WHEREAS, the two Cherokee Tribal governments share a common history prior to forced removal in 1838. and then separate histories to the present. yet our common language, culture, and traditions have made the Cherokee Nation and the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians distinct and unique Native people from other Indian Tribes and other people, as was declared by the Joint Council in Resolution No. 392. adopted on August 11, 1992 in Cherokee, North Carolina: and

WHEREAS, the Cherokee Nation has been aware of a growing number of non-Indian groups claiming to be Cherokee tribes or bands and that these groups have been organizing and attempting to gain federal recognition, this problem being acknowledged by the Joint Council in Resolution No. 008, adopted on October 3, 1988 in Cherokee, North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the Department of the Interior through the Bureau of Indian Affairs' Branch of Acknowledgment and Research maintains the responsibility for addressing specific applications for Federal recognition and the Cherokee Nation and Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians fully support the Federal recognition process; and

WHEREAS, the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians and the Cherokee Nation in Joint Council assembled in Resolution No. 4-96, adopted on October 4, 1996 have previously expressed opposition to the "State recognition" process by the State of Georgia or other states such as Arkansas in the United States who may seek to recognize a group of 'Cherokee' which do not already have Federal recognition; and

WHEREAS, public funding by pseudo-Cherokee Tribes is of epidemic proportions and often involves membership fees promising individuals services: misleading presentations to school children and interference in a multitude of government functions including U.S. Indian Child Welfare Act cases; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that no public funding from any Federal or State government should be expended on behalf of non-Federally recognized 'Cherokee' 'Tribes' or 'Bands' or individual members thereof: and
