationship with the elderly person or disabled adult.

2. Obtaining or using, endeavoring to obtain or use, or conspiring with another to obtain or use an elderly person's or disabled adult's funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the elderly person or disabled adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the funds, assets, or property, or to benefit someone other than the elderly person or disabled adult, by a person who knows or reasonably should know that the elderly person or disabled adult lacks the capacity to consent.

B. Any person convicted of violating this section commits a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

C. For purposes of this section, "elderly person" means any person sixty-two (62) years of age or older.

§ 844. Ordinary force as means of discipline not prohibited

Provided, however, that nothing contained in this act shall prohibit any parent, teacher or other person from using ordinary force as a means of discipline, including but not limited to spanking, switching or paddling.

§ 845. Repealed by LA 20–08, eff. January 12, 2009

§ 846. Mandatory reporting of physical abuse or birth of chemically-dependent child— Investigations—Spiritual treatment exemption—Appointment of attorney for child

A. Every physician or surgeon, including doctors of medicine and dentistry, licensed osteopathic physicians, residents and interns, examining, attending or treating a child under the age of eighteen (18) years and every registered nurse examining, attending or treating such a child in the absence of a physician or surgeon, every teacher of any child under the age of eighteen (18) years, and every other person having reason to believe that a child under the age of eighteen (18) years has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her by other than accidental means where the injury appears to have been caused as a result of physical abuse or neglect, shall report the matter promptly to Cherokee Nation and the county office of the Department of Human Services in the county wherein the suspected injury occurred. Every physician or surgeon, including doctors of medicine, licensed osteopathic physicians, residents and interns, or any other health care professional attending the birth of a child who appears to be a child born in a condition of dependence on a controlled dangerous substance shall promptly report the matter to Cherokee Nation and the county office of the Department of Human Services in the county in which such birth occurred. Provided it shall be a crime for any person to knowingly and willfully fail to promptly report any incident as provided above. If the report is not made in writing in the first instance, it shall be reduced to writing by the maker thereof as soon as maybe after it is initially made by telephone or otherwise and shall contain the names and addresses of the child and his or her parents or other persons responsible for his or her care, the child's age, the nature and extent of the child's injuries, including any evidence of previous injuries, the nature and extent of the child's dependence on a controlled dangerous substance and any other information that the maker of the report believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the injuries and the identity of the person or persons responsible therefor if such information or any part thereof is known to the person making the report.

Cherokee Nation and the county office receiving any report as herein provided shall investigate said report in accordance with priority guidelines established by Cherokee Nation and the Department of Human Services and if the county office finds evidence of abuse and neglect forward its findings to the prosecutor together with its recommendation as to disposition. In addition, a copy of the findings shall be sent to the Child Welfare Division of the Department of Human Services which shall be responsible for maintaining a permanent central registry, suitably cross-indexed, of all such reported findings. Any information contained in the central registry shall be available to any county office and to any prosecutor's office or public law enforcement agency investigating a report of suspected child abuse or neglect. The Department of Human Services may promulgate rules and regulations in furtherance of the provisions of this section.

All records concerning child abuse shall be confidential and shall be open to inspection only to persons duly authorized by the Nation, State of Oklahoma or United States in connection with the performance of their official duties. It shall be unlawful and a crime for the Commission, or any employee working under the direction of the Department of Human Services, any other public officer or employee, or any Court-Appointed Special Advocate to furnish or permit to be taken off of the records any information therein contained for commercial, political or any other unauthorized purpose.

No provision of this section shall be construed to mean that a child has been abused or neglected because said child's parent, guardian or custodian in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for the treatment or cure of disease or remedial care of such child.

B. In every case filed under 21 CNCA § 843, the Judge of the District Court shall appoint an attorney-at-law to appear for and represent a child who is the alleged subject of child abuse in such case if the prosecutor has a conflict of interest. The attorney may be allowed a reasonable fee for such services to be paid from the Court Fund to be fixed by the District Court. The attorney shall be given access to all reports relevant to the case and to any reports of examination of the child's parents or other custodian made pursuant to this section. The attorney shall be charged with the representation of the child's best interests. To that end, he shall make such further investigation that he deems necessary to ascertain the facts, to interview witnesses, examine and cross-examine witnesses at the preliminary hearing and trial, make recommendations to the Court and participate further in the proceedings to the degree appropriate for adequately representing the child. A Court-Appointed Special Advocate as defined by 10 CNCA § 1109 may be appointed to represent a child who is the alleged subject of child abuse or neglect. The Court-Appointed Special Advocate shall be given access to all reports relevant to the case and to any reports of examination of the child's parents or other custodian made pursuant to this section.

§ 846.1. Report of criminally inflicted injuries

Any physician, surgeon, osteopathic physician, resident, intern, physician's assistant, or registered nurse, examining, attending, or treating the victim of what appears to be criminally injurious conduct as defined by 21 CNCA § 142.3 shall report orally or by telephone the matter promptly to the nearest appropriate law enforcement agency wherein the criminally injurious conduct occurred.

§ 847. Immunity from civil or criminal liability

Any person participating in good faith and exercising due care in the making of a report pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 846 or 21 CNCA § 846.1, or any person who, in good faith and exercising due care, allows access to a child by persons authorized to investigate a report concerning the child shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed. Any such participant shall have the same immunity with respect to participation in any judicial proceeding resulting from such report.

§ 848. Admissibility of evidence

In any proceeding resulting from a report made pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 846 or 21 CNCA § 846.1 or in any proceeding where such a report or any contents of the report are sought to be introduced into evidence, such report, contents, or other fact related thereto or to the condition of the child or victim who is the subject of the report shall not be excluded on the ground that the matter is or may be the subject of a physician-patient privilege or similar privilege or rule against disclosure.

EXPLOSIVES

§ 849. Wiring or equipping of vehicles or structures with explosives—Penalty

Every person who shall attach to, or place in or upon any motor vehicle or any vehicle designed or customarily used to transport a person or persons or any structure designed or customarily used for the occupancy of a person or persons, any explosive material, thing or device with the intent of causing bodily injury or death to any person shall be guilty of a crime.

INTIMIDATION OR HARASSMENT

§ 850. Malicious intimidation or harassment because of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin or disability—Standardized reporting system

A. No person shall maliciously and with the specific intent to intimidate or harass another person because of that person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin or disability:

1. Assault or batter another person;
2. Damage, destroy, vandalize or deface any real or personal property of another person; or
3. Threaten, by word or act, to do any act prohibited by paragraph 1 or 2 of this subsection if there is reasonable cause to believe that such act will occur.

B. No person shall maliciously and with specific intent to incite or produce, and which is likely to incite or produce, imminent violence, which violence would be directed against another person because of that person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin or disability, make or transmit, cause or allow to be transmitted, any telephone or electronic message.

C. No person shall maliciously and with specific intent to incite or produce, and which is likely to incite or produce, imminent violence, which violence would be directed against another person because of that person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin or disability, broadcast, publish, or distribute, cause or allow to be broadcast, published or distributed, any message or material.

D. Any person convicted of violating any provision of subsections (A), (B) or (C) of this section shall be guilty of a crime on a first offense.

E. Cherokee Nation shall cooperate with the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation to develop a standard system for Nation, state and local law enforcement agencies to report incidents of crime which are apparently directed against members of racial, ethnic or religious groups to the Bureau within seventy-two (72) hours of the time such incidents are reported to such agencies.

F. No person, partnership, company or corporation that installs telephone or electronic message equipment shall be required to monitor the use of such equipment for possible violations of this section, nor shall such person, partnership, company or corporation be held criminally or civilly liable for the use by another person of the equipment in violation of this section, unless the person, partnership, company or corporation that installed the equipment had prior actual knowledge that the equipment was to be used in violation of this section.

PART IV

CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC DECENCY AND MORALITY

CHAPTER 31

ABANDONMENT AND NEGLECT OF WIFE OR CHILDREN

§ 851. Desertion of children under age of ten—Penalty

Any parent of any child or children under the age of ten (10) years, and every person to whom such child or children have been confided for nurture or education, who deserts such child or children within Cherokee Nation, or takes such child or children out of Cherokee Nation, with the intent wholly to abandon it, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 852. Omission to provide for a child—Penalties

A. Unless otherwise provided for by law, any parent, guardian, or person having custody or control over a child as defined in 10 CNCA § 1101 who willfully omits, without lawful excuse, to perform any duty imposed upon such parent, guardian, or person having custody or control of a child by law to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, monetary child support, or medical attendance for such child, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime. As used in this section, the "duty to furnish medical attention" shall mean that the parent or person having custody or control of a child must furnish medical treatment in such manner and on such occasions as an ordinarily prudent person, solicitous for the welfare of a child, would provide; such parent or person having custody or control of a child is not criminally liable for failure to furnish medical attendance for every minor or trivial complaint with which the child may be afflicted. Any person who leaves the Nation to avoid providing necessary food, clothing, shelter, court-ordered monetary child support, or medical attendance for such child, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean a child is endangered for the sole reason the parent, guardian or person having custody or control of a child, in good faith, selects and depends upon spiritual means alone through prayer, in accordance with the tenets and practice of a recognized church or religious denomination, for the treatment or cure of disease or remedial care of such child; provided, that medical care shall be provided where permanent physical damage could result to such child; and that the laws, rules, and regulations relating to communicable diseases and sanitary matters are not violated. Nothing contained herein shall prevent a Court from immediately assuming custody of a child and ordering whatever action may be necessary, including medical treatment, to protect his health or welfare. Psychiatric and psychological testing and counseling are exempt from the provisions of this section.

B. It is the duty of any parent having legal custody of a child who is an alcohol-dependent person or a drug-dependent person, as such terms are defined by 43A O.S. § 3–403, to provide for the treatment, as such term is defined by 43A O.S. § 3–403, of such child. Any parent having legal custody of a child who is an alcohol-dependent person or a drug-dependent person who without having made a reasonable effort fails or willfully omits to provide for the treatment of such child shall be guilty of a crime. For the purpose of this subsection, the "duty to provide for such treatment" shall mean that the parent having legal custody of a child must provide for the treatment in such manner and on such occasions as an ordinarily prudent person, solicitous for the welfare of a child, would provide.

§ 852.1. Child endangerment—Knowingly permitting physical or sexual abuse—Good faith reliance on spiritual healing—Penalties

A. In this section "abandon" means to leave a child in any place without providing reasonable and necessary care for the child under circumstance under which no reasonable similarly situated adult would leave a child of that age and ability.

B. A person commits a crime if, having custody, care or control of a child younger than fifteen (15) years, he intentionally abandons the child in any place under circumstances that expose the child to an unreasonable risk of harm.

C. A person commits a crime if he intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence, by act or omission, engages in conduct that places a child younger than fifteen (15) years in imminent danger of death, bodily injury or physical or mental impairment.

D. A person who is the parent, guardian, or person having custody or control over a child as defined in 10 CNCA § 1101, commits the crime of child endangerment when the person knowingly permits physical or sexual abuse of a child or who knowingly permits a child to be present at a location when a controlled dangerous substance is being manufactured or attempted to be manufactured as defined in 21 CNCA § 2101. However, it is an affirmative defense to this paragraph if the person had a reasonable apprehension that any action to stop the abuse would result in substantial bodily harm to the person or the child.

E. The provision of this action shall not apply to any parent, guardian or other person having custody or control of a child for the sole reason that the parent, guardian or other person in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for the treatment or cure of disease or remedial care for such child. This subsection shall in no way limit or modify the protections afforded said child in 21 CNCA § 852 or 10 CNCA § 1130.

§ 853. Desertion of wife or child under fifteen—Penalty

Every person who shall without good cause abandon his wife in destitute or necessitous circumstances and neglect and refuse to maintain or provide for her, or who shall abandon his or her minor child or children under the age of fifteen (15) years and willfully neglect or refuse to maintain or provide for such child or children, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 854. Proof of marriage—Wife as competent witness—Duty of prosecutor to prosecute

No other evidence shall be required to prove marriage of such husband and wife, or that such person is the lawful father or mother of such child or children than is or shall be required to prove such fact in a civil action, and such wife shall be a competent witness to testify in any case brought under this chapter, and to any and all matters relevant thereto, including the fact of such marriage and the parentage of such child or children. It shall be the mandatory duty of each prosecutor of this Nation to diligently prosecute all persons violating any of the provisions of this chapter, and in all cases where the evidence is deemed sufficient to justify a prosecution for such violation, any prosecutor who shall willfully fail, neglect or refuse to institute criminal proceedings to enforce such provisions, shall be subject to removal from office.

CHAPTER 31A

CONTRIBUTING TO DELINQUENCY OF MINORS

§ 856. Contributing to delinquency of minor or in commission of crime—Punishment

A. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, every person who shall knowingly or willfully cause, aid, abet or encourage a minor to be, to remain, or to become a delinquent child, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Every person eighteen (18) years of age or older who shall knowingly or willfully cause, aid, abet or encourage a minor to commit or participate in committing an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable by the maximum penalty allowed for conviction of the offense or offenses which the person caused, aided, abetted or encouraged the minor to commit or participate in committing.

§ 856.1. Causing, aiding, abetting or encouraging minor to participate in certain drug-related crimes

Every person who shall knowingly, intentionally or willfully cause, aid, abet or encourage a minor child to:

1. Distribute, dispense, possess or manufacture a controlled dangerous substance, as provided in the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq.;
2. Create, distribute, or possess a counterfeit controlled dangerous substance, as defined by 21 CNCA § 2101;
3. Distribute any imitation controlled substance as defined by 21 CNCA § 2101;
4. Conspire or participate in any scheme, plan or act for the purposes of avoiding, eluding or evading arrest or detection by law enforcement authorities for crimes involving controlled substances as defined by 21 CNCA § 2101; or
5. Violate any penal provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq.;

shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 857. Definitions

1. "Delinquent child," as used in 21 CNCA § 856, 21 CNCA § 857, 21 CNCA § 858.1 and 21 CNCA § 858.2, shall include a minor, as herein defined, who shall have been or is violating any penal statute of this Nation, or who shall have been or is committing any one or more of the following acts, to wit:

- a. Associating with thieves, vicious or immoral persons;
- b. Frequenting a house of ill repute;
- c. Frequenting any policy shop, or place where any gambling device is operated;
- d. Frequenting any saloon, dram shop, still, or any place where intoxicating liquors are manufactured, stored or sold;
- e. Possession, carrying, owning or exposing any vile, obscene, indecent, immoral or lascivious photograph, drawing, picture, book, paper, pamphlet, image, device, instrument, figure or object;

f. Willfully, lewdly or lasciviously exposing his or her person, or private parts thereof, in any place, public or private, in such manner as to be offensive to decency, or calculated to excite vicious or lewd thoughts, or for the purpose of engaging in the preparation or manufacture of obscene, indecent or lascivious photographs, pictures, figures or objects;

g. Possessing, transporting, selling, or engaging or aiding or assisting in the sale, transportation or manufacture of intoxicating liquor, or the frequent use of same;

h. Being a runaway from his or her parent or legal guardian;

i. Violating any penal provision of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq.

2. "Encourage," as used in 21 CNCA § 856, 21 CNCA § 857, 21 CNCA § 858.1 and 21 CNCA § 858.2, in addition to the usual meaning of the word, shall include a willful and intentional neglect to do that which will directly tend to prevent such act or acts of delinquency on the part of such minor, when the person accused shall have been able to do so.

3. "Every person," as used in 21 CNCA § 856, 21 CNCA § 856.1, 21 CNCA § 857, 21 CNCA § 858.1 and 21 CNCA § 858.2, shall include human beings, without regard to their legal or natural relationship to such minor, as well as legal or corporate entities.

4. "Minor" or "child," as used in 21 CNCA § 856, 21 CNCA § 857, 21 CNCA § 858.1 and 21 CNCA § 858.2, shall include male or female persons who shall not have arrived at the age of eighteen (18) years at the time of the commission of the offense.

§ 858.1. Causing, aiding, abetting or encouraging minor to be in need of supervision or dependent or neglected—Punishment—Second or subsequent conviction

A. Any parent or other person who knowingly and willfully:

1. causes, aids, abets or encourages any minor to be in need of supervision, or dependent and neglected; or

2. shall by any act or omission to act have caused, encouraged or contributed to the dependency and neglect, or the need of supervision of the minor, or to such minor becoming dependent and neglected, or in need of supervision; shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 858.2. Neglect of minor adjudicated delinquent, in need of supervision or dependent and neglected and placed in parents' or others' care

In all cases where a minor has been adjudged delinquent, in need of supervision or dependent and neglected by a court of competent jurisdiction and such court by order for care or probation, has placed such minor in the care or on probation to the parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian of such minor, any parent, legal guardian or legal custodian of such minor who shall neglect, fail or refuse to give such minor proper parental care, or to comply with the order for care or probation shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall, as applicable, be punished as provided in 21 CNCA § 856 or 21 CNCA § 858.1.

CHAPTER 32

CONCEALING DEATH OF CHILDREN

§ 863. Concealing stillbirth or death of child

Every person who endeavors either by himself or by the aid of others to conceal the stillbirth of an issue of a woman's body, or the death of any child, is guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 32A

TRAFFICKING IN CHILDREN

§ 865. Definitions

As used in 21 CNCA § 866, 21 CNCA § 867, 21 CNCA § 868, and 21 CNCA § 869, the terms hereinafter enumerated shall have the following meanings:

1. "Birth parent" means a parent of a child being placed for adoption and includes, but is not limited to, a woman who is pregnant or who presents herself as pregnant and who is offering to place her child, born or unborn, for adoption.
2. "Child" means an unmarried or unemancipated person under the age of eighteen (18) years.
3. "Child-placing agency" means any child welfare agency licensed by any government and authorized to place minors for adoption.
4. "Department" means the Cherokee Nation Department of Children, Youth and Family Services.
3. "Foster home" means a home or other place, other than the home of a parent, relative within the fourth degree, or guardian of the child concerned, wherein a child is received for permanent care, custody and maintenance.
4. "Person" means any natural person, corporation, association, organization, institution, or partnership.

§ 866. Elements of offense

A. 1. The crime of trafficking in children is defined to consist of any of the following acts or any part thereof:

a. the acceptance, solicitation, offer, payment or transfer of any compensation, in money, property or other thing of value, at any time, by any person in connection with the acquisition or transfer of the legal or physical custody or adoption of a minor child except as otherwise provided by the Cherokee Nation Adoption Code, 10 CNCA § 55 et seq.;

b. the acceptance or solicitation of any compensation, in money, property or other thing of value, by any person or organization for services performed, rendered or purported to be performed to facilitate or assist in the adoption or foster care placement of a minor child, except by the Cherokee Nation Department of Children, Youth and Family Services or an agency licensed thereby, or an attorney authorized to practice law in Cherokee Nation. The provisions of this paragraph shall not prohibit an attorney licensed to practice law outside of Cherokee Nation or a non-Cherokee Nation child-placing agency from receiving compensation when working with an attorney licensed in Cherokee Nation who is, or when working with a child-placing agency licensed in Cherokee Nation which is, providing adoption services or other services necessary for placing a child in an adoptive arrangement.

c. the solicitation or receipt of any money or any other thing of value for expenses related to the placement of a child for the purpose of an adoption by the birth parent of the child who at the time of the solicitation or receipt had no intent to consent to eventual adoption;

d. the payment of a recognized hospital or a physician qualified under the laws of Cherokee Nation which renders competent and needed hospital and medical care to an expectant mother or reasonable domiciliary care to a mother and child when such hospital and medical care have been approved by the Judge of the District Court shall not be considered as compensation for the adoption of the child or in any sense of the words be referred to as "trafficking in children"; nor shall the charge of a reasonable attorney's fee for services rendered in adoption or custody proceedings, approved by the Court, be considered as trafficking in children; nor shall the fees charged by a licensed child placing agency approved by the Court, for services rendered in the care of any child or its parent, the investigation and counseling services to and on behalf of the child, its parents and prospective adoptive home, be considered as trafficking in children; provided, however, that all such procedure relating to the care of an expectant unwed mother and her child and the adoption procedure therein comprised, or any other adoption, shall remain confidential in its nature, as otherwise provided by law;

e. offering to place, or advertising to place, a child for adoption or for care in a foster home, by any person, as an inducement to any woman to enter an institution or home or other place for maternity care or for the delivery of a child;

f. bringing or causing to be brought into this Nation or sending or causing to be sent outside this Nation any child for the purpose of placing such child in a foster home or for the adoption thereof without first obtaining the consent of the Department of Children, Youth and Family Services. Provided, however, that this provision shall have no application to the parent or guardian of the child nor to a person bringing said child into this Nation for the purpose of adopting the child into such person's same into his own family;

g. acceptance of or the offering or payment of any compensation, in money, property or other thing of value, by any person, in connection with the acquisition or transfer of the legal or physical custody of a child, except as ordered by the Court or except as otherwise provided by law;

h. the solicitation or receipt of any money or any other thing of value for expenses related to the placement of a child for adoption by a woman who knows she is not pregnant but who holds herself out to be pregnant and offers to place a child upon birth for adoption;

i. the receipt of any money or any other thing of value for expenses related to the placement of a child for adoption by a birth parent who receives, from one or more parties, an aggregate amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or more in total value without first disclosing to each prospective adoptive parent, child-placing agency, or attorney the receipt of these expenses;

j. advertising of services for compensation to assist with or effect the placement of a child for adoption or for care in a foster home by any person or organization except by the Department of Children, Youth and Family Services, or a child-placing agency licensed thereby. Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit an attorney authorized to practice law in Cherokee Nation from the advertisement of legal services related to the adoption of children; and

k. Advertising for and solicitation of a woman who is pregnant to induce he to place her child upon birth for adoption, except by the Department of Children, Youth and Family Services or an attorney authorized to practice law in Cherokee Nation.

2.a. Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, the violation of any of the subparagraphs in paragraph 1 of this subsection shall constitute a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

b. Prospective adoptive parents who violate subparagraph a of paragraph 1 of this subsection, upon conviction thereof, may be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per violation.

B. 1. No person shall knowingly publish for circulation within the borders of Cherokee Nation an advertisement of any kind in any print, broadcast or electronic medium, including, but not limited to, newspapers, magazines, telephone directories, handbills, radio or television, which violates subparagraph j or k of paragraph 1 of subsection (A) of this section.

2. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per violation.

C. The payment or acceptance of costs and expenses listed in the Cherokee Nation Adoption Code shall not be a violation of this section as long as the petitioner or birth parent has complied with the applicable procedure specified therein, and such costs and expenses are approved by the Court.

D. Any person knowingly failing to file an affidavit of all adoption costs and expenses before the final decree of adoption as required by the Cherokee Nation Adoption Code shall be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per violation.

§ 867. Punishment

A. The offense of trafficking in children by any person shall be a crime.

B. Conviction of the crime of trafficking in children, subsequent to a prior conviction for such offense in any form, shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

C. Any person convicted of the offense of trafficking in children shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 868. Partial invalidity

If any provision or section of this act or the application thereof to any person, corporation, organization, association, partnership, or institution shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the act and the application of such provision or section to any other person, organization, association, institution, corporation or partnership shall not be affected thereby.

§ 869. Construction of act

Except as otherwise set forth or except in case of conflict between the provisions hereof and other law, the provisions of this act shall be cumulative to existing law.

CHAPTER 34

BIGAMY, INCEST AND SODOMY

§ 881. Bigamy defined

Every person who having been married to another who remains living, marries any other person except in the cases specified in the next section is guilty of bigamy.

§ 882. Exceptions to the rule of bigamy

The last preceding section does not extend:

1. To any person whose husband or wife by a former marriage has been absent for five (5) successive years without being known to such person within that time to be living; nor
2. To any person whose husband or wife by a former marriage has absented himself or herself from his wife or her husband and has been continually remaining without the United States for a space of five (5) years together; nor

3. To any person by reason of any former marriage which has been pronounced void, annulled or dissolved by the judgment of a competent court; nor

4. To any person by reason of any former marriage with a husband or wife who has been sentenced to imprisonment for life.

§ 883. Punishment of bigamy

Every person convicted of bigamy is guilty of a crime.

§ 884. Person marrying bigamist

Every person who knowingly marries the husband or wife of another, in any case in which such husband or wife would be punishable according to the foregoing provisions, is guilty of a crime.

§ 885. Incest—Penalty

Persons who, being within the degrees of consanguinity within which marriages are by the laws of the Nation declared incestuous and void, intermarry with each other, or commit adultery or fornication with each other, are guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 886. Crime against nature

Every person who is guilty of the detestable and abominable crime against nature, committed with mankind or with a beast, is guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 887. Crime against nature, what penetration necessary

Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete the crime against nature.

§ 888. Repealed by LA 20–08, eff. January 12, 2009

CHAPTER 35

CHILD STEALING

§ 891. Child stealing—Punishment

Whoever maliciously, forcibly or fraudulently takes or entices any child under the age of eighteen (18) years, with intent to detain and conceal such child from its parent, guardian or other person having the lawful charge of such child or to transport such child from the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation or the United States without the consent of the person having lawful charge of such child shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

CHAPTER 36

CRIMES AGAINST RELIGION AND CONSCIENCE

§ 913. Compelling form of belief

Any willful attempt by means of threats or violence to compel any person to adopt, practice or profess any particular form of religious belief, is a crime.

§ 914. Preventing religious act

Every person who willfully prevents, by threats or violence, another person from performing any lawful act enjoined upon or recommended to such person by the religion which he professes, is guilty of a crime.

§ 915. Disturbing religious meeting

BINGO

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 941. Opening, conducting or carrying on gambling game—Dealing for those engaged in game

Every person who opens, or causes to be opened, or who conducts, whether for hire or not, or carries on either poker, roulette, craps or any banking or percentage, or any gambling game played with dice, cards or any device, for money, checks, credits, or any representatives of value, or who either as owner or employee, whether for hire or not, deals for those engaged in any such game, upon conviction thereof, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 942. Betting on or playing prohibited game—Punishment

Any person who bets or plays at any of said prohibited games, or who shall bet or play at any game whatsoever, for money, property, checks, credits or other representatives of value with cards, dice or any other device which may be adapted to or used in playing any game of chance or in which chance is a material element, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 943. Gambling paraphernalia—Disposition

The magistrate to whom anything suitable to be used for gambling purposes, including any vehicle or water vessel, including ships, boats, ferries, or any other type of vehicle capable of navigating waterways, or furniture or equipment used in a place conducted in violation of this act is delivered, as provided by law shall, upon the examination of the accused, or if such examination is delayed or prevented, without awaiting such examination, determine the character of the thing so delivered to him and whether it was actually intended or employed by the accused or others in violation of the provisions of this chapter; and if he finds that it is of a character suitable to be used for gambling purposes, and that it was actually employed or intended to be used by the accused or others in violation of the provisions of this article, he shall so find and cause the same to be delivered to the marshal to await the order of the District Court. Provided, that any of the furniture or equipment susceptible of legitimate use, may be sold under the procedures enumerated in 21 CNCA § 1738(C)(1), and the proceeds thereof placed in the Court Fund of the Nation, and that any money so found by the officers shall be placed in the Court Fund of the Nation.

§ 944. Slot machines—Setting up, operating or conducting—Punishment

Any person who sets up, operates or conducts, or who permits to be set up, operated or conducted in or about his place of business, whether as owner, employee or agent, any slot machine for the purpose of having or allowing the same to be placed by others for money, property, checks, credits or any representative of value shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 945. Use of real estate or buildings for gambling purposes—Punishment

It shall be unlawful for the owner or owners of any real estate buildings, structure or room to use, rent, lease or permit, knowingly, the same to be used for the purposes of violating 21 CNCA § 941. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 946. Illegal use of building or vessel—Nuisance—Penalty

Any house, room, vehicle or water vessel, including ships, boats, ferries, or any other type of vehicle capable of navigating waterways, or place where any of the games prohibited by 21 CNCA § 941 are opened, conducted or carried on, or where persons congregate to play at any such game is a public nuisance and the keepers and managers of any such nuisance, and persons aiding or assisting any such keepers or managers in keeping or managing any such nuisance shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 952. Persons jointly charged—Severance

Persons jointly charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be tried together, provided the Court for good cause shown may grant a severance.

§ 953. Accomplice testimony—Force of same

Any person charged with a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter may be convicted on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice, and the judgment thereon shall not be set aside or reversed by reason of the fact that such conviction was based on the testimony of an accomplice.

§ 956. Permitting gambling in building or on grounds

Every person who shall permit any gaming table, bank, or gaming device prohibited by this chapter, to be set up or used for the purpose of gambling in any house, building, shed, shelter, booth, lot or other premises to him belonging, or by him occupied, or of which he has, at the time, possession or control, shall be, on conviction thereof, adjudged guilty of a crime.

§ 957. Leasing for gambling purposes

Every person who shall knowingly lease or rent to another any house, building or premises for the purpose of setting up or keeping therein, any of the gambling devices prohibited by the preceding provisions of this chapter, is guilty of a crime.

§ 959. Witnesses failing to testify

Every person duly summoned as a witness for the prosecution or defense on any proceedings ordered under this chapter, who neglects or refuses to attend and testify as required, is guilty of a crime.

§ 960. Seizure of apparatus and property and delivery to magistrate

Every person who is authorized or enjoined to arrest any person for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, is equally authorized and enjoined to seize any vehicle or water vessel, including ships, boats, ferries, or any other type of vehicle capable of navigating waterways, which have been used for illegal gambling and any table, cards, dice, or other articles or apparatus suitable to be used for gambling purposes found in the possession or under the control of the person so arrested, and to deliver the same to the magistrate before whom the person so arrested is required to be taken.

§ 961. Testimony, no person excused from giving

No person shall be excused from giving any testimony or evidence upon any investigation or prosecution for violation of this chapter, upon the ground that such testimony would tend to convict him of a crime, but such testimony or evidence shall not be received against him upon any criminal investigation or prosecution, except in a prosecution against him for perjury committed in giving such testimony.

SLOT MACHINES AND PUNCH BOARDS

§ 964. "Slot machine" defined

For the purpose of this act, "slot machine" is defined to be:

First: Any machine, instrument, mechanism or device that operates or may be operated or played mechanically, electrically, electronically automatically or manually, and which can be played or operated by any person by inserting in any manner into said machine, instrument, mechanism or device, a coin, chip, token, check, credit, money, representative of value, or a thing of value, and by which play or operation such person will stand to win or lose, whether by skill or chance, or by both, a thing of value; and

Second: Any machine, instrument, mechanism or device that operates or may be played or operated mechanically, electrically, electronically, automatically, or manually, and which can be played or operated by any person by paying to or depositing with any person, or by depositing with or in any cache, receptacle, slot, or place a coin, chip, token, check, credit, money, representative of value, or a thing of value, and by which play or operation such person will stand to win or lose, whether by skill or chance, or by both, a thing of value.

§ 965. "Thing of value" defined

For the purposes of this act, "a thing of value" is defined to be any money, coin, currency, check, chip, token, credit, property, tangible or intangible, or any representative of value or any other thing, tangible or intangible except amusement or entertainment, calculated or intended to serve as an inducement for anyone to operate or play any slot machine or punch board.

§ 966. "Punch board" defined

For the purposes of this chapter, "punch board" is defined to be any card, board, substance or thing upon or in which is placed or concealed in any manner any number, figure, name, design, character, symbol, picture, substance or thing which may be drawn, uncovered, exposed or removed therefrom by any person paying a thing of value, which number, figure, design, character, symbol, picture, substance or any other thing, when drawn, uncovered, exposed or removed therefrom, will stand the person drawing, uncovering, exposing or removing the same to win or lose a thing of value.

§ 967. Words in singular and plural

Any word or words used in this act in the singular number shall include the plural, and the plural the singular.

§ 968. "Person" defined

For the purposes of this act, "person" is defined to include any person, partnership, association, company, stock company, corporation, receiver, trustee, organization or club.

§ 969. Possession, sale, or lease of slot machines or punch boards prohibited

It shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession any slot machine or punch board, or sell or solicit the sale, or take orders for the sale of, or lease or rent any slot machine or punch board in this Nation, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 971. Punch board—Acts prohibited—Punishment

Any person who sets up, operates, exposes, conducts, displays or plays, or who permits to be set up, operated, exposed, conducted, displayed or played, in or about any place or in or about any place of business, whether as owner, employee or agent, any punch board for the purpose of having or allowing the same to be played by others for money, property, tangible or intangible, coin, currency, check, chip, token, credit, amusement or any representative of value or a thing of value, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 978. Bingo and regulated gaming not prohibited

None of the provisions of this chapter, except 21 CNCA § 995.11, shall apply to bingo and gambling regulated or operated by Cherokee Nation under Title 4 of the Code.

GAMBLING AND COMMERCIAL GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

§ 981. Definitions

As used in this chapter:

1. A "bet" is a bargain in which the parties agree that, dependent upon chance, or in which one of the parties to the transaction has valid reason to believe that it is dependent upon chance, one stands to win or lose something of value specified in the agreement. A "bet" does not include:

a. bona fide business transactions which are valid under the law of contracts including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or other commodities and agreements to compensation for loss caused by the happening of the chance including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guaranty and life or health and accident insurance; or

b. any bingo game or a game of chance with comparable characteristics by or for participants conducted by an authorized organization under the laws of this Nation; or

c. offers of purses, prizes or premiums to the actual participants in public and semipublic events, as follows, to wit: Rodeos, animal shows, expositions, fairs, athletic events, tournaments and other shows and contests where the participants qualify for a monetary prize or other recognition. This subparagraph further excepts an entry fee from the definition of "a bet" as applied to enumerated public and semipublic events;

d. any gambling activity regulated or operated by Cherokee Nation provided by law.

2. "Consideration" as used in this section means anything which is a commercial or financial advantage to the promoter or a disadvantage to any participant. Mere registration without purchase of goods or services; personal attendance at places or events, without payment of an admission price or fee; listening to or watching radio and television programs; answering the telephone or making a telephone call and acts of like nature are not consideration. As used in this paragraph, the term "consideration" shall not include sums of money paid by or for participants in any bingo game or a game of chance with comparable characteristics as defined by subparagraph b of paragraph 1 of this section and it shall be conclusively presumed that such sums paid by or for said participants were intended by said participants to be for the benefit of the organizations described in subparagraph b of paragraph 1 of this section for the use of such organizations in furthering the purposes of such organizations;

3. A "gambling device" is a contrivance designed primarily for gambling purposes which for a consideration affords the player an opportunity to obtain something of value, the award of which is determined by chance, or any token, chip, paper, receipt or other document which evidences, purports to evidence or is designed to evidence participation in a lottery or the making of a bet. The fact that the prize is not automatically paid by the device does not affect its character as a gambling device; and

4. A "gambling place" is any place, room, building, vehicle, tent or location which is used for any of the following: making and settling bets; receiving, holding, recording or forwarding bets or offers to bet; conducting lotteries; or playing gambling devices. Evidence that the place has a general reputation as a gambling place or that, at or about the time in question, it was frequently visited by persons known to be commercial gamblers or known as frequenters of gambling places is admissible on the issue of whether it is a gambling place.

§ 982. Commercial gambling

A. Commercial gambling is:

1. Operating or receiving all or part of the earnings of a gambling place;
2. Receiving, recording or forwarding bets or offers to bet or, with intent to receive, record or forward bets or offers to bet, possessing facilities to do so;
3. For gain, becoming a custodian of anything of value bet or offered to be bet;
4. Conducting a lottery or with intent to conduct a lottery possessing facilities to do so;
5. Setting up for use or collecting the proceeds of any gambling device; or
6. Alone or with others, owning, controlling, managing or financing a gambling business.

B. Any person convicted of commercial gambling shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 983. Permitting premises to be used for commercial gambling

A. Permitting premises to be used for commercial gambling is intentionally:

1. Granting the use or allowing the continued use of a place as a gambling place; or
2. Permitting another to set up a gambling device for use in a place under the offender's control.

B. Any person permitting premises to be used for commercial gambling shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 985. Possession of a gambling device

A. Possession of a gambling device is knowingly possessing or having custody or control, as owner, lessee, agent, employee, bailee or otherwise, of any gambling device.

B. Any person possessing a gambling device who knows or has reason to know said devices will be used in making or settling commercial gambling transactions and deals in said gambling devices with the intent to facilitate commercial gambling transactions shall be punished for a crime.

§ 987. Dissemination of gambling information

A. Dissemination of gambling information is the transmitting or receiving, by means of any communications facilities, information to be used in making or settling bets. Provided that nothing herein shall prohibit a licensed radio or television station or newspaper of general circulation from broadcasting or disseminating to the public reports of odds or results of legally staged sporting events.

B. Any person found guilty of disseminating gambling information shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 988. Conspiracy

A. A conspiracy is any agreement, combination or common plan or scheme by two or more persons, coupled with an overt act in furtherance of such agreement, combination or common plan or scheme, to violate any section of this act.

B. Any person found guilty of conspiracy shall be punished to the same extent as provided for in the section of this act which such person conspired to violate.

BETTING, ETC., ON RACES

§ 991. Betting or letting premises for betting on races

A. Except as provided for in the Oklahoma Horse Racing Act, 3A O.S. § 200 et seq., it shall be unlawful for any person, association, or corporation:

1. to bet or wager upon the result of any trial of speed or power of endurance of animals or beasts; or

2. to occupy any room, shed, tenement or building, or any part thereof, or to occupy any place upon any grounds with books, apparatus, or paraphernalia for the purpose of recording or registering bets or wagers or of selling pools, or making books or mutuals upon the result of any trial of speed or power of endurance of animals or beasts; or

3. being the owner or lessee or occupant of any room, tent, tenement, shed, booth, or building, or part thereof at any place knowingly to permit the same to be used or occupied to keep, exhibit, or employ any device or apparatus for the purpose of recording or registering such bets or wagers or the selling or making of such books, pools or mutuals, or to become the custodian or depository for gain, hire or reward of any money, property or thing of value, bet or wagered or to be wagered or bet upon the result of any trial of speed or power of endurance of animals or beasts; or

4. to receive, register, record, forward or purport or pretend to forward to or for any racetrack within or without this Nation, any money, thing or consideration of value offered for the purpose of being bet or wagered upon the result of any trial of speed or power of endurance of any animal or beast; or

5. to occupy any place, or building or part thereof with books, papers, apparatus, or paraphernalia for the purpose of receiving or pretending to receive or for recording or for registering or for forwarding or pretending or attempting to forward in any manner whatever, any money, thing or consideration of value, bet or wagered or to be bet or wagered by any person or to receive or offer to receive any money, thing, or consideration of value bet or to be bet upon the result of any trial of speed or power of endurance or any animal or beast; or

6. to aid or assist or abet at any racetrack or other place in any manner in any of the acts forbidden by this section.

B. Any person, association, or corporation convicted of violating the provisions of paragraph 1 of subsection (A) of this section shall be fined not less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and be imprisoned not more than ninety (90) days. Any person, association, or corporation convicted of violating any provision of paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 of subsection (A) of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

C. Any personal property used for the purpose of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be disposed of as provided for in 22 CNCA § 1261.

§ 993. Evidence for prosecution—Accomplices—Immunity for witnesses

A conviction for the violation of any of the provisions of this act may be had upon the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participant, and such accomplice or participant shall be exempt from prosecution for any offense in this act about which he may be required to testify.

BINGO

§ 995.2. Definitions

As used in this section and 21 CNCA §§ 995.11 through 995.15:

1. "Bingo" means a game in which each participant receives one or more cards each of which is marked off into twenty-five (25) squares arranged in five (5) horizontal rows of five (5) squares each and five (5) vertical rows of five (5) squares each, with each square being designated by number, letter or combination of numbers and letters, and the center square designated with the word "free," with no two (2) cards being identical, with the players covering squares as the operator of such game announces a number, letter or combination of numbers and letters appearing on an object selected by chance, either manually or mechanically from a receptacle in which have been placed objects bearing numbers, letters or combinations of numbers and letters corresponding to the system used for designating the squares, with the winner of each game being the player or players first properly covering a predetermined and announced pattern of squares upon the card being used by him or them.

2. "Rip-off games" or "pull-tab games" means games wherein a participant receives a sealed card or tab, which when opened by the participant, reveals some combination of numbers, letters, or symbols the arrangement of which determines if the participant has won a prize.

§ 995.11. Intoxicating and nonintoxicating beverages prohibited

No licensee shall sell, serve or permit to be consumed any intoxicating and nonintoxicating beverages as defined in the laws of Cherokee Nation in any room or outdoor area where bingo is conducted during the time that it is so conducted.

§ 995.12. License required

No person shall conduct any game of bingo or pull tabs for which a charge is made or to the winner of which any prize is awarded except as regulated or operated by Cherokee Nation pursuant to law.

§ 995.13. Minors

No minor shall be permitted to play bingo for which a charge is made or to the winner of which any prize is awarded unless accompanied by a parent or guardian.

§ 995.15. Penalties

Any violation of 21 CNCA §§ 995.2 through 995.15 is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. Any person violating the provisions of this act, 21 CNCA § 995.2 et seq., except as otherwise provided in this section shall be guilty of a crime.

Any person conducting, playing, or offering to play or conduct any rip-off game or pull-tab game in any place where bingo is conducted, except as otherwise provided in this act, 21 CNCA § 995.2 et seq., shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 995.18. Severability

The provisions of this act are severable and if any part or provision hereof shall be held void the decision of the Court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining parts or provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 39

CHEROKEE NATION OBSCENITY AND CHILD PORNOGRAPHY ACT

§ 1021. Indecent exposure—Indecent exhibitions—Obscene material or child pornography—Solicitation of minors

A. Every person who willfully and knowingly either:

1. lewdly exposes his person or genitals in any public place, or in any place where there are present other persons to be offended or annoyed thereby;
2. procures, counsels, or assists any person to expose such person, or to make any other exhibition of such person to public view or to the view of any number of persons, for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer;

3. writes, composes, stereotypes, prints, photographs, designs, copies, draws, engraves, paints, molds, cuts, or otherwise prepares, publishes, sells, distributes, keeps for sale, knowingly downloads or otherwise stores or views on a computer, or exhibits any obscene material or child pornography; or shall be guilty, upon conviction, of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that upon a second conviction for a violation of subparagraph 1 or 2 of subsection (A), such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

B. Every person who:

1. willfully solicits or aids a minor child to perform; or

2. shows, exhibits, loans, or distributes to a minor child any obscene material or child pornography for the purpose of inducing said minor to participate in any act specified in paragraphs 1, 2, 3 or 4 of subsection (A) of this section shall be guilty, upon conviction, of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

C. For purposes of this section, "downloading on a computer" means electronically transferring an electronic file from one computer or electronic media to another computer or electronic media.

D. Any person convicted of a second violation of paragraphs 1 or 2 of subsection (A) of this section, or for a first violation of either paragraph 3 or 4 of subsection (A) of this section when the offense involves child pornography, or for a first violation of subsection (B), shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 1021.1. Application

A. 21 CNCA §§ 1021 through 1024.4 shall not apply to persons who may possess or distribute obscene matter or child pornography or participate in conduct otherwise proscribed by this act, when such possession, distribution, or conduct occurs in the course of law enforcement activities.

B. The criminal provisions of this title shall not prohibit the Attorney General from seeking civil or injunctive relief to enjoin the production, publication, dissemination, distribution, sale of or participation in any obscene material or child pornography, or the dissemination to minors of material harmful to minors, or the possession of child pornography.

