ACT RELATING TO APPEAL A FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT DECISION IMPACTING THE SOVEREIGNTY OF THE CHEROKEE NATION AND THE 566 OTHER TRIBES ACROSS THE UNITED STATES AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY
BE IT ENACTED BY THE CHEROKEE NATION:

Section 1. Title and Codification

This act shall be known as the 2017 Sovereignty Protection Act and codified as _____ (Title) _____ (Section) _____ of the Cherokee Nation Code Annotated.

Section 2. Purpose

The purpose of this enactment is to require the Attorney General to appeal Cherokee Nation v. Nash, NDDC, Civil Action No. 13-0313 and any other case impacting the sovereignty of the Cherokee Nation to determine its own citizenship.

Section 3. Legislative History

A. In Cherokee Nation v. Nash, NDDC, Civil Action No. 13-0313, the federal District Court for the Washington DC District issued a Memorandum Opinion August 30, 2017 which diminished the right of the Cherokee people to determine citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

B. The most fundamental and sacred aspect of sovereignty of any nation is that its people have the right to decide who is entitled to enrollment for citizenship. "The Act of Union of 1839." provides in part:

Whereas our Fathers have existed, as a separate and distinct Nation, in the possession and exercise of the essential and appropriate attributes of sovereignty, from a period extending into antiquity, beyond the records and memory of man. . . "

C. In its Memorandum Opinion dated August 30, 2017, the federal district court in Nash held that a post American Civil War 1866 Treaty between the United States and the Cherokee Nation provided a federal treaty right to descendants of Freedmen to currently enroll as Cherokee Nation citizens, although they are not eligible under the Cherokee Nation Constitution.

D. In 2011, the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court held Cherokee Nation Registrar v. Nash, SC-2011-02 the 2007 Constitutional Amendment was the expression of the Cherokee people was binding on the entire Cherokee Nation including the Principal Chief. The Cherokee Nation Supreme Court held:

This Court has previously held in Allen v. Cherokee Nation, JAT-04-09 (March 7, 2006) that the Cherokee people do have the right to make citizenship determination (whether to exclude Freedman (sic) and intermarried white descendants) for themselves.

E. As a result, over 2000 Cherokees signed a petition to bring a constitutional amendment for the people's vote to clarify the restriction, which was passed by over 70%.

F. In the 2011 Nash case, the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court clearly stated,
The latest sovereign expression of the Cherokee people concerning the Freedmen is found in their amendment dated March 3, 2007, to the Cherokee Nation Constitution. Opinion at page 7.

G. In Nash, the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court further held:
It stands to reason that if the Cherokee people had the right to define the Cherokee Nation citizenship in the above mentioned 1866 Constitutional Amendment they would have the sovereign right to change the definition of the Cherokee Nation citizenship in their sovereign expression in the March 3, 2007 Constitutional Amendment. Opinion at page 8.

H. The Attorney General, Principal Chief, Deputy Principal Chief and Council took an Oath of Office to defend the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation and enforce decisions of the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court. See Cherokee Nation Constitution Article VI, Section 14.

I. The will of the Cherokee people was expressed clearly when they passed the 2007 Constitutional amendment (by 70%) to limit enrollment to Cherokee Nation citizenship to those persons with an Indian ancestor on the base roll.

J. The Attorney General Act, 51 CNCA 105 A. 16. limits the Attorney General's authority, "To settle any case or controversy on behalf of the Nation, except that a settlement involving injunctive relief which substantially impacts the operation or programs of a Nation agency or would impose obligations requiring the expenditure of funds in excess of unallocated unencumbered monies in the agency's appropriations or beyond the current fiscal year shall be reviewed prior to its finalization by the Principal Chief and the Tribal Council. The purpose of the review is to determine the budgetary, programmatic and operational impact of the proposed settlement."

K. The Council enacted Resolution -22-09 (3/23/2009) which provided, "BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CHEROKEE NATION, that litigation is hereby ratified in Cherokee Nation v. Nash, et al., Case No. 09 CV-052 (TCK) in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and that the Attorney General is authorized to take such action as necessary to pursue such litigation and ensure that the Nation's interests are fully represented."

L. Attorney General Hembree, Principal Chief Baker, and Deputy Principal Chief Crittenden failed to defend the 2007 Constitutional Amendment and the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court's 2011 decision in Nash by refusing to appeal. Cherokee Nation v. Nash, NDDC, Civil Action No. 13-0313.

M. In 2012, in response to the Cherokee Nation Rules Committee questioning Hembree about his nomination as Attorney General, he assured the Committee he would defend the 2003 Constitution and would represent the will of the Cherokee people by their vote on the 2007 Constitutional amendment in the federal courts to the "greatest degree possible."
