If elected to office, the candidate shall continuously maintain a bona fide permanent residence within the historic boundaries. Failure to meet this requirement shall subject the person to disqualification and removal from office.

◆ 33. Special Qualifications for Council.

In addition to the general qualifications set forth in Section 31 of this Title, the qualifications for Council member shall be as follows:

A. Age. The candidate shall have obtained the age of twenty-five (25) years of age at the time of the election.

B. Residence. The candidate shall have established a bona fide permanent residence in the district for which he or she is a candidate immediately preceding the day of the general primary election in which he or she is seeking election. Proof of a bona fide permanent residence shall be regulated by the Election Commission. If elected to office, the candidate shall maintain a bona fide permanent residence in the district which he or she represents. Failure to meet this requirement shall subject the person to disqualification and removal from office.

◆ 34. Establishment of Residency.

Proof of a bona fide permanent residence, necessary to qualify as a candidate for Council, Principal Chief, and Deputy Principal Chief shall be regulated by the Election Commission, subject to the following definitions and requirements:

A. Definition. Residence is synonymous with the term domicile or abode and means a place where the candidate has a true, fixed and permanent home, and to which, whenever absent, there is the intention of the person returning.

B. Verification. Verification of residence may be shown by one or more of the following documents, provided always that such documents show one or more addresses within the required geographic area for a continuous period in excess of 270 days:

1. Current driver's license(s).
2. Utility bill or bills.
3. Income tax return for the preceding year.
4. State or county voter's registration.
5. Homestead exemption.
6. A bona fide document evidencing such verification.

◆ 35. Filing fees generally.

A. Amount; Payment. A filing fee shall be charged each candidate filing for an elected office of the Cherokee Nation. Such fees are to be filed and paid to the Election Commission by cash, cashier's check, money order, or valid check at the Cherokee Nation Election Services Office, Tahlequah, Oklahoma. The fees shall be as follows:

Office of the Principal Chief $750

Office of the Deputy Principal Chief $500

Office of the Council $250

B. No Refund. No refund of filing fee shall be permitted for any reason even if the candidate withdraws voluntarily or is disqualified under the provisions of this law.

◆ 36. Filing of Candidacy; Certification-of-Eligibility; Withdrawal of Candidacy

A. Filing Period. The filing date shall be for a eight four (4) day period commencing at 8:00 a.m. on the first Monday of March of the election year and ending at 5:00 p.m. on the first Thursday following the first Monday second Wednesday of March. The deadline for filing for an elected office of the Cherokee Nation shall be publicized by the Election Commission.

B. Certifications and Acknowledgments. In order to be eligible to run for elective office, each prospective candidate shall submit an application established by the Election Commission, which at a minimum shall contain the following:

1. Proof of citizenship and membership by Indian blood consisting of his or her certificate of degree of Indian blood card and a Cherokee Nation membership card issued in his or her name in accordance with Article III of the Constitution and C.N.C.A. Title 11;

2. Proof of residency;

3. Proof of age;

4. Certification that at time of filing that he or she is not an employee of the Cherokee Nation, including any corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent owned by the Cherokee Nation, and acknowledgment that he or she understands that should he or she become an employee during the election process, he or she shall be automatically disqualified as a candidate;

5. Certification that if elected to office, said candidate shall resolve all conflicts of interest as defined by Title 28 of the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated;

6. Acknowledgment that said candidate shall be automatically disqualified in the event that any false or misleading information or statements are made in filing for office; and

7. Such other documents, certifications and acknowledgments required by regulation of the Election Commission.

C. Background Checks and Eligibility Certification. The Election Commission shall conduct background checks and review all information necessary for a determination of eligibility pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Commission. The Election Commission shall issue an official letter certifying the eligibility of each candidate or denying said eligibility, within twelve (12) working days after the close of the filing period.

D. Withdrawal of Candidacy. Any candidate who wishes to withdraw from the election shall have the opportunity to do so by providing a formal written notice to the Election Commission ten (10) working days after the deadline for filing.

◆ 37. Challenges.

A. Third Party Challenge of Eligibility. Any member of the Cherokee Nation registered eligible to vote shall have the right to contest the eligibility of any candidate to run for office. The protest shall be received by the Election Commission in writing within five (5) working days after the close of the filing period. The hearing shall be held in conformance with rules and regulations adopted by the Election Commission for the conduct of proceedings before the Election Commission. Such rules and regulations shall provide the candidate reasonable notice of the challenge and the opportunity to respond at a hearing before the Election Commission.

B. Eligibility Determination Appeals to Judicial Appeals Tribunal. An appeal of any decision of the Election Commission concerning eligibility shall be filed with the Judicial Appeals Tribunal in writing within five (5) days after receipt of Election Commission notice of denial or approval of eligibility for candidacy. Only the person denied eligibility or the person who originally filed a protest challenging the person's eligibility shall be allowed to file such an appeal. The Election Commission chairperson shall deliver copies of each appeal notice and related documents to the Judicial Appeals Tribunal in a timely manner as directed by the Tribunal.