§ 1021.2. Minors—Child pornography

A. Any person who shall procure or cause the participation of any minor under the age of eighteen (18) years in any child pornography shall be guilty, upon conviction, of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

B. The consent of the minor, or of the mother, father, legal guardian, or custodian of the minor to the activity prohibited by this section shall not constitute a defense.

§ 1021.3. Guardians, parents, custodians—Consent to participation of minors in child pornography

A. Any parent, guardian or individual having custody of a minor under the age of eighteen (18) years who knowingly permits or consents to the participation of a minor in any child pornography shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

B. The consent of the minor to the activity prohibited by this section shall not constitute a defense.

§ 1021.4. Duty to report obscene or pornographic material depicting minors—Penalty

A. Any commercial film and photographic print processor or commercial computer technician who has knowledge of or observes, within the scope of such person's professional capacity or employment, any film, photograph, video tape, negative, or slide, or any computer file, recording, CD-ROM, magnetic disk memory, magnetic tape memory, picture, graphic or image that is intentionally saved, transmitted or organized on hardware or any other media including, but not limited to, CDs, DVDs and thumbdrives, whether digital, analog or other means and whether directly viewable, compressed or encoded depicting or appearing to depict a child under the age of eighteen (18) years engaged in an act of sexual conduct as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1 shall immediately, or as soon as possible, report by telephone such instance of suspected child abuse or child pornography to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service and shall prepare and send a written report of the incident to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service with an attached copy of such material, within thirty-six (36) hours after receiving the information concerning the incident.

For the purposes of this section:

1. "Commercial film and photographic print processor" means any person who develops exposed photographic film into negatives, slides, or prints, or who makes prints from negatives or slides, for compensation. The term shall also include any employee of such a person; and

2. "Commercial computer technician" means any person who repairs, installs, or otherwise services any computer including, but not limited to, any component part, device, memory storage or recording mechanism, auxiliary storage, recording or memory capacity, or any other materials relating to operation and maintenance of a computer or computer network or system, for compensation. The term shall also include any employee of such person.

B. Any person who violates the provisions of this section, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require or authorize any person to act outside the scope of such person's professional capacity or employment by searching for prohibited materials or media.

§ 1022. Obscene material or child pornography, by whom seized and to whom delivered

Every person who is authorized or enjoined to arrest any person for a violation of 21 CNCA § 1021(A)(3) is equally authorized and enjoined to seize one copy of the obscene material, or all copies of explicit child pornography, found in possession of or under the control of the person so arrested, and to deliver the same to the magistrate before whom the person so arrested is required to be taken, provided that when the arrest is made pursuant to a federal warrant, the federal procedures for delivery of such materials shall be followed without violating this section.

§ 1023. Child pornography or obscene material, how disposed of

The magistrate to whom any child pornography, or any obscene material, is delivered pursuant to the 21 CNCA § 1022, shall, upon the examination of the accused, or if the examination is delayed or prevented, without awaiting such examination, determine the character of such child pornography or obscene material, and if the magistrate finds it to be obscene material or child pornography the magistrate shall cause the same to be destroyed, or to be delivered to the Attorney General. The magistrate shall issue in writing the factual and legal basis for the determination by the magistrate of the character of the child pornography or obscene material. The Attorney General may transmit the child pornography or obscene material to the United States Attorney's Office for the district wherein a crime occurred upon the written request of said United States Attorney's Office, or may deliver such materials to the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service for storage as evidence pending trial and any appeals.

§ 1024. Attorney General to destroy indecent articles, when

Upon the final conviction of the accused, the Attorney General shall cause any child pornography or obscene material, in respect whereof the accused stands convicted and which remains in the possession or under the control of the Attorney General to be destroyed.

§ 1024.1. Definitions

A. As used in 21 CNCA §§ 1021, 1021.1 through 1021.3, 1022 through 1024, and 1040.8 through 1040.24, "child pornography" means and includes any film, motion picture, videotape, photograph, negative, undeveloped film, slide, photographic product, reproduction of a photographic product, CD-ROM, magnetic disk memory, magnetic tape memory, play or performance wherein a minor under the age of eighteen (18) years is engaged in any act with a person, other than his or her spouse, of sexual intercourse which is normal or perverted, in any act of anal sodomy, in any act of sexual activity with an animal, in any act of sadomasochistic abuse including, but not limited to, flagellation or torture, or the condition of being fettered, bound or otherwise physically restrained in the context of sexual conduct, in any act of fellatio or cunnilingus, in any act of excretion in the context of sexual conduct, in any lewd exhibition of the uncovered genitals in the context of masturbation or other sexual conduct, or where the lewd exhibition of the uncovered genitals has the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer, or wherein a person under the age of eighteen (18) years observes such acts or exhibitions.

B. As used in 21 CNCA §§ 1021 through 1024.4 and 1040.8 through 1040.24:

1. "Explicit child pornography" means material which a law enforcement officer can immediately identify upon first viewing without hesitation as child pornography.

2. "Obscene material" means and includes any representation, performance, depiction or description of sexual conduct, whether in any form or medium including still photographs, undeveloped photographs, motion pictures, undeveloped film, videotape, CD-ROM, magnetic disk memory, magnetic tape memory or a purely photographic product or a reproduction of such product in any book, pamphlet, magazine, or other publication, if said items contain the following elements:

a. depictions or descriptions of sexual conduct which are patently offensive as found by the average person applying contemporary community standards;

b. taken as a whole, have as the dominant theme an appeal to prurient interest in sex as found by the average person applying contemporary community standards; and

c. a reasonable person would find the material or performance taken as a whole lacks serious literary, artistic, educational, political, or scientific purposes or value.

The standard for obscenity applied in this section shall not apply to child pornography.

3. "Performance" means and includes any display, live or recorded, in any form or medium.

4. "Sexual conduct" means and includes any of the following:

a. acts of sexual intercourse including any intercourse which is normal or perverted, actual or

- simulated;
- b. acts of deviant sexual conduct, including oral and anal sodomy;
 - c. acts of masturbation;
 - d. acts of sadomasochistic abuse including but not limited to:
 - i. flagellation or torture by or upon any person who is nude or clad in undergarments or in a costume which is of a revealing nature; or
 - ii. the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restrained on the part of one who is nude or so clothed;
 - e. acts of excretion in a sexual context; or
 - f. acts of exhibiting human genitals or pubic areas.

The types of sexual conduct described in paragraph 4 of this subsection are intended to include situations when, if appropriate to the type of conduct, the conduct is performed alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals in an act of apparent sexual stimulation or gratification.

§ 1024.2. Purchase, procurement or possession of child pornography—Penalty

It shall be unlawful for any person to buy, procure or possess child pornography in violation of 21 CNCA §§ 1024.1 through 1024.4. Such person shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 1024.3. Power to arrest and seizure of obscene material

Every person who is authorized or enjoined to arrest any person for a violation of 21 CNCA §§ 1021, 1021.1 through 1021.3, 1022 through 1024, and 1040.8 through 1040.24 is equally authorized and enjoined to seize an evidentiary copy of any obscene material or child pornography or all copies of explicit child pornography found in the possession of or under the control of the person so arrested and to deliver the obscene material or child pornography to the magistrate before whom the person so arrested is required to be taken, provided that when the arrest is made pursuant to a federal warrant, the federal procedures for delivery of such materials shall be followed without violating this section.

§ 1024.4. Destruction of obscene material upon conviction

Upon final conviction of the accused, any magistrate or the Attorney General shall cause any obscene material or child pornography, in respect whereof the accused stands convicted and which remains in the possession or control of such magistrate or the Attorney General, to be destroyed.

§ 1025. Bawdy house, etc.—Penalty

Every person who keeps any bawdy house, house of ill fame, of assignation, or of prostitution, or any other house or place for persons to visit for unlawful sexual intercourse, or for any other lewd, obscene or indecent purpose, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1026. Disorderly house

Every person who keeps any disorderly house, or any house of public resort by which the peace, comfort or decency of the immediate neighborhood is habitually disturbed, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1027. Letting building for unlawful purposes

Every person who lets any building or portion of any building knowing that it is intended to be used for any purpose declared punishable by this chapter, or who otherwise permits any building or portion of a building to be so used, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1028. Setting up or operating place of prostitution—Ownership—Renting—Procuring—Receiving person for forbidden purpose—Transportation—Receiving proceeds

It shall be unlawful in Cherokee Nation:

1. To keep, set up, maintain, or operate any house, place, building, other structure, or part thereof, or vehicle, trailer, or other conveyance for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation;
2. To knowingly own any house, place, building, other structure, or part thereof, or vehicle, trailer, or other conveyance used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution, or to let, lease, or rent, or contract to let, lease, or rent any such place, premises, or conveyance, or part thereof, to another with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that the intention of the lessee or rentee is to use such place, premises, or conveyance for prostitution, lewdness, or assignation;
3. To offer, or to offer to secure, another for the purpose of prostitution, or for any other lewd or indecent act;
4. To receive or to offer or agree to receive any person into any house, place, building, other structure, vehicle, trailer, or other conveyance for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, or to permit any person to remain there for such purpose;
5. To direct, take, or transport, or to offer or agree to take or transport, or aid or assist in transporting, any person to any house, place, building, other structure, vehicle, trailer, or other conveyance, or to any other person with knowledge or having reasonable cause to believe that the purpose of such directing, taking or transporting is prostitution, lewdness or assignation;

6. To knowingly accept, receive, levy, or appropriate any money or other thing of value without consideration from a prostitute or from the proceeds of any woman engaged in prostitution.

§ 1029. Engaging in prostitution, etc.—Soliciting or procuring—Residing or being in place for prohibited purpose—Aiding, abetting or participating

It shall further be unlawful:

1. To engage in prostitution, lewdness, or assignation;
2. To solicit, induce, entice, or procure another to commit an act of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution, with himself or herself;
3. To reside in, enter, or remain in any house, place, building, or other structure, or to enter or remain in any vehicle, trailer, or other conveyance for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation;
4. To aid, abet, or participate in the doing of any of the acts herein prohibited.

§ 1030. Prostitution defined—Lewdness defined

The term "prostitution" as used in this act shall be construed to include the giving or receiving of the body for sexual intercourse for hire, and shall also be construed to include the giving or receiving of the body for indiscriminate sexual intercourse without hire. The term "lewdness" shall be construed to include the making of any appointment or engagement for prostitution or lewdness or any act in furtherance of such appointment or engagement.

§ 1031. Punishment for violations

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a crime; and the Court in which any such conviction is had shall notify the county superintendent of public health of such conviction.

§ 1040.8. Publication, distribution or participation in preparation of any obscene material or presentation—Unsolicited mailings—Penalty

No person shall knowingly photograph, act in, pose for, model for, print, sell, offer for sale, giveaway, exhibit, publish, offer to publish, or otherwise distribute, display, or exhibit any book, magazine, story, pamphlet, paper, writing, card, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture film, electronic video game or recording, image, cast, slide, figure, instrument, statue, drawing, presentation, or other article which is obscene material or child pornography, as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1. In the case of any unsolicited mailing of any of the material listed in this section, the offense is deemed complete from the time such material is deposited in any post office or delivered to any person with intent that it shall be forwarded. Also, unless preempted by federal law, no unsolicited mail which is harmful to minors pursuant to 21 CNCA § 1040.75 shall be mailed to any person. The party mailing the materials specified in this section may be tried where such material is deposited or delivered, or in which it is received by the person to whom it is addressed. Any person who violates any provision of this section, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. Any person convicted of a violation of this section where the offender is age eighteen (18) or over and the offense involved child pornography shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§§ 1040.9, 1040.10. Repealed by LA 20–08, eff. January 12, 2009

§ 1040.11. Short title

Sections 1021 through 1040.77 of this title shall be known as the "Cherokee Nation Obscenity and Child Pornography Act" and may be referred to by that designation.

§ 1040.13. Acts prohibited

Every person who, with knowledge of its contents, sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought into this Nation for sale or commercial distribution, or in this Nation prepares, sells, exhibits, commercially distributes, gives away, offers to give away, or has in his possession with intent to sell, to commercially distribute, to exhibit, to give away, or to offer to give away any obscene material or child pornography or gives information stating when, where, how, or from whom, or by what means obscene material or child pornography can be purchased or obtained, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such punishment must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section where the offense involved child pornography shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 1040.13a. Facilitating, encouraging, offering or soliciting sexual conduct or engaging in sexual communication with a minor or person believed to be a minor

A. It is unlawful for any person to facilitate, encourage, offer or solicit sexual conduct with a minor, or other individual the person believes to be a minor, by use of any technology, or to engage in any communication for sexual or prurient interest with any minor, or other individual the person believes to be a minor, by use of any technology. For purposes of this subsection, "by use of any technology" means the use of any telephone or cell phone, computer disk (CD), digital video disk (DVD), recording or sound device, CD-ROM, VHS, computer, computer network or system, Internet or World Wide Web address including any blog site or personal web address, e-mail address, Internet Protocol address (IP), text messaging or paging device, any video, audio, photographic or camera device of any computer, computer network or system, cell phone, any other electrical, electronic, computer or mechanical device, or any other device capable of any transmission of any written or text message, audio or sound message, photographic, video, movie, digital or computer-generated image, or any other communication of any kind by use of an electronic device.

B. A person is guilty of violating the provisions of this section if the person knowingly transmits any prohibited communication by use of any technology defined herein, or knowingly prints, publishes or reproduces by use of any technology described herein any prohibited communication, or knowingly buys, sells, receives, exchanges, or disseminates any prohibited communication or any information, notice, statement, website, or advertisement for communication with a minor or access to any name, telephone number, cell phone number, e-mail address, Internet address, text message address, place of residence, physical characteristics or other descriptive or identifying information of a minor, or other individual the person believes to be a minor.

C. The fact that an undercover operative or law enforcement officer was involved in the detection and investigation of an offense pursuant to this section shall not constitute a defense to a prosecution under this section.

D. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. For purposes of this section, each communication shall constitute a separate offense. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

E. For purposes of any criminal prosecution pursuant to any violation of this section, the person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be within the jurisdiction of Cherokee Nation by the fact of accessing any computer, cellular phone or other computer-related or satellite-operated device in Cherokee Nation, regardless of the actual jurisdiction where the violator resides.

§ 1040.14. Action for adjudication of obscenity or child pornographic content of mailable matter

A. Whenever the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that any person, with knowledge of its contents, is (1) engaged in sending or causing to be sent, bringing or causing to be brought, into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercial distribution, or is (2) in Cherokee Nation preparing, selling, exhibiting or commercially distributing or giving away, or offering to give away, or has in his possession with intent to sell, or commercially distribute or to exhibit or give away or offer to give away, any obscene material or child pornography, the Attorney General may institute an action in the District Court for an adjudication of the obscenity or child pornographic content of the mailable matter.

B. The procedure to be followed shall be that set forth in this act.

§ 1040.15. Petition

The action described in 21 CNCA § 1040.14 shall be commenced by filing with the Court a petition:

1. directed against the matter by name or description;
2. alleging it is obscene material or child pornography;
3. listing the names and addresses, if known, of its author, publisher and any other person sending or causing it to be sent, bringing or causing it to be brought into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercial distribution and of any person in Cherokee Nation preparing, selling, exhibiting or commercially distributing it, or giving away or offering to give it away, or possessing it with intent to sell or commercially distribute or exhibit or give away or offer to give it away;
4. seeking an adjudication that it is either obscene material or child pornography, as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1;
5. seeking a permanent injunction against any person sending or causing it to be sent, bringing or causing it to be brought, into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercial distribution, or in the Nation preparing, selling, exhibiting or commercially distributing it, giving away or offering to give it away, or possessing it with intent to sell or commercially distribute or exhibit or give away or offer to give it away;
6. seeking its surrender, seizure and destruction.

§ 1040.16. Summary examination of material—Dismissal or show cause order

- A. Upon the filing of the petition described in 21 CNCA § 1040.15, the Court shall summarily examine the obscene material or child pornography.
- B. If the Court finds no probable cause to believe it is obscene material or child pornography, the Court shall dismiss the petition.
- C. If the Court finds probable cause to believe it is obscene material or child pornography, the Court shall immediately issue an order or rule to show cause why it should not be adjudicated to be obscene material or child pornography.
- D. The order or rule to show cause shall be:
 1. directed against it by name or description;
 2. if their names and addresses are known, served personally in the manner provided in this act for the service of process or in any manner now or hereafter provided by law, upon its author, publisher, and any other person interested in sending or causing it to be sent, bringing or causing it to be brought, into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercial distribution, and on any person in the Nation preparing, selling, exhibiting or commercially distributing it or giving away or offering to give it away, or possessing it with intent to sell or commercially distribute or exhibit or give away or offer to give it away;

3. returnable six (6) days after its service.

§ 1040.17. Answer

A. On or before the return date specified in the order or rule to show cause, the author, publisher, or any person interested in sending or causing to be sent, bringing or causing to be brought, into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercial distribution, or any person in Cherokee Nation preparing, selling, exhibiting or commercially distributing, or giving away or offering to give away, or possessing with intent to sell or commercially distribute or exhibit or give away or offer to give away, the matter may appear and file an answer.

B. The Court may, by order, permit any other person to appear and file an answer as amicus curiae. A person granted permission and appearing and filing an answer has all the rights of a party to the proceeding.

C. If no person appears and files an answer on or before the return date specified in the order or rule to show cause, the Court shall enter judgment either:

1. adjudicating the matter not to be obscene material or child pornography, if the Court so finds; or
2. adjudicating it to be obscene material or child pornography, if the Court so finds.

D. Every person appearing and answering shall be entitled, upon request, to a trial of the issues before the Court not less than three (3) days after a joinder of the issues.

§ 1040.18. Trial—Evidence

A. The Court shall conduct the trial in accordance with the rules of civil procedure applicable to the trial of cases by the Court without a jury.

B. The Court shall receive evidence at the trial, including the testimony of experts, pertaining, but not limited, to:

1. whether, to the average person, applying contemporary community standards, the dominant theme of the mailable matter taken as a whole is to prurient interest;
2. the artistic, literary, scientific and educational merits of the mailable matter considered as a whole;
3. the intent of the author and publisher in preparing, writing and publishing the mailable matter;

4. the appeal to prurient interest, or absence thereof, in advertising or other promotion of the mailable matter.

§ 1040.19. Destruction—Injunction

In the event that a judgment is entered adjudicating the matter to be obscene material or child pornography, the Court shall further:

1. order the person or persons having possession of it to surrender it to the Marshal Service for destruction and, in the event that person refuses, order the Marshal to seize and destroy it after all appeals are final;
2. enter a permanent injunction against any person sending or causing it to be sent, bringing or causing it to be brought, into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercial distribution, and against any person in Cherokee Nation preparing, selling, exhibiting or commercially distributing it, giving it away or offering to give it away, or having it in his possession with intent to sell or commercially distribute or exhibit or give it away or offer to give it away.

§ 1040.20. Sending or selling of materials with knowledge of judgment

Any matter which, following the entry of a judgment that it is obscene material or child pornography, is sent or caused to be sent, brought or caused to be brought, into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercially distributed, given away or offered to be given away, by any person with knowledge of the judgment, or is in the possession of any such person with intent to sell or commercially distribute or exhibit or give away or offer to give away, is subject to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1040.13.

§ 1040.21. Contempt

After the entry of a judgment that the matter is obscene material or child pornography, any person who, with knowledge of the judgment or of the order or rule to show cause, sends or causes to be sent, brings or causes to be brought, into Cherokee Nation for sale or commercial distribution, the matter, or who in Cherokee Nation sells, exhibits or commercially distributes it, gives away or offers to give it away, or has it in his possession with intent to sell or commercially distribute or exhibit or give away or offer to give it away, shall be guilty of contempt of court and upon conviction after notice and hearing shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

§ 1040.22. Extradition

In all cases in which a charge or violation of any section or sections of this act is brought against a person who cannot be found in Cherokee Nation, the Principal Chief may demand extradition of such person from the executive authority of the state or tribal jurisdiction in which such person may be found.

§ 1040.23. Presumptions

The possession of two or more of any single article that is obscene material or child pornography, or the possession of a combined total of any five articles that are obscene material or child pornography (except the possession of them for the purpose of return to the person from whom received) shall create a presumption that they are intended for sale or commercial distribution, exhibition or gift, but such presumption shall be rebuttable. The burden of proof that their possession is for the purpose of return to the person from whom received shall be on the possessor.

§ 1040.24. Jurisdiction—Service of process—Fines—Execution against property

In order to protect the citizens and residents of Cherokee Nation against unfit articles and printed or written matter or material which originates outside Cherokee Nation, it is the purpose of this section to subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Cherokee Nation those persons who are responsible for the importation of those things into Cherokee Nation.

To that end and in the exercise of its power and right to protect its citizens and residents, it is hereby provided that any person, whether or not a citizen or resident of Cherokee Nation, who sends or causes to be sent into Cherokee Nation for resale in Cherokee Nation any article or printed matter or material, is for the purpose of this act transacting business in the Nation and by that act:

1. submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Cherokee Nation in any proceeding commenced under 21 CNCA § 1014;
2. constitutes the Secretary of State his agent for service of process in any proceeding commenced under 21 CNCA § 1014; and consents that service of process shall be made by serving a copy upon the Secretary of State or by filing a copy in the Secretary of State's office, and that this service shall be sufficient service provided that, within one (1) day after service, notice of the service and a copy of the process are sent by registered mail by the Attorney General to him at his last-known address and proof of such mailing filed with the clerk of the court within one (1) day after mailing;
3. consents that any fine levied against him under any section of this act may be executed against any of his real property, personal property, tangible or intangible, choses in action or property of any kind or nature, including debts owing to him, which are situated or found in Cherokee Nation.

Service of process upon any person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Cherokee Nation, as provided in this section, may also be made by personally serving the summons upon him outside Cherokee Nation with the same force and effect as though summons had been personally served within Cherokee Nation. The service of summons shall be made in like manner as service within Cherokee Nation, by any person over twenty-one (21) years of age not a party to the action. No order of court is required. An affidavit of the server shall be filed stating the time, manner and place of service. The Court may consider the affidavit, or any other competent proofs, in determining whether service has been properly made.

§ 1040.51. Repealed by LA 20–08, eff. January 12, 2009

§ 1040.52. Showing at outdoor theaters of pictures depicting sexual intercourse prohibited under certain conditions—Penalty

A. Every owner or operator of an outdoor theater in Cherokee Nation is guilty of a crime who shows or causes to be shown a motion picture depicting:

1. Any person, whether nude or clad, in an act or simulation of an act of sexual intercourse, unnatural copulation or other sexual activity including the showing of human genitals in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal, acts of human masturbation, or fondling or other erotic touching of human genitals, pubic region, buttock or female breast; or

2. Nude or partially denuded figures including less than completely and opaquely covered human genitals, pubic regions, buttock and female breast below a point immediately above the top of the areola and including human male genitals in a discernably turgid state, even if completely and opaquely covered.

B. This section shall be applicable, however, only where the viewing portion of the screen of such theater is situated within the view of any residence or where children under eighteen (18) years of age have an understanding view of the picture.

C. Any prosecution under this section must be preceded by a written complaint from a resident affected by the terms of this section.

D. Upon conviction of a violation of this section such person shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

§ 1040.53. Projectionists, ushers or cashiers excepted from statutes relating to exhibition of obscene motion pictures

The provisions of statutes of Cherokee Nation prescribing a criminal penalty for exhibit of any obscene motion picture shown in a commercial theater open to the general public shall not apply to a projectionist or assistant projectionist, usher or cashier, provided he has no financial interest in the show or in its place of presentation other than regular employment as a projectionist or assistant projectionist, usher or cashier. Provided further, that such person is not acting as manager or director of such theater. The provisions of this act shall not exempt any projectionist or assistant projectionist, usher or cashier from criminal liability for any act unrelated to projection of motion pictures in a commercial theater open to the general public.

§ 1040.54. Seizure and forfeiture of equipment used in certain offenses relating to obscene material or child pornography

A. Any peace officer of Cherokee Nation is authorized to seize any equipment which is used, or intended for use in the preparing, photographing, printing, selling, exhibiting, publishing, distributing, displaying, advertising, filming, copying, recording, or mailing of obscene material, as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1(B)(1) or child pornography, as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1(A). Said equipment may be held as evidence until a forfeiture has been declared or a release ordered. Forfeiture actions under this section may be brought by the Attorney General as petitioner; provided, in the event the Attorney General elects not to file such an action, or fails to file such action within ninety (90) days of the date of the seizure of such equipment, a forfeiture action may be brought by the entity seizing such equipment as petitioner.

B. Notice of seizure and intended forfeiture proceeding shall be given all owners and parties in interest by the party seeking forfeiture as follows:

1. Upon each owner or party in interest whose name and address is known, by mailing a copy of the notice by registered mail to the last-known address; and

2. Upon all other owners or parties in interest, whose addresses are unknown, by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the seizure was made.

C. Within sixty (60) days after the mailing or publication of the notice, the owner of the equipment and any other party in interest may file a verified answer and claim to the equipment described in the notice of seizure and of the intended forfeiture proceeding.

D. If at the end of sixty (60) days after the notice has been mailed or published there is no verified answer on file, the Court shall hear evidence upon the fact of the unlawful use and may order the equipment forfeited to the Nation, if such fact is proven.

E. If a verified answer is filed, the forfeiture proceeding shall be set for hearing.

F. At the hearing the party seeking the forfeiture shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that the equipment was used in the preparing, photographing, printing, selling, exhibiting, publishing, distributing, displaying, advertising, filming, copying, recording, or mailing of obscene material, as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1(B)(1) or child pornography, as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1(A), with knowledge by the owner of the equipment.

G. The owner or party in interest may prove that the right or interest in the equipment was created without any knowledge or reason to believe that the equipment was being, or was to be, used for the purpose charged.

H. In the event of such proof, the court may order the equipment released to the bona fide or innocent owner or party in interest if the amount due the person is equal to, or in excess of, the value of the equipment as of the date of the seizure.

I. If the amount due to such person is less than the value of the equipment, or if no bona fide claim is established, the equipment shall be forfeited to Cherokee Nation and shall be sold pursuant to the judgment of the Court.

J. Equipment taken or detained pursuant to this section shall not be repleviable, but shall be deemed to be in the custody of the office of the Attorney General or in the custody of the party seeking the forfeiture. The Attorney General or the party seeking the equipment may release said equipment to the owner of the equipment if it is determined that the owner had no knowledge of the illegal use of the equipment or if there is insufficient evidence to sustain the burden of showing illegal use of the equipment. Equipment which has not been released by the Attorney General or the party seizing the equipment shall be subject to the orders and decrees of the District Court or the official having jurisdiction thereof.

K. The Attorney General or the party seizing such equipment shall not be held civilly liable for having custody of the seized equipment or proceeding with a forfeiture action as provided for in this section.

L. The proceeds of the sale of any equipment not taken or detained by the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service or the Office of the Attorney General shall be distributed as follows, in the order indicated:

1. To the bona fide or innocent purchaser or conditional sales vendor of the equipment, if any, up to the amount of the person's interest in the equipment, when the Court declaring the forfeiture orders a distribution to such person;
2. To the payment of the actual expenses of preserving the equipment; and
3. The balance to the Marshal Service. Monies from said fund may be used to pay costs for the storage of such equipment if such equipment is ordered released to a bona fide or innocent owner, purchaser, or conditional sales vendor and if such monies are available in said fund.

M. When any equipment is forfeited pursuant to this section, the District Court may order that the equipment seized may be retained by the Marshal Service for its official use.

N. If the Court finds the equipment was not used in the preparing, photographing, printing, selling, exhibiting, publishing, distributing, displaying, advertising, filming, copying, recording, or mailing of obscene material, as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1(B)(1) or child pornography as defined in 21 CNCA § 1024.1(A), the Court shall order the equipment released to the owner.

O. No equipment shall be forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without the knowledge or consent of such owner, or by any person other than such owner while such equipment was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the owner in violation of the criminal laws of the United States or of any state.

§ 1040.75. Definitions

As used in 21 CNCA §§ 1040.75 through 1040.77:

1. "CD-ROM" means a compact disk with read only memory which has the capacity to store audio, video and written materials and may be used by computer to play or display materials harmful to minors.

2. "Harmful to minors" means:

a. that quality of any description, exhibition, presentation or representation, in whatever form, of nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse when the material or performance, taken as a whole, has the following characteristics:

i. the average person eighteen (18) years of age or older applying contemporary community standards would find that the material or performance has a predominant tendency to appeal to a prurient interest in sex to minors; and

ii. the average person eighteen (18) years of age or older applying contemporary community standards would find that the material or performance depicts or describes nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement or sadomasochistic abuse in a manner that is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community with respect to what is suitable for minors; and

iii. the material or performance lacks serious literary, scientific, medical, artistic, or political value for minors; or

b. any description, exhibition, presentation or representation, in whatever form, of inappropriate violence.

3. "Inappropriate violence" means any description or representation, in an interactive video game or computer software, of violence which, taken as a whole, has the following characteristics:

a. the average person eighteen (18) years of age or older applying contemporary community standards would find that the interactive video game or computer software is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community with respect to what is suitable for minors; and

b. the interactive video game or computer software lacks serious literary, scientific, medical, artistic, or political value for minors based on, but not limited to, the following criteria:

i. is glamorized or gratuitous;

ii. is graphic violence used to shock or stimulate;

iii. is graphic violence that is not contextually relevant to the material;

iv. is so pervasive that it serves as the thread holding the plot of the material together;

v. trivializes the serious nature of realistic violence;

vi. does not demonstrate the consequences or effects of realistic violence;

vii. uses brutal weapons designed to inflict the maximum amount of pain and damage;

viii. endorses or glorifies torture or excessive weaponry; or

ix. depicts lead characters who resort to violence freely.

4. "Knowingly" means having general knowledge of, or reason to know, or a belief or ground for belief which warrants further inspection or inquiry of both:

a. the character and content of any material or performance which is reasonably susceptible of examination by the defendant; and

b. the age of the minor. However, an honest mistake, shall constitute an excuse from liability pursuant to 21 CNCA §§ 1040.75 through 1040.77 if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such minor.

5. "Magnetic disk memory" means a memory system that stores and retrieves binary data on record-like metal or plastic disks coated with a magnetic material, including but not limited to floppy diskettes.

6. "Magnetic tape memory" means a memory system that stores and retrieves binary data on magnetic recording tape.

7. "Material" means any book, magazine, newspaper, pamphlet, poster, print, picture, figure, image, description, motion picture film, record, recording tape, CD-ROM disk, magnetic disk memory, magnetic tape memory, downloadable media including but not limited to podcasts, video tape, computer software or video games.

8. "Minor" means any unmarried person under the age of eighteen (18) years.

9. "Nudity" means the:

a. showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic area, or buttocks with less than a full opaque covering;

b. showing of the female breast with less than a full opaque covering of any portion of the female breast below the top of the nipple; or

c. depiction of covered male genitals in a discernibly turgid state.

10. "Performance" means any motion picture, film, video tape, played record, phonograph or tape, preview, trailer, play, show, skit, dance, or other exhibition performed or presented to or before an audience of one or more, with or without consideration.

11. "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity of any kind.

12. "Reasonable bona fide attempt" means an attempt to ascertain the true age of the minor by requiring production of a driver license, marriage license, birth certificate or other governmental or educational identification card or paper and not relying solely on the oral allegations or apparent age of the minor.

13. "Sodomasochistic abuse" means flagellation or torture by or upon a person clothed or naked or the condition of being fettered, bound or otherwise physically restrained on the part of one so clothed or naked.

14. "Sexual conduct" means acts of masturbation, homosexuality, sexual intercourse, or physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or, if such person be a female, breast.

15. "Sexual excitement" means the condition of human male or female genitals when in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal.

§ 1040.76. Material or performances harmful to minors—Prohibited acts

No person, including but not limited to any persons having custody, control or supervision of any commercial establishment, shall knowingly:

1. Display material which is harmful to minors in such a way that minors, as a part of the invited general public, will be exposed to view such material. Provided, however, a person shall be deemed not to have "displayed" material harmful to minors if the material is kept behind devices commonly known as "blinder racks" so that the lower two-thirds (2/3) of the material is not exposed to view;

2. Sell, furnish, present, distribute, allow to view, or otherwise disseminate to a minor, with or without consideration, any material which is harmful to minors; or

3. Present to a minor or participate in presenting to a minor, with or without consideration, any performance which is harmful to a minor.

§ 1040.77. Violations—Penalties

Any person convicted of violating any provision of 21 CNCA § 1040.76 shall be fined a sum not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the first or second offense. Any person convicted of a third or subsequent violation of any provision of 21 CNCA § 1040.76 shall be fined a sum not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00). Each day that any violation of 21 CNCA § 1040.76 occurs or continues shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as a separate violation. Every act or transaction prohibited by 21 CNCA § 1040.76 shall constitute a separate offense as to each item, issue or title involved and shall be punishable as such. For the purpose of this section, multiple copies of the same identical title, monthly issue, volume and number issue or other such identical material as prohibited by 21 CNCA § 1040.76 shall constitute a single offense.

CHAPTER 40

JUNK DEALERS

§ 1048. Storage or accumulation of wrecked or abandoned motor vehicle or part thereof within view of preexisting residence

No person, firm, partnership or corporation shall with malice or without valid business purpose store, accumulate, allow to accumulate, or allow to remain stored or accumulated after receipt of notice as is hereinafter provided, any wrecked or abandoned motor vehicle, or any recyclable or nonrecyclable hulk or part of a motor vehicle within view of any preexisting residence situated outside the territorial limits of any incorporated municipality. Any homeowner aggrieved by any violation of this section may order the removal of any motor vehicle, hulk or part stored in violation hereof upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the owner of the land where such motor vehicle, hulk or part is stored. Upon the failure of the offending party to comply with said order, the aggrieved party may obtain injunctive and mandamus relief for the removal of matter so stored or accumulated from the district court of the county where the residence is situated and, further; shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and other reasonable expenses of bringing suit.

CHAPTER 42

PANDERING

§ 1081. Offense defined—Punishment

Any person who shall procure an inmate for a house of prostitution, or who, by promise, threats, violence or by any device or scheme shall cause, induce, persuade or encourage a person to become an inmate of a house of prostitution; or shall procure a place as inmate in a house of prostitution for a person; or who shall, by promise, threats, violence, or by any device or scheme cause, induce, persuade or encourage an inmate of a house of prostitution to remain therein as such inmate; or who shall, by fraud, or artifice, or by duress of person or goods, or by abuse of any position of confidence or authority procure any person to become an inmate of a house of ill-fame, or to enter any place in which prostitution is encouraged or allowed within this Nation, or to come into this Nation or leave this Nation for the purpose of prostitution, or who shall procure any person, who has not previously practiced prostitution to become an inmate of a house of ill-fame within this Nation, or to come into this nation or leave this nation for the purpose of prostitution; or shall receive or give or agree to receive or give any money or thing of value for procuring or attempting to procure any person to become an inmate of a house of ill-fame within this Nation, or to come into this Nation or leave this Nation for the purpose of prostitution, shall be guilty of pandering, and upon conviction for any offense under this chapter shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1082. Part of offense outside of Nation no defense

It shall not be a defense to a prosecution for any of the acts prohibited in the foregoing section that any part of such act or acts shall have been committed outside this Nation.

§ 1083. Injured party as witness

Any such person, referred to in the foregoing sections, shall be a competent witness in any prosecution under this chapter, to testify for or against the accused as to any transaction or as to any conversation with the accused or by him with another person or persons in her presence, notwithstanding the fact of her having married the accused before or after the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, whether called as a witness during the existence of the marriage or after its dissolution.

§ 1084. Marriage no defense

The act or state of marriage shall not be a defense to any violation of this chapter.

§ 1085. Restraining person in house of prostitution a crime

Whoever shall by any means keep, hold, detain, or restrain against their will, any person in a house of prostitution or other place where prostitution is practiced or allowed; or whoever shall, directly or indirectly keep, hold, detain or restrain or attempt to keep, hold, detain or restrain, in any house of prostitution or other place where prostitution is practiced or allowed, any person by any means for the purpose of compelling such person, directly or indirectly to pay, liquidate or cancel any debt, dues or obligations incurred or said to have been incurred by such person, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1086. Allowing offense on premises—Punishment

Any owner, proprietor, keeper, manager, conductor, or other person, who knowingly permits or suffers the violation of any provision of this article, in any house, building, room, tent, lot or premises under his control or of which he has possession shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1087. Offering or transporting child for purpose of prostitution—Penalty

A. No person shall:

1. Offer, or offer to secure, a child under eighteen (18) years of age for the purpose of prostitution, or for any other lewd or indecent act, or procure or offer to procure a child for, or a place for a child as an inmate in, a house of prostitution or other place where prostitution is practiced;
2. Receive or offer or agree to receive any child under eighteen (18) years of age into any house, place, building, other structure, vehicle, trailer, or other conveyance for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, or to permit any person to remain there for such purpose; or

3. Direct, take, or transport, or offer or agree to take or transport, or aid or assist in transporting, any child under eighteen (18) years of age to any house, place, building, other structure, vehicle, trailer, or other conveyance, or to any other person with knowledge or having reasonable cause to believe that the purpose of such directing, taking, or transporting is prostitution, lewdness, or assignation;

B. 1. Any person violating the provisions of subsection (A) of this section shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

2. Any owner, proprietor, keeper, manager, conductor, or other person who knowingly permits any violation of this section in any house, building, room, or other premises or any conveyances under his control or of which he has possession shall, upon conviction for the first offense, be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. Upon conviction for a subsequent offense pursuant to this subsection such person shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

C. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 1088. Child under eighteen years of age—Inducing, keeping, detaining or restraining for prostitution—Punishment

A. No person shall:

1. By promise, threats, violence, or by any device or scheme, including but not limited to the use of any controlled dangerous substance prohibited pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq., cause, induce, persuade, or encourage a child under eighteen (18) years of age to engage or continue to engage in prostitution or to become or remain an inmate of a house of prostitution or other place where prostitution is practiced;

2. Keep, hold, detain, restrain, or compel against his or her will, any child under eighteen (18) years of age to engage in the practice of prostitution or in a house of prostitution or other place where prostitution is practiced or allowed;

3. Directly or indirectly keep, hold, detain, restrain, or compel or attempt to keep, hold, detain, restrain, or compel a child under eighteen (18) years of age to engage in the practice of prostitution or in a house of prostitution or any place where prostitution is practiced or allowed for the purpose of compelling such child to directly or indirectly pay, liquidate, or cancel any debt, dues, or obligations incurred, or said to have been incurred by such child.

B. 1. Any person violating the provisions of this section, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

2. Any owner, proprietor, keeper, manager, conductor, or other person who knowingly permits a violation of this section in any house, building, room, tent, lot or premises under his control or of which he has possession, upon conviction for the offense, shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

C. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

CHAPTER 45

RAPE, ABDUCTION, CARNAL ABUSE OF CHILDREN AND SEDUCTION

§ 1111. Rape defined

A. A person commits the offense of rape if the person intentionally or knowingly:

1. causes the penetration of the anus or sexual organ of another person by any means, without that person's consent;

2. causes the penetration of the mouth of another person by the sexual organ of the actor, without that person's consent; or

3. causes the sexual organ of another person, without that person's consent, to contact or penetrate the mouth, anus, or sexual organ of another person, including the actor; or

4. causes the anus of another person, without that person's consent, to contact the mouth, anus, or sexual organ of another person, including the actor; or

5. causes the mouth of another person, without that person's consent, to contact the anus or sexual organ of another person, including the actor; or

6. engages in any of the activities listed in paragraphs 1 through 5 of this subsection with an animal.

B. A rape under subsection (A) of this section is without the consent of the other person:

1. Where the victim is under the age of fourteen (14) years of age; or

2. The victim is age fourteen (14) or older but has not yet attained the age of sixteen (16), except when:

- a. the victim otherwise consents; and
 - b. the accused is not required to register as a sex offender; and
 - c. the accused is less than nineteen (19) years of age or the accused is married to the victim; or
3. Where the actor knows that as a result of mental disease or defect, whether temporary or permanent, the other person is at the time of the act incapable either of appraising the nature of the act or of resisting it; or
 4. Where force or violence is used accompanied by apparent power of execution to the victim or to another person; or
 5. Where the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by threatening to use force or violence against the other person, and the other person believes that the actor has the present ability to execute the threat; or
 6. Where the actor, or someone in privity with the actor, has intentionally impaired the other person's power to appraise or control the other person's conduct by administering any substance without the other person's knowledge; or
 7. Where the other person has not consented and the actor knows the other person is unconscious or physically unable to resist; or
 8. Where the other person has not consented and the actor knows the other person is unaware that the rape is occurring; or
 9. Where the victim submits to sexual intercourse under the belief that the person committing the act is a spouse, and this belief is induced by artifice, pretense, or concealment practiced by the accused or by the accused in collusion with the spouse with intent to induce such belief. In all cases of collusion between the accused and the spouse to accomplish such act, both the spouse and the accused, upon conviction, shall be deemed guilty of rape; or
 10. Where the victim is under the legal custody or supervision of a Cherokee Nation, other tribal, state, municipal, other governmental subdivision, or federal agency and engages in sexual intercourse with a Cherokee Nation, other tribal, state, municipal, other governmental subdivision, or federal employee or official in the belief that such intercourse or activity will influence the professional responsibility of the employee or if not submitted to will result in detrimental condition for the victim; or
 11. Where the victim is a student, or under the legal custody, supervision, or authority of any public or private elementary or secondary school, junior high or high school, or public vocational school, or any Cherokee Nation agency and engages in sexual intercourse with a person who is an employee or official of the same school system or Cherokee Nation agency or otherwise exercises power as an official over the school system or Cherokee Nation agency regardless of the ages of the victim and the accused; or

12. Where the actor is a public servant who coerces the other person to submit or participate; or

13. Where the actor is a mental health services provider or a health care services provider who causes the other person, who is a patient or former patient of the actor, to submit or participate by exploiting the other person's emotional dependency on the actor; or

14. Where the actor is a clergyman, or purports to be a clergyman, who causes the other person to submit or participate by exploiting the other person's emotional dependency on the clergyman in the clergyman's professional character as spiritual adviser; or

15. Where the actor is an employee of a facility where the other person is a resident, unless the employee and resident are formally or informally married to each other.

C. For purposes of this section:

1. "Health care services provider" means:

a. a physician licensed by any government;

b. a chiropractor licensed by any government;

c. a physical therapist licensed by any government;

d. a physician assistant licensed by any government; or

e. a licensed practical nurse, a registered nurse, a vocational nurse, or an advanced practice nurse licensed by any government.

2. "Mental health services provider" means an individual, licensed or unlicensed, who performs or purports to perform mental health services, including:

a. a social worker;

b. a chemical dependency counselor;

c. any counselor;

d. any marriage and family therapist;

e. a member of the clergy; or

f. a psychologist or psychiatrist offering psychological services.

D. It is a defense to prosecution under subsection (A) of this section that the conduct consisted of medical care for a child under eighteen (18) years of age and did not include any contact between the anus or sexual organ of the child and the mouth, anus, or sexual organ of the actor or a third party.

E. Any person convicted of committing rape is guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment. Any person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this section shall not be eligible for any form of probation.

