This title is enacted pursuant to Article IX, Section 1 of the Constitution for the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma approved by referendum on June 26, 1976.

Section 10-1-3. Tenure of elected officials.

Tenure of the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and Council members shall be a term of four (4) years from the date of August 14, 1979, and each August 14 every four (4) years thereafter except for vacancies that are filled in accordance with Article 6, Sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution and Section 6-1-3 of this code.

CHAPTER 2

Supervisory Bodies

Section 10-2-1. Tribal Election Committee Commission.

(a) There shall be a tribal Election Commission composed of five (5) members, two (2) appointed by the Council, two (2) appointed by the Chief and one (1) by those four (4), who shall have the sole responsibility and explicit authority for the conduction of all elections conducted by the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma, and shall serve for a period from the day of appointment until six (6) months following the general election or as extended by the council. Said Tribal Election committee Commission shall be selected and confirmed by the Tribal Council no later than the fourth quarterly council session preceding the election year or the December monthly session preceding the election year, whichever is appropriate. No elected official of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma or tribal employee shall serve on the Tribal Election Committee Commission. No candidate or regular employee of a candidate for office or person who is related within the third degree by either consanguinity or affinity to a candidate for office shall serve on the Tribal Election committee Commission.

(b) It shall be the responsibility of the Tribal Election Committee Commission to provide the various Tribal Election Committee Precinct officials with the proper Tribal Election for performing their duties.

(c) The Tribal Election committee Commission shall elect a chairman from its own membership.

(d) It shall be the duty of the Tribal Election Committee-Commission to prepare the official ballot or ballots.

(e) The Tribal Election Commission shall be responsible for the storage of and safekeeping of all election ballots and allied documents after the close of the election.

(f) The Tribal Election Commission shall be empowered to develop regulations necessary to conduct tribal elections. Said regulations shall be approved by the Tribal Council no later than the March monthly session of the year of the election.

Section 10-2-2: Tribal Election Precinct Boards.

(a) There shall be an Election Precinct Board, consisting of not more than ten (10) persons: inspector, judge, clerk, and counters, appointed by the Tribal Election Commission to conduct the election at the voting places in each of the district inclusive of:

District 1: Cherokee County

District 2: Adair County

District 3: Sequoyah County

District 4: McIntosh, Muskogee & Wagoner Counties

District 5: Delaware and Ottawa Counties

Section 10-5-1. Official election dates.

The following dates are the official dates pertaining to the elections of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma:

- (1) Registration of voters. The cut-off date for registration to vote shall be the first working day of March of the election year.
- (2) Filing of candidates. Candidates may file for office from the fourth Monday of March through the second Friday of April of the election year.
- (3) General election. The general election for tribal offices shall be the third Saturday in June of the election year.
- (4) Run-off election. The run-off election shall be the third Saturday in July of the election year.
- (5) Swearing in of elected officials. The swearing in of the tribal elected officials, i.e., Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and Council, shall be August 14 of the election year.

Section 10-5-2. Special elections.

Special elections shall be called by the Council for specifically stated purposes.

Section 10-5-3. Electioneering.

No person shall be allowed to electioneer within three hundred (300) feet of the entrance to any polling location while an election is in authorized progress, nor shall any person or persons, except election officials and other persons authorized by law, be allowed to approach the ballot box while an election is in progress. No printed material other than that provided by the Election Commission shall be publicly placed or exposed within three hundred (300) feet of the entrance to any polling location while an election is in progress. The Tribal Election Commission shall be charged with the responsibility of developing the policies on electioneering with the approval of the Council.

Section 10-5-20. Voting places and hours; notice.

Voting places, with the approval of the Council, shall be provided by the Tribal Election Commission and shall be open during the hours from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on the day of the election. Proper notice of the election shall be given by the Tribal Election Commission.

Section 10-5-21. Manner of voting generally.

- (a) Voting shall be by secret ballot.
- (b) Except as otherwise provided, any registered voter may vote by appearing at his prescribed voting place, announcing to the Election Board his name and address and by marking and placing in the ballot box the ballot which shall be handed to him.
- (c) Any registered voter who will be unable to vote in person may vote by absentee ballot as prescribed in subchapter 3 of this chapter.

Section 10-5-22. Voting by persons with physical disabilities or language barriers.

If a voter presents himself and states that he, because of a physical disability or infirmity or language barrier, is unable to mark his ballot, the inspector should recite the following oath:

"Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you are unable to mark your ballot for voting because of a (name of appropriate disability)."