C. Notice and Scheduling of Hearing. Within three working days of receipt by the Judicial Appeals Tribunal of an appeal of an Election Commission finding of candidate eligibility or ineligibility, the Tribunal shall issue notice of the hearing date to the parties, said hearing to be held no later than ten (10) working days from date of issuance of said notice. The hearing may be continued to a later designated date for good cause, provided that said date shall not be more than ten (10) working days from date of the originally scheduled hearing.

D. Conduct of Hearing; Decision. At the Judicial Appeals Tribunal hearing, the candidate who is the subject of the challenge, the third party challenging the finding of eligibility and the Election Commission may present testimony of witnesses and other evidence, as well as legal arguments. The Election Commission may be represented by the Election Commission's independent counsel; provided that no other attorney shall appear on behalf of the Cherokee Nation or on behalf of the executive or legislative branches at government expense; and provided further that the other parties to the proceedings may be represented by counsel at their own expense. The decision of the Appeals Tribunal shall be served on the parties no later than five days following the date of the hearing. The decision of the Judicial Appeals Tribunal regarding candidate eligibility shall be final.

◆ 38. Disqualification-of-Candidate Interference with and improper influences of the Election Commission.

Any candidate who directly or indirectly interferes or attempts to interfere with the Election Commission in the performance of its duties, or who improperly influences or attempts to influence the Election Commission in performing its duties, shall be permanently disqualified by the Election Commission from holding any running for elected office of the Cherokee Nation after hearing held in conformance with regulations adopted by the Election Commission for the conduct of proceedings before the Election Commission for the duration of the upcoming election period. Such regulations shall provide the candidate reasonable notice of the charges and the opportunity to respond at a hearing before the Election Commission, and shall specify the manner in which such charges shall be presented and by whom. Any candidate disqualified from holding office pursuant to this Section may appeal the Election Commission's disqualification decision by filing a written appeal with the Cherokee Nation Appeals Tribunal in conformance with the requirements of Section 37 B of this Title.

CHAPTER 5

Disclosure of Campaign Finances

◆ 41. Definitions.

For purposes of this Chapter of Title 26, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

1. Campaign contribution. "Campaign contribution" means a contribution to a candidate or political committee that is offered or given with the intent that it be used in connection with a campaign for elective office. Whether a contribution is made before, during, or after an election does not affect its status as a campaign contribution.

2. Campaign expenditure. "Campaign expenditure" means an expenditure made incurred by any person in connection with a campaign for an elective office. Whether an expenditure is made incurred before, during or after an election does not affect its status as a campaign expenditure.

3. Financial Agent. "Financial agent" means the person or persons designated and authorized by a candidate to accept contributions and make expenditures pay obligations related to the candidate's campaign pursuant to Section 42 of this Title.

4. Report. "Report" means a financial disclosure report required by this Chapter.

5. Legal Entity. "Legal Entity" means any associations or groups comprised of any combination of individuals or corporations that expresses interest by political activities, financial contributions or other methods of either support for or opposition to any candidate for any office in any Cherokee Nation Election.

◆ 42. Designation of Financial Agent; Filing; Penalty

No later than the filing date for an election, each candidate shall file with the Election Commission a statement containing the names and addresses of every person authorized as the candidate's financial agent by or through whom such candidate has expended or proposes to expend money in defraying the expenses of his or her campaign, or a statement that the candidate has not authorized and will not authorize any person to act for him or her, but that the candidate will in person account for all money or other things of value expended in the interest of his or her candidacy. The candidate will be allowed to amend the designation any time prior to the opening of the polls on the day set for the election. Should the candidate fail to file such statement, the Election Commission shall find the candidate in violation of this Section and shall assess the candidate a fine of $4-40. not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

◆ 43. Restrictions Related to Contributions.

A. Contributors Limited to Natural Persons. Contributions may only be made by natural persons. No corporation, partnership, and/or any other legal entity shall contribute to any Cherokee Nation campaign or candidate.

B. Contribution Amount Limits. No person shall contribute more than five-thousand dollars ($5000) in cash or in kind contribution to any one candidate during an election period,

C. Contributions on Behalf of Another; Contributions in Name of Minor; Reimbursements. No person shall knowingly make or authorize a campaign contribution or political expenditure in the name of or on behalf of another, unless the other's name is provided in order for the proper disclosure to be made. No contributions shall be made in the name of a minor. No person shall directly or indirectly reimburse another for a contribution to a candidate.

D. Prohibition Against Intimidation. No person, corporation or other legal entity shall use or threaten to use physical force, job discrimination, employment reprisal, employment reward, or financial reprisal to obtain money or any other thing of value for the purpose of influencing the result of an election or to assist an office holder.

◆ 44. Candidate Requirements related to Acceptance of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures

A. Period for Acceptance of Campaign Contributions. No officeholder, no candidate, no potential candidate for elective office and no financial agent shall receive campaign contributions prior to the beginning of the six month period immediately preceding the primary or special election date for the office sought by said candidate or potential candidate, or past the date which is six months immediately following said primary or special election date. Unless otherwise provided all campaign contributions shall include the name, address, occupation and the amount given by the individual.

B. No Personal Use of Contributions. No candidate or financial agent who receives a campaign contribution may convert the contribution to personal use, including any use that primarily furthers individual or family purposes not connected with the performance of duties or activities as a candidate for elective office. Left over contributions will be placed in an escrow account to be reserved for the cost of subsequent Cherokee Nation Elections.

