LA-24-02

Section 4. Amendments

Title 22 shall be amended as follows:

§ 19. Rules of evidence

The Federal Rules of Evidence shall be used in Cherokee Nation courts in all matters of a criminal nature, unless superseded by a Cherokee Nation Rule of Evidence.

§ 305.1. Deferred Prosecution for Felonies and Misdemeanors

A. Before the filing of an information against a person accused of committing a crime, the Cherokee Nation, through the Office of the Attorney General, may agree with an accused to defer the filing of a criminal information for a period not to exceed three (3) years.

B. The Cherokee Nation may include any person in a deferred prosecution program if it is in the best interests of the accused and not contrary to the public interest. The Office of the Attorney General may consider the following factors when considering whether to include an accused in the deferred prosecution program. The factors are:

1. Whether the Cherokee Nation has sufficient evidence to achieve conviction;
2. The nature of the offense with priority given to first offenders and nonviolent crimes;
3. Any special characteristics of the accused;
4. Whether the accused will cooperate and benefit from a deferred prosecution program;
5. Whether available programs are appropriate to the accused person's needs;
6. Whether the services for the accused are more readily available from the community or from the corrections system;

7. Whether the accused constitutes a substantial danger to others;
8. The impact of the deferred prosecution on the community;
9. The recommendations of the law enforcement agency involved in the case;
10. The opinions of the victim; and
11. Any mitigating or aggravating circumstances.

§305.2. Agreements to Defer Prosecution- Consideration- Contents- Conditions

A. If an accused qualifies for the deferred prosecution program, the accused and the Cherokee Nation, through the Office of the Attorney General, may execute an agreement whereby the accused agrees to waive any rights to a speedy accusation, a speedy trial, and any statute of limitations, and agrees to fulfill such conditions to which the accused and the Cherokee Nation may agree including, but not limited to, restitution and community services.

B. The accused, as consideration for entering into a deferred prosecution agreement, consents and agrees to a full and complete photographic record of property which was to be used as evidence. The photographic record shall be competent evidence of the property and admissible in any criminal action or proceeding as the best evidence.

C. Property shall be returned to its owner only after the photographic record is made subject to the following conditions:

1. Property, except that which is prohibited by law, shall be returned to its owner after proper verification of title;
2. The return of property to the owner shall be without prejudice to the Nation or to any person who may have a claim against the property; and
3. When property is returned, the recipient shall sign, under penalty of perjury, a declaration of ownership which shall be retained by the appropriate law enforcement agency.

D. As additional consideration for the agreement, the Cherokee Nation shall agree not to file an information if the accused satisfactorily completes the conditions of the agreement.

E. The agreement between the accused and the Cherokee Nation may include provisions whereby the accused agrees to be supervised in the community, either by the Cherokee Nation Office of the Attorney General or other supervising agency. If the accused is required to be supervised pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the person shall be required to pay a supervision fee to be established by the supervisory agency. The supervision fee shall be paid to the supervisory agency as required by the rules of the supervisory agency. The supervisory agency shall monitor the person for compliance with the conditions of the agreement. The supervisory agency, if other than the Attorney General, shall report to the Office of the Attorney General on the progress of the accused, and shall report immediately if the accused fails to report or participate as required by the agreement.

F. The agreement between the parties may require the accused to participate or consult with local service providers, including tribal, federal and state services agencies, colleges, universities, technology center schools, and private or charitable service organizations. When the accused is required to participate or consult with any service provider, a program fee may be required and said fee shall be the responsibility of the accused. Any supervision fee or program fee authorized by this section may be waived, in the discretion of the provider, in whole or in part when the accused is indigent. No person who is otherwise qualified for a deferred prosecution program shall be denied services or supervision based solely on the person's inability to pay a fee or fees.

G. The agreement between the parties may require the accused to pay a victim compensation assessment pursuant to the provisions of Section 142.18 of Title 21 of the Cherokee Nation Code. The amount of the assessment shall be agreed to by the parties and shall be within the amounts specified in Section 142.18 of Title 21 of the Cherokee Nation Code for the offense charged.