Once a voter has been sworn, he should be permitted to be assisted by any person of his choice, at least eighteen (18) years of age, in voting his ballot. Such assistance should be given in a voting booth, witnessed by the precinct inspector.

Section 10-5-23. Watchers.

Candidates for the office of the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and each candidate for the Council may submit two names as their designated watchers at each polling place. The selection of the watchers and their designated polling place shall be by random drawing of names from a hat by the Tribal Election Commission until the proper amount of names have been drawn (two for each polling place). No candidate for any elected office in the Cherokee Nation shall be a watcher.

Section 10-5-40. Allowance of absentee voting.

Absentee voting shall be allowed upon written request by a registered voter of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. Such request shall be made to the Tribal Election Commission of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.

Section 10-5-41. Requests for absentee ballots generally.

A registered voter of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma who swears or affirms that he or she will be unable to vote in person may make a written request to the chairman of the Tribal Election Commission for an absentee ballot. The request must contain the following information:

- (1) Name.
- (2) Date of birth.
- (3) Address.
- (4) Voter registration number.
- (5) Dawes Commission roll number.
- (6) Signature.

Section 10-5-42. Time for filing of requests for absentee ballots; furnishing of ballots generally.

(a) Requests for absentee ballots by mail shall be accepted from the third Monday of April until the third Friday in May of the election year. Said ballots shall be returned to the person requesting the ballot beginning the third Thursday of May to the first Friday in June of the election year.

Registered voters may make their requests in person at the Tribal Election Commission's office at the tribal office in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, until 4:30 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding the general election.

(b) In the event of a run-off, all persons who previously received an absentee ballot for the general election shall be provided an absentee ballot for the run-off election.

Section 10-5-43. Procedure upon rejection of application for absentee ballot.

In the event a voter's application for an absentee ballot is rejected for any reason, the Chairman of the Tribal Election shall immediately notify said voter in writing of the rejection and the reason therefore.

Section 10-5-44. Transmittal of ballots to voters generally; preparation of record of ballots issued.

When such application is received by the Tribal

Election Commission, it shall be the duty of the Tribal Election Commission to verify the registration of said voter and to transmit the ballot which said voter requested after verification of the voter's registration. A record shall be made of all absentee ballots issued, with the name, date of birth: voter's registration number, date of issuance and address of the voter to whom it was issued.

Section 10-5-45. Material to accompany ballots generally.

Said ballots must be accompanied by:

- (1) A plan opaque envelope in which voted ballots must be placed by the voter.
- (2) An envelope bearing an affidavit stating that the voter is qualified to vote, that he has personally marked the ballots, and that he has not exhibited the marked ballot to any other person.
- (3) A return envelope addressed to the Tribal Election Commission.

Section 10-5-46. Furnishing of instructions for voting.

The Tribal Election Commission shall prescribe instructions for voting by absentee ballots. A copy of said instructions shall be mailed to each voter requesting an absentee ballot.

Section 10-5-47. Form of absentee ballots.

Absentee ballots shall be identical to the regular ballots used in poll voting but shall be stamped absentee ballot and have the date of issuance thereon.

Section 10-5-48. Return of ballots.

A voter shall be required to mark his ballot in ink; seal the ballot in the plain opaque envelope; fill out completely and sign the statement; seal the plan opaque envelope inside the envelope bearing the statement; and return both envelopes, sealed inside the return envelope, by the United States mail to the Tribal Election Commission or as otherwise provided in section 10-5-50 of this Code.

Section 10-5-49. Handling of returned absentee ballots generally.

Ballots must be marked, sealed in the inner envelope and mailed in the pre-addressed outer envelope so as to reach the Tribal Election Commission. Any ballot received at the Tribal Election Commission's post office box in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, prior to close of business on election day shall be valid. Upon receipt of the absentee ballot by the Tahlequah Post Office it shall be placed in the absentee ballot boxes designated and placed in the post office for said ballots. The ballot boxes shall be secured with three locks. The keys to the said ballot boxes will be kept in a safe deposit box at Liberty State Bank until election day. At such day the keys will be obtained by the designated persons of the Tribal Election Commission. Three names will be designated to sign the signature card for the safe deposit box. The Tribal Election Commission shall designate three members of said committee to sign the card plus an alternate in case someone is absent.

Section 10-5-50. Absentee voting in person.

There will be no designated polling place for absentee ballot voting in person. The voter who is voting an absentee, ballot must comply with all the requirements of absentee voting.

Section 10-5-51. Furnishing to polling places of list of voters requesting absentee ballots.