F. All references in current statutes to rape in either the first or second degree are hereby deemed references to the crime of rape.

§§ 1111.1, 1112. Repealed by LA 20–08, eff. January 12, 2009

§ 1113. Slight penetration sufficient to complete crime

Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete the crime of rape.

§§ 1114, 1115. Repealed by LA 20–08, eff. January 12, 2009

§ 1116. Punishment for rape in second degree

Rape in the second degree is a crime.

§ 1117. Compelling woman to marry

Every person who takes any woman against her will, and by force, menace or duress, compels her to marry him or to marry any other person, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1118. Intent to compel woman to marry

Every person who takes any woman unlawfully against her will, with the intent to compel her by force, menace or duress to marry him, or to marry any other person, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1119. Abduction of person under eighteen

Every person who takes away or induces to leave any person under the age of eighteen (18) years, from a parent, guardian or other person having the legal charge of the person, without the consent of said parent, guardian, or other person having legal charge, for the purpose of marriage or concubinage, or any crime involving moral turpitude is guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

§ 1123. Lewd or indecent proposals or acts as to child under eighteen

A. It is a crime for any person to knowingly and intentionally:

1. make any oral, written, or electronically or computer-generated lewd or indecent proposal to any child under eighteen (18) years of age, or other individual the person believes to be a child under eighteen (18) years of age, for the child to have unlawful sexual relations or sexual intercourse with any person; or
2. look upon, touch, maul, or feel the body or private parts of any child under eighteen (18) years of age in any lewd or lascivious manner by any acts against public decency and morality, as defined by law; or
3. ask, invite, entice, or persuade any child under eighteen (18) years of age, or other individual the person believes to be a child under eighteen (18) years of age, to go alone with any person to a secluded, remote, or secret place, with the unlawful and willful intent and purpose then and there to commit any crime against public decency and morality, as defined by law, with the child; or
4. in any manner lewdly or lasciviously look upon, touch, maul, or feel the body or private parts of any child under eighteen (18) years of age in any indecent manner or in any manner relating to sexual matters or sexual interest; or
5. in a lewd or lascivious manner and for the purposes of sexual gratification:
 - a. urinate or defecate upon a child under eighteen (18) years of age;
 - b. ejaculate upon or in the presence of a child under eighteen (18) years of age;
 - c. cause, expose, force or require a child under eighteen (18) years of age to look upon the body or private parts of another person;
 - d. force or require any child under eighteen (18) years of age or other individual the person believes to be a child under eighteen (18) years of age to view any obscene materials, child pornography or materials deemed harmful to minors as such terms are defined by 21 CNCA § 1024.1 and 21 CNCA § 1040.75;
 - e. cause, expose, force or require a child under eighteen (18) years of age or other individual the person believes to be a child under eighteen (18) years of age to look upon sexual acts performed in the presence of the child; or
 - f. force or require a child under eighteen (18) years of age or other individual the person believes to be a child under eighteen (18) years of age to touch or feel the body or private parts of said child or another person, upon conviction, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

B. The provisions of this section shall apply:

1. Where the victim is under the age of fourteen (14) years of age; or
 2. Where the victim is age fourteen (14) or older but has not yet attained the age of sixteen (16), except when:
 - a. the victim otherwise consents; and
 - b. the accused is not required to register as a sex offender; and
 - c. the accused is less than nineteen (19) years of age or the accused is married to the victim; or
 3. To any person without the victim's consent when the victim is between age sixteen (16) and eighteen (18) years.
- C. Any person convicted of violating this section is guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment. Any person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this section shall not be eligible for any form of probation.
- D. The fact that an undercover operative or law enforcement officer was involved in the detection and investigation of an offense pursuant to this section shall not constitute a defense to a prosecution under this section.

§ 1123.1. Sexual battery

- A. No person shall commit sexual battery on any other person. "Sexual battery" shall mean the intentional touching, mauling or feeling of the body or private parts, in a lewd and lascivious manner, of:
1. a victim under the age of 14 years of age; or
 2. a victim age 14 or older but who has not yet attained the age of 16, except when:
 - a. the victim otherwise consents, and
 - b. the accused is not required to register as a sex offender, and
 - c. the accused is less than 19 years of age or the accused is married to the victim; or
 3. any person without the victim's consent when the victim is over age sixteen (16) years, or
 4. any person who is a student, or under the legal custody, supervision, or authority of any public or private elementary or secondary school, junior high or high school, or public vocational school, or any Cherokee Nation agency and the accused is a person who is an employee or official of the same school system or Cherokee Nation agency or otherwise exercises power as an official over the school system or Cherokee Nation agency regardless of the ages of the victim and the accused.

B. Any person convicted of violating this section is guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment. Any person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this section shall not be eligible for any form of probation.

C. The fact that an undercover operative or law enforcement officer was involved in the detection and investigation of an offense pursuant to this section shall not constitute a defense to a prosecution under this section.

§ 1124. Using computer networks to violate Cherokee Nation statutes

No person shall communicate with, store data in, or retrieve data from a computer system or computer network for the purpose of using such access to violate any of the provisions of Cherokee Nation statutes. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10.

§ 1125. Zone of safety

A. A zone of safety is hereby created around elementary, junior high, and high schools, licensed child care centers, playgrounds, and parks. A person is prohibited from loitering within three hundred (300) feet of any elementary, junior high, or high school, licensed child care facility, playground, or park if the person has been convicted of a crime that requires the person to register pursuant to the Sex Offenders Registration and Notification Act, 57 CNCA § 1 et seq., or the person has been convicted of an offense in another jurisdiction, which offense if committed or attempted in Cherokee Nation, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses listed in 57 CNCA § 4 and the victim was a child under the age of thirteen (13) years.

B. A person convicted of a violation of subsection (A) of this section shall be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10. This proscription of conduct shall not modify or remove any restrictions currently applicable to the person by court order, conditions of probation or as provided by other provision of law.

C. 1. A person shall be exempt from the prohibition of this section regarding a school or a licensed child care facility only under the following circumstances:

a. the person is the custodial parent or legal guardian of a child who is an enrolled student at the school or child care facility; and

b. the person is enrolling, delivering or retrieving such child at the school or child care facility during regular school or facility hours.

2. This exception shall not be construed to modify or remove any restrictions applicable to the person by court order, conditions of probation, or as provided by other provision of law.

D. The provisions of subsection (A) of this section shall not apply to any person receiving treatment at a hospital or other facility certified or licensed by any government to provide medical services.

E. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a person, who is registered as a sex offender pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, from attending a recognized church or religious denomination for worship; provided, the person has notified the religious leader of his or her status as a registered sex offender and the person has been granted written permission by the religious leader.

CHAPTER 46

DOMESTIC ABUSE

§ 1130. Domestic abuse assault and battery—Definition

Any person who commits any assault and battery against a current or former spouse, a present spouse of a former spouse, parents, a foster parent, a child, a person otherwise related by blood or marriage, a person with whom the defendant is in a dating relationship, an individual with whom the defendant has had a child, a person who formerly lived in the same household as the defendant, or a person living in the same household as the defendant shall be guilty of the crime of domestic abuse assault and battery.

§ 1131. Domestic abuse assault and battery—Punishment

A. Domestic abuse assault and battery shall be punishable by imprisonment in a penal institution not exceeding one (1) year, or by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or both, at the discretion of the Court.

B. Any person convicted of domestic abuse as defined in this provision, that was committed in the presence of a child shall be punished by imprisonment in a penal institution not less than six (6) months nor more than one (1) year, or by a fine not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

C. Any person who is convicted of a second or subsequent domestic violence assault and battery offense shall be punished by imprisonment in a penal institution not exceeding three years, or by fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00), or both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court.

D. For every conviction of domestic abuse, the Court shall:

1. specifically order as a condition of a deferred or suspended sentence or probation that a defendant participate in batterer's treatment; or
2. require the defendant to participate in counseling or undergo treatment for domestic abuse by an individual licensed practitioner or a domestic abuse-counseling program approved by the Court. If the defendant is ordered to participate in a domestic abuse counseling or treatment program, the order shall require the defendant to attend and complete the program and be evaluated before and after attendance of the program by a program counselor or a private counselor.

E. A program for anger management, couples counseling, or family and marital counseling shall not solely qualify for the counseling or treatment requirement for domestic abuse pursuant to this section. The counseling may be ordered in addition to counseling specifically for the treatment of domestic abuse or per evaluation as set forth below. If, after sufficient evaluation and attendance at required counseling sessions, the domestic violence treatment program or licensed professional determines that the defendant (whether or not defendant evaluates as a perpetrator of domestic violence) should complete other programs of treatment simultaneously or prior to domestic violence treatment, including but not limited to programs related to the mental health, apparent substance or alcohol abuse or inability or refusal to manage anger, the defendant shall be ordered to complete the counseling as per the recommendations of the domestic violence treatment program or licensed professional.

F. The Court shall set review hearings within one hundred twenty (120) days to ensure that the defendant attends and fully complies with the provisions of this section and the domestic abuse counseling or treatment requirements. The defendant shall be required to be present at the review hearing. Defendant may be required to pay all or part of the cost of the counseling or treatment, in the discretion of the Court. The victim may attend but is not required to do so.

G. The Court shall set a final review hearing after the completion of the counseling or treatment to assure the attendance and compliance of the defendant with the provisions of Cherokee law. The Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the defendant during the course of ordered counseling through the final review hearing.

H. The Court may set interim review, follow-up post-completion review, or other review hearings as the Court determines necessary to assure the defendant attends and fully complies with the provisions of this section and the domestic abuse counseling or treatment requirements. After the initial review hearing referenced in subsection (F), the Court may waive Defendant's appearance at reviews or compel Defendant's attendance at reviews. The Court may review progress reports on the defendant from individual counseling, domestic abuse counseling, or the treatment program without appearances.

I. At any review hearing, if the defendant is not satisfactorily attending individual counseling or a domestic abuse counseling or treatment program or is not in compliance with any domestic abuse counseling or treatment requirements, or is not making progress in treatment, the Court may:

1. order the defendant to further or continue counseling, treatment, or other necessary services; and
2. revoke all or any part of a suspended sentence, deferred sentence, or probation; and
3. subject the defendant to any or all remaining portions of the original sentence.

J. Nothing in this provision shall prohibit the Presiding Judge of the District Court from appointing and compensating a Special Master to hear all or designated cases set for review under this section.

K. The defendant may be required to pay all or part of the cost of the counseling or treatment, in the discretion of the Court.

L. Penalty enhancement—For the purposes of this section, any former conviction in any jurisdiction for assault and battery against any current or former spouse, any present spouse of a former spouse, parents, any foster parent, any child, any person otherwise related by blood or marriage, any person with whom the defendant is in a dating relationship, any individual with whom the defendant has had a child, any person who formerly lived in the same household as the defendant, or any person living in the same household as the defendant, shall constitute a sufficient basis for an enhanced penalty under subsection (C) of this section as a second or subsequent offense.

§ 1132. Assault and battery domestic abuse by strangulation—Definition

Any person who commits any assault or assault and battery with intent to cause great bodily harm by strangulation or attempted strangulation against a current or former spouse, a present spouse of a former spouse, parent, a foster parent, child, person otherwise related by blood or marriage, a person with whom the defendant is in a dating relationship, an individual with whom the defendant has had a child, a person who formerly lived in the same household as the defendant, or a person living in the same household as the defendant, by means of a form of asphyxia characterized by closure of the blood vessels or air passages of the neck as a result of external pressure on the neck, shall be guilty of the crime of domestic abuse by strangulation.

§ 1133. Domestic abuse strangulation—Punishment

Upon conviction of domestic abuse by strangulation, defendant shall be punished by incarceration for a period of not less than one (1) year but no more than three (3) years, or by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) plus restitution, or by both such fine and incarceration. Upon a second or subsequent conviction, the defendant shall be punished by imprisonment for a period of not less than three (3) years, or by a fine of not more than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment. Provided, the prosecutor may refer such case for federal prosecution on a first offense or a second or subsequent offense.

§ 1134. Stalking

A. Definitions. For purposes of this section:

1. "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of a series of two (2) or more separate acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of "course of conduct."

2. "Emotional distress" means significant mental suffering or distress that may, but does not necessarily require, medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

3. "Harasses" means conduct directed toward a person that includes, but is not limited to, repeated or continuing unconsented contact, that would cause a reasonable person to suffer emotional distress, and that actually causes emotional distress to the victim. Harassment does not include constitutionally protected activity or conduct that serves a legitimate purpose.

4. "Member of the immediate family" means any spouse, parent, Child, person related within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity or any other person who regularly resides in the household or who has regularly resided in the household within the prior six (6) months.

5. "Unconsented contact" means any contact with another individual that is initiated or continued without the consent of the individual, or in disregard of that individual's expressed desire that the contact be avoided or discontinued. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of unconsented contact. Unconsented contact includes but is not limited to any of the following:

a. following or appearing within the sight of that individual;

b. approaching or confronting that individual in a public place or on private property;

c. appearing at the work place or residence of that individual;

d. entering onto or remaining on property owned, leased, or occupied by that individual;

e. contacting that individual by telephone;

f. sending mail or electronic communications to that individual; and

g. placing an object on, or delivering an object to, property owned, leased, or occupied by that individual.

B. Any person who willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly follows or harasses another person in a manner that:

1. would cause a reasonable person or a member of the immediate family of that person as defined in subsection (F) below to feel frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested; or

2. actually causes the person being followed or harassed to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested, upon conviction, shall be guilty of the crime of stalking which is punishable by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or both.

C. Any person who violates the above provisions when any of the following conditions exist at the time of the offense shall be guilty of a separate offense which is punishable by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three (3) years, or both:

1. there is a temporary restraining order, a protective order, emergency ex parte order or an injunction in effect prohibiting the behavior described in this section against the same party, when the person violating such provisions has actual notice of the issuance of such order or injunction;

2. said person is on probation or parole, a condition of which prohibits the behavior described in this section against the same party; or

3. said person, within ten (10) years preceding the violation of this section, completed the execution of sentence or conviction of a crime involving the use or threat of violence against the same party, or against a member of the immediate family of such party.

D. Any person who is convicted of a second act of stalking within ten (10) years of the completion of sentence for a prior conviction under this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three (3) years, or both.

E. Evidence that the defendant continued to engage in a course of conduct involving repeated unconsented contact with the victim after having been requested by the victim to discontinue the same or a different form of unconsented contact, and to refrain from any further unconsented contact with the victim, shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that the continuation of the course of conduct caused the victim to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.

CHAPTER 47

VIOLATING SEPULTURE AND THE REMAINS OF THE DEAD

HUMAN SKELETAL REMAINS AND BURIAL FURNITURE

§ 1151. Disposal of one's own body

Every person has the right to direct the manner in which his body shall be disposed of after his death, and to direct the manner in which any part of his body which becomes separated therefrom during his lifetime shall be disposed of. The provisions of this chapter do not apply where such person has given directions for the disposal of his body or any part thereof inconsistent with these provisions.

§ 1152. Duty of burial

Except in the cases in which a right to dissect a dead body is expressly conferred by law, every dead body of a human being must be decently buried within a reasonable time after the death.

§ 1153. Burial in other states

The last section does not affect the right to carry the dead body of a human being through this Nation, or to remove from this Nation the body of a person dying within it, for the purpose of burying the same in another state or territory.

§ 1154. Autopsy—Definition—When allowed

A. Autopsy means a post-mortem dissection of a dead human body in order to determine the cause, seat or nature of disease or injury and includes, but is not limited to, the retention of tissues for evidentiary, identification, diagnostic, scientific and therapeutic purposes.

B. An autopsy may be performed on the dead body of a human being in the following cases:

1st. In cases authorized by positive enactment of the Council;

2nd. Whenever the death occurs under circumstances in which the medical examiner is authorized as provided in Title 63 of the Oklahoma Statutes to conduct such autopsy;

3rd. Whenever consent is given to a licensed physician to conduct an autopsy on the body of a deceased person by whichever one of the following assumes custody of the body for purposes of burial: Father, mother, husband, wife, child, guardian, next of kin, or in the absence of any of the foregoing, a friend, or a person charged by law with the responsibility for burial. If two or more such persons assume custody of the body, the consent of one (1) of them shall be deemed sufficient.

§ 1155. Unlawful dissection a crime

Every person who makes or procures to be made any dissection of the body of a human being, except by authority of law, or in pursuance of a permission given by the deceased, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1156. Remains after dissection

In all cases in which a dissection has been made, the provisions of this chapter requiring the burial of a dead body, and punishing interference with or injuries to a dead body, apply equally to the remains of the body dissected as soon as the lawful purposes of such dissection have been accomplished.

§ 1157. Dead limb or member of body

All provisions of this chapter requiring the burial of a dead body, or punishing interference with or injuries to a dead body, apply equally to any dead limb or member of a human body, separated therefrom during lifetime.

§ 1158. Duty of burial devolves upon whom

The duty of burying the body of a deceased person devolves upon the persons hereinafter specified:

1st. If the deceased were a married woman, the duty of burial devolves upon her husband.

2nd. If the deceased were not a married woman, but left any kindred, the duty of burial devolves upon any person or persons in the same degree nearest of kin to the deceased, being of adult age, and possessed of sufficient means to defray the necessary expenses.

3rd. If the deceased left no husband, nor kindred, answering to the foregoing description, the duty of burial devolves upon the officer conducting an inquest upon the body of the deceased, if any such inquest is held; if none, then upon the persons charged with the support of the poor in the locality in which the death occurs.

4th. In case the person upon whom the duty of burial is cast by the foregoing provisions omits to make such burial within a reasonable time, the duty devolves upon the person next specified; and if all omit to act, it devolves upon the tenant, or, if there be no tenant, upon the owner of the premises where the death occurs or the body is found.

§ 1159. Neglect of burial

Every person upon whom the duty of making burial of the remains of a deceased person is imposed by law, who omits to perform that duty within a reasonable time, is guilty of a crime; and, in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor, is liable to pay to the person performing the duty in his stead, treble the expenses incurred by the latter in making the burial, to be recovered in a civil action.

§ 1160. Persons entitled to custody of body

The person charged by law with the duty of burying the body of a deceased person is entitled to the custody of such body for the purpose of burying it, except that in the cases in which an inquest is required by law to be held upon a dead body, the officer holding the inquest is entitled to its custody until such inquest has been completed.

§ 1161. Unlawful removal of dead body—Violation of or damage to casket or burial vault

A. No person shall intentionally remove the dead body of a human being or any part thereof from the initial site where such dead body is located for any purpose, unless such removal is authorized by a prosecutor or his authorized representative or medical examiner or his authorized representative, or is not required to be investigated pursuant to the provisions of 63 O.S. § 938, said authorization by the prosecutor or medical examiner shall not be required prior to the removal of said body. A prosecutor having jurisdiction may refuse to prosecute a violation of this subsection if the prosecutor determines that circumstances existed which would justify such removal or that such removal was not an act of malice or wantonness.

B. No person shall remove any part of the dead body of a human being from any grave or other place where the same has been buried, or from any place where the same is deposited while awaiting burial, with intent to sell the same, or to dissect it without authority of law, or from malice or wantonness.

C. No person shall willfully or with malicious intent violate or cause damage to the casket or burial vault holding the deceased human remains.

D. Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1162. Purchasing dead body

Whoever purchases, or who receives, except for the purpose of burial, any dead body of a human being, knowing the same has been removed contrary to the last section is guilty of a crime.

§ 1163. Unlawful interference with places of burial

Every person who opens any grave or any place of burial, temporary or otherwise, or who breaks open any building wherein any dead body of a human being is deposited while awaiting burial, with intent either:

1. To remove any dead body of a human being for the purpose of selling the same, or for the purpose of dissection; or
2. To steal the coffin, or any part thereof or anything attached thereto, or connected therewith, or the vestments or other articles buried with the same, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1164. Removal to another burial place

Whenever a cemetery or other place of burial is lawfully authorized to be removed from one place to another, the right and duty to disinter, remove and rebury the remains of bodies there lying buried devolves upon the same persons required to bury the deceased in the order in which they there are named, and if they all fail to act, then upon the lawful custodians of the place of burial so removed. Every omission of such duty is punishable in the same manner as other omissions to perform the duty of making burial.

§ 1165. Arresting or attaching dead body

Every person who arrests or attaches any dead body of a human being upon any debt or demand whatever, or detains or claims to detain it for any debt or demand, or upon any pretended lien or charge, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1166. Disturbing funerals

Every person who willfully disturbs, interrupts or disquiets any assemblage of people met for the purpose of any funeral, or who, without authority of law, obstructs or detains any persons engaged in carrying or accompanying any dead body of a human being to a place of burial, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1167. Injury to cemetery or tomb

Every person who shall willfully or with malicious intent destroy, mutilate, deface, injure or remove any tomb, monument or gravestone, or other structure placed in any cemetery or private burying ground, or any fence, railing, or other work for the protection or ornament of any such cemetery or place of burial of any human being, or tomb, monument or gravestone, memento, or memorial, or other structure aforesaid, or of any lot within a cemetery, or shall willfully or with malicious intent destroy, cut, break, or injure any tree, shrub or plant, within the limits thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00), nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution for a term not to exceed six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

HUMAN SKELETAL REMAINS AND BURIAL FURNITURE

§ 1168. Definitions

As used in this section and 21 CNCA §§ 1168.1 to 1168.6:

1. "Archaeologist" means the individual of this title appointed by the Principal Chief.
2. "Burial furniture" means any items intentionally placed with human remains at the time of burial and shall include but not be limited to burial markers, items of personal adornment, casket and hardware, stone, bone, shell and metal ornaments and elaborately decorated pottery vessels.
3. "Burial grounds" means any place where human skeletal remains are buried.
4. "Historic Preservation Officer" means the individual of this title appointed by the Principal Chief.
5. "Human skeletal remains" means the bony portion of a human body which remains after the flesh has decomposed.

§ 1168.1. Buying, selling, transporting or bartering for profit of human skeletal remains or associated burial furniture—Crime

Anyone who knowingly buys, sells, transports or barters for profit human skeletal remains or associated burial furniture, previously buried within Cherokee Nation, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1168.2. Certain institutions and museums to consult tribal leaders or certain Nation entities before disposition of remains Accredited educational institutions, or officially designated institutions or museums as provided by 53 O.S. § 361, coming into possession or knowledge of human skeletal remains or associated burial furniture from Cherokee Nation shall consult with tribal leaders, identified by the Principal Chief, regarding the final disposition of said remains prior to any activities related to scientific or educational purposes. Where direct historical ties to existing tribal groups cannot be established, consultation regarding final disposition shall take place with the Oklahoma Historic Preservation Officer, Oklahoma Nation Archaeologist and the Director of the Oklahoma Museum of Natural History.

§ 1168.3. Display of open burial ground, furniture or skeletal remains for profit or commercial enterprise

A. Anyone who knowingly displays an open burial ground, burial furniture or human skeletal remains previously buried in Cherokee Nation for profit or to aid and abet a commercial enterprise or any other form of exploitation that defers final disposition of said remains, shall be guilty of a crime and each day of display shall be a separate offense.

B. Anyone who knowingly displays human skeletal remains previously buried in Cherokee Nation shall be guilty of a crime and each day of display shall be a separate offense.

§ 1168.4. Discovery of remains or furniture—Reporting and notification procedure

A. All persons who encounter or discover human skeletal remains or what they believe may be human skeletal remains or burial furniture thought to be associated with human burials in or on the ground shall immediately cease any activity which may cause further disturbance and shall report the presence and location of such human skeletal remains to an appropriate law enforcement officer. Any person who fails to cease activity is guilty of a crime.

B. Any person who willfully fails to report the presence or discovery of human skeletal remains or what they believe may be human skeletal remains within forty-eight (48) hours to an appropriate Cherokee Nation Marshal shall be guilty of a crime.

C. Any person who knowingly disturbs human skeletal remains or burial furniture other than a law enforcement officer, registered mortician, a representative of the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, a professional archaeologist or physical anthropologist, or other officials designated by law in performance of official duties, shall be guilty of a crime.

D. Anyone not covered under subsection (C) of this section who disturbs or permits disturbance of a burial ground with the intent to obtain human skeletal remains or burial furniture shall be guilty of a crime.

E. The law enforcement officer, if there is a reason to believe that the skeletal remains may be human, shall promptly notify the landowner and the Chief Medical Examiner. If remains reported under 21 CNCA §§ 1168.1 through 1168.6 are not associated with or suspected of association with any crime, the Archaeologist and Historic Preservation Officer shall be notified within fifteen (15) days. If review by the Archaeologist and the Historic Preservation Officer of the human skeletal remains and any burial furniture demonstrates or suggests a direct historical relationship to a tribal group, then the Archaeologist shall:

1. Notify the Historic Preservation Officer; and
2. Consult with the tribal leader within fifteen (15) days regarding any proposed treatment or scientific studies and final disposition of the materials.

If said remains have a direct relationship to a tribal group which is not specifically found to be in Cherokee Nation then the Archaeologist and the Historic Preservation Officer shall make reasonable attempts to contact the proper tribal group for a determination of the final disposition of the remains.

§ 1168.5. Designation of repository for remains and furniture for scientific purposes

If the human skeletal remains and any burial furniture are not directly related to a tribal group or if the remains are not claimed by the consulted entity, the Archaeologist and the Historic Preservation Officer with the Director of the Oklahoma Museum of Natural History may designate a repository for curation burial furniture for scientific purposes and burial of human skeleton remains.

§ 1168.6. Penalties

Any person convicted of an offense pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA §§ 1168.1 through 1168.6 shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 47A

GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 1171. Loitering around residence to watch occupants

A. Every person who hides, waits or otherwise loiters in the vicinity of any private dwelling house, apartment building, any other place of residence, or in the vicinity of any locker room, dressing room, restroom, or any other place where a person has a right to a reasonable expectation of privacy, with the unlawful and willful intent to watch, gaze, or look upon any person in a clandestine manner, is guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

B. Every person who uses photographic, electronic or video equipment in a clandestine manner for any illegal, illegitimate, prurient, lewd or lascivious purpose with the unlawful and willful intent to view, watch, gaze or look upon any person without the knowledge and consent of such person when the person viewed is in a place where there is a right to a reasonable expectation of privacy, or who publishes or distributes any image obtained from such act, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable pursuant to 21 CNCA § 10, provided that such sentence must include a term of imprisonment.

C. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to 57 CNCA § 1 et seq. The jury, if any, shall be advised that the mandatory sex offender registration is a civil remedy that shall be in addition to the actual imprisonment.

§ 1172. Obscene, threatening or harassing telephone calls—Penalty

A. It shall be unlawful for a person who, by means of a telecommunication or other electronic communication device, willfully either:

1. Makes any comment, request, suggestion, or proposal which is obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, or indecent;
2. Makes a telecommunication or other electronic communication with intent to terrify, intimidate or harass, or threaten to inflict injury or physical harm to any person or property of that person;
3. Makes a telecommunication or other electronic communication, whether or not conversation ensues, with intent to put the party called in fear of physical harm or death;
4. Makes a telecommunication or other electronic communication, whether or not conversation ensues, without disclosing the identity of the person making the call or communication and with intent to annoy, abuse, threaten, or harass any person at the called number or other type of electronic communication identifier;

§ 1220. Transporting intoxicating or nonintoxicating beverage except in original unopened container prohibited—Exceptions—Penalty

It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly transport in any moving vehicle upon a public highway, street or alley any intoxicating or nonintoxicating beverage, as defined by 37 O.S. §§ 163.1 and 163.2, except in the original container which shall not have been opened and from which the original cap or seal shall not have been removed, unless the opened container be in the rear trunk or rear compartment, which shall include the spare tire compartment in a station wagon or panel truck, or any outside compartment which is not accessible to the driver or any other person in the vehicle while it is in motion. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

CHAPTER 49

ANIMALS AND CARCASSES

§ 1221. Contagious diseases among domestic animals

Any person who shall suffer to run at large, or who shall keep in any place where other animals can have access to or become infected by them, any horse, mare, mule, ass, ox, bull, cow, sheep or other domestic animals owned by him, or in his care or possession, and known by him, or good reason to believe such animal to be infected by glanders, farcy, or Texas mange or other infectious or contagious disease, or who shall bring into this nation any diseased cattle, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1222. Disposition of animals dying of contagious or infectious diseases

It shall be the duty of the owner of any domestic animal in Cherokee Nation, which may hereafter die of any contagious or infectious disease, either to burn the carcass thereof or bury the same within twenty-four (24) hours after he has notice or knowledge of such fact so that no part of such carcass shall be nearer than two and one-half (2 1/2) feet of the surface of the soil. Provided, that all hogs dying of any disease shall be burned. It shall further be unlawful to bury any such carcass as mentioned in this section in any land along any stream or ravine, where it is liable to become exposed through erosion of the soil, or where such land is any time subject to overflow. "Owner", as used in this section, shall mean and include any person having domestic animals in his possession, either by reason of ownership, rent, hire, loan, or otherwise, and shall be subject to all the pains and penalties of this chapter.

§ 1223. Leaving carcass in certain places unlawful

It shall be unlawful for any person to leave or deposit, or cause to be deposited or left the carcass of any animal, chicken or other fowl, whether the same shall have died from disease or otherwise, in any well, spring, pond or stream of water; or leave or deposit the same within one-fourth (1/4) of a mile of any occupied dwelling or of any public highway, without burying the same as provided in the preceding section of this act.

§ 1224. Violation of sections regarding carcasses a crime

Every person who violates the two preceding sections, shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 50

TOBACCO

§ 1241. Furnishing tobacco products to minors—Punishment

Any person who shall furnish to any minor by gift, sale or otherwise any cigarettes, cigarette papers, cigars, snuff, chewing tobacco, or any other form of tobacco product shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) and be confined in the penal institution not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days for each offense.

§ 1242. Refusal of minor to disclose place where and person from whom obtained

Any minor being in possession of cigarettes, cigarette papers, cigars, snuff, chewing tobacco, or any other form of tobacco product and being by any police officer, constable, juvenile court officer, truant officer, or teacher in any school, asked where and from whom such cigarettes, cigarette papers, cigars, snuff, chewing tobacco, or any other form of tobacco product were obtained, who shall refuse to furnish such information, shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof before the District Court, or any Judge of the District Court, such minor being of the age of sixteen (16) years or upwards shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding Five Dollars ($5.00) or to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county not exceeding five (5) days, or both; if such minor shall be under the age of sixteen (16) years, he or she shall be certified by such magistrate or justice to the juvenile court of the county for such action as said Court shall deem proper.

§ 1247. Smoking in certain public areas prohibited—Punishment

A. The possession of lighted tobacco in any form is a public nuisance and dangerous to public health when such possession is in any of the following places used by or open to the public:

1. Elevators;
2. Indoor movie theaters and other indoor theaters;
3. Libraries, art galleries, museums, indoor roller skating rinks of a permanent structure with permanent walls and concert halls; and
4. Buses.

Provided, however, that in indoor movie theaters and other indoor theaters, libraries, art galleries, museums, indoor roller skating rinks of a permanent structure with permanent walls and concert halls, certain areas separated from the principal room or rooms of the facility may be posted as "SMOKING PERMITTED" areas; provided further, that portions of buses may be posted "SMOKING PERMITTED" if such posting is pursuant to authorization by the Executive Branch of Cherokee Nation.

B. There shall be posted prominently in all public places included in this section, a "NO SMOKING" sign or "NO SMOKING" signs in sufficient numbers as to be visible from all sections of the "NO SMOKING" area.

C. "NO SMOKING" signs, as required by this act, shall be no smaller than eight inches (8") by ten inches (10") with lettering no smaller than one inch (1"). The letters shall be of contrasting colors to the sign.

D. Responsibility for posting "NO SMOKING" signs shall be as follows:

1. In privately-owned facilities, the owner or lessee, if a lessee is in possession of the facilities, shall be responsible.
2. In corporately-owned facilities, the manager and/or supervisor of the facility involved shall be responsible.
3. In publicly-owned facilities, the manager and/or supervisor of the facility shall be responsible.
4. Any person who knowingly violates this act is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

PART VI

CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE

CHAPTER 53

MANUFACTURING, SELLING AND WEARING WEAPONS

CHEROKEE NATION FIREARMS ACT OF 1971

§ 1272. Carrying weapons—Exceptions

It shall be unlawful for any person to carry upon or about his person, or in his portfolio or purse, any pistol, revolver, dagger, bowie knife, dirk knife, switchblade knife, spring-type knife, sword cane, knife having a blade which opens automatically by hand pressure applied to a button, spring, or other device in the handle of the knife, blackjack, loaded cane, billy, hand chain, metal knuckles, or any other offensive weapon, except as in this chapter provided. Provided further, that this section shall not prohibit the proper use of guns and knives for hunting, fishing or recreational purposes, nor shall this section be construed to prohibit any use of weapons in a manner otherwise permitted by statute. Any person convicted of violating the foregoing provision shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1272.1. Carrying weapons or firearms into establishments wherein beer and intoxicating liquor are consumed

It shall be unlawful for any person, except a peace officer, as defined in 21 CNCA § 99, a registered security officer, or the owner or proprietor of the establishment being entered, to carry into or to possess in any establishment where beer or alcoholic beverages are consumed any firearm or any of the weapons designated in 21 CNCA § 1272.

Provided however, nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to authorize such peace officer or registered security officer in actual physical possession of a weapon to consume beer or alcoholic beverages, except in the authorized line of duty as an undercover officer.

§ 1272.2. Penalties

Any person who intentionally, knowingly or recklessly carries on his person any weapon in violation of 21 CNCA § 1272.1 shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1273. Selling or giving weapons to minors

It shall be unlawful for any person within this Nation, to sell or give to any minor any of the arms or weapons designated in 21 CNCA § 1272.

§ 1276. Degree of punishment

Any person violating the provisions of any one of the foregoing sections, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1277. Public buildings and gatherings

It shall be unlawful for any person, except a peace officer or a registered security officer, to carry into any church or religious assembly, any schoolroom or other place where persons are assembled for public worship, for amusement, or for educational or scientific purposes, or into any circus, show or public exhibition of any kind, or into any ballroom, or to any social party or social gathering, or to any election, or to any political convention, or to any other public assembly, any of the weapons designated in 21 CNCA § 1272.

§ 1278. Intent of persons carrying weapons

It shall be unlawful for any person in this Nation to carry or wear any deadly weapons or dangerous instrument whatsoever, openly or secretly, with the intent or for the avowed purpose of injuring his fellow man.

§ 1279. Pointing weapon at another

It shall be unlawful for any person to point any pistol or any other deadly weapon whether loaded or not, at any other person or persons either in anger or otherwise.

§ 1280. Punishment

Any person violating the provisions of the three preceding sections, 21 CNCA §§ 1277 to 1279, shall, on conviction, be guilty of a crime.

§ 1283. Convicted felons prohibited from carrying firearms—Exceptions

It shall be unlawful for any person having previously been convicted of any felony in any court of Oklahoma or one of the United States to have in his possession or under his immediate control, or in any vehicle which he is operating, or in which he is riding as a passenger, any pistol, imitation or homemade pistol, machine gun, sawed-off shotgun or rifle, or any other dangerous or deadly firearm which could be easily concealed on the person, in personal effects or in an automobile, provided any person elected or appointed as a peace officer who has previously been convicted of any felony in any court of Oklahoma or one of the United States, and who has received a full and complete pardon from the proper authority and has been subsequently certified by the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training, pursuant to 70 O.S. § 3311, and is actively employed as a full-time peace officer on the effective date of this act, shall be permitted to possess a weapon specified in this section for the sole purpose of performing duties of a peace officer. For the purposes of this section, "sawed-off shotgun or rifle" shall mean any shotgun or rifle which has been shortened to any length.

§ 1284. Penalty

Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1286. Reckless conduct defined

Reckless conduct as used in this chapter consists of an act which creates a situation of unreasonable risk and probability of death or great bodily harm to another and which demonstrates a conscious disregard for the safety of another.

§ 1287. Use of firearm or other offensive weapon while committing or attempting to commit a crime—Penalties

Any person who, while committing or attempting to commit a crime, possesses a firearm or any other offensive weapon in such commission or attempt, whether the firearm is loaded or not, or who possesses a blank or imitation firearm capable of raising in the mind of one threatened with such device a fear that it is a real firearm, or who possesses an air gun or carbon dioxide or other gas-filled weapon, electronic dart gun, knife, dagger, dirk, switchblade knife, blackjack, ax, loaded cane, billy, hand chain or metal knuckles, in addition to the penalty provided by statute for the crime committed or attempted, upon conviction shall be guilty of a crime for possessing such weapon or device, which shall be a separate offense.

§ 1288. Purchases of firearms, ammunition and equipment in contiguous states by Cherokee Nation residents—Purchases in Cherokee Nation by residents of contiguous states

A. Residents of Cherokee Nation may purchase rifles, shotguns, ammunition, cartridge and shotgun shell handloading components and equipment in a state contiguous to Cherokee Nation, provided that such residents conform to the applicable provisions of the federal Gun Control Act of 1968, 18 U.S.C. § 921 et seq., and regulations thereunder, as administered by the United States Secretary of the Treasury, and provided further that such residents conform to the provisions of law applicable to such purchase in Cherokee Nation and in the contiguous state in which the purchase is made.

B. Residents of a state contiguous to Cherokee Nation may purchase rifles, shotguns, ammunition, cartridge and shotgun shell handloading components and equipment in Cherokee Nation, provided that such residents conform to the applicable provisions of the Gun Control Act of 1968, and regulations thereunder, as administered by the United States Secretary of the Treasury and provided further that such residents conform to the provisions of law applicable to such purchase in Cherokee Nation and in the state in which such persons reside.

CHEROKEE NATION FIREARMS ACT OF 1971

§ 1289.1. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Firearms Act of 1971.

§ 1289.2. Council findings

The Council finds as a matter of public policy and fact that it is necessary for promotion of the safe and lawful use of firearms to curb and prevent crime wherein weapons are used by enacting legislation having the purpose of control of use of firearms, and of prevention of their use, without unnecessarily denying their lawful use in defense of life, home and property, and their use by the United States or state military organizations and as otherwise provided by law, including their use and transportation for lawful purposes.

§ 1289.3. "Pistol" defined

"Pistol" as used herein shall mean any firearm capable of discharging a projectile composed of any material which may reasonably be expected to be able to cause lethal injury, with a barrel or barrels less than sixteen (16) inches in length, and using either gunpowder, gas or any means of rocket propulsion, but not to include flare guns, underwater fishing guns or blank pistols.

§ 1289.4. "Rifle" defined

"Rifle" as used herein shall mean any firearm capable of discharging a projectile composed of any material which may reasonably be expected to be able to cause lethal injury, with a barrel or barrels more than sixteen (16) inches in length, and using either gunpowder, gas or any means of rocket propulsion, but not to include archery equipment, flare guns or underwater fishing guns. In addition, any rifle capable of firing "shot" but primarily designed to fire single projectiles will be regarded as a "rifle."

§ 1289.5. "Shotgun" defined

"Shotgun" as used herein shall mean any firearm capable of discharging a series of projectiles of any material which may reasonably be expected to be able to cause lethal injury, with a barrel or barrels more than eighteen (18) inches in length, and using either gunpowder, gas or any means of rocket propulsion, but not to include any weapon so designed with a barrel less than eighteen (18) inches in length. In addition, any "shotgun" capable of firing single projectiles but primarily designed to fire multiple projectiles such as "shot" will be regarded as a "shotgun."

§ 1289.6. Conditions under which firearms may be carried

A person shall be permitted to carry shotguns, rifles or pistols, open and not concealed, under the following conditions:

1. When going to, during participation in or coming from hunting animals or fowl, including moving from place to place by vehicle. However, a rifle or shotgun may be carried in a landborne motor vehicle over a public highway or roadway when clip- or magazine-loaded and not chamber-loaded when carried in a locked compartment of the vehicle, such as the trunk of an automobile.
2. When going to, during competition in or practicing or coming from a safety or hunter safety class, target shooting, skeet, trap or other recognized sporting events;
3. When unloaded, going to or coming from a gunsmith;

4. When unloaded, going to or coming from a store for purposes of repair, trade, barter or sale;
5. Going to or coming from a military function of the state military forces to be defined as the Cherokee Nation Army or Air National Guard, federal military reserve and active military forces;
6. Going to or coming from a recognized police function of either a municipal, county or Nation government as functioning police officials;
7. When unloaded, going to or coming from a place of publicly-recognized firearms display such as a "gun show" where the public is invited;
8. When unloaded, going to or coming from a point of private trade for purposes of transferring a firearm to another private citizen in exchange for moneys, payment for services or trade;
9. When going to, coming from and during a performance for entertainment purposes; or
10. For any legitimate purpose not in violation of this code or any legislative enactment regarding the use, ownership and control of firearms.

§ 1289.7. Firearm in motor vehicle

A person may carry or transport in a motor vehicle a rifle, shotgun or pistol, unloaded, at any time.

§ 1289.8. Carrying concealed weapon

It shall be unlawful for any person, except a peace officer as defined in 21 CNCA § 99, or a registered security officer to carry a concealed weapon other than permitted by this chapter.

§ 1289.9. Carrying or using firearms while under influence of intoxicating liquors or drugs

It shall be unlawful to carry or use shotguns, rifles, any other form or explosive or incendiary device, or pistols under any circumstances while under the influence of intoxicating liquors or any hallucinogenic, unlawful or unprescribed drug, nor shall any person be permitted to carry or use shotguns, rifles or pistols when under the influence of any drug prescribed by a licensed physician if the aftereffects of such consumption affect mental, emotional or physical processes to a degree that would result in abnormal behavior.

§ 1289.10. Furnishing firearms to mentally incompetent or insane persons

It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly transmit, transfer, sell, lend or furnish any shotgun, rifle or pistol to any person who is under an adjudication of mental incompetency, or to any person who is a moron, idiot or is insane.

§ 1289.11. Reckless conduct

It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in reckless conduct while having in his possession any shotgun, rifle, pistol, or any other form of explosive or incendiary device, such actions consisting of creating a situation of unreasonable risk and probability of death or great bodily harm to another, and demonstrating a conscious disregard for the safety of another person.

§ 1289.12. Selling or transferring of firearms to convicted felons, disturbed persons or persons under influence of alcohol or drugs—Displaying notice

It shall be unlawful for any person within this Nation to knowingly sell, trade, give, transmit or otherwise cause the transfer of rifles, shotguns, any other form or explosive or incendiary device, or pistols to any convicted felon, nor shall it be lawful for any person within this Nation to knowingly sell, trade, give, transmit or otherwise cause the transfer of any shotgun, rifle, any other form or explosive or incendiary device, or pistol to any individual who is under the influence of alcohol or drugs or is mentally or emotionally unbalanced or disturbed. All persons who engage in selling, trading or otherwise transferring firearms will display this section prominently in full view at or near the point of normal firearms sale, trade or transfer.

§ 1289.13. Transporting loaded firearm in motor vehicle

Except as otherwise provided, it shall be unlawful to transport a loaded firearm in a landborne motor vehicle over a public highway or roadway. However, a rifle or shotgun may be transported when clip- or magazine-loaded and not chamber-loaded when transported in a locked compartment of the vehicle, such as the trunk of an automobile.