C. Prohibition against Intimidation. No candidate or financial agent shall solicit or accept a contribution or make an expenditure by using anything of value secured by actual or threat of physical force, job discrimination, employment reprisal, employment reward, or financial reprisals;

D. Prohibition related to Cherokee Nation Employees. No candidate or financial agent shall solicit a contribution from an employee of the Cherokee Nation, including an employee of any corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent owned by the Cherokee Nation, in exchange for any advantage or promise of an advantage conditioned on making a contribution, or based on reprisal or threat of reprisal related to the failure to make a contribution.

E. Anonymous Contributions. ; No candidate or financial agent shall accept anonymous contributions exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000) in aggregate per election period. The recipient of total anonymous contributions of more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) shall not keep the amount which is in excess of one thousand dollars ($1000) ($5,000) $500, but shall, within two (2) business days of receipt of the contribution which causes the total anonymous contributions to exceed one thousand dollars ($1000) ($5000) $ 500, turn it over to the Election Commission for immediate deposit to an escrow account to be reserved for the cost of subsequent Cherokee Nation Elections.

F. Expenditure Records and Receipts. An expenditure of more than one hundred dollars ($100) for campaign purposes shall be made by written instrument drawn upon the campaign account containing the name of the candidate and the name of the recipient.

G. General Prohibition. No candidate or financial agent shall knowingly accept a campaign contribution or knowingly make or authorize political expenditures which the candidate or financial agent knows to have been made in violation of this Section or Section 43 of this Title.

($100) fine per occurrence.

♦ 45. Sanctions for Violations of Contribution and Expenditure Requirements and Prohibitions

A. Criminal Sanctions. Any candidate or other person who is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation or a member of any other federally recognized Indian tribe who has violated any requirement or prohibition in Sections 43 and 44 of this Title shall be guilty of a crime.

B. Civil Damages. Any candidate, other person, corporation or other legal entity who or which has knowingly made or accepted a campaign contribution or made a campaign expenditure on behalf of a candidate in violation of Sections 43 and 44 of this Title shall be liable to the Election Commission and to any party whose name appeared on the ballot in opposition to said candidate in the amount of double the value of the unlawful contribution or expenditure. Said damages shall be payable to each plaintiff filing suit in the Cherokee Nation District Court within six months of the final election date, upon a finding of a violation or violations by said Court, plus reasonable attorneys fees incurred in the suit. Reasonable attorneys fees incurred in a suit brought under this Sub-section may be awarded to the defendant if judgment is rendered in defendant's favor.

♦ 46. Financial Disclosure Report♦Forms; Time of Filing; Corrections; Late Filing; Failure to File

A. Report Forms; Certification. Each candidate filing for elective office of the Cherokee Nation shall file with the Election Commission a monthly and final financial disclosure report on forms approved by the Election Commission. The report shall include information for each of the financial agents named by the candidate pursuant to Section 42 of this Title. The Election Commission shall provide a reasonable number of such forms to the candidate at time to be determined by the Election Commission, and shall provide additional forms if requested by the candidate.

B. Time of Filing Monthly Report; Late Filing, Failure to File. Each candidate shall deliver a complete monthly financial disclosure report to the Election Commission at the Election Services Office beginning with a report for the month in which filing of candidacy for office occurred. The report shall be due on the 15th day and shall be delivered no later than the 20th day of the month following the month which is the subject of the report. In the event that the Election Commission has not received a monthly report by the 20th day of the month in which it was due, the Commission shall impose a fine in the amount of $100 on the candidate, and shall send a notice of the failure to meet the deadline and notice of the fine to the candidate by certified mail return receipt requested. Unless upon the showing of extenuating circumstances failure to file a report or filing of an incomplete report by the twentieth day of the month following the month in which it was due, or failure to meet the deadline for any two monthly reports, or failure to pay a fine by the date of election shall result in disqualification of the candidate by the Election Commission after notice and hearing, provided that said disqualification may be appealed to the Judicial Appeals Tribunal. The Election Commission shall expedite all such proceedings. Any outstanding fines from a previous Cherokee Nation Election must be paid before a person can be a candidate for a subsequent Cherokee Nation Election.

C. Time of Filing Final Report; candidate or his financial agent shall file a final financial disclosure report no later than five (5) days prior to the date for swearing in of the successful candidates. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes in any Cherokee Nation Election shall not be eligible to take office until the final report is filed.

D. Corrections; Revisions; Retention of Reports. The Election Commission shall give the candidate an opportunity to correct any deficiency or error in his or her reports. Any contributions received during the six months period following said election date shall be recorded on a revised final report to be filed no later than the first of the month following the expiration date of said six-month period. The reports shall be maintained by the Election Services Office, which shall preserve the reports in a secure location for at least five years, during which time they shall be a public record available for inspection and copying.

♦ 47. Financial Disclosure Report--Contents.

A. Contributions. With respect to contributions, the report shall include the name, occupation and mailing address of the source of each contribution.

