Dear Tribal Council Member:

Re: VETO OF THE ACT AMENDING TITLE 19, §21 OF THE CHEROKEE NATION CODE ANNOTATED.

Legislative Act # 8-97 amending Title 19, §21 of the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated was passed by the Tribal Council on May 12, 1997, with a vote of eight yeas and seven nays. I am compelled to veto this Act because it does not contain language which I believe is required to provide a sufficient level of accountability back to the Cherokee people.

The language in the Amended Act is not significantly different from the language in the previous Act # 05-95. My concern with the language is that it requires no attendance or participation on the part of the Council Member, so that a Council Member could, in fact, be paid the Stipend without attendance or participation in any meeting.

I am asking that the Council consider some amended language which will provide an acceptable level of accountability to all tribal members.

Sincerely,

Joe Byrd Principal Chief