§ 1289.14. Transporting or discharging firearm from boat

Except as herein otherwise provided, it shall be unlawful to transport or discharge a shotgun, rifle or pistol from a boat under power or sail, except for the purposes of hunting animals or fowl, and in compliance with existing Nation and federal laws.

§ 1289.15. Penalties

Any person adjudged guilty of violating the preceding sections shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1289.16. Pointing firearms

It shall be unlawful for any person to willfully or without lawful cause point a shotgun, rifle or pistol, or any deadly weapon, whether loaded or not, at any person or persons for the purpose of threatening or with the intention of discharging the firearm or with any malice or for any purpose of injuring, either through physical injury or mental or emotional intimidation, or for purposes of whimsy, humor or prank, but not to include the pointing of shotguns, rifles or pistols by law enforcement authorities in the performance of their duties, members of the state military forces in the form of the Oklahoma Army or Air National Guard in the performance of their duties, members of the federal military reserve and active military components in the performance of their duties, or any federal government law enforcement officer in the performance of his duty, or in the performance of a play on stage, rodeo, television or on film, or in defense of one's person, home or property.

§ 1289.17. Penalty

Any violation of 21 CNCA § 1289.16 or of the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1283, shall constitute a crime.

§ 1289.18. "Sawed-off shotgun" and "sawed-off rifle" defined—Violations—Penalties—Defense to prosecution

A. "Sawed-off shotgun" shall mean any firearm capable of discharging a series of projectiles of any material which may reasonably be expected to be able to cause lethal injury, with a barrel or barrels less than eighteen (18) inches in length, and using either gunpowder, gas or any means of rocket propulsion.

B. "Sawed-off rifle" shall mean any rifle having a barrel or barrels of less than sixteen (16) inches in length or any weapon made from a rifle (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if such a weapon as modified has an overall length of less than twenty-six (26) inches in length, including the stock portion.

C. Every person who has in his possession or under his immediate control a sawed-off shotgun or a sawed-off rifle, whether concealed or not, shall upon conviction be guilty of a crime for the possession of such device.

D. It is a defense to prosecution under this section, if the approved application form that authorized the making or transfer of the particular firearm to the defendant, which indicates the registration of the firearm to said defendant pursuant to the National Firearms Act, 26 U.S.C. § 5841 et seq., is introduced.

§ 1289.19. "Restricted bullet" and "body armor" defined

As used in this act:

1. "Restricted bullet" means a round or elongated missile with a core of less than sixty percent (60%) lead and having a fluorocarbon coating, which is designed to travel at a high velocity and is capable of penetrating body armor; and

2. "Body armor" means a vest or shirt of ten (10) plies or more of bullet resistant material as defined by the Office of Development, Testing and Dissemination, a division of the United States Department of Justice.

§ 1289.20. Manufacture, importation or advertisement for sale of restricted bullets—Penalty

A. Except for the purpose of public safety or national security, it shall be unlawful to manufacture, cause to be manufactured, import, advertise for sale or sell within this nation any restricted bullet as defined in 21 CNCA § 1289.19.

B. Any person convicted of violating subsection (A) of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1289.21. Use or attempted use of restricted bullet and/or body armor—Penalty

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to possess, carry upon his person, use or attempt to use against another person any restricted bullet as defined in 21 CNCA § 1989.19.

B. It shall be unlawful for any person, who has been convicted of, or plead no contest or guilty to, a felony, to wear body armor as defined in 21 CNCA § 1289.19.

C. Any person convicted of violating subsections (A) or (B) of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1289.22. Exemptions

The prohibition of possessing or using a restricted bullet shall not apply to law enforcement agencies when such bullet is used for testing, training or demonstration.

§ 1289.23. Off-duty peace officers authorized to carry weapons

A. A full-time duly appointed peace officer who is certified by the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training, pursuant to the provisions of 70 O.S. § 3311, is hereby authorized to carry a weapon certified and approved by his employing agency during periods when he is not on active duty.

B. When an off-duty officer carries a certified weapon, the officer shall be in law enforcement uniform prescribed by the employing agency or when not wearing the prescribed law enforcement uniform shall be required:

1. To have his official peace officers badge, Commission Card and C.L.E.E.T. Certification Card on his person at all times when carrying a weapon certified and approved by the employing agency; and

2. To keep the authorized weapon concealed from view at all times except when the weapon is used within the guidelines, rules and regulations established by the employing agency.

C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter or amend the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1272.1 or expand the duties, authority or jurisdiction of any peace officer.

§ 1289.25. Unlawful entry of dwelling—Physical or deadly force against intruder—Affirmative defense and immunity from civil liability

A. The Council hereby recognizes that the citizens of Cherokee Nation have a right to expect absolute safety within their own homes.

B. Any occupant of a dwelling is justified in using any degree of physical force, including but not limited to deadly force, against another person who has made an unlawful entry into that dwelling, and when the occupant has a reasonable belief that such other person might use any physical force, no matter how slight, against any occupant of the dwelling.

C. Any occupant of a dwelling using physical force, including but not limited to deadly force, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (B) of this section, shall have an affirmative defense in any criminal prosecution for an offense arising from the reasonable use of such force and shall be immune from any civil liability for injuries or death resulting from the reasonable use of such force.

CHAPTER 54

MASKS AND DISGUISES; THREATENING LETTERS; UNLAWFUL ORGANIZATIONS

§ 1302. Trespass—Masked person demanding admission to premises

Any person, masked or in disguise, who shall enter upon the premises of another or demand admission into the house or enclosure of another (with intent to inflict bodily injury, or injury to property) shall be deemed guilty of assault with intent to commit a crime and such entrance or demand for admission shall be prima facie evidence of such intent, and upon conviction thereof, such person shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1303. Assaults while masked or disguised

Any person, while masked or in disguise, who shall assault another with a dangerous weapon, or other instrument of punishment, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 1304. Letters—Mailing threatening or intimidating letters

Any person who shall send, deliver, mail or otherwise transmit to any person, or persons, in this Nation any letter, document or other written or printed matter, anonymous or otherwise, designed to threaten or intimidate such person or persons, or designed to put him or them in fear of life, bodily harm or the destruction of his or their property, upon conviction shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 55

OTHER CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE

ENTRY OR INTRUSION ON REAL ESTATE

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ENTRY OR INTRUSION ON REAL ESTATE

§ 1351. Forcible entry and detainer

Every person guilty of using or procuring, encouraging or assisting another to use any force, or violence in entering upon or detaining any lands or other possessions of another except in the cases and manner allowed by law, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1352. Returning to possession after lawful removal

Every person who has been removed from any lands by process of law, or who has removed from any lands pursuant to the lawful adjudication or direction of any court, tribunal or officer, and who afterward, without authority by law, returns to settle or reside upon such lands, is guilty of a crime.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 1361. Disturbing lawful meeting

Every person who without authority of law willfully disturbs or breaks up any assembly or meeting, not unlawful in its character, other than a religious meeting, public meeting of electors, or funeral, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1362. Disturbance by loud or unusual noise or abusive, violent, obscene, profane or threatening language

If any person shall willfully or maliciously disturb, either by day or night, the peace and quiet of any city of the first class, town, village, neighborhood, family or person by loud or unusual noise, or by abusive, violent, obscene or profane language, whether addressed to the party so disturbed or some other person, or by threatening to kill, do bodily harm or injury, destroy property, fight, or by quarreling or challenging to fight, or fighting, or shooting off any firearms, or brandishing the same, or by running any horse at unusual speed along any street, alley, highway or public road, he shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution not to exceed thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the Court or jury trying the same.

§ 1363. Use of language calculated to arouse anger or cause breach of peace

If any person shall make use of any profane, violent, abusive or insulting language toward or about another person, in the presence or hearing, which language, in its common acceptation, is calculated to arouse to anger the person about or to whom it is spoken or addressed, or to cause a breach of the peace or an assault, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a breach of the peace, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine in any sum not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution not to exceed thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the Court or jury trying the same.

§ 1364. Discharging firearms in public place

Every person who willfully discharges any species of firearm, air gun or other weapon, or throws any other missile in any public place, or in any place where there is any person to be endangered thereby, although no injury to any person shall ensue, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1368. Possession of explosives by convicted felons—Penalty

Any person who has been convicted of a crime under the laws of this or any other state or the laws of the United States who, with an unlawful intent, is in possession of any explosives is guilty of a crime.

§ 1377. Projecting object at public event

It shall be unlawful for any person in attendance at an athletic or other public entertainment event to project in any manner an object which could cause bodily harm to another person.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to ejection from the event by the officials supervising the event.

A violation of this section shall be a crime.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the participants in the athletic or other public entertainment event.

PART VII

CRIMES AGAINST PROPERTY

CHAPTER 56

ARSON

§ 1401. Arson in the first degree—Punishment

Any person who willfully and maliciously sets fire to or burns or by the use of any explosive device or substance destroys in whole or in part, or causes to be burned or destroyed, or aids, counsels or procures the burning or destruction of any building or structure or contents thereof, inhabited or occupied by one or more persons, whether the property of himself or another, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1402. Arson in the second degree—Punishment

Any person who willfully and maliciously sets fire to or burns or by the use of any explosive device or substance destroys in whole or in part, or cause to be burned or destroyed, or aids, counsels or procures the burning or destruction of any uninhabited or unoccupied building or structure or contents thereof, whether the property of himself or another, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1403. Arson in the third degree—Punishment

A. Any person who willfully and maliciously sets fire to or burns or by the use of any explosive device or substance destroys in whole or in part, or causes to be burned or destroyed, or aids, counsels or procures the burning of any property whatsoever, including automobiles, trucks, trailers, motorcycles, boats, standing farm crops, pasture lands, forest lands, or any other property not herein specifically named, such property being worth not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00), whether the property of himself or another, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Any person who willfully and maliciously, and with intent to injure or defraud the insurer, sets fire to or burns or by use of any explosive device or substance destroys in whole or in part, or causes to be burned or destroyed, or aids, counsels, or procures the burning or destruction of any building, property, or other chattels, whether the property of himself or another, which shall at the time be insured against loss or damage by fire or explosion, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1404. Arson in the fourth degree—Punishment

A. Any person who willfully and maliciously attempts to set fire to or burn or attempts by use of any explosive device or substance to destroy in whole or in part, or causes to be burned or destroyed, or attempts to counsel or procure the burning or destruction of any building or property mentioned in 21 CNCA § 1401, 21 CNCA § 1402 or 21 CNCA § 1403 shall be guilty of a crime.

B. The placing or distributing of any flammable, explosive or combustible material or substance or any device in any building or property mentioned in 21 CNCA § 1401, 21 CNCA § 1402 or 21 CNCA § 1403, in an arrangement or preparation with intent to eventually willfully and maliciously set fire to or burn or to procure the setting fire to or burning of same, shall for the purposes of this section constitute an attempt to burn such building or property, and shall be guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 58

BURGLARY AND HOUSE BREAKING

§ 1431. Burglary in first degree

Every person who breaks into and enters the dwelling house of another, in which there is at the time some human being, with intent to commit some crime therein, either:

1. By forcibly bursting or breaking the wall, or an outer door, window, or shutter of a window of such house or the lock or bolts of such door, or the fastening of such window or shutter; or

2. By breaking in any other manner, being armed with a dangerous weapon or being assisted or aided by one or more confederates then actually present; or

3. By unlocking an outer door by means of false keys or by picking the lock thereof, or by lifting a latch or opening a window; is guilty of burglary in the first degree.

§ 1435. Burglary in second degree—Acts constituting

Every person who breaks and enters any building or any part of any building, room, booth, tent, railroad car, automobile, truck, trailer, vessel or other structure or erection, in which any property is kept, or breaks into or forcibly opens, any coin-operated or vending machine or device with intent to steal any property therein or to commit any crime, is guilty of burglary in the second degree.

§ 1436. Punishment of burglary

Burglary is a crime.

§ 1437. Possession of burglar's implements

Every person who, under circumstances not amounting to a crime has in his possession any dangerous offensive weapon or instrument whatever, or any pick-lock, crow, key, bit, jack, jimmy, nippers, pick, betty or other implement of burglary, with intent to break and enter any building or part of any building, booth, tent, railroad car, vessel or other structure or erection and to commit any crime therein, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1438. Entering buildings or structures with certain intent

Every person who, under circumstances not amounting to any burglary, enters any building or part of any building, booth, tent, warehouse, railroad car, vessel, or other structure or erection with intent to commit any crime, larceny, or malicious mischief, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1439. Dwelling house defined

The term "dwelling house," as used in 21 CNCA § 1431, includes every house or edifice, any part of which has usually been occupied by any person lodging therein at night, and any structure joined to and immediately connected with such a house or edifice.

§ 1440. "Night time" defined

The words "night time" in this chapter include the period between sunset and sunrise.

§ 1441. Burglary with explosives—Punishment

Any person who enters any building, railway car, vehicle, or structure and there opens or attempts to open any vault, safe, or receptacle used or kept for the secure keeping of money, securities, books of accounts, or other valuable property, papers or documents, without the consent of the owner, by the use of or aid of dynamite, nitroglycerine, gunpowder, or other explosives, or who enters any such building, railway car, vehicle, or structure in which is kept any vault, safe or other receptacle for the safe keeping of money or other valuable property, papers, books or documents, with intent and without the consent of the owner, to open or crack such vault, safe or receptacle by the aid or use of any explosive, shall in either case be deemed guilty of crime.

CHAPTER 59

EMBEZZLEMENT

§ 1451. "Embezzlement" defined

"Embezzlement" is the fraudulent appropriation of property by a person to whom it has been entrusted.

§ 1452. Embezzlement by officer, etc., of corporation, etc.

If any person, being an officer, director, trustee, clerk, servant or agent of any association, society or corporation, public or private, fraudulently appropriates to any use or purpose not in the due and lawful execution of his trust, any property which he has in his possession or under his control by virtue of his trust, or secretes it with a fraudulent intent to appropriate it to such use or purpose he is guilty of embezzlement.

§ 1453. Embezzlement by carrier or other person

If any carrier or other person having under his control personal property for the purpose of transportation for hire, fraudulently appropriates it to any use of purpose inconsistent with the safekeeping of such property and its transportation according to his trust, he is guilty of embezzlement, whether he has broken the packages in which such property is contained, or has otherwise separated the items thereof, or not.

§ 1454. Embezzlement by trustee

If any person being a trustee, banker, merchant, broker, attorney, agent, assignee in trust, executor, administrator or collector, or being otherwise entrusted with or having in his control property for the use of any other person, or for any public or benevolent purpose, fraudulently appropriates it to any use or purpose not in the due and lawful execution of his trust, or secretes it with a fraudulent intent to appropriate it to such use or purpose, he is guilty of embezzlement.

§ 1455. Embezzlement by bailee

If any person being entrusted with any property as bailee, or with any power of attorney for the sale or transfer thereof, fraudulently converts the same or the proceeds thereof to his own use, or secretes it or them with a fraudulent intent to convert to his own use, he is guilty of embezzlement, whether he has broken the package or otherwise determined the bailment or not.

§ 1456. Embezzlement by clerk or servant

If any clerk or servant of any private person or copartnership or corporation, except apprentices and persons within the age of eighteen (18) years, fraudulently appropriates to his own use, or secretes with a fraudulent intent to appropriate to his own use, any property of any other person which has come into his control or care by virtue of his employment as such clerk or servant, he is guilty of embezzlement.

§ 1457. Distinct taking not necessary

A distinct act of taking is not necessary to constitute embezzlement, but any fraudulent appropriation, conversion or use of property, coming within the above prohibitions is sufficient.

§ 1458. Evidence of debt subject of embezzlement

Any evidence of debt, negotiable by delivery only, and actually executed, is equally the subject of embezzlement whether it has been delivered or issued as a valid instrument or not.

§ 1459. Property taken under claim of title

Upon any prosecution for embezzlement it is a sufficient defense that the property was appropriated openly and avowedly, and under a claim of title preferred in good faith even though such claim is untenable. But this provision shall not excuse the retention of the property of another, to offset or pay demand held against him.

§ 1460. Intent to restore no defense

The fact that the accused intended to restore the property embezzled is no ground of defense, or of mitigation of punishment, if it has not been restored before an information has been laid before a magistrate, charging the commission of the offense.

§ 1461. Mitigation of punishment

Whenever it is made to appear that prior to any information laid before a magistrate charging the commission of embezzlement, the person accused voluntarily and actually restored or tendered restoration of the property alleged to have been embezzled, or any part thereof, such is not a ground of defense to the indictment, but it authorizes the court to mitigate punishment in its discretion.

§ 1462. Punishment for embezzlement

Every person guilty of embezzlement is punishable in the manner prescribed for feloniously stealing property of the value of that embezzled, except that every person convicted of embezzlement of any item valued at less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) shall be punished for a crime. And where the property embezzled is an evidence of debt or right in action, the sum due upon it, or secured to be paid by it, shall be taken as its value.

§ 1463. Diversion of Nation funds made crime

Any Nation officer, deputy or employee of such nation officer, who shall divert any money appropriated by law from the purpose and object of such appropriation, shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

CHAPTER 60

EXTORTION AND BLACKMAIL

§ 1481. Extortion defined

Extortion is the obtaining of property from another with his consent, induced by a wrongful use of force or fear, or under color of official right.

§ 1482. Threats constituting extortion

Fear such as will constitute extortion, may be induced by a threat, either:

- 1st. To do an unlawful injury to the person or property of the individual threatened, or to any relative of his or member of his family; or
- 2nd. To accuse him, or any relative of his or member of his family, of any crime; or
- 3rd. To expose, or impute to him, or them, any deformity or disgrace; or
- 4th. To expose any secret affecting him or them.

§ 1483. Punishment for extortion

Every person who extorts any money or other property from another, under circumstances not amounting to robbery, by means of force or any threat such as is mentioned in 21 CNCA § 1482 is guilty of a crime.

§ 1484. Extortion under color of official right

Every person who commits any extortion under color of official right, in cases for which a different punishment is not prescribed by this code, or by some of the statutes, which it specifies as continuing in force, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1485. Obtaining signature by extortion

Every person, who by any extortionate means, obtains from another his signature to any paper or instrument, whereby, if such signature were freely given, any property would be transferred, or any debt, demand, charge or right of action created, is punishable in the same manner as if the actual delivery of such property or payment of the amount of such debt, demand, charge or right of action were obtained.

§ 1486. Letters, threatening

Every person who, with intent to extort any money or other property from another, sends to any person any letter or other writing, whether subscribed or not, expressing or implying, or adapted to imply, any threat, such as is specified in 21 CNCA § 1482, is punishable in the same manner as if such money or property were actually obtained by means of such threat.

§ 1487. Attempting to extort money

Every person who unsuccessfully attempts by means of any verbal threat such as is specified in 21 CNCA § 1482 to extort money or other property from another is guilty of a crime.

§ 1488. Blackmail

Blackmail is verbally or by written or printed communication and with intent to extort or gain any thing of value from another or to compel another to do an act against his will:

1. Accusing or threatening to accuse any person of a crime or conduct which would tend to degrade and disgrace the person accused; or
2. Exposing or threatening to expose any fact, report or information concerning any person which would in any way subject such person to the ridicule or contempt of society, coupled with the threat that such accusation or exposure will be communicated to a third person or persons unless the person threatened or some other person pays or delivers to the accuser or some other person some thing of value or does some act against his will. Blackmail is a crime.

CHAPTER 61

FALSE PRETENSES, FALSE PERSONATIONS, CHEATS AND FRAUDS

FRAUDS IN GENERAL

FALSE PERSONATION

FALSE PRETENSES; TRICK OR DECEPTION

FRAUDS IN GENERAL

§ 1500. Real property loans—Securing by false instrument—Penalty

A. It shall be unlawful for any person willfully, knowingly, or fraudulently to make, issue, deliver, use or submit, or to participate in making, issuing, delivering, using or submitting any fictitious, false or fraudulent offer, agreement, contract or other instrument concerning any real property or improvements thereon for the purpose either of inducing or attempting to induce any lender, prospective lender or government agency to make any loan, advance or commitment or of securing any guaranty or insurance in connection therewith.

B. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed to be guilty of a crime.

§ 1501. Securing credit fraudulently—Penalty

Any person who shall:

1st. Knowingly make or cause to be made, either directly or indirectly, or through any agency whatsoever, any false statement in writing, with intent that it shall be relied upon, respecting the financial condition, or means or ability to pay, of himself, or any other person, firm or corporation, in whom he is interested, or for whom he is acting, for the purpose of procuring in any form whatsoever, either the delivery of personal property, the payment of cash, the making of a loan or credit, the extension of a credit, the discount of an account receivable, or the making, acceptance, discount, sale or endorsement of a bill of exchange or promissory note, for the benefit of either himself or of such person, firm or corporation; or

2nd. Knowing that a false statement in writing has been made, respecting the financial condition or means or ability to pay, of himself, or such person, firm or corporation in which he is interested, or for whom he is acting, procures, upon the faith thereof, for the benefit either of himself, or of such person, firm or corporation, either or any of the things of benefit mentioned in paragraph 1st of this section; or

3rd. Knowing that a statement in writing has been made, respecting the financial condition or means or ability to pay for himself, or such person, firm or corporation, in which he is interested, or for whom he is acting, represents on a later date in writing, that such statement theretofore made, if then again made on said day, would be then true, when in fact, said statement if then made would be false, and procures upon the faith thereof, for the benefit either of himself or of such person, firm or corporation, either or any of the things of benefit mentioned in paragraph 1st of this section; shall be deemed guilty of a crime and punished by imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1503. Defrauding hotels, inns, restaurants, etc.

Any person who shall obtain food, lodging, services or other accommodations at any hotel, inn, restaurant, boarding house, rooming house, motel or auto camp, with intent to defraud the owner or keeper thereof, if the value of such food, lodging, services or other accommodations is Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or more, upon conviction shall be guilty of a crime. Proof that such lodging, food, services or other accommodations were obtained by false pretense or by false or fictitious show or pretense of any baggage or other property, or that he gave a check on which payment was refused, or that he left the hotel, inn, restaurant, boarding house, rooming house, motel, trailer camp or auto camp, without payment or offering to pay for such food, lodging, services or other accommodation, or that he surreptitiously removed or attempted to remove his baggage, or that he registered under a fictitious name, shall be prima facie proof of the intent to defraud mentioned in this section; but this act shall not apply where there has been an agreement in writing for delay in payment.

§ 1510. Destroying evidence of ownership of wrecked property

Every person who defaces or obliterates the marks upon wrecked property, or in any manner disguises the appearance thereof with intent to prevent the owner from discovering its identity, or who destroys or suppresses any invoice, bill of lading or other document tending to show the ownership, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1518. Misrepresentation of age by false document

It shall be unlawful for any person, for the purpose of violating any statutes of Cherokee Nation, to willfully and knowingly misrepresent his age by presenting a false document purporting to state his true age.

§ 1519. Penalties

Any person violating the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1518 shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in an amount not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), or shall be confined to the penal institution for a period of not to exceed thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and confinement.

§ 1520. Provisions as cumulative

The provisions of this act shall be cumulative to existing laws.

§ 1524. Falsely holding out as notary or performing notarial act—Penalty

A. No person in this Nation shall hold himself out as a notary public, attach his signature as a notary public, use a notary public seal, or perform any notarial act unless he is authorized pursuant to the provisions of 49 CNCA § 114 to perform such acts.

B. Any person convicted of knowingly and willfully violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

FALSE PERSONATION

§ 1531. Marriage by impersonator—Becoming bail or surety—Execution of instrument—Creating liability or benefit

Every person who falsely personates another, and in such assumed character:

1. Marries or pretends to marry, or to sustain the marriage relation toward another, with or without the connivance of such other person; or
2. Becomes bail or surety for any party, in any proceeding whatever, before any court or officer authorized to take such bail or surety; or
3. Subscribes, verifies, publishes, acknowledges or proves, in the name of another person, any written instrument, with intent that the same may be delivered or used as true; or
4. Does any other act whereby, if it were done by the person falsely personated, he might in any event become liable to any suit or prosecution, or to pay any sum of money, or to incur any charge, forfeiture or penalty, or whereby any benefit might accrue to the party personating, or to any other person;

is guilty of a crime.

§ 1532. Receiving money or property intended for individual personated

Every person who falsely personates another, and in such assumed character receives any money or property, that knowing it is intended to be delivered to the individual so personated, with intent to convert the same to his own use, or to that of another person who is not entitled thereto, is punishable in the same manner and to the same extent as for larceny of the money or property so received.

§ 1533. Falsely personating officers and others

Every person who falsely personates any public officer, civil or military, or any fireman, or any emergency medical technician or other emergency medical care provider, or any private individual having special authority by law to perform any act affecting the rights or interests of another, or assumes, without authority, any uniform or badge by which such are usually distinguished, and in such assumed character does any act whereby another person is injured, defrauded, vexed or annoyed, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime.

FALSE PRETENSES; TRICK OR DECEPTION

§ 1541.1. False or bogus checks

A. Any person who, with intent to cheat and defraud, shall obtain or attempt to obtain from any person, firm or corporation any money, property or valuable thing, by making, drawing, uttering or delivering a false or bogus check, draft, or order, as herein defined, and fails to pay the check, draft or order within ten (10) days after receiving actual notice in person or in writing that it has not been paid because of insufficient funds or credit with the drawee, or because it was drawn on a nonexistent or closed account with drawee, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Actual notice in writing is presumed to have been given when deposited as certified matter in the United States mail, addressed to the person at the address provided upon issuance of the instrument.

C. The requirement of notice shall also be satisfied for written communications which are tendered to the defendant and which the defendant refuses to accept.

§ 1541.2. False or bogus check; notice of complaint; procedure

A. Upon referral of a complaint to the Cherokee Nation's Prosecuting Attorney in the Department of Justice that payment was refused by the drawee/bank for lack of funds, or a closed or nonexistent account, a notice of the complaint shall be sent by certified mail to the defendant, evidenced by return receipt, to the address printed on the check or given at the time of issuance, or to the current residence.

B. The notice shall contain:

1. The date and amount of the check, plus any applicable service charges the payee may have been required to pay a financial institution as the result of having received the false or bogus check;
2. The amount of any fees charged by any financial institution as a result of the check not being honored;
3. The amount of any administrative fees or costs assessed in the collection of said checks;
4. The name of the payee;
5. The name of the drawee/bank;
6. The date before which the defendant must contact the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney concerning the complaint; and
7. A statement of the penalty for obtaining money, merchandise or services by means of a false and bogus check.

C. The Cherokee Nation Justice Department may assess a reasonable fee against individuals whose checks have been returned under, the above section(s). Such fees must be placed in a specific account, used by the Justice Department to offset the actual costs of collection, including salaries, supplies, and expenses, and must be accounted for in the annual budget process.

§ 1541.3. Repealed by LA 25–02, eff. August 22, 2002

§ 1541.4. "False or bogus check or checks" defined

The term "false or bogus check or checks" shall include checks or orders which are not honored on account of insufficient funds of the maker to pay same, or because the check or order was drawn on a closed account or on a nonexistent account when such checks or orders are given in exchange for money or property or in exchange for any benefit or thing of value, as against the maker or drawer thereof, the making, drawing, uttering or delivering of a check, draft or order, payment of which is refused by the drawee, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud and the knowledge of insufficient funds in, or credit with, such bank or other depository; provided, such maker or drawer shall not have paid the drawee thereof the amount due thereon, together with the protest fees, within five (5) days from the date the same is presented for payment; and provided, further, that said check or order is presented for payment within thirty (30) days after same is delivered and accepted.

§ 1541.5. "Credit" defined

The word "credit," as used herein, shall be construed to mean an arrangement or understanding with the bank or depository for the payment of such check, draft or order.

§ 1542. Obtaining property or signature under false pretenses

Every person who, with intent to cheat or defraud another, designedly, by color or aid of any false token or writing, or other false pretense, obtains the signature of any person to any written instrument, or obtains from any person any money or property, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1543. Obtaining signature or property for charitable purposes by false pretenses

Every person who designedly, by color or aid of any false token or writing, or other false pretense, obtains the signature of any person to any written instrument, or obtains from any person any money or property for any alleged charitable or benevolent purpose whatever, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1550. Person committing crime in possession or control of firearm with removed, defaced, etc. serial number

A. Any person who, while in the commission or attempted commission of a crime, has in his possession or under his control a firearm, the factory serial number or identification number of which has been removed, defaced, altered, obliterated or mutilated in any manner, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Any person who removes, defaces, alters, obliterates or mutilates in any manner the factory serial number or identification number of a firearm, or in any manner participates therein, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime.

C. 1. Upon a conviction of a violation of this section, the Marshal, the Court Clerk, Sheriff, peace officer or other person having custody of the firearm shall immediately deliver the firearm to the Cherokee Nation Marshal, who shall preserve the firearm pending an order of the Court.

2. At the conclusion of a trial or proceeding for a violation of this section, if a finding is made that the factory serial number or identification number of the firearm has been removed, defaced, altered, obliterated or mutilated, the Court shall issue a written order to the Cherokee Nation Marshal for destruction of the firearm, unless the defendant files a timely motion to preserve the firearm pending appeal. At the conclusion of the appeal, if a finding is made that the factory serial number or identification number of the firearm has been removed, defaced, altered, obliterated or mutilated, the Supreme Court or the Trial Court shall issue a written order to the Marshal for destruction of the firearm.

is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 1573. Making false entries in record

Every person who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, forges or alters, any entry in any book of records, or any instrument purporting to be any record or return specified in 21 CNCA § 1572, and any abstractor, his officer, agent or employee, who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes or alters any abstract entry or copy thereof in any material matter, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 1585. Forging process of court or title to property, etc.

Every person who, with intent to defraud, falsely marks, alters, forges or counterfeits:

1. Any instrument in writing, being or purporting to be any process issued by any competent court, magistrate, or officer of being or purporting to be any pleading, proceeding, bond or undertaking filed or entered in any court, or being or purporting to be any license or authority authorized by any statute; or
2. Any instrument of writing, being or purporting to be the act of another by which any pecuniary demand or obligation is, or purports to be created, increased, discharged or diminished, or by which any rights or property whatever, are, or purport to be, transferred, conveyed, discharged, diminished, or in any manner affected, the punishment of which is not hereinbefore prescribed, by which false marking, altering, forging or counterfeiting, any person may be affected, bound or in any way injured in his person or property; is guilty of a forgery in the second degree.

§ 1586. Making false entries in public book

Every person who, with intent to defraud, makes any false entry or falsely alters any entry made in any book of accounts kept in the office of the State Auditor and Inspector, or in the office of the Treasurer of this Nation or of any county treasurer, by which any demand or obligation, claim, right or interest either against or in favor of the people of this Nation, or any county or town, or any individual, is or purports to be discharged, diminished, increased, created, or in any manner affected, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 1593. Falsely obtaining signature

Every person who, by any false representation, artifice or deceit, procures from another his signature to any instrument, the false making of which would be forgery, and which the party signing would not have executed had he known the facts and effect of the instrument, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1621. Punishment for forgery

Forgery is punishable by imprisonment in the penal institution as follows:

Forgery in the first degree or second degree is a crime.

§ 1622. Fraudulently uttering one's signature as that of another of same name

Every person who, with intent to defraud, makes or subscribes any instrument in his own name, intended to create, increase, discharge, defeat or diminish any pecuniary obligation, right or interest, or to transfer or affect any property whatever, and utters or passes such instrument, under the pretense that it is the act of another who bears the same name, is guilty of forgery in the same degree as if he had forged the instrument of a person bearing a different name from his own.

§ 1623. Fraudulently uttering one's endorsement as another's

Every person who, with intent to defraud, endorses any negotiable instrument in his own name, and utters or passes such instrument, under the fraudulent pretense that it is endorsed by another person who bears the same name, is guilty of forgery in the same degree as if he had forged the endorsement of a person bearing a different name from his own.

§ 1624. Erasure and obliterations

The total or partial erasure or obliteration of any instrument or writing, with intent to defraud, by which any pecuniary obligation, or any right, interest or claim to property is or is intended to be created, increased, discharged, diminished or in any manner affected, is forgery in the same degree as the false alteration of any part of such instrument or writing.

§ 1625. Writing and written defined

Every instrument partly printed and partly written, or wholly printed with a written signature thereto, and every signature of an individual, firm or corporation, or of any officer of such body, and every writing purporting to be such signature, is a writing or a written instrument, within the meaning of the provisions of this chapter.

§ 1627. False or bogus order directing payment of money

Every person who, with intent to cheat or defraud, shall obtain or attempt to obtain from any person any labor or personal services, or the postponement of actual payment due for labor or personal services theretofore performed, by means or use of any false or bogus written, printed or engraved order directing the payment of money, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution for not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The term "false or bogus written, printed or engraved order directing the payment of money," in addition to its common meaning, also shall include any check, draft or order on any bank or trust company which is not honored on presentation on account of insufficient funds to the credit of the maker or drawer thereof with which to pay same. The word "credit," as used herein, shall mean any arrangement or understanding with a bank or trust company for the payment by it of any check, draft or money payment order.

As against the maker or drawer of any false or bogus written, printed or engraved order directing the payment of money, and as against any officer or employee of the maker or drawer thereof, who shall authorize or direct the making, drawing, uttering or delivering, or who shall make, draw, utter or deliver any such false or bogus written, printed or engraved order directing the payment of money, to obtain or to attempt to obtain from any person any labor or personal services, or the postponement of actual payment due for labor or personal services, the fact of dishonor or refusal to pay the amount of money specified in said false or bogus order shall be prima facie evidence of intent to cheat or defraud, and of knowledge of insufficient funds to the credit of the maker or drawer, with the drawer specified therein, to pay the same; provided, said fact shall not constitute prima facie evidence as above set forth if the maker or drawer shall pay the amount of such false or bogus order, together with protest fees, within five (5) days from the date the same shall have been presented to the drawer for payment; and provided further, that said fact shall not constitute prima facie evidence as above set forth unless the said false or bogus order be presented to the drawer within thirty (30) days after the same shall have been uttered or delivered.

§ 1627.1. False or bogus orders as payment for labor—Penalties

In addition to the criminal penalties imposed pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1627, any person who obtains or attempts to obtain from any person, with the intent to cheat or defraud, any labor or personal services, or the postponement of actual payment due for labor or personal services performed, by means or use of any false or bogus written, printed or engraved order directing the payment of money, shall also be liable to the payee, in addition to the amount owing upon such order, for damages of double the amount so owing, but in no case shall the amount of damages awarded be less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), plus reasonable attorney fees and court costs. Said damages shall be recoverable in a civil action.

§ 1685. Cruelty to animals

Any person who shall willfully or maliciously overdrive, overload, torture, destroy or kill, or cruelly beat or injure, maim or mutilate, any animal in subjugation or captivity, whether wild or tame, and whether belonging to himself or to another, or deprive any such animal of necessary food, drink or shelter; or who shall cause, procure or permit any such animal to be so overdriven, overloaded, tortured, destroyed or killed, or cruelly beaten or injured, maimed or mutilated, or deprived of necessary food, drink or shelter; or who shall willfully set on foot, instigate, engage in, or in any way further any act of cruelty to any animal, or any act tending to produce such cruelty, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1686. Abandoned animals—Destroyed how

A. Any person owning or having charge or custody of a maimed, diseased, disabled, or infirm animal who abandons said animal or who allows said animal to lie in a public street, road, or public place one (1) hour after said person receives notice by a duly constituted authority that the animal is disabled or dead, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Any peace officer, animal control officer, or agent or officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals or of any humane society duly incorporated for the purpose of the prevention of cruelty to animals may destroy or cause to be destroyed any animal found abandoned and for which no proper care has been given.

C. When any person who is arrested, and who is at the time of such arrest in charge of any animal or of any vehicle drawn by or containing any animal, any peace officer, animal control officer, or agent or officer of said humane societies may take custody of the animal or of the vehicle and its contents, or deliver the animal or the vehicle and its contents into the possession of the police or sheriff of the county or place where such arrest was made, who shall assume the custody thereof. All necessary expenses incurred in taking custody of the animal or of the vehicle and its contents shall be a lien on such property.

D. For the purpose of the provisions of this section and 21 CNCA § 1691, the term abandon means the voluntary relinquishment of an animal with no intention to retain possession and shall include but shall not be limited to vacating a premises and leaving the animal in or at the premises, or failing to feed the animal or allowing it to stray or wander onto private or public property with the intention of surrendering ownership or custody over said animal.

§ 1688. Animals in transit

Any person who carries or causes to be carried in or upon any vessel or vehicle, or otherwise, any animal in a cruel or inhuman manner, or so as to produce torture is guilty of a crime.

§ 1689. Poisonous drugs, unjustifiable administration of Any person who unjustifiably administers any poisonous or noxious drug or substance to any animal, or unjustifiably exposes any such drug or substance with intent that the same shall be taken by an animal, whether such animal be the property of himself or another, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1691. Abandoning of domestic animals along streets or highways or in any public place prohibited

Any person who deposits any live dog, cat, or other domestic animal along any private or public roadway, or in any other private or public place with the intention of abandoning the domestic animal upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1692. Penalty

Any person found guilty of violating the provisions of this act shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or be imprisoned in the penal institution for not more than one (1) year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1705. Punishment for grand larceny

Grand larceny is punishable as a crime.

§ 1706. Punishment for petit larceny

Petit larceny shall be punishable by a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) or more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or imprisonment in the penal institution not to exceed six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the Court.

§ 1707. Grand larceny in house or vessel—Punishment

When it appears upon a trial for grand larceny that the larceny alleged was committed in any dwelling house or vessel, the offender shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1708. Grand larceny in night time from person—Punishment

When it appears upon such trial, that such larceny was committed by stealing in the night time, from the person of another, the offender shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1709. Larceny of written instrument—Value

If the thing stolen consists of any evidence of debt or other written instrument, the amount of money due thereon or secured to be paid thereby and remaining unsatisfied, or which in any contingency might be collected thereon, or the value of the property the title to which is shown thereby, or the sum of which might be recovered in the absence thereof, as the case may be, shall be deemed the value of the thing stolen.

§ 1712. Severed fixture, larceny of Any fixture or part of realty, the instant it is severed from the realty becomes personal property, and the subject of larceny within the meaning of this article.

§ 1713. Receiving stolen property—Presumption

Every person who buys or receives, in any manner, upon any consideration, any personal property of any value whatsoever that has been stolen, embezzled, obtained by false pretense or robbery, knowing or having reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen, embezzled, obtained by false pretense, or robbery, or who conceals, withholds, or aids in concealing or withholding such property from the owner, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1714. Fraudulent consumption of gas

Every person who, with intent to defraud, makes or causes to be made, any pipe or other instrument or contrivance, and connects the same, or causes it to be connected, with any pipe laid for conducting illuminating gas, so as to conduct gas to a point where the same may be consumed without its passing through the meter providing for registering the quantity consumed, or in any other manner so as to evade paying therefor, and every person who with like intent injures or alters any gas meter, or obstructs its action, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1715. Bringing stolen property into the nation

Every person who steals the property of another in any other nation or state or country, and brings the same into this nation may be convicted and punished in the same manner as if such larceny had been committed in this Nation, and such larceny may be charged to have been committed in any town or city into or through which such stolen property has been brought.

§ 1716. Larceny of domestic animals

Any person in this Nation who shall steal any horse, jackass, jennet, mule, cow, or hog, sheep, or goat, shall be guilty of a crime. The word "horse" as used in this act, shall include all animals of the equine species and the word "cow" shall include all animals of bovine species.

§ 1717. Dog as personal property

All animals of the dog kind, whether male or female, shall be considered the personal property of the owner thereof, for all purposes.

§ 1718. Larceny of dogs

The taking of personal property of the kind defined in 21 CNCA § 1717, accomplished by fraud or stealth, and with the intent to deprive another thereof, is hereby defined as larceny and punishable in the same manner and to the same degree as in larceny of other descriptions of personal property.

§ 1719. Domestic fowls, larceny of—Receiving stolen fowls

Every person who shall take, steal and carry away any domestic fowl, or fowls, and any person purchasing or receiving such domestic fowl, or fowls, knowing them to have been stolen, shall be guilty of larceny.

§ 1722. Taking oil, gas, gasoline or any product thereof—When crime

Any person who shall unlawfully take any crude oil or gasoline, or any product thereof, from any pipe, pipeline, tank, tank car, or other receptacle or container and any person who shall unlawfully take or cause to be taken any machinery, drilling mud, equipment or other materials necessary for the drilling or production of oil or gas wells, with intent to deprive the owner or lessee thereof of said crude oil, gas, gasoline, or any product thereof, machinery, drilling mud, equipment or other materials necessary for the drilling or production of oil or gas wells shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1723. Larceny from the house

Any person entering and stealing any money or other thing of value from any house, railroad car, tent, booth or temporary building shall be guilty of larceny from the house. Larceny from the house is declared to be a crime.

§ 1730. Act as cumulative—Definitions

This act shall be cumulative of all laws of the Nation and any violation hereof may be prosecuted, irrespective of whether or not the acts complained of constitute any or some of the essential elements of other or different offenses against the penal laws of this Nation; and for the purposes of this act the word "stolen" or "steal" shall mean larceny as defined by 21 CNCA § 1701, and the word "stolen" or "steal" need not be defined in any indictment, complaint, or information for the prosecution of any offense hereunder.

§ 1738. Seizure and forfeiture proceedings—Vehicles, airplanes, vessels, etc., used in attempt or commission of certain crimes

A. Any commissioned peace officer of this Nation is authorized to seize any vehicle, airplane, vessel, vehicles or parts of vehicles whose numbers have been removed, altered or obliterated so as to prevent determination of the true identity or ownership of said property and parts of vehicles which probable cause indicates are stolen but whose true ownership cannot be determined, or equipment which is used in the attempt or commission of any act of burglary in the first or second degree, larceny of livestock, motor vehicle theft, unauthorized use of a vehicle, obliteration of distinguishing numbers on vehicles or criminal possession of vehicles with altered, removed or obliterated numbers as defined by 21 CNCA § 1431, 21 CNCA § 1435, 21 CNCA § 1716, 21 CNCA § 1719 and 21 CNCA § 1720 or 47 CNCA §§ 4–104 and 4–107. Said property may be held as evidence until a forfeiture has been declared or are lease ordered.

B. Notice of seizure and intended forfeiture proceeding shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court for the county wherein such property is seized and shall be given all owners and parties in interest.

C. Notice shall be given according to one (1) of the following methods:

1. Upon each owner or party in interest whose right, title, or interest is of record in the Oklahoma Tax Commission or with the county clerk for filings under the Uniform Commercial Code, served in the manner of service of process in civil cases prescribed by 12 O.S. § 2004;

2. Upon each owner or party in interest whose name and address is known, served in the manner of service of process in civil cases prescribed by 12 O.S. § 2004; or

3. Upon all other owners, whose addresses are unknown, but who are believed to have an interest in the property by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the seizure was made.

D. Within sixty (60) days after the mailing or publication of the notice, the owner of the property and any other party in interest or claimant may file a verified answer and claim to the property described in the notice of seizure and of the intended forfeiture proceeding.

E. If at the end of sixty (60) days after the notice has been mailed or published there is no verified answer on file, the court shall hear evidence upon the fact of the unlawful use and may order the property forfeited to the Nation, if such fact is proven.

F. If a verified answer is filed, the forfeiture proceeding shall be set for hearing.

G. At the hearing the Nation shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that property was used in the attempt or commission of an act specified in subsection (A) of this section with knowledge by the owner of the property.