B. Expenditures. The report shall detail expenditures in categories set forth on the report form, excluding filing fees, any interest earned on contributions, candidate's costs for necessary personal travel within the boundaries of the Cherokee Nation, and candidate's subsistence expenses. Payment made by a candidate or his or her financial agent from the candidate's own funds shall be included as expenditures for purposes of this Subsection, and may be shown as a loan from the candidate or may include any funds loaned to the candidate by a bank, savings and loan association or credit union and on his or her own behalf, which shall not be considered as contributions. All expenditure from loans shall specify the name of the lending institution, the date of the loans and the amount of the loans. The candidate may reimburse his or her personal funds from campaign contributions in the amount of the reported loan or loans.

C. Radio and Television Time. Where radio and television time is donated or offered on an equal basis to all qualified candidates for any particular office, said donation shall be reported by or on behalf of each candidate receiving the same, without assigning any cash value thereto.

D. No Financial Activities. If there has been no financial activity subject to the reporting requirements of this Section for the reporting period, the candidate and his or her financial agents shall so certify on the report.

E. Certification; Criminal Sanctions for Misrepresentation. Each financial disclosure report shall be certified by the candidate-and or his or her financial agents. A candidate or a candidate's financial agent who certifies a report and therein knowingly fails to fully disclose the information required in this Section as to any gift, promise, treat, reward, favor, or anything of value given or expended, is guilty of a crime. If a person convicted of a criminal violation under this Sub-section received the highest number of votes in the election, then he or she shall not hold the office and shall be barred for a period of five (5) years from holding any elective office of the Cherokee Nation. Where any person who has received the highest number of votes for any office is disqualified from holding said office, a special election shall be held to elect another person to hold such office.

CHAPTER 6

Conduct of Elections

ARTICLE I. GENERAL PROVISIONS ♦ 51. Official Election Dates; Notice

A. General election. The general primary election for elective offices shall be the fourth Saturday in June of the election year.

B. Runoff election. The runoff election for a general election shall be the fourth Saturday in July of the election year.

C. Special Election; Special Dates and Procedures. A special election shall be called in accordance with the Constitution by the Council for a specifically stated purpose or purposes. The Council shall determine the date for the primary election, and if necessary the date for a runoff election. Special elections shall be conducted in compliance with this Title, provided that the deadlines established in this Title for the following purposes may be changed and specially set by the Election Commission and confirmed by the Council to meet the particular needs related to a special election: the cut-off date for eligibility to vote in an election established in Section 21 of this Title, the deadline for providing voter lists to candidates established in Section 25 of this Title, the candidacy filing date established in ♦ 36 of this Title, the swearing-in date established in Section 51 of this Title, the absentee ballot request deadline and absentee ballot issuance dates established in Section 73 of this Title of this Title, and any other date which requires special setting. Special elections for Constitutional provisions may be conducted, if authorized by the Council, by mail-in vote.

D. Notice. Proper notice of each election date shall be given by the Election Commission.

E. Swearing in of elected officials. The swearing in of the successful candidates for elective office shall be August 14 of the election year.

♦ 52. Electioneering.

No person shall be allowed to electioneer inside any precinct or within three hundred (300) feet outside of the entrance to any precinct while an election is in authorized progress, nor shall any person or persons, except precinct officials and other persons authorized by law, be allowed to approach the ballot box while an election is in progress. Prohibited activities within the prescribed area by a candidate or other persons on election day which might reasonably be construed as electioneering shall include the following: wearing any article of clothing with any candidate's name or office on it or holding any article with any candidate's name or office on it; or distribution or display of any written materials, campaign literature or campaign items of any kind or nature within the prescribed area, other than that provided by the Election Commission. Persons engaging in electioneering shall be subject to removal by local law enforcement and/or the Cherokee Nation Marshal Service at the request of the appropriate official precinct inspector. The Election Commission shall promulgate regulations governing electioneering.

♦ 53. Watchers.

A. Primary Election. Candidates in a primary election for the office of the Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief, and each candidate for the Council may submit up to four names as their designated watchers at each precinct within a time to be prescribed by the Election Commission.

B. Runoff Election. In the event of a runoff election, candidates in the runoff election may submit up to four names as their designated watchers at each precinct within five (5) working days from date of certification of results of the primary election;

C. Selection of Watchers. No candidate for any election elective office in the Cherokee Nation shall be a watcher. The selection of the watchers and their designated precincts shall be by random drawing of names submitted by candidates for each respective district to be assigned within those districts. The Election Commission may invite watchers for any precincts in any elections. The Election Commission shall have the sole authority to determine the number of watchers in any given precinct. A selection of five absentee watchers and two alternate watchers shall be made for each day that absentee declarations are examined prior to election day and for election day. No person shall serve as an absentee watcher for more than one day. The selection of absentee watchers and alternates shall be by random drawing of five names from the balance of names submitted by the candidates pursuant to Sub-sections A and B of this Section until the names of five watchers and two alternate watchers have been drawn.

D. Duties of Watchers. Watchers shall be entitled to observe the ballot box, including a counting device and all printouts from the counting device, before the precincts are opened, during voting, and after the precincts are closed. Watchers may be commissioned to observe counting device testing and to accompany personnel assigned to repair or maintain machines during the period of the election. In such case, the watchers shall be limited to observing the repair or maintenance work being performed and making a written record of such work.