The Tribal Election Commission shall compile and provide a list of all voters who requested an absentee ballot to each polling place, together with other election materials and equipment.

Section 10-5-52. Crediting of absentee voters.

On the Monday after election day, the chairman of the Tribal Election Commission shall cause each voter who cast an absentee ballot to be credited with voting in said election on his registration form in the appropriate registry.

Section 10-5-53. Counting of absentee ballots - Selection of counters.

The Tribal Election Commission shall submit names for absentee counters to the Tribal Council at the regular Council Session in April preceding the election. The Council shall approve or disapprove the names presented.

Section 11-5-54. Same - Absentee Ballot Counting Procedure.

(a) At 7:00 a.m. or after on the day of the election, said absentee counters shall meet to count absentee ballots in the manner hereafter prescribed.

(b) The ballot box containing the properly executed enveloped bearing affidavits shall be opened and said envelopes bearing affidavits removed.

(c) Examination of affidavits will be on the day of the election by the Tribal Election Commission. Any ballots rejected due to error in the affidavit shall be attached to the affidavit without opening Said rejected affidavits and ballots shall be strung, labeled and placed in a separate locked box.

(d) The plain opaque envelopes shall be placed in a ballot box locked with three locks.

(e) The ballot box shall be taken to mix the plain opaque envelopes, after which said box shall be opened, the envelopes removed and the ballots counted according to law.

(f) No member of the absentee counters shall leave the counting place during counting hours without the permission of the Tribal Election Commission. If it becomes necessary for any absentee counter to leave the premises, said counter cannot return to the premises.

Section 10-5-55. Retention of materials.

All materials used for procuring and casting an absentee ballot shall remain under the control of the Tribal Election Commission for a period of one (1) year after the day of the election.

Section 10-5-56. Absentee watchers.

The selection of the absentee watchers shall be by random drawing of five (5) names from the balance of names submitted by the candidates in section 10-5-23 of this Code until five (5) names have been drawn. No candidate for any elected office in the Cherokee Nation shall be a watcher.

Section 10-5-70. Counting of ballots; certification of results; preparation of consolidated return of election results; disposition of ballots.

(a) The ballots cast shall be counted and tallied by the Election Precinct Board after 25 or more votes have been cast on the day of the election. Absentee ballots shall be counted on election day in accordance with Section 10-5-54 of this Code.

(b) Results of the voting shall be made by certified return to the Election Commission and a copy of the return shall be posted on the exterior of the voting place.

(c) The Election Commission shall immediately after the election prepare a consolidated return of the election results and post said results at the election headquarters.

(d) After counting, all ballots cast shall be placed in ballot boxes, locked, sealed, and marked with the name and voting place and the date of the election by the Election Commission. All unused and spoiled or mutilated ballots shall also be given to the Election Commission. The Election Commission shall store the ballots, upon approval of the Council, in such a manner that will insure the safekeeping of said ballots.

(e) On Friday following the election, the Election Commission shall certify and transmit to the office of the Area Director of Bureau of Indian Affairs, - Muskogee Area Office, Muskogee; Oklahoma, all elected candidates, provided a petition of contest has not been filed or a recount requested. All candidates not involved in that recount or protest will be certified. Certification of the candidate in question will be made following determination of said protest or recount.

Section 10-5-71. Recounts.

- The Tribal Election Commission shall have the sole ♦ Responsibility and explicit authority to conduct any recount. Only candidates for office may ask for a recount. A candidate requesting a recount shall petition the chairman of the Tribal Election. A non-refundable fee of $500 per polling location will be charged the candidate requesting the recount. A deposit of $500 non-refundable fee of $500 will be charged for absentee ballots recount. The time limit for filing for a recount shall be from the first working day following the certification of the election results and shall continue for five (5) working days. Persons working on recounts will be appointed by the Tribal Commission. Recounts shall be conducted in the presence of the Judicial Appeals Tribunal. No tribal employees or tribal officials will be used for recounts.