H. Any deferred prosecution agreement including, but not limited to, any fee, sliding scale fee, compensation, contract, assessment, or other financial agreement charged or waived by the accused or Cherokee Nation shall be a record open to the public.

§305.3. Termination of Deferred Prosecution Agreement

A. Both the Cherokee Nation and the accused may mutually terminate the deferred prosecution at any time, and the case shall proceed as if there had been no agreement. If the Cherokee Nation makes the termination decision unilaterally, it shall only do so in light of all the relevant circumstances of the case. Arrest of the accused for a subsequent offense shall not automatically terminate the agreement. If the Cherokee Nation should decide to terminate the agreement, it shall:

1. Send a written notice of termination to the accused and the attorney for the accused, if any, explaining the reasons for the termination; and
2. Disclose to the accused or the attorney for the accused the evidence supporting the decision to terminate;

B. On and after the effective date of this act, if an agreement is terminated by the Cherokee Nation for failure of the person to comply with the terms of the deferred prosecution agreement, the termination document and supporting documentation shall be open to the public.

C. If an agreement is terminated by the Cherokee Nation and the accused is subsequently tried before a jury, the court shall instruct the jury not to consider any delay in prosecution while the accused was participating in the deferred prosecution program.

§305.4. Completion of Programs- Records

If the accused completes the program agreed upon, the Cherokee Nation shall not file the charges against the accused. The records of the accused shall be sealed and not be released or viewed except on a limited basis by law enforcement or prosecution personnel for the purposes of determining if the accused has been diverted. The Office of the Attorney General shall take all necessary measures to ensure that all of the records of the person remain confidential.

§305.5. Information - Release or Disclosure - Confidentiality - Admissibility as Evidence - Violations - Penalties

A. Information received and collected by any service agency while the accused participates in a deferred prosecution program shall not be released to any agency or individual that will use the information for dissemination to the general public or be used by a law enforcement agency for the purposes of surveillance and investigation.

B. If the deferred prosecution program is terminated before successful completion of the agreement, no information obtained during the participation of the accused in the deferred prosecution program shall be admissible in any subsequent proceeding to the disadvantage of the accused, except if the information could have been routinely gathered in the police investigation of the crime of the accused.

3. "Victim" means any person, partnership or corporation that suffers an economic loss as a direct result of the criminal act of another person.

compensate that victim for up to three times the amount of the economic loss suffered as a direct result of the criminal act of the defendant;

3. "Economic loss" means actual financial detriment suffered by the victim consisting of medical expenses actually incurred, damage to or loss of real and personal property and any other out-of-pocket expenses, including loss of earnings, reasonably incurred as the direct result of the criminal act of the defendant. No other elements of damage shall be included as an economic loss for purposes of this section.

B. In all criminal prosecutions and juvenile proceedings in the Cherokee Nation, when the court enters an order directing the offender to pay restitution to any victim for economic loss or to pay to the Nation any fines, fees or assessments, the order, for purposes of validity and collection, shall not be limited to the maximum term of imprisonment for which the offender could have been sentenced, nor limited to any term of probation, parole, or extension thereof, nor expire until fully satisfied. The court order for restitution, fines, fees or assessments shall remain a continuing obligation of the offender until fully satisfied, and the obligation shall not be considered a debt, nor shall the obligation be dischargeable in any bankruptcy proceeding. The court order shall continue in full force and effect with the supervision of the Cherokee Nation until fully satisfied, and the Nation shall use all methods of collection authorized by law.

C. 1. Upon conviction for any crime wherein property has been stolen, converted or otherwise unlawfully obtained, or its value substantially decreased as a direct result of the crime, or wherein the crime victim suffered injury, loss of income, or out-of-pocket loss, the individuals criminally responsible shall be sentenced to make restitution. Restitution may be ordered in addition to the punishments prescribed by law.

2. The court shall order full restitution based upon the following considerations:

a. the nature and amount of restitution shall be sufficient to restore the crime victim to the equivalent economic status existing prior to the losses sustained as a direct result of the crime, and may allow the crime victim to receive payment in excess of the losses sustained; provided, the excess amount of restitution shall not be more than treble the actual economic loss incurred, and

b. the amount of restitution shall be established regardless of the financial resources of the offender.