ARTICLE 2. VOTING GENERALLY

♦ 61. Precinct and Hours; Notice.

The Election Commission shall establish the location of each precinct, subject to approval by Council resolution. The Election Commission shall promulgate regulations listing the approved locations for precincts, provided that said regulatory provisions listing approved locations may be amended, if needed. Each precinct shall be open during the hours from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on the day of the election. The Election Commission shall publicize the location of each precinct.

♦ 62. Manner of Voting Generally

A. Secret Ballot. Voting shall be by secret ballot.

B. Procedure for Voting in Person. Except as provided in Section 78 of this Title or as otherwise provided, any registered voter may vote by appearing at his or her designated precinct, announcing to precinct officials his or her name and address, signing the registry, marking a ballot and placing in the ballot box or counting device.

C. Absentee Ballot. Any registered voter may at his or her request vote by absentee ballot as prescribed in Article 3 of this Chapter.

D. In person absentee voting:

Any voter may vote by an in-person absentee ballot at the Election Commission Office located at Tahlequah, Oklahoma from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday immediately proceeding any election provided for by this Act. As part of the application for an in-person absentee ballot such voter shall swear or affirm that he or she has not voted a regular mail absentee ballot and that he or she will not vote at the regular polling place in the election for which the in-person absentee ballot is requested. Any voter who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a crime.

The Election Commission shall develop rules and procedures to carry out the requirements of this section.

♦ 63. Voting by Persons with Physical Disabilities or Language Barriers.

A. Inability to Mark Ballot If a voter appears at his or her precinct and states that he or she, because of a physical disability or infirmity or language barrier, is unable to mark a ballot, the inspector shall recite the following oath: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you are unable to mark your ballot for voting because of a (name of appropriate disability)." After taking the oath, the voter shall be permitted to be assisted by any person of his or her choice, at least eighteen (18) years of age, in voting his or her ballot.

B. Inability to Enter Building If a voter is unable to enter the building due to physical disability or infirmity, he or she must send someone inside the precinct to inform a precinct official. Upon notification, the inspector shall go to the voter in the parking area of the precinct, and recite the following oath: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you are unable to enter the precinct because of a (name of appropriate disability)." A precinct official shall accompany the inspector with appropriate materials and a ballot, shall present the ballot to the voter after the voter has taken the oath. The voter may then mark his or her ballot, and return it to the precinct official, who shall deposit it in the ballot box or counting device inside without viewing the ballot.

C. Witness. All special assistance described herein shall be witnessed by the precinct inspector.

◆ 64. Challenged Ballots

A. Voting Procedure. If the precinct Qualified Voter List does not contain a voter's name, or if a precinct official should challenge the voter's right to vote for other reasons, said voter shall be allowed to vote only if the voter completes a voter registration application for a residence address within the county and signs a statement affidavit swearing or affirming that the voter is currently registered eligible to vote in said precinct and has not already cast a regular or absentee ballot for said election.

B. Preservation and Counting. Each challenged ballot shall be placed in a secrecy envelope attached to the voter registration application voter affiliation form and statement affidavit executed by the voter. Challenged ballots shall not be counted at the time the ballots are cast, but shall be maintained in a separate box marked "challenged ballot box." Following the close of the election, precinct officials designated by Election Commission regulation shall determine whether the person who cast a challenged ballot was entitled to vote in the precinct where the ballot was cast. If the person was so entitled, the ballot will be opened and counted and returned to the challenged ballot box and totaled with other votes before certification of the election. If the person was not so entitled, the ballot will not be counted, but will be returned to the challenged ballot box.

◆ 65. Spoiled Ballots

Should a voter spoil any ballot in his or her effort to mark the same, he or she shall fold the ballot and return it to the clerk. The clerk shall destroy fold-said ballot or ballots in the presence of the voter and shall issue said voter another ballot in the same manner that the first one was provided. The voter shall execute a statement affidavit prescribed by the Election Commission in which the voter swears or affirms that he or she spoiled his or her original ballot or ballots, returned said ballot or ballots to the clerk, that the clerk destroyed folded the ballot or ballots in his or her presence and that he or she was issued a new ballot or ballots.

◆ 66. Mutilated Ballots

In the event a ballot is mutilated by the counting device and thus not counted during the counting process, then two precinct officials shall be authorized to mark a substitute ballot in identical fashion, insofar as is possible. In the event a ballot is mutilated to such an extent that the two members cannot agree upon how it was marked, it shall be invalidated. Once so marked, the substitute ballot shall be entered for counting into the counting device. A written record of such action shall be made by the two precinct officials.

ARTICLE 3. ABSENTEE VOTING ◆ 71. Allowance of Absentee Voting.

Absentee voting shall be allowed upon timely written request by a registered voter of the Cherokee Nation in compliance with the requirements of this Article.

◆ 72. Requests for Absentee Ballots Generally.

A registered voter of the Cherokee Nation who is unable to vote in person at his or her precinct may request an absentee ballot from the Election Commission. The request shall be in writing, preferably on a form prescribed by the Election Commission, and shall contain the following information:

1. Name;
2. Date of birth;
3. Address;
4. Cherokee Nation membership registration number; and 5. Signature.

◆ 73. Time for Filing of Requests for Absentee Ballots; Furnishing of Ballots Generally.