The actual recount of ballots shall be conducted by the Tribal Election Commission. The recount shall be conducted in the Tribal Council chambers or other appropriate facilities as determined by the tribal election commission and it shall be the duty of the Judicial Appeals Tribunal to attend and, in conjunction with said Tribal Election Commission, conduct such recount. It shall be the exclusive and sole duty of said Judicial Appeals Tribunal to hear evidence as to whether the ballots have been preserved in the manner and by the officers prescribed by law, and as to whether they are the identical ballots cast by the voters, and that they have not been exposed to the reach of unauthorized persons, as to afford a reasonable - opportunity for their having been changed or tampered with. The judgment of said Court upon such question shall be final and conclusive. If the Court cannot determine that the ballots have been properly preserved, then no recount shall be conducted. If the judgment of the Court is that the ballots have been properly preserved, then the actual, physical recount of the ballots shall be conducted immediately thereafter under the exclusive supervision of the Tribal Election Commission. Once the actual physical recount is commenced under the supervision of the Tribal Election Commission, the Judicial Appeals Tribunal will limit its role to answering questions which arise concerning tribal law and insure that tribal law is followed.

Section 10-5-72. Runoffs.

There shall be a runoff for the offices of Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief for the two top candidates in each of the respective offices unless one candidate for each of the respective positions should obtain a simple majority of the votes cast for the respective office, a simple majority meaning over 50 percent or any fraction in the council election those districts with one seat will elect the candidate obtaining the highest number of votes in the general election. Those districts electing two council representatives will elect the first two candidates receiving the most votes in the general election. Those districts electing three council representatives will elect the first three candidates receiving the most votes in the general election. Runoffs will not be necessary in the council election.

Section 10-5-90. Procedure for election contests generally.

In the event a candidate contests the correctness of the announced results of an election by alleging fraud or any other irregularities, the chairman of the Election Commission shall set a hearing in the same manner as provided for recounts. Provisions for service of notice shall be the same as for recounts.

Section 10-5-91. Proceedings on petitions alleging fraud.

When a petition alleging fraud concerning poll voting is filed, said petition must be accompanied by a cash bond of five thousand dollars ($5,005.00). The same amount must accompany a petition alleging fraud concerning absentee voting. Said petitions shall be conditioned upon payment of any and all liabilities or judgments arising from the contest so filed. In said petition, contestant must allege that fraud occurred in certain polling locations or in the casting of absentee ballots. He must further allege the name of the polling locations wherein such fraud occurred, the specific act constituting such alleged fraud and the names of the alleged perpetrators of such fraud. If such a petition is filed in the manner herein provided, the Chief Justice of the Judicial Appeals Tribunal, or such other justice as the Chief Justice may assign, shall hear and determine said issue without delay or continuance of more than five (5) days. On the day of the hearing, the contestee may file an answer to such petition or may file a cross-petition, setting forth in detail, as required of a petitioner herein, such claim of fraud. The decision of said justice shall be final as to any changes in the total votes, and a copy of such judgment and decision shall be furnished to the Election. In any case where fraud is proven on the part of a candidate, he shall be declared ineligible for the office for which he was a candidate. In all cases where a petition is filed which alleges fraud, but after hearing said allegations are not reasonably sustained by competent evidence, the contestant shall be civilly liable in damages to the contestee for all damages sustained, including a reasonable attorney fee and all reasonable and proper costs of conducting such contest.

Section 10-5-92. Proceedings on petitions alleging irregularities other than fraud.

(a) When a petition alleging irregularities other than fraud is filed, said petition must allege a sufficient number of irregularities and of such a nature as to:

(1) Prove that the contestant is lawfully entitled to be certified as a candidate, or to have his name appear on the runoff ballot; or

(2) Prove that it is impossible to determine with Mathematical certainty which candidate is entitled to be certified as a candidate or to have his name appear on the runoff ballot.

(b) If such allegations are not made, the petition shall be deemed frivolous by the presiding justice and shall be dismissed. Said petition when concerning poll voting shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee in the form of either a cashier's check or certified check in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00). The same amount must accompany a petition concerning absentee voting. Said petition must set forth specific allegations of irregularities in certain polling locations or in the casting of absentee ballots. If said petition is filed in the manner herein provided, the justice shall hear and determine said issue in the same manner herein provided for a petition alleging fraud. Fees shall be used to defray actual costs.

Section 19-5-93. Proceedings where determination of contest impossible.

In the event, after a hearing is conducted, it is deemed impossible to determine who should be certified as the successful candidate, or which candidates are entitled to have their names appear on the runoff election ballot, the justice shall notify the chairman of the Election Commission of same. It shall then be the duty of the Election Commission chairman to notify the Principal Chief of said decision. The Principal Chief shall then order a new election as soon as is practical in the same manner as the contested election, with the identical candidates; provided that any candidate upon whom fraud has been proven shall not be a candidate in the new election; provided further, the above shall not apply to elections resulting in tie votes, which elections shall be determined as provided by section 10-5-72 of this Code.