H. The claimant of any right, title, or interest in the property may prove his lien, mortgage, or conditional sales contract to be bona fide and that his right, title, or interest was created without any knowledge or reason to believe that the property was being, or was to be, used for the purpose charged.

I. In the event of such proof, the Court may order the property released to the bona fide or innocent owner, lien holder, mortgagee, or vendor if the amount due him is equal to, or in excess of, the value of the property as of the date of the seizure, it being the intention of this section to forfeit only the right, title, or interest of the purchaser.

J. If the amount due to such person is less than the value of the property, or if no bona fide claim is established, the property shall be forfeited to the Nation and shall be sold pursuant to judgment of the Court, as on sale upon execution, except as otherwise provided for by law.

K. Property taken or detained pursuant to this section shall not be repleviable, but shall be deemed to be in the custody of the office of the prosecutor of the county wherein the property was seized. The prosecutor shall release said property to the owner of the property if it is determined that the owner had no knowledge of the illegal use of the property or if there is insufficient evidence to sustain the burden of showing illegal use of such property. If the owner of the property stipulates to the forfeiture and waives the hearing, the prosecutor may determine if the value of the property is equal to or less than the outstanding lien. If such lien exceeds the value of the property, the property may be released to the lien holder. Property which has not been released by the prosecutor shall be subject to the orders and decrees of the Court or the official having jurisdiction thereof.

L. The prosecutor shall not be held civilly liable for having custody of the seized property or proceeding with a forfeiture action as provided for in this section.

M. Attorney fees shall not be assessed against the Nation or the prosecutor for any actions or proceeding pursuant to 21 CNCA § 1701 et seq.

N. The proceeds of the sale of any property shall be distributed as follows, in the order indicated:

1. To the bona fide or innocent purchaser, conditional sales vendor, or mortgagee of the property, if any, up to the amount of his interest in the property, when the Court declaring the forfeiture orders a distribution to such person;

2. To the payment of the actual reasonable expenses of preserving the property;

3. To the victim of the crime to compensate said victim for any loss he may have incurred as a result of the act for which such property was forfeited; and

4. The balance to a revolving fund in the office of the county treasurer of the county wherein the property was seized, to be distributed as follows: one-third (1/3) to the office of the arresting authorities; one-third (1/3) of said fund to be used and maintained as a revolving fund by the prosecutor for the victim-witness fund, a reward fund or the evidence fund; and one-third (1/3) to go to the jail maintenance fund, with a yearly accounting to the board of county commissioners in whose county the fund is established. Monies from said fund may be used to pay costs for the storage of such property if such property is ordered released to a bona fide or innocent owner, lien holder, mortgagee, or vendor and if such funds are available in said fund.

O. If the Court finds that the property was not used in the attempt or commission of an act specified in subsection (A) of this section, the Court shall order the property released to the owner as his right, title, or interest appears on record in the Oklahoma Tax Commission as of the seizure.

P. No vehicle, airplane, or vessel used by a person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier shall be forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this section unless it shall be proven that the owner or other person in charge of such conveyance was a consenting party or privy to the attempt or commission of an act specified in subsection (A) of this section. No property shall be forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without the knowledge or consent of such owner, and by any person other than such owner while such property was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the owner in violation of the criminal laws of the United States or of any nation.

§ 1739. Library theft

A. As used in this section:

1. "Demand" means either actual notice to the possessor of any library materials or the mailing of written notice to the possessor at the last address of record which the library facility has for said person, demanding the return of designated library materials. If demand is made by mail it shall be deemed to have been given as of the date the notice is mailed by the library facility.

2. "Library facility" means any:

a. public library; or

b. library of an educational, historical or eleemosynary institution, organization, or society; or

c. museum; or

d. repository of public or institutional records.

3. "Library material" means any book, plate, picture, photograph, engraving, painting, drawing, map, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, broadside, manuscript, document, letter, record, microform, sound recording, audiovisual materials in any format, magnetic or other tapes, catalog cards or catalog records, electronic data processing records, computer software, artifacts, or other documentary, written or printed materials regardless of physical form or characteristics, belonging or on loan to, or otherwise in the custody of a library facility.

B. Any person shall be guilty, upon conviction, of library theft who willfully:

1. Removes or attempts to remove any library material from the premises of a library facility without authority; or

2. Mutilates, destroys, alters or otherwise damages, in whole or in part, any library materials; or

3. Fails to return any library materials which have been lent to said person by the library facility, within seven (7) days after demand has been made for the return of the library materials.

C. A person convicted of library theft shall be guilty of a crime and shall be subject to the fine and restitution provisions of this subsection but shall not be subject to imprisonment. The punishment for conviction of library theft shall be:

1. If the aggregate value of the library material is Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or less, by fine not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or the offender shall make restitution to the library facility, including payment of all related expenses incurred by the library facility as a result of the actions of the offender, or both such fine and restitution; or

2. If the aggregate value of the library material is greater than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), by fine not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or the offender shall make restitution to the library facility, including payment of all expenses incurred by the library facility as a result of the actions of the offender, or both such fine and restitution.

D. Copies of the provisions of this section shall be posted on the premises of each library facility.

CHAPTER 69

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF

§ 1753. Highways, injuries to

Every person who maliciously digs up, removes, displaces, breaks, or otherwise injures or destroys any public highway or bridge, or any private way laid out by authority of law, or bridge upon such way, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1753.3. Throwing, dropping, depositing, or otherwise placing litter upon highways, roads, or public property—Penalties

A. The operator of a vehicle shall be liable pursuant to subsection (B) of this section for any act of throwing, dropping, depositing, or otherwise placing any litter from his vehicle upon highways, roads, or public property unless any other person in the vehicle admits to or is identified as having committed said act. Any person who admits to or is identified as having committed said act shall be liable for said act.

B. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsection (A) of this section shall be subject to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1761.1.

C. As used in this section, "litter" means any flaming or glowing substances except those which by law may be placed upon highway rights-of-way, any substance which may cause a fire, any bottles, cans, trash, garbage, or debris of any kind. As used in this section, "litter" shall not include trash, garbage, or debris placed beside a public road for collection by a garbage or collection agency, or deposited upon or within public property designated by the nation or by any of its agencies or political subdivisions as an appropriate place for such deposits if the person making the deposit is authorized to use the property for such purpose.

§ 1753.4. Erection of signs and markers along state and federal highways

The State Highway Department is hereby authorized and directed to cause to be erected upon the property of or rights-of-way of state and federal highways, at locations most appropriate for carrying out the purposes and intent of this act, signs or markers for each prohibited act enumerated herein, of a size not less than thirty (30) inches square with plainly visible wording to inform users of said highways that the acts enumerated herein do constitute a crime and the maximum penalty for violations, and such additional wording as the State Highway Department deems desirable to assist in carrying out the purposes and intent of this act. Any sign or marker so erected or placed shall be placed at a right angle to the roadbed. The location of signs or markers upon the right-of-way shall in no manner interfere with the signs or markers used to designate route numbers or traffic control markers, signs, signals or devices.

§ 1753.5. Erection of signs and markers along county roads

The boards of county commissioners are hereby authorized to erect signs or markers, as provided herein, upon the property of or right-of-way of county roads within their respective jurisdictions.

§ 1753.6. Enforcement

The State Highway Patrol, the sheriffs of the several counties, and all other peace officers in this Nation shall have the authority and it shall be their duty to enforce the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1753.3.

§ 1753.7. Exceptions

The provisions of this act shall not apply to:

1. Flaming or glowing substances which by law may be placed upon highway rights-of-way for the purposes of highway safety; or
2. Trash, garbage or debris placed beside a public road for collection by an established garbage or collection agency.

§ 1753.8. Defacing, stealing or possessing road signs or markers—Penalties

Any person who defaces, steals or possesses any road sign or marker posted by any city, state, county, or Cherokee Nation shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution for a term of not more than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1754. Obstructing highways—Punishment—Damages

Every person who shall knowingly and willfully obstruct or plow up, or cause to be obstructed or plowed up, any public highway or public street of any town, except by order of the road supervisors for the purpose of working the same, or injure any bridge on the public highway, shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished by fine not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), and shall be liable for all damages to person or property by reason of the same.

§ 1757. Telephone and telegraph lines—Injuries—Removal or obstruction—Interception of messages

Any person who maliciously, or without legal authority, removes, injures, or obstructs any line of telephone or telegraph, or any part thereof, or appurtenances or apparatus therewith connected, or severs any wires thereof, or fraudulently or without legal authority, intercepts any message, communication or conversation in its passage over such wires, or who fraudulently or without legal authority connects to any telephone or telegraph line or wire any instrument or other apparatus capable of being used in intercepting messages, communications or conversations, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00), nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or imprisonment in the penal institution not exceeding one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1758. Irrigation ditches, canals, water lines or conduits—Interference with

It shall be unlawful for any person to divert any of the waters from any irrigation ditch, canal, waterline or conduit, in this Nation, or to interfere in any manner whatever with any irrigation ditch, canal, water line or conduit, without first having obtained the permission of the owner of such ditch, canal, waterline or conduit, or of the person or persons lawfully in charge thereof.

§ 1759. Penalty

Any person violating any of the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1758 shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 1760. Malicious injury or destruction of property generally—Punishment—Damages

A. Every person who maliciously injures, defaces or destroys any real or personal property not his own, in cases other than such as are specified in 21 CNCA § 1761 and following sections, is guilty of a crime.

B. In addition to the punishment prescribed in subsection (A) of this section, he is liable in treble damages for the injury done, to be recovered in a civil action by the owner of such property or public officer having charge thereof.

§ 1761. Following sections do not restrict 21 CNCA § 1760

The specification of the acts enumerated in the following sections of this chapter is not intended to restrict or qualify the interpretation of 21 CNCA § 1760.

§ 1761.1. Dumping, etc. of trash on public or private property prohibited—Penalties

A. Any person who deliberately places, throws, drops, deposits or discards any garbage, trash, waste, rubbish, refuse, debris or other deleterious substance on any public property or on any private property of another without consent shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsection (A) of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or by imprisonment in the penal institution for not more than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

C. In addition to the penalty prescribed by subsection (B) of this section, the Court may direct the person to make restitution to the property owner affected; to remove and properly dispose of the garbage, trash, waste, refuse or debris from the property; to pick up, remove and properly dispose of garbage, trash, waste, rubbish, refuse, debris and other nonhazardous deleterious substances from public property; or any combination of the foregoing which the Court, in its discretion, deems appropriate. The dates, times and locations of such activities shall be scheduled by the marshal pursuant to the order of the Court in such a manner as not to interfere with the employment or family responsibilities of the person.

D. In addition to the penalty prescribed in subsection (B) and the restitution prescribed in subsection (C), the Court may order the defendant to pay into the reward fund as prescribed in 22 CNCA § 1334 an amount not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

E. Any full-time peace officer in this Nation including but not limited to the Marshal, state highway patrol, county sheriffs and deputies, municipal law enforcement department, and any other employee of this Nation having peace officer authority upon investigation of the disposal of any substance in violation of this section which contains three or more items bearing a common address in a form which tends to identify the latest owner of the items shall create a rebuttable presumption that all competent persons residing at such address committed the unlawful act. The discovery or use of such evidence shall not be sufficient to qualify for the reward provided in 22 CNCA § 1334.

F. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsection (A) of this section with any flaming or glowing substance, or any substance which may cause a fire shall be punished by a fine of not less than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or by imprisonment for not more than sixty (60) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The penalties collected from the payment of the citations shall, after deduction of court costs, be paid to the fire department of the district in which the flaming or glowing substance was discarded. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be liable for all damages caused by the violation. Damages shall be recoverable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

G. During a burn ban declared by the Principal Chief, any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsection (A) of this section with any flaming or glowing substances, or any substance which may cause a fire shall be punished by a fine of not less than Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) nor more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or by imprisonment for not more than one hundred twenty (120) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The penalties collected from the payment of the citations shall, after deduction of court costs, be paid to the fire department of the district in which the flaming or glowing substance was discarded. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be liable for all damages caused by the violation. Damages shall be recoverable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 1761.2. Illegal dumping on tribal land prohibited—Penalties

A. It shall be a crime for any person to dump, deposit, throw or in any manner leave or abandon any liquid or solid waste, including trash, ashes or incinerator residue, street refuse, dead animals, demolition waste, construction waste, solid or semi-solid or semi-solid commercial and industrial waste, hazardous waste, explosives, pathological waste, chemical waste, herbicides, pesticides, or any scrap materials on property owned by or held in trust for Cherokee Nation without the written permission of Cherokee Nation.

B. Any party in violation of this statute shall be subject to any provision for fines and/or other punishment as provided by Cherokee Nation, state or federal law.

§ 1762. Mining claims—Unlawful to tear down legal notice or deface any record

Any person who shall willfully or maliciously tear down or deface any legal notice posted on any mining claim, or take up or destroy any stakes or monument used for marking such mining claims, or who shall willfully or maliciously throw or place any dirt, water, brush, stones or other foreign substance into any mining shaft or tunnel belonging to or claimed by another, or who shall willfully or maliciously alter, erase, deface or destroy any record kept by any legally-elected mining recorder shall be deemed guilty of a crime and shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), or by imprisonment for not less than ten (10) days nor more than six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1765. House of worship or contents, injuring

Every person who willfully breaks, defaces, or otherwise injures any house or place of worship including traditional stomp grounds, or any part thereof, or any appurtenance thereto, or any book, furniture, ornament, musical instrument, article of silver or plated ware, or other chattel kept therein for use in connection with religious worship, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1767.1. Bombs and explosives—Foul, poisonous, offensive or injurious substances—Telephone threats

A. Any person who shall willfully and maliciously commit any of the following acts shall be deemed guilty of a crime:

1. Any person who places in, upon, under, against, or near to any building, car, aircraft, motor or other vehicle, vessel or structure, any gunpowder, dynamite, bomb, any explosive substance, or incendiary device, with unlawful intent to destroy, throw down, or injure, in whole or in part, such property of another, or conspires, aids, counsels, or procures the destruction of any building or structure, public or private, or any car, aircraft, motor or other vehicle, vessel or structure, shall be guilty of a crime; or

2. Any person who places in, upon, under, against or near to any building, car, aircraft, motor or other vehicle, vessel or structure, any gunpowder, dynamite, bomb, or any explosive substance with intent to destroy, throw down or injure the whole or any part thereof, under circumstances that, if such intent were accomplished, human life or safety would be endangered thereby, shall be guilty of a crime; or

3. Every person who maliciously, by the explosion of gunpowder, dynamite or any explosive substance, destroys, throws down, or injures any property of another, or by which explosion an injury is caused to the person of another, shall be guilty of a crime; or

4. Any person or group of persons who shall willfully manufacture, sell, transport, or possess a bomb or any explosive including an incendiary device or the component parts of an explosive or incendiary device with knowledge or intent that it will be used to unlawfully kill, injure or intimidate any person, or unlawfully damage any real or personal property, is guilty of a crime; or

5. Any person who shall place in, upon, under, against or near to any building, car, aircraft, motor or other vehicle, vessel or structure, any foul, poisonous, offensive or injurious substance or compound, with intent to wrongfully injure, molest or coerce another or to injure or damage the property of another, shall be guilty of a crime; or

6. Any person or group of persons who maliciously injures, damages or attempts to damage by an explosive, including an incendiary device, any person, persons, or property, whether real or personal, is guilty of a crime; or

7. Any person who uses the telephone or other instrument to willfully make any threat or maliciously convey information known to be false, concerning an attempt or alleged attempt to kill, injure or intimidate any person or unlawfully damage any real or personal property by means of an explosive, including an incendiary device, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to apply to, or repeal any laws pertaining to, the acts of mischief of juveniles involving noninjurious firecrackers or devices commonly called "stink bombs."

§ 1767.2. Violations of preceding section

Any person violating any of the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1767.1 shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 1767.3. Definitions

As used in 21 CNCA § 1767.1:

1. "Component parts" means separate parts which if assembled would form an explosive device. Component parts of an "incendiary device" shall consist of an inflammable material, a breakable container and a source of ignition.

2. "Explosive" or "explosives" means any chemical compound, mixture or device, the primary or common purpose of which is to function by explosion, i.e., with substantial instantaneous release of gas and heat, unless such compound, mixture or device is otherwise specifically classified by the United States Department of Transportation. The term "explosives" shall include all material which is classified as explosives by the United States Department of Transportation.

3. "Incendiary device" means any chemical compound, mixture or device, the primary purpose of which is to ignite on impact or as a result of chemical reaction such as a "molotov cocktail" or "firebomb" which is ignited on impact, causing a mechanical reaction of the container's breaking and permitting the inflammable matter to spread or splatter and is ignited from the burning wick or hyperbolic reaction of chemicals.

2. "Person" means any individual, firm, copartnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee or personal representative thereof.

§ 1767.4. Tracing of telephone calls—Immunity

Any telephone company, its officers, agents or employees, when acting upon any request by the state or any governing body of a political subdivision thereof, which shall expressly include school districts, shall make reasonable effort to identify the telephone from which any telephone communication claimed to be prohibited by this act is being or has been made. If identification of such telephone is made, the telephone company, its officers, agents or employees shall provide to state law enforcement officials the location of such telephone. Any telephone company, its officers, agents or employees, in acting pursuant to this section of this act, shall be immune from any civil or criminal action or liability under this or any other state or local act, rule, regulation or ordinance.

§ 1768. Malicious injury to freehold—Carrying away earth, soil or stone

Every person who willfully commits any trespass by either:

1. Cutting down or destroying any kind of wood or timber, standing or growing upon the lands of another; or, driving or riding through, into, or across any cultivated hedge or tree row, or any grove of ornamental trees or orchard of fruit trees growing upon the land of another, or in any other manner injuring the same; or

2. Carrying away any kind of wood or timber that has been cut down, and is lying on such lands; or

3. Maliciously severing from the freehold any produce thereof, or anything attached thereto; or

4. Digging, taking, or carrying away from any lot situated within the bounds of any incorporated city, without the license of the owner, or legal occupant thereof, any earth, soil or stone, being a part of the freehold, or severed therefrom at some previous time, under such circumstances as would render the trespass a larceny, if the thing so severed or carried away were personal property; or

5. Digging, taking, or carrying away from any land in any incorporated city or town of this state, laid down on the map or plan of said city or town as a street or avenue, or otherwise established or recognized as a street or avenue, without the license of the mayor and common council or other governing body of such city or town, or owner of the fee thereof, any earth, soil or stone under such circumstances as would render the trespass a larceny, if the thing so severed or carried away were personal property;

is guilty of a crime.

§ 1770. Standing crops, injuring

Every person who maliciously injures or destroys any standing crops, grain, cultivated fruits, or vegetables, the property of another, in any case for which a punishment is not otherwise prescribed by this chapter or by some other statute, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1771. Injuring fruit, melons or flowers in the day time

Every person who maliciously or mischievously enters in the day time, the enclosure, or goes upon the premises of another, with the intent to knock off, pick, destroy, or carry away, or having lawfully entered or gone upon does afterward wrongfully knock off, pick, destroy, or carry away any apples, peaches, pears, plums, grapes, or other fruit, melons, or flowers of any tree, shrub, bush, or vine, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and not less than Five Dollars ($5.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution not exceeding thirty (30) days.

§ 1772. Injuring fruit, melons or flowers in the night time

Every person who shall maliciously or mischievously enter the enclosure, or go upon the premises of another in the night time, and knock off, pick, destroy, or carry away, any apples, peaches, pears, plums, grapes, or other fruit, melons, or flowers of any tree, shrub, bush, or vine, or having entered the enclosure or gone upon the premises of another, in the night time, with the intent to knock off, pick, destroy, or carry away any fruit or flowers, as aforesaid, be actually found thereon, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by fine not exceeding One Hundred ($100.00) and not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution not exceeding thirty (30) days.

§ 1773. Injuring fruit or ornamental trees

Every person who shall maliciously or mischievously, bruise, break or pull up, cut down, carry away, destroy, or in anywise injure any fruit or ornamental tree, shrub, vine or material for hedge, being, growing, or standing on the land of another, shall be punished by fine not exceeding One Hundred ($100.00) and not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution not exceeding thirty (30) days.

§ 1774. Removing or altering landmarks

Every person who either:

1. Maliciously removes any monuments of stone, wood, or other material, erected for the purpose of designating any point in the boundary of any lot or tract of land; or

2. Maliciously defaces or alters the marks upon any tree, post or other monument, made for the purpose of designating any point, course, or line in any such boundary; or

3. Maliciously cuts down or removes any tree upon which any such marks have been made for such purpose, with intent to destroy such marks;

is guilty of a crime.

§ 1775. Piers or dams, interfering with

Every person who, without authority of law, interferes with any pier, booms or dams, lawfully erected or maintained upon any waters within this Nation, or hoists any gate in or about said dams, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1776. Destroying dam

Every person who maliciously destroys any dam or structure erected to create hydraulic power, or any embankment necessary for the support thereof, or maliciously makes, or causes to be made, any aperture in such dam or embankment, with intent to destroy the same, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1777. Piles, removing or injuring

Every person who maliciously draws up or removes or cuts or otherwise injures any piles fixed in the ground and used for securing any bank or dam of any river, canal, drain, aqueduct, marsh, reservoir, pool, port, dock, quay, jetty or lock, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1778. Train signal light, removing or masking—False light or signal

Every person who unlawfully masks, alters or removes any light or signal, or willfully exhibits any false light or signal, with intent to bring any locomotive or any railway car or train of cars into danger, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1779. Injuring written instruments the false making of which would be forgery

Every person who maliciously mutilates, tears, defaces, obliterates, or destroys any written instrument being the property of another, the false making of which would be forgery, is punishable in the same manner as the forgery of such instrument is made punishable.

§ 1782. Messages—Disclosing contents of Any person who shall disclose the contents of any telegraphic dispatch or telephone message or communication, or any part thereof, addressed to or which he knows to be intended for another person without the permission of such person, except upon the lawful order of a Court, or the Judge thereof, with intent to cause injury, damage or disgrace to such other person, or which does in fact cause injury, damage or disgrace to such other person, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00), nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the penal institution not less than thirty (30) days, nor more than one (1) year, or by both such imprisonment and fine. Provided, that nothing herein shall apply to public officers in the discharge of their duties.

§ 1784. Works of art or ornamental improvements, injuring

Every person who willfully injures, disfigures or destroys, not being the owner thereof, any monument work of art, or useful or ornamental improvement, or any shade tree or ornamental plant, growing therein, whether situated upon private ground, or on any street, sidewalk or public park or place, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1785. Works of literature or art in public place, injuring

Every person who maliciously cuts, tears, disfigures, soils, obliterates, breaks or destroys any book, map, chart, picture, engraving, statue, coin, model, apparatus, specimen or other work of literature or art, or object of curiosity deposited in any public library, gallery, museum, collection, fair or exhibition, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1786. Injuries to pipes and wires

Every person who willfully breaks, digs up or obstructs any pipes or mains for conducting gas or water, or any works erected for supplying buildings with gas or water, or any appurtenances or appendages therewith connected, or injures, cuts, breaks down or destroys any electric light wires, poles or appurtenances, or any telephone or telegraph wires, cable or appurtenances, is guilty of a crime.

§ 1787. Automobile or motor vehicle, loitering in, injuring or molesting

From and after the passage of this act, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to loiter in or upon any automobile or motor vehicle, or to deface or injure such automobile or motor vehicle, or to molest, drive, or attempt to drive any automobile, for joyriding or any other purpose, or to manipulate or meddle with any machinery or appliances thereof without the consent of the owner of such automobile or motor vehicle.

§ 1788. Penalty

Any person violating 21 CNCA § 1787 shall be deemed guilty of a crime.

§ 1789. Caves or caverns, injuring

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to willfully or knowingly break, break off, crack, carve upon, write or otherwise mark upon, or in any manner destroy, mutilate, deface, mar or harm any natural material found in any cave or cavern located on any public lands or other lands owned by the United States, Cherokee Nation or, on private property without the prior written consent of the owner; to kill, harm or disturb any plant or animal life found in any cave or cavern, and, whether inside or outside a cave, any fish of the genera chologaster, typhlicthys or amblyopsis (commonly known as cavefish, springfish or blindfish), any salamander of the genus typhlotriton (commonly known as the Ozark blind, grotto or spring grotto salamander), or the species eurycea lucifuga (commonly known as cave salamander); provided, nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the commercial mining of bat guano or the destruction of any predatory terrestrial mammal or poisonous snake seeking shelter within a cave if such destruction is not otherwise unlawful.

B. Any person who deliberately places, throws, drops, deposits or discards any garbage, trash, waste, rubbish, refuse, debris or other deleterious substance in or near any cave, cavern or natural subterranean drainage system shall be subject to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1751.

§ 1790. Penalties

Any person violating any provision of this act shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or by imprisonment for not exceeding twelve (12) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

COMPUTER CRIMES ACT

§ 1835. Trespass on posted property after being forbidden or without permission— Exemptions—Penalty—Entry into pecan grove without consent

A. Whoever shall willfully or maliciously enter the garden, yard, pasture or field of another after being expressly forbidden to do so or without permission by the owner or lawful occupant thereof when such property is posted shall be deemed guilty of trespass and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00); provided, that this provision shall not apply to registered land surveyors and registered professional engineers for the purpose of land surveying in the performance of their professional services; and, provided further, that anyone who willfully or maliciously enters any such garden, yard, pasture or field, and therein commits or attempts to commit waste, theft, or damage shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by confinement in the penal institution for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment. For purposes of this section, "posted" means exhibiting signs to read as follows: "PROPERTY RESTRICTED"; "POSTED-KEEP OUT"; "KEEP OUT"; "NO TRESPASSING"; or similar signs which are displayed. Property that is fenced or not fenced must have such signs placed conspicuously and at all places where entry to the property is normally expected.

B. Whoever shall willfully enter the pecan grove of another without the prior consent of the owner or occupant thereof to so do shall be deemed guilty of trespass and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00); provided, that anyone who willfully enters any such pecan grove and therein commits or attempts to commit waste, theft, or damage shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by confinement in the penal institution for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1835.1. Entry or presence upon premises of place of business of persons convicted of certain crimes

A. Every person, partnership, corporation or other legal entity engaged in any public business, trade, or profession of any kind wherein merchandise, goods or services are offered for sale may forbid the entry or presence of any person upon the premises of the place of business, if the person has been convicted of a crime involving entry only or criminal acts occurring upon any real property owned, leased, or under the control of such person, partnership, corporation or other legal entity. Such crimes shall include, but are not limited to, shoplifting, vandalism, and disturbing the peace while upon the premises of any place of business of the person, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity.

B. In order to exercise the authority conferred by subsection (A) of this section, the owner or an agent of the owner of a public business, trade, or profession must notify the person whom the owner or agent desires to prohibit from such owner's place of business.

C. No person shall willfully enter or remain upon the premises after being expressly forbidden to do so in the manner provided for in this section. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this section, upon conviction, shall be guilty of trespass and shall be punished by a fine of not more than Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) or by confinement in the penal institution for a term of not more than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

D. The provisions of this section shall not preclude any other remedy allowed by law.

SERIAL NUMBERS ON FARM MACHINERY

§ 1841. Destruction, removal, altering, covering or defacing

No person, firm, association or corporation shall destroy, remove, alter, cover or deface the manufacturer's serial number from any tractor, combine, corn picker, corn sheller or hay baler, or any other piece of farm machinery having a retail value of more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) upon which the manufacturer has placed a serial number; nor shall any person, firm, corporation or association, sell, offer for sale, or lease, or otherwise dispose of any such equipment on which the serial numbers have been destroyed, removed, altered, covered or defaced.

§ 1842. Exception to application of act

The provisions of 21 CNCA § 1841 shall not apply to any machine or part thereof now owned and used by a bona fide farmer who has had such equipment in his possession prior to the effective date of this act.

§ 1843. Violations—Punishment

Any person violating the provisions of 21 CNCA § 1841, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or imprisoned for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one (1) year, or both, for each offense.

REPORTING OF FIRES

§ 1851. False reporting

It shall be unlawful for any person to report, or cause to be reported, directly or indirectly, the existence of a fire to a fire department, fire station or other agency charged with the responsibility of extinguishing fires, unless such person knows or reasonably believes that such fire is in existence.

§ 1852. Posting of act

The fire chief or principal officer of every fire department shall post, or cause to be posted, a copy of this act at every fire alarm box or place specially designed for the reporting of fires in his jurisdiction.

§ 1853. Penalty

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section or 21 CNCA § 1851 or 1852 shall be guilty of a crime.

TELEPHONE SOLICITATION

§ 1861. Information to be furnished by solicitor—Calls exempt—Penalties

A. The name and organizational or business affiliation of every person who by telephone engages in the solicitation or sale of any item, tangible or intangible, shall, by such person, be given to the person answering such telephone call. Such information shall be given immediately and prior to any solicitation or sales presentation. The telephone number of the person placing the call must be given upon request of the party being called. The person in whose name the telephone is registered is responsible for his agents and employees conforming with the provisions of this section and 21 CNCA § 1862. This section and 21 CNCA § 1862 do not apply to calls between persons known to each other and to religious groups, or nonprofit organizations within their own membership, and political activities.

B. No person may solicit contributions by telephone for a charitable non-profit organization unless that organization has complied with the provisions of the Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act, 18 O.S. § 552.1 et seq. Such person may charge a reasonable fee for his services, which shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the net receipts of the solicitation; provided, however, that in the event the fee charged is based upon a predetermined flat fee, then this provision shall not apply. Provided, further, that all sums shall be paid directly to the nonprofit organization.

C. Violation of this act by a person, business or organization shall constitute a crime. A third and subsequent conviction under this act shall constitute a crime.

ELECTRONIC SOLICITATION

§ 1862. Commercial solicitation by facsimile device—Definitions

As used in this section and 21 CNCA § 1863:

1. "Commercial solicitation" means an unsolicited electronic or telephonic transmission to a facsimile device to encourage the purchase of goods, realty, services or to advertise availability of such goods, realty or services. Commercial solicitation shall not include an electronic or telephonic transmission to a facsimile device:

- a. made in the course of prior negotiations;
- b. made to a party with whom there was a prior business relationship or an existing relationship;
- c. made in the course of a follow up to a sales call, sales lead or other business-related contact; or
- d. made after normal business hours and two pages or less in length.

2. "Facsimile device" means a machine capable of receiving and reproducing facsimiles of text or images transmitted electronically or telephonically through telecommunication lines connecting to the machine.

§ 1863. Commercial solicitation by facsimile device—Penalties

A. A person shall not intentionally make an electronic or telephonic transmission to a facsimile device located in this nation by means of any connection with a telephone network for the purpose of transmitting a commercial solicitation, as defined by 21 CNCA § 1862. Each commercial solicitation prohibited by this act shall be a separate violation.

B. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall upon conviction be guilty of a crime punishable by a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each separate violation.

C. A person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed to have committed the violation either at the place where the electronic or telephonic transmission is made or at the place where the transmission is received.

COMPUTER CRIMES ACT

§ 1951. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Cherokee Nation Computer Crimes Act.

§ 1952. Definitions

As used in the Cherokee Nation Computer Crimes Act:

1. "Access" means to approach, gain entry to, instruct, communicate with, store data in, retrieve data from or otherwise use the logical, arithmetical, memory or other resources of a computer, computer system or computer network;
2. "Computer" means an electronic device which performs work using programmed instruction having one or more of the capabilities of storage, logic, arithmetic or communication. The term includes input, output, processing, storage, software and communication facilities which are connected or related to a device in a system or network;
3. "Computer network" means the interconnection of terminals by communication modes with a computer, or a complex consisting of two or more interconnected computers;
4. "Computer program" means a set or series of instructions or statements and related data which when executed in actual or modified form directs or is intended to direct the functioning of a computer system in a manner designed to perform certain operations;
5. "Computer software" means one or more computer programs, procedures and associated documentation used in the operation of a computer system;
6. "Computer system" means a set of related, connected or unconnected, computer equipment, devices including support devices, one or more of which contain computer programs, electronic instructions, input data, and output data, that performs functions including, but not limited to, logic, arithmetic, data storage and retrieval, communication, and control and software. "Computer system" does not include calculators which are not programmable and are not capable of being connected to or used to access other computers, computer networks, computer systems or support devices;

7. "Data" means a representation of information, knowledge, facts, concepts, computer software, computer programs or instructions. Data may be in any form, in storage media, or as stored in the memory of the computer or in transit or presented on a display device;

8. "Property" means any tangible or intangible item of value and includes, but is not limited to, financial instruments, geophysical data or the interpretation of that data, information, computer software, computer programs, electronically-produced data and computer-produced or stored data, supporting documentation, computer software in either machine or human readable form, electronic impulses, confidential, copyrighted or proprietary information, private identification codes or numbers which permit access to a computer by authorized computer users or generate billings to consumers for purchase of goods and services, including but not limited to credit card transactions and telecommunications services or permit electronic fund transfers and any other tangible or intangible item of value;

9. "Services" includes, but is not limited to, computer time, data processing and storage functions and other uses of a computer, computer system or computer network to perform useful work;

10. "Supporting documentation" includes, but is not limited to, all documentation in any form used in the construction, design, classification, implementation, use or modification of computer software, computer programs or data; and

11. "Victim expenditure" means any expenditure reasonably and necessarily incurred by the owner or lessee to verify that a computer system, computer network, computer program or data was or was not altered, deleted, disrupted, damaged or destroyed by the access.

§ 1953. Prohibited acts

A. It shall be unlawful to:

1. Willfully, and without authorization, gain or attempt to gain access to and damage, modify, alter, delete, destroy, copy, make use of, disclose or take possession of a computer, computer system, computer network or any other property;

2. Use a computer, computer system, computer network or any other property as hereinbefore defined for the purpose of devising or executing a scheme or artifice with the intent to defraud, deceive, extort or for the purpose of controlling or obtaining money, property, services or other thing of value by means of a false or fraudulent pretense or representation;

3. Willfully exceed the limits of authorization and damage, modify, alter, destroy, copy, delete, disclose or take possession of a computer, computer system, computer network or any other property;

4. Willfully and without authorization, gain or attempt to gain access to a computer, computer system, computer network or any other property;

5. Willfully and without authorization use or cause to be used computer services;

6. Willfully and without authorization disrupt or cause the disruption of computer services or deny or cause the denial of access or other computer services to an authorized user of a computer, computer system or computer network;

7. Willfully and without authorization provide or assist in providing a means of accessing a computer, computer system or computer network in violation of this section;

B. Any person convicted of violating paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 6 or 7 of subsection (A) of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

C. Any person convicted of violating paragraphs 4 or 5 of subsection (A) of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

§ 1954. Certain acts as prima facie evidence of violation of act

Proof that any person has accessed, damaged, disrupted, deleted, modified, altered, destroyed, caused to be accessed, copied, disclosed or taken possession of a computer, computer system, computer network or any other property, or has attempted to perform any of these enumerated acts without authorization or exceeding the limits of authorization, shall be prima facie evidence of the willful violation of the Cherokee Nation Computer Crimes Act.

§ 1955. Penalties—Civil actions

In addition to any other civil remedy available, the owner or lessee of the computer, computer system, computer network, computer program or data may bring a civil action against any person convicted of a violation of the Cherokee Nation Computer Crimes Act for compensatory damages, including any victim expenditure reasonably and necessarily incurred by the owner or lessee to verify that a computer system, computer network, computer program or data was or was not altered, damaged, deleted, disrupted or destroyed by the access. In any action brought pursuant to this subsection the Court may award reasonable attorneys fees to the prevailing party.

§ 1957. Access of computer, computer system or computer network in one jurisdiction from another jurisdiction—Bringing of action

For purposes of bringing a civil or a criminal action under the Cherokee Nation Computer Crimes Act, a person who causes, by any means, the access of a computer, computer system or computer network in one jurisdiction from another jurisdiction is deemed to have personally accessed the computer, computer system or computer network in each jurisdiction.

§ 1958. Access to computers, computer systems and computer networks prohibited for certain purposes—Penalty

No person shall communicate with, store data in, or retrieve data from a computer system or computer network for the purpose of using such access to violate any of the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Code.

Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

PART VIII

CONTROLLED DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES

CHAPTER 75

UNIFORM CONTROLLED DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES ACT

ARTICLE I. DEFINITIONS

§ 2101. Definitions

As used in the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq.:

1. "Administer" means the direct application of a controlled dangerous substance, whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion or any other means, to the body of a patient, animal or research subject by:

a. A practitioner (or, in his presence, by his authorized agent); or

b. The patient or research subject at the direction and in the presence of the practitioner.

2. "Agent" means a peace officer appointed by and who acts in behalf of Cherokee Nation or an authorized person who acts on behalf of or at the direction of a person who manufactures, distributes, dispenses, prescribes, administers or uses for scientific purposes controlled dangerous substances but does not include a common or contract carrier, public warehouseman or employee thereof, or a person required to register under the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act.

3. "Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs" means the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, United States Department of Justice.

4. "Coca leaves" includes cocaine and any compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture or preparation of coca leaves, except derivatives of coca leaves which do not contain cocaine or ecgonine.

5. "Commissioner" or "Director" means the Director of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control.

6. "Control" means to add, remove or change the placement of a drug, substance or immediate precursor under the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act.

7. "Controlled dangerous substance" means a drug, substance or immediate precursor in Schedules I through V of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act.

8. "Counterfeit substance" means a controlled substance which, or the container or labeling of which without authorization, bears the trademark, trade name or other identifying marks, imprint, number or device or any likeness thereof of a manufacturer, distributor or dispenser other than the person who in fact manufactured, distributed or dispensed the substance.

9. "Deliver" or "delivery" means the actual, constructive or attempted transfer from one person to another of a controlled dangerous substance whether or not there is an agency relationship.

10. "Dispense" means to deliver a controlled dangerous substance to an ultimate user or human research subject by or pursuant to the lawful order of a practitioner, including the prescribing, administering, packaging, labeling or compounding, necessary to prepare the substance for such distribution. "Dispenser" is a practitioner who delivers a controlled dangerous substance to an ultimate user or human research subject.

11. "Distribute" means to deliver other than by administering or dispensing a controlled dangerous substance.

12. "Distributor" means a person who distributes.

13. "Drug" means articles recognized in the official United States Pharmacopoeia, official Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, or official National Formulary, or any supplement to any of them; articles intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of disease in man or other animals; and articles intended for use as a component of any article specified in the paragraph; but does not include devices or their components, parts or accessories.

14. "Drug-dependent person" means a person who is using a controlled dangerous substance and who is in a state of psychic or physical dependence, or both, arising from administration of that controlled dangerous substance on a continuous basis. Drug dependence is characterized by behavioral and other responses which include a strong compulsion to take the substance on a continuous basis in order to experience its psychic effects, or to avoid the discomfort of its absence.

15. "Drug paraphernalia" means all equipment, products and materials of any kind which are used or intended for use in planting, propagating, cultivating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing, preparing, testing, analyzing, packaging, repackaging, storing, containing, concealing, injecting, ingesting, inhaling or otherwise introducing into the human body, a controlled dangerous substance in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act. It includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Kits used or intended for use in planting, propagating, cultivating, growing or harvesting of any species of plant which is a controlled dangerous substance or from which a controlled dangerous substance can be derived;
- b. Kits used or intended for use in manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing or preparing controlled dangerous substances;
- c. Isomerization devices used or intended for use in increasing the potency of any species of plant which is a controlled dangerous substance;
- d. Testing equipment used or intended for use in identifying, or in analyzing the strength, effectiveness or purity of controlled dangerous substances;
- e. Scales and balances used or intended for use in weighing or measuring controlled dangerous substances;
- f. Diluents and adulterants, such as quinine hydrochloride, mannitol, mannite, dextrose and lactose, used or intended for use in cutting controlled dangerous substances;
- g. Separation gins and sifters used or intended for use in removing twigs and seeds from or in otherwise cleaning or refining, marihuana;
- h. Blenders, bowls, containers, spoons and mixing devices used or intended for use in compounding controlled dangerous substances;
- i. Capsules, balloons, envelopes and other containers used or intended for use in packaging small quantities of controlled dangerous substances;
- j. Containers and other objects used or intended for use in parenterally injecting controlled substances into the human body;
- k. Hypodermic syringes, needles and other objects used or intended for use in parenterally injecting controlled dangerous substances into the human body;
- l. Objects used or intended for use in ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing marihuana, cocaine, hashish or hashish oil into the human body, such as:
 - i. Metal, wooden, acrylic, glass, stone, plastic or ceramic pipes with or without screens, permanent screens, hashish heads or punctured metal bowls,
 - ii. Water pipes,

- iii. Carburetion tubes and devices,
- iv. Smoking and carburetion masks,
- v. Roach clips: meaning objects used to hold burning material, such as a marijuana cigarette, that has become too small or too short to be held in the hand,
- vi. Miniature cocaine spoons and cocaine vials,
- vii. Chamber pipes,
- viii. Carburetor pipes,
- ix. Electric pipes,
- x. Air-driven pipes,
- xi. Chillums,
- xii. Bongs,
- xiii. Ice pipes or chillers.

Provided however, drug paraphernalia shall not include separation gins intended for use in preparing tea or spice, clamps used for constructing electrical equipment, water pipes designed for ornamentation or pipes designed for smoking tobacco.

16. "Hazardous material" means materials, whether solid, liquid or gas; which are toxic to human, animal, aquatic or plant life, and the disposal of which materials is controlled by Nation or federal guidelines.

17. "Imitation controlled substance" means a substance that is not a controlled dangerous substance, which by dosage unit appearance, color, shape, size, markings or by representations made would lead a reasonable person to believe that the substance is a controlled dangerous substance. In the event the appearance of the dosage unit is not reasonably sufficient to establish that the substance is an "imitation controlled substance", the court or authority concerned should consider, in addition to all other factors, the following factors as related to "representations made" in determining whether the substance is an imitation controlled substance:

- a. Statements made by an owner or by any other person in control of the substance concerning the nature of the substance, or its use or effect;
- b. Statements made to the recipient that the substance may be resold for inordinate profit;
- c. Whether the substance is packaged in a manner normally used for illicit controlled substances;

d. Evasive tactics or actions utilized by the owner or person in control of the substance to avoid detection by law enforcement authorities;

e. Prior convictions, if any, of an owner, or any other person in control of the object, under Nation, state, or federal law related to controlled substances or fraud;

f. The proximity of the substance to controlled dangerous substances.

18. "Immediate precursor" means a substance which the Director has found to be and by regulation designates as being the principal compound commonly used or produced primarily for use, and which is an immediate chemical intermediary used, or likely to be used, in the manufacture of a controlled dangerous substance, the control of which is necessary to prevent, curtail or limit such manufacture.

19. "Indian" means any person who is a citizen or is eligible for citizenship in a federally-recognized Indian tribe, band or nation.

20. "Indian country" means that area defined by 18 U.S.C. § 1151.

21. "Isomer" means the optical isomer, except as used in 21 CNCA § 2204(C) and 21 CNCA § 2206(A)(4), "isomer" means the optical, positional or geometric isomer. As used in 21 CNCA § 2206(A)(4), the term "isomer" means the optical or geometric isomer.

22. "Laboratory" means a laboratory approved by the Director as proper to be entrusted with the custody of controlled dangerous substances for scientific and medical purposes and for purposes of instruction.