A. Timelines. Registered Voters may request absentee ballots by mail or in person at the Election Services Office from the first Monday in February until the second Friday in May of the election year. Absentee ballots shall be mailed to persons requesting the ballot in a two-day period starting on the last Monday in May of the election year and ending on the Tuesday immediately following said Monday.

B. Runoff. In the event of a runoff, the Election Services Office shall automatically send an absentee ballot to all registered voters who were sent an absentee ballot for the primary election, except for registered voters whose absentee ballots in the primary were returned unopened due to bad addresses. Absentee ballot requests for a runoff election by persons who did not vote by absentee ballot in the general election must be received by the Election Services Office by the third Monday of June of the election year. Absentee ballots for a runoff shall be mailed to persons requesting the ballot during a two-day period starting on the last Monday in June of the election year and ending on the Tuesday immediately following said Monday.

C. Limitation. No more than one absentee ballot request per individual number signature for each election date shall be accepted.

◆ 74. Procedure upon Rejection of Application for Absentee Ballot.

In the event an application for an absentee ballot is rejected for any reason, the Election Commission chairperson shall immediately notify said voter in writing of the rejection and the reason therefore.

◆ 75. Transmittal of Ballots to Voters Generally; Preparation of Record of Ballots Issued.

When the Election Commission receives an absentee ballot request, it shall be the duty of the Election Commission to verify the registration affiliation of said voter and to transmit the ballot which said voter requested after said verification. A record shall be made of all absentee ballots issued, with the name, date of birth, voter's Cherokee Nation membership registration number, date of issuance and address of the voter to whom it was issued.

◆ 76. Form of Absentee Ballots.

Absentee ballots shall be identical to the ballots used in precinct voting but shall be stamped absentee ballot.

◆ 77. Material to Accompany Absentee Ballots Generally.

A. Declaration Affidavit. Each absentee ballot or set of ballots shall be accompanied by a declaration affidavit containing statements that the voter is qualified to vote, that the voter has personally marked the ballots, or in the case of a disability or illiteracy, has caused the ballot to be marked in accordance with his or her wishes, and that he or she has not exhibited the marked ballot to any other person, and containing any other statements required by Election Commission regulations and designed to ensure the integrity of the absentee voting process;

B. Secrecy Envelopes. Each absentee ballot or set of ballots shall be accompanied by envelopes designed to ensure the secrecy of the ballot, including an inner secrecy envelope for the ballot, designed to be devoid of any identifying information at the time of opening, and a return envelope addressed to the Election Commission.

C. Instructions. Each absentee ballot or set of ballots shall be accompanied by instructions for voting by absentee ballot, prescribed by the Election Commission.

◆ 78. Return of Absentee Ballots by Mail; Absentee Voting in Person; Early Voting in Person Allowed

A voter shall be required to mark his ballot in ink; in permanent mark seal the ballot in the secrecy envelope; fill out completely and sign the declaration affidavit or statement in the presence of a notary public; and return the documents in the return envelope via the United States mail to the Election Commission. Only those absentee ballots which are mailed to the Election Commission and which reach the Election Commission post office box in Tahlequah, Oklahoma no later than 7:00 p.m. on election day shall be counted; provided that personal delivery of an absentee ballot shall be accepted from the Wednesday prior to election day until election day only if the voter or a person designated by the voter delivers the ballot to the Election Services Office between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. during those four days. Voting in person at a precinct by a voter who has requested and received an absentee ballot shall not be permitted; but a voter who claims he or she never received an absentee ballot may cast a challenged ballot as set forth in Section 64 of this Title.

Voters may also vote in person at the Election Commission at in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, from the Wednesday prior to Election Day until Election Day between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

◆ 79. Handling of Returned Absentee Ballots Generally.

Upon receipt an absentee ballot shall be placed in a secured absentee ballot box located at the post office. The absentee ballots shall be removed from the post office and taken to the Election Services Office by the Election Commission or their designees at the appropriate time to be verified and counted for the election.

94. Recounts.

A. Person Authorized to Request Recount. In elections for office, only the defeated candidate shall be permitted to request a recount. For elections on issues or questions when no candidate is involved, recounts shall be authorized only when a registered voter who participated in the election presents a petition signed by a number of registered voters who participated in the election equal to one percent (1%) or more of the total votes cast for and against the issue.

B. Request for Recount; Notice. A written request for recount of any election results, including appeals of special elections on constitutional amendments, must be filed with the Election Commission chairperson at the Election Services Office no later than 5:00 p.m. on the first Wednesday following the election. The person filing the request shall serve a copy of the request on other candidates for the race in which the person was a candidate. When possible, service shall be made by personal delivery or facsimile transmission on date of filing; but if such service is not possible, service shall be made by mailing on date of filing.

C. Filing Fee When Recount Sought. The request for recount shall be accompanied by a fee in the amount of $00. $750 per district for which a recount is requested, and $400 $750 for recount of absentee ballots. Fees shall be paid by cash, cashier's check, money order, or check made payable to the Election Commission. Said fees shall be non-refundable if a recount is conducted. If a recount is not conducted due to a finding by the Judicial Appeals Tribunal that the ballots were not properly preserved, then the fee shall be refunded.