3. The court:

a. may direct the return of property to be made as soon as practicable and make an award of restitution in the amount of the loss of value to the property itself as a direct result of the crime, including out-of-pocket expenses and loss of earnings incurred as a result of damage to or loss of use of the property, the cost to return the property to the victim or to restore the property to its pre-crime condition whichever may be appropriate under the circumstances,

b. may order restitution in a lump sum or by such schedules as may be established and thereafter adjusted by agreement consistent with the order of the court,

c. shall have the authority to amend or alter any order of fines, costs and/or restitution made pursuant to this section providing that the court shall state its reasons and conclusions as a matter of record for any change or amendment to any previous order,

d. may order interest upon any ordered restitution sum to accrue at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum until the restitution is paid in full. The court may further order such interest to be paid to the victims of the crime or proportion the interest payment between the victims and the court fund, in the discretion of the court, and

e. shall consider any pre-existing orders imposed on the defendant, including, but not limited to, orders imposed under civil and criminal proceedings.

D. If restitution to more than one person, agency or entity is set at the same time, the court shall establish the following priorities of payment:

1. The crime victim or victims; and
2. Cherokee Nation and any other government agency which has provided reimbursement to the victim as a result of the offender's criminal conduct.

E. The Attorney General's Office shall present the crime victim's restitution claim to the court at the time of the sentencing of the offender or the restitution provisions shall be included in the written plea agreement presented to the court, in which case, the restitution claim shall be reviewed by the judge prior to acceptance of the plea agreement.

F. The court shall conduct such hearings or proceedings as it deems necessary to set restitution and payment schedules at the time of sentencing or may bifurcate the sentencing and defer the hearing or proceedings relating to the imposition of restitution as justice may require. Amendments or alterations to the restitution order may be made upon the court's own motion, petition by the victim or petition by the offender.

G. An offender who files a meritless or frivolous petition for amendment or alteration to the restitution order shall pay the costs of the proceeding on the petition and shall have added to the existing restitution order the additional loss of earnings and out-of-pocket loss incurred by the crime victim in responding to the petition.

H. If a defendant who is financially able refuses or neglects to pay restitution as ordered by this section, payment may be enforced:

1. By contempt of court as provided in subsection A of Section 566 of Title 21 <https://www.oscn.net/applications/oscn/DeliverDocument.asp?citeid=69240> of the Cherokee Nation Code with imprisonment or fine or both;
2. In the same manner as prescribed in subsection N of this section for a defendant who is without means to make such restitution payment; or
3. Revocation of the criminal sentence if the sentence imposed was a suspended or deferred sentence or a community sentence.

I. If the defendant is without means to pay the restitution, the judge may direct the total amount due, or any portion thereof, to be entered upon the court minutes and to be certified in the district court where it shall then be entered upon the district court judgment docket and shall have the full force and effect of a district court judgment in a civil case. Thereupon the same remedies shall be available for the enforcement of the judgment as are available to enforce other judgments; provided, however, the judgment herein prescribed shall not be considered a debt nor dischargeable in any bankruptcy proceeding.

J. Whenever a person has been ordered to pay restitution as provided in this section or any section of the Cherokee Nation Code for a criminal penalty, the judge may order the defendant to a term of community service, with or without compensation, to be credited at a rate of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day against the total amount due for restitution. If the defendant fails to perform the required community service authorized by this subsection or if the conditions of community service are violated, the judge may impose a term of imprisonment not to exceed five (5) days in the county jail for each failure to comply.

K. Nothing in subsections H through J of this section shall be construed to be additions to the original criminal penalty, but shall be used by the court as sanctions and means of collection for criminal restitution orders and restitution orders that have been reduced to judgment.

Section 5. Provisions as cumulative

The provisions of this act shall be cumulative to existing law.

Section 6. Severability

The provisions of this act are severable and if any part of provision hereof shall be held void the decision of the court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining parts or provisions of this act.

Section 7. Effective Date/Emergency Declared