23. "Manufacture" means the production, preparation, propagation, compounding or processing of a controlled dangerous substance, either directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of natural or synthetic origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis. "Manufacturer" includes any person who packages, repackages or labels any container of any controlled dangerous substance, except practitioners who dispense or compound prescription orders for delivery to the ultimate consumer.

24. "Marihuana" means all parts of the plant Cannabis sativa L., whether growing or not; the seeds thereof; the resin extracted from any part of such plant; and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture or preparation of such plant, its seeds or resin, but shall not include the mature stalks of such plant, fiber produced from such stalks, oil or cake made from the seeds of such plant, any other compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture or preparation of such mature stalks (except the resin extracted therefrom), fiber, oil or cake, or the sterilized seed of such plant which is incapable of germination.

25. "Medical purposes" means an intention to utilize a controlled dangerous substance for physical or mental treatment, diagnosis or for the prevention of a disease condition not in violation of any state or federal law and not for the purpose of physiological or psychological dependence or other abuse.

26. "Narcotic drug" means any of the following, whether produced directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of vegetable origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis:

a. Opium, coca leaves and opiates;

b. A compound, manufacture, salt, derivative or preparation of opium, coca leaves or opiates;

c. Cocaine, its salts, optical and geometric isomers, and salts of isomers;

d. Ecgonine, its derivatives, their salts, isomers and salts of isomers;

e. A substance, and any compound, manufacture, salt, derivative or preparation thereof, which is chemically identical with any of the substances referred to in subparagraphs a through d of this paragraph, except that the words "narcotic drug" as used in this act shall not include decocainized coca leaves or extracts of coca leaves, which extracts do not contain cocaine or ecgonine.

27. "Nation" means Cherokee Nation.

28. "Opiate" means any substance having an addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability similar to morphine or being capable of conversion into a drug having such addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability. It does not include, unless specifically designated as controlled under the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, the dextrorotatory isomer of 3-methoxy-n-methyl-morphinan and its salts (detromethorphan). It does include its racemic and levorotatory forms.

29. "Opium poppy" means the plant of the species Papaver somniferum L., except the seeds thereof.

30. "Peace officer" means a police officer, marshal, deputy marshal, sheriff, deputy sheriff, prosecuting attorney's investigator, investigator from the Office of the Attorney General, or any other person elected or appointed by law to enforce any of the criminal laws of this Nation or of the United States.

31. "Person" means individual, corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, or any other legal entity.

32. "Poppy straw" means all parts, except the seeds, of the opium poppy, after mowing.

33. "Practitioner" means:

a. A physician, dentist, podiatrist, veterinarian, scientific investigator or other person licensed, registered or otherwise permitted to distribute, dispense, conduct research with respect to, use for scientific purposes or administer a controlled dangerous substance in the course of professional practice or research in this Nation; or

b. A pharmacy, hospital, laboratory or other institution licensed, registered or otherwise permitted to distribute, dispense, conduct research with respect to, use for scientific purposes or administer a controlled dangerous substance in the course of professional practice or research in this Nation.

34. "Production" includes the manufacture, planting, cultivation, growing or harvesting of a controlled dangerous substance.

35. "Synthetic controlled substance" means a substance that is not a controlled dangerous substance, but a substance that produces a like or similar physiological or psychological effect on the human central nervous system that currently has no accepted medical use in treatment in the United States and has a potential for abuse. The court or authority concerned with establishing that the substance is a synthetic controlled substance should consider, in addition to all other factors, the following factors as related to "representations made" in determining whether the substance is a synthetic controlled substance:

a. Statements made by an owner or by any other person in control of the substance concerning the nature of the substance, its use or effects;

b. Statements made to the recipient that the substance may be resold for an inordinate profit;

c. Prior convictions, if any, of an owner or any person in control of the substance, under Nation or federal law related to controlled dangerous substances;

d. The proximity of the substance to any controlled dangerous substance.

36. "Tetrahydrocannabinols" means all substances that have been chemically synthesized to emulate the tetrahydrocannabinols of marihuana.

37. "Tribal citizen" means any person who is a citizen or is eligible for citizenship in Cherokee Nation.

38. "Ultimate user" means a person who lawfully possesses a controlled dangerous substance for his own use or for the use of a member of his household or for administration to an animal owned by him or by a member of his household.

§ 2101.1. Drug paraphernalia—Factors used in determining

In determining whether an object is "drug paraphernalia", a court shall consider, in addition to all other logically relevant factors, the following:

1. Statements by an owner or by anyone in control of the object concerning its use.

2. The proximity of the object, in time and space, to a direct violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act.
3. The proximity of the object to controlled dangerous substances.
4. The existence of any residue of controlled dangerous substances on the object.
5. Direct or circumstantial evidence of the intent of an owner, or of anyone in control of the object, to deliver it to persons who intend to use the object to facilitate a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act; the innocence of an owner, or of anyone in control of the object, as to a direct violation of this act shall not prevent a finding that the object is drug paraphernalia.
6. Instructions, oral or written, provided with the object which either state directly or imply that the object is to be used for the consumption of controlled substances.
7. Descriptive materials accompanying the object which explain or depict its use as an object for the consumption of controlled substances.
8. The manner in which the object is displayed for sale.
9. Whether the owner, or anyone in control of the object, is a legitimate supplier of like or related items to the community, such as a licensed distributor or dealer of tobacco products.
10. Direct or circumstantial evidence of the ratio of sales of the object or objects to the total sales of the business enterprise.
11. The existence and scope of legitimate uses for the object in the community.
12. Expert testimony concerning its use.

§ 2103.1. Investigations—Subpoena power

A. In the investigation by any Cherokee Nation peace officer pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act with respect to controlled substances, the officer, if recommended and approved by the Prosecuting Attorney of Cherokee Nation District Court, may subpoena witnesses, compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and require the production of any records, including books, papers, documents, and other tangible things which are determined to be relevant or material to the investigation. The attendance of witnesses and the production of records may be required from any place in the Nation to a designated location at the seat of government. Witnesses summoned pursuant to this section shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of this Nation.

B. The witness shall have the option of complying with said subpoena by:

1. Appearing and/or producing documents, as requested; or
2. Notifying the Marshal office, in writing, of refusal to appear or produce documents, within ten (10) days of the date of service.

C. A subpoena issued pursuant to this section may be served by any person designated in the subpoena to serve it. Service upon a natural person may be made by personal delivery of the subpoena to him. Service may be made upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association which is subject to suit under a common name, by delivering the subpoena to an officer, to a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process. The affidavit of the person serving the subpoena entered on a true copy thereof by the person serving it shall be proof of service.

D. In the case of contumacy by or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the aid of the District Court of Cherokee Nation may be invoked. The court may issue an order requiring the subpoenaed person to appear and to produce records, if so ordered, or to give testimony touching the matter under investigation. Any failure to obey the order of the Court may be punished by the Court as an indirect contempt thereof.

E. The District Court of Cherokee Nation wherein the subpoena is served may quash a subpoena issued pursuant to this section, upon a motion to quash the subpoena filed with the Court by the party to whom the subpoena is issued.

§ 2107. Narcotics Revolving Fund

There is hereby created in the National Treasury a revolving fund for the control of narcotics and dangerous drugs to be designated the "Narcotics Revolving Fund". The fund shall be a continuing fund, not subject to fiscal year limitations, and shall consist of any monies received from the sale of surplus and confiscated property, fees and receipts collected pursuant to the Oklahoma Open Records Act, gifts, bequests, devises, contributions or grants, public or private, including federal law or regulation, registration fees and receipts relating to prescription pads and receipts from any other source. All monies accruing to the credit of said fund are hereby appropriated and may be budgeted and expended for the control of narcotics and dangerous drugs.

ARTICLE II. STANDARDS AND SCHEDULES

§ 2201. Future "controlled dangerous substances" included

Any substances, not listed in the following schedules, which are subsequently determined to be "controlled dangerous substances" and included in 63 O.S. § 2-201 et seq. are included as controlled dangerous substances in this title.

§ 2202. Nomenclature in schedules

The schedules provided by this act include the controlled dangerous substances listed or to be listed by whatever official name, common or usual name, chemical name, or trade name designated.

§ 2203. Schedule I characteristics

Schedule I includes substances with the following characteristics:

1. High potential for abuse;
2. No accepted medical use in the United States or lacks accepted safety for use in treatment under medical supervision.

§ 2204. Schedule I

The controlled substances listed in this section are included in Schedule I.

1. Any of the following opiates, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, esters, and ethers, unless specifically excepted, whenever the existence of these isomers, esters, ethers and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

- a. Acetylmethadol,
- b. Allylprodine,
- c. Alphacetylmethadol,
- d. Alphameprodine,
- e. Alphamethadol,
- f. Benzethidine,
- g. Betacetylmethadol,
- h. Betameprodine,
- i. Betamethadol,
- j. Betaprodine,
- k. Clonitazene,
- l. Dextromoramide,

m. Dextrorphan (except its methyl ether),
n. Diampromide,
o. Diethylthiambutene,
p. Dimenoxadol,
q. Dimepheptanol,
r. Dimethylthiambutene,
s. Dioxaphetyl butyrate,
t. Dipipanone,
u. Ethylmethylthiambutene,
v. Etonitazene,
w. Etoxidine,
x. Furethidine,
y. Hydroxypethidine,
z. Ketobemidone,
aa. Levomoramide,
bb. Levophenacilmorphan,
cc. Morpheridine,
dd. Noracymethadol,
ee. Norlevorphanol,
ff. Normethadone,
gg. Norpipanone,
hh. Phenadoxone,

- ii. Phenampromide,
- jj. Phenomorphan,
- kk. Phenoperidine,
- ll. Pir tramide,
- mm. Proheptazine,
- nn. Properidine,
- oo. Racemoramide,
- pp. Trimeperidine.

2. Any of the following opium derivatives, their salts, isomers and salts of isomers, unless specifically excepted, whenever the existence of these salts, isomers and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

- a. Acetorphine,
- b. Acetyldihydrocodeine,
- c. Benzylmorphine,
- d. Codeine methylbromide,
- e. Codeine-N-Oxide,
- f. Cyprenorphine,
- g. Desomorphine,
- h. Dihydromorphine,
- i. Etorphine,
- j. Heroin,
- k. Hydromorphanol,
- l. Methyldesorphine,
- m. Methylhydromorphine,

- n. Morphine methylbromide,
- o. Morphine methylsulfonate,
- p. Morphine–N–oxide,
- q. Myrophine,
- r. Nicocodeine,
- s. Nicomorphine,
- t. Normorphine,
- u. Phoclodine,
- v. Thebacon.

3. Any material, compound, mixture or preparation which contains any quantity of the following hallucinogenic substances, their salts, isomers and salts of isomers, unless specifically excepted, whenever the existence of these salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

- a. 3, 4–methylenedioxy amphetamine,
- b. 5–methoxy–3, 4–methylenedioxy amphetamine,
- c. 3, 4, 5–trimethoxy amphetamine,
- d. Bufotenine,
- e. Diethyltryptamine,
- f. Dimethyltryptamine,
- g. 4–methyl–2, 5–dimethoxyamphetamine,
- h. Ibogaine,
- i. Lysergic acid diethylamide,
- j. Marihuana,
- k. Mescaline,

- l. N-ethyl-3-piperidyl benzilate,
- m. N-methyl-3-piperidyl benzilate,
- n. Psilocybin,
- o. Psilocyn,
- p. 2, 5 dimethoxyamphetamine,
- q. 4 bromo-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine,
- r. 4 methoxyamphetamine,
- s. Cyclohexamine,
- t. Thiphen analog of phencyclidine, also known as 1-(1-(2-thienyl) cyclohexyl) piperidine; 2-thienyl analog of phencyclidine; TCP, TCP,
- u. Phencyclidine (PCP),
- v. Pyrrolidine analog for phencyclidine, also known as 1-(1-phenylcyclohexyl)-pyrrolidine, PCPy, PHP.

4. Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system:

- a. Fenethylamine,
- b. Mephedrone,
- c. N-ethylamphetamine,
- d. Methamphetamine.

§ 2205. Schedule II characteristics

Schedule II includes substances with the following characteristics:

- 1. High potential for abuse;
- 2. Currently accepted medical use in the United States, or currently accepted medical use with severe restrictions;

3. The abuse of the substance may lead to severe psychic or physical dependence.

§ 2206. Schedule II

The controlled substances listed in this section are included in Schedule II.

1. Any of the following substances except those narcotic drugs listed in other schedules whether produced directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of vegetable origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by combination of extraction and chemical synthesis:

a. Opium and opiate, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium or opiate;

b. Any salt, compound, isomer, derivative, or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent or identical with any of the substances referred to in paragraph 1, but not including the isoquinoline alkaloids of opium;

c. Opium poppy and poppy straw;

d. Coca leaves except coca leaves and extracts of coca leaves from which cocaine, ecgonine, and derivatives of ecgonine or their salts have been removed; cocaine, its salts, optical and geometric isomers, and salts of isomers; ecgonine, its derivatives, their salts, isomers and salts of isomers; or any compound, mixture or preparation which contains any quantity of any of the substances referred to in this paragraph.

2. Any of the following opiates, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, esters and ethers, when the existence of these isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

a. Alphaprodine,

b. Anileridine,

c. Bezitramide,

d. Dihydrocodeine,

e. Diphenoxylate,

f. Fentanyl,

g. Isomethadone,

h. Levomethorphan,

- i. Levorphanol,
- j. Metazocine,
- k. Methadone,
- l. Methadone–Intermediate, 4–cyano–2–dimethylamino–4, 4–diphenyl butane,
- m. Moramide–Intermediate, 2–methyl–3–morpholino–1,1–diphenyl-propane-carboxylic acid,
- n. Pethidine. Meperidine,
- o. Pethidine–Intermediate–A, 4–cyano-1-methyl–4–phenylpiperidine,
- p. Pethidine–Intermediate–B, ethyl–4–phenylpiperidine–4–carboxylate,
- q. Pethidine–Intermediate–C,1-methyl–4–phenylpiperidine–4–carboxylic acid,
- r. Phenazocine,
- s. Piminodine,
- t. Racemethorphan,
- u. Racemorphan,
- v. Etorphine hydrochloride salt only,
- w. Alfentanil hydrochloride.

3. Any substance which contains any quantity of:

- a. Methamphetamine, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers,
- b. Amphetamine, its salts, optical isomers, and salts of its optical isomers.

4. Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system:

- a. Phenmetrazine and its salts,
- b. Methylphenidate,
- c. Amobarbital,

- d. Pentobarbital,
- e. Secobarbital,
- f. Tetrahydrocannabinols.

§ 2207. Schedule III characteristics

Schedule III includes substances with the following characteristics:

- 1. A potential for abuse less than the substances listed in Schedules I and II;
- 2. Currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States; and
- 3. Abuse may lead to moderate or low physical dependence or high psychological dependence.

§ 2208. Schedule III

The controlled substances listed in this section are included in Schedule III.

1. Unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation, which contains any quantity of the following substances or any other substance having a potential for abuse associated with a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system:

- a. Any substance which contains any quantity of a derivative of barbituric acid, or any salt of a derivative of barbituric acid unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule,
- b. Chlorhexadol,
- c. Glutethimide,
- d. Lysergic acid,
- e. Lysergic acid amide,
- f. Methyprylon,
- g. Sulfondiethylmethane,
- h. Sulfonethylmethane,
- i. Sulfonmethane,
- j. Benzphetamine and its salts,

k. Chlorphentermine and its salts,

l. Clortermine,

m. Mazindol,

n. Phendimetrazine,

o. Phenylacetone (P2P),

p. 1-Phenycyclohexylamine,

q. 1-Piperidinocyclohexanecarbo nitrile (PCC).

2. Nalorphine.

3. Unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs, or any salts thereof:

a. Not more than one and eight-tenths (1.8) grams of codeine or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or not more than ninety (90) milligrams per dosage unit, with an equal or greater quantity of an isoquinoline alkaloid of opium,

b. Not more than one and eight-tenths (1.8) grams of codeine or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or not more than ninety (90) milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts,

c. Not more than three hundred (300) milligrams of dihydrocodeinone or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or not more than fifteen (15) milligrams per dosage unit, with a fourfold or greater quantity of an isoquinoline alkaloid of opium,

d. Not more than three hundred (300) milligrams of dihydrocodeinone or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or not more than fifteen (15) milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts,

e. Not more than one and eight-tenths (1.8) grams of dihydrocodeine or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or not more than ninety (90) milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts,

f. Not more than three hundred (300) milligrams of ethylmorphine or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or not more than fifteen (15) milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts,

g. Not more than five hundred (500) milligrams of opium per one hundred (100)milliliters or per one hundred (100) grams, or not more than twenty-five (25) milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts,

h. Not more than fifty (50) milligrams of morphine or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or per one hundred (100) grams with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts.

§ 2209. Schedule IV characteristics

Schedule IV includes substances with the following characteristics:

1. Low potential for abuse relative to substances listed in Schedule III;
2. Currently accepted medical use in treatment in use in the United States; and
3. Abuse of the substance may lead to limited physical dependence or psychological dependence relative to the substances listed in Schedule III.

§ 2210. Schedule IV

The controlled substances listed in this section are included in Schedule IV.

1. Any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a potential for abuse associated with a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system:

- a. Chloral betaine,
- b. Chloral hydrate,
- c. Ethchlorvynol,
- d. Ethinamate,
- e. Meprobamate,
- f. Paraldehyde,
- g. Petrichloral,
- h. Diethylpropion,
- i. Phentermine,
- j. Pemoline,

k. Chlordiazepoxide,

l. Chlordiazepoxide and its salts, but not including chlordiazepoxide hydrochloride and clidinium bromide or chlordiazepoxide and water-soluble esterified estrogens,

m. Diazepam,

n. Oxazepam,

o. Clorazepate,

p. Flurazepam and its salts,

q. Clonazepam,

r. Barbital,

s. Mebutamate,

t. Methohexital,

u. Methylphenobarbital,

v. Phenobarbital,

w. Fenfluramine,

x. Pentazocine,

y. Dextropropoxyphene,

z. Butorphanol,

aa. Alprazolam,

bb. Halazepam,

cc. Lorazepam,

dd. Prazepam,

ee. Temazepam,

ff. Triazolam,

gg. Methandrostenolone,

hh. Stanozolol,

ii. Ethylestrenol,

jj. Nandrolene phenpropionate,

kk. Nandrolone deconoate, ll. Testosterone propionate, mm. Chorionic gonadotropin.

2. In addition to the anabolic steroids listed in paragraphs gg through mm of subdivision 1 of this section, "anabolic steroids" shall include any salt, optical and geometric isomers, and salts of isomers, compound, or derivative which is a chemical analog to any of the substances listed in paragraphs gg through mm of subdivision 1 of this section.

§ 2211. Schedule V characteristics

Schedule V includes substances with the following characteristics:

1. Low potential for abuse relative to the controlled substances listed in Schedule IV;
2. Currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States; and
3. Limited physical dependence or psychological dependence liability relative to the controlled substances listed in Schedule IV.

§ 2212. Schedule V

The controlled substances listed in this section are included in Schedule V.

Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs, which also contains one or more nonnarcotic active medicinal ingredients in sufficient proportion to confer upon the compound, mixture, or preparation, valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the narcotic drug alone:

1. Not more than two hundred (200) milligrams of codeine, or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or per one hundred (100) grams,
2. Not more than one hundred (100) milligrams of dihydrocodeine, or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or per one hundred (100) grams,

3. Not more than one hundred (100) milligrams of ethylmorphine, or any of its salts, per one hundred (100) milliliters or per one hundred (100) grams,
4. Not more than two and five-tenths (2.5) milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than twenty-five (25) micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit,
5. Not more than one hundred (100) milligrams of opium per one hundred (100) milliliters or per one hundred (100) grams.

ARTICLE IV. OFFENSES AND PENALTIES

TRAFFICKING IN ILLEGAL DRUGS ACT

§ 2401. Prohibited acts A—Penalties

A. Except as authorized by the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, it shall be unlawful for any person:

1. To distribute, dispense, or solicit the use of or use the services of a person less than eighteen (18) years of age to distribute or dispense a controlled dangerous substance or possess with intent to manufacture, distribute, or dispense, a controlled dangerous substance;
2. To create, distribute, or possess with intent to distribute, a counterfeit controlled dangerous substance; or
3. To distribute any imitation controlled substance as defined by 21 CNCA § 2101, except when authorized by the Food and Drug Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

B. Any person who violates the provisions of this section with respect to:

1. A substance classified in Schedule I or II which is a narcotic drug or lysergic acid diethylamide (LSD), upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime;
2. Any other controlled dangerous substance classified in Schedule I, II, III, or IV, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime;
3. A substance classified in Schedule V, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime;
4. An imitation controlled substance as defined by 21 CNCA § 2101, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a period of not more than one (1) year and a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00). A person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of the provisions of this paragraph shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment for not more than three (3) years and a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars

($5,000.00), which shall be in addition to other punishment provided by law and shall not be imposed in lieu of other punishment; or

5. Except when authorized by the Food and Drug Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, distribute, or possess with intent to distribute a synthetic controlled substance. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this paragraph is guilty of a crime.

C. Any person who is at least eighteen (18) years of age and who violates the provisions of this section by using or soliciting the use of services of a person less than eighteen (18) years of age to distribute or dispense a controlled dangerous substance or by distributing a controlled dangerous substance to a person under eighteen (18) years of age is punishable by twice the fine and by twice the imprisonment otherwise authorized.

D. Except as authorized by the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture or attempt to manufacture any controlled dangerous substance. Any person violating the provisions of this section with respect to the unlawful manufacturing or attempting to unlawfully manufacture any controlled dangerous substance, upon conviction, is guilty of a crime.

E. Any person convicted of any offense described in this section may, in addition to the fine imposed, be assessed an amount not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the fine imposed. Such assessment shall be paid into a revolving fund for enforcement of controlled dangerous substances created pursuant to 21 CNCA § 2107.

§ 2401A. School property—Distribution, dispensing or possession of controlled dangerous substance or Imitation with intent to distribute

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to distribute, dispense, or possess with intent to distribute a controlled dangerous substance or imitation controlled dangerous substance, as defined by 21 CNCA § 2101, while on any school property used for school purposes which is owned by any private school, public school district, or vocational-technical school district, or within one thousand (1,000) feet of any such school property or while on any school bus owned or operated by any private school, public school district. Any person convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a crime.

B. It shall be no defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the violator of this section was unaware that the prohibited conduct took place while on or within one thousand (1,000) feet of any school property.

C. A conviction arising under this section shall not merge with a conviction pursuant to 21 CNCA § 2401.

§ 2402. Prohibited acts B—Penalties

A. 1. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess a controlled dangerous substance unless such substance was obtained directly, or pursuant to a valid prescription or order from a practitioner, while acting in the course of his professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person to purchase any preparation excepted from the provisions of 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq. pursuant to 21 CNCA § 2313 in an amount or within a time interval other than that permitted by 21 CNCA § 2313.

B. Any person who violates this section with respect to:

1. Any Schedule I or II substance, except marihuana or a substance included in subsection (D) of 21 CNCA § 2206, is guilty of a crime.

2. Any Schedule III, IV or V substance, marihuana, a substance included in 21 CNCA § 2206(D), or any preparation excepted from the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act is guilty of a crime.

§ 2403. Prohibited acts C—Penalties

A. Any person found guilty of larceny, burglary or theft of controlled dangerous substances is guilty of a crime.

B. Any person found guilty of robbery or attempted robbery of controlled dangerous substances from a practitioner, manufacturer, distributor or agent thereof as defined in 21 CNCA § 2101 is guilty of a crime.

§ 2404. Prohibited acts D—Penalties

A. It shall be unlawful for any person:

1. To omit, remove, alter, or obliterate a symbol required by the Federal Controlled Substances Act or this act;

2. To refuse any entry into any premises or inspection authorized by this act; or,

3. To keep or maintain any store, shop, warehouse, dwelling house, building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or any place whatever, which is resorted to by persons using controlled dangerous substances in violation of this act for the purpose of using such substances, or which is used for the keeping or selling of the same in violation of this act.

B. Any person who violates this section is punishable by a civil fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) unless the violation is prosecuted by an information which alleges that the violation was committed knowingly or intentionally, and the trier of fact specifically finds that the violation was committed knowingly or intentionally.

§ 2405. Prohibited acts E—Penalties

A. No person shall use tincture of opium, tincture of opium camphorated, or any derivative thereof, by the hypodermic method, either with or without a medical prescription therefor.

B. No person shall use or possess drug paraphernalia to plant, propagate, cultivate, grow, harvest, manufacture, compound, convert, produce, process, prepare, test, analyze, pack, repack, store, contain, conceal, inject, ingest, inhale or otherwise introduce into the human body a controlled dangerous substance in violation of 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq., except those persons holding an unrevoked license in the professions of podiatry, dentistry, medicine, nursing, optometry, osteopathy, veterinary medicine, or pharmacy.

C. No person shall deliver, possess or manufacture drug paraphernalia knowing it will be used to plant, propagate, cultivate, grow, harvest, manufacture, compound, convert, produce, process, prepare, test, analyze, pack, repack, store, contain, conceal, inject, ingest, inhale or otherwise introduce into the human body a controlled dangerous substance in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act.

D. Any person eighteen (18) years of age or over who violates subsection (C) of this section by delivering drug paraphernalia to a person under eighteen (18) years of age who is at least three (3) years his junior shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime.

E. Any person who violates subsections (A), (B) or (C) of this section is guilty of a crime.

§ 2407. Prohibited acts G—Penalties

A. No person shall obtain or attempt to obtain any preparation excepted from the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act pursuant to 21 CNCA § 2313 in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of 21 CNCA § 2313(B)(1), or a controlled dangerous substance or procure or attempt to procure the administration of a controlled dangerous substance:

1. by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, or subterfuge;
2. by the forgery or alteration of a prescription or of any written order;
3. by the concealment of a material fact; or
4. by the use of a false name or the giving of a false address.

B. Information communicated to a physician in an effort unlawfully to procure a controlled dangerous substance, or unlawfully to procure the administration of any such drug, shall not be deemed a privileged communication.

C. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a crime.

§ 2407.1. Certain substances causing intoxication, distortion or disturbances of auditory, visual, muscular or mental processes prohibited—Exemptions—Penalties

A. For the purpose of inducing intoxication or distortion or disturbance of the auditory, visual, muscular, or mental process, no person shall ingest, use, or possess any compound, liquid, or chemical which contains butyl nitrite, isobutyl nitrite, secondary butyl nitrite, tertiary butyl nitrite, amyl nitrite, isopropyl nitrite, isopentyl nitrite, or mixtures containing butyl nitrite, isobutyl nitrite, secondary butyl nitrite, tertiary butyl nitrite, amyl nitrite, isopropyl nitrite, isopentyl nitrite, or any of their esters, isomers, or analogues, or any other similar compound.

B. No person shall possess, buy, sell, or otherwise transfer any substance specified in subsection (A) of this section for the purpose of inducing or aiding any other person to inhale or ingest such substance or otherwise violate the provisions of this section.

C. The provisions of subsections (A) and (B) of this section shall not apply to:

1. The possession and use of a substance specified in subsection (A) of this section which is used as part of the care or treatment by a licensed physician of a disease, condition or injury or pursuant to a prescription of a licensed physician; and

2. The possession of a substance specified in subsection (A) of this section which is used as part of a known manufacturing process or industrial operation when the possessor has obtained a permit from the Oklahoma State Department of Health or the federal government.

D. Any person convicted of violating any provision of subsection (A) or (B) of this section shall be guilty of a crime punishable by imprisonment of not more than ninety (90) days or by the imposition of a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by both such imprisonment and fine. Each violation shall be considered a separate offense.

§ 2408. Endeavor and conspiracy

Any person who offers, solicits, attempts, endeavors, or conspires to commit any offense defined in 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq. shall be subject to the penalty prescribed for the offense, the commission of which was the object of the endeavor or conspiracy.

§ 2409. Additional penalties

Any penalty imposed for violation of this article shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any civil or administrative penalty or sanction authorized by law.

§ 2410. Conditional discharge for possession as first offense

Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of any offense under this act or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to narcotic drugs, marihuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, pleads guilty to or is found guilty of possession of a controlled dangerous substance under 21 CNCA § 2402, the Court may, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of such person, defer further proceedings and place him on probation upon such reasonable terms and conditions as it may require including the requirement that such person cooperate in a treatment and rehabilitation program of a state-supported or state-approved facility, if available. Upon violation of a term or condition, the Court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the Court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt and shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime. Discharge and dismissal under this section may occur only once with respect to any person.

Any expunged arrest or conviction shall not thereafter be regarded as an arrest or conviction for purposes of employment, civil rights, or any statute, regulation, license, questionnaire or any other public or private purpose; provided, that, any such plea of guilty or finding of guilt shall constitute a conviction of the offense for the purpose of this act or any other criminal statute under which the existence of a prior conviction is relevant.

§ 2411. General penalty clause

Any person who violates any provision of this act not subject to a specific penalty provision is guilty of a crime punishable by confinement for not more than three (3) years, or by a fine of not more than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), or both.

§ 2412. Second or subsequent offenses

An offense shall be considered a second or subsequent offense under this act, if, prior to his conviction of the offense, the offender has at any time been convicted of an offense or offenses under this act, under any statute of the United States, or of any nation or state relating to narcotic drugs, marihuana, depressant, stimulant, or hallucinogenic drugs, as defined by this act.

§ 2413. Bar to prosecution

If a violation of this act is a violation of a federal law or the law of another state or Indian nation, a conviction or acquittal under federal law or the law of another state or nation for the same act is a bar to prosecution in this Nation.

§ 2413.1. Gasoline or paint sniffing illegal

Any person who violates 21 CNCA § 2401 by distributing a controlled substance to an individual, in or on, or within one thousand (1,000) feet of the real property comprising a public or private elementary or secondary school, public vocational school, public or private college or university, recreation center or public park, including state parks and recreation areas, shall be guilty of a crime.

B. It shall not be a defense to prosecution for a violation of this section that the violator was unaware that the prohibited conduct took place:

1. While on or within one thousand (1,000) feet of any school property; or
2. While on recreation center grounds or on public park grounds, including state parks and recreation areas.

§ 2419. Use of minors in transportation, sale, etc. of controlled dangerous substances—Penalties

A. It shall be unlawful for any individual eighteen (18) or more years of age to solicit, employ, hire, or use an individual under eighteen (18) years of age to unlawfully transport, carry, sell, give away, prepare for sale, or peddle any controlled dangerous substance.

B. A person who violates subsection (A) of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

C. It shall not be a defense to this section that a person did not know the age of an individual.

ARTICLE V. ENFORCEMENT AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

§ 2501. Powers of enforcement personnel

Any peace officer may:

1. Carry firearms;
2. Execute search warrants, arrest warrants, subpoenas, and summonses issued under the authority of this Nation;
3. Make an arrest without warrant of any person he has probable cause for believing has committed a crime under this act or a violation of 21 CNCA § 2402;
4. Make seizures of property pursuant to the provisions of this act;
5. Perform such other lawful duties as are required to carry out the provisions of this act.

§ 2502. Inspections

A. Prescriptions, orders, and records, required by this act, and stock of substances specified in this act shall be open for inspection only to specifically designated or assigned Nation officers, whose duty it is to enforce the laws of this Nation relating to controlled dangerous substances. No officer having knowledge by virtue of his office of any such prescription, order or record shall divulge such knowledge, except in connection with a prosecution or proceeding in court or before a licensing or registration board or officer, to which prosecution or proceeding the person to whom such prescriptions, orders, or records relate is a party.

B. Any peace officer or agency charged with administration of this act is authorized to make administrative inspections of controlled premises in accordance with the following provisions:

1. For purposes of this act only, "controlled premises" means:

- a. Places where persons registered or exempted from registration requirements under this act are required to keep records; and
- b. Places including factories, warehouses, establishments, and conveyances where persons registered or exempted from registration requirements under this act are permitted to hold, manufacture, compound, process, sell, deliver, or otherwise dispose of any controlled dangerous substance.

2. This section shall not be construed to prevent the inspection of books and records pursuant to the provisions of this act; nor shall this section be construed to prevent entries and administrative inspections at reasonable times without a warrant:

- a. With the consent of the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises;
- b. In situations presenting imminent danger to health or safety;

c. In situations involving inspection of conveyances where there is reasonable cause to believe that the mobility of the conveyance makes it impracticable to obtain a warrant;

d. In any other exceptional or emergency circumstance where time or opportunity to apply for a warrant is lacking; and

e. In all other situations where a warrant is not constitutionally required.

3. Except when the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises so consents in writing, no inspection authorized by this section shall extend to:

a. Financial data;

b. Sales data other than shipment data; or

c. Pricing data.

§ 2503. Property subject to forfeiture

A. The following shall be subject to forfeiture:

1. All controlled dangerous substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, acquired, concealed or possessed in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

2. All raw materials, products and equipment of any kind and all drug paraphernalia as defined by the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing or exporting, injecting, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body any controlled dangerous substance in violation of the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

3. All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subsection;

4. All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, vessels, or farm implements which are used to transport, conceal, or cultivate for the purpose of distribution as defined in 21 CNCA § 2101, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation or cultivation for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in paragraphs 1 or 2 of this subsection or when such property is unlawfully possessed by an occupant thereof, except that:

a. No conveyance used by a person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier shall be forfeited under the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act unless it shall appear that the owner or other person in charge of such conveyance was a consenting party or privy to a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act; and

b. No conveyance shall be forfeited under the provisions of this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without the knowledge or consent of such owner, and if the act is committed by any person other than such owner the owner shall establish further that the conveyance was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the owner in violation of the criminal laws of the United States, or of any state or Indian nation or tribe;

5. All books, records and research, including formulas, microfilm, tapes and data which are used in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

6. All things of value furnished, or intended to be furnished, in exchange for a controlled dangerous substance in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, all proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and all monies, negotiable instruments, and securities used, or intended to be used, to facilitate any violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

7. All moneys, coin and currency found in close proximity to forfeitable substances, to forfeitable drug manufacturing or distribution paraphernalia or to forfeitable records of the importation, manufacture or distribution of substances, which are rebuttably presumed to be forfeitable under this act. The burden of proof is upon claimants of the property to rebut this presumption;

8. All real property, including any right, title, and interest in the whole of any lot or tract of land and any appurtenance or improvement thereto, which is used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of, a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act which is punishable by imprisonment for more than one (1) year, except that no property right, title or interest shall be forfeited pursuant to this paragraph, by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without the knowledge or consent of that owner.

B. Any property or thing of value of a person is subject to forfeiture if it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that such property or thing of value was acquired by such person during the period of the violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act or within a reasonable time after such period and there was no likely source for such property or thing of value other than the violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act.

C. Any property or thing of value of a person is subject to forfeiture if it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that the person has not paid all or part of a fine imposed pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 2415.

D. All items forfeited in this section shall be forfeited under the procedures established in 21 CNCA § 2506. Whenever any item is forfeited pursuant to this section the Cherokee Nation District Court shall order that such item, money, or monies derived from the sale of such item be deposited by the law enforcement agency which seized the item in the revolving fund provided for in 21 CNCA § 2107; provided, such item, money or monies derived from the sale of such item forfeited due to nonpayment of a fine imposed pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 2415 shall be apportioned as provided in 21 CNCA § 2416. Items, money or monies seized pursuant to subsections (A) and (B) of this section shall not be applied or considered toward satisfaction of the fine imposed by 21 CNCA § 2415. All raw materials used or intended to be used by persons to unlawfully manufacture or attempt to manufacture any controlled dangerous substance in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act shall be summarily forfeited pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 2505.

E. All property taken or detained under this section shall not be repleviable, but shall remain in the custody of Cherokee Nation, subject only to the orders and decrees of a court of competent jurisdiction. The Attorney General of Cherokee Nation shall follow the procedures outlined in 21 CNCA § 2506 dealing with notification of seizure, intent of forfeiture, final disposition procedures, and release to innocent claimants with regard to all property included in this section detained by Cherokee Nation.

§ 2503.1. Transactions involving proceeds derived from illegal drug activity prohibited—Penalties

A. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to receive or acquire proceeds and to conceal such proceeds, or engage in transactions involving proceeds, known to be derived from any violation of this act. The subsection does not apply to any transaction between an individual and the counsel of the individual necessary to preserve the right to representation of the individual, as guaranteed by the Cherokee Nation Constitution and by the Sixth Amendment of the United States Constitution. However, this exception does not create any presumption against or prohibition of the right of the state to seek and obtain forfeiture of any proceeds derived from a violation of this act.

B. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to give, sell, transfer, trade, invest, conceal, transport, or maintain an interest in or otherwise make available anything of value which that person knows is intended to be used for the purpose of committing or furthering the commission of any violation of this act.

C. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to direct, plan, organize, initiate, finance, manage, supervise, or facilitate the transportation or transfer of proceeds known to be derived from any violation of this act.

D. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to conduct a financial transaction involving proceeds derived from a violation of this act, when the transaction is designed in whole or in part to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds known to be derived from a violation of this act, or to avoid a transaction reporting requirement under Nation or federal law.

E. Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a crime.

§ 2503.2. Assessment for violation of act

A. Every person convicted of a violation of this act, must be assessed for each offense a sum of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) nor more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00). The assessment is in addition to and not in lieu of any fines, restitution costs, other assessments, or forfeitures authorized or required by law.

B. The assessment provided for in this section must be collected as provided for collection of restitution costs and probation and parole fees and must be forwarded to the Drug Abuse Education Revolving Fund. Expenditures may be made only for drug abuse education and prevention.

§ 2504. Seizure of property

Any peace officer of this Nation shall seize property subject to forfeiture under this act when:

1. The seizure is incident to arrest or search warrant;
2. The property has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in an injunction or forfeiture proceeding under this act;
3. Probable cause exists to believe the property is dangerous to health or safety; or
4. Probable cause exists to believe the property has been used, or will be used, in violation of this act.

§ 2505. Summary forfeiture of certain substances

A. All controlled substances in Schedule I of this act and all controlled substances in Schedules II, III, IV, and V that are not in properly labeled containers in accordance with this act that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this act are deemed contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited.

B. All hazardous materials and all property contaminated with hazardous materials described in 21 CNCA § 2503(A)(2), used or intended to be used by persons to unlawfully manufacture or attempt to manufacture any controlled dangerous substance, shall be summarily forfeited to the Nation and submitted to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation for prompt destruction in accordance with Nation and federal law.

C. Species of plant from which controlled substances in Schedule I or II of this act, may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this act, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growth, may be seized by peace officers, summarily forfeited, and, in lieu of the eradication procedures contained in 21 CNCA § 2509, promptly cut and burned where seized.

§ 2506. Seizure of property—Notice of seizure and intended forfeiture proceeding—Verified answer and claim to property—Hearing—Evidence and proof—Proceeds of sale

A. Any peace officer of this Nation shall seize the following property:

1. Any property described in 21 CNCA § 2503(A)(4) or (6). Such property shall be held as evidence until a forfeiture has been declared or release ordered;
2. Any property described in 21 CNCA § 2503(B); or
3. Any property described in 21 CNCA § 2503(C).

B. Notice of seizure and intended forfeiture proceeding shall be filed in the Office of the Court Clerk of the Cherokee Nation District Court and shall be given all owners and parties in interest.

C. Notice shall be given according to one of the following methods:

1. Upon each owner or party in interest whose right, title or interest is of record in the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission, by mailing a copy of the notice by certified mail to the address as given upon the records of the Tax Commission;
2. Upon each owner or party in interest whose name and address is known to the Prosecuting Attorney of the Cherokee Nation District Court, by mailing a copy of the notice by registered mail to the last-known address; or
3. Upon all other owners or interested parties, whose addresses are unknown, but who are believed to have an interest in the property, by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the Nation.

D. Within sixty (60) days after the mailing or publication of the notice, the owner of the property and any other party in interest or claimant may file a verified answer and claim to the property described in the notice of seizure and of the intended forfeiture proceeding.

E. If at the end of sixty (60) days after the notice has been mailed or published there is no verified answer on file, the Court shall hear evidence upon the fact of the unlawful use and shall order the property forfeited to the state, if such fact is proved.

F. If a verified answer is filed, the forfeiture proceeding shall be set for hearing.

G. At a hearing in a proceeding against property described in 21 CNCA § 2503(A)(4) or (6) or (B) or (C), the requirements set forth in said paragraph or subsection, respectively, shall be satisfied by the Nation by a preponderance of the evidence.

H. The claimant of any right, title or interest in the property may prove his lien, mortgage or conditional sales contract to be a bona fide or innocent ownership interest and that his right, title or interest was created without any knowledge or reason to believe that the property was being, or was to be, used for the purpose charged.

I. In the event of such proof, the Court shall order the property released to the bona fide or innocent owner, lien holder, mortgagee or vendor if the amount due him is equal to, or in excess of, the value of the property as of the date of the seizure, it being the intention of this section to forfeit only the right, title or interest of the purchaser.

J. If the amount due to such person is less than the value of the property, or if no bona fide claim is established, the property shall be forfeited to the Nation and sold under judgment of the court, as on sale upon execution, except as otherwise provided for in 21 CNCA § 2503.

K. Property taken or detained under this section shall not be repleviable, but shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney of the Cherokee Nation District Court, subject only to the orders and decrees of the Court or the official having jurisdiction thereof.

L. The proceeds of the sale of any property not taken or detained by Cherokee Nation shall be distributed as follows, in the order indicated:

1. To the bona fide or innocent purchaser, conditional sales vendor or mortgagee of the property, if any, up to the amount of his interest in the property, when the Court declaring the forfeiture orders a distribution to such person;
2. To the payment of the actual expenses of preserving the property; and
3. The balance to the Narcotics Revolving Fund.

M. Whenever any vehicle, airplane or vessel is forfeited under this act, the Cherokee Nation District Court may order that the vehicle, airplane or vessel seized may be retained by the law enforcement agency which seized the vehicle, airplane or vessel for its official use.

N. If the Court finds that the Nation failed to satisfy the required showing provided for in subsection (G) of this section, the Court shall order the property released to the owner or owners.

§ 2507. Itemization and submission for destruction

Any peace officer of this Nation seizing any of the property described in 21 CNCA § 2503(1) or (2) shall cause a written inventory to be made and maintain custody of the same until all legal actions have been exhausted unless such property has been placed in lawful custody of a court or state or federal law enforcement agency. After all legal actions have been exhausted with respect to such property, the property shall be surrendered by the Court, law enforcement agency or person having custody of the same to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation to be destroyed as provided in 21 CNCA § 2508. The property shall be accompanied with a written inventory on forms to be furnished by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation.

§ 2508. Destruction of seized property

A. Except as otherwise provided, all property described in 21 CNCA § 2503(A)(1) and (2) which is seized or surrendered pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act shall be destroyed. The destruction shall be done by or at the direction of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, who shall have the discretion prior to destruction to preserve samples of the substance for testing. Any such property submitted to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation which it deems to be of use for investigative, training, educational, or analytical purposes may be retained by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation in lieu of destruction.