D. Location of Recount. The recount shall be conducted in the Cherokee Nation Council chambers or other appropriate facilities as determined by the Election Commission.

E. Time for Recount. The recount shall occur no later than the first Friday following the election date.

F. Judicial Appeals Tribunal Determination Preservation of Ballots Prior to Recount. It shall be the duty of the Judicial Appeals Tribunal to attend all recounts. Prior to the recount, the Judicial Appeals Tribunal shall hear evidence as to whether the appropriate office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs located at Muskogee Oklahoma of the election outcome by certified mail return receipt requested. ballots have been preserved by the Election Commission in the manner prescribed by law; whether they are the identical ballots cast by the voters; and whether the ballots have been exposed to the reach of unauthorized persons so as to afford a reasonable opportunity for tampering with or changing the ballots. The judgment of said Court upon such question shall be final and conclusive.

G. Conduct of Recount. If the judgment of the Court is that the ballots have been properly preserved, then the actual, physical recount of the ballots shall be conducted immediately thereafter under the exclusive supervision of the Election Commission. The Election Commission shall conduct the recount, and shall select and supervise persons performing recount functions; provided that no employees of the Cherokee Nation, except for staff of the Election Commission, no employee of a corporation, agency or other entity which is at least fifty-one percent owned by the Cherokee Nation, and no Cherokee Nation official shall be used for a recount. The candidate seeking the recount and all other candidates for the elective office involved in the recount, or their designated representatives, shall be permitted to attend the recount. Once the actual physical recount is commenced under the supervision of the Election Commission, the Judicial Appeals Tribunal will limit its role to answering questions which arise concerning tribal law and insure that tribal law is followed.

H. Automatic Appeal Where Recount Not Possible. If the Judicial Appeals Tribunal cannot determine that the ballots have been properly preserved, then no recount shall be conducted, and the fees paid by the candidate seeking the recount shall be refunded. The candidate may allege the failure of the Election Commission to properly preserve the ballots as partial grounds, but not the sole basis, for an election appeal, provided that the appeal is filed no later than the second Monday following the election date, and provided further that all other requirements of Section 101 of this Title shall be met.

I. Recount Results. Following the recount, the Election Commission shall verbally announce the number of votes in favor of each candidate or referendum question, and the number of votes opposed to each candidate or referendum question. When the Election Commission prepares the final certificate of votes, the figures obtained during the recount shall be controlling over earlier figures if said earlier figures were different, and each member shall certify on the original certificate that a recount was held, the date of the recount, and that the Election Commission and the Judicial Appeals Tribunal confirmed the accuracy of the results. The certified recount results shall be the final official election results, and no further recounts shall be held.

♦ 95. Runoffs.

A. Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief. There shall be a runoff for the offices of Principal Chief and Deputy Principal Chief for the two top candidates in each of the respective offices unless one candidate for each of the respective positions should obtain a simple majority of votes, comprised of more than fifty (50) percent of the total votes cast for the respective office.

B. Council Districts with Seats. In Council elections there shall be a runoff for the two top candidates for the particular seat unless one candidate should obtain a simple majority of votes, comprised of more than fifty (50) percent of the total votes cast for the respective seat.

E. Tied Council Runoff Elections. In any Council election race where a runoff results in a tie, the final winner shall be selected by lot. The Election Commission secretary shall, in full view of those present, clearly write or print the name of each tied candidate on separate pieces of paper which are identical in color and size, and fold each paper so that the names are not visible. The secretary shall place the papers in a container selected by the Election Commission. The Election Commission chairperson or his or her designee shall draw one paper and the name of the candidate on that paper shall be declared the winner. The secretary shall then expose the other name or names not drawn to all witnesses present. The drawing shall occur at a public Election Commission meeting in the presence of the candidates involved or their designees.

ARTICLE 5. CHALLENGES TO ELECTION RESULTS ♦ 101. Procedure for Election Appeals Generally.

A. Person Authorized to Appeal. In appeals of elections for office, only the defeated candidate shall be permitted to file an appeal. For elections on issues or questions when no candidate is involved, recounts shall be authorized only when a registered voter who participated in the election presents a petition signed by a number of registered voters who participated in the election equal to one percent (1%) or more of the total votes cast for and against the issue.

B. Filing Fees. An appeal petition shall not be accepted for filing unless accompanied by a non-refundable fee in the form of either a cashier's check or money order in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00). Fees shall be used to defray actual costs. Fees must be paid from personal or campaign funds, and may not be paid from funds of the Cherokee Nation nor any of its entities.

C. Bond for Petition Alleging Fraudulent Voting. When a petition alleging fraudulent voting is filed, said petition must be accompanied by a cash bond of five hundred dollars ($500.00) if fraudulent precinct voting is alleged, and a separate cash bond in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) if fraudulent absentee voting is alleged. Said bond shall be for purposes of guaranteeing payment of any and all liabilities or judgments arising from the contest so filed.