B. All other property not otherwise provided for in the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act which has come into the possession of a Cherokee Nation peace officer or the Prosecuting Attorney of the Cherokee Nation District Court may be disposed of by order of the District Court of Cherokee Nation when no longer needed in connection with any litigation. If the owner of the property is unknown to the Marshal service or Prosecuting Attorney of the Cherokee Nation District Court, the Marshal service shall hold the property for at least two (2) years prior to filing a petition for disposal with the District Court except for laboratory equipment which may be forfeited when no longer needed in connection with litigation, unless the property is perishable. The Prosecuting Attorney of the Cherokee Nation District Court shall file a petition in the District Court requesting the authority to conduct a sale of the property or to convert title of the property to Cherokee Nation for donation in accordance with subsection (F) of this section. The Prosecuting Attorney shall attach to the petition a list describing the property, including all identifying numbers and marks, if any, the date the property came into the possession of the Marshal service or Prosecuting Attorney, and the name and address of the owner, if known. The notice of the hearing of the petition for the sale of the property, except laboratory equipment used in the processing, manufacturing or compounding of controlled dangerous substances in violation of the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, shall be given to every known owner, as set forth in the petition, by certified mail to the last-known address of the owner at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing. Notice of a hearing on a petition for forfeiture or sale of laboratory equipment used in the processing, manufacturing or compounding of controlled dangerous substances in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act shall not be required. The notice shall contain a brief description of the property, and the location and date of the hearing. In addition, notice of the hearing shall be posted in three public places in the Nation, one such place being the Cherokee Nation Courthouse at the regular place assigned for the posting of legal notices. At the hearing, if no owner appears and establishes ownership of the property, the Court may enter an order authorizing the Prosecuting Attorney of Cherokee Nation to donate the property pursuant to subsection (F) of this section or to sell the property to the highest bidder after at least five (5) days' notice has been given by publication in one issue of a legal newspaper of the Nation. The Prosecuting Attorney shall make a return of the sale and, when confirmed by the Court, the order confirming the sale shall vest in the purchaser title to the property so purchased. The money received from the sale shall be used for the purpose of purchasing controlled dangerous substances to be used as evidence in narcotic cases and fees for informers, or employees and other associated expenses necessary to apprehend and convict violators of the laws of Cherokee Nation regulating controlled dangerous substances. These funds shall be transferred to the Narcotics Revolving Fund. A return of the sale and, when confirmed by the court, the order confirming the sale shall vest in the purchaser title to the property so purchased. The money received from the sale shall be used for the purpose of purchasing controlled dangerous substances to be used as evidence in narcotic cases and fees for informers, or employees and other associated expenses necessary to apprehend and convict violators of the laws of the Cherokee Nation regulating controlled dangerous substances. These funds shall be transferred to the Narcotics Revolving Fund.

C. Any property, including but not limited to uncontaminated laboratory equipment used in the processing, manufacturing or compounding of controlled dangerous substances in violation of the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, upon a Court order, may be donated for classroom or laboratory use by the Marshal Service or the Prosecuting Attorney of Cherokee Nation District Court to any public secondary school or vocational-technical school in this Nation or the State of Oklahoma.

§ 2509. Eradication

A. All species of plants from which controlled dangerous substances in Schedules I and II may be derived are hereby declared inimical to health and welfare of the public, and the intent of the Council is to control and eradicate these species of the plants in Cherokee Nation.

B. It shall be unlawful for any person to cultivate or produce, or to knowingly permit the cultivation, production, or wild growing of any species of such plants, on any lands owned or controlled by such person, and it is hereby declared the duty of every such person to destroy all such plants found growing on lands owned or controlled by him.

C. 1. Whenever any peace officer of the Nation shall receive information that any species of any such plants has been found growing on any private lands in Cherokee Nation, he shall notify the Marshal office; within five (5) days of receipt of such notice, the Marshal office shall notify the owner or person in possession of such lands that such plants have been found growing on the said lands and that the same must be destroyed within fifteen (15) days; when the fifteen (15) days have elapsed, the reporting peace officer shall cause an investigation to be made of the aforesaid lands, and if any such plants be found growing thereon, the Marshal office shall cause the same to be destroyed by cutting and burning the same.

2. Whenever any such plants are destroyed by order of the Marshals as provided herein, the cost of the same shall, if the work or labor be furnished by the marshals, be taxed against the lands whereon the work was performed, and shall be a lien upon such land in all manner and respects as a lien of judgment.

D. Knowingly violating the provisions of subsection (B) of this section is hereby declared, as to the owner, or person in possession of such lands, to be a crime.

E. In lieu of the eradication procedures provided for in subsections (B) and (C) of this section, all species of plants from which controlled dangerous substances in Schedules I and II of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act may be derived, may be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of 21 CNCA § 2505(C).

§ 2510. Defenses—Descriptions

A. An exemption or exception set forth in this act shall constitute an affirmative defense. Such affirmative defense shall be in accordance with the presentation of an alibi defense prescribed in 22 CNCA § 585.

B. In any prosecution for a violation of any of the provisions of this act relating to a controlled dangerous substance named in any of the schedules set out in the act, it shall be sufficient in any information to allege a general description of the controlled dangerous substance and the schedule wherein listed without other specific description. Upon a trial under such information, it shall be sufficient to prove that the controlled dangerous substance is one listed within a particular Schedule without further identification.

ARTICLE VI. MISCELLANEOUS

§ 2603. Uniformity of interpretation

§ 12. Party defendant

The party prosecuted in a criminal action is designated in this title as the defendant.

§ 13. Right to speedy trial, counsel and witnesses

In a criminal action the defendant is entitled:

1. To a speedy and public trial.
2. To be allowed counsel, as in civil actions, or to appear and defend in person and with counsel; and
3. To produce witnesses on his behalf, and to be confronted with the witnesses against him in the presence of the Court.

§ 14. Former jeopardy

No person can be subjected to a second prosecution for a public offense for which he has once been prosecuted and duly convicted or acquitted, except as hereinafter provided for new trials.

§ 15. Testimony against one's self—Restraint during trial and prior to conviction

No person can be compelled in a criminal action to be witness against himself; nor can a person charged with a public offense be subjected before conviction to any more restraint than is necessary for his detention to answer the charge, and in no event shall he be tried before a jury while in chains or shackles.

§ 16. Jury trial—Exceptions

No person can be convicted of a public offense, unless by the verdict of a jury, accepted and recorded by the court, or upon a plea of guilty, or upon final judgment for or against him upon a demurrer to the information.

§ 17. Custody and distribution of proceeds from sale of rights arising from criminal act

A. Every person who has been charged, convicted, has pled guilty or has pled nolo contendere to any crime hereinafter referred to as defendant who contracts to reenact such crime by the use of any movie, book, newspaper, magazine article, radio or television presentation, live entertainment of any kind, or from the expression of his thoughts, opinions or emotions regarding such crime, shall pay to the district court wherein the charges were filed any money or thing of value contracted to be paid to the defendant. The District Court shall deposit such monies in an escrow account for the benefit of and payable to any victim or his legal representative of crimes committed by the defendant.

B. Payments from the account shall be made to the defendant upon an order of the Judge of the District Court wherein the charges were filed upon showing that the money or thing of value shall be used for the exclusive purpose of retaining legal representation for the defendant at any stage of the proceedings arising out of a criminal charge, and that the defendant would otherwise be unable to afford adequate representation.

C. Payments from the account shall be used to satisfy any judgment rendered in favor of a victim or his legal representative, provided said victim brings a civil action, in a court of competent jurisdiction, to recover money against the defendant or his legal representatives within five (5) years of the filing of the charges against the defendant. If no victim or legal representative of a victim has filed suit within five (5) years from the filing of the charges, any money remaining in the account shall be paid over to the Victims' Compensation Revolving Fund. Upon disposition of charges favorable to the defendant, money in the account shall be paid over to the defendant.

D. The District Court wherein the charges were filed shall, once every six (6) months for five (5) years from the date the money is deposited with the Court, publish a notice in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county of the Nation in accordance with the provisions on publication of notices found in 25 O.S. § 101 et seq., notifying any eligible victim or legal representative of an eligible victim that monies are available to satisfy judgments pursuant to this section.

§ 18. Expungement of records—Persons authorized

Persons authorized to file a motion for expungement, as provided herein, must be within one of the following categories:

1. The person has been acquitted;
2. The person was arrested and no charges are filed or charges are dismissed within one (1) year of the arrest; or
3. The statute of limitations on the offense had expired and no charges were filed.

For purposes of this act, "expungement" shall mean the sealing of criminal records.

CHAPTER 2

PREVENTION OF PUBLIC OFFENSES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

VICTIM OF RAPE, FORCIBLE SODOMY, OR DOMESTIC ABUSE

PROTECTION FROM DOMESTIC ABUSE ACT

RESISTANCE TO EXECUTION OF PROCESS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 31. Who may resist

Lawful resistance to the commission of a public offense may be made:

1. By the party about to be injured.
2. By other parties.

§ 32. Resistance by party to be injured

Resistance sufficient to prevent the offense may be made by the party about to be injured:

1. To prevent an offense against his person or his family, or some member thereof.
2. To prevent an illegal attempt, by force, to take or injure property in his lawful possession.

§ 33. Resistance by other person

Any other person, in aid or defense of the person about to be injured, may make resistance sufficient to prevent the offense.

§ 34. Intervention by officers

Public offenses may be prevented by the intervention of the officers of justice:

1. By requiring security to keep the peace.
2. By forming a police, and by requiring their attendance in exposed places.
3. By suppressing riots.

§ 35. Persons assisting officers

When the officers of justice are authorized to act in the prevention of public offenses, other persons, who, by their command, act in their aid, are justified in so doing.

§ 36. Civil and criminal immunity for private citizens aiding police officers

Private citizens aiding a police officer, or other officers of the law in the performance of their duties as police officers or officers of the law, shall have the same civil and criminal immunity as such officer, as a result of any act or commission for aiding or attempting to aid a police officer or other officer of the law, when such officer is in imminent danger of loss of life or grave bodily injury or when such officer requests such assistance and when such action was taken under emergency conditions and in good faith.

§ 36.1. Police dog handlers—Civil liability

Any dog handler as defined by 21 CNCA § 648 who uses a police dog in the line of duty in accordance with the policies or standards established by the law enforcement agency for which he is employed shall not be civilly liable for any damages arising from the use of said dog.

§ 37.1. Off-duty law enforcement officers—Powers and duties—Liability

An "off-duty" law enforcement officer in official uniform in attendance at a public function, event or assemblage of people shall have the same powers and obligations as when he is "on-duty".

Nothing herein shall impose liability upon the governmental entity, by whom the law enforcement officer is employed, for actions of the said officer in the course of his employment by a nongovernmental entity.

§ 39. Benefits for citizens who aid

Any citizen who shall be aiding in the maintaining of law and order shall likewise be entitled to the benefits of this act.

VICTIM OF RAPE, FORCIBLE SODOMY, OR DOMESTIC ABUSE

§ 40. Definitions

As used in 22 CNCA §§ 40.1 through 40.5:

1. "Domestic abuse" means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between family or household members:

- a. causing or attempting to cause physical harm; or
- b. threatening another with physical harm.

2. "Family or household members" means spouses, ex-spouses, parents, children, persons otherwise related by blood or marriage or persons living in the same household or who formerly shared the same residence. This shall include the elderly and handicapped;

3. "Forcible sodomy" means the act of forcing another person to engage in the detestable and abominable crime against nature pursuant to 21 CNCA §§ 886 and 887;

4. "Rape" means an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person pursuant to 21 CNCA §§ 1111, 1111.1 and 1114.

§ 40.1. Victim of rape or forcible sodomy—Notice of rights

Upon the preliminary investigation of any rape or forcible sodomy, it shall be the duty of the officer who interviews the victim of the rape or forcible sodomy to inform the victim of the twenty-four-hour statewide telephone communication service established by the State of Oklahoma and to give notice to the victim of certain rights. The notice shall consist of handing such victim the following statement:

"As a victim of the crime of rape or forcible sodomy, you have certain rights. These rights are as follows:

"1. The right to request that charges be pressed against your assailant;

"2. The right to request protection from any harm or threat of harm arising out of your cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts as far as facilities are available and to be provided with information on the level of protection available;

"3. The right to be informed of financial assistance and other social services as a result of being a victim, including information on how to apply for the assistance and services; and

"4. The right to a free medical examination for the procurement of evidence to aid in the prosecution of your assailant."

The written notice shall also include the telephone number of the twenty-four-hour telephone communication service established by the State of Oklahoma.

§ 40.2. Victim of domestic abuse—Notice of rights

Upon the preliminary investigation of any crime involving domestic abuse, it shall be the duty of the first peace officer who interviews the victim of the domestic abuse to inform the victim of the twenty-four-hour statewide telephone communication service established by the State of Oklahoma and to give notice to the victim of certain rights. The notice shall consist of handing such victim the following statement:

"As a victim of domestic abuse, you have certain rights. These rights are as follows:

"1. The right to request that charges be pressed against your assailant;

"2. The right to request protection from any harm or threat of harm arising out of your cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts as far as facilities are available and to be provided with information on the level of protection available; and

"3. The right to be informed of financial assistance and other social services available as a result of being a victim, including information on how to apply for the assistance and services."

§ 40.3. Victims not to be discouraged from pressing charges—Warrantless arrest of certain persons

A. A peace officer shall not discourage a victim of rape, forcible sodomy or domestic abuse from pressing charges against the assailant of the victim.

B. A peace officer may arrest without a warrant a person anywhere, including his place of residence, if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person within the preceding seventy-two (72) hours has committed an act of domestic abuse as defined in Chapter 46 of Title 21, although the assault did not take place in the presence of the peace officer. A peace officer may not arrest a person pursuant to this section without first observing a recent physical injury to, or an impairment of the physical condition of, the alleged victim.

§ 40.5. Short title

Sections 40.2 through 40.6 of this Title shall be known and may be cited as the Domestic Abuse Reporting Act.

§ 40.6. Record of reported incidents of domestic abuse—Reports

A. It shall be the duty of every law enforcement agency to keep a record of each reported incident of domestic abuse as provided in subsection (B) of this section and to submit a monthly report of such incidents as provided in subsection (C) of this section.

B. The record of each reported incident of domestic abuse shall:

1. Show the type of crime involved in the domestic abuse;
2. Show the day of the week the incident occurred; and
3. Show the time of day the incident occurred.

C. A monthly report of the recorded incidents of domestic abuse shall be submitted to the Cherokee Nation Marshal and the Director of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation on forms provided by the State Bureau of Investigation for such purpose.

PROTECTION FROM DOMESTIC ABUSE ACT

§ 60. Short title

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act.

§ 60.1. Definitions

As used in this act and in the Domestic Abuse Reporting Act:

1. "Domestic abuse" means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between family or household members:

a. causing or attempting to cause serious physical harm; or

b. threatening another with imminent serious physical harm; and

c. includes but is not limited to: Assault, as defined by 21 CNCA § 641; battery, as defined by 21 CNCA § 642; rape, as defined by 21 CNCA § 1111; and aggravated assault and battery, pursuant to 21 CNCA § 646.

2. "Family or household members" means spouses, former spouses, parents, children, persons otherwise related by blood or marriage, or persons living in the same household or who formerly lived in the same household. This shall include the elderly and handicapped.

§ 60.2. Protective order—Petition: form; filing fee; preparation

A. A victim of domestic abuse, or any adult household member on behalf of any other family or household member who is a minor or incompetent, may seek relief under the provisions of this act by filing a petition for protective order with the District Court.

B. The petition forms shall be provided by the Clerk of the Court and shall be in substantially the following form:

Court Clerk, Deputy Court Clerk, or Notary Public

C. No filing fee shall be charged the plaintiff at the time the petition is filed. The Court may assess court costs and filing fees to either party at the hearing on the petition.

D. The plaintiff shall prepare the petition as set forth above or, at the request of the plaintiff, the Clerk of the Court or the victim-witness coordinator shall prepare or assist the plaintiff in preparing the same.

§ 60.3. Emergency ex parte order—Hearing

If a plaintiff requests an emergency ex parte order pursuant to 22 CNCA § 60.2, the Court shall hold an ex parte hearing on the same day the petition is filed. The Court may, for good cause shown at the hearing, issue any emergency ex parte order that it finds necessary to protect the victim from immediate and present danger of domestic abuse. The emergency ex parte order shall be in effect until after the full hearing is conducted. An emergency ex parte order authorized by this section may include the following:

1. An order to the defendant not to abuse or injure the victim;
2. An order to the defendant not to visit, assault, molest, harass or otherwise interfere with the victim;
3. An order to the defendant not to threaten the victim; or
4. An order to the defendant to leave the residence.

§ 60.4. Service of process—Ex parte orders—Hearing—Protective orders—Period of relief

A. A copy of the petition, notice of hearing and a copy of any ex parte order issued by the Court shall be served upon the defendant in the same manner as a summons. Ex parte orders shall be given priority for service by the sheriff's office and can be served twenty-four (24) hours a day.

B. Within ten (10) days of the filing of the petition the Court shall schedule a full hearing on the petition, regardless of whether an emergency ex parte order has been previously issued, requested or denied.

C. At the hearing, the Court may grant any protective order to bring about the cessation of domestic abuse against the victim.

D. Protective orders authorized by this section may include the following:

1. An order to the defendant not to abuse or injure the victim;
2. An order to the defendant not to visit, assault, molest, harass or otherwise interfere with the victim;
3. An order to the defendant not to threaten the victim;
4. An order to the defendant to leave the residence;
5. An order awarding attorney fees; and
6. An order awarding court costs.

E. When necessary to protect the victim and when authorized by the Court, protective orders granted pursuant to the provisions of this section may be served upon the defendant by a peace officer, marshal, sheriff, constable, or policeman or other officer whose duty it is to preserve the peace, as defined by 21 CNCA § 99.

F. Any protective order issued pursuant to subsection (C) of this section shall not be for a fixed period but shall be continuous until modified or rescinded upon motion by either party or if the Court approves any consent agreement entered into by the plaintiff and defendant. No order issued under the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act shall in any manner affect title to real property.

§ 60.5. Copies of ex parte or final protective orders to be sent to appropriate law enforcement agencies

Within twenty-four (24) hours of the return of service of any ex parte or final protective order, the Clerk of the issuing court shall send certified copies thereof to all appropriate law enforcement agencies designated by the plaintiff.

§ 60.6. Violation of ex parte or final protective order—Penalty

A. Except as otherwise provided by this section any person who has been served with an ex parte or final protective order and is in violation of such protective order, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a crime and shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or by a term of imprisonment in the penal institution of not more than one (1) year, or both.

B. Any person who after a previous conviction of a violation of a protective order is convicted of a second or subsequent offense pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a crime and shall be punished by a term of imprisonment in the penal institution of not less than ten (10) days and not more than one (1) year. In addition to the term of imprisonment, the person may be punished by a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

C. 1. Any person who has been served with an ex parte or final protective order who violates said protective order and without justifiable excuse causes physical injury or physical impairment to the plaintiff or to any other person named in said protective order shall upon conviction be guilty of a crime and shall be punished by a term of imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than one (1) year. In addition to the term of imprisonment, the person may be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

2. In determining the term of imprisonment required by this section, the jury or Sentencing Judge shall consider the degree of physical injury or physical impairment to the victim.

3. The provisions of this subsection shall not affect the applicability of 21 CNCA § 644, 21 CNCA § 645, 21 CNCA § 647 and 21 CNCA § 652.

D. The minimum sentence of imprisonment issued pursuant to the provisions of subsections (B) and (C) of this section shall not be subject to statutory provisions for suspended sentences, deferred sentences or probation, provided the Court may subject any remaining penalty under the jurisdiction of the Court to the statutory provisions for suspended sentences, deferred sentences or probation.

E. In addition to any other penalty specified by this section, the Court may require a defendant to undergo the treatment or participate in the counseling services necessary to bring about the cessation of domestic abuse against the victim.

F. Ex parte and final protective orders shall include notice of these penalties.

§ 60.7. Statewide validity of orders

All orders issued pursuant to the provisions of the Domestic Abuse Act shall have statewide validity, unless specifically modified or terminated by a Judge of the District Court.

RESISTANCE TO EXECUTION OF PROCESS

§ 93. Refusal to assist officer a misdemeanor

Every person commanded by a public officer to assist him in the execution of a process, who, without lawful cause, refuses or neglects to obey the commands, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

WARRANTS AND TAKING BEFORE MAGISTRATE

EXAMINATION AND COMMITMENT

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

§ 121. Offenses commenced outside and consummated within the Nation

When the commission of a public offense, commenced without this Nation, is consummated within its boundaries, the defendant is liable to punishment therefor in this Nation, though he were out of the Nation at the time of the commission of the offense charged if he consummated it in this Nation through the intervention of an innocent or guilty agent, or by any other means proceeding directly from himself; and in such case, the jurisdiction is in the Nation.

§ 126. Kidnapping, enticing away children and similar offenses, jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of an information:

1. For forcibly and without lawful authority seizing and confining another, or inveigling or kidnapping him, with intent, against his will, to cause him to be secretly confined or imprisoned in this Nation, or to be sent out of the Nation; or
2. For decoying or taking or enticing away a child under the age of twelve (12) years, with intent to detain and conceal it from its parents, guardian, or other person having lawful charge of the child; or
3. For the inveigling, enticing, or taking away person under the age of twenty-one (21) years for the purpose of prostitution; or
4. For taking away any person under the age of sixteen (16) years from her father, mother, guardian or other person having the legal charge of her person without their consent either for the purpose of concubinage or prostitution; is in Cherokee Nation if the offense is committed within Cherokee Nation or the person upon whom the offense was committed, may, in the commission of the offense, have been brought within Cherokee Nation, or if an act done by the defendant in instigating, procuring, promoting, aiding or in being an accessory to the commission of the offense, or in abetting the parties concerned therein was performed within Cherokee Nation.

§ 129. Accessory, jurisdiction in case of

In the case of an accessory in the commission of a public offense, the jurisdiction is where the offense of the accessory was committed, notwithstanding the principal offense was committed in another jurisdiction.

§ 130. Conviction or acquittal outside Nation a bar

When an act charged as a public offense is within the jurisdiction of another territory, state or nation, as well as this Nation, a conviction or acquittal thereof in the former is a bar to a prosecution therefore in this Nation.

§ 133. Stealing property in another jurisdiction—Receiving such stolen property

The jurisdiction of a prosecution for stealing in a state, or other territory, the property of another, or receiving it, knowing it to have been stolen, and bringing the same into this Nation, is in the Nation.

§ 134. Murder or manslaughter, jurisdiction in certain cases

The jurisdiction of a prosecution for murder or manslaughter, when the injury which caused the death was inflicted in one jurisdiction, and the party injured dies in another jurisdiction, or out of the Nation, is in the jurisdiction where the injury was inflicted.

§ 135. Principal not present, jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of a prosecution against a principal in the commission of a public offense, when such principal is not present at the commission of the public offense, is in the same jurisdiction as it would be under this chapter, if he were so present and aiding and abetting therein.

LIMITATIONS

§ 151. No limitation of prosecution for murder

There is no limitation of the time within which a prosecution for murder must be commenced. It may be commenced at any time after the death of the person killed.

§ 152. Limitations in general

A. Prosecutions for the crimes of bribery, embezzlement of public money, bonds, securities, assets or property of the Cherokee Nation or other subdivision thereof, or of any misappropriation of public money, bonds, securities, assets or property of the Cherokee Nation or other subdivision thereof, falsification of public records of the Cherokee Nation or other subdivision thereof, and conspiracy to defraud the Cherokee Nation or other subdivision thereof in any manner or for any purpose shall be commenced within seven (7) years after the discovery of the crime; provided, however, prosecutions for the crimes of embezzlement or misappropriation of public money, bonds, securities, assets or property of any school district, including those relating to student activity funds, or the crime of falsification of public records of any independent school district, the crime of lewd or indecent proposals or acts against children, pursuant to 21 CNCA § 1123, the crimes of involving minors in pornography, pursuant to 21 CNCA § 1021.2 and 21 CNCA § 1021.3, the crime of sodomy, the crime of criminal conspiracy, or the crime of embezzlement, pursuant to 21 CNCA §§ 1451 through 1462, shall be commenced within five (5) years after the discovery of the crime.

B. Prosecutions for criminal violations of any Cherokee Nation tax laws shall be commenced within five (5) years after the commission of such violation.

C. Prosecutions for the crime of rape or forcible sodomy, sodomy, lewd or indecent proposals or acts against children, and the involvement of minors in pornography pursuant to 21 CNCA § 886, 21 CNCA § 888, 21 CNCA § 1111, 21 CNCA § 1111.1, 21 CNCA § 1113, 21 CNCA § 1114 or 21 CNCA § 1123, shall be commenced within seven (7) years after the discovery of the crime.

D. Prosecution for the crime of false or bogus check, 21 CNCA § 1541.1 and 21 CNCA § 1541.2, shall be commenced within five (5) years after the commission of such offense.

E. In all other cases a prosecution for a public offense must be commenced within three (3) years after its commission.

F. As used in subsection (C) of this section, "discovery" means the date that a physical or sexually related crime involving a victim under the age of eighteen (18) years of age is reported to a law enforcement agency, up to and including one (1) year from the eighteenth birthday of the child.

§ 153. Absence from Nation, limitation does not run

If when the offense is committed the defendant be out of the Nation, the prosecution may be commenced within the term herein limited after his coming within the nation, and no time during which the defendant is not an inhabitant of or usually resident within the Nation, is part of the limitation.

MAGISTRATES

§ 161. Magistrate defined

A Magistrate is an officer having power to issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with a public offense.

§ 162. Who are Magistrates

The following persons are Magistrates:

First. Justices of the Supreme Court;

Second. Judges of the District Court, including Associate District Judges, Special Judges and Magistrates.

ARREST AND TAKING BEFORE MAGISTRATE

§ 171. Complaint—Issuance of warrant of arrest

When a complaint, verified by oath or affirmation, is laid before a Magistrate, of the commission of a public offense, he must, if satisfied therefrom that the offense complained of has been committed, and that there is reasonable ground to believe that the defendant has committed it, issue a warrant of arrest.

§ 172. Form of warrant

A warrant of arrest is an order in writing, in the name of the Nation, signed by a Magistrate, commanding the arrest of the defendant, and may be substantially in the following form:

Cherokee Nation

To any marshal, sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in this Nation:

Complaint upon oath having been this day made before me that the crime of (designating it) has been committed, and accusing C. D. thereof, you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D. and bring him before me at (naming the place), or, in case of my absence or inability to act, before the nearest or most accessible Magistrate.

Dated at this day of 20

E. F., Judge (or as the case may be.)

WARRANTS AND TAKING BEFORE MAGISTRATE

§ 173. Requisites of warrant

The warrant must specify the name of the defendant, or, if it is unknown to the Magistrate, the defendant may be designated therein by any name. It must also state an offense in respect to which the Magistrate has authority to issue the warrant, and the time of issuing it, and the county, city, or town where it is issued, and if the offense charged is bailable, shall fix the amount of bail and an endorsement shall be made on the warrant, to the following effect: "The defendant is to be admitted to bail in the sum of $_____" and be signed by the Magistrate with his name of office.

§ 174. Warrant directed to whom

The warrant must be directed to and executed by a peace officer.

§ 178. Proceedings when bail is taken

On taking bail, the Magistrate must certify that fact on the warrant, and deliver the warrant and undertaking of bail to the officer having charge of the defendant. The officer must then discharge the defendant from arrest, and must, without delay, deliver the warrant and undertaking to the Clerk of the Court at which the defendant is required to appear.

§ 179. When bail is not given

If, on the admission of the defendant to bail, bail be not forthwith given, the officer must take the defendant before the Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Magistrate, as provided in the next section.

§ 180. Magistrate absent—Taking defendant before another

When, by the preceding sections of this chapter, the defendant is required to be taken before the Magistrate who issued the warrant, he may, if the Magistrate be absent or unable to act, be taken before the nearest or most accessible Magistrate in the Nation. The officer must, at the same time, deliver to the Magistrate the warrant, with the return endorsed and subscribed by him.

§ 181. Delay in taking before Magistrate not permitted

The defendant must, in all cases, be taken before the Magistrate without unnecessary delay.

§ 186. Arrest defined

Arrest is the taking of a person into custody, that he may be held to answer for a public offense.

§ 187. Arrest made by whom

An arrest may be either:

1. By a peace officer, under warrant;
2. By a peace officer without a warrant; or
3. By a private person.

§ 188. Aid to officer

Every person must aid an officer in the execution of a warrant, if the officer require his aid.

§ 189. Arrest, when made

If the offense charged is a crime which under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony, the arrest may be made on any day, and at any time of the day or night. If it is a crime which under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a misdemeanor, the arrest may be made only during the hours of six o'clock a.m. to ten o'clock p.m., inclusive, except as otherwise may be directed by the Magistrate endorsed upon the warrant. Provided, an arrest on a warrant which charges a criminal offense may be made at any time of the day or night if the defendant is in a public place or on a public roadway.

§ 190. Arrest, how made

An arrest is made by an actual restraint of the person of the defendant, or by his submission to the custody of the officer.

§ 191. Restraint which is permissible

The defendant is not to be subjected to any more restraint than is necessary for his arrest and detention.

§ 192. Officer must show warrant

The officer must inform the defendant that he acts under the authority of the warrant, and must also show the warrant within a reasonable time under the circumstances, if requested.

§ 193. Resistance, means to overcome

If, after notice of intention to arrest the defendant, he either flee or forcibly resist, the officer may use all necessary means to effect the arrest.

§ 194. Officer may break open door or window, when

The officer may break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house, to execute the warrant, if, after notice of his authority and purpose, he be refused admittance.

§ 195. Officer's breaking door or window to liberate himself or another arrester

An officer may break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house for the purposes of liberating a person who, having entered for the purpose of making an arrest, is detained therein, or when necessary for his own liberation.

§ 196. Arrest without warrant by officer

A peace officer may, without a warrant, arrest a person:

1. For a public offense, committed or attempted in his presence;
2. When the person arrested has committed a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony, although not in his presence;
3. When a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony, has in fact been committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it;
4. On a charge, made upon reasonable cause, of the commission of a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony, by the party arrested;
5. When he has probable cause to believe that the party was driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle involved in an accident upon the public highways, streets or turnpikes and was under the influence of alcohol or intoxicating liquor or who was under the influence of any substance included in the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, 21 CNCA § 2101 et seq.; or

6. Anywhere, including his place of residence, if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person within the preceding four (4) hours has committed an act of domestic abuse as defined by 22 CNCA § 60.1, although the assault did not take place in the presence of the peace officer. A peace officer may not arrest a person pursuant to this section without first observing a recent physical injury to, or an impairment of the physical condition of, the alleged victim.

§ 197. Arrest without warrant, breaking door or window

To make an arrest, as provided in the last section, the officer may break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house, if, after notice of his office and purpose, he be refused admittance.

§ 198. Nighttime, arrest of suspected criminal

He may also at night, without a warrant, arrest any person whom he has reasonable cause for believing to have committed a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony, and is justified in making the arrest though it afterward appear that the felony had not been committed.

§ 199. Authority must be stated on arrest without warrant, when

When arresting a person without a warrant, the officer must inform him of his authority and the cause of the arrest, except when he is in actual commission of a public offense, or is pursued immediately after an escape.

§ 200. Arrest by bystander—Officer may take defendant before Magistrate

He may take before a Magistrate, a person, who being engaged in a breach of the peace, is arrested by a bystander and delivered to him.

§ 201. Offense committed in presence of Magistrate

When a public offense is committed in the presence of a Magistrate, he may, by a verbal or written order, command any person to arrest the offender, and may thereupon proceed as if the offender had been brought before him on a warrant of arrest.

§ 202. Arrest by private person

A private person may arrest another:

1. For a public offense committed or attempted in his presence.
2. When the person arrested has committed a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony although not in his presence.

3. When the person has committed a crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony has been in fact committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it.

§ 203. Private person must inform person of cause of arrest

He must, before making the arrest, inform the person to be arrested of the cause thereof, and require him to submit, except when he is in actual commission of the offense or when he is arrested on pursuit immediately after its commission.

§ 204. Private person may break door or window

If the person to be arrested have committed crime under the laws of Cherokee Nation which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a felony, and a private person, after notice of his intention to make the arrest, be refused admittance, he may break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house, for the purpose of making the arrest.

§ 205. Private person making arrest must take defendant to Magistrate or officer

A private person who has arrested another for the commission of a public offense, must, without unnecessary delay, take him before a Magistrate or deliver him to a peace officer.

§ 206. Disarming person arrested

Any person making an arrest must take from the person arrested all offensive weapons which he may have about his person, and must deliver them to the Magistrate before whom he is taken.

§ 207. Pursuit and arrest of escaped prisoner

If a person arrested escape or be rescued, the person from whose custody he escaped or was rescued, may immediately pursue and retake him, at any time, and in any place in the Nation.

§ 208. Breaking door or window to arrest person escaping

To take the person escaping or rescued, the person pursuing may, after notice of his intention and refusal of admittance, break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house.

§ 209. Citation to appear—Issuance—Summons—Failure to appear

A. A law enforcement officer who has arrested a person on a criminal charge, without a warrant, which if committed under the laws of the State of Oklahoma would be a misdemeanor, may issue a citation to such person to appear in Court.

B. In issuing a citation hereunder the officer shall proceed as follows:

1. He shall prepare a written citation to appear in Court, containing the name and address of the cited person and the offense charged, and stating when the person shall appear in Court. Unless the person requests an earlier date, the time specified in the citation to appear shall be at least five (5) days after the issuance of the citation.

2. One (1) copy of the citation to appear shall be delivered to the person cited, and such person shall sign a duplicate written citation which shall be retained by the officer.

3. The officer shall thereupon release the cited person from any custody.

4. As soon as practicable, the officer shall file one (1) copy of the citation with the Court specified therein and shall deliver one (1) copy to the Prosecuting Attorney.

C. In any case in which the judicial officer finds sufficient grounds for issuing a warrant, he may issue a summons commanding the defendant to appear in lieu of a warrant.

D. If a person summoned fails to appear in response to the summons, a warrant for his arrest shall issue, and any person who willfully fails to appear in response to a summons is guilty of a crime.

§ 221. Fresh pursuit

A. Any member of a duly-organized tribal, state, county, or municipal peace unit of a jurisdiction of the United States who enters Indian Country in fresh pursuit, and continues within Indian Country in such fresh pursuit, of a person in order to arrest him on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in such state, or to have committed a misdemeanor in the presence of the arresting officer shall have the same authority to arrest and hold such person in custody, as has any member of any duly-organized state, county, or municipal peace unit of Cherokee Nation, to arrest and hold in custody a person on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony or has committed a misdemeanor in the presence of the arresting officer in Cherokee Nation.

B. If an arrest is made in Indian Country by an officer of a state in accordance with the provisions of 22 CNCA § 221(A) he shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested before a Magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, who shall conduct a hearing for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the arrest. If the Magistrate determines that the arrest was lawful he shall commit the person arrested to the custody of the arresting officer.

C. Section 221 of this Title shall not be construed so as to make unlawful any arrest in Oklahoma which would otherwise be lawful.

D. The term "fresh pursuit" as used in this act shall include fresh pursuit as defined by the common law, and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a felony or who is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony. It shall also include the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony, though no felony has actually been committed, if there is reasonable ground for believing that a felony has been committed. It shall also include misdemeanors which are committed in the presence of the arresting officer. "Fresh pursuit" as used herein shall not necessarily imply instant pursuit, but pursuit without unreasonable delay.

§ 222. Exception

Section 221 of this Title shall not apply where the crime or offense charged is a lawful act under Cherokee Nation law.

§ 231. Crimes—Warrant for arrest—Complaint submitted to Prosecuting Attorney—Cost bond

In all criminal cases, before a warrant shall issue for the arrest of the defendant the complaint must be submitted to the Prosecuting Attorney, or drawn by him and endorsed as follows: "I have examined the facts in this case and recommend that a warrant do issue," and then filed with the Court.

§ 232. Form of cost bond

The bond may be substantially in the following form:

Cherokee Nation, against (naming the defendant). I, (naming the principal) as principal and as surety bind ourselves to pay all costs in this cause if the defendant is acquitted. Signed this day of, 20

The surety must qualify before the bond is approved.

§ 233. Judgment on bond

In all cases where bonds have been given under the provisions of this chapter, and the maker thereof shall be liable thereon, by the conviction or acquittal of the defendant, the Court shall, at the time of rendering judgment for or against the defendant, render such judgment as may be proper on the bond, and issue execution thereon, as in cases of a civil judgment.

EXAMINATION AND COMMITMENT

§ 251. Magistrate must inform defendant of charge and rights

When the defendant is brought before a Magistrate upon an arrest, either with or without a warrant, on a charge of having committed a public offense, the Magistrate must immediately inform him of the charge against him, and of his right to the aid of counsel in every stage of the proceedings, and also of his right to waive an examination before any further proceedings are had.

§ 252. Defendant allowed counsel—Messages to counsel—Change of venue

He must also allow to the defendant a reasonable time to send for counsel, and adjourn the examination for that purpose; and must, upon the request of the defendant, require a peace officer to take a message to such counsel in the county or city as the defendant may name. The officer must, without delay, perform that duty, and shall receive fees therefor as upon a service of a subpoena.

§ 270. Witnesses to give undertaking

On holding the defendant to answer, the Magistrate may take from each of the material witnesses examined before him on the part of the Nation, a written undertaking, without surety, to the effect that he will appear and testify at the Court to which the complaint and deposition, if any are to be sent or that he will forfeit such sum as the Magistrate may fix and determine.

§ 271. Sureties may be required for witness

When the Magistrate is satisfied, by proof on oath, that there is reason to believe that any such witness will not appear and testify, unless security be required, he may order the witness to enter into a written undertaking, with such sureties and in such sum as he may deem proper, for his appearance, as specified in the last section.

§ 273. Witness not giving undertaking committed, when

If a witness, required to enter into an undertaking to appear and testify, either with or without sureties, refuse compliance with the order for that purpose, the Magistrate must commit him to the penal institution until he comply, or is legally discharged.

§ 274. Subsequent security may be demanded—Arrest of witness

When, however, any material witness on the part of the people has been discharged on his undertaking, without surety, if afterwards, on the sworn application of the Prosecuting Attorney or other person on behalf of the Nation, made to the Magistrate or to any Judge, it satisfactorily appears that the presence of such witness or any other person on the part of the people is material or necessary on the trial in Court, such Magistrate or Judge may compel such witness, or any other material witness on the part of the Nation, to give an undertaking with sureties, to appear on the said trial and give his testimony therein; and, for that purpose, the said Magistrate or Judge may issue a warrant against such person, under his hand, with or without seal, directed to a sheriff, marshal or other officer, to arrest such person and bring him before such Magistrate or Judge.

§ 275. Arrested witness may be confined

In case the person so arrested shall neglect or refuse to give said undertaking in the manner required by said Magistrate or Judge, he may issue a warrant of commitment against such person, which shall be delivered to said marshal, sheriff or other officer, whose duty it shall be to convey such person to the penal institution mentioned in said warrant, and the said person shall remain in confinement until he shall be removed to the grand jury and to the Court, for the purpose of giving his testimony, or until he shall have given the undertaking required by said Magistrate or Judge.

§ 277. Deaf-mute charged with commission of offense—Right to interpreter

Every deaf-mute person who is charged with the commission of a criminal offense shall be entitled to the assistance and services of a qualified interpreter. Prior to questioning upon arrest and all subsequent proceedings, the Court shall procure a qualified interpreter to assist such person in communications with officers of the Court.

§ 278. Arrest of deaf-mute—Interpreter—Evidence

When a deaf-mute is arrested he shall be entitled to the assistance of an interpreter. Evidence by the Nation relating to any statement made by a deaf-mute to a law enforcement officer shall be limited solely to statements offered, elicited, or made in the presence of a qualified interpreter.

§ 279. Qualified interpreter

For the purposes of this act, a qualified interpreter shall mean one who is readily able to translate simultaneously in either direction the manual system or lip reading and spoken English, and a deaf-mute means a person who has a physical handicap which prevents him from fully hearing or speaking. A qualified interpreter shall be furnished, or recommended, by the principal administrative officer of the Oklahoma School for the Deaf upon direction of any District Court of this Nation.

§ 280. Per diem and mileage

Payment of per diem and mileage of a qualified interpreter, at the rate and basis provided by law for Nation employees, in attending the Court which he is requested by the Judge thereof to attend for the purposes of assisting and serving a deaf-mute is authorized upon approval of the claim therefor against the Court Fund of the county by the District Judge.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER COMMITMENT

GENERAL PROVISIONS

REQUISITES AND SUFFICIENCY OF INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION

INDICTMENTS AND INFORMATIONS FOR PARTICULAR OFFENSES

PARTIES PROSECUTED

JOINDER OF OFFENSES AND OF DEFENDANTS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 301. Manner of prosecution of offenses

Every crime must be prosecuted by information in the District Court.

§ 303. Subscription, endorsement and verification of information—Excusing endorsement

The Prosecuting Attorney shall subscribe his name to informations filed in the District Court and endorse thereon the names and last-known addresses of all the witnesses known to him at the time of filing the same. Thereafter, he shall also endorse thereon the names and last-known addresses of such other witnesses as may afterwards become known to him, if they are intended to be called as witnesses at trial, at such time as the Court may by rule prescribe. All informations shall be verified by the oath of the Prosecuting Attorney, complainant or some other person.

Upon filing of a verified application by the Prosecuting Attorney, notice to defense counsel, and hearing establishing need for witness protection or preservation of the integrity of evidence, the District Court may excuse witness endorsement, or some part thereof. Such proceedings shall be conducted in camera, and the record shall be sealed and filed in the office of the District Court Clerk, and shall not be opened except by order of the District Court.

§ 304. Information may be amended

An information may be amended in matter of substance or form at any time before the defendant pleads, without leave, and may be amended after plea on order of the Court where the same can be done without material prejudice to the right of the defendant; no amendment shall cause any delay of the trial, unless for good cause shown by affidavit.

§ 387. Forms and rules of pleading

All forms of pleading in criminal actions, and rules by which the sufficiency of pleadings is to be determined are those prescribed by this code.

§ 388. Information first pleading

The first pleading on the part of the Nation is the information.

REQUISITES AND SUFFICIENCY OF INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION

§ 401. Requisites of information

The information must contain:

1. The title of the action, specifying the name of the Court to which the information is presented, and the names of the parties.
2. A statement of the acts constituting the offense, in ordinary and concise language, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

§ 402. Information certain and direct

The information must be direct and certain as it regards:

1. The party charged.
2. The offense charged.
3. The particular circumstances of the offense charged, when they are necessary to constitute a complete offense.

§ 403. Designation of defendant by fictitious name

When a defendant is prosecuted by a fictitious or erroneous name, and in any stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it must be inserted in the subsequent proceedings, referring to the fact of his being charged by the name mentioned in the information.

§ 404. Single offense to be charged—Different counts

The information must charge but one offense, but where the same acts may constitute different offenses, or the proof may be uncertain as to which of two or more offenses the accused may be guilty of, the different offenses may be set forth in separate counts in the same information and the accused may be convicted of either offense, and the Court or jury trying the cause may find all or either of the persons guilty of either of the offenses charged, and the same offense may be set forth in different forms or degrees under different counts; and where the offense may be committed by the use of different means, the means may be alleged in the alternative in the same count.

§ 405. Allegation of time

The precise time at which the offense was committed need not be stated in the information; but it may be alleged to have been committed at any time before the finding thereof, except where the time is a material ingredient in the offense.

§ 406. Misdescription of person injured or intended to be injured

When an offense involves the commission of, or an attempt to commit a private injury, and is described with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify the act, an erroneous allegation as to the person injured, or intended to be injured, is not material.

§ 407. Words, how construed

The words used in an information must be construed in their usual acceptance, in common language, except words and phrases defined by law, which are to be construed according to their legal meaning.

§ 408. Statute not strictly pursued

Words used in a statute to define a public offense, need not be strictly pursued in the information; but other words conveying the same meaning may be used.

§ 409. Information, when sufficient

The information is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom:

1. That it is entitled in a Court having authority to receive it, though the name of the Court be not stated.
2. That it was presented by the Prosecuting Attorney in which the Court was held.
3. That the defendant is named, or if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with the statement that his true name is unknown.
4. That the offense was committed at some place within the jurisdiction of the Court, except where the act, though done without the local jurisdiction, is triable therein.
5. That the offense was committed at some time prior to the time of filing the information.
6. That the act or omission charged as the offense is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.
7. That the act or omission charged as the offense, is stated with such a degree of certainty, as to enable the Court to pronounce judgment upon a conviction according to the right of the case.

§ 410. Immaterial informalities to be disregarded

No information is insufficient, nor can the trial, judgment, or other proceedings thereon be affected, by reason of a defect or imperfection in the matter of form which does not tend to the prejudice of the substantial rights of the defendant upon the merits.

§ 411. Matters which need not be stated

Neither presumptions of law, nor matters of which judicial notice is taken, need be stated in an information.

§ 412. Pleading a judgment

In pleading a judgment or other determination of, or proceeding before a Court or officer of special jurisdiction it is not necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction; but the judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. The facts constituting jurisdiction, however, must be established on the trial.

§ 413. Pleading private statute

In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it is sufficient to refer to the statute by its title and the day of its passage, and the Court must thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

INDICTMENTS AND INFORMATIONS FOR PARTICULAR OFFENSES

§ 421. Arson—Omission or error in designating owner or occupant

An omission to designate, or error in designating in information for arson, the owner or occupant of a building, shall not prejudice the proceedings thereupon, if it appears that upon the whole description given of the building, it is sufficiently identified to enable the defendant to prepare his defense.

§ 423. Forgery, misdescription of forged instrument immaterial, when

When an instrument, which is the subject of an information for forgery, has been destroyed or withheld by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of the destruction or withholding is alleged in the information and established on the trial, the misdescription of the instrument is immaterial.

§ 424. Perjury, information for

In an information for perjury, or subornation of perjury, it is sufficient to set forth the substance of the controversy or matter in respect to which the offense was committed, and in what Court or before whom the oath alleged to be false was taken; and that the Court or person before whom it was taken had authority to administer it, with proper allegations of the falsity of the matter on which the perjury is assigned; but the information need not set forth the pleadings, record, or proceedings with which the oath is connected, nor the commission or authority of the Court or person before whom the perjury was committed.

§ 425. Larceny or embezzlement, information for

In an information for the larceny or embezzlement of money, bank notes, certificates of stock or valuable securities, or for a conspiracy to cheat and defraud a person of any such property, it is sufficient to allege the larceny or embezzlement, or the conspiracy to cheat and defraud, to be of money, bank notes, certificates of stock or valuable securities, without specifying the coin, number, denomination or kind thereof.

§ 426. Obscene literature, information for handling

An information for exhibiting, publishing, passing, selling or offering to sell, or having in possession with such intent, any lewd or obscene book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, paper or writing, need not set forth any portion of the language used or figures shown upon such book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, paper or writing, but it is sufficient to state generally the fact of the lewdness or obscenity thereof.

PARTIES PROSECUTED

§ 431. Several defendants

Upon an information against several defendants, any one or more may be convicted or acquitted.

§ 432. Accessories and principals in crime

All persons concerned in the commission of a crime, whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense, or aid and abet in its commission, though not present, must be prosecuted, tried and punished as principals, and no additional facts need be alleged in any information against such an accessory than are required in an information against his principal.

§ 433. Accessory tried independently of principal

An accessory to the commission of a crime may be prosecuted, tried and punished, though the principal be neither prosecuted nor tried, and though the principal may have been acquitted.

§ 434. Compounding a crime—Separate prosecution

A person may be prosecuted for having, with the knowledge of the commission of a public offense, taken money or property of another, or a gratuity or reward, or an engagement or promise therefor, upon the agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal the offense, or to abstain from a prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof, though the person guilty of the original offense has not been indicted or tried.

JOINDER OF OFFENSES AND OF DEFENDANTS

§ 436. Charging of two or more defendants in same information—Counts

Two or more defendants may be charged in the same information if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction or in the same series of acts or transactions constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately, provided that all of the defendants charged together in the same information are alleged to have participated in all of the same acts or transactions charged.

§ 437. Singular to include the plural

All laws in this chapter wherein the singular of words is used are hereby amended to include the plural of such words to give effect to the purpose of this act.

§ 438. Trial of two or more informations

The Court may order two or more informations or both to be tried together if the offenses and the defendants, if there is more than one, could have been joined in a single information. The procedure shall be the same as if the prosecution was under such single information.

§ 439. Relief from prejudicial joinder

If it appears that a defendant or the Nation is prejudiced by joinder of offenses or of defendants in an information or by such joinder for trial together, the Court shall order an election or separate trial of counts, grant a severance of defendants, or provide whatever other relief justice requires.

CHAPTER 7

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE TRIAL

ARRAIGNMENT AND APPEARANCE

PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ARRAIGNMENT AND APPEARANCE

§ 451. Arraignment

When the information is filed, the defendant must be arraigned thereon before the Court in which it is filed.

§ 452. Defendant must appear personally, when

If the information is for a crime the defendant must be personally present.

§ 453. Officer to bring defendant before Court

When his personal appearance is necessary, if he be in custody, the Court may direct the officer in whose custody he is to bring him before it to be arraigned, and the officer must do so accordingly.

§ 454. Bench warrant to issue, when

If the defendant has been discharged on bail, or have deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear to be arraigned, when his personal attendance is necessary, the Court in addition to the forfeiture of the undertaking of bail or of the money deposited, may direct the Clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

§ 455. Bench warrant may issue

The Clerk, on the application of the Prosecuting Attorney, may, accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the Court be sitting or not, issue a bench warrant for any part of Cherokee Nation.

§ 456. Bench warrant, form of, in case of felony

The bench warrant must, if the offense is a crime, be substantially in the following form:

In Cherokee Nation,

To any sheriff, constable, policeman or marshal in this state:

An information having been filed on the day of, A. D., 20.., in the District Court in and for Cherokee Nation, charging C.D. with the crime of, (designating it generally) you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D., and bring him before the Court (or before the court to which the information may have been removed, naming it) to answer said information; or if the Court have adjourned for the term, that you deliver him into the custody of the Marshal or Sheriff of Cherokee Nation.

Given under my hand, with the seal of said Court affixed this day of, A. D., 20

By order of the Court.

(Seal) E. F., Clerk.

§ 457. Bench warrant in case

If the offense is a bailable crime, the bench warrant must be in a similar form, adding to the body thereof a direction to the following effect:

Or if he requires it that you take him before any Magistrate that he may give bail to answer the information.

§ 458. Court to fix amount of bail—Endorsement

If the offense charged is bailable, the Court, upon directing the bench warrant to issue, must fix the amount of bail and an endorsement must be made on the bench warrant and signed by the Clerk, to the following effect:

The defendant is to be admitted to bail in the sum of § 459. Defendant held when offense not bailable

The defendant, when arrested under a warrant for an offense not bailable, must be held in custody by the Marshal or Sheriff.

§ 464. Counsel before trial—Compensation—Expert witnesses

If the defendant appear for trial, without counsel, he must be informed by the Court that it is his right to have counsel before being tried, and must be asked if he desires the aid of counsel. If he desires and is financially unable to employ counsel, the Court must assign counsel to defend him. The attorney so appointed shall represent said person in the examining Magistrate Court until he is discharged or bound over by said Court and shall receive such compensation as is ordered by the Court not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and approved by the Court.

§ 465. Arraignment made, how

The arraignment must be made by the Court, or by the Clerk or Prosecuting Attorney, under its direction, and consists in reading the information to the defendant, and asking him whether he pleads guilty or not guilty thereto.

§ 466. Name of defendant

When the defendant is arraigned he must be informed that if the name by which he is prosecuted be not his true name, he must then declare his true name or be proceeded against by the name in the information.

§ 466A. Tribe of defendant

When the defendant is arraigned he must declare whether is he a citizen of or is eligible for citizenship in one or more Indian bands, tribes, or nations recognized by the federal government. He shall declare his blood quantum for each tribe of which he is a citizen or is eligible for citizenship and shall produce any and all citizenship documents to Indian bands, tribes or nations and any Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood that he may possess.

§ 467. Proceedings when defendant gives no other name

If he gives no other name, the Court may proceed accordingly.

§ 468. Proceedings where another name given

If he alleges that another name is his true name, the Court must direct an entry thereof in the minutes of the arraignment, and the subsequent proceedings on the information may be had against him by that name, referring also to the name by which he is informed against.

PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

§ 491. Time to answer information

If, on the arraignment, the defendant require it, he must be allowed until the next day, or such further time may be allowed him as the Court may deem reasonable, to answer the information.

§ 492. Pleading to information

If the defendant does not require time, as provided in the last section, or if he does, then on the next day, or at such further day as the Court may have allowed him, he may, in answer to the arraignment, either move the Court to set aside the information or may demur or plead thereto.

§ 493. Information set aside, when

The information must be set aside by the Court in which the defendant is arraigned, and upon his motion in any of the following cases:

When it is not found, endorsed, presented or filed, as prescribed by the statutes.

§ 494. Hearing on motion to set aside information

To enable the defendant to make proof of the matter set up as grounds for setting aside the information, the defendant may file his application before the Court, setting out and alleging that he is being proceeded against in a certain Court, naming it, and setting out a copy of his motion and alleging, all under oath, that he is acting in good faith, and praying for an order to examine witnesses in support thereof. The Court shall thereupon issue subpoenas to compel any or all witnesses desired to appear before him at the time named, and shall compel the witnesses to testify fully in regard to the matter and reduce the examination to writing, and certify to the same, and it may be used to support the motion. The mover shall pay the costs of the proceeding. He shall notify the Prosecuting Attorney at least two (2) clear days before he proceeds, of the time and place of taking such testimony, and the Prosecuting Attorney may be present and cross-examine the witnesses and if need be the case in the District Court must be adjourned for that purpose.

§ 495. Witnesses on hearing to set aside information

All witnesses shall be bound to answer fully, and shall not be answerable for the testimony so given in any way, except for the crime of perjury committed in giving such evidence.

§ 496. Objection to information waived, when

If the motion to set aside the information be not made the defendant is precluded from afterwards taking the objections mentioned in the last section.

§ 497. Motion to set aside information heard, when

The motion must be heard at the time it is made unless for good cause the Court postpone the hearing to another time.

§ 498. Defendant to answer information, when

If the motion be denied, the defendant must immediately answer to the information, either by demurring or pleading thereto.

§ 499. Motion sustained—Defendant discharged, or bail exonerated, when

If the motion be granted the Court must order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or if admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated, or if he have deposited money instead of bail, that the money be refunded to him unless it direct that the case be refiled.

§ 500. Resubmission of case—Bail

If the Court direct that the case be refiled, the defendant, if already in custody, must so remain, unless he be admitted to bail; or if already admitted to bail, or money have been deposited instead thereof, the bail or money is answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new information.

§ 501. Setting aside information not a bar

An order to set aside an information as provided in this chapter is no bar to a further prosecution for the same offense.

§ 502. Defendant's pleadings

The only pleading on the part of the defendant is either a demurrer or a plea.

§ 503. Defendant to plead in open court

Both the demurrer and the plea must be put in open court, either at the time of the arraignment or at such other time as may be allowed to the defendant for that purpose.

§ 504. Demurrer to information

The defendant may demur to the information when it appears upon the face thereof either:

1. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of this chapter;
2. That the facts stated do not constitute a public offense;
3. That the information contains any matter which, if true, would constitute a legal justification or excuse of the offense charged, or other legal bar to the prosecution.

§ 505. Demurrer to information, requisites of

The demurrer must be in writing, signed either by the defendant or his counsel, and filed. It must distinctly specify the grounds of the objection to the information, or it must be disregarded.

§ 506. Hearing on demurrer

Upon the demurrer being filed, the objections presented thereby must be heard, either immediately or at such time as the Court may appoint.

§ 507. Ruling on demurrer

Upon considering the demurrer, the Court must give judgment either sustaining or overruling it, and an order to that effect must be entered upon the minutes.

§ 508. Demurrer sustained, effect of

If the demurrer is sustained, the judgment is final upon the information demurred to, and is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense, unless the Court, being of opinion that the objection on which the demurrer is sustained may be avoided in a new information, direct that a new information be filed.

§ 509. Demurrer sustained—Defendant discharged or bail exonerated, when

If the Court does not direct the case to be further prosecuted, the defendant, if in custody, must be discharged, or if admitted to bail, his bail is exonerated, or if he has deposited money instead of bail, the money must be refunded to him.

§ 510. Proceedings if case resubmitted

If the Court direct that the case be further prosecuted, the same proceedings must be had thereon as are prescribed in this chapter.

§ 511. Demurrer overruled, defendant to plead

If the demurrer be overruled, the Court must permit the defendant, at his election, to plead, which he must do forthwith, or at such time as the Court may allow. If he does not plead, judgment may be pronounced against him.

§ 512. Certain objections, how taken

When the objections mentioned in 22 CNCA § 504 appear upon the face of the information, they can only be taken by demurrer, except that the objection to the jurisdiction of the Court over the subject of the information, or that the facts stated do not constitute a public offense, may be taken after the arraignment of the defendant, or may be taken at the trial, under the plea of not guilty, and in arrest of judgment.

§ 513. Pleas to indictment or information

There are four kinds of pleas to an information. A plea of:

First, Guilty.

Second, Not guilty.

Third, Nolo contendere, subject to the approval of the Court. The legal effect of such plea shall be the same as that of a plea of guilty, but the plea may not be used against the defendant as an admission in any civil suit based upon or growing out of the act upon which the criminal prosecution is based.

Fourth, A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which must be specially pleaded, either with or without the plea of not guilty.

§ 514. Pleas to be oral—Entry

Every plea must be oral and must be entered upon the minutes of the Court.

§ 515. Form of plea

The plea must be entered in substantially the following form:

1. If the defendant plead guilty:

The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in this information.

2. If he plead not guilty:

The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in this information.

3. If he plead a former conviction or acquittal:

The defendant pleads that he has already been convicted (or acquitted, as the case may be), of the offense charged in this information, by the judgment of the Court of (naming it), rendered at (naming the place), on the day of § 516. Plea of guilty

A plea of guilty can in no case be put in, except by the defendant himself, in open court, unless upon an information against a corporation, in which case it can be put in by counsel.

§ 517. Plea of guilty may be withdrawn

The Court may, at any time before judgment, upon a plea of guilty, permit it to be withdrawn, and a plea of not guilty substituted.

§ 518. Plea of not guilty, issues on

The plea of not guilty puts in issue every material allegation in the information.

§ 519. Plea of not guilty, evidence under

All matters of fact tending to establish a defense other than specified in third subdivision of 22 CNCA § 513 may be given in evidence under the plea of not guilty.

§ 520. Acquittal, what does not constitute

If the defendant was formally acquitted on the ground of variance between the information and proof, or the information was dismissed upon an objection to its form or substance, or in order to hold the defendant for a higher offense, without a judgment of acquittal, it is not an acquittal of the same offense.

§ 521. Acquittal, what constitutes

When, however, he was acquitted on the merits, he is deemed acquitted of the same offense, notwithstanding a defect in form or substance in the information on which he was acquitted.

§ 522. Former acquittal or conviction as bar

When the defendant shall have been convicted or acquitted upon an information, the conviction or acquittal is a bar to another information for the offense charged in the former, or for an attempt to commit the same, or for an offense necessarily included therein, of which he might have been convicted under that information.

§ 523. Refusal to plead

If the defendant refuse to answer the information by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty must be entered.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 581. Issue of fact arises, when

An issue of fact arises,

1st, upon a plea of not guilty; or

2nd, upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense.

§ 582. Issue of fact, how tried

Issues of fact must be tried by a jury.

§ 583. Defendant must be present, when

If the information is for a crime, the defendant must be personally present at the trial.

§ 584. Postponement for cause

When an information is called for trial, or at any time previous thereto, the Court may, upon sufficient cause shown by either party, as in civil cases, direct the trial to be postponed to another day in the same or next term.

§ 585. Postponement for investigation of claimed alibi

Whenever testimony to establish an alibi on behalf of the defendant shall be offered in evidence in any criminal case in any Court of record of Cherokee Nation, and notice of the intention of the defendant to claim such alibi, which notice shall include specific information as to the place at which the defendant claims to have been at the time of the alleged offense, shall not have been served upon the Prosecuting Attorney at or before five (5) days prior to the trial of the case, upon motion of the Prosecuting Attorney, the Court may grant a postponement for such time as it may deem necessary to make an investigation of the facts in relation to such evidence.

CHAPTER 8

JURY—FORMATION

GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHALLENGES GENERALLY

CHALLENGES TO PANEL

CHALLENGES TO INDIVIDUAL JURORS

ORDER OF TAKING CHALLENGES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 591. Same jurors in both civil and criminal actions

The jurors duly drawn and summoned for the trial of civil actions, may also be the jurors for the trial of criminal actions. The panel of jurors shall be drawn randomly from the Registry of citizens of Cherokee Nation. If the citizen resides outside of Cherokee Nation he, by his request, shall be released from serving as a juror.

§ 592. Trial jury—How formed

Trial juries for criminal actions may also be formed in the same manner as trial juries in civil actions.

§ 593. Clerk to prepare and deposit ballots

At the opening of the Court the Clerk must prepare separate ballots, containing the names of the persons returned as jurors, which must be folded as nearly alike as possible, and so that the same cannot be seen, and must deposit them in a sufficient box.

§ 594. Names of panel called, when—Attachment for absent jurors

When the case is called for trial, and before drawing the jury, either party may require the names of all the jurors in the panel to be called, and the Court in its discretion may order that an attachment issue against those who are absent; but the Court may, in its discretion, wait or not for the return of the attachment.

§ 595. Manner of drawing jury from box

Before the name of any juror is drawn, the box must be closed and shaken, so as to intermingle the ballots therein. The Clerk must then, without looking at the ballots, draw them from the box.

§ 596. Disposition of ballots

When the jury is completed, the ballots containing the names of the jurors sworn must be laid aside and kept apart from the ballots containing the names of the other jurors, until the jury so sworn is discharged.

§ 597. Disposition of ballots—After jury discharged

After the jury is so discharged, the ballots containing their names must be again folded and returned to the box, and so on, as often as a trial is had.

§ 598. Disposition of ballot—When juror is absent or excused

If a juror be absent when his name is drawn or be set aside, or excused from serving on the trial, the ballot containing his name must be folded and returned to the box as soon as the jury is sworn.

§ 599. Jurors summoned to complete jury—Treated as original panel

The names of persons summoned to complete the jury as provided in the Title on "Jurors", 38 CNCA, must be written on distinct pieces of paper, folded each as nearly alike as possible, and so that the name cannot be seen, and must be deposited in the box before mentioned.

§ 600. Drawing the jury

The Clerk must thereupon, under the direction of the Court, publicly draw out of the box so many of the ballots, one after another, as are sufficient to form the jury.

§ 601. Number of jurors—Oaths—Fines not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars

The jury consists of six (6) persons, chosen as prescribed by law, and sworn or affirmed well and truly to try and true deliverance to make between Cherokee Nation and the defendant whom they shall have in charge, and a true verdict to give according to the evidence. Criminal cases wherein the punishment for the offense charged is by a fine only not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) shall be tried to the Court without a jury.

§ 601A. Alternate jurors—Challenges—Oath or affirmation—Attendance upon trial

Whenever in the opinion of the Court the trial of a cause is likely to be a protracted one, the Court may, immediately after the jury is impaneled and sworn, direct the calling of as many as two (2) additional jurors to be known as "alternate juror." Such alternate jurors shall be drawn from the same source, and in the same manner, and have the same qualifications as regular jurors, and be subject to examination and challenge as such jurors, except that the Nation shall be allowed one (1) peremptory challenge to each alternate juror, and all parties defendant shall together, or any one party defendant for and on behalf and by the consent of all parties defendant, be allowed one (1) peremptory challenge to each alternate juror.

The alternate jurors shall be sworn (or affirmed) to well and truly try and true deliverance make of all issues finally submitted to them as jurors in said cause, if any such issue shall be so finally submitted to them, and shall be seated near the regular jurors with equal facilities for seeing and hearing the proceedings in the cause, shall attend at all times upon the trial of the cause in company with the regular jurors and shall obey all orders and admonitions of the Court; and if the regular jurors are ordered to be kept in the custody of an officer during the trial of the cause, the alternate jurors shall also be kept with the other jurors, and, except as hereinafter provided, shall be discharged upon the final submission of the cause to the jury.

If, before the final submission of the cause to the jury, a regular juror, or two (2) regular jurors, shall be discharged because of illness, or shall die, the Court shall order one (1) or both alternate jurors, as circumstances may require, to take their places in the jury box. After an alternate juror is in the jury box, he shall be subject to the same regulations and requirements as other regular jurors.

§ 601B. Protracted deliberations—Sequestration of alternate jurors

If, upon final submission of the cause, the Court is of the opinion that the deliberations may be protracted, the Court may order the alternate juror or jurors to remain sequestered physically or by admonition not to discuss the case with any person or allow any person to discuss the case with a juror. In such event said alternate or alternates shall remain apart from the jury and not take part in its deliberations, but shall await the call of the Court at some place designated by the Court until such time as said alternate may be needed. In the event one (1) or two (2) of the twelve jurors shall, during the course of deliberations, be discharged because of illness, or die, the Court shall order one (1) or both alternate jurors to take their places in the jury room and deliberations shall then continue.

§ 602. Affirmation

Any juror who is conscientiously scrupulous of taking the oath above described, shall be allowed to make affirmation, substituting for the words "so help you God," at the end of the oath, the following: "This you do affirm under the pains and penalties of perjury."

CHALLENGES GENERALLY

§ 621. Challenges classed

A challenge is an objection made to the trial jurors, and is of two (2) kinds:

1. To the panel;
2. To an individual juror.

§ 622. Several defendants—Challenges

When several defendants are tried together they cannot sever their challenges, but must join therein.

CHALLENGES TO PANEL

§ 631. Panel defined

The panel is a list of jurors returned by a Marshal or Sheriff, to serve at a particular Court or for the trial of a particular action.

§ 632. Challenge to panel

A challenge to the panel is an objection made to all the trial jurors returned, and may be taken by either party.

§ 633. Challenge to panel, causes for

A challenge to the panel can be founded only on a material departure from the forms prescribed by law, in respect to the drawing and return of the jury, or on the intentional omission of the Marshal or Sheriff to summon one or more of the jurors drawn, from which the defendant has suffered material prejudice.

§ 634. When taken—Form and requisites

A challenge to the panel must be taken before a jury is sworn, and must be in writing, specifying plainly and distinctly the facts constituting the ground of challenge.

§ 635. Issue on the challenge—Trying sufficiency

If the sufficiency of the facts alleged as a ground of challenge be denied, the adverse party may except to the challenge. The exception need not be in writing, but must be entered upon the minutes of the Court, and thereupon the Court must proceed to try the sufficiency of the challenge, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true.

§ 636. Challenge and exception may be amended or withdrawn

If, on the exception, the Court deem the challenge sufficient, it may, if justice require it, permit the party excepting to withdraw his exception, and to deny the facts alleged in the challenge. If the exception be allowed, the Court may in like manner, permit an amendment of the challenge.

§ 637. Denial of challenge—Trial of fact questions

If the challenge is denied the denial may, in like manner, be oral and must be entered upon the minutes of the Court, and the Court must proceed to try the questions of fact.

§ 638. Trial of challenge

Upon the trial of the challenge, the officers, whether judicial or ministerial, whose irregularity is complained of, as well as any other persons, may be examined to prove or disprove the facts alleged as the ground of challenge.

§ 639. Bias of officer, challenge for

When the panel is formed from persons whose names are not drawn as jurors, a challenge may be taken to the panel on account of any bias of the officer who summoned them, which would be good ground of challenge to a juror. Such challenge must be made in the same form, and determined in the same manner as if made to a juror.

§ 640. Procedure after decision of challenge

If, upon an exception to the challenge, or a denial of the facts, the challenge be allowed, the Court must discharge the jury, and another jury can be summoned for the same term forthwith from the body; or the Judge may order a jury to be drawn and summoned in the regular manner. If it be disallowed, the Court must direct the jury to be impaneled.

CHALLENGES TO INDIVIDUAL JURORS

§ 651. Defendant to be informed of right to challenge

When six (6) persons are called as jurors, the defendant must be informed by the Court or under its direction, of his right to challenge the jurors, and that he must do so before the jury is sworn to try the cause.

§ 652. Classes of challenge to individual

A challenge to an individual juror is either:

First, Peremptory; or Second, For cause.

§ 653. When challenge taken

It must be taken when the jury is full, and as soon as one (1) person is removed by challenge, another must be put in his place, until the challenges are exhausted or waived. The Court for good cause shown may permit a juror to be challenged after he is sworn to try the cause, but not after the testimony has been partially heard.

§ 654. Peremptory challenge defined

A peremptory challenge may be taken by either party, and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the Court must excuse him.

§ 655. Peremptory challenges—Number allowed

In all criminal cases the prosecution and the defendant are each entitled to the following peremptory challenges: Provided, that if two or more defendants are tried jointly they shall join in their challenges; provided, that when two or more defendants have inconsistent defenses they shall be granted separate challenges for each defendant as hereinafter set forth.

In all criminal prosecutions, three (3) jurors each.

§ 656. Challenge for cause

A challenge for cause may be taken either by the Nation or the defendant.

§ 657. Challenges for cause classified

It is an objection to a particular juror and is either:

1. General, that the juror is disqualified from serving in any case on trial; or
2. Particular, that he is disqualified from serving in the case on trial.

§ 658. Causes for challenge, in general

General causes of challenges are:

1. A conviction for felony;
2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by law, to render a person a competent juror;
3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind or organs of the body as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror.

§ 659. Particular causes—Implied bias—Actual bias

Particular causes of challenge are of two (2) kinds:

1. For such a bias as when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this chapter a simplified bias;
2. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror, in reference to the case, or to either party, which satisfies the Court, in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially, without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging, and which is known in this chapter as actual bias.

§ 660. Implied bias, challenge for

A challenge for implied bias may be taken for all or any of the following cases, and for no other:

1. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree, inclusive; to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or to the defendant;
2. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, master and servant, or landlord and tenant, or being a member of the family of the defendant, or of the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or in his employment on wages;
3. Being a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action, or having complained against, or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution;

4. Having served on a trial jury which has tried another person for the offense charged in the information;
5. Having been one of the jury formerly sworn to try the information and whose verdict was set aside, or which was discharged without a verdict, after the cause was submitted to it;
6. Having served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant for the act charged as an offense.

§ 661. Right of exemption from service not cause for challenge

An exemption from service on a jury is not a cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted.

§ 662. Cause for challenge must be stated—Form and entry of challenge—Juror not disqualified for having formed opinion, when

In a challenge for implied bias, one or more of the causes stated in 22 CNCA § 660 must be alleged. In a challenge for actual bias, the cause stated in the second subdivision of 22 CNCA § 659 must be alleged; but no person shall be disqualified as a juror by reason of having formed or expressed an opinion upon the matter or cause to be submitted to such jury, founded upon rumor, statements in public journals, or common notoriety, provided it appears to the Court, upon his declaration, under oath or otherwise, that he can and will, notwithstanding such opinion, act impartially and fairly upon the matters to be submitted to him. The challenge may be oral, but must be entered upon the minutes of the Court.

§ 663. Exception to the challenge

The adverse party may except to the challenge in the same manner as to a challenge to the panel, and the same proceedings must be had thereon, except that if the exception be allowed the juror must be excluded. The adverse party may also orally deny the facts alleged as the grounds of challenge.

§ 664. Trial of challenges

All challenges, whether to the panel or to individual jurors shall be tried by the Court, without the aid of triers.

§ 665. Trial of challenge—Examining jurors

Upon the trial of a challenge to an individual juror, the juror challenged may be examined as a witness to prove or disprove the challenge, and is bound to answer every question pertinent to the inquiry therein.

§ 666. Other witnesses

Other witnesses may also be examined on either side, and the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of other issues govern the admission or exclusion of testimony, on the trial of the challenges.

§ 667. Ruling on challenge

On the trial of a challenge the Court must either allow or disallow the challenge and direct an entry accordingly upon the minutes.

ORDER OF TAKING CHALLENGES

§ 691. Challenges to individual jurors

All challenges to individual jurors must be taken, first by the defendant and then by the Nation alternately.

§ 692. Order of challenges for cause

The challenges of either party for cause need not all be taken at once, but they must be taken separately, in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class:

1. To the panel;
2. To an individual juror for a general disqualification;
3. To an individual juror for implied bias;
4. To an individual juror for actual bias.

§ 693. Peremptory challenges

If all challenges on both sides are disallowed, either party, first the Nation and then the defendant, may take a peremptory challenge, unless the peremptory challenges are exhausted.

CHAPTER 9

WITNESSES

§ 701. Defendant a competent witness—Comment on failure to testify—Presumptions

In the trial of all informations, complaints and other proceedings against persons charged with the commission of a crime, before any Court or Committing Magistrate in this Nation, the person charged shall at his own request, but not otherwise, be a competent witness, and his failure to make such request shall not create any presumption against him nor be mentioned on the trial; if commented upon by counsel it shall be ground for a new trial.

§ 702. Civil rules of evidence applicable to criminal cases—Husband or wife as witness

Except as otherwise provided in this and the following chapter, the rules of evidence in civil cases pursuant to the Oklahoma Evidence Code, 12 O.S. § 2101 et seq., are applicable also in criminal cases; Provided, however, that neither husband nor wife shall in any case be a witness against the other except in a criminal prosecution for a crime committed one against the other, or except in a criminal prosecution against either the husband or wife, or both, for a crime committed by either, or both, against the minor children of either the husband or the wife, but they may in all criminal cases be witnesses for each other, and shall be subject to cross-examination as other witnesses, and shall in no event on a criminal trial be permitted to disclose communications made by one to the other except on a trial of an offense committed by one against the other or except on a trial of a crime committed by one, or both, against the minor children of either the husband or the wife.

§ 703. Subpoena defined

The process by which the attendance of a witness before a Court or Magistrate is required, is a subpoena.

§ 704. Magistrate may issue subpoena

A Magistrate before whom complaint is laid, may issue subpoenas, subscribed by him, for witnesses within the Nation, either on behalf of the Nation or of the defendant.

§ 706. Issuing subpoenas for trial

The Prosecuting Attorney may in like manner issue subpoena for witnesses within the Nation, in support of an information, to appear before the Court at which it is to be tried.

§ 707. Defendant's subpoenas

The Clerk of the Court at which an information is to be tried, must, at all times, upon the application of the defendant, and without charge, issue as many blank subpoenas, under the seal of the Court and subscribed by him as Clerk, for witnesses within the Nation, as may be required by the defendant.

§ 708. Form of subpoena

A subpoena, authorized by the last four sections, must be substantially in the following form:

IN THE NAME OF CHEROKEE NATION.

To

Greeting: You are commanded to appear before C. D., a Judge of at (or the grand jury of the county of or the District Court, or as the case may be), on the (stating day and hour), and remain in attendance on and call of said from day to day and term to term until lawfully discharged, as a witness in a criminal action prosecuted by Cherokee Nation against E. F. (or to testify as the case may be).

§ 709. Continuances, witnesses must take notice of Every witness summoned in a criminal action pending in a District Court shall take notice of the postponements and continuances and when once summoned in such action shall, without further notice or summons, be in attendance upon such action, as such witness, until discharged by the Court.

§ 710. Subpoena duces tecum

If the books, papers or documents be required, a direction to the following effect must be continued in the subpoena:

And you are required also to bring with you the following: (Describe intelligently the books, papers or documents required).

§ 711. Service of subpoena by whom—Return

A Marshal or peace officer must serve any subpoena delivered to him for service, either on the part of the Nation or of the defendant, and must make a written return of the service, subscribed by him, stating the time and place of service without delay. A subpoena may, however, be served by any other person.

§ 712. Service, manner of Service of subpoenas for witnesses in criminal actions in the District Courts shall be made by the officer, or other person making the service, by either personal service of such subpoena containing the time, place and the name of the Court, and the action in which he is required to testify, or by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail not less than five (5) days before the trial day of the cause upon which said witness is required to attend, and the person making such service shall make a return thereof showing the manner of service, and if the same be by certified mail, he shall file with such return the registry receipt; provided, that the person or Prosecuting Attorney shall state therein the manner in which the witness or witnesses shall be served, and the officer or person serving such subpoena shall serve the same in the manner directed by the requesting party, and make his return in accordance therewith; provided, further, that if the requesting party calls for serving such subpoena by certified letter, then the requesting party shall prepare the subpoena, the return receipt card, and the envelope for mailing.

§ 715. Witness residing out of county

No person is obliged to attend as a witness, before a Court or Magistrate out of the county where the witness resides or is served with the subpoena, unless the Judge of the Court in which the offense is triable, upon an affidavit of the Prosecuting Attorney, or of the defendant or his counsel, stating that he believes that the evidence of the witness is material and his attendance at the examination or trial necessary, shall endorse on the subpoena an order for the attendance of the witness.

§ 716. Disobedience to subpoena

Disobedience to a subpoena, or a refusal to be sworn or to testify, may be punished by the Court or Magistrate, as for a criminal contempt, in the manner provided in civil procedure.

§ 717. Disobeying defendant's subpoena—Forfeiture

A witness disobeying a subpoena issued on the part of the defendant, also forfeits to the defendant the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00), which may be recovered in a civil action.

§ 718. Witnesses—Fees and mileage

A. Except as otherwise specified by law, all witnesses in a criminal action who appear pursuant to a subpoena shall be paid out of the Court Fund the fees and mileage prescribed by law. Upon conviction of the defendant, said fees and mileage shall be taxed as costs and collected as other costs in the case.

B. A witness who appears from another state to testify in this Nation in a criminal case or proceeding pursuant to a subpoena issued in accordance with the provisions of the Uniform Act to Secure the Attendance of Witnesses from Without a State in Criminal Proceedings shall be reimbursed from the Court Fund of the Court where prosecution is pending for travel and expenses at rates not to exceed those prescribed by law for reimbursement of Nation employees traveling interstate. Upon conviction, such fees and mileage shall be taxed as costs and collected as other costs in the case.

C. A witness who appears from a county other than the county in which a criminal case or proceeding is being conducted pursuant to a subpoena shall be reimbursed from the Court Fund of the Court where the prosecution is pending for travel and expenses at a rate not to exceed the rate of reimbursement specified for Nation employees. Upon conviction of the defendant, said fees and mileage shall be taxed as costs and collected as other costs in the case.

§ 719. Persons held as material witnesses to be informed of constitutional rights—Fees

Whenever any person shall be taken into custody by any law enforcement officer to be held as a material witness in any criminal investigation or proceeding, he shall, if not sooner released, be taken before a Judge of the District Court without unnecessary delay and said Judge of the District Court shall immediately inform him of his constitutional rights including the reason he is being held in custody, his right to the aid of counsel in every stage of the proceedings, and of his right to be released from custody upon entering into a written undertaking in the manner provided by law. A witness who is held in custody pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be kept separately and apart from any person, or persons, being held in custody because of being accused of committing a crime. A witness who desires aid of counsel and is unable to obtain aid of counsel by reason of poverty shall be by the Court provided counsel at the expense of the Court Fund. During the time a witness is in custody he shall receive the witness fee provided by law for witnesses in criminal cases.

CHAPTER 10

EVIDENCE AND DEPOSITIONS

EVIDENCE GENERALLY

DEPOSITIONS

EVIDENCE GENERALLY

§ 741. Overt act in conspiracy

Upon a trial for conspiracy, in a case where an overt act is necessary to constitute the offense, the defendant cannot be convicted unless one or more overt acts be expressly alleged in the information, nor unless one or more of the acts alleged be proved; but any other overt act, not alleged in the information may be given in evidence.

§ 742. Accomplice, testimony of

A conviction cannot be had upon the testimony of an accomplice unless he be corroborated by such other evidence as tends to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense, and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows the commission of the offense or the circumstances thereof.

§ 743. False pretenses, evidence of

Upon a trial for having, with an intent to cheat or defraud another designedly, by any false pretense, obtained the signature of any person to a written instrument, or having obtained from any person any money, personal property or valuable thing, the defendant cannot be convicted if the false pretense was expressed in language unaccompanied by a false token or writing, unless the pretense, or some note or memorandum thereof, be in writing either subscribed by, or in the handwriting of the defendant, or unless the pretense be proven by the testimony of two witnesses, or that of one witness and corroborating circumstances. But this section does not apply to prosecution for falsely representing or impersonating another, and in such assumed character, marrying or receiving money or property.

§ 744. Seduction, corroboration of prosecutrix

Upon a trial for inveigling, enticing or taking away a person, under the age of twenty-five (25) years, for the purpose of prostitution, or aiding or assisting therein, or for having, under promise of marriage, seduced and had illicit connection with an unmarried female of previous chaste character, the defendant cannot be convicted upon testimony of the person injured unless she is corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense.

§ 745. Murder, burden of proof in mitigation of

Upon a trial for murder, the commission of the homicide by the defendant being proven, the burden of proving circumstances of mitigation, or that justify or excuse it, devolves upon him, unless the proof on the part of the prosecution tends to show that the crime committed only amounts to manslaughter, or that the defendant was justifiable or excusable.

§ 746. Bigamy, proof on trial for

Upon a trial for bigamy, it is not necessary to prove either of the marriages by the register, certificate or other record evidence thereof, but the same may be proved by such evidence as is admissible to prove a marriage in other cases, and when the second marriage took place out of the state, proof of that fact accompanied with proof of cohabitation thereafter in this state, is sufficient to sustain the charge.

§ 748. Perjury in Court, evidence as to

In cases of perjury, where the perjury is charged to have been committed in a Court, it shall be sufficient to show that the oath was administered by any officer of the Court authorized so to do, or that the defendant testified and gave his testimony as under oath, or if the question be in doubt as to what particular officer administered the oath, it may be shown that it was administered by any officer authorized so to do.

§ 749. Sworn statements taken by Prosecuting Attorney or peace officer of persons having knowledge of criminal offense—Use

A. In the investigation of a criminal offense, the Prosecuting Attorney or any peace officer may take the sworn statement of any person having knowledge of such criminal offense. Any person charged with a crime shall be entitled to a copy of any such sworn statement upon the same being obtained.

B. If a witness in a criminal proceeding gives testimony upon a material issue of the case contradictory to his previous sworn statement, evidence may be introduced that such witness has previously made a statement under oath contradictory to such testimony.

§ 750. Rape prosecutions—Evidence of complaining witness' previous sexual conduct inadmissible—Exception

A. In any prosecution for rape or assault with intent to commit rape, opinion evidence of, reputation evidence of and evidence as to specific instances of the complaining witness' sexual conduct is not admissible on behalf of the defendant in order to prove consent by the complaining witness. Provided that this section shall not apply to evidence of the complaining witness' sexual conduct with or in the presence of the defendant.

B. If the Prosecuting Attorney introduces evidence or testimony relating to the complaining witness' sexual conduct, the defendant may cross-examine the witness giving such testimony and offer relevant evidence or testimony limited specifically to the rebuttal of such evidence or testimony introduced by the Prosecuting Attorney.

§ 751. Admission of findings—State Bureau of Investigation laboratory—Controlled dangerous substances—Release by court order

At any hearing, a report of the findings of the laboratory of the Bureau, which has been made available to the accused by the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney at least five (5) days prior to the preliminary hearing, with reference to all or any part of the evidence submitted, when certified as correct by the Bureau employee making the report shall, when offered by the Nation or the accused, be received as evidence of the facts and findings stated, if relevant and otherwise admissible in evidence.

When any alleged controlled dangerous substance has been submitted to the laboratory of the Bureau for analysis, and such analysis shows that the submitted material is a controlled dangerous substance, the distribution of which constitutes a felony under the laws of the State of Oklahoma, no portion of such substance shall be released to any other person or laboratory absent an order of a District Court. The defendant shall additionally be required to submit to the Court a procedure for transfer and analysis of the subject material to ensure the integrity of the sample and to prevent the material from being used in any illegal manner.

§ 752. Admissibility of recorded statement of child twelve years of age or younger

A. This section shall apply only to a proceeding in the prosecution of an offense alleged to have been committed against a child twelve (12) years of age or younger, and shall apply only to the statement of that child or other child witness.

B. The recording of an oral statement of the child made before the proceedings begin is admissible into evidence if:

1. The Court determines that the time, content and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient indicia of reliability;
2. No attorney for any party is present when the statement is made;
3. The recording is both visual and aural and is recorded on film or videotape or by other electronic means;

4. The recording equipment is capable of making an accurate recording, the operator of the equipment is competent and the recording is accurate and has not been altered;
5. The statement is not made in response to questioning calculated to lead the child to make a particular statement or is clearly shown to be the child's statement and not made solely as a result of a leading or suggestive question;
6. Every voice on the recording is identified;
7. The person conducting the interview of the child in the recording is present at the proceeding and is available to testify or be cross-examined by any party;
8. Each party to the proceeding is afforded an opportunity to view the recording at least ten (10) days before trial, unless such time is shortened by leave of the Court for good cause shown; and
9. The child either:
 - a. testifies at the proceedings; or
 - b. is unavailable as defined in this Title as a witness. When the child is unavailable as defined in this Title as a witness, such recording may be admitted only if there is corroborative evidence of the act.

§ 753. Taking testimony of child age twelve or under in room other than courtroom—
Recording

- A. This section shall apply only to a proceeding in the prosecution of an offense alleged to have been committed against a child twelve (12) years of age or younger, and shall apply only to the testimony of that child.
- B. The Court may, on the motion of the attorney for any party, order that the testimony of the child be taken in a room other than the courtroom and be televised by closed-circuit equipment in the courtroom to be viewed by the Court and the finder of fact in the proceeding. Only the attorneys for the defendant, the Nation and the child, persons necessary to operate the equipment and any person whose presence would contribute to the welfare and well-being of the child may be present in the room with the child during his testimony. Only the attorneys may question the child. The persons operating the equipment shall be confined to an adjacent room or behind a screen or mirror that permits them to see and hear the child during his testimony but does not permit the child to see or hear them. The Court shall permit the defendant to observe and hear the testimony of the child in person, but shall ensure that the child cannot hear or see the defendant.
- C. The Court may, on the motion of the attorney for any party, order that the testimony of the child be taken outside the courtroom and be recorded for showing in the courtroom before the Court and