D. Appeal Petition. An appeal petition challenging the validity of an election outcome, including appeals of special referendum elections, must be filed with the Judicial Appeals Tribunal no later than the second Monday following the election date which is the subject of the appeal. The petition must be in writing and must include the petitioner's name, address and Cherokee Nation registration number; the relief requested; and specific statement regarding each alleged violation of this Title herein or of any election procedures adopted by the Election Commission in force at the time of the alleged violation, including the date of the alleged violations, the identity of the person or persons involved in the alleged violations, and the precinct where the violation occurred. If fraudulent voting is alleged, the petition shall also specify the specific acts constituting the alleged fraud, identify each precinct where the alleged fraud occurred, estimated number of fraudulent votes cast at each specified precinct location, and if fraudulent absentee ballot voting is alleged, shall also specify the specific acts constituting the alleged fraud, and estimated number of fraudulent votes cast by absentee ballot. If the appeal petition does not contain the required information, or if the allegations do not allege sufficient violations to affect an election outcome, the petition shall be deemed frivolous by the Judicial Appeals Tribunal and shall be dismissed.

E. Answer; Scheduling of Hearing. The Election Commission shall file a complete copy of all documentation from the underlying proceedings, including a transcription with the Judicial Appeals Tribunal. The , Judicial Appeals Tribunal shall set the matter for hearing on a date no later than three (3) days from date of filing of the petition; provided that the hearing may be continued to a later designated date for good cause not more than three (3) days from date of the originally scheduled hearing.

The Tribunal shall mail notice of hearing to the petitioner, the Election Commission and any other parties to the proceeding; provided that if possible a copy shall be personally delivered or sent by facsimile transmission on the date the notice is filed.

♦102. Conduct of Appeal Hearings.

All election appeal hearings held by the Judicial Appeals Tribunal shall be governed by the following rules of procedure, which shall supersede all inconsistent general rules of procedure established by the Judicial Appeals Tribunal and which shall supersede all special rules established by the Judicial Appeals Tribunal specifically related to election controversies of any nature:

A. Legal Counsel. The petitioner may be represented by counsel at his own expense; no Cherokee Nation funds shall be used for legal fees of a person challenging an election and The Election Commission may be represented by its designated legal counsel.

B. Hearing. . The Judicial Appeals Tribunal shall consider the record on appeal provided by the Commission, and may consider any additional evidence which it deems relevant to a determination on the merits. The Tribunal shall hear oral arguments consistent with the conduct of civil appellate proceedings A stenographic record of the proceedings and testimony shall be required.

C. Burden of Proof. The decision shall require the invalidation of election results and a new election only if the petitioner proves beyond a reasonable doubt that substantial violations of this Title or of any election procedures adopted by the Election Commission in force at the time of the alleged violations occurred and that said violations affected or had a strong likelihood of affecting the election outcome.

D. Decision. The Judicial Appeals Tribunal's decision may be verbally announced after the Tribunal retires and reaches its decision. The decision shall be placed in writing, and each Tribunal member shall indicate his agreement or disagreement with the decision by his signature in the appropriate place on the decision. The decision shall be issued no later than two (2) days following the date of the hearing and shall be served on the parties by mail, facsimile transmission or in person. The decision shall include appropriate relief based on the alleged violation. Such relief may include the following: validation or correction of voting results; validation or correction of election outcomes, including an order that the petitioner is lawfully entitled to have his or her name appear on the runoff ballot or an order certifying a candidate as the successful candidate; or invalidation of the election for a specific office or offices, and requirement of a new election, in those cases where it is impossible to determine the correct election outcome with mathematical certainty. In any case where fraud is proven on the part of a candidate, the candidate shall be declared ineligible for the office for which he or she was a candidate. The decision of the Judicial Appeals Tribunal shall be final.

E. Civil Liability of Unsuccessful Petitioner Who Alleged Fraud. In all cases where a petition is filed which alleges fraud, but after hearing said allegations are not reasonably sustained by competent evidence, the petitioner shall be civilly liable in damages to the Election Commission and to any candidate affected by said claims if a party to the proceeding, and for all damages sustained, including a reasonable attorney fee and all reasonable and proper costs of conducting such contest.

♦ 103. New Election Where Determination of Contest Impossible.

In the event that on appeal the Judicial Appeals Tribunal rules that an election for a particular office or offices is invalid, the Election Commission chairperson shall notify the Principal Chief of said decision. The Principal Chief shall then order a new election as soon as is practical in the same manner as the contested election, with the identical candidates; provided that any candidate upon whom fraud has been proven shall not be a candidate in the new election; provided further, the above shall not apply to elections resulting in tie votes, which elections shall be determined as provided by Section 95 E of this Title.

SECTION TWO. SEVERABILITY. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT ARE SEVERABLE AND IF ANY PART OR PROVISION HEREOF SHALL BE HELD VOID THE DECISION OF THE COURT SO HOLDING SHALL NOT AFFECT OR IMPAIR ANY OF THE REMAINING PARTS OR PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT.

SECTION THREE. IT BEING IMMEDIATELY NECESSARY FOR THE WELFARE OF THE CHEROKEE NATION, THE COUNCIL HEREBY DECLARES THAT AN EMERGENCY EXISTS, BY REASON WHEREOF THIS ACT SHALL TAKE EFFECT AND BE IN FULL FORCE AFTER ITS PASSAGE AND APPROVAL.
